NCAA Accepts Proposal

By ELLEN HEARN

In January of 1980, the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) accepted a proposal that could affect all the female athletes in this school. The NCAA voted to offer women's championships to Division II and III teams.

At present there are three national collegiate sports

"Great Expectations" Visits LHSC Campus

The Chamber Repertory Theatre will present "Great Expectations" in Price Auditorium, Tuesday, March 4 at 8 p.m.

The touring company, one of America's most famous, appears on this campus for the second time in two years. Last Spring, it presented "Mark Twain Sketches".

Ted Davis, director and leading actor, adapted Charles Dickens' novel for the stage, and this year marks the first time the company is taking "Great Expectations" on tour throughout the United States.

Dickens published "Great Expectations" in 1861, nine years before his death. It represented a major turn from some of the sentimentality of his earlier writing. Many critics consider it his greatest writing achievement.

The novel in all its complexity of structure is a penetrating look at unfulfilled expectations that separate parents from children.

A company of six actors supports Mr. Davis. They bring to life an assemblage of characters who show the same compassion and humor that made Dickens' novel a rich experience for millions of readers.

All of the performers have professional experience in radio, TV and movies as well as on stage.

Mr. Davis appeared recently in the CBS-TV movie "The Defection of Simas Kidurka" with Alan Arkin. He can also be seen in the recently released TV movie of Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter" in which he plays a featured role.

College students may obtain tickets in Parson's Union Building in the Secretary's Office. Admission is free with college ID. General admission is $2.50; other students $1.

The company will also present a workshop in Sloan 321 on Tuesday afternoon at 2:10. Anyone wishing to attend must make reservations by calling 2148 or 2143.

organizations- the NCAA, the NAIA, and the AIAW. Lock Haven's men's teams belong to the NCAA while the women belong to the AIAW-Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women.

If the NCAA offers championships for Div. II and III women's sports, they might pay for championships. Under the AIAW, the school pays for the women athletes to go to championships. At Lock Haven, this money comes from the SCC.

Next January the NCAA will vote again on whether to initiate the women's championships. If they decide that they will, Lock Haven must decide if it wants its women's teams to stay in AIAW or switch to NCAA.

According to Charles Eberle, the Director of Athletics, the decision deals mainly with money. The NCAA might reimburse schools for five championships in women's sports. If the school switches to NCAA, some teams would not have any championships to go to.

The AIAW holds 35 championships for 17 sports. However, at present there is no reimbursement of schools who spend money to send their athletes to championships. Sharon Taylor, Associate Director of

Richardson Speaks On Blacks In America

By SAUNDRA THOMPSON

Mr. Dave Richardson, Chairperson of the Pennsylvania Legislature; Black Caucus, spoke on Monday night in Ulmer Planetarium. Immediately preceding the speech a dinner was held in his honor in Bentley cafeteria in the faculty dining hall.

Mr. Richardson spoke on the images presented by Black role models and the problems faced by Blacks today. He is concerned about the images projected by Blacks to the children of today.

Mr. Richardson also stressed pride in oneself and ones people. He also stressed strongly education. He said education must be taken seriously. Mr. Richardson said that, even though a court order made school integrate physically, we are not mentally integrated. Black History is kept from the children today.

Mr. Richardson also said that politics are the basis of our lives and that Blacks should get involved. He said that a politician verifies one's birth, one's death, and also one's salary. He emphasized involvement in politics to get ahead in the world.

As a conclusion, Representative Richardson stated, "Where there is no struggle, there is no progress," a quote by Frederick Douglas.

Census Scheduled

By JEFF BUCK

LHSC dormitory students, along with the rest of the nation, will be filling out census forms sometime during the period of "April 8-April 16, or possibly the 22nd," according to Corey Spittler, Special Operations Supervisor for the division which includes special residencies; ie. colleges, hotels, motels, fraternities, sororities, etc.; said that the dormitory students will be filling out Individual Census Reports, which are abbreviated census forms. The information of these forms will later be transferred by census workers onto regular census forms.

The Census taking, which occurs every ten years, is mandated in the U.S. Constitution. Results in the final tabulation can affect a state's number of House of Representative seats in Congress. It can also affect the number of votes a state will have in a presidential election. Census figures are also used to predict directions of education, economics, population, etc.

During the Census taking, the government will be employing crew leaders, $4.55/hour and enumerators $4/hour. Requirements for employment include filling out the application, taking a test, and being sworn to confidentiality. For further information about employment, one should call 326-0534 or visit Career Replacements, 130 West 4th Street, Williamsport, PA., 17701.

Foreign Teachers Study American Education

By ANA GAMBACINI

Five Argentinian teachers are making investigations about the American system of education at LHSC. Their main goal is to detect possible transferences to Buenos Aires system.

They are part of a program sponsored by the AASCU/American Association of State College and Universities to which eleven institutions are associated. Dr. Mottet, Director of International Education at LHSC, is the National Coordinator. Mrs. Mabelle Mottet is the Local Coordinator of the plan.

Thirty teachers are holders of a scholarship given by Buenos Aires Ministry of Education and are distributed in the different centers of investigation.

Their principal source are the information gathered from libraries, Universities' Investigation Centers, Keystone Central School District, and assistance to Congress and Inservices.

The teachers appreciate the possibilities for improving their methods according with their own interests and are professionally and personally happy.

Black History Musical Held

By SAUNDRA THOMPSON

Tuesday, Afir Productions presented a musical story of Black History in the U.S. at 7:30 in Thomas Field House, to the students and faculty of Lock Haven State.

This unique program began with the African Scene, which depicted the cultural developments of African heritage. The scene shows the joyous dances of the African tribe to the horrifying confusion of being captured by the white man.

In the Slavery Scene, the cast weaves humor in with the oppression of slavery. This humor is symbolic of the slave days and helped the Black man survive.

The next scene was Emancipation. Emancipation meant freedom, but it also meant confusion. This confusion led to the invention of the blues. The blues were meant to help one "laugh to keep from crying." This led to a rendition of a "good time Saturday night."

Following Saturday night parties, there is Sunday. The company gave a humorous, but realistic version of a down home church service.

But, following Sunday's worship there comes the stark reality of Monday with a reminder that life goes on.

Visions

By Donna M. Jones

People hand in hand
Across this misty, regional land
Look into the earth with all its purity
a time for rebirth

Realize what God has created enjoy and appreciate the precious things in life Take time to show your love for someone near might be in strife

Don't forget to thank the Lord for being here make a stand and cheer
But what I'd like to know is ...
Can a place like this exist so beautiful

We are one in body and separate in souls
let our hearts and minds meet to unwind and unfold

People hand in hand
Across this misty, regional land

Letter

To the citizens,

I would like to respond to the letter in the Eagle Eye Feb. 22.

I really don't like writing letters to anybody or to a paper, because I am not very good in composing such things, but these kind of letters and thoughts make me a little nervous.

I might be called a war fanatic or whatever, but here goes nothing.

I would like to remind the writer I do not like killing, but when it comes down to protecting this country, I don't think love will stop communism.

I don't really think the United States started World War I, II, the Korean, or the Vietnam conflicts, but I would like to think we did the right thing.

I would not like to find out what shape this world would have been in if nobody had stopped Hitler or whoever started the other wars or conflicts.

All you ever hear is what's wrong with this country, but I don't really see or hear of very many people leaving this country, that is unless they want to get out of helping to protect for everything this country was founded for, which was for freedom of religion and all the other freedoms we have, even to paying taxes, which helps pay for the education you get here at Lock Haven State College.

You might say, the only reason I talk like this is I'm too old to have to fight, but I do have a son who is nineteen and I love him very much, but I would give up my own life and his to defend this country against communism and it's too late when they land in California or New York Shore.

Thank you very much for letting me blow off some steam.

Yours in Christ,
William Gardner

Team Places Third

By GEORGE L. MORRISON

The L.H.S.C. Womens track team used some fine individual performances last Saturday to take third place at the Bucknell invitational. Junior Vickie Smith, sophomore Carmen Weaver, and freshmen Anna Giambuccini and Joann Johnson all recorded place finishes and sparked the Haven to a team total of 11 points in the team standings behind eastern power Villanova and rival Bucknell. Smith took third in the two mile run with a time of 11.29 while Weaver took a third leap of 15' in the long jump. Freshman Johnson placed third with a 8.1 seconds time in the 60 yd. run. Weaver also placed 4th in the 220 yd. dash with a time of 30.4. The relay team comprised of Weaver, Johnson, Maria Tanon and Elizabeth Tyson rallied to beat Mansfield and take third place in the 880 relay.

Greeks Hold Carnival For "The Week Of The Child"

By Brenda Bubb

A carnival co-sponsored by the Greeks of Lock Haven State College and the American Association of University Women will be held for all Lock Haven children in grades first thru fifth. The carnival is scheduled for Sunday, March 2 from 1-4 p.m. in Rogers Gym.

AAUW, a women's club downtown, has declared the week of Friday, February 22 to Sunday, March 2 the Week of the Child. This is being held in conjunction with the 1979 International Year of the Child.

There were many special events held throughout the week, including a disco dance and a mini junior olympics. The carnival will be the final event to close out the week's activities. Each LHSC fraternity and sorority will have two booths set-up at the carnival. Prizes and balloons will be awarded to the youngsters.

The carnival is free and all children in grades first thru fifth are urged to attend. There will be fun and games for all.

NCAA...

Athletics says that reimbursement may become possible as the AIAW gets more money from women's sports championships that are being telecast.

Eberle claims, "Money is the main factor involved in a decision to switch from AIAW to NCAA. If Lock Haven does switch, it would only have to pay dues to NCAA instead of both NCAA and AIAW."

Who decides if Lock Haven's women's sports would change to NCAA if they offer championships? At present this is unclear. It could be the student population, the SCC, the athletic directors, or President Hamblin himself.

The fact that the NCAA is proposing to initiate women's championships could greatly weaken the AIAW organization. Many small colleges might find it more economical to just join the NCAA and drop their AIAW membership.

The AIAW is encouraging schools to have the school president come out in support of the AIAW.

Switching to the NCAA would mean complying with NCAA rules concerning divisions, transfers, and eligibility requirements. According to Taylor, "The NCAA rules are designed to protect the institution more than the athlete. In AIAW, there is a more educational focus, the athlete is more important than the institution."

The decision to switch to NCAA may never come up unless the NCAA approves the resolution in January of 1981. Until then, the AIAW will continue to try to convince schools that it is important to keep the men and women's sports separate.

Lock Haven Hosts Tourney

LOCK HAVEN - The fast moving sport of indoor soccer is on the agenda for Saturday at Lock Haven State College when the Bald Eagle soccer team hosts the Fifth Annual Lock Haven State College Indoor Soccer Tournament.

There will be 32 teams vying for the first place honors in the competition which begins at 12:30 p.m. There will be four gymnasiums used, the three in the Zimmerli building and Thomas Fieldhouse.

The 32-team field will be divided into eight divisions of four teams each. Each division will play a round robin tourney, with the top two finishers in each division advancing to a single elimination tournament to begin at approximately 4:30 p.m. Thus, each team is guaranteed a minimum of three games. The games will consist of two 7½ minute halves.

Bald Eagle head coach Mike Parker will be the tourney director. He pointed out that from the quarter-finals on, beginning at approximately 6 p.m., all games will be played in Thomas Fieldhouse. "That will make it good for the spectators because the tournament will be at its most interesting stage."

The rules of indoor soccer are very similar to those of the outdoor version, Parker noting that it's a lot like hockey, with the players playing the ball off the walls. There will be only one goalie and four players on the floor. "It's faster, more physical and much more tiring than outdoor soccer," said Parker.

Defending champion Cleveland State will not be returning this season. The field includes: Group A - Philadelphia Textile, Shafertown Soccer Club, Baptist Bible College and Kean College; Group B - Lock Haven State A, Montco, Chambersburg Soccer Club and Kutztown B; Group C - Rider, Virginia Wesleyan, Edinboro State and Myerstown Soccer Club; Group D - Syracuse, Kutztown A, Susquehanna A and Pugs Mugs Soccer Club; Group E - Scranton, Kent Alumni (Ohio), Muhlenberg and Lock Haven B; Group F - Bucknell, Houghton College, Lock Haven Old Boys and New Jersey Tech B; Group G - Trenton, Edinboro Hotel Soccer Club, Swarthmore and Susquehanna A, and Group H - New Jersey Tech A, Indiana University of Pa., Fugowie Soccer Club and Bucknell B. There will be no admission fee.

Frisbee Tournament Slated For Sunday

By DEBBI LUHR

If you are looking for something fun and different to see this Sunday, Thomas Field House is the place to be. Starting at 9:30am until 10pm is the First Annual Frisbee Tournament. Competing in the tournament will be Penn State, Bucknell, Kutztown, and Lock Haven. Lock Haven will have both a men's and women's team entered.

An indoor frisbee game consists of five people on each team. The game is a mixture of basketball and soccer. You cannot run when you have the frisbee in your possession. To score you must throw the frisbee to someone who is at the end of the playing surface (a goal). There is contact during the game, but it is not a physical sport. The unique thing about the game of frisbee is that there are no referees. It is called a gentlemen's sport because of this. It is the person on the offense who calls the fouls. John "Happy" Harrington, a member of the team said, "There's a lot of trust. You've got to go by believing when someone calls a foul."

Lock Haven's men's team has been practicing three nights a week since the beginning of the semester. At this time there are 15-20 men and 12-15 women on their respective teams.

Refreshments will be served at the tournament. At 3pm there will be a free style exhibition. T-shirts will be sold and raffled off during the tournament.

Boxers Tune For Championships

By JOE LEVA

The nationally ranked LHSC Boxing Club will have their final tune-up of the season tonight (Friday, Feb 28) at Dickinson College, before they participate in the Eastern Collegiate Boxing Association (ECBA) Championships at Lehigh University, March 13-26th. The champion and runner-up in each weight class at the ECBA qualifies for the National Collegiate Boxing Association (NCBA) Championships at the U.S. Air Force Academy the first week-end in April.

LHSC boxing coach Dr. Ken Cox and his student coach Gary Rosata have bouts lined up at Dickinson for their open division boxers. Scheduled to box are, team captain Jim McNally, 147lb., Philadelphia; Kurt Santayana, 132lb., Luzerne;

Brian McCaffrey, 139lb., Lewistown; Bill Lingle, 156lb., Harrisburg; John Campbell, 156lb., Hershey; and Mike Mollo, Hwt., NewYork. The following novice boxers are also tentatively scheduled including, Rob Revercomb, 156lb., Mt. Union; Daimon Robins., 180lb., Chester; Herry Janshulak, 190lb., Wilkes-Barre; and heavyweight Joe Reilly, Bradford.

Currently LHSC's best chance for an eastern and national title probably rests on the shoulders of team captain Jim McNally the classy 147 pounder from Philadelphia. McNally is scheduled to box 1978 National Champion Billy Kultnow a spectacular 139 pounder from Dickinson in the feature attraction tonight. Several other Bald-Eagles also have 'good' shots at Nationals if their improvement continues. Boxers from eight eastern college teams will participate tonight at Dickinson, including LHSC, Lehigh, St. Francis, Penn State, West Chester, Shippenburg, Ohio U. and host Dickinson.

LHSC All-American Swimmers Place At Pa. Conference

Led by outstanding performances by All-Americans Joy Sundberg of Jersey Shore, and Carole Kepler of Bellefonte the Lock Haven State women swimming team placed 7th at the 4th annual Pennsylvania Conference championships held last weekend.

Clarion won the team title with Slippery Rock the runnerup.

Sundberg was the Eagles only champion as she won her specialty the 50 yard backstroke event in time of 28.22. In a preliminary round the LHSC senior star set a new conference record with clocking of 28 flat.

Sundberg finishes second in 100 yard backstroke at 1:03.4 and in a prelim heat set a new conference mark with time of 1:02.06. She also placed 9th in 200 backstroke with a 2:23.34.

Kepler, a sophomore also had a super meet according to Eagles Coach Jeri Myers. She came in third in 50 backstroke with time of 29.46. Kepler had best time ever in 100 backstroke with a 1:03.4 good for a third place award. In 200 backstroke she came in 8th with a 2:20.7.

Surprising Hockey Team Makes Bid For First Title

By GARY SIEGEL

The Lock Haven State Men's Ice Hockey Club has produced their best team ever in seven years of competition. So far their record is 6-1-1 and are currently tied for first with the Williamsport Mainliners.

This weekend the Bald Eagles play three important games against Bloomsburg, Montour and Sunbury and these games will determine if the team wins their first title. At the start of the season the team was predicted to finish in fifth place, but like the U.S. Olympic hockey team, they are playing the role of the underdog.

Two men have played important roles in the teams' recent success. Coach Greenfield and Dr. Ken Cox, the teams' advisor, have given the players the support and encouragement necessary to make them winners.

The Bald Eagles' leading scorer this season has been freshman sensation John Greenfield, who has 7 goals and 15 assists for 22 points. Another freshman Bill Smith is second in scoring with 9 goals and 8 assists. Next is Captain Kelly Parshall with 15 points and Tim Pipe with 12 points. Co-captains Russ Noll and Lou Zavaglia have chipped in nine points a piece. While Chip Chamberlain has produced eight points Kent Hatter has added five points. The Bald Eagles' potent offense has been averaging six goals a game.

Since the team's offense gets all the attention the defense gets overlooked, but is has been improving each game. Goalie Ray Partenhimer and his defensemen Bruce Conner, Bob Young, Dave Raco, Tom Burke, and Mitch Walker have held opponents to a respectable three goals a game average. With a lot of returning players, Lock Haven will be a power to reckon with in the future.
