Lady Eagles capture PSAC Championships

By Deb Donlick and Lisa Newmiller
Eagle Eye Sports Reporters

The field hockey team captured the 1989 Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Championship in grand fashion this weekend.

The battle began on Saturday with the number one seeded Lady Eagles conquest over the ruthless number four seeded Lady Warriors of East Stroudsburg.

The Lady Eagles dominated the first half, but unfortunately had trouble putting one in before intermission.

The grueling scoreless battle continued into the second half until LHU's Gia Scignoli broke the ice. Scignoli took a hard shot from outside the circle at the 7:23 mark, but ESU's goalie Cindi Long stopped it on her pads. A determined Scignoli took the rebound and put it past Long.

This was all the Lady Eagles needed as they won 1-0 and moved one step closer to the PSAC Championship game.

Late that afternoon the elated Lady Eagles watched anxiously as the number three seeded Lady Marauders from Millersville battled the number two seeded Lady Huskies from Bloomsburg. The winner would face the Lady Eagles in the championship game on Sunday.

After a slow start and a scoreless first half, the Lady Marauders exploded with a goal by Tracy Miller at the 18:59 mark of the second half. Millersville held on to take a 1-0 upset victory over the Lady Huskies.

The pairings were set, ESU would try to fight off the Huskies in the consolation game on Sunday, and the Lady Eagles were set to collide with a tough Millersville team for the state championship.

Sunday began with the Lady Huskies blowing away the Lady Warriors 3-0, to finish third in the state.

Eagle Eye sponsors "Read All About It" contest

The Eagle Eye invites all students interested in writing to participate in the "Read All About It" contest. The contest, sponsored by the Eagle Eye and TLM Records involves newspaper writing in four categories.

Students may enter one or more of the following categories: news, sports, features, or photo journalism.

Stories entered in the news category of "Read All About It" must be relevant to the campus and timely. It is also important to include quotes and factual information that support the topic of the story. Punctuation, style, and proper word usage is extremely important, since the story should be easily understood by readers.

Any sports entries should deal with sports features. Anyone is welcome to write a feature on LHU athletes or coaches that are unique and/or excel at their sport. Entries will be judged on style, appropriateness of the subject, and overall structure of the piece.

Stories submitted to the features category should be entertaining and interesting, as well as informative.

A good features story combines the impact and importance of a news story with the descriptive writing of fiction. In a feature, it is the unusual subject or the unique approach that captures the reader's attention. Types of stories include: a profile, writing on an issue by focusing on those involved, or dealing with a topic that would be of concern to others.

All photos entered in the photo journalism category should convey a clear message or show something of significant interest. Each photo must be accompanied by a lengthy, descriptive caption.

For each category, there will be a first place winner who will receive a $15 gift certificate from TLM records on Main St. in Lock Haven. It is possible to win first place in more than one category. Entries will be judged by members of the Journalism Department and Eagle Eye editors. All entries should be turned in at the Eagle Eye office by November 28. Winners will be announced in the December 1 issue of the Eagle Eye. All entries will be considered for publishing in the Eagle Eye.

Rotaract continues to help Hugo victims

By Jeanne M. Ruczhak
Eagle Eye News Editor

Although many have turned their concerns westward to the recent earthquake in California, the University's Rotaract Club continues to collect donations for the victims of Hurricane Hugo in the Virgin Islands.

The University's chapter, which has been designated by Rotaract International as the Hugo Relief Headquarters, sent letters to chapters throughout the States and Canada asking for contributions.

The program is supported by the Lock Haven Rotary Club and the Mellon Bank of Lock Haven.

Mellon Bank has set up a special account for the club and will send the contributions to the Barclay Bank in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. The funds will then be distributed by the St. Thomas Rotary Club for repair and restoration of two public schools, two senior citizen centers, the St. Thomas Rotary Club's foster home and a girls' center which were damaged by the hurricane.

Originally initiated by the club and S.C.C. officer Mabelle Grace, the club decided to concentrate on the Virgin Islands at the request of University students Jasmine Pond and Waverly Pinckney.

Both Pond's and Pinckney's families have been directly affected by the hurricane.

Pond, a senior biology major, is from St. Thomas.

Pinckney, a May '89 graduate currently staying at the University, is from Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina, eight minutes outside of Charleston.

Pinckney felt the focus of Rotary's Relief Fund should be on the Virgin Islands, as the government will aid South Carolina.

The Rotaract Club has applied for a Matching Funds Grant from the Rotaract Foundation. If approved, the Foundation will match the club's contributions.

Club officers are: Scott Sheets, president; Scott Piatt, Vice President; Donna Mazzella, Secretary/Treasurer; and Sherry Lobb, International Director.

The clock stood still as the Lady Eagles took to the field, while family and devoted fans looked on. Hearts pounded as the officials gave the go ahead and the Lady Eagles were on their way.

LHU came out with fire in their eyes and lit up the scoreboard early. Senior Missy Carman took advantage of a penalty stroke at the 4:30 mark of the first half to put the Lady Eagles up 1-0.

In the second half, the Lady Mauraunders fought hard to put one in, but Lady Eagle goalie Dot Schmidt aggressively kept up her guard. Schmidt recorded her second shutout in two days, bringing her total to 10 on the season.

Lady Eagle Kathy Stein took a long shot at the 17:18 mark that went untouched straight into the net. Stein's goal put Lock Haven up for good, 2-0.

It then was just a matter of minutes before the dreams of a PSAC championship would come true, and they did.

LHU outshot the Lady Mauraunders 42-9.

"This was a great win," said head coach Sharon Taylor. "This is why we came back into the conference, to have something to strive for at the end of a season."

The team said the fans support was an important factor in the victory. "The PSAC Championship field hockey team would like to thank our family, our friends, and our many fans for all the support and cheering throughout the season and particularly this weekend," said team captain Dawn Therrell.

The Lady Eagles wrap up regular season play today as they battle the NCAA Division III number one ranked team from Trenton State.

Bald Eagles get first win of the season against East Stroudsburg

By Herb Samuels
Eagle Eye Sports Reporter

The football team made the best of their last home game by defeating East Stroudsburg University (ESU) 17-7, for their first win of the season.

The Bald Eagles took full advantage of the beautiful sunny day and a healthy roster to attack the Warriors.

"The main key to our offense was we stayed healthy," said head coach Tom Jones.

The Bald Eagles forced a turnover on ESU's first possession.

ESU quarterback Bret Comp tried to scramble around the end when he was hit and fumbled the ball. When the dust cleared, Bald Eagle linebacker Larry Walker came away with the football.

From there, LHU quarterback Jimmy Broadway and running backs Fred Foster and Guy Wade ran the ball down to the three yardline.

After three downs the Bald Eagles were faced with fourth and inches.

The coaches decision, "Gotta go for it!" Jones said. "I told them on the sidelines, on second down get your two plays ready, we're going for it."

Wade took the ball over the goal line. Rich Marriott's extra point put the Bald Eagles in the lead 7-0.

ESU tried to come right back driving the football to the Bald Eagles 18 yardline.

Comp then tried to throw a pass into a tight Bald Eagle defense. The ball was tipped and safety Dwayne Tooles intercepted it on the nine.

Deep in their own zone the Bald Eagles ran a play that will work on the dry surface, and it did.

"We ran the trap option," Jones said. "On that play one of three people could have the ball and the defense usually finds out too late."

The result was a 39 yard gain by Broadway. The defense committed to Wade, and Broadway just ran away from them.

The play ended with Broadway getting shoved out of bounds and hurting his knee. Kevin Harney replaced him at quarterback for a few downs.

The drive seemed to end when a Marriott field goal missed wide and short but ESU was called for roughing the kicker.

The LHU drive continued with a rested Broadway back in and sneaking over the left side for a score.

After an ESU punt, the Bald Eagles took over at their own 38 yardline.

LHU continued their blistering running attack to move into field goal range. Marriott ended the first half with an 18 yard field goal to put the Bald Eagles up 17-0.

In the second half the Bald Eagles used their offense to run down the clock while the defense held ESU at bay.

"Our guys played outstanding defense," Jones said. "They forced turnovers early and held them well. If it were not for that fluke catch late in the game they would not have scored."

The "fluke play" happened late in the fourth quarter when a Comp pass hit three different players before Dennis Mailhot caught it.

Mailhot then fumbled but his teammate Paul Bandholtz recovered it on the LHU five yardline.

ESU scored on a short pass from Comp to Bandholtz to put the Warriors on the scoreboard.

ESU then tried an onside kick that flew out of bounds. Along with the onside kick attempt came a ESU offsides penalty giving the Bald Eagles the pigskin.

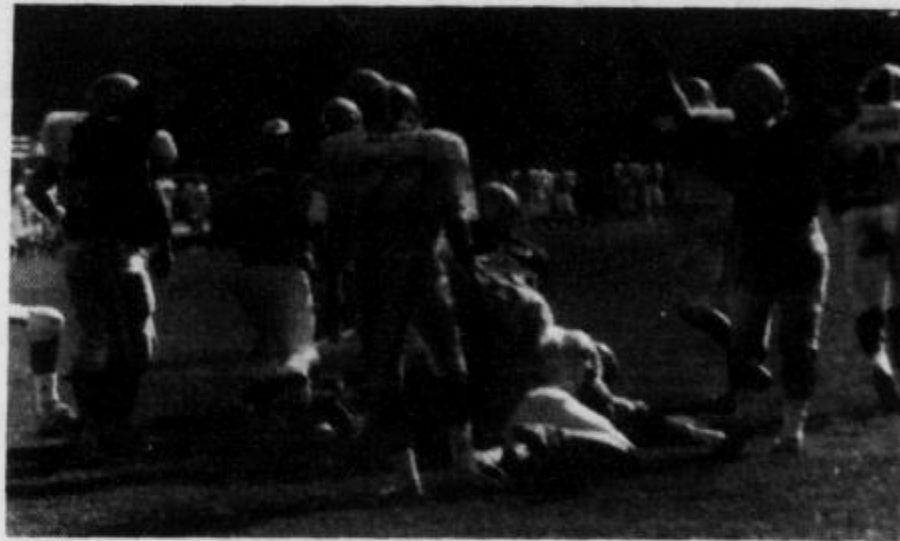

The Bald Eagles used delay tactics and two ESU penalties to run the clock out.

Guy Wade finished the game with 129 yards on 36 carries. "If he (Wade) stays healthy we have a chance," Jones said.

As a team, LHU outrushed the Warriors 240 to 79. "The offensive line had a great day," Jones said. "Those guys are definitely worth mentioning."

With one win under their belt the Bald Eagles look to get their first divisional win in almost four seasons when they travel to Shippensburg.

"We need a tremendous effort," Jones said. "Our kids have hung in tough all year and we really want this one."

Soccer team shut out by Gannon, 4-0

By Cory Marshall
Eagle Eye Sports Reporter

The soccer team fell to NCAA Division II power Gannon University, 4-0 on Saturday.

The Golden Knights (ranked number three in the nation) scored the first goal of the game in the first half when Troy Birgham booted a shot past LHU goalkeeper Paul Yingling to give Gannon a 1-0 advantage. Pete Campbell assisted on the play.

Gannon scored the second goal after a 1-0 halftime lead when Birgham scored on Mitch Heeneman's assist at 59:39.

Gannon boosted the score to 3-0 when Birgham assisted to John Trechsel at 78:26. Gannon concluded the scoring on an assist by Birgham to Heeneman for the game.

The Bald Eagles (11-5-2) ranked 19th in NCAA Division II soccer will next play for the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Championship when they host the Millersville Marauders in semi-final action at McCollum Field. Game time is set for 2:30 p.m.

The Marauders of coach Bob Charles finished second in the PSAC Eastern Division with a record of 2-1-2 behind division leader East Stroudsburg.

Millersville presently sporting an overall mark of 10-6-3 has not played Lock Haven in the regular season, but will get their shot at the Bald Eagles, Wednesday afternoon.

Against common opponents, Millersville defeated Bloomsburg, 1-0, Shippensburg, 2-1, and they have lost to California, 2-0, and tied Kutztown, 1-1.

The Bald Eagles on the other hand, have defeated California, 3-0, Bloomsburg, 3-1 in overtime, Shippensburg, 5-2, and Kutztown, 1-0 in overtime.

This is Millersville's first appearance ever in the Pennsylvania Conference tournament.

Millersville's leading scorers include David Wellborn, a 5-9 freshman who has nine goals; John Washington, seven goals and two assists, Kraig Dowd, five goals and five assists, and Bill Bohn who has six goals and two assists.

Millersville goalie Doug Schultz has played in every game this season recording 132 saves allowing 25 goals and posting five shutouts.

LHU is led by Gary Ross with 15 goals and 9 assists and Tibi Kobolak, 13 goals and 9 assists.

Paul Yingling, in for the injured Chad Houck, has posted 21 saves, allowed 11 goals and has posted 2 shutouts in six complete games.

The winner of tomorrow's match will battle either East Stroudsburg, the PSAC Eastern Division champion, or IUP (second in the PSAC West) who the LHU booters defeated 5-1 a week ago for the PSAC Western crown.

The championship match takes place Sunday afternoon. If LHU wins and East Stroudsburg wins, the game will be at East Stroudsburg. If LHU wins and IUP wins, Lock Haven and IUP will battle in a rematch at McCollum Field on Sunday.

Cross Country teams run at PSAC Championships

By Merritt La Porta
Eagle Eye Sports Reporter

The men's and women's cross country teams were on the road this past weekend to take part in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Championships held at Kutztown University.

The women came away with seventh place overall while the men captured eleventh place.

Junior Debbie Valansky led the way for the Lady Eagles finishing the course in 19:28, good enough for 16th place overall. Valansky just missed making the All-Conference team despite her outstanding performance.

Senior Julie Grasser was the next Lady Eagle across the finish line with a time of 20:14 and 32nd place.

Jill Baumgartner, Stacie Hebert, Dawn Brenner, Maureen Gammon, and Pam Shepard all were top finishers for the Haven.

Edinboro's Donna Thibert captured first place in 17:59 and led the Lady Scots to the PSAC title with 50 points.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Millersville finished second followed by IUP, East Stroudsburg, Bloomsburg, Slippery Rock, LHU, Kutztown, Shippensburg, Clarion, California, West Chester, and Cheyney.

"Debbie looked very good and Julie Grasser probably had her best race of the season," said head coach Leroy Straley. "She was consistent from start to finish."

"We were just nipped by Slippery Rock (for sixth place) but we get another chance at them next week at regionals," he added.

On the men's side, things looked bleak before the race even started when top runner John Widl had to be taken to the hospital suffering from a stomach virus, ending his running hopes for the day.

The team raced on and got strong performances by freshman Travis Faulkner and sophomore Kevin Wheeler who helped the men harriers to their eleventh place finish.

Faulkner broke the tape at 27:55 for 44th place while Wheeler finished 49th in 28:05.

Tim Haring, Jamie Shea, Brad Reese, and Marc Philips were other top finishers.

Edinboro's Chris Rauber finished first place and so did Edinboro in the team standings.

Shippensburg took second followed by East Stroudsburg, IUP, Slippery Rock, Kutztown, Millersville, Clarion, Bloomsburg, Mansfield, LHU, West Chester, California, and Cheyney.

"I was a little disappointed with our performance because I felt that we had a good shot at eighth place," said head coach Kurt Smith. "But Travis, Kevin, and Tim ran outstanding races for us."

This Saturday the teams travel to East Stroudsburg to compete in the NCAA East Regionals.
