State provisions call for steak, shrimp

Macke Co. enters low bid

By BILL MAHON
Editor-in-Chief

Last week the food service contract for next year was awarded to the Macke Food Service. The Macke company will be replacing A.R.A. Service which has been working in Bentley Hall for the past five years.

The quality of meals at Lock Haven State College is expected to increase next year with the new food service but that will be the result of an increase in the costs for the meals. During the past semester students paid $180 for their meals. This figure will rise $54 to a cost of $234 for the fall semester. The average cost per meal will then be thirty-seven cents.

There will be a number of changes made in the food

'Beam in' to UFO lecture tonight

Dr. Willy Smith of Lycoming College will present a lecture on "UFO's A Scientific Problem" at 7:30 p.m. tonight, April 28, in the theatre of the John Sloan Fine Arts Center, Lock Haven State College.

The lecture, sponsored by the Society of Physics Students, is open to the public at no charge.

Dr. Smith will discuss whether "Unidentified Flying Objects" are a phenomenon worthy of scientific study, based on research conducted while he was on sabbatical leave last year. Public opinion in Europe considers UFOLOGY a respectable Poet Platt to read in Bentley Tues.

Poet Eugene Robert Platt will read his poems Tuesday, April 29 at 8:00 p.m. in Bentley Hall Lounge. Brought to campus by the English/Communications Club, Platt has been termed by critics "a young American poet whose use of modern poetic techniques is balanced by his own completely original voice."

Three collections of Platt's poetry - Coffee and Solace, An Original Sin and Tar River Poets - have been published. The 36 year old poet has given readings at numerous colleges and schools, besides having his work appear in many periodicals. He also edited an anthology of Patrick Kavanaugh's poetry and one of poems about the Outer Banks of North Carolina.

Born in Charleston, South Carolina, Platt served in the army and graduated from the University of S.C. He was a law student and a civil servant before going to Ireland in 1969 to study at Trinity College, Dublin.

Weekend meeting to consider changes in CAS constitution

By BOB BARRICKMAN
Staff Reporter

The Commonwealth Association of Students (CAS) may adopt some changes in their Constitution next year. This weekend, May 2 and 3, suggestions will be discussed at the CAS meeting which will be held at Cheney State College and perhaps a vote will be taken on the possible changes.

One change under consideration is to break up the association into committees instead of one group. Currently there is one coordinator representing each local chapter. There are 14 Local Chapters; the 13 state colleges plus Indiana State University.

The coordinator disseminates information to and from students pertaining to the campus. He or she makes all the decisions and is in charge of everything. One of the biggest problems is that the coordinator ends up doing all the work instead of delegat-

Equal opportunity office sponsors sports forums

The Pennsylvania Department of Education Office of Equal Opportunity has entered into a period of intense consultation and research to determine guidelines and develop training materials for Directors of Equal Opportunity in sports. The winter release time position at each state college and university was agreed to last fall in the collective bargaining agreement between Association of Pennsylvania State College and University Faculties and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

As part of the Office of Equal Opportunity's effort to get advice on formulation of guidelines from diverse viewpoints and opinions, the office has arranged to conduct three regional forums. The first was held last Tuesday, April 22 at

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor,

Recently I was given a preliminary application form for the local Loyal Order of the Moose. One of its statements does not seem at all in harmony with that enlightened philosophy to which we all subscribe. I call attention to it for the benefit of any of us who might already be members or who might be considering membership:

Please accept this as my preliminary application for membership. I hereby certify that I am of sound mind and body, being a member of the Caucasian, white race, and not married to one of any other race, not a member of the Communist Party, have never been convicted of a felony and a believer in a Supreme Being.

The sentence structure, perhaps, can be quickly corrected so as not to offend intelligent people. The racial sentiments, however, cannot be corrected so easily. I hope that we not only oppose the sentiment but do everything in our power to undermine it.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Michael Peplow

Diamondmen 'doing their thing' win last 9 out of 10

By MIKE CRONE
Staff Reporter

By scoring four runs in the bottom of the 7th inning, the Bald Eagles of Lock Haven State were able to sweep a doubleheader from visiting Edinboro on Saturday. The Eagles took the first game 9-3 and then stormed back with their late barrage to win the second game 5-4.

Those two wins make it 6 in a row for Coach Tod Eberle's crew, and 9 out of the last 10. The Eagles are 9-3 since returning from Virginia and 12-8 overall.

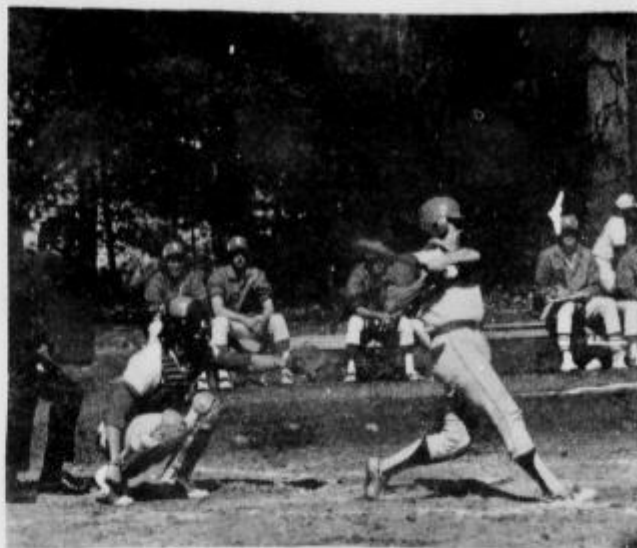

Catcher Jeff Kashner was the hero in game 2 for the Haven. His one-out single to left scored pinch runner Jon Jacoby from second with the winning run.

Behind 4-1 going into the last inning, the Eagles had their backs to the wall. Mike Crone started it off with a triple to left. Joe Tarconish followed with a walk. Dave Royer then hit a ground ball to short, and a hustling Tarconish beat the throw to second, Crone scoring on the play. Ed Stum drew a walk to load the bases and Steve DeLisle followed with a sacrifice fly, which scored Tarconish and moved Royer to third, making the score 4-3. Galen Miller then came through with a sharp single to right, scoring Royer, tying the game and sending Stum to second. At this point, Jacoby entered the game to run for Stum. This set the stage for Kashner, and he delivered his clutch hit.

Brian Winters picked up the mound nod in relief of starter Bob Weber, who went 4 2/3 of an inning. Winters entered the game with two outs in the fifth and effectively strangled the Edinboro

Eagle grapplers to face Nittany Lions next season

By W. DENNIS BERRY
Staff Reporter

The NCAA announced that a major college wrestling league has been formed starting the 1975-76 season. Six of the nations top mat powers will comprise the league. Mat powers Penn State, Pitt and Buffalo from the EIWA and Bloomsburg State, Clarion State and Lock Haven State will form the "Big Six". Each team must wrestle all teams in the new conference starting next season, and the top three qualifiers in each weight class at the league championship will qualify for the NCAA Championships. This should be a big shot-in-the-arm for LHS. The 1976 NCAA championships will be held at the University of Arizona. LHSC will also compete in the Pennsylvania State College Conference, and will use the Eastern Big Six Tournament as the NCAA qualifier. For the first time in LHS's illustrious mat history, the Bald Eagles will entertain the Nittany Lions of Penn State on the Thomas

Field House mats next February. Mat mentor Dr. Ken Cox is excited about the new league, and believes the Bald Eagles will be ready to meet the challenge next season. The Bald Eagles completed their 32 consecutive winning season this past March. The future looks great.

All junior varsity and varsity wrestlers turn in your wrestling equipment to Buck Calhoun, TFH Equipment Room, within the next two weeks for inventory. Equipment must be turned in for inventory and then re-issued as needed.

Dance troupe to perform May 7, 8

Last semester we danced for fun. This semester we're dancing again but this time it's for show! Yes, with combined forces the Advanced Topics of Modern Dance class and the Modern Dance Club, both recently created, will be performing on campus May 8th and 9th at 8:00 pm. A preview of the performance will be shown May 7th.

The performance will include a number of solo and duet dances done under the theme of "Alpha-bits" with the dancers portraying various letters of the alphabet. This will be accompanied with a triplet study, swing study and cape dance performed by the entire troupe.

All faculty and students are invited to a Student Poetry and Fiction Reading tomorrow at 1:10 in Raub 309.

service at the request of the SCC Food Committee and through the guidelines set by the state. A new six week menu schedule was placed in the contract and may not be deviated from. The new contract specifies portion sizes and will include such dishes as shrimp, cornish hen and steak.

Also included in the contract is the serving of meat for every breakfast. Items that were retained in the contract include a salad bar, unlimited seconds, and a hamburger and sandwich line at lunch.

The new contract does not include serving breakfast on weekends but there will be Saturday and Sunday brunch served from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. On weekdays breakfast will be served from 7 to 9 a.m. and continental from 9 to 10 a.m. Lunch will be extended from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and dinner will be served from 4:30 to 7 p.m.

It is expected that Macke will still rely heavily on student workers and that only three jobs will be affected as a result of the food service change. The Macke Company will begin serving meals on the Lock Haven State campus beginning with the first summer session.

The first game of Saturday's doubleheader was not as dramatic as the second, but it was equally gratifying. The Eagles jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first inning and coasted in from there. Lefty Steve Lebo notched another win for the "Big Red" in game 1. Lebo had a little more control trouble than usual, but still had his strike-out pitch working, as he ing some to the students. The situation shows a lack of getting more help from the students.

The advantage of such an organization would be that no one person would be required to be an expert in all aspects of the student association. In this case, there would be one person elected by the local chapter to control each committee.

If the new constitution is adopted there will be at least one yearly convention. Each chapter will be permitted to elect one delegate for every 500 CAS members. Currently, Lock Haven has only one delegate to represent its between three and four hundred members. Lock Haven hopes to get more members in order to get more delegates. The House of Delegates and the Board of Presidents elects the CAS president.

Another change is that of choosing a president-elect. The president-elect would hold similar duties to the vice president for one year, then become president the next. The president-elect is chosen by the House of Delegates.
