

Homecoming
elections today in Bentley for
11 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Eagle Eye

Tuesday, October 10, 1989

Volume 36, Number 4 4 Pages

Lock Haven University

Field hockey ranked second in the nation
see page 3

Tennis team loses
to Edinboro 6-3

Latronica speaks on the topic of hazing

Kate Kinney
Eagle Eye Reporter

Last night Zeta Tau Alpha hosted a hazing seminar in the Hall of Flags with speaker Carol Latronica.

Members of Zeta Tau Alpha and Sigma Kappa were in attendance to hear Latronica, Assistant Dean of Students, speak on the topic of hazing during sorority pledging.

Latronica opened the lecture with allowing members of the audience to brainstorm on why they chose to join a sorority. She then went into the harm caused by hazing to both families and campus chapters.

Penny Gardner, Advisor for Sigma Kappa who attended the standard with the chapter pledge class, said there is a need for hazing policies and seminars on hazing because "young people tend to be carried away with the idea of trying to make pledges earn membership".

"Hazing policies and procedures help govern so that people learn how to be good brothers and sisters, and not have to earn membership," she continued.

House Bill 749 for the State of Pennsylvania was passed in 1986 and requires that all state universities must develop and utilize an active anti-hazing policy. In the case of hazing, the University has the legal right, according to Bill 749, to impose penalties including "...the imposition of fines, the withholding of diplomas or transcripts pending compliance with the rules or pending payment of fines and imposition of probation, suspension or dismissal".

The University also has published its views on Greek hazing in the University student Handbook; pages 43 and 45 in this year's edition.

Latronica also emphasized that three of the four campus sororities have submitted their anti-hazing policies to the University, to allow the Administration to know where they stand on pledge programs and what is to be expected during the pledgship period.

Latronica said she felt that seminars, such as the ZTA Hazing standard are necessary because "its a concern, its a law, and its something we have to be on the lookout for".

"One death is just too much and when you have needless deaths from hazing or drinking, something has to be done. That's why both the drinking and hazing laws came about in such severe steps," said Latronica.

The hazing program like last night's is a required standard by the National Headquarters of the Zeta Tau Alpha fraternity. The Standards Chairperson for the Zeta Nu chapter of ZTA is Tara Bray, who was responsible for this seminar that was open to all the campus Greeks at Lock Haven University.

Bray said the reason the Zeta Nu chapter holds this standard every year is "to make people aware of the problems that can go on in the Greek organizations on campus, and to let pledges know that they don't have to submit to hazing."

National Humanities Endowment calls for stronger requirements

WASHINGTON - Too many students are graduating from college without knowing "basic landmarks of history and thought," writes National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Chairman Lynne V. Cheney in 50 Hours, a new report that urges colleges and universities to revise curricula so that undergraduates study essential areas of knowledge.

With the release of 50 Hours, NEH announced the results of a survey administered by the Gallup Organization that showed significant gaps in college seniors' knowledge of history and literature.

On the eve of the federal holiday honoring Christopher Columbus, the Gallup survey shows that one-fourth of the nation's college seniors did not know that Columbus first landed in the Western Hemisphere before the year 1500.

Noting that many colleges and universities allow students to earn bachelor's degrees without taking courses in history, literature, science or mathematics, Cheney's 50 Hours urges trustees and administrators to support faculty members who are working to strengthen general education requirements. She also encourages alumni, parents and students to work for reform.

The new NEH report cites dozens of schools that have developed required courses of study for undergraduates-- cores of learning that give students opportunities to gain basic knowledge of fields of human thought.

As a device for organizing these examples, 50 hours sets forth a core of learning - 50 semester hours of required study in cultures and civilizations, foreign languages, mathematics, natural sciences and the social sciences.

The Gallup survey of nearly 700 college seniors, which was conducted under contract to NEH in spring 1989, showed many students to be unfamiliar with basic facts about history and literature.

As Gallup puts it, "If the students' answers were graded, more than half of those tested would have failed. Using the standard 'A' to 'F' scale, where a less than 60-percent-correct score means failure, 55 of the students would have graded 'F' and another 20 percent 'D'."

The survey showed that roughly 25 percent of college seniors could not distinguish Churchill's words from Stalin's, or Karl Marx's writings from the U.S. Constitution. More than 40 percent could not identify Magna Carta, the Missouri Compromise, or Reconstruction. And most could not link major works by Plato, Dante, Shakespeare, or Milton with their authors.

When the Gallup Organization asked college seniors five history questions based on the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Services examinations for prospective U.S. citizens, a high percentage of the students only answered two correctly.

50 Hours says that many American colleges and universities fail to provide enough structure in the curriculum, particularly in the area of study known as "general education."

"Entering students often find few requirements in place and a plethora of offerings," Cheney writes, "There are hundreds of courses to choose from, a multitude of ways to combine them to earn a bachelor's degree, and a minimum of direction. In the absence of an ordered plan of study, some undergraduates manage to put together coherent and substantive programs, but others move through college years with little rationale."

In place of a strong core, many colleges have loosely stated "distribution requirements," directing that students take some courses in certain areas and some in others. At many schools, the list of acceptable choices is long, and most of the offerings are so specialized that "they often have little to do with the broadly conceived learning that should be at the heart of general education," Cheney writes.

Citing examples of universities where one can fulfill humanities distribution requirements with courses in interior design or social requirements by taking "Lifetime Fitness," Cheney notes that some courses that satisfy distribution requirements "have little to do with the areas of human knowledge that they are supposed to elucidate."

"It is through the curriculum that college and university faculties establish a design for education," Cheney says. "It is through the curriculum that they communicate what it is an educated person should know."

A required course of study, Cheney writes, gives order and coherence to a college education. "It provides a context for forming the parts of education as a whole."

A common core of learning draws students together - and faculty members as well. "When that common learning engages students with their democratic heritage," Cheney writes, "it encourages informed participation in our ongoing national conversation: What are the limits to freedom, and how are they to be decided?"

Cheney notes that when students are encouraged to learn about the history and thought of cultures different from their own, "they gain insight into others with whom they share the earth. They come to understand unfamiliar ideals and traditions - and to see more clearly the characteristics that define their own particular journey."

The core curriculum would include five basic areas of knowledge: 18 hours of Cultures and Civilizations, 12 hours of foreign language, six hours of Concepts of Mathematics, eight hours of foundations of Natural Sciences, and six hours of The Social Sciences and the Modern World.

For each of the five areas of knowledge it considers, 50 hours offers examples of core courses that have been developed at colleges and universities across the nation. This is done, Cheney explains, "to call attention to the variety of ways in which substantive and coherent learning can be achieved."

50 Hours recommends that courses in the core be taught in small classes and in an integrated fashion, so that, for example, students reading Descartes' philosophy in a Western Civilization course are reminded of his contributions to mathematics. Cheney also recommends that the core be taught by the college's most distinguished faculty, who can bring their learning, experience and stature to the task: "In the core, as throughout the curriculum, courses should be taught by men and women who, though deeply knowledgeable, remain eager to learn."

OPINIONS/EDITORIALS

Letters to the Editor:

Sex harassment article needs to address more important information

Dear Editor:

This letter is in response to the front page article on sexual harassment which appeared in your Friday, October 6 issue.

I feel that the article lacked much important information about sexual harassment that needed to be addressed. The example given was stereotypical and there were several aspects of sexual harassment that were overlooked. According to the university's sexual harassment policy, sexual harassment is defined as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal and physical conduct of a sexual nature occurring when:

1. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, or of a student's academic status or treatment;

2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by any individual is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting an individual; or

3. Such conduct creates an intimi-dating, hostile or offensive living, working, or academic environment to a reasonable person.

The following types of behavior are samples of what may constitute sexual harassment: general sexist remarks or behavior, inappropriate and offensive uninvited sexual advances, solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-linked behavior by promise of reward, coercion of sexual activity by threat or punishment, or sexual assault."

Sexual harassment is not only "being attacked"--it has more subtle, and common forms, and every single type of harassment can be dealt with in the manner described in the article. I understand that university employees received a copy of the policy. But, as a recommendation and request to the administration of this university, each student should be mailed a copy as well. I feel that it is our right as students to be provided with this university.

Sincerely,
Maureen Campbell

Club Haven needs a variety of music

Dear Club Editor:

We have attended several Club Havens in the past few years and have noticed that there really isn't much of a variety of types of music offered for dancing. Rap and new wave seems to dominate Club Haven. We also have a few suggestion.

The bulk of the tunes could be current and classic tunes by acts such as Sting, Madonna, Debbie Gibson, Tiffany, Tina Turner, David Bowie, Robert Palmer, Rod Stewart, the Hooters, Elton John, the Bangles, the Outfield, Rick Springfield, Huey Lewis, and Bruce Springsteen. Other groups and types of music could be mixed in to provide a variety.

For example, for the heavy metal fans you could mix in a few songs an hour of groups such as Bon Jovi, Def Leopard, Motley Crue, Great White, White Lion, Van Halen, Led Zeppelin, Kiss, Stryper, Lita Ford, Cinderella, Ratt, Joan Jett, Pat Benatar, Vixen, Warrant, Billy Idol, Ozzy Osbourne, Living Colour, and Europe. Some classics by Hendrix, Jefferson Airplane, and Meat Loaf would be good, too. Many of these groups have released good dancing songs; in fact, Billy Idol's "Vital Idol" is an entire album of dance mixes.

As a few of your recent letters have illustrated, the students of Lock Haven University like a variety of types of music, not just one thing such as rap or heavy metal. Current attendance at Club Haven is good, but how many people stay for the entire time? We like the idea of a non-alcoholic dance club (in fact we applaud it), but dancing to the same stuff played over and over gets sort of boring

Sincerely,
Steven B. Garman
Shirley Ann Confer

ANNIVERSARY SALE

ocean pacific.

Neon winter surf clothing

20%

Swatch Watch
Free guards with every watch plus free bookcover with any purchase

STOREWIDE SALE!
15% OFF

Register for free T-shirts drawing

Weaver & Probst
30 East Main St.
Lock Haven
748-3214

Hours:
Mon.-Thurs. 12 til 6
Fri. til 9
Sat. til 5

DELIVERY ON THE DOUBLE.

At Little Caesars® when you order one delicious pizza, we automatically bring you two, for one low price. And we bring them fast. That's delivery on the double. Only from Little Caesars.®

Little Caesars®

K-Mart Plaza 748-7777

DIANA FRANEK'S BEAUTY SALON

NEXUS SALE

THERAPE $3.50
HUMECTRESS $6.50

604 W. MAIN STREET
748-7954

Eagle Eye

Parsons Union Building
Lock Haven University
Lock Haven, PA 17445
(717) 893-2334

Editor In Chief.....Terry Day
News Editors.....Biff Miller
Sports Editor.....Rob Yoegel
Features Editor.....Mike Walton
Photography Editor.....
Business Manager.....Machelle Grace
Advertising Sales.....Andrea Roste
Advertising Designer.....Jeanne Ruczak
Announcements Coordinator.....Shannon Pringle
Circulation Manager.....Bill Alexander
Advisor.....Dr. Douglas S. Campbell

The Eagle Eye is the official newspaper of Lock Haven University. It is published bi-weekly in accordance to the University calendar. The articles, opinions, pictures, and layout of the Eagle Eye are the responsibility of the editorial staff and do not reflect the views of the students, the faculty, or the administration of the Lock Haven University unless specifically stated. Letter to the editor must be submitted to the Eagle Eye by noon the day before publication. All letters should be typed, should be no longer than 200 words, should included the writer's signature and telephone number. The editorial staff reserves the right to edit the copy for libel, taste, style, and length. The Eagle Eye staff meets Tuesday and Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Parsons Union Building. The Eagle Eye is funded by the student activity fee.

SPORTS

Ranked second in the nation...

Field hockey team undefeated over long weekend

By Deb Donlick and
Lisa Newmiller
Eagle Eye Sports Reporters

The Lady Eagle field hockey team remains undefeated in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) after sweeping three games this weekend from Kutztown, Slippery Rock, and East Stroudsburg.

The sweep began on Thursday afternoon when the Lady Eagles traveled to Kutztown to take a 2-1 victory over the Golden Bears.

Over twenty minutes ticked off the clock before Lady Eagle Gia Sgrignoli scored at the 20:30 mark. The Lady Eagles led at halftime 1-0.

LHU started the second half in grand fashion as senior Kelly Charles added her second goal of the season at the 1:51 mark.

The Golden Bears answered with their only goal at the 6:52.

"The team executed when they had to," said head coach Sharon Taylor.

"Kelly Charles probably had one of the best overall games of her career."

The Lady Eagles held on to their lead came away with the win.

Lock Haven goalie Dot Schmidt had 11 saves to Kutztown's nine. LHU also outshot Kutztown 29-14.

On Saturday, the Lady Rockets of Slippery Rock came into town.

After a scoreless first half, Lock Haven's Sgrignoli put one across the line from an assist by Missy Carman.

Sgrignoli's goal was the only one of the afternoon which gave LHU a 1-0 victory.

The Lady Eagles had 33 shots against only two from Slippery Rock.

A new day brought nothing new for the Lady Eagles as they took to Route 80 and headed to East Stroudsburg for a rare Sunday tilt with the Lady Warriors.

Even after a long weekend the Lady Eagles still had life in them.

Missy Carman began the attack at the 12:25 mark to give Lock Haven a 1-0 half-time lead.

In second half action the Lady Eagles still had things under control.

Sophomore Teresa Cisney got her fourth goal of the season at the 5:00 mark to make it a 2-0 contest.

East Stroudsburg wouldn't go down without a fight as they got a goal from Ann Marie Delbovi at the 8:40 mark.

Lock Haven's Vicki Derr added an insurance goal at 32:30 which gave the victory to the Haven, 3-1.

The Lady Eagles outshot the Lady Warriors 36-8 and goalie Dot Schmidt had 6 saves.

The field hockey team continued their long string of games yesterday at Kent State (score unavailable at press time) and will be in action against Mansfield on Wednesday.

Game time is 3 p.m. at Smith Field.

Bald Eagles thumped in Maine, 56-0

By Herb Samuels
Eagle Eye Sports Reporter

The football team suffered its worst defeat of the year on Saturday to the University of Maine, 56-0.

The Blackbears of Maine are ranked number eight in the NCAA Division I-AA polls and Lock Haven found out why.

"We were very surprised by their team speed," said Bald Eagle head coach Tom Jones. "We knew they had speed but they were much quicker than we expected."

On their first two possessions, Maine scored touchdowns. They used both the passing and running game to confuse the Bald Eagle defensive unit.

Then in the second quarter Maine blew the game wide open with four touchdowns. At halftime Maine led, 42-0.

Maine had compiled 268 total yards in the first half to LHU's eight.

Two of Maine's touchdowns were punched in by Carl Smith. Smith is the leading rusher in Division I-AA.

Maine added two more scores in the second half while the Bald Eagles could never get started on offense.

The lack of an offensive threat was partly due to the absence of top rusher Guy Wade as well as his back-up Rocky Vuocolo.

"They (Maine) were very quick on defense," Jones said. "Our offense didn't have a good game at all."

Maine racked up 465 total yards (279 yards rushing, 186 passing), while the Bald Eagles finished with 53.

"I am very proud of our kids," Jones said. "We never gave up. Even when we were down 56-0, We hung in there with them."

"We were outmanned out there," said

Jones. "We didn't play the Blackbears, we played a bunch of Grizzlies. We learned a lot on this trip but at 56-0, it was a tough lesson," he said.

Jones feels the team cannot deal with this loss too long.

"We have to pick ourselves up and deal with another giant," Jones said.

That "giant" is the University of Edinboro who is currently 4-1 and a national Division II power.

LHU	0	0	0	0	--	0
Maine	14	28	7	7	--	56

First Quarter

M-- Sirmans 1 run (McCleish kick), 10:36

M-- Sirmans 1 run (McCleish kick), 6:31

Second Quarter

M-- Roth 5 pass from Buck (McCleish kick), 13:36

M-- Smith 54 run (McCleish), 10:35

M-- Smith 2 run (McCleish kick), 4:33

M-- Scrontas 1 pass from Del Rosso (McCleish kick), 0:06

Third Quarter

M-- Smith 3 run (McCleish kick), 8:58

Fourth Quarter

M-- Banks 11 pass from Del Rosso (McCleish kick), 14:56

A--11,176

	LHU	Maine
First downs	2	23
Rushes-yards	29-19	64-279
Passing yards	34	186
Return yards	0	33
Comp-Att	4-21-1	16-22-0
Fumbles-lost	5-2	2-2
Punts	12-32	4-36
Penalties-yards	6-65	10-80
Time of poss.	19:49	40:11

Booters can't hold onto lead and lose to West Virginia Wesleyan, 4-2

By Cory Marshall
Eagle Eye Sports Reporter

Atle Nesheim scored with 2:10 left in regulation and the West Virginia Wesleyan Bobcats scored two goals in overtime to defeat the Bald Eagle soccer team, 4-2.

The Bobcats, one of the top teams in the NAIA, opened with Sean Boyle's unassisted goal at 11:22.

Boyle beat LHU goalkeeper Chad Houck to put his team up 1-0.

Lock Haven tied the match with exactly 38:00 gone when Dave Globke took a pass from Brian Maye and put it past Bobcat goalkeeper Petter Tronstad.

The Bald Eagles scored five minutes and 19 seconds later when Paul Grietz took a high pass from Tibi Kobolak and headed the ball into the net for a 2-1 Lock Haven half-time lead.

West Virginia Wesleyan battled back and late in the second half Nesheim scored an unassisted goal to send the game to extra time.

The Bobcats took command in the overtime periods scoring once in the first 15 minute overtime stanza and once again in the second.

Colin Rocke scored in the first overtime period while Michael Thompson scored the second on an assist from Sean Boyle.

The loss drops the Bald Eagles record to 6-4-2 on the season.

Chad Houck posted nine saves for Lock Haven.

Petter Tronstad posted 10 saves for the Bobcats.

West Virginia Wesleyan outshot the LHU booters 19-17.

"We were playing well at 2-1," said head coach Lenny Long.

"We've had a tendency to sit on leads and then teams come at us," he said.

"We cleared the ball out of the box and didn't come out after the clearance," explained Long.

"It came to one of their players (Atle Nesheim) who was 25 yards out and hits a good shot, and its 2-2."

Long noted West Virginia Wesleyan (10-0-1) would probably be one of the top teams Lock Haven will see this year.

The booters travel to Kutztown on Wednesday for a contest against the Golden Bears.

Cross country teams wins Lycoming Invitational

By Merritt La Porta
Eagle Eye Sports Reporter

The cross country teams captured first place in both the men's and women's match-ups held this past Saturday at Lycoming College.

LHU dominated the women's race taking the top six spots to easily crush Lycoming and Kings College, 15-50 each.

Debbie Valansky crossed the finish line first in 19:40, followed by Stacie Hebert, Julie Grasser, Dawn Brenner, Jill Baumgartner, and Pam Shepherd before a Lycoming runner broke up the string.

"Debbie had a strong performance and Stacie had her best race of the season," said head coach Leroy Straley.

On the men's side Kevin Wheeler was the first harrier across the line with a time of 28:12.

Wheeler's finish was a new course record at Lycoming College and the second week in a row that he has set a new record.

LHU defeated Lycoming 21-36, and romped over Kings 19-37.

Teammate Tim Haring was close behind Wheeler in third place followed by Travis Faulkner, Jamie Shea and Brad Reese in sixth, seventh, and eighth place respectively.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Attention All Catholic Students, Staff & Faculty!!!

The Newman Community is happy to announce College Folk Mass at 12 Noon Sunday in Ulmer Planetarium!! This Mass will be held weekly every week that college is in session! Come worship as a University Community!

Would you turn your back on a desperate woman?
October 19, 20 & 21.

Juniors, Seniors and Graduate Students:

The deadline for the receipt of student applications for the sixteen week Spring session (Jan. 8, 1990 to Apr. 27, 1990) of the Capital semester Internship Program is Monday, October 16, 1989. Pennsylvania Capital Semester Internship Program is a wonderful opportunity for students to experience how State government works. It gives students a chance to earn money and college credit while trying on the professional duties of their prospective careers. Program brochures and students applications may be secured in the Career Planning and Placement Office, Akeley Hall.

Help Wanted

Peer tutors are needed in the following areas: Earth Science, History, Economics, Computer Science, Sociology, Biology and Political Science.

Peer tutors should have an A or B in the subject they will be tutoring, two recommendations from faculty and an overall cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or better.

Please stop by the Tutorial Center (Smith G-11) immediately if you are interested in applying.

For Sale

One domesticated black racer snake. Easy to take care of, loves to be held, one feeding a week. Complete with tank, water bowl, two hot rocks, hiding place, thermometer and removable tank lid. Call 748-3860 after 6pm.

Attention Track and Field Athletes

Mandatory organizational meeting for all athletes interested in participating in the upcoming indoor and outdoor season. Come meet the new head coach for both men and women on Thursday, October 12th at 7:00pm in the Zimmerli Building room #7.

STUDENTS: Attend the Graduate/Law School Fair on Thursday, October 12, 1989, 11am - 2pm, Bentley Hall Lounge. The following universities will participate: Bloomsburg, Dayton School of Law (OH), Edinboro, Pennsylvania State, Shippensburg, Slippery Rock and Western New England Law School (MA).

SENIORS: The Radio Shack District Office, Mechanicsburg, Pa, will be conducting on campus interviews for a Manager Trainee on Wednesday, October 18, 1989. Interested Management Science seniors may sign up for a specific interview time in the Career Planning and Placement Office, Akeley Hall.

The Homecoming Committee desperately needs convertibles for the Homecoming Parade on October 21. If anyone is willing to help, please contact Leland Spangler at 893-2125.

You Don't Have To Think Twice!!!
Vote Jody Jackson for
1989 Homecoming Queen

ADOPTION

Happily married couple that cannot have their own children want very much to share their lives with newborn white infant. We offer much love and security. Legal and confidential. Please call Mary Beth and Gary collect at (814)-349-8252.

FOR SALE

Dorm room sized refrigerator. New condition. Call 748-8732 or 748-4494.

Sociology/Anthropology Club

The next meeting of the Sociology/ Anthropology Club will be at 5pm, Tuesday, October 17th in room 100 of the Health Science Building. Membership due of $5.00 are due at this meeting.

Seniors: The National Security Agency (NSA) 1989 Professional Qualification Test is scheduled for Saturday, October 28, 1989 at Penn State University and other test centers. ETS must receive your registration by Friday, October 13, 1989. Test bulletins are available in the Career Planning and Placement Office, Akeley Hall, or call 1-800-255-8415 to request a bulletin from NSA.

Attention All Students

Copies of the 1989 Senior Directory, with the photographs of over 240 1989 Lock Haven University graduates, are available in the Office of Public Relations. The cost is $3 per copy and benefits the Haven League campus beautification project. The Office of Public Relations is located in 120 Akeley Hall.

With no yearbook, the senior directory is the only record of the senior class available to students.

HEY YOU !!!!

Are you skin and bones or soft and cushiony? Come and find out you percent (%) body fat. Tuesday, October 10 at 7:30pm - Woolridge Hall T.V. Lounge.

Need A Bentley Break?

The Rotaract Club is sponsoring their second annual Faculty / Administration Dinner Auction. This gives students the opportunity to have a homecooked meal and get to know their professors better. The auction will take place at 6pm, Wednesday, October 11th in the PUB Coffeehouse. For those who cannot attend the meeting, silent bids will be taken during lunch hours in Bentley Lobby, Monday through Wednesday. Bids start at three dollars per plate. No money is needed until you win your dinner. What a bargain! Watch for details.

Secondary Teacher Education Meeting for Freshmen and Sophomores :

There will be an information meeting for you on Tuesday, October 17, at 1pm in Hamblin International Auditorium of Robinson Hall. Please try to attend this meeting.

The phone on the other end of the phone knows where you live.
October 19, 20 & 21.

Poetry Reading

The first meeting for A Night of Poetry Readings will be October 16 at 5:30pm, room 316 in Sloan Theatre. Anyone interested (students and faculty) in reading poems please bring the poem(s) you wish to do. Original work encouraged. Any questions, call Debbie at 3471 or Sinjiva at 748-8256.

Help Wanted

Waitress, bartender and cook at the Black Forest Inn. Afternoon and evening hours, Thursday - Sunday. Contact Ron Purvis in the Employment Office at 893-2409.

Attention December 1989 Graduates

On December 13, 1989 a "Senior Bash" is being considered at Sal's. If interested, sign ups will be held on Monday, October 9th through Thursday, October 12th, 7pm -9pm in the PUB Ground Floor. Plans are in the making. We need an exact number.

Homecoming Parade

Entry forms are available in the Business Office of the PUB for any group or organization interested in constructing a float for this year's Homecoming Parade. All completed entry forms should be returned by Friday, October 13, 1989. Keep in mind that this year's theme is "Puttin' on the Ritz".

Attention All Faculty

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha would like to invite you to their annual Apple Polishing party October 11th. It will be held at the ZTA house, 2 Chestnut Street, from 4-6pm. We're looking forward to seeing you there.

All Interested Students

There will be a meeting of the Black Cultural Society Wednesday, October 11th at 7pm in the Black Cultural Center in Bentley Lobby. Attendance is a necessity when you want to get anything done. All students are welcome!

All Interested Students

There will be an organizational meeting for all of those interested in Amnesty International here at LHU. The meeting will be held Tuesday at 7pm in Smith Hall Lobby. Be there!

Attention Education Majors and Faculty

The Phys. Ed. Club has invited "Teacher of the Year" and LHU graduate Paul Mayer to speak at the Hall of Flags on Monday, October 16 @7:00pm. Anyone interested in teaching is encouraged to come.

All Management Science Majors!!!

There's a picnic tonight at 6:00 at 114 Susquehanna Ave. All Management Science Majors are welcome. If attending, please don't come empty handed. Hope to see you there!

PSEA Meeting

Be a leader in education!! Join PSEA every Thurs. night 8 p.m. Robinson 217.

1990 Newspaper Editing Internships
Application forms for the Dow Jones Newspaper Fund's 1990 Newspaper Editing Intern Program for College Juniors and the Minority Editing Intern Program for College Seniors and Graduate Students may be secured in the Career Planning and Placement Office, Akeley Hall. About 50 newspapers are signed up to hire students who are selected through this centralized process.

Attention All Students

Check out what Havenscope's got. Thursday, October 12, 1989. Channel 10 at 7pm.

Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority.

Rock - A - Thon

The sisters of AST will be holding their annual 24-hour Rock-A-Thon on October 13th and 14th, at the intersection by the Lock Haven University sign. It will start at 6pm on October 13 and will continue until 6pm on October 14. All proceeds will go to the Lock Haven Day Care.

Attention

ACM and PC Users group meeting in Robinson 407, Thursday at 1:00pm. All are welcome!

Jody Jackson

For Homecoming Queen!
Sigma Kappa is behind you 100%

Don't Be Disappointed!

Sigma Kappa is still selling those great LHU Boxer Shorts for only $5. All sizes are still available so give us a call at 748-4655 or 893-3153.

Seniors: Are You Interested in International Opportunities?

Review the Internet 1989 Summary Profile of 463 International Development Contractors and Grantees with Headquarters in the United States. Develop a significant resume matching your training and skills for an international career related to the organization's capabilities and fields of current emphasis in technical assistance, training or procurement. Start your job search today by reviewing this publication in the Career Planning and Placement Office, Akeley Hall.

Crop Walk

Sunday, October 15, 12:30 from Triangle Park. Contact Rev. Joe Irwin, St. Luke's UCC, 748-5741

A FREE GIFT JUST FOR CALLING PLUS RAISE
UPTO $1,700 IN ONLY TENS DAYS!!!

Students groups, fraternities and sorities needed for marketing project on campus. For details plus FREE GIFT, group officers call 1-800-950-8472 ex. 30

UNIVERSITY NIGHT

AT THE

FALLON

.25 cent DRAFT $1.25 PITCHER

TUESDAY 9:30

COVER $1.00

D.J. Tom Wachtmann & Rich Long