CAS hopes to strengthen voice

by Betsy Woolridge

A membership drive for the CAS (Commonwealth Association of Students) has begun on the LHS campus, as well as at 13 other state colleges.

The purpose of CAS was stated this way by Executive Secretary Doug Dows, "The CAS acts as a go between for the students of the commonwealth colleges and the Department of Education, the State Legislature and the governor, and insures student input into legislation relevant to higher education in Pennsylvania."

The CAS evolved from the PSASG (Pennsylvania State Association of Student Governments), an organization of state college student government presidents. Basically the organization dealt with problems that student governments ran into on local campuses.

The PSASG realized that there were issues on the state level that students should be involved in and decided to reorganize.

The result was the CAS which is made up of a Board of Presidents, who still deal with local problems and the Board of Co-ordinators which deals with state-wide issues.

Structure

The Board of Co-ordinators is the voting unit of CAS. The members are representatives of students from each campus.

The Board of Presidents was retained because of the need of communication between student governments and their problems and acts as an advisory faction in CAS.

The LHS co-ordinator is Joe Euculano, SCC 1st Vice President. The representative to the Board of Presidents is, of course, Rich DeBernardo, SCC President.

The officers of the student organization come from several state colleges: President, Larry Hill, Edinboro; Vice President, Mike Mountain, East Stroudsburg; Treasurer, Vince Curtis, Cheyney; Secretary, Marty Sheets, Slippery Rock.

The CAS has made some important steps for the organization in the last few months beginning with the hiring of an Executive Secretary.

Since then, an office has been obtained, plans for incorporation are progressing, the membership drive is beginning, an intern program has been approved for CAS and legislators, the Dept. of Education and the Governor are recognizing CAS in state college related issues.

The CAS office as Dows said, 'is so close to the capitol that if you rolled down the capitol steps, when you stopped rolling you'd be in front of the office.'

The address is: 229 State St., Harrisburg, PA. 17101. For more information contact either Joe Euculano at the SCC office, or write the CAS office.

President's meeting reveals masterplan

by Jan Albright

The proposed campus masterplan for Lock Haven State was presented at President Hamblin's monthly open meeting held Thursday. A group of about 70 townspeople, faculty and few students gathered to hear architect H. Edward Black explain the plan.

Mr. Black used large detailed charts to illustrate his explanation. All those present received smaller versions of the masterplan. As to the expected completion date of this plan Mr. Black said, "There are no hard dates set on any areas of this development."

One of the plan's highlights includes a "campus green," to be located at the present site of Rogers gym, including the surrounding area enclosed by Thomas Field House, Stevenson Library, Raub Hall and Akeley School. This green would include an amphitheatre, a fountain with surrounding seat walls, and a public bulletin board. According to Mr. Black the area would provide a "meeting place on campus."

Future Plans Explained

Completion of the plan as it now stands would include the destruction of Roger's gymnasium, the present computer center housed in the old laundry, and the old hospital on Susquehanna Avenue. Removal of these structures would allow for construction of the campus green, as well as a new classroom facility.

March is social workers month

by Renny Miller

One hundred and twenty Lock Haven State students can call the month of March their own.

The students, all Social Work majors, are celebrating National Social Work Month. Nationally, the theme is "Professional Social Work—Accepting the Challenges of Life." The theme was selected by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW). The intent of the program is to bring attention of community leaders to the problems that exist.

Locally

A committee making plans for Lock Haven has announced two programs. Today, graduate students will describe and discuss the agencies with which they are working.

On March 29, Richard

Bressler, chairman of the North Central NASW in Pa. will speak. He will explain the Association and distribute membership applications to interested students.

The art department is designing a poster to be hung in Raub Hall for the program.

Social Work Program

Begun in 1967 as Social Welfare, the program at LHS became Social Work in 1973. New courses were introduced to prepare students not only for welfare work, but for work in hospitals and mental health settings. Internships for a semester are offered to students for actual experience. The program also prepares students for work in family agencies, schools, and social work education.

Illinois Jazz Band swings Lock Haven audience approves

If anyone was near the vicinity of Price Auditorium last Friday evening, they would have heard the thunder of applause and the roar of "Encore, Encore!" by a very pleased and large audience.

Last Friday evening The Haven was visited by the talented University of Illinois Jazz Ensemble, directed by John Garvey. The group consisted of an array of instruments ranging from trumpets, saxophones, flutes, tenor banjos, and last but not least, what a jazz band is not complete without, a bass fiddle being plucked in that unmistakable jazz rhythm.

The Band started off an exciting evening with a piece very appropriately named "Rabble Rouser". It was a swift moving piece, as well as loud, done with a saxophone solo. From there the Band proceeded to do a number of Big Band tunes such as "Pine Street Rumble" by Benny Carter, "Doddel Odel" by Count Bassie, "I'm Glad There's You" by Jimmy Dorsey and a tune by Jelly Roll Nelson.

With each number there accompanied it a solo by a number of different instruments. And with the end of each solo there was a round of applause by a very satisfied audience. As the tunes were played one after another, the audience, which practically filled the auditorium, applauded louder after each number had been played. When the recital had reached its end the Jazz Ensemble was tremendously applauded and shouts of "Encore" rang through the hall. The Band then finished with a tune called "April in Paris", which was played twice, consecutively.

Ms. Strauss adds new look to law

Our newest law enforcement officer on campus is a woman, Patricia Marie Strauss.

Ms. Strauss is a graduate of Mansfield State College where she majored in Elementary Education. She also attended Shippensburg Academy and graduated from there this February. In December of last year the petite 22 year old officer Strauss came to LHS.

Officer Strauss has not had any big cases to investigate as yet and hopes not to. She hopes to establish a good rapport with the girls in the dormitories so, as she puts it, "they feel they can come to me with their problems." She also said she is always available if anyone wants to talk over a problem.

Patricia commutes from Williamsport everyday while working the same rotating schedule as the male policemen on campus.

What's In

By Bill Mahon

"Thanks to you it's working."

This is the familiar slogan of the United Fund but it might well be the slogan of three members of the Women's Dorm Council. And it looks like they may be singing it all the way to Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

The three girls have decided to take over $1,000 provided for by our Activities Fees to go to a convention and learn how to manage and spend the dorm council's budget. I think the girls know how to manage the money all too well if they can spend $1,000 on themselves without the entire student body in dissent.

Takes $1,000 to spend $1,000?

In theory the idea is a good one, but in practice it isn't even close. The convention is being held March 27-31, and there was only about two and a half thousand dollars left in the council's budget as of February 18.

That means that after the three "delegates" return, they will have spent over $1,000 to learn how to spend approximately one or two thousand dollars that might still be left in their budget. I think this "convention" will in no way benefit the majority of the student body of LHS. Rather it will benefit three people who will remain in office less than two months after they return.

One of the "delegates" is a senior and the other two will have to be re-elected next fall (in the event they would run again) to receive even a partial gain from the $1,000 spent (wasted?).

Request is a surprise

Ellen Lambert sent a letter to the Senate Appropriations Committee "concerning the transfer of $150.00 for a third delegate to definitely be able to attend the IAWS convention." I attended the February 25 meeting of the council and noticed that when Miss Lambert announced the SCC had approved the $150.00 request most of the members present were completely surprised. At this time, Miss Lambert announced she sent another letter to the Committee requesting an additional $100.

We're probably lucky they were appropriated the extra $150. You wouldn't believe the scheme they were hoping to use to gain the money elsewhere.

The Social Committee is facing a severe cutback in funds for next year - which means less concerts, movies, and general things to do on campus. Students are facing a possible $5 increase in activities fees. And of course we may have a radio station to buy for someone. At times like these why do we continue to spend thousands of dollars a year on trips and conventions for the benefit of two or three delegates from organizations such as the Women's Dorm Council?

Still come out ahead?

If we didn't spend the "proposed" $20,000 on the radio station, and the $1,000 for the dorm council convention next year - we could subtract the revenue gained by a $5 activities fee increase and still come out ahead by well over $6,000.

Maybe I should change the title of this column from What's In to What's Up. It is your money, and you should have a say as to how it's spent. Remember, you do have a right to complain, and your student government officials do have a responsibility to listen.

According to the WDC, "The delegates attending the convention will write a report when they return." I think that's an awful expensive report, or postcard.

Track opens; young squad sported

The Lock Haven State track team opens their 1974 outdoor season on April 6 against Millersville State.

Then on April 10 the Bald Eagle thinclads host East Stroudsburg State and Trenton State in a triangular meet at the Hubert Jack Stadium.

Fourteen lettermen return for Lock Haven State from a 1973 team that posted a 1-8 record. However the 1974 roster of coach Jim Dolan's thinclads includes many freshmen and the first year performers could have a lot to do with the outcome of the upcoming season. Several have shown great potential in indoor competition.

The 1974 Bald Eagles will be led by Co-Captains Mike Gaige and Wayne Covington. Gaige, a brilliant distance runner last year, won the Pennsylvania Conference one-mile championship race with time of 4:13.0. He also holds the Lock Haven State College all-time mile record at 4:12.0 set last season.

Covington, an outstanding hurdler, won the conference 120 high hurdles in 1972 with a time of 14.7. Last year Wayne finished fourth at the conference meet with a 14.8. He holds the LHSC record in the 440 yard intermediate hurdles with a 55.1 time.

Another top notch returnee is senior three-year letterman Jack Weaver who came in third at the championships conference in the high jump event in 1971 and 1973.

Other returning lettermen are: Tom Burns, 6th in conference in triple jump; Tom Bush, 440 yard dash; Jerome Conlon, 100-220, and Jim Hoke, 6th at conference in long jump. Dennis Harmon, 3-6 mile; Rustin Holmes, hurdles; Bill Landis, 1-3-6 mile runs; Tim Loomis, long jump; Leo Monteforte, long jump and sprints; Dave Sheen, shotput; and Eric Burkert in the 3-6 mile runs.

The 1974 varsity schedule: APRIL 6, at Millersville, 1 p.m.; 10, East Stroudsburg and Trenton (triangular), 3

4 lettermen return

Tennis season to start soon

With four returning lettermen the Lock Haven State College Tennis team under Coach Karl Herrmann, should improve over last season's 1-6 record.

Coach Herrmann, in his seventh year at the helm, opens his 1974 season at Juniata College on April 2.

The home opener for the Eagles on the tough nine match schedule, is slated for April 4 with neighboring Lycoming College.

Heading the list of returning letter winners is junior Ken Gibson who played at number one singles last season and posted a 3-4 record. Sophomore Craig p.m.; 16th at Slippery Rock with Clarion, 3 p.m.; 20th at Juniata with Albright, 1 p.m.; 24th, at Mansfield with Bloomsburg and Lycoming, 3 p.m.; 26-27th, at Philadelphia for Penn Relays.

MAY 4, Shippensburg and Indiana, 2 p.m.; 10-11, Pennsylvania Conference championships at East Stroudsburg.

Shindler returns at the number two spot where he posted a 1-6 mark his freshman year.

Senior Tom Bowen played at No. 4 in 1973 and sported a 2-5 record, while Chip Snare was 1-6 at the No. 6 spot in his first year of competition. Also back with some experience was the seventh ranked performer Lennie Long.

Gibson and Shindler played the number one doubles position throughout the 1973 campaign. Bowen teamed with Scott Kaercher and Snare was at the number three position with Bill Lentz. Both Kaercher and Lentz have graduated.

Copeland invited to Olympic try-outs

Don Copeland, who last fall completed a brilliant four year soccer career at Lock Haven State College, has been invited to try out for a berth on the United States Pan-American and Olympic team.

Copeland was selected last fall for the All-East First Team and received Honorable Mention recognition on the All-American squad.

During his four year career under Coach Karl Herrmann the Coatesville native was selected by his teammates as the Most Valuable Player all four seasons.

He also was picked for the Pennsylvania Conference All-Star First Team four straight years and led in the balloting for the squad in 1973.

Copeland is first Lock Haven player ever invited to the Olympic trials which will be held at Springfield College on March 29-30. The Pan-American Games will be held this summer and the Olympics in 1976.

AAUW holds book sale

by Jane Cruse

Once again, the Lock Haven Branch of the American Association of University Women are sponsoring its spring book sale.

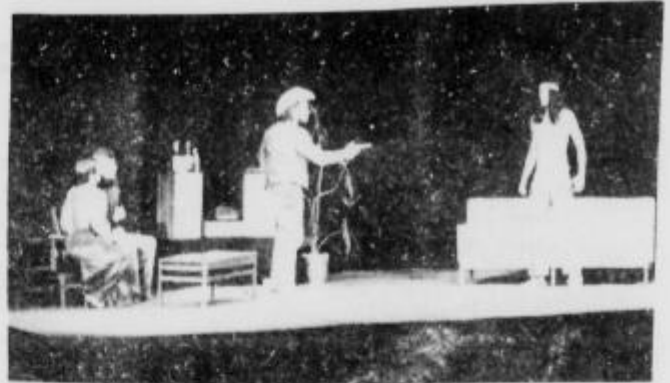

Members of Tri-Sigma sorority and Acacia fraternity will serve as college coordinators to collect on the LHS campus. They will also help at the sale April 18-19.

Proceeds from the annual AAUW sale help provide scholarships for women undergraduates at Lock Haven State College.

College residents and staff who wish to donate books, novels, reference and technical books, paperbacks, records, or sheet music may place them in the collection boxes located outside Mr. Brady's office at 4aub 403 and at the main desk in the PUB. Other collection areas are: Bottorf's, Luria's, Fidelity National Bank, and Central Counties Bank in downtown Lock Haven.

A new aspect has been added to the yearly sale. Recycling old newspapers and magazines is also slated for the event. Collection dates will be announced later.

classified as immediate needs include a waterfront facility, new administrative offices, college owned apartment housing, seating and halltime facilities at Jact Stadium, and a new classroom facility.

The proposed waterfront facility, to be located along the river, would include a marina office and classroom, pier and mooring area, a launching ramp, and trailer parking.

A new classroom building with proposed location on the present site of the old hospital would house a computer center, TV studio, and conference center.

The west side of Susquehanna Avenue across from Stevenson Library is the possible site for new administration offices.

Dr. Russell Milliken closed the meeting by noting that the masterplan in present form is not an architectural design, but a schematic presentation of what the campus should look like. Any comment on the plan, or questions, should be directed to Dr. Milliken.

NEW ORGANIZATION: A meeting to organize a campus branch of the National Organization for Reform of Marijuana Laws (NORML) will be held Thursday, March 28 in the PUB color TV lounge at 8 p.m. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

INTERNSHIP: Five students from Lock Haven will be selected for an internship working for pay in the state government at Harrisburg during the first semester, 1974-1975. Any upperclassman in any school or curriculum may apply or seek further information. Apply at Himes 106 immediately.

LHS Veterans Club has changed its weekly meeting from Tuesday to Thursday nights at 9 p.m. ALL Vets welcome to attend these meetings at the Bucktail Inn.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS: An organizational meeting will take place in the Pub color TV lounge Tuesday, March 26 for the Young Democrats. All interested persons are invited to attend.

There will be a meeting Tuesday, March 26, at 7 PM for any male or female interested in joining Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity. The meeting will be held in the PUB Conference Room.

The chess club has changed its meeting day from Tuesday to Sunday. Meetings will be held in the PUB Conference Room at 7:00 P. M.

WORKSHOP: All students who registered for the workshop, "Sex Education for the Mentally Retarded", on March 27, for 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., should arrive promptly in Himes 111 that Wednesday evening. There will be room for everyone who registered but others have had to be turned away, so be sure to occupy your reserved seat.

CRUCIBLE: There will be a mandatory meeting this Thursday in Russell 05 for all students interested in working on this year's literary magazine. If you are unable to attend, please contact Debbie Rowles, ext. 407.
