Three bands featured tonight

By GEORGE MORRISON
Staff Reporter

This year's Spring Weekend concert was rough to schedule. "It took me 2 months of picking and choosing to finally come up with what we now have," said Steve Hughes, Social Committee Chairman.

The Head liner for this Spring's concert is the rock group RARE EARTH. Also appearing will be BREEZEWOOD ARC whose drummer is a former Lock Haven State student. The evening's highlight may be the second group on the billing. The John Poussette Dart String Band. They previously appeared here at Lock Haven with Livingston Taylor in 1973 and the Eagles in the spring of 1974.

The concert will be held on Friday April 18 at 8 p.m. in

Thomas Field House. Admission for students is $2.50 in advance and $3.00 at the door. General admission tickets cost $4.00 in advance and $4.50 at the door. You can purchase your tickets in the Secretary's office on the ground floor of the Pub between 1 and 3 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

Carnival held Sat. in Rogers to benefit PARC

Another part of this weekend's activities will be a carnival held Saturday from 1 to 5 in Rogers Gym. The carnival is sponsored by the McEntire Hall Council. Scheduled events include pie throwings, sponge throwings, black jack, and a bozo booth.

Participating organizations include TKE, ZTA, the Vets Club, the Students for Social Action, the Residence Hall Association, and 7th floor McEntire. Proceeds from the carnival will go to the Penns. Association of Retarded Citizens.

Fall employment altered to establish priority need group

Student employment at the state colleges has changed markedly for the 1975-76 academic year. As a result of the "Revised Plan for Equal Opportunity in the State Colleges and University," a Priority Need Group must be determined for hiring students to the campus payroll. To be eligible for priority consideration, a student must file a Parents' Confidential Statement (PCS) with the College Scholarship Service. The program will be monitored by the Office of Equal Opportunity of the Department of Education.

Those students that demonstrate "need" (resources that are insufficient to meet the costs of education) will be interviewed for jobs during the first week of the semester. Those students that do not demonstrate need or do not file the PCS will be considered when the Priority Group hiring period is completed.

The deadline for filing the PCS for priority consideration for 1975-76 shall be April 30. The PCS and further facts on the program changes can be obtained in the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Tickets on sale for production of Apple Tree

On Monday, April 14, tickets went on sale for the College Players musical production, "The Apple Tree."

Only 700 tickets will be sold for the four evening performances opening Wednesday, April 30 and running through Saturday, May 3.

Producer Brian Stoppe, said, "With both Parent's Weekend and Freshman Orientation being on campus for our final performances, College Players are betting on breaking house records for attendance. It's been seven years since we produced a musical on this campus and it should bring in quite a few theatregoers and just folks interested in some 'fun' entertainment." He suspects the best seats will be available Wednesday and Thursday.

Programs and ticket orders have been forwarded to the parents of Lock Haven State College students, invitations are being sent to area colleges and universities as well as incoming freshmen in fine arts areas.

The Broadway show itself is the combined efforts of the Theatre and Music Department students and faculty. It will appear on the campus' Price Auditorium at 8 o'clock p.m. during all four evenings.

Tickets are on sale at the secretary's office, lower level of the Parsons Union Building. Any tickets not sold there will be available at the door one hour prior to curtain. General admission is $2.00; children under 12, $1.50. Tickets are free with a properly validated Lock Haven State College ID card.

Today's Editorial

Love is potent

With all the events scheduled this weekend it's going to be extremely difficult juggling the hours to go to all the concerts, movies, canoe races, bike hikes, sporting events, registering for classes and doing homework. Needless to say it's easy to see what will be the first item on the list to be sacrificed -- and, somewhat ironically, registering for next semester's classes will be the most important.

But what about all the things between those two extremes? What are you going to do to have the best possible time between now and Monday morning?

Well, the college community does not hold a monopoly on this being a Spring weekend. There are a lot of children from the Clinton County area who are anxiously awaiting this Springtime weekend.

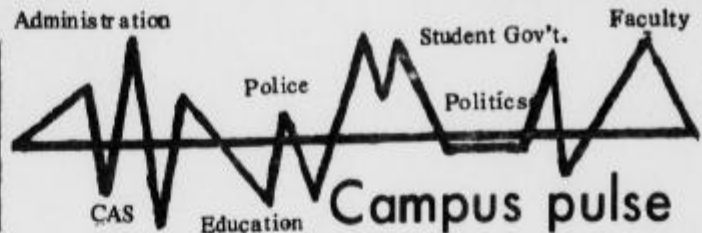

These children are poor, not financially -- but rather mentally and physically. You can't give these children scholarships, and send them off to college to be forgotten. None of them will probably ever go to a college. And you can't build hospitals and send them away -- the problem will still exist. There is no known cure for mental retardation, only a very powerful medication called love.

A few weeks ago I had my first real encounter with retarded children at the Council for Exceptional Children Easter party held in Bentley Hall Lounge. It was most puzzling to see students, parents (the few who cared enough to come) and the children all smiling and all very happy. I could not understand what these children had to be happy about.

I could not have fun with them. I could only feel very sad and wonder why. But this Saturday morning at 10 a.m. I and anybody who wishes to, will get another chance to find out why everybody is happy. The Council for Exceptional Children in conjunction with the local Jay-ees are sponsoring a Special Olympics. The several hours of activities will provide the retarded children of the Clinton County area with a very special Springtime weekend.

Perhaps the day will not be as exciting as registering for classes, worrying about the classes you don't get, and looking for a hang-over remedy -- but to these children the day is indeed a special one, and every student at Lock Haven State College can help make it even better. Why not get your fraternity, sorority, wing members or just your roommate and come out and cheer for these kids between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. tomorrow.

If you would like to help with any of the track and field events please come to the Painter Memorial Field (behind McDonalds) and help give a retarded child an even break. Show a child how smart you really are by helping him throw a ball or helping her to run a race.

All night this week and through Sunday night LHSC students are staging "Operation Takeover" of WBPZ. Were you informed of this? If not why, and if you listened to it why or why didn't you like it?

SKIP PALLMAN, Theatre major - Junior

"I listened to some of it and liked some parts and disliked others. My dislike was based more on the way the people presented their material rather than the material itself."

LYNN BERKLEY, Early Childhood major - Freshmen

"Yes, I was informed of it. I listened to it one night. The basic idea was good, but it needs more experience."

LORI BRIGHTUP, Pre-Law major - Freshman

"I was informed by various teachers, but I didn't tune in only because I had a lot of tests this week. I strongly support a campus radio station."

KEVIN MONTONE, Psychology major - Freshman

"I was informed through the daily bulletin and I listened to it and I like it. I wish there was more contemporary music and less interviews."

Letter to the editor

To The Editor:

OPERATION TAKEOVER is a great success! The students in Dr. William Reich's Applied Journalism class, as well as other students, faculty, and administration, are to be congratulated for their effort and their success. Good luck to all of you during the coming programs this week. Let's all listen, call in comments, and generally support these brave souls as much as possible.

HAVEN IS DEAD END FOR SLIPPERY ROCK'S WINNING STREAK - - The Lock Haven State baseball team stopped a Slippery Rock State College winning streak when they split a double header Wednesday afternoon.

Baseball team splits against Slippery Rock on Wednesday

By MIKE CRONE
Staff Reporter

Playing perhaps their best overall baseball of the young season, the baseball charges of Coach Tod Eberle walked away with a 9 inning 2-1 victory over previously undefeated Slippery Rock in the first game of Wednesday's double header. Unfortunately for Lock Haven the second game of the doubleheader did not have the same result. LHS suffered a slight let down after the exciting first game and "The Rock" took advantage of it to post a lopsided victory.

The victory in the first game was sweet revenge for Lock Haven hurler Steve Lebo. Lebo lost a 2-1 heartbreaker at Slippery Rock last year.

Slippery Rock had jumped out to a 1-0 lead but the Eagles battled back to tie the score on first baseman Steve Delisle's run scoring single. The score remained tied throughout the 9th inning with each team having its chances to win. Lock Haven finally took advantage of its opportunity to win the game on the 9th. After one man was out, freshman Russ Martin reached first base after an unsuccessful sacrifice attempt. He then stole second and went to third on an infield out. With two out shortstop Mike Crone singled to center to score Martin.

Lock Haven's overall record stands now at 8-6. A full schedule of games is set for this weekend with a doubleheader against Kings College on Friday and highly touted York College on Saturday. The starting time for these games is 1:00 at the Woolrich Park Field.

WOMEN'S TENNIS WIN -
The LHS Women's Tennis team beat Gettysburg Wednesday afternoon 9-0. Shown at right is Deb Stopper with her teammate Ellen Magliaro playing the net.

Athlete's Feat

By BILL STERNER
Co-Sports Editor

The Bald Eagle trackmen of Coach James Dolan have suffered four straight setbacks after an opening day nudge over Juniata, to drop to a dismal seasonal mark of 1-4. The most recent mugging came after a disastrous dual meet this past Tuesday with springtime track titan Slippery Rock, and a less than impressive Clarion team. These defeats, combined with the thrashing of last weekend at the mercy of Trenton and East Stroudsburg State College, have been disappointing to LHSC track followers, to say the least. But, Coach Dolan has most probably seen some bright promise in the thus far, near fruitless campaign.

Most of that promise last Tuesday came in the person of sophomore long jumper, Joe Brooks. Brooks leaped to a Lock Haven State record of 22 feet, 2 inches, eclipsing the old record of 22 feet, 1½ inches. Brooks best jump previous to the tape breaker was 21 feet, 3 ¼ inches. The effort by Brooks can only get better, and is a sorely needed addition to the Eagles point production. Congratulations Joe, for a fine achievement.

The Bald Eagles continue their rugged schedule at home this Saturday against perennial powerhouse, Millersville. The meet is slated for a 3 p.m. start.

Though football is still months away, super-star Joe Namath is making headlines across the nation. Chris Hemmeter, president of the financially floundering World Football League announced this week, that the Chicago Fire has offered Namath a very lucrative contract to play in the W.F.L. The contract pads Namath's pockets with 2,000,000 dollars over the next three years, with a 500,000 dollar down payment just for inking the dotted line. The contract asked that Namath devote his field general services to the Fire until the close of the 1978 season. A bonus clause pays Namath 100,000 dollars a year for the next 28 years after the contract runs out. Says Hemmeter, "This league needs a super-star like Joe to really help us grow."

Somehow, this doesn't seem to be sound thinking. Hemmeter is overlooking a great deal in backing the Chicago Fire in their quest for the legendary 1968 Super Bowl hero. Namath is 32 years old, and has been earning his living on a pair of bum knees for the greater part of his pro-career. These facts should be enough to cool anyone off to the Hot Jet's quarterback. However, if Hemmeter still isn't phased by this, he should take note from the financial mistake the New York Yankees made with multi-million Catfish Hunter. After all, one should learn from other's misfortunes.

SCC sponsors conference

The SCC Cultural Affairs Committee is sponsoring an up-coming Philosophy Conference to be held at Lock Haven State College on April 30, May 1, and May 2, 1975. The Conference is entitled "Contemporary Irrationality," and its purpose is to enable scholars from different disciplines and students to engage in a common dialogue concerning contemporary attacks on man's rationality.

Participants in the conference will include: major speaker Professor Henry Veatch, Chairman of the Philosophy Department at Georgetown University and internationally renowned defender of man's rationality; Professor Jorge J.E. Gracia, Co-Chairman of the Philosophy Department at S.U.N.Y. at Buffalo; Professor Martin Dillon of the Philosophy Department at S.U.N.Y. at Binghamton; Professor Peter A. Redpath of the English/Philosophy Department at Lock Haven, who will give the keynote address; and Professor James Y. Dayananda, Chairman of the English/Philosophy Department at Lock Haven State College, who will give the closing address.

In addition to the above participants, any faculty members or students who are interested in participating on some scheduled panel discussions are welcomed to register this interest with Dr. Redpath.

Fall registration set for Saturday

This Saturday at Thomas Field House will be registration for next semester. It will begin at 8:00 a.m. and run until those unlucky few have finished registering around five o'clock.

There are schedules posted in the main floor window of Raub and second floor of the Pub. They will also be posted in the Field House during registration.
