WE ARE BACKING THE TEAM AT WEST CHESTER

CUMBERLAND VALLEY STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

SHIPPENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 2, 1924

VOL. II. No. 25.

C. V. S. N. S. SENDS FIRST TEAM TO PENN RELAYS

West Chester Wins Normal School Championship

The Golden Moment for the track team-the departure for the Penn relays, finally arrived after many weeks of training on the country roads and Eckels' Field. The Normal representatives under an elimination process were cut down to six men only five of whom went on the trip. Calder Geedy, one of the runners solved the problem quite by accident. During practice one afternoon Geedy was tripped and tore several ligaments in his knee.

Friday morning at six o'clock, Prof Gilbert, James Swope '24, John Harris '25, Gordon Winters '27, Bruce Hockersmith '26 and James P. Smith '26, left school in Mr. Collicott's car headed for Philadelphia. The trip was made in fine time and the team was in time to witness the Penthahlon Championship of America and the Championship High School and Grammar School Relays. The team had the privilege of meeting and talking to Charles West of W. and J. the winner of the Penthathlon for the second consecutive year. He also gave Hockersmith definite advice on how to run his race in the relay.

Friday night the team stayed at Hatch Normandie with a great number of other athletes from many schools and colleges.

On Saturday at 12:30 prompt, College Events were started and continued till 6 o'clock. The regularity of the events deserve great credit. Every event had its place and time.

One of the members of C. V. team said when asked what he thought of the meet, "It was wonderful. I wish I could be like one of them."

When event number 78 at 4:37 Saturday was announced the Normal School lined up awaiting the starting gun. The Red and Blue runners had the pole position but it proved to a disadvantage as the West Chester man jumped into it while Swope was handicapped a yard with other runners who jumped the gun.

Saturday evening after a hard ride the team returned to school content that they had performed as best they could.

PHILO PROGRAM READY FOR PRESENTATION Scenes to Coincide with Modern Fad;

Numbers Announced GLEE CLUB IN COSTUMES

The Philomathean Reunion program, coinciding with a modern fad, is ready for presentation. Decorations are complete in every detail and under the guidance of the faculty advisors, Miss Edna Arnold and Mrs. Harriet Wylie Stewart, and Prof. L. C. Krebbs, Philo is ready to present one of the best Reunion programs ever given at C. V. S. N. S.

Herbert Sheets '24 will deliver the oration of the evening. Prof. Pennington has been coaching the oration and a splendid number is predicted. The Glee Club under the direction of Miss Margaretta Snow '24, will sing an unusual and difficult number. For the first time in the history of the society, the glee club, will make its appearance in costume. Prof. David O. Slyter, head of the music department, has aided greatly in the training for this musical number.

Other m numbers will be a s Julia Hargleroad piano solo y Myrtle Eshelman '25, a vocal '24, and a viol solo by Harold Neusbaum '26. These numbers have been prepared with great care and careful coaching has been given by members of the music department. Wallis McKendree '25, John Harris '25, and Sara Rider '24, will present a reading. Miss Carrie Belle Parks has been in charge of this number which will disclose an entirely different type of entertainment from the usual reading.

The dance, directed and coached by Miss Claudia Robb, will further carry out the program as a whole. The dancers are Mildred Kline '25, Mary Edwards '25, Sophia Reiter '24, Sara Margaret Hawthorne '25, Ethel Warfel, '24, Genevieve Mitchell '25, with Mildred Brenneman '24 as alternate. They, too, will appear in unusually clever costumes, in keeping with the decorations.

Harry Wolfe '25 will be the leading man in Philo's play this year and Lola Pheasant '25 will appear as leading lady. Other members of the cast are, Martha Light '25, Helen Maxheimer '25, Corbin Pennington '24, Walker Nelson '24, and John Miller'

RESOLUTIONS ON REV. LEHMAN'S DEATH

Since the father of our principal has been called from his earthly to his heavenly home, and since we, the members of the faculty, sorrow with Dr. Lehman in his loss: We hereby extend to him our heartfelt sympathy in his grief, our reverent admiration for the precious memory of a saintly life brought to a bountiful harvest through holy living, and our prayers that the Father of all mercies may comfort and bless the family and turn their mourning into rejoicing.

M. Irene Huber, Carrie Belle Parks, L. E. Smith,

Committee of Faculty.

Whereas, God in His all wise providence has seen fit to remove to his heavely home, the father of our honored principal, the students of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved: That we bow in humble submission to His will.

Resolved: That the church militant has been deprived of a sincere and faithful minister.

Resolved: That his family has lost a devoted husband and loving father. Resolved: That we extend our most hearfelt sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Resolved: That we profit by the life he has lived on each by endeavoring to uphold those ideals which he sponsored.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy printed in the "Campus Reflector.'

NORMAL WINS THIRD BASE BALL VICTORY Kutztown Players Far Outplayed by Ingalls' Men

C. V. MEN SHOW GOOD FORM

Normal won her third victory of the season Saturday by overwhelming the team from Kutztown Normal School by a score of 19-3. Normal's avalanche of hits completely overpowered her opponents. A total of seventeen hits was registered, one of which was a home run by Bob Line.

Line's home run came in the first inning after Geedy had reached first base on an error by Runyon and Miller was given a free pass. The hit was a hard line drive which rolled to the fence in deep right field and scored Geedy and Miller ahead of him. Normal was not satisfied with these three runs and scored three more before the first inning was over. Ebv singled through the infield and Harry Smith tripled into center field scoring Eby. Strike's two base blow brought in Smith, making a total of six runs for the initial frame.

In the third inning Shippensburg added three more tallies on three hits and a base on balls. Eby singled and Harry Smith was walked. Each runner advanced a base when Love threw out Blynn at first and they crossed the home plate when Strike singled to left. Grove singled but Strike was thrown out at second. Angle scored Grove with a single over second.

Two more runs were added in the fifth and another in the sixth mainly due to Kutztown errors. In the seventh inning Normal bats were working again and scored four more runs on hits by Miller, Line and Angle, coupled with two more Kutztown errors. In the ninth inning singled by Strike, Grove and Geedy and a pass to Angle, C. V. S. N. S. netted three more runs.

Danny Grove, Normal's left-hand twirler pitched the entire game for Shippensburg and was never in danger. Grove toyed with the Kutztown batsmen and did not need to extend himself to retire the side. He registered thirteen strike outs from the hitters from the Keystone State Normal and allowed but six hits.

Every Shippensburg player found Shaeffer's delivery easy to solve. Each player who played the full nine innings for Normal made at least one

TRACK AND FIELD DAY WILL BE HELD ON MAY TENTH

Representatives of Three Counties Will Run

The first annual Track and Field Day of Shippensburg Normal will be sponsored by the track team on May 10. The meet is opened to schools of three surrounding counties.

The meet will give each school a chance for competition against schools of each of the three counties. There will be two classes namely, class A and class B.

The arrangements for the meet have been placed in the hands of committees under the direction of Prof. L. C. Krebbs, faculty manager of athletics; Prof. L. Gilbert, faculty manager of track, John Baker '26, student manager of track, and James P. Smith, track coach. They have asked Dr. Lehman to act as honorary judge of the meet.

The meet will start promptly and announcers McKendree and McCurdy will see that every event is run off on time. The schools' representatives not on time will be taken off the list. The election of committees for Field Day are:

Committee of awards-County Superintendents, Jacoby, Finafrock, and Shank.

Timers-Dr. Heiges, Prof. Shearer, and Prof. Krebbs.

Inspectors- William Parthemore '25, Claude Mellott '26, Clair Deardorf '25, Adam Hoover '26.

Announcers-McKendree and Mc-Curdy.

Clerks of Course-Bruce Hockersmith, chairman; Sherrick Gilbert, Griff Jones.

Marshals-Patterson, Coleman, and Hill.

Field judges-Prof. Pennington, John Harris, Jesse Klock, Robert Gingrick.

Scorers-Prof. Gilbert, C. Shuler, G. Jones, and S. Gilbert.

Official referee and starter-James Smith.

A list of the events will be posted later.

The schools entering the contest are: Class A-Carlisle, Shippensburg Normal High, Chambersburg, Greencastel, and Scotland Orphanage.

Class B-Lemaster, Biglerville, St. Thomas, Fannettsburg, Washington Heights.

RED AND BLUE NINE CLASHES WITH WEST CHESTER RIVALS

Final Effort to Defeat Opponents in Baseball Before Close of Sport Season

Tomorrow at Wayne Field, West Chester, the Normal baseball team will play the fast Normal School nine of West Chester.

Coach Ingalls' team has been hard at practice this week and are getting into their stride with ease now. The positions are all filled and the men have proved their ability against several strong teams.

A fine start was made in Normal's series by beating Kutztown and the team hopes to continue its good record by cleaning up West Chester.

So far during the baseball season the Blue and White have excelled the Shippensburgians so tomorrow's game will be a battle for supremacy.

The team will make the trip by auto in order to return in time for the Philo Reunion dance, Saturday evening. The game will be called at one o'clock so that the boys can make an early start for home.

The men making the trip will probably be: Capt. Strike, Angle, P. Smith, Grove, C. Miller, Eby, Line, Swope, H. Smith, Blynn, Geedy and The entire committee is vouching for Flaherty, Kathyleen Gibbons and Mir- Kutztown 0 0 0 1 2 0 0 0 0-3 A. S. Lehman, Chambersburg and Hamil. . . .

gressed under the coaching of Miss Edna Arnold and an especially fine presentation is to be expected. The school orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Slyter, will play a prelude to introduce the regular program.

The new theatrical curtains have arrived and were put up the beginning of the wee.k They add greatly to the appearance of the stage and will harmonize with the general decorative scheme to be carried out by Philo for the Reunion program.

Many alumni will be present on Friday night and it is expected that a large number will stay over for the dance on Saturday evening.

NORMAL REUNION PLANS NEARING COMPLETION

Plans for the Normal Reunion, to be held Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24 are rapidly nearing completion. William Hudson '25 is in charge of all the arrangements. He is being assisted by a general committee composed of Ethel McCormick '24, Effie Wynn '24, Clifford Smith '25, and Russell Coover '25.

Miss McCormick has charge of the gymnasium and has promised some- ner of the class of '22; and Caroline thing novel in the way of decorations. Cox, Mary Etta Hauch, Cassandra the "best possible" orchestra.

HONORAY MEMBER OF CLUB The Altoona Alumni of Shippensburg Normal School of 1921, '22 and '23, have formed a Shippensburg Girls' Club for the purpose of keeping alive old memories of their Alma Mater. The organization also wishes to do something beneficial for the school.

The girls have selected Mrs. H. Wylie Stewart, Head of the History Department of the school, as an honorary member of the organization. Mrs. Stewart has been a member of C. V.'s faculty for the past eighteen years and has been identified with practically every organization in the school. She is an advisor of the Y. W. C. A., Philo Literary Society, and is one of the organizers of the pageant which marked the 50th anniversary of the school. Mrs. Stewart is also well known in Shippensburg and the surrounding community for her social work.

The members of the alumni who are in the club are: Josephine Selling, Grace Smith, Pauline Gibbon, Rose Laratondi of the class of '21; Kathryn Kinzer, Esther Smith Gresh, Hazel Todd, Clara Steners, and Cloe Coniam Aurandt of the class of '23.

HOME IN STOUFFERSTOWN Rev. Jacob S. Lehman, the father of Dr. Lehman, the principal of the school, died at his home in Stoufferstown, near Chambersburg on Wednesday afternoon, April 30, after a lingering illness due to the infirmities of old age. He was born in Guilford Township, Franklin County January 22, 1835 and was educated in the schools of that county and at Mt. Morris, (Ill.) Seminary.

He taught for ten years in the public schools of his native county and was ordained as a minister of the Reformed Mennonite Church in 1861 and twelve years later became a Bishop in that denomination. He was active in the work of that position for more than fifty years. He traveled widely and visited nearly every state in the United States in the interest of his church. He also spent considerable time in Canada and the Northwest Territory.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Stouffer Lehman and the following children: Ezra Lehman, principal of the Shippensburg Normal School, Frank Lehman a practicing physician in Bristol, Pa. and Margaret Lehman residing at home. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: C. C. Lehman, New Franklin, Shippensburg 6 0 3 0 2 1 4 3 x-19 Mrs. Leah Stoner, Stoufferstown.

THE CONDITION OF THE CAMPUS

The fuse has been lighted, but all it does is splutter. It seems as though the fire would never reach the powder and cause the desired explosion.

From time to time, attention has been called to the litering of the Campus with waste paper. Fiery editorials have appeared in Society papers severely censoring the students for throwing refuse matter on this, the school's show place. The students have talked the subject over among themselves and surely the faculty has not failed to observed it and comment upon it.

The grass plots under the front windows of the Girls' Dormitory are unsightly with the paper, rags and other rubbish that the girls have thrown out of the Dormitory windows. The Campus is just beginning to don its festive green spring costume and the obnoxious sight under the Dormitory windows is not conducive to the kind of appearance that we want our Campus to boast of.

It is nothing less than rude thoughtlessness on the part of the girls. It stands to reason that they would not heedfully make a public dumping ground out of the Campus that they are so proul of, but each girl has not realized her sense of responsibility. She has not thought that by throwing a piece of paper, some orange peel, or an old rag out the window instead of into the waste paper basket, she has added to the distasteful aspect of the Campus. It is the carelessnes of the individual that is calling down a reprimand upon the mass of the student body.

It is a decided black mark on the slate of the Girls' Dorm, since the ground under the windows of the Boys' Dorm presents a respectable semblance. If the boys can realize the significance of the disreputable practice of using the Campus for a waste paper basket, it is about time that the girls be brought to the appreciation of the fact.

Not only do they use the front Campus for a dumping ground, but they have also transgressed upon the sanctity of the ground at the back of the Girls' Dormitory. It is even more littered than the front Campus. It is safe to say that the rubbish is at least several feet deep.

Every spring this section of the school property is cleaned and regularily every year the condition is the same. We ask-what is the use of the annual spring cleaning, if the students do not take the hint and refrain from mistaking the Campus for a refuse barrel?

After the cleaning last year, a request was made that no more rubbish be thrown out the windows, but the students seem to thing that the request was what the Kaiser said a treaty was-a mere matter of words or a scrap of paper. Surely the girls realize the responsibility of a good citizen. If they do not, it is time that they are taught the code of ethics that a good citizen obeys. The time for requesting is past. The time for action has

CHANGE ORDER IN MOTION PICTURE ENTERTAINMENT

A surprise was in store for those who attended the movies Saturday night, for instead of "The Call of the Wild" which had been advertised, "The County Fair" was the main picture of the evening. The reason for the change was that a mistake had been made in the shipment of the film. The cast included Helen Jerome, Eddy and Wesley Barry. The picture was an artistic handling of the old plot-a mortgage about to be foreclosed and the timely arrival of sufficient money to pay it. An elderly lady and her ward were about to be put out of their home by a crafty lawyer and his son. However, a tramp befriended by the unfortunate women and their hired man proved to be an ex-jockey and a connoisseur of horses insisted that the horsea pet of the family-would be an excellent racer. They entered the horse in a race for a thousand dollar purse at the county fair. He was beaten by an animal belonging to the lawyer, but it was discovered that the lawyer had used a trick saddle which had given the horse an electric shock so "Cold Molasses" was declared the winner. The picture ended happily for not only was the mortgage paid but two couples were happily married and the villain put to flight.

A Charlie Chaplain comedy and a scenic film showing the grandeurs of the Grand Canon completed the entertainment.

CLEAN-UP DAY ON THE CAMPUS

The Girls' Student Council met Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock. It was decided to hold a "clean-up day" Wednesday, April 30. The cleaning will take place on the Campus. Each floor chairman has been authorized to appoint several girls to appear during vacant periods on the ground surrounding the school for the purpose of ridding the Campus of unnecessary material carelessly placed there by the students.

PLANS FOR ALUMNI DAY UNDERWAY

Plans for Alumni Day which will be held Tuesday, June 10, are underway. The program is as follows: Forenoon _____ Class Day Exercises Afternoon-Alumni Procession and Exercises Baseball game.

Evening _____ Historical Pageant Alumni Dance

Definite arrangements for the different affairs have not as yet been made.

WESTINGHOUSE STAR TURNS OUT TO BE A PLANET

There has been much discussion on the Campus and in the Dormitories to the effect that the planet seen in ard, W. Va. Mr. Mehring was gradthe evening sky is a light sent out by uated from C. V. S. N. S. in February the Westinghouse Company at Pittsburgh. In an interview with Mr. Shearer, Head of the Science Department regarding the question of the "Westinghouse Star," it was explained that the evening star is the planet Venus. Mr. Shearer explained that if this luminary were sent out as suggested, it would occupy the same relative position each evening. Mr. Shearer has found by studying the body in relation to the stars near it that each evening it is farther from the western horizon which indicates its movement in its orbit. Since the Christmas season the planet has progressed from a point low in the western horizon to one relatively high.

Mr. Shearer makes the following comparison of stars and planets: ration Building is rapidly nearing "Planets are really worlds which derive their heat and light from the sun. Stars are heavenly bodies like our sun with their own planets, no doubt, about them. Our planets shine with a steady luster while our stars, because of the distance from the earth, seem to twinkle. Stars are so much discussion.

We wonder what happened during . Tuesday night to the many resolutions to get up early to play tennis. The rain wasn't even kind enough to intervene and make it right.

One engraver's cut causes as much trouble for some faculty members as a student has taking account of three class cuts.

There are two important elements in combatting a mountain fire, boys. Locate the fire and then get to it.

Student guides thru the "improved" sections of C. V. S. N. S. as they point out the changes to the Alumni this week-end will please pay strict attention to the traffic rules.

Some Campus organization acting upon a remark of Friday night, will no doubt in the near future feel called upon to appoint an official crape hanger.

"The soul of music hath pervaded" -both literary societies apparently.

Now that the tennis season has come, and important plays and Commencement speeches will require early morning practicing, some agency might find it a paying proposition to rent alarm clocks.

There's nothing like giving everybody a fair chance to take part in athletics. Consult the Reserve Baseball Team.

PROF. HARLEY CONDUCTS MID-WEEK PRAYER MEETING

Professor Harley led the prayer meeting services Wednesday evening. Rev. Lobb of the Church of God was the speaker of the evening.

Rev. Lobb chose as his subject of his address, "Fight the good fight of Faith." He brought out that "we must fight if we would reign, but we must fight in a good cause." Rev. Lobb also compared the Christian to the soldier in the need of fighting. In the address, the speaker followed the outline given here: 1. Self-denial :

arrived.

The present condition of the Campus not only detracts from the natural beauty of the school, but it is a very unsanitary condition. This does not apply so much to the front Campus as it does to the back. It is here that the greater amount of decaying grape fruit shells is found.

The front Campus is one of the best advertisements that a school can have. Chance visitors are sure to remember the Campus after they have forgotten all else about the school. People passing in the trains can only see the Campus and thus it is by our Campus that we are known.

The C. V. S. N. S. Campus is too pretty a one to be disfigured as it is at present. It is time that the lighted fuse of school opinion be fanned until the fire reaches the powder of student action so that the resulting explosion will abolish the practice of throwing waste matter on the Campus.

Since cities have certain times set aside as clean up days and we are a community, why can't we have a time set aside wherein the Campus might be made beautiful by removing the waste material?

It has been proved that the students through force of habit continue to follow the practice, so therefore it is suggested that some punishment be meted out to those students who are found throwing rubbish either on the front Campus or the back.

Students of C. V. S. N. S. let's band ourselves together to obliterate the practice and form a league to keep our Campus clean and beautiful.

"CAMPUS REFLECTOR" OFFICE IS MOVED TO NEW WING

The "Campus Reflector" moved to its new office last Monday afternoon. The staff has been given a new room which was especially made for the use of the "Campus Reflector" staff. The walls are cream colored and the wood work is oak. There are two large lights in the center of the room and the floor is made of hard wood.

For the last three months the "Reflector" staff worked in cramped quarters among disagreeable surroundings, but now, the environment is pleasant and the new staff will have comfortable working quarters.

DECLAMATION CONTEST WILL BE HELD SOON

The annual declamation contest will be held in the Training School Chapel, Thursday, May 8, at 4:15. Any student of the school may be a participant in this contest.

The new officers for Normal Literary Society were installed last Friday evening. Ruth Frank '25, the new president, outlined the plan of' work which is to be used during her term of office. Miss Frank stated that promptness would characterize all the work atempted by the administration. The problems of selective membership, regular attendance, and a debating committee were presented to the society. Solutions for these problems are to be found within the next month.

A special musical number was arranged by Catherine Lehr '24. The stage was converted into a garden by means of palms and ferns. Lydia Andrews '25' and Clifford Smith '25 acted in pantomime the following songs: "An Old Fashioned Garden;" "Love's Old Sweet Song;" "Seeing Nellie Home;" "Farewell to Thee." . The Normal Quartette sang "Welcome Sweet Springtime" by Ruben-The band played "Valse Brilstein. liante" by Chopin.

The Gazette was edited by Harry Gardner '25, who used, political and educational news, school events, poetry and jokes in making up the society paper.

SHORT STORY CONTEST WILL CLOSE IN JUNE

The annual short story contest for the prize of books, given by Mrs. Myrtle Mayberry Stough, will close about June first, the date when all the manuscripts must be in the hands of the English department.

The rules of the contest will be the same as last year and an attempt is being made to secure the same judges. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper, and signed with a fictitious name. The author's real name is to be placed in a sealed envelope and handed in with the manuscript. All stories are to be original.

A more detailed account of the rules governing the contest will appear in a later issue.

WALKER NELSON IS LEADER OF Y. M. C. A. MEETING "What am I worth," was the subject of Y: Memeeting Sunday evening. The leader for the evening was Walker Nelson '24.

Mr. Nelson discussed the subject under the following phases: What am I worth in my home, in my home community, to my fellow man and to my God? Under the first topic he have appeared in musical numbers be-showed the place of the home in his fore and they have always been ennational life, our part in the home contribution, and the duty to our parents. "Many of our great men attribute their worth to their mothers or fathers" stated Mr. Nelson. The value of each student in the community was brought out by showing just what the community expected of the individual.

Mr. Nelson asked the question, 'Are we making our associates better men?" He further stated that we are a part of all those we meet. When discussing the last part of the subject, "What am I worth to my Hanley's poem "Invictus." "It matters not how straight the gate, How charged with punishments the scroll, I am the master of my fate;

I am the captain of my soul.'

The result of the election of officers held after the regular meeting was as follows: President, Claude Mellott '25; Vice Pres., Russel Coover 25; Recording Sec., Paul Barnhart '26; Corresponding Sec., Harry Gardner '25; Treasurer, Raymond Cromer '25.

YEAR BOOK IS ON

ROAD TO COMPLETION The Year Book is well under way. er. All material is in the hands of the printer and the staff expects the book to be out by June 1. Additional copies are scarce. Since the orders for the Juniors have been taken, only five copies remain. This year two hundred and fifty copies have been sold. This is said to be the largest number ever put out.

The book promises to be a surprise. In a recent interview the Editor-in-Chief, Reba Shue, says that the special features in the book are especially good. The cuts and cartoons by Hershey Eby '24 will help make this year's Cumberland stand. out from other years. Individual pictures of one hundred and seventy-six Seniors will appear besides pictures of every organization of the school.

The Northern Engraving Co. of Canton, Ohio, is going to do the engraving. The printing is being done by the Williams S. Roder Co. of Kutztown and Reading. Excellent photograps have been made for the book by Mr. Laughlin of Shippensburg.

MUSIC IS CENTRAL THEME AT PHILO LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Music was the central theme upon which was based the Philo program given last Friday evening, in the Training School Chapel.

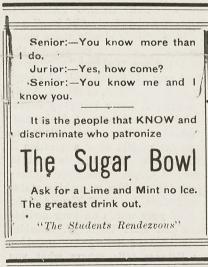

Edith Throckmorton '24 and Josephine Chark '24 sang a duet. Both Miss Throckmorton and Miss Clark thusiastically received by the society. Their selections were "Bendemeer's Stream" and "Will-o-Wisp." Elizabeth Eisenhauer '26 sang the well known poem "Trees" with a new musical setting.

The "Hungarian Rhapsody" was played by Anna Bentz '25 and a pianologue of which Anna Sourber '24 was chairman, was given by Reba Shue '24.

There were several literary numbers on the program. An essay was, read by Esther Moyer on "Niagara Falls." The essay told of the beautie God?" Mr. Nelson quoted a part of and wonders of the falls. An oration was given by George Brougher on "Both Sides of the Back Fence." The Philo Review, which was dramatized, was edited by Harold Miller '25.

During the business meeting the society voted to appoint a committee of three to act in the capacity of an advisory board to new students appearing on the program. The idea is to give the new students more training in their society work in order that they may have more self confidence and present better numbers. The members were also urged to hand in Philo songs to the committee which had been appointed in September. • Mr. Kenyon was the visiting teach-

SCHOOL GARDEN PROJECT UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF PROF. HOUCK

Twelve boys of the fifth grade and ten of the fourth in the Training School are now interested in working out a school garden project under the supervision of Prof. Houck.

Plots of ground each sixteen by five and a half feet in dimensions, are being cultivated by the boys back of the laundry. This section for the past several years has been uncultivated. since it's on the side of a little hill.

As a preparatory step in carrying out the project, the boys are making small booklets entitled "My Garden." In it, they are putting a diagram of their own garden plot, indicating the vegetables and flowers they are going to plant. An account of the preparation of the soil, the hours of work put on the project, the cost of seeds, and pictures or clippings of interest to gardeners are to be included. The boys expect to calculate the profit gained and to average how much their time was worth in working out the project.

The boys are under the direction of the student teachers, Anna Shellenberger and Helen Dougherty in the fifth grade and Gladys Huber and Nellie Frock in the fourth grade.

In the mountain of truth, you never climb in vain. Either you already reach a higher point today, or you exercise your strength in order to be able to climb higher tomorrow.
