1. GENERAL INFORMATION

1.1 INTRODUCTION

Bloomsburg State College, as one of the fourteen state-owned institutions of higher education in Pennsylvania, has been charged by the Commonwealth to serve as "... a center of learning for the best possible education of the youth of Pennsylvania in the arts and sciences and to provide able and dedicated teachers..."

The arts and sciences are regarded as fundamental to all of the activities implied by this charge. During the past several years, the College has moved to strengthen the academic departments and to expand the range of services through the addition of pre-professional programs, continuing education, programs in the health-related sciences and business administration.

Although dedicated primarily to undergraduate work, the College offers masters degrees in teacher education and in certain academic disciplines.

Bloomsburg State College welcomes qualified students, faculty and staff without regard to racial, religious or ethnic backgrounds.

1.2 ORGANIZATION

Bloomsburg State College is organized in five schools, Arts and Sciences, Professional Studies, Business, Extended Programs and Graduate Studies. The scope and internal structure of each school is described in the appropriate chapter of this catalogue.

1.3 LOCATION

The Town of Bloomsburg, county seat of Columbia County, is an industrial, trading, and residential community of 11,000 located on Route 11, 80 miles north of Harrisburg. It is within two miles of two interchanges of Interstate 80.

Bloomsburg is served by the Greyhound and Continental Trailways bus lines. Commercial airports are accessible at Wilkes-Barre-Scranton on Route 81, and at Williamsport; each is about an hour's drive from Bloomsburg.

1.4 HISTORY

An academy "to teach youth the elements of a classical education" was established in Bloomsburg in 1839. The academy continued with varied fortunes until 1856, when a charter was prepared and stock issued to reorganize as Bloomsburg Literary Institute. A building now known as Carver Hall in memory of Henry Carver, principal at the time, was erected in 1867.

Largely through the efforts of J.P. Wickersham, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Bloomsburg Literary Institute became Bloomsburg Literary Institute and State Normal School in 1869; it continued under this name and organization until 1916 when it was purchased by the Commonwealth and called Bloomsburg State Normal School.

The emphasis at the Normal School changed during the early 1920's from secondary and college-preparatory courses for special teachers to full-time teacher education. In May 1927 the institutional name was changed to Bloomsburg State Teachers College, authorized to grant a Bachelor of Science in Education for teachers in elementary and secondary schools.

Under the administration of President Francis B. Haas (1927-1939), great progress was made in the teacher education program; in 1930, a new field was added with the degree program in Business Education. Several new buildings were constructed and 18 acres of land added to the campus.

Upon the appointment of Dr. Haas as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Harvey A. Andruss, then Dean of Instruction and a former Director of the Business Education Department, was appointed president, a position he held until his retirement in 1969. During World War II, the US Navy V-12 Officer Training Program was conducted on the Bloomsburg Campus, a fact still commemorated by the name of Navy Hall. In 1957, a Division of Special Education was inaugurated, which is still housed in that building.

The major expansion of the College in buildings, faculty, and student body took place after that, full-time enrollments rising from 1,743 in 1960 to 4,913 in the fall of 1978. In 1960 the name of the school was changed to Bloomsburg State College; authorization was received shortly thereafter to grant the Bachelor of Arts degree for liberal arts programs in humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. In 1960, graduate study leading to the Master of Education degree was inaugurated. In 1968, initial approval was received for the degree, Master of Arts and in 1970 for the degree, Master of Science.

Current efforts are directed toward development as a multiple-purpose college offering liberal arts and teacher education curricula at the undergraduate and master's degree levels, and business and other professional curricula in vocations other than teaching as these are suited to the resources of the College.

1.5 ACCREDITATION

Bloomsburg State College is fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, and the Pennsylvania State Board of Education.

The College is recognized by the American Chemical Society for excellence in its Chemistry department. (see Chemistry).

1.6 BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES

Campus

The campus of Bloomsburg State College comprises two tracts called the Lower Campus and Upper Campus, with total area of 173 acres.

The Lower Campus comprises the original campus and adjacent areas subsequently acquired. It contains the residence halls, dining hall, college store, administration building, auditorium, library, academic buildings and recreation areas. The Upper Campus, a half mile from the Lower Campus, contains the E.H. Nelson Field House, the Redman Stadium, the Litwhiler Baseball Field and three practice areas. Long-range plans presume further development of the Upper Campus for academic and recreation purposes.

Instructional Buildings

Bakeless Center for the Humanities, completed in 1970, is an air-conditioned building containing classrooms, lecture halls, faculty offices, and an exhibit area. It is used primarily by the departments of English, art, foreign languages, speech, economics and political science. The building was named for the Bakeless family including: Professor Oscar H. Bakeless, a graduate of the school and former distinguished member of the faculty; his wife, Sara H. Bakeless, a graduate and former faculty member; their son, Dr. John E. Bakeless, a graduate of the college, an author, and a recipient of the Alumni Distinguished Service Award; their daughter, Mrs. Alex Nason, a graduate and benefactor of the college; and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Katherine L. Bakeless, graduate of the school and a nationally-known author.

Hartline Science Center, completed in 1968, is an air-conditioned facility with classrooms, lecture halls, seminar rooms, laboratories, faculty offices and an exhibit area; it accommodates the departments of chemistry, physics, biology, mathematics, and earth and space science.

The name of the building honors Daniel S. Hartline, a former teacher of biology, and his son Dr. H. Keffer Hartline, 1968 Nobel Prize laureate and recipient of an Alumni Distinguished Service Award.

Sutliff Hall, completed in 1960, contains classrooms and faculty offices of the School of Business and several laboratories and classrooms for physical sciences. William Boyd Sutliff, for whom the building was named, was a teacher of mathematics and the first Dean of Instruction of Bloomsburg State Normal School.

Benjamin Franklin Hall, completed in 1930 for use as a campus laboratory school, is now used for college classes, administrative offices, and the Computer Services Center.

Navy Hall was constructed in 1939 as a campus laboratory school but was converted during World War II for the use of candidates enlisted in the Navy V-12 Officer Training Program. It now houses the work in special education and communication disorders and provides a number of other classrooms and offices.

Science Hall, often called "Old Science" to distinguish it from Hartline Science Center, was built in 1906. It houses the Departmental offices of History and Psychology and has several classrooms and some facilities used by the Art Department.

Centennial Gymnasium, completed in 1939, contains a gymnasium which seats 1,200, two auxiliary gymnasiums, a swimming pool, and offices and classrooms for physical education and athletics.

E.H. Nelson Field House. This building, located on the Upper Campus, was completed in 1972. It provides a varsity basketball court and folding bleachers for 2,600 spectators. There is an indoor track, and a six-lane varsity swimming pool with seating for 500 spectators. Faculty offices, handball courts, classrooms, shower and dressing areas, equipment rooms, and special rooms for physical training and therapy are included. The building is used for health and physical education classes, varsity athletic contests, and for other activities requiring seating of large audiences.

Bus transportation is provided between this building and the Lower Campus.

Dr. E.H. Nelson, for whom the building is named, was for many years Director of Athletics.

Residence Halls, Dining Rooms, College Union

Columbia Hall, completed in 1970, is a seven-story residence hall for four hundred students. It contains lounges, study rooms, recreation areas, a special projects rooms, guest rooms, and apartments for counsellors.

Elwell Hall, completed in 1968, is a nine-story residence hall which can accommodate 678 students. It contains recreation rooms and lounges, guest rooms, study rooms and apartments for staff. Its name honors Judge William Elwell, a former trustee of the College, George E. Elwell, his son, a graduate and former trustee, and G. Edward Elwell, his grandson, a graduate and former instructor in French.

Luzerne Hall, a four-story residence hall completed in 1967, accommodates 300 students. It includes lounge and recreation areas, study rooms, and apartments for counsellors.

Lycoming Hall, the newest addition to our residence hall community, officially opened during the fall of 1976. In addition to housing 250 women, the building offers lounges, study rooms, recreation areas, special project facilities, and an apartment for the resident dean.

Montour Hall and Schuylkill Hall, four-story residences completed in 1964, each houses 250 students. Each hall is divided into two wings, complete with recreation and lounge facilities, study rooms, and apartments for resident staff members.

Northumberland Hall, completed in 1960, accommodates 200 residents. There are lounge and recreation areas, study rooms, and apartments for staff members. (Lycoming, Luzerne, Columbia, Montour, Schuylkill and Northumberland are names of counties from which many students come to Bloomsburg.)

The alignment of halls according to coed and single sexed is subject to revision based upon male/female enrollment figures and current student needs.

William W. Scranton Commons, completed in 1970, is an air-conditioned dining facility with one thousand seats and with a capacity to serve 2900 students at each meal. Folding partitions permit flexibility of arrangement. A faculty dining room and two lounges are in the building. William W. Scranton was Governor of Pennsylvania from 1963 to 1967.

College Store. This building was completed in 1956 and used until 1970 as the college Commons and from 1970 until 1973 as a temporary Union. The building has been remodeled and is now used as the College Store for the sale of textbooks and supplies.

Marguerite W. Kehr College Union. The Kehr Union Building houses a commercial branch bank, a formal lounge, a snack bar and dining area, a multi-purpose room, a mail room and mailboxes for commuting students, a game room, television room, listening room, offices for student organizations and publications, the college infirmary, an information center, bowling alleys, a travel service, the Community Activities office, and storage area. Its name honors the late Dr. Marguerite W. Kehr, who was Dean of Women at the College, 1928 to 1953.

Administration and Service Buildings

Waller Administration Building. This structure, completed in 1972, contains administrative offices, vaults, conference rooms, a centralized area for the Business Office and an area for receiving, storing and distributing college supplies and equipment. The building is named for D.J. Waller, Jr., who served for twenty-seven years as principal of the normal school.

Francis B. Haas Center for the Arts, completed in 1967, contains a two thousand seat auditorium with its stage planned for dramatic productions as well as general auditorium purposes. The building also contains classrooms, offices and other facilities for music, debating, and drama groups, and lounges and exhibit areas. Dr. Francis B. Haas, for whom the auditorium was named, was President of the College from 1927 to 1939. Prior to and subsequent to this period he served as the Pennsylvania State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Andruss Library, completed in 1966, contains seating for 750 readers, shelving for 200,000 volumes, a projection room, curriculum materials center and an audio-visual materials center. It was named for Dr. Harvey A. Andruss, who served as President of the College from 1939 to 1969 and who during nine years prior to becoming president established the division of business education and then served as Dean of Instruction.

Carver Hall, built in 1867, is the oldest building on the campus. It contains a 900-seat auditorium and the office of the President.

Buckalew House, originally the home of Charles R. Buckalew, United States Senator from 1863 to 1869 and trustee of the Normal School, was acquired by the Commonwealth for the President's home in 1926.

Campus Maintenance Center completed in 1970, houses offices, storage areas and workshops used by the plant maintenance engineer and his staff.

Parking Garage. A multi-level concrete structure completed in 1972 accommodates approximately 200 cars.

Athletics and Recreation Areas

Redman Stadium, designed for football and track events, and located on the Upper Campus, was completed in 1974. Permanent concrete bleachers on the west side provide seating for 4,000 spectators, and movable bleachers on the east side increase the total seating capacity to nearly 5,000. There is a press box for radio, television and newspaper personnel. An eight-lane, all-weather track and specialized areas for field events are part of the field.

Robert B. Redman, for whom the stadium is named, was assistant dean of men and head football and baseball coach from 1947 until 1952. Teams which he coached gained state and national recognition.

Litwhiler Field, a baseball field completed in 1974, is located east of Redman Stadium. It was named in honor of Danny Litwhiler, who is currently head baseball coach at Michigan State University. Litwhiler, who was coached by Dr. E.H. Nelson, starred at Bloomsburg in the late 1930's and played for several major league baseball teams prior to beginning his career as a college baseball coach at Florida State University.

Practice Fields. Three practice fields are included in the total athletics complex on the Upper Campus. One of these is also used for varsity soccer games.

1.7 BLOOMSBURG FOUNDATION

The Bloomsburg Foundation was established in 1970 as a non-profit educational corporation to assist the College in functions for which state funds should not or cannot be used. The Foundation may solicit, receive and manage gifts and grants from individuals, corporations, or other foundations; its funds are used to assist the College in carrying out its educational mission.

1.8 COMPUTER SERVICES CENTER

Bloomsburg State College has made extensive use of computers for more than a decade. The Computer Services Center, located in Benjamin Franklin Hall, serves the diverse needs of the academic, administrative and research communities on campus.

In 1966 the college installed its first computer, an IBM 401. It was replaced with a Spectra 70-35 in 1970, and in 1972 the college moved into another generation of hardware and purchased a UNIVAC 70/3 with access for ten terminals. Peripheral to the UNIVAC was a system including six disc drives, four magnetic tape units, two high speed line printers, a card punch and a card reader.

Increased use of the computer as an instructional, managerial, and research tool justified the installation of a UNIVAC 1100-21, a most powerful and versatile central processing unit with a main memory storage of one million bytes (megabyte) or characters of information. This new computer possesses four times the memory storage and on-line disk mass storage, and four times faster processing time than the previous computer. The new system is directly accessible by both Center and remote terminals and will support fifty-nine interactive users.

Educationally, within many academic programs including the Computer and Information Sciences major, students are exposed to the contemporary computer and the data processing technology of a data-based system, on line inquiry, time sharing, program development from a terminal, and dynamically changing files. Faculty working directly with the computer have increased time to use computer assisted instruction material (CAI) such as tutorials, drills and simulations to supplement classroom and lab instruction.

Complete conversion to the new system is scheduled for completion during the 1979-80 academic year.

Graduate students pay $51.00 per semester hour.

These summer fees apply to Pennsylvania residents and out-of-state students.

2.3 HOUSING FEES

Residence Halls

Room and meals in a campus residence hall cost $551 per semester, $210 for a six-week summer session, and $105 for a three-week summer session.

The Fall Semester fee is payable before August 15; it may be paid in two installments, the first before August 15 and the balance before November.

The College reserves the right to withhold information concerning the record of a student who is in arrears in fees or other charges, including student loans.

3. STUDENT LIFE AND SERVICES

3.01 INTRODUCTION

It is desirable for each student to become involved in extra-curricular organizations and residence hall programs; these provide opportunities to learn and grow as a human being within an atmosphere of a living-learning center. Residence hall programming is intended as a framework for emotional, social, academic, and personal development; the programs involve dining service, social gatherings, cultural events, discussion groups, athletics, judicial proceedings, and a variety of student organizations.

Commuting students are urged to work out travel schedules which permit them to spend as much time as possible on campus and to participate in activities.

The educational value of these services depends upon the effort and involvement of each student, whether resident or commuter.

3.02 COLLEGE POLICY

"Bloomsburg State College exists for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students, and the general well-being of society. Free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the attainment of these goals. As members of the academic community, students should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment and to engage in a sustained and independent search for truth."

(Quoted from the Pilot, "Joint Statement on Rights, Freedoms, and Responsibilities of Students.")

Students are responsible for the rules, policies, and regulations as stated in the Catalogue, Pilot (Student handbook), and the Residence Hall Manuals. The Bloomsburg State College Joint Statements on Rights, Freedoms and Responsibilities of Students has been acknowledged as a guiding principle in the normal operation of the College.

3.03 STUDENT FINANCIAL AID

All financial aid programs are regulated by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare; PA Higher Education Assistance Agency; and Bloomsburg State College policy. Accordingly, it is important to understand that a student may lose financial aid by failing to maintain good academic standing each semester as prescribed in the Bloomsburg State College Bulletin under Sections 5.05 and 5.06 Page 63.

Financial aid available includes loans, part-time employment, scholarships and grants. The Federal and Commonwealth governments fund most of the programs.

Federal programs include College Work-Study, National Direct Student Loans, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, and Basic Educational Opportunity Grants.

Commonwealth programs include the Pennsylvania State Student Employment, the State Guaranty Loans (with Federal subsidy on interest payment for certain income levels), and the Pennsylvania State Grant Program.

The State Guaranty Loans and the State Grants are administered by the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA). Information may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office, counsellors in high schools, or from PHEAA regional representatives. To be eligible for payment for summer school attendance, a student with a PHEAA grant must have earned 12 semester hours during the summer grading period.

Limited financial assistance is available through the Bloomsburg State College Alumni Association Loan Program and the Bloomsburg State College Scholarships.

Interest-free emergency student loans of $25 or less for a maximum of 30 days are available. Application is made at the Community Activities Office.

Students who wish to take advantage of financial assistance must file a PHEAA Composite Financial Aid Application through PHEAA Headquarters in Harrisburg. The Financial Aid Office can help students find information and solve problems regarding this application. Bucks for Huskies is a brochure that outlines all available financial aid at Bloomsburg State College and also develops a financial aid strategy that is useful to both parents and the students attending Bloomsburg State College. This brochure is distributed to all students attending BSC by the Financial Aid Office. It should be noted that the PHEAA Composite Financial Aid Application (which has no processing fee) replaced the College Scholarship Service Financial Aid Form (FAF) which was utilized in the past.

Further information concerning financial aid opportunities and procedures for making applications may be obtained at the Financial Aid Office located in Room 19 of the Benjamin Franklin Building.

3.04 STUDENT HOUSING

On-Campus Residency

The college provides on-campus living accommodations for approximately 2,500 students in seven residence halls. The residence halls are described in section 1.6, Buildings and Facilities.

Although students' housing preferences are considered when possible, the College reserves the right to assign rooms and roommates in residence halls.

Housing and food services are provided only on a combined basis for students living in residence halls. Housing and food contracts are binding until the end of the academic year and may not be transferred or reassigned.

Freshmen under 21 years of age are required to reside on campus or commute from the homes of their parents. If extenuating circumstances justify other housing arrangements, a review of those circumstances may be requested. In such cases, the Director of Housing is to be consulted.

Although transfer students may indicate housing preferences, on-campus housing is not guaranteed. Transfers who wish to live in the campus residence halls should contact the Director of Housing upon acceptance to the college.

Upper class resident students may continue to live on campus as long as they satisfy the residence hall eligibility requirements. Any resident student who has earned 65 semester hours or less at the completion of any Fall semester is eligible to participate in the lottery for room assignments for the following academic year. This policy allows eligibility for housing through the senior year, but makes it highly unlikely that students will be housed on campus during the senior year. This eligibility requirement is subject to revision as the demand for on-campus accommodations changes.

Details about residence hall rules and regulations are printed in the Pilot, residence hall manuals, the Terms and Conditions of Occupancy, and other housing literature.

Off-Campus Residency

The College does not approve or recommend residences off campus; therefore, all accommodations in this category are considered "independent." However, the Housing Office does serve as a referral agency, collecting data about off-campus housing opportunities, preparing housing directories, and providing other useful information to student tenants and their landlords. Before any rental property is accepted for listing in the college's off-campus directory, the owner must submit his/her premises to an annual inspection by the town building inspector and must sign a statement pledging not to practice illegal discrimination in the rental of property. In addition, the property must meet the town's building code requirements and comply with housing standards set forth by the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry.

Because off-campus housing is not assigned the student must rely upon his/her own initiative to find suitable off-campus accommodations.

The College does not become involved in the tenant-landlord relationship, except when the Housing Director is called upon by either party to enhance communications or understanding between the two. All involvement by the Housing Director and any advice given is purely an informal, non-legal basis.

Students planning to live off campus should have a clear understanding of their rights and responsibilities as tenants. To help students become more knowledgeable tenants, the Housing Office prepares information on topics of interest to off-campus renters. Brochures and pamphlets are available on such subjects as security deposits, leases, discrimination, food stamps, nutrition, fire safety in the home, model rental contracts, home repairs and energy conservation. Street maps of the town of Bloomsburg, pre-occupancy checklists, office copies of the local housing code and Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry regulations, and articles on reading and understanding leases are also available to interested students. Upon request, the Director of Housing will help student renters conduct pre and post-occupancy inventories of their apartments/rooms or serve as an impartial observer for alleged violations of the building code or other ordinances.

Off-campus students are advised to obtain insurance protection for their belongings, since most landlords do not assume liability for loss of, or damage to, the personal property of their tenants.

Students residing off campus bear a dual responsibility as citizens of the town of Bloomsburg and as members of the college community. The college cannot provide sanctuary from the law nor can it be indifferent to its reputation in the community it serves.

3.05 COMMUNITY GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

All full-time undergraduate students are members of the Association. Graduate students and full-time faculty members who have paid their Community Activities Fee are also members. College Council meetings are held Monday evenings in the Multi-purpose room of the Kehr Union. Parking decals are to be obtained at the Safety and Security Office within 24 hours after employment, registration, or arrival on campus. Failure to adhere to this provision will result in a $5.00 penalty. Students may obtain only one valid decal at a time; however, emergency situations may warrant issuance of a temporary permit. There is no cost for decals.

Freshmen and sophomores living on campus are not eligible to operate and/or park a motor vehicle on the campus unless given special permission.

Moving violations such as failing to obey stop signs, driving against traffic on a one-way street, reckless driving and driving too fast for conditions are chargeable under the Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Code.

The Assembly serves as a forum for the discussion of college matters, a framework for the maintenance of a co-ordinated committee system, and an organization to recommend college policies. Six standing committees, academic affairs, general administration, college life, campus services, human relations, and planning coordinate the work of several sub-committees and report regularly to the Assembly.

4. ADMISSION AND READMISSION

4.01 INSTRUCTIONS FOR CORRESPONDENCE

Correspondence concerning admission and documents which pertain to admission should be addressed to:

Dean of Admissions
 Bloomsburg State College
 Bloomsburg, Pa. 17815

4.02 APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Application materials and instructions for application may be secured by writing the Dean of Admissions.

To be a candidate for admission, one must complete and submit an official application to the Office of Admissions. The applicant is responsible for requesting the proper official of his/her secondary school to submit a transcript and personal evaluation to the Dean of Admissions.

The non-refundable application fee of ten dollars must be paid prior to consideration of the application.

Freshman applicants may apply to the college in only one of three academic categories: General Studies, Business, or Nursing. The level of competition for available positions in the latter two categories requires identification at the time of admission of individuals interested in pursuing these programs. Otherwise, applicants to other programs at the college will indicate their curriculum preference after enrollment. Students not admitted to Business or Nursing upon acceptance to the college are not guaranteed transfer to these curricula upon enrollment.

4.03 CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION

Admission to Bloomsburg State College is determined by the applicant's academic and personal qualifications. Decisions are reached without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, sex or physical handicap.

Applicants other than those eligible under Section 4.06 must be graduates of or seniors in accredited secondary schools or must have secondary school equivalency as determined by the Credentials Evaluation Division of the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Acceptance is determined by the Dean of Admissions upon evaluation of secondary school preparation, achievement, scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test, personal characteristics, and institutional capacity.

Acceptances are tentative if based on evaluation of transcripts which show work in progress; final action is taken after complete transcripts have been received and evaluated.

4.04 ENTRANCE TEST

Applicants must have on file scores of the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. It is the responsibility of applicants to arrange for the test and to request the forwarding of the scores directly from the Educational Testing Service. A photostatic copy of the high school test report on an official high school transcript is also acceptable. No other standardized test will serve as a substitute for the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

4.05 CENTER FOR ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT

The goal of the program of the Center for Academic Development is to equalize educational opportunity for students regardless of ethnic background or economic status.

Any individual with a high school diploma or certificate of equivalency is eligible to apply for admission to the program. Non-traditional criteria are applied in estimating potential of applicants when it appears that the environmental background may have adversely affected grades and/or standardized test scores. The Dean of Admissions may require an applicant for the Center for Academic Development to file supplementary information as is needed for proper consideration.

Opportunities for financial aid are described in a brochure which may be secured from the Office of Financial Aid. (See Section 3.03.)

Students in the program of the Center are required to participate in a summer developmental program prior to the first semester of their attendance and receive tutoring and special counseling for academic, financial and social problems.

Inquiries should be sent to the Director of the Center for Academic Development or to the Dean of Admissions.

4.06 EARLY ADMISSION

Outstanding high school students may be considered for admission upon completion of grade 11. In addition to strong achievement and high aptitude, applicants for early admission must have the unqualified endorsement of the high school to receive consideration. College credit earned may apply toward the requirements for the high school diploma.

4.07 TRANSFER STUDENTS

An applicant who has ever been enrolled, or who at the time of application is enrolled, in another college or university is a transfer applicant.

The information supplied in section 4.02, Application Procedures, and 4.03, Criteria for Evaluation, applies to transfer applicants. American College Test results may be submitted by a transfer applicant instead of the Scholastic Aptitude Test results, except that test results are not required from applicants who have successfully completed 30 or more semester hours of college credit. Transfer applicants must request each college attended to send an official transcript to the Dean of Admissions, regardless of whether credit was earned.

In order for a transfer student to be considered for admission, he/she must be certified as in good standing academically and otherwise in the college last attended and must have a quality point average of 2.0 or better on a 4.0 system for all courses in which passing and/or failing grades were recorded.

4.08 CAMPUS VISITS

Personal interviews are welcomed but not required. Arrangements can be made for an interview by writing or calling the Office of Admissions (717-389-3316). Applicants should bring an unofficial high school transcript if an application is not on file. Personal interviews are available Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

A number of campus visitation days are held during the academic year. Visitation days consist of a general meeting with Admissions personnel, students, and administrative personnel — including a question-and-answer session — a tour of the campus, lunch, and academic department meetings. Participation in one of these visitation days may be more meaningful than a personal interview because applicants have the opportunity to meet directly with academic faculty in the departments of their interest. Specific information and dates are available upon request from the Dean of Admissions.

4.09 OFF CAMPUS VISITATIONS

Each year, the staff in the Office of Admissions visits high schools and community colleges throughout Pennsylvania, participating in approximately 70 college night/career day programs, and the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh College Fair programs. Prospective applicants are encouraged to check with their high school or community college counselors to determine if an Admissions representative will be visiting their institution or attending a nearby college night program.

4.10 NON-DEGREE

Admissions procedures for undergraduate non-degree credit study are outlined in Chapter 10.

4.11 READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

Students who, having been formally admitted to degree study and attended Bloomsburg State College, fail to enroll or withdraw for any academic semester, regardless of the reason, must apply for readmission if they wish to re-enter.

Readmitted students are responsible for the graduation requirements and academic policies which exist at the time of reentrance.

The Dean of Admissions may require an applicant for readmission to file a letter containing such supplementary information as is needed for proper consideration.

Students under academic dismissal are ineligible for consideration for readmission for one calendar year; they should present evidence of successful achievement at another college or university as part of any application for readmission.

The grade and credit-entries recorded prior to readmission of a student under academic dismissal do not enter into subsequent computations of the quality point average, but the previous credit is included in his/her cumulative credit. A student may invoke this provision only once. Courses failed prior to dismissal and repeated after readmission are not subject to the repeat provisions outlined in (Sections 5.01 and 5.03).

4.12 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A student may request a leave of absence for a specified period by completing the appropriate forms at the Office of Admissions. To be eligible for a leave, a student must be in Academic Good Standing and must request the leave prior to the registration date of the intended period of absence.

A student on a leave of absence is assured a place in the semester designated for return provided the instructions that are part of the leave of absence agreement are fulfilled and advanced deposits are submitted at the time designated by the Dean of Admissions.

4.13 HEALTH RECORD

An applicant who is offered admission must submit a medical history questionnaire prior to enrollment. The appropriate medical questionnaire is forwarded to the applicant upon receipt of advanced fees. Nursing students must submit a medical examination in lieu of the medical questionnaire.

Final permission to enroll is contingent upon a favorable review of the medical history by the College Physician.

4.14 ADVANCED PLACEMENT

A student may receive a maximum total of 30 semester hours of credit by examination for successful completion of institutional examinations and/or approved external examinations. The college recognizes two external examination programs: the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) and the Advanced Placement Program of the College Entrance Examination Board.

The minimum score for awarding credit for general CLEP examinations is the 50th percentile of the Sophomore national norms. Credit is awarded for the subject CLEP examinations for achievement at or above the mean score achieved by students in the national norm sample who earned the grade of "C" in a regular college course in the subject. Minimum scores for awarding credit and the amount of credit granted can be secured by writing the Dean of Admissions.

A score of 5 or 4 on an Advanced Placement examination exempts a student from the introductory course in the tested area and gives credit. A score of 3 exempts a student, without credit, from the introductory course. Advanced placement is not granted for grades of 2 or 1.

Advanced placement may be granted in English Composition after consideration of verbal SAT, the Test of Standard Written English results and high school achievement.

4.15 ADVANCED STANDING FOR MILITARY SERVICE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCES

The recommendations of the American Council on Education as stated in its Guide to Evaluation are followed. The applicability of such credit to the requirements of the student's curriculum is determined by recommendation of the dean of the school and confirmation by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs. USAFI courses validated through college-level examinations are subject to the provisions for acceptance of correspondence courses.

4.16 INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Residents of foreign countries should initiate their application well in advance of the semester they plan to enroll. Special application forms are required and may be obtained by writing to the Dean of Admissions. Students whose native language is other than English are required to submit the results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) Examination administered by the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. Certificates of educational training should be accompanied by certified translations if they are presented in a language other than English. Brief course descriptions of subjects successfully completed should be included with credentials.

Students may participate in a variety of study abroad programs during their enrollment at Bloomsburg State College. Each summer the college offers courses for credit in foreign countries, such as France, England, Spain, Ireland, and the Soviet Union. As a member of the Pennsylvania Consortium for International Education, Bloomsburg also offers summer courses in Salzburg, Austria, and Mexico, in cooperation with the other 13 state colleges and university. Through the Pennsylvania Consortium for International Education, the college also makes arrangements for Junior Year Abroad programs or Semester Abroad programs. Information about these programs may be obtained in the Office of International Education.

Students in teacher education programs may be assigned to do their student teaching in one of the centers abroad with which Bloomsburg cooperates: in Quito, Ecuador; Recife, Brazil; or Liverpool, England. Further information about this program may be obtained in the Office of International Education.

5. ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PRACTICES

Academic policies and practices are subject to change; the policies of this chapter are those authorized as of January 1, 1979. If there are subsequent changes which are effective for 1979-80, insofar as possible these will be announced in the Pilot; changes made after publication of the Pilot are announced in the Campus Voice.

5.01 REGISTRATION POLICIES AND PRACTICES

Student Responsibility

It is the responsibility of the student to know and observe the academic policies and regulations of the College, to confine registration to courses for which the prerequisites have been satisfied and to meet the requirements for graduation.

In case of changes by the College in graduation or curriculum requirements, a full-time student who attends without interruption may choose to satisfy either the requirements as they existed at the time of entrance or the new requirements; in the latter case, the student is responsible for the requirements in toto. A student who withdraws from the College for one or more semesters must apply for readmission. A readmitted student is governed in this matter by the rules for readmission (see Section 4.11). A part-time student must apply to the Vice President for Academic Affairs for permission to be graduated under the original requirements.

Academic Advisement

Entering students who upon application for admission indicated their preferred curriculum are assigned to faculty advisers who specialize in advisement in these areas. Assignments to advisers are made by the Coordinator of Academic Advisement with advice of department chairpersons and deans.

Applicants for admission who are undecided about their curriculum should state undecided on the application for admission instead of specifying a curriculum.

Students with questions or problems should seek assistance in the Office of Academic Advisement, Benjamin Franklin Building.

Scheduling

Scheduling of classes for students already in attendance is completed during the prior semester. Students obtain a schedule booklet at no cost from the College Store and follow the instructions in it.

Students beginning or readmitted into degree programs may schedule classes in accordance with the instructions accompanying the offer of admission.

Registration

A student completes registration before attending classes. Registration is the student's official notification to the college of his or her enrollment for the term and is held the first day of the term. Students may register late until the close of business on the second Friday after a semester's registration or the first Wednesday following a summer session registration. There is a fee for late registration unless the student presents a legitimate medical excuse.

A time schedule for student registration is sent to each student with the semester billing. Times for summer sessions registration are announced in the summer sessions brochure.

Change of Schedule

A student may change his/her semester schedule prior to the close of the fifth day of classes of the semester. Application for change is made to the Registrar on a form which may be secured at the schedule change area. The consent of the adviser is not prerequisite to a change, but the student is responsible for informing the adviser of the change. Changes are subject to available space in classes to which the student proposes to transfer. Students may attend classes in accordance with an amended schedule only after certification by the Registrar's Office that the change has been executed officially.

Transfer of Curriculum

A student who wishes to transfer from one curriculum to another must file a request in the Academic Advisement Office. The filing of this request must be completed before the end of the semester preceding the proposed transfer, preferably before the scheduling period.

Permission to enter the new curriculum may require approval of the dean of the school in which it is offered; in this case, approval will depend on available space and may depend on recommendations from advisers and counselors.

Withdrawal from a Course

A student is permitted to withdraw from a course at any time prior to the last week of classes for the semester, in accordance with the following procedures and regulations:

A withdrawal application form is secured from the Registrar's Office. The student has withdrawn when the completed form has been filed with the Registrar.

The grade upon withdrawal is determined by the following policy: If the date of withdrawal is prior to the close of the fifth day of classes following the date established as the end of the first half of the semester, the grade of W is reported. If a student withdraws subsequent to that date, the grade of WP is reported if the student is currently passing on the withdrawal date as certified by the Registrar, with the grade of WF required if the student is failing the course. In case a student had been absent for a prolonged period prior to the withdrawal date, with the absence reliably confirmed as due to causes beyond his/her control, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, upon request of the student, will direct the instructor to make the grade retroactive to the first day of absence due to this cause rather than to the date of withdrawal.

If a student discontinues attending class without completing official withdrawal, the grade of E is reported. Absence from the final examination without confirmation that it was caused by circumstances beyond the student's control is regarded as discontinuing attendance without official withdrawal.

Withdrawal from the College

A student may withdraw from the College by securing an official withdrawal form from the counseling center and completing and filing it as directed. The withdrawal process includes the clearing of all financial obligations, an exit interview with the director of Financial Aid, and the return of the ID card and meal ticket. Grades are given in accordance with the policy stated under "Withdrawal from a Course." An individual who discontinues attendance without completing the official withdrawal process and clearing of all obligations to the college waives the right to a transcript and is denied future readmission.

Policies which cover reimbursements are stated in Section 2.8.

Pass-Fail Registration and Rules

After attaining sophomore standing, a degree student may elect courses on a Pass-Fail basis until the final day of registration in accordance with the following rules:

A maximum of four courses (not more than 13 semester hours in total) may be included as part of the minimum graduation requirement of 128 semester hours.

The courses must be electives in disciplines of the arts and sciences beyond the requirements of the student's specialization. Specialization includes a major and any courses required in conjunction with the major. Suitable courses outside the specialization taken on Pass-Fail basis may be applied toward the General Education requirements. (See Section 6.4.)

No more than two courses may be taken on this plan in any semester or summer term.

The instructor is not informed that the course is being taken on a pass-fail basis; grades of A, B, C, D, or E are translated later into grades of P or F, with the grade of P recorded for a grade of D or higher and the grade F recorded for E.

The grades P and F do not enter into the computation of a quality point average.

If, subsequent to completion of a course on a Pass-Fail basis, the student should change his/her major to one in which the instructor's original grade is required, he/she may request that the chairperson of the academic department be notified of the actual letter grade earned.

A student who has received a grade of E in a course may not take it later on a Pass-Fail basis.

The student may not revoke a decision to take a course on a pass-fail basis.

Normal Load and Overload

The normal load of a student in any semester is sixteen semester hours. A student in Good Standing may register for a maximum of eighteen semester hours in a semester. An overload to a maximum of nineteen semester hours requires a Cumulative Quality Point Average of 3.0 and permission of the Dean of the School. (See Section 2.2 for overload fee.)

Repeating Courses

A student may repeat a maximum of four courses in which grades of E or WF have been recorded. Multiple repeats of the same course are considered as one repeat. A course repeat at another institution of higher education is included in the permitted maximum number of repeats. A course previously passed may not be repeated.

Credit by Examination

A student may petition for the privilege of establishing credit in a course or courses listed in the catalogue through a comprehensive examination instead of through registration and class attendance. The following regulations govern this provision:

The student must present evidence of adequate experience with the course content either through experience other than college attendance or through independent study of the course content.

The student may not petition for an examination in a course audited, nor in a course from which a failing grade has been recorded.

The student must present evidence of equivalent experience if the course involves laboratory or studio work.

The student's petition must be approved in sequence by the department chairman and the dean of the school.

An examination committee must be appointed by the department chairman and approved by the dean of the school. Unless the course is an advanced course which is taught by only one member of the faculty, the examination committee must include at least two faculty members.

The examination must cover the course syllabus in a comprehensive manner. Suitable standardized examinations may be used. The examination must be written or, if oral, subject to transcription. Where skill, as in typewriting or shorthand, is a course requirement, the written and oral aspects must be supplemented by demonstration of skill. All papers must be filed in the department office for three years following graduation.

If the student passes the examination, the grade of "P" is assigned for the course. If he/she fails, no record is made. This course does not count in the student's normal quota of pass-fail courses.

A flat fee of $25 is charged for each course challenged by institutional examination taken for credit, regardless of the number of credits awarded for that course. Upon receipt of approval, this fee is payable at the College Business Office. Evidence of payment must be presented to the department before the examination can be administered.

Suitable adaptations of the above procedures may be used to validate transfer courses taken in non-accredited colleges. No fee is charged for examination to validate such credit. Examinations may be based upon the syllabi of the courses taken in the previous institution or, in case the student wishes to establish equivalency with courses in this college, upon the syllabi of courses offered in this institution.

Auditing of Courses

A full-time student who is enrolled for less than seventeen semester hours of course work may, with consent of the Vice-President for Academic Affairs and subject to overload fees as stated in Section 2.2, register for one course as an auditor. If the registrant attends at least three-fourths of the regular class meetings the grade of V will be reported by the instructor and the course will be entered on the academic record without credit. No assignments are made to an auditor and no papers or examinations are accepted by the instructor for grading or record either during the period of enrollment or subsequent thereto. An auditor may not participate in laboratory or studio work if such work is part of the course audited.

A part-time student may register as an auditor, subject to the provision that when computing the fee paid by the student the course audited will be counted the same as if it were taken for credit. Individuals who are not enrolled as students may apply for audit privileges through the Dean of Extended Programs; acceptance depends upon such factors as space in class and educational background.

Class Standing

A student has academic standing as a freshman until he/she has 32 semester hours of credit; as a sophomore from 32 to 63 semester hours, a junior from 64 to 95 semester hours, and a senior after 96 or more semester hours of credit. Transfer credit, if any, is included in these figures.

For purposes of social and housing privileges and regulations, the definitions of class standing are as follows: freshman, 10 and including 29 semester hours; sophomore, 30 to 59 semester hours; junior, 60 to 89 semester hours; senior, 90 or more semester hours or 6 semesters as a full-time student.

Definition of Full-Time Student

An individual who has registered for twelve or more semester hours is classified as a full-time student throughout the semester. One who registers for less than twelve semester hours is a part-time student. Where the word "student" appears in this catalogue without clarification either by word or context, "full-time student" is implied.

Progress Reports

At the mid-point of each semester a student may request from his/her instructor an estimate of the grade in the first half of the semester. This estimate is not made a part of the permanent record.

At the end of a semester or summer term, the final grade for each course is recorded on the student's permanent record; a copy of the semester grades is sent to the student at his/her home address or another address designated by the student.

5.02 CLASS ATTENDANCE

A student who is absent from a class for reason which can be verified as urgent is entitled to a reasonable amount of assistance from the instructor in making up the work which was missed. This includes permission to make up an examination given the class during the absence and the late submitting of assignments that were due during the period of absence. Urgent reasons are defined as illness of the student, serious illness or death of a member of the student's family, and other events beyond the control of the student and of such nature as to prevent attendance. Students whose absences do not fall within this category may not claim the privilege of making up work. It is the responsibility of the student to provide verification of the reason for absence if requested by the instructor when applying for the privilege of making up work missed.

5.03 GRADES, QUALITY POINTS AND QUALITY POINT AVERAGES

Definition of Grades

The grades given at Bloomsburg State College are defined as follows:

A—Excellent. This means both excellent when judged by the instructor's standards and of higher quality than the performance of students earning a B.

B—Superior. This means the work is of a quality sufficient to be recognized as better than average, though below excellence.

C—Satisfactory. The instructor considers the student's performance satisfactory and about average for the typical student.

D—Minimum Passing Grade. While the student has met the instructor's minimum standards and passes the course, his work was definitely below average.

E—Failure. The student has not met minimum standards for passing the course and receives no credit.

W—Withdrawn prior to the end of the week following the announced midpoint of the semester.

WP—Withdrawn, passing. Withdrawal occurred during the second half of the course, though the student had earned passing grades so far.

WF—Withdrawn, failing. Withdrawal occurred while student's standing was below the D-mark and after the date set for withdrawing with a simple W.

I—Incomplete. This grade is given only when because of circumstances beyond his/her control the student has been unable to complete certain of the obligations of the course and when a plan exists and is understood by both instructor and student whereby the work which remained to be done may be completed and graded. When the work has been completed, a permanent grade is submitted by the instructor to replace the grade of "I".

Unless specifically stated in a written plan filed in the Registrar's Office it is assumed that the work will be completed prior to the end of the next semester. If the plan is not fulfilled, the grade of "I" remains a part of the student's record (it is not subject to change at a later time). In the case of graduate students the grade of I is replaced by symbol N; this symbol remains permanently on the student's record.

A request for extension of time for the removal of a grade of "I" may be granted upon approval of the instructor and the dean of the school after suitable documentation has been presented indicating that circumstances above and beyond the control of the student persist or new circumstances of that nature have developed.

P—Passed. This grade is recorded when a student takes a course on a Pass-Fail basis and does work which would lead to a grade of "D" or higher. The grade of P is also recorded when a course is passed by proficiency examination.

F—This grade is recorded when a student takes a course on a Pass-Fail basis and does work which would lead to a grade of "E".

V—Audit. This grade is recorded when a student has registered as an auditor and attends the class for three-fourths or more of its regular meetings. The entire set of rules governing auditing of courses appears in Section 5.01.

R—Research in Progress. This grade is recorded when a research project is in progress but not yet completed and there is a definite plan for completion of the course work.

Quality Points

Grades of A, B, C, D, E and WF have quality point values as follows:

Grade	Quality Points
A	4
B	3

Quality Point Average

A number called the Quality Point Average (abbreviated QPA) is computed from the record of courses taken at Bloomsburg State College with grades of A, B, C, D, WF and E. The computation process is as follows:

- (1) Multiply the number of semester hours for each course by the number of quality points for the grade in the course, and add the products.
- (2) Divide the sum obtained in the first step by the total number of semester hours represented by the courses.

A "Semester QPA" is computed by including only the courses of a single semester. The "Cumulative QPA" is that computed by including all courses taken to date at Bloomsburg State College; if a course has been successfully repeated, the credits are counted only once in the computation. If a course is successfully repeated at another accredited institution of higher education, the credits for the failure at Bloomsburg State College are deleted from the computation.

Change of Grade

After a grade has been reported to the Registrar's office it may be changed only to correct a computational or clerical error. A recommendation for change of grade must be made in writing by the instructor and approved by the department chairperson and the dean of the appropriate school.

5.04 HONORS

The name of a student whose Semester QPA is 3.5 or higher is included in the Dean's List for that semester.

Graduation honors are recognized as follows: A student whose Cumulative Quality Point Average is 3.50 to 3.59 is graduated with Honors; 3.60 to 3.74, with High Honors; 3.75 to 4.00 with Highest Honors.

5.05 ACADEMIC GOOD STANDING

A student whose record at any final grading period shows a cumulative quality point average of 2.00 or better is considered in Academic Good Standing. (There are three final grading periods, the Fall Semester, the Spring Semester, and the total Summer Terms.

5.06 MINIMAL PROGRESS

A student not attaining a 2.00 cumulative quality point average shall be considered as making minimal progress toward academic good standing according to the following:

TOTAL NUMBER OF SEMESTER HOURS IN COURSES PASSED
INCLUDING GRADES OF "P" AND TRANSFER CREDIT

CUMULATIVE QUALITY POINT AVERAGE REQUIRED FOR
MINIMAL PROGRESS

To and including 18 sem. hrs.

1.25-1.99 Minimal progress toward
academic good standing

19-30 sem. hrs.

1.50-1.99 Minimal progress toward
academic good standing

31-54 sem. hrs.

1.75-1.99 Minimal progress toward
academic good standing

5.07 RETENTION POLICIES

Academic Probation

A student in one of the following categories is permitted to attend on Academic Probation for one additional final grading period (semester or summer):

- (a) an entering freshman whose Quality Point Average at the end of his/her first final grading period is at least 1.00 but less than 1.25;
- (b) a transfer student whose Quality Point Average at his/her first final grading period is less than, but within 0.25 of, that required for Good Standing;
- (c) a full-time student who has been in Good Standing continuously for at least two consecutive final grading periods immediately prior to a grading period in which his/her Cumulative Quality Point Average drops below, but within 0.1 of, that required for Good Standing;
- (d) a full-time freshman or transfer student who was in good standing at the end of the first grading period following entrance but whose Quality Point Average at the end of the second grading period is below but within 0.1 of that required for good standing.

The record of a student in any of these categories is marked "Academic Probation."

Final Grading Period is defined in Section 5.05.

Academic Dismissal

A student who at any final grading period is neither in Good Standing nor qualified to attend for a semester on academic probation is excluded from registration and his/her record is marked "Academic Dismissal."

A student under academic dismissal is ineligible to attend any courses offered by the College for a period of at least one calendar year. Readmission regulations are stated in Section 4.11.

Appeals

A student under academic dismissal may petition the Academic Review Board for reinstatement. If reinstatement is granted, the conditions pertaining thereto are stated, and the student's record is marked "Reinstated." If the student does not attain Good Standing by the end of the period granted by the conditions of reinstatement he/she is excluded from further registration and his/her record is again marked "Academic Dismissal."

Petitions to the Academic Review Board must be in writing and must be filed with the Vice-President for Academic Affairs within 48 hours of receipt of notification.

The Academic Review Board comprises the Deans of the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Professional Studies, and Business; a representative of the Vice-President for Student Life; the Director of the Counseling Center; the Dean of Admissions and Records; the Dean of Extended Programs; and the Registrar of the College. At the initiative of either the applicant or the Academic Review Board, the student's adviser will be invited to participate as a voting member in the consideration of the case.

In its evaluation of a petition for reinstatement, the Academic Review Board is charged to consider: the degree to which external factors beyond the student's control temporarily prevented optimum academic achievement; the likelihood that these or similar factors would not recur if reinstatement were granted; the likelihood that the student, if reinstated, can complete his/her curriculum successfully within a reasonable extension of the normal four-year period; an evaluation of the plan for attaining Good Standing proposed by the student as a part of his/her petition; and such other factors as may seem pertinent. Reinstatement is an expression of confidence on the part of the Board in the student's potential for successful completion of his/her curriculum and his/her fulfillment of its purposes.

A student whose petition for reinstatement has been denied by the Academic Review Board may appeal the decision within 48 hours to a special panel consisting of the vice-presidents of the College, provided the dean of the school in which the student has been enrolled supports the appeal by certifying a judgment that it presents evidence concerning pertinent factors that either were not placed before the Board or were given insufficient attention. The appellant must petition in writing through the Vice-President for Academic Affairs; he/she may also be required to appear before the panel in person. All members of the panel must concur in any decision to reverse the Academic Review Board. The decision of the panel is final.

5.08 EVALUATION OF TRANSFER CREDITS

Evaluation of credit earned at other institutions is made by the Admissions Office with guidelines supplied by the department chairperson, cooperatively established by the appropriate school dean. Credits for acceptable courses transfer; grades, quality points, and grade point average do not transfer.

Acceptable courses must have been completed in an accredited college or university or in a recognized or accredited junior college or community college. Courses must be applicable to the student's curriculum either as substitutes for required courses or as electives, credit will be deleted if the student subsequently registers for courses which substantially duplicate the content of courses accepted for transfer.

A student is entitled to an opportunity to validate by examination a course presented for transfer when the substitution of transfer credit for a required course is in question because the course was taken in an unaccredited institution or because of uncertainty concerning the syllabus or standards of the course. When they are available, standardized examinations are used.

Correspondence courses are subject to acceptance to a total that does not exceed fifteen semester hours if taken from an accredited college or university and acceptable by that institution toward graduation in a baccalaureate degree curriculum.

Courses taken in another institution on a Pass-Fail basis are acceptable if they conform to the conditions for such grades at Bloomsburg State College.

A transfer student is issued an evaluation sheet which stipulates the requirements for graduation which remain to be met; this is subject to revision in the light of subsequent changes in the evaluation of the transcript.

Students of Bloomsburg State College may take courses in other accredited institutions and submit the credit for transfer, provided the courses have been approved in advance by the dean of the appropriate school.

(See Section 5.13 for limitations on credit transferred from other institutions.)

5.09 CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

Attempts by students to improve grades by cheating in tests and examinations or by plagiarism in papers submitted to the instructor are offenses subject to penalties which may be as severe as suspension or expulsion.

The instructor may assess penalties ranging from a privately administered reprimand to a grade of E in the course. If the offense appears to merit a more severe penalty, the instructor is responsible for initiating a request for formal consideration by the Student-Faculty Judiciary.

In order to avoid the appearance of plagiarism resulting from ignorance of the proper use of source materials, the student should study the conventions governing use of sources. Such information can be obtained from instructors or from handbooks found in the Library.

5.10 TESTING PROGRAMS

Each new student is required to take entrance classification tests during the orientation period. The results of the tests are used for advisement, counseling, research, and reports. No fee is charged for these tests.

A number of other tests are administered by the College; these are offered as a service to students who may need them for special purposes. Among the tests currently available are the National Teacher Examination, Graduate Management Admissions Test, Graduate School Foreign Language Tests, Law School Admission Test, Test of English as a Foreign Language, Graduate Record Examination. Information concerning these and other tests may be obtained from the Center for Counseling and Human Development.

5.11 RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

At least 32 of the last 64 semester hours credited toward a baccalaureate degree must be taken in residence at Bloomsburg State College. Former students of the College who are certificated for teaching by completing two or three years of college work and who are candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree, must complete at least one half of the remaining work for the degree in residence. Residence credit is given for courses taught on the Bloomsburg State College campus in a semester, a summer term, in evening or Saturday classes for teachers, and for off-campus student teaching.

5.12 GRADUATE COURSES IN SENIOR YEAR

Seniors who in their last semester of residence need fewer than fifteen semester hours of course work to satisfy their requirements for the baccalaureate degree may apply to the Dean of Graduate Studies for permission to supplement their undergraduate courses with graduate courses, providing the total of undergraduate and graduate courses will not exceed 16 semester hours. If permission is granted, credit in the graduate courses is held in reserve.

5.13 GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate for graduation with a baccalaureate degree must have a 2.00 or higher cumulative quality point average, have satisfied the residence requirements and completed all course requirements of one of the curricula.

The minimum credit requirement for a baccalaureate degree is 128 semester hours.

The last 64 semester hours of the credit counted toward graduation must be in courses taken in four-year baccalaureate degree-granting college. (For the minimum residence requirements in this College, see Section 5.10.)

Secondary majors in foreign languages must have satisfied the departmental examination requirement.

The Diploma Fee ($5.00) must have been paid.

All financial obligations to the College (library fines, parking fines, any unpaid tuition or housing fees, loans, etc.) must have been cleared.

The candidate must have arranged an exit interview with the Director of Financial Aid.

5.14 SECOND BACCALAUREATE DEGREE

An individual who applies for a second baccalaureate degree must have completed the first degree at Bloomsburg State College or another college or university and must have added thereto at least 30 semester hours in undergraduate courses taken in residence during regular academic years and/or summer terms at Bloomsburg State College. All requirements for the curriculum in which the second degree is earned must have been satisfied and free elective credit must have been taken if necessary to complete the additional thirty semester hours. If a given course is required in both degree programs, it must not be repeated for the second degree.

6. UNDERGRADUATE CURRICULA: INTRODUCTION

6.1 CHOICE OF CURRICULUM

The undergraduate curricula are administered by three schools, the School of Arts and Sciences, the School of Professional Studies and the School of Business. The requirements of the curricula are stated in the chapters which deal with these schools.

With the exception of students interested in studying in the programs in the School of Business or in the Nursing program in the School of Professional Studies, all students are assigned to the School of Arts and Sciences upon admission to the college. Students may declare themselves "undecided", or may express an interest in studying in any of the arts and sciences, pre-professional, teacher education or professional studies majors. In the latter case, they are tentatively assigned to advisors in those areas. In either case, a student must have committed himself/herself and received admission to a curriculum by the end of the sophomore year. (Students who transfer to Bloomsburg State College with junior standing have a one semester grace period on this requirement.)

When a student makes a tentative choice of a major he/she is assigned preliminary or prerequisite courses required in that major. In curricula where admission is selective or restrictive at the junior year entry-level, as in the case in several programs in the School of Professional Studies, the college is not bound to admit the student if he/she is not admissible according to the competition for available spaces or other selective criteria.

6.2 CREDIT

Each curriculum which leads to a baccalaureate degree requires the successful completion of 128 semester hours of credit. A semester hour is defined as the credit for one weekly period of fifty minutes in lecture, discussion or recitation for one semester; in case a course requires laboratory, shop or studio experience, two or in some cases three periods are considered as equivalent to one period of lecture, discussion or recitation.

6.3 NON-CREDIT/DEVELOPMENTAL COURSES

Through services provided by the Center for Academic Development, a student, regardless of his/her current academic program or prior academic performance may enroll in developmental courses. These courses serve to supplement the student's academic experience and are not counted towards his/her credit requirement for graduation. Developmental courses provided include:

01.100 Developmental Communications Skills I (Writing) no credit

Course covers four types of basic prose writing: exposition, narration, description, and narration. Emphasis will be placed upon exposition, clarification, and explanation of facts and ideas.

01.101 Developmental Communication Skills II (Writing) no credit

A continuation and refining of the skills developed in the previous session.

01.102 Study Skills no credit

To teach proven methods and reinforce the use of those methods of study which can provide for mastery of subject matter. The program includes suggestions for the using study time wisely, taking, summarizing and organizing notes, writing term papers, and taking tests.

6.4 GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

The primary objective of General Education is to encourage in students, irrespective of their vocational pursuits, the development of those understandings, attitudes, values, and social skills that will enable them to enjoy a fuller life and to play a more constructive role in society.

The pattern of general education outlined above reflects a belief that a college must attempt to insure that the standards of an educated person in reading and writing have been attained, and should require the student to have experiences in the three recognized broad areas of knowledge: the humanities for their insights concerning intellectual and ethical values, the social sciences for enlightenment basic to understanding problems of society, and the sciences and mathematics for mature appreciation of the contribution of these branches of knowledge in determining the nature of an industrial-technical society.

Prescription of general education courses has been set at a minimum in order to give each student, with the help of an advisor, the opportunity to survey his/her previous background and choose new intellectual experiences that provide opportunity for optimum growth. This policy places important responsibility upon the student for discrimination in making decisions.

General Education courses should be those which contribute to the broadening and rounding of our students' education in line with the stated philosophy of General Education.

Each college department will re-list General Education courses subject to appropriate review.

(General Education courses should not be those which were designed primarily for majors in a discipline and should not be courses in methods and materials.)

I. REQUIRED COURSES:

English Composition 101 and 200 or 201 3-6 S.H.
 Honors Composition 104

(Upon admission to the college, qualified students, by virtue of their class rank and SAT verbal score are placed into this class)

Physical Education (Activity courses only with a minimal competency in swimming.) 4 S.H.

II. SPECIAL ELECTIVES

This requirement is fulfilled by taking an indicated number of semester hours from each of the three groups, with at least two of the disciplines of each group represented. The student's major discipline may not be included in the general education requirement. Students with double majors must adhere to this policy for only one of the disciplines.

III. ADDITIONAL ELECTIVES

Nine-twelve (9 to 12) semester hours of general education electives may be selected from any of the disciplines listed under Special Electives and/or from business, education, and health and physical education (excluding activities courses).

Total Hours 58

Note — All general education courses must be chosen from the general education courses list provided by the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Only those courses listed can be used to complete the General Education Requirement.

7. SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

7.1 GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Arts and Sciences is composed of seventeen academic departments all of which, except Health and Physical Education, offer programs leading to either the Bachelor of Science or the Bachelor of Arts degree or both.

The college was first authorized to offer the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1960 and the Bachelor of Science in 1963. After a period of slow growth in the early 1960's, programs, departments, and enrollments in Arts and Sciences have increased steadily.

Growth of the School of Arts and Sciences has also made the college more attractive to highly qualified, promising faculty, many of whom have been appointed in the last decade.

Degrees

The degrees, Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) and Bachelor of Science (B.S.) are conferred for programs offered in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The aim of a program which leads to the degree, Bachelor of Arts, is to offer the student opportunity for a liberal education through study in both breadth and depth of disciplines in the humanities, the social sciences and the natural sciences and mathematics.

The aim of a program which leads to the Bachelor of Science degree is to offer opportunity for liberal education together with a specialization that may have the potential of application.

There are two patterns for the Bachelor of Arts degree, a pattern of emphasis upon a broad field and a pattern with a major in one of the academic disciplines.

7.2 BROAD AREA PROGRAMS FOR THE BACHELOR OF ARTS AND BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREES

These programs offer opportunities for the student to follow a less conventional curriculum according to his/her preference or the anticipated requirements of a professional or graduate school or a profession at which he/she is aiming. The student fulfills the 58 semester hours of General Education requirements and then chooses to complete the prescribed Core Courses in the Humanities, the Social Sciences, or the Natural Sciences and Mathematics. 7.4 PRE-PROFESSIONAL STUDY AND ADVISEMENT

A Committee on Pre-Professional Health Science offers special, supplementary advisement to students who hope to seek admission to professional schools of medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, optometry, pharmacy.

Members of this committee are assigned to help pre-professional students to familiarize themselves with admission requirements of the professional schools, and to select college courses in harmony with these requirements. They also assist students in preparing applications for admission to professional schools.

Students who wish to undertake pre-professional study should indicate this interest on their application for admission to the College in order that an appropriate adviser may be assigned at the outset of their studies.

Pre-medicine, Pre-dentistry, Pre-veterinary Medicine, Pre-optometry, Pre-pharmacy

As a rule, professional schools in these areas do not specify an undergraduate major, but they do specify minimum essential courses, especially in the sciences and mathematics. These minimum requirements usually include courses in general chemistry, organic chemistry, mathematics, biology and physics. High standards of undergraduate scholarship are demanded for consideration.

Pre-Law

Students who wish to prepare to study law should familiarize themselves with the entrance requirements of law schools they are considering. A Pre-Law Advisory Committee drawn from several Departments makes a continuing study of such schools; its members will advise students in the choice of courses. Most law schools will consider applications from students with widely varying majors, placing emphasis on a thoroughly cultivated mind rather than any specific body of knowledge.

7.5 INDEPENDENT STUDY

The independent study opportunity within each department provides an opportunity for the student to pursue in-depth individualized instruction in a topic of special value of interest to the student. A limited number of independent study offerings are available each semester. Students interested in applying for independent study should develop a written proposal with his/her faculty sponsor. The number of semester hours credit should be specified in the proposal. Independent study proposals along with the name of the faculty sponsor should be submitted to departments for recommendation, then to the Dean of Arts and Sciences for final approval.

AMERICAN STUDIES

FACULTY: (See Interdisciplinary Studies)

PROGRAM:

The American Studies baccalaureate program provides the student with a variety of choices replacing the single-discipline major. There are two categories, the institutional and the cultural, either of which may lead to the B.A. degree or may be used as an area of specialization in Secondary Education.

The institutional option emphasizes the Social Sciences, English and Mass Communications, and History, as well as some Business and Educational Philosophy courses; the cultural option, besides literature and the fine arts, also features the Social Sciences, History, and some Education courses. In either option, including the use of American Studies as an area of specialization in Education, the student is required to take three seminars in American Studies.

The Seminars 09.311 and 09.312 are open as electives to students from any other fields. Sophomore standing is the only prerequisite. The follow-up, numbered 421, requires completion of 09.312. Seminars in this field will vary widely in subject matter, which will depend on agreement of professor and student in each case.

HISTORY SATELLITE PROGRAM

The history satellite course program is an innovative approach to provide greater flexibility in the history curriculum, to offer students more choice and better scheduling opportunities to enroll in history courses. Under the proposal a designated three semester credit history course can be offered at a reduced credit value or for an increased one semester credit value equivalent to class time and course content. Two approaches, "satellite segment course; and "Satellite derivation course," are available for a student to take a fraction or an extension of an existing three credit semester course. The "satellite segment course" permits a student to enroll in a reduced portion of a designated course for either one or two credits. The "satellite derivation course: allows a student to enroll in a specially designed one semester credit course, for an enrichment or concentrated study of a significant topic or theme from the content of the three semester credit course.

9.03 TEACHER EDUCATION

9.03.1 GENERAL INFORMATION

Scope of Teacher Education

Programs are offered for preparation of teachers for elementary schools, teachers of academic subjects in secondary schools, teachers in special education, teachers of communication disorders and teachers of business education. The business education program is administered in the School of Business; the other teacher education programs are administered in departments of the School of Professional Studies.

Aims

The teacher education program at Bloomsburg State College is committed to improving the field of education through a comprehensive program which recognizes its unique contributions to society, both as a reflection of that society and as an agent for the improvement of society. To meet this obligation, the program draws upon the knowledge and understandings of general as well as of professional education and strives constantly to blend the two in preparing a person who exhibits those qualities of human and technical competence necessary to fulfill a role in society as an informed, inquiring, and skilled professional.

More specifically, the teacher education staff provides:

the basic academic preparation for persons to acquire a depth and breadth of knowledge in both general and specialized studies;

the basic training to insure mastery of the specific skills necessary for competent functioning as a professional;

the opportunity for the continued growth of professional educators through formal programs of advanced study related to their particular field of interest;

the opportunity for further enrichment within the individual's area of professional competence through a regular program of speakers, seminars, and related activities;

the human and physical resources necessary to assist in the educational development and growth of the community served by the College; and the means for the advancement of knowledge through research in specific areas of education.

Degree

Each of the undergraduate programs for teacher education outlined in this catalogue leads to the degree, Bachelor of Science in Education (B.S. in Ed.).

Accreditation of Teacher Education

The College is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The teacher education programs outlined in this bulletin have been approved for teacher certification by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Teacher Certification

The completion of one of the approved programs in teacher education is prerequisite to institutional recommendation for a teacher's certificate. Upon recommendation, an initial certificate is granted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The initial certificate is designated as Instructional Level I; it is valid for three years and may be renewed for three additional years upon completion of twelve semester hours of college credit beyond the baccalaureate, and certification of three years of successful teaching. A Level I certificate is not subject to renewal beyond a total of six years. A permanent certificate, Level II, is issued upon certification of three years of successful experience under Level I and the completion of a minimum of twenty-four semester hours of post-baccalaureate course work (the twenty-four semester hours may include the twelve semester hours required in case the Level I certificate was renewed).

The programs offered for Level I certification are:

Elementary Education (Kindergarten through grade 6).

Early Childhood Education (Preschool through grade 3).

Business Education — Accounting, Secretarial, Business Information Processing, General.

Secondary Education — Biology, Chemistry, Communication, Earth Science, English, French, General Science, German, Mathematics, Physics, Social Studies, Spanish.

Special Education — Mentally and/or Physically Handicapped.

Communication Disorders — Speech Correction or Hearing Impaired.

Reciprocity of Teachers' Certificates

Pennsylvania is a party to the Interstate Agreement on Qualifications for Educational Personnel which provides that holders of Pennsylvania certificates are eligible for certificates in the other states which are parties to the agreement. Currently, there are twenty-three such states.

Admission to Teacher Education

Students who wish to take teacher education curricula enroll tentatively in the School of Professional Studies and schedule courses in harmony with the requirements of the program they wish to follow. In due course the students apply for admission to teacher education. Usually, the screening for admission to teacher education takes place after the student has completed 32 or more semester hours and has taken the Sophomore Field Experience intended to help the applicant to assess his/her decision. Scholarship and pertinent personal attributes are weighed in determining admission to teacher education; the criteria reflect the responsibility of a college whose recommendation is a sufficient basis for the issuing of a teacher's certificate. If students who were tentatively enrolled in the School of Professional Studies are not admitted to teacher education, they are transferred to the School of Arts and Sciences.

Retention in Teacher Education

Admission to teacher education is equivalent to candidacy for the degree, Bachelor of Science in Education. Candidacy for this degree is revoked in case of failure to maintain the required Quality Point Average and may be revoked for other sufficient reason. If candidacy is revoked but the student is otherwise eligible to remain in the College he/she is transferred to the School of Arts and Sciences; in this case the student who wishes to be reinstated must reapply for admission to teacher education.

Field Experience

Students in teacher education are required to engage in the Sophomore Field Experience during which they work in and observe the educational process in a school of their choice. It is intended that this experience will help the students decide before the Junior year whether they wish to follow careers in teaching. Participants are exposed to many aspects of teaching and to the operation of the whole school, thus providing experience that should increase the relevancy of course work in professional education.

Other field experiences in addition to student teaching are participated in as part of certain courses in professional education, these may take the form of field trips, observations, and micro-teaching.

Student Teaching

Pre-professional teacher education culminates in student teaching for a semester in public schools of Pennsylvania.

Undergraduates who have satisfied the prerequisites for student teaching courses are assigned to student teaching during the first or second semester of their senior year. They are placed according to the availability of qualified cooperating teachers in their subject area and the willingness of schools with programs approved by the College to cooperate with the College in its program in teacher education. Students should be prepared to accept assignments in any of the student teaching centers.

The student teaching semester is divided into two equal periods; this provides an opportunity for students to teach at two grade levels and frequently in two socio-economic environments.

Because of the constantly changing educational and socio-economic scene, flexibility of format is maintained in the student teaching program.

Student Teaching Centers

The College selects its student teaching centers and cooperating teachers in urban, suburban, and rural areas. Students in elementary education may be assigned to central Pennsylvania, to suburban Philadelphia, or to certain inner-city locations. Students in secondary education may be assigned to teach in central Pennsylvania, in suburban Philadelphia, or in the cities of Philadelphia and Harrisburg. Business education student teaching centers are located in the Bloomsburg, Allentown, and Williamsport areas. Students in communication disorders and special education are assigned to the White Haven Center, Selinsgrove Center, and to public schools and other agencies located in southeastern Pennsylvania.

It may be possible for students in teacher education programs to be assigned to do their student teaching in one of the centers abroad with which Bloomsburg cooperates: Quito, Ecuador; Recife, Brazil; or Liverpool, England. Further information about this program may be obtained in the Office of International Education.

9.04 ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

(Dr. James E. Cole, Program Coordinator)

The allied health sciences encompass those health areas in which individuals support, aid, and increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the physician, dentist, and professional nurse.

The curricula offered at Bloomsburg State College include: medical technology, dental hygiene, pre-occupational therapy, pre-physical therapy, and pre-cytotechnology. Completion of these programs involve clinical education and experience — usually away from the college campus. The college offers degrees in only the first two curricula, — B.S. in Medical Technology and B.S. in Ed. for Dental Hygienists.

9.04.1 MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY CURRICULUM

(Dr. Donald D. Rabb, Curriculum Coordinator)

The formal program Medical Technology consists of 98 semester hours of courses prescribed by the College, followed by one year of clinical study and experience in an approved School of Medical Technology. Bloomsburg State College has formed affiliations with: Abington Memorial Hospital, Abington, PA.; Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, PA., (major affiliate); Lancaster General Hospital, Lancaster, PA.; Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, PA.; Sacred Heart Hospital, Allentown, PA.; St. Joseph's Hospital, Reading, PA.; Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, PA.; Williamsport Hospital, Williamsport, PA. Affiliations pending: Medical College of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA. and Allentown and Sacred Heart Hospital Center, Allentown, PA.

The student enrolls initially in Pre-professional Studies and follows the list of courses prescribed in the Medical Technology program. Application for transfer to the School of Professional Studies and formal admission to Medical Technology may be made after the student has earned 30 semester hours of credit and before the completion of 64 semester hours.

The student is assisted to apply for admission to clinical year programs, but admission is determined solely by the hospitals. More students apply than the schools of Medical Technology can accept; this permits the schools to be rigorously selective.

The cost of a clinical year varies widely. At one time, students in clinical programs were customarily paid a stipend, but only a very few schools have continued the practice. The majority provide no stipend but offer free tuition. A few charge tuition of $300 per year or more.

The candidate may choose to satisfy either of two degrees as follows: the degree, Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology (B.S. in Med. Tech.) is conferred upon successful completion of the prescribed course work, the certification to the College of successful clinic experience, and the passing of the examination of the Board of Registry of Medical Technologists; or the degree Bachelor of Science (B.S.) will be conferred upon successful completion of the course work and certification to the College of successful completion of the clinical experience, but without the passing of the Registry Examination.

A student who fails to gain admission to a clinical program at the end of the junior year may return to the College to complete the requirements for a baccalaureate degree or may take a leave of absence (See Section 4.12) to preserve his right to return later. Ordinarily the student can complete the Bachelor of Arts curriculum in Biology in one additional year; other curricula may require more time. Students who are on leave, as well as those who continue their studies, are eligible to reapply for admission to the clinical year programs.

The course requirements of the Medical Technology Program are:

A. General Education (See Section 6.4)

B. Specialization

Biology: 50.210; 50.332 or 333; 50.312 or 331 or 361 or 364, 50.371 or 372; 50.342;

Although requirements for admission to professional schools of physical and occupational therapy vary, the student is advised to take one year of work in each of chemistry, physics, mathematics, and biology. Entrance into professional schools usually follows two to four years of undergraduate preparation, hence, the student is encouraged to design a program which may lead to a baccalaureate degree at Bloomsburg State College.

9.04.4 PRE-CYTOTECHNOLOGY CURRICULUM

Prior to acceptance into an AMA-approved educational program for cytotechnologists, the applicant is required to have completed two years of work in an accredited college or university. The pre-cytotechnology curriculum at Bloomsburg State College is concentrated in the biological sciences.

9.04.5 PUBLIC SCHOOL NURSING CURRICULUM

(Mr. Robert Bunge, Curriculum Coordinator)

COMMUNICATION DISORDERS

FACULTY:

Professor Gerald W. Powers; Associate Professors Benjamin S. Andrews, Robert J. Kruse (Chairperson); Assistant Professors Ronald R. Champoux, Pearl G. Grossman, G. Donald Miller, Samuel B. Slike, Richard M. Smith and Julia M. Weitz; Instructor Catherine M. Constable.

Program Description

The objective of this curriculum is to prepare personnel to work in public schools, hospitals, clinics and rehabilitation centers with individuals who are handicapped in speech, hearing and language.

Upon successful completion of the curriculum and recommendation by the College, certification in speech correction is granted by the Pennsylvania Department of Education. The curriculum provides academic and clinical work which constitute part of the prerequisite for the Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech Pathology or Audiology issued by the American Speech and Hearing Association; additional prerequisites include a master's degree and certain prescribed experience.

Students in the Curriculum in Communication Disorders are required to complete the master's degree before they are eligible for recommendation by the College for Certification. (The requirements for the master's degree appear in the Graduate Catalogue.)

Admission to the undergraduate curriculum in Communication Disorders is selective. Students must take a minimum of nine semester hours in courses of the Department of Communication Disorders before they may apply for admission. The normal time for application by regular students is in the middle of the sophomore year. Transfer students, readmitted students, graduate students in Communication Disorders who have undergraduate deficiencies and students who are re-applying for admission compete on equal terms with regular students at each selection period.

Selection within the quota for each selection period is determined by ranking the product of Quality Point Average in the courses that have been taken in the Department of Communication Disorders; and the Cumulative Quality Point Average. Other professional factors determine the selection in case there is a tie in the measure — in this case the decisions are made by the faculty of the Department.

The precise quota for each selection period is pre-determined by the Department in the light of the projected capacity of clinical facilities, subject to a maximum of thirty-five students to be admitted each year.

Students who are not admitted may re-apply at a subsequent selection period.

A minor in Education of the Hearing Impaired has been planned for students in Elementary Education. The courses in this minor may also be taken by students in Secondary Education, Business Education, Special Education and Early Childhood Education. Students who elect this sequence may seek advisement from the faculty of the Department of Communication Disorders. Students who complete the courses of the minor in addition to their teacher education major are eligible to compete for admission to the graduate program in Education of the Hearing Impaired.

Air Force ROTC

Bloomsburg State College participates with Wilkes College in a program which allows students to qualify for commissions in the United States Air Force upon graduation.

The Air Force ROTC (AFROTC) provides a four-year program divided into the general military course (GMC) in the first two years and the Professional Officer Course (POC) in the last two years. A student may elect to enroll in either the total four-year program or the POC. Students in the four-year program take the GMC during the freshman and sophomore years and the POC during the Junior and Senior years, attending four weeks of field training during the summer between the Sophomore and Junior years.

Members of the program are eligible to compete for AFROTC Scholarships.

For acceptance into the POC, the four-year program student must pass a physical examination and an Officer Qualification Test and must have attained an acceptable academic rating.

To qualify for direct entrance in the two-year POC program, students must have two academic years remaining at either the graduate or undergraduate level or a combination of the two. They must meet the physical standards, pass an Officer Qualification Test, have an acceptable academic rating and must successfully complete a six week field training course. Transfer students may elect the POC if they satisfy the above requirements.

Uniforms, equipment, and textbooks for the AFROTC work are supplied by Wilkes College and the United States Air Force. Students in the POC receive $100.00 per month subsistence allowance. In addition, a limited number of scholarships are available to students in the program on a competitive basis.

Students who complete successfully the POC are commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the United States Air Force Reserve. They serve on active duty in the Air Force in a specialty as close as feasible to their academic training and consistent with Air Force needs.

Four semester hours of credit may be earned in the GMC and 12 semester hours in the POC.

Courses offered during the academic year are conducted at Wilkes College.

The field training required before entry into the POC is held at several operational bases each summer. Cadets have opportunity to observe, fly, and live with career personnel. Transportation from the legal residence of the Cadet to the field training base and return, food, lodging, and medical and dental care are provided by the Air Force. The Cadet receives approximately $300.00 for the four-week field training or $450.00 for the six-week training period.

The Department of Aerospace Studies at Wilkes College conducts a number of field trips to Air Force Installations. The trips include tours of the base and familiarization flights.

There is a flight instruction program, designed for Cadets in the POC who propose to enter Air Force Pilot training upon graduation, which identifies applicants who possess the qualifications necessary to fly high performance aircraft. The program consists of a ground phase given by officers of the detachment, and a flying phase with dual and solo flight instruction by a certified civilian flying school at government expense.

Corps Training

AFROTC cadets must participate in Corps Training one hour per week during each semester. This program involves a progression of experience designed to develop each student's leadership potential in a supervised training laboratory. Areas examined: Air Force customs and courtesies; drill and ceremonies, career opportunities, life and work of an Air Force junior officer.

Field Training

Candidates for enrollment in the POC will attend AFROTC field training during one summer. The training, conducted at selected Air Force bases, gives students an opportunity to observe Air Force units and people at work and at home, participate in marksmanship, survival, athletics, leadership training activities, take aircraft orientation flights, and work with contemporaries from other states. Students in the four-year program attend a four-week session while candidates for the two-year program must complete a six-week program.

Army ROTC

Bloomsburg State College participates with the Bucknell University in a cross-enrollment program which allows students to qualify for a commission in the U.S. Army upon graduation.

Army ROTC is a four-year experience open to men and women. It is divided into a basic program of four courses given during the Freshman and Sophomore years and the advanced program of four courses given during the Junior and Senior years. (The Director of Military Science can authorize a waiver of basic course requirements for a student who has prior active military service or who has completed high school level ROTC.) No service obligation is incurred until the beginning of the advanced program.

A special program, available to selected students who were unable to take the basic courses, permits them to enroll in the advanced courses after completing a basic summer camp between the Sophomore and Junior years. Students who attend the basic summer camp are paid at a rate equivalent to the basic pay for a private together with travel allowance, subsistence, housing, uniforms and medical care.

Students enrolled in the advanced courses receive subsistence pay of $100.00 a month for not to exceed ten months a year. Successful completion of the advanced program requires attendance at an advanced summer camp, normally scheduled between the Junior and Senior years; payment during this camp is at a rate equivalent to one-half of the basic pay for a Second Lieutenant with less than two years of service together with a travel allowance, subsistence, housing, uniforms and medical care.

Students who complete the advanced program successfully qualify upon graduation for a commission as Second Lieutenant in the United States Army and incur a service obligation in the Army with active duty requirements that vary with the type of commission accepted.

The program combines courses on the campus and clinical practice in patient care areas in selected health agencies; with the guidance of nursing students provided by the faculty of the Department of Nursing of the College.

The course requirements for the degree comprise:

A. General Requirements: (See Section 6.4 of this catalogue) Note: A number of the prescribed courses in physical sciences and social sciences listed in the Specialization may also be applied by the student toward Groups II and III of the General Education Requirements. Students are encouraged to elect courses in such disciplines as anthropology, education, philosophy, and foreign language (in particular, Spanish).

9.10 STUDENT AND COMMUNITY SERVICES IN THE SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Speech, Hearing and Language Clinic

This clinic, located in Navy Hall, provides a number of services to students, faculty, staff and total community. Evaluative services available are: speech, voice, language, hearing, hearing aid evaluation, and educational-psychological services. Therapeutic services offered are speech and language therapy, auditory training, speech reading, educational therapy for the hearing impaired and parent counseling. Services of the clinic are free to Bloomsburg State College students, faculty and staff.

Reading Clinic

The Reading Clinic, located in Benjamin Franklin Hall, offers diagnostic evaluation of reading skills, including selected standardized reading tests, Lovell Hand-Eye Co-ordination test and tele-binocular examination. After evaluation, remedial clinical instruction is provided if desired, including parent counseling. This is a continuing year-round service for which a fee schedule is available upon request, but no person is denied service because of financial need.

Speed Reading

Beginning early in each semester, several sections of speed reading are offered to students on a "first come — first served" basis. Classes are limited to ten students. Announcements appear in the student newspaper. Classes usually are held two or three days a week for six weeks.

Upward Bound

The college presents the opportunity for tenth and eleventh grade students from participating high schools to enroll in the Upward Bound Program. The program, open to students meeting certain academic and financial eligibility requirements, is designed to assist these individuals by making them more self-confident, well informed, and better prepared for life beyond high school. The program consists of two segments. In the first segment, enrolled students spend two hours a week in their local high schools participating in academic experiences designed to supplement their regular scholastic program and to improve performance in the areas of English, reading, science, and mathematics. The program's counseling service provides close individual contact for discussing career, vocational and personal interests within the high school setting. The other component of Upward Bound is a six-week summer live-in experience on the college campus. This experience provides concentrated academic work, plus planned recreational, social, and cultural experiences both on and off campus.

10. SCHOOL OF EXTENDED PROGRAMS

10.1 ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTION

The School of Extended Programs administers and coordinates college-wide efforts to provide life-long education opportunities for citizens of the Central Susquehanna Valley region.

The school also facilitates and coordinates the operation of the offices of Cooperative Education, International Education, and Summer Sessions.

10.2 PROGRAMS

Non-Degree Credit Program

On the assumption that learning should be a life-long process, a non-degree credit program provides for enrollment by an individual in regular undergraduate credit courses without formal admission to the College as a degree candidate. Individuals are invited to use this program as an opportunity to review skills, acquire new skills, or pursue cultural and intellectual interests. Credit courses may be chosen from both day and evening offerings of the college.

College credit earned in appropriate courses taken as a non-degree student may be applied later if the individual seeks and is granted formal admission to a degree program in the college. Courses taken by non-degree students can also be used for certification programs and to meet undergraduate deficiencies for graduate study. (The School of Graduate Studies has its own non-degree regulations. See the Graduate Bulletin.)

Non-Credit Mini-Courses

Non-credit mini-courses provide opportunities for individuals to gain specialized skills and/or information for career purposes or to pursue cultural, recreational, or special interests through short-term experiences without credit.

These courses reflect expressed community needs and demands. A nominal hourly fee is charged.

Attendance Fee Program

The Attendance Fee Program allows individuals to attend college classes without credit. Admission on this basis depends upon available space and the payment of the fee of $25 per course.

10.3 ADMISSION PROCEDURES FOR NON-DEGREE CREDIT STUDENTS

Application blanks may be secured from the Dean of Extended Programs and are filed in the Office of Admissions. Supporting credentials are required as follows:

(a) Adults who desire to enroll as part-time students must file documentary evidence of high school graduation or certification of high school equivalency.

(b) A student enrolled in another institution of higher education who wishes to take courses at Bloomsburg State College for transfer to the home institution must file a transcript from that institution. It is recommended that the applicant make certain that course work pursued at Bloomsburg State College will be accepted by the home institution.

(c) A student approaching the final year of high school who desires to combine college work with the last year of high school work must file a high school transcript, junior year SAT scores, a letter of recommendation from the high school counselor, and letters of recommendation from two high school instructors in the academic area of intended pursuit. Acceptance for admission requires concurrence by the high school principal.

(d) Graduate students with undergraduate deficiencies must be recommended to the School of Extended Services by the dean of the School of Graduate Studies to pursue such undergraduate courses as the graduate dean recommends.

(e) An individual who wishes to pursue a remedial program to qualify for undergraduate degree admission must submit a high school transcript and an official accounting for all previous college attendance if any.

(f) Students with an earned baccalaureate degree who wish to complete the requirements for Level I or Level II teacher's certification must submit a transcript from the institution that granted the baccalaureate degree and must be recommended to the School of Extended Services by the Dean of the School of Professional Studies.

(g) Senior citizens who are retired, over 60 years of age, a legal resident of the U.S. and residing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Students in this category may be admitted to a class on a seat available basis only.

10.4 ADMISSION TO MINI-COURSES AND ATTENDANCE FEE PROGRAMS

Individuals who wish to take advantage of the mini-course and attendance fee programs are not required to file credentials; in most cases the only formality is that of registration for the course to be taken.

10.5 ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT IN THE SCHOOL OF EXTENDED PROGRAMS

Students who are taking work for teacher certification are assigned to academic advisers in the School of Professional Studies and must secure the signature of an adviser on the Non-degree Course Selection Form. Informal advisement of other students may be arranged through the Dean of the School of Extended Programs.

10.6 SUMMER SESSIONS

Undergraduate and graduate courses are offered in the summer sessions in both on-campus and off-campus locations. Students may schedule as many semester hours in a session as the number of weeks in the session. An overload requires the approval of the appropriate school dean and the Dean of Extended Programs in keeping with the college policy on normal load and overload.

Undergraduate courses are open, without formal application, to regularly enrolled students of Bloomsburg State College who wish to enrich or accelerate their programs of study or make up academic deficiencies. Others must apply for admission through the Office of Admissions.

Students from other colleges are admitted to Summer Sessions upon the filing of a simplified application form supported by a letter of good standing from the chief academic officer of the college regularly attended.

Graduate courses are offered for students who wish to continue their education at the Master's degree level and/or to qualify for permanent certification. (See Graduate Bulletin.)

Special workshops are scheduled to provide teachers in service and other professional groups with specific training and in their professional skills at times and locations convenient to their schedules and places of employment.

A copy of the Summer Sessions Bulletin (including both undergraduate and graduate courses) may be obtained from the Dean of the School of Extended Programs. Application forms for undergraduate studies are included with the Bulletin; graduate students secure application forms from the Dean of Graduate Studies.

10.7 INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

The International Education Program advises international students and coordinates college-wide efforts to provide multi-cultural experiences for students and faculty. Interested students may be provided student teaching experiences in foreign countries through this program. The Pennsylvania Consortium for International Education sponsors a center for study at Salzburg, Austria, each summer.

Students interested in international education programs at Bloomsburg and/or other colleges are referred to the Director of International Education.

10.8 COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

The cooperative Education Program provides opportunities for students to combine academic instruction on-campus with work experience off-campus. The program, which is optional to selected students according to the specific academic needs of their programs of study, includes internships, work-study programs, and the typical "co-op" experience.

Several internships are available in the Department of Education in Harrisburg each semester. A student may apply for these experiences by contacting the Dean of Extended Programs.

11. GRADUATE STUDIES

11.1 DEGREES

Graduate study was inaugurated in 1960 with programs leading to the Master of Education degree planned for teachers in service. In 1968, approval was granted to offer a program in history to lead to the Master of Arts degree and in 1971 a program in biology to lead to the Master of Science degree. Additional programs to lead to the Master of Arts and Master of Science and in 1976 the Master of Business Administration degree.

The objective of the programs for the degree, Master of Education, is to improve subject matter proficiency and develop mature, professional teachers. The objective of the Master of Arts program is to advance the student's scholarship in an academic discipline. Programs leading to the Master of Science degree are designed to develop mature scholarship and competence, especially as they are related to application. The object of the Master of Business Administration degree is to provide increased knowledge and skills essential for quality performance in the business professions.

The College pledges itself to a continuous review of the needs for graduate education in the geographic region it serves.

11.2 SCHEDULES OF CLASSES

Graduate classes taught in the regular academic year are usually scheduled in late afternoons, evenings and Saturdays in order to provide opportunity for teachers and individuals engaged in other full-time occupations to further their education. Graduate courses are offered for full-time students in the summer terms.

11.3 GRADUATE CATALOGUE

A graduate catalogue with comprehensive descriptions of courses, programs and regulations is published annually. Requests for copies should be addressed to the Dean of Graduate Studies.
