PENN STATE DEBATERS MEET LOCAL ORATORS

High School Debating Tournament Was Sponsored by College Times on March 9

The Pennsylvania State College debaters were entertained by our own debaters on March 6. The debate, which was scheduled for assembly was replaced by an informal symposium on foreign affairs. Mr. Hartzell acted as chairman.

Mr. McCramer, of Lock Haven, spoke first, defining the terms and otherwise beginning the discussion. He was followed by Mr. Williams of State College who listed the causes of the present war and placed most of the blame on Germany. Mr. Norlund of Lock Haven listed the following as the four chief causes of war: (1) aggression, (2) victim of a ttrack, (3) neutral violation of contraband laws, and (4) alliances. He also contended that we are circumstantial allies to England. Mr. Ritzel of State College turned, somewhat, from the informal style of the symposium to the formal style of the debate. He maintained that the United States had to trade outside the western hemisphere and so could not be strictly isolated.

Authority on Camps to Conduct Course Here

Miss Barbara Joy, of University of Iowa to Be On Campus Mar. 26-30

Miss Barbara Joy, noted authority on camps will be at the college March 26 to 30 to conduct an intensive course in camp training. Miss Joy is a staff member of the University of Iowa and owner of a Summer camp in Wisconsin.

Due to the growing importance of Summer camps for boys and girls in this country and a great demand for trained leaders, Miss Dorothy Deech, of the local college staff, has secured the services of Miss Joy in order to give the Health Education students of the college and camp leaders in this area an opportunity to gain information from an experienced authority.

The course will consist of two divisions: During the day instructions in handicraft, nature lore, outdoor cooking, camp games and other games of camp activities will be discussed; in the evening administration, counselling and organizing of camps will be discussed. Those completing the course will be awarded a camp-craft certificate.

Any person interested in this work should write or telephone Miss Deech at the college.

Is Elected By Huge Majority On First Ballot; Over 93 Per Cent of Student Body Votes

OTHER OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR TO BE ELECTED WEEK OF MAR. 17th

ST. PATRICK'S DAY DANCE THURSDAY

Another of the series of monthly dances and parties sponsored by the Social committee will be held Thursday evening in the old gymnasium. The dance, a St. Patrick's Day dance will begin at 8 p. m. and continue until 11.

Card tables are being placed around the gym and such games as shuffleboard and ping pong will be played where the other students are not dancing. The social committee has acquired some new records for the dance. Refreshments will be served.

LINK POLLS 202 VOTES OUT OF TOTAL OF 338 CAST; OTHER VOTES DIVIDED ABOUT EVENLY

Ralph L. Link of Patton, Pa., was elected president of next year's Student Cooperative Council on the first ballot of the election held Monday, March 4. Needing 170 votes for a majority of the 333 votes cast, Link polled 202 votes, nearly two-thirds of the total. Of the remaining 136 ballots, 131 were divided between three other candidates—Josephine Gauntt, Robert Marshall and Richard Hartzell, in the order named. Five other scattered votes were also recorded.

Mr. Link has served on the Council for the past three years and has been actively interested in it. This past year he held the office of treasurer, one of the most responsible offices on the campus. His fine work in this capacity coupled with his knowledge and understanding of council problems were large factors in his overwhelming victory.

Juniors Sign Well Known Band For Prom On Apr. 12

Don Peebles, Nationally Famous Dance Band Selected Late Last Week

The final plans for the Junior Prom were completed late last week when Munroe Hurwitz, orchestra chairman, announced that Don Peebles and his orchestra had been selected to play for the affair.

Peebles is a favorite in almost every socially prominent college in Pennsylvania and is widely known nationally, having toured the country with Sally Rand, famous fan dancer a few years back. With the signing of this band the Juniors are giving the students a band that specializes in smooth rhythms.

Admission for the dance, scheduled for April 12, has not been definitely set, but tickets will soon be placed on sale at a minimum price. The decoration committee has planned such elaborate decorations for the event that they have been working on some of the details since early last week.

The date for the Prom is April 12th. Since this is Friday night a large attendance is expected.

Large Crowd Enjoys Display of Fashions

Six hundred people witnessed the display of Spring styles Thursday evening at the college auditorium, when the Sally Platt Lawrence Circle of the Great Island Presbyterian Church presented its third annual Spring Fashion Parade.

After the performance, in which a hundred men, women and children participated, the circle members served light refreshments back stage for the entire group.

Dr. Charles Lose, Former President Here, Passes Away

Served as President of Central State Normal School for Nine Years

Dr. Charles Lose, prominent educator and former member of the State Assembly, died at his 31 North Loyalsock Avenue home at Montoursville, at 8:45 p. m. Monday, Mar. 4, 1940, after an illness of three weeks. His condition had been considered critical for the past week.

Among the positions he filled were superintendent of Lycoming County schools, superintendent of Williamsport schools, president of the State Educational Association, principal of the Central State Normal School, Lock Haven and principal of the former Muncy Normal School.

It was while serving as head of our school in 1919 that Dr. Lose became sightless. At that time he returned to his Montoursville home, where he had since resided. He became affiliated with the Three-Quarter Century Club at Montoursville.

Attended Public Schools

Dr. Lose was educated in the public schools, LaFayette College, Bucknell University and the Horace Mann School, New York. He began teaching in 1883 and was elected principal of the schools of Montoursville in 1877. He taught that Winter and the following Spring, then was elected assistant principal at Muncy. At the close of the Fall term at Muncy, he en-

The election of a president by a majority on the first ballot for the second consecutive year speaks well for the system of election used here at Lock Haven. This system of elimination by successive primary elections, provides for the direct election of one candidate from the entire student body in the first primary, if the candidate be a sufficiently popular choice.

Another gratifying feature of the election was the large turnout of voters. Of 367 eligible students on the campus, 338 cast their ballot. In other words, better than 93 per cent of the eligible voters took part in the election.

Considerable interest was manifested in the election, as evinced by the posters, placards and intensive campaigning done by cohorts of the four main candidates. Cigars, candy and chewing gum were much in evidence on Monday, as the hour drew near.

The new Council is to be chosen this week by the various classes, organizations, etc., and it is to hold a meeting the week of March 17. In all probability this meeting will see the election of the remaining council officers—the vice president, treasurer, and corresponding and recording secretaries—by the new board of directors. The executive committee will also be selected at this time.

The present council will continue in office for the remainder of this year, and will hold its next regularly scheduled meeting on Thursday, March 14.

Tabulation of results of Monday's election:

Ralph Link	202
Josephine Gauntt	52
Robert Marshall	47
Richard Hartzell	32
Robert Bowes	1
Eugene Shuey	1
Willard Poff	1

Dr. Glenn Cunningham Appears On Local College Campus Today

Lectures in Assembly; To Conduct Track Clinic During Remainder of Morning and Afternoon

Dr. Glenn Cunningham, the world's greatest middle distance runner, is appearing on the campus today, giving a lecture in assembly this morning and conducting a track clinic for the local teachers track team.

The title of Dr. Cunningham's lecture was appropriately enough, "Running-Around the World." No one could be better qualified to lecture on such a subject than he, for he has been performing all over the world for over ten years. He holds the world's indoor mile record, as well as countless other records in this distance. To him goes the distinction of having run the fastest mile ever run by any man. This record was made on the Dartmouth indoor track at Hanover, N. H.

It is expected that Cunningham will be in Lock Haven the entire day. Local authorities have made plans to entertain him and keep him busy during the day.

The appearance of Dr. Cunningham on our campus is one of the highlights of the 1939-40

CLEAN-UP WEEK

This week has been designated as clean-up week on the campus. Miss Bottorf and her Art Appreciation classes are sponsoring a drive to keep the buildings and campus free of unnecessary litter and refuse, not only this week, but every week of the year.

Our college, situated as it is in one of the most scenic sections of this state, is fortunate in having an unusually attractive campus. While the campus is naturally beautiful one cannot expect it to remain so if students persist in throwing all sorts of refuse wherever they choose. The same applies to the new buildings. If we expect them to remain as they are, they will have to be kept clean and neat. The old building likewise look infinitely better when they are well kept.

The student body is in a position to do more than any other group in promulgating and making a success of the Art classes clean-up campaign. After all students, it is our campus and the least we can do is to clean it up and keep it that way permanently.

It is requested by the Circulation Manager, that all students cooperate in the distribution of this paper. The present policy of the Circulation Department is to put papers in the mail boxes for the Dormitory Students and Faculty. Papers are also placed in the Day Rooms for the Day students. This arrangement has proved to be rather satisfactory when the student body gives its cooperation.

However, when the Dormitory Students take papers from the Day rooms, where there are only enough copies for the Day Students, the entire circulation of the paper is disturbed. The Dormitory students should be willing enough to help by waiting for the papers to be placed in their boxes. The last two issues of the paper have suffered from poor circulation because of the disruption of the system by over-anxious Dormitory students. Surely these students do not mean to cause this disruption, but a bit of cooperation on their part will save a lot of headaches for the Circulation Department.

LOCK HAVEN MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DICK HARTZELL

The writer wishes to hand a compliment to the student body. When 93 per cent of the eligible voters of any constituency go to the polls, any community may justifiably throw out its collective chest.

Now that the vote is cast, however, the next step is to forget campaign differences and get behind the candidate that has received a majority. I hardly think that such a suggestion is necessary when any man polls a vote of confidence such as that of President-elect Link, but it is made, nevertheless. No officer can do more than you want him to do and help him to do. No man is better than the majority that elects him, so lend a hand—

Along the same theme of cooperation, I often think that some of the petty jealousies, dislikes, and discords, which

Alumni

ALUMNI GIVE O. K. TO PLAN

IT'S a bit encouraging to hear some of the remarks of approval from graduates who are joining up with the plan for paid-up Alumni Association membership.

George B. Hall of Duncannon, class of 1898, says: "This is an excellent idea. Should have been put into effect many years ago." Mr. Hall says he hasn't been back on Campus for 40 years, and your alumni secretary would be illing to wager that he'd scarcely recognize the college today. Want to take me up on that, Mr. Hall?

THE irresistible Happy Poorman out in Lukachukai, Arizona, hands out a left-handed compliment to President Max Bossert: "I certainly recognized immediately your bargain offer. How do you expect to use the excess money if you are giving such a bargain? It's a worthy cause, though. Sorry to hear the executive board had to spend so much time getting the idea in shape."

Okey, Happy, we'll have to think up how we're going to use the money when we get enough so that we can see it without a magnifying glass. So far there's slightly more than $50, exactly half of which is earmarked for the college, chiefly The College Times staff.

(And aside: In May, your reporter will give alumni, through this column, a complete financial report on the condition, thriving or otherwise, of the alumni fund begun through the paid-up memberships.)

INTRODUCING the roster of new paid-up Alumni members, who have joined since Feb. 22 and most of whom are now also subscribers to The College Times.

From Lock Haven, Idessa C. Seyler, and from Bellefonte, R.D. 3, Amy L. Zaner, both became Sustaining members.

The Actives include Mr. Hall and the aforesaid Happy Poorman, Mary Heckel, Mrs. Paul Hintlelang, Hartman B. (Bud) Herr, Wayne Myers, Jr., and Ethel Sloteman Hager all of Lock Haven.

It was Bud Herr, Wayne Myers, President Bossert and your scribe who joined for a while by Dr. Flowers, and for the evening by Bursar Duke Davies, swam and "badmintoned" for the first Sports Night at the field house. And YOU and YOU missed the time of your life by not coming. Next one: March 28.

BUT to continue with the Actives: Blanchard Gummo of Bucknell University, whose paintings were a feature of Alumni Day several years ago, signed up, as did also Coach Bob Smith of Jersey Shore, and the missus, the former Virginia Lee.

Elmer D. Wagner of 584, now living in Pennington, N. J., and S. O. Singer, Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh, class of '95, are representatives from the oldest classes now on the Active roster.

Others who had joined prior to March 5—space limiting our identifications beyond name and present address—are:

Mrs. Lois Halstead, Mill Hall, R. D.; Bertha C. Nelson, 312 West Main St., Sheffield, Pa.; Ronnie Aldrich, Reedsville; Vivian O. David, 36 West Franklin St., Bound Brook, N. J.; Orpha Phillips Stewart, 155 Conewango Ave., Warren, Pa.; Harriet J. Kelly, 7514 Kensington St., Pittsburgh; Mrs. Glenn M. Johnston, Woolrich.

Coach Jim Myers, Center Hall;

Marcella Burt at Roulette; Eleanor Dykins Ellswood, 154 Main Road, Wilkes-Barre; Mary J. Forney, 224 Seventh St., Phillipsburg; Bertha Clendinen, 1901 Billmore Road, East Cleveland, O.; Gertrude L. Long, Patton.

Madeline T. Wilt Bossle, 246 East Knight Ave., Collingswood, N. J.; Mrs. Catherine G. Lyons, 905-07 West Lehigh Ave., Philadelphia; Jean G. Mateer, New Bethlehem, and Earleen R. Potter, Box 619, R.D. 3, Johnstown.

WEDDING bells: Alice McGarvey, of North Bend and Albert Glen Pflugfelder, also of North Bend. Married Saturday, Feb. 24 by Alice's father, the Rev. L. W. McGarvey.

Engaged: Alumni Paul L. Frantz of Lock Haven and Miss Mary Kathryn Packer, of Miami, Fla.

Alumni Have Fun In Fieldhouse

An energetic, if small, group of Teachers College alumni enjoyed the first Alumni sports night Feb. 22 at the college field house. watched the college boxers in several training bouts, took a swim in the pool, and topped off the evening with a badminton tournament in which veteran Max Bossert had to be urged to referee before anyone else could defeat the team on which he played.

The next sports night for paid-up alumni members will be on March 28. Plans are being made to invite the members, their husbands, wives and families for the informal evening of fun.

COLLEGE SPORTS

SPORT LITE

By DON RATHGEBER

We want to give the members of the Lock Haven Teachers College wrestling team a big hand for finishing the season undefeated.

It has been more or less of a rule in the past to present the members of an undefeated team with gold awards, and it is our opinion that the members of the wrestling squad deserve just such an award. Weeks of practice and hard work deserve some type of recognition.

Next year the wrestling prospects look just as bright, and a tougher schedule looms before the Bald Eagle grunt and groan artists. Action is being taken to enlarging the schedule with many formidable opponents.

With the arriving of Glen Cunningham upon our campus the sport atmosphere will turn decidedly toward spring. Mr. Cunningham will give lectures and demonstrations on running and will be assisted in his demonstration by the members of Mr. Bossert's track coaching class.

The inter-mural basketball competition is getting stiffer every day as the teams jockey for a position among the top four teams who will enter the playoffs to determine the championship.

It looks as if the "Huskies," Captain Neff's terrors, are due to end up in the cellar.

Looking over the Eagles' scoring for the year, we find that "Chick" Springman, whose terrific pace established for him a reputation as one of the best shots in the Teachers College basketball circuit, leading the way with a total of 224 points for 14 games, averaging 16 points per game.

Second in the individual scoring was Stan Daley, who also had a dead eye that was sharp enough for any team that played on the local planks this year.

He shoots with either hand but prefers to use his left hand—a shot that has most of the opposing team baffled. Stan piled up 172 points in 14 games with an average of over 12 points per game.

Captain Earl Young, who for the last four years has done a first rate job guarding his basket, scored 92 points in 14 games. Young played his last collegiate game last Tuesday night. He will be the only man lost to the squad next year.

In amassing 722 points in 14 games the Eagles averaged 52 points per game while limiting the opposition to 634 points and an average of 45 points.

In the Teachers College mythical basketball race, Lock Haven finished fifth with 7 wins and 5 losses. For the fourth consecutive year Millersville Teachers finished on the top rung.

Eagle Boxers End Season With 4-4 Tie at Toledo, Ohio

CAMPBELL, SKERPON SCORE KNOCKOUTS—BRESSLER, HOPKINS WIN

Good Record

Mickey Moore, Eagle boxer who has lost but one bout this year.

Moore Loses First Bout in Intercollegiate Career in Questionable Decision; Randall, Renne and Salada Drop Close Ones

The boxing team of Lock Haven State Teachers College, decisive conquerors of the City College of New York pugilists two weeks ago, gained a 4-4 draw with the boxers of DeSales College at Toledo last Friday nite. The Eagles left Lock Haven Thursday and returned home Saturday afternoon.

To start things off, Worth Randall, diminutive Jersey Shore yearling, dropped a decision to veteran Al Pedro, DeSales flea-weight. However, George Bressler, Lock Haven sophomore 125 pounder, put the Eagles back in the running when he pounded out a clear cut decision over John Burkhart, rugged Sailor boxer.

Lock Haven soared into the lead when Bill Skerpon, 135 lb. undefeated Eagle pugilist scored a first round KO over Earl Stechschulte. The Sayre boy had little difficulty disposing of his rival. The result of the next bout was distinctly an upset. Mickey Moore, 145 pound entry previously undefeated and one of the finest of the fine crop of local mitmen, dropped a very questionable decision to Barney Quilter. It was the first setback for Moore, a sophomore, since he started boxing at Lock Haven.

Captain Jimmy Hopkins, able veteran put the locals back in the running when he gained the nod over John Cunningham, in the 155 pound class. Paul Renne, tough Pittsburgher, lost in another.

Tough Luck

Bill Bressler, a senior and one of the best of the Maroon mitmen was laid up most of the season with an injured hand.

Basketball Team in Win At Williamsport

Lock Haven Teachers finished basketball for 1940 by winning a super-thriller 40-39 from Nolls, leading team of the Williamsport City League, last Tuesday at Williamsport.

The Penn State Frosh downed Williamsport Junior College 33-27 and First Evangelical defeated First Presbyterian 30-20 in the three game programs which drew more than 1,000 people who contributed to the triangular benefit fund, the proceeds of which goes to the Lycoming County Crippled Children's Society, National Infantile Paralysis Fund and Finnish Relief Fund.

Close Throughout

The Lock Haven-Nolls game was very close throughout. The first period ended 11-11 and Lock Haven shot to the fore with a 3-point lead, 20-17, shortly before the first half ended. Nolls rallied strongly in the third round scoring 12 to Lock Haven's five to lead 29-25. However, Lock Haven's best scoring period was the fourth in which the Teachers had 15 points to Nolls' ten to win by a single point.

It was Lock Haven's successful stalling in the final minute in which the Bald Eagles protected their slim lead which finally decided the joust.

Gene Springman, center, had 14 points for Lock Haven, Stan Daley, forward, had 10. Ollie Byers, star of the Lock Haven Teachers teams of 1938 and '39, led Nolls with 12 points.

Nolls, with the addition of a few other players, will represent Williamsport in the Eastern Pennsylvania Y.M.C.A. tournament.

GRAPPLERS, UNDER TUTELAGE OF HANK BLAKE, COMPILE IMPRESSIVE RECORD

Undefeated Season for Maroon Grunt and Groan Artists In Their Second Year of Intercollegiate Competition

PLANNING FOR STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE MEET

Giles, Blake and Geno Undefeated After Match With Stroudmen

The Lock Haen State Teachers College wrestling team, in its second year of intercollegiate competition, has added the Pennsylvania State Teachers Wrestling crown to the long list of titles which Eagle athletes have brought to Lock Haven.

Their decisive 20 1-2 to 9 1-2 victory over East Stroudsburg last Saturday gave the Maroon grapplers the undisputed championship. They have registered duel meet victories over West Chester, Mansfield, Indiana and East Stroudsburg and have not been defeated. Stroudsburg, up until last Saturday claimed the title, but their claim was somewhat forgotten after Saturday.

With three of their eight men still undefeated, Lock Haven will drive for the team title as well as individual crowns as the local college plays host to six other teams here Friday and Saturday of next week when the first annual Pennsylvania State Teachers College Wrestling Championships will be staged in the field house.

Although Lock Haven was donated five points by East Stroudsburg as the Easterners' heavy-weight, Norman Hanson, had an injured shoulder and was resting for the tournament, the Bald Eagle matmen's margin was so large that even if the Maroon had lost in the unlimited match, the local team still would have won.

Frank Geno, heavyweight; Gordon Giles, 155 pounds, and Hank Blake, 175, are the undefeated Lock Haven wrestlers. Geno, Lock Haven boy, was idle when East Stroudsburg appeared in the Senior High School gymnasium here last Saturday afternoon but has compiled the best record so far with a pin in every match in which he has wrestled.

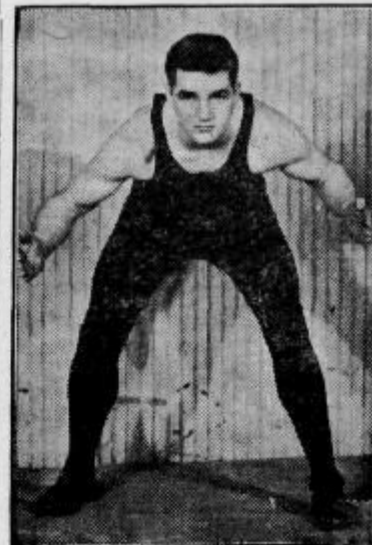

Giles Has 3 Pins
Giles, who hails from Hublersburg, has scored three falls and a decision. Blake, former District 6-9 scholastic champion, has accounted for two pins, a decision and a victory by forfeit.

Of the previously beaten Lock Havenites, Ed Saires, 128, and Russ Yost, 165, both won by decisions over their East Stroudsburg men. Saires has won by decision all his matches but one which he lost by a nod. Yost was pinned once but has won every other time.

Giles was the only Lock Haven man to score a fall against East Stroudsburg. The only other fall was recorded by Captain Delroy Evans of East Stroudsburg, who pinned Ed Stehman in the second extra period with a body press in 2 minutes and 16 seconds. Giles pinned James Roscoe in the second extra period with a reverse body hold in 2 minutes and 10 seconds.

Prior to starting Thursday on their trip to Toledo, O., where they tackled DeSales College team, the boxers of the Lock Haven Teachers College elected Jimmy Hopkins, popular 155 pound ringman, captain of this year's team.

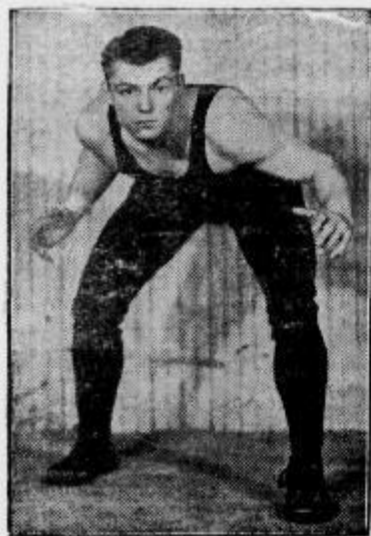

The boxers met and named Hopkins who with Bill Bressler, still nursing his injured hand, is a senior. All other mitmen are underclassmen.

'The Man in the Bowler Hat' Is Presented Twice

Dramatics Club Forums Meet to Discuss Plays For Next Year

Chi Kappa Sigma was proud to present its fourth and last practice plays of the semester, "The Man in the Bowler Hat," by A. A. Milne and directed by Miss Katherine Fry, in assembly, Monday, March 4, and in the auditorium for the service clubs of Lock Haven on Tuesday evening, Mar. 5. Both groups enjoyed the unusual and laugh-provoking comedy. The "Casper Milquetoast" role of John was well interpreted by Fred Jamison; his wife, Mary, was played by Esther Coder. Roles of the lovers were enacted by Janice Stratton as the Heroine and John Gehron as the Hero. Typical melodrama characters added humor with Lewis Rathgeber as the Chief Villian and Joel Freedman as the Bad Man. The Man in the Bowler Hat was enacted by George Given. Heads of committees who assisted with making these performances a success were as follows: Construction, Ralph Link; stage committee, Blair Owens; properties, Betty Shadle; lighting, John Akley; make-up, Marguerite Wiedhahn; sound, John Gehron; prompter, George Given.

The separate Dramatic Club Forums met Monday night, Mar. 4. The Play Reading Forum discussed possible plays for production next year. The play selecting committee is favoring comedies. The Directors' Forum had an interesting meeting in discussing with their adviser, Miss Brong, problems met by the directors of recent practice plays and methods used in solving them. The Costume Forum has been planning costumes for "Smilin' Through" and also collecting pictures usable for a scrap book which is to be completed at the end of the semester. The Children's Forum read and discussed plays for children and their adaptability to production.

Chi Kappa Sigma now has one goal—to make "Smilin' Through" April 18 and 19, the brightest dramatic spot of the year.

tough Pittsburgher, who shows promise of developing into a fine boxer in the 165 pound class, lost.

Lock Haven scored its second knockout of the evening when Don Campbell, husky Curwensville newcomer disposed of big Bill O'Rourke, Toledo 175 pounder. Campbell made one of the best showings for the year of any boxer on the squad in this, his first year out. In the heavy-weight bout, Maurice Sallada, another local newcomer dropped a close decision to Paul Thomas, of DeSales.

Thus closed the boxing season for Lock Haven State Teachers College. The record includes victories over Indiana Teachers and City College of New York, a loss to Catholic University and the draw with DeSales.

margin which gave him the decision was clean-cut but he never had Marsilli near being pinned. Yost decided James Leedy while Saiers got the edge over Bill Hammerman.

Lock Haven's other points, one and a half, were scored by Bob Foye who fought a draw match with the extra period scrap packed with action. He came very close to pinning Louis (Tiger) Zwirek but failed to hold down the rugged and tough East Stroudsburg.

In addition to the pin and the draw, East Stroudsburg's other counters came from a decision of Ray Davis over Blair Owens in the 135 pound class.

Lock Haven's season included victories over West Chester, Mansfield, Indiana and East Stroudsburg. East Stroudsburg had conquered Brooklyn College, Mansfield, Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute, Montclair Teachers of New Jersey and City College of New York.

The summary:

121 pound class—Evans, East Stroudsburg, defeated Stehman, with a body press in 2 minutes and 16 seconds.
128—Saiers, Lock Haven, won a decision over Hammerman.
135—Davies, East Stroudsburg, won decision over Owens.
145—Foye, Lock Haven, and Zwirek, drew.
155—Giles, Lock Haven, threw Rascoe, with a reverse body hold in 2 minutes and 10 seconds.
165—Yost, Lock Haven, won decision over Leedy.
175—Blake, Lock Haven, won decision over Marsilli.
Heavyweight division—Geno, Haven, won by forfeit.

Intramural Champ Play-offs to Begin March 19

Wolverines Still a Game and a Half in Front

MARTELLI IS LEADER

The competition in the Inter-mural league is assuming great proportions as the time for the championship playoffs draws near. At present the Wolverines are setting the pace with the Ramblers in second place.

Last week the games were unusually hard fought and interesting. On Tuesday the following scores were registered: The Ramblers defeated the Huskies 39 to 37; the Celtics defeated the Vultures 30 to 29, and the Wolverines romped over the Ramblers 40 to 14.

On Thursday the Wolverines took the Huskies into camp 33 to 22 and the Huskies lost the second game of a double header to the Vultures 24 to 20.

Next week's schedule pits the Ramblers against the J-Club, the J-Club against the Celtics Tuesday afternoon and the Ramblers against the Vultures Tuesday night. Thursday the Wolverines play the J-Club at 3:00, the Huskies play the Celtics at 4:00, and the Vultures play the J-Club at 7:40 Thursday night.

The leading individual scorer is Louis Martella, who has 64 points. Stew Nolan and Yothers are tie for second place with 60 points apiece.

The champion play off will start Tuesday night, March 19, at 3:00. The first four teams will be entered in the play-offs.

The team standings are:

	W	L	Pts
Wolverines	8	1	.888
Ramblers	6	2	.750
J-Club	3	3	.500
Vultures	3	5	.375
Celtics	2	6	.250
Huskies	2	7	.222

State Wrestling Tournament on March 15, 16

LOCK HAVEN FAVORED TO WIN TEAM TITLE

The wrestling championship of the Teachers Colleges of Pennsylvania will be decided next weekend when Lock Haven plays host to seven schools in the first affair of such a kind. The Bald Eagle wrestlers are undefeated in this year's regular season and are favored to win the state championship.

The following Teachers Colleges have already signified their intention of entering the meet: West Chester, East Stroudsburg, Indiana, Clarion and Edinboro. Several other schools have not as yet definitely announced their plans but are expected to be among the entries when the tourney opens next Friday.

Lock Haven will present probably the strongest team in the meet. Led by a trio of undefeated grapplers, Hank Blake, 175 pounds, Gordon Giles, 155 pounder and big Frank Zeno, heavy-weight entry, the Eagle grapplers have consistently downed all opposition this season. The Havenites climaxed their regular season with a 20 1-2 to 9 1-2 victory over East Stroudsburg Teachers, who had claimed the state cham-

OFF the RECORD and ON

By BILL MASTERSON

OFF THE RECORD

Rumors have reached Lock Haven that Jimmy Dorsey, ace sax man and his band is to play at the Bloomsburg Senior Ball. If Bloomsburg can afford J. D. what about Lock Haven? True, our student body is smaller but why not use some of the Artist course money to help finance one of these bands? Those who do not dance could enjoy themselves listening—and we would make some money. For the price of one Artist number we could have Jimmy Dorsey, Al Donahue or Count Basie—and many others. This would be one number that students would be sure to enjoy. I believe the students would agree to pay $1.00 per couple and our invited guests would surely pay $2.00. These dance bands are real radio artists, maybe not the auditorium type but their popularity proves that they have something.

After listening to Glen Gray the other night I realized why Glen has stayed at the top so long. His interpretation of his famous arrangements is getting better every year and his ability to hold good men goes a long way in helping to keep his popularity up. The band itself, while not young, is the cleanest we have ever seen. Every man is well-groomed and clean-cut.

FAVORITE ORCHESTRA

SECOND CHOICE

FAVORITE MALE VOCALIST

FAVORITE FEMALE VOCALIST

The Andrew Sisters will appear in Williamsport with Johnny McGhee's orchestra on Easter Monday. McGhee plays a sweet type of trumpet, that is a mixture of Busse and McCoy.

Don Peebles, Junior Prom band has the distinction of having played three Military Balls at Harrisburg—then too, he played for Governor James' reception.

Glen Miller, who is somewhat of a trombone player himself, rates Tommy Dorsey, Jack Jenny and Jack Teagarten as the country's best slip-horn artists.

AND ON—

Dick Jurgen's best platter since "Penny Serenade" is "If You Wish Upon a Star." Among the best is Bobby Byrnes' "One Cigarette for Two," Kay Kyser's "Changing World, and Glen Miller's "Gaucho's Serenade".... Erskine Hawkins has the best recording made of "Tuxedo Junction".... T. Dorsey's recording of "East of the Sun" is good but cannot be placed in the same rack with his other solo. Chorus lises.

Those of you who wish to cast your ballot for the favorite orchestra of Lock Haven students may do so by filling out the following ballot and placing it in the box which will be provided for it in the book store.

pionship prior to last week's encounter with Lock Haven.

According to advance information West Chester will enter six wrestlers, Edinboro five, Clarion three, Indiana four, and East Stroudsburg eight. Lock Haven will also send all eight entries into action.

Edinboro seems to have one of the toughest teams among the entrants. Paced by Frank Felice, a sophomore, student coach of the Red, the Boro grapplers have dropped but one meet this season. Felice, 128 pound entry, with ten years of wrestling experience behind him, will probably be one of the most outstanding wrestlers in the tourney. He was Northern California State champion in '37 and '38.

East Stroudsburg, having dropped but one meet this season to Lock Haven, as mentioned above, can be counted on to produce plenty of opposition.

The meet will be staged in the Lock Haven High School gymnasium, where accommodations are being made to seat the overflow through that is expected.

PI KAPPA SIGMA SORORITY

On Monday, March 4, the Pi Kappa Sigma held their election of officers for the ensuing year. Dene Hocker was chosen president of the sorority. The other officers which were elected were: arise in every society, might be avoided. Particularly those which often exist among athletic participants, participants in non-athletic activities, and non-participants could be alleviated by the development of a little respect.

If a man outstanding in any field, whether it be athletics, dramatics, scholarship or all three, he is certainly entitled to the respect of his fellow-students.

Too often, when an actor is interested in drama and nothing else, he has nothing but contempt for the non-participant and even less for the athlete. The same thing applies to the man that is interested in athletics primarily.

I would carry this even farther. Even if a man is not outstanding in any field, he is entitled to respect, because of the mere fact that he is a man. With this as a principle I think we shall all climb higher in the world beyond the confines of this college.

Let's not mar that record turnout for election by not participating in the coming class meetings at which delegates to the New York Conference will be elected.

A bouquet to Mr. Fredericks and Mr. Bossert for the swell intramural sports program this year. Non-varsity men appreciated it.

CATastrophe

In a single file the slow procession waddled serenely in front of the noon day traffic; cars stopped, and a hush fell over the impatient crowd. A mother skunk and her three little skunkettes were affecting a change of address.

Mom, up at the Arbor, was wondering what had happened to her daily luncheon trade. Never had it taken so long for a single procession to cross a street—it seemed like hours. Eventually the family gained the sidewalk unmolested and disappeared in the general direction of the power plant. No stop sign or traffic light could have had such an effect upon modern transportation.

Did you ever see a fish

Did you ever find a cat
Curled—asleep
In your hat?
Did you ever see a star
Ski swiftly
Around the sky so far?
... Well I did.

tered LaFayette where he remained through 1878-79, 1879-80. But he was at Bucknell in 1880-81, teaching in Summer vacations at Muncy Normal.

Upon the election of C. S. Riddell, principal at Muncy, to the post as county superintendent Dr. Lose was elevated to the post of principal from that of assistant to which capacity he was named in 1881. He continued in the post until Dr. Riddell died in 1885 when Dr. E. E. Higbee, state superintendent, appointed him to the county post. He was elected in 1883 and again in 1890. While at Muncy, he served as principal of Muncy Normal.

City Superintendent

In 1893 Dr. Lose was named supervising principal of the Phillipsburg schools, and 1896 as superintendent of Williamsport schools. He went to Lock Haven in 1914 as head of the Central State Normal School, and while there lost his sight. In 1910 he had served as head of the state educational association.

Times Sports Editor in Interview with Blake, Student Wrestling Coach

Ed. Note: In view of the fact that Lock Haven has developed a state championship wrestling team in two years, the sports staff believed that a short writeup on the development of the grapplers would prove interesting. The following comments from Hank Blake are the results of our queries:

121—BUD STEHMAN—

Has developed greatly since last year. He is greatly handicapped by his lack of weight. Learned a few things well and is able to use them.

128—ED SAIERS—

This is his first attempt at athletics but he has proved himself an athlete. After having a good start by defeating good men at West Chester and Mansfield, Ed lost a decision to a very smart boy at Indiana. Ed proved his courage when he came back to defeat a very rugged man from East Stroudsburg. Things may be different when Saiers meets the Indiana man in the tournament.

135—BLAIR OWENS—

Blair, also a newcomer to the realm of sports, is proving himself a valuable member of the Lock Haven team. His lack of wrestling knowledge handicapped him in his first meets, but in recent meets he has shown great improvement. Next year Owens will be a real point gatherer for our outfit.

145—BOB FOYE—

Bob is slowly finding out that there is more to wrestling than main strength and awkwardness. Foye had a poor beginning to his season, but I expect him to finish his season in a blaze of glory if he continues to improve as he has in the past two meets.

155—GORDON GILES—

Giles has gone farther in these two years of wrestling than most fellows do in three years. "Gigger" has natural ability as a wrestler and is almost a sure thing for the State title.

165—RUSSEL YOST—

Had some high school experience which has come in handy. He has picked up a few maneuvers this year. By his showing in the East Stroudsburg match it is evident that he will be much better prepared for the Mansfield man who pinned him in their first encounter.

175—HENRY BLAKE—

No comment.
UNLIMITED—FRANK GENO
Frank had some previous experience but had been away from the game a long time. He is in much better physical condition now than he was at the season's start. Geno is open-minded and is picking some new angles on the game. His strength, plus his tremendous weight, makes him a sure bet for the title.
