DR. LEHMAN ELECTED PRES. OF PENNA. TEACHERS' ASSO.

Organization Has Membership of 49,000 and is One of the Largest Associations of Its Kind in the United States.

HONOR BESTOWED IS NOT SMALL ONE

Dr. Ezra Lehman, principal of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School was elected president of the Pennsylvania Teachers Association at the yearly meeting of the association which was held December 27. The organization is the largest of its kind in the United States and has a membership of 49,000 educators.

The honor which has been bestowed upon Dr. Lehman is not a small one and it has been justly awarded. He is well fitted to fill the position in a noteworthy manner.

Dr. Lehman was born January 18, 1871 on a farm near Chambersburg, Pa. He received his elementary education in a one room rural school near his home. In 1887 he entered the Shippensburg State Normal School from which he was graduated two years later. After teaching one year in a rural school of his native county he returned to the Shippensburg Normal School and enrolled as a student in the advanced two year course, graduating from there with the degree of B. S. in Education. He later completed his college course at Bucknell University.

Dr. Lehman was elected principal of the Huntingdon, Pa., high school and held that position until January 1896 when he resigned to accept the position of teacher of English and History in the Shippensburg Normal School.

In 1900 he enrolled as a student in the Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania. He was appointed Harrison Fellow in English in 1901 and reappointed in 1902. He received his doctorate in 1903 and was appointed associate editor of the Lippincott Dictionary of the English Language. He held this position until the close of the work in 1906. In the fall of that year he was appointed to a position in the Newton High School of New York City as a teacher and Supervisor of English. In 1913 he resigned from the New York system to accept the principalship of the Shippensburg Normal School.

Dr. Lehman has been a member of the Teachers Association for many years. The association is divided into sections according to the various phases of the profession. Representatives of colleges, normal schools and high schools, district superintendents of the rural districts, as well as the city, are members of the association. The nominations are made by the various groups and Dr. Lehman was nominated by two different sections. When the nominations were brought before the House of Delegates, he was elected by a big majority.

tiring president, introduced Dr. Lehman to the assemblage, after his election. In a short address Dr. Lehman outlined his plans for the coming year. He stressed the importance of the furthering of rural education. He requested the organization to study the project carefully as their problem for the coming year.

A meeting of the executive committee has been called for February 9, by Dr. Lehman. The meeting will be held at Harrisburg in the general office of the association building. The program for the ensuing year will probably be drawn up at this time. It is likely that the next general meeting of the organization will be held Dec. 29, 30, 31, 1924 at Erie, Pa.

Dr. Lehman has long taken an active part in educational circles in the state and the honor which has been conferred upon him has not come as a surprise to his friends. The general opinion of those in authority in the association is, that they have not erred in their selection.

G. A. A. HOLDS PEPPY INITIATION FOR NEW MEMBERS

The G. A. A. has gained the distinction of staging the most harrowing and at the same time delightful initiation ever given in the school, when they took 75 new member into the fold on Thursday afternoon. The scene of action was the basement of the girls' dormitory and if the walls could talk, the tales they would tell would certainly merit publication.

From the time the first candidate for membership appeared in the dining room wearing a white stocking on her left foot and a black one on her right, excitement over the initiation ran high. When the girls arrived at the basement, each girl was blindfolded and given individual attention by some kind member of the organization as she was piloted over the journey which every girl had to take.

The first obstacle on the path was a hoop thru which every unfortunate had to pass, her rate of progress being increased by frequent blows of stout oak paddles wielded by sturdy athletics of G. A. R.

A dose of lard, designed to remove all traces of any frivolous wave which the traveller might possess, was generously applied to the hair. Following this operation the noble initials of the organization were painlessly branded upon the candidate's face and neck with a solution of iodine. A swift trip down an elevated, slippery door, terminated in a pile of sawdust from which the girls emerged ready for a ride on a wobbly truck to a ladder over which they had to walk. At this point the journey was half completed and the remainder was comparatively easy. A short walk over a pair of bed springs, and the fording of a small body of water brought the weary newcomer to her last bunker, a greased door, serving as an incline up which she was forced to walk to reach her destination, the upper floors of the basement, where the bandage was removed from her eyes and she was proclaimed a full fledged member.

Sophia T. Reiter '24 entertained the girls by dancing the Highland Fling and after refreshments, the meeting closed with fifteen rahs for the G. A. A.

ALUMNUS DIES SUDDENLY FROM SEVERE HEART ATTACK

Professor Charlese Albright, Superintendent of York County Schools, Stricken at His Home

WAS AN ABLE EDUCATOR

While writing at his desk, at his home in Hanover, Pa., at one o'clock Monday afternoon, January seventh, Professor Charles Albright, superintendent of York County schools, was seized with a severe attack of neuralgia of the heart and died before the arrival of his physician. Professor Albright was fifty years of age.

During the past few months Professor Albright had been suffering from attacks of the heart. Last Sunday he attended the services of the Trinity Reformed Church of Hanover, but in the evening he complained of not feeling well, and summoned his physician. The physician called again Monday noon. About one hour later Mr. Albright had a severe attack and died.

When a young man Mr. Albright attended the public schools of Penn township, and later entered the Cumberland Valley State Normal School, graduating in the class of 1895. He later took two years of post graduate work in the same school.

Professor Albright taught school for several years at Neffsville, Pa., and for four years at Dover, Pa. He was principal of the Hanover Street Grade Schools at Hanover. After serving in this position for a number of years he was elected a member of the faculty of the Hanover High School. He taught mathematics and science.

In 1915 Professor Albright was appointed assistant superintendent of the York County Public Schools. He served under Superintendent C. W. Stine. Upon the retirement of Superintendent Stine on April 11, 1922, Professor Albright was elected to the superintendency, which office he held until his death.

In addition to his excellent educational work Professor Albright was an active member of the Trinity Reformed Church and Sunday School of Hanover. For several years he served as chorister and Music Director of the Sunday School. He was a teacher of the Ladies' Bible Class and served several years as Assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School.

The student body in accord with Dr. Lehman extends their heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of Professor Albright. Dr. Lehman expressed the sympathy of the school in the following words: "We have lost a friend, a co-worker and an able educator; but he leaves behind a life which is spotless and which shall never be forgotten."

VOCAL ORGANIZATIONS WILL PRESENT "THE HOLY CITY"

Chorus will be Supported by Instrumental Trio; Prof. Greene Pianist; Prof. Brunnet Violinist; And Miss Einzig, Celloist

UNDER DIRECTION OF PROF. SLYTER

A big treat is in store for all music lovers of C. V. S. N. S. and the surrounding districts Wednesday evening at 8:30 when a chorus composed of the Girls' Choral Society and the Boys' Glee Club will present the cantata, "The Holy City," by Alfred R. Gaul. The chorus will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Hargleroad, soprano soloist of the Shippensburg Lutheran Church choir, Mrs. Blanche Wright Hale, also a soloist in the same church. Mrs. Hale is a contralto singer. Prof. David O. Slyter, tenor, director of the music department of the school, and Mr. Paul B. Nofstker, baritone soloist of the Lutheran choir, will complete the quartet.

The work of the chorus will be ably supported by an instrumental trio. The trio is composed of members of the music department who have had considerable experience in this line of musical work. Prof. Roger W. P. Greete, piano, Prof. Stanley W. Brunner, violin and Miss Alice E. Einzig, cello, form the personnel of the trio.

"The Holy City" is a cantata which possesses remarkable qualities. The Choral Society and the Glee Club are well fitted to give this excellent work. Although it is extremely difficult and is by far the largest musical project attempted by the clubs, they have mastered its every detail. The organizations are under the direction of Prof. Slyter. The productions of which Prof. Slyter has been the director, have always been of the highest calibre. Therefore, the rendition of the cantata is expected to be a concert of no low standard. The cantata has been presented by a number of famous musical organizations both in America and Europe. In 1882 the Birmingham Music Festival rendered it. The unanimous success with which the recital was received, led many large musical organizations to study it carefully. It met with their unanimous approval.

The oratorio is divided into two parts. "Here we have no Continuing city" is the theme of the first division. As this section progresses, the desire for higher and more heavenly life is manifested.

"I saw a new Heaven and a new earth, for the first Heaven and the first earth were passed away" is the keynote of the second part. The promise and desire of the first part are thus fulfilled in the second.

The proceeds of the concert will be used to further the work of the music department of the institution. Since all attempts to gain appropriations from the state for this activity have failed, Prof. Slyter has adopted this plan for bettering the department. The future of the musical organizations of the school depends upon the success of the cantata.

In order to make it possible for all the students of the school to take advantage of this opportunity, tickets are being sold at half price to them. The demand for tickets has been great, so that the financial, as well as the technical side of the concert is assured.

PRESS CLUB DISCUSSES PLANS FOR ANNUAL DANCE

A well-balanced program was presented to Press Club members at the regular meeting of the organization, Thursday evening at 6:15. Gertrude Griffith and William Hudson '25, played a violin duet, "Tales from Hoffman." The "Vesper Hymn" was sung by Marion Emerick '24, soprano, and Sara Rider '24, alto. "Love of Humanity" was the title of the oration by Wilson Dodd '24. Mr. Dodd said that all action should be prompted by love, for it is only by love that we make progress.

Charles Gentler '24 read a humorous recitation, "The Young Man Waited," by Edmund Vance Cooke. General Butler's work in cleaning up Philadelphia, was discussed by Chalmers Sell '24.

Prof. Stewart addressed the club in regard to the annual reception and dance given by the members. A committee is to be appointed to arrange a date for this affair. It was voted to elect six new members to the club to fill the vacancies made by the graduation of six students in February. George Robinson '24 made a speech in behalf of those people leaving the school.

DANCE WILL BE HELD IN GYMNASIUM JAN. 26

A dance will be held in the gym Saturday evening, January 26. No definite arrangements have been made for it as yet. The following committee has charge of the affair: Prof. H. L. Burkholder, chairman; Prof. Smith, Prof. Slyter, Prof. Houck, Miss Quigley, Miss Shambaugh, Miss H. Keiffer and Miss Harris.

NEW YEAR'S PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY TRAINING SCHOOL

The children of the Training School presented an interesting New Year's program on Friday, January 11, 1924. Altho this was the first assembly period since the holidays, the program was very well prepared and was an indication that the children had come back refreshed by their vacation and were ready for hard work.

The meeting was opened with assembly singing, after which the following program was given.

REVOLUTION

Everybody's indulging in them. They are the popular sport of the day. They are societies' chief and best beloved divertissement. It seems as though all the world, when it doesn't have anything better to do, sets about revolutionizing something or other. Revolutions are all the rage. They are one of the best sports on the market. Why sometimes even football is required to take a back seat so that humanity may participate in its favorite game.

There is Russia—just to prove to the world that it is not a back number, it has developed one of the best revolutions on the market. Even our own country has caught the fever. The labor unions are attempting to revolutionize the world of labor. Certain factions of the church are attempting to alter the established beliefs of their denominations. Educational ideas are being upset and mounted in another setting.

Yes, everybody's got the "bug." We all want to get bitten by the insect. Why? Because we like to keep step with the world. Psychology says that man is gregariously inclined. He dislikes to keep himself company. To keep up with our fellow men, we must do even as much or just a bit more than they do. Therefore, we set about to get bitten and begin to revolutionize.

The "bug" is being constantly buzzed in our ears by various members of the faculty. We have been urged to keep up with the times. It has been suggested that we revolutionize our methods of study; that we keep up with the latest styles and make a fundamental change in the way we study.

A NEW YEAR'S REVOLUTION NEE RESOLUTION

This revolutionizing idea is not a new one neither is it one of those radical alterations that will unpleasantly change our life here at school. Ever since the beginning of the school year, we have been listening to the wise words of the leaders of the insurrection. "Do away with the wasting of study periods. Learn the magic of concentration. Make a study schedule." These and many other similar shots have been suggested as ammunition for our guns.

Some of us have profitably enlisted ourselves in the ranks of the rebellious. We have revolutionized our methods of study. We have kept up with the course of human events. We have even earned recognition from our fellow students for the way we conserve time, the way we utilize our study periods, the vast number of ex-curricula activities we are able to take part in and the time we have to play.

There were others of our number who were old fashioned. They were too conservative. They favored the past institutions or views. They were opposed to change. Those are the students of C. V. S. N. S. who are slaves to their books. Those are the students who do not take an active part in school life. They have no study schedules. They waste their study periods. And the day is always too short! Examination time is upon them. They have unmeasurable quantities of back work to make up. They are the people who will cram and cram and cram that last week before examinations. It is to those students that this editorial is aimed.

It is several weeks beyond that day upon which it is customary to make resolutions; but it is not too late to make a few now. It is not too late to sign your name to the list of those who always have time to do a little more work. It is never too late to get bitten by the bug which revolutionizes your methods of study. Get the habit, for once you get it, it will keep you so firmly in its control that you will need not envy your next door neighbor because he has time to do so many more things than you have time to do.

Here are some rules suggested by the Junior Composition Classes that may be the very things to wake you up from your conservative slumbering away of the hours in a day.

- I.—Acquire habits of concentration in spite of distraction.
- II.—Study to acquire knowledge that functions and not merely to attain a good grade.
- III.—Make a study program and try to follow it daily.
- IV.—Bear in mind the laws of health which are plenty of sleep, exercise and proper food.
- V.—Keep the study room properly ventilated; keep the tools in good condition and properly arranged; have the light fall over the left shoulder.
- VI.—Learn to use all material aids available, index, appendix, vocabulary, and other references.
- VII.—Understand assignments thoroughly before starting to study.
- VIII.—Connect important facts of the new lesson with facts previously learned.
- IX.—Use good methods to study such as: making an outline; taking notes; selecting general ideas, details and examples; reviewing lessons before going to class.

NEW YEAR PROGRAM AT NORMAL IS BIG SUCCESS

Normal Society held its first meeting of the New Year in the Main Auditorium. Music, debating and speeches held prominent places on the program. The newly elected officers of the society were inaugurated. They were: President, William Hudson '25; Vice-President, Percy James '25; Secretary, Margaret Peters '25; Critic, Mabel Frank '25.

The debate, resolved, "That the 3% Immigration Law Should Continue in Effect," was argued affirmatively by Mabel Hyson '24 and Gail Walker '24. The negative side had to make a substitution because of the absence of Griff Jones '26. Harry Slothower '24 volunteered to take Mr. Jones' place. The other negative speaker was Gordon Winters '27. A few of the more important points of the affirmative side were: the present law preserves the standards of American living; new immigration is a menace to our illiteracy; limited immigration aids education. The negative side desired further restriction on immigration. They said, "The foreigners come to make money and not to be citizens." One of the negative debaters said, "You cannot put the worst of the foreigners that come from the southern countries of Europe together and make Americans out of them anymore than you can make a crab walk straight. It would be equally as hard to make a draft horse into a race horse by placing him in a race horse's stable over night." Mr. Slothower should be commended for debating on such short notice. His statements were backed by good authority. The decision of the judges was two to one in favor of the negative.

The orchestra under the leadership of Edwin Harbaugh '25 played an old American melody. The male quartette of which Harry Markley '26 is chairman, sang "Juniata" and "Stars of the Summer Night." Every Normalite can say, "We have a real quartette" without fear of being contradicted. Arthur Filler as chairman, presented a colored minstrel number. Gordon Winters and Jerry Baldwin sang several humorous songs to the accompaniment of Winters' guitar. "Little Willie's Hearing" was the recitation given by Martha Mower '24. Raymond Cromer '26 delivered a very forceful oration. "A Message to Garcia" was the topic of the oration and it held that we should always be true to a trust. If we were entrusted to perform some duty, we should permit nothing to stand in our way. Our duty should be our first thought. The Gazette by Miss Lehr '24 showed the preparation of a good editor.

Miss Alice Huber of the faculty gave the society a very encouraging talk. She expressed her approval of the success of the program which was due in part to the society's being able to substitute such a capable debator at the last minute.

DR. LEHMAN'S SECRETARY

MARRIES JOHN K. WYNKOOP
 Miss Gladys G. Morris, Secretary to Dr. Lehman, and John K. Wynkoop of Shippensburg were united in marriage by the Rev. D. Ellis Williams, pastor of the St. Fredericks Methodist Church on Dec. 22, 1923 at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Wynkoop is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Morris, Bloomsburg, Pa. She is a graduate of the Bloomsburg High School, class of 1922. After taking a course in the Pierce Business College, Mrs. Wynkoop accepted a position as secretary of the Magee Co. of Bloomsburg. Last January Mrs. Wynkoop became secretary to Dr. Ezra Lehman. She is well known among the faculty and students.

Mr. Wynkoop is the son of Mrs. Susan Wynkoop, of Shippensburg. He is a graduate of the Shippensburg High School, class of 1918. For the past five years he has held a position in the office of the Domestic Engine & Pump Co. of Shippensburg.

After February 10 Mr. and Mrs. Wynkoop will be at home in their apartments at 71 East King street, Shippensburg.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

I will start anew this morning with a fairer, higher creed;
 I will cease to stand complaining of my ruthless greed;
 I will cease to sit repining while my duty's call is clear;
 I will waste no moment whining and my heart shall know no fear.

I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;
 I will search for hidden beauties that elude the grumbler's gaze;
 I will try to find contentment in the paths that I must tread;
 I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.

I will not be swayed by envy when my rival's strength is shown,
 I will not deny his merit, but I'll try to prove my own;
 I will try to see the beauty spread before me, rain or shine;
 I will cease to preach your duty and be more concerned with mine.

CALL FOR TRACKMEN

ISSUED LAST TUESDAY

Twenty-five men responded to the call last Tuesday for track candidates. Prof. L. C. Krebs and J. P. Smith are in charge of the track squad for the coming season and latest reports point toward a classy set of path sprinters.

The cross-country team will be coached by J. P. Smith and the cross-country runners are having their preliminary work-out this week. Coach Smith has no experienced cross country men, yet he believes that with training, a good team can be whipped into shape.

From the present outlook, it seems probable that a team will be sent to the Penn Relays next spring where they will compete with the other Normal Schools of the state who are also planning to send track teams to the Penn Relays.

Plans are also being made for the holding of a bi-county track meet on Eckels' Field, either May 10 or May 17. The meet will be open to all high schools within Cumberland and Franklin Counties. The schools will be classified according to the size of the enrollment.

Prof. Levi Gilbert, chairman of the bi-county meet when interviewed by the "Reflector" reporter, yesterday, stated that with the aid of local business men the school will be able to award prizes to the winning teams. The contesting teams will be the guests of the Normal School while at Shippensburg and arrangements are being made to have one of the most unique track meets ever held in this section of the valley.

NORMAL TEAM TRAVELS TO

WEST CHESTER FOR GAME

The C. V. S. N. S. cagemen will oppose the Blue and White warriors of the leather sphere of the West Chester Normal. The Shippensburg aggregation intends to enter the enemies' territory with plenty of fight, in order that their reputation of last year will not be dragged in the mire.

The Red and Blue team severely trimmed West Chester last year on two occasions. One game was played on the home floor while its sequel was staged on the West Chester floor. This year the first game in the series will be played away and the second one will be played at home. Last year the score registered in both games was 36-19.

We are now approaching the end of the beginning and the beginning of the end—exams and the second semester.

Two students from Adams Co. were heard discussing the apples raised on the farms of their respective fathers.

The one—My father's apples are so large that we only need to use one to make a pie.

The other—One of my father's apples rolled into the well last year and we've been drinking cider ever since.

All the students are anxiously looking forward to the school dance—and the orchestra for the affair.

By all appearances we are going to have a fine track team. There is no reason why we should not make a good showing on the track this year. For further proof of this statement look at the long list of candidates on the Bulletin board, who have signed up for the sport.

If this wet weather continues long several of the boys are contemplating running a ferry boat to and from town. Toot-Toot!

The school must expect to make more improvements in the near future judging by the increased size of the book room.

Now that examinations are coming on we should have more than three extra hours of light per week.

APPROPRIATE SUBJECTS ARE DISCUSSED AT Y. W. MEETING

"Resolutions" was the appropriate subject of the address given by Josephine Corle leader of the Y. W. meeting last Sunday evening in the court of the girls' dormitory. Miss Corle stated that everyone should make resolutions that will be beneficial to them. "The Y. W. programs have been excellent and original in the past but the students should resolve to make them much better in the future and the girls should resolve to help others as well as themselves," were thoughts that Miss Corle impressed upon her audience.

Mrs. Stewart gave a brief outline of The Edward Bok Award so that the girls might cast their votes intelligently next Sunday evening.

Martha Crozier '25 and Mabel Stumm '25 led the meeting in prayer while Gail Weagley '25 and Helen Fodder '26 read scripture lessons. Winona Garbrick '26 played a piano solo and a vocal solo, "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee," was sung by Eleanor Coons '24.

INTERMEDIATE GROUP GIVES VARIED HEALTH PROGRAM
A well-prepared program was presented by the Intermediate Group Society Wednesday at 1:15. The program was one which dealt with the health of both the pupils and the student teachers.

In the play given by the Fourth Grade, the Health Fairy in company with five little earth-children who have observed the health rules, goes to the Health King and tells him about the good work of the children. The King receives them kindly and bids them keep up the good work.

The play was followed by a dance, "Bleking" by Sixth Grade girls, Health rhymes by three Fourth Grade boys, a recitation, "John's Tooth Brush" by Kenneth Monn.

The next number was the demonstration of two kinds of bandages, triangle, and roller. As the boys bandaged broken arms, cut wrists and injured eyes, they gave rules and precautions which should be observed in first aid cases.

The play by the Fifth Grade boys, in which Milk offers himself to a group of injured and unhealthy boys as a medium to gain strength and join the healthy, rosy cheeked boys, was very cleverly staged.

The entire program carried out the aim of the Society which is to demonstrate the results of classroom work.

VARSAITY FIVE LOSES FIRST GAME OF NEW YEAR
The Red and Blue, in the opening tilt of the new year, dropped a win of 48 to 19 to the fast Bloomsburg cagers on the Gym floor last Saturday afternoon.

The visiting team opened up the game by caging three field goals and a foul before they permitted the home lads a single count. They kept at a comfortable margin during the entire fray. Capt. Smith opened the scoring for the Valley boys when he pushed through a two pointer and Sammy Angle another from the field, but the Red and Yellow squad couldn't be stopped from scoring. Martin, Green and Capt. Smith each registered a foul accompanied by another basket from Sammy Angle and one from Capt. Smith during the last few minutes in the first canto which placed the score 35 to 11 with Bloomsburg on the big end.

Coach Ingalls' squad came back in the second half with more fight and held the visiting five to a considerably lower score than the first session. They scored eight points to the Red and Yellow's thirteen, eight of which were made from the free throw line. Dutch Eby was the high scoring man of the second half with two field goals and a foul to his credit while Angle caged one from the floor and Griff Jones pushed one through the net from the foul line.

Red and Blue Substitutions
During the first session of the game Coach Ingalls sent Eby in to take Green's job at left forward while Martin was withdrawn and McCulloch held down the vacancy at right guard. In the second half Angle was called by the referee and Jones sent in at right forward. All the substitutions proved effective in helping to hold the classy visiting quintet to the smallest possible score.

Capt. Smith, Angle and Eby were the high scorers for the Red and Blue squad while Schwall and Terda were the heavy registers for the opposing team.

STUDENT COUNCIL MET LAST MONDAY NIGHT
Since attendance at religious gatherings is voluntary many of the girls who chose to remain in their rooms have caused disturbances by loud laughing and talking. The student council which met last Monday night decided that all people guilty of this misdemeanor will receive an automatic campus of one week.

The financial condition of the council was formerly very poor but owing to the excellent management of the present treasurer, Margaret Felton '24, the council is enabled to pay both this and last year's debts.

The question of wasting light was also discussed. The girls have been leaving their lights on during dinner hour, and at other times when they are not in their rooms. This is a very serious offense and those people who have been found guilty have been warned to be more careful about the matter in the future.

SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE PAID FOR CAMPUS REFLECTOR
There are a few subscriptions for the first semester of the "Campus Reflector" which have not been paid. The business department of the "Reflector" is anxious to close up accounts for the first semester and to start the next semester with clean books. They request that all accounts be settled immediately.

SABBATH SCHOOL SERVICE WELL ATTENDED LAST SUN.
The first Sabbath School service of the New Year was attended by more than seventy-five students. The services were in charge of Prof. J. K. Stewart who led the responsive readings and afterwards gave a short outline of the lesson. The closing prayer was offered by Dr. Ezra Lehman.

The marriage of Florence Pearl Ort of Highspire to Rev. Henderson Clugston, of Wheeling, W. Va., has recently been announced. The ceremony was performed on December 24, 1923 at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Washington.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Clugston were graduated from C. V. S. N. S. in 1919. Mrs. Clugston has been teaching in the Shimmel Public school building at Harrisburg for several years. Mr. Clugston is also a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University. He is associated with the Frontier Press Company of Buffalo, New York. At present he is located with the branch house at Wheeling, W. Va.

The Clugstons are spending their honeymoon in Jacksonville and Miami, Florida. They will reside at Wheeling, W. Va.

The Blair County Alumni Association entertained the students from the county who are now at C. V. S. N. S., Saturday, January 5. The reception was held in Caum's Lincoln room at Altoona.

Vera Fritz is in charge of the second grade at Camp Hill. Miss Fritz graduated in 1920.

PHILO PROGRAM OF HIGH LITERARY VALUE

Philo began the year with a literary program which was highly commended by Miss McWilliams the visiting teacher last Friday night in the Training School chapel.

Elsie Shellenberger '25 read an essay entitled "Labor." "Labor is life" was the underlying theme of the essay. Quotations were blended from practically all of our nature poets and as a fitting close to her paper Miss Shellenberger quoted from Browning, "Blessed is the man who has found his work. Let him ask no other blessedness."

Herbert Sheetz '24 gave an oration, "Not on the heights but climbing." Mr. Sheetz used as an illustration the impassible Alps and described in detail the mountaineers, how they climb ever upward, not starting at the heights above but beginning at the bottom and slowly advancing step by step. Napoleon's wonderful declaration, "There shall be no Alps" was perhaps the keynote of the oration.

"Scaramouche" by Sabhatene was reviewed at length by Anna Cluck '24. Andrew Louis, a young scholar determines to avenge the death of his dearest friend at the hands of a wealthy game keeper Marquis De la Tourdee. By the aid of his sweetheart he escapes after attempting to avenge his friend's death. He becomes an actor under the name of "Scaramouche." His death is almost caused by a woman whom he refuses to save from a rat and whom he later learns is his mother. Marquis de la Tourdee turns out to be his father. Although Louis saves his father and mother from the mob he cannot give them his love for they have killed it. He marries his sweetheart but he is never quite happy since he was cheated of his revenge.

A sextette, "O Lovely Night," sung by Mildred Kline '25, Janet Shearer '24, Dorothy Emerick '24, Viola Barnhart '25, Mildred Yingling '25 and Marion Emerick '24 furnished the musical part of the program.

Earl Ryan '26 presented a unique Impromptu Class. The following program was given by the class: How it feels to be the President's daughter Peggy Lehman '25 How the school meals can be made more palatable Louise Swartz '24 Vocal Solo—"Good-bye, my Lover, good-bye Lawrence Fosselman '25 My Opinion of a girl flapper Mary Seiders '24

Herbert Zimmerman '26 edited the Philo Review. The editorial contained some suggestions for the benefit of the society. The theme was, "Is Philo up to Standard?"

QUARTET PLAYS AT CHAPEL EXERCISES LAST TUESDAY

A musical program was given by several members of the faculty who belong to the Music Department of the institution, at the chapel services Tuesday morning. Their first number, "Four Selections" from the musical farce "High Jinks" and the second "Traumeri," Schumann, were played by Miss Alice Einzig, cello; Prof. Slyter, French horn; Prof. Brunner, violin; and Prof. Green, piano. "The Torch Dance" taken from the "Dances of King Henry VIII" and the "Pastoral Dance" dedicated to Nell Gwyn by Edward German ended the music by the quartette. Miss Einzig's cello solo, "La Paloma" completed the program.

INTERESTING TOPIC DRAWS LARGE TURNOUT AT Y. M. C. A.

"Do I depend on others to get through?" was the topic discussed by Raymond Kornbau '24. He used as an example, Apostle Paul. "We cannot depend on others in spiritual life; we must decide for ourselves what path to follow. We must follow the same course in Y. M. C. A. The same applies in classes and all other school activities."

Other members taking part in the discussion were Claire Smith, Wilson Dodd, Sherrick Gilbert, John Miller, William Hudson and Russel Coover.
