"GOLDEN DAYS" TO BE STAGED AS THE COMMENCEMENT PLAY

Play Is Comedy of Modern Youth in Four Acts

The Commencement Play, "Golden Days," which is to be given Saturday, June 7th at 8 o'clock, is a comedy of youth in four acts. The cast has been working hard and the finishing touches are being put to the play with the rehearsal of the last act.

The first act takes place in the Simonds' country home. William Barclay who is in love with Mary Anne Simonds goes to the city and becomes wealthy. While in the city he becomes fascinated with Elaine Jewett, a wealthy girl. The second act takes place at a hotel in the country town. Bill Barclay holds a dance hoping to become reconciled with Mary Anne. Dick Stanhope rivals Bill in his affections for Mary Anne. The third act takes place in New York where the fellows are preparing for war. Barclay shirks his duty by not going. The last act is brought back to the country home. Dick Stanhope returns from the war to find Mary Anne had also been in the service. The act ends with Dick confessing his love for Mary Anne.

Ruth Frank '25 and Jack Seal '24 have the leading parts as Mary Anne Simonds and Dick Stanhope. The other characters are Lloyd Henderson, Corbin Pennington '24, Teddy Farum, Ernest Kennedy '25; William Barclay, Harry Gardner, '25; Charlie Mason, George Kauffman '25; Mrs. Drexel Kirkland, Martha Hutchinson '24; Elaine Jewette, Sara Young '25; Trela Webb, Sophia Reiter '24; Patty Elleson, Peggy Lehman '26; Felice, the French Maid, Marie Phillips '25; Sarah Applegate Slissy, Gladys Huber '24; Betsy Scroggins, Ida Gambler '24; Mrs. John Simonds, Mary Sanders '24.

FORMER PRINCIPAL'S SON WILL SPEAK AT BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The Rev. Calvin C. Hays, who is to preach the Baccalaureate sermon on June the eighth, is the son of the Rev. Isaac N. Hays who was pastor of the Middle Spring Presbyterian Church from 1854 until 1868. In June 1875, the principal of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School resigned and the Rev. I. N. Hays was elected to fill the vacancy and remained until the end of the school year of 1878. He was a good financier and it was through his efforts that the school was placed on a better financial basis.

The Rev. Calvin Hays was born at Middle Spring. He was graduated from C. V. S. N. S. in 1877, at the age of seventeen years, and was one of the honor students. He took his college work at Washington Jefferson College and his training for the ministry at the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa. Since then he has traveled extensively through the West and has gone into Alaska in the interest of missions. Two years ago he was elected moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which is one of the highest honors which the church can bestow upon a minister. At the present time he is pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Johnstown, Pa.

BLOOMSBURG JUNIORS PRESENT "PRINCESS BONNIE"

The Juniors at the Bloomsburg State Normal School recently presented "Princess Bonnie," a light opera, in the Normal School Auditorium. The entertainment was a decided success according to newspaper reports. When is the Junior Chorus of C. V. S. N. S. going to step out again?

RED AND BLUE BATSMEN SUBDUED MILLERSVILLE

Grove's Pitching Throughout Game
Baffles Visiting Team

GAME CALLED IN SIXTH INNING

Under a threatening sky which finally broke loose in the sixth frame, the Red and Blue nine completely subdued the Millersville batsmen by a 7-2 score on Eckels Field last Saturday. The tallies stood 10-2 in the sixth canto with the Valley Lads at the bat and two down when the rain came and the visiting team called off the game. This cancelled the three runs registered in the sixth inning by the local team but nevertheless it gave Capt. Strike's team the big end of the score.

The visitors opened up the game with a bang by scoring two runs on Fitzpatrick's triple after Grove had given two free bases to the second and third batsmen. The trouble was soon ended because never during the succeeding stanza did the visitors threaten to score.

Coach Ingalls' men were granted but one tally in the initial inning when Geedy scored, which still gave the Black and Orange team a one point lead over the home club. However, in the second session the Red and Blue team came back strong when Bailey, Swope, Blynn and Capt. Strike each completed a circuit which sent the score to 5-2.

Dan Grove showed his twirling stuff in the second canto when he fanned the first three men up thus retiring the side. The Red and Blue team came back strong at bat in the second inning. Swope was first man up and knocked up a single; Blynn was given a walk. Capt. Strike sent a neat single to mid field which scored Swope, while Blynn and Strike registered on a bad throw. Grove was thrown at first and Bailey drew four passes; Geedy hit to short-stop but was out at first while Miller made the third out which ended the inning.

The third session passed uneventfully for both teams. The visitors in-

GENEVIEVE MITCHELL '25 WINS CITIZENSHIP MEDAL

Medal Is Offered Annually by
Mrs. Eleanor Boots

Genevieve Mitchell '25 was chosen by the faculty and students of the Shippensburg Normal School as the winner of the Distinguished Service Medal. The medal is offered every year by Mrs. Eleanor Kyner Boots to the person who in the eyes of the students and faculty has rendered the greatest service to the school during the school year. Mrs. Boots was graduated from Shippensburg in 1889 and her home is now in Moore, Pa.

Last week there was published in the "Campus Reflector" a list of the ten people who received the highest number of votes from the student body. Miss Mitchell received 160 more votes than the next highest person.

Miss Mitchell's home is in York, Pa., and she is a graduate of Central High, in Harrisburg, Pa. She is the editor-in-chief of the "Campus Reflector" and was chairman of the committee which had charge of Philo Reunion. Miss Mitchell is also head of tennis on the G. A. A. cabinet and organized the first varsity tennis team of the Cumberland Valley Normal School. The G. A. A. Lawn Fete was also the product of Miss Mitchell's ingenuity. She has worked hard for the Press Club, and Philo Society owes its orchestra to her untiring efforts.

MEMORIAL DAY COMMEMORATED BY SERVICES AND PARADE

Parade Will Form on Campus
at 12:45

Memorial Day was observed by a special program given Thursday and a Memorial Day parade will be held Friday afternoon in which a large number of the students will participate.

The following program was given in the chapel:

Music—"Hail to Thee" Student Body
Bible Reading ----- Chairman
Memorial Prayer ----- Mr. Harley
Music by the Sextette
War Experience ---- Mr. Sponseller
Music—"Tenting To-night"

Student Body
The Memorial Day Soliloquy of the Unknown Soldier ----- Dr. Lehman
Memorial Talk ----- Rev. Wetzel
The Normal Boys Who Died
Chairman

Decoration of the Tablet

Misses McCreary and Cox
Silent Prayer for the Boys
Taps -- Messrs Harbaugh and Hamil
Music—"Long, Long Trail"

Ethel McCormick

The marchers in the parade will form on the Campus at 12:45 o'clock. The school band will head the procession. They will be followed by the faculty and then the student body who will march in the order of their respective classes, the classes being in line according to their seniority.

Two years ago the paraders were dressed uniformly and the effect was so pleasing that it will be repeated this year. The girls will wear white middies and skirts and red and blue hair bands while the boys will wear dark trousers and white shirts.

BRONZE MEMORIAL TABLET PRESENTED BY CLASS OF 1917

The bronze Memorial tablet which hangs on the wall in the Chapel was presented to the school in 1917 by the class of '17, two of whose members are enrolled on the tablet. After the close of the World War the class of '17 decided that a memorial to the boys of C. V. S. N. S. who died while in the service would be a fitting gift to present to the school. The original design for the tablet was a large piece of construction paper which was designed by Miss Irene Huber, a member of the faculty. The paper which was tacked on the wall of the chapel bore the names of C. V.'s soldiers who had made the supreme sacrifice. When the time came to decide upon the design for the permanent bronze tablet the committee in charge thought that the one designed by Miss Huber was appropriate. The result of the decision of the committee is the bronze memorial tablet. The inscription of the tablet is a verse which Dr. Lehman found in the New York Times.

The names of two of the members of the class of '17 who died in the service are Frank Carbaugh and Arthur Noll, who was the youngest member of the class; the other names on the tablets are Charles Kell of the class of '16 and Harvey Taylor of the class of '18.

Frank Carbaugh, the first of C. V.'s sons to give his life died in an American Hospital "somewhere in France," August 1, 1918.

The second of C. V.'s men "to go" was Arthur Noll who died at the Naval Reserve Hospital at Hampton Roads, September 25, 1918. He was a victim of Spanish Influenza.

Charles Kell of the class of '16 died in the hospital at Camp Lee.

Harvey Taylor of the class of '18 died in a hospital in France three days before the Armistice was signed.

PROF. S. S. SHEARER PRESIDES AT NORMAL ANNIVERSARY

Spring Is Predominating Note; Hand Painted
Screen Is Used

PLAY "SONG OF CASTLES" IS GIVEN

The fifty-first Anniversary of the Normal Literary Society was held May 23 and 24.

The Reunion committee chose Professor S. S. Shearer as presiding officer and Miss Hazel Powell, Shippensburg, Pa., as the secretary. Professor Shearer had as the subject for his address, "Education." He said that the only rule he could give for education was that it is a preparation for life. Professor Shearer emphasized the fact that "there is too much sham in education, religion and politics and that we must seek for reality."

Spring was the predominating note in the program and the chapel was decorated to carry out that effect. The stage represented an old fashioned garden. Trailing vines and rambling roses were twined among lattice work at both sides of the stage. In the background was a hand painted screen on which a large expanse of blue sky and green trees could be seen. At the left of the stage was a vine covered veranda. Rustic benches, pine trees and foliage completed this garden scene.

The play "A Song at the Castle," was given by Margaret Peters, Florence White, William Parthemer, William Hudson, Ralph Swan, Charles Gentzler and Harry Gardner. The setting of the play is in the garden of Dublin Castle. Margaret Peters, as Eileen Fitzgerald, the ward of Cornwallis, William Parthemer, has promised to marry the man who gives her the best gift for her birthday. Those who came to offer her gifts are Colonel Humphrey Morton, of the British Army, Ralph Swan; Sir Richard Wilde, a member of the English Parliament, Charles Gentzler, and Mar-

SHIPPENSBURG WILL PLAY BLOOMSBURG ON FRIDAY

Team Has Lost But One Normal
School Game

The Shippensburg Nine will cross bats with the Bloomsburg Normal Squad tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 on Eckels' Field. The local Diamond men have been strengthened in several places since last Saturday when they met the Millersville nine. Several weaknesses came out in that game and Coach Ingalls has put together a different working combination and one that should prove fatal to the visitors.

Coach Ingalls has carried the C. V. S. N. S. boys through a hard workout the past week and each and every player should be all set for the fray which will probably decide the State championship. Shippensburg has won all her Normal School games but one and should be strong contenders for first position in the Normal School League.

"Tucker" Grove will probably occupy the mound and Baily will receive for him. "Sammy" Angle will be back in the fray but instead of catching he will cover the short-stop position. Angle was out of the game last Saturday and his absence was noted, for he is a steady player.

It is desired that as many students as possible attend this game. There are many who expect to be away from the school, which makes it all the more imperative that those who are at school come and aid the local nine with their cheering.

ouis Paoul de la Valiere, an exiled nobleman of France, Harry Gardner, and Desmond O'Moigne, a young Irish singer, William Hudson. Eileen has fallen in love with Desmond O'Moigne, whom she has heard sing and he promises to sing for her on her birthday. During a quarrel between Ireland and England his father is killed and he is exiled. However he determines to keep his promise to England. Eileen finds another suitor who is her guardian, Cornwallis, Viceroy of Ireland and Commander in Chief of the British forces in Ireland. He gives to her as his gift the right to ask anything of him that she desires. When Desmond O'Moigne comes to offer his gift he is seized by Colonel Humphrey Morton who demands that he be killed. Eileen asks her guardian to give her the gift of Desmond O'Moigne's life and liberty which he does. Desmond sings his song for Eileen who chooses him for her husband. Florence White portrays the character of Lady Wynland, widowed sister of Cornwallis.

Katherine Werner gave an interpretive solo dance, "The Niaid." The dance represented a water nymph coming from her watery home to chase a butterfly, but becoming tired of the chase she returns to her home by the side of the water. A dance, "Spring Awakening," was given by Martha Hutchison, Mae Parfet, Anna McFadden, Margaret Shaffstall, Emma Gross and Josephine Corle. Sara Young told how the flowers awakened from their long winter's sleep in the spring time, blossoming slowly until at last they were in full bloom.

"Manikin and Minikin" a bisque-play by Alfred Krembroy was given by Clifford Smith and Ruth Frank. Permission for the performance was given by Norman Le Swartout, Summit, N. Y.

An oration "Spring" was given by Wilson Dodd.

Other numbers on the program were a male sextette, "Gypsy Trail" given by Clifford Smith, Clairmont Smith, Percy James, Harry Markley, Clarence Shuler and Vincent Tritch.

Ethel McCormick sang "Swallows" by Clifford Burghen and "Happy Song" by Thressa Del Riego. The Glee Club sang "Break of Day" by John Spencer.

The faculty committee was composed of Miss Mary E. Snively, Miss Alice Huber and Miss Irene Huber who painted the scene for the stage.

Miss Carrie Belle Parks, Miss Loreta Heffernan and Miss Edna Arnold and Professor Gilbert were in charge of the reading, the dance, the play and the oration.

MEMORIAL DAY

"We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.

To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep though poppies grow
In Flanders' Fields."

Short days ago the roar of the cannons were echoing across the ocean. The fathers, brothers, lovers of the nation were offering up their most precious possession, life, so that the world might be made safe for Democracy. They felt the dawn and saw the sunset glow. They were the pulsating life of the country. And now fifty thousand of them are still lying in Flanders' fields.

They, like the knights of old, relinquished all that was near and dear to them to procure the Holy Grail for their loved ones. They found it, but only those who have served know what they suffered so that the liberty of the world might be carried down through the ages.

It is from those failing hands that the torch of Democracy has been thrown. It is ours to hold high and protect. They have done their bit and have become a part of the ages. It is up to us to keep the torch lighted, to retain the Grail, so that they will not have died in vain.

Tomorrow, as the gentle breezes blow over the poppies in Flanders' fields, we will strengthen the ties that bind us to those who lie under the poppies. It is an insignificant way that we have of showing them that we have not broken faith with them.

"And in the sky the larks still bravely singing, fly," for they who gave their lives for their country are resting in peace. We have not broken faith!

TREE MARKERS

Two score and ten years ago the fathers of this institution conceived the idea of marking the trees on the Campus which the classes had dedicated to their Alma Mater. By the little pyramidal shaped stones at their base, the trees were to be known. Trusting implicitly in the capability of the school to reverence and care for their gifts and their markers, the classes of the school have been so designating their trees.

According to the ways of the world, it has been altogether fitting and proper that the C. V. S. N. S. Campus undergo a series of improvements and that the manner of caring for it follow the trend of the times and be revolutionized. The Campus was graded and new roads were cut. Shrubbery was planted and new sod laid, but the markers of the trees were carefully watched over and preserved.

The time came when the gardeners no longer cut the lawns by hand, but used a new fangled contraption called a lawn mower. And it was then that the trouble commenced!

It would seem that speed came to be the motto of the operators of the lawn mower. An excess amount of time which might be consumed to a better advantage elsewhere, was required to shear the grass around these historic stones. If the markers were removed, the mowers could be operated with a decided saving of time and labor. And so the stones were resigned to a heap near the laundry or some out of the way place on the Campus!

Next week many of the placers of these stones will be returning to their Alma Mater. It will be their privilege (in all likelihood they will employ it, too) to wonder why this thing has been done. In all probability it was at the request of the school authorities that the Alumni made an effort to designate their property and it does not seem to be fitting that their gift should be thus rudely treated.

Every institution has its customs that are sacred to it and beloved by the students and Alumni of the institutions. The custom of marking each class tree is too lovely a one to be desecrated in the manner that it has been during the passing years. Won't the Alumni as they return wonder why this outrage has been allowed to go on? Won't they demand an explanation for finding their tree markers indignantly reposing in the front door yard of the laundry or out of their natural order on the Campus?

If the markers be put back for nothing else than an impetus to future graduating classes to mark their trees, let us see the custom preserved. Let the heart of every Alumnus beat with pride and tears of remembrance fill his eyes next week when he sees the markers firmly and everlastingly planted at the foot of the tree that his class gave to his Alma Mater.

BOYS HOLD INTER-CLASS TRACK AND FIELD MEET

Juniors Romp Off with Honors; Pile Up Thirty-seven Points

JAMES SMITH IS HIGH SCORER

The annual inter-class track meet was staged on Eckels' Field Saturday morning, May 24. Four groups contested in the meet. The competitors were Seniors, Junior High '25, Juniors, and High School students. There were entries in eight events.

The Juniors romped off with the honors, piling up 37 points. The Junior High class tied the Seniors for second place with 21 points. The High School scored one point.

James Smith of the Juniors was the high man, scoring 16 1/4 points. He took first place in the 220 and 100 yard dash, second in the discus, third in the shot and was a member of the winning relay team.

John Harris, a Junior High man, gave Smith a merry chase by piling up 15 points. He entered nearly every event. He came in third in the hundred, second in the 880, second in the shot put, second in the high jump and first in the discus.

Paul Bert a High School man won the only point for his team.

The results were as follows:

100 Yard Dash—

1st, Smith; 2nd, Hockersmith; 3rd, Harris. 10.8 seconds.

220 Yard Dash—

1st, Smith; 2nd, Geedy; 3rd, J. Miller. 27.5 seconds.

880 Yard Dash—

1st, McCullough; 2nd, Harris; 3rd P. Bert. 2 min. 34 sec.

1 Mile Relay—

1st, Juniors; 2nd, Seniors. 3 min. 55 sec.

Shot Put—

1st, J. Miller; 2nd, Harris; 3rd, J. Smith. 30ft.

Discus—

1st, Harris; 2nd, Smith; 3rd, M. Green. 88 ft. 5 in.

High Jump—

Broad Jump—

1st, C. Miller; 2nd, R. Funk; 3rd, J. Swope. 17 ft. 9 in.

POETRY READING CONTEST IS HELD BY MISS PARKS

Miss Parks, head of the English Department, is conducting a poetry reading contest. Although about forty students of the British Poetry classes applied for admission, there are just four girls who will read in the final contest.

In selecting the readings, two try-outs were held. Those elected after the first reading were: Pearl Witmer, Myrtle Eshelman, Mary Burgoon, Harry Wolf, John Ulsh, William Hudson, Elizabeth Snyder, Margaret Lehman, Jessie Baylor, Katherine Weaver, Sophia Reiter and Katherine Lehr. After the third trial four were elected from this number for the final contest. They are the Misses Witmer, Eshelman, Lehr and Burgoon.

C. V. S. N. S. GIRLS DEFEATED BY DICKINSON TEAM

The Dickinson Co-eds defeated the C. V. S. N. S. girls in a tennis match held at South College, Carlisle, last Saturday afternoon at 1:30. Two sets of singles and two sets of doubles were played, all of which were won by the Dickinson girls.

Two sets of singles played by Miriam Stever '24 were won by the Dickinson representative with the score of 6-1 and 6-3. The doubles were also won by the Carlisle team by the scores of 6-2 and 6-3. Peggy Lehman '26 and Theodore Poor '25 made up the Shippensburg team.

The winning team has had more experience than the local team as this was the first meet in which the Normal team every played. Normal's opponents scored on their lobbing and speedy returns.

The consensus of opinion at this time is that some of our flapper specimens are being shingled at the wrong end.—Detroit News.

MISS IRENE HUBER IS DESIGNING STAGE SETTING

Miss Irene Huber, Superintendent of the Art Department, is completing the stage setting for the Fiftieth Anniversary program which will be given Tuesday evening, June 9th. Miss Huber has designed the entire stage setting for the anniversary, but just what the nature of the setting is, has not been revealed.

Miss Huber's efforts along the line pertaining to the creating of transformations for the stage have been hidden under the much talked of bushel basket. She has worked with untiring effort so that the plays that have been given in the past might have an artistic stage setting. The back curtain and set pieces for Normal Anniversary were the products of Miss Huber's brush.

The curtain that was painted several years ago for an Alumni Play and used again last year for the Alumni Play was designed by Miss Huber and painted by the Arts and Crafts Club under Miss Huber's direction.

Miss Huber is also planning the costumes for this year's anniversary program. Rumor has it that they are going to take the audience by storm. Judging by the past examples of Miss Huber's products, rumor will not be far wrong.

JOINT Y. MEETING HELD SUNDAY EVENING

Sherrick Gilbert '25, the retiring president of the Y. M. C. A. led the joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A., at which the officers for the next year were installed. Dr. Lehman was the speaker of the evening and he traced the development of religion from its source to its present history.

The retiring officers of the Y. M. C. A. are as follows: president, Sherrick Gilbert; vice president, Claude Mellott; recording secretary, Wilson Dodd; corresponding secretary, Clarence Shuler; treasurer, William Hudson. The new officers are, president, Claude Mellott; vice president, Russell Coover; recording secretary, Paul Barnhart; corresponding secretary, Harry Gardner; treasurer, Raymond Cromer.

The outgoing officers of the Y. W. C. A. are, president, Miriam Witmyer; vice president, Ruth Frank; recording secretary, Gertrude Griffith; corresponding secretary, Mildred Brennehan; treasurer, Leah Decker. The new officers are, president, Ruth Frank; vice president, Martha Crozier; recording secretary, Lola Pheasant; corresponding secretary, Mildred Yingling; treasurer, Frankie Deitrich.

THE STUDENT SOLILOQUY

To study or not to study; that is the question;

Whether 'tis better in exams to suffer The queries and questions of a curious teacher,

Or to take arms against a sea of troubles

And by perusing, end them. To cram; to worry;

No more and study to say we end The low marks and the thousand D's and E's; 'tis consumation

Devoutly to be wished. To work, to study;

To study perchance to fail; ay, there's the rub;

For in case we fail, what things might come

When all our papers are given the "once over"

Must give us pause; there's the respect

That makes calamity of education.

"AS THE TWIG IS BENT" WILL BE SHOWN TONIGHT

Memorial Day activities will be concluded by the showing of "As the Twig is Bent" in the chapel.

The picture, one of Hobart Hanley's super-productions is wholesome, and highly entertaining although it has a serious thought. The title is taken from Alexander Pope's "Moral Essays" which gives the following thought: "'Tis education forms the common mind, just as the twig is bent, so the tree's inclined."

No title could be more fitting for a picture which so effectively portrays the effect of right and wrong living in childhood, character forming days. "As the Twig is Bent" is a story of two boys of different families, one being blessed with Christian parents, who guide his steps in the way they should go, and the other less fortunately situated, as his family life is a series of browbeating and bickerings, with true love lacking. Through life the home influences are seen on these young men, until at last one goes "down and out" in life's struggle, while the other wins success and happiness.

In addition to the main picture several reels of the Harold Lloyd comedies will be shown.

FINALS WILL BE PLAYED IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The men's singles tennis tournament is rapidly nearing the finals. All the preliminaries have been played off and the semi-finals have been started. At this time it is doubtful as to who the champion player will be. Many of the players have shown good form and the matches have been hotly contested, many of the sets going to deuce. If the players keep up to par the spectators will be treated to a fine brand of tennis in the final playing of the finals. Fossilman and Barbour have come through their matches without being defeated.

BIBLE SCHOOL CLASSES WILL BE GRADUATED SUNDAY

The annual commencement of the Bible Study Classes of C. V. S. N. S. will be held Sunday evening, June 1st at 6 o'clock. About fifty-five persons will receive their diplomas, eight of whom are boys.

The teachers who conducted the work for the girls are: Mrs. J. S. Heiges, who had charge of the advanced students, Mrs. Houck and Mrs. Krebs, who had charge of the elementary classes in the regular Oliver Bible Training Courses. Mrs. J. K. Stewart taught the boys.

The address of the evening will be delivered by Dr. Lehman. The men graduates will conduct the devotional exercises. Two representatives from each of the three classes of girls will explain the purpose and nature of their work and furnish the musical part of the program.

Dr. Lehman will present the diplomas to the graduates.

DAY OF REVELRY SPENT BY JUNIOR HIGH CLASS

The members of the Junior High Class of '25 will not soon forget the picnic which was held at Big Pond last Saturday. The class voted the event a decided success from start to finish. A baseball game between the "Mud Turtles" and "Grasshoppers" was first on the program of events. The game was called early to give some of the members a chance to fish in the lake.

These activities gave everybody a big appetite for supper. The menu was made up of bacon and eggs, wieners, rolls, pickles and olives, cake and coffee. After doing justice to this meal the picnickers held a sing.

Miss Parks, the class dean presented a class call and a class song. The singing came to a close with a moonlight dance held on the shore of the lake. At ten o'clock the tired but happy picnickers returned to school.

The following verses are the words to the Junior High School call and song:

Call
Junior High Class,
Pioneer class,
Class Twenty-Five
Junior High.

Song
March, march on Junior High
Cheering for Twenty-five.

Show C. V. S. N. S.
That we're the snappiest class alive.
We'll give a long cheer for Junior High.

Tell you the reason why
Proud are we of class twenty-five
For we will win.

The number of marks in Germany would have made little difference of the supply of marks in the United States had only kept up.—

PLAY, "THE DEATH WATCH" WELL RECEIVED AT NORMAL

Normalites were entertained by a short play, "The Death Watch" with Edith Williams Chairman. A short synopsis of the play is as follows:

The family of a wealthy man was gathered around his death-bed as mourners. At times they were very solemn; at times they discussed how and where they would separate as soon as the old man died. Ten angels appeared and talked with the sick man telling him how mean he had been during his life time and if possible he had better return to life. The doctor announced that the sick man's pulse was normal. This condition startled the mourners for their plans were useless if the old man did not die.

A new and successful feature of the program was a number of extemporaneous speeches, Griff Jones '26 chairman. Subjects discussed were: "Hugo Stinnes," "The World Flight," "Japanese Exclusion," "Conditions in Mexico," and "President Coolidge."

The musical numbers of the program consisted of instrumental music, Vincent Tritch '26 chairman, and Community singing, Dorothy Weaver '24, chairman.

Ruth Wahrman '24 gave an oration on "Conversation."

The Gazette was edited by Clair Deardorff '26.

The new officers nominated for next year were: Walter Strike '25 and Raymond Cromer '25 for President; Oscar Blynn '26, Clair Deardorff '26, and Ralph Swan '25 for vice-president; William Hudson '25 and Naomi Wineland '25 for Secretary; George Kauffman '25 and Glenn Bailey '25 for critic; Claude Mellott '26 and Sherrick Gilbert '25 for Treasurer.

INTER-CLASS TOURNAMENT OPENS TUESDAY EVENING

The girls' inter-class tennis teams opened their tournament last Tuesday evening when the Seniors represented by Miriam Steever and Jean Swope were defeated by the Juniors. The Junior team was made up of Peggy Lehman and Theodore Poor. Professor Krebs umpired the contest.

This season nine sets will be played between the Juniors and Seniors—three sets an evening for three evenings.

Theodore Poor, substituting for Peggy Lehman was defeated by Miriam Stever last Tuesday in a set of singles. Mr. Ingalls was the official umpire.

The under-class girls also have a team—Rachel Barbour and Lillian Boyer. A regular schedule will be made out in the near future and great inter-class rivalry is anticipated.

REV. BOWERS SPEAKS AT PRAYER MEETING

Rev. Bowers of the Lutheran Church addressed the students Wednesday evening at the Prayer Service. He used as the lesson the first chapter of St. John. "Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly" was the theme of his talk.

He said "A man made in the image of God ought to be a student all the days of his life—a student of the Word of God."

He explained that we should not only hear the Word but give it attention and think about it if it is to enter into us richly. Then we should show some expression of it in our everyday life for he said, "Expression deepens impression."

He concluded by summarizing, "Not only find Christ and His truth but express them if called upon in your school, church or community."

Prof. Kenyon was in charge of the meeting.

LARGE SUM CLEARED AT G. A. A. LAWN FETE

One hundred twenty dollars was cleared at the Lawn Fete given by the G. A. A. Thursday, May 15.

Some of this money will be used to buy eight gold basketballs for the girls who played on the varsity team. A medal will also be bought for the girl who has won the highest number of points after the receiving of her letter.

PROF STEWART HAS FULL PROGRAM OF ADDRESSES

Prof. J. K. Stewart, Head of the Latin Department, is in great demand as a speaker in high schools of the surrounding counties. On May 9th, Mr. Stewart delivered the Commencement address at Landisburg, Perry Co., on May the 11th he preached the Baccalaureate sermon at the Lemaster High School, Franklin Co., and on May the 28th, he will address the graduating class of the Thompsonstown High School, Juniata Co.

INTER-CLASS TRACK MEET TO BE HELD SATURDAY

The annual inter-class track meet will be staged tomorrow at 10:30 A. M. There will be four teams competing—the Underclassmen, Juniors, Junior High Group '25, and Seniors. The competitors are in poor conditions as the announcement was made unexpectedly, but nevertheless the classes responded quickly and a fast meet is expected. Each class is allowed two entries in each event.

DAY STUDENTS DANCE HIGHLY ENTERTAINING

Last Friday evening the Day Student Association held their annual dance in the American Legion Hall of Shippensburg. The hall, although not a particularly large one was filled to capacity with both day students and friends. Permission was given to dance in the little anti room which aided in relieving the congestion somewhat.

The hall was tastefully decorated with dogwood, pine and laurel. The effective lighting was made possible by artistic Japanese shades which were arranged over the lights in the center of the room and over the orchestra.

The music was furnished by the Carlisle Barracks Orchestra and was pronounced irresistible by all who attended the dance and all who, not having been invited swayed to the tune of the music on the pavement below.

A comedian in the orchestral troupe entertained at intermission with interpretive singing.

Many guests were present not only from Shippensburg, but also from Harrisburg, Carlisle, Chambersburg and Gettysburg.

The members of the faculty represented were Miss Heffernan, Miss McCreary, Miss Clever, Professors Shearer, Pennington and Krebs. Dancing continued until 1:30.

PLAY IS GIVEN IN TRAINING SCHOOL

"Lost Opportunities" was the name of the play given last Friday morning at the Training School Chapel services. The play was given by eighth and ninth grade girls under the direction of Miss Sourber. The story deals with a young girl who lost the opportunity of winning a scholarship because of her certainty of winning and how the other girl won it through her thoughtfulness and kindness toward others.

Wilda Eshelman gave a vocal solo, "In the Month of May." Recitations were given by Anna Belle Heberlig and Gertrude Main. Albert Heberlig played a cornet solo.

TRAINING SCHOOL REPRESENTED IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY JUDGING TOUR

A number of pupils of the Training School took part in the annual Cumberland County judging tour which was held May 17. Edgar Strohm of the ninth grade won first prize in the dairy contest and will be one of four who will represent the county in the state wide judging contest to be held at State College during the week of June 9. Seven winners were selected in each contest. Among these were John M. Plasterer, ninth grade in the poultry contest; Rutherford Beathe, ninth grade, in the swine contest, and Archie Gephart, seventh grade, in the dairy contest.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST WON BY RUTH FRANK

The Public Speaking Contest which had been postponed from Thursday, May 8, was held on Thursday at 4:15 in the Training School Chapel.

The recitations were from 10 to 15 minutes in length and the awards were based on general excellence of selection, interpretation, and delivery.

The judges gave Ruth Frank first place, Mildred Yingling second place. Helen Miller and Sara Young received a vote a piece. The judges for the contest were the Rev. Mr. Lobb, the Rev. Mr. Crow, and Mr. Shullenberger, all of Shippensburg.
