

William Glenesk, Modern Day Minister

Nationally Famous Minister To Speak Today in BHL

A modern-day minister who has been profiled in the nation's top magazines and has appeared on top radio and TV networks, the Rev. William Glenesk will speak today at 11:10 pm in Bentley Hall Lounge.

Speaking on "The New Revolution in Religion," the minister has been praised by critic Mark VanDoren as a "very serious man trying to relate religion to modern life."

Glenesk's talk will revolve around the current controversy over a "no-God" He does not talk of yesterday's religion as a dull history but tries to relate religion to today's society.

The minister will show that the long established formal religions must take note of the pressure of events happening now in the 20th century pointing out that religion must be related to this century if it is to have any meaning for mankind.

Glenesk has received nationwide coverage in Look, Life, Time, Newsweek and The New York Times Magazine. In addition, he has appeared on TV and radio programs with Long John Nebel, Les Crane, and Johnny Carson. Serving as producer-host of the WOR-RKO network radio series, "Reviewing Stand," he explored the arts with guests famous in their respective fields.

His philosophy is taken from that of the late Paul Tillich, under whom he studied at Columbia University and of author-educator Marshall McLuhan at the University of Toronto.

Glenesk himself has been at various times a journalist, actor, and director. Presently under his pastorate, the Spencer Memorial Church in Brooklyn Heights, New York, has become

continued on page 2 column 3

Orchestra Opens Season Today

The Lock Haven State College-Community Orchestra will open its season today at 8 pm at the Great Island Presbyterian Church on Water Street. The orchestra rehearses on campus, and its membership consists of residents in the Lock Haven area as well as college students.

The Lock Haven music club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Victor Williams, is sponsoring Tuesday's concert. The orchestra's conductor, Robert D. Lynch, is also director of Upward Bound at Lock Haven State.

The orchestra will have variety in its selections which include Tchaikovsky's March Slave, Gordon's Little Baroque Suite, Campbell's Folk Tune for Piano and Strings, Rodgers' Climb Every Mountain (for wind ensemble), Saint-Saens' Marche Militaire Francaise, and two numbers for the coming Christmas season: Grundman's Three Carols for Christmas and Anderson's A Christmas Festival.

The concert is open to the general public.

Author-Sup't. Shapp To Address Campus

A former district superintendent of the schools in Harlem, Dr. Charles M. Shapp, will speak on "Educating the Disadvantaged Child: Insights and Issues," tonight at 7:30 pm in the Planetarium of Ulmer Hall.

Dr. Shapp has had extensive educational training as teacher and principal in both the elementary and junior high schools of New York City. Since 1958, he has been the superintendent of District 10, Bronx, New York; this position would be comparable in size and complexity to the superintendency of any moderately large city.

In addition to his experience as a teacher and school administrator in the Inner City, Dr. Shapp has been actively involved in many educational research projects in New York City. Among these, has been a Puerto Rican study sponsored jointly by the Ford Foundation and the New York City Board of Education; a study of group therapy on disturbed children in the early grades, sponsored by the National Mental Health Foundation; a study of the special characteristics of high achievers in elementary schools in disadvantaged communities, a project carried out by the Graduate Division of the City University of New York; a study of the role of community agencies in combating juvenile delinquency, sponsored by the New York City Youth Board; and the Higher Horizons Project, a federally funded program for the people of the Inner City.

Dr. Shapp has lectured for the American Lecture Bureau and the American Association for the Uni-

EDITORIAL

'SOMETHING IS ROTTEN...'

Shakespeare said it better than we can. "Something is rotten in the state of Denmark." One wonders if the old Bard didn't really mean the state of Pennsylvania, in the county of Clinton, on the campus of Lock Haven State.

Consider the following conclusion.

Miller has been fired; Dr. Parsons notified him that the dismissal was because of Miller's "immorality and possible violation of law"; the college board of trustees agreed with the president on these charges; the department of education at Harrisburg was notified of these charges when Miller appealed his case to them; the trustees then told the PDE that Miller wasn't fired because of violation of law but on two points covered in the faculty handbook, namely "immorality" and "violation of law."

Confused yet? Wait, there's more.

Harrisburg then agrees with the trustees verdict from the charges, but writes that it cannot accept the charge of immorality.

So now you are thoroughly confused. So what else is new?

Therefore --- Miller remains dismissed from the LHS faculty, but it's not because of violation of law, the trustees said so. They said it's because of violation of law.

Perhaps some excerpts from documents pertinent to the issue will confuse you more.

To Miller from Dr. Parsons, dated May 26, 1969 (the day following last spring's commencement):

"I hereby notify you of your dismissal from the faculty of Lock Haven State College as of May 31, 1969, as outlined in our discussion this morning. Specifically, you are being dismissed under explanations of the Procedure for Termination of Service for Those in Continuous Employment as indicated in parts 11 and 13, namely, immorality and possible acts in violation of law. Should you desire to appeal, you must so notify me in writing on or before June 5."

To Dr. Kurtzman (secretary of education) from Miss Morrow (secretary of LHS board of trustees), dated Sept. 18, 1969:

"The Board wishes to comment in relation to this resolution that Mr. Miller was dropped not on the basis of a violation of law but on the basis of the policies of the College as set forth in its Faculty Handbook establishing causes for dismissal based on conduct and actions conforming to the standards of professional ethics our college seeks to maintain

Faculty Handbook page 66 Procedure for Termination of Services for Those in Continuous Employment

If the written notice of termination of service alleges immorality or acts in violation of law or if competent medical authority has certified that the person is suffering from physical or emotional disability that is interfering with proper performance of his duties -- the dismissal shall take effect immediately.

To Miss Morrow from Dr. Kurtzman, dated Nov. 5, 1969

"This is to advise that we have carefully examined the record of the proceedings provided to us in the matter of the appeal of Harry I Miller and conclude that the same supports the finding that Harry I. Miller knowingly and willfully failed to perform services for which he accepted and retained payment from public funds.

"Accordingly, we concur in the action of the Board of Trustees of Lock Haven State College in the dismissing the said Harry I. Miller from his employment. However, we cannot agree with the charge of 'Immorality'." (Italics ours and not those of the author(s).)

Like we said above, Miller has been fired for immorality, but Harrisburg won't agree with that charge. The board also charged him with violation of the law, only he wasn't fired because of any violation of law; he was dismissed on a cause listed in the handbook -- violation of law.

Interesting, especially when we remember that Miller has not been legally convicted of anything, nor is there any legal action pending against the former faculty member.

About the only thing certain about this case is that Miller has been fired, although apparently not on any specific charge. And it doesn't seem as if Dr. Parsons or even the college trustees know why or how -- at least they are not telling the students.

That's what we like about this case -- everybody says exactly what he means; nobody beats around the bush.

There is, however, one question which must be directed to Dr. Parsons and his board of trustees: Since the state has advised that it cannot accept "immorality" as a ground for dismissal and you yourselves rule out "violation of law," just what are the charges on which you base your dismissal of Harry I. Miller?

RDS

ted Nations. He has also appeared on the "Today" and the "Ask Congress" shows on television and has participated on the "Freedom House Forum of the Air" and the "University of the Air" programs on radio.

He is a contributor to the "Book of Knowledge" and the "Children's Encyclopedia," and is co-author with his wife, Martha Shapp, of the "Let's Find Out" books, a series of forty books for beginning readers.

Dr. Shapp is being sponsored by the Association for Childhood Education, an organization of students majoring in elementary education.

Time-Out

by Al Smith

The Lock Haven State College soccer squad has never won eight games in one season; they have not won a Pennsylvania championship since 1956; and the booters have not beaten East Stroudsburg State since 1959 when they posted a 7-4 victory.

The Eagles can achieve all three of these goals this afternoon when they clash head-on with East Stroudsburg in the first conference championship playoff game. The contest will begin at 2:00 pm on McCollum Field with price of admission being $1 for adults and 50¢ for students with Id's. In previous years the conference champion was determined by the Saylor Rating System.

The Eagles won their first conference championship in 1947, again in 1950 and shared the title from 1953 thru 1956.

In the series with the Warriors which began in 1939 the Eagles have won seven encounters while dropping 13 and tying four. At one point during the series the Eagles held a 7-4 edge with three contests ending in ties, but in the last ten encounters running from 1960 thru this season the Eagles have dropped nine contests while mustering a 1-1 tie in 1963. LHS coach Karl T. Herrmann has been on the losing end three times to the Warriors during his three year stint as head mentor and would like nothing better than to beat ESSC in the championship game for his first win over the Warriors.

The Warriors, defending conference champions, sport an 8-5 record coming into the contest and represent the eastern division, and according to the latest ratings were ranked 12th in the East. LHS has a 7-4-1 record coming into the encounter and are representing the western division of the conference.

ESSC was 3-1 in the conference having defeated Shippensburg 5-2, Millersville 2-0 and LHS 3-1, while losing to West Chester 3-0. LHS was 2-1 in the western division having defeated Edinboro 5-0 and Slippery Rock 3-2 while losing to Shippensburg 3-1.

In a previous encounter this season the Warriors stopped the Eagles, 3-1. ESSC had jumped out to a quick lead and were ahead 3-0 late in the game before Jack Infield scored the lone LHS goal.

ESSC has had no action for over a week while the Eagles last encounter was a 1-0 defeat to defending national champion, Davis & Elkins, Saturday afternoon in the mud and rain on McCollum Field.

The Warrior's top performance this season was a 2-1 upset over Brockport (N.Y.). Brockport had been unbeaten and unscored upon at the time and the Warriors also snapped a 21 game Brockport winning streak which had stretched over a two year period.

Bob Davidson and Dov Solomanski, a sergeant in the Israeli Army on loan to ESSC, are the Warriors two top performers. Davidson led the ESSC scorers this season with 13 goals and eight assists and scored one of the three Warrior goals against LHS. Solomanski also had a goal to his credit against LHS.

Leading the Eagles in points are Don Fay with 12 on seven goals and five assists and Jim Sleicher with 11 on eight goals and three assists.

Outstanding goalie Bruce Parkhill who won All America honors last year is having another fantastic season. Parkhill has allowed the opposition an average of only 1.5 goals a game and has recorded four shutouts. Davis & Elkins coach Greg Meyers speaking of Parkhill stated. "That big horse is unreal; he's an All-American if I've ever seen one."

LHS has outscored their opponents 29 to 15 this season, have taken a total of 293 shots compared to their opponents 137, and have more corner kicks than their opponents 67-38.

Eleven underclassmen will start for the Eagles today and commenting on the contest LHS coach Karl Herrmann said, "They're an awfully good team. Our problem will be if the kids can get up. They were as high as a kite on Saturday and it's tough to get up like that twice in a row."

Herrmann also added. "It's been a long time since we beat them. They are certainly a sound team, they always are. They move the ball very well and if they turn that Israeli (Solomanski) loose they'll really be tough."

The Eagles would like nothing better than to set a record of eight victories in one season by defeating the Warriors in the conference championship game.

I GOT IT: Two Eagle players converge on the ball along with a Senator booter. The Eagles dropped the contest 1-0 and will close their season at home today when they meet East Stroudsburg for the Pennsylvania Conference title.

MUDDY ACTION: A Davis and Elkins player has a little trouble moving the ball as it sticks in the mud. Eagles' Steve Moyer moves in attempting to steal the ball. The defending national champion Senators won 1-0 Saturday afternoon under muddy conditions and a constant downpour.

Glenesk...

a center of attention with the incorporation of the living arts and artists into the church's services.

Seeking to have his congregation participate both in the services and in weekly dialogues, Glenesk's ministry is one for and with the time and performing arts. Taking part in the Spencer Memorial Church services have been men and women active in politics, industry, Wall Street, the arts, and the law.

Performers at the church have included dancer Ruth St. Denis, jazz musician Larry Adler, sculptor William Zorach, humorist Jules Feiffer and distinguished actors from both Broadway and off-Broadway among others.

Glenesk received his degrees in the humanities and divinity in 1952 at the University of Toronto and his MA in philosophy of religion and ethics in 1956 from Columbia University. Articles by him have appeared in The New York World-Telegram, Dance Magazine, Music Journal, and other well-known publications.

Soph Meeting

Sophomore class president Joe Castagnola has announced that there will be a class meeting tonight at 8 pm in North Hall Lounge. The purpose of the meeting is to settle the business concerning the executive, social and fiscal committees.

The organization of these committees was presented at the October 29 meeting. Those who attend tonight's session will decide upon either rejection or acceptance of the committees.

Freshman Class Officers
President: Timothy Mahoney
Vice-President: Todd Williams
Secretary: Kathy Harter
Treasurer: Jackie Lynn Wilt
SCC Representatives: Diane Fox, Mitchel Trice

The first round on the men's intramural table tennis and billiards are now listed in the recreation room in the PUB. It is up to each player to get in touch with his opponent. The first round must be completed by Friday, Nov. 14th.

Eagle Hockey Squad Remains Undefeated

The Eaglets of Lock Haven State put on a tremendous display of field hockey skills this past weekend at the Central Penn Association Hockey tournament. Eight girls from Lock Haven were awarded places on the tournament teams, and have earned the right to compete in the Mid-East tournament.

Earning berths on the Central Penn I team were Bertie Landis, Diane Webster, Dottie Chekay, and Margo DeGrange. The Central Penn II team also has four Eaglets. They are Karen Shifflet, Linda Barto, Sherry Clemmer, and Diane James.

LHS continued their winning

In continuation of the Freshman Orientation Programs, on Thursday, November 13, at 1:00 pm in the Ulmer Amphitheatre the Committee of Racial Interaction will hold a panel discussion of today's campus problems and the prevention of tomorrow's problems between Blacks and Whites. The committee consists of Dan Elby, Terrell Jones, Charlotte Splawn, Marsha Rainbow, Alex Nuzzo, Nancy Akers, with Dean Cornelius as the advisor. All upperclassmen are invited to attend.

Pi Delta Epsilon meeting tonight at 7:00 pm in the PUB music room. All members are to attend and bring their dues.

e.e. classified

LOST: Spalding Tennis Raquet - in front of Ulmer last Fri. Contact S. Wilt, Rm 241 Woolridge

STOLEN: One clear plastic umbrella with white handle. Taken from Bentley Hall Lounge between 9 and 9:15 Friday morning. Would the thief please return it to Sue Minor 220 Russell? Thank you.

Our Specialty
 Roast Beef
 Served Hot

CAMPUS CASINO

beyond the age of innocence... into the age of awareness

medium cool

Roxy

LAST TIMES!
 748-5606
 PARK FREE!

ways as they shut out all their opponents, beating Elizabethtown 4-0, Lock Haven Alumni 2-0, and Keystone 7-0, in Saturday's competition.

Dr. Charlotte Smith, coach of the LHS team commented that she was "Very proud of all the girls" and that they "played very well."

The next stop on the tournament trail for the eight girls will be this coming Saturday at Lebanon Valley High School in Annville, Pa. for the Mid-East tournament. Two teams will be picked from this tournament to represent the Mid-East in the national tournament, held during the Thanksgiving vacation.

To: Faculty and Students
 From: STOPI

Re: Vietnam Moratorium
 The Student Organization for Peace (STOPI) will meet today at 1 pm in the PUB music room. Faculty members and students interested in participating in the November observance are urged to attend.

opinion lhs

To the editor:

I would like to express my concern for the upcoming Freshman Class elections. It seems some people do not have enough respect for the property of others. I am not only speaking for myself, but also for other candidates whose signs have been torn down. I feel I am qualified for the office I am running for and I feel I should have a fair chance. This shows I care. What about you?

Diane Fox
 Candidate for SCC Representative

STONE HOUSE PIZZA

Pizza - 15¢ a slice

steaks meatballs
 subs

Will deliver orders over $5

Rt. 220 Hogan Blvd.
 748-3277