Seniors - Don't Wait Look For Jobs Now

A survey of companies and government agencies that expect to hire college graduates this year, indicates that now, not sometime after graduation in June, is when seniors should be starting to look for jobs.

The survey, conducted by Changing Times magazine and released February 1, shows that despite an upturn in the job market for new graduates, the day when they could wait for corporate recruiters to come to them is still just a memory.

Replies from more than 100 companies indicate that seniors who do get started early should find good demand for their services in most major disciplines. Personnel officers responding to the survey described a wide range of jobs throughout the country.

72 of the organizations have or expect to have jobs for new engineering graduates. The specialties needed include aeronautical, chemical, civil, electrical, geological, industrial, and mechanical engineering, among others.

59 want business and marketing majors for jobs in sales, management, planning and other areas

48 have varied openings for accountants.

40 want science or mathematics majors for research, development and other technical positions.

30 have jobs for liberal arts majors in a variety of fields.

22 are looking for graduates with such miscellaneous specialties as computer programming, graphic arts, health, communications, advertising.

The closer an applicant's record and goals match the company's needs, the more likely he or she is to get the job.

Who is the ideal candidate? A composite picture drawn from the comments of personnel officers who participated in the survey shows a graduate with these shining characteristics:

--GOOD GRADES. Companies still put a premium on them.

--PLENTY OF EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES. Participation in campus affairs demonstrates an ability to get along with others.

--WORK EXPERIENCE. Ideally, this means summer or part-time work in a field related to the one you want to enter.

--WILLINGNESS TO RELOCATE. Companies try to assign workers where they're needed most. An applicant who is willing to take a position somewhere away from home is likely to stay in the running longer than someone less flexible.

--CLEAR JOB OBJECTIVE. Applicants who know what they want to do tend to make a better impression than those who don't.

The Changing Times survey is designed to help graduates get their job hunts off the ground and includes names and addresses of companies that indicated they have openings.

Student Directories Have Arrived

The 1972-73 Student Directories have arrived and are taking residence in the Eagle Eye Office, ground floor PUB.

Each directory contains the name, home address, and campus address of each LHS student as of Fall 1972.

Students may pick up their directory in the Eagle Eye Office beginning Wednesday from 9 AM to 12 Noon. A student I.D. will be required and only one copy per student will be distributed, since there are a limited number of copies available. It will be first come first serve.

March Schedule for Art Films Is Released

Selections for the March survey of art through films have been announced by Mr. William Foster, art department chairman.

"Greek Sculpture" and "The Spirit of Rome" will be shown March 1. These films allow the viewer to see the total Roman experience as it affected Western ideas and culture for more than a thousand years.

On March 8, "Art of the Middle Ages" reconciles the mystical approach of medieval times to the scientific attitude of the modern American mind. In "Chartres Cathedral," John Caladay analyzes the fusion of faith, intellect, engineering, and architecture found in the cathedral.

"The Renaissance," offered March 15, includes examples of painting, sculpture, and architecture never before included in any film. Photographed entirely in Italy and France, the film portrays the rise of the Renaissance.

Films about two of history's greatest artists will be shown on March 22. "Da Vinci" presents the life and work of the man who best exemplifies the spirit of the Renaissance. "Michaelangelo" offers an insight into the relationship between the artist and his patron during the Renaissance.

"Rembrandt Van Ryn: A Self-Portrait" will be shown on March 29.

All films will be shown in Raub 211 at 8 p.m. and are open to the public without charge.

Grapplers Place 5th in Pa. Wrestling Tourney; Eichenlaub and Johnson Capture Conference Titles

by Robert Singer

After the smoke had cleared away from Heiges Fieldhouse at Shippensburg State College on Saturday night, everyone was left with a few surprises. Upsets had occurred right and left, in both the team and individual scoring.

Clarion had ended up on top to no one's surprise, with 120½ points and four champions. The nearest competitor was Slippery Rock with 91 and three champions. The school whom nobody figured on was Millersville with 70½. The Marauders cleaned up in the wrestlebacks, and eventually edged Bloomsburg with 69½ and one champion. Lock Haven was 5th with 57 and 2 winners, California with 41, Shippensburg 40, Edinboro with 37, Indiana with 20, Kutztown 13, Mansfield 10, East Stroudsburg, winner two years ago, with 8.

Of the six returning champions, two managed to defend their titles successfully. Of the others one was a runnerup, another came in 6th, one did not place, and another was unable to compete due to a previous injury. And of the thirteen returning placemen, four dropped in standing, three advanced, four did not place at all, and two stayed where they were. There was at least one upset in almost every weight class.

Brian Kuntz at 118 was one of Lock Haven's placemen, ending up in 4th. In the winner's bracket he edged Dave Whare of Millersville 9-8, and ran into Craig Turnbull of Clarion and lost 9-1. In the consolation he defeated California's Carlos Bryant 4-3 met Whare again in a rematch and lost 12-4. Jack Spates of Slippery Rock eventually won.

The Bald Eagles crowned two champions, one of which was Rob Johnson at 126. In the first match he knocked out Mark Honess of Slippery Rock 8-1, then George Fidmik of Kutztown 12-7, who had previously upset East Stroudsburg's Art Kahn, 3rd last year with a rail. In the final he faced Tom Haney of Clarion, who placed 4th at 118 last year. The match was close most of the way although Johnson was always in the lead. Things remained tense until most of the way through the third period, when referee George Custer called Hanley for grabbing Johnson's headgear, taking the edge off the match and giving Johnson a 5-3 victory.

Lou Conway did not make an outstanding showing at 134. He edged Rich Einsporn of Indiana 3-2 on riding time, then lost 5-3 to Rod Patterson of California and in the wrestlebacks was defeated by Len Ferraro of Slippery Rock when he was called for stalling in the last period, the difference in a 5-4 verdict. He did not place.

Mike Hertolino, called up to replace Gary Ventimiglia at 142, did a good job considering his experience. He started out by handing Jim Sykes of Indiana a 12-5 decision, then was pinned at 3:52 by Robbie Waller of Slippery Rock, who eventually went on to become champion. In the consolation he dropped a 12-2 affair to Bill Larkin of California, and then wrestled Sykes again to the same result 12-5. He placed 5th.

Don Eichenlaub became the other Lock Haven champion at 150, with a little help from his friends. Top-seeded Bill Luckenbaugh of East Stroudsburg injured his arm in the second round and defaulted the rest of the way. Secondseeded Dan DeMarines, runner up last year to Gary Ventimiglia, was upset first by Chris Clark (Clarion) in the first round, and then by Millersville's Rick Zinck in the second round of the consolation. This left the field wide open for Eichenlaub, who proceeded to chew up his four opponents with two pins (one over Clark) and 8-6 and 6-4 decision, which were not as close as the scores indicate, to take the class without a great deal of difficulty.

The big question at 158 was what happened to Gary Ventimiglia. His first match he won 19-15. He nearly was decked in the first period of his match with Mansfield's Frank Rice and spent the rest of the bout fighting back with (what else?) takedowns and escapes. In his next match he was tied up by Millersville's Mike Fenton's legs and lost 6-0. Fenton went on to become runner up. Then Kevin Hays of Bloomsburg pinned him at 5:44, and Larry McCoy of Indiana worked double arm bars for two periods to take a 13-4 result. Ventimiglia ended up 6th.

The 167 class didn't go much better. Don Adams lost a 4-2 heartbreaker to Randy Haught of California, then was pinned by Mark Sassani of Mansfield in the wrestlebacks. Sassani later lost and Adams was not able to place.

George Wilhelm was probably not destined to get very far. After defeating Don Toy of Indiana 7-5 he ran into Bill Simpson and bounced off, losing 10-2. He then won a match from Mike Stambaugh of East Stroudsburg the hard way in overtime 1-1, 3-3, and a unanimous referee's decision. Eric Guyll of Millersville edged him 3-2, and lost an overtime battle, this time to Carl Messina of Slippery Rock, 1-1, 7-1. Wilhelm placed 6th.

Dave Wasson at 190 had the worst breaks of the bunch. His first match was against defending champion and second seeded Jim Zoschg of Millersville. He lost 12-6. Normally, however, this would be a break, because he would have an opportunity in the wrestlebacks. But that didn't happen. Zoschg was subsequently pinned by Bob Gordon of Clarion, who went on to be 2nd to Floyd "Shorty" Hitchcock of Bloomsburg.

Heavyweight Jim Schuster pinned Buz Enos of Mansfield at 3:49. Then he was pinned by Chuck Cornea of Clarion, the eventual winner at 5:47. In the wrestlebacks he pinned Tom Jenkins of Slippery Rock at 2:46. And he might have pinned Frank Myers of Shippensburg, if his knee hadn't given him trouble in the middle of the match, resulting in a 5-1 loss and 4th place.

So now what's left? Later this week Cox and seven wrestlers will go to Brookings, S.D. for the NCAA-College Division Tournament. If someone qualifies there they will go to Washington for the University Division Championships.
