Football School to Be Held Here

A football coaching school and clinic, sponsored by the Western Pennsylvania Football Coaches Association and the "29" Club of Edinboro will be held at Edinboro Teachers College, August 7, 8, 9, and 10, it was announced.

The school will bring to Edinboro four nationally known football figures, and is expected to attract an enrollment of 125 high school coaches, the maximum number that can be accommodated.

The faculty will include Lynn Waldorf, football coach at Northwestern; Bert Ingwersen, line coach at the University of Illinois; Stu Holcomb, end coach at Army; and Ted Payseur, Athletic administration for coaches, faculty managers and principals.

The high school coaches attending the school will be quartered in college dormitories and will take their meals in the college dining halls.

To members of the Western Pennsylvania Football Coaches Association, the enrollment fee at the school will be $20, which will include classes, room and board from noon August 7 through breakfast on August 11.

Non members of the association will pay a $2 matriculation fee in addition to the enrollment fee.

Welthy Honsinger Fisher Will Speak At Edinboro State Teachers College March 6

Mrs. Welthy Honsinger Fisher

Mrs. Welthy Honsinger Fisher, author lecturer, and well recognized authority on Far Eastern Affairs, will lecture at Edinboro State Teachers College on March 6.

A resident of China for 10 years, Mrs. Fisher, speaks Chinese fluently. Among her friends she counts Madame Chiang Kai Shek and her sister, Madame Sun Yat Sen.

Also Mrs. Fisher has lived many years in India and has written three books on the people of both Oriental countries. Her friends in India include Mahatma Gandhi, Nehru and his sister, Madame Pundit.

Mrs. Fisher understands the Orientals as few in the Western hemisphere can and recently she has added the countries of South America to her list of countries visited and studied.

Mrs. Fisher has lectured extensively in all parts of the United States.

MISS HELEN TAYLOR JOINS EDINBORO STAFF

One of the newer additions to the E. S. T. C. campus is Haven Hall's dietitian, Miss (Helen) Taylor.

Previous to her appointment at Edinboro S. T. C. she was dietitian at Illinois' Western Military Academy and Director of Residence at Penn Hall Girl's School, Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

Already in the short time as a member of the Edinboro staff she has attested to her skill and prowess as a planner and worker. May her stay with us be a long one.

DR. H. L. OFFNER SPEAKS TO HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

Thursday, February 14, Dr. H. L. Offner, Dean of Instruction, spoke to the Erie County Principals' Association and the Commission of Secondary School Principals Association of North Western Pennsylvania, about recruiting members for the N. E. A.

The program included the presentation of the Secondary School Principals' Association by Mr. John Anderson, Principal of Butler High School, Butler, Pa., and president of the Association.

The N. E. A. film which is distributed from the college film library was shown.

At this meeting it was decided to hold the conference of the Secondary School Principals on Edinboro's campus. The dates include June 17, 18, and 19. Consideration of problems confronting Secondary Schools in the present day will be one of the chief topics discussed.

Dr. Dan Skala, Principal of Lawrence Park High School, Erie, Pa., is chairman of the arrangements committee.

RECONVERSION

A new semester! What a transformation! Did you ever stop to think what a difference a mere handful of men could make in a school composed of girls? Especially when there have been no men, I mean only two or three, for the past three years.

How the scene has shifted. Jeans that have been worn casually, rolled to the knees, are being replaced by skirts. Brother's plaid shirt and dad's good white shirt have been neatly packed and sent home. The girls have decided that perhaps it is the right thing to do considering the shortage of shirts nowadays. Funny how a girl's appearance can be changed by running a comb through her hair and adding a dash of new, exciting lipstick. Even the feet take on a new appearance, old saddle shoes that slosh up and down with each step are being kicked into the far side of the closet and the girls are bringing out their new I. Millers.

Many of the girls who had waited for the ten to eight bell to ring before jumping out of bed and making a mad dash for the wash-room are now getting up for breakfast. The cooks don't understand (?) it.

At dinner one would scarcely recognize the girls that glide into the dining room with feet encased in most becoming shoes, with heels and gayly colored frocks, as the same girls that cluttered up the campus a few hours previously wearing skirts and sweaters. Dog eyes are thrown at your best friend because one of the fellows has cast an admiring glance her way.

Yes, a new semester certainly is fun. Especially with that "constituent" of all gay times. Sadly enough it is the books that will suffer.

SWIMMING MEET

A very successful and exciting swimming meet was held on February 9 under the direction of Miss Nettie M. Ruttie. The judges were Mickey Schlindwein and Chester Eisaman.

The clear blue water in the new gym pool was cut and churned by the swimmers in the following events:

1. The beginners demonstrated the prone float, back float, prone kick,, back kick, swim front, and swim back. The following swimmers took part: Luella Peebles, Carlene Crosby, and Carol Atwater. Atwater came in first and Peebles came in second winning for the Phis three points.

2. Swimming the length of the tank which was a combination of elementary strokes was the next event. The swimmers taking part were: Betty Gross, Betty Getz, Virginia Ransom, and Bette Rhall. Rhall was first place and Gross was in second place. This event was judged on swimmer's technique and not on speed. Delts won two points; Phis won one point.

3. The forty yard race was swum by: Annette Henness, Betty Hall, Marilyn Palmer, and Gretchen Haughton. Palmer, who did a very good dive and tank turn, won first place. The Delts won eight points.

4. The game two ball polo was played for co-operation and alertness in the water. Swimmers for the Phis are Peggy Gillespie, Lois Weaver, Wilma Steadman, Joyce Weldon, and Betty Gross; for the Delts, Dorothy Peplinski, Madeline Ledwick, Clea Johnson, Mary Alice Armagost, and Marjorie Perkins. The Phis won two points.

5. In diving, Betty Deeter did the front flip and back flip, Annette Henness did running front dive, Marilyn Palmer did the swan dive and back dive, Jeanne Webster did the jack knife, and Vose did running front dive and jack knife dive. The Delts won six points. Phis won thirteen points. Palmer came in first, Deeter came in second, and Webster came in third place.

6. In the flag relay the swimmers had to relay mostly on their legs for speed because the one hand held a flag. The girls swimming for the Phis were Peggy Gillespie,, Joyce Weldon, Betty Deeter, and Betty Hall; for the Delts were Madeline Ledwick, Clea Johnson, Dorothy Peplinski, and Dorothy Davies. The Delts won two points.

7. In the intermediate several strokes were done. First stroke was the graceful side stroke, which takes perfect timing. The swimmers taking part were Peggy Gillespie, Betty Hall, Peggy Fornhoff, and Marjorie Campbell. Gillespie won in first and Fornhoff won in second place.

The second stroke shown was elementary back stroke. The swimmers taking part were Betty Deeter, Peggy Gillespie, Helen Pushchak, and Marjorie Perkins. This stroke is just like a frog swimming. Gillespie came in first and Deeter second.

The third stroke was the breast stroke shown by Annette Henness and Eileen Vose. Henness won on this one.

Mickey Schlindwein and Gary Mouck did the racing breast stroke which is also known as the Butterfly. Gary came in first with 39.9 and Mickey came in second with 40.7.

8. In the game candle time the Delts were to put out the Phis candles. The swimmers taking part in this event were Betty Hall, (Continued on page 3)

Y.W.C.A. NEWS

The Y. W. C. A. held a regular meeting in their room at Music Hall, Wednesday evening, January 30th. There was a very interesting discussion on the subject, "Pioneers of Life," led by Miss Jane Ludgate.

It was decided to combine the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. until there are enough boys on the campus to have a separate Y. M. C. A. The boys will elect members of their organization to represent them at the meetings of Y. W. C. A. officers.

Following the discussion, officers were nominated. They will be installed at the next meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and listed in the next edition of the "Spectator."

Music News

Mu Kappa Gamma, the honorary music fraternity, held a "sing" Tuesday evening, February 12th, in Haven Hall parlors following dinner. All the popular songs were sung,, and some of the good "old timers" were brought back to memory. As almost everyone likes to sing, this program was enjoyed by all and we are looking forward to more such programs in the future.

Mu Kappa Gamma wants to have one program each month. The Uthmann Chor, the Academy Choir or the Church of the Covenant Choir from Erie willpresumably take part in Mu Kappa Gamma's April program. We'll be looking forward to this!

An enjoyable event which will probably take place sometime in March is a two piano recital to be performed by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Campbell.

The Choir Ensemble will sing for the Edinboro Community Club on March 17th and the Choir will sing Sunday evening, March 31st at the Union Services in Edinboro.

We're trying to round up boys for the choir. So far we have four basses and two tenors. This is a good start, but we need more. Perhaps in this way we can have a mixed chorus.

Rehearsals for the mixed group are every Tuesday at 2:50 p. m. Rehearsals for girls only are every Friday at 2:50 p. m.

Come on fellows! Join up! We'll be looking for you!

The REEDERS DIGEST

Now that Reeder Hall is once again filled, at least almost filled with male students, life seems pretty normal once again on the campus. The familiar whistle of boys to the flirting girls, bring old memories to all, but things are a little different now. There are married men and their wives living in Reeder. Rather nice the single men can drop in next door and get a bite to eat. Reeder is under new management too, Jack Bonnett is president of the house council, assisted by Will Dove and Pete Gall. Election night went over with a bang. After the election refreshments were served by Dr. and Mrs. Hissey. Our single men seem to be taking out quite well. Pete seems to be beaming around Dunbar, and there seems to be quite a friendship between Parker and I. Vose. Bailey, too, has taken quite a fancy to Gretchen, or vice versa. Reeder is looking forward to an increase in population soon. (?) What we fellows want to know why Rhode has so many birthdays. (?)

All the fellows, and I'm sure the girls, enjoyed our male waiters. Some fun, eh? Even if there were a few dishes and a cake dropped. The fellows at Reeder are glad their sweaters fit? At least that they fit as well as they do. They really do something to those cheerleaders, don't they?

EDINBORO QUINTET LOSES 'MASON' OPENER

On February 9, Edinboro Red Raiders journeyed to Clarion State Teachers College where they were appointed by a more experienced team, to the score of 53 to 32. Although starting out slowly in the first half, they bounced back in the remaining periods of the game. Outplay and outpoint Clarion, they were unable to overcome the tremendous lead established in the first half. The Edinboro team as a whole played a good game, taking into consideration the fact that our entire Edinboro team is made up of returned service men, half of whom have never played any more than high school basketball and the majority of that group have not even near a ball court for about two years. In view of the fact they have had only two weeks practice together and are competing with fellows who have played organized ball over three months, the team is doing a swell job under Sox Harrison's sonstrutive eye. The Clarion game's high point man was "buckets" Bennett.

DORM RESERVATIONS

March 15, deadline for dorm reservations.

Students planning to live in the dormitory next year are urged to make reservations before March 15. A fee of $10 is charged. Reservations may not be made after this date; but they may be cancelled.

SWIMMING MEET

Joyce Weldon, Betty Gross, Peggy Gillespie, Betty Deeter, Wilma Steadman, Carol Atwater, and Lois Weaver on the Phi team. The Delt swimmers were Marjorie Campbell, Helen Pushchak, Priscilla Worster, Jean Webster, Mary Alice Armagost, Clea Johnson, Dorothy Peplinski, and Dorothy Davies.

9. In the 60 yard medley the following swimmers took part: the back stroke was done by Betty Deeter and Grechen Haughton, the breast stroke was done by Joyce Weldon and Eileen Vose, and the crawl stroke was done by Annette Henness and Marilyn Palmer.

In a wonderful diving exhibition Mickey Schindwein and Gary Mouck did the following: back dive cut-away, front one and a half, back jack, back somersault, back jack with half twist. There are more boys expected to be in the next swimming meet.

This years freshman class had the most advanced swimmers and the beginners show promise of being good swimmers.

This swimming meet was a very good one and the future promises bigger and better swimming meets. The Delts won this meet scoring 31-16, so that the Phis will have to win the next two meets to win.

All College Party

The W. A. A. sponsored an All College Party held at the Country Club on February 15, 1946. There was a charge of $.25 at the door, but it was really worth it. Outdoors there was sleigh riding, skiing, and tobogganing. Indoors the students and faculty enjoyed cards, ping-pong, shuffle-board and dancing. A light luncheon was served at 9:00 p. m. Everyone enjoyed himself and is looking forward to another party such as this one.

Off-Campus News

Oh gosh! Here it is late and deadline over due and off-campus news yet to be written. . . Let's see, who is off campus this semester? Oh yes, Mike Capp, Porky Holowoch, Jim Bartoo, Ben Skelton and John Olsavsky. To be a co-ed college once again. . . and the girls - there are more of them. Ro Mineo has left the Howe house leaving only Carol Brown and Helen Boythe to carry on. The Perry House was more fortunate for it kept its happy trio. It has loads of pep and enthusiasm 'cause that is where Mary Belle Herrick, Jeanne Mould and Mary Artello reside. Jeanne, of course, is just out of this world now 'cause that veteran sailor called Bill is home again. If you need advice or reassurance about life in the Love World just see Jeanne. Mary Belle and Mary A. leave campus each week end so as to join the Saturday night fires at home. Marybelle though, says more about Alliance dances and skating parties than she does about the 'Home fires' Mmm! . . . Peggy Fornoff just can't tear herself away from Edinboro, so she joins the throngs to take a few more credits and help out at the swimming pool. . . Moving down the street we stop and look in at the Campbell home and wonder where Margie is. Probably busy and loaded down with work just like everyone else so we don't stop, but turn our head back toward the college. Maybe Jean Webster is studying with her 'cause she lives down in that end of town, too.

Gosh again . . . Didn't realize there were so many off-campus kids. . . Clea Johnson and the Bartoo girls get their exercise by walking back and forth to school each day. . . Seen daily getting more exercise than is desired are B. G. Hall and Willie Steadman who are waiting, but none too patiently, for the arrival of spring so they can ride their bikes and avoid the horrid drudgery of walking to school. Won't spring ever come?! . . .

Heavens!! Almost forgot the Schindwein - Eisman trio . . . Mickey and June took time out of Edinboro to go to Cleveland and gaze upon the wonderful sights of the Ice Follies. These lucky people. . . Bud is still breaking his neck each day trying to get to class before Miss Skinner. . . Maybe when spring comes and we won't have to bother with boots, heavy coats and slippery sidewalks, we'll all do better and arrive for classes on time. I for one had a horrid time on the ice today for I slid UP the post office STEP and DOWN the Normal Hall STEPS and if you wouldn't mind, I'd now love to slide off to bed. 'Night and pleasant dreams.

YEARBOOK WELL UNDER WAY

The Conneautan will be out one week before graduation this year, Dora Noxon, Editor, announces.

A dummy was set up at the last staff meeting. Covers have been chosen. Writeups are nearly completed and pictures were sent to the engravers last Friday.

There are still some service forms out. These can be obtained from Dora Noxon, Miss Portz or Earl C. Stubbe. Please turn them in as soon as possible, so writeups can be completed.

Haven's Ravens

With the starting of a new semester the Haven's Ravens are back with hints, bits, and comments on dorm life. So here goes from the first floor up.

Dee and Phyl are sadly missed on first floor, but the new tenants Pug and Baby are a welcome addition to the gang. . . Prima is dispensing home cooking since her mother sent her a well stocked box, let's have more. . . Congratulations are in order for the "newly weds" on first floor. Too bad there's such a housing shortage! . . . Have you noticed a young lady browsing around in her stocking feet since her shoes walked off without her? . . . Who's that relative of "Lightfoot Lee" who's afraid of publicity?

Now, on to second floor. . . Have you asked Dolly about your English grades lately? . . . Good things come in small packages and Posey can certainly juggle the trays. . . March is sure going to be a gay month for a certain four girls who have been eagerly watching all incoming mail. . . Thanks again to Mary Ferguson for being so generous at the time of the Freshman dance. . . Palmer, when are you and your roomies holding that house warming? . . . LeVieve and Eunie sure can tickle the ivories. . . Orchids to Tony and Gee Gee for their jitterbugging the night of the Slippery Rock game.

Puff, Puff, Puff. We finally reached third floor. . . ceiling zero, visibility zero. . . Who constructed the life like figure on third? Kennedy, where are you hiding that Valentine present from your sailor? . . . Who are those two eager beavers in room 44 who sleep two in a bed so as to have only one bed to make? . . . Pushie and Queenie, welcome to Haven Hall. . . First floor certainly misses the odor of home-cooked food since the cooks moved to third. . . Dutch, keep that gremlin roomie of yours out of room 45. . . Birthday greetings to all those who have been celebrating lately. . . Congratulations to Jack Bonnet and his freshmen waxing crew for the neat job done on the dining room floor. A thoroughly enjoyable spectacle! . . . Oh yes, as a parting remark . . . sending valen-

SERVICE OF NEGRO SPIRITUALS GIVEN AT COVENANT CHURCH

Members of the college heard Carol Brice, talented young negro contralto featured in a program given at the Church of the Covenant, Sunday evening, February 3. The Covenant Choir, Young People's Choir, and Choiristers of the Uthmann Chor sang for the capacity audience of 1800, also.

For this occasion a bus was chartered and driven by Mr. Russell Walker. Although the group arrived nearly an hour early, the church was already beginning to fill. Before the concert started, it was filled to capacity and people were not only standing in the aisles, but also were sitting downstairs in Knox Hall.

Miss Brice sang a group of eight solos accompanied on the piano by Miss Alma H. Way. The entire program was applauded by all local papers as one of the most impressive to be given in Erie recently.

times is an old but still gay custom when they are given in the right spirit. Well . . . that's all folks! See you next month.

W. A. A. BASKETBALL

The basketball season has begun in a big way this year with fine showing of last year's players and a really good turnout from the freshman class. With the graduation of most of the varsity, the new team will have to begin from scratch, but Miss Ruttle is optimistic about the new recruits. The enthusiasm and determination shown at the practices will be shown in a crowded season which is ahead of the girls. Comradely rivalry will be displayed at the Phi-Delt games which will be the first competition they enter. Play-Day will offer an opportunity to match skills with many surrounding colleges and since Edinboro just does not lose games these should be worth seeing. Probably the most interesting games will be those between classes. A trophy will be awarded to the team that wins the most inter-class games. Awards will also be given to the most outstanding forward and guard. With these prizes to strive for, it will prove to be an interesting and exciting season.
