

Annual to Have Alumni Section

The Conneauttean staff announces plans for a section of the annual which will be devoted to the alumni. This is a forward step on the part of the staff and one which should serve to band the alumni more closely to the school.

This division of the book will include a group of pictures of all members of the alumni who attend the homecoming festivities, together with personal notes on prominent graduates.

The subscription blank, printed on another page of The Spectator, should be mailed as soon as possible to Mr. Edward Simon, Editor-in-Chief of the yearbook, care of the college.

The deposit will be one dollar per copy. The remainder of the fee has not yet been determined, but will be announced as soon as more detailed plans are made.

Hockey Players Have Outing at Cleveland

Part of the hockey team accepted the invitation of the Cleveland Field Hockey Association and attended "Play Day" at Laurel Hill School on October 19.

Among the interesting events of the day was a discussion of rules and regulations led by Miss Hilda Burr, of England.

Our girls joined with players from Hiram and Flora Mother Colleges and elected Miss Leona Grimshaw captain of the team. Under the name of College Etcetera, and gave a boost to the college by tying the score, 1-1, showing that their training here had not all been in vain. The second game was played against Cranberry, a women's club of Cleveland. Here they found that more experienced lassies were slightly better for they lost the game 3-0.

All in all, we feel that they played nicely and gave a good showing for the school, especially Josephine Boyce who warded off many advancing balls and kept the score from growing larger.

Those who attended the "Play Day" were Leona Grimshaw, Isabel Crawford, Margaret Adler, Jean Campbell, Josephine Boyce and Bessie Lindell. They were escorted by Miss Ruttle and Frieda Yonkers, who took her national refereeing test.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO ALUMNI

To Our Alumni:

This issue of "The Spectator" is devoted exclusively to our Alumni. A copy is being sent to all living alumni whose addresses are known. Uncle Sam will reach nearly 4000 loyal sons and daughters of Edinboro found in every state in the Union. With this copy of the College paper goes an earnest and warm invitation to visit the old College Nov. 9, the annual Homecoming Day. We hope that this day will be much more than the mere occasion when the football team plays our ancient and friendly rivals from Slippery Rock. We invite you to return to renew your old Edinboro spirit and to see your many friends who are planning to be here.

We want you to return because Edinboro needs you, and needs you now as never before. Our growth and our influence will depend upon your support and upon your real interest. While our enrollment is just about holding its own compared with a drop of 30% three years ago, and 25% a year ago, and while our Freshman Class has increased in numbers 20% over last year's, nevertheless we call upon you to HELP.

Edinboro is one of the very few State Teachers Colleges that do not have a working Alumni Fund to assist worthy students. Literally scores of fine young men and women have been turned away this year because we had no substantial way to help them. Federal Aid to youth has enabled 54 young men and women to come to college or to remain in college. We have been compelled to refuse aid to that many more in college and to scores asking to come. Only one in my position can realize the real needs and the great desires of many to come to Edinboro, but unable to do so because of lack of means. Then, too, there are a great many in College who must secure some aid during the year if they are to continue in College.

I am, therefore, making an urgent plea to the Alumni that they assist in building up an Alumni Loan Fund. There is no reason why 4000 Alumni should not be able to create a fund of at least $3000. An average contribution of $1.25 would do this. But there are many who undoubtedly can give much more. If 500 Alumni would give $10 each, we could easily raise this fund. WHAT WILL YOU GIVE? DO IT NOW! Enclosed you will find a subscription card. Send it along with your contribution.

Any fund that may be raised will be administered by the college and an accounting given the Association annually.

We are this year celebrating the 75th year of the founding of this institution. Let us make this the Diamond Jubilee Loan Fund!

Thanking you in advance in behalf of the young men and women who will be helped by your contribution, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

CARMON ROSS,

President

Saturday and Extension Classes

This semester Edinboro State Teachers College is offering a number of courses that are attended by teachers in service. These classes are divided into two main groups: the Saturday classes which are held on our campus, and the extension classes which are held in other schools in nearby towns.

The teachers of the Saturday classes and the courses they teach are: Mr. Doucette, Jewelry; Mr. Zahniser, American Literature; Dr. Mudge, American History.

The extension classes are as follows.

Raiders Bow Before Mansfield 20-0

Before a small Parents' Day crowd, Edinboro's "Red Raiders" dropped the second game of the season to a heavier, older Maroon and Black team from Mansfield.

Edinboro started off well, and soon after the game began was well into Mansfield territory. A series of bad breaks, however, soon brought a reversal of form. Mansfield took the ball and advanced into Edinboro territory. Here a short pass, caught near the sidelines, paved the way for the first score, which came on a short buck by fullback Borden. Borden

Leonard Craske Appears Here

Leonard Craske, an internationally known sculptor, will appear on the college platform Wednesday evening, November 6. His subject for the occasion will be "The Making of a Statue." The lecture will be illustrated by over one hundred views, showing the processes which a statue goes through from the first clay sketch to the finished bronze or granite.

Mr. Craske was born in London, England, and received his higher education in London University and St.

Later on he branched into the field of acting and played in Sir John Harvey's company.

Since 1920, Craske has devoted his entire time to sculpture. Perhaps his best known work is the World War memorial at Amesbury, Mass.

Attention, Football and Basketball Fans

It has been suggested by several alumni who are interested in athletics that they would like to create a fund specifically for the encouragement of athletics at Edinboro through granting financial assistance to worthy students with athletic ability. A dozen or more alumni have made this statement, "If we could start an Alumni Athletic Scholarship Fund I would 'kick in' ten dollars to start it." Now, wouldn't that make a good beginning if all those who have made such a statement would act right now by making good their proposal. No doubt there are many more who have thought the same thing and would be willing to adopt the idea. It sounds like a good one. Let's give it a try anyway. If you care to assist with the establishment of such a fund, make your remittance payable to Treasurer, Alumni Athletic Fund, and mail to the same, c-o Alumni Secretary, Box 363, Edinboro, Pa. Perhaps you have some friends whom you would like to send to your Alma Mater but who may need some assistance. This fund would take care of such a situation. Now is the time to put our words and thoughts into action. Let's not delay. Let's also plan to be at Edinboro on Homecoming Day and see the football game with our friendly rival, Slippery Rock. Better bring your check book or some extra cash, you might be suddenly inspired when you find yourself on the sidelines once again rooting for your team.

Come Up and See Me Sometime

"Will I ever be glad when the day comes that I am through school! Believe me I'll never darken the doors of this place again!" It looks like a dark future as well as lonely halls, when "would-be" alumni talk like this. But we seldom see the real fun in anything until it's past. The time you will most appreciate Edinboro is when you've been on your own for a year and find what tough going it is. Then you will grow sentimental if by chance you hear the Alma Mater or meet an old school chum.

Schools aren't made by teachers, or enrollments by catalogs, but through the alumni. I'd wager every one of you came to Edinboro because you knew someone who did. We're planning a grand time for November 9th, so show some animation and come. You might be surprised! ! !

We Need a Class

We need a class in football for the girls of this college. Their actions at the games and after them certainly show lack of any knowledge concerning football.

No one blames the fellows for being disgusted when they come home from a game, half of them injured physically and the other half, probably, mentally, only to have some cherubic person who doesn't know a first down from a quarter, spend the dinner hour telling how awful she thinks our football team is, how much better her high school team was, and what ever happened at that game anyway. Its the same way at the games, the girls stand behind the bench yelling "Take hom out," and some five seconds later "Put him in" until the fellows on the bench could cheerfully throttle every one of them. Let's do something about this, because it really isn't such a dire calamity to lose a game. If you don't know anything about football, don't broadcast the fact; if you do know something about it pick out the smart plays and dwell on them—it might help.

'Twas in a restaurant they met— Young Romeo and Juliet. But when they left, they left a debt, For Rome-o-d what Juliet.—Munsonian, Muncie, Ind.

Diamond Jubilee Scholarship Fund

Within a few months your Alma Mater will be celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of growth, development and service since its beginning as a normal school in 1860. As an appropriate memorial on this great occasion the Alumni Association proposes to establish a loan fund for the purpose of assisting worthy students at Edinboro. Our Alma Mater now boasts of about four thousand living alumni scattered throughout forty-six states in the United States, the District of Columbia, two United States territories and six foreign countries. Just imagine it! And just imagine the size of the fund which could be created and the good which could be accomplished through it if every loyal alumnus would contribute on an average of five dollars!

Just pause for a moment and look back over your own normal school and college days. Can you not recall times when even a small loan would have helped you tremendously? Can you not recall times when some of your friends were in need of a little money to pay their fees and buy books, or even food, in order that they might stay in school a little longer? Yes, these things happened sixty years ago and are happening today in youth's struggle for an education. Then, let us get together and put the DIAMOND JUBILEE LOAN FUND across in a way of which we will be proud. Right now let each and every one of us do our part and mail our remittance, no matter how large or how small, to the office of the Alumni Secretary, Box 363, Edinboro, Pa. Contributions of one, two, five, ten, twenty-five, or even fifty dollars will create a useful fund of which we can well be proud. Remittances should be made payable to "Treasurer, Diamond Jubilee Fund." This fund will be administered by the College President, or other designated person, through a board of trustees and an accounting and auditing will be made at regular intervals.

Let's do our part right NOW and through the help of each and every one of us create a lasting memorial symbolical of our faith in our Alma Mater, the glories of her past and the possibilities of her future.

RUSSELL D. McCOMMONS Executive Secretary, General Alumni Association.

Alumni Continue Their Education

Realizing that graduation is the beginning and not the end of education many of our alumni have continued their studies. Frank Hand received his Masters degree from Columbia this summer. Nelson Hale, '31, although finding that two cannot live as cheaply as one and helping the situation by selling the World Book during his vacations, has found time to earn a Masters degree from Duke. Lawrence McVitty, '33, has received his Masters from Pitt.

Arthur Christie, '31, was president of the New England group at Columbia this summer and Laberta Mahoney, '35, and Edna McGorry, '33, were also in attendance there. George Giesler, '32, and Oscar Palmquist, '34, motored to Duke and attended the summer session. Winifred Mong, '27, was at the English Colony at Bread Loaf, Vermont, meeting many interesting writers and enjoying New England scenery and climate.

The following alumni were at Edinboro for the summer session getting the necessary credits to make their certificates permanent: Henry Anderson, '32, also helped Coach Harrison with his summer camp. Claudia Bowman, '31, Eleanor Beerbower '32, Henry Benninghoff '31, Juniata Cook '34, Warren Dingle '32, Viola Friskhorn, Florence Gourley, Harriet Hogan, Verna Huff, Marian Pulling, Jean Sutherland, Marlyn Woodburn, George Yochim.

Many of our two-year graduates were back working towards degrees. Among those on campus this summer were Ethel Babe, Sidney Bier, Anna Black, Lucille Blakeslee, Beatrice Brown, Alice Chambers, Kathryn Chambers, Margaret Crowell, Esther Evans, Priscilla Guckes, Gwen Horsman, Mary Louise Johnson, Ruth Kearney, Saloma Kocher, Winifred McCarthy, Nelle Pattan, Helen Simpkins, Louise Snyder, Margaret Snyder, Leon St. John, Archie Sundback.

Brothers and Sisters

Many younger brothers and sisters of our alumni are in the present Freshman class. The name Huff has been on the class rolls for some time, with Esther now a minister's wife, graduating in 1927, Bill, also a married man, graduating in 1934, Verna teaching art in the eastern part of the state a member of the class of 1932, Lydia, teaching in Erie, also of 1934 and with Olive now enrolled as a freshman. Of the Seabrooke family we have Wilma, a sister of Jeanette, '34, and Virginia, '26. The Zahniser name is being continued with Joe the last but upholding the family heights. Other brothers and sisters are Robert, brother of Lawrence Behan, '35; Ruth, sister of Elizabeth Ramsey, '32; Marjorie, sister of Lois Welsh, '32; Irene, sister of Gazella Palfi; Wayne, brother of Leslie and Lou Ellen Fobes.

Erie County Hires Half of Edinboro's Beginning Teachers

Of the class of '35, thirty-four have positions in Erie and Erie county. Peggy Fisher, teaching at Jones School, Erie, thinks the college should offer a course in the pronunciation of foreign names. Garnett Wright and Esther Davies are working with Charles Gilbert, '32, at Cranesville. Millcreek Township claims three with Frances Davenport in primary work at Lakewood, Nona Warner at Tracy replacing Mary Schaper, '32, recently married, and Marybelle Pollock at West Millcreek. Wilma Dieter, Hilda Douville and Helen Carnahan are in North East Borough and Township.

McKean Township tops the list with five new teachers. They are Winifred Beddows, Mary Foglebach, Harold Pepper, Margaret Rick, and Jean Rick. The new teachers of Washington Township carried off the honors at the Edinboro Fair. Elsie Harrison easily rated first, with Virginia LeSeur second, and Clarence (Corky) McLallen received much well deserved praise for his health project. Mildred Duran and Winifred Joslin are teaching in Elk Creek Township, Norman Gross and Marian McDonald in Harborcreek, while Marjorie Zortman and Agnes Lilley are in Amity Township. The following townships boast of but one our our new teachers: Mary Rhodes in Green Township, Edna Sexton in Union, Helen Wickwire in Conneaut, Mary Louise Johnson in Concord, Ruby Busch in Wayne. Helen Cunningham holds forth in the seventh and eighth grades of Spring Creek.

Crawford County received twenty of our new teachers. Laberta Mahoney is in Beaver Center, Maxine Mattern, Edna Sternberg, Harriet Leberman, and Jane Monteleone in West Mead Township, Mary Blanchard and Lila Ingraham in Blooming Valley, Ernestine Brown in Troy Township, Marjorie Brown in Union Township, Marybelle Chapman in Springboro, Marjorie Decker in Hartstown, Della Foye in East Fairfield Township, Marguerite Holtz in Steuben Township, Magdalene Stagl in Summerhill Township, Lucile Blakeslee in Sparta Consolidated school, Beatrice Brown in Steuben Township, Marjorie Bole in Hayfield Township, Mary Marsh in East Fallowfield Consolidated school, Ralph Scrafford in Cussewago, Carl Peterson in Espyville.

New teachers going to greater distances are Rouene Graham to Venango County, Ralph Hazen to Monroe County, Harriet Marrison to Ambridge, Sybil Odell to Lower Burrell Township, Pittsburgh district, Sam Sullivan to Aliquippa, Gladys Witmer to North Warren, Alberta

Wolcott to Rexford, George Merges to Aliquippa, Francis Rogers to Morgantown, West Virginia, and Helen Smart to Ford City.

Many of our alumni have moved to better positions. Carl Beck is now at Steelton. Catherine O'Keefe has left North East to become a member of the Erie Academy faculty. Romaine Billings has a new position at Westminster. William Zahniser is teaching at Ludlow. Anyone interested in life insurance can find an eager salesman in David Yomtob. Robert Gibson is doing commercial art work in Pittsburgh, Gertrude Forness has accepted a position in Buffalo. Bill Bannister has recently been elected to the Harborcreek faculty and Jeanette Seabrooke is at Albion. Delta Phi Delta recently made Genevieve Jeffords a member of its organization. She is Are Demonstration Teacher in Frick Training School, Pittsburgh.

Friends of Gilbert Osterberg will be pleased to know that he is now in Florida, much improved in health. Anyone traveling through New Wilmington in the summer will be welcomed and well fed at a roadside restaurant operated in the Beerbower home by Merrill Young, '31.

Word has been received of the death of William Norris, '26, in the Philippine Islands, where he had been teaching. Edison School, Erie, lost a valuable primary teacher through the death of Anna Masello, '26.

School Teachers Do Get Married

Attractive school teachers, alumni of Edinboro, disprove the fact that few school ma'ams get married. Our most recent announcement has been that of Vada Cutshall to Clarence Dailey. Gladys Hartel, '32, was married to Lieut. Sheldon Brown at Glendale, California, in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather, a reconstruction of Annie Laurie's own original church in Scotland. Isabel Falconer '30 and Sherman Dance were married last year. Shirley Simpson and Gordon Emery were married at Easter time. Beatrice Babbitt '27 is now Mrs. Richard J. Welsh of Erie, Pa. Her three very attractive stepchildren are fortunate and happy to have her for their new mother. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kaval (Josephine Bernard '27) are now living at 102 German Street, Erie, Pa.

We have many reports of other people being married but no one seems to know to whom. We would be glad to have the name of the lucky man and Miss Chapman would appreciate having your new name and new address for the alumni files.

also booted the extra point from placement.

The local warriors held the boys from the hard coal district even throughout the remainder of the first half and the score at intermission read: Mansfield 7, Edinboro 0.

In the third quarter, McDonald ran over his own right tackle, cut back to left and raced twenty yards for the second Mansfield score. Borden added the point. Score: Mansfield 14, Edinboro 0.

The final period saw the invaders turn on another scoring drive that terminated in a score six minutes previous to the final gun. Combs, substitute back, scored on a short play. Borden failed in his attempt for the point.

In the final six minutes, the Raiders started a drive which threatened to carry the ball across the Maroon goal. The final play of the game, a heroic effort to save a shutout, sent Billings back in punt formation. He failed to rifle the final salute, but as he looked for a receiver, two of the Mansfield forwards crashed through. He broke into a run for the left sidelines, leaped into the air and flipped a pass into the arms of Langer, who likewise was in the air for the catch. The gun barked, robbing the Crimson of a first down on Mansfield's ten yard stripe and ending the game.

The local gridders, who played a decidedly improved game, were dealt severe blows in the injuries to Davies and Chimenti, Davies suffering a very painful broken collar bone and Chimenti receiving an injured ankle. "Red" Moorehead also left the game due to aggravation of an injury received in the California game.

SHADES OF YESTERYEAR

Slippery Rock Slips

Before a crowd of three hundred alumni, students and visitors who lined both sides of the gridiron to witness the event, Captain Art Arrowsmith piloted the Edinboro eleven through the most spectacular and decisive intercollegiate battle in the annals of Edinboro athletics. Slippery Rock fell—and how! Having suffered repeated defeats at the hands of lesser foes earlier in the season, this year's Homecoming game was a victory over which we cannot be too generous in our praise for those fellows who smiled at four slaps on one cheek before turning the other to show of what they are actually made.

A touchdown scored in the second quarter through the medium of a very clever pass flashed Slippery Rock's doom. Checking their opponents on every move from the first kick-off to the last whistle, Coach Harrison's men handled the erstwhile reputable Rockers what was perhaps the most surprising defeat in their history. The smashing blow was delivered on the merits of sheer technique and unprecedented physical stamina.

We choose to term it a spectacular game in that Slippery Rock's reputation for having exceptional linemen and aggressive plungers suffered an amusing embarrassment. Time after time bulks of red shot through the green wall of defense, the latter color seemingly appropriate for the unseasoned judgment and resistance displayed. Our sidelines and bleachers were provoked to laughter when our opponents' urge to "show Edinboro what it means to be hit" proved to be nothing but a boomerang.

Let us claim that it was a decisive battle on the grounds that Slippery Rock reaped defeat for the first time this season. While no faces on either team were observed to assume flattened contours, for some reason or other those from the South appeared a wee bit longer when they set out for their home campus. That feature is an especially interesting one in view of the fact that opportunities were afforded the green shirts to demonstrate any of their far sung ability in the vicinity of their own goal.

The immediate move for our victory was furnished by a pass from "Howy" Rose to "Nutts" Arrowsmith over the heads of our unsuspecting opponents. So quickly and accurately was it made and executed that it ranks as a piece of unparalleled technique. More remote but ever as paramount causes for our victory were Coach Harrison's reorganization during the week preceding the game and the splendid support, fighting persistence and enthusiasm during the game as displayed by every member of the team. The 6-0 score will probably remain on record longer than pigskins will be used to kick around. It will ever remain in the memories of those who witnessed the event and who are justly proud of every player. Hail to the Edinboro eleven who for the first time ever won a game from Slippery Rock!
