

PLANS FOR THE PHILO REUNION NEARLY COMPLETE

Plan for Decoration of Gym and Chapel Have Been Kept in the Dark

MANY GUESTS EXPECTED

Miss Dorothy Wolff, teacher of biology at Wilson College and a graduate of C. V. S. N. S., class of 1913, will act as secretary for the Philo Reunion, Friday, May 2, 1923. Miss Wolff was an active Philomathean while at Normal School and has always taken an interest in the welfare of the society. Since her graduation from C. V. Miss Wolff has attended Randolph Macon school and was graduated from Smith College with honors. Her summers have been spent in research work or at girls' camps.

The plan for this year's Reunion have been completed and those Philomatheans taking part in the program have returned from the Easter vacation refreshed, rested and eager to put the finishing touches to their work. The parts were learned before vacation and all that need be done is the polishing and perfecting of each detail.

Genevieve Mitchell '25 general chairman of the Reunion committee has refused to disclose plans for the decorations for either the gym or the chapel but she has stated that the decorations of both the gym and chapel will coincide. The new curtain for Main chapel will be ready for use April 30.

A large number of alumni have sent in orders for tickets. The tickets will go on sale the early part of next week.

"THE CALL OF THE WILD" WILL BE SHOWN SATURDAY

Picture Is Rich in Human Interest and Excitement

The first entertainment to be given to Shippensburg students after the thirteen day vacation will be the motion picture, "The Call of the Wild" which will be shown in the chapel Saturday evening.

The picture is rich in human interest and excitement and is especially appealing because of its two stars, Frankie Lee, the Juvenile actor and Highland Laddie the talented canine performer. The plot adopted from the book by Jack London, centers around a little puppy lost in the wild who reverts to savagery and becomes the leader of a pack of wolves. However, his higher instincts come to the surface when he becomes the friend and protector of a small child who strays away from his home and loses his way in the woods. The two become inseparable and after the wild dog has saved the child's life and restored him to his friends, the noble animal leaves his forest home to become the little boy's gentle playmate.

In addition to the main picture one reel of scenic film and a two reel comedy will be shown.

At this meeting the sale of ice cream and candy, in the dormitory, was voted upon and decided to be continued throughout the year.

NORMAL LOSES GAME TO MERCERSBURG ACADEMY

Game Was Pitchers' Battle Throughout Contest

Normal broke its winning streak at Mercersburg last Wednesday afternoon when the Academy boys of that place blanked Shippensburg 2-0. It was a well played game and very exciting as the game was not won until the last out was made.

The game was a pitchers' battle throughout the entire game between Pal Smith of Normal and Hadley of Mercersburg. Hadley was touched for two hits and four bases on balls but he struck out ten of the Normal batsmen. "Smithy" gave three bases on balls and allowed five hits while having seven strike outs to his credit.

Shippensburg had several good chances to score but could not get across the hit in the pinch. In the third inning Pal Smith reached first on a single to third base and Angle was given a base on balls but Hadley tightened up, fanning Geedy and Miller to end the inning. Normal had one other bright chance to score but poor base running prevented a run. Angle walked and was sacrificed to second on a pretty bunt by Geedy. In one place Hadley, to keep Angle on second, threw wild allowing the Normal catcher to reach third. Miller then hit a fly to right and Angle had a chance to score after the catch but was not back on the base in time. Line ended the inning by striking out.

Mercersburg scored their initial run in the first inning. Calkins walked and was put on second by Shellenberger's sacrifice. Eldridge then doubled to left field scoring Calkins. French singled to left field but Geedy made a quick throw to Angle, catching Eldridge at the plate.

Mercersburg had a good chance to score in the fifth inning but a fast double play by Blynn and Strike prevented a score. The Academy boys scored their second run in the eighth inning. Eldridge reached first on an error at third base and advanced to second when Line threw out French at first and scored on a passed ball. Smith then fanned Hadley and Witmer to end the inning.

Captain Strike at second featured by his fielding, accepting seven chances. Bob Line and Pal Smith made the only hits off Hadley. For the Academy boys Shellenberger's play at short stop featured.

ILLUSTRATED TALK GIVEN AT SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club met Thursday at 4:15 in the science room. Russell Coover '24, the president, presided. An illustrated talk was given by Prof. Shearer. The slides used for the occasion were made during a trip taken in the Rocky Mountains by a class of science students at the Chicago University. Mr. Shearer was a member of the class.

CONFERENCE HELD AT INDIANA WELL ATTENDED

Students Take Care of Guests; Girls' Glee Club Presents Selection Entitled "Snow"

IMPORTANT TOPICS DISCUSSED

The third annual conference of the Pennsylvania Normal School teachers was held at Indiana Normal School, April 11 and 12. The Conference which was attended by 450 people, was made up of Normal School faculties, trustee members and representatives from the State Department.

One of the notable things of the conference was the courtesy which was shown the guests and the excellent system of taking care of so large a crowd. This was in the hands of the students.

The conference was opened Friday morning by a general program with Dr. Ezra Lehman as presiding officer. The Indiana Girls' Glee Club sang a selection, "Snow" by Elgar.

The consensus of opinion was that the Glee Club selection was a product of careful preparation and excellent training. The address of welcome including the topic, "The Development of Normal Schools in Pennsylvania," was given by the Hon. John S. Fisher of Indiana. Dr. W. C. Bagley, of the Teachers' College of Columbia University, talked on "The Normal Schools, and the Outstanding Problems facing them." The talk resolved itself into the two following points:

1. Problem of financial support on account of the difficulties of procuring appropriations from the state.
2. The curriculum problem.

Rowland of the State Department spoke on "The State Normal Schools as Related to the Commonwealth."

In the evening meeting of the Conference at which Dr. Stranglis presided, the noted speakers were Dr. W. C. Bagley and Dr. Charles H. Judd who spoke on "The Meaning of Expansion in American Education."

A series of group conferences was held by the bursars and deans of institutions who discussed, "What means of Checking Up Absences Have Been Found Satisfactory?" and "Are the Normal Schools able to offer sufficient electives for Group III people?"

In the meeting of the dietitians, Miss McWilliams led the discussion on the "Interdependence of the Administrative and Educational Program." Prof. Harley read a paper on "Evaluating and Rating the work of Student Teachers" at the meeting of Training School and group directors. "Round Table Discussion of Art Instruction in the Summer Schools" was led by Miss Cox at the art conference. Mr. Krebs took an active part in the discussion at the geography conference.

Dr. J. S. Heiges read a paper, "Unifying all the Professionalizing Activities in the Normal School" at the education group conference.

At the Rural School conference, Miss Hannah Keiffer contributed many valuable suggestions. Mr. L. E. Smith presided at the meeting of the extension directors.

The members of the state department who attended the conference were Mr. Haas of the Financial Department, Mr. Glass, Head of the Junior High Schools of Pennsylvania; Dr. Rowland, Head of Normal Schools of State; Mr. Crosby, Asst.; Miss Grasmuck, Head of Geography; Miss Prichard, Head dietitian of the state.

The trustees from Shippensburg were Mr. J. C. Benedict of Waynesboro, and Mr. George Himes of Shippensburg.

C. V. S. N. S. OWNS EIGHT FAMOUS ALABASTER STATUES

Presented by Former Classes of the School

Eight famous alabaster statues are at present resting in the C. V. S. N. S. library, on the upper shelves of the book case. Years ago these statues occupied a place in the art room, but they were later moved to their present resting place for safety.

Dr. Martin, a former principal of the school, was residing here when the first moving took place. He assisted the school in purchasing heavy red draperies, which, when placed in the background, aided in relieving the height at which sculpturing had been placed. The years have removed the rich color from the curtains and the effect is noticeably dull and unattractive.

"Diana of the Chase," the largest of the group, was presented to the Training School by the class of 1910. The Training School was then situated in Main Building. Due to lack of room the statue was placed in the Library at a later date. Since the Training School building has been erected, claims have not been made for possession of the gift.

"The Aphrodite of Molos," better known as the "Venus of Milo," is to the right of "Diana of the Chase." The original is thought, by Furtwangler to be based on a work by Scopas. It was found in 1820 on the island of Melos. It is now in the Louvre, Paris, having been purchased by the French government for 6000 francs.

"The Nike" or "The Winged Victory" is at the left of "Diana of the Chase." The original marble statue is believed to have been set up by Demetrius Poliorcetes to celebrate a naval victory in 306 B. C. It was found by a French consul on the island of Samothrace in B. C. 1863. The statue now may be found in the Louvre, Paris.

"The Apollo Belvedere" is near the "Venus of Milo." Winter and Furtwangler have assigned the original to Leochares, a sculptor of the fourth century. Others have attributed it to Calamis in the fifth century. It is now in the Vatican Gallery, Rome.

"Mercury" is next to the "Winged Victory." He holds in his hand a wand twined with snakes and surrounded by wings. These statues were selected by Miss Irene Huber, Head of the Art Department, when Dr. Eckels was principal of the school. The Library is also in possession of the Horace Mann and Longfellow busts, presented by the classes of 1906 and 1914. The classes were small and the gifts were given in both cases, two years after graduation.

G. A. A. CABINET HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING

The G. A. A. cabinet, at a meeting held Thursday, April 13, decided to present gold basketballs to all the regular girls' varsity and to all subs who played sixteen quarters in interschool games.

A lawn fete to raise money was discussed. This will be the first affair of its kind at this school. Dancing, eats, gay decorations and many attractive booths will be some of the many drawing cards. A committee with Genevieve Mitchell '25, as chairman, was appointed to make definite arrangements.

The question of long projected G. A. A. pins was brought up. Peggy Lehman '26 was appointed to see that definite designs should be decided on.

Louise Swartz '24 was appointed chairman to see about the selling of ice-cream in the dorm after study periods at least one night a week.

RED AND BLUE NINE WILL PLAY KUTZTOWN

Team in Best of Shape for First Normal School Game of Year

GROVE WILL PROBABLY PITCH

The Red and Blue diamond men will play the first Normal School game of the season with the Kutztown Normal nine of Kutztown, on the Eckels field at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow.

The local team is in tip-top shape despite the fact that they have just returned from a ten day leave and played a hard game with Mercersburg on Wednesday.

Coach Ingalls has given his team hard workouts at the plate and in the field during the past few days of practice in order to set them going for tomorrow's tilt. However, there is little anxiety being displayed on the part of the Shippensburgians in regards to the outcome of tomorrow's battle as latest reports show that the visiting nine is of average calibre and it is to be remembered that the Red and Blue nine of '23 completely swamped the Red and Gold lads in both games last season.

Coach Ingalls will use practically the same line-up as he used in the Wednesday game at Mercersburg. Dan Grove will in all probability be the chief moundsman and Dutch Eby will likely hold down the short stop job for Captain Strike's team in tomorrow's game.

SHIPPENSBURG WILL RUN IN PENN RELAY TOMORROW

Contest Will Decide Normal School Championship of Country

The local Normal School sent a squad of five men this morning to hold up Shippensburg in the Penn Relays at Philadelphia. This contest will decide the championship of the normal schools in the United States. The team consisting of Bruce Hockersmith '26, John Harris '25, Jimmy Smith '26, Gordon Winters '27 and Jimmy Swope '24, left school this morning by automobile accompanied by Professors Gilbert and Krebs.

The relay in which Shippensburg competes is event number seventy-eight and is scheduled to begin at 4:30 P. M. Saturday. The local lads were successful in drawing the first position which is the inside track. This should give them a slight lead over their opponents.

About a month ago there were about fifteen men on the squad, but through hard work and heavy competition the squad was narrowed down to the five men mentioned above.

Hockersmith is short but he is fast. He is a product of Shippensburg High and is known to readers of this paper as the Captain of next year's football squad. John Harris is a member of the Junior High Group and hails from Mount Union. Jim Smith is the star of the track squad and has done great things in working out the players. He comes from Woodlawn High School. Winters is a member of the High School Department, but he has shown that he is able to run with the best of them. He came to Shippensburg from Warfordsburg. Jimmy Swope starred at Gettysburg last year where he held his own on the track.

When the season first started the best time that was made was around 4:10 on the mile, but now the mile is placed in 3:54. This is due to the hard workouts of the last week which put the players in a number 1 shape for the ensuing contest.

The runners will return from Philadelphia Sunday. They have taken as their slogan "Beat West Chester."

THE AFTER FEELING

There are just six more weeks until school will close. There are just thirty-five more school days. In fact there isn't that much time when the days that will occur between now and examination time are taken into consideration.

The last official vacation of the year, Easter vacation, has passed into history. The students have all enjoyed the rest. The change from the monotony of school life to the activities of home life has tended to invigorate them with new life.

To be sure it is rather hard to adjust one's self to school regulations after the student has been accustomed to follow the trend of his own inclinations, but the value of the vacation will be evidenced in the time that is taken by students to adjust themselves to school environments.

Yes, there are just six more weeks in which time is procurable for preparing to meet the issues which are aroused by examinations. There are just thirty-five days, days in which the students will find it a good policy to make hay while the sun shines and not delay the gathering of their corps until the few cloudy and overcast days before the fateful examinations. Under the circumstances the advisable thing to do, seems to be an immediate getting down with a will to the matters at hand and not delaying the action until next week.

Then, let's begin to study today and not wait until next week. Let's try to eradicate that old practice of resting a week after vacation before we begin to delve into textbooks again. Let's make that "after feeling" one of a desire to be up and studying and not one of dreaming over the delights of an Easter vacation that are too nice to be gone and also forgotten.

BASEBALL

It is an acknowledged fact that the past football season was not any too successful when it came to counting the number of victories that were chalked up on the C. V. S. N. S. side of the scoreboard. The basketball team did not reap any more laurels than did the football team. Just the same both teams played their best and we are proud of their clean sportsmanship.

Spring has brought yet another Shippensburg team into prominence. It is none other than the baseball team. From all indications we are going to have a team on the diamond this year, that is going to efface all the defeats of the other two seasons.

They announced their existence with a bang, the noise being created by a victory over the Junior varsity of Dickinson. Their second sensation was a victory over Gettysburg Academy.

Does the student body appreciate its representative baseball team? There was a fair sprinkling of students in attendance at the first game. The bleachers were filled with men from town. Surely there could be some way provided that town people could be accommodated, so that the students who do attend the games would not be forced to take to the side lines in order to witness the game.

The adverse weather conditions and the closing of school were not favorable to a large crowd at the second game, but in spite of the few rooters, the team came out of the fray victorious. Is not this fact sufficient to prove the caliber of the 1924 C. V. S. N. S. baseball team?

It has been said that it is useless to expect to see the same high grade of enthusiasm that is displayed at a football or basketball game, on exhibition at a baseball game. Logical reasoning proves the fallacy of this theory.

Why should not the same pep, enthusiasm and school spirit back a school baseball team as any other representative team? Is the significance of a home run any less than that of a touch down?

Considering the fact that the season has not been fairly well launched on its journey for the spring, the school spirit that has been shown has been very creditable, but there is considerable room for improvement. Let's see more students turn out for the games. Let's see some more spectacular demonstrations similar to that of the Shippensburg-West Chester football game. Why can't the band be in attendance? There is nothing like some good peppy music to enliven the players.

We would recommend a lively mass meeting to arouse the student body's interest in its diamond team. It would seem that one-half of the institution doesn't know what victories the other half is winning.

Students of C. V. S. N. S., let's get back of our winning baseball team. Let's show them that we appreciate what they're doing for their Alma Mater by turning out in great numbers for the games.

Varsity Nine Win From Gettysburg Academy

Normal won from Gettysburg Academy Wednesday afternoon, April 9, by the score of 3-1. The victory gave Shippensburg revenge for the defeat they suffered at the hands of the Prep School boys during basketball season and also made the second straight victory of the season.

The game was played in a drizzling rain and had to be called at the end of six and one-half innings due to the muddy field. Normal won easier than the score would indicate as Gettysburg was unable to bunch their hits from Smith and Grove who twirled for Shippensburg.

Thomas, pitching for the Academy boys, allowed the Red and Blue only three hits, but poor support by his teammates and his wildness paved the way to his downfall.

Shippensburg gathered their three runs in the second inning which proved to be enough to bring victory. Line was put on second base when he hit to Marley who threw wild to first. Chet Miller immediately scored Line with a sharp single to center field and finally rested on second base after the throw to catch Line at home.

Blynn was put away on strikes, but Strike was hit with a pitched ball and Bailey worked Thomas for a pass filling the bases. Smith also obtained a base on balls from Thomas forcing Miller across the plate. Strike scored the third run of the inning when Angle dropped a hit over second. Geedy and Swope fled out ending the inning. Normal had several other chances to score but could not hit Thomas who was master except in the fateful second inning.

Gettysburg scored their lone run in the fifth inning after two men were out. Dietz was given a free pass by Smith and Deam doubled over Blynn's head in left scoring Dietz. Deam was thrown out for stealing thus ending the inning and the scoring of the day.

Pal Smith and Danny Grove pitched good ball for C. V. S. N. S. but were a trifle wild owing to the weather and the wet ball. Nine strikeout victims were registered and six hits allowed by this pair of twirlers. Deam of Gettysburg was an individual star with three hits.

Shippensburg's hitting was weak as only three hits were made. Chet Miller played his first game, leading with two hits while the other hit was made by Angle. Miller also played a perfect game at first base. Jimmy Swope produced the fielding feature with a running catch in deep center.

NOVEL STUNT HIKE TOMORROW MORNING

Something new in hikes will be staged tomorrow morning after study period when the local co-eds will participate in a stunt hike.

Every hiker will take part. Each class will provide such stunts as will test the wits and originality of those participating. Close competition will add spice to the hike. Louise Swartz '24 with her committee from each class is anxious that a great many girls come out to support their classes and have some good wholesome fun.

Absence makes the heart grow fonder—of staying away.

The link that bound the last day before vacation to the first day following it was also the sign which proved we had really returned—apricots.

Southern folk melodies recall various experiences to different people. Some people think of home scenes, but others turn their thoughts to muddy road beds.

Some vacations seem to have been spent becoming acquainted with home communities, some with school directors, and some in making necessary a complete rest after the vacation.

Watch your step. You may be serving as the hero for a Junior's drama!

"If winter comes," does it ever leave?

A true test of bravery—attempting to sing "Home Sweet Home" to any group of people here last Monday night.

We are advised that in China the people work from twelve to eighteen hours a day. At last we can understand how Mah Jong came to be considered a game. Kansas Legionaire.

We were all gratified to find we could get more light on many subjects as we passed through main corridor after vacation.

HOME TEAM DEFEATS DICKINSON JUNIOR VARSITY

The Normal nine won the initial game of the season, played with Dickinson Jr. varsity, to the tune of 8 to 6.

Pal Smith and Lefty Grove held up the pitching end of the game for C. V. S. N. S. Both these lads are graduates of the local high school and pitched stellar ball for that school. Smith pitched five innings and covered five strike-outs, allowed the three passes and hit one man. The visitors collected six hits while he was in the box. Grove, in the last four innings, fanned six and allowed only one pass and three hits. Joseph who twirled for Dickinson was credited with four strike outs, five passes and allowed twelve hits. Line was the individual star of the game having four hits out of five times to bat.

The Dickinson nine started the fire-works in the second inning with four runs. The first two men, Bratway and Rottschild, were presented bases by Smith and scored on Wagner's triple. Joseph then laced out a pretty double, scoring Wagner. The scoring ended for that half of the inning when Joseph scored on Milligan's single.

The local lads however tied up the score in their half of the inning. Swope started out with a double. Blynn advanced him a base and Hamil was handed a walk, filling the sack. Joseph blew up and passed Paul Smith, forcing Swope home. The remaining bases scored on Geedy's single and Line's double.

The visitors forged ahead in the third and Rottschild came in with their fifth run, but the local nine forged ahead and fought well when they covered two tallies. Angle was given a pass and advanced to second on Line's single. On the first ball pitched the base runners successfully tried to double Steel. They scored on Swope's single. The local lads again pushed over a run when Hamil's single reached second and landed home on Paul Smith's single.

In the seventh they practically sealed up the game, when Geedy singled, stole second and crossed the plate on Line's single. Swope drew a base on balls but it was of no avail as neither runner advanced to another base.

The visitors staged a comeback in the last inning but it was not strong enough to overcome the lead which the local lads had over them. Weisse singled and advanced to second when Kreider was passed. He saved Dickinson's last tally on Lohlsback's single, thus closing the ninth inning.

In the midst of the fountain of wit there arises something bitter which stings in the very flowers.

Once again
Vacation is o'er
And then again
To our books once more.
Among their contents.
We again pour
The midnight oil
Till our eyes are sore.
Over work forget
We pace the floor
From the busy desk
Across to the door.
To lessen the work
We do implore.
We plead in vain
Our pleas they ignore.

It doesn't seem to be considered the proper method of procedure here at present unless you have two or more important meetings scheduled for the same time.

Some people contend they reflect a lot, but wouldn't take the responsibility for the consequences if their thoughts appeared in print.

We wonder why the men from the dormitory went to bed at 8:30 Tuesday night!

PHILO'S PRE-EASTER PROGRAM IS A LITERARY ONE

Society spirit passes into the background in form of school spirit at Philo Society when Ruth Frank a representative from Normal Literary Society brought the message that Normal had given a rising vote of their confidence in the ability of the Normal and Philo teams to win the inter-school debate. Similar action was then taken by Philo Society.

The program was largely a literary one for there were only two musical numbers on the program—a piano solo "Gopak" played by Julia Hargleroad '25 and a sextette directed by Ruth Hampshire. The sextette made up of Miss Hampshire, Mildred Yingling, Ethel Warfel, Lola Pleasant and Marian Emerick, sang "One Fleeting Hour."

George Meredith gave a resume of the history of the middle ages, emphasizing especially the spirit of individualism characteristics of the period.

Phillipus Mosescu '26 delivered an oration on "War." The theme of his talk was the honor of war as a means of settling disputes. He dwelt on the terrible characteristics necessary to a good soldier and he pointed out the barbarism of civilized nations contending in war like activities.

Josephine Demmy '24 gave a discussion on "What We Owe to Virginia." She contrasted Massachusetts, long considered the mother colony, with Virginia which was actually settled before New England and brought out how much Virginia has contributed in ideals, principles of government and great men.

Mary Rank '24 editor of Philo Review read the paper to the audience. The Review contained a timely editorial censoring the inmates of the dormitory who are guilty of making the Campus a dumping ground for all sorts of refuse.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING SUNDAY EVENING

"What Am I Worth?" will be the subject of the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday evening. Walker Nelson '24 will be the leader. All the members of the "Y" are urged to be present and make this the best meeting of the year.

After the regular meeting the "Y" Cabinet will be elected for next year.

The last meeting before the Easter vacation was led by Corbin Pennington who gave a very interesting talk on "The Peril of Uselessness."

PHILO RECEIVES UNANIMOUS DECISION FROM JUDGES

Philo Literary Society won a unanimous victory from the Moore Society of West Chester Normal School, Saturday evening, April 5. The question of debate was: "Resolved, That the 3% immigration law should continue in effect."

The affirmative side which was upheld by Shippensburg was treated in practically the same manner that it was treated in the Inter-Society debate. The Moores used the following outline in their debate:

1. The law is defective.
2. It served its purpose and is now useless.
3. A new plan is presented to take the place of the old law.

After the debate the debaters, judges, and their guests were entertained at a luncheon in the dining room. The tables formed a horseshoe and were decorated with jonquils and smilax. The favors were decorated eggs which were made by the Arts and Crafts Club.

The judges for the debate were Prof. J. J. Brehm, Principal of Camp Curtin High School, Harrisburg, Pa.; Rev. McCallister of the Presbyterian Church of Chambersburg, Pa.; Dr. Conise, Greencastle Presbyterian Church, Greencastle, Pa.

The debaters were, Moore Society—Miss Marguerite Knoll, Mr. Henry Brinton and Mr. Huntzinger; Philo—Helen Miller '25, Margaret Lehman '26, Clair Smith '24 and Reba Shue '24, alternate.

Truly there is a tide in the affairs of men, but there is no gulf stream settling forever in one direction.

The length of the speeches in the regular debate was 12 minutes for each of the three speakers; 5 minutes rebuttal was allowed for two speakers from each side and an intermission of 5 minutes was given between the regular debate and the rebuttal. The judges based their decision on the excellence of the debate. No consultation of the judges was permitted and all applause during the debate was prohibited.

The visiting team showed a fine spirit and proved conclusively that they were good losers. The old C. V. S. N. S. spirit was in evidence thruout the whole debate and the team reports a pleasant trip. The spirit of the Millersville team was also praised by the visitors.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING WAS WELL ATTENDED SUNDAY APRIL 6

The weekly Sunday evening Y. W. C. A. meeting was held in the court of the Girls' Dormitory, April 6, with Ethel Warfel '24 as leader. A pantomime "Rock of Ages" was interpreted by Guyda Stine. Ethel McCormick was the soloist.

An appeal for old discarded clothing was made by the Y. W. The clothing will be sent to Europe. The price of clothing there is far beyond the slender means of either students or professors. The clothing will reach the needy through The Student Friendship Fund.

RUTH FRANK IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NORMAL

Normal Society broke a precedent at its meeting Friday, April 4, when it elected Ruth Frank '25 president. Miss Frank is the first girl who has ever held this office in the history of either of the literary societies. The other officers elected are: Vice-President, Clermont Smith, '25; Secretary, Florence White '24, and Critic, Pearl Witmer, '24.

The question "Resolved, That the World War Veterans Should Receive Bonus," was debated. Wilson Dodd '24 and Ward Houck '24 argued affirmatively that a bonus was morally right, was desirable, was a matter of simple justice and that the debt was acknowledged by the country and that its payment was promised. Providing that public sentiment is against the bonus, that it would be economical, that it is being used for political gain and that adequate compensation has already been provided for, the negative upheld by William Parthemer '25 and Clarence Flickinger '24, received the favor of the judges, who voted negatively. The vote of the house, however was in the favor of the affirmative.

The special feature was given by Elizabeth Snyder '24 represented in dialogue and pantomime the titles of dime novels. Some were "Parted at the Altar," "From the Depths," "Darkness and Daylight," "The Hidden Hand," "Ashes of Love," "Beauty That Fades," "The Bride's Fate" and "The Noble Lord," were portrayed.

COLLEGE STUDENTS PLAN FOR SUMMER CAMP

Students from all over the country are co-operating with the National Student Forum in maintaining an inter-collegiate camp at Woodstock, New York, from July 1 to September 17. The purpose of the camp is to give students an opportunity to meet the intellectual leaders of the country. Owing to the limited accommodations of the camp, delegations from any one college are not to number more than eight.

TRAINING SCHOOL BOYS MAKE TRACK HURDLES
 The boys of the Training School have been co-operating with the Normal School's track team. They made thirty hurdles for the team's use. The boys, under the supervision of members of the student teaching body and Prof. D. I. Houck, have worked consistently on the finished product. The thirty hurdles have proved to be an asset to the track team since they provided a means of practicing this type of event which would have been otherwise impossible. The track team appreciates the kindness and co-operation of the Training School boys and they have requested that their appreciation of the deed be conveyed to the boys through the medium of the "Campus Reflector."

EARLY MORNING HIKE PROVES TO BE POPULAR
 An excited, boisterous, but none too keen eyed pack of "dogs" followed the trail blazed by the "hares" at 6:00 Saturday morning, April 15.
 A crowd of Seniors led by Miss Robb started at 5:30 to select the path for the "hounds" who, chaperoned by Miss Hefferman, followed a half hour later. The direction posted and the messages left were not found. The discouraged hounds, after circling around Shippensburg, came back to their starting place to follow another path. They were discouraged when, after about a quarter of a mile hike down the railroad tracks, they were ordered to cut across fields to the road back of the gym because no trace of the Seniors could be found.
 The Seniors were disappointed at the failure of the "hounds" to find the trail. They led the Juniors to a hill where all the stunts posted on the trail were performed.
 The stunts included a rolling match, an elephant trainer's demonstration, a Greek dance, a tug of war, and a limerick contest.
 After the contests the "hares" and "hounds" went happily home together none the worse for their early hike and vehement exertion.

REV. EMMERT SPEAKS AT WEEKLY PRAYER SERVICE
 Rev. Emmert of the Church of the Brethren spoke at the weekly prayer service held Wednesday evening in the Chapel.
 Rev. Emmert said that many of the students leaving this school in the near future will have to determine their destination by choosing the silver side of the clouds or the opposite side.
 He then went on to say that only those on the silver side know God. If the students are on the right side, they will notice around them God's manifestation of beauty, but if they loose the blessedness of its presents, they are on the wrong side of the cloud. The only thing that will help them to find this relationship with God is the influence from Mother's Book and Mother's God.
 As a closing remark, Rev. Emmert said, "The thought I wish to leave with you this evening is this: Work on the side of the cloud where God's glory shines."

PHI NU DELTA HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS
 The Phi Nu Delta debating fraternity held a meeting Tuesday night to discuss plans of organization. Mr. Pennington reported the results of his conference with other normal school teachers at Indiana Normal School. The report was a favorable one. The teachers favor the idea of joining such a fraternity. Temporary officers were elected until such time as the other Normal schools can meet at some common point for the initiation and election of state officers. The temporary officers are as follows:
 Pres.—Helen Miller '25.
 Sec.—Reba Shue '24.
 Letters will be sent immediately to West Chester and Millersville to try to set a date for meeting of the three normal schools at some common point.
 Miss Bragg told the fraternity of some debating material published by the H. Wilson company which would be invaluable to debaters. The fraternity is making an effort to have this material installed in the Library.
