Shrubs & Trees Add to LHS

by Joe Savrock

Have you noticed that the campus has taken on a special attractiveness this semester? It is not likely that you are just becoming aware of your surroundings--the campus is more attractive.

Under the guidance of Dr. Kenneth Settlemyer, Professor of Biological Science, and student Mike Holter, a beautification project is taking place. It involves the addition of pine trees and shrubbery at various locations across the campus.

Others helping in the project are students Steve Bothwell and Rich Bowman, and graduates Jeff Hoover and Andy Graham. All are volunteering their time free of charge. The ground crew is also giving a hand.

"It is a project that needed to be done," said Holter. "The plants give the buildings a finished look.

"Students can accomplish a lot in a scenic situation," continued Holter. "The presence of the plants allows a better atmosphere for studying."

The project had been on the drawing board for three years. "The selling of the idea to the administration took time," Mike said. "When that was accomplished and the funds became available, the project left the ground."

The group purchased the trees from the Penn-Cor Nursery at Rockview in an economical transaction. "We paid one-fourth to one-fifth the price which would normally be required to obtain trees through a commercial nursery," said Dr. Settlemyer.

Dr. Settlemyer was asked why the project is taking place in the fall with the winter season approaching. "It is a matter of availability," he said. "The working schedule at Rock-view requires the digging of evergreens in the fall when they are more dormant."

The job is not nearly completed. Deciduous trees are to be delivered in October, after the leaves have fallen off.

"This is a project which requires much understanding in the field of botany," explains Holter. "Anybody could take a shovel and plant a tree. We have a pre-selected spot for each of our plants. For example, we have a pinyon pine, a tree found in the southwest. Its only destructive enemy is wind. We have accounted for this--the tree is protected from wind by one of the buildings."

The plants will also serve as a study for botany

Seniors: All Education majors who will student teach the second semester and Arts and Science majors are invited to attend the Placement Registration Meeting in Ulmer Planitarium on Thursday, Oct. 4 at 1:00 p.m. Please plan to attend this very important meeting to secure your placement folder.

students, according to Dr. Settlemyer.

The results of the project thus far have received a definite praise from almost everyone on campus. Thanks to the crew, a cleaner, more natural atmosphere is evident this semester.

Suspicious

Couple

Equals Safety

If you find a suspicious looking couple walking around your dorm don't jump to conclusions; it may be one of the new student security teams.

The security teams function as "eyes" for the campus police by patrolling the campus and dorms for possible safety or fire hazards, and for vandalism or theft. If they encounter any of the above problems, the teams report them to the college police.

Each team consists of a male and a female student equipped with portable radios thus eliminating the problem of dormitory escorts. The security students are hired through the campus work-study program. One of the 10 teams works every night: eight to midnight on week-nights and ten till two on weekends.

Any campus organization who wishes to enter a Float in the Homecoming Parade and who has not recieved any entry form, please see Ron Palmer at the PUB office.

'Theatre of the Mind'

Returns to LHS

The casts for the fall Reader's Theatre productions has been announced by Dr. Robert Kidder.

The cast of "Gallows Humor" includes Ben Aptaker, Joe Nicely, and Nancy Wiener. Harold Pinter's "The Collection", to be presented the night after "Gallows Humor", will feature Mike Coburn, Charlotte Elmendorf, Ed Myers, and Joe Nicely.

Reader's Theatre is an intimate form of theatre with very little, if any, scenery and costumes. Because action is suggested and visualized in the minds of the audience, it is sometimes called "Theatre of the Mind". The physical script is either carried by the reader or is in evidence somewhere in the theatre. There is a continuing effort in Reader's Theatre to develop and maintain a closer, more personalized relationship between performers and audience. Emphasis is placed on aural appeal, with the audience's attention concentrated on the literature presented.

The initial Reader's Theatre performance at Lock Haven was in 1968. Kidder, who directs the 2 to 3 productions a year, has remarked that the students are quite receptive to the performances.

Dates for the productions have not yet been set and will be announced at a later time.

Students Worship Together

by Marlene Davy

Chi Alpha, Agape, and The Newman Club — do they mean anything to you? If they don't, they should because all three are active religious organizations on Lock Haven State's campus.

Agape is an informal Bible study, and sharing group. Agape meets to study the Bible and share what it means to them, and to talk over problems that any individual may have. If anyone wishes to join Agape in fellowship, they meet Monday evenings in the PUB music room at 7 p.m.

Chi Alpha is an inter-denominational group of students that meets every Thursday night at 7:30 in Bentley Hall Lounge. They gather to sing and praise Jesus. Chi Alpha also has a choir which meets every Monday evening at 6 p.m. in the PUB music room to practice for their many singing engagements across Pennsylvania.

There will be an important PRAECO meeting on Monday evening, October 1st, at 7 p.m. in Raub 306. Our representative from Bradbury/Keller will be there to discuss basic yearbook design. New members are welcome to attend.

There will be an organizational meeting of All Sociology - Anthropology majors Tues. Oct. 2, in Raub 307 at 1:00 p.m.

The Newman Club sponsors a Mass in the PUB conference room every Saturday night at 5 p.m. Although this group is mainly made up of Roman Catholic Students, it is for all students who wish to attend.

All three groups welcome and hope that the students at Lock Haven would join them in worship.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Attention: All girls who signed out hockey equipment to try out for the team, please return it to the hockey managers during practice.

APO is having a social Thursday at 7:30 P.M. in the PUB conference room. Open to all. Come find out about us. Refreshments served.

Any veteran interested in living off-campus in a Veterans House for the 1974-75 academic year, please contact Dr. Tomasi in the training room, Bill in the Student Affairs Office, ext. 360, or Howie in room 318, Gross Hall, ext. 471 as soon as possible but no later than Oct. 8.

There will be an organizational meeting for Women's Intramural Tennis, Mon. Oct. 1, 1973. It will be held in Zimmerli Lobby at 6:30 p.m. Attend whether you already signed up before or not, anyone else is still welcome to sign up, too.

Notice to all students who didn't sign their release forms which would allow their names to appear in the student directory. If you wish for your name to appear in the directory, get down to the PUB secretary's office today.

'The Adventures of Super Pusher'

Faster than speed! More powerful than a kilo of Loco-Weed! Able to leap tall buildings on a single hit! It's Super Pusher! Disguised as Clark "OD" Kent, mild mannered reporter for the small college newspaper THE DAILY PLANT, who fights a never ending battle (against the narcs) for dope, booze, and the drug oriented way.

Today's episode opens with Super Pusher making another of his famous, witty statements, "Wow man, what a downer!" Clark made this statement after learning that his fellow woman reporter Mary Jane Lane had beat him on the scoop of the break-in at North Hall.

Miss Lane is a good reporter. She has a knack for being in the right places at the right times. Unfortunately, she got this scoop about the break-in at North Hall from the burglars, while it was happening. The "Downer" Mr. Kent was referring to was Mary Jane's short trip from the fifth floor window to the parking lot below.

Suddenly, the apprentice young pusher and part time reporter Bennie Olson, dashed into the pad yelling, "Golly Mr. Kent, the chief just crashed! He wants to talk with the fuzz; he says he is going to tell them everything if you don't supply him with the Reds."

Will Mary Jane survive her bad trip? Will Bennie Olson ever grow up? Will Clark Kent get the scoop he so desperately needs? And will the chief fink on the mysterious goings on around THE DAILY PLANT offices? For the answers to these and other mind boggling questions, make sure you read the further "ADVENTURES OF SUPER PUSHER."

Lost & Found

A reward is offered to the person or persons who know the whereabouts of the T - 2000 tennis racket that was mistakenly removed from Bentley Lounge. Please contact Cindy in 606 McEntire. It would be greatly appreciated.

Undeafated Lock Haven Sinks Shipp , 3-0

Despite a narrow 1-0 lead at half-time, the LHS booter squad played an inspired second period and went on to shut-out a tough Shippensburg eleven, 3-0

Recording their fourth shutout in five contests Saturday, the Eagles and Red Raiders played "even steven" for the first half with both teams having scoring opportunities but failed to take advantage of them.

Tom Rowan put the Eagles on the scoreboard at 36:10 of the first half on an assist by Don Copeland. Copeland took a shot at the Red Raider goal which caromed off Rowan's shoulder and into the net giving Rowan the score and Mr. Copeland the assist.

Shippensburg scored a goal but had it nullified when the time keeper failed to signal the end of the half and the goal was made 10 seconds too late.

SECOND HALF BEST EVER

The second half was one that Eagle Coach Karl Herrmann called, "the best half I've ever seen an Eagle Team play. They combined sharp passing, aggressive play and good speed and really put it to them."

Don Copeland made it 2-0 in favor of LHS at 4:50 into the second period. Copeland scored on a penalty kick making it 2 consecutive games in which he has scored on a penalty shot.

Shippensburg had their best chance of the game to score when they were given a free kick at the Eagle goal on a penalty. They missed the shot as Steve Tanner made a beautiful save, but were then given another shot when Tanner was called for moving before the ball was kicked.

The ensuing free shot went wide to the right and the shutout for the Eagles was never really threatened the remainder of the contest.

Don Copeland rounded out the scoring at 17:40 into the half on a 4 yd. shot from center on an assist by Bill Bush making the score- 3-0 LHS.

Lock Haven blasted 27 shots at the Red Raider goal while Shippensburg managed just 14 at the Bald Eagle net. Steve Tanner, Eagle goalie, played his usual great game saving 11 shots on goal and doing an exceptionally good job defending against the penalty kick early in the second period.

HERRMAN PRAISES SURPRISES

In commenting on the game Herrmann stated that he was very pleased with a few of the new members of this years squad.

"Bob Wright played a fantastic game, Herrmann stated. "He's come along very fast. He came out of nowhere and is playing excellent ball, Al Rice is also a pleasant surprise. He has also been very effective especially with those 'throw-ins' of his."

In Saturday's game both Dave Chambers and Tom Rowan did another great job on the wings. They not only played well on offense but were also extremely effective on defense.

Coach Herrmann remarked "Most teams don't use their wings to the full extent that they could. By using Rowan and Chambers on defense its like giving us 2 extra defensive players and I think it definitely helps our game.

They all played a real fine game, stated Herrmann,

"Its hard to single out certain players. What really helped us in today's game was our domination of midfield play, and our extreme aggressive."

Jayvee soccer action saw the Eagles defeat the Red-Raider Jayvees 2-0.

FACE VILLANOVA TUESDAY

LHS will have to play aggressively this Tuesday when they face a tough Villanova squad on McCollum field at 3:00 p.m.

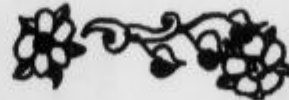

Villanova is 1-0-1 this year with a victory over St. Francis, and a tie with St. Joe's who have usually been ranked among the top ten in the East in previous years.

Last year was the first meeting between LHS and Villanova with LHS winning unbelievably 4-3 in overtime.

Head Coach Herrmann commented "They outplayed us 88½ minutes out of 90 last year and we beat them. They were ahead 3-1 with a minute and a half to go and we tied the game with 1 second on the clock and won it in overtime.

"We play a different type of game," Herrmann continued, "they are a ball control with a short direct passing game, whereas we play a hustling aggressive running game."

The two different styles should make for an interesting and exciting match-up Tuesday- especially if its anything like last years contest.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The article concerning the lack of communication for the security police understates itself.

Several times this weekend I have called 223 and was never answered. Fortunately, it was only to have Price Aud. opened, no serious trouble. But what if I were in trouble? I'm sure an unanswered phone would do me no good. The security people are good people and I'm sure they try to do their jobs well, but they do need a better communication system.
