IMPORTANT DISCUSSION HELD AT GIRLS' STUDENT COUNCIL

A meeting of the Girls' Student Council was held Monday evening at seven o'clock in Miss Arnold's room.

One of the most important discussions of the meeting related to the observing of study periods in a manner that would denote fewer failures. The floor chairmen were urged to see that the study period regulations were strictly enforced and that they should punish all girls who cooked in their rooms during study period. It was also decided that the floor chairmen should hold monthly meetings of the girls who live on their corridors in order to talk over new rules and to create a better understanding between the girls and the council. It is hoped that this plan will foster a better spirit of co-operation than that shown in the past. The meetings will be held the last Monday of each month.

The council decided that calling from the windows of the girls' dormitory or calling up to boys in the windows of the boys' dormitory is not the ideal conduct for Normal School girls.

GHOSTS OF ALUMNI TO BE SEEN AT PHILO

Just as the strolling players of old England put up their booths in the public square so the "ghosts of the Alumni" will arrange for themselves a barn to enact a pantomime in their society at Philo tonight in the Training School Chapel. It is said that these ghosts of Philo's alumni will show the society some of their old time stunts.

After a number which will make all feel airy, transparent and ghostly, the Society in order to come back to earth will have a debate on the time worn question, Resolved, that the morals of the girls of today are just as good as those of their grandmothers' day. The defendant of the modern girl will be Rebecca Puffenberger '25 and Mildred Yingling '25. Those who are upholding the fact that their grandmothers' morals were superior are, Mildred Kline '25 and Alma Gluck '25.

It is said that no grown-up is too grown-up to listen to a real spooky Hallowe'en story so Lillian Boyer '25 will give to the society the old time favorite "Seein' Things at Night" by Fields.

Several musical numbers will complete the program. The Glee Club will have a mixed quartet, consisting of George Broucher '25, Roy Funk '24, Jean Swope '24 and Mary Halloway '24 who will sing "The Slumber Song."

Postillon D'Armour (Love's Messenger) "Gallop Elegant" by Fr. Behr, will be the piano duet by Eleanor Nes-singer '25, Elizabeth Ghant '24, Evelyn Chubb and Theodora Poor will give a vocal duet.

The Philo Review will be edited by George Broucher '25.

NORMALITES ATTENTION!
FORWARD MARCH TO SOCIETY

The Dramatic Committee of Normal Literary Society will stage a "Puppet Show" or rather a play in the main chapel of C. V. S. N. S. tonight during the Society program. This will be the first play of the year and as the title is a secret, it is certain to be a good one. It will be a big surprise and one of the cleverest features of the season.

The play will not be the only number of importance on the program, for the society will be entertained with music by the Glee Club and special music under the direction of Elizabeth Selfridge '24. Those who know Miss Selfridge need not be informed as to her ability in music. Clermont Smith '24 will play a piano solo.

An oration will be delivered by Harry Gardner '25 on the subject of "Americanization." This is a very appropriate subject of today and well worth hearing.

Last but not least, comes the Gazette. Edwin Harbaugh '24 will have charge of this feature. "Eddie" will no doubt have some interesting facts and good jokes to tell the society.

FACULTY CLUB HOLDS SECOND MEETING OF YEAR

The second meeting of the Faculty Club was held Tuesday evening, October 23, in room 52.

For the past year it has been the custom to arrange the program of the second and fourth meetings so that papers may be read by at least two members of the faculty at each of the meetings. On the other meeting nights the time is given over to the discussion of some phase of literature. The short story will be discussed at length this year.

At Tuesday night's meeting Miss Carrie Belle Parks read a paper entitled, "Why Be a Puritan?" and Mrs. Harriet Wylie Stewart read "History of Pennsylvania." After the reading of the papers the meeting was thrown open for discussion. The members of the club entered into the discussion very freely.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, November 6. The following subjects are to be considered: "Modern Drama—Its Characteristics," and a discussion of "Anna Christie" by Eugene O'Neill. A discussion will also be taken up on "A Bill of Divorcement" by Clemenco Eave.

TIME OF JOINT MEETING CAUSES MISUNDERSTANDING

The failure of the Y. W. program committee to arrange a program for the regular meeting of the girls' association last Sunday evening was due to a misunderstanding concerning the joint Y. W. and Y. M. meeting. This meeting, according to Dr. Heiges is scheduled for the last, not the first Sunday of each month as the girls had supposed.

The service was devoted to the singing of hymns under the leadership of Ruth Wharman '24.

The teachers of Blair County organized the first Alumni Association in the county at Altoona on October 19, 1923.

ALUMNI

J. Allen Altland of York, Pa., visited his two daughters at the Normal School on Sunday. He is a member of the class of '97. Mr. Altland is using his influence in the educational world both as a member of the West York School Board and as a teacher in the community near York.

Miss Mattie Marks spent the weekend at C. V. S. N. S. Miss Marks has been teaching in the primary grades at Millersburg for a number of years. She represents the class of '98.

O. H. Little of the class of 1893 presented to the president of Philomathean Literary Society, a society pin of the type of thirty years ago. The pin or as we might term it an heirloom is to be in the possession of the secretary, and given over to each new set of officers. Mr. Little is a teacher at Concord, Pa.

Miss Aleta Hatch represents the class of 1923 at the Moravian Seminary, Bethlehem, Pa. She is teaching French.

William N. Decker of the class of 1895 visited the school this week. Mr. Decker held the position of Principal of the Stevens and Jefferson Building in Altoona for a number of years. The past three years he has been

Secretary of the Altoona School Board. During his visit at the Normal he spoke before one of the School Efficiency classes.

Caroline V. Cox is teaching music and arithmetic in grades five, six and seven in one of the Juniata Schools. She graduated with the class of 1923.
