FIERY REBUTTAL STIRS SOCIETY

EDWARD McGUIRE '23 ELECTED TO NORMAL PRESIDENCY

The rebuttal of Wilbur Mehring '24 was the startling event of the meeting of Normal Society last Friday evening. The debate had lost most of its snap when Mr. Mehring got up and attracted the attention of every member of the audience by the convincing manner in which he spoke. Although the decision was given to the Negative side which was debated by Paul Wert '23 and Edward McGuire '23 the Affirmative presented its arguments in a convincing way. George Kauffman '24 was Mr. Mehring's colleague.

The question was, Resolved, That the policy of collective trade bargaining through trade unions should prevail in American industries.

Miss Edith Oler '23 in a conversation with Miss Madlyn Brown '23, gave the Gazette which contained interesting items above the ordinary. Most of the material was entirely original.

Other numbers on the program were a recitation by Miss Kissinger '24, music by the Glee Club and a male quartet in charge of Edward Bowman '23. In spite of the small number of persons in the Glee Club the number was well presented.

Officers were elected as follows: Edward McGuire '23, President; Glenn Bailey '24, Vice President; Miss Helen Emig '23, Secretary; and Miss Edith Oler '23, Critic.

Prof. S. S. Shearer asked that the Society give more thought about a general debate after the regular debate.

COACH SHARADIN HURT IN PRACTICE

SOUTHERN TRIP CANCELED

Coach A. J. Sharadin was seriously injured at baseball practice last Saturday morning when he was struck on the head with a batted ball. The coach was standing in the infield when a fast liner caught him right above the temple. He was carried to the infirmary where he lay unconscious for several hours. According to a report by the school physician the condition of Coach Sharadin is very much improved. He is able to sit up on a chair and in a few weeks will be back on the job again.

The indoor baseball game scheduled for Saturday March seventeenth with the Domestic Engine Works of Shippensburg was cancelled, due to the coach's injury.

All the physical training classes under his instruction have been excused until his recovery. The baseball trip arranged for the vacation has been canceled as no other member of the Faculty felt he could step in and take up the work of the Coach. The weather has also been too cold to admit of practice.

F & M WEEKLY ISSUES NOVEL NUMBER

The Franklin and Marshall College Student Weekly has assumed a rather humorous tone in the last issue. The entire paper is devoted to humor. The name is changed to the Farmers and Mechanics Weakness. The friends of the Staff would hardly recognize them with their assumed names. Such noted characters as Frank Merriwell and the Smith Brothers as well as many others are featured. Dry humor worked in with a "good line" makes the paper altogether laughable, and a sure cure for the blues.

In all it is a good stunt and the Staff is to be complimented on their originality. Several issues are floating around the Campus. Grab one.

ARE YOU GOING TO THE GAME TONIGHT?

Every loyal student of C. V. S. N. S. who can possibly be there should go to the Millersville basketball game in the Edison Jr. High School gym at Harrisburg tonight. The team is going to put up a hard fight to win. Let's all do our share.

Concert Pleases Music Lovers

FIRST ENTERTAINMENT FOR ORCHESTRA

Saturday evening, March seventeenth, marked the initial appearance of the C. V. S. N. S. Symphony Orchestra.

A special attraction at this recital was the presence of Mr. Carl Peduzzi, an accomplished Saxophonist of Gettysburg College, formerly a student in Mt. Union High School where he began his music under the direction of Prof. Slyter. Mr. Peduzzi and Prof. Slyter delighted the audience with several duets, Prof. Slyter playing the trombone.

Another particularly fine number on this program was a violin solo by Miss Miriam Aurandt who played "Ferns and Flowers."

A trombone quartet by Prof. Slyter, Clarence Bernicker '24, Jesse Snyder '23, and Kenneth Reisinger '24 was enthusiastically received.

Among the selections played by the orchestra were "Manoa Overture," "La Rose," "Barcarolle," "Bridal Roses," and "Starlight."

At the close of the recital the orchestra played the Alma Mater followed by the exit march. The audience was so pleased with the music that they sat still until the orchestra stopped playing.

Owing to the fact that the work was new to the majority of those who participated, much credit is due both to Prof. Slyter and to the students for the work accomplished in so short a time.

GIRLS' STUDENT COUNCIL HAS A BUSY SESSION

The fact that the girls and the boys of the school are breaking the Sunday afternoon privilege was the main discussion at the Girls' Student Council Monday evening. Definite action was taken in regard to the punishment of one of the girls who committed a grave offense against this regulation of the school.

A new rule was made concerning the visiting of the restaurants any time on Sunday. Should any girl do this she is to lose her Sunday afternoon privilege for four consecutive Sundays.

Some girls of the school have been entirely too noisy during the quiet liberty periods on Saturday and Sunday. As a result a number of girls lost their privilege of visiting during these periods for an indefinite length of time.

A special Student Council Meeting was called Wednesday evening. This meeting was called to consider the fact that a number of girls and boys of the school had broken the well known Sunday afternoon regulation. Definite action was taken in regard to these cases.

Ralph Heiges '23 spoke at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday evening on the subject, "Initiative." He brought out the reasons for showing initiative. Although he called an open discussion no one responded.

SHIPPENSBURG TO BATTLE FOR TITLE

TOSSERS FACE MILLERSVILLE AT HARRISBURG TONIGHT

Shippensburg has once more shown that she is able to rise to an emergency. The basketball uniforms, which had been packed away, the Varsity, who had broken training, and all that is connected with the playing of the court game, have been rejuvenated and are once more in readiness for a big game. Shippensburg has accepted the challenge of Millersville to play off the existing tie for the championship of the Southeastern Division of the Normal School League.

The game will be played on the Edison Junior High court this evening at eight o'clock. Miller and Tiggert, two officials from the vicinity of Harrisburg will in all probability handle the game. One or both of them may act in this capacity.

These arrangements were completed at Harrisburg yesterday by Bursars Symons and Lackhove of Millersville and Shippensburg respectively. Last Tuesday a letter was received from Millersville stating the challenge. Prof. Heiges immediately called the team together and asked them what they wanted to do. Their answer was an emphatic "Accept."

Prof. Grove in the absence of coach Sharadin then took charge of things and called a practice for Tuesday evening. The fellows, both second team and varsity heartily responded to this call, with the result that a hard practice was held Tuesday evening. Practices were also held Wednesday and Thursday, so that at this time the team is, perhaps, in better condition than at the end of the season, when Grba was out of the lineup entirely and some of the other members of the team were not in the best of condition.

Aside from this the team has observed rigid training throughout the week. Condiments, etc. have been cut out of the training table menu, and every night at ten o'clock the fellows retire.

All this has served to get what, acting-coach Grove terms "just the right combinations" in condition to revenge their defeat of two weeks ago. It has served to put the team in a fighting spirit, yet has not created a spirit of over-confidence.

Many of the students who go home by way of Harrisburg will be on hand to witness the game, as well as quite a few who are going a great distance out of their way to get there. Many alumnae in the immediate vicinity of Harrisburg will be on hand to cheer for their Alma Mater. In all we have already had the assurance of a large delegation of Red and Blue rooters.

Eight men, Hays, Craig, Smith, Grba, Sterner, Heiges, Jones, and Wert, will appear on the floor for Shippensburg. Prof. Grove has announced that in all probability the game will start with Hays and Craig at forward, Sterner at center, and Heiges and Grba at guard. Grba is expected to stop the Millersville "big boy," Keener. The second combination will doubtless put Heiges with Craig at forward and Jones in Heiges' place at guard. Smith is handy to be used as an extra forward and Wert as a guard.

GIRLS' CHORAL CLUB SINGS AT CHAPEL

Prof. Slyter had charge of the special chapel services Thursday. Miss Eleanor Heiges '23 sang "The Psalms" Faure, and Miss Mina Ruth '23 sang "Glorious Morn."

The girls' Choral Club sang two selections, "Alleluia," Brouder and "Hosanna," Granier.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE REFLECTOR WILL APPEAR APRIL 6

Owing to the fact that the Easter vacation begins today there will be no "Campus Reflector" issue next week. The next issue will appear on April sixth. The "Campus Reflector" wishes you all a most joyous and happy Easter.

C. V. S. N. S. Honors St. Patrick At Dinner

PRIZES AWARDED PRETTIEST TABLES—MISS HEEFNER SINGS

St. Patrick's day was well celebrated in the dining room Saturday. Every table was appropriately decorated, the one having the best decorations for the least cost was to receive first prize, a cake, and the second best honorable mention. Miss Wright's table was awarded the cake. Miss McWilliams' table received honorable mention. The judges were Mrs. Lehman and Prof. and Mrs. D. O. Slyter.

Some of the tables were very elaborately decorated while others were very home-like and simple in appearance. Miss Wright's table had a center bouquet of pussy-willows in a green vase. Place cards, candle sticks, and favors were decorated with shamrocks. Miss McWilliams' table was decorated throughout with shamrocks. From the four corners of the table wires were erected in a semi-circle. Numberless little shamrock leaves were strung on these wires. A small farm yard in the shape of a shamrock leaf was the center ornament. This was covered with green moss and ferns. Small animals were apparently grazing in this yard.

An orchestra in charge of Karl Blanch '23 played Irish music throughout the dinner. Prof. D. O. Slyter, Miss Florence Davis '23, Miss Miriam Aurandt '23, Miss Beula Neubaum '23, were the members of the orchestra. Miss Catherine Heefner '23 made the idea of Ireland even more real by appearing in the native Irish costume and singing "Top O' The Mornin'"—Mann-Zucca and "My Wild Irish Rose"—Alcott.

The menu was:
Chicken stew Irish potatoes
Peas Olives
Parker house rolls
Lettuce salad
Ice cream Shamrock cakes
Coffee

INTERESTING WORK FOR ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB

The Arts and Crafts Club continues to hold very profitable and enjoyable meetings. On an average of about twenty-five girls meet in the art room to pursue the activities of this club, regularly each Tuesday evening after dinner until the study bell rings.

The members have many interesting projects to show as a result of their time spent in this work. Some time ago, crepe rope was used in their projects. At present the girls are working on beads made of modeling clay. The beads are shaped, painted and artistically decorated.

The work of this organization is under the capable supervision of Miss Cox and Miss Huber of the art department.

This surely has been a busy week for the Student Council and the Men's Association.

Sentiments of campus patrons: Two is a bliss, but three is a blister.

CLASSICAL PLAY IN PHILO SOCIETY

WARREN BURKE PLAYS LEADING ROLE

The big "hit" on Philo's program last Friday evening was a play entitled "The Hour Glass." This was a story of a philosopher who had come to a certain country and had turned all the people against God. One day an angel came to his door and told him that he had just one hour to live but that his sins would be pardoned if he could find one person who believed in God. He tried in vain to convert his pupils and his wife but he was not able to succeed. Just before his death he found a man, whom everybody thought was a fool, who believed in God. Warren Burk '25 played the part of the philosopher to perfection. The other leading parts were filled by Miss Ruth Keadle '24 and Walker Nelson '23.

The Glee Club sang two numbers by Irish composers, "Believe Me But All Those Ehdearing Young Charms" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Miss Shellen Tarrell '23 played a piano solo.

Miss Jean Ferguson '23 presented an Irish jig which was well received by the society. The costumes as well as the dance were truly Irish.

Miss Alma Jones '23 gave an essay on Irish literature which showed much careful preparation. Miss Emma Mitchell '24 recited "Finnegan on Flannigan."

The Review was edited by Miss Elmyra Richter '23.

The visiting teacher was Prof. Levi Gilbert. His talk was full of interesting Irish stories and jokes.

There were a great many visitors from Normal in the audience.

BASKETBALL FARCE AMUSES STUDENTS

CUT-UPS PLAY POWDER PUFFS

The masquerade basketball game last Friday night marked one of the season's most sensational affairs of the school.

Immediately after the ringing of the bell at nine o'clock, a grand rush was made and the members of both societies surged through the open door of the gym to secure a "box seat." Many strangers were also pushed through the doors to witness this game of mystery. After the throng assembled, it impatiently waited for about ten minutes before any signs of the game appeared. This delay was doubtless due to the fact that the teams were forced to assist each other greatly in donning their extraordinary makeups. However, psychologically speaking it produced its effect of increasing the suspense.

At the blowing of a shrill whistle, all faces were turned to one spot on the floor. From one of the side doors was issuing a string of men clad in bathrobes, and carrying band instruments. No one expected to see the band, although the usual sight in the gallery, "Reserved for the Band" was missing. Following the band was the line up in a motley array of hues. One grand shriek from the tense audience proved to them that they were not a failure. Attired in bloomers, middies, ties, and other feminine ideas of dress such as head bands, ribbons etc. the teams marched up and down the floor in parade-like fashion.

The grand march was ended by a second blow of the whistle, and the teams went to their respective baskets. Many grotesque shots and feeble attempts were made to put the balls in, but to no avail. Only after the eighth shot did Ralph Heiges '23 finally succeed in making a basket.

ATTENDANCE AT THE LITERARY SOCIETIES

The announcement by Dr. Lehman in Chapel last Tuesday morning that the rule requiring that visitors to both literary societies must secure permits from the visiting teacher would be enforced, has a particular significance. So far this year nothing had been said about members of Philo visiting Normal society or vice versa for there was apparently no need for it. During the last month, however, since the societies have been alternating in the use of the Training School Assembly Hall and the auditorium, both societies have noticed that there has been a very poor attendance at the meeting held in the Training School, while the society meeting in the auditorium noted a corresponding increase in its audience.

Quite a number of theories have been advanced regarding the cause of this. One of the most reasonable of them is that the students are attending the society meeting in the auditorium because the program generally features a play and other special attractions, while the program of the society that meets in the Training School usually has a debate for the principal number. We understand that debates are not so popular as they might be—hence, the result.

Dr. Lehman stated that he and the Principals of the other Normal Schools of Pennsylvania had come to the conclusion at one of their meetings recently that the majority of the students in their respective institutions do not care for things that are really worth while, but on the other hand are seeking only their own personal enjoyment. We do not believe that this statement fits every case, but it is perfectly obvious that it has some foundation. When such a large number of the members of one of the literary societies desert their society to attend the other one as they did last Friday night, there is certainly something wrong. It would not be fair to censure everyone who visited last week for we know of a number of instances where persons had visited the other society for the first time this year. Yet there is not such an excuse for everyone.

It is definitely known that members of both Philo and Normal societies have handed their names to the doorkeeper of their society so that they would get credit for attendance and then went to the meeting of the other society. This surely is not very honorable conduct for any C. V. S. N. S. student. The officers of both societies who have charge of the roll should be very careful in the future to see that the records are accurately kept. It is the belief of many that the attendance records of both societies are not correct. That the rolls are not accurate was amply demonstrated several weeks ago when the authorities met to determine how the permanent senior class officers should be apportioned. It is evident that there is need for reform here.

The literary societies at this institution have always held a very prominent place among the activities of the school, and we can readily understand the grave concern with which the faculty views the present tendency on the part of many students to neglect the work of these organizations. We hold to the belief that student opinion supports the faculty in its endeavor to perpetuate these venerable institutions, and that C. V. S. N. S. men and women will show their loyalty by aiding them in every possible way.

GIRLS PREPARING FOR INTERCLASS BASEBALL

The girls of the school are showing much interest and enthusiasm in the baseball season. Many of the girls are doing their best in the tryouts to win positions on their class teams.

Practice for the Juniors was held Monday night; for underclassmen, Tuesday night; for Seniors Thursday night.

The girls are very eager to begin practice out of doors.

CUMBERLAND WORK FINISHED

Volume to Appear May 15

All the material for the completion of the year book will soon be in the hands of the printer. This will enable this edition of the Cumberland to be out by May fifteenth.

The price of the Cumberland, will be seven dollars to Seniors and three dollars and a half to all others. Promptness in payment and in getting material in has helped to make this price possible.

The reason some people go to class is to hear the teacher call the roll so they won't forget their names.

STUDENTS DISCUSS "SIN" AT Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Miss Aleta Hatch '23 led the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held in the court of the girls' dormitory last Sunday evening. The topic for the evening was "Sin," with the Palm Sunday story used as a scripture lesson.

Different phases of the subject were taken up by Miss Reba Shue '24 who discussed "Temptations of Youth," Miss Miriam Aurandt '23, "Man's Conscience of Sin," and Miss Betty Hall '23, "Christ as the Power to help man in overcoming Sin."

A violin solo was played by Miss Dorothy Weaver '24. At the close of the meeting, the girls sang their favorite song, "Follow the Glean" which was brought by the Cabinet members from Eaglesmere last summer.

REV. LINDSAY ADDRESSES PRAYER MEETING

Rev. J. D. Lindsay gave a splendid discussion in Prayer Meeting last Wednesday evening, entitled "Happiness" and "How it May be Obtained." The text was taken from the tenth chapter of John, "I am come that they might have Life and that they might have it more abundantly."

He set forth the idea that happiness may be obtained by creating friendships, by doing useful work, by sharing experiences with others, and by having worthy interests. The fundamentals of happiness are self-sacrifice, self-interest, and self-surrender. The sermon was ended with the thought that the individual will have to choose for himself whether or not he desires happiness. If he wishes to obtain it, he must accomplish the ends required to obtain happiness.

Those who did not attend the Prayer Meeting services missed something well worth their while.

PEOPLE IN TOWER CAUSE MUCH ARGUMENT

Wondering, puzzled, upturned faces now and then turned a covert glance at the tower, Wednesday evening during campus period. Heated arguments were held over what was seen as a result of these glances. Some contended that it was a member of the faculty with a pair of binoculars; others claimed it was some fellow who couldn't get a girl, and wanted to see what was happening on the campus; a few seemed to think that the trespassers were girls in this same predicament; while a still different class held out that they were girls who wanted to be on the campus but were afraid that if they went on they would be campused or so-called.

As to just who it was, no decision was made. The argument was continued until dusk no longer allowed a sight of the tower. At this time the debaters turned away with a shrug of the shoulders and started toward the furthest edge of the campus, but the campus bell rang, and they were all called in, very much mystified.

Now curiosity is, at times, an awful thing, and it may save considerable worry if the person, or persons who were in the tower Wednesday evening would post their name, or names, on the bulletin board, in full sight of all.

Everyone makes mistakes occasionally,—that is why erasers were put on lead pencils.

REFLECTIONS

VIRGINIA RANCK '23

"BOOTS" SHULER '24

Who is "Goofey," fellows?

The debaters at Normal last week were very thoughtful. One speaker even took the "strikes" into consideration.

The Seniors are still talking about how busy they are although three of the Faculty have not been meeting their classes.

A young man was heard to remark as he came across the campus, "The Powers that be furnished the moonlight, if the Faculty would let me have the girl, they could leave the rest to me."

Did you ever hear that song—"Am' a little bit more?"

Advice to all concerned: When the orchestra plays the Alma Mater it is time to go. The march then played is the exit march.

Will the gold fish that are on the boys' veranda on Sunday balance or unbalance the balanced aquarium in the fountain?

The book agents have gone. The girls have pencils, blotters, books, but no one to kid.

Girls, have you met "Snookie"?

The Faculty fears that the Seniors who taught the first semester will demand that they be allowed to teach again now that William Mazingo has left school.

Notice to the girls: Mr. Peduzzi is coming to the next guest dance.

In olden times the English knights spent their time in overcoming their opponents. Now we spend our nights in "Reflections."

We give new tales for old. Address "Reflection column."

Question: Is the ball game Friday night a social affair? If so, will the "strikes" be over in time for the last trains?

NEW PLANS FOR GIRLS' FIELD MEET

The success of the girls' field meet this year will depend on every girl who takes physical education. Every girl's record for running, jumping, basket-ball throw for distance, is going to be taken and the sum total divided by the number of girls in the class. This will determine the final score. The idea is to have each girl do all in her power to make her class the leading class in athletics.

These records will be taken during the regular gym class. The girls who make the highest score will compose a team. These teams will compete in public on the day of the field meet. However this will not add nor detract from the class score.

The physical education teachers have devised this plan to give every girl a chance in athletics. Heretofore, many girls have been left out and athletics have become a specialty for a few. This new plan was devised to break up this old idea.

Points for the G. A. A. will not be given this year for taking part in the field meet. It is thought that points might be given to the girls who make the highest records.

The field meet will not take place for at least five or six weeks. The events will be as follows: competitive stunts by the four classes, fifty and one-hundred yard dashes, four man relay, standing broad jump, running broad jump, running high jump, and a basket-ball over head throw for distance.

Prof. J. S. Heiges will be a judge at the debate between Harrisburg Tech and Reading High School this Friday afternoon in Harrisburg.

MISTAKES AND COMEBACKS

When the plumber makes a mistake he charges twice for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When a carpenter makes a mistake it's just what he expected.

When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake it becomes a law of the land.

When a teacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.

But when an editor makes a mistake—good night!

POEM

This is the day of all the year I "get" the friends I hold most dear. I hope you kindly get the joke, And to your friends pass on the smoke.

For those who care it is a shame, If I'm a jester—well, I'm not to blame! I'm always game for the witty and wise, And those who are late or early to rise.

I'm a popular chap of some renown, I get a laugh, a smile, or a frown, From some of the very best folks in town.

So sharpen your wits and keep them quite keen, Or you surely will have an attack of the spleen.

For the boys at school I am the goat. To ride on the back of the teacher's coat.

To send in haste I am the fool, They simply call me APRIL FOOL!

Have YOU subscribed for the REFLECTOR or do you read your roommate's?

For professionals in the line of preparation apply to the girls of Fourth Floor Main.

The girls will bring their dolls back after Easter so they can amuse themselves while the boys play marbles.

The chief topic of discussion while we are writing this is, "How long is my 'Social' going to be."

ELEVEN GIRL SCOUTS AWARDED TENDERFOOT PINS

Eleven girl Scouts who passed the Tenderfoot test were regularly enrolled at the meeting of the troop held in the gymnasium last Saturday morning. The enrollment ceremony in charge of Miss McKee, the director from Harrisburg, was very solemn and impressive. Miss McKee spoke a few personal words to each of the eleven girls and after the pledges had been repeated each girl was awarded her scout pin.

After the enrollment ceremony the regular scout meeting was held. Miss McKee gave a helpful talk on how to enroll girls as regular scouts. Miss Ferguson, the Harrisburg Scout Captain who has had charge of the work of this troop plans to take the girls on an overnight hike after the Easter vacation. The teachers who have been helping in this work will accompany the girls.

The scouts who were awarded their tenderfoot pins are: Pauline Stiles, Bertha Keemer, Blanch Straley, Margaret Sanders, Pearl Boyer, Pearl Whitmer, Helen Andrews, Cassandra Flaherty, Mary Gordon, Mary Cross and Peggy Lehman.

This marks the end of the course, and those who successfully met the requirements will go on with this work by taking charge of Scout work in the Training School.

Just a little advice from the Reflector:—Don't let your Easter vacation reflect too much upon you after you come back.

"I knead thee every hour" sang the God-fearing baker as he mixed another batch of dough.—Froth.

COUNTY SCHOOL MEN VISIT TRAINING SCHOOL

Willis R. Skillman, Supervisor of Vocational Education in Cumberland County, County Superintendent Ralph Jacoby, and Assistant County Superintendent, William Rife, visited the training school on Thursday, March 15.

The pupils of the intermediate and junior high school departments met in assembly hall, where they were shown excellent lantern slides dealing with the junior agricultural project work. The pictures of two training school boys were thrown on the screen, showing one boy surrounded by ducks and the other by chickens. These pictures were greeted by appreciative applause on the part of the audience.

Mr. Skillman explained the junior project work to the children, and urged as many as possible to undertake a project for the coming season. He stated that the children of Cumberland County have made more than $8000 during the past year from these projects.

Following the talk by the Vocational Supervisor, came the formal presentation of the certificates of award to the seven children who had successfully completed a project last season.

Nellie Warren, Gladys Rockwell, Hazel Miller, and John Hostetter each received a certificate for a chicken project. John Warren received one for a duck project and Elizabeth Easterbrook and Lillian Eshleman received theirs for garden projects.

During the remainder of the day, Mr. Skillman succeeded in getting fifteen boys and girls to sign up for a variety of projects, and the interest which the young people took in deciding upon their ventures was very gratifying.

DAY STUDENT GIRLS ENJOY ST. PATRICK'S DAY FEED

The Day Student Girls had a "feed" in their lunch room last Friday at noon. The luncheon was decorated in green as befits a St. Patrick's Day celebration.

Long before the 12:15 bell rang, the corridor was filled with girls impatient to partake of the delicious food waiting just inside of the door. At last all was ready and the girls trooped through to be served to sandwiches, home-made cake, candy, bananas and lemonade. Good eats and good fun reigned supreme until the "eats" were gone and there had been so much fun that it was impossible to have any more. The patronesses were, Miss Quigley, Miss Parks, Miss McCreary, and Miss Wright of the faculty.

LETTER WRITTEN BY FIFTH GRADE TO CHILDREN OF HAWAII

The following is one of a number of letters that are being mailed to foreign units by the various Red Cross organizations of The Training School:

State Normal Training School, Shippensburg, Pa., March 14, 1923.

Hakalan School, Hawaii.

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that we write to you about our school.

We belong to the fifth grade of the Training School, and are all members of the "Junior Red Cross." In our grade there are fourteen girls and twelve boys. We come to school at 8:15 in the morning but we do not begin to study till 8:30. When the 8:30 bell rings, we begin our work. In the morning we have four classes and we have different teachers for each class. At 9:15 the first period is over. The door to our room is open and one of the teachers plays "The Star Spangled Banner." While this is being played we all stand at attention looking at the flag. We then repeat the pledge to our flag, which is,—"I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all." Then another teacher comes in and we have the Devotional Exercises.

The noon hour begins at 12:15 and ends at 1:15, after which time we have three classes in the afternoon and go home at 3:15. Besides our regular studies, we learn to play games in the gymnasium.

Nearly all of our class is from the country. Sometimes it snows during the months of December, January, and February, then it is very hard for us to get to school.

Our town has a population of 5,000 people. There are twelve churches, a public school building, High School and the Pennsylvania railroad runs by our school where we can see it very plainly from our windows.

Do you celebrate any holidays? On our holidays, we sometimes have exercises, stories, or play games. This year we celebrated Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, Hallowe'en, Columbus Day, Thanksgiving, Valentine Day, and Christmas.

We are going to tell you about Christmas. On the Wednesday before Christmas we all met in the Assembly Hall and sang Christmas Carols, such as "Silent Night," and had a "Yule Log." We also had a large Christmas tree. A Christmas tree is an ever-green tree such as a pine, cedar, or hemlock. This tree was trimmed with tinsel, glass balls, red and green bells, icicles, and stars.

All the grades in the Training School took part in the play. The name of the play was "Christmas in Merry England." The scene was the King's court. Some of the boys and girls danced for the Queen and King.

We hope that you will be glad to hear from us. We thank you very kindly for your booklet on "The Sugar Cane Plantation." In return we are preparing a booklet, which we will send to you later. We shall be glad to hear from you.

Your Friends,
The Fifth Grade,
Shippensburg Normal
Training School.

WILL CLEAN BUILDINGS DURING EASTER RECESS

Spring fever, to be sure! The latest news flashes from headquarters (Dr. Lehman's office) informs that a staff of competent cleaners will endeavor to rid the school of the terrible disease while we are home for Spring vacation acquiring a bigger dose of the Fever. Yes, the cleaners are going to try their hardest to erase all traces of the germs from the Campus. How did you guess it? Of course this is the time for the annual spring house cleaning. All the rooms in both dorms, as well as the halls in the buildings, will receive a thorough renovation during our absence from school.

MEASURE YOURSELF BY THIS FOURFOLD STANDARD

The Boys' Religious Committee of the Men's Association has secured the following Fourfold Standard Score Card through the courtesy of the Young People's Division of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association. They are using this means to supply the student body with individual copies.

This score card has been made from the thirty years of Christ's Life which is recorded in Luke 2: 52; "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and Man."

We are measured by a full rounded character. This is your chance to measure yourself.

MASQUE BASKET BALL PROVOKES LAUGHTER

Such was the characterization of the game, which kept the audience in a continual uproar. Due to the fact that every five minutes "time-out" was called for various causes, the score was a very low one. At the end of the so-called game the teams changed their costumes and played a snappy game. "The Newville Cut Ups" were known as Blacks and the "Oakville Power Puffs," Whites. The Blacks won.

It could have well been said: "Laugh and the crowd laughs with you, frown and you frown alone."

The line-up:

TRAINING SCHOOL CHILDREN DRAMATIZE FAIRY TALE

A very pretty play entitled "The Awakening of Spring" was given by The Training School children in their assembly exercises of March 14. The play was in the form of a review and included children from the first grade to the ninth inclusive. The story was an adaptation of the fairy tale, "The Sleeping Princess," but was made much more interesting by the many lovely dances which were included. As Mother Nature called forth the different seasons, the little folks dressed in appropriate costumes appeared and danced for her. The little folks entered into the spirit of the dances with unconscious grace, and the effect was charming.

Another number worthy of special mention was the sketch given to stress forest conservation. As the small boy with the hatchet approached each tree to cut it down, the tree pleaded for its life by offering sound arguments why it should be allowed to grow. The little boy ended by sparing the trees, and the wood fairy then appeared and commended him for his decision.

The lesson in music appreciation consisted of a violincello number on the Victrola. A picture of a violincello was placed where the children could look at it while listening to the record.

Don't work too hard over Easter vacation.

Remember you have a Campus and Social to serve after Easter vacation.

An honest confession is good for the soul.

STATE OFFICIALS COMMEND "REFLECTOR"

James Herbert Keely, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania State Education Association and Dr. Albert Lindsay Rowland, Director of the State Teachers' Bureau, have sent the following letters to Dr. Lehman, commending the student body upon the excellence of the Campus Reflector. The letters follow:

March 19, 1923.

Doctor Ezra Lehman, Cumberland Valley State Normal School, Shippensburg, Pennsylvania.

My dear Doctor Lehman: Many thanks for your letter of March 17 and a copy of "The Campus Reflector." A hasty examination of the "Reflector" shows that it is put up in good shape and contains a lot of good material. I will make mention of it in the May number of the PENNSYLVANIA SCHOOL JOURNAL and will state that it is the first weekly paper published by the state normal schools in Pennsylvania.

With keen appreciation of your cooperation, I am

Very truly yours,
James Herbert Kelley,
Executive Secretary.

Dr. Ezra Lehman, Principal, State Normal School, Shippensburg, Pennsylvania.

My dear Dr. Lehman, Allow me to thank you for the copy of "The Campus Reflector" enclosed in your letter of March 17. This is, indeed, an interesting departure. I have read it with pleasure and congratulate the school and the student body upon their progressiveness and upon the excellence of the publication. Very sincerely yours,
Albert Lindsay Rowland,
Director, The Teacher Bureau.
