HOME ELEVEN LOSES TO BLOOMSBURG SQUAD

No Score on Either Side Until Final
Period of Game; Fifth Drop
Kick Scores

GAME HARD FOUGHT THROUGHOUT

The Red and Blue team held the giant Bloomsburg eleven to a 3-0 game on the latter's field last Saturday. The Red and Gold team made their only score in the last few minutes of play when Capt. Brotherston drop-kicked from the 40 yard line and registered a three pointer.

Capt. Gilbert won the toss and kicked off to Bloomsburg who advanced the ball to the fifty yard line. The Red and Gold squad plunged the Shippensburg line and made two first downs on the opening plays. They kept plunging the line until they had the ball on the fifteen yard line where they tried to drop kick but Capt. Gilbert got through and blocked the kick and Eddie Hays, right-end for the home team, recovered. Shippensburg fumbled on the second down and the Red and Gold team recovered. The Bloomsburg lads were then held for downs and the Valley team punted to the fifty yard line where the ball went out of bounds. Bloomsburg then started a lively pace up the field to the four yard line when Hockersmith's tackle caused the Bloomsburg back to fumble and Eddie Hays again recovered the ball, this time from behind the goal line thus saving a touch-back. The Shippensburg team was unable to gain so was forced to punt on the fourth down. Whistle—first Half.

Second Half

In the second session Bloomsburg kicked to Shippensburg and ran the ball to the forty yard line. Geedy punted deep into the opponents' territory. In the next play Sammy Angle intercepted their pass and Shippensburg followed suit twice but the passes were incomplete and Geedy was forced to kick. Bloomsburg again started off with aerial work which was broken up by Geedy. The Red and Blue's crippled backfield was unable to do effective work so Shippensburg punted, to mid field. The Bloomsburg team was held for three downs, and punted on the fourth to Geedy who made a fair catch under the bar. The Shippensburg eleven chose to punt from a fair catch but the punt fell short and it found the line of scrimmage on the thirty-five yard line with the ball in Bloomsburg's possession. The Red and Gold machine rushed the oval close to the goal line for the third time of the game and again were held for downs by the Red and Blue line within one foot of their goal. Geedy punted forty yards for the Shippensburg team and as the time was short Bloomsburg tried for the fifth time to drop kick. This one was successful, netting them the only score of the game. During the last few minutes of play the ball was exchanged several times and Coach

DR. DANN GIVES PLAN FOR STATE MUSIC CONTEST

Plan Will Be Inaugurated Among
Normal and High Schools

Dr. Hollis Dann, the head of the state department of music, who was a visitor at the school last Thursday and who led the student body in singing of songs at the Thursday assembly, made the following statement in an interview with a reporter of the CAMPUS REFLECTOR.

"Responding to the invitation to speak to the students of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School through the CAMPUS REFLECTOR during my visit to the school, allow me to call attention to the musical contests which, in one or two years, will undoubtedly be inaugurated through the State among the Normal Schools and High Schools," said Dr. Dann.

He went on to say that sectional and State-wide contests between Orchestras, Bands, Glee Clubs, Quartettes, Trios, and vocal and instrumental soloists, will arouse interest and enthusiasm and stimulate greater musical activity in the schools. These competitions will also develop higher standards and higher ideals of interpretation and of performance, thereby doing an inestimable service for the cause of music in home, church and school.

"Looking forward to these contests, it is hoped that your vocal and instrumental musical organizations, class and individual musical activities which are progressing so admirably, will receive the serious and energetic support which is essential to the attainment of excellence in the field of art," concluded Dr. Dann.

TWO INTERESTING CHAPEL EXERCISES HELD PAST WEEK

Two very interesting chapel services were held this week on Tuesday. Dr. Hollis Dann, state director of music, was a visitor at the school and he spoke to the student body. Dr. Dann spoke on a subject in which he is very much interested, "Music in the Public Schools." He said that it is being recognized more and more, that music is essential in the curriculum. In a few years the teacher who does not have the ability to teach music will find it difficult to get or keep a position. He impressed upon the student body the fact that this may help to develop our musical talent.

Prof. Slyter played a French horn solo, "At Dawning." Mr. Brunner played two selections, "Sunset Meditation" and "Drink to Me only With Thine Eyes."

On Thursday, Mrs. Walter Greenwood of Coatesville, who is the state vice-president of the Parent-Teacher Association, addressed the assembly. She told of the organization of the National Congress of Mothers, thirty years ago at Washington, D. C. From this organization the P. T. A. has developed. Pennsylvania was the second state to organize a Parent Teacher Association. The first one was organized at Philadelphia by one of the vice presidents of the National Congress of Mothers.

The aims of the P. T. A. are:
1. To give the fathers and mothers a chance to learn the things they lack and to become better parents.

2. To have the parents visit the school and learn what the school is doing.

3. To know of the bad conditions of the school in order to remedy them.

Some of the things the P. T. A. can get for the school are, hot lunch, improvement of playground, establishment of Junior Red Cross, introduction of sewing in the school.

MANY INTERESTING EVENTS PLANNED FOR THANKSGIVING

"Come Out of The Kitchen" to Be Presented by Dramatic Club
Thursday Evening

GUEST DANCE CLIMAX OF WEEK

Hurrah for the pumpkin pie! The leaves are falling fast; the wind is biting; the wheat is gathered in; and Shippensburg Normal is ready for a "big time" with the coming of Thanksgiving.

Lebanon Valley Reserves will come to meet the C. V. boys Thursday, Nov. 30, but with the entire school and a large turn out of the Alumni no one can picture anything but victory for the Red and Blue.

C. V. S. N. S. will make the Thanksgiving celebration go "Over the top" with a palatable dinner. Turkey with all its "trappings" as cranberries, celery, potatoes, pumpkin pie and dim lights, all will help toward making the celebration of Nov. 30 an overwhelming success.

Although the play is "Come Out of the Kitchen" it is not because the cast will be busy washing the dinner dishes. Poor young Southerners who had been accustomed to all the comforts of life become servants in their own home for a wealthy, good-looking Northern bachelor. Many complications will arise and it is expected that the audience will more than appreciate the untiring efforts of the coach, Miss Arnold and the cast.

The Grand Finale of the activities of the week-end will be the guest dance on Saturday night. Many rumors are abroad of the various celebrities that will be present at this affair. "Peppy" music, light hearts, fair maids, and gallant lads are indeed enough to make this dance one of the most successful and enjoyable events of the social year.

MOVIES FORERUNNER OF NEAR EAST RELIEF DRIVE

"Seeing Is Believing," the three-reel motion picture which will be shown in Main Hall Chapel, Saturday evening, Nov. 24, 1923, is a forerunner of the "Near East Relief Drive." "The Drive" will start Monday, Dec. 25, and this "movie" will be accompanied by a well known lecturer sent out by the "Near East Relief Association."

Dr. Lehman expressed his wish that the students of the school co-operate with the relief fund. He told of many incidents where the Relief Association aids the suffering Armenians.

This drive is "put on" but twice a year and those who are more fortunate in this continent should do their bit in helping those in less fortunate circumstances.

INTER-SCHOOL DEBATES TO BE HELD IN APRIL

Question for Debate Chosen by Committee Last Week

The Inter-School Debate Committee consisting of Miss Bull, and Mr. Kinnerman of West Chester Normal; Dr. Roddy and Mr. Symons from Millersville Normal; S. S. Shearer of Shippensburg Normal, met at West Chester on Saturday Nov. 17 for the purpose of deciding the question and the time for the inter-school debate.

They selected the following question: Resolved, That the present 3 per cent immigration law should continue in effect. The committee selected April 5, 1924 as the official time for the debate to be held.

It was decided by the toss of a coin that the affirmative should be debated by the home team, so the teams are lined up as follows:—

Normal Society, Millersville vs. Normal Society, Shippensburg.

Philo Society, Shippensburg, vs. Moore Society, West Chester.

Aryan Society, West Chester vs. Page Society, Millersville.

The following rules concerning the debate were decided upon:

Length of time for the debate is to be 12 minutes for the main speech with a notice of 2 minutes before the expiration of the time; 5 minutes for the rebuttal which is to be given by two debaters only. A notice of 1 minute before the expiration of the time is to be given in rebuttal. At the conclusion of the time, debaters will say no more than what is necessary to finish the sentence of the thought or part of the thought upon which they have entered discussion.

The rebuttal is to be given in the reverse order.

There are to be three debaters and an alternate for each team. The alternate is to sit with the debaters. Each team will provide a time-keeper. Alternate is not to be time-keeper.

An interval of 5 minutes is to be allowed between the regular debate and the rebuttal. The debaters are not to retire after the debate to arrange for rebuttal.

It is recommended that the coaching be limited to the judgment of the faculty advisors.

Judges are to be appointed by the home school. They are to be persons of high standing in professional work, not in any way connected with the school or acquainted with, or related to, the debaters. The judges are not to be informed in any way as to the identity of the debating team and no applause is to be given during the debate.

The home team will report, at least three weeks before the debate, the names of the judges.

Each visiting team will defray the expenses of the team.

PLANS FOR Y. W. C. A. FAIR ARE NEARING COMPLETION

Fair! Fair! Fair! The annual Y. W. Bazaar is dead—in its place lives the new Christmas Fair, which will be held Saturday evening, Dec. 8, from seven until ten o'clock in the gymnasium.

Hundreds of novelties, books, embroidered articles and even toys, have been promised by members of the organization. Plans are being made to have at least six different booths, all attractively decorated.

The ice-cream booth is getting a lot of attention. Tables for four will be placed around the race track and refreshments will be served. Attempts are being made to have an orchestra.

The Y. W. heard when the Shippensburg Community Service asked for help in keeping two motherless children in a home. Each girl gave her "bit" thus helping to swell the fund to more than $30.

FINAL GAME OF SEASON ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Large Crowd Expected at Game; Victory Certain for Red and Blue Eleven

SMITH BROTHERS STILL OUT

The Red and Blue gridders will play the closing game of the season with the Lebanon Valley College Reserves on the Eckels field, Thanksgiving its infancy in the Bloomsburg game

Latest reports from the field of practice state that Coach Ingalls has a working combination which was in its infancy in the Bloomsburg game but despite that fact played exceptionally good football and is now working in prime condition. With a ten day practice period Coach Ingalls believes that there will be no question of victory unless some unforeseen event takes place. All of the regulars are back in the harness with the exception of the Smith brothers, Clifford and Jimmy. "Cliff" is still out with a bad shoulder while Jimmy is in the infirmary suffering from a severe attack of the grippe.

Nothing definite is known about the Lebanon Valley team's strength but as the season is rapidly drawing to a close both teams should be well seasoned and fairly well matched.

Capt. Gilbert's squad has been sent through hard drill in signal work and following up the ball during the last few evenings of practice and it is expected that Monday and Tuesday of next week will be devoted to hard scrimmage with Capt. Bailey's second string men.

A large crowd is expected at the final game of the season and along with the large number of guests who are expected over the Thanksgiving Holiday the crowd looks as though it will be one of the largest ones of the present season.

Arrangements for the Turkey Day game are underway and from reports the attractions will far surpass those of previous years. Every loyal student and backer of Shippensburg is expected to be out and display his loyalty.

Probable Lineup:

End—Angle, Hays, Eby.
Tackles—Hockersmith, Sell.
Guards—Capt. Gilbert, Ritter, Fosselman.
Center—Shuler.
Q. B.—Geedy.
Half Backs—Clair Smith, McCullough, Meredith.
Full Back—Paul Smith.

FEW CASES OF ILLNESS IN INFIRMARY LAST WEEK

There have been several cases of illness in the Infirmary the past week. Most of them have been caused by bad colds. None of the cases have been serious and all the inmates are now on the road to recovery.

TIME

Why did you come to C. V. S. N. S.? Surely it was not for the purpose of helping Father Time wield his sickle. Time could be cut away more advantageously in the warm do-as-you-please atmosphere of home than it can be at school with the constant ringing of bells to remind one that he should be up and doing. It is true that the hustle and bustle of school life does not lend itself to the passing of idle moments.

To be sure there are some students who find it possible to be Father Time's right hand man when it comes to butchering the hours, minutes and seconds of a day. They just naturally slice a day into tid bits of no value by constant loafing. They pick up a book to study—after they have loafed the entire study period away—they bewail the fact that they are so busy that they don't have time to study anymore.

Nine cases out of ten, wallers of this type aren't hard to detect. You know them. Have you ever asked them to serve on a committee? Have you ever asked them to help in society? Have you ever asked them to do anything to help make your burden lighter? Have they ever willingly co-operated?

Yes, they are so busy! They don't have time to eat a meal in a comfortable manner. The wallers, those students who are rushed "to death" doing nothing, are usually the undependable students. It is needless to ask them to take an active part in school life, because, of course, they are too busy—too busy helping Father Time slice away the day into hours of no account.

Why did you come to C. V. S. N. S.? Was it to pass Father Time's time away in looking at the books you secure in the Bookroom or to study them? Time can be passed very rapidly in looking at one's lesson for the ten minutes that is left. (He has spent the other fifty recounting the latest bit of gossip to his roommate.)

How often have you heard one of these self-possessed busy people say, "I read my lesson but I can't get anything out of it." Yes, he read his lesson, in ten minutes, but that was it. He can't get anything out of it because he didn't put any concentration in it. It is impossible to reap that which has been cut into ten minutes of time.

Have you ever heard that student who is really busy and who knows how to employ his time to the best advantage, complain about not having time to do this or that? That student has learned to use his time to the best advantage. He knows that he can't afford to waste study periods and come to class the next day with his work out.

Students of C. V. S. N. S., do you want to find the time that you are always searching for? Use your entire study period for study. Without a doubt, lack of concentration is the source of many evils. It is the remedy that you will find beneficial in helping you conserve time. Don't you want to join the ranks of the honest-to-goodness busy students and not belong in the army of busy-because-I-waste-my-time students?

Here is the principal requirement of those busy-with-more-time-to-spare students' army. It is a well arranged study schedule that takes care of every minute of the time in your day. It is the careful carrying out of this schedule. It is the application of a flexible schedule for every day in the month.

The study schedule plan has helped many students break up the habit of wailing about being busy. Are you going to give it a try? Here's hoping that you win the coveted goal.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day—what does it mean to you? A good dinner, the big football game of the season, or a play and the best time of the year next to Christmas—certainly it means all of these things and a good many more and so it should; but in the flurry of excitement and pleasure be careful not to let the real significance of the day slip by. Altho the ways of celebrating Thanksgiving Day have changed mightily since the first Thanksgiving Day of the Pilgrims, the spirit and purpose of the day are still the same. It is still the day set aside to give thanks; so have the best time you possibly can on Thursday but devote some time to real Thanksgiving and some more time and energy to giving others something to be thankful for and at the end of the day you'll be much happier than you otherwise would have been.

JUNIOR PLAY AT NORMAL
A MARKED SUCCESS

Chalmers Sell Elected President; Edwin Harbaugh, Director of Orchestra

A one act play, which was written by Ruth Frank '25, was presented by an entire junior cast at Normal, last Friday in the Training School chapel. The ability of the actors was of such a type that deserves special mention. The play, "The Correct Way," was directed by Ann McFadden '24 and Prof. Pennington of the English Department. The characters were Betty, Margaret Peters '25; Harriet, Josephine Corle '25; Gwen, Naomi Wine-land '25; Jack, Harry Markley '25; Jerry, Donald Snively '25; Clifford, Harvey Hamil '25. The scene of the play was the front porch of Betty's home. The leading character was Betty. She was criticized by her girl friends for being old fashioned. Harriet and Gwen were types of the present day flapper and were desirous of having Betty follow their example. They were expecting to be invited to attend a dance that held a prominent place in the community's social life. Betty did not expect an invitation. Jack, Cliff, and Jerry decide that she is the more sensible girl and invite her to accompany them. She accepts Jack's invitation. Cliff and Jerry then invite Harriet and Gwen. The play ends with the engagement of Jack and Betty.

A reading by Ida Gambler '24 was well received. The reading was "A boy in a Dime Museum" and it was given in a manner that demonstrated the ability of Miss Gambler. A discussion on Japan was given by George Kauffman '25. Much valuable information was contained in the discussion. The Gazette was edited by Margaret Taylor '25. It contained current events and news of interest to all present.

The musical part of the program was something unusual. A trio composed of Percy James '25, Clifford Smith '25, and Harry Markley '25 sang Belinda Clarissa. Each sang a solo part and all joined in singing the chorus. They were accompanied on the piano by Valeria Hershman '25.

Due to the absence of the President and Vice-President, who were on their way to Bloomsburg for Saturday's game, Clifford Smith '25 a former Normal President was in charge of the meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Chalmers Sell '24; Vice President, William Hudson '25; Secretary, Effie Wynn '24; Critic, Wilbur Mehring '24; Director of Orchestra, Edwin Harbaugh '25.

REPORT OF EXPERIMENT TO GATHER STATISTICS OF STUDY PERIOD

There has of late been a great deal of discussion about the manner in which the periods of study of the students of C. V. S. N. S. is observed. It is thought that if a regular program of study were arranged and put into practice, the evening study hour would be much more beneficial than a haphazard schedule. Then too, the question has come up whether the boys study as much as the girls. An experiment was recently held among the Junior classes to gather statistics in regard to matters of study. The following is a list of subjects studied and the average amount of time spent in study by the boys and girls:

	Boys	Girls
Composition	54 Min.	50 Min.
Introduction to
Teaching	45 "	50 "
Hygiene	37 "	40 "
Music	18 "	42 "

MANY HOCKEY GAMES DURING WEEK

Hockey has been given a new impetus during the past week due to the fine weather. Last Friday the "Junior team whipped the underclassmen by a clean score of 3-0. Tuesday night the Junior "seconds" put up a hard fight and allowed the Seniors only three goals. At the Senior-Underclassmen game Wednesday the Seniors were able to score three points while their opponents succeeded in making 3-1 score.

Art Teacher—Do you use art gum?
 Junior—No, I use Spearmint.

Senior girl, (one of those who is forever having her fortune told)—The palmist who examined my hand said I was very economical in some things.

Another—Did she say what they were?
 Senior—Yes, soap and water.

Boarding Student—Do you know how to dance?
 Day student—Yes, why?
 Boarding student—Can you do the elevator dance?

Day student—No, what are the steps like?
 Boarding student—There aren't any steps.

CLASSIC MOVIES A FITTING WIND-UP OF GOOD ENGLISH WEEK
 The movies last Saturday evening in the chapel were a fitting close to Good English Week. The main picture was "Little Orphant Annie," adapted from the poem by James Whitcomb Riley. In this, many hideous goblins made their appearance upon the screen which caused chills to run up and down the back of everyone in the audience.

The character "Scrooge" from Dickens' "Christmas Carol" came into the lime-light. His transformation from the grim, ghastly miser to a kind, cheerful gentleman was indeed apparent. Sketches from "Christmas Eve" and "The Village Blacksmith" were presented.

A new screen which had just recently been purchased added a hundred fold to the effectiveness and enjoyment of the entertainment. Over half of the audience was composed of children from the training school and their parents. Last week was Good Book Week at the training school and for this reason, the children and their parents were invited. The fun and pleasure of the children were evident by the shouts of laughter which burst forth from them.

SALE TO BE HELD BY ARTS AND CRAFTS

The Arts and Crafts Club will hold an advertising sale in the Art Room on Tuesday, November 27, from 4:15 to 7 o'clock. This sale is for the purpose of taking orders for Christmas gifts which will be on display and will be made by the girls.
 The faculty and students are invited to attend the sale and if please, place orders. The display is to be held in the Art Room.

The newest lipsticks are flavored with fruit flavors—lemon, pineapple, banana, strawberry—whatever you prefer. They are all red, however.

It's pretty hard for those who are optimistic concerning how much their looks can be improved in one year to be obliged to have all the pictures in which they appear, taken so soon. Never mind, you can display them as proof of how great obstacles you have overcome.

Teacher—Tommy, how far have you studied?
 Tommy—Just as far as the book is dirty.

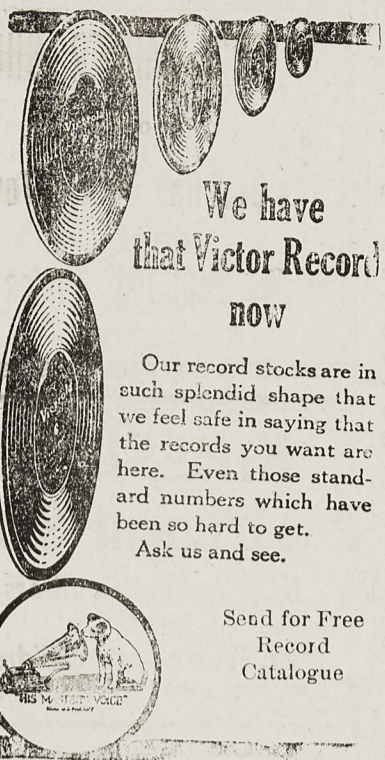

BOOK PAGEANT DELIGHTS PARENTS

Very Helpful to Student Teachers

The Book Pageant given in the Normal School chapel on Thursday at 11:15 and on Friday at 1:15 was considered a great success by all who attended it. The stage of the auditorium took on the appearance of an immense bookshelf filled with large volumes of children's books. These books with their brightly colored covers, and plainly printed titles, seemed to beckon the audience to come and read them. But as the Pageant proceeded, the characters of the books themselves walked out from between the pages. Mother Goose and her children, Red Riding Hood, Peter Rabbit, Humpty-Dumpty, Heide, the Three Bears, Aladdin, Robin Hood, Hans Brinker, Alice in Wonderland, King Arthur, Rip Van Winkle and Robinson Crusoe, all presented themselves at the front of the stage and told their story. The children well trained under the skillful direction of Miss Culp, played their parts splendidly.

The audience on Thursday which consisted of the Normal school students was very appreciative of the efforts put forth by all who directed and took part in the play. Many of the Student Teachers were heard to remark that they found in the Book Pageant many helpful suggestions for carrying out a similar project in their school next year.

The audience on Friday consisted of the Training School children and their parents. The children were delighted in seeing that characters of the books, known to most of them, come to life and if there were any unfamiliar to them, they are now eager to read each one. It is hoped that the Pageant interested the parents in reading and buying more and better books for the home libraries.

MARK TWAIN'S FIRST EXERCISE IN TYPING

Here is a copy of Mark Twain's first typewritten letter, dated December 9, 1874:

Hartford, Dec. 9.

Dear Brother:—

I am trying to get the hang of this new fangled writing machine, but am not making a shining success of it. However, this is the first attempt I have ever made and yet I perceive that I shall soon easily acquire a fine facility in its use. I saw the thing in Boston the other day and was greatly taken with it. Susie has struck the keys once or twice, and no doubt has printed some letters which do not belong where she put them. My having been a compositor is likely to be a great help to me, since one needs chiefly swiftness in banging the keys. The machine costs 125 dollars. I believe it will print faster than I can write. One may lean back in his chair and work it. It piles an awful pack of words on one page. It don't muss things or scatter ink blots round. Of course it saves paper.

Susie is gone now, and I fancy I can make better progress. Working this typewriter reminds me of old Robert Buchanan, who, you remember used to set up articles at the case without previously putting them in the form of manuscript. I was lost in admiration of such a marvelous intellectual capacity.

Love to Mollie.

INDIAN SUMMER PROGRAM WAS GIVEN AT PHILO

Had Chief Joseph or Tecumseh or any great chief of historical fame stepped in to see Philo's program last Friday evening, he would have felt right at home for the idea of the Indian Summer program was carried out to the letter.

An Indian wigwam, campfire, arrows, blanket and costumes, formed a realistic setting for Hiawatha as it was dramatized under the direction of Mabel Zimmerman '24. Selections of the poem were read by Lillian Eshelman '26 and the scene enacted in pantomime. The nine scenes were as follows:

- I Nakomas caring for Hiawatha
- II His childhood
- III His early manhood
- IV His sailing
- V His wooing
- VI His winning
- VII His wedding and feast
- VIII Arrival of Missionaries
- IX His departure

"Indian Summer Poets" was the title of Ruth Keadles' essay. She traced the poetry from its first appearance in Western Pennsylvania to the present day. She quoted from such authors as Bunyan, Brant, Lowell, Sherwood and several more modern ones. Beulah Herr '24 also carried out the theme of the program by telling the Indian legend of Moses, their idolized brave.

Janet Shearer '24 appearing as an Indian maiden sang a group of Indian love songs giving the story connected with each. The group consisted of "At Sundown," "From the Land of the Sky Blue Waters" and "By the Waters of the Minetante."

"The Philo Review" presented by Helen Andrews '24 was staged as a special feature, Ethel Warfel '24 taking the part of a semi-invalid aided by numerous other characters such as society representatives, a foot-ball player, a small boy, a school girl and others, presented the usual current events, school news, wit and humor in a very unique way.

Mr. Krebs, visiting teacher, commended the society highly on the type of program presented. As a fitting climax to the program in honor of the Indians he told a quaint Indian legend supposed to have happened near his home.

JUNIOR HIGH GROUP USES STUDY SCHEDULE

The Junior High Group, described by several faculty members as the liveliest, most energetic group in the school, is experimenting with the use of study schedules. The experiment has been adopted as the last resource for over-worked students. A large percentage of the leaders in the school are affiliated with this group and for some time complaints have been made concerning the lack of time to do all the things required. Miss Nora Keiffer, teacher of Psychology, feels that this condition is due to waste of time and suggested as a remedy, the study schedule.

THE BIG EVENT OF HIKING SEASON TOMORROW

Hikers! The big event of the season is here. Tomorrow is the long-talked-of Chambersburg hike. At the ringing of the bell at 10:30, the hikers will assemble in front of the gymnasium to start on their long journey. Lunch which will be furnished for all boarding students, will be eaten at Greenvillage. If there are any who feel that they are unable to continue on the hike, they will be given permission to go on the street-car from Greenvillage to Chambersburg. The girls will be allowed to go shopping or to the movies until the time to come back on the train.

THANKSGIVING DAY FEED PLANNED BY DAY STUDENTS

The spirit of Thanksgiving penetrated to the ranks of the Girls' Day Students Association as was proved at the meeting of this organization held on Thursday at noon. The purpose of the meeting was to plan for a Thanksgiving feed which will be held Wednesday, Nov. 28, in the lunch room of the day students.

R. E. PAGUE SPEAKS AT JOINT MEETING SUNDAY

"The youth of today is just as good as it ever was," is the opinion of R. E. Pague, the field manager of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association. Mr. Pague was the main speaker at the joint Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. meeting last Sunday night.

Mr. Pague, who has recently returned from an investigation tour of the prohibition question in Europe, has been lecturing in many of the leading colleges of Pennsylvania and in other states. C. V. S. N. S. is however the first Normal he has visited as yet. He commented on the movement started at Yale to keep liquor off the campus and he prophesied that by this action, Yale will make itself felt in history. He absolutely denied the statements that have been published recently, stating that "the young people of today are drinking and jazzing themselves to death." He refused to believe that the morals of the youth of today are deteriorating.

REFLECTOR APOLOGIZES TO MISS HANNAH KEIFFER

The Campus Reflector wishes to apologize for the mistakes in quoting Miss Hannah Keiffer in the Good English Article in last week's issue. The quotation should have been as follows:—

"Rural Pennsylvania of Tomorrow will discuss World Problems in the standard English language as the result of better school instruction; a wide experience in hearing correct English by radio; and a more extensive use of travelling libraries in rural community centers."

STUDENT COUNCIL PLANS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Student Council held its usual meeting Monday evening, Nov. 19 with Miss Helen Miller, president, presiding. No cases of discipline were brought before the council. Plans were made for the Christmas party which will be given December 19th, the night before Christmas holidays begin. The plans have not yet been completed and no committees have yet been appointed. Those, however, will be named in the near future. The girls are requested to pay their dues ($25) to the Student Government Association as soon as possible. All boarding students are considered as members of this association and are expected to pay twenty-five cent. as dues.

Thanksgiving Day will be the scene of the last football game of the season. Here's your last chance to cheer the team on to victory. Everybody turn out for the game!

NEW CENTERS ADDED TO THE EXTENSION DEPARTMENT

The extension department has opened new centers at York, Harrisburg and Chambersburg. This makes eleven centers opened by the department this semester. Dr. Lehman has a large class in educational psychology at York; Prof. Burkholder is teaching a class in penmanship at the same place; Miss Huber and Prof. Burkholder are giving art and penmanship respectively at Harrisburg; Mrs. Stewart is teaching a class in educational sociology at Newport; Miss Parks has a class in English at Newville; Misses McWilliams and Heffernan are teaching health education at Chambersburg; Miss Cox works Friday evening at Mercersburg and Saturday at McConnellsburg with classes in art, and Prof. Smith has classes in English Fundamentals in Franklin and Fulton counties. The teachers of Juniata county are endeavoring to organize a class in music at Mifflin. Miss McWilliams and Miss Heffernan will be called to Waynesboro to give health education next week. The teachers of Greencastle, Franklin county, have asked for music at that place.

This institution is doing considerable work along another line of extra-rural instruction. The teachers in a number of out-lying districts are taking advantage of the correspondence courses and new enrollments are coming in daily. Among the branches offered in correspondence are teaching of history, geography, English, arithmetic and reading, penmanship and art. Besides these professional subjects are offered. The list of subjects offered in correspondence will be enlarged during the second semester.

Ingalls' machine tried to score by completing two long passes but the final blast was blown too soon.

It was the home coming day for Bloomsburg Alumni and over two thousand people witnessed the contest. Reports from Bloomsburg declare that the game was of a rare type and both teams fought to the finish and that the Red and Blue team played good ball despite the fact of a crippled back field.

ALUMNI

The largest banquet in the history of the Alumni Association in Franklin County was held in the Garden Room of the Hotel Wallace, at Chambersburg on Monday night, November 19. It was attended by more than one hundred people.

Prof. Frank Faust '11, of Chambersburg, president of the association, was toast master. Prof. J. K. Stewart extended to the alumni the greetings from the Normal. Addresses were made by Dr. Brooks, professor of Education at Wilson College; County Superintendent Finafrock; and Prof. Goody, Superintendent of Schools in Chambersburg.

Other numbers on the program were: a violin solo by Mr. Brunner, a vocal solo and also a trombone solo by Prof. D. O. Slyer.

The following faculty members represented the school: Prof. and Mrs. Stewart, Prof. and Mrs. Smith, Miss Horton, Miss Hannah Keiffer, Prof. Houck, Miss Costenbader, Prof. Slyter and Mr. Brunner.

Mrs. McClelland, formerly Miss Winifred Hunt '08, visited at Normal on Saturday. Mrs. McClelland's home is in Lambertsville, New Jersey.

Miss Edith Burtsfield is teacher at Fannetsville. She represents the class of '22.

Jesse Snyder '23, Jeanette Stitt '23 and Mrs. Hazel Burke '23, spent the week-end at the Normal.

If a man gets in eight hours of labor, eight hours of recreation and amusement and eight hours of sleep, he'll spend 24 hours a day attending to his own business.
