

College Active In Centennial Celebration

College Is Host To State Council Ass'n

Newly Formed Organization Meets Here November 10, 11

PROGRAM PLANNED

The Lock Haven State Teachers College will play host to the Coöperative Association of the Pennsylvania State Teachers Colleges on November 10 and 11. Joseph B. Whittaker, who is president of the Association, announced the convention at the Lock Haven Student Council meeting on Thursday evening.

This Association, formed by the initiative of the Lock Haven group, had as its beginning the Conference on Student Life Problems held here last year. Later in the year the charter members of the Association met at Bloomsburg, and a Constitution was drawn up. At this year's Convention each Teachers College in the state was asked to send five delegates to the meeting. At the present writing favorable replies have been received from West Chester, Chayney, California, Bloomsburg, Mansfield, Slippery Rock.

The officers of the Association are: President, Joseph Whittaker, Lock Haven; vice president, Charles Meale, Millersville; secretary, Florence Stefanski, Bloomsburg; treasurer, Frank McGrew, Indiana.

A tentative convention program has been drawn up by a working committee. It is as follows:

Friday, Nov. 10

9:00-10:00—Reception and registration, reception room, Main building.

10:00-12:00—Opening sessions new Auditorium.

12:10—Lunch in College dining room.

1:30-3:00—General session of convention, Dr. A. L. Suhrie and Dr. J. B. Haas, guest speakers, (tentative).

3:00-5:00 — Committee meetings and panels.

6:15—Dinner in the College dining hall.

7:15-8:00—Informal after dinner dance in the Old Gymnasium.

8:30-10:30—Dutch treat theatre party—Roxy Theatre.

Saturday, Nov. 11

10:00-11:00 — College assembly—Armistice Day program, new Auditorium.

11:00-12:00 — Business meeting, panel summary, election of officers.

12:10—Luncheon in College dining hall.

2:00—Football game — Lock Haven vs. West Chester.

6:10—Dinner in College dining hall.

8:30-12:00—Delta Rho Beta Fraternity dance (informal).

Freshman Class Elects Officers for This Year

At their class meeting Monday morning, the Freshman class elected the following officers for the year: President, Eugene Sullivan; vice president, Gerald Bloom; secretary, Marjory Dick; treasurer, John Gehron.

Delta Rho Beta Fraternity Plans Armistice Dance

EVENT TO CLIMAX BIG WEEK-END AT SCHOOL

The Delta Rho Beta Fraternity will hold its "Derby Armistice Dance" in the old gymnasium at 8 o'clock, Nov. 11. The boys of the black derby will feature the orchestra of Carl Keller, well-known around Lock Haven for his swing arrangements. The affair will be informal and the price is but 75 cents per couple.

The Derby dance will climax a hectic week-end. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday Lock Haven will be host to the delegates of the Student Coöperative Councils of the State Teachers Colleges of Pennsylvania. At 1:15 Saturday afternoon, the "Bald Eagles" will meet the boys from Westchester on the local gridiron for what is expected to be one of the most exciting games of the season. The student council delegates will be the guests of the fraternity at the dance in the evening.

The "Derbies" have always been known to sponsor a good dance, and they are already hard at work to make this one the biggest success of all. Especially attractive programs have been arranged for, and invitations have been issued to alumni members of the fraternity.

President Diick Eyer has appointed committees to carry out the extensive plans. Harvey Robb will be the general chairman. Serving under him are the following chairmen: Ned Sweitzer, decoration; Breon Lauderbach, advertising; Judson Klepper, orchestra; Robert Deem, tickets; Norma Swope, programs; Tom Bittner, Charles Norlund and Don Rathgeber, publicity.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased any time from any member of the fraternity.

All School Dance In Old Gym This Evening Is Planned

Committees for Entertainment, Refreshments Have Been Working for Past Week

The All School Hallowe'en Party will be held in the college gymnasium this evening from 8 to 11:30. This is the first time for many years that the party has been scheduled for Hallowe'en.

The Social Committee has been very busy arranging entertainment that will insure a good time for every one attending. There

(Continued on page 2)

WHITE HUSSARS TO APPEAR ON ARTIST COURSE

Petrie Ensemble to Substitute For Welsh Imperial Singers

November 1, Herbert Petrie and His White Hussars are substituting for the Welsh Singers originally scheduled as the second Artist's Course present to... Substitution, however, does not mean a second-rate performance—the White Hussars are a fine organization consisting of a quartette in brass, an operatic tenor, an instrumental tenor, an instrumental soloist, a soprano, and a harp soloist.

The audience will enjoy a unique program full of dash, color, and showmanship. Special lighting effects will enhance the perfect stage technique, poise, gracefulness, coordination and clock-like movements of the group who are attired in white and gold hussar uniforms.

The Petrie Ensemble will be well worth hearing. The student body has shown its appreciation of this type of program by its whole-hearted approval of the New York Women's Chamber Orchestra. An evening's entertainment by the White Hussars should prove equally enjoyable.

Dramatics Club To Present 'Death Takes a Holiday'

PLAY IN REHEARSAL

"Death Takes a Holiday" will be the first public performance of the Teachers College Dramatics Club this year. This play, a three act drama by Alberto Casella (an Italian play adapted for the English stage), will be presented before the public of Lock Haven on December 8. Under the direction of Miss C. Cordelia Brong, "Death Takes a Holiday" has been cast and has been in rehearsal for one week. The second public performance of the Dramatic Club, "Smilin' Thru," has been partially cast and will be given next April 18.

"Death Takes a Holiday" boasts an outstanding cast. In the title role of "Death" is Eugene McCramer of Williamsport. Mr. McCramer makes an excellent "Death;" he is of imposing stature and possesses a remarkable resonant baritone voice which is ideally suited for such portrayal. During the play Mr. McCramer will appear, first as "The Shadow," second, as "Death," and third as "Prince Serki." Each of these personifications require special acting ability and make-up.

Playing opposite him as "Grazia," the daughter of an aristocratic Italian family, the girl with whom he falls in love, is Miss June Hollenbach of Pittsburgh. Both Miss Hollenbach and

(Continued on page 2)

Historical Exhibit in New Library, Church Service in Auditorium Are Features of County Centennial

Miss C. E. Geary Completes Work For Doctorate

RECEIVES DOCTORATE

DR. CATHERINE E. GEARY

Miss Catherine E. Geary, the first woman in the history of the Lock Haven State Teachers College to receive her doctorate, now holds the title of Dr. of Education in the field of teacher education. She received official confirmation of her degree Wednesday, October 25 from New York University, in New York City.

Miss Geary completes a trio doctorates earned this fall at this college, the others being Dr. Charles Cox and Dr. Allen D. Patterson.

A summary of Miss Geary's thesis: "The Difficulties and Needs of Beginning Teachers as Criteria for Evaluating and Enriching a Student Teaching Program" will be published soon in a leading educational magazine. The article will contain the names of the key libraries where in the published thesis may be found.

Miss Geary came to our college in 1935 as a teacher of English, Education and Psychology. Besides this, she is a very active extra-curricular worker. She is active in institute work, following up beginning teachers, and extension classwork. She is a member of the newly formed Publications Board and faculty adviser to three campus organizations: The Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority, The Praeco (college yearbook) and the Sophomore Class. Miss Geary also holds the distinction of being a professional writer to such leading educational magazines as "Nation Schools" and "The Pennsylvania School Journal," where her articles and contributions to education have appeared frequently.

Miss Geary is a native of Hamburg, Pennsylvania. Prior to her advent to Lock Haven, she gradu-

(Continued on Page Four)

UNION CHURCH SERVICE SUN., WELL ATTENDED

Community Choir of 125 Highlights Impressive Program

In conjunction with Clinton County's Centennial Celebration, the college was host to numerous visitors over the week-end, inspecting the historical exhibit in the new Library and attending the Union Church Service in the auditorium.

A feature of the Sunday afternoon services was the Community Chorus of 125 voices. An impressive program was presented before a large and appreciative audience.

On Friday morning, Mr. Richard H. Yohe, editor of the Clinton County Times, and George F. Hess, a member of the College Board of Directors, were guest speakers on the College Assembly program. Mr. Eugene Sullivan, a member of the student body, reviewed the college's history. His speech is printed elsewhere in this issue.

Monday afternoon the new bridge over the Susquehanna was officially dedicated. Prominent state officials took part in the ceremony which was a highlight of the Centennial celebration. Bicycle races over the new highway and bridge successfully entertained an impressive gathering of citizens.

On Tuesday evening, the Firemen of Lock Haven are sponsoring a Hallowe'en parade and dance, and on Wednesday evening the presentation of the Petrie Ensemble in the College's new Auditorium will officially conclude the celebration.

EIGHTEEN TRANSFERS REGISTERED HERE THIS FALL—SOPHS LEAD

Lock Haven Teachers College has a great many transfer students in its classes this year. Mr. MacDougall, Dean of Instruction, reported that there are 18 transfers enrolled in the various courses of study.

The Sophomore class leads the school with eight transfer students. Following is a list of all students registering this year, who have previously attended other schools:

- Allan, Mary Jane, Slippery Rock S. T. C., Sophomore.
- Culbertson, Vivian, Wooster College, Sophomore.
- Hoover, Wava, Juniata College, Sophomore.
- Moran, Joseph, Mount Saint Marys, Sophomore.
- Plankenhorn, Jane, Lake Erie College, Sophomore.
- Steen, Charles, St. Josephs College, Sophomore.
- Weakland, Fred, Juniata College, Sophomore.

(Continued on Page Two)

COLLEGE TIMES

The College Times is published at the Lock Haven State Teachers College, Lock Haven, Penna., by the Editorial Board of the College Times.

Published semi-monthly during the school year

EDITORIAL BOARD

Editor-in-Chief — John F. Quigley

Assistant Editor	Richard Hartzell
Managing Editor	Charles Norlund
Business Manager	William Masterson
Sports	Don Rathgeber
Advertising	Louis Rathgeber
Campus Chatter	Harvey Robb
Features	Roberta Sabatto
Staff Writers—	Joseph Moran, Eugene Sullivan, Lorna Zettle, George Given, Fred Jamison, Elizabeth Ernst, Janet Gustafson
Typists—	Joe Moran, Eugene Sullivan, Bette Swartz, Eileen Glennon

Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized June 3, 1923.

Entered as Second Class matter November 6, 1928, at the Post Office at Lock Haven, Penna., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1939

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The progress which Clinton County has made in the past 100 years and the steps it hopes to take forward in the next 100, concern our College to a much greater extent than the student body seems to realize. The history and development of the school has proceeded along a line parallel to, if not coinciding with that of the community and county, and it is extremely logical to assume that the years to come will show the same relation between school and community.

It is the duty of every student in school to do all he can to promote a beneficial relationship between his Alma Mater and the city in which it is situated, particularly when school and town are both so small that each is necessarily dependent on the other to a certain extent. Of course this "mutual assistance" must work two ways, and the city of Lock Haven has, in many cases been a real asset to the Teachers College.

Let us, then, look ahead with the rest of the County, and do all we can towards promoting Clinton County in general and the Lock Haven State Teachers College in particular.

LOCK HAVEN MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DICK HARTZELL

A great many of the comments you find in this week's column are the result of Dr. Suhrie's recent visit. I think we can all profit by pondering over some of his advice.

As I understand it, a representative is one who speaks for the interests of his constituents at a meeting of the body to which he has been elected. If this is true, some of our organizations are not represented on the Student Council, because many of our members seldom attend meetings. I think it would be to the interest of the various campus organizations to check up on their representatives. If they are shirking their duties, you should know what to do.

Most things of the kind mentioned, could be avoided if students would think and then vote instead of voting and then regretting. It might be well for us to discuss qualifications for an officer once in a while. If we do this, we will most certainly think of some one who meets those qualifications better than anyone else. The next thing to do is vote for him whether you like him personally or not. (The chances are if you don't like him you don't know him).

After you have elected an officer, don't forget him. Be critical of his work. But also be quick to appreciate him. If there is something you think he should do, tell him. Don't keep it to yourself and whisper, "Why doesn't he do this or that." (One man can't think of everything).

I think you should know that if there is anything you want the Council to consider, a note given to Mr. Hudson will find its way into the Student Council Mailbox. Don't forget to say "Thank You" after the matter is taken care of.

The Council would like to know what you think of holding Open Forums. I think they really provide an opportunity to give everyone a hearing on his merits regardless of his position, i.e., faculty member or student. Then, too, we are very poorly informed on current events.

Along that same line some one has suggested an International Club. If anyone is interested, he is welcome to say so. If enough people say so, maybe it could be DID.

Again I ask your opinion (won't someone please say something) What do you think of the calibre of our chapel and assembly programs? The committee wants to know. Programs can't be improved until they know what you do and do not like about them.

I am reminded that there was once a time when there was more hospitality along the road and fewer tourist homes.

LOCK HAVEN STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE ON REVIEW

By EUGENE SULLIVAN

Editor's Note: The following speech was given in Friday's assembly program. It is printed in The Times in the hope that every student will make an effort to know at least a little of the history of his Alma Mater.

In conjunction with the Clinton County Centennial celebration it is most appropriate that the history of Lock Haven State Teachers College be given consideration, for it has played an important part in the history of Clinton County.

In the year 1857 the state legislature passed a bill dividing the state into twelve normal school districts in which schools were to be established for the instruction and training of teachers for the duties of their profession.

Many of the districts immediately took steps to build such institutions, Millersville being the first to found such a school.

It was not until about twenty years more had passed, however, that a movement was started to give central Pennsylvania such a school.

There were living in Lock Haven at this time several men who visioned possibilities for such an educational institution in Clinton County. The credit belongs to the Rev. G. W. Shinn, Rector of St. Paul's Church, for instituting the project. Along with Professor A. N. Raub, Principal of the Lock Haven High School, Rev. Shinn began to work hard to found here in Lock Haven a State Normal School.

Since the first state requirement was that a Normal School should consist of an area not less than ten acres in one tract, Rev. Shinn and Mr. Raub immediately contacted Mr. Philip M. Price, an owner of considerable land in the city, and he generously presented a tract of 16 acres to the growing cause.

Money was the next important step. While preliminary arrangements were being made for getting subscriptions, Mr. L. A. Mackey, a public-spirited gentleman, stepped forward and headed the list of contributors with a one thousand dollar contribution. With such a splendid beginning the project soon found many supporters who formed themselves into an association called The Central State Normal School Association of the State of Pennsylvania. Outstanding members of this organization who served on its board of trustees were such men as J. S. Furst, G. A. Achenbach, R. H. Boggis and G. O. Deise.

This group lost no time in pushing their cause, and three years after the charter was obtained, the formal laying of the corner stone took place on July 4, 1873. In May, four years later, the first term of the Central State Normal School opened and the following October it was recognized by the state as the Normal School of the Eighth District. The first graduation exercises took place in 1878 with 16 young people receiving their diplomas.

Ten years later, however, disaster struck. Fire of uncertain origin broke out on the night of December 9, 1888, and the following morning the Normal School structure was burned to the ground. Fortunately, no lives were lost, but pecuniary losses were estimated at $125,000.

In two years, however, a new and more imposing building was completed, not on the old site where our tennis courts are now, but on a lower site. It is known as the Main Building.

From this point on new buildings have been added, until we now have eleven separate structures including the four new ones which are being used for the first time this year.

Not only did it grow in size, but our college grew also in the field of studies. From time to time new courses have been added, and the student enrollment has steadily increased. And in 1927 a very important and significant step in the history of our school was taken when the college was given the power of granting degrees of Bachelor of Science in Education, and henceforth was to be known as the Lock Haven State Teachers College.

The Lock Haven State Normal School and its successor, the Lock Haven State Teachers College, have had a long and honorable record. Nearly five thousand men and women have been graduated from it. These men and women have played an important part in the affairs of the State and Nation. Most of them have become teachers, but all occupations and professions have been enriched by their careers. Many of them are influential citizens in the fields of law, medicine, statesmanship and business. They are found in every state and even in foreign countries. So, we, members of the present student body, may well be proud of our college and its history. We should strive to be worthy of it and resolve that when we leave it as alumna, to so conduct ourselves as to reflect credit upon it.

ALL SCHOOL DANCE

(Continued from page 1)

will be group games, dancing, and refreshments. Since most of the students of the school favor dancing to the Victrola the committee has decided to use the new machine for dancing. New records have been ordered and will be here in time for the Halloween party.

Committees for the dance are: Entertainment: Bill Masterson, Dene Hocker, Jane Shull, Ted Tomlinson, Mary K. Martin, Frances Molitor, Monroe Hurwitz, Chester Davis, Jane Plankenhorn.

Decoration: Blair Owens, Shirley Byrol, Marie Kraemer, Violet Nester, Ann Quigley, Marjorie Dick, Alice Homler, Rosella Corbin, Jane Bittner, Leo Hertzog, Roger Ferneau, Stuart Nolan, Gerald Bloom, William Bittner.

Instead of wearing costumes, the correct dress for this dance will be any old clothes the students can find. Every one attending may be assured that they will have a fine time.

EIGHTEEN TRANSFERS

(From Page One)

Culbertson, Robert, Wooster College, Junior.

Lemley, Lois, California S. T. C., Junior.

Lykens, Larrence, Dickinson Seminary, Junior.

Ginter, John, Dickinson Seminary, Senior.

Bowers, William, St. Joseph's College, Special.

Mervine, Hannah, Bucknell University, Special.

Sage, Joan, Allegheny College, Special.

Ulmer, Mary., West Chester S. T. C., Special.

Bower, Ruth, Pennsylvania S. College, Special.

Jones, Genevieve, Juniata, Sophomore.

High, Ruth, Grove City, Sophomore.

Caraher, Juniata, Sophomore.

LINE LOGIC

A man's ambition is to make a name for himself, and a girl's ambition is to see that she gets that name.

A liberal education, to the modern college student, means one with plenty of spending money from the old folks at home.

SPOOKS!!!

On November 14, most of us will be troubled by spooks. Not the sort that rap on walls, or place icy hands on your neck, or juggle the desk drawers. I mean the Spooks of misspent dollars.

"I wish I hadn't bought that..." "I wish I had waited."

"I saw the same thing five minutes later for much less money..." "That didn't wear well..." "I wish I had cut down on expenses."

How many students are haunted by thoughts like these?

There's a way to banish such spooks and it's right here on this campus. If you want to save money; yet get the most for it, read the advertisements in The Times, and patronize these advertisers.

Sorority Rushing Season Begins Next Week

Each year the three sororities on the campus sponsor a rushing season, at which time they entertain the girls they wish to have as future sorority sisters.

The sorority rushing season this year begins on November 6, with the Alpha Sigma Tau party. November 9 is the date set for the Sigma Sigma Sigma party while the Pi Kaps end the rushing season on Nov. 11, with another party. Last year the sororities had both a formal and an informal party, and the rushing season lasted three weeks. This year, however, the Pan Hellenic Council, the governing body of the three sororities, has cut down on the expenditures used for rushing purposes.

After the last party, there will be a period of silence when no rushees will be permitted to speak to any upper class girl, and no dating will be allowed. This "quiet season" will end Monday noon, at which time the girl will be expected to accept or reject the bids given them by the sororities early that morning. At 3 o'clock the sororities will know what girls have accepted the bids and thus another rushing season will come to a close.

DRAMATICS CLUB

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. McCramer are veterans of the Teachers College stage. Last year Miss Hollenbach played the part of the second "Mrs. Moonlight" in the production of the same name, while Mr. McCramer played the opposite lead in "Craig's Wife."

Next to the universal plays of Shakespeare, perhaps one of the greatest plays since written is "Death Takes a Holiday." As a play it possesses almost perfect "theatre;" as a work of art it combines both mood and atmosphere into an aesthetic, almost ethereal end; and as literature—it contains some very beautiful philosophy, very beautifully expressed; all of these dependent upon the contribution of the individual actors.

This drama tells of "Death," who, tiring of his gruesome work, decided to spend a three day vacation on earth. During his earthly sojourn not a single thing dies—humans, insects or plants. "Death" wants to know why men fear him. He finds out from the other characters who make up the supporting cast, which includes: Richard Hartzell, Harriet Figgles, Katherine Frey, and Monroe Hurwitz of Lock Haven; Lois Reeder and Willard Poff of Williamsport; Joseph Danis of Mill Hall; Michael Kolivosky of Grassflat; and Robert Deem of Flemington.

DO WE ALUMNI WANT A STADIUM?

A MOST sincere "welcome home" to all you former graduates who have returned to Campus today. We're glad that you're with us, and hope the day brings you a chance to say "hello" to a host of your friends and former classmates.

The editor of this column is not going to use space today telling you about individual members of the Alumni Association—we hope that you'll find a lot of such information for yourself as you swap reminiscences with the "old grads" back for homecoming.

But we are going to use this column to talk over some of the proposals before the general Alumni Association, and some of the problems confronting the executive board members.

YOUR president, Max Bossert, and this writer, have had occasion to confer this past week with Dr. Flowers, our college president, on the Alumni program for the coming year. Dr. Flowers made a statement which gave us "to think," as the old expression goes. We pass it on to you:

He said: "If the Alumni Association could raise $5,000, we could build a handsome, $30,000 stadium on New College field."

And there, Alumni, is a challenge for you!

But that challenge, Alumni, poses another problem for us as an Association. To continue as a growing organization, worthy of the college of which we are graduates, it seems to the executive board members, that we must appeal to you who are general alumni members for some financial assistance to enable the association to be of greater service to you as members, and also to the college.

This is a problem which has been in the minds of many of us for several years, now, and which we hope to solve in some satisfactory way before this year is over. To this end, the executive board is to meet today with the idea of mapping out a program of financing the projects of the Alumni Association. We hope to be able to come to you very shortly with a request for your personal financial support to the Association, for which we hope to be able to give you something in return. In other words: Dues, and something for your money.

AND that again recalls another "headache" for your executive board members. How many of you, since last you moved, or since you were married, have let the college know of your change of address or change of name. It's such a little matter, and slips the memory so easily. But it makes it almost impossible for us to get in touch with many of you. We write, and the letter comes back Or we write, and you never get the card. Take time out today to sign the Alumni register, and if you know the address of an Alumnus who has recently moved, and feel that he'd like to get communications from the Association, too, slip his address into the address box at the registry table.

SINCE this column has strayed in such a high-handed way into business channels—but your business, Fellow Alumni, so we hope it hasn't bored you—perhaps your scribe may put in still one more bid for your attention in a business-like manner. This column, aimed to keep alumni abreast of what is happening in the Association and to Alumni members, is being published every two weeks ately we have yet no regular Alumni news organ. Now if we should urge you to cut out two movies a week and spend the 50 cents for a year's subscription to The Times, would you take it amiss?

Our college paper is definitely on the "up and up" this year. A good staff, good advisers, and an intelligent policy. It seems to us that a bit of news from off the Campus would help make some of us Alumni forget the years, and the eternal "extra chins" and thinning hair that seem to come along with them.

Through The Times, perhaps we can keep in closer contact with each other. We aim to tell as much as possible, of the marriages, new jobs, or death in our own ranks, in this Alumni column. And the editor will be glad to include in the column any information which you send to M. B. Zeigler, '32, The Express, Lock Haven, Pa.

DON'T forget the tea in the gym after the game. We forgot to include it on the Alumni Homecoming announcements. M B Z.

Delta Rho Beta Fraternity Plans Banner Year

The work of the Delta Rho Beta Fraternity has begun early this year under the new president, Dick Eyer. Plans have been made for enlarging the rooms. Pending the decision of the administration the fraternity may have the use of the student council rooms for smokers and other entertainment.

Committees have been hard at work. The budget for the year was delivered at the second meeting last week by the new secretary Robert Bowes. The room committee has devised a new set of rules which have been approved and posted. The Alumni Committee, under the chairmanship of Chas. Norlund, is making plans for contacting all fraternity alumni. This will be done in order that the alumni may be kept posted concerning the activities of the organization throughout the year.

Members of the fraternity met with Mr. Jenkins of the Balfour Company and the favors for this year's dinner dance have been selected. Following a survey of the house committee, it was decided that the fraternity would subscribe to several magazines including Esquire, News Week and the Saturday Evening Post.

Cortland Game

Continued from Page 3
in the final stanza Hathaway sprinted 15 yards for the second score of the fray. This time the try for the bonus point was good. On the next kick-off Sagoll returned five yards. Following this, Crocco, reserve fullback from Pitsburgh, brought the Maroon followers to their feet with an electrifying 20 yard sprint. On Miller's kick to the 20 yard line, Hathaway returned to the 30 yard line. A few plays later, the big back ran 61 yards for his second touchdown of the day. Obelzinski made the point, bringing the score to 20-7. Not satisfied yet, the Red Dragons tallied another six points on the fine work of Ashland and Obelzinski. Final score: 26-7.

The Maroons played a fine game until the heat and reserve strength of Cortland wore them down. Some of the Freshmen showed possibilities; the team will be much stronger when the new men gain experience.

Campus Chatter

Beware Men

When a pretty woman puckers up her lips for a kiss, she is only setting her trap.

Yours Truly

I think that I shall never see A "D" as lovely as a "B" "D's" are made by fools like me Only handshakers can make a "B."

—Grove City Collegian

Traveling Salesman ?

It is only recently that we learned the whys and wherefores of the F B in Mr. Lehman's name. This choice bit of information came from the maestro himself who claims it stands for "Fuller Brush." Beware girls!

Oh Yeh

Mr. Sullivan: "What, my good man, is a Quorum?"

A Frosh: "A Quorum, sir, is where the Senate keeps its gold fish."

Omigosh!

It seems that "Bing Crosby" Masterson and "Eddie Duchin" Pierson were discussing the new course COURSHIP AND MARRIAGE which was recently introduced at Penn State. Bill was all for having the course at L. H. S. T. C. when Eddie piped up with the bright thought that if it were introduced here, you would no longer be able to get a Bachelor's Degree.

Our Barber

She shingles six sisters so swift, And shaved some scene-shifters (same shift); She shines at safe shaving, Sane shingling and waving, But the shorn from the shaved she should sift.

EXTRA

Have you noticed, boys and girls, that the clock in the library is RUNNING for a change. However, the librarian has an alarm clock in the outer office—just in case.

Note

Some of the boys have been calling Charlotte Figgles "Crisco" lately. Why?

These Frosh

A Freshman the other day wanted to know, if the door were locked, how would Gunga Din.

The Rats

Why is it that when a person is taking a shower in the first floor B. R., all of his "friends" like to open the windows for the benefit of those outside?

Mary-go-Round

And then there is the couple who met in a revolving door and have been going around together ever since.

Aren't We?

Dr. Patterson was telling us the other day about the fellow that defined "Status Quo" as "the mess we are in."

Home Sweet Home!

He crept upstairs, his shoes in hand Just as the night took wing; And saw his wife four steps above, Doing the same darn thing.

Haunted House??

You don't need an X-ray to see Mr. Bossert's skeleton—It's hanging in the closet up in Room 34.

Boyce Will Be Boyce

Imagine the chagrin on Tom Boyce's face when he arrived home last week-end to discover he had two blankets instead of the clean shirts he had packed. It seems that Maurice Salada has been playing tricks on our boy Tom.

all men smoke, but Fu Manchu

The Impossible

Kenny Hoover getting his frame in one bed.

Visitors

J. Moran and Ligouri Alphonsus Nevins, Jr., pay nightly visits to the dorm.

A Resolution

Should be adopted to have more parents send or come with food-foodstuffs.

"Back to Nature"

"Back to Nature" was the motto, so Mikael Kolivosky (poet laureate of the Dorm) decorated his room with leaves.

The barber shop quartette has been straining lungs and burning tonsils It is led by tonsorial artist, Lou Martella.

The study period from seven to nine, which originated in Freshman Customs for Freshmen has been a big help in getting down to the books.

Are you a mean man? John Kruper says he is one of the meanest men on the campus. Tucker is also "a mean so and so."

Freshmen can truthfully say that customs in the dorm were very lenient, although 219, the "Head Man's" room did a big business a number of nights. Very few got the paddle as much as they did other years.

Up at seven; to bed at eleven—(for some of us).

In case of blackouts the boy's dorm will be fully prepared in case of war in this country since lights are out at eleven every night!

With The Paragraphers

The modern girl is smoking less nowadays, says a writer. Possibly this is because she doesn't like to look effeminate.—Montreal Star.

A bumper wheat crop is predicted and there is the prospect of longer breadlines. Figure it out how you will, "it don't make sense."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The New Deal legislation has been built upon a series of emergencies—just the thing it was supposed to end.—Kansas City Star.

To get a picture of Japan's troubles in China, recall your own difficulties when an old garden hose begins to break out in a dozen places.—Omaha World-Herald.

Most people, according to a lighting engineer, are depressed by green light. But when they get back of a wheel its different — Boston Transcript.

A real labor leader does not lead his men to idleness. Yet they call John L. Lewis a labor leader—Gove, Kansas, Republican Gazette America sends 41,000,000 false teeth to Europe yearly. If the latter could only use some of them to put teeth in international contracts things might become more settled abroad. — Leavenworth Times.

PERSONALITY OF THE FORTNIGHT

By FRED JAMISON

W. Max Bossert

One of the busiest men on this campus preparing for Homecoming today is Coach Bossert, president of the Alumni Society. For the third year it rests on his broad shoulders to take care of Homecoming and the football game Saturday afternoon. Every night one may see him down on the field whipping the team into shape for the big day.

With the kind of handling the coaching staff gives the squad, the present team will bring great results, for already it shows definite signs of a "growing team," says Mr. Bossert.

Coach Bossert's activities not only include football but also the teaching of boxing, physical education, track and swimming. However, his football work is better known, because of the two championship teams he has helped to produce.

Max Bossert was born in Milton, Pa. He attended the Lock Haven High School and played on the high school football team for a number of years. Following his graduation there he came to our own Alma Mater specializing in Physical Education. His practice teaching took him two years to Morrisdale and one year to Jersey Shore during which he coached one undefeated team. Then in 1934 he accepted a position with our college, and has been here for the last five years. On the sideline he has done graduate study at Columbus University and attended one year at Washington and Jefferson as well as two summer sessions at State College.

At home Max is just the same old sociable fellow he is at school. He lives contented with his wife and daughter, Jane, in a cozy brick house in Mill Hall. As a hobby during his spare time and in the summer Coach Bossert raises apples. Already he is becoming popular in that line and many friends visit his home just to sample his good cider and munch a few apples. After you have been there you will agree that Max is not only a scholar and a gentleman but a darn good apple raiser, too.

MEMBERS WANTED

BY TIMES STAFF

The College Times invites any students interested in newspaper work to join the staff. Interest may be indicated by signing the Times notice on the main bulletin board or by seeing John Gugley, editor.

The staff learns much about newspaper writing, make-up, and management. Mr. Parsons is starting an evening class in journalism for members of the staff.

The Times has always been one of the leading organizations on the campus. We invite you to become members if you desire.

COLLEGE SPORTS

Bald Eagle-Keys Game Rated A Toss-up; Kick-off at 1:15

GAME FEATURE OF HOMECOMING PROGRAM

Outsiders Pick McGovern
Outfit to Trim Eagles;
But Fredericks Warrior to Be on
Rebound

This afternoon at 1:15 p. m., the grid warriors of Lock Haven Teachers College will meet Kutztown's Flying Dutchmen, on College Field in what is expected to be one of the closest games of the year. The game is to be the feature of Alumni Homecoming week-end.

Jimmy McGovern, the Keys' cagey mentor can always be counted on to bring a scrappy eleven to Lock Haven. By virtue of their record so far, the Dutchmen are favored to trim the feathers of the doughty Eagles. However, the 26-7 setback suffered at the hands of the powerful Cortland squad last week, may put the locals in a victory frame of mind, and the outcome is, from this corner, a toss-up.

As yet the Eagles are undefeated in Pennsylvania Teachers College ranks; but on the other hand, they have played only one member of the State Profs mythical league—Indiana. To remain in the running for the championship, an honor they have so often gained in the past, the Maroons must knock off the McGovern-coached team. The Keys held a more powerful 1938 L H S T C eleven to a close 14-13 score, and this year came close to downing the perennially tough Shippensburg Raiders losing out, 7-6. The Ships are usually Lock Haven's jinx team, more than once ruining their chances of a perfect record.

However, come what may, Wynn Fredericks and his aides are prepared to give Jimmy McGovern and his Kutztown Dutchmen one of the hottest afternoons of football they'll experience all season.

LET'S GO, EAGLES.

Starting lineup:

Kutztown	Lock Haven
Donovan	Young
	Left End
Kovich	Beightol
	Left Tackle
Hollenbach	Fairchild
	Left Guard
Horvath	Tomlinson
	Center
Bodnarik	Kemerer
	Right Guard
Conay	Blake
	Right Tackle
Trenchard	O'Neil
	Right End
Huber	Kalinowski
	Quarterback
Povomoro	Hopkins
	Left Halfback
Walsh	Mollura
	Right Halfback
Fister	Snyder
	Fullback

SPORT LITE

By DON RATHGEBER

In my last column I suggested that a rod and gun club be started on the campus and I was glad to see many people interested in this club. At the present time 75 people have signed for membership including Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, Miss Deach, and Mr. Bossert of the faculty. This new club is now applying for a charter and I hope the Student Council sees fit to grant it. One of the members has written to the National Rifle Association for admission and it looks as though the admission will be granted. In this association the government supplies the clubs with rifles and ammunition, thereby saving the club members a lot of money.

Saturday is homecoming day and the Bald Eagles of Lock Haven meet one of their toughest opponents, Kutztown. Last Saturday Kutztown held Shippensburg scoreless up until the last 2 minutes of play when a pass play got away for a touchdown and Shippensburg won 7 to 6. Shippensburg always has one of the best Teachers College teams in the state, so Kutztown must be good, at least defensively if not offensively. Let's all turn out Saturday and watch the Maroon and Gray chalk up another victory.

October 14th the soccer team opens its season against Bloomsburg, on Homecoming Day. The Lock Haven team will be out for revenge after a defeat last year at the hands of Bloomsburg.

With good weather, the intra-mural tennis matches will be completed and a champion will be announced. In the first round, Ammerman beat Sullivan, Underwood beat Pierson and Jim Bowes beat Masterson. From this corner the favorite looks like Barney Under-

TODAY'S CAPTAIN

Earl Young

The Eagles' captain today is Earl Young, stellar end. Earl is having his greatest season, and should prove a fine leader.

wood with Jim Bowes a runner up and giving Underwood a run for his money. We found that the intra-mural tennis tournament is not moving along so fast because of the conditions of the courts. I hope this information will be passed along to someone with enough authority who will look into the affair. The other day it was apparent that some girl had walked across the courts with high heels, digging several holes in the soft ground. If YCU go to play tennis please use sneakers only, and be sure the courts are dry.

An Ohio lady, now 100, says there are advantages in being old. By saving the hats, one can be in style three or four times. Detroit News.

Mexico is sure a backward country. It seizes land without the formality of levying taxes—Fort Myers News-Press.

EAGLES' AERIAL HOPE

Jim Hopkins

Jim Hopkins, who captained the Maroons last week against Cortland and whose unerring passes to Young have resulted in scores in both the team's games.

Soccer Season Gets Under Way This Afternoon

BLOOMSBURG IS OPPONENT

The soccer team opens its schedule this afternoon on the old college field with a reputedly tough Bloomsburg team. Coach Hamond is confident of a victory to avenge the setback handed the Maroons last year at Bloomsburg.

Practice sessions this past week have been particularly encouraging and the entire squad is in fine condition.

After the Bloomsburg tussle, the teams will take to the road, traveling to Ithaca, N. Y., to engage the Ithaca College team next Saturday.

Today's starting lineup:

Goal	Ohl
R. Fullback	Springman
L. Fullback	Lauderbach
R. Halfback	Yon
C. Halfback	Donovan
L. Halfback	J. Bowes
L. Wing	Cook
R. Wing	Link
Inside Right	Martell or Danis
Inside Left	Hosterman
Center	Giles

Intra Mural Tennis Tournament Well Under Way

The fall intra-mural tennis tournament got under way last week, and most of the first round singles matches have been completed. The doubles matches are scheduled to begin as soon as the singles champion has been determined. Aspirants to the crown who will advance to the second round of the tournament next week are Barnett Underwood, Charles Steen, Max Ammerman, Roger Bickford, James Bowes, Millard Neff, Robert Bowes and John Quigley.

The Times' sports scribe, Don Rathgeber, selects Underwood to cop the honors with James Bowes the probable runner-up.

Cortland Team Overwhelms Eagles Saturday

Red Dragons' Reserves Prove Too Much for Maroons in Heat

HATHAWAY, MOLLURA STAR

Merlin "Flash" Hathaway and the grid warriors of Cortland State Teachers College crossed the state line from New York and invaded Lock Haven last Saturday; on Sunday they were back in Cortland with a 27-6 revenge over the Bald Eagles. Earl Davis, the Red Dragon mentor, apparently wanted the Lock Haven boys to remember this game, as he had remembered a former year, when the Bald Eagles spoiled a five-year undefeated record. Accordingly he presented, before a capacity audience, two crack elevens which he alternated at will, and who gradually wore down the Maroons' one-team squad

Mollura Shines

Playing the finest game of his star-spangled career, Pete Mollura, big Lock Haven half-back stopped many advances of the scarlet-clad New York lads. The big Clearfield athlete's number 50 jersey was seen on every play, and it was only after he left the game that the Cortland boys went to town. Mollura's unerring tackling, time and again stopped Cortland advances

Eagles' Offensive Stalls

Hathaway, Cortland back, kicked off to Kalinowski who returned the ball to the 40 yard line. After Hopkins gained two yards, Kalinowski lost one, and O'Neill booted to the Cortland 14 yard line. Hathaway punted and the Maroon, with Mollura and Hopkins bearing the brunt of the ball-carrying, began a steady advance down the field to the Dragon two yard line. Here a bad pass from center threw the attack into reverse and the first scoring threat of the game ended. The Eagles pushed to within 17 yards of scoring in the second quarter, and consistently pushed the New York boys back, paced by the fine defensive work of Mollura.

Hopkins Passes to Young

The second half opened with Mollura kicking off to Dietz, Dragon reserve back, who returned the pigskin to his own 35 yard line. Dietz punted and Hopkins returned to the 40. Following an exchange of punts, Fawcett, Bald Eagle reserve half, made some nice aims to put the ball in scoring position. Hopkins' pass to Young was good for 18 yards, and on the next play Mollura crashed through the line for the Maroons' only score of the game. Pete also set-kicked the extra point to put the Lock Haven lads out in front 7-0.

Cortland seemed to be waiting for just such an event and immediately began a steady advance down field for their initial tally. The main part of the ball-carrying was done by Hathaway. The first score was made by Lockwood on an off-tackle slant. The try for the extra point was not good, which left the Maroons in the lead, 7-6.

Cortland Reserves Good

Lock Haven's first string was worn down by Cortland's big and numerous substitutes, and early

(Continued on page 4)