Law Enforcement officer fails to appear at hearing

Forgery charge dropped against former LHU student

By Chris Fischer
Editor-in-Chief

A forgery charge was dropped against a former Lock Haven University student recently when a campus Law Enforcement officer failed to appear at a preliminary hearing.

Kimberley A. Madgiak, currently of Allentown, was originally charged on October 28, 1986, by Law Enforcement with one count of forgery.

The charge stems from a June 20, 1986, incident when Madgiak was reported to have used a forged purchase order and a bogus Student Cooperative Council voucher form to acquire $40 worth of office equipment at the expense of the campus radio station, WLHC.

According to the records of Lock Haven District Justice John Frazier, Madgiak's hearing was set for 2 p.m. February 27, 1987, but the Commonwealth (LHU Law Enforcement), failed to appear.

As a result, Frazier was forced to dismiss the forgery charge against Madgiak.

Director of Law Enforcement, Richard Hepner, said, "The papers [concerning Madgiak's hearing] were misplaced, and the officer ended up not being notified."

According to Hepner, when Law Enforcement is involved in a hearing, it normally receives papers from a district justice stating the time, date and place of the hearing.

He explained that the officer handling the Madgiak case learned of the hearing when the paperwork was originally received by Law Enforcement, but Hepner said the papers were then somehow misplaced and through a "mis-communication" the officer wasn't re-notified of the hearing.

"It is something that is unfortunate and something I don't like to see," said Hepner. "But there is nothing we can do about it now."

"It is water under the bridge," he added. "We learn from our mistakes."

Because of the nature in which the forgery charge against Madgiak was dismissed, Hepner said Law Enforcement could re-file, but in cooperation with the Clinton County District Attorney's Office and Madgiak's lawyer, Law Enforcement "decided not to re-file the charge and restitution was made by the defendant (Madgiak)."

The June 20, 1986, forgery incident happened at Bierly's Office Equipment Inc. on East Main Street in Lock Haven.

The Eagle Eye reported in its September 19, 1986, issue that an anonymous Bierly's clerk stated the forgery took place when an individual went into the store once, and was denied the supplies she asked for.

She was then instructed by an employee to return with the proper Student Cooperative Council forms with appropriate signatures.

The suspect then returned with the forms and apparent signatures.

The necessary names on the voucher form and bill were that of Dr. Sandra Hybels (faculty advisor to WLHC), Joe Jones (WLHC station manager at the time), and SCC Accountant Jean Nestlerode.

On the forged voucher form, however, was the signature of the former Student Union Administrator David Cox, instead of Nestlerode.

All three of these signatures were reportedly forged. Hybels and Jones were both out of the Lock Haven area during the time of the incident.

Included in the nearly $40 of office equipment acquired from Bierly's were a notebook, typing paper, correction ribbon, staples and a stapler, a weekly date keeper, and various other items.

The forger even got a discount from the store, because she represented herself as being from WLHC.

RHA plans activities as...

"Spring Week" blossoms at LHU campus

By Michael Dally
Staff Reporter

The Residence Hall Association (RHA) has designated this week as "Spring Week," and activities have been planned by each dormitory.

Vickie Laugalis, vice chairperson for RHA, said, "Spring Week is a time for residence hall students to get out and have a lot of fun together."

"Each year we get more students who are participating in the events, and we try to change the activities based on that participation," said Judy Cochrane, RHA advisor.

Today, Russell Hall is hosting a bowling/rollerskating extravaganza open to all LHU students.

The bowling portion of the program will be held from 6-7:30 p.m. at Clinton Lanes. Interested rollerskaters can then board a bus leaving from the tennis courts at 8:45 p.m. at Magic River Skateland.

North Hall has set up a volleyball tournament in which one team per hall (two from McEntire) will compete at 3 p.m. Wednesday, in front of North Hall. (Teams will be comprised of ten members each, with at least two girls per team.)

Students who are interested are asked to contact their hall presidents to sign up for the activity.

Thursday night, High Hall will be presenting their special activity which is to be held in Bentley at 8 p.m.

You won't have to miss "The Cosby Show" or "Family Ties," since High Hall will be showing both of those programs on a large-screen TV for your enjoyment. Then, movies will be shown.

Friday night, the Semi-formal dinner and dance will be held at the Holiday Inn in Lamar, courtesy of McEntire Hall.

The buffet-style dinner begins at 7:30 p.m., and the dance will follow until 12:30 a.m.

Tickets, which are $6 each, can still be purchased today by telephoning Penny Horton at #3670, or Stephanie Perry at #3690.

The final activity scheduled for this year's Spring Week will be the "Superstars" competition offered by Gross Hall.

Superstars will be held from 12-4:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 28.

Designed to be a fun contest between the seven residence halls, Superstars will feature events like an obstacle course, "Superquest," a tug of war and a relay race.

Each team will consist of five members from the same hall. Flyers will be delivered to each LHU student, and sign-up sheets will be provided at the front desk of each hall.

Industrialist-in-Residence at LHU

By Jennifer Pepper
Staff Reporter

A Pennsylvania banker is serving as Lock Haven University's fourth annual Industrialist-in-Residence.

William D. Davis, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Commonwealth Bank and Trust of Williamsport, will be visiting classes between March 24 and 26 to discuss topics concerning this year's theme, "Regional Economic Growth."

He will give an address entitled "Regional Economic Progress: Breaking the Best Kept Secret" tonight at 8 p.m. in Sloan Theatre.

"The program is directed towards the entire Liberal Arts community. One of the things Davis will be talking about is what are the most important skills drawn from the liberal arts which are needed for a banking career," said Professor Charles R. Kent, coordinator of the program.

Davis has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Penn State University and is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin's Bank Administration Institute and the Graduate School of Banking.

He is a member of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association and has been an instructor of various courses on money and banking in the past.

"The main purpose of the program is to have our students and faculty meet the top industrial thinkers, movers-and-shakers," Kent said.

Davis will visit various classes including Introduction to Economics, where the topic will be the "Role of Monetary Policy."

He will also visit the Money and Banking classes, where the topic will be "What does Regulation and Deregulation of Banking Mean in Your Experience?"

Kent added that the benefit for the University is meeting the leadership of the industrial, financial and labor components of American capitalism.

Baseball team sweeps SU, Juniata and split with Bloom

By Joselle Mellito
Sports Reporter

The Bald Eagles pitching and hitting talents came together this past weekend to lead them to five victories in six games.

In yesterday's baseball game against Susquehanna University, the Eagles came away with two wins.

The first game of the doubleheader ended in a 4-3 victory.

"We did everything the way we were supposed to. We had very solid pitching by Bob Baker and we had excellent defense," said Head Coach Gary Bartley.

Baker was the winning pitcher, while Phil Masser finished the pitching assignment and earned himself a save.

Mike Snyder had two hits and one RBI and John Brown had two hits and two RBIs for the Eagles.

The second game against Susquehanna resulted in a 5-2 victory for the Haven.

The winning pitcher for LHU was Masser, while Paul Dillahay came in and got the save.

John Kampes had one hit and one RBI for the Bald Eagles. Greg Snoberger had two hits, two RBIs and a homerun in the game, while Jeff Perryman added one hit and two RBIs.

"We have a little momentum going now. We swept a couple of double headers in a row, but we can't stop and rest now. We have to keep working hard," said Bartley.

On Friday, the Haven defeated Bloomsburg University in the first game of a doubleheader, 13-2. They then fell to the Huskies 11-3 in the second game.

The Eagle's Pat Stacio had three hits, two RBI's and scored three runs in the first game.

In the second game of the doubleheader, Stacio, Snoberger, Kampf and Perryman each had two hits.

In the doubleheader on Saturday against Juniata College, the Haven came away with two wins. The Haven won the first game by a 5-4 score, and the secured the second contest, 7-5.

Andy Jeffers and Hosterman each had two hits in the first game, while Stacio pulled through with four hits and four RBIs.

"We had two solid pitching performances on Saturday," said Bartley.

Snyder gave up only four hits in the first game. He also struck out three batters, walked only one and raised his record to 3-0 on the season.

During the second game with Juniata, Jeffers had two hits and scored one run. Stacio, Perryman and Kampf combined for six hits and five RBIs.

One of Kampf's hits was a game winning triple in the sixth inning that drove in two runs.

Bartley said, "This is another game where we had to come from behind. Our team has done a lot of this so far this year."

According to Bartley, Stacio set a school record this past weekend by being on base 13 consecutive times. In that streak, he had nine hits and four walks.

Out of Stacio's nine hits, he had one triple, two doubles and one homerun.

The Haven's next game will be on Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. against Bucknell University.

Haven wrestlers miss "All-American"

By Scott Crispell
Sports Reporter

The Bald Eagle wrestling team returned home from the 57th annual NCAA wrestling championships without an "All-American" last weekend.

Despite having two wrestlers come very close to placing, Lock Haven failed to secure a man in the top eight in the rugged three day event held last weekend at the University of Maryland.

For the second time in the last three seasons, 118-pounder Dicky Howell came within an eyelash of becoming an "All-American."

Howell advanced to within one match of placing, before he ran into eventual third place finisher, Tim Wright, of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Wright decided Howell 8-3, which put Howell out of the tournament with a 3-2 mark. Earlier, Howell dropped a tough 6-4 decision at the hands of East Stroudsburg's Jack Cuvo, who wound up fifth.

Although Howell didn't place, LHU Head Coach Neil Turner was impressed with his performance.

"I think Howell wrestled as well as he did in his whole career here," said Turner. "He lost to two 'All-Americans.' He wrestled very tough against Cuvo and Wright."

Jody Karam, LHU's 167 pound entry, began the tournament as the number four seed, but came within two matches of placing. After an opening round victory, Karam lost to Purdue's Joe Urso, 11-7, and went into the consolation bracket.

Karam defeated Minnesota's Rod Sande,

9-5, before facing Mike Amine of Michigan. Karam seemed to have a win sewn up when disaster struck.

Leading 3-2 with just :02 remaining in the bout, Karam was in deep on Amine's right leg. Karam heard a whistle on another mat, and assuming it was on his mat. Letting go, Amine spun behind for a takedown and the victory.

"Jody was upset with his mistake. It was a heartbreaking loss. But, he realizes now that he is capable of being an 'All-American,'" said Turner.

At 126, Jeff Husick dropped his first match to Penn State's Ken Chertow, 8-2. In the consolation bracket, Husick won his first bout over Rob Porter of Edinboro, before losing to Scott Hinkel of Purdue, 7-4.

"Husick had a tough draw," said Turner. "He faced the eventual third placer in the first round. Both men that he lost to went on to place."

Willy Metzger lost his opening round match with John Fisher of Michigan, 15-7. Metzger came back to defeat Chad Taylor of Wyoming, 9-2. In that bout, Metzger suffered a separated shoulder and was forced to default in his next bout.

Bill Freeman also lost in the first round as he came out on the short end of an 11-5 score against Andy Voit of Penn State. In the consolation bracket, Freeman lost to Mike Funk of Northwestern, 4-2.

In team scoring, Lock Haven was 32nd with eight points.

Turner was optimistic about the NCAA tourney. "We didn't come home with any awards, but we realize that we can compete on that level. We have visions of winning at the NCAA tournament in the future."

Lady Eagles sweep weekend doubleheader vs. West Chester

By Bill Alexander
Co-Sports Editor

Leslie Funk and Gretchen Caton threw a pair of one-hitters as the Lady Eagle softball team swept both games of a doubleheader against the Lady Rams of West Chester on Saturday.

In game one, the Lady Eagles broke the game open in the bottom of the second as they scored four runs, and added three more in the third on their way to a 7-1 victory.

"I felt that we would win. We were in control the whole game. We were never really threatened," said Head Coach Wayne Allison.

Lock Haven got behind early in game two, but came back to defeat West Chester by a 5-1 score.

The Lady Rams got off to a fast start as they scored their only run in the top of the first.

Lock Haven came back to score three runs in the bottom of the second inning to take the lead.

The Lady Eagles scored another run in the third and one more in the sixth inning to seal the victory.

"We haven't played them in about four years and that might have been their first game this season," said Allison. "The whole team played well and we did some things that we have been working on in practice."

The Lady Eagles had a successful trip down south over spring break and returned home with a 5-3 record.

Here are the results of the games that happened over spring vacation.

- LHU 16 -- Lehigh 0
- LHU 8 -- Eureka 1
- LHU 1 -- Bridgeport 0 (1)
- Bridgeport 7 -- LHU 3 (2)
- LHU 3 -- Ithaca 1 (1)
- Ithaca 3 -- LHU 2 (2)
- Indiana State-Terre Haute 8 -- LHU 4 (1)
- LHU 5 -- Indiana State-Terre Haute 3 (2)

The two wins raise the Lady Eagles record to 7-3. Their next game is a doubleheader at Shippensburg on March 26 at 2 p.m.

Golfers win opener at Lycoming

By Mike Leavy
Sports Reporter

The Bald Eagle men's golf team defeated Lycoming College Warriors yesterday 408-471.

Mike Pizzoferrato was the leading Bald Eagle golfer with a 76.

James Lacey and Dave Petrucci also finished low for the Haven with a 78 and 80 respectively.

Scott Thompson and Doug Spotts rounded out the Haven attack by nailing 87's.

Also playing for Lock Haven were Kevin Matthews and Steve Cox. Matthews finished with an 89 while Cox golfed a 94.

Bill Abrams led Lycoming College with an 81.

The Bald Eagles golf team is now 1-0.

Coach Bob Weller is happy with the performance of the team so far.

"I think that the team did really well considering that they have only been out on the course three times prior to this match," said Weller.

Weller also said that the team should be strong this season due to all but one of the varsity lettermen returning.

The Eagle golfers will host Lycoming College April 3 at the Bells Spring Golf course.

Entertainer Jimmy Landry to be featured at coffeehouse

Jimmy Landry is shown here in one of his more comic moods.

Performing the songs of artists such as Jackson Browne, James Taylor and the Beatles, singer Jimmy Landry will make a return appearance to the LHU campus.

He will return this Thursday in an SCC-sponsored coffeehouse.

Landry, who acts as a stand-up comedian between songs, presented a well-received coffeehouse performance last November, said SCC Cultural Affairs Committee Chairperson Ken Foster.

"Students enjoyed the performance so much that at the end of the evening many were asking when Landry would return," added Foster.

Landry, who describes himself as "dog's best friend," admitted that he was a little uneasy performing at a school that was new to him, but he grew more at ease as the evening went on and has been looking forward to his return.

Landry will perform Thursday, March 26, at 8 p.m. in the PUB. Validated I.D. is required and refreshments will be served.

Five boxers qualify for nationals

Five LHU boxers have advanced to the National Collegiate Boxing Association Championships (NCBA) to be held April 3-4 at the University of Nevada at Reno.

Keno Saavedra, 125; Brad Klein, 132; Joe Ferrari, 147; Don Gallucci, 172; and Joe Salluzzo, 180, all captured Eastern Collegiate Boxing Association Championships at Penn State University last Friday and Saturday.

Senior Club Captain Ferrari, scored a Referee Stops Contest (RSC) in 1:27 of the third round over Army's Bob Allen. His performance earned him the "Outstanding Boxer Award."

Pulling off the biggest upset of the day, LHU's Klein defeated 1986 National Champion Randy Bachman of Army. Klein won the first two rounds and held on through the third for the victory.

Gallucci, a southpaw, used a left hook to score a RSC over PSU's Larry Bolden at 1:20 of the second round. The win was Gallucci's fourth in a row.

The third round was the most exciting in the bout between Penn State's John McCauley and Salluzzo.

With less than :30 remaining, McCauley scored a standing eight count. However, with only :08 left on the clock, Salluzzo recovered with a straight right that sent McCauley to the floor. He was saved by the bell, but Salluzzo came home with the win.

Lock Haven's fifth champion was Saavedra who earned a "walkover." He had defeated all the 125 pounders in the region and therefore qualified for nationals.

"We peaked at the right time," said Coach Dr. Ken Cox. "We now have exceeded our goals for this season, but are determined to give 101 percent at the nationals. Each of the five young men has the potential to win the title."
