Eagle Gridders Capture Western Conference Crown

By BOB BAKER

The LOCK HAVEN STATE College Bald Eagles football team used a high-powered offense and a tough defense to defeat the California State Volcans 40-0 here at Hubert Jack Stadium and capture the Pennsylvania Western Conference Crown. The win assured Lock Haven of its first berth in the Pennsylvania Conference championship game in 19 years.

The Bald Eagles piled up 512 total yards in offense as they dominated the line of scrimmage throughout the game. The offensive line of John White, Chuck Terek, John Wolgamot, Bruno DiMartile, and Don Amoriello deserve much of the credit as they opened up huge holes that enabled the Lock Haven backfield to pile up 295 yards rushing. The Lock Haven offense piled up 19 first downs as compared to only 11 for California. Once again Joe Speese was the leading rusher for Lock Haven with 197 yards on only 15 carries and he scored two touchdowns. The offensive line also gave quarterback Dan Spittal plenty of time to throw as he hit on 9 of 12 passes for 196 yards and no interceptions.

Lock Haven scored on its first possession as they drove 51 yards on only three plays. On their very first play Spittal hit wide receiver Bob Lynn with a 48 yard catch and run setting up the Bald Eagles on the California one yard line. Two plays later Speese dove over for the score. Placekicker Danny Young added the extra point and Lock Haven lead 7-0 with 11:43 left in the first quarter.

Lock Haven got its second score of the quarter following a fumble recovery by Terry Mathias at the Lock Haven 30 yard line. Speese took a pitchout from Spittal and clicked off 25 yards setting up Lock Haven on the California 45 yard line. Following an offside penalty against California, Spittal hit tight end Bill Sementelli with a 28 yard pass moving the ball to the Volcan 12 yard line. Three plays later Spittal sneaked over from the one for the score. Young's extra point was wide, and Lock Haven lead 13-0 with 6:39 left in the first quarter.

Lock Haven's next score came after the tough Bald Eagle defense forced California to punt and the ball was downed on the one yard line. Speese produced runs of 6 and 24 yards and Ray Leiphart's 12 yard run gave Lock Haven good field position on their own 43 yard line. Spittal hit on two passes to Sementelli for 34 yards before Speese got the touchdown on a six yard run. Spittal hit Sementelli again for the two point conversion and Lock Haven lead 21-0 with 13:28 remaining in the first half.

Lock Haven scored again on its next possession as they drove 59 yards on four plays. Speese and Leiphart produced 22 and 28 yard runs respectively and a face mask penalty set the Bald Eagles on the California nine yard line. Two plays later Spittal sneaked over for the six points. The extra point was no good as Young was forced to throw following a bad snap from center. His pass was complete to holder Bob Maley, but Maley was stopped short of the goal line. However, Lock Haven lead 27-0 and had things much in their control.

Lock Haven's final score of the first half came on a ten yard run by Willie Mathias. The key play on this drive was the good field position given to Lock Haven by Tony Garziona as he returned a California punt 45 yards, setting up Lock Haven on the Volcan 27 yard line. The halftime score read 33-0 in favor of Lock Haven.

Lock Haven got its final score of the day on its first drive of the second half. Speese again took a pitchout from Spittal and raced 15 yards for the score to cap an 81 yard drive. Also on the touchdown run, Speese went over the 1000 yard mark for the second consecutive season. Young's extra point made it 40-0 and Lock Haven only had to play out the game to capture its first playoff bid in 19 years.

After the game in the locker room, Coach Jack Fisher expressed to all of his players, "You should be thankful for being able to participate in a game like today's. He said, "Many players get a chance to play football, but only a few get to participate in a game for a championship." He also stressed that next week's game against Slippery Rock would be very important and that they would work hard to finish the regular season on a high note.

Next week Lock Haven puts its 7-2 mark on the line against Slippery Rock (3-5) at Slippery Rock State College. On November 17, Lock Haven will travel to Millersville State College for the Pennsylvania Conference Championship.

LHSC Lab Safety Workshop Declared Successful

By JULIE STORY

The Lab Safety Workshop held here by the Department of Chemistry and Physics has been declared successful by its coordinator, Dr. Donald Oakley.

Oakley, Mr. Zane Kaufman, and Mr. Alfred Hoberman instructed a practical review of lab safety which included: legal responsibilities, chemical reagent handling, storage and disposal, biological and animal hazards, electrical safety, fire control, eye and face protection, and laboratory inspection.

The workshop was sponsored by the Department of Chemistry and Physics and the Central Pennsylvania Section of the American Chemical Society.

A total of fifteen participants included three LHSC students, plus twelve in-service teachers from Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, and Sugar Valley High Schools.

The idea for the workshop originated when Oakley and Kaufman went to a Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) Safety Orientation to share experiences with other teachers from around the state. Oakley said, "There was a need for it. It created an intense awareness of lab safety."

Oakley then drafted a grant proposal to PDE and received $1200 to fund the workshop. The fifteen hour course for one in-service credit, was free to anybody who wanted to attend. Books, materials, and safety tools were purchased through the grant provided by PDE.

There were many side benefits from the workshop. A mercury-spill kit and books on safety were obtained. The kit will be put to use in the lab, and the books will be available in Stephenson Library for student and public use.

To have both classroom laboratory and industrial laboratory aspects in the program, Hoberman attended the J.T. Baker Safety School in Philadelphia. These schools are located all over the United States.

Dr. Norman Deno, an expert on chemical disposal and explosives, was a special guest speaker from Pennsylvania State University at one lecture.

Laboratory inspections were found to be most useful. The participants inspected their own high school labs and found some safety procedures overlooked. Among them were chemical storage and use of fire extinguishers.

LHSC's labs were inspected by the students and teachers with good results. "Valid observations and worthwhile recommendations were made," said

Oakley. Some changes will be made, like repositioning of light switches, methods of cleaning up chemical spills and storing chemicals.

Evaluations were taken from participants. Favorable comment on the workshop were received. One such reply was "I feel privileged to have been a part of this awareness program. I feel much more safety conscious, aware of areas that I myself must brush upon (chemicals and types, use of fire extinguishers). It should be a must for every lab oriented teacher, including shops and arts."

The workshop ran for three weeks, starting on October 16th from 7-10pm each Tuesday and Thursday night. The program ended November 1st.

Oakley said the Chemistry and Physics Department has high hopes to sponsor a Lab Safety Workshop again next year.

Operation Identification

Underway At The Haven

For the second year, Operation I.D. has been instituted at Lock Haven State College. Operation I.D. allows LHSC students to have their valuables engraved and is aimed at reducing theft in the dormitories and around campus. Many students last year used this program to engrave possessions ranging from stereos, speakers, radios, TV's and tape players to pocket calculators and typewriters.

Seven students at LHSC are participating this year as residence hall coordinators for the project. These coordinators are equipped with electric engravers and use the student's driver's license operator's number as a code number for the engraving process.

The residence hall coordinators this year are Tom Alferi, North Hall; Pam Baumann, Woolridge Hall; Luann Yohn, McEntire Hall; Cindy Detwiler, Russell Hall; Mark Miller, Gross Hall; Al Fluman, Smith Hall, and Gary Siegel, High Hall. These student coordinators give a great amount of time and effort in this service to the student body.

This operation I.D. program is sponsored by the LHSC Law Enforcement and Safety Division, and the LHSC Student Life Department.

COMMENTARY

Dear Students,

I, Donny Geiszler, would like to inform the student body of my candidacy for Pub Administrator of the SCC Elections will be held Monday, Nov. 12th in Bentley Lounge and the Pub. I am asking for your vote and support in this election.

In the past I have served the student body in several capacities:

Vice President - Gross Hall
Vice President - McEntire Hall
Student Counselor - McEntire Hall, Smith Hall
Freshman Orientation Program - RHA Representative
RHA Programming Committee - Spring Weekend

Currently I am the Business Manager of the Residence Hall Association, a senator of the SCC, and an employee at the Pub. I spend a lot of time in the Union building and have studied the operations of the snack bar and bookstore.

I have several goals. Among them, I plan to renovate the Eagle Wing, by adding booths and trying to make the atmosphere "homier." Also I want to make sure that the profits from the Snack Bar are returned to the SCC. Currently, they are going to Cuisine Limited, the cafeteria service. Records from the first month of operation indicate a sizeable profit. This money can provide better service for you.

Please before you vote, check out all of the candidates. Make sure you elect the people best suited for the position. This new executive board may be very important to each and every student. Please don't make it a popularity contest.

MAKE YOUR VOTE COUNT MAKE YOUR VOTE COUNT

Respectfully,

Arts Calendar

By TOMMYE TALLEY

Next week College Player's are performing the second series of studio plays for this semester.

The first one "The Brick and the Rose" by Lewis John Carlino is readers theater production originally but will be produced as a stage production.

The play is recreating a young boy's life by using the main fragments of his life.

This is done by having 46 characters with an actual cast of 10. Each actor with two exceptions, the narrator and the lead have more than three parts a piece. So there are a lot of demands on the actors with many characters to portray. There is very little physical movement and no costumes or make-up changes. The actors do not face each other when delivering lines. The effect for the audience should be as if they were the other characters that the actors are talking to.

The play has a lot of action and emotion throughout.

It will be performed in Sloan 321 with preview Monday night at 8:00pm and regular performances Tuesday through Friday at 8:00pm. Tickets will be available in PUB Secretary's Office.

Dear Editor,

In answer to Mark Joy Johansen, let me say "Bravo".

In the U.S. Constitution it states everyone has a Right to Life, liberty and pursuit of happiness. Did you know that an unborn child has a right to inheritance and yet can be destroyed by abortion until the cord is cut? That's right the Supreme Court ruled it is legal to abort a human life even in the last trimester of development?

As college educated people let's try and stop this legal murder. Can't we see life has to be respected? Did you know that test tube babies are now being used for scientific research and then destroyed like human Guinea pigs?

Write the legislators, and March in Washington on Jan. 22 to help stop the murder of abortion. Doesn't a mother have a right to her own body? Yes, she does have a right to her body but not the body of a growing baby. After all if it isn't alive and growing you wouldn't have to kill it!

If you're one of those crazy people that from time to time venture into New York City and like to see shows, there are some new musicals playing on Broadway, that have gotten great reviews.

The first of four shows is a new Neil Simon comedy—"They're Playing Our Song," with music by Marvin Hamlisch and lyrics by Carol Bayer Sager. The show is centered around the lives of Sonia Walsk and Vernon Gersch, who are working together as a composer and lyricist. This show stars Lucie Arnaz and Robert Klein. The play is at the Imperial Theater.

"Peter Pan," playing at the Lunt-Tontanne Theater, is a musical version of the boy that never grew up. This show stars Sandy Duncan as Peter Pan, with Chris Hewett as the infamous Captain Hook.

A delightful, scary, and suspense musical is playing at the Uris Theater—"Sweeney Todd;" the new Stephen Sondheim hit is about a barber that kills people and then chops them up and gives them to a lady to bake meat pies. This Tony Award-winner stars Angela Lansbury and Len Carion.

The last show in this list is and was a hit before coming to the U.S. in England—"Evita." This show has been said to be "one of the greatest musicals of all times." This musical phenomenon is the story of Eva Perone who took over Argentina after her husband Juan Perone. "Evita" stars Patti Lupone, and is playing at the Broadway Theater.

No, sorry to disappoint you, but you can't get in with your L.H.S.C. I.D. If you would like to go, consult the "New York Times" for places and ticket prices. If you can't get tickets right away, don't worry, these plays will be there for a long time.

Smith Qualifies For X-Country Nationals

By PHIL BURGE

Florida will be the site of the womens national cross country championship and Lock Haven's Vicki Smith will be one of the runners. She qualified this past Sunday by capturing 10th place in the regional meet held at West Chester. Her time was 19:32 for a very hilly course.

Slippery Rock won the team title with 76 points. West Point was next with 80 and Navy grabbed third with 151. Lock Haven State finished very well taking sixth out of a field of 21 teams.

Joan Benoit of Bowdoin College took first in a time of 17:24.

To concerned students at LHSC:

The most recent voter registration lists show that approx. 300 resident students are registered to vote on Tuesday's General Election. In Clinton County the most important race is that of County Commissioner and District Attorney. If 300 students took time out to register to vote in this county one would think that they would appear at the polls on election day. This is not so! Past elections show that a very small percentage of these voters will actually vote. I wonder if students ask themselves what their one vote means?

American history is replete with instances in which important elections and vital issues were decided by a single vote; and history has a way of repeating itself. More than 100 years ago, a shift of one vote would have denied Texas admission to the union; and not too many years back, an Alaskan statehood bill was defeated in the U.S. Senate 45-44. Jefferson and Adams were elected president by one vote in The Electoral College. Suppose the elector in each case had been "too busy" or too indifferent to fulfill his or her obligation.

Locally your 300 votes can have substantial impact. These 300 votes have made Lock Haven City's 3rd ward the largest precinct in the county. These 300 voters could control this ward and with more student interest could even be responsible for electing the mayor of Lock Haven. In the primary election of 1979 and the general election of 1975 your 300 votes could have changed the total appearance of county and city government. Yes, one vote can be vital down to the smallest local office. Everyone is important to

Dear Editor,

What! No concert this semester? What are those people doing with that $45.00 I had to pay?

These have probably been the most frequently asked questions on campus these past few weeks. They certainly are valid questions. As students paying an ever rising tuition, we deserve to know where our money is going and what is being done with it.

Nobody came to college for the sole purpose of studying only. It offers a host of different activities from Saturday afternoon soccer games to Wednesday night get-togethers, there is something for everybody.

But you have to get involved. What is the use of complaining about something if you won't do anything about it. Participation, partake, co-operate, union. Call it what you will, there certainly is a lack of it here at Lovely Lock Haven.

That is why I think you should seriously look at the slate included. They have the answers to your questions. They not only have answers but they, too, have questions. Questions in the form of ideas.

For the past week or so, they have been going around to the different dormitories meeting people in-the total scheme. How you vote and why you vote is your own affair, in the true American tradition. What is important, however, is that every voter be familiar with the candidates for various offices - what they stand for, who sponsors them, and what their backgrounds are. Our county officials do become involved with LHSC, in the minds of those 300 concerned LHSC students and also hope that would be a good turnout on election day.

Respectfully,
Sam Schrack
The 3rd ward polling place is located in the vocational building at Railroad St., below Woolridge Hall.

Introducing their slate, and fielding any questions that anybody has. They are getting involved, and they are asking you to get involved. If you missed what they had to say the first time, there is a good chance they will be back again.

Haven Hosts Soccer Playoffs

LOCK HAVEN-- The fine Lock Haven State womens field hockey team now 11-1-2 on the year after battling the University of Delaware to a scoreless tie on Friday at Delaware has been seeded second for the EAIAW Mid-Atlantic Regional Tournament to be held November 16-18 at Temple University in Philadelphia. Lock Haven closes out regular season action hosting strong Ursinus College on Tuesday (Nov. 6) at 2pm.

Penn State University a 2-1 loser to Lock Haven during regular season action was seeded Number One in the toughest regional in the Nation. Rounding out the eight team field and seeded positions were 3-Univ. of Maryland; 4-Ursinus; 5-Univ. of Delaware; 6-West Chester; 7-Rutgers University, and No. 8, host Temple University.

Lock Haven State coached by Sharon Taylor will open regional tourney action on November 16 against Rutgers at 3pm.

At Delaware on Friday Coach Taylor said the game was like two different games with Lock Haven winning the first half and Delaware the second.

Delaware now 7-3-2 on the season had entered the game with a 4-1 win over defending National Champion West Chester while the Rams just last week had handed Lock Haven its first loss of the year by 1-0 score.

Lock Haven led in shots in first half 5-4 and penalty corners 5-0. But in second 35 minutes of action Delaware outshot the Eagles by 10-4 and were up in corners 4-2.

According to Coach Taylor the Eagles goal-keeper Karen Weaver played another fine game and recorded nine saves. The LHSC mentor also had praise for defensive performance of Laura Conroy.

Delaware won a 2-1 game shortened 18 minutes by darkness in second half in junior varsity action.

Hockey Team Ties Delaware, 0 - 0

LOCK HAVEN-- The Lock Haven State soccer team, two-time defending National NCAA (Div. 3) Champions will host two playoff games this week on McCollum Field.

On Wednesday, the Bald Eagle booters of Coach Mike Parker will host the annual Pennsylvania Conference championship contest with a 2pm start. Lock Haven, three-time conference Western Division winner, will face East Stroudsburg State, the Eastern Division representative. Lock Haven has won the past two conference titles.

Then on Saturday at 1pm the Eagles will host Lynchburg College of Virginia in a first round Pennsylvania-Southern NCAA (Division 3) Regional playoff game.

In regional seeding Lock Haven is seeded number two with an overall record of 13-2. Scranton University winner over LHSC by 1-0 last month has the number one seed with a 13-1-2 record.

Lynchburg is 3rd seed with 11-2-2 mark. A newcomer to NCAA action is fourth seeded team, Averett College of Danville, Virginia. Averett, first round opponent of Scranton, has season record of 12-1-1.

Last year in a first round game, Lock Haven then seeded No. 1 beat Lynchburg on McCollum Field, 2-0. In the Regional final LHSC topped Scranton in double overtime by 3-2.

Ice Hockey Club Joins Susquehanna League

By MARK MYERS

The Lock Haven State Ice Hockey Club, under the direction of president Ray Partenheimer, has announced that the Bald Eagles will be participating in the Susquehanna Valley "B" League this season.

The league consists of six teams from Bloomsburg, Sunbury, Beaver Springs, Williamsport, Slick Run, and the Bald Eagles. Fifteen league games plus several others against other college teams including Penn State are presently slated. The club will be playing its games at the Ice Hockey Rink near Sunbury.

Anyone who might be interested in playing with the club this year is invited to come to the team's meetings which are held Thursday nights at 7:00 in Zimmerli Room 11.

Asked to comment on the upcoming season, Partenheimer said that the team has a great deal of potential with eleven returnees from last year and a good crop of new players coming in with experience in organized hockey.

Partenheimer also added, however, that as always, the number of players would be held down because many of those who would like to play cannot because of the cost of outfitting a player, running anywhere from two or three hundred dollars for a forward or defenseman, up to eight or nine hundred dollars for a goaltender.

Presently the club is investigating the possibility of getting additional money from the S.C.C. to defray some of the costs of transportation, practice time at a rink, officials, league dues, and equipment such as pucks, tape, and skate blade sharpeners.

At present, the club is practicing in Rogers Gymnasium. Dr. Ken Cox is the club's advisor.
