Y. M. AND Y. W. OFFICERS INSTALLED SUNDAY NIGHT

Dr. Lehman Emphasizes the Religious Role in School Life

MISS HEEFNER GIVES SOLO

The installation of the new officers of the respective cabinets of the Y. W. and the Y. M. C. A. was the outstanding part of the program of the joint meeting of those two organizations on Sunday evening.

Dr. Lehman addressed the students. As a challenge to the new officers to take up their work faithfully, he recalled the personal characteristics of several outstanding men and women who have either gone to this school or to other schools with which Dr. Lehman has been connected in the last thirty years. Robert E. Speer, prominent in the religious life of the nation; Edward Hunt, former mayor of Cincinnati; Christie Mathewson, base-ball star; James Hoover, Fannie Cunningham, and Emma Dodd, missionaries, stand out because they have stuck to the right. None of these people excelled in scholarship but all excelled in honesty and in strong will power. In their college days they were tempted by little things as we are today, but they overcame temptation and stood by their principles. In speaking directly to the new cabinet he said their position is not an easy one. The strength of the organization depends upon the strength of the leaders and the co-operation of the members.

The following people were installed in their respective offices: In the Y. W. C. A., President, Miriam Witmyer; Vice President, Ruth Frank; Recording Secretary, Gertrude Griffith; Corresponding Secretary, Mildred Brenneman; Treasurer, Leah Decker, and in the Y. M. C. A., President, Sherrick Gilbert; Vice President, Claude Mellott; Recording Secretary, Wilson Dodd; Corresponding Secretary, Clarence Shuler; Treasurer, Clifford Smith.

The meeting was closed by a vocal solo by Miss Katherine Heefner, entitled "One Sweet Solemn Thought," and a prayer by Prof. Heiges.

FACULTY ENJOYS CHICKEN DINNER AT PINEY MT. INN

The members of the faculty who were free left for Piney Mountain Inn on Monday at 4:30 to partake of a chicken and waffle dinner. All available automobiles were commandeered by the party of thirty-five people in their mad haste to reach the appointed rendezvous. Following the dinner, which was scheduled for 6:30, a short discussion of Racine, his life and works, was given by Doctor Lehman. The rest of the evening was spent in singing and talking. The party returned home about eleven o'clock.

ENROLLMENT FOR SUMMER REACHES HIGH WATER MARK

C. V. S. N. S. faces the busiest summer session in its history. Already the enrollment exceeds the 500 mark, an increase of over 150 and there is every indication that the total enrollment will be between 700 and 800.

Not only is the student body growing but additions are also being made to the faculty. Dr. Morris Wolf of Girard College has been chosen to teach social science and four or five other new members will be chosen within the next week.

REV. FUNK ADDRESSES MID-WEEK PRAYER SERVICE

Reverend Funk of the Orange St. United Brethren Church delivered the address at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting service. The text of his talk was "What think ye of Christ, Whose Son is He?" Professor Harley presided over the meeting.

C. R. KENNEDY AS CARPENTER
IN "THE CHASTENING"

STUDENTS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY MODERN MIRACLE PLAY

Famous Dramatist Will Show Technical Skill

"The Chastening" a modern miracle play in five acts written by Charles Rann Kennedy, author of The Servant in the House, will be presented in the C. V. S. N. S. auditorium Thursday evening, May 17. Charles Rann Kennedy, who is well known as an English dramatist will play the part of the carpenter. Edith Wynn Matthison, one of the most gifted artists of the day will be his wife and Margaret Gage, a young artist of unusual endowment will play as her son. The scene is laid in an open place where three roads meet. The play is original and possesses comedy and humanity.

This play deals with the simple domestic situation. At various stages of its progress it carries the appeals of humor, irony, sentiment, and tragedy. This play never fails to produce a remarkable dramatic effect by its technical skill in acting and by the intellectual comprehension of its plot.

Illuminative of the life of every one of us today, the play appeals to all classes and creeds.

POLICY OUTLINED TO NEW CAMPUS REFLECTOR STAFF

At the regular staff meeting last Tuesday morning the first Campus Reflector staff officially gave over its duties to the recently selected staff. John Brougner '23, the retiring editor-in-chief outlined the new organization of the work and explained the duties of each office. The re-organization distributes the work more evenly among the members by creating editors for each phase of the work who shall be definitely responsible for material in their field. Mr. Brougner advised the new staff not to shirk from work but to be willing to sacrifice their personal interest to the good of the paper. He said that the future success of the paper rested upon each person's attitude toward suggestions from other members.

John Seal '24, the new editor-in-chief emphasized Mr. Brougner's remarks about co-operation and outlined the future policy of the paper. The paper will continue to uphold the standards it has attained. By past endeavor it now equals the average college publication. THE CAMPUS REFLECTOR ranks high among Normal School papers because it is primarily a newspaper. The paper will continue to be a newspaper and not become a literary magazine. Its success now depends upon the personal effort of each editor and reporter.

At the close of the meeting Peggy Lehman was appointed news editor for this week's edition of the paper.

PHILO REUNION PROGRAM MEETS WITH HUGE SUCCESS

Pres. Roy Burkhart '17 Delivers Able Address

UNIQUE PLAY SCORES HIT

The Philomathean Literary Society celebrated its forty-seventh annual Reunion Friday evening, May 4, 1923. A splendid program was presented to a large audience composed of the student body, many returned alumni, and interested people from town.

"The Van Who Married a Dumb Wife" showed some splendid acting. This play was written by Anatole France in imitation of the Mediaeval Comedies which flourished before Shakespeare's time. Wallis McKendree '25 as the judge and Eliza Lee Russell '25 as his wife were ably supported by Misses Margaret Ramey '23 and Nina Ruth '23, also Messrs Charles Pyle '25, Walker Nelson '23, Frank Thornton '23, John Mountz '23, Hern Diller '23 and Harry Rice '25.

In giving the president's address, Mr. Roy Burkhart '17 recalled various incidents to the minds of the alumni and congratulated the student body upon preparing to enter the teaching field. He challenged the audience to greater service by suggesting three maxims. "If any man would be successful, let him know himself, control himself and forget himself, in consideration of others."

John Seal '24 was orator for this occasion. In his oration "Wake Up Democracy" he spoke about the influence and help of an established democratic power over unsettled political disturbances in many countries. The other literary number was a recitation by Miss Miriam Embick '24. Miss Embick with true merit portrayed the scene of Marcus' plea to Mercia from Barrett's book, "The Sign of the Cross." The Glee Club sang two delightful numbers in opening the program. "The Violet and the Bee" and "A Pickaninny Lullaby." Miss Mildred Shambaugh sang Kreisler's "Cradle Song of 1915" which was well received by the audience. Her second number was "Song of Spring" by Aley Speaks. The audience was agreeably surprised by a special number in the form of a solo by Miss Katherine Heefner '23. A male quartette and an instrumental quintet were the other musical items.

STUDENTS TO SEE SCREEN VERSION OF POPULAR POEM

"Over the Hill," the movie which will be shown in the chapel Saturday evening at seven o'clock, is perhaps the most popular and widely known of those shown during the school year. The plot is based on the poem "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse." It is a thrilling tale of mother love and mother sacrifice, repaid at first in bitterness because of the ingratitude of her children, later in happiness when true love and devotion are showered upon her by a seemingly disreputable son.

Prof. Grove, who is in charge of Saturday night's entertainment, expects to procure as the comedy either "I Do" or "Among Those Present." Both of these films owe their success to Harold Lloyd, a favorite of most of the students. There will be an educational film. Judging from those which have been shown before, this will be an important part of the program.

Centuries hence the time in which we live will be remembered as the period when automobiles began to contribute their economic service to mankind and when men first began to fly.

ULSH TALLIES WINNING RUN

Coach Sharadin's diamond warriors kept up their winning streak by defeating the fast aggregation from West Chester here last Saturday by a score of 7 to 6. Both pitchers were hit hard but Bush struck out 16 and Shull 14.

West Chester registered one run in the initial inning while Bailey and McDermitt scored for the Red and Blue thus putting Shippensburg in the lead from the start. The second inning was uneventful for both sides but Bailey opened the third with a hot grounder through second and stole second. McDermitt clubbed out his second two-bagger of the game scoring Bailey. Captain Hays singled advancing Bailey to third and Grba sent a neat one-bagger into deep left scoring McDermitt and Hays. West Chester came back strong in the fourth tallying three times while the Red and Blue lads were unable to score.

Smith and Catron opened the fifth with hits for the opponents and Bush smashed out a triple sending his buddies romping home. This gave the visitors a one run lead and the Chester County outfit did not permit our lads to score until the eighth when the game was won on singles by Strike, Ulsch, and Shull, coupled with a wild pitch by Bush. In this inning Orner beat out a bunt to first. Strike grounded forcing Orner at second. Strike stole second and Ulsch batting for Kelly singled advancing Strike to third. Ulsch stole second. Shull singled sending Strike home and advancing Ulsch to third. Bush made a wild pitch and Ulsch came in scoring the winning run.

The game which was scheduled for Wednesday afternoon with the Chambersburg "Maroons" was cancelled on account of adverse weather conditions.

THE NEW STAFF

The debut of the new staff of the Campus Reflector into recognized journalistic circles is made with this issue. In accordance with the newly initiated custom, the annual election has taken place and a new group has been selected to manage and to publish the school paper which has so successfully weathered the first semester of its existence. A sad note is found in this announcement for it is necessary to bid farewell to the out-going staff which has served the school and the student body in such a capable manner. We add to the Campus Reflector's Honor Roll the names of the retiring Seniors who we think are especially worthy of mention: John F. Brougner, Karl H. Blanch, Miss Lena V. Beale, Ralph Heiges, Mitchell Dreese, and Edward P. Bowman. These men and women have done their utmost to serve their Alma Mater and they consider no task too arduous to perform for the honor and fame of Shippensburg Normal. An unwavering devotion has built for them a monument of which anyone might well be proud. We wish them the good fortune that is rightfully theirs and may they add to the glory of the school and its paper.

At this time the new staff stands at the threshold of the unknown, a year that in the future may bring success or failure. No usual task faces the new staff, for it must continue the praise-worthy work of its predecessors. The memory of what they who have gone before have accomplished will act as a powerful incentive to overlook nothing that will aid this institution and its students. Especially in this one particular are the new journalists fortunate in that they have been left an inheritance which will spur them on to new endeavors and to greater things.

The semester that has just passed will be remembered as the successful conclusion of an experiment. The object of the experiment was to publish weekly and to maintain a five column sheet for the balance of the year. So successful has this experiment proved that it was not only continued through the remaining weeks of the semester, but it was made a permanent institution in this school.

The new staff keenly feels its responsibility and hereby pledges itself to do all in its power to carry on the work of the retiring board. The whole-hearted co-operation of the student body is needed and if it enjoys the support that has characterized the past, the new staff may cross the threshold with a firm step and start its existence with the words, "for a bigger and better C. V. S. N. S."

MOTHER'S DAY

How much more does each one of us appreciate mother, now that we are away from her? How often does the thought come to every student here of the countless times he could have told her of his love and appreciation and didn't? Sunday is the day set aside for mothers all over the United States. On that day every son and daughter should at least take some time to send his or her mother some token of his or her affection for her. No one knows what it might mean to her. However, don't let your energy flag after Sunday but make everyday a Mother's Day. She has spent more hours working for your welfare than you dream of so don't begrudge the few minutes you spend in writing letters to the best friend you have—you'll never regret them. Remember thoughtfulness costs you nothing and yet it is priceless to the one to whom it is shown.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

AT PHILO TONIGHT

The boys' chorus will appear for the first time in Philo tonight under the direction of John Harris '24. Selections by the Glee Club and a vocal solo by Miss Mary Stoner '23 will constitute the vocal music of the program. Miss Nellie Lindemuth '23 and Miss Mary Wierman '23 will play a piano duet, "O Belle Nuit" from the "Tales of Hoffman."

A book review by Miss Rose Umbrell '23 and Topics of the Day, by Miss Grace Trimmer '23, will form the literary part of the program.

ORCHESTRA TO APPEAR

The question, "Resolved, that the State of Pennsylvania should adopt the daylight saving plan," will be debated at Normal this evening. Miss Zoila Gardener '23 and Miss Pearl Wiltmer '23 will uphold the affirmative side while Francis Firth '23 and Rodgers Jones '23 will defend the negative.

The musical numbers will consist of music by the Glee Club, a male quartet, Clarence Shuler '24 chairman, and an orchestra in charge of Miss Mary Good '23.

The individual numbers will be a discussion by Edwin Craig '24, and a reading by Miss Margaret Sanders '23. Chalmer Sell '24 will have charge of an Impromptu class. The Gazette will be in charge of Miss Rose McCahan '23.

MANY LASSIES PARTICI-

PATE IN POPULAR SPORT

The official opening of the tennis season, Tuesday morning, found many devotees ready to participate in the first game. Of the one hundred and twenty-five girls signed up for the tennis squad, seventy are unfamiliar with the sport and will be taught by the experienced players. The courts will be used by the girls on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week, from 6:00 to 8:15 A. M. It is thought that a third morning may be added but this has not yet been definitely decided upon.

The courts are gradually being completed, but several rains are needed before the ground will be sufficiently packed to keep them in first class condition. Four new courts are to be added to the four which are already in use; these will be finished in a few days.

Pearls have been grown to order in oysters by the insertion into the shell of a bit of nacre to serve as a nucleus around which the mollusc proceeds to deposit layers of pearl forming material.

REFLECTIONS

"BOOTS" SHULER '24

Yes, my children have no fear,
T'is the Third Floor Marauders that you hear.

A thud and a crash
Through the hall they dash
In quest of a typewriter, dear.

A young man boarding in room 115.
Before a faculty meeting was seen.
He gave an excuse
They turned him loose,
All caused by a typewriter, mean.

Philo Reunion
Two days in length,
Showed much preparation
And the Committees' strength.

The program was fine,
Each number O. K.
To do this required
Work, night and day.

New faces were seen
In each corner and nook,
Showing forth brightly
A friendly look.

The following day
West Chester arrived,
And left that evening
More dead than alive.

A few points we showed them
In the National Sport,
And their team went home
One run short.

From seven till ten
They say 'twas a dance,
But I longed for a jersey
And football pants.

I hit the piano
Then hit the wall,
Although time out
We were unable to call.

The dance proceeded
With tackle and clip,
When our sturdy left end
Dislocated a hip.

With a five yard penalty
We began anew,
We tried for the goal
But failed, T'is true.

We enjoyed it all
No room to complain,
But wish and wish
Its return in vain.

"THE BRAVEST BATTLE"

The bravest battle that was ever fought,
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not;

'Twas fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with cannon, or battle-shot,

With sword or nobler pen;

Nay, not with eloquent word or thought,

From mouths of wonderful men.

But deep in a walled-up woman's heart

Of woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently bore her part
Lo! there is the battlefield!

No marshaling troop, no bivouac song,
No banners to gleam and wave!
But oh! these battles they last so long
From babyhood to the grave!

Yet faithful, still as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town,
Fights on, and on, in the endless wars,
Then silent, unseen, goes down!

Oh! with banners and battleshot,
And soldier to shout and praise,
I tell you the kingliest victories fought

Are fought in these silent ways!

Oh! spotless woman in a world of shame,
With splendid and silent scorn,
Go back to God as white as you came,
The kingliest warrior born.

Joaquin Miller.

VIRGINIA RANCK '23

Did you ever hear of "home-made sin"? Well that's what the Girls' Choral Society sings worse than.

What about the dance at the Reunion last week? Wasn't that great? And some people go to New York to see the "Follies."

As a place to make mud pies, the ball field is a huge success this week.

The gold fish are not yet in the fountain but two other fish took possession temporarily—one for twenty-five cents and one for a dollar. We call that cruelty to dumb animals.

If this wind holds, girls will make high records in the jumping event in the track meet next week.

Do you know that carefully careless Senior? Well, she applied for a school in her home town. She is sure of getting it. The school director has known her all her life, "but nevertheless as the time draws near she begins to wish that she had applied more than one place."

FACULTY EXPRESSIONS

"Now class, as public school teachers I want you to —"

"And Dr. Lehman—poor dear —"

"And a realizing sense of your responsibility—in the words of the Psalmist of old."

"This counts a quarter of a semester mark. I'd advise you to work up outside of class."

"The lesson for Wednesday the mid week-day of this week, prayer meeting day will be —"

"Attention here! Keep your eyes on my hand! Now —attack."

"There—you knew it all the time."

"Sh-h-h-h-h!"

"By these expressions ye shall know them!"

Don't buy thermometers in the summer; they are lower in winter.

A slight earthquake apparently centered in or near the West Indies, was recorded at the Harvard College seismographic station the other day.

Your "Campus Reflector pledge" is due.

WOMEN ELIMINATED IN

OLYMPIC TRACK EVENTS

The committee for the 1924 Olympic games at Paris has eliminated track and field events for women, who will be restricted to tennis and swimming. This restriction is a disappointment to the women track and field stars who have formerly established enviable records.

A resolution against the use of alcoholic liquors by college men and the discussion of current problems arising in the administration of undergraduate activities featured the second biennial inter-collegiate conference on undergraduate activities held at the university of Pennsylvania last week. Thirty-three of the leading universities and colleges of the East and Middle West were represented by delegates. Student government, athletics, publications, and musical clubs and dramatics were the four major groups into which the conference was divided. Frank discussions of the Honor System, student government, athletics and the varying methods of admission of publications, dramatic clubs, musical organizations and forensic activities occupied most of the time of the conference.

Louisiana College of Alexandria, La., publishes in its weekly, THE WILDCAT, the college honor roll at the end of every six weeks. It is interesting to note in the latest publication that the roll counts an almost even number of men and women, the "score" being 12-13 in favor of the fair sex.

TRAINING SCHOOL OPENS ITS NEW LIBRARY

A crowd of eager and enthusiastic children filled the library room at its opening (Tuesday of this week, each eager to lay hands upon one of the coveted treasures. Six hundred shining new books were in tempting array and a large number are still to be added. They include the entire list of reference books recommended for first purchase by "The School Library Manual for Elementary Schools" and the complete list of Supplementary Reading books and Reference Books suggested in the "Manual and Syllabuses for Elementary Schools," put out by the Department of Public Instruction.

A large number of additional books were added from lists submitted by the different directors and supervisors. The Training School children are indeed fortunate in having access to this splendid collection.

The new library includes interesting and up-to-date books on Science, Civics, Astronomy, Ethics and Manners, Electricity, Chemistry, Minerals, Mythology, Inventions, Vocational Guidance, Mechanics, Agriculture and Gardening, Handicrafts, Home Economics, Hygiene, Fine Arts, Music, Games and Sports, History, Geography, Travel, Botany, and Nature Study, including books on trees, animals, insects, and birds.

For the smaller children there are fairy tales and folk tales, myths and fables to arouse their vivid imagination, and stories of many types to lead them into the enchanted land of make-believe.

The assembly program will now be enriched through a great many new books containing plays and special day programs, music and poetry. The history classes will find on the shelves numerous reference books; while the English classes will revel in a complete stock of the books suggested by the State Department for supplementary reading for the different grades.

Many of the best books of standard fiction for children are included, and it is safe to predict that the library will be a popular resort for the Training School children from this time on.

DR. LEHMAN RECEIVES INTERESTING LETTER

Sibo, Sevanak, Borneo,
March 24, 1923.

Dear Dr. Lehman:

That's real radio stuff you got off in that letter addressed to "My Dear Friend" which I received about a month ago. When I read it I said the old boy is just as full of beans as ever—I can hear him saying it.

A sixty piece orchestra, a choral society and a band. (I almost wrote the names of these in capital letters.) And then there are Heiges, Stewart and Miss Horton still on the job. That sounds good to old fellows hoping to get back some day. (I hope to get around about six years from date.)

337 students at one time! (It's nothing but exclamation points for me.) Where do you put them? There must be some new buildings I have never seen or heard of. I hope you got the 600 all year fellows.

I have joined our local Alumni Association. We have a perfect record—100% of all the Alumni in Borneo belong. Is there any country, state or county that can qual that?

I have now been 24 years in the Far East—4 years in Penang and 20 years in Borneo. We went a long way out but are fast coming back. When we first came we were sometimes five weeks without mail, then it came by a round about way. Now we have direct boats from Singapore every ten days or less. Singapore is five weeks from N. Y. by the mail line and we are one week from Singapore. We started in without a foot of cleared land. Now we have about 20,000 acres under cultivation. We are putting in water works and electric lights. The government has erected a wireless station about 100 yards from our house. I am manager in charge. We often "listen in" on concerts. If you want to call me up, my signal is V-Q-V. How's that for Borneo? When you get your radio we are ready to listen in.

(I almost forgot to say that I would like to send 25 cents for the Herald but don't know how to do it. Perhaps Jere Omwake or Ed Long or some other of my old friends will oblige.)
Sincerely,
J. M. Hoover.

RAIN DELAYS GIRLS' BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The baseball games of the girls' teams scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday had to be cancelled because of the unexpected showers. Up to date the Seniors are in the lead with an unbroken string of victories. Because of the overwhelming victories of the Sophs in basketball, the Seniors are very anxious to be the champions of baseball. The scheduled games, Seniors versus Juniors and Seniors versus underclassmen, will be postponed until next week. Team work is gradually being developed and indications point to a lively season.

TRAINING SCHOOL MAKES PLANS FOR MUSIC WEEK

The Training School will join in the state wide "Music Week" movement, giving daily attention to special musical services and a special program in the regular weekly Assembly period, the leading features of which will be an operetta.

The Assembly program for this week centered about "Girls' Day" and was in harmony with the coming "Mother's Day." This program will be balanced in two weeks by "Boys' Day," when it is hoped that many of the fathers of Training School children will be present.

HONOR SYSTEM TO BE VOTED ON AT LAFAYETTE

Lafayette College is carrying on a campaign for the Honor System, as dealing with classroom work in that institution. The Honor Committee has already drafted a system which will be put before a committee of 31 members of Student Council and class representatives to be voted on. If it passes that body it will then be presented to the student body for its ratification.

The project is causing a great deal of interest and investigation of the Honor System now used in the various colleges. The Princeton plan has been used to a great extent as a model for the Lafayette plan.

EFFECTIVE COLOR SCHEME MAKES GYM ATTRACTIVE

The Philo Orchestra furnished music before and after the program and during the intermission. The auditorium was beautifully decorated in greens. Evergreen trees graced the front of the room. The entrance was made attractive by white pillars trimmed with greens supporting a roof of leaves.

The same elaborate decorating was seen in the gymnasium Saturday evening when the annual Philo dance was held. A color scheme of blue and gold was carried out. The lighting arrangements of alternate blue and gold lights placed at frequent intervals about the sides of the building was very effective. A complete covering of greens through which the blue and gold ceiling lights shone was the outstanding feature. Much credit is due the decorating committee for the splendid work they accomplished.

The receiving line of faculty members and Philo officers assembled at seven o'clock. Dancing in the gymnasium followed immediately. There were many former students and outside guests present besides a large representation of the student body. This dance was not only well attended but greatly enjoyed by those who were present. The Neusbaum Orchestra provided the music for this event.

Some of the students returned to the parlors where they enjoyed games. A new order of things was introduced when it was decided to use card games. The people in the parlors enjoyed this entertainment better than the preceding type of games.

RIDE TO CHAMBERSBURG

The girls' cycle squad under the leadership of Miss Robb has been taking extensive rides over the country. It is unfortunate that only a few have bicycles to enjoy these trips. On their last trip, the girls will ride to Chambersburg and back. Each member of the squad will receive one hundred points from the G. A. A.

UNDEFEATED NINE MEETS
OLD RIVALS TOMORROW

Coach Sharadin's undefeated nine will meet the Millersville Normal Varsity tomorrow at 2:30 at Millersville and the Shepherd College nine here on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Little is known about the Millersville team or the brand of ball it is playing this season. Judging from last year's team, the two teams are nearly equally matched. This game will be one of the most important games of the season. The interest of the students should be aroused to the highest degree because of the coming together of the two old rivals. A victory on Saturday means that the C. V. S. N. S. batsmen have almost clinched the championship of the Southeastern Normal Schools.

This will be the second time Normal meets the Southern nine. Altho the C. V. batsmen handed this team a defeat on April seventh at Shepherds-town by a score of 7 to 5, Coach Sharadin does not expect an easy task in repeating the act on Thursday.

The probable line-ups are as follows:

Shippensburg		Shepherdstown
Bailey	lf	Rider
McDermitt	cf	J. Walker
Hays	c	Robinson
Grba	1b	Reinhart
Rice	ss	Lowe
Orner	3b	House
