Volume 3 - Number 1

Lock Haven State College, Lock Haven, Pennsylvania

September 18, 1963

Best-Spirited Team in 17 Years Says Coach

By Don Wagner

Coach Hubert Jack and his spirited Lock Haven State gridironmen are fast approaching their opening clash against Bloomsburg this Saturday af-ternoon at home. Backed with 15 returning lettermen and 25 other candidates, the Bald Eagles are expected to make a good showing in their first contest of the new 1963 campaign.

Coach Jack, who will be entering his seventeenth year at Lock Haven as head coach, has been well pleased with his squad's spirit. "In all my years here at State, this is by far the best-spirited team I've ever coached," Coach Jack stated after one of the team's six double-session practices early in the conditioning season.

conditioning season.
The Bald Eagles' skipper also pointed out that his team, as in past years, is very light, averaging only about 200 lbs. on the front line, and will spot Bloomsburg Saturday and every other team they meet this year from ten to fifteen pounds per man. The Huskies, who suffered a surprising 34-14 loss at the hands of the Maroon and Gray last year will be a much more experienced eleven than last year's. Using a multiple offense, ac-cording to latest reports, the Eagles are expected to run mainly out of a slot-T forma-mainly out of a slot—I forma-tion with different variations.

With support from Coach Jacobs and Coach Hacker and student assistant coach Tom Bossert, Coach Jack looks for an improved team over last year's squad which finished out of the running for the State Conference crown won by Ship-pensburg. "Almost every team in the Conference this year is loaded," as Coach Jack put it, 'and any team could win the title. We are picked to finish low in the standings, and that's just what we like," he continued. "By being selected to finish with a poor season, there will be no early pressure on my boys, and they will be able to play straight, hard football with no pre-season predictions to live up to."

NORMAN COUSINS

Beside the forty varsity candidates out this fall for the Lock Haven State football team, Coach Jack reports there are also about forty new Freshmen.

Although no one is making any pre-season predictions about the team or the team's coaching staff, there is a strange scent in the air that might indicate a few surprises for Lock Haven's opposition.

While casually walking to her newspaper office, Penny Hain is proposed to by anxious Freshman seeking post on her paper. The unidentified male said he would guarantee pretty good grades in all courses. Penny is considering the deal. Hat by new Christian Dior. Photo by Mixer.

Homecoming To Feature Fair Theme

Parade, football game, dance and excitement mark the thrills of another fabulous homecoming. The week-end activities unfold on Friday, September 27, with a dance in the Union along with a semi-hootenanny with local talent. The parade's theme, County Fair, will turn our dignified co-eds into "farmers" as they don levis and sweatshirts to work on their respective floats.

The hustle and bustle of Saturday morning is created by "last minute" work on the floats. The parade through the Lock Haven streets will start in mid-afternoon leading the crowds into the stadium for the big game with California State College and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. The enchantm "World Fair" and music by Les and Larry Elgart will create the atmosphere for an evening of dancing.

The busy week-end schedule will be climaxed on Sunday by a Parent's Reception in Smith Hall. The dorms will be friendly and cordial, as guests and students visit for open house.

Jim Reeser has been in charge of the plans for the Homecoming Week-end.

So, roll up your sleeves and work for LHSC to make homecoming a big success!

Editor of Saturday Review to Address Students on Vital Issues

Norman Cousins, Editor of the Saturday Review, will speak at the autumn convocation at Lock Haven State College on September 19th at 1:00 p. m. in Price Auditorium.

Mr. Cousins has been editor of the Saturday Review since the end of 1939. Under his edi-torship, the magazine has extorship, the magazine has ex-panded in scope and influence from a purely literary weekly to a widely-circulated journal dealing with ideas and the arts and, in general, with the mar-ketplace of good taste in Amer-

In connection with his editorship of the Saturday Review, he has been to every corner of America, and around the world several times. In 1959 he visited and lectured in the Soviet Union under the American-Soviet cultural exchange program. He was the first American to speak on questions of foreign policy before the Praesidium of the Soviet Peace Com-mittee. He also lectured before the Soviet Writers' Union and the Academy of Social Science. In November, 1960, he was organizer and co-chairman of a conference held at Dartmouth College between Soviet and American scientists, economists and other leaders from the two countries—the first of its kind. Subsequently, he has been co-chairman of the second of these conferences in the Crimea, and the third in October, 1962, here in the States. He was also American representative to the Indian Govern-ment's observances of the Tagore Centenary.

As an interpreter and analyst of history-in-the-making, Mr. Cousins has made ten trips to the Far East since the end of World War II. He has represented not only the Saturday Review, but the National Broadcasting Company and the American Broadcasting Company at such events as the Egypt-Israel crisis in 1956-57; the Asian-African conference in Indonesia in 1955; the East-West crisis in Germany in 1953; the Korean War in 1951. Another trip in 1951 was under the sponsorship of the U. S. Gov-ernment, during which time he Upperclassman bows to youth and beauty. We wonder what kind of a deal they have in mind. Photo by Mixer.

lectured in universities and public forums in India, Pakistan, Ceylon and Japan on the subject of America's relationship with the rest of the world. was exchange lecturer in Japan under the auspices of the America-Japan Institute for Cultural Interchange.
In 1958 and 1959 he traveled to Poland to arrange for the visit to America of some 38 Polish women victims of Nazi medical experimentation. Ear-lier, he had carried out a similar project to aid Japanese victims of the Hiroshima A-bomb-

His books include IN PLACE OF FOLLY, a outline of the es-sential facts of the nuclear arms race together with a specific presentation of alterna-tives; DR. SCHWEITZER OF LAMBARENE, a personal ac-LAMBARENE, a personal account of his discussions with Albert Schweitzer at the jungle hospital; IN GOD WE TRUST, dealing with the philosophies and religious beliefs of the American Founding Fathers; WHO SPEAKS FOR MAN, a plea for the end of the end of plea for the end of the age of anarchy and the beginning of the age of world law;

THE GOOD INHERITANCE, a case history of Athenian democracy with a comparable analysis of American democra-cy; MODERN MAN IS OBSOcy; MODERN MAN IS OBSO-LETE, which grew out of his widely - circulated editorial; TALKS WITH NEHRU; A TREASURY OF AMERICAN DEMOCRACY, a collection of aphorisms of freedom; and THE POETRY OF FREEDOM, edited with the late William edited with the late William Rose Benet. He was also the Editorial Supervisor of March's DICTIONARY THESAURUS. His interest in the field of nuclear energy began the day the first atomic bomb exploded. That day he wrote the editorial 'Modern Man Is Obsolete,'' de, fining the basic challenges of the nuclear age. The book foresaw the tensions that would emerge between the great pow-ers and called for development of a United Nations strong enough to administer both world security and world jus-tice. The editorial, translated into seven languages, had a total circulation of seven million.

Freulation Manager Freulation Staff Photographer		Tom Mixer
Pusiness Manager Edvertising Manage	r teporters
lake-Up Staff Feature Staff
Seature Editor
Copy Editor
Veics Editor
Assistant Editor
	ditor  Issistant Editor  Issociate Editor  Issistant Feature Editor  Issistant Feature Editor  Isse-Up Editor  Isse-Up Staff  Isports Staff  Isporters  Isports Staff  Isporters  Ispists  Issiscess Manager  Idvertising Manager  Isrellation Manager  Isrellation Edaff  Photographer	Lock Haven State C ditor Issistant Editor Issistant Editor Issociate Editor Issociate Editor Issociate Editor Issociate Editor Issociate Editor Isspective Editor Issistant Feature Editor Issistant Editor Issistant Editor Issistant Editor Isristant Editor I