Carroll to attend two seminars this summer

Dr. Richard Carroll, Professor of Economics here at the University, will be attending two seminars this summer. He will attend one seminar through a grant from Philip M. McKenna Fellowship, which was awarded to him early this month.

The Philip Mowry McKenna Fellowship was awarded to Dr. Carroll for the Study of Market Economics. The fellowship, in the form of a grant, will enable Dr. Carroll to participate in the 1984 Summer Seminar in Political Economy, conducted by the Cato Institute of Washington, D.C., and will be held at Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire.

Dr. Carroll said, "The Cato Institute is a public policy research foundation. The Cato Institute is dedicated to broadening the parameters of policy debate to allow consideration of more options that are consistent with the traditional American principles of limited government, individual liberty, and peace."

The seminar will focus on participants examining and learning about the options for public policy. It will cover the areas of economics, history, and American domestic and foreign policy.

Dr. Carroll says that the award, which he applied for, is made by the Philip McKenna Foundation, Inc., of Latrobe, PA, and the Center for Economic Education of the Duquesne University School of Business and Administration, Pittsburgh.

Dr. Carroll will also participate as a discussant at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Conference of Economists, of which he is a member, to be held in Allentown, PA, in May 1984.

Dr. Carroll, formerly of Wooster, Ohio, and presently residing in Lock Haven, has been part of the LHU faculty since 1977. After completing a B.A. degree in Economics at the College of Wooster, Ohio, he finished his M.S. in Economics at Florida State University. Dr. Carroll then received his Ph.D. in the same subject, from the University of Kentucky.

'Faculty Follies' concluded

By Elly Walters

The "Faculty Follies" brought an enthusiastic crowd to Price Auditorium Friday night for its first annual fundraising event.

Featured performer and university president, Dr. Craig D. Willis, said at one point in the show, "What I won't do for APSCUF."

In an effort to raise money for its scholarship fund, the faculty union offered the audience acts from opera to comedy and breakdancing to country music.

The show opened with a musical comedy skit performed by various faculty and staff. Members of the university Dance Club and two community musical groups, the Women of Note and the Mellowmen performed, along with fiddler Ira "shorty" Hayes, and singers Gerry Cierpilowski and Sunny Woodward.

Rock music was provided by the band Katzenjammar, and a group of student dancers, "The Electric Breakers," entertained the crowd with their rhythmic gymnastics and even got several faculty and administrators to join in, including Dr. Willis.

A Wild West melodrama, "The Last Chance Saloon", was one of the highlight performances, and starred Dr. Willis as the outlaw Tex. A comedy skit, "If Faculty Behaved as Students Do", drew alot of laughs from the audience.

Businesses express thanks

Special discounts and lower prices were the way that local businesses expressed their thanks to the Lock Haven University students on Student Appreciation Day, which was held in the downtown Lock Haven area on Saturday April 28 from 9:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The Lock Haven Business Bureau sponsored this special day for students.

Diann H. Stuempfle, mayor of Lock Haven, said that Student Appreciation Day was started so that the business community would begin to recognize the college students, and to improve communications between the college and the community.

Stuempfle said Lock Haven University students improve the community life of Lock Haven by shopping at local businesses, and also by the fine work that they do in helping out the local charities.

Stuempfle also said that she would like to thank the Lock Haven University students for the fine job that they did during the flood scare in February. "Having the college students near at the time of an emergency really eases the minds of many people, especially the elderly," Stuempfle said.

Crews lectures on suicides

By Mike Bodino

Suicides increasing on college and university campuses was the topic as Dr. Don Crews, Director of Student Counseling, commented on the film, "College Can Be Killing" on Thursday night in Raub Hall.

Crews said the primary source of suicide is severe loss, either of relationships or self-image over achievement.

A second cause is a sense of hopelessness or isolation. Students with single rooms tend to become introverted, confused, and alienated and refuse to talk about it to others.

Crews said a third major cause of suicide is unwanted anger.

Since suicide is common to college campuses, more attempts are being made by the Residence Assistants (R.A.'s) to talk to the students about their problems. The counseling by the R.A.'s is a good way to try to prevent suicides.

Crews said women are 10 percent more apt to attempt suicide, but men are three times as successful. Women tend to be more dependent on males and are more sensitive to social acceptance.

The rate of suicide between the ages of 17 and 25 is increasing at an alarming rate according to Crews.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Follies offer fun for everyone

Dear Editor:

Who said life at LHU is boring & dull? Who said there was not much to do on campus? Who said it would cost too much money to have good entertainment?

Who said because of different value judgements, students could never have fun with faculty & staff? Who said an amateur group can never succeed in putting on a good show?

The answers to the above questions are all negative. Faculty Follies, on Thursday & Friday, April 26 & 27, has proven that all components (Administration, students, faculty, and staff) of LHU, plus the townspeople, could have wonderful entertainment, full of fun, at minimum cost, for a worthy cause.

Because of the enthusiasm of faculty, staff, & students, the show was a great success in terms of winning the audiences' hearts & enriching our APSCUF Scholarship Fund.

As the Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, I would like to salute & express our sincere appreciation for all of you who participated in the First Faculty Follies. I sincerely hope that it will become our annual fund-raising event for scholarships to help bring in outstanding high school students to enroll in LHU.

Bob Chu

Chairman of APSCUF Scholarship Comm.

Netmen lose three times

By Rocco Pallotto

As if the tennis team hasn't had things rough enough this season, they lost three more matches last week and have three more tough ones in a row this week.

After losing to Mansfield 8-1 on Wednesday and 9-0 to IUP on Thursday, the Eagles traveled to Shippensburg on Saturday, only to get shut out 9-0.

Mark Savage dropped a 6-0, 6-1 decision at number one, while Russ Krise lost 6-4, 6-1 at number two.

Things weren't much better at three and four, as Bryan Belman and Joe Green lost 6-0, 6-2 and 6-1, 6-1, respectively.

Kash Mishra lost 6-1, 6-3 at number five and Rob Birchfield fell 6-1, 6-2 at number six.

Head coach Glenn Miller continued to shift the doubles pairings. This time Savage and Belman teamed up for a 6-3, 6-2 loss. Krise and Birchfield fell 6-0, 6-1 and Green and Mishra lost 6-1, 6-1.

Miller wasn't very pleased with the Bald Eagles loss to Shippensburg, under former LHU netter John Hubert, who played with Miller here at LHU.

"I was very disappointed with the loss," he said. "Nobody on the team showed the ability to win and/or come back from being behind. Right now, we're faced with the stigmatism of lack of self-confidence, which is reflecting our individual play.

"The only bright spot out of this match came at doubles, where our changes indicated some improvement."

The Eagles will take on Susquehanna, 10-1, today at 3 p.m. They travel to Juniata tomorrow and on Thursday they take to the road again as they head for the two-day PSAC championship at West Chester.

Smykowski lifts varsity to win

On the strength of a Tommy Smykowski fourth quarter touchdown run, the Varsity football team edged the Alumni gridders 13-9 in the Third Annual Alumni vs. Varsity spring game Saturday at Hubert Jack Stadium.

Smykowski, a sophomore tailback, scored the winning touchdown on a 4-yard run midway through the fourth quarter. Before the touchdown, the score was knotted at 7.

The Alumni gridders, coached by Danny Miller, scored their only touchdown in the second period on a Danny Greer to Bill Sementelli pass. Bennie Shoemaker booted the point after touchdown.

A safety recorded by Alumni linebacker Brian Sekerak was the only other second half score besides Smykowski's run. Sekerak trapped quarterback, sophomore Todd Reigel, in the end zone late in the fourth period to end the scoring.

Recording interceptions for the Varsity were Bill Peterson, Tom McNally, Allen Urich, Jeff Damico and Reggie Moore. Ben Pavalko added an interception for the Alumni.

The varsity gridders of coach Jack Fisher will conclude spring drills this week.

Lacrosse team

By Dave Prusak

Nobody told the lacrosse team that 23-9 scores were supposed to be reserved for fall Saturday's at the football field. Ten consecutive goals in the opening twelve minutes of the game sparked the lacrosse team to a 23-9 romp over visiting rival Bloomsburg on Saturday afternoon.

The opening twelve minutes of the game were thoroughly dominated by the Lady Eagles. Senior co-captain Mary Beth Driscoll and sophomore Sue Cornish scored three goals apiece in the opening offensive assault. Also contributing for LHU were senior Joan Laird and sophomore Sheila Murphy with two goals each.

Laird's second goal at 11:40, the 63rd of her career, broke the record of 62 goals set by Sue Woolston in 1979. Play was momentarily halted for Laird to take the ball from the goalie as a momento, hug her teammates, and receive a bouquet of flowers from her coach Rose Ann Neff.

Bloomsburg may have been down 10-0 following Laird's goal, but they didn't quit. The Lady Huskies scored four straight goals and eventually found themselves behind by only a 11-5 count at halftime.

The second half figured to be less offensive than the first, but it only ended up being more explosive for LHU. The Lady Eagles scored five straight, surrendered one, and then scored five more in a row to take a 21-6 lead. Scoring went back and forth in the end and LHU wrapped up a 23-9 win.

Leading the second half scoring for LHU were Laird (3 goals), sophomore Rhoda Thorn (3 goals), and freshman Nora Sharkey (2 goals). Also scoring for the Lady Eagles in the second half were Cornish, Driscoll, Kathy Michener, and Mary Buzby. Halfway through the second half LHU coach Neff replaced some of her starters with reserves.

LHU junior goalie Chris Cortellessa made 15 saves. Bloomsburg freshman goalie Terri Horstmann, who took several wicked shots off the mask, recored nine saves.

Following the win, LHU coach Neff said, "I have no complaints about our performance today. I was pleased for Joan (Laird) and the team had a tremendous game. We were really motivated to win."

"The whole team was excited for Joan. They wanted to play well and make the day memorable for her. The team wanted nothing but pleasant memories for Joan," said Neff.

Neff added, "The passing was the best we've had all season. We capitalized on ground balls and shooting. Mary Beth Driscoll had her best performance of the season. I was also pleased with the performances of Joanne Migliaccio, Wendy Lou Bayer, and Kathy Michener who haven't seen much varsity action. They kept the momentum on our side."

Bloomsburg coach Sharon O'Keefe said, "I was impressed by LHU's passing game and corner shots. Our zone was more effective than our man to man defense. We usually have slow starts and it hurt us again today."

Laird, the all-time scorer in LHU lacrosse history with 66 goals, said, "I couldn't have set the record without the help of the rest of the team, including our goalie Chris Cortellessa. Everybody was up for the game. I told Ann (Grim) we would get revenge against Bloomsburg in lacrosse after getting beat by them in the championship field hockey game last year."

Laird added, "Today we played well throughout the game. There were not let-downs or inconsistencies. Our passing was on and we were hitting the open player. I hope to add to my scoring record on Thursday against West Chester."

Senior Kim Michener said, "Our team wanted to win the game because we knew Joan would break the record. We had nice cuts and passes even though Bloomsburg's defense was weaker than a lot of teams we've played this year. It was the first game this year where we really worked together to help each other out."

On Thursday the regular season will come to an end when the 5-4 LHU lacrosse team hosts a good West Chester team at 3 p.m.

The top four lacrosse teams will battle it out for the PSAC championship this weekend at West Chester.

Bald Eagle '9' edged twice

By Dave Walters

The Bald Eagle baseball team squad watched their chances of a playoff berth slip away as the Mounties of Mansfield edged them in both games by one run in their conference doubleheader Saturday.

Head coach Gary Bartley's squad has dropped their last four games, three by one run. Bartley said, "By getting close, the kids know how to get there, but they have to learn to win. I know it us good for us in the long run, but it is frustrating."

Mansfield started the scoring in the second frame on a wild pitch by LHU starter Bob Baker. The Eagles came back in their half as Junior Tom Riechenbach ripped a single, stole second, advanced to third on a throwing error and also scored on a wild pitch to tie the score.

The Mounties scored runs in the third and fifth innings to take a 3-1 advantage. In the LHU half of the fifth co-captain Glenn Fultz nailed a single down the third baseline and Carl Goshorn advanced Fultz to third with a single to right-center. Fultz scored on an error to come within one.

The Eagles started a rally in the seventh but couldn't bring anymore runs around.

Goshorn registered two hits to lead the Eagles in the hitting department. Bob Baker was handed the loss.

In the second game the Mounties took an early lead, scoring three runs in the first off LHU hurler Dave Lloyd. Mansfield tallied runs in the second and the fifth to take a 5-0 lead.

A sixth inning rally sparked by doubles by Tim Heaster and Randy Koleno brought the Eagles four runs but it wasn't enough to win.

These two losses lower LHU's record to 8-16 overall and 5-9 in conference. Bartley said, "Our goal is to finish with a .500 season. I haven't given up on the team and I don't plan to but we are finding ways to beat ourselves."

Bartley said, "We're in the battle but we're not winning the wars."

Lady Eagles playoff hopes in doubleheader split

By Christa Landas

Pennsylvania Conference Western Division play-off dreams dimmed a little for the LHU Lady Eagle Softballers as they split a conference doubleheader with Indiana University of Pa. on Saturday.

Lock Haven dropped the first game, 4-2 and then easily pounded the Braves 10-0 in the second.

First, though, the Eagles took on Clarion University and handily won both games of their doubleheader on Friday, 8-3 and 7-1.

After four innings in the first game, the score was 4-1 with the Bald Eagles leading Clarion.

Then in the fifth, Tina Martin slammed a double; Lori Ferguson, Bonnie Lassen and Beth Hess cracked singles to add four more runs to the LHU score to easily grab the victory from CUP.

The pitching win went to Kathy Kreisher as she struck our four Clarion batters and had no walks.

Numbers in the hit department were fairly even as LHU tallied 11 and Clarion stroked 10.

Lassen led the Bald Eagles in offense with a 3 for 4 effort which included a double. Tina Martin batted 2 for 4 with two doubles.

The score was 1-0 Clarion until the fifth inning of the second game, when Kreisher and Martin hit singles and Lori Ferguson smashed a two-run single that got Lock Haven the lead.

Teresa Martin cracked a solo home run in the sixth inning for the Bald Eagles' first homer of the season.

The seventh inning saw LHU grab four more runs against the Golden Eagles.

Wendy Heiges and Kreisher had RBIs in the seventh. Donna Graupp also hit a Clarion pitch for a two-run single.

Sandy Staib garnered the win for LHU. She struck out one and walked five Clarion women. Staib only allowed two hits in the second contest.

The Lock Haven Softballers registered 15 hits off of the Clarion defense.

The Eagles split their doubleheader with Indiana. This puts the Lady Softballers at 14-7 overall. LHU's Pennsylvania Conference Division record stands at 6-4.

In the opener, Lock Haven could only connect on three pitches. The Lady Bald Eagles defense was guilty of six errors in the contest.

Beth Hess, Wendy Heiges, and Graupp were the only Eagles to get wood off the IUP pitcher. The three hits were all singles.

The two LHU runs came in the first inning on no hits, a pair of walks, and numerous wild pitches.

Hess hurled the pitches in the opener. She allowed just four hits. Hess walked two and struck out two.

In the second half of the twin-bill, the Lady Braves committed eight errors to hand the game to LHU.

The first inning saw Graupp single and Kreisher crack a double to knock ... run. Kreisher then came home on a wild pitch for a 2-0 LHU lead.

Lock Haven scored three runs in the second inning. Graupp belted an RBI single and Kreisher sacrificed for the runs.

Three additional Lady Eagles reached home plate on terrible IUP defense. LHU had no hits in this third time at bat.

Kreisher and Lynn Lavook hit RBI singles to give Lock Haven a 10-0 advantage in the fifth over the Braves.

The game was then stopped due to the rule that takes affect when a team has a ten run margin over their opponents after five innings have been played.

Coach Wayne Allison said of the split, "We let down. It was the same problem we've had all season. In the crucial situations, we let down. We only have ourselves to blame. Indiana played their best game all year against us, but we should probably have still beaten them. We just weren't ready to play Indiana at that time."

The Lady Eagles' chances of obtaining a play-off spot in the Western Division have dimmed. To grab a place in the play-offs, Edinboro would have to lose their two remaining games and Clarion would also have to drop two. Slippery Rock is most likely in the championship rounds with only two losses that they suffered against Edinboro.

HONOR MOTHER ON HER DAY . . .

By feeding the world's hungry children

On Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13th, people all over the United States will try to express to their mothers the love and devotion they feel for them. By making a donation of $5 or more to CARE in honor of your mother, you can send CARE food to hungry children around the world, or self-help tools and seeds that will be used to help grow food for them. CARE will also send a special Mother's Day card to your mother telling her of your thoughtfulness. This is truly a meaningful way to remember Mother on her day.

Dr. Kleinman gives lecture

By Laurie Robison

Trying to get students to learn chemistry through imagery was the essence of a lecture presented by Dr. Roberta Kleinman in Raub Hall, yesterday.

Kleinman said that when students hear a word related to chemistry, many of them will get a symbolic meaning, which is the first step of this new process of learning.

The second step is to get the students to form situations according to an experience they had from a lab. This leads to the final step, the student forming a model in his/her mind. "The biggest problem," Kleinman said, "is getting students to relate the symbolic meaning with the situation."

"The data is very preliminary because of the small amount of people tested," said Kleinman, who has done most of the studying.

She finished up by saying, "Through these steps, students can learn what might be."

RAM Run set for Saturday

Two Lock Haven University students, Bud Murphy and Kathy Staib, are defending titlists in the sixth annual running of the RAM Run, scheduled for Lock Haven this Saturday morning at 11.

Murphy took last year's over-all crown with a winning time of 30 minutes, 10.4 seconds. Staib was the first female finisher, her time 37:59.6.

The run is sponsored annually by WBPZ and the US Army. Entry forms are available on campus in the equipment room of the Zimmerli Building, at WBPZ, and the Lock Haven YMCA. The pre-run entry fee is $4, $5 the day of the race.

The race starts and ends at the YMCA. The 5 1/2 mile route is onto Great Island, the return trip through Dunnstown and Lockport. It is open to both novice and experienced runners.

Trophies and medals will be awarded in 10 categories. All participants will receive a t-shirt and a food coupon. Confair Bottling Company of Williamsport will provide free soft drinks to all runners.
