SCUD Board permits colleges to collect fees for CAS

The Board of State College and University Directors, in a precedent-setting decision last Thursday, resolved to allow each state college in Pennsylvania to collect membership fees for the Commonwealth Association of Students, the state college students' union.

The resolution was proposed after Ted Miller, Assistant Attorney General, expressed his opinion concerning the legality of the agreement. "On the whole, it is acceptable," he stated in a memorandum to John Pittenger, Secretary of Education for the Commonwealth. "The state colleges and university may enter into agreements with CAS to collect membership fees from students who indicate they wish to belong to the Organization."

According to Douglas Dows, executive secretary of the student group, this decision should be of interest to students, faculty, and administrators across the nation. "It's the first time a student union and administrators will enter an agreement to enroll students in an organization independent of the institution, yet concerned with the function of that institution. This agreement will constitute official recognition of an organized student interest group, opening the door to further cooperative efforts between the two parties," stated Dows.

CAS has a constituency of 76,000 students in the 14 state owned colleges and university. It was created to serve the special interests of students enrolled in those institutions, intending to further the aims of public higher education by collecting and assembling the opinions and positions of students, student governments, and the governing board of the Association. This information is disseminated to the relevant state agencies.

CAS also acts as liaison between the Governor, Legislature, Department of Education, representative faculty union or any organization or individual whose role depends on the success of the state colleges. It actively promotes the passage or defeat of legislation which the Association deems relevant to students, their institutions and higher education in Pennsylvania.

Final approval of the membership fee collection agreement now rests with the college presidents. "We have faith they will recognize that, by accepting this agreement with CAS, they can best serve their students," said Dows.

Music fraternity and sorority forming here

By JOLENE BORGESE
Staff Reporter

A new honorary music fraternity and sorority has come to the LHS campus. Kappa Kappa Psi (fraternity) and Tau Beta Sigma (sorority) held their first meetings Wednesday, October 16, and elected officers.

The officers for Tau Beta Sigma are Jocelyn Fletcher, President; Kathy Noggle, Vice-President; and Deb Kibble, Secretary-Treasurer. The officers for Kappa Kappa Psi are John Yurek, President; Greg Tracy, Vice-President; and Mike Griffith, Secretary Treasurer.

Prospective pledges are by written invitation only for the organizations composed of band members and color guard. Choral groups are not eligible for the fraternity or sorority.

In order for the fraternity and sorority to become a chapter they must complete the requirements of three service projects and one money-making project. Lock Haven's colony fraternity and sorority hope to become a chapter by the end of next semester.

Bloomsburg State College's Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma is assisting Lock Haven's colony honorary music fraternity and sorority, which both meet every Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. in the Sloan band room. Mr. Florentino Calini advises the organizations.

Bomb scare ruins Rock's homecoming

SLIPPERY ROCK: Slippery Rock had its homecoming spoiled by suffering its fourth bomb scare in the last three weeks. The bomb threat, phoned in moments before the appearance of the Righteous Brothers, forced evacuation of the audience with all tickets being refunded.

Homecoming events taking place over the weekend as scheduled were; a Harvest Hoedown on Thursday, a fireworks display on Friday, and dedication of the new football stadium on Saturday.

CALIFORNIA STATE: The California State Board of Trustees approved a fee policy entitling all dependents of State employes working for the college to free tuition there. Approval of the new policy came despite opposition from the student congress.

Nothing to do

Already before Homecoming has happened, people are going about saying that there's nothing to do this weekend. This year's schedule has more events slated than ever in the past.

We need only look to others' campuses to realize how much we do have to do. Two week-ends ago Indiana University of Pennsylvania had their homecoming: a parade and many parties. Yes, that was homecoming for a university of ten thousand. A homecoming for the university's centennial celebration. No concerts, no arts festival, no ox roast, just a lowly parade was homecoming.

And from talking with people from the other state colleges this appears to be the rule, not the exception. We really have a decent program coming up. The trouble is we just don't know how well off we are.

Next the complaints about having to pay to attend events. Sure, it will cost some extra money, even though you did pay an activity fee. The homecoming budget is still limited. Actually the cost of tickets is reduced from that of last year's events. Believe it or not, a bargain from SCC in this year of inflation!!!!

The people that have worked so hard on Homecoming-74 aren't asking too much from you, the college community. For the innumerable hours of planning necessary make it the biggest homecoming ever, all they ask is some support on your part. If you aren't totally pleased with events after they happen, plan to join the homecoming committee next week to make homecoming-75 what you want it to be.

Homecoming court selected

The girls that were voted to be the 1974 homecoming court on October 22 are:

- 1, Barb Eveland
- 2, Debbie George
- 3, Monica Peduzzi
- 4, Linda Schrader
- 5, Yvonne Snyder

The girls' names are in alphabetical order not by number of votes. There were 931 votes this time compared to 811 last time. The queen will be announced at the football game on October 26.

Concerts sound important part of homecoming

Saturday evening, October 26 the Alumni Association and the Social Committee are sponsoring a concert featuring "The Vogues". The Vogues are an electrifying group and have gained national recognition. They have appeared on many television shows, such as the Ed Sullivan, Glen Cambell, Johnny Carson, Mike Douglas, Red Skelton, and many others. The concert will start at 8:00 pm in the Thomas Field House and there will be no intermission. While The Vogues take a break, Jay Leno, a famous comedian will entertain the audience. Jay Leno has appeared on the Dean Martin and Mike Douglas Show and also at many universities and colleges. The cost of this concert will be $2.00 for students with validated ID cards and $3.00 for general admission.

This weekend, as part of the homecoming events there will be three concerts at Lock Haven.

The first concert will be on Friday evening, October 25 at 8:00 pm in Thomas Fieldhouse. This concert features "The Buoy's", a group from Scranton. The cost of this concert will be 50¢ for students and faculty with validated ID cards, and $1.00 for general admission. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Feature concert, The Vogues perform Saturday at 8:00 pm in Thomas Fieldhouse.

Large parade planned ; Seven bands to compete

Not the usual three, but ten bands will highlight this years Homecoming parade. Also featured this year will be the usual floats, dignataries, National Guards, and a high school contingent.

From years gone by one would know that once the high school bands had nothing to do but pack up and leave. This year is different. The bands will remain and immediately after the football game compete in a band competition. Only seven of the ten bands marching in the parade are in the competition. They are Shamokin Area H.S., Danville H.S., Bellefonte H.S., Shikellamy H.S., Loyalsock H.S., Lock Haven

H.S., and Bald Eagle Nittany H.S. Most of the points the bands gather will be from the actual competition. The one small exception will be that during the parade the bands could earn a possible 100 points and one tenth of those points will be added to the competition score. From there the first prize of $500 and a trophy, second prize of $400 and a trophy, third prize of $300 and a trophy fourth prize of $200 and a trophy and honorable mention with a trophy will be awarded to the bands with the most number of points.

So, fellow students stick around after the game and watch the battle of the bands!

On Sunday, October 27 at 8:00 pm, there will be a concert in Thomas Fieldhouse featuring "Canada." "Canada" is an unrock showband consisting of five young Canadians. Note the change of place and time from earlier schedules. The concert is free of charge.

Reign to end- 1973 Homecoming queen, Karen Rothermel will crown her successor during half-time ceremonies at the Lock Haven-Mansfield football game.

Art invades Russell lawn

The lawn in front of Russell Hall will be the scene of the first Arts and crafts festival to be held on the campus of Lock Haven State. The festival will take place Homecoming weekend from Friday at 2 p.m. to Sunday afternoon.

The festival will consist of an art show, contest, and exhibits by organizations. A clown troupe led by Tom O'Neill will perform occasionally during the three days.

The art contest is open to any amateur artist who resides in Clinton County, including students, faculty, and alumni of Lock Haven State. Categories will be divided into photography, painting, drawing, crafts, pottery, sculpture, and mixed media, a combination of any of the above. Separate categories will be established for persons over and under 21. First, second, and third place ribbons will be presented for each category.

Although sponsored by the SCC Social Committee, the festival is the brainchild of Rich Wycoff, chairman of the festival. Rich sees the festival as a means of getting the college and community together since "there certainly is a need for it."

For those who want movies

By George Morrison

This year's homecoming movie mania features two films. The first is the Ballad of Cable Hogue. It is a story about Cable Hogue, a desert rat, who after pleading with the Lord for water, stumbles on a mudhole and turns it into an oasis paradise.

Sam Pekinpah, the director of such films as The Wild Bunch, The Getaway, and T.V. series the "Rifleman" creates a picture of man's desire to make his own, that which can never be his.

The lead characters in the film are Cable Hogue, the primitive American capitalist, played by Jason Robards & Hildy the whore played by Stella Stevens. It is a movie flowing with life. In a final analysis it is zestful, virile, and delicate too.

The second film is Godspell, one of America's most famous rock operas based on the Bible. The critics rated it as the number one musical of 1973.

Godspell takes place in New York City and involves a group of young people who act out different segments of the Bible through song & dance.

Godspell was praised by the critics for its lively young cast, well done musical numbers, and beautiful photography. Homecoming holds a fun filled, three days and the movies are holding up their end of the bargain.

For any freshman who has never tasted it or for the upperclassmen that love it, the annual homecoming ox roast is again scheduled. This year it will be on the PUB lawn beginning at 4:30 Sunday afternoon. A minimal 25¢ will be charged for the sandwich to help defray costs. If there is inclement weather, the ox roast will be held in the Eagle Wing.

The annual fireworks are also on the schedule

They will begin shortly after the Vogues concert in the Riverside Parking lot. Zandelli Fire Manufacturing Company Incorporated will present the fireworks. They are specialists in fireworks displays and recently put on a display for the Governor's Convention in Philadelphia, where President Gerald Ford was a spectator.

So, remember, a fireworks display that will dazzle your eyes and an ox roast that will fill that endless pit, the stomach, are there for you,

Gridders strive for season's first win

Lock Haven State will be seeking to break a nine game losing streak this Saturday in the annual big Homecoming Day game.

The youthful Bald Eagle gridders of Coach Bob Weller will host longtime Pennsylvania Conference rival Mansfield State with a 1:30 p.m. kickoff at the Lock Haven High School 6,500-seat J. S. Painter Memorial Stadium.

A huge Homecoming parade through downtown Lock Haven will precede the game, starting at 10:30 a.m.

Since 1911, Lock Haven and Mansfield have met on the gridiron 35 times. The Bald Eagles hold a commanding 24-8-3 edge.

However, the Mounties have come out on top two of the past three games. Mansfield won at home both in 1971 and again in 1973 by the identical 10-7 score. The Bald Eagles won a 32-30 thriller by scoring in the final 30 seconds at Lock Haven in 1972.

The Eagles offense this year has centered around the brilliant passing of Dave Bower and the receiving of junior wingback Jerome Conlon. Junior quarterback Bower, the fourth ranked passer in the nation (NCAA Division III), has completed 81 of 142 passes thrown for 699 yards. Conlon, one of the top receivers in the country who leads the Pennsylvania Conference Western Division in pass receiving, has snagged 29 of Bower's aeriels for 239 yards.

On defense for the Eagles, sophomore end Charles Boone has been outstanding all season and leads in tackles with 21 unassisted and 57 assists for total of 78. Boone led Lock Haven's strong defensive effort against 40 point favorite Edinboro State with 17 tackles as the Eagles lost to the Scots by 14-0.

Mansfield has a 1-4-1 record this season. The only comparative score has the Mounties playing Bloomsburg to a 10-10 tie while the Huskies topped Lock Haven in a rainstorm, 7-0.

Shootin' it with Shep

The Detroit Lions and Buffalo Bills played spoiler roles in Pro Football's sixth week of play. The Lions beat previously undefeated Minnesota 20-16 while the Bills knocked New England from the ranks of the unbeaten, 30-28. That leaves the surprising Cardinals alone as the undefeated team in the NFL.

The Dolphins continued to be surprising as well. The defending Super Bowl champions continue to play sub-Dolphin ball. This week they just barely slipped by the Kansas City Chiefs 9-3, on Larry Csonka's one-yard plunge with 17 seconds remaining.

In other surprises, the Colts won their first game of the season, 35-20 over the Jets. New Orleans pulled off a big victory by knocking off Atlanta 13-3. The Cowboys pulled somewhat of a surprise jolting the Eagles 31-24.

I guess you could say that I was surprised on quite a few games; judging by my picking percentage this week. Of 14 predictions, I had eight correct and six wrong. That brings my seasonal mark to 15-10, a not so good .600 picking percentage. My goal is .850 for the year. So here goes with next week's picks.

Philadelphia at New Orleans - the Eagles were frustrated against Dallas. Look for them to take it out on the Saints. Chicago at Buffalo - the Bills proved that they're not out of it yet; the Bears just barely beat Green Bay. The Bills should easily handle Chicago. Houston at Cincinnati - the Bengals lost a last seconder to Oakland. They should have Houston put away long before that. Denver at Cleveland - Floyd Little and company will run all over the Browns - now that Floyd is healthy. Green Bay at Detroit - this tilt between two teams of the "black and blue" division will find the Packers shooting down the high-flying Lions, flying high from their win over previously undefeated Minnesota. Baltimore at Miami - The Colts finally cut loose last week, the Dolphins still haven't cut it loose; they're long overdue. The Dolphins will win - big.

Dallas at New York - The Cowboys seem to be coming alive, they'll beat the Giants. Los Angeles at New York - The Rams will make it a double losing day in New York. Washington at St. Louis - Another big test for the undefeated Cardinals. If the Cardinals pass this one, there could be no stopping them. Look for the Cardinals to pass this test, but it won't be easy. Kansas City at San Diego - Neither team is really impressing anyone so far this year. Look for the Chiefs to beat the Chargers in a low-scoring game. Oakland at San Francisco - The 49ers are having their troubles and Oakland is 5-1 so far. Oakland will go to 6-1.

The Monday night game will find Atlanta visiting Pittsburgh. The Steelers lost a tough one to the Bengals but I look for them to please the hometown fans as well as put on a good show for the television audience.

The other game is a doosey! It's between the Patriots and the Vikings in Minnesota. Both teams won their first five games and dropped their sixth. This means that after winning their first five; one of the two will lose two in a row; barring a tie. The Patriots seem to be more explosive than the Vikings but the Vikings are the better defensive team. I look for Jim Plinkett's arm to be the difference in a Patriot win.

No sooner do the A's win their third straight series, and already Charley O. Finley is talking about moving his "Angry A's" to another town. If he's smart, he'll keep the team where they are, after all; you can't beat results. On the other hand, he's the millionaire, not me. He must have known what he was doing somewhere along the line.

The New Orleans Jazz at the NBA is not an ordinary expansion team, despite losing their opener 89-74 to the Knicks. The Jazz was playing without such players as Neal Walk, John Block, Rick Roberson, and Mel Counts, all out with injuries. Add to those: Pete Maravich, Stu Lantz and Jim Barnett, and you don't have a typical expansion team. With a line up like that they could be a tough team in just their first year.

Field goal wins Snow Bowl

By ALLEN HOLTZER

The annual Snow Bowl football game played in Jack Stadium on Thursday October 17 was won by Section 1, 3-0. A fourth quarter field goal by Frank Henry clinched the victory for Section 1.

The first half was completely dominated by the defense. Sec. 2 kicked off to Sec. 1 and on the first play from scrimmage Sec. 1 ran for a first ddown of an off-tackle play. Sec. 2 regrouped, playing tough defense for the remainder of the half which was poor at best. They only picked up a few first downs, but could not mount a drive as Sec. 1's defense got tough when it had to.

The second half started out much like the first. It appeared as if there would be a 0-0 tie, but Sec. 2 recovered a fumble deep in Sec. 1 territory. Unable to take it in for the score, Sec. 2 had to settle for a field goal try of 35 yds. which fell short.

Then Sec. 1, starting on their own 20, found a weakness in the left side of of the line. They marched Mark Umbrell until being halted on the 10 yard line. Frank Henry came in to try a field goal which was a 27 yard attempt. Henry booted the ball just above the crossbar, which gave his team a 3-0 lead. Sec. 1 starved off Sec. 2's offense for the remainder of the game and saved the 3-0 victory.

McCollum field bade farewell to two great "Haven" soccer players, in Eagle co-captains Lenny Long and Tom Rowan following Lock Haven's 4-2 win over Spring Garden Monday afternoon.

The two seniors, playing in the final home game of their careers at the Haven, seemed to be thanking LHS fans for their support during their four years here, by giving Eagle fans as well as themselves a "game to remember."

Returning McCollum field's farewell with a gratuitous farewell of their own, Rowan and Long combined for all four Eagle goals, in running Lock Haven's record to 7-3-1.

The game, marred by what Coach Herrmann called "Some of the poorest officiating I've ever seen," found three Bobcat players ejected in a second half which took 75 minutes to complete.

LHS jumped to a 1-0 lead when Lenny Long scored at 15:54 of the first period on an unassisted goal from 6 yards out.

Less than two minutes later, Long, who registered his third "hat-trick" of the year in Monday's contest, scored again.

A letter perfect pass from the hustling Rowan let Long's second goal, this one from 5 yards out, giving the Eagles a two goal lead.

At this point Spring Garden changed goalies but it did little good, as Jon Conner's blocked shot from a Bob Wright pass dribbled loose from goal keeper Bill Remmey and Lenny Long completed the hat-trick at 36:16 of the first-half. Neither team scored the remainder of the period and the halftime score read: Lenny Long, 3- Garden spot, 0.

Second half play started slowly for the Eagles which proved to be an omen of things to come. As Coach Herrmann put it, "The second half looked like an entirely different game. I guess we were just trying to sit on that 3-0 lead."

If the Eagles looked worse, Garden Spot seemed to improve. This became evident when the Bobcats began to press, and a direct kick resulted against Lock Haven. Luigi Battaglio capitalized on the penalty at 10:51 and Lock Haven's lead was cut to 3-1.

Fourteen minutes later the Eagles again committed the capital sin in soccer — committing a foul in the penalty area and Battaglio once again stepped up for a free kick. But this time the shot went wide of the net on a play that could have very well been the turning point in the contest.

With just 9 minutes remaining in the game, Tom Rowan scored on a loose ball scramble in front of the Bobcat goal, ramming a shot past goalie Bill Remmey and "icing" the game for LHS.

Gilbert Ramos added a meaningless goal to the Spring Garden cause with just six minutes remaining in the contest, when his "smash" got loose from goalie Steve Tanner and dribbled into the net.

Spring Garden had trouble keeping his men in the game as "Haven" goalie Steve "Cowboy" Tanner continually harassed the Bobcat forwards. Three players were ejected for various reasons before the game had run its course.

Final score — LHS - 4; Spring Garden - 2.

Following the game a perplexed Eagle Coach Karl Herrmann stated, "It's been the most frustrating thing to me this year — our consistency. We've been playing inconsistent from game to game, but in this contest, " the LHS head mentor added, "we were inconsistent from half to half."

"As far as individual performances go," added Herrmann, "Tom Rowan and Bob Wright continually hustled out there today. Mike McCartney and Randy Bush had good games while Lenny Long had one of his best games ever."

Lock Haven outshot their opponents 31 to 12 and led in corner kicks 6-2. Goalies Bill Remmey and Rich Martino combined for twelve Bobcat saves, while netminder Steve Tanner had 5 stops for LHS.

Eagle hopefuls will be wishing for a repeat of Monday's first period performance (but this time for a full 90 minutes) when the Eagles travel to Indiana this Saturday for a 1 P.M. encounter. See the prelim story in Friday's issue of the Eagle Eye.

'Crucible' reappears in print after two year absence

By LEOPOLD MONGLES

Months in the making, The Crucible is finally ready. After a two year absence, LHS's own student literary magazine is now ready to make its reappearance.

To celebrate the event, there will be a Publications Party tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Raub 309. Featured will be student authors reaching from works they have had published in the magazine.

Afterwards, copies of The Crucible will be distributed. Those not attending will be able to obtain a copy in Russell 4.

So come to Raub 309 tomorrow and have a cup of coffee, with cookie and a good time.
