

Who was that masked man?

Lock Haven city police together with the Campus Law Enforcement and Safety Division are investigating five incidents, in a six day period last week, of women being accosted by a man wearing a ski mask. The incidents occurred within the period of six days.

City police warned women not to travel alone on city streets at night. Miss Evelyn Nicholson, Associate Dean for Student Life, issued a memorandum which encouraged women, "not to walk by themselves and to avoid dark areas." It continued, "college men are asked to accompany their friends/dates whenever possible and especially following campus or fraternity house parties or dances."

Police said that if other women are accosted they should: scream, or carry a police whistle. Police said that under no circumstances should a woman heed threats to get into a car or a dark place or a home. They also advised women to defend themselves in any manner, including kicking, gouging or scratching an assailant.

Most of the incidents occurred after dark but one did take place in mid-morning. The incidents have been confined to the Fourth and Church Street areas and S. Jones Street.

Police have asked for all possible cooperation.

Insanity reigns at tryouts

By Doug Stoner

Tryouts were held recently for the production of Marat Sade to be presented Feb. 28, March 1 and March 2. Director Gary Robinson was quite satisfied with the turnout at tryouts. He is also very enthusiastic about the play.

Marat Sade takes place in an insane asylum. The cast includes 35 characters, most of whom are either inmates or directors of the asylum. Ed Kelleher will play Coulmier, the asylum director, and the Marquis de Sade will be portrayed by none other than Dr. Robert Kidder. Other major characters include Dave O'Connell as Marat, Cissi Eayer as Charlotte Corday, and John Peregrim as the Herald, a patient who helps narrate the story.

Additional members of the cast which includes faculty and students alike, are Chris Salidas, Howard Smith, Gary Mazzu, Steve Culp, Joe Borgese, Julie Gambo, Rick Pipta, Paul Denleo, Cindy Probst, Kevin Murphy, Lou Conway, Dave Chevillot, John Roberts, Jan Foster, Dr. Stan Wisniewski, Helayne McArthur, Tish Heidman, Dan Keefer. Portraying inmates will be Denise Cardin, Sandy Moyer, Mr. John Weigal, Mel Feeley, Kathy Correll, Deb Klens, Jackie Kircher, and Mike Wampole.

The play portrays a scene during the French Revolution. The Marquis de Sade, an inmate in the asylum, has written a play to be performed for the asylum director, Coulmier.

This play within a play depicts the assassination of Jean-Paul Marat, a leader during the French Revolution. He is stabbed to death by Charlotte Corday while in the bathroom.

SCC requests Bowers resignation

by Cindy Sleigh

A resolution requesting the resignation of George Bower as LHS student trustee was passed by a slim margin at last night's special SCC meeting.

According to Act 306, the Board of Trustees of Lock Haven State College is entitled to have a student member which it currently does not possess. Because Governor Shapp did not respond to the request of the SCC to have a student named to fill Mr. Caprio's position on the board, it has become necessary to request the resignation of George Bower. Mr. Bower was appointed for a three year term last year. He has since graduated, thus he is no longer a student. If Bower resigns, a student will be named to fill his position. Bower was not available for comment on the board's action.

An agreement between the SCC and the Student Publications Board as to the status of the latter was approved by the senate. The agreement, if it is approved by the SPB, will make this organization self-supportive.

Other items of interest brought up at the SCC include, the selection of a group for a large concert in the Spring. Anyone interested in helping select a group please contact Linda Schrieber, Secretary of the SCC. Also, the SCC wants to have a Local Talent Concert. There is a meeting on January 31 for interested persons.

Replacement

election the 29th

Elections for SCC Senator replacements will be held this Tuesday Jan. 29th. The ballot boxes will be located in the PUB and Bentley Hall lounge.

Five and possibly six senatorial positions are now vacant on the SCC. These senators are needed to represent off-campus, one senator to represent North and McEntire Halls respectively, and possibly one for Smith Hall.

These seats have been vacated for several reasons. Dropping out of school, missing two consecutive meetings with out an excuse, and deserving promotions within the SCC structure are named as some of the causes.

Petitions for the senate offices may be obtained directly outside the SCC executive committee door. All applications must be submitted by Monday Jan. 28th complete with the signatures of 50 LHS Petitioners should be willing to attend all SCC meetings, held on the first and third Wednesday of each month.

The Activities Fair will be held on the PUB ground floor today from 11-2 PM and 5-7 PM. The main purpose of this event is to give the college community the opportunity to find out what kind of clubs are active on the campus. Also, students may sign up as new members of these committees and organizations. Several student affairs offices and city agencies will be represented. Free refreshments will be provided.

Conference provides booking ideas

by Mike Holter

The LHS Cultural Affairs Committee was well represented among the more than 114 official delegates attending the 2nd annual Coordinated Booking Conference on the Arts. Sponsored by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, the event was held in Lancaster on January 11th through the 13th.

The local contingent, headed by Dr. Russell Nelson of the Music Department and including several members of the Cultural Affairs Committee, saw many talented individuals perform during the "Performers Showcase." The performances were held on stage at the Fulton Opera House, America's oldest continually operating theater.

EVENINGS OF ENTERTAINMENT

Friday evening during "An Evening of American Music and Dance," programs were presented which included piano selections by Natalie Hinderas, colonial and early American folk hymns sung by a group representing the Philadelphia Singers, Veri and Jamanis' duo-pianistic presentation of Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue." Finally a very moving production of "After Eden" was performed by two members of the Pennsylvania Ballet Company.

Saturday provided the conference delegates with a combination of workshops; including panel discussions chaired by performing artists, booking agents and members of the state and national boards for the performing arts. Again presentations at the "Fulton" which included folk singing, poetry reading, gospel singing and a jazz quartet jam session were part of the agenda.

The artistic highnote of the Conference occurred Saturday evening with the performance of Leonid Hambro, Associate Dean of the California Institute of the Arts' School of Music and a former New York Philharmonic pianist and partner to musician Victor Borg. Mr. Hambro provided the delegates with periods of light-hearted laughter, and sometimes gleefully teary eyes during his skillful raconteur, mimic and concert piano presentation.

APPEARANCE OF ENERGY CZAR

With such a joyful prelude, the audience of convention delegates had been prepared for the solemn pre; prepared for the solemn presentation of the evening provided by one of Nixon's minor energy czars. Without having been mentioned specifically in any of the present written fuel allocation documents, the continuation of the performing arts during the current dilemma was felt to be a matter of governmental interpretation. As it now stands, last year's fuel allocations will be provided for student bodies being transported to theatrical performances. In most instances the same ruling would apply to troupes traveling to schools, institutions and municipalities.

BOOKING PLANS BEGIN

Sunday the conference concluded with workshop sessions dealing with concurrent bookings, preserving the arts, and state and federal grants and aid available for performances and residency programs for groups throughout the Commonwealth. Most delegates departed Lancaster with such thoughts of the available free money, some already working on forms, contracts and other paperwork necessary to qualify for these endowments.

With similar thoughts and memories of the three day conference, the Lock Haven delegation returned to face the spring semester and to prepare the planning for the 74-75 school year. To deal with the selection of events, scheduling during the school year and budgetary matters, the Cultural Affairs Committee will hold a meeting Tuesday, February 5, at 1 P.M. The meeting which will be held in Raub 309, will last for less than one hour. It is open to any member of the student body interested in the performing arts.

LHS number one in V.D.?

by Betsy Woolridge

LHS has the #1 rate of VD of the state colleges. At least that's the way the rumor goes.

Fortunately, for the more promiscuous of the student body, the rumor doesn't hold much truth, according to a survey conducted by Betsy Woolridge and Bob Canavan last semester.

This survey, composed of a student questionnaire and interviews with faculty and health officials indicated that there are probably 2.7 cases of VD on the campus every year.

The dual purpose of the survey was to discover how common VD is at LHS and how much students know about venereal diseases.

The following are answers to most of the questions asked in the student questionnaire and the results of this questionnaire.

1) Sixty-two percent of the student body considered themselves well informed about VD.

2) Fifty-one percent believed that their high school had not provided adequate information about it.

3) Students learned about VD at school 50%, from movies and books 31%, from friends 16%, and from parents 3%.

4) Sixty-three percent believed that a more extensive educational program should be offered here.

5) Sixty percent of the students felt that VD was only a moderate amount of problem here while twenty-six percent thought there was a great amount of VD on campus.

6) Eighty-six percent of those who returned the questionnaire would report their contacts.

7) Only 14% knew anyone who has VD.

8) Only 3% had VD themselves.

In general, the following facts were learned about VD:

9) Approximately two million two hundred thousand (2,200,000) Americans contract VD each year.

10) A person can have gonorrhea and syphilis at the same time.

11) The symptoms for these two diseases are not the same.

12) All syphilis germs are easily killed by penicillin while this is not true with gonorrhea.

13) A baby can be born with syphilis.

Gapplers to meet old conference rival

Saturday night the Warrior matmen of East Stroudsburg invade Thomas Field house to do battle with the Bald Eagles of Coach Ken Cox.

This will be the 32nd meeting of the Two Pennsylvania Conference members in a rivalry which began back in 1939. "The Haven"

Dribblers bow to Bloom, 75-42

By Ed Bowman

Lock Haven Wednesday night was completely outclassed by the Bloomsburg Huskies to the tune of 75-42.

Lock Haven looked as though they hadn't recovered from the second half of Monday's game with Ithaca. In that game The Haven had an 8 pt. half time lead and lost 71-53.

Bloomsburg played Lock Haven's style of basketball, a tough defensive type of game but did alot better job. The Huskies also had good shooting and superb board work from John Willis, Jerry Radocha and Rich Evans who combined for 27rebounds-four more than the entire Eagles team collected.

The only bright spot for The Haven was Mike Chancey who scored 12 pts. coming in off the bench. He was about the only guard for the Eagles who wasn't dishing out assists to the opponents.

Leading scorers for the Eagles besides Chancey were Gary Knepp hitting for 6 pts. with Reimann, Bergeron, and Fitzgerald each adding 4.

For Bloomsburg John Willis led the scoring parade with 16 pts. with Keller chipping in 13, and Kempiski and Dare each contributing 10 a piece.

LHS was never in the game after the opening minutes and trailed 36-17 at the half. The second half also found the Ragles outscored by a 39 to 25 margin.

In Jayvee action Bloomsburg topped the Eagle junior varsity by a 63-48 score.

has held a 28-2-1 advantage over the Warriors since then, with last year's contest going to the Eagles, 25-18, on the Warrior's home mats.

The Warriors, 4-3 under Coach Clyde Witman, have defeated Yale University, 19-16 and lost to powerful Slippery Rock, 33-11. These two powers are common opponents to both the Eagles and Warriors this season. The Eagles under Coach Cox topped Yale 24-9, but were beaten by Slippery Rock, 24-14.

Coach Cox feels this is a key match for the Eagles who are striving for their 32nd consecutive winning season.

"It would make the chances for a winning season a heck of a lot better id we could defeat them" (East Stroud.) added Cox.

It certainly couldn't hurt as the Eagles still have to face tough opponents in the forms of Bloomsburg, the University of Pittsburg, and unbelievable Clarion State College.

The Eagles probable starting line-up will be Dave Shreck at 118, Rob Johnson, 126; Gary Walk, 134; and George Way, 142; Dave Crowell, 150; Don Eichenlaub, 158; Don Adams, 167; Ron McMurry, 177; Art Baker, 190; and Jim Schuster, at Heavyweight.

Matchtime is set for 8 p.m.

Swim team going for best ever

Undefeated senior captain Jack Weaver leads the Eagle swim team into the second half of their season, which begins in Zimmerli Pool against Binghamton Saturday afternoon at 2 PM.

Weaver leads the Eagle point parade with 48 thru the first four meets of the season, competing on the medley relay unit, the 200 individual medley, and 200 breast stroke. His best of 2:16.30 is only two seconds off a school record in the Individual Medley (IM). The medley relay's best, 4:12.23, is only 4 seconds away from a new school record.

Helping the Eagles off to their 3-1 start has been Joe Barnes, who competes in long distance freestyle and the 200 yard butterfly. The freshman from Canton has broken the school's 1000 free record. Barnes has also accumulated 38 points, while winning the 1000 twice and the 200 fly 3 times.

Junior Mike Farren and sophomore Al Rice have combined for 68 points.

Farren, who has taken second in the IM three times behind Weaver, has won the 200 backstroke three times, possessing a total of 36 points. Farren also competes in the medley relay.

Rice, school record holder in both diving events, has scored 32 points on the year. He has been the winner of the three meter three times and the one meter competition twice.

Freshman Dave Woods, the other main force behind the Eagles, has set new school records in the 200 and 500 freestyle, scoring 34 points thus far this season. The versatile Doylestown native has competed in the 100 freestyle, and could also be used in breast stroke.

The Eagles lost a key member of their team when Steve Warner contracted an illness over the Christmas holiday. Warner, a sophomore, swam in the first relay and also competed in the sprints. His loss will be especially tough on the previously undefeated medley relay team.

Perennially tough opponents, Slippery Rock, Bloomsburg, and California are scheduled to face the Haven in the next few weeks. Also coming up are meets with Ithica, Lycoming, Millersville, and Shippensburg.

Coach Harold Hacker, commenting on his season's record blemished only by a narrow loss to East Stroudsburg, remarked, "I can only hope the second half of the season will be as successful as the first. Now the toughest part of the schedule is coming up."

Hacker notes, "We've made a lot of improvement over last year, and are still getting better."

The Eagles are only 1 victory away from last year's total of 4, and are close to being one of the best teams in Lock Haven's swimming history.

Eaglettes dominate first meet

Last Monday night, Women's swimming at Lock Haven State enjoyed a victorious debut with a 71-42 defeat of Mansfield College. In their first competition ever, the Eaglettes totally dominated the meet, winning eight of the thirteen events and taking second in eight.

Top freestyler Karen Greene led the way by winning the 100, 200 and 400 freestyle events, managing to qualify in the 400 for the eastern championship meet to be held in Springfield, Mass. Her winning time was 5:02.6, bettering the qualifying mark by eight seconds. Breastroker Heidi Weber was also a triple winner, winning the 50 and 100 in her specialty, and being on the winning medley relay, which also qualified for the championship meet.

The 200 medley relay team, consisting of Becky Elliot, Weber, Diane McMullen and Doreen Saver put the Eaglettes ahead 7-0 giving them a lead they were never to relinquish. Greene and McMullen finished 1-2 in the 200 free, followed by Ann Kreibel and Saver taking second and third in the 100 individual medley. Becky Elliot and Ellen Ralston swept the top two spots in the 50 yd. backstroke as Elliot joined Greene and the relay by qualifying for eastems. Weber and Cindy Presnell finished in that same order in the 50 yd. breast. Mansfield won the 50 free, but Saver and Ralston captured the next two places for Lock Haven, giving the Eaglettes a 39-13 lead.

Susan Craig took second in the diving, with Donna Romito picking up a third. Mansfield also won the 50 fly, but Haven swimmers once again got the next two spots. Elliot finished one second behind the winner for second place, and McMullen touched two seconds later for a third.

Karen Greene and Ellen Ralston notched back-to-back victories in the 100 free and 100 backstroke. The same feat was performed by Greene and Heidi Weber in the 400 free and 100 breast. Jayne Phillips took third in the 400 and Cindy Presnell finished right behind Weber. The meet ended with Mansfield's freestyle relay team defeating Ralston, Saver, Kreibel and Greene, giving Lock Haven the 71-42 win.

After the meet, a happy Coach, Miss Jean Lundholm, said that depth was the key to the Eaglette victory. In her words, "In the events we didn't win, we took second and third and we took at least second in every event." Lock Haven swept first and second place in four events, and took second and third the same number of times. The ability to score points in every event led the
