

New Fad ?

by Carol Eisenhauer

Students at Lock Haven State are in the process of starting a new fad. Are you aware of it? Have you noticed the countless students making their way around campus on crutches?

These unfortunate souls may be found in every nook and cranny on campus, but are most commonly seen standing in front of elevators. Can you imagine what's going to happen someday when six people on crutches try to hobble out of an elevator at the same time? Perish the thought!

Contrary to popular belief, not all students who are supplied with crutches are physical education majors. A number of students on crutches have been maimed by such innocent acts as sliding on a slippery floor in a dormitory or falling up a flight of stairs during a last minute dash to class.

Whatever the reason, you can be sure that hobbling around on crutches is quite the style at Lock Haven State.

All applications for membership to the Black Student Union must be returned to Robert Lynch's office in Raub 312 by Monday, Dec. 8 for consideration by the membership committee.

The Lock Haven State cross ountry team concluded a highly successful season last Saturday by placing 17th out of 37 teams t the NAIA championships held n Oklahoma City. 48 full teams nd a total of 328 runners started he race, but only 259 runners nd 37 complete teams finished. The five-mile race over a ompletely flat terrain was run n a 40 mph wind, which slowed he race considerably. In a real attle for first place, Ralph Foote of Taylor University (Ind.) ame out on top, edging Larbi Dukada of Fort Hays, Kansas nd Dave Ellis of Eastern Michgan. Oukada was a member of he Moroccan Olympic team and Illis ran in the Olympics for Canada. Foote covered the course n 24:53, Oukada in 24:55, and Ilis in 24:59. The first fifteen inishers received plaques designating them as All-Americans. For the Bald Eagles, Steve Podgainy was the leading runner, finishing a strong 49th. Dave Mosebrook was only 20 seconds behind Podgajny, but 16 places, finishing 65th. That is some indication of how crowded the race was, as runners crossed the finish line one right after the other for minutes.

Mike Borowski also cracked the top 100 by placing 89th. Nibs Gordon was 128th, Harry Smeltz, 180th, Steve Harnish, 197th, and Carl Klingaman, 223rd.

Commenting on the race, Coach Jim Dolan said: "This meet was a great experience for our team in the toughest competition available for small colleges in the United States. They all ran very well and the 17th place finish out of 37 teams competing was excellent. Last year our team placed 31st." The Eagles team point total was 433.

The 17th place finish for the Eagles can be compared to being 17th in the nation since teams from almost every state competed. In order to be able to compete the meet, a team had to win or finish high in District competition, so every team there was of high caliber.

Two other runners from the state colleges conference made their way to Oklahoma. Dave Antognoli of Edinboro, the District 18 champion, finished 42nd, and Dale Bidwell, also of Edinboro, placed 181st.

The first four teams received trophies for their efforts, as well as the individual runners on the first three teams, and the first fifteen finishers.

In speaking of individual per-formances, Coach Dolan said: "Considering this was the first time Gordon, Harnish, Podgajny, and Klingaman had run in such a large, high-caliber meet, and only the second time for Mosebrook, Borowski, and Smeltz, they all ran exceptionally well."

Summing up the season, Coach Dolan said: "This season has been very rewarding for me as a coach and I know for our men who performed so well all season. I would like to thank the SCC for the funds which allowed us to make this trip and help Lock Haven State College to become well known on the national sports scene."

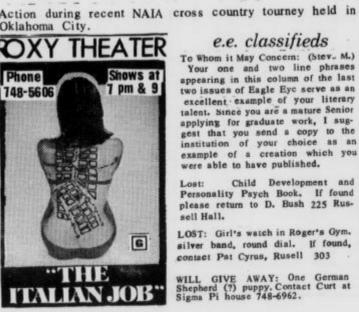

I don't know who my grandfather was. I am much more concerned to know what his grandson will be.

won the pass receiving cham-pionship a second straight year with 39 catches despite an injured leg in the last two games. ESSC's Bill' Horvath was third with 35 receptions.

Bloomsburg's Greg Berger had most yardage on catches of 584. Mansfield's Paul Gates had most TD passes, eight, and shared the scoring title with West Chester's Paul Dunkelberger. Each had 48 points on seven touchdowns.

Edinboro's sensational soph, Al Raines, outsprinted every-body to the rushing title with 641 yards. East Stroudsburg halfback Bob Lester had the best average yardage per rush - 6.3. Kutztown State's Phil Anthony was third behind Raines and Mansfield's Ray Hipp with 412 yards.

The punting title went to Ship-pensburg's Bruce Baustein, from Stroudsburg, with a 39.3 average, . The year's longest punt belonged to Millersville's Ray Garganes with a 68-yarder.
