STUDENTS ARE STIMULATED BY ADDRESSES OF JOHN BENNETT

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week, May 14 and 15, John Bennett, of Union Theological Seminary in New York City, came to L. H. T. C. under the combined auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. as a speaker and leader of discussion groups on student religious and social problems. His whole visit was a series of interesting meetings and informal talks which proved finely stimulating to both students and faculty.

Mr. Bennett gave his first address on Wednesday morning, in chapel, on the subject of Religion of the Modern World. In the short time available at this meeting, he made several interesting points, showing how young people of today are turning toward a new and more understanding road to the higher things, and indicating how everyone, whether they believe in God consciously or not, worship something—often something like Beauty or Nature or Nationalism—and how each should, through investigation of his particular object of reverence, see the greater light always behind these objects and thus find a true understanding and love for the Great Power.

On Wednesday noon, a discussion

THE GRADUATE'S POEM

Long ago; years ago; ages it seems,
Each of us started a poem;
Broken, immature forms, these,
And crude

As an artist's first attempt
To paint some ethereal dream-thing;
And short—
As the time between a cry and its echo—

Only a few words,
Only a child's prattle.

More words:
Scented, singing, rainbow words,
And joyless ones, too,
We have added to our song;
Words arranged to fit into the tiny
Moulds of our thoughts and visions,
Words stuffed into the huge tracks
Of Death's hob-nailed shoes,
And words found in Wisdom's handbag—

All these we have added to our poem.
And we have written our song
With a magical, silver fluid
Brewed of all things beautiful and worthwhile:

Iris after a merciless storm,
The rising light of morning,
The handshake of a friend,
The nobleness of a virtuous deed;
Only the yawning, gaping grave
Can suck from our page
The indelible stains left by this fluid.

TWENTY-TWO STUDENTS TO RECEIVE DEGREES

Largest Group to Graduate Since College Was Given Power to Confer Degrees, in 1927.

In January, 1927, the Central State Normal School was given the power to grant degrees in education. The name was changed to State Teachers College and the first degrees were conferred at the consummation of the 1927 summer term.

Since the requirements for the degree of B. S. in Education include four years of training we should give special attention and congratulation to those who are completing the course.

The fortunate people are recognized as college graduates and are able to obtain excellent teaching positions or to enter some of the largest graduate schools.

The underclassmen are extending their best wishes to the following young men and women who are graduating with their B. S. degree in Education from our college: Dorothy Bastian, J. W. Bitner, Russell Bohn,

DRAMATIC CLUB HOLDS BANQUET

The members of the Chi Kappa Sigma (Dramatic Club) held their annual banquet Saturday evening, May 17 at the New Fallon Hotel. Before the banquet the formal initiation service completing the initiation of the new members was held at the college. After the dinner a delightful program consisting of a violin solo by Dorothy Grubb, a reading by Rose Schwer, and a one-act play by Foster Augustine and Kay Noll. The banquet was concluded by a few words from President-elect Bob Bolinger and President Parsons, and the presentation, to Miss Arey, the director of the club, of a token of appreciation for her helpful leadership during the past year.

The scene of activities then shifted to the Silk Mill Club House where an enjoyable evening of dancing was spent. The college year just closing has been a very successful one for the Dramatic Club, and the members wish to take this opportunity to thank its supporters for cooperating with them.

STUDENT RECITAL MARKS ANOTHER SUCCESS ON COLLEGE CALENDAR

The students of the Piano Department under the direction of Miss Ivah Whitwell and Miss Sissler gave their annual recital in the auditorium, Friday night.

A varied program consisting of selections of renown composers was delightfully and splendidly presented by Misses Ruth Klewans, Mildred Allen, Barbara Furst, Elsie Brion, Mary Ulmer, Edith Friedman and Pauline Hudson.

The college students were especially interested in the entertainment because of the change from the modern day music to the classical.

Besides the musical recital, a series of three one-act plays were presented by the members of the Dramatic English Department — Miss Mabel Louise Arey, Director. The diversity these offered was a rare treat. It is not often that the students have the opportunity of being an audience to such a varied entertainment.

PROGRAM FOR CLASS DAY

Monday, May 26 is Senior Class Day. The program for the day which has been planned by Russell Bohn, the class President, and Mr. Gage, will be carried out on the West Campus. The order of service will be as follows:

Class Processional with music furnished by the orchestra under the direction of Miss Whitwell.

Tree Oration by Earl Smith.

Memorial Oration by Edythe Lewis. Address by the President of the class of 1930, Russell Bohn.

The reading of the class history, the class poem and the singing of the class song will complete the program.

DRAMATIC ENGLISH CLASS GIVES ONE-ACT PLAYS

On Tuesday afternoon, May 13, and Friday evening, May 16, the Dramatic English classes presented six one-act plays. The three one-act plays Friday evening were in conjunction with the Music Department Recital. Three plays by well known authors were produced entirely by the students, including rehearsals, property effects, and make-ups. Some very interesting work was presented and one could readily see that we have some very promising dramatists and embryo directors.

BETA SIGMA CHI'S HOLD FORMAL INSTALLATION

The Beta Sigma Chi Sorority held formal installation of officers on Monday evening followed by a brief business session. The Junior members took charge and planned a farewell feed for the Seniors to be held tonight after the play. Lil Lawhead is in charge of formalities.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC HONORS AWARDED TO GRADUATES

At the regular chapel exercises on Thursday, May 15, girls' Athletic Honors were awarded to six members of the present graduating class by Irene Russell, President of Women's Athletic Association assisted by Eileen Phillip, secretary. Before giving the various awards, Irene gave a brief review of the history of W. A. A., its aims and the system by which it awards points. Although the W. A. A. is only a little over a year old it has already done a great deal in raising the standards of Women's Athletics in our college.

At present practically every girl is interested in some form of athletics whether it is basketball, baseball, hockey, tennis or track. Letters and sweaters are awarded annually to those members of the organization who have earned the required number of points by participation in various athletic activities. The number of points varies with the type of course in which the girl is enrolled. If she is a four year student she is required to earn 1500 points for a letter and 200 points for a sweater. If she is a two year student she must earn 700 and 1000 points for letter or sweater respectively.

The following members of the class of '30 received letters:

Doris Fitzgibbons.
Catherine Burnham.
Mollie Evin.

Sweaters were awarded to:
Jane Lohr, Kathryn Stiffler, and Geneva Anderson.

SPRING FESTIVAL GIVEN BY TRAINING SCHOOL CHILDREN

On Wednesday afternoon the Physical Education Department of the Training School gave a spring festival named "The Romance of the Painted Doll." The children from all the grades took part and there was quite a medley of toys, fairies and gnomes.

The scene portrays an artist putting the finishing touches on the painted doll, despaired because he cannot bring a smile to her painted lips. But in the witching hours of night, when earth folk sleep and wee sprites dance in their fairy ring, the touch of a magic wand awakens the toys and the painted doll soon finds a suitor to whom she gives her heart, her hand and her gracious painted smile. The scene ends with the wedding festival.

The affair was a splendid success due to the careful supervision of Miss Dixon and her student teachers.

TO THE SENIORS

The college year will be drawing to a close soon—too soon, in fact, as it means that many friends and pals will be leaving our campus. Those who are left behind should not regret to see their Senior friends leave. It must be kept in mind that only the college year is ending as many other years are just budding for our graduates. They are stepping out into the world beyond, where their interests will be different from ours. There they will make great names for themselves and their alma mater will be proud of them.

Seniors, ah, even for an underclassman to whisper the word to himself makes him feel good and gives him the power to conquer everything. Seniors, you will never know what you mean to us here. You have been our guide and inspiration all year. It is hoped that in the future your work will continue to have the same effect on others as it did at dear old S. T. C.

ATHLETIC OUTLOOK IS GOOD FOR NEXT FALL

During the past year Lock Haven State Teachers College has been on the gain in athletics and great advances are expected for next year. The boys' enrollment has increased greatly this year and next year the number of boys is expected to be doubled. That means more good material for athletics.

Only two football lettermen are lost by graduation this year, Captain Rus Bohn and Fred Malone, so next fall Coach Morgan will have eleven experienced men as the backbone of his squad. A number of prominent high school players are expected in next fall's Freshman class and Coach Morgan looks for a large squad when he calls for candidates. The spring football training conducted this spring was very successful and the squad of thirty boys had an opportunity to master more thoroughly the essentials of football. The hotly-contested spring practice game which wound up spring training showed that Coach Morgan had achieved some very good results by this training period and the boys will all be ready next fall to start in where they left off.

The new football stadium will be used for all the home games next fall and a better place on which to play football will not be found near here. New uniforms and equipment is being obtained for the boys and nothing is lacking to make next year a banner year for L. H. S. T. C.

In basketball, only one letter man is lost by graduation, Fred Malone, so next winter this year's team will all be available. The team was composed mostly of underclassmen and with the addition of the basketball players entering next fall a large squad is expected to turn out when football season is over.

A varsity baseball team will be formed next spring to represent the college. Much talent has been discovered in the intra-mural baseball league, which, in the number of hotly-contested games is equalled by none.

NEW Y. W. C. A. CABINET HAS BEGUN WORK FOR NEXT YEAR

With the preparation for the work of next year, the Y. W. officers and Cabinet have been occupied during the last two weeks in the choosing of the standing committees for the program of '30 and '31. The occasion provided a good time for all who could be present and did much to promote a fine spirit of co-operation among this group who are to work together next year.

MOST BEAUTIFUL SCENE
I HAVE WITNESSED

It was Saturday morning. The sun seemed like a hungry wolf as it gulped up all the shadows on the countryside; the white, concrete road seemed to smile invitingly at me—a lone hitch-hiker, over three hundred miles from home.

That morning I had felt somewhat of the thrill a cowboy must have experienced as he departed on a long journey, but I venture to say that even he would blush with embarrassment if asked to depart, penniless, on a three hundred mile hike.

For several minutes I stood and wielded a beseeching finger at several drivers as they sped past in their Packards and Lincolns, but to no avail. Perhaps the reason these men have their big cars is that they give nothing, and take no chances, and feel no pangs of shame when called a "Tight-Wad" by some college upstart along the road.

Still the cars passed me and I can express my feelings quite well in a passage from the "Raven," "Long I stood there, wondering, fearing, doubting, dreaming dreams no mortal ever dared to dream before." Suppose, I thought, I should not get a ride. I would feel like a kitchen slave, unworthy of a guest. Even worse, suppose I should be stranded on a country road, in my poverty stricken condition, and darkness should envelope the day.

While I was standing there engaged in morbid thinking, unconsciously my thumb still kept its pleading position, and just as my day dream would have me sleeping in a shed along the road, a salesman stopped beside me in a new Ford and grunted a distinct, "Good morning, get in" between puffs of his half spent cigar.

I could tell by the grunt and the name on his tire cover that he was from my home town, so I settled down in the seat as though I owned the car and grinned back at the road as it still smiled and invited me onward.

That, ladies and gentlemen, was the most beautiful scene I have ever witnessed.

R. O. L.'s HOLD TEA
FOR OTHER SORORITIES

The Rho Omega Lambda Sorority entertained the Alpha Sigma Tau and Beta Sigma Chi Sororities at a tea in the Blue Room on Saturday. Along with the usual tea and mints each sorority member was served little cakes decorated with the letters of her sorority in its colors.

It has been the custom at this college for the sororities to hold an inter sorority tea twice a year. The R. O. L.s serving in their turn presented a delicious and entertaining tea.

Miss Whitwell, Miss Arey and Mr. Patterson gave an interesting program of music and readings at a recent meeting of the Rotary Club.

The new Training School building will be completed this month.

can consider ourselves fortunate in being given the opportunity to hear Dr. Cooper, a man of wide experience as an educator and a very interesting and forceful speaker. Those responsible for securing Dr. Cooper's services for this occasion are to be congratulated on their choice and deserve the appreciation of the college

If you are graduating and want to keep in touch with S. T. C. next fall, why not subscribe to the Times which is going to be bigger and better next year. Watch the notices.

The impossible has happened—Isadore Ziff has successfully completed the Palmer Method course and is now an honest to goodness teacher.

*****

Clyde Lynch and some of the other College Timers went to a picnic on a wet day, in their Sunday-go-to-meetings'. That was a social error.

*****

The weather was not the only stormy element on the program last week end. Ask Bardo.

One of the dorm boys wants to know if Belvy will be needing an assistant for the summer but Belvy says that he can get along alone. If you can't find any other way to remain in Lock Haven we suggest that you see if Pa won't let you attend summer school too. (To whom it may concern).

faculty, alumni and students.

This occasion will also witness the climax of the efforts of the class of 1930 through their years of diligent labor as individual students here to prepare themselves for the profession which they have chosen as their future field of endeavor—the teaching profession. Dr. Dallas W. Armstrong, President of the College, will confer diplomas and certificates upon those who have successfully completed the requirements for such recognition.

Last, but by no means least, will be the commencement speeches by the honor students of each of the three groups in the college. These are Sam Long of the four-year college group; Marian Puckey of the Intermediate group and Elizabeth Kittelberger of the Primary group.

This will end another successful year at L. H. T. C. and add to the fast growing list one of the most outstanding years, in many ways, in the history of our college.

Students Are Stimulated By Addresses of John Bennett

group was held in the auditorium which proved most interesting. Many questions were raised, on various subjects, the dominant one being that of Student Honesty. On Wednesday evening, Mr. Bennett spoke again on the Personality of Jesus. Afterwards, the meeting was followed by another discussion group centering on some very interesting questions of various phases of theology and the teachings of religion.

During the time that he was here, Mr. Bennett met many small informal groups and attended several literature and English classes. He had many experiences to relate in view

TIMES STAFF INTROUCES NEW ENTERTAINMENT

About thirty members of the Times Staff and Miss Baer, faculty advisor, spent Monday evening at a most enjoyable picnic supper which, on account of rain was held in the Gym. Original plans had scheduled the outing for Woolrich Park but, the plans being frustrated, the Gym proved to be equally as fine a picnic ground.

When the refreshments were produced, no one really cared where the picnic was being held but all seriously considered just how long they would be able to hold out on the eating process. After everyone had eaten his fill, the election of officers for next semester was held with the following results:

President ----- Royce Johnson
 Vice-President ---- Fay Bittner
 Secretary ----- Edith Furst
 Treasurer ----- Hal Poust

The remainder of the time was spent in dancing to the rhythmic harmonies of the radiola.

MEN ELECT NEW STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS

By a coalition of Insurgents, a vote was forced for the election of officers to executive positions in the Men's Student Government for next year on Wednesday, May 14.

On a platform containing the objectives of the present administration, the following officers were chosen:

President ----- Lester McCall
 Vice-President ----- Bill Sweet
 Junior Representative

Edwin McDonald
 Sophomore Representative

Royce Johnson
 Freshman Representative

To be elected from next year's Green Invasion.

The newly ascended officers look forward hopefully and their hope is to give the best of government with a minimum of arrests, trials and sentences. All party members concerned will surely help by giving and using that sound wisdom of conduct which has so marked them during the present year.

We hear that some of the Juniors are coming back for summer school. A prize of $5.00 is offered to the person who can give them the names of the two or three subjects which will require the least work. Can it be love, girls, or are you really trying to work of credits?

State Superintendent John A. Keith was a visitor at our college last Tuesday. Dr. Keith is always a welcome visitor here.

Our fine new driveway will be completed this week.

of his two years of study at Oxford, England, and answered and discussed many queries of students concerning these and their affairs of common interest. Mr. Bennett at present holds the position of assistant professor of Systematic Theology at Union Theological Seminary.
