

Religious Emphasis Week, February 12-15

February 12-15 will mark a new high in the Religious Emphasis Week programs at the Teachers College. At that time the students will be honored to have on campus Dr. Henry H. Crane from Detroit. Dr. Crane is one of the foremost ministers of the United States, being at the present time the pastor of the Central Methodist Church in Detroit. During the first World War he served in the capacity of a Y. M. C. A. secretary. He was born in Illinois and has served pastorates in four states other than Illinois, one of those being in Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Crane averages an address a day, and has traveled throughout the country, lecturing in more than a hundred academic institutions. He is a licensed private pilot as well as belonging to ten fraternal organizations which include Delta Sigma Rho Literary Society, Kiwanis, and the Detroit Athletic Club. While attending college he was a member of the tennis team, and an All-American Basketball Guard.

Dr. North says "He has a reputation among those who have heard him as being one of the most powerful speakers in America today."

Dr. Crane will arrive in time for the special assembly on February 13 and remain until Friday night. He will speak four times on campus and once at the Trinity Methodist Church.

We will also have on campus Miss Marie Shaver ("Horace"), who is an associate director of the American Youth Foundation and director of the Foundation's summer camp for girls at Camp Miniwanka in Michigan. Miss Shaver is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and received her Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. She is a former Girl Reserve Secretary of the Student Christian Association at the University of Minnesota. Miss Shaver will hold conferences with the girls. Assisting Miss Shaver will be Miss Mary Alden, a Danforth Graduate who is with the Penn State Christian Association.

Serving in the same capacity for the men will be Mr. Harold Vickman, secretary for the Middle Atlantic Region of the Student Christian Movement. The Rev. Edward Jones and Rev. Seth Russell, ex-chaplains from State College will be on campus two days to counsel veterans. Mr. Jones and Mr. Russell are both returned servicemen.

The program for Religious Emphasis Week includes assemblies, personal conferences and informal discussions. Highlights of the week will be a reception held in honor of our guests at 8:30 Wednesday evening. Ministers of the city are invited to attend the reception. Further announcement concerning the program will be posted on the bulletin board.

College Allocated Improvement Funds

The college has recently been allocated $55,000, by the Department of Public Instruction for the purpose of installing new bath rooms in the dormitories, placing electrical outlets in every dormitory room, improvements to the basement of the women's gymnasium, and for the construction of new facilities for non-resident students.

Within the next few weeks new linoleum floors will be laid in the classrooms on the second floor of the administration building. Other improvements call for the replastering of the dormitories, the installation of better lighting facilities throughout the building, repainting of all the buildings, and for new floors in certain areas of the main building.

Campus School News

The campus school has been successful in its big stamp drive. In its first campaign it exceeded its goal of $300 by 83%. The money subscribed paid for eleven walking devices for service men. For accomplishing this, the campus school received from the United States Treasury Department a citation.

For the present drive which extends until Easter vacation the goal is $355. If that is reached, the money subscribed will purchase one hundred white woolen hospital blankets. Up to date (January 29) they have reached the 20% mark.

The physical education department is setting up a new program of activities. Part of their new program will be a physical examination of all the children. Another phase to begin operation is one-hour a week of swimming for all pupils in fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Several students are doing their practice teaching in the campus school. In kindergarten is Hope McCartney; first grade—LeJune Pier and Doris Hetrick; second grade, Martha Morancik; third grade, Esther Hastings; fourth grade, Louise Regis; fifth grade, Audrey Neuhard and Emma Rager; sixth grade, Charlene Solt and Wayne Durandetta.

Valentine Musicale Sponsored by A. E. T.

Wouldn't you like to see new drapes in our social rooms? Alpha Sigma Tau is presenting an opportunity to all of us to aid in securing them. This sorority is sponsoring a Valentine Musicale to be presented on Tuesday, February nineteenth, in the women's gymnasium. Both town talent and talent from our own students will be exhibited in the program, which will be based on love lyrics applicable to Valentine's Day. There will be no price of admission, but there will be a silver offering. Let's contribute as much as our pocketbooks will permit to show our appreciation of the efforts of this sorority group. They are putting forth every effort for our enjoyment, so let's make it a successful enterprise.

A general committee has been appointed, which includes the following: Gen. Chairman—Geraldine Petrucci; Decorations—Bar Coates, Faye Bronson, Helene Porter, Betty Hanks, Marty Badick. Refreshments—Edna Kniffin, Minnie Belt, Charlene Solt, Kitty Kelly, Ruth Preston.

Announcements—Ruth Beckenbaugh, Carrie Black, Edith Mactley, Evelyn Ellzey. Programs—Tessie Bartges, Virginia Speaker, Jane Thomas, Betty Sentellik.

Hostess Committee Named

This spring many young men and women will be visiting Lock Haven Teachers College. They will probably all be prospective college students just out of high school or some branch of the service. It is our duty, as students of the college, to entertain these young people. We should all be willing to co-operate and show our welcome by our friendliness. They will want to know all about college life, the campus, the courses, the teachers and the social life. Don't evade these visitors, but answer their questions cheerfully and directly. Make them want to come to T. C.

This week-end, starting Friday, February the eighth, we will have twelve guests from Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. They will be with us for "Play Night", and they will also be our guests for the night.

Martha Badick is official hostess. She has appointed two co-chairmen, Betty Lorigan and Rita Goleblecki, to form a welcoming committee.

The other members of the committee follow: Bar Coates, Helen Baferoski, Margie Haduck, Betty Clark, Jo Paolo, Mary Currin, Chris Lowros.

Returned Veterans Increase Enrollment

The college enrollment has increased from 239 to 312. One-hundred veterans of World War II have entered college; many of these were former students. President Parsons predicts that by next fall the enrollment will be between four and five hundred.

In view of the fact that so many freshmen are seeking admittance to the college, present students who have friends desiring to enroll should inform them immediately that they should complete registration. It is likely that the full facilities of the college will be reached during the next few months, and due to this it may be necessary for the priority system to be set up immediately.

Most of the veterans are entering the field of Health and Physical Education. According to statistics, there are more vacancies at present in this field than in any other field of teaching. It is reported by Dr. Henry Klonower, Director of Teacher Education and Certification Bureau in Harrisburg, that there will be a shortage of teachers for the next seven or eight years. The outlook for graduates in the field of elementary education is now more attractive than before due to the fact that elementary teachers may command the same salary as secondary instructors. President Parsons states that he believes we should attempt to attract more students in elementary education and Health and Physical education since these two areas of teaching will likely offer the best employment possibilities.

It is also suggested that students who expect to attend the summer session should see Mr. Sullivan, Dean of Instruction, within the next few weeks, since it may be necessary to place a limit on the number of students admitted for the summer. All in all, we can look forward to a better enrollment next fall, with all of the activities formerly sponsored by the college included in the school program.

Praeco Met Press Deadline

Praeco went to press on February 1. All the pictures have been mounted and sent in. The whole staff worked hard to get their assignments in at the time designated. They made the deadline five minutes before the office closed.

The staff has been taking and re-taking pictures. The snapshots were overexposed when they took them and underexposed when they developed them. To begin with they had to take their own pictures. Currin and Solida spent many a day in the dark room.

Another thing they did was sit up all night, mounting pictures and doing write-ups. Once they fried pork chops. Confidentially, I think it was just an excuse for an all-night party.

The advertising staff, under Laurabelle Mowrey, gets orchids from LeJune Pier, the editor, for exceeding their goal of $400. "Doc" Neuhard ought to get something for keeping track of what was spent as fast as it was spent. That's a superhuman job. Honorable mention goes to Jim Hartle and Dean Bartges. Without their care, and them too, the staff couldn't have beaten the deadline and get the much-needed discount.

Sackett says that when Praeco goes to press, she's kicking Paolo and the typewriter out the window. Poor Paolo—Praeco has gone to press!

College Players Made Educational Trip to N. Y. C.

The Dramatic Club of Lock Haven State Teachers College spent the weekend of January 31 in New York City viewing the plays of Broadway.

The group left Thursday afternoon, January 31, under the supervision of Miss Helen Thornton, director of the drama department at the college.

All members of the group stayed at the Hotel Thomas Edison for the week-end.

The outline of the group's activities was as follows: Friday—Sightseeing, Dining at a Chinese Restaurant in Chinatown, Sightseeing in the Battery, Visiting Staten Island, Dining at a Russian Restaurant, Perry Como's Show. One of the stage plays.

Saturday—The group visited Radio City's Music Hall and dined at an East India Restaurant. The afternoon and evening were spent seeing the remaining two stage plays. The group dined at the Eat Shop.

Sunday—The group returned to Lock Haven.

Each member of the group was able to see three of the following stage plays.

I Remember Mama, Oklahoma, Pygmalion, Voice of the Turtle, Oh Mistress Mine, Show Boat.

The trip took place for educational purposes in the field of dramatics.

Back to the University

The great influx of G. I.s into American universities can be matched throughout Europe where reopened universities in the liberated lands are expecting unprecedented enrollments, according to word received from the World Service Fund headquarters. The great state University of Oslo in Norway is given as an example.

Oslo's six thousand students are more than double the pre-war enrollment. These students come from two groups, the veterans of resistance, captivity, or deportation, and the newcomers from the high schools. Those from the underground "emerge from their covers restless and with worn down nerves, unfit for immediate studies," due to frightful privations and dangers.

One-half of these students cannot find lodgings and are sleeping on cots in the gymnasiums of schools in the city. Most of the students lack good shoes and clothing. Study books in foreign languages are greatly needed.

There is a great shortage of teachers and classes are unduly large. Doctors and dentists are needed in great numbers but there are inadequate laboratory and clinical facilities for the training of medical and dental students. Many students desire to study abroad in the difficult post-war years.

Eighty Norwegian students have come recently to the United States to study. Thirty of these have scholarships secured through the Institute of International Education in the following institutions: Bowdoin, Bryn Mawr, Bucknell, California, Case, Colgate (2), Dartmouth (2), Illinois Institute of Technology, New Hampshire (3), Pennsylvania, Purdue (2), Radcliffe, Rockford, St. Olaf, Southern Methodist, Stevens Institute of Technology, Temple, Williams (3), Wisconsin (2).

EDITORIAL

ONE CREED AND ONE WORLD

The entrance of one hundred men students, mostly G. I.'s, brought the realization that things are almost back to normal at T. C. "Back to normal" stands for more than the return of those who were in the service.

After all the great wars there has been great confusion, then a gradual changing, never to quite what it used to be. There is also a slow slipping and forgetting until some day the war is just a part of the dim, remote past. We never forget it entirely, but it seems a little further away. It is good that we forget some, but let's not forget too much.

There is a great need for remembering how we felt; the emptiness, anxiety, and hell of it, for us who stayed at home as well as those who fought. Such memories, although not pleasant ones, should make us all the more alert and active for our place in the "one world" to come.

A part of the future will depend upon people like us who will have many occasions to influence others. We can do a great deal more if we are well-informed and actively interested. What we do may seem to be an insignificant contribution, but we have a definite power in that we instill ideas and promote thought in young and pliable minds.

The beliefs we have are very important. Let our creed be one that is strong and persuasive so that "one world" may not be just another dream, but an actual, living thing, existing partly because we first believed, and then did something about it.

THE RETURN OF MAN

Whether they realize it or not, the men who come to T. C. this semester are quite a curiosity. During the war it almost got to the point where the girls stopped and stared when a man walked by. The male-animal was just as scarce as sugar and cigarettes. When the peak of despair was reached, a date bureau was organized. It was fun, and pictures of the dating groups were taken for various newspapers. A lot of sport was had by all, but something was definitely lacking.

Every man on campus needed moral support. He found himself the only boy at the table or the only one in a class.

A number of girls admitted that it was quite a shock to see more than fifteen boys at once, and got out their smelling salts, unobtrusively, of course. If any of the fellows finds a girl looking shy, just remember she's not quite used to your species yet; but beware, once she's over the oddity of your being around! She might even ask you how you're coming along with this college life. Or has she already? Anyway, here's to the battle of the sexes, and a more well-rounded social life at T. C.!

Sororities...

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA
 Just what you have been waiting for!!! Tri-Sig is holding an all-college informal "Hello" dance in the Girl's gym Saturday evening, February 9, from 7:30 to 11:00. Intermission at 9:30 includes a college sing and refreshments. The price is 15c. Come stag, come in couples, but come all!
 Co-chairmen— Eathel Raught, Carol Roper.
 Advertising— Nicky Arsenlu, Mert Stabler.
 Food—Gwen Kephart, Dorothy Fletcher.
 Decoration— Betty Thompson, Bonny Bonfilio.
 Entertainment—Mary Currin.

PI KAPPA SIGMA
 To start the semester off with a BANG, to get rid of their "after-vacation" blues, and to make a final use of that "pre-getting-your-grades" good feeling, the Pi Kaps had a chicken dinner at Mrs. Thompson's in Saladasburg.
 One of our ex-members, Anne Carpenter, is back again with lots of helpful ideas and suggestions for improvements in the sorority.
 Right now the girls are head over heels in plans for a party at the Naturalist Cabin for the alumnae for their rummage sale to be held in a few weeks, and for improving the rooms.

ALPHA SIGMA TAU
 The Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority is a most active sorority. Proof of the statement is the hard work they do, selling peanuts each week, working from early morning until night. The good of a sorority is not what they do for themselves but what their contribution is to the school and community. The profits from the peanut sales are to be used for the purchase of social room drapes.
 Another project under way for the same goal is the Valentine Musicales to be held February 19. It will sponsor on and off-campus talent, and will be one of the greatest accomplishments of the year.
 March is the month the students have a big surprise coming. Watch the bulletin board all those thirty-one days. At the meeting held in the sorority rooms on January 29 each Alpha Sigma Tau worked all evening on the March project. At this meeting Helene Porter was named program chairman and Jane Thomas, the pledge chairman. Refreshments were served by Ruthie Preston and Minnie Belt to relieve the tension under which each girl worked.

KAPPA DELTA PI
 The members of Kappa Delta Pi met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Rude on January 15. Dr. Jane Wartens spoke about the educational set-up in Pennsylvania and offered for discussion her opinions as to where some changes might be made. There followed lively discussion based upon what she had said, and spread out to include many of the colleges and universities in this country.
 Announcement was made of a Kappa Delta Pi convention to be held in Milwaukee this spring. Several of the members considered the possibility of attending it.
 Refreshments were served as the group sat around discussing events and problems of interest.

Y3 Sponsor Discussion
 "Marriage" was the topic which drew the Y. W. and Y. M. to the social rooms to hear Rev. E. E. Korte from Penn State on January 30. An interesting discussion period followed the address, giving anyone who so desired a chance to air his opinions and also to acquire some. Rev. Korte has been on our campus before and is welcome at any time in the future.
 Several members of the S. C. A. visited a cabinet meeting of the State College Christian Association and came away with big ideas for our own campus activities. The trip was completed with a visit to see Bill Graffius' baby daughter. Those who made the excursion with Dr. North were Marian Kratzer, Miriam Niemond, Betty Gottshall, Kitty Kelley, Raymond Moyer and Bill Graffius.

Keys to Treasury

by Bettle Sentelik

Have you dropped into the lending library and browsed around lately? It is a wonderful idea to do so. Many new books have been added and I'm sure you will be able to find one to suit your taste.

Among the latest books on the shelf are:
 Leonard's Two Ideas. This is a poem which was written in 1922. It deals with the life of Professor Leonard and his wife. She has come from a family tainted with insanity, and as time goes on she believes she is becoming insane. Together they watch the growth of insanity in her.
 Daphne Du Maurier, The King's General. Of course we have all either read or seen a movie of other writings of Miss Du Maurier, such as Frenchman's Creek, Hurry Hill and Rebecca. The King's General deserves to be enjoyed and remembered with the others. This is a story of a woman's love, which she could not resist even though she knew it would fill her life with heartache. It is a story of brave and violent deeds made by people in love.

Anderson's and Grimm's Fairy Tales. Of course you all remember those wonderful tales told to you as a youngster. Well, here is a chance to read them again for yourself. These books contain all those wonderful fairy tales with full-page color illustrations in addition to many pen drawings.
 Evelyn Waugh, Brideshead Revisited. This is a story of a painter of old stately homes of England, who has won great renown. While a captain in the British Army he finds himself in Brideshead, a beautiful old estate, a seat of an ancient Catholic family. He writes of his experiences and love affairs while visiting here. The story is sad, witty, and tenderly erotic.

Remarque, Arch of Triumph. This novel is about a Continental surgeon, a refugee in Paris, just before the war. He sees, waiting for the Germans, the terror in the conditions of Europe. Through this surgeon we watch the spectacle of a dying Europe. Arch of Triumph is not a pleasant book, but while it deals with ugly or monstrous things, its attitude is never cheap or merely sensational.

Crane, Twenty Stories. These tales were written over forty years ago, but they contain much wonderful writing. Crane was one of our earliest naturalistic writers.
 I'm sure that you will enjoy one or more of these books. Don't forget in your free time to stop in at the lending library and get acquainted. Books are constantly being added.

Musical Notes

Hello, my fellow music lovers, sharers of all these hard rehearsals and future music leaders!
 We've a whole semester ahead of us with lots to accomplish in the way of programs—we already have acquired perfection. That's what we keep telling each other anyhow. You all probably know that we have two new wonderful Bel Canto members. They really are good too. Elsie Preston is singing second soprano, right back of me, so now I don't have to learn any of my notes—I just listen to her. And Mary has always sung in glee clubs, so she'll have a lot to contribute to our group.
 There are several things planned for the future and it sounds like loads of fun—work too! We've a solo recital before too long, religious emphasis week, concerts at Altoona on the 26th of March, and, last but not least, a few selections for the Alpha Sigma Tau Musicales.
 Miss Ulmenyer and I were reminiscing—that is she was—I haven't been here quite that long and the things I discovered! Did you know prior to the war, there was a college choir composed of forty men and women, a man's choir of thirty-five members, the Bel Cantos with thirty-five, plus a women's chorus of fifty members. The latter was formerly the Cantarina Glee Club and was dissolved in 1943.
 Why not start the ball rolling again, bring back the good old days? There are more men than women now, and we'd love to hear them sing.

DRAMA CORNER

by Gloria Hager

On the 31st the nineteen College Player members, Lucille Pollard of the Express, and Miss Thornton left for their long-planned trip to New York City. They attended several plays, spent an afternoon at Radio City, and made a trip to Chinatown, just to name a few highlights of the trip.

Our College Players' spring production is scheduled for April 5. This their second play this year, establishes a record. Its title is "Susan and God," a three act comedy by Rachael Crothers. "Susan and God" played on Broadway with Gertrude Lawrence as Susan. Our Susan will be Peggy Swope. The remainder of the cast has been chosen, but since there will no doubt be many changes before the curtain goes up, this column will give you the characters later.

To all you new students here who would like to join the dramatics club, here's how. There are meetings every first and third Monday of the month. These meetings are held upstairs in the auditorium. The time is 7:30. If you're interested, all you need do is drop in at the next meeting and say you would like to join College Players.

English Club Reviews Plays

The English Club began the new year with a meeting held January 10 in the Y. W. C. A. room. The theme for this meeting was modern drama. The contemporary dramatists discussed were Robert Sherwood Maxwell Anderson, and Eugene O'Neill. Gwen Kephart was the reviewer of Sherwood's Abe Lincoln in Illinois. Mrs. Brosius discussed Anderson's Eve of St. Mark and Minnie Belt reported on O'Neill's Mourning Becomes Electra. To conclude the evening, the hostesses, Marian Kratzer and Miriam Niemond, served ginger ale and hamburgers.

The next meeting will be February 21. This is local talent night. Write an essay, a poem, or a short story, and bring it to English Club.

Huhhh or Eeeeee

The greatest statesman who ever lived had no name. His wife (or rather, his woman, for they were not married) probably called him Huhhh or Eeeeee, depending on whether she was a grunter or a squealer.

It will never be known how or when he got the Great Idea, the most revolutionary political conception ever to enter the mind of a man. Of course he couldn't talk, since he had no words to talk with. If he had been able to express it verbally, it would have gone something like this:

"Now that my son is big and strong, the time has come for us to fight each other, and for one of us either to kill the other or drive him out of this cave and keep him out. It has always been that way. But that guy in the cave on the other side of the mountain is bigger and stronger than either of us, and sooner or later he will get the one that stays here. But what if Junior and I don't fight? What if we both stay here and stick together! Then we're safe, from that guy or any other guy. This is a good idea. I'm going to do my best to explain it to Junior."

That fantastic idea, born in the brain of the greatest statesman that ever lived, known as Huhhh or Eeeeee, has gone far in the centuries that have passed. It now dominates, for instance, the political structure under which 140 million Americans go about the business of living. It seems destined inevitably to continue its progress to the logical conclusion of a world government with world law to preserve the peace. For the statesman got the idea not only as a means of protection from the guy on the other side of the mountain, but also as a means of protecting himself from Junior.

W. A. A.

The "Eagle" girls bowed to the Indiantown Gap W. A. C.'s in their first game of the season. The fact that the W. A. C.'s have one of the best teams in the region didn't hinder the Lock Haven side. The final score of the game, 29-50. The margin was very close.

Bar Gardner held honors in high scoring with a total of 13 points, and Carlson of Indiantown ran second with 11 points.

The proceeds from this project will be spent on uniforms for the girls varsity basketball team. The girls have also been selling magazine subscriptions to earn money for the same purpose.

The synchronized swimming group has worked out their pageant to be given in the spring. The girls are practicing the numbers for the pageant now.

CHATTER . . .

by Pier and Whitsel

I write alone, and to tell you the truth, I'm stumped. Pier, the witty half of this column, is busy working on the Præco (it goes to press on the first of February). This is my chance to tell you that her Earl is on his way home—oh!! she has already told you! I tried anyway. You see how this column will sound the whole way through? The best I can do is to feel sorry for the readers and hope that the circulation isn't cut in half.

Suddenly, and just over night—T. C. has become as of old. The fellows have returned! It is impossible to name each of you, but don't feel that we aren't happy about your return. The ex-T.C.'ers know what we are like and they must have liked us...or else they wouldn't have come back. So now you new fellows will have no doubts as to whether you will like T. C. Of course you will!!!

Miss Bentley was feeling very noble at seven Sunday morning, trying to arouse everybody, or did her desire to ring the little bell overwhelm her? Now, Miss Bentley, remember breakfast isn't until eight on Sunday mornings.

No longer does Mamma check on Don Pletcher, Jim Carpenter, and Al Wolfe. No, their wives can do that, as they are going to school. Al's wife isn't going to school, but she is on hand at all times—just to check.

Put on a lot of pity when you see Janie Thomas. Poor Janie!! From now on she must be quiet as she has just been elected to the Dorm Council.

While you have your pity out, pity the tumbling class which never gets hurt much and is always caught on the first bounce. Mr. Jack, you must take it easy on the unpadding people.

Barb Gardner has a new set of paper dolls. You will find them all over the walls in her room. All the gals can go any time to see them and when we have "Open House" you fellows can see them too.

The first-floor girls are making a raid on the mice. Elsie and "Kniff" are winning with the highest number caught—six.

Bonnie and King are going to move to the third floor as soon as the room is newly papered and painted. Having a housewarming with loads of food?

Roper and Dale have a new hobby now. This hobby isn't new to some, but it is new to them. Studying. It sure takes up a lot of time, if it's done right.

Sam Smith is the best possible counselor for our men students. It makes me feel sorry I'm not a G. I. Georgie Barnes and "Bucknell" haven't quite decided just when their office hours will be, but at any time they will hand out a little information. Since Dr. Parsons has approved, no one need remain in the dark.

"Bus" Shaner returned to T. C., walking in a very normal way. That same evening crutches helped him along. It seems "Bus" spent two minutes on the basketball floor. He is O. K. now.

Dr. North will be glad to hear the best-liked freshman on campus is a Shakespeare admirer. Yes, she goes around quoting Shakespeare all the time. You mean to say you never heard Peg Freeman say, "Merchant of Venice, swine of the gully, etc.?"

Thanks, Fritz, for putting away the moustache. We never expected the extra weight, though it is becoming.

Chris has the hardest work remembering the time. At a n-thirty she came strolling in. I guess that isn't nearly as big a mistake as Millersville made. They came up to play basketball one whole day too early.

If Pappa Graffius' coat looks too tight it is because he is a wee-bit puffed up. What other man on campus has a ten-month-old daughter that can walk as well as talk.

Latest, newest fad which has just hit T. C. is a streak of light hair above the forehead. To get the formula for the best effect, (red), ask Bailey.

Once more I'll pity every one of you that had stamina enough to struggle through this Chatter. Next time we (Pier will be on the job) will be sharp!

It's New On Campus

Something new has been added—intermural basketball. Anyone can play, in fact that's what is wanted, everyone to play. If you are not now on a team and you are interested in playing you should see Mr. Shrock at once. Each team will play at least once a week during the course of a seven weeks schedule. The games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 4:00—8:00. There will be rivalry and even maybe grudge games between the teams, especially the Infantrymen and the Air Corps.

These games will be played according to rules set up by Mr. Yost and Mr. Shrock. Mr. Yost's activity class will furnish the timekeepers, officials, etc. for the contests. Incidentally, there will be a very nice prize for the winning squad.

The eight teams in the league are: The Whiz Kids, Post Grads, Delta Rho Beta, Wrestlers, Army Air Corps, Infantry, Rangers, and last but not least, The Faculty or "Old Men" Each of these teams will wear different colored jerseys, furnished by the teams themselves.

Roving Reporter

Been some changes made since the last time your reporter put her pen to paper. Changes or men, call it what you will. I suppose you have noticed the increased enrollment. Did you know that there are ten new girls registered here this semester? That's what I mean—increased enrollment. Then there is the other element, which has, as our Dean of Women would put it, enriched college life.

To all of you who are just beginning to get into the schedule, here are a few notes.

Coffee hour will continue every Thursday evening from 6:30 to 7 in the front social room. Following this there is a discussion of the week in review. This last week the topic was the UNO. Mr. Sullivan led the discussion and there was a movie on UNO. Next week's program will include a movie also. The subject will be Brotherhood, and Dr. Parsons is to lead the discussion.

On Tuesdays, from 3 to 4, tea and cakes are served in the social rooms. These teas are planned as informal get-togethers.

Dr. Parsons has asked that we do not park cars in front of the administration building. It is necessary to keep the driveway clear for traffic since taxis and visitors use this roadway constantly.

To insure the comfort of everybody, we are asked not to smoke in the common rooms. The common rooms are those used by all of us, such as the library, social rooms, hallways, dining room and auditorium. Men, and women, too, are permitted to smoke in the men's Y room. Smoking is also permitted in the day room and in the frat.

Our Daze . . .

Dear fellow gophers, what are they? Height—tall and short and some in between. Weight—light, heavy and medium. Color—mostly light. Age—young, mediocre and just right. Desirability—and how! What do you know—they're men! Of course only the old timers around here are able to identify these specimens 'cause the youngsters are much too young to remember about 'em. Oh yes! But you know there ought to be some rule making married men wear tags that read, "I'm married." It's awfully embarrassing to trip a fellow, triumphantly pull him up by the scuff of the neck and hear him yell at you, "You just wait till I tell my wife on you! You'll be sorry!"

Minatrel show writer Pep (Ethel Pepperman) is hard at work on her show. At almost any time it is possible to hear a "Mr. Bones" accent or a "Dixie" tune floating around the D. R. The famous D. R. rats (4 legs) are considering going into blackface for the occasion.

Congratulations to Phyllis (Sis) Mauger on her solo flight after only four hours of instruction. It just goes to prove what angels the D. R. children are—pre-sprouted wings.

Most of the upper classmen will remember Betty Auman, who was with us last year. She is engaged to Miriam Zettle's brother, Dick.

"Anyone know where I can get an Ed. Pay. book?"—"I need a History of Pa. book."—"If you see Jane tell her I brought that American Government for her."—"Doesn't anyone want to buy an Introduction to Ed. book?"—This talk and much more along the same subject lets everyone know the students are trying to get books lined up for the second semester's work.

Some people will do anything to attract the attention of men. Bauman falls flat in the driveway and her books fly to the four winds. I suppose she just dropped in to see 'em.

For the benefit of the few people on campus who haven't yet heard about my "hair" raising experience—I started raising rabbits.

Welcome back to Ann Hamilton Carpenter.

Initial Solo Flight, Skies

Phyllis Mauger, second semester freshman, minoring in Aeronautics, soloed a Piper Cub after only four hours flight instruction. Previous to July, 1945 at least eight hours logged flight instruction was required before a student was permitted to solo. According to new regulations, a student may solo as soon as his practical flight work proves to the instructor that he has the ability to fly the plane alone. "Sis" Mauger acquired this ability in four hours, and "lost her shirt tail" while the rest of T. C. students were home on Christmas vacation. Season snow made it necessary for "Sis" to solo with skills, her first experience with them. Mr. Howard Graves, "Sis's" instructor, was designated by Piper Aircraft to give to all college students, with majors and minors in Aeronautics, four free flight hours of instruction.

Honor Football Squads

Our football squad, along with the junior and senior high school football teams, was honored at a banquet at the Masonic Temple on January 16, 1946. This banquet was sponsored by several of the service clubs of town, namely Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and Exchange Clubs. Chief speaker of the evening was Coach Hendrickson, backfield coach from the University of Pennsylvania. Later in the evening, James Dykstra was named captain of T. C.'s '46 gridiron squad.

Announcing the opening of Ye Olde Coffee Shoppee by Brown, Brumbaugh and Brown. 5c a cup—refills 4c. If you want a clean cup—5c. Our motto: "In God we trust—all others pay cash."

Flash! Announcing the closing of Ye Olde Coffee Shoppee. The proprietresses insisted on drinking all the profits—profits? Well anyway the coffee's all gone.

Once upon a time Gloria Bauman woke up and dressed for school. What's that Mother's calling? Oh, I guess she said it's snowing." Pulling on her boots, Gloria departed for school. When she arrived, Kaler said to her, "Gloria, why the boots? The sun's shining." Gloria opened her eyes and—Well, what do you know? The sun was shining! To this day Gloria is wondering what her mother did say that morning.

Well, happy Washington's birthday, Lincoln's birthday, and Valentine greetings, and I'll see you next month.

New Silk Screen Motivates Interest

If you pass by the art rooms while the Art Club is in session, don't be surprised to see everyone crowded around one table. The anxiety and curiosity of the art students is the demonstration of the new silk screen. This silk screen is a new and easy way of transferring designs by means of stencils on paper and cloth.

The Art Club is now busy planning designs to demonstrate this method at an exhibition to be held at the college from February 8 until March 1. The exhibition will consist of designs made by outstanding artists on the silk screen.

The Lock Haven Art Club, which was recently formed and which meets every Monday night, has now completed a lending library of pictures for the public schools in Central Pennsylvania. These paintings are originals of our local artists.

At the local meeting plans were discussed for the scenery to be painted for the water pageant.

Newman Club News

An informal get-together party of the Newman Club was held at the Immaculate Conception school auditorium, Monday night, January 28, 1946. Refreshments were served later in evening.

The Newman Club invites all Catholic students to join its ranks.

At a business meeting held in January, plans were made for other social affairs and business meetings in the near future.
