Hamblin Inaugurated

The realities of the Viet Nam war and the military role of the United States in the world will be the subject of a lecture by General Maxwell D. Taylor Wednesday evening at 8:15 p.m. in Price Auditorium. His appearance is being sponsored by the SCC Assembly Committee.

Lock Haven State College officially has a new president. Dr. Francis N. Hamblin was inaugurated Saturday afternoon in Price Auditorium. The Inauguration ceremony began as the College Marshall, Dr. Daniel P. Showan, led the Academic Procession, consisting of the Presidential Party, the Board of Trustees, delegates of universities and colleges, and the LHS faculty, to their seats.

General Taylor served as the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in 1964 and 1965. He has also been U.S. Ambassador to South Viet Nam and president of the Institute for Defense Analysis. Presently, he is the chairman of President Nixon's Foreign Relations Advisory Board.

The Inauguration was given by Rev. Donald R. Shover, Jr., President of the Lock Haven Ministerium.

In his book, The Uncertain Trumpet, General Taylor points out the advantages of a "flexible response" to aggression as opposed to a "massive retaliation." In a report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Taylor quoted the Greek historian, Polybius: "It is not the purpose of war to annihilate those who provoke it, but to cause them to mend their ways." Thus, Taylor may be described as a devilish hawk.

Dr. Richard T. Parsons, President "meritus of the college, welcomed those present and extended greetings to Dr. Hamblin. Of his college administrative experiences, Parsons said to Hamblin that "It was a good life, a wonderful life here on campus. I hope you have the same wonderful time."

At the present time, General Taylor is working on his Memoirs which he hopes to publish in the near future. He is one of the most sought after speakers in America today because of his unique ability to establish a warm rapport with all kinds of audiences. Tickets for Wednesday night's lecture are still available at the PUB reception desk.

Gary Worthington, SCC president, then spoke, saying that when Hamblin had first arrived on campus, students had watched him with a quiet reserve. "Students still watch this man," said Worthington, "no longer with the quiet reserve, but with honor and respect."

Dr. David H. Kurtzman, Pennsylvania's Secretary of Education, then invested Dr. Hamblin with the office of President of Lock Haven State College.

The address was given by Miss Rebecca F. Gross, member of the Board of Trustees. She commented on the social changes taking place in America today, calling for education's response to those changes. "Now that Americans become voters at eighteen," she said, "It is more necessary than ever to teach our young people how to find and use facts intelligently." Of Hamblin's job, she said that "The college president of today has no bed of roses, but he has a stimulating job."

Hamblin brings 20 years of educational administrative experience to the campus. He has already instituted new programs here at LHS, the most notable of them being a student exchange program with the Nottingham College of Education in England.

Music for the ceremony was provided by the Alard Quintet and the LHS College Choir Ensemble.

Tickets to the Maxwell Taylor lecture are available for distribution at the reception desk in the Parsons Union Building.

One ticket will be given to each student and faculty member if identification is presented showing affiliation with Lock Haven State College.

Book Review

Game Enthusiast Writes Book

David L. Silverman invented his first game at the age of seven in order to arouse his grandfather's waning interest following a prolonged losing streak at casino. Since that time Silverman's passion for games and puzzles has been consuming. It culminates today with the publication of a fascinating book: Your Move -- A Treasury of 100 decisions problems designed to challenge your insight. (McGraw-Hill, $6.95).

for the Journal of Recreational Mathematics, and vice president of the Chester Conklin Fan Club.

He is chief consultant for the Litton Industries' "Problematical Recreations" series as well, and still finds time for such hobbies as horseback riding, bodysurfing, boogie-woogie and jazz (vintage 1930), ancient Greek and Roman satiric poetry, English literature of the 17th and 18th centuries - and, of course, puzzles, problems, and games of which he claims to have a book collection exceeded, if at all, only by the Library of Congress. He is the words of Silverman - favorite writer and mentor expatriate, "Before they made Silverman, they threw away the mold."

"The objective of this book is to entertain," the author indicates. "Any instruction you derive from it is unintended." The book succeeds admirably, at least in failing to provide a shred of instruction.

The first part of the volume, illustrated by Don C. Oka, consists of 80 game problems with the solutions printed on the reverse side - the author hates to thumb through a puzzle book in quest of a solution, with the risk of inadvertently reading the solution to a problem not yet attempted. For example:

"Driving in unfamiliar territory, you stop to get directions at a large house with a fenced-in lawn. Absent-mindedly you neglect a sign at the gate which says BEWARE OF DOG. You are half way to the house when you suddenly see a vicious-looking Doberman Pinscher streaking toward you with teeth bared. You have neither weapon nor protective clothing such as a jacket with which to defend yourself. And you haven't a chance of getting back to the gate in time. Your move!"

(Appropriately, this situation occurs in a section titled, "Life Games.")

The second part of the book contains 20 unsolved games - a mine of intriguing research problems that serious gamblers may find even more entertaining than the solved problems.

The problems, in both sections, involve challenging "moment of truth" decisions in games of chance, games of skill, games conventional, unconventional, serious or bizarre.

Silverman is a consulting mathematician at Hughes Aircraft's Space Systems Division, is instructor at the UCLA Mathematics Extension, "Problems and Conjectures" editor

On May 5th, a nationwide moratorium will occur to commemorate the killings at Jackson and Kent State last year. It will be a spring of fensive against war, poverty, racism, and repression. In conjunction with the activities in Washington, D.C., we are planning a series of discussions to educate and inform the entire community about these issues.

One senior member of the cast, Karen Witcoskie, is a Sec. Ed. English major from Shamokin, Pa. Dennis Finberg from Philipsburg, Pa. is Liberal Arts Social Service major. He has appeared in such shows as "Damn Yankees," "Cheaper by the Dozen" and "The Miracle Worker." "Rumpelstiltskin," "Little Mary Sunshine" and "Arsenic and Old Lace" serve as resume for Michael Wampole, and Elementary Education major from Williamsport, Pa. Kevin Murphy, a Sec. Ed. Math major from Boyersford, Pa., has to his credit "The Music Man" and "Picnic on the Battlefield." A math-physics major from Gettysburg, Pa., Mark Manahan has worked with "January Thaw" and "Get Witch Quick."

Not a stranger to LHS, Nelle Fastman, a theatre major from the Philadelphia area, has appeared on the stage in "He To Hecuba," "Major Barbara," "The Lesson" and "View from the Bridge." Senior Becky Morgan, majoring in Elementary Education, is from Grantham, Pa. Becky appeared on the LHS boards two years ago in "The Visit." Another member of the cast who has worked with College Players before in "View from the Bridge" is Cathy Peterson, a sophomore from King of Prussia, Pa. Randy McCombie who appeared in "Major Barbara" last semester is a Social Science-Sociology major from Nicktown, Pa. From Irwin, Pa., Cell Lauer, a junior in the Physical Education curriculum has appeared in "He To Hecuba," "The Magic Feather" and "View from the Bridge." "Death of Bessie Smith," "The Music Man" and "Oliver" are the shows that Ezell Monts, a sophomore General Science major from Harrisburg, has been affiliated with. William Lundy, a freshman English major from Elizabethtown, Pa. held the lead role in "Finian's Rainbow" and stage managed "The Skin of Our Teeth." Lastly, Dale Hedderick, a freshman from Radner, Pa., is a theatre major. He has been on stage in "Major Barbara" and "Picnic on the Battlefield". Considering the theatrical background of the cast, "The Miser" should be an entertaining evening for everyone who attends one of the performances on May 13, 14 or 15 in Price Auditorium.

Club Sponsors
N.Y.C. Trip

LOCK HAVEN - Twenty Lock Haven State College students recently spent a weekend touring New York City. The trip was sponsored by the LHS Spanish Club.

Accompanying the students to New York were Mrs. Hilda Vivas-Salas and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mullen. Mrs. Vivas-Salas and Mr. Mullen are members of the Spanish Department staff.

Among the points of interest visited by the students were the United Nations conducted tour; Radio City; St. Patrick's Cathedral; Central Park; Hispanic Museum, and Statue of Liberty.

Students making the trip were: Charlotte Clymer, Debbie Freeman, Sandy Landis, Mary Hartzel, Joyce Redos, Vickie Sloan, Sue Devling, Kathy Nicoletti, Ginny Tompkins, Jackie Hunter, Anna Vance, Janet Lozar, Kathy Correll, Lee Bloes, Phil George, Ron Jury, James Bowman, Mike Colburn, Frank Stone, and Cindy Walsh.

Anyone who plans to attend the Washington MayDay March should contact Mike Wampole or Pat Quinn in 204 North Hall for special information.

Any student having problems exercising the Pass-Fail Option should see Dr. Robinson or the respective division head rather than Dr. Williamson as was stated in Wednesday's paper.

Prospective Wrestlers

LOCK HAVEN -- Jim Doster, District II wrestling champion from Allentown Dieruff High School in Allentown, and Gary Yoder of Philipsburg, former Philipsburg-Osceola High School wrestler, are planning to enroll at Lock Haven State College according to head coach Dr. Ken Cox.

Doster had a great 1970-71 season for Dieruff compiling a 16-2-1 season mark and was a Regional runnerup. At Lock Haven he will compete at 167 or 177 pounds.

Last season Yoder wrestled for the Williamsport Area Community College team and went undefeated. He is expected to wrestle at 134 or 142 pounds.

Coach Cox sees a bright future at Lock Haven for both Jim and Gary. "Doster has the great potential to be a NCAA Champion before he graduates from Lock Haven State," stated the LHS mentor.

Class elections will be held May 6, 1971. Offices available will be President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and male and female SCC Representatives. Petitions for office can be secured from Steve Fish, room 51 Smith Hall, April 23-29. Campaigning will be from April 29-May 5, 1971. Those elected will take office for the coming school year beginning September 1, 1971.

People Making Peace

The purpose of the Mayday activities is for the people of the United States of America and Vietnam to begin the implementation of the People's Peace Treaty...the people are making peace. Non-violent civil disobedience tactics will be aimed at closing down the government agencies in Washington D. C. between May first and fifth. The Mayday committee wants to gain support for the Treaty and not bring about a hostile reaction to these tactics, violence toward people or property will not be employed or tolerated.

A recurrence of the police riot which took place in Chicago is most unlikely as long as the peace is kept, since the police forces in and around the city of Washington D. C., are some of the most disciplined in the country.

There are going to be G.I.'s performing police duties, but most of them support the Mayday actions and many are working directly with them.

"May Day activities have been organized into regions - our region is Central Pennsylvania, which has been expanded to include all of Pennsylvania, except the Pittsburgh area. We are working with Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Indiana. Our target for the civil disobedience actions is the intersection of Constitution and Pennsylvania Avenues (target no. 22). This target has only recently been added to the original 21 and is

May Day Plans Set

Interested students of Lock Haven State College are planning a Spring Moratorium on May 5 in memorium of the deaths at Kent and Jackson State and Vietnam.

At the meeting on April 29th they established a four point program to be held this Wednesday. It will consist of a series of discussions focusing on war, poverty, racism, and repression. There was also interest in the idea registered, to register and inform of voter registration procedures.

In conjunction with these discussions there will be speakers spotlighting the topics. The time schedule for these speakers has been set up as follows: 10-11:30 am -- poverty, 12 pm -- presentation of flowers at flagpole in commemoration of the deaths, 1-2:30 repression, 2:30-4 pm - war, 4-5:30 racism.

Also, at this meeting there was an unanimous agreement to become an ad hoc committee of the SCC aid in going through the proper channels. This committee will then be dissolved after the May 5 moratorium.

Classes have not been canceled in order for those who want to go to class and for those who do not want to participate.

Also scheduled for the May Day moratorium is a memorial service vigil in front of Russell Hall beginning at 11 pm, Tuesday. This will be an all night vigil and those planning to attend are asked to bring candles.

Lastly there was the institution of student marshals to be present at the program. They will initially attempt to prevent ruckus from starting and to maintain the peacefulness that the committee is striving for.

The committee encourages everyone to participate in the program on the Russell Hall lawn and are reminded that in case of rain the alternate site will be either Bentley Hall or the PUB.

not marked on the May Day maps of Washington. Our Movement Center in Washington D.C. is the First Congregational Church, 10th and G St., Room 206. Our phone number will be 628-1443 or 628-1444. It will open on the afternoon of April 28 and remain open through May 5."

On May 1 the people from all regions which are participating will assemble at the West Potomac Park. Which will be the camping site for the week. Each region will have a complete living unit set up, with medical facilities, food, bathroom, etc. provided.
