Concert Closes Season

By HAROLD ANDREWS

Tomorrow, April 16, the SCC Cultural Affairs Committee will present the final concert in this year's Lock Haven Artist Series. Performing for the second time on our campus will be the FREIBURG BAROQUE SOLOISTS, from Freiburg, West Germany. Concert time is 8:00 p.m., at Sloan Theater.

In the realm of performing instrumental ensembles, the Soloists are unique in several respects. To begin with, their name is something of a misnomer; they perform music primarily from the late 18th century. Also, although each performer is of solo calibre and is often featured as a soloist with many ensembles, this ensemble concentrates more on creating a musically homogenous entity, rather than on displaying the particular talents of the individual members.

Since their formation in the early 1960's, the Soloists have steadily risen to become one of the top European ensembles in their field. In 1970 they toured Czechoslovakia and other eastern countries. They made their debut in North America in 1975, marking their tenth anniversary.

The Cultural Affairs Committee invites everyone to take part in this Wednesday's concert. Tickets will be on sale at the Sloan Box-office beginning at 7:30 p.m. Persons with a validated LHSC ID will be admitted free of charge. Ticket prices are $3.00 for adults and .75 for students of high school age or under.

New Date Set

Due to foul weather over the past few days, S.C.C. President Gerald Getz has rescheduled "Quiet Wednesday" for April 23. Getz stated that too many groups and organizations have a lot of money wrapped up in this event and a last minute delay would be more harmful.

Jack Stadium is in unsuitable condition to hold an outdoor concert at this present time. The extended forecast for the remainder of the week is also very unfavorable.

All events are scheduled as planned except "Hybrid Ice". Another band will be substituted.

The new raindate for "Quiet Wednesday" is set for April 30

Student Art Display

By HAROLD ANDREWS

"Installations, sculpture-paintings and drawings." That's one of the ways in which Stephen Hickoff describes his art, on display this week (April 13-20) in the north lounge of the PUB. Observers have found individual pieces in the exhibit to be "electrifying", "painfully real" and "so attractive that I could not avoid the urge to touch it".

The next time you're passing through the PUB, stop by the north lounge area and see what has prompted these reactions. Hickoff, a student at L.H.S.C., will give a lecture tonight at 8 p.m. At that time, he will be available to discuss any of the pieces at length with all who are interested. The exhibition is being sponsored by the S.C.C. Cultural Affairs Committee.

Photographers Wanted

The Eagle Eye is looking for enthusiastic spring photographers. Students may pick their subjects (i.e. track, lacrosse, portraits, etc.) and their own hours. All interested students are asked to attend a brief meeting Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in the Publications Office (lower level PUB). If unable to attend, please leave your name and phone number on the list posted on the outside of the Publications Office. Those students planning to attend the meeting

Humanities Film

PAISAN, this week's Humanities Film, was made in Italy right after World War II. It consists of six separate stories about the war. Realistically filmed, acted mostly by nonprofessionals. The film is in Italian with English subtitles. Paisan will be shown tonight in Raub 305 at 8 p.m. On Wednesday evening, the film will be shown in Ulmer Planetarium at 8 p.m.

"Big... Bad... Mouse."

By PAM YOBLONSKI

From a loser to a winner again-- this is the plot behind "Big... Bad... Mouse!", a light comedy being presented on April 15,16,17, and 18 in Sloan 321. This play provides a comical look at how a man's life changes when he is suspected of attacking a young woman.

The cast includes Gary Machak who plays Mr. Bloome, the mousey executive believed to have a secret double-life as a sex-starved attacker. David Shuey plays Mr. Price-Hargraves, Bloome's bossy co-worker. Other cast members are Barb Paladino as Fiona Jones, Joe Meszaros as Harold Hopkins, Cathy Polischek as Miss Spencer, Susan Szabo as Lady Chesapeake, and Marti Cunnon as Doris Povy. Maureen Tulley is the director, and Deb Petrosky the stage manager.

The play takes place in England, in the offices of Chunky-Bix Ltd. and focuses on Mr. Bloome, a bumbling man who is constantly pushed around and made the center of everyone's jokes. Mr. Bloome is then unjustly accused of attacking a young woman which he denies, until he sees that people start treating him differently. He is no longer bossed and teased, and women throw themselves at him. Bloome enjoys his new image of being virile and macho, until his supposed victim realizes she made a mistake, and drops the charges against him, but not without his protests. Bloome then goes from macho the mouse again, as order is restored to Chunky-Bix Ltd..

L.H.S.C. Baseball Team Off To Foul Start

By BOB BAKER
DON GLASS

"Our goal is a winning season," stated Baseball Coach Charles Eberle, in an interview discussing this year's outlook for the baseball team.

Experience could be the key to Eberle's goal since many of last year's players will be returning this spring.

Tennis Team Remains Unbeaten

BY BRENDA BUBB

The Lock Haven State College Men's Tennis Team is well into its 1980 season with five returning lettermen leading at the nets.

Karl Herrmann is a veteran at the head coaching position. In thirteen seasons of coaching, Herrmann has an overall record of 56-52 including five straight winners.

Herrmann doesn't actually know what to expect for the upcoming season. For various reasons, the No. 1 and No. 2 men from last year's team are unable to participate this season. Herrmann foresees a lot of work ahead of him because the first two positions will have to be filled by somebody else. As weather improves, interteam playoffs will determine where the players will be placed. Herrmann said that it is going to be a tough season, and all the players are going to have to play their best for the team to have a successful season.

Five letter winners return this season from the 1979 team that posted the best record ever at LHSC with a 10-1.

At the top of the returning list is sophomore Gary Schutrum, Buffalo, NY. With a 12-1 record last season, he was the No. 6 player in singles. He placed second at the Pennsylvania Conference Tournament last year.

Junior Jeff Wear, Lewistown, Pa. has played in the No. 3 position for the past two years. Last season he posted a 17-8 record and could move into the No. 1 spot this season.

Another two-year player,

Six starters return from last year's team that was 8-19. The team was 2-8 in the Western Division of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC). The starters who are returning are; catcher Jim Schaffer, first baseman Joe Kelihar, shortstop Bob Lynn, left-fielder Ed Tarconish, centerfielder Ed Blessing and right fielder Keith Gochenour.

Tarconish, last year was a member of the PSAC Western Division first team All-Stars. Blessing was selected to the second team Western Division PSAC All-Stars.

Commenting on this year's team, Eberle stated, "Our pitching must be improved. We have good team speed and a good defensive ballclub. I'm also hoping that the offense comes around."

Eberle praised his assistant coaches Steve DeLisle, Tom Randecker and Ken Fisher.

DeLisle, who is in his second year as a student assistant, handles the fall program and assists in the overall coaching of the team. Randecker is also in his second year and is the pitching coach. Fisher is a new assistant coach who helps in the overall running of the team.

Eberle is looking forward to this season as he hopes to make a run at California State, the defending Western Division Champs. Eberle sees the division as being well-balanced.

L.H. VS. I.U.P.

Indiana, Pa.--Too many walks and not enough strikeouts told the story once again for the Lock Haven

Women's Softball, Swinging Into Spring

By DAN MCGURGAN

The LHSC Women's softball team, now in its fourth year of existence, has had nothing but success during that span. This year, coach Donald Keener has a lot of confidence in his team, and believes this team is slightly better than last year's team, which finished, 13-7.

This is the first season the women's softball team enters into division 3 play. Keener said, "I selected this division because we are a small school, and no scholarships are offered here." He also said, "if at any time I think we are good enough to move up to a higher division, I will do so." Keener's main goal is to have his team be good enough to be selected to play in both the regional and state college tournament. A team's record, what kind of competition they played against, and the scores of their games are a few factors deciding whether or not a team is to be chosen to play in either tournament.

Keener believes his chances are good, because he feels he has a very talented team. He spoke highly of several players, including Patti Contursi. "She is an excellent fielder and she has a great arm," said Keener. He said that Kim Eckley is the team's number one pitcher, and this will be her third year starting at that position. Keener feels the only thing he needs is an improvement in the hitting of the outfielders. He said that Terri Beegle is the team's best outfielder. Last year the team lost two outfielders, first baseman, second baseman, and its shortstop due to graduation. Keener said that he has suitable replacements for all of these positions. "We're sound defensively, and have excellent pitching, if our hitting comes through, I believe we'll have a good season," said Keener.

Keener says that he likes to

Champion Lacrosse Team Defend Title

By LESLIE FORRESTAL

The Lock Haven State College Lacrosse team will be defending last year's title of National Division II Champions. Back, to help the team do that, are: Cheryl Fluck, Nancy Burton, Sue Sadler, Ellen Hearn, Shirley Porter, Patti Kellett, Diana Minshall and Elaine Pierson, last year's varsity players. Other returning players are Tammy Anderson, Jody Alexander, Barbara Ferguson, Patricia Wiehler, Lisa Moser, Regina Gebhart, Lucinda Hoffman, Charlene Pletz, and Franki Bailey.

The season will be eight games long, with the toughest competition being Westchester, Penn State, and Ursinus.

Rose Ann Neff, her first year as Lacrosse coach at Lock Haven, faces the problem of putting together the attacking half of the team. But, she's "glad the defense is intact from last year."

When asked what she thought the team looked like at this point she said, "It's hard to tell, we've been inside the whole time."

Jeri Meyers will be assisting Coach Neff during the season.

Weekend Tourney

ITHACA, N.Y.--It was an even split for the Lock Haven State women lacrosse team on a two match weekend trip into New York State.

Saturday afternoon the Eagles lost to Cortland State by one goal 4-3. But then came back Sunday morning and broke open a close match midway in the second half to beat Ithaca College, 7-2.

coach women, and he is very content doing so. He coached high school basketball for thirteen years, and says this will probably be his last coaching job. "Coaching the women's softball team for these four years has been made easy for me, because the women that have come out for the team are both talented and dedicated," Keener said that the team practices every week night, Cortland, coached by former Lock Haven State athlete Janet Greene, scored first on a goal by Cori Shaw.

Sue Sadler tied the contest at 1-1 but right before the half Cortland took the lead at 2-1 on goal by Mary Ann Jules.

The winners came out after the halftime break and scored two quick goals by Tish Fahey and Shaw for a 4-1 advantage.

Lock Haven came back with two scores by Franki Bailey and Patty Kellett but fell one goal short.

At Ithaca, the Eagles took a 2-0 lead on goals by Elaine Pierson and Franki Bailey.

The home club then scored on a goal by Sue Benaliel and trailed 2-1 at halftime.

Ithaca tied the score at 2-2 early in second half but then Lock Haven took over and put five straight goals in net on scores by Patty Kellett, Bailey, Diane Minshall and two by Teri Taylor.

The Lock Haven junior varsity team remained unbeaten on the season with wins over Cortland by 4-2, and blasted Ithaca by 7-3 margin.

Scoring against Cortland were Lisa Hoffman 2, Mandy Lessig and Judy Alexander. In the Ithaca triumph the goal makers were Reggie Beghardt, Cindy Hopper, Sue Rose, Pat Wiehler and two by Alexander.

and it's all business. Those people that believe softball is an easy sport, Keener would like them to attend a team's home game.
