This Is Lock Haven . . .

. . . Small and Friendly

 $\mathbf{A}$ n informal world of knowledge

On the banks of the Susquehanna, amid the blue Bald Eagles.

Here eight hundred young men and women

Discuss calculus in the cafeteria line,

Exchange views on Sputnik over cokes in the Student Union,

Share panel discussions with faculty at club meetings,

Watch TV in the Middle Social Room,

Read their home-town newspapers in the library,

Sing carols during Hanging of the Greens at Christmas,

Hold midnight gab fests on everything from sex to religion,

Live, laugh, and labor together four happy years

 $In \ this \ challenging \ process \ of \ becoming \ teachers.$

• Friendly confab on porch of Russell Hall — home-away-from-home for two hundred coeds.

Our Tree-Shaded Campus

• Looking across campus to west entrance of the Eagle Wing, new Student Union.

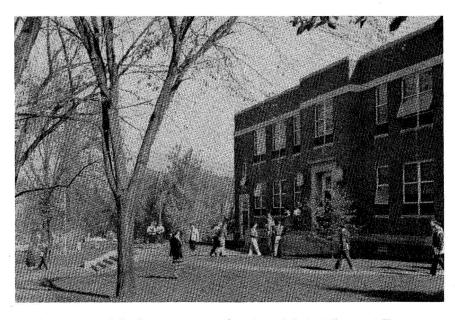

• On the doorstep of Stevenson Libe, Jean Ann Beck, Patricia Hoy, and Judith Love total statistics—fifty thousand books, three hundred periodicals, and seventeen newspapers.

• It's just one o'clock — time for Chemistry lab in Ulmer Hall.

 $\overline{\mathbf{W}}$ e know that faculty are people.

We chat with them in the Student Union,

At our organizational meetings, at hobnobs, dances, and picnics

And on long field trips to New York,

To nearby campuses, or just to the college pond.

Because our college enrollment is kept small,

We are able to count our fifty-six faculty members as friends:

They welcome our Student Council representatives

At their monthly faculty meetings;

Faculty and students together are now planning

 $\label{lem:approx} A \ \textit{faculty-evaluation survey on a mutually beneficial basis}.$

On our faculty, composed of thirty-five men and twenty-one women,

Are ten Ed.D.'s and eight Ph.D.'s and thirty-eight holders

Of masters' degrees, many of whom are approaching doctorates.

But it isn't the degree that counts with us;

It's that faculty are people!

• President's Tea: Mrs. Ferguson coaches Dr. Parsons and Hilda Cabrera-Chico in the art of ladling.

 DR. RICHARD T. PARSONS, President, State Teachers College, Lock Haven.

To the Students:

Sometimes I regret the fact that I am now president of Lock Haven instead of one of its classroom teachers.

Where I formerly knew the names of most of the students as well as their virtues and weaknesses, I now must struggle with such practical jobs as budget-making, endless reports, and the ever-present challenge of attempting to guide our small college to better educational practices.

Within the various duties of my office, decisions must always be made in terms of student growth. Here at Lock Haven it is rewarding to look upon a scene of friendliness and co-operation such as is exhibited by our students and faculty.

Here we plan together with the hope that each student will be best-educated according to his aptitudes, abilities, and interests to serve through our chosen profession — teaching.

Richard T. Parsons

Education Is Our Business

To become good teachers is what we students are trying to achieve here at Lock Haven. Through small, informal classes we learn how children develop mentally, socially, and physically. Our cultural interests are expanded through general courses, and we are also given opportunities to develop our own personal interests.

Our experience in teaching is gained by actual teaching in Akeley laboratory school and other cooperating schools around Lock Haven.

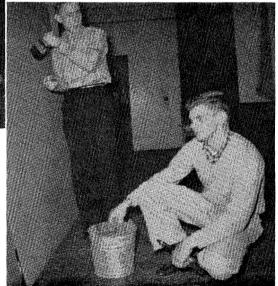

Julian Serianni checks formula before explosion in chemistry lab.

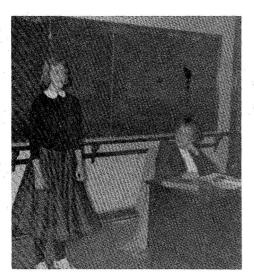

In French lit Jackie Carodiskey tells Mr. Koons and Dawn Miller la part amusant est a la page soixante-douze.

Working together develops spirit of education

 $\mbox{Mrs.}$  Ferguson and Lorraine Kaminski find talk on dormitory life amusing in Speech I.

Water bugs beware! Here comes Jo Dietz looking for Biology collection.

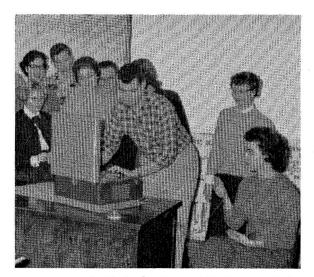

Student teacher Janet Whiting shows first-graders clay modeling.

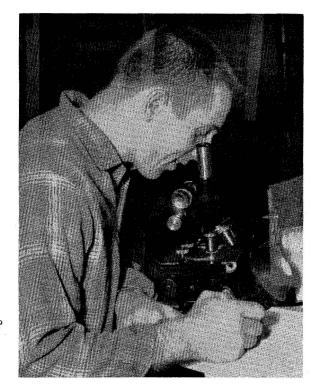

In down-to-earth discussion Ron Puhl and Harriet Fuge check insect collection for Biology.

Students prepare for profession of their choice, teaching

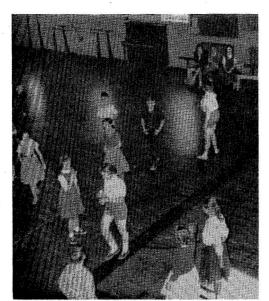

Rewind. Record. Playback. Rice and Gitch demonstrate.

What does Chuck Bretzin find so amusing in a microscope?

"The autumn leaves drift by my leaf chart," is the version sung by Dr. Schultz's Basic Biology classes.

"Move it over," demands John Stempien of Ron Johnson and Jerry Norton.

Betsy Herron experiences "joys" of Elementary Education.

Entering freshmen live in awe of upperclass wisdom—for a while.

Soon small informal classes and friendly dorm life bring together

Freshmen and upperclassmen.

In sports school loyalty grows through participation.

 $In\ campus\ organizations\ leadership\ and\ fellowship\ develop.$

Cultural backgrounds widen in General Lit., History of Civ., Philosophy,

 $Shake speare, Contemporary\ Novel, Introduction\ to\ Art\ and\ Music.$

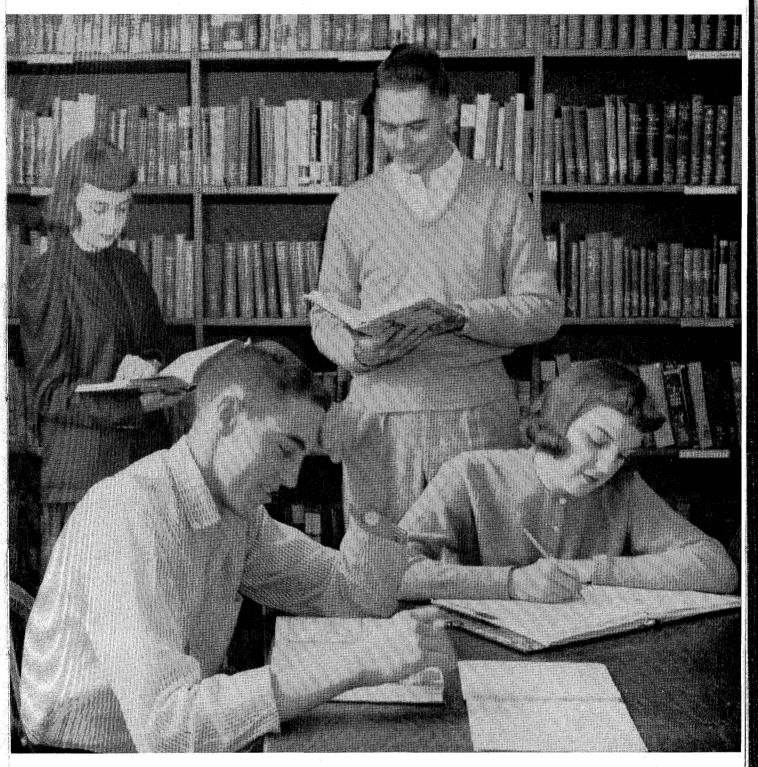

Beginning knowledge of how to teach comes in all classes, especially in

Problems of Sec. Ed., Teaching of Science, and Practice Teaching.

Research techniques grow in library work, term papers, three-hour labs.

Learning, laughing, sharing become part of every student's life.

Seniors leave college having learned how to seek the answers, But that they will never find them all.

• Mary Jane Himmelreich, Robert Thomas, George Kaufman, and Sylvia Searfoss do research.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS
Kent Addis, vice-president; Dorothy Brown, secretary; Edward Joseph, president; William Groff, treasurer.

Seniors . . . We have realized our goal

Hilda Cabrera-Chico, Puerto Rican beauty, enthroned on Senior Float, "Stairway to the Stars," in Homecoming Parade.

How did you like student teaching? You liked it? So did I. This year has passed so quickly. I can't believe it's gone. It seems like yesterday that we seniors paraded through the dorms singing Christmas carols at 5 a.m. Now we're graduating with only memories left. Studying through Philosophy and American Government may have stretched our minds a bit, but we forgot the strain at the Senior Ball. Senior Assembly and graduation came all too soon. We choked back tears as we stood in the Circle after commencement.

Sophomores . . . Prize-winning float starts the year

The look of superiority on a sophomore face comes from achieving the long-awaited goal of upperclassman. Beginning the year by dominating the freshmen and penalizing them in Customs Court, the sophs soon settle down to such typical courses as History of Civilization, General Literature, and Psychology. The many details of Winter Weekend, held during the Valentine season, are managed by the sophomores. With a mixture of hope and fear the sophomores face second semester with sophomore tests and Junior Class Standing. After these hurdles they relax again to enjoy the fun and happiness of being sophomores.

Officers include Patricia Humphrey, president; Donald Gallucci, vice-president; Agnes Sudik, secretary; Roberta Robbins, treasurer; Mary Lou Poling, SCC representative; Mr. Charles Vonada, adviser.

Happy sophomores find first place at end of "Rainbow" on Homecoming float: Sudik, Humphrey, Raber, Grimes, Zerbe, Thom, Bennett, and Kerchak.

Freshman Class

Frosh adorn "Honeycomb" float: Lynn Copestick, Donna Vanerstrom, Ellen Bonebreak, Eleanor Sendek.

Big sisters, freshman orientation, and beingon-your-own were new experiences that came with life as a freshman. How to get along with your roommate, how to study, and how to use the Library of Congress classification system were also things a freshman had to learn. Twohour labs and term papers presented problems, but conferences with the advisers soon resolved them. Sorority and fraternity rushing, Spring Weekend, and general fun fulfilled the life of a frosh.

Officers include Francis Domenick, president; Alan Towns, vice-president; Ruth Porter, secretary; Robert Grenoble, treasurer; Linda Boardman, SCC representative, and Dr. Irene Russell, acting adviser.

m Between posing for ID pictures as freshmen, And facing the camera in cap and gown four years later as seniors Lies the most rewarding growth span, yet the shortest in our lives. At Lock Haven we grow intellectually, socially, spiritually; We mature; we gain our goal; we become teachers. Behind us on the four-year path live memories— Classroom lectures echoed later in the dorm or in the car homeward-bound, Exams, field trips, library excursions to study, to browse (to date), Football in fall, wrestling in winter, baseball and tennis in spring, Convocation, Homecoming, Freshman Kangaroo Court, Christmas Whirl, College Players' Night Must Fall, College Choir's Spring Concert, Bloodmobile, Religion-in Life Week, assemblies, teas, Hobnobs, dances, Advisory get-togethers over coffee in the Student Union, Organizational meetings, panels, conferences, off-campus and on-campus— These are the memories that become a part of us, All of us—faculty and students alike— As together in this small college we weave our memories.

Presenting the forty-fifth edition of Praeco

Today you hold in your hands the work presented by a staff of thirty-five members. Into this book went hours of hard work, but also much enjoyment. Part of the fun five staff members will never forget is their trip to New York for the ACP Conference, and the entire staff will remember the banquet in the spring.

During Saturday morning workshops, Rosemarie Cupani, associate editor, and the members of the literary staff struggled with the write-ups.

"Where are pictures taken tonight?" asked staff members as Marty Bliss handed out photographic assignments.

"Organizations must be in before Thanksgiving," stated Aggie Sudik, as Lena Thom, Julie Grimes, and she poured over the ones then turned in

"Who said the directory was easy!" sighed Eleanor Robbins as she completed the last name for the final time.

"Is it 'e' or 'o' in 'adviser'?" inquired Mary Kay Crandall, frowning as she copyread the 152 pages of the yearbook.

"Who can type well?" asked Fran Kalafsky as she prepared her staff for the assignments ahead. This book could have never been produced without the help of our adviser, Miss Marretta P. King, who was always willing to help us over our many rough spots.

Miss Gladys Widemire, our photographer, patiently assisted us, as she has for the past three years.

Kathy Dietrich, our busy business manager, and her staff deserve many thanks for their work on subscriptions and advertisements.

To Mr. James Frailey and Mr. Barnard Taylor, of Grit Publishing Company, we owe a thousand thanks for helping with the complicated make-up of the yearbook.

To the people above we owe our hearty thanks, but we also owe gratitude—

To George Kaufman, who at the zero hour picked up the loose ends of sports and produced our sports section.

To Marge Cancilla, Jackie Carodiskey, Nancy Geise, and Marcia Bonebreak, who did the class sections.

To all staff members and others who helped us produce "This Is Lock Haven — Small and Friendly," I say thank you again and again for a job well done.

News and views brought by the "College Times"

What's the latest from your hometown? Ellen Bonebreak, Patti Hall, Fritz Colteryahn, and Bob Pavlovich know.

"Many Important Topics Discussed at SCC,"
"Bald Eagles Win 9 in Row, Break Record,"
"The Student Speaks," "I Cover The Campus;"
The College Times brings us teachers college news—unbiased and direct along with student and faculty opinion on campus as well as national issues.

The College Times is an outgrowth of The Eagle Nest, which ceased publication toward the end of last year. At that time industrious English Club members realized the need for a student news publication, elected William Horan to edit the new news sheet, and published an issue in May.

This year, with an edition coming out every two weeks, staffers of the Times are kept busy in their High Hall office. The staff includes William Horan, editor-in-chief; John Jurick, assistant editor; Robert Ott, sports editor; Markay Bennett, copy editor; Lorraine Gitch, feature editor; Sandra Woolever, secretary; and fifteen reporters. George Dunkleberger handles business affairs, and Mr. William Vafeas and Miss Lorraine Wood give their time to advise The College Times.

The Crucible

We plunge
Our potentials
And pitfalls
Into the furnace of thought,
That they may fuse
And endure.

This is The Crucible, a literary anthology of poems, short stories, and essays written by Lock Haven students with creative writing ability. The Crucible is published annually at the close of the spring semester by the creative writing class under the advisership of Mr. Edward B. Hills, of the language arts department.

Although The Crucible is a publication of the English Club, any student may submit his work for this student publication.

The Compass

A necessary item in the life of every student is a small, compact book called The Compass. It contains a directory of the faculty and staff members; student expenses, activities, and organizations; and the school calendar. It is particularly essential to the frosh, who, during Customs, must never leave their rooms without, among other things, a Compass.

Mr. John Koons and his efficient staff, consisting of Marjorie Cancilla, Jackie Carodiskey, Dolores Delp, and Lynn Copestick, revise and publish this handbook yearly with funds allocated by the Student Co-operative Council.

College Players bring Broadway to Lock Haven

Harry Price threatens Jean Moore in "Night Must Fall."

College Players, a dramatic organization for those interested in all phases of theatre, present two major productions each year to the school and community. They not only act, but also work with scene building, lighting, stage directing, and the numerous other tasks that go along with a play. Members enjoy the life and work of the theatre and realize the advantages the experience will be in their future work as teachers. It is considered an honor to be a member of College Players, for new entries are accepted as pledges and only a qualifying number of work hours make membership possible. Dr. Earle Winters acts as friend and adviser to the group.

Officers include Ruth Shontz, president; Joseph Keller vice-president; Charles Kelly, secretary; Donald Meyer, treasurer and SCC representative.

English Club

We always associate steak and English Club at picnic time. The club members look forward to this outing as one of the most enjoyable events of the year. The English Club membership consists of students and faculty who are interested in language and literature.

Monthly programs include literary discussions, and presentation of creative writing by members.

Plans for the year include a one-act play staged by the group; the annual Christmas party, this year held at the Children's Home, in Lock Haven, with the traditional blazing plum pudding; and a trip to another college to enjoy a program and to share ideas with the English group on that campus. Adviser is Dr. William R. North.

Art Club

Wire sculpture and water colors, bronze statues and basket weaving all play a part in the life of the Art Club members. Anyone who has a special interest in art and an urge to create may join the club, although evidence of some art ability is a pre-requisite to joining.

The art exhibits shown every month in Sullivan Hall are sponsored by the Art Club and, if the artists are local painters or sculptors, the club introduces them to the students at a tea.

Meetings of the club are largely informal—no berets and cigarette holders for these "Bohemians," just hard work and a sense of satisfaction in creating an art object worthy of exhibition. Adviser is Dr. Edna A. Bottorf.

International Relations Club binds school and community

The International Relations Club has achieved recognition not only on campus, but in the Lock Haven community itself. Through the various panels and speeches which are open to the public the club has brought current events to the attention of town and gown.

This year the International Relations Club held a panel discussion on current Puerto Rican problems with four Puerto Rican students participating. Also, the club invited M. Pierre Boyer, attache at the French Embassy in Washington, to speak on "The Algerian Question."

Members are assured of a voice in group discussions, for a key point in this organization is that all sides have a chance to give their views on a question.

The adviser to the club is Dr. Paul Bernstein, and the officers are Guy Graham, president; John Jurick, vice-president; Art Davis, secretary; William Horan, treasurer; and William Stoudt, SCC representative.

Student Christian Association inspires campus crowd

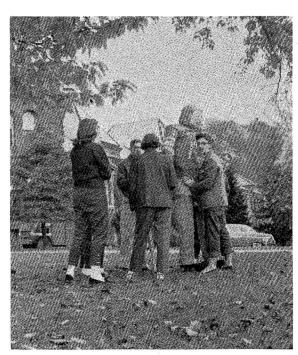

Good planning is the keynote of success in any organization. With this belief in mind the Student Christian Association officers and their advisers Dr. William R. North and Mrs. Marcella Burt Williams held a retreat this fall at Rocky Point Camp to plan the year's program.

First activity of the club was to participate in Church Night during freshman orientation. During the year the club held a panel on "Dating and Courtship," and enjoyed a Christmas party at the county home.

Another stimulating program was a seminar on Puerto Rico, led by our four Puerto Rican students, Emerita Falcon-Hernandez, Yolanda Guerrero-Suarez, Minerva Nunez-Lopez, and Hilda Cabrera-Chico.

SCA also participated in Religion-in-Life Week, bringing to campus as a speaker Dr. D. Frederick Wertz, president of Lycoming College.

Officers of SCA are Virginia Steiger, president; John Shelton, vice-president; Bonalyn Phillips, corresponding secretary; Sally Jenks, recording secretary; Henry Melius, treasurer; and Roberta Robbins, SCC representative.

Newman Club

Problems plague every organization on campus, but at the beginning of the school year Newman Club seemed to have more than its fair share. At the end of last year, Newman Club was inactive.

However, former Newmanders and interested freshmen got behind the club and started it again with renewed spirit. The main concern of Newman Club throughout the year was to bring together Roman Catholic students on campus in an atmosphere of friendly brotherhood and to keep them informed on various aspects of their religion on a secular campus.

The Newman Club shared in Religion-in-Life Week and held its annual picnic.

Committee on Religion

Giving recognition to the spiritual side of college life at Lock Haven is the undertaking of the student-faculty Committee on Religion, comprised of five students and five faculty members, with Mr. Hugh Williamson, chairman.

The first step toward furthering this aim was taken with a Church Night Service for freshmen on the Sunday of Orientation Week. Church Night is held each fall in order that freshmen may become acquainted with the clergymen of their particular faiths in Lock Haven.

The biggest event which the Committee on Religion worked toward was Religion-in-Life Week, the last week in February.

LHSTC Band faces challenges with new spirit

Peppy cheerleader Nancy Thompson helps team to victory.

Bad luck seems to plague all organizations at some time; this year her subject was the College Band.

Under the direction of Mr. Frederick C. Pflieger, interested students organized a Pep Band last fall; but because of scheduling difficulties and other problems, the group disbanded.

However, from the Pep Band emerged smaller groups which entertained the students on campus and represented LHSTC at various events off campus. One of these groups, the Brass Ensemble, played carols at the Christmas Gift Assembly; and the other, the clarinet quartet, composed of Julia Grimes, Martha Bliss, Kay Henry, and George Stoll, traveled within the district to present classical programs at different schools.

As representatives of the college, band members Martha Bliss, Frances Mentch, and Ray Stumpff played in Collegiate Band at Moravian College in Bethlehem, on March 14-16.

Although experiencing a rather disappointing season this year, the College Band is looking forward to a better year in 1958-59.

Pep Club and cheerleaders strengthen school spirit

White gloves, the sign of the enthusiastic Pep Club members, were visible on Lock Haven's campus last fall. Girls interested in boosting the morale of the football team formed this club early in the school year. The members combined with the cheerleaders to learn the peppy cheers and school songs led by the Pep Club at football games.

The girls selected Dr. E. K. Zimmerli as their adviser and elected a slate of officers which included Donna Mock, president; Joann Dietz, vice-president; Shirley Courson, secretary; and Darlis MacKibben, treasurer.

Although Pep Club as a whole was unable to attend away-games, the members were on hand to give our boys a send-off when they left. Plans for next year include the organization of a Pep Band, under the direction of Mr. Frederick Pflieger, and the attendance of the Pep Club at every home and away-game.

College Choir Presents Spring Spectacular

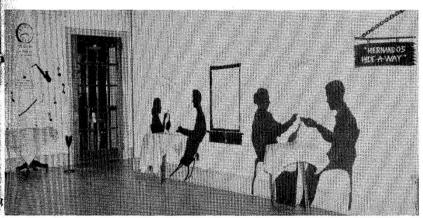

No college is complete without a choir, and ours is no exception. This year commenced under the direction of Mr. Russell C. Gillam and the leadership of our officers: Dennis Shuey, president; George Boyce, vice-president; Sarah Hamberger, secretary; William Reid, treasurer; and Alice Jane Porter, SCC representative. The 75 choir members fill the positions of prop men, electricians, and wardrobe custodians, as well as that of singers. Special attractions feature solos, trios, quartets, and other ensembles.

Our first major production of the season took place during Homecoming Weekend, at Convocation. This program, like most, calls for a program of both sacred and secular music. Another billing is the Christmas Gift Assembly, when we present our yuletide seasonal music.

Our troop tours the surrounding areas after Christmas, presenting programs at various churches and schools. Williamsport, Jersey Shore, Woolrich, and Mill Hall have all witnessed the talent of our choir. As the year draws to a close, the College Choir casts its last deep impression upon the campus with its colorful Spring Concert.

Campus Government in Action

Students discuss problems with Dr. Parsons, president. Ed Joseph, Dick Funk, Dr. Parsons, Eleanor Robbins.

Downstairs in Sullivan Hall we can see packed booths, and tables lined with coffee cups; hear the juke box blaring above the chatter of collegians trying to out-talk each other and feel the relief of studies forgotten—for five minutes anyway.

This is the Wing, our Student Union, where the small and friendly atmosphere of LHSTC is most apparent. Last year the Eagle's Wing was only a plan, but in September we returned to find that this plan had been carried out.

Through the efforts of the Student Co-operative Council, projects such as the Wing are made possible. But more than this, the SCC is campus government in action. Every student on campus belongs to SCC, but to make meetings a little less hectic, each organization and each class elects one member to represent it in council. These representatives work as behind-the-scenes coordinators of our activities by setting up committees to regulate campus affairs. Some of these are the Student-faculty Committee on curricula revision, the Social Committee, the Traffic Council, the Dining Room Committee, and evaluation committees. Council also budgets our money and allocates funds for organizations and social events of campus.

HIGH HALL DORM COUNCIL
First row: Lawrence Sinibaldi, Kent
Addis, president; Richard Deibert.

• Second row: Gerald Stayer.

High Hall Council

"The regular meeting of the High Hall Council will please come to order."—These are the familiar words in Sullivan 204, on the second Thursday of every month. Representatives from each floor of the men's dormitory meet to discuss current problems. Whether these questions are as small as the coke bottle problem in the TV room or as large as the freshman orientation plans for the opening of school, the council attends to them all under the guidance of Mr. Carey E. March, dean of men. This year, however, provided new experiences in the actual running of the dorm itself, since Mr. March was away on sabbatical leave for first semester.

Council members include Kent Addis, president; Richard Deibert, vice-president; Lawrence Sinibaldi, secretary-treasurer; and Gerald Stayer, SCC representative.

Russell Hall Council

Candy-coated law and order is the way Russell Hall Council keeps its affairs running smoothly. Once a month the dormitory women meet in the recreation room of Russell Hall, when between refreshments and entertainment the problems of dorm life are discussed.

The annual get-acquainted party for freshmen and upperclassmen puts the council in motion, and a dignified initiation ceremony brings the year to a close. Miss Kathryn Pontzer, dean of women, is adviser to the club. Officers are Judith Love, president; Jean Beck, vice-president; Lois Test, secretary; Alice Porter, treasurer; Eileen Swineford, SCC representative; and Janet Weigle, fire chief.

Social Committee

Whenever an organization wishes to sponsor a dance, large or small, the cry goes up, "See the Social Committee!" One of the busiest standing committees on campus, the Social Committee, is headed by its capable chairman James Murphy, assisted by Mrs. Hazel Ray Ferguson, adviser. Without the Social Committee we would no longer have cokes and pretzels at hobnobs, tea and cookies on Thursday afternoon, or coffee and doughnuts after Hanging of the Greens, or refreshments during intermission at college plays.

In short, the Social Committee is the SCC's coordinator of social activities on campus.

Student Customs

The Student Customs Committee, composed of a group of sophomores, determined the pace for the legendary freshman initiation. Last fall, during Customs Week, poor "greenies" wandered dazedly around campus trying vainly to remember the ditty composed for them by the Student Customs Committee. According to tradition, dinks and signs were the rule of the week for freshmen. The crowning glory of Freshman Customs was Kangaroo Court, with Judge Jack Raber presiding. The success of the week was all due to the Student Customs Committee, voted by the freshmen as "the committee we would most like to annihilate."

Second row: Lawrence Sinibaldi, Richard Hudy, Elaine Kline, Kenneth Fogleman, Mary Kay Crandall.

Assembly Committee Brings Top-notch Programs

It must be Thursday! Students amble to two o'clock assembly.

Financed by the Student Co-operative Council, the interesting assemblies at LHSTC were the results of the efforts of the Assembly Committee, which is made up of eight students, two from each class, and three faculty members.

In the spring these people plan assemblies for the coming year and select personalities who they think the students will enjoy and benefit from. For example, during the past year Daphne Hellman, harpist; Jean Erdman, dancer; Miss Lucy Valero, past president of PSEA; and Dr. Florence Stratemeyer, of Teachers College, Columbia University, appeared on assembly programs.

In addition, the Assembly Committee is in charge of student assemblies such as the Gift Assembly, at Christmas; Religion-in-Life Week, and the World University Service Assembly.

On the committee were Thomas Hughes, Regina Riley, Mary K. Crandall, Richard Hudy, Elaine Kline, Lawrence Sinibaldi, Barbara Eberz, Kenneth Fogleman, Dr. Earle Winters, Mr. Frederick Pflieger, and Mr. Russell Gillam.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

First row: JoAnn Cummings, Miss A. Kathryn Pontzer, adviser; Carol Sweeney.

Second row: Jean Wagner, Mary Jane Himmelreich, Nancy Cooper, Jacquelyn Carodiskey, Grace Barnhart, Virginia Hueston, Caroll Ogden.

Panhellenic Council heads campus sororities

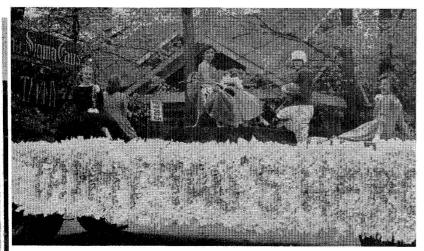

When the lamplight burns late in the dean of women's office, you may be sure that the Panhellenic Council is again hard at work with its adviser, Miss A. Kathryn Pontzer. Panhellenic consists of representatives of the three national Greek sororities on campus, with the purpose of promoting better intersorority relationship while regulating sorority affairs.

Panhellenic also regulates sorority rushing rules and introduces interested women to the sororities at a tea held before the formal rushing parties. At the tea the new women learn the standards they must meet if they are to be rushed by any of the sororities; and the joys and privileges of sorority membership; rushing parties are explained, and members of different sororities are introduced.

Sorority girls look forward to the Panhellenic Ball, held in May. This year's president is Tri Sigma's JoAnn Cummings. Other officers include Carol Sweeney, vice-president; Grace Barnhart, secretary; Mary Jane Himmelreich, treasurer.

Alpha Sigma Tau

"All Sisters Together" typifies the spirit of Alpha Sigma Tau.

The year began with a meeting and get-together at the home of our president, Jean Wagner. In early October we went on our over-night trip to Rocky Point. Later that month we joined forces to decorate our Homecoming float, the theme of which was "Tammy Tau." In November we had our annual Founders' Day banquet at the Dutch Inn.

Again "All Sisters Together," we sent a Christmas box to the Pine Mountain School, in Harlan County, Kentucky. For our Christmas party we were guests of our adviser, Mrs. Ira O. Fleming.

The new year brought our rush party, pledging, and initiation.

Officers of Alpha Sigma Tau are Jean Wagner, president; Gail Hart, vice-president; Sally Jenks, corresponding secretary; Jackie Carodiskey, recording secretary; Norma Berge, treasurer; and Judith Yeager, SCC representative.

Pi Kappa Sigma

The "Polly Pi Kaps" have had an eventful and successful year, with Vonnie Allen reigning as Homecoming Queen, and Virginia Hueston, posing as the "Party Doll" for their float.

Although this sorority is active in social activities, it has not neglected the welfare of its less fortunate fellowmen. The Pi Kaps are proud to have done their part in contributing to such organizations as the Seeing Eye Foundation, Shriners' Crippled Children's Hospital, the Cancer Fund, and the Marjorie Gilchrist Scholarship Fund.

Chosen as leaders for the Pi Kaps were Mary Jane Himmelreich, president; Elizabeth Muro, vice-president; Judith Love, secretary; Dona Musser, treasurer; and Miss Helen Waterbury, adviser.

Spaghetti tonight! How wonderful! These remarks were made by the Susie Sigmas as they journeyed to one of the parties held at the apartment of Miss Lorraine Wood, Tri Sigma's adviser.

September and October were filled with moments of joy and hard work as Susie readied for Homecoming and national inspection. At Christmas the girls were busy with a party for the Children's Home.

Good companionship, Charm School, and Harmony Hour among other integrated programs encourage personal development among the Tri Sigmas.

In April the members enjoyed a Founder's Day Banquet. A send-off party for the seniors ended a very successful year for the Tri Sigmas.

The local fraternity, Epsilon Omega Alpha, received colonyship in the national fraternity—Kappa Delta Rho this fall. The twenty-two brothers and ten pledges eagerly await their national membership, when they become the Alpha Alpha Chapter.

In September the KDR's painted their new house at 428 W. Water Street, held their housewarming at Christmas, and moved into their house second semester. At Homecoming the fraternity voted Faye Marsh '61 their Sweetheart to ride "Around the World" on their float.

Officers of the first national social fraternity at Lock Haven include James Murphy, president; Michael Mezack, vice-president; Calvin Arter, secretary; George Stoll, treasurer; and Steve Morley, pledgemaster. Mr. Frank McIlvaine is their adviser.

Kappa Delta Pi

Charles Yarrison can well be proud of the office of president he holds in Kappa Delta Pi, for this is the educational honorary society on campus. This organization encourages high academic standards and high personal goals for teachers. Its meetings present challenging topics for thought.

This year thirty-two new members were pledged to the club. They are in the junior and senior classes and have met the requirement of the organization, a three point minimum average for four semesters.

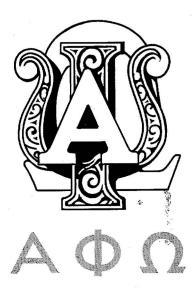

The highlight for this group is their annual Christmas banquet, held at Thomas restaurant this year when the thirty-five pledges became members.

Alpha Psi Omega

All students who are interested in drama and its production on our Lock Haven stage, work hard to become members of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity.

Membership in this fraternity is granted only to those who are outstanding in dramatics and stage craft.

President, Don Meyer; vice-president, Harry Price; and secretary, Tom Walker have all played lead roles in plays presented here at Lock Haven.

Early November found many members of this fraternity acting in "Night Must Fall," by Emlyn Williams, under the direction of Dr. Earle Winters.

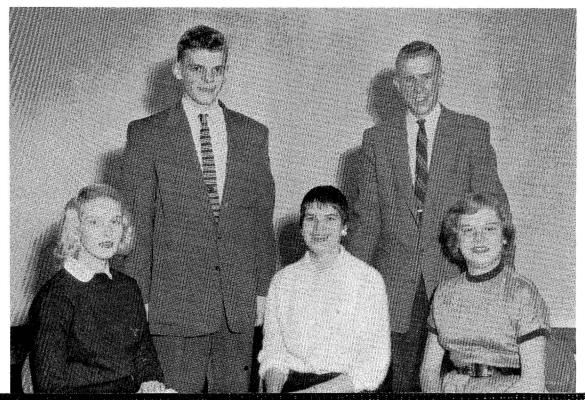

Each year the members have numerous social events, but the main one is their banquet.

The adviser, friend, and helper to members of this fraternity is Mrs. Hazel Ray Ferguson.

Delta Rho Beta

Dayroom men, representing commuting students from Clinton, Centre, and Lycoming counties, share ideas and fun through their social fraternity, Delta Rho Beta. Their formal meetings are held on the first Tuesday of every month when the brothers plan activities for their group.

The major project undertaken by Delta Rho Beta is the selection of their Sweetheart for Homecoming. This year's Sweetheart is Gayle Bittner, a freshman elementary major. As Delta Rho Beta Sweetheart, Gayle is an honorary member of the fraternity this year.

Presiding officers of the Dayroom men are Wayne Hoy, president; George Dunkleberger, vice-president; Guy Graham, secretary; John Englert, treasurer; Hayes Yorks, sergeant-at-arms; and Charles Yarrison, chaplain. These leaders work with their adviser, Mr. George Grube, successor to Mr. Ira O. Fleming, club adviser for many years and now retired.

• Standing: Shirley Moyer, Mary Haffley, Carole Moore.

Off-campus women co-ordinate their activities through an organization called the Women's Dayroom Council, which meets monthly in its new quarters on third floor, Sullivan Hall.

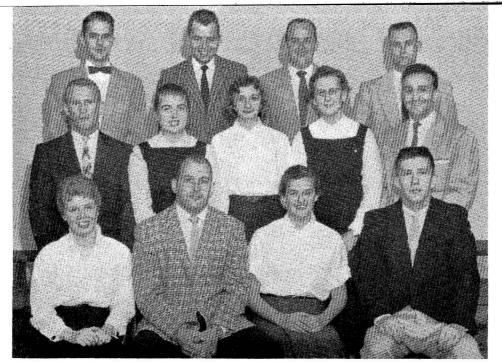

This group of young women, besides holding regular business meetings, often gets together informally to snack and chat, sometimes in the form of a night out.

Their biggest event on campus is the traditional Parents' Day Tea on Sunday of Homecoming Weekend. Through weeks of careful planning and hard work, the women arranged a very successful tea this year. The council closes its social calendar with a picnic near the end of the school year.

Officers of this organization are Nancy Miller, president; Carole Moore, vice-president; Shirley Moyer, secretary; Kathryn Haffley, treasurer; Jean Wagner, SCC representative; Mrs. Freda Goebert, adviser.

Students interested in nature and the outdoors are invited to apply for membership to the Naturalist Club. This year the club did not become active until second semester when the members repaired the Naturalist Cabin and helped to beautify the campus. Initiation brought fourteen new members to help the others maintain the spirit of the oldest organization on campus.

As Praeco goes to press, the Naturalist Club announces its final meeting. Originally called the Happy Harvesters, it was founded in 1923.

Biology Club

Until this year Ulmer Hall, the science building, has been closed at five o'clock. Through the efforts of the newly organized Biology Club, science students now have access to Ulmer labs on Monday through Thursday from seven to ten o'clock at night. During these hours club members take turns "manning the watch" and generally supervising activity in the building.

In two special programs members heard speakers from the Fish and Game Commission and the Department of Forest and Waters.

GI Club contributes new trophy case

The "Give Blood" spirit got through to the GI Club this year. Each of the 35 members volunteered a pint of blood during the annual visit of the Bloodmobile to campus.

The GI Club has always proved a valuable asset to the community of Lock Haven itself. Besides giving blood, the members also donated to both the Heart Fund and the Children's Home. They sponsored three needy families at Christmas time, having given help to two other families last year.

The GI Club has also been an asset to the Lock Haven campus. This year it sponsored the Homecoming Dance and the election of the Homecoming Queen by student vote. In addition it donated the trophy case which proudly displays Lock Haven's athletic honors in Social Square.

The GI Club is open to all veterans on campus, and through its worthy aims has made an honored place for itself among campus organizations.

Association for Childhood Education International

Headlining the activities of the campus branch of the Association for Childhood Education International was the trip taken to the National ACEI Convention in Atlantic City during April. number of elementary majors from LHSTC attended the convention and found it educational and enjoyable.

At Lock Haven the aims of the ACEI are to familiarize elementary majors with the procedures for the education of school children from kindergarten through elementary grades; to strengthen co-operation among all childhood education groups; and to support the best education in nursery schools, kindergarten, and the primary grades. ACEI members on campus have as their ideal the raising to the highest standards of professional attitude toward teaching.

On the social side of the picture, ACEI does not lack activities. At Homecoming, the group constructed a float to the theme "You Ain't Nothin' but a Hound Dog" and won first place in organization judging. They also shared with the faculty a panel discussion on professional teacher organizations and held a banquet in January and one in May in honor of graduating members.

Their first undertaking was a weiner roast held at the Naturalist Cabin. WAA invited all students to the roast.

Later, in November, WAA was responsible for the annual Conference of the Pennsylvania Division of the Athletic Federation of College Women. Patricia Peoples, president of the Conference, and the entire WAA organization worked diligently to make this conference, their main project of the year, a success.

In December the WAA group produced "Christmas Dream," the annual Christmas Dance in the beautifully decorated Thomas Field House.

Besides these events WAA made possible the Synchronized Swim Show and intramural tournaments in Women's soccer, field hockey, tennis, bowling, volley ball, ping pong, basketball, badminton, softball, and archery.

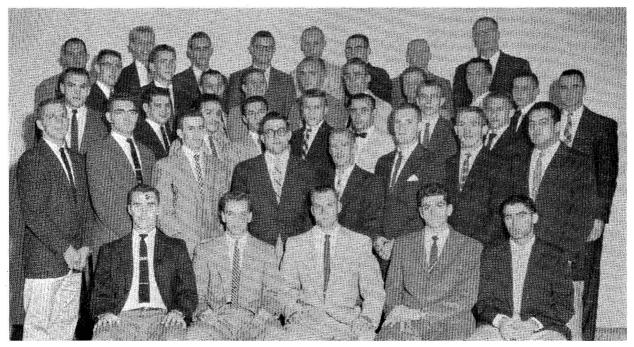

They also sponsored a roller skating party in February and closed the year with the annual Spring Banquet, in May.

Varsity Club . . . for star athletes

The students sporting the varsity "L" are a proud group and this year they have a special right to be so. For "L" men of the football team, 1957-58 was a great year, during which they played a winning season. Varsity lettermen in basketball, wrestling, track, soccer, and baseball share this pride, because the Varsity Club is a closely knit group of men who have a common bond of athletic interest.

The Varsity Club participates in many projects on campus. Among these are selling programs at football games and wrestling matches; operating a concession stand at basketball games and various tournaments held in Thomas Field House. The Varsity Club also sponsors the Cider Pour after the Homecoming game, the Varsity Club Dance, and a club banquet held annually in the spring.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Stan Daley and the officers are Jude Pennington, president; Lloyd Morgan, vice-president; John Jurick, secretary; James Hostetler, treasurer, and James Burns, SCC representative.

During November, Jean Erdman, a professional dancer, appeared at Lock Haven in an assembly program presented for the students. The Modern Dance Club and physical educational majors had the privilege of participating in a demonstration class taught by Miss Erdman.

Later, in the Physical Education Show, one of the largest exhibitions on campus, the Modern Dance Club gave an outstanding performance.

The hockey season started off with a bang as the Eaglettes soared to a 4-1 win over Dickinson in their first encounter of the 1957 season. Next on the schedule were games with Lycoming College and Wilson College, but the flu was the victor and the games were cancelled.

Under the coaching of Dr. Charlotte Smith and the leadership of co-captains Ruth Brown and Ginny Hueston, the Eaglettes journeyed to the All-College Tournament at Wilson College. The Maroon and Gray were handed their only defeat (2-0) at the Central Pennsylvania Tournament at the hands of a strong Elizabethtown team. The hard-fought game with Penn State ended in a 1-1 tie. Dickinson again bowed to Lock Haven 4-1, with Mary Lattanzi, right inner, scoring 4 of Lock Haven's goals. The tournament climaxed with Kay Cochran and Mary Lattanzi being chosen on the All-College first team and Carol Eckman and Doris Merriken receiving positions on the second team.

Games with the Blue Ridge Hockey Club and Gettysburg were also cancelled by the flu. The season ended with the "Big Reds" of East Stroudsburg defeating the Eaglettes 3-0.

Goals scored by the Lock Havenites totalled 9 with 7 goals for the opponents.

Women's Basketball

As Praeco goes to press, the women's basket-ball team is still undefeated. The Eaglets started this season with two successive wins. Accurate passing and outstanding playing have given the Lock Havenites a record to be proud of. Nine returning players from last year's undefeated season helped score two victories over St. Francis this season. Play Days at Lycoming College and The Pennsylvania State University also added first places to the women's record.

The fast sextette made an impressive record of foul shots against the Frankies of St. Francis by completing 13 of 17 foul shots for a .8 average. Thus far, Co-captain Carol Eckman has paced the team as top-scorer.

Under the coaching of Dr. Charlotte Smith, the Eaglets have yet to encounter Shippensburg, Misericordia, and Gettysburg this season.

Returning players to this year's squad are Carol Eckman and Gladys Thompson, co-captains; Dora Vandine, manager; Carolynn Adams, Beverly Courson, Shirley Courson, Jean Edgar, and Darlis Makibbin. Additions to the squad are Janet Weigle, Janet Hileman, Irene Kratz, Evie Mayer, Audrey Scanlon, and Gail VanOrmer.

Bald Eagles end season undefeated

Football

The record of the 1957 football team has been duly recorded in the athletic annals of Lock Haven State Teachers College, but the color and glory of the Bald Eagle football team is something that can only be recorded in the memory of those who watched them perform.

The diligence of Head Coach Herb Jack and his able assistant, Steve Jacobs, who also serves as athletic director, was rewarded in a manner most appreciated by men of their profession, the logging of an undefeated, untied season record (eight consecutive wins) and near-selection to compete in the NAIA Holiday Bowl.

The Lock Haven grid attack was sparked by such stalwarts as All-State halfback George Dintiman, and All-Conference linemen Carmen Leto, Fred Caro, and Dick Conner.

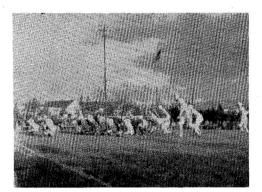

Diminutive fullback Bob DiFonzo, constant outside threat, removed much of the pressure from Big Train Dintiman, and allowed a variation of maneuvering never before witnessed at the little college on the Susquehanna.

The 21-0 defeat of Lycoming College, also undefeated until encountering Lock Haven, is easily classed as the biggest win scored by the Maroon and Gray. The Lock Haven-Lycoming tussle has always been a stand-out attraction, but never before had the two teams met, both sporting clean slates.

It has been a good football year at Lock Haven, and the prospects are excellent for the future. Dating back into the previous season, the Bald Eagles have compiled eleven consecutive wins. Coach Herb Jack will be looking to better that record come next fall.

Jackson, Lock Haven, works Garman for a take-down in TC Tournament finals.

It was another banner year for the Bald Eagle grapplers as they dropped but three matches while going through the toughest schedule ever listed. They were once again undefeated in the State Teachers College Conference. It has now been six years since the men of Coach Herb Jack suffered a loss at the hands of a teachers college team.

The Bald Eagles also swept the TC Conference Tournament with six individual weight class champions. Tournament champs were Don Gallucci at 130, Joe Hammaker at 137, Ralph Clark at 147, Hank Shaw at 157, Boyd Wasilko at 191, and Bob Benson in the unlimited division.

It was a classic season for Coach Jack. Although the team dropped three matches, these at the hands of Purdue, Pitt, and Cortland, the elder mentor bagged his hundredth wrestling win and his tenth TC Tournament championship.

The Bald Eagles were also impressive in the Wilkes Tournament, the 4-I Tournament, and the NAIA Tournament.

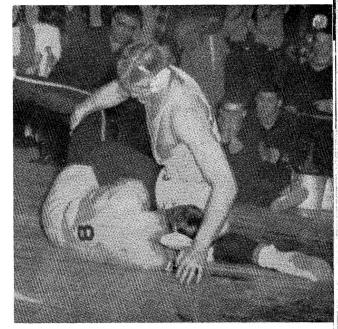

It is evident, however, that the loss of seven seniors will be keenly felt in the coming campaigns. Those being graduated include four TC champs: Joe Hammaker, Hank Shaw, Bob Benson, and Boyd Wasilko. Ron Muthler and Fred Caro have also completed their final year.

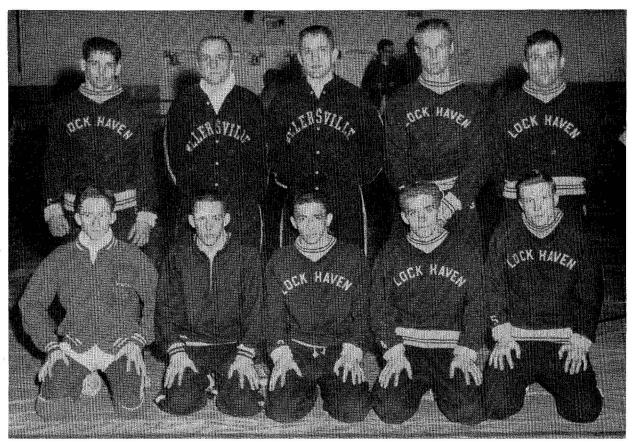

TC Tournament opens in Thomas Field House.

As Praeco goes to press, the Bald Eagle cagers piloted by Coach Stan Daley, have an unabashed record of 5 wins and 12 losses, owing primarily to their height handicap.

Although the Bald Eagles did not have a very impressive season, they should not be underestimated because the majority of the games dropped were lost by only a few points and were unified by three overtimes. The Bald Eagle quintet also boosted the college record by scoring 57 points in one half in their home bout with Indiana STC.

Bald Eagle Tankmen break three school records in successful season

Kemp and Foresman practice for Swim Show.

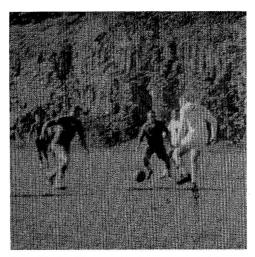

Coached by Mr. William P. Vafeas and Mrs. Lorraine Dullen and co-captained by Steve Anderson and Dick Deibert, the 1958 swimming team turned in a very commendable season.

Highlights of the season included the breaking of three school records. John Hanes, Jim Beck, Dick Deibert, and Phil Swisher teamed up to set a new mark for the 400-yard medley relay. This quartet covered the distance in 4:56.7. Dick Deibert, junior, and John Hanes, sophomore, also set records for their specialties. Deibert cracked his own 220-yard butterfly record with a 3:05.5. Hanes shattered a seven-year-old mark in the 200-yard backstroke by turning in a 2:53.6.

This young and eager squad will lose only two men via graduation this year, and the Bald Eagle tankmen should present an even stronger squad next year.

Soccer Shows Fighting Spirit

The 1957 soccer season, although not outstanding, was successful in some aspects. The soccermen of Coach Dan Corbin posted a record of two wins, one tie, and five defeats. However, the freshman-sprinkled line-up gained valuable experience, and a rebuilding process is well under way. Hard hit by graduation of the senior veterans of the previous year, Coach Corbin hinted optimism over the play of newcomers Cloyd Goddard, Ray Shelesky, and Max Stackhouse.

Versatile goalie, Lloyd Morgan will return next year.

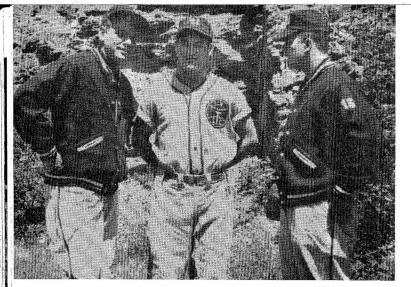

Performing well for the Bald Eagles during the past campaign were Sheldon Leonard, Darl Robeson, Paul Goss, Kent Addis, James Smith, and Al Moberg.

Next year's schedule will again be tough, but it is hoped that the background gained this year will supplement the determination of the Lock Haven booters.

Eleven baseball lettermen returned to the diamond with the debut of Coach Stanley Daley to capture the Pennsylvania STC Baseball Conference runner-up spot with a 6-3 Conference season.

The Bald Eagles opened their home season with a double-header victory over Indiana STC. Ace pitchers Walt Mowchan and Lloyd Morgan were on the mound, with Mowchan in the 4-3 opener. Morgan gave up his lone hit in the final inning of the thrilling 2-1 second game victory.

On April 27 the Marooners divided a twinbill with Shippensburg STC, 3-4, 7-4. After six consecutive one-run games, of which Lock Haven dropped four, they suddenly went on a slugging rampage in the second game to wallop Shippensburg 7-4.

The Bald Eagle nine whipped Juniata 5-0 in the final game of the season, with freshman southpaw, Neil Harvey, on the mound. Harvey's initial starting assignment of the season turned in a masterful nine-hitter. Dick Bernd, veteran senior outfielder who played first base in the finale, drove in two runs with a triple, double and single, and scored a run. Fred Bright, another senior, drove in two runs with two singles.

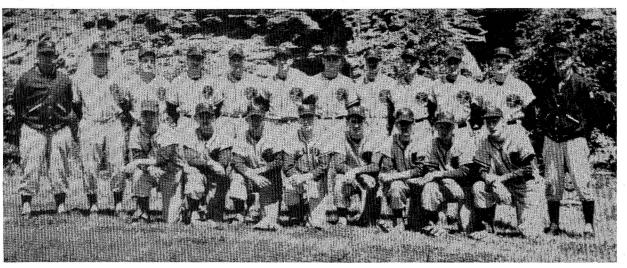

Lloyd Morgan led the mound staff with a 4-1 record while Millard Boyer led the regular hitters with a .339 average, followed by Dick Bernd, .326; and Hal Loud, .311.

Track . . . Thinclads finish even

The cindermen of Lock Haven State Teachers College, under the able coaching of Mr. Stephen Jacobs, Mr. Lester Zimmerman, and Mr. William Vafeas, finished the season with an equal number of wins and losses. The Bald Eagle Trackmen moved out with a good start by winning the first three meets; however, the Eagles were slowed down by three consecutive losses. During the season, four out of six meets were held on the newly completed track on McCollum Field.

Perhaps the most impressive meet of the season was with Juniata College, in which the Eagles won by twenty-seven points. This win marked the highest team score in three years.

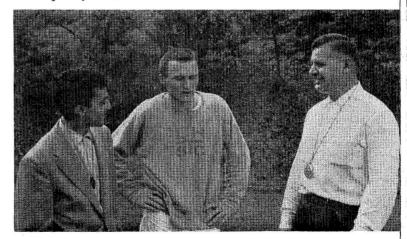

During the Pennsylvania Teachers College Track and Field Meet at West Chester, Lock Haven placed fourth. However, Arden Sweitzer, one of the school's all-time greats, was the winner of the mile and two-mile runs. Jim Hostetler, sprinter, and Gerald Stayer, pole vaulter, also placed in the event.

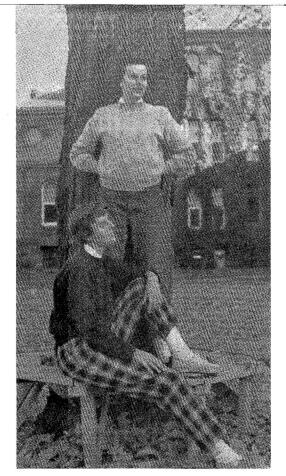

Outstanding team members during the season were James Hostetler, 100-yard dash; Arden Sweitzer, mile; George Dintiman, low hurdles; Ronald Enfield, shot-put; Gerald Stayer, pole vault.

In a small and friendly family group

Lock Haven students study and play together,

Sharing a common goal—that of becoming teachers.

This year their family seems incomplete

Without the familiar face of Mr. Ira O. Fleming,

Assistant professor of biological science,

His resignation last May closed the last chapter

Of twenty-nine years of teaching biology at Lock Haven,

Where he typified the friendly atmosphere of this small college.

His students will long remember his cheerful greetings,

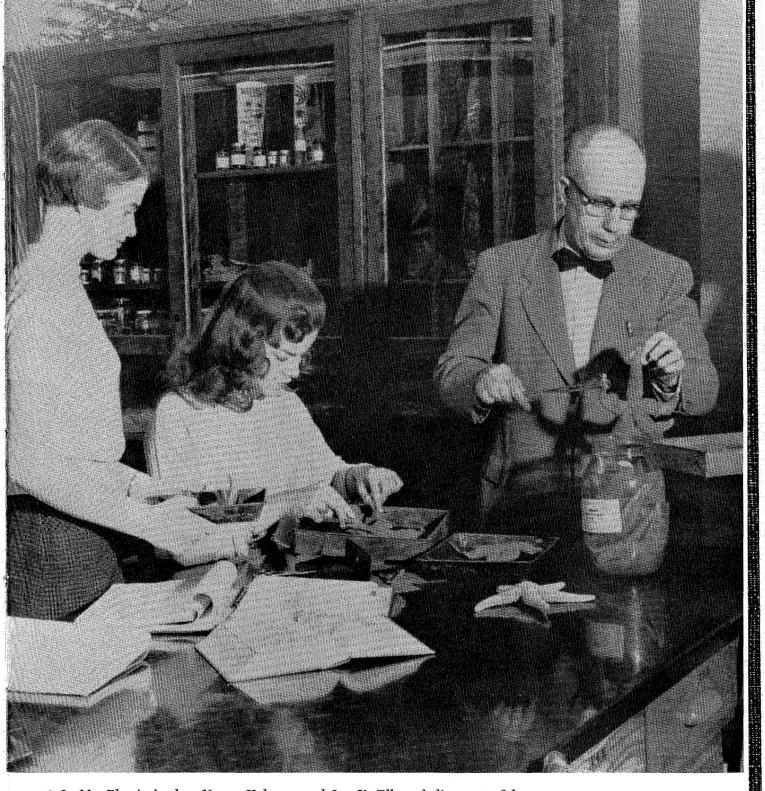

His informal classes, his friendly concern for all his "children."

Delta Rho Beta men, for whom he was adviser,

Will miss Pop Fleming's friendly counsel.

From Praeco and all Lock Haven students and faculty,

Best wishes go with him for the future.

• In Mr. Fleming's class Nancy Heltman and Jan K. Ellwood dissect starfish.

Commencement

Brings parting

From faculty,

From classmates,
From scenes,
We hold dear.

To

Our Small

And Friendly

College . . .

To

The Life

We Have Learned

So Much to Cherish . . .

It is So Hard

To say

Good—By.
