

Minutes For Board Meeting October 22

Because of the considerable excitement at the present time over the budgeting and allocation of funds to football, the COLLEGE TIMES herewith presents the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors. These are the official minutes. The budget for the first semester of this year will appear elsewhere in this paper.

Minutes of the October Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Student Cooperative Council

The 4th meeting of the Board of Directors of the Student Cooperative Council was called to order by the President at 7:16 P. M., October 20, 1942 in the council rooms.

Traffic Safety Clinic Here

A traffic safety program sponsored by the Inter-Departmental Committee on Safety Education of the State of Pennsylvania was opened Monday, October 19th at the Teachers Training College at Lock Haven.

The purpose of the program, which will be carried out in all of the teacher training colleges of the state, is to develop teachers in traffic safety for service in the public schools of the state and also to arouse community interest in the subject with the objective of encouraging safe driving and thus reduce motor vehicle casualties on the highways.

T. Elmer Transeau, Director of the Bureau of Highway Safety of the Department of Revenue will open the program at Lock Haven on Monday morning. Other speakers will include Ray F. Reigelmeier, Traffic Engineer of the Department of Highways; Miss Lois Clark, Department of Public Instruction; T. P. Cahalan, Pennsylvania Motor Police and George C. Lowe of the Department of Revenue who will direct the program.

The traffic safety program will continue for two weeks at Lock Haven. One of its features will be the operation of a Drivers Clinic at which tests of the driving ability of students of the college and citizens of the community will be made. The clinic, which includes three pieces of delicate equipment,

New Membership Kappa Delta Pi

Delta Sigma Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education, has recently invited thirteen Juniors to membership. They are: Ethel Batley, Rose Ann Brachbill, Ruth Brungard, Roderick Cook, Hazer Cribed, Jeanne Collins, Jeanette Eason, Emilie Elliot, Lois Hahn, Priscilla Hess, Maxine Hoffman, Virginia Keith, and Phyllis Wolf. These people were accepted by the fraternity for membership at a meeting in September at the home of Miss Hatcher. On Oct. 13, 1942, they were formally initiated at the home of Dr. Rude. Dr. Parsons was the guest speaker following the initiation.

Watch On Rhine In Rehearsal

"Watch on the Rhine," the play New York drama critics thought was tops for 1941, and the one chosen by the College Players for the first major production of the season, is well on its way toward the big night, November 19, with rehearsals now in full swing under the direction of Miss C. Cordella Brong, assisted by student-director, Dan Stanley, and the elaborate set already designed and under construction. The cast is made up of veterans as well as a few newcomers, and again all the local boys have carried off choice roles.

One outstanding characteristic of "Watch on the Rhine" is that it boasts one character that is truly heroic, Kurt Mueller. Here is a man who has had a long arduous background of hardship and an anxiety, but who remains still a person of common sense, patience, and a kindly spirit. In the roles of Kurt Mueller, his wife, Sara, and their children, Joshua, Babette, and Bodo, is reflected some of bitterness and frustration of life in today's Europe as contrasted with the guileless and good-humored life in America reflected in the roles of the peppery old dowager, Fanny Farrelly and her son, David. It is this very guilelessness and generosity that brings these people under one roof, including two other European refugees, Teck and Marthe, the Count and Countess de Brancovis.

The role of Kurt will be portrayed by Dale Olmstead, Lock Haven. Mr. Olmstead appeared in a lead role in one of last season's successes, the Thornton Wilder play, "Our Town," and also in the one-act play, "The Flattering Word." He is an actor of no mean ability, so theater-goers may look forward to a more than creditable portrayal of the character of Kurt. His wife, Sara, will be enacted by Phyllis Wolf, Jersey Shore, who is not unfamiliar with the college stage either, having formerly played opposite Mr. Olmstead in "Our Town," and carrying a role in "The Flattering Word." Another member of "The Flattering Word" cast, who was a lead in the second hit of the season, "What a Life!" is Doris Huffman, of Williamsport, cast in the role of the aristocratic dowager, the witty sententious Fanny Farrelly, a character which the author, Lillian Hellman, has endowed with inherent dignity and covered with a mask of surface nonsense, flightiness, and irascibility. Another Lock Havenite, William R. Bittner, is right in there with a Roumanian Brancovis. His fame goes back to Brancovis. His fame goes back to an excellent performance in the 1939-40 season's "Smilin' Through" and year-before-last's "You Can't Take It With You." His wife, Marthe, is taken by Ethel Batley, also in "The Flattering Word" cast and starred in "What a Life." Acting in the role of David Farrelly is Dan Stanley, also of Lock Haven. Two other members of the cast, from Lock Haven, carry the roles of Sara and Kurt's children, a freshman, Edward Montarsi, as Joshua, and

Dr. Baird Speaker In Assembly

Dr. Jesse Baird of Berea College, Kentucky, was the guest speaker at the Columbus Day assembly. Dr. Baird had previously addressed several religious organizations on campus and at the local high school.

Some of the more humorous aspects of Dr. Baird's address were especially appreciated by the Training School pupils who were present. To some of the college students, as well as the Training School pupils, Dr. Baird's speech seemed an appropriate introduction to the Kentucky mountains. Evidently, Dr. Baird did not expect such a varied audience, but his address evoked interest from all.

During his speech Dr. Baird told of Berea College; a college maintained for the economically poor of the mountains. Students coming to the school can enter the first grade and complete a grade school, high school, and college course and receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. All the maintenance work of the school, including cooking, domestic work, farming, clerical work and the construction of the furniture is done by the student body. Students work a half day in a local industry or at the school enabling them to pay the small school fee and to follow a trade; they attend classes the remainder of the day. The advantages of this type of administration are evident and the need for this type of school in the mountain territory is immense. Dr. Baird stressed the fact that many of Kentucky's illiterates are so only because of narrow educational opportunities, and that given the chance for an education many of the students demonstrate exceptional abilities. Most of the college graduates return to the mountain regions to teach their own people.

From his numerous friends in the mountains of Kentucky, Dr. Louis

Dr. Parsons Rules For Class, Assembly

By M. M. MADDEN

The following rules and regulations shall be in effect during the present school year.

No. 1. In a three-credit course a student may be absent only three times per semester without penalty.

In a two-credit course, a student may be absent only twice without penalty.

In a one-credit course, a student may be absent only once without penalty. These absences are to be permitted only in cases of absolute necessity.

No. 2. Students missing more than the allotted number of times

Baird cited examples of their sensitive appreciation of life. Some of these sayings of the people as related by Dr. Baird appeared as polished by living as the stones in a mountain stream.

The address did not exclude mention of feuding or those two famous feuding families of Kentucky. Dr. Baird evidenced the opinion that these feuds grew out of the two-sidedness of the Civil War. The present war was also mentioned when Dr. Baird said, "many of the young men of the mountain section have been drafted," thus dispelling any idea that they live so far back in the fountains that they are not aware of the world.

The extreme poverty of these people pervaded the address. Along with his desire for peace, Dr. Baird is encouraging education as an aid to nullify this situation in which the people do not receive full educational opportunities or even the benefits of the fertility of our land.

Dr. Baird is continuing his tour of the nation's Teachers Colleges sponsoring student interest in the religious aspect of education. The work of Dr. Baird is sponsored by the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis.

for any particular course, may lose credit for the course or may be dropped from the course, upon the recommendation of the instructor to the Dean of Instruction and the President.

No. 2. Double cuts are to be given for absences two days prior and two days following vacations. Double cuts are also to be given for absence from classes on days following regular school social functions such as junior or senior proms.

No. 4. Students who expect to leave the campus on regularly scheduled trips such as football, basketball, debating, etc., must secure permission and the signature of each instructor from whom they are taking courses. Forms to be signed by instructors may be secured in the President's office. Students who are not in good standing will, naturally, not be granted permission to be absent from classes. Any student who expects to miss classes must secure this information previous to the time of the absence.

No. 5. The faculty shall keep weekly attendance reports on forms which are to be submitted to the President's office after the last class of the week. A record of the attendance of each student will be kept in the President's office. The faculty shall report to that office the names of students who miss two classes in succession. Weekly absence forms are to be secured from Mrs. Dietz.

No. 6. ASSEMBLY. Each student may be absent from Assembly twice during each semester without penalty. Each absence other than the two allowed will cost the student quality points or loss of general social privileges. The weekly assembly is a regular part of the student's work. Parents will be notified concerning students who do not comply with the class and assembly rules.

Upon presenting this list of rules and regulations to a group of students for discussion, the following questions have arisen.

With regard to regulation number one, is it possible to have four or more cuts without penalty provided the cut was necessary and unavoidable?

Regulation number three leads to a question. Assuming that a student does not attend a social event and is absent from class the following day due to illness or some other valid excuse, will he receive a double cut?

Concerning regulation number six, more information is desired. It states that students who have more than two cuts in assembly will be deprived of social privileges. The problem is, what social privileges be denied the men on campus?

These rules issued by Dr. Parsons appeal to the students as being fair and necessary for the organization of any student body. Without this organization, progress is impossible. The students have been presented the regulations the reasons, and the penalties. They understand their position and the position of the President and should give their full cooperation.

If these questions concerning a few minor details would be answered, the understanding would be complete. It is our opinion, that the student body in turn will put its best foot forward.

This Way Out

There is to be no Artist Course this year. The decrease in enrollment and the consequent decrease in student funds has made this move necessary. We feel that this decision of The Board of Directors is a bad one.

Education, according to modern theory, is an all round affair. It is not all football, or all Artist Course, or all dancing, or—for that matter—all studies. Rather it is a combination of these things.

We, here at Lock Haven, are more or less sheltered from the flow of things. Now that transportation is curtailed it will be even more difficult for fresh ideas and fresh personalities to reach us, and we believe that they should reach us. Too often in a small secluded college we get one set of ideas, using them to reinforce our smugness.

Dr. Parsons said in Chapel when announcing the loss of the Artist Course that we might be able to use some of our wealth of local talent. That, we think, is a good idea, but it illustrates precisely what we mean. Local people, first of all, do not have the polish that professionals have; neither do they offer the stimulation. Local people do not come from the outside world. They are just as secluded as we are. That is why local people can never wholly replace our Artist Courses.

We are sorry that there are no plans for an Artist Course, we think that the Board of Directors should reconsider before—putting out this light.

We find that we own a share in the federal government—a temporary share, to be sure, but a share nevertheless. It all happened this way: We and two friends had occasion to send a money order to a theatre in Williamsport. The money order never seems to have arrived at the theatre, and it never was returned to us. In our naive way we thought all we would have to do would be to tell the post office that something had gone wrong with its carefully calculated system. We even had visions of the clerk coughing apologetically and making as little fuss as possible while refunding the money. This was not the case—this definitely was not the case.

First you must wait fifteen days, and then it is possible for you to put on—what the postal employees chummily call, a tracer. After another period of unofficial waiting the person who made out the money order receives a form card. No instructions accompany this card, but we in our desperation took it to the post office, positive that this time we would get our money. The man at the money order window politely but firmly told us that we would have to wait until November 10—or thirty-five days after the date the money order was filed. Then he said with a shrug of his shoulders, "Probably be ten days or so after that before you get the money. I wouldn't count on it much before Christmas."

We think it would have been much more simple just to dash a note off to the Williamsport post office telling them to stop payment on that particular money order. But then on the other hand—who are we to step into the complicated machinery of the government?

Minutes For Board . . .

The recording secretary was advised to notify Sigma Delta Phi of the status of their representative, Fred Hill.

Mr. Bottorf, Miss Kilsdonk and Mr. Farwell were appointed Sergeant-at-arms for the meeting.

Mr. Rathgeber warned us to watch for play rehearsals for the forthcoming play "Watch on the Rhine" to prevent any conflict with

Board of Director's meetings.

Certificates of election for George Barnes, representing Varsity Club and Clement Link representing YMCA were read.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Since the Cornell JV game was cancelled the price of Season Tickets was refunded to purchasers.

1. The first business of the evening concerned nominations of outstanding Seniors for the College

Student's Who's Who.

Mr. Olmstead was nominated by Miss Shea. Miss Kilsdonk was nominated by Miss Hess. Mr. Rathgeber was nominated by Mr. Olmstead. Mr. Wm. R. Bittner was nominated by Miss Shea. Miss Homler was nominated by Miss Barr. Mr. Melvin Dry was nominated by Mr. Cook. Mr. Ganz was nominated by Mr. Bottorf. Mr. Bottorf moved that the nominations be closed, seconded by Mr. Ingram, motion carried.

2. The return of activity fee for those who have already left school. According to precedent, as explained by the President, the sum of the activity fee is divided by the number of weeks in the semester to ascertain the cost per week, this result is then multiplied by the number of weeks the student has spent in school. The sum of the fee minus the cost per total weeks gives the amount to be refunded. Miss Kilsdonk moved that council refund Edward Long the sum of $8.56, seconded by Maxine Hoffman carried no discussion.

3. Final Meeting Night. It was explained that Dr. Patterson is unable to attend meetings on their appointed nights since he is engaged in Extension Work. The Constitution of the Council specifies that the Director of Teacher Education (Dr. Patterson) must be present at the meetings. Maxine Hoffman moved that the regular meeting night of the Board of Directors of the Student Cooperative Council be changed to the first and third Thursdays of each month. Miss Moyer seconded the motion, carried with no discussion. November 5th was set for the next meeting of the Board.

4. Non-payment of activity fee. Thus far 50 persons have not paid their activity fee for the first semester, or have paid only part of it. Miss Hahn moved that November 1st be set as the date before which all activity fees must be paid, seconded by Mr. Cook, carried.

5. A letter from Mansfield State Teachers College regarding recognition of activity cards was read.

6. Resignation of Corresponding Secretary. Miss Barr, who was the Corresponding Secretary was forced to resign due to the press of other duties. The floor was opened for nominations. Miss Debo was nominated by Toni Kilsdonk, Miss Moyer by Maxine Hoffman. Maxine Hoffman moved that the nominations be closed, seconded by Miss Brungard, carried.

At this point a recess of 10 minutes was called. Council recessed at 7:40. During this period the votes for Who's Who and Corresponding Secretary were counted. Miss Kilsdonk, Miss Barr and Miss Shea were tellers.

At 7:52 the Board was back in session. The list of those elected to be entered in Who's Who were read. These consisted of: Lewis Rathgeber, Dale Olmstead, Walter Ganz, Wm. R. Bittner, Alice June Homler, Toni Kilsdonk.

Miss Mary Jean Moyer was elected Corresponding Secretary.

Mr. Lyons moved that the constitution of the Men's Dormitory Council be accepted with the recommendation that Art. V. Sec. A be amended to read "Junior or Senior." Miss Kilsdonk seconded, carried.

Mr. Bottorf moved that the faculty be admitted to the Shippensburg game free-of-charge. Miss Kilsdonk seconded, carried.

Men's Athletics
 Mr. Bossert read a financial statement of the football team's expenditures to date and their estimated expenditures in the future with special emphasis on the outstanding bill to date. A heated discussion followed.

Mr. Bottorf moved that the Board allocate to the football budget $525. Miss Hoffman seconded the motion. A roll call was taken. Voting follows:

Rathgeber, Lewis (as President no vote)
 Bottorf, Deanyes
 Barr, Alyce yes

Shippensburg No Match 33-0

Revenge was sweet Saturday as the Bossertmen continued their un-abrupted march to the state championship by crumbling the Red Raiders from Southern Pennsylvania, 33-0.

It was a beautiful football day and a near capacity crowd witnessed the one-sided affair in which practically the entire Eagle squad saw action.

Rafferty and Thomas highlighted the attack.

In the first period after the Reds were forced to punt, Rafferty reeled off 3 first downs that carried the ball to the 4 from where he took it over.

In the second quarter, the Eagles added two more. Thomas broke loose on a fake reverse and sprinted 53 yards. Later, Rafferty heaved a 23 yard pass to Miller in the end zone. Rock converted both from placement. The score at half-time, 20-0.

It was Rafferty again in the third. He set up the 4th tally with a 25 yard aerial to Sanzatto downed on the 10 from where he scored. Rock booted the point to bring his year's total to 10 for 12.

On the opening play of the last period, Thomas galloped around end, 27 yards for the final touchdown.

The blocking was nothing short of sensational with the entire line playing its usual airtight ball as can be readily seen by the statistics. Lock Haven garnered 11 first downs to Shippensburg's 3 (two by passes and one by penalty). In yards gained, the Eagles had a net 380 to the visitor's 62.

Reserves, Huggler, Hill, Stover, Innocent, Metzler, and Potter, line-man, and Johnson, Shoalts, Conley, and Brazinski, backs showed up well.

Sports Comment

by George Barnes

Well, the smoke is slowly clearing from that historic Council meeting of Wednesday last, but there are still some injured feelings.

Let's all forget our differences now, and get out to make Homecoming Day featuring the West Chester game, a success financially, socially, and sportingly.

Remember even though you may not have liked those newspaper attacks, they were publicity and how! Rathgeber vs. Wynn, wotta battle! Keep it up. We need more publicity.

Our football team has now won five straight. They have not been scored upon since the first period of the opening game. What a tribute to our great line.

In addition to this, the statistic sheets have all been lopsided in the Eagles' favor.

Speaking of school spirit, here's one for the books! A certain student told me that other day that she was going up to see the Penn State-Colgate game. She was all thrilled about it. I was surprised. "What's the matter with our game?" Whereupon, she remarked, "Ah, I wanna see a good game." Isn't it a shame?

Nevertheless, we got along pretty well with school spirit at the Shippensburg game. Many remarked that they have never seen the students react any more enthusiastically.

Let's triple this for Homecoming Day. What we want is all the girls with the spirit of our becoming cheerleaders and the fellows with the spark of our unrehearsed band.

Incidentally, how did you like our musical aggregation? Although we try to burlesque band antics and formations, we do have some good musicians in the outfit, Cessna, Ryan, Long, etc. Kyler? (Well).

Our motto is "If we catch anyone practising, we'll fire 'em."

Off the record though, we are going to have several new arrangements for the next game.

Saw Coach Howard Yost officiating at the Lock Haven-Yeagertown game, Saturday and doing a fine job all decked out in his new official togs.

Several of the intramural athletes (Hoover & Co.) report to me that this game of speed ball is much rougher than touch football.

Dick Cook, Alyce Barr, Marian Mc-Phee, James Peet, Toni Kilsdonk.

Mr. Rathgeber read the request

S. Rock and Gap Fall Before Eagles

On October 10th, the Lock Haven gridders journeyed to Western Pennsylvania and thrashed the Rockets of Slippery Rock 19-0.

Galitski highlighted the attack with a 56 yard touchdown gallop in the first period and plunging over in the fourth after Shoalts had carried the ball in successive plays to the 4.

Conley passed to Brazinski for the third tally.

Lock Haven made 10 first downs to Slippery Rock's 3 and gained a net yardage of 238 to 84 for the Rockets.

Under the lights October 16th, the Eagles repeated over a stubborn Army eleven, 6-0, mid a pouring down rain on the Lebanon High School field.

It was a beautiful pass from Thomas to Brazinski that saved Leo Rafferty from a stalemate.

Lock Haven was the outstanding back in addition to Thomas' passing. The Osceola Mills boy made 6 of the first downs himself.

Galitski suffered over a stubbhorn hip and was carried from the field.

So well did the Maroon line perform that the Gap was never past our 45 yard line.

Lock Haven tallied 9 first downs to the Army's 2, and gained a net of 203 yards to 19 for the Gap.

of Mr. Yost for a budget of $1040. No action was taken on this matter.

Miss Kilsdonk moved that the Board adjourn, Mr. Cook seconded, the motion carried. The Board adjourned at 9:55 P. M.

Basketball Practise Under Way

The 1942-43 basketball season launched its first week of practice with approximately ten on hand.

Some of last year's players out at the starting gun were Paul Coront, high-scoring center from Philadelphia; George Mitro, versatile guard and "B" Shaner, sharpshooting forward, both of Pottstown; Earl Lyons, diminutive Billporter and promising Milt Potter, also of Williamsport, and "Jarrin" McNulty, rangy center from Phillie.

New faces to give Yost pre-season hopes are Jerry Miller, Clearfield; Don Welch, of town, and "Mike" Bernardi, former Dickinson Sem star.

Coach Yost has all eyes pointed towards the mythical State Teachers championship held by the highly publicized East Stroudsburg.

From all probabilities, the Eagles first game will be an exhibition at the Penn State Clinic against Bloom, December 5th

Ranger-Athalon Program Still Booming

The Ranger-Athalon program is moving right along as approximately ten more passed tests with a qualifying Ranger time.

The present honor roll should be a challenge to the upperclassmen for out of the present 15 who have passed their Ranger tests, only 3 are upperclassmen.

Where is your spirit: Sophs, Juniors and Seniors? Are the freshmen too versatile?

Let's get a little pep and come out and give these frosh a real battle.

Study in Contrast: Paul Coront and Clem Link . . . Why is Bob Burman letting his hair grow? . . . Whatever you do, don't shake hands with Bucknell Young, the Vicksburg Vixen, when he walks up with hand outstretched. For while Bucknell is quite a nice young man in most respects, he is prone to carry dead mice and little, wriggly garter snakes around in his pockets just to palm them off on the unsuspecting . . . Max Thomas and Jimmy Shoalts, who are taking up the South Williamsport banner where Bubbles Coder dropped it, recently staged a comedy act for the benefit of a carload of train passengers in Williamsport. . . . Bound for Lock Haven after a week-end in the pleasant environs of the home hearth, the two lads stepped on the train laden with goodies, gifts of their ever-loving parents. Among said goodies were several jars of fruit, reports say. The car was crowded and progress was difficult. Suddenly one of the jars descended to the floor with a sickening crash and while the crowded passengers roared with laughter, two red-faced lads attempted to clean up . . . Did they get the razzberries!!—or was it cherries??

Milt (Punk) Potter covers a lot of ground trying to be nice to Alice Kohlhepp and Jean Modhl and still keep that Williamsport flame aglow at the same time.

PRIVATE PROPERTY

Coront's threats as to what will happen to us if this column does him dirt frighten us not in the least, but we won't say anything this time because—well—anyway we haven't room. . . . Don't breathe it to a soul but Margaret M. Madden is expecting Tiger George Bailey down again soon. . . . Mary Eleanor is also due momentarily. . . . Wonder what Patty Mayes would think if she knew whose picture adorns Glenn Miller's desk?? . . . SIGHT TO SEE: Jerry Miller and Mary Drick, two innocent Freshmen, sneaking out of the Martin Theatre arm in arm last week . . . They tell us Dick Bowes, Lock Havenite, and Maxine Hoffman are seeing eye to eye . . . However we think Bowes' ties to a L. H. H. S. lassie are too strong to sever at this point. . . . Not content with continually beating his gums loudly, Barnes is now coining words to better express himself . . . The Barnes lad scorns Webster as small time . . .

Killedonk and G. W. Schrock, Jr. still carrying on . . . Also Dan Stanley and Phyl Wolf . . . Mitchel Flegal Clearfield's heralded grappling star, recently announced to all and sundry: "A bachelor is a man who never made the same mistake once." . . . Motto of the McFall-Potter combine: — "All's woo that ends woo." . . . On a recent "after-hours" inspection, Pepal Beveridge mistook Sht Pfeffer's snore for a faulty radiator . . . Some of the Dramatics Club members visited local schools' assemblies last year advertising the Henry Aldrich presentation. After the preliminary speech, a question period was observed. . . . Invariably the leading queries were: "How is Peaches Donnelly?"; "Is Sally Loncoske still in school?"; and "Who is this Duke Davies anyhow?"

SUGGESTION

Earl Lyons, a standout tumbler, and two or three girls would make for better cheer-leading in the humble opinion of

SHORT SHOTS

Janey Bauman of Mill Hall and Lock Haven is causing all sorts of revolutions in the cardiac region of Salona's Pride—Joe Hayes . . . After the first speedball tilt of the season fully 60 per cent of the contestants had almost died on the field and the shattered remainder dragged and crawled upstairs suicide. . . . William Alexander (Cotton) Hoover was like a little to their rooms and contemplated lost puppy last week during the illness of Mary K. Martin . . . Toni
