Philo Wins Unanimous Decision Of Judges In Debating Contest

Florence Davis Honored by First Prize; Second Honors Awarded to Carolyn Cox

SMALL ORCHESTRA FURNISHES MUSIC

Philo debaters scored a victory last Friday evening when they won from the Normal Society debaters on the question, "Resolved: That the United States should enter the League of Nations immediately."

The debate was hotly but rather unevenly contested, Philo winning the votes of all three judges. Since Philo proved that the United States should not enter the League, the world is still at a loss to know what to do on this important question.

Both teams presented their arguments in a creditable manner, although the negative orators showed superior organization of material. The rebuttal on both sides was rather poor, considering the excellence of the main addresses. The first prize was awarded to Miss Florence Davis '23, and the second prize to Miss Carolyn Cox '23. Speaking for Normal were, Miss Ethel Barr '23, Katherine Wilson '23, Carolyn Cox '23 and Ralph Heiges '23, alternate. Those representing Philo were, Miss Florence Davis '23, Miss Helen Miller '24, Mitchell Dreese '23 and Miss Margaret Lehman '25, alternate.

The judges were, Hon. H. C. Clippinger, Hon. John W. Hoke, and the Rev. Irwin Hendricks, all of Chambersburg, Pa. The time of the main argument was twelve minutes, the rebuttal five, with an interval between the two, of ten minutes. Music was furnished by the school orchestra under the direction of Prof. D. O. Slyter.

MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS TO FURNISH MUSIC AT COMMENCEMENT

The various musical organizations of C. V. S. N. S. including the band, orchestra, Girls' Choral Society, and Boys' Chorus will furnish the music for Commencement week. In previous years the Updegrave orchestra has been secured to provide music for Class day and Commencement exercises, but this year the musical organizations of the school have worked so diligently and raised themselves to such a high standard that they are entirely capable of rendering this service to the school.

Prof. D. O. Slyter has submitted the following program: Monday evening, June eleventh, a musical entertainment will be given in which all the members of all the musical organizations will participate. Tuesday morning a picked orchestra will play for the Class Day Exercises. Tuesday afternoon, the band will lead the Alumni parade. Tuesday evening all the musical organizations will take part in the Community Song Service. Later in the evening a picked orchestra will furnish music for the Commencement play.

Wednesday morning the orchestra will play for the Commencement exercises.

CORRECTION

We wish to correct an error in an item that appeared in the Alumni Column of the CAMPUS REFLECTOR three weeks ago stating that Wimburt Neely '22 had resigned from his position in the Gettysburg Bank. Mr. Neely has accepted a position in a bank but he has not resigned his position as a teacher. He will begin his duties in the bank after he has completed this year as a teacher.

PHILO WILL PRESENT PLAY ENTITLED 'THE SUN' TONIGHT

Walker Nelson to Play in Leading Part as "The Man"

GUESSING CONTEST TO APPEAR

To-night at Philo, the main features will be a play, "The Sun." Walker Nelson '23 will take the leading part, as "the man." He will be aided by Harry Rice '24, as "the soldier" and Miss Sophie Reiter '24, as "the girl." All the characters are easily qualified to take their parts, as was shown by their work in the past.

The musical side of the program will be well taken care of by a Glee Club selection; piano duet; Miss Mary Holloway '24, chairman; and instrumental music, Jesse Snyder '23, chairman.

Another item on the program is the "Guessing Contest" in charge of Miss Genivieve Mitchell '24. This is a novelty in Philo and is looked forward to with great interest as no one knows exactly what Miss Mitchell is planning.

The individual numbers will be a discussion by John Brougher '23, biographical sketch of Jefferson by Miss Florence Cooper, '23, and the Philo Review by Lester Daihl '23.

REJECT HONOR SYSTEM BY VOTE OF 102 TO 89

Girls Also Nominate Student Council Officers

The proposed honor system of student government for the girls was rejected at a mass meeting held in the Auditorium last evening by a vote of 102 to 89. A heated and lengthy discussion followed the introduction of the proposition. Both champions and opponents of the measure were eager to give their views and some fine arguments resulted.

Another important item of business before the meeting was the nomination of officers for next year's student council. The nominations were as follows:

President, Miss Helen Miller, Miss Blanche Straley, Miss Louise Swartz and Miss Reba Shue; for Vice-President, Miss Sara Rider, Miss Ethel McCormick, and Miss Helen Andrews; for Secretary, Miss Ann Sourber, Miss Eliza Russel, Miss Ruth Frank and Miss Thelma Heckman; for Treasurer, Miss Mildred Brennehan, Miss Decker and Miss Emma Gross. The election will be held at a later meeting.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF C. V. S. N. S. CELEBRATED

Mrs. H. Wylie Stewart Reads History of School

EARLY TRUSTEES PRESENT

The fiftieth anniversary of the official opening of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School at Shippensburg was celebrated on last Tuesday at the chapel exercises. Although the school opened its doors April 15, 1873, the observance of this event was postponed until the seventeenth so that it might be held during the regular Tuesday chapel hour.

The loyalty of the student body to their school could not be doubted as they sang the "Alma Mater." Dr. Lehman read as a scripture lesson the same chapter of Proverbs which was used in the first chapel exercises fifty years ago. Mrs. Harriet W. Stewart read a brief history of the school which dealt mainly with the struggles, successes and the humorous, yet pathetic instances which marked the early years of the school's career. She mentioned various outstanding people who had done much for the success of the school, some of whom were later to speak to the students. The section of Mrs. Stewart's paper which outlined the regulations governing the students of fifty years ago was interesting to the present student body.

Rev. Dr. Wylie offered the morning prayer, and later told us some of the past events of our school's existence. He emphasized especially the spirit of sacrifice which has always characterized those to whom the progress of our school is due. He admonished us to live up to the high standard set by those who have preceded us.

Dr. Eldon, Mr. Boher, and Mr. George Stewart, all known and respected because of their long connection with the school, were present and spoke briefly concerning their earlier recollections of the school.

The reminiscences of these men formed a clear description of the appearance of the campus, the living conditions, the size of the student body, the quality of the academic requirements, and the ability of the various faculties. Dr. Eldon related that in the earlier days, two faculty members exchanged departments without a moment's hesitation since that was the day of an all round classical training on the part of every teacher.

There was not enough time for individual cheers, so all the loyalty and appreciation of the school, its faculties, and former students were expressed in one hearty yell for old Shippensburg.

EVERYTHING READY FOR PRESS CLUB SOCIAL TOMORROW NIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the Press Club Dance tomorrow night. Committees in charge promise that this, the only exclusive dance of the year, shall be also the best. The music for the hundred odd merrymakers who are expected to be present will be furnished by a part of the Harold Neusbaum Orchestra of Carlisle.

As to refreshments, Miss McKee, chairman of the committee, says, "We are going to surprise them." We have been surprised at quite a number of the social affairs this year so that it is altogether probable that Miss McKee's statement will prove true.

The bell for the affair will ring at 7 P. M., when the guests will troop to the gym. Miss Demaree will be in attendance in the capacity of chaperone. At 10:30 P. M. all will end.

We admire any one who is cheerful at his work, but a dentist who sings while he works gets on our nerve.

NORMALITES TO HEAR DEBATE ON GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

"Snaps of C. V. S. N. S." Innovation by Ralph Heiges

VOCAL DUET TO BE GIVEN

The question "Resolved: That the Government should own and control the coal mines," will be debated at Normal this evening. The affirmative will be upheld by Paul Mehring '23 and Andrew Sterner '23 while the fight for the negative will be made by Miss Mirian Aurdant '23 and Miss Gertrude Griffith '24. This is a question of great importance and we are looking forward to a lively debate. "Snaps of C. V. S. N. S." by Ralph Heiges is a new feature on the program and promises to be clever and interesting.

A humorous recitation by William Hudson '24 will complete the literary part of the program. The musical numbers will be music by the Glee Club and a vocal duet by Miss Susan Gardner '23 and Miss Alise Shelhase '23.

Miss Kathleen Gibbons '23 will present the Gazette.

SHIPPENSBURG TO MEET KUTZTOWN ON DIAMOND

Will be First Inter-Normal Game—Harbaugh to Pitch

The Kutztown Normal baseball team will cross bats with Shippensburg tomorrow on Eckels Field at 2:30 p. m. Interest in this contest should run high as this is the first Normal game of the season. The Keystoneers are in the same league section as the Cumberland Valley team and their defeat will be the first step toward holding the championship which the Red and Blue captured last year. Coach Sharadin's proteges won both games last year with an 8-0 win at home and an 11-0 victory at Kutztown. Our opponents are reputed to be much stronger this season and a real battle is in view.

Harbaugh and Mann, both new men on the squad, will probably form the battery for Shippensburg.

The probable line-up:

Eby 2b.
McDermitt c.f.
Hays (Capt.) l.f.
Grba 1.b.
Rice s.s.
Orner 3b.
Jones r.f.
Mann c.

FACULTY ANNOUNCES HONOR STUDENTS

At a recent Faculty meeting the members of the Faculty selected Miss Florence Davis '23 as one of the honor students of the Senior Class. Miss Reba Shue '24 was selected at the same time to represent the class of '24 on the Commencement program by delivering the response to the Mantle Oration.

Normal Base Ball team defeated the strong Mercersburg Academy nine in the opening game in the season at home by the score of 5-2, thus avenging last year's defeat at Mercersburg.

In the first frame, Shull struck out the first three men that faced him. In the second the blue and white players were able to score their only two runs of the game due to two hits and two errors. After this inning Shull had the visitors completely at his mercy.

In the fifth the red and blue team scored its first run. Strike opened the inning by striking out. Jones singled. Shull followed with a clean one-bagger, advancing Jones to second. Eby made a safe hit to left field but with a quick return to the plate kept the runner on third from scoring. McDermitt struck out. Hays singled, driving in Jones but Shull was caught at the plate by a perfect peg from left field.

Shippensburg forged ahead in the sixth when Rice the second man up singles to right field. He advanced to second on Orner's safe hit over the short-stops head. Strike laid down a lazy hit to the pitcher who fumbled, allowing Rice to score and Orner to take third while the runner was safe at first. Strike stole second, the catcher making a fake throw to short-stop. With one down Jones struck out. Shull was next to bat. With three balls and two strikes marked up against him Normal's big right hand pitcher was determined to win his own game. Seven fouls were registered by him and then Coach Sharadin signaled Strike to force Orner at third. Noyes threw wild to third base allowing Orner and Strike to score. Shull flew out.

In the eighth Shippensburg scored another tally when Orner singled and scored from first on Strikes' two-bagger to deep left field.

OUR FIFTIETH BIRTHDAY

The heartiest congratulations and best wishes of the student body go with the Cumberland Valley State Normal School as she passes the fiftieth milestone since the doors of the institution were first opened. The spirit at the chapel service last Tuesday was certainly indicative that this is the sentiment on the campus.

As we pause to think of the history of the first half century of the school it is gratifying to note the strides that have been made along all lines. We have every reason to be especially proud of the men and women whose sacrifices have made her existence possible. The story of the early struggles of this educational venture, for it was only a venture in those hard times, as outlined by Mrs. Stewart in her brief history written for the occasion, should make us all feel more deeply our responsibility to our alma mater. Every student should make a special effort to so live his life here that when he has passed on into the world this school will be a better place for his having been a student here. This is the fair and just debt which we all owe to C. V. S. N. S. From the inspiration which this golden anniversary gives us let us resolve to make good our obligation.

A FINE SHOWING

Again Shippensburg Normal has come to the front and is leading in athletics as she does in everything else. This was shown on Wednesday when our varsity met and defeated the Mercersburg Academy baseball team, a prep school nine with a high standing. This is the first home game of the season played on the new diamond and marks the second victory on the card.

It is remarkable to note that the first ball pitched across the plate by our pitcher was a strike and the first man up was struck out. These results show that everyone connected with the team has worked hard and Coach Shraradin and the players are to be commended. The CAMPUS REFLECTOR expresses the gratification of the student body and is confident of the team's further success.

WRITER LAMENTS FALL OF SOLOMON'S TEMPLE

"Assyria, save Solomon's Temple of old." "Macedonia, save Athens." "Rome, save Carthage." "Woodman, spare that tree." These pleas were made as the ages rattle on and on. They sounded on deaf ears, as the hand of destruction took its toll. So it is with anything that has lived its day of usefulness.

Solomon's Temple which has guarded the eastern wing of the Main Building for so many years is being torn down in order that a fire tower may take its place. Its fall marks the initial step in the remodeling of the Main Building.

Last week, we might have said, "Pennsylvania, spare Solomon's Temple." It would have been useless, for the old temple had served its day of usefulness and had to go.

It was on the 16th of April in '23 that a group of men began to chisel down the old temple that has stood the rains of thirty summers and the snows of as many winters. It was back in the late eighties that the temple had its birth. Since that day, it has stood there and has watched the students come and go. It has seen many sights. It has heard varied conversations. It has protected. It has lifted up. If the temple could speak and had the wisdom of Solomon, it could tell many tales. What sights it has seen as it watched the movement of students and teacher. It has gazed on the green product, as they came from the hills of the state; and watched them as they developed from day to day; saw them in their commencement robes, the finished product. It has gazed on happiness and sorrow. It has seen the happy lovers linger in its shadows. At night, when the slightest noise meant pain, it has seen the stealthy tread of the student returning from Red Bridge or better. Good-bye old temple, you have served us well; you have helped us in when we were out; you have kept us dry when we were in; you have lifted the filth of a million rugs. We are sorry to see you go for you have helped each one of us so very much.

There has been no place on the campus so frequented as the temple. A thousand students can tell as many tales about incidents occurring in the old temple. Students may forget class rooms, but they never will forget Solomon's Temple.

We are truly sorry for the day students who are not allowed the social privileges on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

No matter how hungry a horse may get he won't eat a bit.

REV. BOWERS TALKS ABOUT

"FAITH" AT JOINT MEETING

Rev. R. S. Bowers of the Lutheran Church gave a very helpful talk at the joint meeting of the Young People's Christian Association last Sunday evening. He chose for his text, Second Timothy 4: 7, "I have kept the faith."

In his discussion he answered these three questions: What faith did St. Paul keep? How did St. Paul keep the faith? Why should we keep the faith? Just as St. Paul of old kept the faith, so ought we to stand fast in the faith by dedicating our lives to Christian service, in order that our country may become a more Christian nation.

Miss Miriam Aurandt '23 played a violin solo. The meeting was under the leadership of Sherrick Gilbert '24.

Y. W. OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED SUNDAY

A meeting of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet was called last Sunday evening to hear the report of the nominating committee which was appointed some time ago to consider suggestions concerning next year's officers. Miss Anna Smith '23, chairman of this committee presented the names of the following Juniors to fill the various offices: President, Miss Miriam Whitmeyer, Miss Ruth Wahrman; Vice President, Miss Ruth Frank, Miss Mary Burgoon; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Eliza Russell, Miss Mildred Breneman; Recording Secretary, Miss Gertrude Griffith, Miss Genevieve Mitchell; Treasurer, Miss Leah Decker, Miss Grace Filler.

The election of officers will be held next Sunday evening after the regular Y. W. C. A. service in the court of the girls' dormitory.

Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS ARE

NOMINATED BY CABINET

The new song books which the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet decided to purchase for the association, at a meeting held last Wednesday evening, have arrived.

At this meeting the Cabinet members nominated officers for the coming year. Those nominated were: William Hudson '24 and Sherrick Gilbert '24 for President; Claude Mellott '25 and Russell Coover '25 for Vice President; Clarence Shuler '24 and Harold Miller '25 for Corresponding Secretary; Wilson Dodd '24 and Ralph Swan '25 for Recording Secretary; Glen Bailey '24 and Clifford Smith '24 for Treasurer.

The election of officers will be held at the regular meeting next Sunday evening. Every fellow is urged to be present.

At a special meeting last Sunday evening, the Cabinet decided to purchase a victrola and ten records for the Y. M. C. A. room.

REFLECTIONS

VIRGINIA RANCK '23

"BOOTS" SHULER '24

WANTED:—A PERFECT LOVER. Register now with the English Dept. Try-out announced later.

Now's your chance, oh, ye masculine vamps. Here's a perfectly good opportunity to show to HER and to the world in general just what a wonderful lover you are. You are wanted to participate in the Commencement play. Now is the time to begin. Use your mirrors. After you have the appointment everything will be easy sailing. You won't have to put much conscious effort in your work. The pretty girl playing opposite you will provide inspiration enough.

Sh—h—h—h! Don't tell the Editor. He wouldn't have this put in with other school news but it was the real "Social" function of the month.

You know there is a certain Social circle to which a very elite group of debutantes belong. They have forsworn the pleasure (?) of dancing with the men for a month. Naturally they didn't go to the dance provided by the Faculty. They were planning a distinct party. They had a little trouble getting started but once on the way they went strong. The main feature was a movie entitled, "The Country Cousin."

The cast was:
Pauletta—the heroine, a country girl in the city.
Walker—the hero, a fine country lad, who follows his sweetheart to the city.
Nine 'a Hearts—a newsboy who befriends the lovers.
Dido—the villain, an oriental dope-fiend.

Theda Bara—a cabaret dancer, a bad reputation but a good heart.

The plot can be divined from the cast.

Refreshments were served toward the close of the evening. Dr. Martin, a good friend of the Social circle sent each member a lovely sundae and a bag of nuts to complete it. Sandwiches, cakes and coffee were also served.

It takes two people to keep track of that stone. One says "Here it comes," as the other says, "There it goes."

Goodness! Our teachers are actually asking us to get our minds down to our work. I didn't think that they would admit it.

Spring reduces the price of food, heat, and clothing and the attendance of classes.

Prof. Stewart—"Who is the Muse of History?"

Eager student—"Miss McCreary."

Solomon's Temple has gone "down" in history.

Information desired about a renegade secret society called "H. S. A."

Twenty-seven people got the paper last term and did not pay their subscription. One hundred seventy-eight people have not payed the second installment. Is THIS your school spirit? You are worse than the people who regularly read their room-mates' paper. It is YOUR DUTY to help the paper in its growth. The staff does all they possibly can. You should do your share.

VERY INSTRUCTIVE TALK GIVEN AT PRAYER MEETING

Rev. R. S. Bowers of the Lutheran Church spoke to the students at the mid-week prayer service.

The subject was "Money," and in it was revealed the fact that money will not buy everything, one thing especially—happiness. He spoke of God's ladder to happiness, consisting of six rungs, namely:—a clean life, an honest and sincere life, faith, love, service and sacrifice.

In concluding his remarks Rev. Bowers brought out the point that money will not buy salvation.

We have suspicion of some good Base Ball as all the players are ordered to wear sliding pads for tomorrow's game.

The minutes slowly flew As the discussion in fury grew. To enjoy a debate Whether early or late, Take someone nice with you.

Not only was the exhibition given by the Bell Telephone Company on Tuesday very instructive, but also very attractive as many found out after the exhibition.

The H. S. A. will hold a special meeting at sunrise the first rainy morning next week in their initiation rooms. At this time the L. S. B. will be given to a few new members. A short talk will be given by "The Main String" providing he isn't pulled before that time.

We miss your lengthening shadows, Your protection from the rain. Goodbye Solomon's Temple, We'll long for you in vain. Day Students in their sorrow, Seek new places of sweet repose. Goodbye Solomon's Temple, Your name in History goes.

Many of the girls have turned their hearts to stones. Could it have been caused by so much "socialing?"

If the tasks of life seem heavy, And pleasures very few, Examine yourself my friend, There's something wrong with you.

Have you heard the robin singing? Or seen that pesky fly. Isn't this enough my friend, To drive away a sigh?

Think not of examinations, Or the friends you'll cease to greet. They'll all remain a memory, As new friends you meet.

For life is short and crowded, And what you do and say Has no effect on others. But makes your little day.

We are told that sound travels 1100 feet per second. One would imagine that we have a much larger campus than we really have as it takes 15 minutes for some people to be in the building after the bell has sounded.

"Where, oh where has the boys' Stone gone?"

Where, oh where can it be? Say the boys, if they knew It wouldn't be long 'Til it's back where it uster be.

Women have good memories. Men good forgetters. Both are sometimes used for the personal benefit of the individual.

Strange! All the young men need an "inspiration" to do even their daily work. What would happen if they had to do a bit of real work? They would have drained their source of "inspiration" dry.

Fifty years ago the students were campused and socialized when they registered. We wonder if that was a time-saver?

METHODS OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT DIFFER

Student Councils are operated along vastly different lines. The Women's Student Government Association of Ursinus College holds a mass meeting each month to which every girl in the school is privileged to attend. At a recent meeting of this kind, student governments of other schools were presented. The lately effected Holyoke College Community and the Swarthmore Student Council, were considered. The meeting was thrown open to general discussion and lively expressions of opinions followed.

MONTHLY SCHOOL DANCE WAS WELL ATTENDED

The monthly school social and dance held last Saturday evening was well attended. The Neusbaum Orchestra, of Carlisle secured by Prof. Gilbert, chairman of the committee in charge, furnished the music for the dancers. This was the first appearance of this orchestra at C. V. S.-N. S., but if the reception they received on this occasion is an indication, they will be here again.

An unusual experience, doubtlessly a thrilling one for many, occurred at eight o'clock when a fuse blew out, leaving the gym in darkness. However, the orchestra continued to play and every one present met the occasion just as well controlled people should. After five encores the lights flashed on again. Even the faculty did not seem adverse to taking a moonlight dance when the opportunity offered itself.

Home Sweet Home was played at ten-thirty o'clock, bringing to a close a very enjoyable occasion.

Games and contests of various kinds were enjoyed in the parlors by those who did not care to dance. This group made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers. Several smaller parties were also held in the dormitories during the evening.

TRAINING SCHOOL RECEIVES ART AND MUSIC EQUIPMENT

The Training School has been receiving some interesting supplementary material such as educational victrola records and a collection of Perry pictures.

The records, such as "Ave Maria" and "The Boat Song" are to be used in the ninth grade in connection with the study of the "Lady of the Lake." And others such as "Under the Greenwood Tree", "Dannie Deever," "Over Hill, Over Dale," "What Shall He Have Who Killed The Deer?", and "Mandalay." will be used in connection with other classics and memory gems.

The Perry pictures will be used for art classes and as picture studies for composition classes.

PHYSICAL TRAINING EXHIBITION A SUCCESS

The Training School's annual physical training exhibition was held Friday afternoon, April 13, in the Normal School gymnasium. The gallery was packed with visitors, a goodly number of whom were patrons of the school.

Several of the numbers were in costume; notably, the "Highland Fling," the "Scarf Dance," the "Fairy Queen," and the musical recitation, "The Minuet." The entire program which was most attractively carried out, took the following form:

STUDENT TEACHERS WILL PRESENT HEALTH PAGEANT

A health pageant will be presented on the evening of May 31 in which all the girls of the school who are teaching health education will participate. The pageant which will be a large and spectacular affair will be in charge of the following faculty members:

Mr. Pennington, Publicity; Mr. Gilbert, Stage Manager; Mr. Slyter, Music; Miss Arnold, Prologue; Miss Huber, Costumes; Miss Cox, Posters; Miss McWilliams, Diet Group; Misses Heffernan and Robb, Dances.

The pageant which is entirely original will have for its leading characters "Queen Good Health" and "King Disease." In "Queen Good Health's" court will be found such characters as Sunshine, Water, Air, Rest, Exercise and Diet. The latter parts will be taken by solo dancers who will have groups accompanying them. The groups will be arranged according to their gym classes so there will be no chance for partiality. The King's followers will be Tuberculosis, Typhoid and Diphtheria. The arrangements as to the dancers will be the same as in the Queen's court.

Miss Arnold who will write the prologue will pick and train the speakers. This will be the only part of the pageant which will contain speaking parts. Miss McWilliams' group will be unique in that the actors will be dressed to represent different food-stuffs.

Other features will be the refreshment booths and the sale of the programs containing the complete list of the cast. This is a big school affair and of great interest to the community as well. The town people and people of the surrounding districts are cordially invited as the pageant promises to be both picturesque and instructive.

CORRECT USE OF TELEPHONE EXPLAINED

The demonstration given in the auditorium Tuesday afternoon by the representatives of the Bell Telephone Company, was a fine example of modern advertising. This corporation realizes that an object lesson in telephone service is worth pages of illustration or exposition.

The company presented a dramatized version of the business of telephoning. The spectators saw a switch board on the stage with bonafide connections with local stations. The work was at first in charge of Miss Mellhenny, a long distance operator. She explained the various types of calls: station to station, person to person, messenger, and appointment. She showed how a business firm might reduce its telephone bills and at the same time secure more efficient service.

In the same manner, Miss Vaughn, a local operator, gave a very interesting and effective demonstration showing just how lines are connected. A very amusing yet true-to-life scene was presented showing the different types of subscribers and the troubles they cause by their own blunders. The whole program was very interesting and instructive. All those who were present know much more about the telephone system than they did before the demonstration.

FAVORS COMPULSORY CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

Dr. M. S. Valentine, chaplain of Gettysburg College, favors compulsory attendance at the chapel exercises of that institution. He says that if the process of culture is to include provision for the development of all the student's powers, the chapel service has a rightful place since the religious instincts is not less a part of man than the desire for knowledge. Required attendance upon religious culture is based on sound reason, for in every form of community life there are general regulations and laws which we must obey. Our entire lives are encompassed by law and convention. Required chapel attendance, therefore, is not something alien to our normal habits of thought and life, but takes its place as only one of the many instances in which we find ourselves obliged to conform to general rule and practice.

EDUCATIONAL SLIDES FEATURE ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The slides which failed to arrive last week in time for the Training School's assembly exercises, were the main feature of this week's program. They turned out to be an excellent collection about the Armour Meat Packing Establishment, which Professor Krebs, who had charge of the pictures, visited some time ago, and was able to interpret for the children in an interesting manner. Each picture was described and its noteworthy features pointed out.

Musical numbers preceded this part of the program and at the close the children tendered Professor Krebs a note of thanks.

The program for next week will be in charge of the Health Department, and visitors are cordially invited to these exercises.

SURVEY OF LOCAL COUNTY HISTORY

(By Mrs. H. Wylie Stewart)

(Continue from Last Week)

There were twenty-eight distilleries within a radius of three miles, the last one to go being located on by grandfather McCune's farm in 1840, falling mills, flour mills, woolen and cotton factories. On the Middle Spring stream which is a branch of the Conodoguinet there were three grist mills, one axel factory, a falling mill and several saw mills. The furnaces were mainly confined to the North and South Mountains. The wagon maker shops were everywhere; this was also the age and day for the country blacksmith and the bending of iron for the pack horses was itself no mean occupation. The towns in this very small historical survey are not large. They include, beginning at the north, Roxbury, Lurgan, Mongul, Orrstown, Newburg, Middle Spring, Shippensburg, Cleversburg and Big Pond. I may not be able to show you by drawing, as Mr. Galpin on last Monday a week, of the places where many of the prominent people have gone and are working, but I defy even a New Yorker to excell the following list of people that have done a greater service for mankind. Let us begin with some men of the past—Dr. Robert Cooper and son John Cooper. Dr. Cooper was the Revolutionary pastor at Middle Spring and with the Rev. Craighead of Rocky Spring led the men of their congregation into the New Jersey campaign. At the battle of Princeton a common ball struck a tree near them, a shiver of which nearly knocked Mr. Craighead down. "God bless me" said his friend, Mr. Cooper, "You were nearly knocked to staves." "Oh! Yes," said Craighead, very coolly, "and though you were a Cooper you could not have set me up." Another story is told of these two gentlemen in private life. One was calling on the other and they were drinking their hot toddy. Dr. Cooper asked Dr. Craighead to say a word of prayer. Dr. Cooper closed his eyes and began to pray. Quick as a flash, Dr. Cooper drank his toddy and then Dr. Craighead's toddy. When the good doctor opened his eyes he was astonished to see his empty mug. With a smile Dr. Cooper said to his friend "The Bible says, Watch as well as pray."

Rev. John Cooper, son of Dr. Robert Cooper was the founder and only teacher of Hopewell Academy. He was a graduate of Dickinson College and studied for the ministry, but on account of poor health he had to give up the ministry and take up farming. After farming for a while he decided to start a classical school. For this profession he was well suited and was justly esteemed as one of the best linguists of the day. Rev. Robert Hunter, a Scotchman, assistant to Dr. John Blair, the first pastor of Big Spring, Middle and Rocky Spring was a very fine scholar and teacher. Tradition tells us that he could preach a finer sermon than Rev. Blair, when he was sober. He taught in Blair's Academy on the Zeigler farm and also in Log Cabin School on the Long farm. Many young men could rise up and call him blessed. Dr. Moody had the longest pastorate of any minister in this section of country; his records of Middle Spring Church have been kept, and copied many times for the history they give of nearly sixty years. In the history of Middle Spring Church thirty ministers have gone out to preach, teach and do missionary work. Names have been preserved of forty-three officers and nearly 200 men that went into the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Mexican War and Civil War from this immediate section that we are studying. Mr. Galpin will find the country church, the country school and the country family of the Cumberland Valley a very rich and fruitful survey as well as New York State. Another noted character of this section, was William Linn, Chaplain of the Fifth and Sixth battalions of Penna. troops. He came from one of the Middle Spring families, born in Lurgan township near the base of the North Mountain. He prepared at the Hopewell Academy for Princeton College where he was graduated in 1772 at the age of 20. He stood at the head of his class with Aaron Burr in receiving a prize for excellence in the English language. His funeral oration at the death of George Washington has been preserved as a masterpiece of English. Our great Indian hunter, Captain Samuel Brady, born on the banks of the Conodoguinet in 1756, moved when young to Western Pennsylvania, but his life is one of constant adventures, and we are proud to claim this magnificent scout and Indian fighter in our survey. Robert Chambers was a brother of Benjamin Chambers who settled at Falling Springs in 1730. Robert, at the same time located near Middle Spring, his lands adjoining the Glebe of Middle Spring. These lands on which Robert Chambers located in 1730 were granted him by the proprietaries in 1737 and most of them remained in his possession for almost half a century. In 1748 Robert Chambers was a captain in the regiment of his brother, Col. Benjamin Chambers. He was among the first justices of Cumberland County. When fifty years of age he married Mary Caldwell and by this marriage had six sons and three daughters. We do not have a Molly Pitcher in this survey but we do have a Margaret Corbin, a native of Lurgan township, who accompanied her husband into the Revolutionary army. (To be Continued)
