Rotoract Club establishes fund

By David M. Smith

The Rotoract Club has organized a scholarship fund in memory of John F. Koons and Hartman "Bud" Herr.

John F. Koons taught at Lower Marion High School in Admore. He joined the faculty of Lock Haven State College in 1946. He remained at Lock Haven until 1973 when he retired as associate professor in the language department.

Koons remained active in college events following his retirement. He was an active member of the Lock Haven Rotary Club, and an avid Soccer fan.

Budd Herr was secretary-treasurer and former owner of Gearhart, Herr and Co. insurance company in Lock Haven. An LHU alumni, he served on the board of trustees and was active in the alumni association and the Bald Eagles Athletic Foundation. He was a driving force behind the inception of the LHU Foundation.

Herr was a member and past exalted ruler of the Lock Haven Elks Club, served as treasurer of the Ross Library for 28 years and was past president of the Lock Rotary Club, an organization which honored him last year for 50 years of perfect attendance.

In May, 1984, Herr was presented with an honorary doctrine from his alma mater.

The Rotary Club is holding its "Second Annual Faculty Dinner Auction" on November fifth. The event will begin at 5 p.m. in the Bentley Lounge with all proceeds going to the scholarship fund.

The Koons-Herr scholarship will be awarded annually to a student in recognition of contributions to the University and Community.

Tax deductible contributions may be forwarded to the Lock Haven Foundation, Lock Haven University, Lock Haven, PA, 17745.

Dance marathon winners announced

By Paula Miller

The results are in. The winners are out spending their money and three charities are a little farther along in helping their cause. Phi Mu Delta President, Mike Babbitt announced the winners of their tenth annual dance marathon yesterday.

First place and the $500.00 prize went to Peg Schwendler and Laura Walter. Leslie Radcliffe and Jennifer Tuohy danced their way into second place and $300. Third place and $100 went to the team of Becky Hoover and Jean Buff. Two couples each received $50 for 4th and 5th place wins. Laurie Emmendorfer and Greg Naylor took 4th and Ilene Kayne and Eileen Houch finished 5th.

According to Babbitt, 10 couples started the marathon with six and a half finishing. He commented that this is the fewest number of couples they've had in quite awhile. Babbitt also added that no action has been taken to cut the marathon from 48 to 24 hours. "As of now, it hasn't been brought up." This question had been raised by some students, in hopes of raising participation levels.

The brothers raised over $1,000 dollars with their efforts. This money will be divided between the three charities they have chosen to support, the United Way, the Infant development fund of Clinton County and the fraternity's own Jeffery Scott DuBois Memorial fund, in honor of a brother killed in an automobile accident.

The brothers are now looking toward next year and their 11th marathon.

CAS looks for dues collection system

A final offer to reopen negotiations on the development of a feasible dues collection system for a statewide student advocacy organization was made last week at a meeting of the Board of Governors of the State System of Higher Education.

The offer made to the Board by the Commonwealth Association of Students (CAS) was to develop an optional check-off system. This system, which is similar to a compromise rejected by the Board last Fall, would allow a student to pay the CAS fee with tuition payment.

The offer was made partially due to a recent federal court decision which upheld the constitutionality of mandatory refundable fees, a collection system used by CAS from 1978 until it was rescinded by the Board last Fall.

"Although we have introduced legislation into the General Assembly which would require that a check-off system be instituted, we would still prefer to develop an agreeable fee mechanism with the Board," said Michael Burk, Executive Director of CAS. "This approach will allow for the strained relations which currently exist between us to be relaxed, and it will let us get on with our business of developing a strong State System of Higher Education which meets the needs of our students."

Burk added that he felt the Galda decision clearly supports the use of mandatory refundable fees for organizations such as CAS. "We simply want to develop a fee mechanism which will give students the easiest opportunity to make a free and conscious decision concerning CAS" he said, "something which the current system does not allow for."

Founded in 1973, CAS is the statewide advocacy organization which represents the interests of the 81,000 students enrolled in the State System of Higher Education.

Dating game set for this Thursday

By Lisa Ross

Kappa Delta Rho is the sponsor of the Dating Game which will be held Thursday evening in Price Auditorium.

KDR promises the game will offer lots of fun and excitement. According to Greg St. Clair, the fraternity would like to have 24 participants and has just about reached that quota.

Kevin Lafferty will be the host for the evening. The game will be just like that of the program on television. Either one girl and one guy will ask questions of three guys or three girls respectively.

The couples will be awarded lunch for two at the Fallon Hotel or a movie for two at the Nickelodeon Video Showcase.

Organization of the Dating Game for Lock Haven University students was done by KDR brother Jon Dickey.

Don't forget to come out and enjoy the fun for only 50¢ at Price Aud. Thursday night.

Can anyone change SCC?

Many students may not be interested in the fact that the current SCC executive board will now serve until May 1985. This comes about because the senate approved an amendment stating that executive office terms will now run from May until May. The spots needed to be filled until then.

I agree totally with the new term and have no problems with the fact that Gary Interdonato and company will remain at the SCC helm an extra five months. I do, however, have one slight problem.

Apparently, an Amendment to the SCC Constitution can be drawn up anytime and if approved by the senate, become a law of the SCC.

Now whose to stop an executive member from drawing up any brainstorm he/she thinks will better the SCC? Students, maybe, but if you have a lot of friends in the senate, they will never vote against anything you want.

The point is who is going to stop someone who wants everything? A future President could move an executive term to two years or change the term of office again.

A dictatorship is autocratic rule, control, or leadership. I do not think Gary Interdonato is a dictator, but whose to stop someone down the line that may want their own rules and will have the buddies in the senate to get it through?

Will they be thinking of the entire student body or just a select few?

Michael

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor

Tau Kappa Epsilon, "the fraternity you love to hate," According to one distinguished fraternity president, hated by everyone. Well, that's debatable, but at best the most misrepresented and misinterpreted fraternity on campus, is more like it, which brings me to this letter.

Quite often, we are too quick to pass judgement without considering all the facts, as did Mr. Rosenwald in his letter to the editor, published October 19th. He alleges that his friend was "jumped" by a group of TKE's for looking at them the wrong way. Funny, that's not what I heard from witnesses who saw the incident. I do however, concede that I was not there, but then again neither was Mr. Rosenwald. So who's to say the incident occurred the way he claims, since word of mouth, which is conflicting, is all we have to go on. I would remind him that the age of barbarism ended around the late 1500's, and to believe that a dirty look could cause three to attack one is ridiculous.

Again, all we have to go on is heresay. Let's examine though, the other statements offered against the TKE's, which border on libel. We as an organization, do remain accountable for our actions, when the actions of one represents the beliefs of the whole. I would remind you of the charges filed against us last semester, for which we are still paying the penalties. How ludicrous it is, to hold 35 other men accountable for a one-on-one barroom fisticuffs, which could have resulted for any number of reasons. Don't think the person is not being held unaccountable, by his peers and administration, for he is! But, it is a slap in the face to publicly accuse and hold all of an organization responsible. Witchhunts and lynchings are also a thing of the past.

In all fairness to the LHU administration, I must also point out that only two have a direct association to TKE. Joseph Coldren, a LHU and TKE alumni, is an advisor, and is involved with admissions, not student affairs. Timothy Susick is also a TKE advisor and to say he is biased towards any organization, especially TKE, shows one's ignorance of his record in dealing with matters where TKE is involved. In both cases brought against TKE last semester, during which Mr. Susick represented the University. TKE was just as fairly and harshly dealt with as the other organizations involved. No biases were evident, you can check the record yourself. I see here the need for an apology to two fine administrators who know that these accusations made against them are totally inaccurate.

In closing, TKE is obviously like any other Greek organization on campus, whereby we are closely scrutinized by all members of the campus and community. We are certainly not beyond reproach, but when we do, as an organization, make a mistake, we are the first to accept the consequences of our actions. All we ask, is that before you pass judgement against us, or anyone else, you first evaluate all things involved in that decision. If you do find you have any problems or concerns you can direct them to us.

Sincerely,
Charlie Roberts
Tau Kappa Epsilon

Dear Editor,

Once again the Bald Eagle Soccer Team is having another superb season, and yet the lack of support from the administration and the school continues. Let me elaborate briefly and verify my reasons for reaching this conclusion.

Case and Point no. 1, deals directly with transportation. The team schedule, which evolves mainly around long road trips to Division I schools, has continued to remain a mystery. This past weekend for instance is a prime-time example of our reluctance to support the team. A six hour excursion to West Virginia, with all the luxuries of an SCC van is beyond my logic of reasoning. When will our administration begin to realize that our team is not only establishing a name for themselves as a powerful team, but also, is bringing recognition and respect to our campus.

Case and Point no. 2, McCollum Field. How much longer can we expect Coach Long and his team to tolerate this unbearable playing surface, we refer to as a soccer field. The width of the field the loose, rocky surface, that not only make play more difficult, but also present a serious threat of injury to the players. You must realize that if something is not done to alter this condition, soon our team will be forced into playing 17 or 18 games on the road a year, (keep in mind Sports fan, the Eagles are undefeated at home over a two-year stretch, sporting a record of 16-0) which will eventually lead to the downfall of a dynasty.

In conclusion, we must make a decision, a choice between the molding of a strong Soccer team, or the destruction of a strong competitor in NCAA Division II play.

Sincerely Yours,
Joseph Krause
PA Announcer LHU Football

Dear Editor,

In reference to the letter written by Jennifer M. Kerst, in the Friday, October 19, 1984 edition of the Eagle Eye, we would like to express our views on the issue of airbands. It is our understanding that the All Greek Council has no stipulations as to what can or can not be found in an airband. If the writer of that letter is so concerned with the word "airband" then maybe it should be changed to "music video". For instance, Michael Jackson's "Thriller", Billy Joel's "Up Town Girl" and "Tell Her About It", Billy Idol's "White Wedding", along with songs from the movie "Grease". These "shows" or "videos" were very good because of the fact that the more action on stage the more the audience responds.

Our performance was not tasteless but rather suitable to the appropriate atmosphere of the Beach Boys' music. We did perform the group on stage as well as adding our own creative ideas to emphasize a "beachy" environment. It did not portray sex and the flesh was not obnoxiously flaunted.

In closing we would like to stress the enjoyment of being in airbands and rather than complaining and not participating, become involved in airband and have a good time.

Murgia captures singles title at PSAC's

By Karen Merlie

The PSACs Friday and Saturday for women's tennis turned out to be both good and bad for Lock Haven.

The good news was that Roxanne Murgia brought home a singles championship. The disappointment was the upset of Murgia and Edna Roth in doubles play.

Murgia was the number one seed going into the third flight. She was given a bye in the first round. When play began, Roxanne showed her nervousness. She had to go three sets in the second and third rounds. Murgia defeated Ghre and Gerhart under pressure, (6-3, 3-6, 6-3) (3-6, 6-3, 6-3).

"Roxanne had trouble getting started. She wasn't getting her shots deep enough," stated Coach Carol Ritter.

In the finals, Murgia came alive defeating Mouissey, 6-1, 6-4.

With her family on hand and cheering her on, she received the state championship singles plaque.

Holly Reitzel, the number four seed in the second flight, surprised many of the spectators when she made it to the finals. Reitzel had her ups and downs throughout the year, but this was to be a good tournament for her.

"Holly played consistent," Ritter said. She won two straight set matches to make finals.

"Saturday morning against Chilcott Holly couldn't do anything wrong," commented Ritter. But in the final against Weisberger, Holly couldn't buy a point and lost, 6-2, 6-1.

States turned out to be a nightmare for Edna Roth who was upset in both of her events. Roth made it to the third round, where she was downed by Bennis of Millersville. Roth had earlier in the year defeated Bennis by a score of 6-2, 6-1.

In other singles results, Kelly Piatt lost in the second round 6-4, 6-2, and Denise Torelli was defeated in the first round, 6-2, 6-0.

Kelly played her best match all year in the first round, defeating Ambielli of Bloomsburg, 6-1, 7-6.

"Denise had a good experience year," remarked Coach Ritter.

The doubles action was an upsetting one for Edna Roth and Roxanne Murgia.

Coming off an undefeated season and seeded number one in the second flight, the two Lady Eagles were downed in their first match by an unseeded Millersville team.

The outcome could have gone either way, but Millersville prevailed 7-2, 2-6, 6-4. Roth and Murgia's nervousness showed in the PSAC doubles match.

Kelly Piatt and Holly Reitzel ran into one of the best doubles team in the state in the second round. The team of Morgan and Chilcott defeated Piatt and Reitzel, 6-0, 5-7, 6-2.

Jean Vuk and Denise Torelli won their first round match over a weak California team.

Vuk and Torelli lost the second match they played 6-0, 6-2 to an experienced Shippensburg team.

Shippensburg won the overall team championship. Lock Haven finished about in the middle of all the teams according to Ritter.

Wrapping up the 1984 tennis season, Carol Ritter had a successful 5-4 year and produced one singles PSAC champion in her first year as Lady Eagle head coach.

Ritter will soon start her recruiting for the 1985 tennis season. She will be looking for players to join returnees Elaine Flores, Bern Spielberger and Jean Vuk.

Eagles fall to nationally ranked IUP

Bill Peterson-13 tackles vs. IUP

By Dave Walters

Nationally-ranked Indiana University of PA clinched the Pennsylvania Conference Western Division title and berth in the State Game by dropping the Bald Eagle gridders 35-14 last Saturday.

The Bald Eagles gave the Indians a battle during the first half and only trailed by six at halftime. Head coach Jack Fisher said, "Our players weren't intimidated. They just weren't going to back down. They knew how good Indiana was, that they were nationally ranked and all, and we still played a strong ball game. I'm proud of the way we performed."

IUP drew first blood on their opening series. Running back Brent Urbanovich crashed into the end zone from the one. Rob Dominick's extra point kick made the score 7-0.

LHU came right back and tied the score at seven. The scoring drive consisted of a 58-yard pass play from freshman quarterback Pat Cahill to power back Rick Meyers, a 13-yarder to sophomore tight end Brian Stugart and a 15-yard sprint by freshman tailback Eric Speece.

The Indians put six more points on the board before the end of the first half on an eight-yard run by Dave Seidel.

IUP quarterback Bob Kiel gave the Indians a 19-7 advantage with his nine-yard scoring run. Kiel tried to pass the ball into the end zone for a two-point conversion but the LHU defense foiled that idea.

Cahill brought the Bald Eagles within five with a 17-yard keeper. That scoring drive was set up by a 31-yard pass to Stugart.

Kiel went to the air and put the game out of reach with two more touchdowns.

The LHU rushing game was led by Speece with 68 yards on 7 carries for an average of 9.7. Cahill hit 13 of 24 passes for 182 yards and three interceptions.

Defensively, linebacker Bill Peterson led the Bald Eagles with 13 tackles. Todd Ritter and Scott Gantz each registered a sack for a total loss of 22 yards.

The Bald Eagles will host Edinboro Saturday. Boro lost to Clarion 35-24 last week.

Booters drop two in West Virginia

By Scott Crispell

The mens soccer team traveled to West Virginia over the weekend but returned empty handed. Lock Haven dropped their first game, 2-0, to Alderson-Broaddus. Less than 24 hours later, Davis and Elkins topped Lock Haven 4-1. The only goal of the trip was scored by Ed Ralston on an assist from Rob Eaton. The Bald Eagles are now 9-6.

Coach Lenny Long had this to say about the trip, "We are disappointed. But, it is tough to ride 6 hours in a van and then expect to play at our best. I was pleased with the play of Rob Eaton. He gave us 2 good games. He is very mature and has a lot of experience, especially for a freshman. It was a tough trip. We played two tough teams back to back and we were missing two key players. Steve Paguia didn't make the trip because of an injury and Keith Betts twisted his ankle in the first game. We have 3 games left and we hope to get an N.C.A.A. tournament bid. We have to take them one at a time."

The Bald Eagles next game is scheduled for today at I.U.P. but it may be moved to Wednesday because of rain.

Noll finishes third in injury-plagued loss

By Christa Landas

The Lady Eagle harriers travelled to Juniata College on Saturday and went down in defeat, 19-41.

It was a nice day for the 3.25 mile race over a long, hilly course. And the Lock Haven squad continued to improve even though injuries have taken their toll.

Coach Leroy Straley said, "Three regulars are still out of the line-up due to injuries; we are hoping to return some of them for PSACs and Regionals."

Not running in Saturday's race were Betty Potter, Lisa Sagan, and Mary Lou Haughwout.

Juniata's Terri Bollman finished in first place in a time of 20:21. She was followed by teammate Kris Smith.

Bald Eagle Pam Noll then crossed the line for a finishing time of 21:52. Straley felt that Noll ran a good, strong race. Two more Juniata harriers streaked by the line before Maureen Fry could complete the course.

Fry started the race in the back of the pack but worked the hills and managed to garner sixth place.

Sue Gill wrapped up a victory for her team as she came in at seventh place. Her finish allowed Juniata to get the needed five finishers across the line before LHU could.

Joyce Lukina was ninth, Sharon Coan, 11th, and Liz Achtermann, 12th.

Lukina was up with Fry until she was forced to stop briefly with a shoulder stitch. Coach Straley said that Coan and Achtermann both ran consistently and are improving with every race.

The Lady Eagles finish the regular season at 3-4 and will see PSAC Championship action on Saturday at Slippery Rock University. Lock Haven will complete its season on November 3 at the NCAA Regional Division II meet at Indiana University of PA.

Murphy places first in romp over Juniata

By Christa Landas

The men's cross-country team ran over Juniata College Saturday, 16-44.

Bud Murphy grabbed the first place honors over a hilly Juniata course. Murphy finished the 5.2 mile run in just 28:58, only 1:06 off the course record.

Ken Toner was second, Andy Shearer, third and Criag Yakscoe was fourth.

Mark Royer of Juniata was his school's first finisher. He raced to a 30:41 and a fifth place finish.

Rounding out the Lock Haven top five was Mike Eidenshink, who secured a Bald Eagle victory with his sixth place finish.

The other top finishers for the Haven were Kevin McNamara, 8th; Dave Perry, 10th; Doug Kiss, 15th; Joe Madrak, 18th; Al Yooca, 20th and Todd Hyman, 21st.

Coach Jim Dolan said, "This was a good meet for us. We regrouped and ran together as a team."

Toner, Shearer, Perry and Eidenshink are all now back running after having been sidelined with injuries.

Coach Dolan singled out Murphy for his good time and showing over a tough, up and down course. McNamara also ran a good race on Saturday according to Dolan.

"Kevin is just a freshman, and it's nice to see him run well," commented Dolan. Maryland was to have run against both Lock Haven and Juniata but they failed to make the trip.

The Bald Eagle harriers will be at Slippery Rock on Saturday for the PSAC Championships.

"It's going to be a tough meet. Realistically, we could finish anywhere from tenth to fourteenth. It all depends how we run that day," said Coach Dolan.

Millersville and Edinboro will be the top contenders of the Championships.

On November 3, Lock Haven will run at Indiana University of PA in the NCAA Division II Regional competition to finish out their season.

Bald Eagle band gives exhibition

By Michelle Royer

The Lock Haven University Band went on competition exhibition at Tyrone Area High School's Grey Memorial Field on Saturday and performed as the guest band at the Second Annual Festival of Bands.

Along with the Marching Bald Eagle's original field show of Georgia, a percussion solo to Ease on Down the Road, Mambo and Here's That Rainy Day/A Brand New Day, they also played a new selection entitled El Tigre.

Competing at the Festival were eight excellent bands from surrounding areas including Central High School, Westmont Hilltop High School, Kishacoquillas Jr.-Sr. High School, Bishop Carroll High School, Tussey Mountain High School, Huntingdon High School, Everett High School and Johnstown High School. Also on exhibition was the Lock Haven University Band's host, Tyrone Golden Eagle Marching Band.

The competing performers were judged on Marching and Maneuvering Execution, Music Execution, Music Analysis, Ensemble Analysis, General Effect/ Visual and General Effect/ Music. Trophies were awarded to the first through fourth place winners in each class. Special awards were also given for Best Band Front, Best Music Score, Best Overall Band in Classes I and II, Best Overall Band in Classes III and IV, Best Overall Drum Major and Best Marching and Maneuvering.

University Players to perform next week

By Andrew Ashenfelter

The University Players start their series of fall productions with an evening of Reader's Theatre. The drama To Burn A Witch and the comedy The Cave Cat will be performed October 23-26 in Sloan 321 at 6:00 p.m.

To Burn A Witch, by James L. Bray, is a probe into the psychological undercurrents of a witch hunt. Two women accused as witches face two townswomen appointed to hear their confessions. A tense war of wills takes place between the four women, ending in death for one of them. Appearing in the cast are Judy Homan, Gayle Sidelnick, Kim Ellicks and Julie Bintrim.

Ford Ainsworth's The Cave Cat is a comic-fantasy. A cat (Mike Dinko) calls himself a "cave cat" due to his short, stubby mane and much to the dismay of his parents (Kevin Lafferty, Julie Bintrim) who are proud lions.

Both plays will be performed as Reader's Theatre in which actors read the scripts of the plays from stools, interpreting their characters through voice. Gayle Sidelnick is the director of the plays.
