TRAINING SCHOOL HOLDS ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Seventeen Pupils Receive Diplomas Presented by Dr. Lehman

The Junior High School of C. V. S. N. S. Training School held their Commencement Exercises Thursday evening in the Normal School Chapel. Ten girls and seven boys received diplomas from the hands of Dr. Lehman who made an excellent and practical address, skillfully adapted both to the age of the young people on the platform and the appreciative audience who listened from the seats below.

The artistically decorated stage gave the flowerbed setting necessary for the entrance of the class, called thither by Mary Lindsay, who gracefully and aptly presented each with a flower that was characteristic of his or her appearance or personality.

A very interesting and comprehensive discussion of the Immigration Problem was given by Jason Daihl, who closed his arguments with Theodore Roosevelt's famous letter on Americanism.

Splendid arguments for the Junior High School were presented in the discussion of "Opportunities for Girls and Boys in a Junior High School" by Mary Nye; of "Club Work in the Junior High School" by Ray Booz; and of the "Home Project" by Mark Goodhart. No finer argument on the value of project work could be had than the shining faces of these young people, detailing in simple and enthusiastic terms their experiences in these real activities of life.

Two outstanding numbers on the program were the humorous recitation, "Aunt Eleanor's Hero" by Dorothy Forsythe, and the thrilling Klux Klan story, "Lilly Servosse's Ride" by Helen Shindedecker. It is not often one hears on a Junior High School Program the quality of work that was presented by these girls.

The musical numbers on the program were the singing of "Whispering Hope" by a quintet of girls and two numbers by the Junior High School Chorus. Two orchestral numbers were furnished by a part of the Normal School orchestra.

A very humorous and entertaining class review was ably read by Harry Reese. It was of interest to note that this class entered the primary grade the first year the new Training School was open and it is the first class to have completed the entire three years of the Junior High School course.

The singing of the Class Song concluded the Program.

ALUMNI AND STUDENTS TO ENJOY DANCE

The Alumni dance, one of the chief attractions of Commencement week, will be held in the gymnasium, Tuesday evening, immediately following the Alumni play. Those who have looked forward to this dance will not be disappointed for the committee has been making elaborate preparations. The gym will be decorated with the school colors and electric lights and the music will be furnished by members of the school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Slyter. The unusual phase of the affair is that the dancing will continue from the time of the ending of the play until midnight.

This will be, of course, the last dance of the semester and it is expected that the floor will be crowded for the Alumni dance has always been one of the most popular events of the school year.

A man may go along for years and never have a trouble in the world and then, some day he buys an automobile.

ELABORATE PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR RECITAL

Philharmonic Orchestra Will Open Recital with Two Numbers

Elaborate preparations have been made for the recital of the Music Clubs of C. V. S. N. S. and for the community singing. Music is playing a more important part in the Commencement activities this year than it ever has in the history of the school. The musical phase of Shippensburg will be emphasized by tonight's and tomorrow night's programs more than ever before. Monday night's program will be given over to the musical organizations while on Tuesday night the entire student body will join in the Community Sing.

The Philharmonic Orchestra, the Girls' Choral Club, the Boys' Chorus, and the Band, assisted by Miss Marion Rummel, Miss Ethel McCormick, Miss Janet Shearer, Miss Mildred Shambaugh, and Mr. Harry Markley will unite in presenting tonight's program which begins promptly at eight o'clock.

The program will be as follows:
Part I—Philharmonic Orchestra
Golden Scepter Overture
Schleper grell
Selections from Robinhood-Wagner
Part II—Girls' Choral Club
Siren Voices—Garbett
Old Carolina—Cook
I Think of Thee—Edwards
Indian Cradle Song—Clark
A Song of the Sea—Stultz
A Summer Idyl—Berwald
Dance of the Pine Tree Faries
Forman
Part III—Boys' Chorus
Evening Shadows—Parks
De Backslidin' Brother—Parks
Life's Dream—Parks
Part IV—Soloists
Morning Speaks

DR. HERMAN DELIVERS BACCALAUREATE SERMON

The Baccalaureate service which was held in the chapel Sunday evening, marked the opening of the forty-ninth annual Commencement exercises of C. V. S. N. S. In the procession, following the ushers, were Dr. Lehman, Rev. Herman, Rev. Lindsay, Rev. Wetzel, Rev. Lobb, and Rev. Crow, all of whom sat on the platform during the service. The 181 Seniors who composed the graduating class came slowly down the middle aisle marching back of the minister and singing the hymn, "Integer Vitae." They were garbed in the customary black cap and gown.

The invocation was given by Rev. H. R. Lobb and was followed by the Doxology. Rev. J. D. Lindsay read the scripture which was taken from the second chapter of Philemon, while Rev. D. J. Wetzel led the congregation in prayer. Rev. Dr. Stewart W. Herman of Harrisburg delivered the sermon to the graduates.

The subject of Rev. Herman's sermon was "Life as a Masterpiece." He said that some say that life is a poem, life is a dream, life is work, or again that life is play, but life, in reality is something greater than these. A sat-

We welcome you back to your Alma Mater, members of the Alumni! We are calling your attention to the other activities of old Normal. What do you think of it? You commendation will be voiced in the growth of the subscription list for next year. Have you signed up?

"THE ROMANCERS" WILL BE PRESENTED TUESDAY NIGHT

Miss Ferguson and Straley '23 Will Play Leading Parts

Tuesday evening the annual Alumni play will be presented with Jean Ferguson '23 and Nesbit Straley '23 playing the leading parts. "The Romancers," a picturesque play of an earlier date has been chosen to be given. The setting, which is in reality the two gardens of Pasquinot and Bergamin, is designated as "wherever you please provided the costumes are pretty."

Not only will the costumes be elaborate and pretty, but the decorations will also be attractive. Potted plants and an abundance of greens, flowers and shrubs will form a beautiful garden scene against a background of sea and sky. Some of the scenery has been rented from The Arts and Crafts Club.

The plot of the story is based upon a supposed feud and its reconciliation between the families of Pasquinot and Bergamin. The play holds the interest from the first minute because of its thrilling introduction. The deeds of the swaggering villain and the event of a clever duel hold the audience until the end.

The members of the school who will represent the various characters in this time when powdered wigs and hoop skirts reigned, have shown marked ability for the part they are to play. Wilson Dodd '24 and Roy Kreiner '23 will play Bergamin and Pasquinot respectively. Philippus Mosescu will be the gardener, Bloise, Mary Good '23, Webster Lehman '23, George Kauffman '24 and Russel Coover '24 will support the leading characters in working out the plot.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Special Music Program to be Given Under Direction of Prof. Slyter

The annual Commencement exercises will begin Wednesday morning, promptly at 9:30. The invitations have been extended to the faculty, alumni, students and friends of the graduates.

The music for the exercises will be furnished by the school orchestra under Mr. Slyter. The opening prayer will be offered by Rev. R. S. Bowers of the Lutheran Church of Shippensburg. Besides the orchestra there will be the following special musical numbers: Solo, "To Spring" by Anna Smith and a quintet entitled "Happy Days" by Beula Neusbaum, Florence Davis, Miriam Aurandt, Robert McClay and Jessie Snyder.

The honor numbers are: An original essay "Famous Friendships" by the first honor student, Mary Goodyear; another original essay entitled "Dr. Grenfell, An Empire Builder," by the second honor student, Ruth Goodyear. Recitations, "Trick vs Trick" by Florence Davis and "A Few Bars in the Key of G" by Katherine Wilson will be given by the two young ladies who are tie for third honors.

The Commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Ezra Lehman. He will speak on the subject "A Diploma or an Education." Following this he will award the diplomas to the members of the graduating class.

At these exercises the prizes for the contests held during the past year will be awarded by Dr. Lehman. The five dollar gold piece offered to the winner of the annual oratorical contest will be given to Miriam Embick '24; the Louise L. Lehman prize of books awarded to the two showing greatest skill in debating in the Inter-Society Debate to Florence Davis '23 first prize, and to Capolyn Cox '23 second; the Citizenship medal to Oran Hays '23; the M. M. Stough prize of books to the one writing the best short story to Nina Ruth '23 and the medal for the best standing in athletics to Marletta Houck.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES WILL BE HELD TUESDAY

The class of '23 will close its career at C. V. S. N. S. with Class Day exercises, Tuesday morning. For the first time in our history the school band will play for the occasion. The band under the direction of Mr. Slyter, will furnish three numbers which will be distributed through the program. The exercises will be held at the upper end of the campus where stands have been erected for the audience.

LARGEST SENIOR CLASS HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Decorations and Menu Are Very Pleasing to Class of '23

One of the largest annual senior banquets ever held in the history of the school was held last Saturday evening by the class of 1923. The event was one of the most enjoyable ones of the commencement season thus far. About two hundred were present including the members of the class faculty and board of trustees.

Miss Kathleen Gibbons '23 had charge of the decorations and she and her assistant deserve a great deal of credit and praise for their efficient work. The decorations were most unique, carrying out the color scheme very effectively with the class colors of blue and gold. A very pretty effect was produced in the center of the dining hall by a fountain which played its sparkling water over a mass of greens and around which were numerous palms and ferns which added a great deal of nature's charm to the color scheme in the decorations. The tables were arranged in the form of the letter U which stood for the unity of class and school. The members of the class occupied the side tables and the faculty and board of trustees occupied the tables at the base of the U which bridged the gap of the letter and brought out the unity idea of the and school. The tables were decorated very attractively with cream colored rosebuds, the class flower, and blue candles which carried out the blue and gold color scheme further.

Dr. Lehman acted in the capacity of toast master and fulfilled his position in a very able manner and made every participant of the banquet feel at ease during the entire evening. Paul Wert '23, life president of the class, and Mitchell Dreese represented the class, by responding with toasts. Mr. Wert gave "The Climax" taken from the "Memoirs of Beulah" in a very proper and fitting manner.

Mr. Dreese's toast which was taken from the "Shadows of Yesterday" was very well suited to the occasion. Toasts were also given by the class deans, Miss Harris and Prof. Helges. Both toasts were full of wit and humor and were well received. Mr. Greist, who represented the board of trustees, took his toast from "Childhood's Dreams." Mr. Greist's toast was a well chosen one.

A great deal of commendation is due Miss McWilliams for arranging such a splendid menu which certainly met with the approval of the tastes and appetites of every one present.

Menu
Grapefruit, Cocktails, Pan Broiled Spring Chicken, Giblet Sauce, Sweet Potato Croquettes, Asparagus Allemande, Pickles, Olives, Radishes, Parkerhouse Rolls, Butter, Salad'Or Cheese Balls, Saratoga Flakes, Gold Bricks, Mints, Coffee, Salted Nuts.

PROF. STEWART HONORED BY LATIN STUDENTS

Last Wednesday evening the members of the Livy class arranged a surprise dinner for Prof. Stewart. The students had decorated Prof. Stewart's table in the dining hall in a color scheme of brown and gold. Candle shades and yellow iris formed the center of the decorations. The name cards were Latin maxims which applied to the various individuals. The members of the class are: Mary Goodyear '23, Ruth Goodyear '23, Florence Davis '23, Myrtle Lingle '23, Mildred Wynn '23, Effie Wynn '24, Anna Webner '24, and Ralph Helges '23.

One swallow doesn't make a summer, but a frog can make a spring.

FAREWELL SENIORS

Farewell Seniors: After two years of trial, tribulation, joy and sorrow the great event—Commencement—has at last arrived. How long those years looked when viewed from the beginning of your Junior year, but how quickly they have passed and now it is time to say good-bye! In a few hours you will no longer be a member of the rank and file of the student body of Shippensburg State Normal School, but full fledged soldiers in the army of the Alumni.

With what fond memories do we voice our parting? They are memories so dear that they will never be forgotten—memories of many happy hours spent together—memories of hours spent in work and play. How we do cherish them! Who among you will forget the pleasant entertainments given in old Assembly Hall, the glorious hours spent in the gym dancing, and the afternoons spent on the Athletic field cheering our football and baseball teams on to victory? They are reminiscences burned upon the sands of time, whose scars, no matter how great a quantity of water the oncoming years may flood upon them are too deep to ever be obliterated.

Yes, the time has come for the parting of the ways. No longer will the kindly roof of C. V. S. N. S. protect you from the buffets of the world. The doors of the institution have been flung wide and you are gaily trooping forth in search of fame, fortune, love and happiness. And the world is yours and you have but to seek to find. No walls confine you to a narrow pasturage. There are lands waiting for you to conquer, empires waiting for a ruler and fields open for discoverers. All these are beckoning to you and the only boundaries that you will have to abide by are the four corners of the earth.

Success is yours for the buying, but the price is an expensive one. Determination, tenacity, and will power are rated high in the market of life, but all things come to him who has this gold and silver. Mines of it are secreted deep below the earth's surface, but Seniors, we know the power to dig is yours. May you all be miners of this precious metal!

Seniors, farewell: We have come to one of the stiles of life. It is for you to pass through and for us to stand and wait. May you find the path on the other side more smooth and beautiful than the one you are about to leave. May you find the roses that you are desirous of finding growing along the pathway of life, but may your fingers not be pricked by the thorns that protect their beauty from the careless pedestrian. We congratulate you upon your leaving our side of the stile and going on upon the the King's business. May success, happiness, and love of all mankind be yours.

BOB MACLAY DELIGHTS

AUDIENCE AT PHILO

Philo's last program of the year was given by the Senior class and it set so high a standard that the other classes will find it a hard task to keep up to the pace set by the class of '23.

"The Curtain" by Hattie Flanagan was a decided success. Eleanor Heiges '23 in the role of Ruth, the daughter of a forger of checks, portrayed her character with great skill. Margaret Ruth Ramey '23, as "Sade," neighbor of Ruth, was a real picture of sympathy and light heartedness. Ruth's father the forger, was played by Jack Seal '24 and skillfully brought to the mind that "Truth comes before all things."

Robert McClay '23 explained his miniature home-made organ and then entertained the society by playing, "Ave Maria," "O Sol Mio, Mr. Gallagher." The most unique part of the number was the playing of the organ and the piano at the same time by Mr. McClay.

Some helpful suggestions were given to the class of '24 and the underclassmen, by Mary Hoover '23 in her Senior's Farewell address. Miss Hoover also wrote a song "To Philo" which was sung by Miss Heifner. Myrl Shelby '23 gave an appropriate reading, "A Prayer to Graduates." "Our Flag," a patriotic selection, was given by Cathrine Starry '23. The other literary numbers were an oration on Lincoln by John Mountz '23 and the edition of the Philo Review by Carl Blanche '23 and read by Hurn Diller '23.

An original composition, "Song to Philo," was played by Beulah Neubaum '23. Nina Ruth '23 sang two selections, "My Laddie" and "Lullaby." The meeting was closed by the entire society singing of the Alma Mater by them as it is the custom at the last meeting of the society.

Professor Shearer, the visiting teacher, endorsed the remarks made by Miss Hoover and Mr. Seal the new president.

ALMA MATER

In the dear old Cumberland Valley,
Neath the glowing sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
On the hilltop high.
Chorus
Swell the chorus ever louder,
We'll be true to you,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear old "red and blue."

Near the waving golden cornfields,
Just beyond the town,
Tower the ivy covered buildings
As the sun goes down.

When we leave our Alma Mater
We will praise her name,
Ever live to raise the standard
Of her glorious fame.

SHIPPENSBURG DIVIDES DOUBLE HEADER AT KUTZTOWN

Saturday morning the school nine traveled to Kutztown to cross bats with the Kutztown Normal at Kutztown and the Kutztown A. C. The C. V. lads carried away the laurels in the first game, but the Jinks was against them in the second. The games were played successively; the first being run off at two o'clock and the second at six.

In the inter-school game Grba was the twirler for Shippensburg. He was credited with seven strike outs and allowed the Keystone lads five bases on balls. Grba managed to win his game with the Normal Boys to the tune of 12 to 2. Coach Sharadin pitched the game with the Kutztown A. C. Although the coach was credited with ten strike outs and allowed only 2 bases on balls, the A. C. defeated the local nine by a five run margin, the score being 5-1.

The Shippensburg nine started the first inning by landing seven runs on six hits, two of which were doubles. The Keystone Normal did their only scoring in this inning when Ortt and Smith crossed the rubber.

The C. V. S. N. S. lads increased their lead in the second when they landed three more runs. The Shippensburg nine scored two more runs, one of which was in the fifth and the other in the seventh.

Shippensburg was unable to score in the first inning of the second game but the Kutztown team managed to land two runs on two hits one being a double. The local Normals' only score came in the third when Coach Sharadin was scored on McDermitt's double but the A. C. continued their scoring in the fourth by crossing the home plate. Their last score came in the fifth when three more men crossed the rubber. After this inning Coach Sharadin pitched airtight ball and the A. C. was not even allowed a hit.

REFLECTIONS

"BOOTS" SHULER '24

The lights went out that evening
And to see was sure in vain.
Things were all disheveled
Caused by the afternoon's rain.

The Fire Patrol was busy
When a puff of smoke was smelt.
And soon old law and order
By our brave Chief was dealt.

We searched the Fourth Floor carefully
And there impossible to trace
The cause of their deadly fumes
That were wafted to our face.

The Third Floor now was taken
The room to inspect for smoke.
When from the orders from the Chief
A certain door we broke.

There in silence burning
Sat a candle dim.
And gently and slowly burning
The owner's suit for Gym.

"Water" cried the hoseman
And water we did receive.
Nor did this stop at water
As you may well believe.

Now come together classmates
And weep for '23.
For they're a bunch of sports
As true as they could be.

"ALL SENIOR" PROGRAM A SUCCESS AT NORMAL

An "All Senior" program was presented at Normal Society last Friday evening. No one number can be said to have surpassed the others. The Seniors retained the reputation they won for themselves by carrying out a program which did justice to the class of '23.

Oran Hays '23 gave the Farewell Address which centered about the Normal motto—Science, Friendship and Virtue. The things that have been done and those things to be accomplished in the future were briefly touched upon by Mr. Hays. The feeling which spread over the audience during the address proved that the coming Senior class accepted the challenge of loyalty offered by the true Normalites about to leave the school.

The Class Will by Miss Georgia Krall excelled in good, clean-cut fun and humor. Everyone was remembered in this unusual legal document. "The spirit of Normal" an original play and solo dance were under the chairmanship of Virginia Ranek. The spirit was exemplified in the beauty of Miss Ranek's dancing. The play was a mythological one. Sherrick Gilbert '23 as "Speicher," president of Normal Society was visited by the Gods—Oden, Thor, Idum, who brought gifts of strength, beauty, intelligence, loyalty and immortality to Normal Society.

"The shop-worn" question, "What do the boys talk about in their rooms" was answered in the special Gazette prepared by Theodore Charlton. The scene was laid in a room in the boys' dormitory. The conversation furnished valuable news for everyone present.

A piano solo "To Spring" by Greig was played by Miss Mildred Wynn. It was readily conceded that this was one of the best musical numbers ever enjoyed by the Society. "An So Was I," a humorous recitation by Miss Edna Bowman, found an appreciative audience. Many past and present memories were recalled to some of the young people present.

During the business meeting Mr. Glenn Bailey was elected Treasurer for the coming school year. Miss Parks, the visiting teacher made favorable and helpful remarks.

GIRLS' CHORAL SOCIETY ELECT OFFICERS

The Girls' Choral Society met in room 54 on Tuesday afternoon to elect officers for the coming year. The result of the election were: president, Janet Shearer; vice-president, Peggy Lehman; secretary, Louise Swartz; treasurer, Eliza Lee Russell; librarian, Dorothy Weaver.

We'll long in vain to hear.
The song of our friend "Ted"
As he vainly picked the pretzel crumbs
From Pop's capacious bed.

No more we'll hear announcements
In chapel every week.
Concerning financial statements
Or in room 53 I'll meet.

Grba will be lonesome
As he seeks to borrow shoes.
But instead will wear his slippers
As he reads the Reflector News.

No more will Orner borrow
Shirts of every size.
Or Mac, his roommates' collars
Nor Tarman, Cockie's ties.

Will Andy say to Mighty?
"Say, Mighty, lock that door
Of this pie there isn't sufficient
To serve the entire floor."

Rog, we sure shall miss you
When you sing Sweet Adaline.
And Si your good excuses
To go home when the weather's fine.

In your eyes you see our sorrow
When farewell at last we say.
But return all you've borrowed
Is all that I can say.

NEW PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR'S MUSICAL CLUBS

Extensive plans are being made for next year by the music department of the school. Prof. D. O. Slyter, in a recent interview disclosed the fact that the organizations will be established on somewhat of a competitive basis. Only those students who are up to par will be allowed to hold membership in the societies. Majoring in music is one of the possibilities open to students particularly interested in this subject. The plans of having the students who major in music take the solo part in the various organizations is being considered.

Preparations are being made to enlarge the Choral Society for next year and thereby stir up competition among the students. At the present time the Society has a membership of 40 voices but the new system will admit from 60 to 80 voices. This will be beneficial to the members because it will give people with good voices a chance to get special training.

The Girls' Choral Club will strive to attain the splendid recognition it has won this year. A high grade of efficiency and proficiency will be exacted from every girl.

Preliminary training in Choral work is a part of the plan to be followed by the Junior Chorus next year. This organization will be a kind of "beginners" chorus through which material will be developed for the girls' Choral and other vocal societies in the school.

The Band feels the necessity of persons who are primarily interested in the organization. The size of the organization will not be considered. Only those people whose interests are centered in this organization will be given the opportunity of becoming members. Quality not quantity will be the goal set for the next year's band. It will be the aim of the music department to give each person a better conception of his own instrument and its possibilities. To do this out of town concerts are an asset and it is hoped that something along this line will be accomplished in the future.

The Orchestra

A concrete plan of work to be followed during the coming year will be instituted for the orchestra. The organization will furnish music for the chapel service, society meetings and other special occasions. It is planned to have every member influence almost perfect control over his instrument.

Almost everybody believes that if the worst comes to worst he can make his living by writing.

GIRL SCOUTS TAKE HIKE TO MACLAY'S BRIDGE FRI.

The final test for the Girl scouts was taken Friday and Saturday in the form of an over-night hike to MacLay's Mill. The purpose of the hike was to give the girls a knowledge of the management of the camp in order that they may be able to shoulder the responsibility of Scout Leaders.

Each girl was given certain duties to perform such as gathering leaves, twigs and preparing the meals.

Those who attended the hike were the Misses Bayer, Andrew, Flaherty, Cross, Gordon, Stiles, Kremer, Straley, Whitmer and Lehman. Misses McWilliams, Demaree, Slaven, Ferguson and McKee were the official chaperons of the hikers.

The first dental school in the United States was established in Baltimore in 1839.

SEASON CLOSED WITH HIKE TO CHAMBERSBURG

The Girl's Hiking season closed Saturday when the members of the squad hiked to Chambersburg. Despite the fact that the day was very warm many of the girls walked the entire distance. The Cycle squad closed their season too by riding to and from Chambersburg. These girls were given credit for hiking, as well as cycling. The first call for lunch was given at Green village and the second at Chambersburg. After spending several hours in shopping at Chambersburg the hikers returned to school.

THE PUZZLE SOLVED

The old gang was seated in the community room 245, discussing what to wear for the big events during Commencement week because that is the one time of year that a fellow has to look his best. But, Bill, the old pessimist started on the antique song of not having a thing to wear and everything you go to buy costs a fortune. He soon had the whole outfit on the subject of gents furnishings. Of course each one tried to tell where he got the best for the least. "Jimmy" and "Si" talked about the wonderful service, quality and style you get at Doutrichs since they know all about the big store in Capitol City. This chattering kept up until no one knew where it was really best to buy. Finally, Jack broke through the turmoil and stated that he had a puzzle for the gang to solve. "Let's hear it," chimed the gang. "Well, here she goes," replied Jack. "You have all heard, I suppose, that money talks. Well, the money that Dad sent me for "grad" togs talked to me the other night while I was in a dream, or a trance or something. I thought it might be a message sent from spirits of the other world who see everything and know what is the best for a fellow. But I couldn't quite understand. It kept saying over and over, Doubt not YoU for one minute young Teachers that gents togs which are Real In both styles and quality Costs you less Here and here's the place to Spend me wisely. The aggregation crowded close around Jack as he wrote the sentence for them. Some words were emphasized more than others," said Jack "but I can't understand it." "I have it already," said Jimmy. "It is D-O-U-T-R-I-C-H-S which spells Doutrichs, the only place to buy." "Right you are," replied Jack "and that's where we go for our togs now and for all times." Adv.

RECEPTION TO SENIORS A HUGE SUCCESS

Dr. Lehman's reception given Saturday evening, June 2, in honor of the Seniors, proved to be one of the most successful of the pre-commencement events.

At eight o'clock all the Seniors trooped gaily down the campus to the Lehman home, where they were met by the receiving line which consisted of Dr. and Mrs. Lehman, Miss Mary Harris and Prof. Heiges, the latter two being the class deans.

The porch and the lawn surrounding the Lehman home were decorated with Japanese lanterns. The class spent the greater part of the evening playing games and very delicious refreshments were served about ten o'clock. Paul G. Wert, president of the class thanked the Lehmans in behalf of the class.

LAST PRAYER MEETING

Rev. D. J. Wetzel, pastor of the Reformed Church of Shippensburg, was the speaker at the prayer meeting which was the last one to be held this year. Rev. Wetzel's talk was based on the life of Judas.

The meeting was conducted by Mr. Sharadin.

We will make Chocolate Nougatines with both nuts and fruit at 40c pound this week.

The Community Sing will be held on the campus Tuesday at 6:15. This is the first time anything of this nature will be held at Shippensburg and it will go down as a historical event in the records of this year's Commencement. An interesting program has been arranged. The Philharmonic Orchestra will play two selections, "The Largo" by Handel and "The Song of the Old Folks." The student body will sing "To Thee O Country" by Eichberg, "O Solo Mio" by Capua, and "Questions" by Meredith. Old familiar songs will also be sung.

RURAL DEPARTMENT
ACHIEVEMENTS FOR 1922-23

The October 1923 Normal School Herald has had state and national circulation and commendation.

The six Rural Training Centers in Southampton township, Franklin county have done a very satisfactory piece of work as was revealed by the Illinois test as given at the beginning and close of the season. The fact that the work is to be continued with the approval of the parents, the board of school directors, the school superintendents and the department of Public Instruction is a big factor to be considered.

The Rural Director was invited by the State Department to address the Normal School Principals of the state on Pennsylvania's problems in Rural Education.

The Rural Department has been recognized by Columbia University as one of the twelve best of its type in the United States.

The Rural Department gave fifteen successful radio concerts to nine different rural communities with an attendance ranging from ten to four hundred. Six other community meetings were held during the school year.

Fifty ($50.00) Dollars worth of equipment has been placed in the six Rural Training centers. Nearly three hundred supplementary desks and library books were available for use in the six training centers during the year.

Much has been accomplished in the art department under the supervision of Miss Katherine Cox.

The Rural Department has appreciated the co-operation of the State Department of Public Instruction, the Board of Trustees, Dr. Lehman, and the Normal School Faculty, Superintendents of Franklin County, the Southampton Township Franklin Board of School Directors, the Patrons, the teachers and children of the different schools. Because of this co-operation nearly thirty promising young seniors who majored in Rural Education will go forth to rural school, each to serve in greater capacity because of their opportunities while in training. Shippensburg Normal is proud to learn that its Rural Department is recognized as first among the thirteen Normal Schools of the State.

NORMAL NINE WALLOPS
ALTOONA WARRIORS

The Shippensburg Normal nine walloped the Altoona Tech squad Saturday afternoon in a one-sided tilt to the tune of 10-3. Shull bore the brunt of the pitching for the C. V. lads and was credited with four strike-outs. Grba, who took his place in the sixth, was unable to retire any of the Altoona lads on the three strike rule.

The local team's first scoring came in the third frame. Strike and Shull managed to fill two bags. Then McDermitt, the "home run king," knocked a hot one to the third baseman. The ball took a bad hop and hit the third baseman in the eye and then rolled over along the grandstand. The third baseman was unable to see immediately and when he recovered he did not know where the ball had gone. His team-mates were too dazed to go after the ball themselves so the result was a home run for McDermitt.

The locals again scored in the fourth when six men crossed the rubber.

The Normal team scored their last run in the fifth.

The visitors did their only scoring in the ninth when they tallied three runs. The runs were scored on three hits, an error and a base on balls.

The Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Altoona 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3= 3
Shippensburg 0 0 3 6 1 0 0 0=10

ANNUAL UNDERCLASSMEN DANCE HELD IN GYM

Saturday evening saw the arrival of two long-looked-for events, the Senior Banquet and the Underclassmen dance. The dance held in the gym, began after a lot of excitement over the failure of the orchestra to appear on time, at 8:30; and the strains of "Home Sweet Home" did not sound until 11:30. The floor was not as crowded as is usually the case at school dances for all the Seniors were at the banquet and many of the Underclassmen had gone home.

A tag dance introduced by Mr. Gilbert proved a success and will probably be popular in the future.

The Misses McCreary, Patterson, and Hefferman and Mr. Gilbert acted as chaperones. The music was furnished by the Chambersburg orchestra.
