VOLUME VI

PUBLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1921
OF THE BLOOMSBURG
STATE NORMAL SCHOOL
BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

To O. H. BAKELESS

Whose self-sacrifice, arduous labors, and great devotion have done so much for Bloomsburg, we respectfully inscribe these pages.

PROF. O. H. BAKELESS

In view of the marvelous growth of this school in all its departments, it is fitting that due acknowledgement be accorded the one who has been most influential in raising the standard of our school, our principal

DR. CHARLES H. FISHER

The class of nineteen twenty-one expresses its well wishes for the best of success and happiness in inaugurating the new regime.

FOREWORD

Should you ask me whence these stories,
Whence these legends and traditions?
I should answer, I should tell you—
From the sunny hours together,
From the days of happy friendship—
When assembled in our wigwam in our hill top Alma Mater
Round the council fires we gathered, there to hear great tales of wonder—
There to muse upon a future
Builted, pictured, by our teachers, the great warriors of knowledge.
Hush! the sun is slowly setting, sinking far below the mountains
Casting far the shades of evening,
Shades of ev'n upon them
Hark the night bird softly calls us—softly trills to us a farewell
Fare-thee-well Oh braves and maidens,
Fare-thee-well of loved wigwam
Till we meet in sweet reunion,
In the land of brightened future,
In the land of the Hereafter.

Onward, Twenty-One!

Nestled snug amidst the mountains,
 That fade in the far-off blue,
 Stands our Hill-Top Alma Mater,
 Home of mem'ries fond and true.
 Autumn brought the scene of launching
 On ambition's upward way,
 While the gleam—our hearts high—calling—
 Led us on from day to day.
 Through the fleeting months we labored,
 And we triumphed over all,
 Until June proclaimed the parting
 And we answered duty's call.
 E'en afar though we may wander,
 Still o'er us we feel thy sway,
 Guiding us to realms of wonder,
 Where we see the dawn of day.
 Gratitude no language measures,
 And our hearts are brimming o'er,
 Bearing thanks to our dear teachers,
 Guiding Twenty-One to shore.
 Now we look through Time's dim portal,
 In our hearts a glad refrain,
 For the way is winding upward,
 And we hear Work's earnest strain.
 Yes, the way is clearly shining,
 As the golden-tinted West,
 And the way we are pursuing
 Is in sunset colors drest!
 Then to noble Alma Mater,
 Glory, love, and honor be;
 For the wisdom Thou hast taught us,
 May we sing our praise to thee.
 Ah! let us our class keep always
 Highest of the noble high;
 To her name we sing our praises,
 'Till they echo to the sky.
 Knowledge now her doors has opened,
 In our hands has placed the key;
 And to each of us is beckoning
 As we bid farewell to thee.
 Classmates, our farewells are spoken,
 Our life work must be begun;
 Each must strive to bring some glory
 To the name of Twenty-One.

—E. BERNICE PRITCHARD.

Freshman Year

EVERYONE must be a Freshman at some time or other, so we were obliged in '17 to occupy this position. Since this was the year our country entered the World War, we were not so troubled with the fact that we were a class of just eleven, but had confidence for growth in number, spirit and power.

We successfully began our famous career with an election of officers under the supervision of the Junior Class President. The following obtained offices:

H. Keffer Hartline, President; Emma V. Cleaver, Vice-President; Edna M. Pursel, Secretary; Helen B. Phillips, Treasurer.

We selected Garnet and Steel for our class colors and "Know Thyself" for our motto.

Sophomore Year

TO LEAD our class in the continuation of its work, we chose Myrlynn Shafer for President, Mary E. Brower for Vice-President, Edna M. Pursel for Secretary and Helen B. Phillips for Treasurer.

As Freshmen we blindly went about B. S. N. S. clutching our books and fearing every upper classman—as well as the Faculty. Having now attained the distinctive appellation of "Sophomore" we had the pleasure of seeing the present Freshmen enact the same comedy.

But, by careful steering we succeeded in driving the Freshmen after us in the glowing light of the path we had shaped for them.

The Second Year Expression contest was a marked feature, the prizes being won by Myrlynn Shafer and Lewis Welch.

We showed our spirit in all the calls of our country for help in the war, and on Memorial Day we planted a tree on the Campus in memory of Miss Meryl Phillips, who enrolled in the service of our country.

Junior Year

ENROLLED as Juniors, our number swelled to one hundred and fifty strong. We now felt we could attain great ends, and entered enthusiastically into all social, intellectual, and athletic events. To lead the class through these activities we selected for President, Myrlynn Shafer; Vice-President, Alice Smith; Secretary, John Morris, and Treasurer, Russel Davies. The latter resigned and Wilbur Foresman was chosen for the office.

Anthony, Cherrington, Davies, Fish, McDonald, Schell, Shafer, and Sweeney ably represented our class in athletics, and our Girls' Basketball Team scored many victories.

In the Public Speaking Contest two of our members, Bernice Pritchard and Jennie Cooke, received the first and second prizes. The Junior drama, "The Rivals", was the closing event. We were one year nearer our goal.

The Senior Class of 1921

HAVING reached our goal, we determined as Seniors to make our class the best ever graduated from old Normal.

It had come! — The time toward which every Senior looked forward with intense zeal and anticipation — the Senior Class election. We agreed upon Myrlynn Shafer for President, Edna Pursel for Vice-President, Marian Brown for Secretary, and Edison Fisher for Treasurer.

Our Senior year is regarded as one of transformation. The changes which have been made and those that we know will come in the near future, are steadily placing our school on a College basis. Our "Big Problem," the Training School, is becoming more efficient every day, and Student Government is installed to remain.

One of our successful accomplishments during the year was the presentation of "The Quest", in seven episodes, given for the benefit of the Senior Memorial.

We are happy to be members of the Class of '21, whose pleasant memories will ever remain with us. We have endeavored in these brief four years to "Know Ourselves" and we hope each one has been successful.

*"Today well lived makes every Yesterday a dream of happiness
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope,
Look well, therefore, to this Day."*

EMMALINE KITCHEN.
OUR MASCOT.

Thru days of sorrow, and of mirth,
Thru days of failure and of worth,
Thru every swift vicissitude
Of changeful time, unchanged she stood.
'Twas she who, for us, battles won,
Who brought us luck where before was none;
And as like an angel, all things saw,
Truly she made, we'll say in awe,
Twenty-one ever!
Twenty-one forever!

MARIAN E. AGNEW.
Pittston, Pa.

Normal Course; Sec. Y. W. C. A. (3); Callie; Eaglesmere Delegate.

Marian entered "Bloom" as a Freshman, and her four years here have wrought many miracles; for we soon found in her a firm supporter of everything most worth while—a true Callie-pian and classmate, and an energetic worker in the Y. W. C. A.

Marian certainly had a wonderfully hospitable heart for her room was the crossroads of the school, so it seemed, for everyone stopped there. "Yes, Marian, you did have a knack of being unreasonably quiet at times, but your classmates join in a hearty chorus to 'wish thee well'."

JENNIE L. ALDEN.
Plymouth, Pa.

Larkville H. S. ('16); Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course.

"JENNIE."

Jennie joined our class in her Senior year. She is quite a busy lass and we are glad to have her. We gather from her one minute speeches that, "Flowers and Funerals" are her favorite subjects. She is also an ardent worker in Educational Measurements. You may find her any time working bravely over books and problems concerning this course. Eventually we will see Jennie busying herself over many intelligence tests in her own school.

ALICE JANE ALLEN.
Harvey's Lake, Pa.

L. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo (3), (4); Y. W. C. A. (3), (4); G. D. C. (3); G. A. A. (3), (4).

Alice has the rare distinction of being the only girl in the school who can talk and study at the same time; and say, have you heard about her teaching? Well, she's a "wizz" at it; but she has had previous experience in teaching before coming to us, so perhaps that accounts for it.

She never gets peeved and is always thoroly honest and reliable. She never tells us much about her personal affairs, so we are unable to predict her future career, but something seems to tell us that fate will not allow her to teach long.

At any rate, time will tell; and we feel sure that the best of happiness and success will be yours, Alice.

JOSEPHINE ALLISON.

Catawissa, Pa.
Catawissa High School; Philo; Normal Course;
Entered 1919; Day Student.
"Joe."

*How dreary and lonely,
This world would appear,
If maids like Joe
Did not appear.*

Josephine is better known to us as "Joe." Sweetly smiling and demure, above all else modest—that's "Joe" of the class room. Outside of it she's quite another person. Yes, "Joe" is a good sport, true and steady. "Grit your teeth—and—smile", that is her motto. We couldn't get along without her. With her unselfishness, big-heartedness and loyalty, she has grown straight into the heart of 1921.

MILDRED ANDERSON.

Nanticoke, Pa.
Nanticoke H. S.; Commercial Course; Callie;
Y. W. C. A.

"Mid."

"Mid" arrived on the scene here as a Senior. She has no thoughts whatever of studying—and and is frequently heard saying, "Guess I'll skip today." She is one of our best talkers; when she starts all others cease.

She has wild ideas galore, and we wonder why she goes, so very often, to spend nights and week-ends down town.

The common topic of her discussion is "My Jonnie." Don't rush him too hard "Mid."

LUCY APONICK.

Nanticoke, Pa.
Nanticoke H. S.; Philo. Society; Stu. Gov. Ass.
(4), G. D. C. (3); Normal Course.

*When everybody else has been called on,
And there has been no answer yet,
The Professors always call on Lucy,
She knows it, you just bet!*

Lucy is the conscientious sort of girl, the kind who never slacks. But, do not take from this that Lucy is so conscientious she never has any good times, for if people are having good times when they laugh, she surely does have some because you can often hear her laughter on third floor front.

She is also a very good proctor. While serving in that high office, she most kindly informed the hall teachers to put out their lights, that the ten o'clock bell had rung.

LOUISE M. AUSTIN.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; S. G. A.
Treas.; Basketball (3), (4).
"AUSTIN."

There never were clouds too black nor shadows too deep to darken Louise's merry world. From sunrise till late evening her melodious voice could be heard. "Be happy while you may," was her slogan. Her interests were centered in basketball and other athletics. Her one high aim we discovered was to be the best "pal" anyone could ever have.

We admire your indomitable spirit, Louise, and trust that you will continue to make other lives brighter by just being happy yourself.

ESTELLA BAKER.
McClure, Pa.

West Beaver Twp. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.

Estella is the demure, quiet, little maiden we learned to respect, so studious, she really became a model. Tho with all her Puritan ways, we discovered that she really could smile and enjoy many a joke at the rare expense of her classmates.

Estella, may you always have the best that this queer old world deems fit to give.

MARGARET BALDAUSKI.
Wyoming, Pa.

Normal Course; Wyoming High School; Callie;
Callie Drama (4).
"MAGGIE."

Margaret is as sweet a girl as you can find. Her sweet smile, good nature and serious yet laughing eyes have won her many hearts and friends in B. S. N. S.

"Maggie" is ambitious, earnest, and faithful. Besides this, my friends, she knew when and where to have a good time and everyone enjoyed her serious merry-making.

Margaret has had a hard two years at B. S. N. S. but by her constant effort has succeeded wonderfully. Her interests are varied but the greatest is to make good. We are sure that we will miss her greatly in the years to come, especially her serious expression, "My Ward."

Margaret's future seems to point to school teaching, in which we wish her the greatest of success.

GLADYS BEDDALL.

Hazleton, Pa.

Normal Course; Hazleton High; Philo; Philo
Corresponding Sec'y (+); Y. W. C. A.; G.
A. A.

"GLAD."

*Her eyes are bright, her eyes are brown,
And personal charms has she,
So that is why she's a belle in town,
And as popular as can be.*

Gladys is a girl who is willing to do what she can to help others. She never refuses to do what she is asked and always does it to the best of her ability.

Gladys is also quite an artist and is often found making posters or painting pictures for her friends. She is very fond of dancing, too. In fact, there is very little which this versatile girl does not do.

ODA H. BEHR.

Lopez, Sullivan Co., Pa.

Callie Society; L. H. S.; Normal Course; Callie Drama (+).

There are numerous kinds of bears and Oda is a real grizzly, and she comes from the "roof" of Pennsylvania—Sullivan County. It was here that she acquired that undying love for horses and outdoor sports. So in her three years at Normal, she has been like an unbroken colt—full of mischief and fun. If there was any trick played or any mischief done, always turn to Oda as the cause.

And temper? Oh, yes, she has a hot one, especially when asked if she is putting her athletic ability into practice. But we will always think of her as,

First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of her fellow students.

BERTHA BILLMEYER.

Danville, Pa.

Normal Course; Callie.

"BILLIE."

Bertha joined us in our Freshman year and is nearly a celestial being now, having roomed in Paradise Alley for four long years. Her specialty is candy and salted peanuts, especially in 10-lb. boxes, which are plentifully supplied by—but we mustn't tell. If we think very hard we will be sure to blame it on the original of the picture which occupies such a prominent place on her dresser.

We doubt if she teaches till she is pensioned but, you never can tell. She has a sweet disposition which makes her loved by all.

Her ambition is to be a good cook. I wonder why? Something tells me that her future occupation is practicing her ambition. May success and happiness crown her undertakings!

BEATRICE BLACKMAN.

Kingston, Pa.

K. H. S.; Junior Drama; Normal Course; Callie.

"BEE."

"Bee"—our butterfly lady, and most popular citizen of Third Floor, Front—has won a ready place in every heart. In brown eyes we found depth and sincerity; in ability to dance we found a dainty poise and easy grace, and we were not lonely victims for many times the cry rang down the corridors: "Oh! I have a Paine!"

"Bee," your classmates wish for you a world of happiness and success.

EDITH BLOSSOM.

Hawley, Pa.

Hawley High School '19; Normal Course; Philo;
Y. W. C. A.; Eaglesmere Delegate.

"EDITH."

Edith is another member of our "distinguished set," possessing that admirable quality of being "Quiet"—but "Still Waters Run Deep" and so the fable ends that after all she is one of the first to enjoy a "good time."

We like your spirit, Edith, we esteem your ready sympathy and sincere friendship which you extend to all. May happiness be yours always.

LAURA BOETTCHER.

Hazleton, Pa.

Hazleton High School; Philo; Y. W. C. A.;
Normal Course; Entered 1919.

"LAURA."

"A little learning is a dangerous thing, Drink deep, or taste not, the Pierian Spring."

Laura, during her two years with us, has always followed the poet's advice to the letter in drinking deeply at the fountain of learning and has reached the goal with success. She is a conscientious student and no matter how hard a task may loom before her she has proven herself capable of completing successfully.

She is a perfect George Washington, so truthful, that when an opinion is asked (but never otherwise) Laura tells the truth, whether it is flattering or vice-versa. For this reason the girls always seek her advice on any question of importance. She expects to take up teaching and fortunate will be her pupils.

LYDIA BOHN.

Scranton, Pa.

Normal Course; Central High; Philo; Y. W.
C. A.; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; D. Y. C.

"BOHN."

*Big dark eyes of brown,
A fair face that knows no frown,
A pleasant manner, winning way,
That's our Lydia every day.*

Some of us know her by the name of Lydia, others by the name of "Bohn" but whatever we call her, she is still one of the dearest girls we have ever met.

Lydia's loving disposition and willingness to give a helping hand when needed are characteristics for which we all admire her. Behind those dark brown eyes "mischief doth lurk."

Lydia is always ready to receive and play a joke. Her happy nature, and her winning smile have won her many friends among both boys and girls. Altho she remarks that she likes teaching we know she is not destined to become a school "marm." Hence we advise her now for once and all to settle down in Scranton.

OLGA BORUCH.

Minersville, Pa.

Philo.; G. A. A.; Orchestra; Commercial.

"OLG."

"Is quiet a maiden, as you can find."

"Olg" came to us, in her Senior year from that well-known place of Minersville. She was a quiet and demure maiden at first, but only a few weeks passed by until she became "acquainted." Soon you could hear her playing "Yankee Doodle" on the typewriter when the teacher was not about.

A case! Who? Where? What kind? Violin! Yes, that is "Olg"—fond of her violin as well as of her friends.

In spite of everything "Olg" is a hard-working girl and believes in work before pleasure, which partly accounts for her success in the Commercial department.

HELEN BOYER.

Paxonville, Pa.

Middleburg H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.

Helen dear,—red hair certainly is deceiving. These two years we have waited breathlessly to detect the "fighting spirit" that accompanies it—but to no avail.

Boyer is one of the best "pals" you'd want for any occasion, whether it be tears or smiles. We wish you only the best success, Helen.

MARGARET M. BRADY.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Hanover Twp. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.
"PEG."

*"A very noisy maiden, and a jolly friend as well,
I know a lot about her, but I haven't time to tell."*

Dear reader, let me introduce you to "Peg." She joined our class in its Junior year, a quiet, dignified, timid little lass. This year she is anything but quiet. Has she changed? Ask the bunch! Many an escapade has had its origin in room 207. This was proven by the silence that reigned on the hall while "Peg" was holding down the strenuous position of Proctorship.

Here's to success, "Peg." For further details of this young lady ask—"Greater Wilkes-Barre."

LILLIE E. BREISCH.
Ringtown, Pa.

Ringtown H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W.
C. A.

"TUBBY."

*"A sunny disposition, and lots and lots of glee,
Makes a jolly, joyful maiden,—
And such a maid is she."*

Lillie is one of the many cheerful girls of the class of '21. "Laugh and grow fat" seems to be her motto. She can laugh at almost anything, but we can't hate her for that—we rather like it.

We must be careful in what we say to her, for her cheeks show a deep crimson, especially—well—when the Cadillac is mentioned.

We hear she is making a very successful primary teacher. We don't wonder, for we are quite sure she intends to take up that phase of work some way or other—some time soon.

RUTH BROBST.
Wyalusing, Pa.

Wyalusing High School; Philo.; Normal
Course; Y. W. C. A.

"RUTH."

Ruth is quiet and reserved, but once you know her you cannot help liking her. She is a faithful worker toward her ultimate, a model school teacher.

Of Ruth we can truly say, "Still water runs deep." During the evening study hour she is never found out of her room, but is always deeply interested in her books. Even as you might think she was very timid, but in this you are mistaken, as she is very fond of making pets of mice.

Never mind about that, for if life is as faithful to you, as you are faithful to your books, we are sure of your success, Ruth.

MARY E. BROWER.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Callie Society; Normal and College Preparatory Courses; Vice-President of Class (2).

Always faithful to old B. S. N. S.,

We wish her joy and happiness,

To Mary belongs the credit of always being true to B. S. N. S. since she has spent all of her happy school days within its walls. She is always willing to do her share in class affairs and is an ardent booster at all of the athletic events that take place at Normal.

We hear that she has become attached to an ex-soldier who is a student at the school but then Mary always was fond of soldiers; but there are worse things than this, Mary.

For the last two years she has been collector of class dues and this has been no easy job altho Mary did not seem to mind. "Why can't they all be contented like me?" is her motto.

MARIAN BROWN.

Hazleton, Pa.

St. Gabriel's High School; Philo. (3), (4); Class Secretary (4); Normal Course; Philo. Drama (4).

"A little of the azure sky,

A touch of sunset pink;

The grace of a swaying maple,

And you have—what do you think?

Our Marion."

Popular? well we'll say so. There's never a thing happens in Philo. or in Student Government that Marion isn't ready to lend a hand and make things "go." She is always smiling and makes everyone happy when she is around, and her "pet" expression, "Hello, Girl Friend," may often be heard on Third Floor.

ADELINE M. BUCHINSKI.

Mount Carmel, Pa.

Mt. Carmel H. S.; Philo. Society; Normal Course; Student Government.

"Bush."

Yes, she looks quiet and rather reserved, but "appearances are often deceiving," as the saying goes. In spite of this, however, she has made many friends and is well liked by all who know her.

We understand that she is interested in a Mr. Somebody, but as she does not say much about him we infer that he is a sailor man and resides in New Hampshire. Is that right, "Bush"?

Calm, quiet but mischievous and cool,

She left Mt. Carmel for this dear school,

Her favorite song is "Tipperary Mary,"

She is a dandy kid but can be contrary.

MILLER I. BUCK.
Danville, Pa., R. D. 5.

Philo.; Commercial course; Day Student.
"Buck."

"Buck" is a very mild and bashful sort of a chap who entered our class in 1919. He is a very earnest worker and never allows the girls to enter his mind in any way.

We believe he will be successful in a business career and all our wishes go with him.

ADELINE BURGESS.
Carverton, Pa.

Wyoming H. S.; Commercial; Philo.
"Kid."

"There must be a lot of music in her, for none ever came out."

A somber, dark-eyed lass, hailed to us from Carverton. She was so very quiet, it was weeks before we knew she was here. Although she is quiet, she can talk, when she once gets started; the trouble is to get her started.

Promptness was her motto when she performed the strenuous duties of a proctor. Before the ten o'clock bell stopped ringing "Kid" would call out, "Girls, not so much noise." She is one of those illustrious members of Alpha Hall.

CLYDE BURLINGAME.
Almedia, Pa.

Espy H. S.; Commercial Course; Day Student;
Philo.

When Clyde came to our school he decided on the Commercial Course. He is a very good student in that department and may easily be remembered pounding away incessantly on the typewriter.

We are all looking forward to great things from him.

ALETA CARL.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.

"LETE."

*Lete can always put on a bluff,
And is never without her powder puff;
But her poor nose is not to blame,
It has to suffer just the same.*

"Leta" entered our class in our Junior year and we recognized her as a leader immediately. She displayed her ability in this line in the Gymnasium Contest at midyear State Board Examination.

She elected the Primary Course because she loved children and so she could sleep on Monday morning after her Berwick visitors left. We don't blame "him" for we all love Aleta.

LAWRENCE R. CHERRINGTON.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Roaring Creek Twp. H. S.; Callie; Football Squad (3); College Prep.; Callie Drama (4).

"CHERRY."

He is little, but oh my!

"Cherry" lived in the dormitory during his first year. In that time he became an expert in the art of skipping out after 10 o'clock and thereby getting himself in the bad graces of the hall teachers.

Does he shine with the ladies? It would be putting it mildly to say that he is a star. Ah! dear reader, we shudder to think of the number of hearts he has shattered here at Normal—and elsewhere. Where? Well we think it is in the vicinity of Center Street.

Heaps and heaps of success.

EMMA CLEAVER.

Elysburg, Pa.

Callie Society; Normal Course; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; Student Government Association; Entered as Modelite in Seventh Grade.

*"She has big brown eyes,
And a complexion fair;
She is light on toe,
And has dark brozen hair."*

"CLEAVER."

Emma is well known around old B. S. N. S. since she came here as a Modelite and has remained here six years. She is a wonder as a decorator as was proven by the decorations for Junior reception '19. But that is not all; she is a good worker in society too. What public program has been given in which "Cleaver" has not been willing to take part, and that part has been no little part either?

In plain words, Emma sure is a good scout, and hasn't been squelched by Nora for many a moon.

MARTHA A. COLE.
Jamison City, Pa.

Sugarloaf H. S.; Normal Course; Vice-President
Callie; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; Callie
Drama (4).

"MART."

"Mart" is one of our "seem to be" good little girls. But after you know her you'll judge for yourself. We find her to be quite unsettled, having changed her abode from Second Floor to North Hall, which she says "has it all over Second." We wonder? Also teaching — from Group H to I.

We predict she will settle sometime in the near future. Never mind "Mart," we think you are one of our best "pals" anyway, and it sure helps a lot when you change your mind.

JEAN CONNOR.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Philo. Society; G. D. C.; G. A. A.;
Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Student Government.

"CONNIE."

Yes, this is our Jean. The first impression that we had of her when she came in our midst was that of a very quiet and dignified lady, but as we grew to know her we changed our minds. Her sparkling black eyes are simply brimming over with — mischief.

Who said that "Connie" didn't make a good proctor? Are you guilty? If so, you will change your mind if you ask the girls on Third Floor front.

We must conclude in saying that she is not always mischievous or frivolous but is a very good and earnest worker in all the school activities. Keep it up, Jean, and good luck to you!

JENNIE COOKE.

C. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.;
G. D. A. (3); G. A. A. (3-4); Y. W. C. A.
Treas. (4); G. A. A. Treas. (4); W. S. G.
A. (4); "Obiter" Staff (4); Eaglesmere
Delegate (3); 2nd Prize Magee Contest
(3); N. H. B. Rural Club (4).

"COOKIE." "DR. KOOK."

*Did you ever see a girl just full of pep?
Always a'smilin', the best sport yet,
Can't you guess this puzzle?
We'll then take another look.
She's a North-Hall lassie, her name is Jennie Cooke.*

She's just bubbling over with fun and also ideas. Yes, when you are in great need of an idea, go to Jennie. She will have one for a program, a white elephant sale or anything else that you want. To really tell the truth, she might give you an idea about how to create disturbances because I think she is responsible for some that take place in North Hall. But never mind, Jennie, we think you are just all right.

HOWARD C. CORSE.

Susquehanna, Pa.

Hartford H. S.; Junior Drama; Treas. of Y. M. C. A.; Callie Society; Vice-Pres. B. D. C.; Normal Course.

"CORSE."

*One day it was a nice one, no fakin',
"Corse" went down to have his picture taken;
And the photographer to him, was heard to say
My boy, you're the best looker I've had to-day.*

Howard came here seeming to be real young but the course he selected no doubt gave him grown up dignity. He is what we term "a peach of a fellow," a fellow who is sensible and at the same time a good sport. He certainly can claim many friends at old B. S. N. S.

SAMUEL DAVIS.

Ringtown, Pa.

Y. M. C. A.; B. D. C.; Class Basketball; Baseball; Track Team (1), (2), (3); Callie Drama (3); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (4); Entered Freshman Year.

*"He wakes us in the morning
Before the peep of day;
He 'slings the hash' at meal-time,
In a very hustling way.
What could we do without him?
Well I don't know, do you?
For Sam's the 'bestest' fellow,
To keep us from getting blue."*

Words can't begin to express the debt of gratitude we owe to Sam for working for us during our career here at Old Normal. He came in the first year and since then has been one of the best workers in our class. But work isn't all he does. No sirree, for when a good time is scheduled Sam is always first on hand—and mixed dances—well, he likes 'em.

Sam is a good athlete too and can jump like a kangaroo when it comes to a jumping contest. We could write about Sam for the next year but we just don't have the room in this little book, so we must stop before we have told everything about him; but we must say that Sam is a good sport, a good friend and liked by everyone. The best of success to you Sam.

ANNA DE BONIS

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Philo.; R. C.; Normal Course; S. G. A. "ANNA."

"Good things come in small packages." She says Wilkes-Barre is the only place; we wonder if there isn't some attraction beside home. Anna has many good qualities. She is a lover of "Trig," and an ideal proctor. The girls on long hall Second stood in terror when Anna was in charge.

Her motto is, "Laugh and the world laughs with you." An excellent trait, Anna! Anna may teach five years but we doubt it.

HELEN E. DECKER.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg High School '19; Normal Course.
"DECK."

*Dimples were always snares,
And "Deck" has her full share;
Indeed her charms are not in vain,
For she has captured the heart of many a swain.*

"Deck" is one of the most lovable girls who entered Normal in the year of '19. With her pleasing personality she has won a host of friends. This can be seen by her frequent visits to the girls' dorm.

We must say that "Deck" is not shy as her shrill voice can be heard at all hours of the day but nevertheless "Deck" is a good sport. We hear that she is extremely interested in State College but we suppose this is due to the fact that one of her girl friends attends that school.

"Deck" intends teaching in Jersey but we predict that Cupid will soon end this.

MARGARET J. DEITRICK.

Mt. Carmel, Pa.

Normal Course; Mt. Carmel High School '19;
Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; G. D. C.
"PEG." "MARG."

*None know her but to love her,
None named her but to praise.*

Do you know a blue-eyed, auburn haired maid with a pleasant smile and friendly word for everyone she meets? That's our "Peg." She possesses a most pleasing manner and always looks on the bright side of life.

We imagine from various hints in the form of letters and candy that "Marg's" career as a teacher will be short. Whatever life may hold for her, we feel sure that she will meet it in her usual sunny manner. Always remember, "Peg," that you have many good wishes backing you.

VICTOR E. DOBKAVAGE.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Wilkesbarre H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; B.
D. C.

"Vic."

Yes, he was "blue" when he got here. Remember calling some one to the Parlor to sympathize with him. Well he is all over that now—at least we think so. But he still retains that quietness which we are afraid will never leave him.

He has proven to be of service to those in need. Sunday nights especially. We wonder why. Many thanks, "Vic."

*"Tall as the tallest tree,
Clever a dancer as there can be;
Graceful, with a peculiar swinging step,
One of the nicest fellows we ever met."*

MARION A. DENNIS.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S. '19; Y. W. C. A.; Philo.; Normal Course; R. C. (4).

"DENNIS."

Marion is quite an historian; her hobby is dates (?). She also surpasses us all in literature. Tell her the name of a book and you will find out its author, or, mention an author and you will soon learn all about him and his books.

"Dennis," as she is known, can always find a new place for everything she handles. Marion is a quiet, unassuming person, but after having a heart-to-heart talk with her, and listening to her droll way of expressing jokes, one cannot forget her. If you want a favor done, go to "Dennie," and if there is any way in which she can help you, you can be sure of the help.

With your ability and memory "Dennis," your success is assured. The good will of the class goes with you as you enter the arena of life.

MILDRED LOUISE DOWNING.

Huntsville, Pa.

Luzerne H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; Society; Callie Drama (4); Y. W. C. A.; Student Government.

Mildred is one of the most dignified girls of the class of '21. She walks along with her head up in the air as tho her thots were in the clouds. From this fact, she is known among the students of the Practice School as "Miss Uppcy." Some difference from Down-ing.

She is also very quiet and shy. She is so exceedingly quiet that you would never know that she was around except after "lights out." In spite of her shy manner, however, she has won many friends.

MARY E. DREESE.

McClure, Pa.

West Beaver Twp.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course.

"MARY."

This quaint little maid of '21's earnest workers is always the same, never known to break any of the famous rules and regulations of the school and always studies early and late.

She has never been known to look at the opposite sex and blushes violently, when you mention them. Now, Mary, you better change your attitude towards the boys or you will be "left on the shelf." Nevertheless

*We wish you a husband
Both gallant and true,
Proud of himself,
But prouder of you.*

ELSIE MARGARET ECKROTE.
Conyngham, Pa.

H. H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course; Y. W. C. A.;
G. A. A.; (3); G. D. C. (3); S. G. A.
(4); Fourth Floor Supervisor (4).

Well here is our Elsie, coming to us in her Junior year after graduating from the "Hazleton High School." She has put that beautiful nature-made valley of Conyngham on the map.

Elsie was loved by all who knew her. For her kind, sympathetic, guiding-like disposition was quite prominent.

She was always fair and square with everyone. This was shown during her term of supervision on Fourth Floor.

Elsie could always be depended upon to have her work finished and never allowed assigned work to go till the last minute.

She has chosen teaching as her life work. We are sure that Elsie will put cheer and sunshine into her school room, which is very essential to this profession.

HELEN ELIZABETH EDWARDS.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student; Philo.
Helen entered Normal in her Junior year. She takes quite an interest in her work and sometimes it is done on time, too. You can always hear her fretting because she has so much to do.

But when there is any fun she is willing to drop her work, if it isn't too great, and go with the "bunch."

She makes friends easily and at present we find her interest centered on a friend in Orangeville. We wonder why (?). There is one thing certain, Helen will make a success at whatever she attempts to do.

HELEN E. EISENHAUR.
Mifflinville, Pa.

M. H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student.
Helen entered B. S. N. S. in her Sophomore year. She is very industrious if you happen in at the right time. However, Helen is always around for any fun and is an all-around good chum. She's fond of automobile rides and Kocher-nuts (cocoanuts).

She has quite a talent for singing, too, and we feel assured that Helen will make a fine music teacher as well as a kindergarten teacher, for she certainly has patience.

*"Her eyes among the men do shine
And some poor guy will toe the line."*

ANGELINE EVANS.

Scranton, Pa.

Technical H. S.; Philo.; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club.; Normal Course.
"ANGIE."

"Scranton Train!" Every night "Ang." makes one wild rush to the window with this cry. But—"There's a Reason"—you know.

"Ang." is a good sport and always good company. Her motto is, "the best way to have a friend is to be one."

"Ang.'s" sympathy is a thing to marvel at, whether it be a broken finger or a broken heart. Kind, generous, and forgiving, she is always ready to lend a helping hand.

*"A friend in need,
Is a friend indeed."*

OLWEN E. EVANS.

Nanticoke, Pa.

Nanticoke H. S.; Philo. Society; G. D. C.; Normal Course; Student Government.

Olwen joined us at Normal in our Junior year. She is a very jolly girl and her laugh is always hearty and contagious. Whenever you hear anyone going down the halls singing "I know what it means to be Lonesome" at the top of her lungs, you instantly make up your mind that it is Olwen.

She has decided to take up kindergarten work and in this she is a very earnest and faithful worker. Best wishes of the class are extended to you, Olwen!

AGNES MAE EYERLY.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student; Philo.

Do you know Mae? You do! Most everyone does, for on the bluest of blue days when we meet her she always has a sunny smile and something cheery to say. Alas! What would she do if she couldn't talk?

Mae is never heard in the cloak room noons (?????) and she never talks in the library (?????). But after all Mae is a good sport and studious. She would never think of breaking a rule or miss anything that is going on at the school.

She is very well liked by everyone and we all wish her a happy, bright and prosperous future.

JULE M. FAGAN.
 Latemer Mines, Pa.

Hazleton Twsp. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.;
 G. A. A.; S. G. A.

"FAGEY."

Here is Jule, the Charlie Chaplin of the Short Alpha Hall. The Suzanna Holligan of table No. 23, and when all is said, she's one good sport.

In the fore part of our school year of 1919 a wind storm, the worst that ever raged in this part of Pennsylvania, had its course from Hazleton to Bloomsburg. Thus Jule explains her presence here.

We, the class '21, are glad that the typhoon did not go astray. What would we do without Jule? What would B. S. N. S. be likened to if it were minus Jule's originality? Can Jule keep a secret? Oh! yes, till she passes into slumberland; then, with a series of acrobatic stunts and unerring confidence, she reveals to us her secrets. Never mind, "Fagey," we never repeat them.

May the best of luck crown her in the future is the wish of the class of 1921.

MARY FERNSLER.
 Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Normal Course.; Philo.; Philo
 Drama (3); Junior Drama.

If a prize were awarded to the thinnest member of our class I think Mary would win it. Yes, by all means, she is a member of one of our underweight tables.

Anyway, she is popular in dramatics, as was shown last year. She usually represented some "crabby" old maid, but we are almost sure that this will never be a reality. If the reader will kindly walk into Mary's room and glance at a certain picture over the bed he will find—well, that the "Long" and short of it is that Mary will never be an old maid.

ELIZABETH E. FETHEROLF.
 Ringtown, Pa.

Ringtown H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W.
 C. A.

"BETZ."

"Betz" came to Normal in our Junior year from Ringtown High School. She is one of those girls whom we think are rather distant, but when we know them they are just bubbling over with fun. She delights especially in kidding her chum.

On account of illness she has been obliged to miss a great deal from school, but she is an earnest worker, and we are sure she will make a successful teacher. Her plans are to go West if all is favorable.

CLARA E. FISHER.
Mahanoy City, Pa.

M. C. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; W. S. G. A.

"Ye Gods, How She Talks!"

A quiet girl until she gets started, but whoever saw her when she wasn't started? She talks all day until she passes into dream land and is ready to begin again when the riser rings.

She and her chum are seldom separated, for they have what may be classified as a "Teriacle Case."

After all, Fisher is a good-hearted, clever, original lass and we hope that when she leaves she will ever know "Dame Fortune," but will never meet her daughter, "Mis-Fortune."

THOMAS EDISON FISCHER.
Glen Lyon, Pa.

Normal Course; Entered 1919; Pres. of Philo. (4); Pres. of B. D. C. (4); Vice-Pres. of Y. M. C. A. (4); Treas. of Senior Class. "FISCHER."

Brimful of class spirit and ever ready to lend a helping hand, Fischer is never excited in any emergency. He has proven his efficiency as cheer leader for the past two years.

Fischer is a living impersonation of the creed, "Keep on the Sunny Side of Life." Endowed by Mother Nature with unlimited pep and a keen insight into the realm of mischief, he keeps his classmates in constant suspense as to what his next word or act may be.

Thoughtful of others, unselfish in all his dealings, always willing to help in whatever is at hand, and, withal, capable of doing whatever he undertakes, he leaves school with the best wishes of everyone.

WARREN FISHER.
Mainville, Pa.

M. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo. Society; Second Year Contest; Junior Drama (3); Rural Club Pres. (4); Philo Drama (3); Pres. Philo. (4).

"FISHER.

Hear that giggle? Here comes Warren. Fisher has been inquiring daily concerning his "write-up." Don't lost any sleep, for all things come to those who wait, Warren!

Fisher is a very energetic person, taking an active part in everything that goes on in school life. He is thinking seriously of taking up medicine, but we feel sure he would do better in another line. Army life does have its allurements, especially when one is placed in charge of a "Garrison."

GLADYS J. FLYNN.
Great Bend, Pa.

G. B. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; G. A. A.; G. D. C (3); S. G. A. (+); N. H. B.

"A mighty man of valor—is she."

Gladys was thought, by those who didn't know her, to be one of the quiet members of our class. She was quiet at times—when she slept.

And did you say she could yell? Well she was right there at each and every game and her voice could be heard above all the others.

Nevertheless, she was a very earnest worker and many an event planned by the different organizations turned out a success thru her efforts. She is a basketball player worthy of mention, too, for she helped make up the North Hall team.

She says that she will teach for an indefinite period—we wonder! The best of success to you, Gladys!

MARIE C. FOLEY.
Pittston, Pa.

St. John's H. S. '19; Normal Course; Philo. Society; G. D. C.; G. A. A.; W. S. G. A.

"Heavy hair and quiet eyes, Merry, meek, and even wiser."

Marie is one of the quiet, shy kind, and it took us a long time to get acquainted with her; but when we finally succeeded we found her to be jolly, witty, and chatty.

Marie is a frequent visitor to our town library as she is very fond of reading, but her visits will soon be ended as she has read almost every book down there. Marie's greatest ambition is to travel and see the world. We are sure that whatever Marie's life work may be, her untiring energy will bring her success.

WILBUR S. FORESMAN.
Dewart, Pa.

College Prep.; Pres. Y. M. C. A.; Pres. Callie (+); Class Treas. (3); Y. M. C. A. Treas. (3); Des Moines Delegate; Callie Drama (3, 4); Junior Drama; Varsity Football (4); Editor-in-Chief "Obiter."

"FORESMAN."

The eyes of the audience please turn this way! We take pleasure in presenting "Foresman," one of our best classmates.

Did you say work? Well, he's right there, not only for himself, but in working the Y. M. C. A. or Callie.

If you have the least doubt as to his ability to "speechify," ask him about the conference at Des Moines or Christmas in Algiers. Speaking of Algiers, maybe you'll want to join the Navy afterward,—I did.

All in all Foresman is a leader and a good interesting one at that. Here's our hand on it, Wilbur.

FRANCES M. FURMAN.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Philo.; Commercial Course.
"HOPE."

Frances joined us in our Senior year as a Commercial student. "Hope" keeps in touch with all the doings at Bucknell—for several reasons, but then,—we promise not to speak about that.

"Hope" is always ready for a good time, her studies being the least of her troubles. But with all, she's a good sport with a host of friends.

*"She can dance and she can sing,
For what 'Hope' can do is everything."*

ANNA C. GARRISON.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.
"GARRY."

"Who has not seen that feeling born of flame, Crimson of cheek at mention of a name?"

See that faint blush and that distant expression. I wonder of whom Anna is thinking, at present? Anna works hard and needs recreation; we advise "Rolling Green Park."

"Garry," we know, will surely be a success as she represents a goodly share of the class brains. Anna's interests are centered on teaching so we say, "Go to it, Garry, old pal; you'll win!"

ERMA GEARHART.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Commercial Course.

Short, light-haired, with glasses? Yes, that's her. My, isn't she nice! A pleasing personality, did you say? My goodness, yes! Everybody likes Erma.

Erma is one of our steady, easy-going people. She doesn't allow business to interfere with pleasure, nor pleasure with business. Now, don't mistake us, and think she doesn't work. But, "first come, first served" is Erma's motto.

Speaking of business, some one told us that they believed Erma would take up a new line of business sooner or later, the business of taking care of—— oh well, we're wishing you happiness, Erma!

RUTH IRENE GEARHARD.

Germantown, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Normal Course; Philo. Society; G. A. A.; S. G. A.; N. H. B.; Fire Chief N. H. B.

"Oh, I live in Germantown, right outside of Philadelphia." Yes, Ruth, I think we could find that place on the map in the dark now; but, honestly, we think you really put it on the map.

Since Ruth has been in North Hall she has been one of the merry-makers of the place and has had some exciting times. For instance—well, ask her about the morning the carpenters fixed her window. In this connection we would say that Ruth would consider it a crime if anyone would wake her before eight o'clock.

We predict for her a political future; that is— if she follows in the footsteps of "my uncle in Parliament." Here's hoping you soon run for governor, Ruth, whether it's of Pennsylvania or of a little apartment in Athens.

MARY GILLASPY.

Benton, Pa.

Benton H. S.; Philo. Society; Pres. of Y. W. C. A. (3), (4); G. D. C. (3); Stu. Gov. Association (4); G. A. A. (3), (4); Delegate to Eaglesmere; Ch. of Individual History Committee.

*"As sweet as any flower,
As kind as kind an be;
A wonder when in trouble,
More than a friend to me.
Always ready for laughter,
Or ready to sympathize with tears;
May you ever be so, Mary,
Thru'out many, many long years."*

"Mary is one of those girls who is a friend to everybody and a friend worth having. She is always ready for fun and always has a cheerful, happy look. She is never more happy than when she is helping somebody else and as a result we certainly do think a lot of Mary.

MARY GILROY.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Wilkes-Barre H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; G. A. A.; Alpha Hall B. B. Team; G. D. C.; Rural Club.

"GILLY."

*"Here's to the girl called 'Gilly',
If ho doesn't know how to be silly;
She went for a walk (not to be mean),
And walked home with a fellow named 'Screen'."*

Next on this "honor roll" comes "Gilly," a friend to all who treat her rightly, but woe betide those who cross her path.

She is always "up to her neck" in work, but is done before most of us get started. About her future—well! ask Stanley.

LYDIA GREENE.

Scranton, Pa.

C. H. S. '19; Commercial Course; Philo. Society;
G. A. A.; G. D. C.; W. S. G. A.

"LYD."

*She isn't tall, she isn't short,
She isn't thin, she isn't fat,
She's just about half way between,
And a peach of a girl at that.*

The course Lydia took was rather unusual, and not a very easy one, for she combined work from the pedagogical department with her regular Commercial. Third Floor was never any quieter because of her presence, for to her fun and a good time was the "spice of life."

As fun-loving as she was she still had time to be serious, which was shown by the good work she accomplished in helping to draw up the constitution of the "W. S. G. A." As to her ability as a teacher we refer you to the young men of the Commercial Department. Here's to success, "Lyd."

M. GRACE GRIFFITHS.

Plymouth, Pa.

Plymouth H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W.
C. A.; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; N. H. B.; Delegate to Eaglesmere; W. S. G. A.

"GRIFF."

*"Some think this world was made for fun and frolic,
And so do I, and so do I."*

When Grace came she was singing that ditty, and she has never stopped. And, more important, she lives up to her song. She is always bubbling over with fun, and occasionally it bubbles over after the hour of ten. Her happy giggle seems to be a signal for everyone to feel happy too, and nobody can be blue when "Griff" is around. Grace is always ready to help us in our hour of trial, especially in our hour of hunger.

KATHERINE E. GRONKA.

Glen Lyon, Pa.

Newport Twp. H. S. '19; Philo.; W. S. G. A.;
Normal Course.

She is certainly one of the merriest and most industrious of her class. She entered the Normal Course as a Junior and won a fine reputation. Her interest in all things around her is great, but her greatest interest, we fear, is at Penn State. Some of us may know the reason. However, her rosy career will not be cut short, we hope.

Altogether, "Katie" is a friend to anyone worthy of such friendship. She always has a good word and helping hand for everyone, which we know is an admirable asset. She is well known because of her merry laugh, clever stunts, and noise. Everyone prophesies and hopes for her a successful future.

BEN GROSSMAN.
Hazleton, Pa.

Hazleton H. S.; Callie; B. D. C.; Varsity Basketball (+).

*"To be good or not to be good,
That is the question."*

Benny hails from the "Mountain City." He entered late in our Junior year and was a welcome addition to our class. During the two years spent at Normal, Ben worked hard to do in four days what the rest of us did in five, for the class rooms very seldom saw Benny on Saturday.

We have often wondered why he was so partial to "Bush's" but suppose or guess it was because Ben likes sweets. ? ? ?

Bennie's love of fun often gave him many weeks on the "grass" but cheer up, there was more than one ghost. Somehow we can never see Ben teaching, but his love of an argument will probably lead him to a high position in the Supreme Court. Here's success to you, Benny.

MARIE V. HARKINS.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Wilkes-Barre H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course; Rural Club; G. A. A.

"HARKY."

*"Small and winsome, full of fun,
That is why we call her—the little one."*

Here is another member of the widely-known Wilkes-Barre "bunch." Altho the smallest resident on Short Alpha, she can always be heard before she can be seen. Whenever Marie is reminded of her small stature, she usually replies, "Well, I'd heaps rather be small and shine than be big and cast a shadow."

Much could be written about her but this small space could never do justice to our little "Harky," a good sport and above all a generator of happiness.

MARGARET G. HARNED.
Peckville, Pa.

Blakely H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course; Y. W. C. A.

*Margaret is a peach when you get to know her,
But don't get too smart or you'll not be in the clover.*

All those who know Margaret like her immensely, but it is a difficult problem to get acquainted with her. At first one gets the impression that Margaret doesn't desire company but that is not true. She has a wonderful vocabulary and expresses herself exceedingly well, if anything troubles her. We would suggest that profession of elocutionist or speaker would prove profitable.

However, her success in cooking would be a temptation to any man. Well, Margaret's work has always been well done and we prophesy a successful future.

RUTH HARTMAN.

Benton, Pa.

B. H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student.

"Hello Ruth, why so happy?" Ruth is one of the many who came to us in our Junior year, and since then has made many friends, for her pleasant smile is always with her, winning its way into everyone's heart.

She seldom gets cross, but when she does—Oh, Boy! She spends most of her vacant periods in the cloak room standing before the mirror, but we can't blame her for this; "looks are an adornment to everyone."

We hear excellent reports about her practice teaching and we feel sure that her teaching career will be successful, while it lasts; we're wondering how long it will last. Could you tell us, Ruthie?

HESTER HENRIE.

Nescopeck, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo.; Day Student.

What's all that noise over there? What? Did you say all that is coming from little Hester Henrie? "Yep!" acknowledges Hester, "Lincoln was great, but I am greater." Of course it isn't height that counts, we know; it's what's right down in your cranium.

Hester doesn't care for the boys at all. It's the boys that care for Hester; and any place, any time, or anywhere you see Hester you will always be sure to see one of the opposite sex,—even at football games—eh, Hester?

Putting all joking aside, Hester is a good teacher, tho we don't think she will take up that line of work. "Just a love nest" is more to Miss Henrie's liking.

CAMILLA LUCILLE HERMAN.

Mehoopany, Pa.

Mehoopany H. S.; Tunkhannock H. S.; Philo.; Philo. Drama (3); Vice-Pres. Philo (4); Y. W. C. A.; G. D. C.; G. A. A.; W. S. G. A.; Fire Captain Third Floor (4).

"CAMILLE."

"Camille" wended her cheery way to Bloomsburg in our Junior year and no sooner had she arrived than she began to make friends. Maybe it was her nod and sunny smile; maybe it was her kindness and willing heart; but I sort of think it was her own sweet self that made us love her so.

At any rate we're glad she came and we're glad to say that she is certainly a steadfast friend.

*Always a'smilin', and never a care,
Always ready to do and dare;
Friend so true of the purest gold,
You in our hearts, Camille, we hold.*

ARDEN HESS.

Benton, Pa.

B. H. S.; College Prep.; Football (4); Callie.
"HESSIE."

Does he smile and make goo-goo eyes? We'll say he does! "Hessie" is one of those boys who are as thick as they are long, so we almost term him a perfect square tho not quite so bad as that. He was a star on our football team last fall, but why shouldn't he be? He has the beef all right! And he can sing too, you just bet,—high tenor an' everything.

Folks can tell the minute they look at him that he has a sweet disposition and they're right, too; we never hear a cross word from our "Hessie" 'cause he's a nice boy. And did you say grin? Well he has it,—"The smile that won't rub off." "Hessie's" motto is,

And while you smile,

And soon there's miles and miles of smiles."

MARGARET E. HINES.

Berwick, Pa.

Berwick H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student.

Margaret Hines comes from the beautiful city of Berwick. Whenever you see this, Margaret, you are sure to see another, also. No, not the explain it, they are "sin-twisters." At present same girl twice, but another Margaret. As they they inform us that they are looking for twins who would make good husbands.

This is another member of the "paper sack brigade." or in other words a trolley student. Every morning, rain or shine, she trudges to Normal and we would sure miss Margaret if she failed to make the car on time. We hope you will always be as prompt and faithful, Margaret, in whatever you do.

MARION HOBBS.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Philo Drama (4); G. A. A.; S. G. A.; R. S. Alpha B. B.

"HOBBS."

The girl with the big black eyes

In which mischief and squelching lies.

"Hobbes" is a member of the so-called "Greater Wilkes-Barre bunch. Ever since her entrance as a Junior she has tried to uphold the reputation of "The Only Place on the Map." as she calls it.

"Hobbes" would never think of skipping during study hour, but, nevertheless, her presence is felt on the hill by the roars of laughter coming from room 277.

Is it Rodgers, Ralph, Francis, or Joe,

Hobbes, please tell us the name of your beau?

WINIFRED HUTCHINSON.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student; Callie.

"HUTCH."

"Hutch" is our Pink Tea Lady, the lass who dances up Normal hill each day,—all smiles and sunshine for her many admirers. No wintry gloom is too despairing for Winnie to chase away.

But there is one overshadowing question in the minds of all. We never knew you to be a Bible student, "Hutch," and still you seem so partial to Paul.

CAROLINE JERVIS.

Scranton, Pa.

Central H. S.; Normal Course; Philo (3), (4);
Y. W. C. A. (3), (4); G. D. C. (3); G.
A. A. (3), (4).

"JERVIS."

"The beauty of her hair bewilders me."

Whenever we hear a gay girlish laugh, and see a tall graceful form approaching we know it is no other than Caroline. She always helps to keep up the morale on "Terrace Hall," and is loved by everyone. Perhaps her sweet disposition is due to the fact that she sells the candy for the Y. W. C. A.

As a training school teacher she is unexcelled, and we presume that she will choose teaching for her life profession (?). Whatever you do the good wishes of '21 go with you, and, it is needless to say, that we know you will be successful.

DONALD JOHNSON.

Mainville, Pa.

Mainville H. S.; Callie; Y. M. C. A.; B. D. C.
"DON."

"Don" entered our class in our Junior year and has been very successful in his work. His great ability is displayed in Chemistry and Physics classes, thus leading us to predict that some day our Don will be a scientist working among unknown elements. He is also interested in wireless telegraphy.

If there is a joke to be told "Don" is right there. His motto is, "Use your mouth for something else beside eating," and he lives up to his motto for you could not find a noisier boy in the "Dorm."

We need scarcely say that we wish him success, for he is on the road to that already. All predict a bright future for "Don."

ELIZABETH JOHNSON.
Olyphant, Pa.

Normal Course; Blakely H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. D. C.; G. A. A.

Elizabeth's strong point is forgetting important things like holding her hat when riding on a roller coaster. In her Junior year, Miss Good discovered her skipping during study hour or after ten o'clock. During her Senior—but Proctors mustn't be tellers.

Elizabeth dotes on cream puffs and Williams' chocolates and gets a box of the latter quite often from ????. Her rosy cheeks and sweet disposition are the envy of every girl on Paradise Hall. With your good nature and ambitious way, we are sure you will have a successful career.

*"A sunny disposition, an effervescent glee,
Makes a jolly, joyful maiden—
Such a maiden, now is she.*

MURIEL V. JOHNSON.
Carbondale, Pa.

Forest City H. S.; Philo. Society; Y. W. C. A.; G. D. C.; G. A. A.; Student Government; Normal Course.

This is one of our "little" girls. She has black hair and black eyes, and does she know how to use them (her eyes)? Well, I guess. This is proven from the number of letters that she gets from different colleges. Almost any time she may be found, either standing by the mail box waiting for the mail to be put in (she is invariably disappointed?), or else in her room answering her numerous correspondents.

Aside from this (for which we cannot blame her) she is a willing, helpful worker and is liked by all who know her.

PAULINE JOHNSON.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Philo.; Day Student.

If ever there was a single individual on whom the all wise Providence bestowed many coveted traits of character, certainly that favored one was Pauline. Shy, attractive, pleasant, capable, energetic and a willing helper, she creates an atmosphere of kindness wherever she goes.

If heredity plays any part whatever in the general character of offspring surely Pauline will inherit a remarkable teaching ability from her very capable father.

She is proficient in History and is undecided whether or not to make this her special subject for teaching. One thing is sure, she will more than likely be among the world's most renowned feminists, for she long ago decided to be an old maid ??

FRANK KLEM.

Glen Lyon, Pa.

Newport Twp. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Philo Drama (4); Y. M. C. A.; Varsity Football (4).

"KLEM."

*"Here is a fellow named Klem,
With a detective air and solemn,
Bright and fair—
With a 'peculiar wave in his hair'."*

Klem joined us in our Senior year. Do we all know him? Well,—he always wears a heavy white slip-on sweater—that's him!

He seems very quiet,—slow in speech, but he will get there sure. He is noted for laughing, especially in recitation rooms where he is frequently reminded of the fact.

All in all he's a good sport; do you recall the episode in the Gym? Well, that shows the stuff Klem's made of.

RUTH L. KLINE.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Mt. Pleasant H. S.; Callie; Normal Course (Rural Work).

"KLINNEY."

Ruth is one of the small girls of our class. Being small she came early to avoid the rush and so has been here for four years. Ruth is a conscientious worker, doing all and everything she is told to do.

Just at present "Kliney" is taking up rural work, and we know she doesn't always intend teaching but will substitute for it a cozy little farm near Rohrsburg.

"All good things come in small packages."

RUTH MARGARET KOCH.

Hazleton, Pa.

H. H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course; Honor Student; G. D. C. (3); G. A. A. (3); S. G. A. (4).

This bright little lass arrived from Hazleton last year from Hazleton High School, where she stood high in her class and has kept up the good work at Normal until she has become one of our honor students. We feel sure Ruth will carry this reputation thru life.

If you did not know Ruth you might think her sedate, but if you could see her at a Sunday night feed you would see for yourself that she is a jolly, good-natured, whole-hearted girl.

MABEL DOROTHEA KRAFT.
Hazleton, Pa.

H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Treas. Rural Club; Normal Course; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; S. G. A.; Obiter Staff.

Mabel, our auburn-haired lass, came to us in September, 1919, from the coal region of Hazleton. She was not here very long until her artistic ability became known, and it has been working ever since.

Mabel is brimful of sunshine and good fun, and we don't mind being kidded when she is doing the kidding.

BEATRICE LANSHE.
Allentown, Pa.

Allentown H. S.; Philo.; Student Gov. A.; Rural Club.

"BEE."

"Quick and hair-triggerous, Joyous and vigorous."

If you want to know about anything from the latest dance to the most recent political problem—ask "Bee." She knows. She comes from that little place called Allentown.

"Bee" has always proven to be a good sport and has been the ring leader of more than one exciting time at N. H., as, for instance, when her alarm clock went off accidentally (?) at 1 a. m. under someone's pillow.

"Bee" stands a very good chance of being the eighth wonder of the world, for she can talk at the rate of one hundred words per second, listen to someone else at the same time, and also think.

However, we have learned many things worth while when we were able to keep up with her speed rate. We predict a brilliant future for her when she becomes Speaker in the House or holds some other place of equal importance.

LEONA E. LEWIS.
Olyphant, Pa.

Blakley H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A.

"SCRUNT."

"Scrunt" is the kind of girl that wins friends rapidly, and she showed us that immediately after arriving here. She is ready to tell us our faults, also exactly what she thinks, but never fails to add that we shall consider where it's coming from.

She shows considerable fondness for the opposite sex, but declares she hasn't found the man yet. Of course she is not all "confectionary" or anything like that,—we know. We are anxious to hear what your future will be, "Scrunt." Let us know.

ALICE LOBEZ.

Lakewood, Pa.

Preston H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; S. G. A.; G. A. A.

To those who don't know her, Alice is a very quiet girl, for her smiles and laughter are saved for her best friends. Those who are fortunate enough to be associated with her, find her generous and sympathetic, besides being a very industrious student.

She especially shines in the Art department, and often uses this ability to entertain those around her when lectures get dry or classes monotonous.

When Alice came to Normal, she was inclined to be homesick. The reason remained a mystery until recently, when we became aware of a never-failing correspondence with State College. You're just right, Alice, school teaching isn't as exciting as—well, anyway, go to it and Good Luck!

HELENE LOWE.

Montrose, Pa.

Moosic H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Student Gov. A.; G. A. A.; N. H. B.; Eagles Mere Delegate; Rural Club. "HELLO."

Is Montrose on the map? Yes, and Helene put it there when she entered B. S. N. S.

Helene, like Polyanna, wears a smile that won't rub off and has a heart full of the joy of living. And did you ever hear her sing? Gee, but she can make the rafters ring 'n everything.

*There are gains for all our losses,
There are balms for all our pains;
But when Helene departs,
She'll take something from our hearts,
That can never be replaced again.*

KATHERINE MCCOLLUM.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S. '19; Normal Course; Callie Society; Obiter Staff.

"KATE."

*"She can draw and sing,
Knit and sawing,
Quite talented, 'n everything."*

"Kate" is talented along many lines but her chief ones are drawing and bluffing the teachers. Altho never extremely industrious she manages to get along quite well in all of her classes. Her chief amusement is drawing pictures in Educational Measurements class. Her friends are even able to recognize themselves.

She has displayed her ability along the line of art. However "Kate" put us all to shame last year in drawing class.

She is seldom seen without her best friend, Frances. They never quarrel so "Kate" must have a good disposition.

SUE M. McCOY.

Hazleton, Pa.

St. G. H. S. '19; Normal Course; Philo. Society;
G. A. A.; G. D. C.; W. S. G. A.

Kitties and PearlsMay seem nicest to you,But to all of the girlsThere's no one like Sue.

We have one thing to thank St. Gabriel's High School for and that is, graduating Sue McCoy. Her kindness and optimism have been a bright spot to many of the Third Floor girls during her two years as an Normalite.

She is quiet but we have all learned that she is an example of "Still water runs deep," for though she sat so demurely still in class when examination time came around she came out with flaring marks.

Well, some pretty fat letters bearing that post mark are sometimes found in her mail box. Whatever you may do in the years to come, Sue, always remember that you have the best wishes of the "bunch."

ALICE M. McDONNELL.

Ashland, Pa.

St. Joseph's H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; G. D. C. (3); G. A. A. (3), (4); S. G. A. (4); Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club (4); N. H. B. "ALICE MAC." "KID."

Oh yes! here she is! She comes from Ashland and she put it on the map in capital letters. This is Alice! Did you ever see her without that smile? Now watch those eyes! Can't she use them? She is a demure lassie but still water runs deep and you don't know Alice if you think she is as quiet as she looks.

Alice is one of our brightest girls. She can talk in any class on any subject for any length of time. Alice intends to be a teacher for some time at least. Here's wishing you success Alice!

ANTHONY McDONALD.

Centralia, Pa.

Normal Course; Treas. B. D. C.; Philo. Treas. (4); Baseball (3); Track (2), (3); Philo.; Orchestra (3), (4).

"Mac."

Quiet and unassuming, "Mac" is a good worker. He has a mind of his own, however, even tho he is quiet. He does not fail to stick up for what he believes to be right. "Mac" is also very studious and will be a great success as a teacher. "Mac" always has a cheery word and a smile for everybody, so he has made a good many friends.

Baseball is "Mac's" hobby. If he's not playing, he's on the bleachers backing up the men for all his worth. During his stay at Normal "Mac" helped to win many a game. Best o' luck, "Mac"!

MARGUERITE McKEOWN.

Nanticoke, Pa.
West Nanticoke H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course;
Y. W. C. A.; W. S. G. A.
*Now Marguerite is very neat;
Not only that, she's really sweet,
And nice enough to eat.*

Yes, friends, she is reserved and quiet and you don't usually find her up to mischief. Tho her mind is greatly occupied with her studies, nevertheless she is usually able to find time for the social side of school life.

Marguerite possesses all the necessary qualities for a bright, successful teacher. Our best wishes to you, Marguerite.

CHLOE A. MCKINSTRY.

Bloomsburg, Pa.
Bloomsburg H. S. '19; Normal Course; Philo.
Society; G. A. A.

"CHLO."

*She laughs and laughs the livelong day,
The merry little lass;
But if you think she's humorous
Just hear her once in class.
With quiet charms, she walks about
With smiles that come and go;
And that is just the reason why
The girls all like her so.*

We often hear the expression "down town girls" and know at once it is the term used to distinguish day students from boarders. Chloe is a "down town girl" who is always aiming to make everyone happy.

Judging from her popularity we know that Chloe is not destined to be an old maid. Nevertheless, since she has had two years of professional training, we feel sure that our little friend will carry on her chosen work of teaching in such a way that we shall all be proud of her.

MAE McSHEA.

McAdoo, Pa.
St. Gabriel's H. S.; Philo. Society; Normal
Course; Junior Drama; G. A. A.

"MICKEY."

*Bright eyes and golden hair,
Loving ways and a winsome air;
A dash of temper and lots of pep,
And still there's a lot to Mickey yet.*

"Mickey" arrived at old Normal in our Junior year and immediately proceeded to work her way into the heart of everyone. Her ability to throw off dull care makes her a very charming companion. She made frequent visits home during her two years here and it was impossible for us to find out why. However, we can only guess at the attraction that Hazleton holds for her.

However, she not only is a social "Light" but also a very excellent teacher. We predict success for "Mickey."

MARGARET SARA MANHART.

Berwick, Pa.

Berwick H. S.; Philo.; Day Student.

Margaret comes from Berwick! Having graduated from Berwick High, she joined us in our Junior year. She is a member of the Philo. Society and the Rural Club, as most brilliant people are, you know.

Margaret is a member of the "paper sack brigade," in other words a day student. She has a great desire to visit Catawissa; there seems to be attractions there for her. We wonder why!

She is good-natured, full of fun, and makes friends easily. We are quite sure she will have a successful future. May we wish it to be Happy.

*"She is of a very sweet disposition,
She is loving, wise and kind;
She is full of true affection
And cannot be defined."*

ALICE T. MANLEY.

Scranton, Pa.

C. H. S. '19; Normal Course; Philo Society;
G. A. A.; G. D. C.; W. S. G. A.; Philo.
Drama (4).

*Very pretty, very sweet,
And just the girl
You would love to meet.*

Alice is one of the most loving and sympathetic girls of our class. Her sweet disposition and pleasant smile has won its way into the hearts of everyone on Terrace Hall, as well as those of the entire class.

She is seldom seen unless some of the "bunch" are with her, and especially one particular girl. She has an unlimited supply of words which she uses in expressing the ideas of her fertile brain.

She loves History and why shouldn't she, for she is one of the History sharks of our class. Although she loves fun and a good time, she can always enjoy herself with a good book. We are all looking forward to the future, but whatever you may do, Alice, we are sure you will be successful.

FRANCES C. MARTIN.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Normal and Music Course;
Callie Drama (4); Callie.

"FRAN."

Frances is a girl with a smile that won't wear off and we really do like it. We wonder if she will ever become a sedate "school marm."

When it comes to playing the piano Francis can make 'em "sit up and take notice." She has been a success thus far and our advice is, "You are on the right road, Frances, keep on it."

CLAIRE MARTIN.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.

"CLAIRE."

Claire is one of our quiet girls—sometimes. Just tread on her toes and find out, but that's all right, Claire, it takes "pep" to get on in the world.

Claire is an all-around good sport and exceptionally fond of "Rus-tic" apples. Claire is in no way one of the small girls of our class, a true friend to a select few. She believes that

"True friends are few and hard to keep."

"True happiness consists, not in the multitude of friends, but in the choice, worth-while friends."

MABEL M. MARTIN.

Mehoopany, Pa.

Y. W. C. A.; S. G. A.

Mabel has been with us the past two years and since she came has worked faithfully. She is going to make teaching her life work. She has endeared herself to many of her classmates and has proved her ability to manage children.

Always kind, forgiving, and ready to lend a helping hand. Success to you, Mabel.

ELSIE MAUST.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S. '19; Normal Course; Day Student.

Elsie is one of our busy girls and is always in a hurry. Last year her hair bothered her so much with its thickness (?) she decided to join the ranks of the "bobbed hair brigade." Never mind, Elsie, all things come to those who wait,—even hair.

Elsie is also an expert at driving a Buick, so boys, here's your chance for a peach of a chauffeur! ! ? ?

KATHRYN MERITHEW.

Dorranceton, Pa.

D. H. S.; Entered Junior Year; Philo. Society;
Asst. Marshall (3); Eaglesmere Delegate;
Class Basketball Team (3); Varsity Team
(3); Normal Course.

"KAT." "KITTY."

Cute? Yes. Nice? You betya!

Sweet? Ahuh, sweet as Bush's C. M. P.'s.

*For her, I might write a long, long, ditty,
But what's the use? you know our Kitty.*

Kathryn is that type of girl who deceives one, not intentionally, of course. On meeting her, one would be sure to think, "My, what a quiet little girl she is"; but, on knowing her, they surely would change their opinion. Sh! Here's a secret, don't tell anybody. One of the biggest affairs of our Junior year was Kathryn's birthday party, held in 323, long after "lights out." "Still water runs deep," is an old expression but always easily applied to some people.

GERTRUDE MILLER.

Duryea, Pa.

Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Assoc.; Junior
Basketball Team; G. D. A.; Alpha Hall
Team; Student Gov. Assoc.; Rural Club;
Duryea H. S.

"GERT."

This smiling little "bird of Paradise" has the laugh that counts. It counts even late at night, especially before the Wyoming game.

We can see by her past record that basketball is her chief delight. Can she guard? All we can say is, if a ball gets into the hands of a forward guarded by her— well, she is some guard.

It is little wonder that she has a host of friends, for her delightful personality, cheery disposition and contagious laugh captivate all. *"A sunny disposition and an effervescing glee,
Makes a cheery maiden,

PAULINE MILLER.

Mifflinville, Pa.

"POLLY."

Mifflin H. S.; Berwick H. S.

"Pauline, we think, will teach a school,

Adhering to the Golden Rule;

When something's to say, she can speak,

When nothing's to say, she's very meek."

Pauline is a quiet, unassuming girl, who studies hard and never neglects her school work for any frivolities. She is one of the students who are always late for their first class. But do not blame her if the car is late, for she comes from Mifflinville every day.

Pauline's aim is to be a rural teacher. The best wishes of the class go with her for success.

RUTH MILLER.

Catawissa, Pa.

Commercial; G. A. A.; Philo.; Rural Club.

"PUPPY."

"A setter of style, much worth while."

"Puppy" joined us as a Junior and her two years with us have been eventful. Can she dance? Ask those who saw her "on the floor" Hallowe'en night.

There is only one time, every twenty-four hours, that "Puppy" can be found, and that is at 9:45 P. M. running down the hall yelling, "Who will lend me an alarm clock? I have to get up at five o'clock."

She is generous and good-hearted. She is industrious too, for any time, day or night, one can hear the click of her typewriter keys.

SARAH MORGAN.

Frackville, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.

R. C.; W. S. G. A.; Supervisor of N. H.

(4).

"IMP."

If we look back over the years, we find Sarah registered with us, when we were only two years old. Sarah lived in North Hall during her three years' stay, so that shows she has some sense anyway.

During the first half of her Senior year Sarah was House Supervisor, and believe me, she sure did her duty. Nearly every night Sarah would trip into someone's room. "Thay, I could hear you clear up in the tower. Please be more quiet."

But you should worry, Sarah, and here's success to you.

MARGARET MURPHY.

St. Johns, Newfoundland.

St. Bride's College Graduate; Philo; Normal Course.

Margaret came to us all the way from Newfoundland, and was a stranger in our Senior class. "Why so timid, Margaret?" Perhaps timidity is a really good quality after all, for we have learned to love your staunch, courageous soul, dear classmate.

May you always remember that your classmates and B. S. N. S. pledge you a life-long friendship.

CHRISTINE NAGLE.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Philo.; G. D. C.; G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A.; R. C.; S. G. A.

Christine has resided in this locality for two years and we find that she has won scores of friends. Only we, who knew her best, can appreciate her.

She is a good sport and can be counted to help in anything, be it work or mischief. Still, dear readers, she is one of the sweetest, dearest, best kids in school. We hope she continues her life along the lines in which she is now working.

LILLIAN M. NELSON.

Honesdale, Pa.

Honesdale H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; S. G. A.; N. H. B.

"BROWNIE."

*Every single day we know her
We love her more and more;
Every day we find her better,
Sweeter, kinder than before.*

Lillian is one of the girls of whom it may be said, "her kindness won her many friends". She entered Normal a few months late and was told she would have to hustle. Well, she did—and she's still hustling. It did not take Lillian long to find her place in North Hall, and now, "what could we do without her?"

The boys here have not worried Lillian much, but can you blame her when she is being true to "him"? We promised not to mention his name, but we can't resist wishing her good luck when she decides to make her home "just a little above Honesdale".

TERESA NELSON.

Avoca, Pa.

St. John's H. S. '19, Pittston, Pa.; Philo. Society; Normal Course; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; W. S. G. A.; Mgr. of Terrace Hall B. B. (4).

*Teresa is a jolly maid,
Who is happy from spring till fall,
And even when we go to bed
Her laughter echoes thru the hall.*

Here's a girl who loves to play a joke on some one, never thinking of the outcome, but just the fun. When Teresa first came among us, she made friends immediately, for her light heart and friendly ways were not to be withstood. She was quite a favorite with the opposite sex, counting many of the Normal School boys, as well as the downtown boys among her admirers.

Your prospects for the future look bright to us, Teresa, as the world will not withstand your merry smile.

EDITH B. O'NEILL.

Tunkhannock, Pa.

T. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo. Society; Y. W.
C. A.; Student Government; G. A. A.

There is in our class an exceedingly quiet lassie who is wonderfully industrious, especially when it comes to tatting. Any time you enter her room you will find her fingers busily engaged in working the shuttle skillfully in and out among the threads.

She has always declared that she is going to be an old maid and as she has shown no fondness for the opposite sex while here at school we are almost (?) ready to take her at her word but predict a great future and a successful life for her as an old-maid school marm. We think she is too sweet for that, however, and expect to see the right man appear soon.

MARION OWEN.

Mehoopany, Pa.

Mehoopany H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; R. C.;
Normal Course.

This lassie hails from that wonderful place called Mehoopany. She entered our class in its Junior year.

Marion displayed a great abundance of Irish humor. If you don't believe us ask her to tell you that story entitled, "It couldn't be did".

*Oh you little daisy,
You're driving us crazy.
Pretty Marion,
H'e love you so!*

GLADYS PARSONS.

Newfoundland.

Normal Course; Philo.; Stu. Gov. Assoc.; Rural Club.

*Here's to a girl, to a little girl,
Gladys is her name;
Parsons is the rest of it,
As a teacher she'll come to fame.*

Gladys is a shy, likable girl with a sweet smile that is often in evidence. She is not a girl who talks very much but that she thinks much is shown by her teaching. Our class will ever be glad that Gladys was one of our number and many times in the future will we think of our little friend from Newfoundland.

JOSEPH ALBERT PARULIS.
Minersville, Pa.

Minersville H. S.; Callie; Varsity Football (4).
"PARUL."

This fine-looking gentleman is the short and chunky end of the "Minersville Duet". "Parul" or "Joe", was one of our strongholds on the Varsity Football team.

There has been much questioning as to whether "Joe" was married or not; for the benefit of those who are in doubt, let me say this: "Joe" is not married, but he is willing to be.

Whether in a crowd or not, you can tell it's "Joe", by his rough, manly voice. He is one of Hess' Smoke Shop upholders. Give "Joe" a "pill" and that's all he desires in life.

"Joe" is one of those after-meal crusaders, who journey down to the front of the school for a smoke after their meals.

Our friend "Parul" intends to take up Commercial Teaching as a side-issue to married life, in the both of which we wish him great success.

PAUL PATRICK.
Tower City.

College Prep.; Callie; Junior Drama (3);
Treas. B. D. C. (4); Marshall B. D. C.
(3); B. D. C. Pres. (3); Y. M. C. A.; Pres.
Callie (4); Callie Drama (4).
"PAT."

Who could be more worthy of holding the important office of President of United States but Paul? "Pat" entered our class in 1918 and ever since has been a shark in his class, for he is a great lover of mathematics.

Paul, because of his wit, is well liked by all who know him; he is an entertainer and spokesman of some merit and above all, is a good all 'round sport. "Pat" is always willing to do his share and I am sure we are all glad he is a member of our class.

We wish him success as an electrical engineer; we understand that is the line of work he intends taking up.

MARIE PENSYL.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Philo.; Rural Club; Normal Course.

Marie is a graduate of Bloomsburg High School and came up to Normal with many others of her classmates to cast her lot with us in her Junior year.

She is a carefree, happy girl and her sweet voice has charmed everyone. Where mischief is brewing, there in the midst of it all you'll find Marie.

Marie's motto is, "To every cloud there's a silver lining". So say we all of us.

Here's over the top Marie, and hit them hard.

HELEN PHILLIPS.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Day Student; Philo.; R. C.; Normal Course.

Do you know Helen? She is certainly one peach of a girl; but then "Joe" knows more about that than we do.

Helen intends to take up rural work— ? ? ? ? so she says. Of course she is a wonderful teacher, but "Joe" thinks she'd make a better ———.

Here's success to you, Helen, whether you take up teaching or not.

BEATRICE PLATT.

Mainville, Pa.

Mainville H. S. '16; Y. W. C. A.; Philo.; Normal Course; Soph. Contest '17 and '18.

"BEE."

*"Now we come to Miss Platt,
To whom everyone removes his hat"*

"Bee" entered the Normal Course as a Freshman in 1917. Her career has been rather exciting. In 1917 and 1918 she entered the Sophomore Contest. She received second prize in '17 and honorable mention in '18. Her ability in elocution surpasses all understanding. We are expecting to hear some fine reports of her endeavors in that line in the future.

One painful ordeal through which "Bee" passed was in losing a certain young male friend at the end of her Junior year. Although she still seems somewhat depressed, we are hoping that she will find forgetfulness in her work.

We have also heard of "Bee's" musical efforts. May you have success in all your undertakings, "Bee". You have the good will of the class.

BERNICE E. PRITCHARD.

South Gibson, Pa.

Y. W. C. A.; Callie; G. A. A.; W. S. G. A.; Normal Course; Second Year Contest; Magee Contest.

"BETTY."

Although we like the name of Bernice, this young lady would rather be called "Betty" or "Elizabeth". Therefore "Betty" it shall be. "Betty" came to join the Normal Course in '18. She entered both the Second Year and Magee Contests. She received first prize in the latter. Good work, "Betty".

Her one desired activity is in the Biological Department. It is interesting work but we wonder if that is the only attraction. You should make a specialty of it "Betty".

'Betty's' case? "Nuff sed." We all know about it. We thought she'd be lonesome this year without him but with the exception of a few longing glances southward she seems quite normal. One consolation is that he is only over the mountains; isn't it "Betty"?

EDNA B. PURSEL.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S. '19; Day Student; Normal Course;
Philo.

Edna is one of our girls who hails from the country; but one would never notice it. She is a very quiet kind of girl and is liked by everyone. Besides being a faithful supporter of Philo., she has always been true to her school and especially to her friends.

*A quiet kind of girl,
Of whom it may be said,
Has something more than nonsense,
Stored up within her head.*

EDNA M. PURSEL.
Shenandoah, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Class Sec.
(1), (3); Vice-Pres. (4); Philo Drama
(3); Rural Club (4); N. H. B.

"Ed." "EDDIE."

"Give 'em a load of buck-shot gentlemen!"

Yep, "Ed.'s" a volley of shot herself and well shot too. She joined our class in its infancy and ever since her giggle has been one of its outstanding wonders.

"Ed" is one of those girls who can smile when everything goes dead wrong. Happy, jolly and full of pep, that's her all over. Her motto seems to be, "Noiseless would I live—not".

She also has a favorite song too—but maybe I'd better not tell it; "I'll see you in C-U-B-A" anyway, "Eddie".

RUSSEL H. PURSEL.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S. '19; Callie Society; Normal
Course; Registrar of Callie; Rural Club.

"RUSS."

"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit."

"Russ" entered Normal in his Junior year and caused little excitement because of his modesty. We hear that "Russ" is a woman-hater but we do know that he used to be fond of "blossoms". During this year he seemed to lose this fondness for flowers. What is the reason for this, "Russ"?

Though he did not shine in his classes, he was always a faithful and earnest student and we wish him every success in life.

EDWARD RICHARD REITER.
Berwick, Pa.

West B. H. S.; Commercial Course.; Philo.;
Baseball (3); Football (4); Basketball (4);
Business Manager "Obiter".

"Keep thy distance—O fair maiden."

"Ed" sauntered to "Bloom" in the Junior year and has been working faithfully ever since. We may even say that the success of this book is due to his untiring efforts in extracting "cash" from defenseless Seniors.

We are glad to announce too that "Ed" is the assistant teacher at Night School. That alone tells of the quality of work he does. We predict a wonderful future for you, "Ed", old boy!

WALTER M. RHODES.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Commercial; Day Student.

"WALTER."

"Walter" entered our class in his Junior year. He is beyond doubt the quietest boy in the Senior class and always attends strictly to his own business.

"Walter" has never been so unfortunate as to lose his heart to some fair damsel since he is a very modest and bashful boy; but look out, "Walter", the older they get the harder they fall. We predict that "Walter" will soon be an expert accountant. Good luck, "Walt", old boy.

HAROLD JAMES RUNCIMAN.
Minersville, Pa.

M. H. S.; Commercial Course; Callie; Wit
Committee (4); Varsity Football (4).

"RUNCIE."

Harold hails from Minersville, and is proud of the fact, so he says. He thinks Northumberland is a nice place, too, and he ought to know.
? ? ? ? ?

He entered our class in the Senior year and ever since has been doing his best to help it maintain its "pep". "Runcie" was all taken up with football, basketball, baseball, and Miss Ball but he says he liked Miss Ball best.

"Runcie" intends to make Commercial Teaching his life's occupation so here's luck to you Harold; you'll make a success of it, all right!

OLIVE SCOTT.
Kingston, Pa.

Kingston H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; S. G. A.; N. H. B.; Delegate to Eaglesmere.

"Still waters run deep."

This is one of the quieter members of North Hall's happy bunch. If you look up the meaning of "Olive", you will find it applies to a medium-sized girl, with lots of black hair and large black eyes. This description fits our Olive perfectly.

Olive spends her spare time in the useful occupation of studying, so if you want to know anything, ask her—she knows. We do not promise that she will teach the proverbial forty years, but we do know she will be successful in whatever she undertakes.

EMIMA C. SELTZER.
Ringtown, Pa.

Ringtown H. S.; Callie Treasurer (4); Normal Course; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.

"EMMY LOU."

When "Emmy" arrived on the scene she was a lass of merely eighteen summers or so. And do we remember her golden curls? We do. But it has been said, "I think girls in Normal Schools ought to wear their hair up."

At High School she was industrious and quiet, but since coming to B. S. N. S. she has shown us her good side, and can be counted "in" on any good times that have been planned. She is also a member of the "16".

Emma always has entertained extensively, and we feel sure she has succeeded in enchanting the opposite sex—ask Neal. Loads of luck.

LUCILLE SHAFFER.
Rohrsburg, Pa.

Greenwood H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; N. H. B.; G. A. A.; Student Government Assoc.; Rural Group of Normal Course.

Lucille joined our class at the beginning of the Second year, and has ever since been one of the most industrious members of the class. She was considered a "star" in the Biological Department where the 90's and 100's were always falling to her lot. When it comes to finding the "Mean", "Sigma", "Q" and all the rest of the terms in "Educational Measurements" everyone goes to Lucille.

She is not afraid to express herself on any subject, either.

*"She speaks her mind,
Her opinions she doth pass,
Yet, she is a very kind
And a very efficient lass."*

MYRLYNN T. SHAFER.

Edwardsville, Pa.

Hanover Township H. S.; Pres. Class (2), (3), (4); Sec. Y. M. C. A.; Del. to Silver Bay (3); Philo. Drama (2), (3), (4); Junior Drama (3); Varsity Basketball (2), (3), (4); Varsity Baseball (2), (3); Capt. Football (4); 1st Prize Second Year Contest; Sec. B. D. C. (3); Class Track Team (2), Philo. Reunion Pres. (4); Pres. B. D. C. (4).

"SHAFE."

"Ye gods, but he can vamp."

To attempt to put in this small space the history of "Shafe's" career at B. S. N. S. is an impossibility, but we will endeavor to do him justice in these few lines. It was in the spring of '18 when "Shafe" came into our midst from Hanover Township (a suburb of Wilkes-Barre). In the fall of '18 "Shafe" was chosen president of our progressive class, which he has guided with success.

Our president is noted for being bashful among the fair sex. "Shafe" has never had more than four dozen cases in one year.

"Shafe" has shown great athletic ability during his career at Normal. He stood with the best as an athlete.

ELENORA C. SHANNON.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W.-B. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; W. S. G. A.; "Obiter" Staff.

"NORIE."

Elenora, dear friends, is a most attractive girl. She is the kind of girl you turn and look at a second time. Cute and very pretty,—that's her all over.

"Norie" made a splendid teacher and though she did break a rule once in a while and get caught in the act, she proved in the end to be one of our best Senior girls; and besides, that was when she was young and foolish. Never mind, "Norie", the "best" is yet to come".

GRACE SHEETS.

Catawissa, Pa.

Catawissa H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course; Day Student.

"GRACE."

*Bright was her face with smiles,
And words of welcome and gladness,
Fell from her beautiful lips.*

Pretty as a picture, she deceives you with a "don't care" way, until you know her well enough to see that she really does care a great deal. When work is to be accomplished Grace is there with a helping hand and if good time looms upon the horizon three miles away, she runs to greet it with open arms.

RALPH SHUMAN.
Mainville, Pa.

M. H. S.; Philo.; B. D. C.; Rural Club; Pres. Philo. (4).

"Men of few words are the best men!"

Shuman is one of the "very bashful" sort, especially when he is around the girls. Shuman is very quiet too; he believes in minding his own business. And say, did you ever see him without a smile? No, indeed! Even when he is working the hardest, he always has one of those ready grins on hand.

EDNA MARY SIEGEL.
Hazleton, Pa.

H. H. S.; Philo.; Asst. Bus. Mgr. of "Obiter"; Normal Course; G. A. A. (3); G. D. C. (3); S. G. A. (4).

"A sunny disposition, and an effervescing glee, Makes a jolly, joyful, maiden such a maiden now is she."

Edna comes to Normal after graduating from Hazleton High School in the class of '19.

Did you know this tall divinely fair maiden has very, very much artistic ability? Yes, indeed, it is true and we see her with brush in hand making posters for all entertainments and sales.

Edna's higher aim is to specialize in art. We all feel sure that she will succeed, unless some one of the opposite sex says, "Will you——?" Best luck to you.

ALICE SMITH.
Dorranceton, Pa.

D. H. S.; Vice-Pres. of Class (3); Sec. G. A. A. (4); Registrar Philo. (3); Vice-Pres. Philo. (4); Y. W. C. A. (3), (4); Delegate to Eaglesmere; Basketball, Varsity, Class Team B. B.; G. D. C. (3); Philo. Drama (3); Junior Drama.

"SMITHIE."

*"She smiles and smiles and then the other fellow
Smiles,
And soon there's miles and miles of smiles;
And life's worth while Because she smiles."*

What would Third Floor Front be without "Smithie"? We simply can't imagine anything so dreary. The moment people look at her, they see possibilities, but little can they know her real "self" until they have known her for a while, for the longer we know her the more we love her.

She is very fond of fun and sport and also——. Can't you guess who? We won't tell this time but perhaps State College will serve as a gentle hint.

EVELYN SMITH.

Berwick, Pa.

Berwick H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course; R. C.

"EVELYN."

Evelyn is one of that family frequently used as an example—Smith. She is proud of it too. She is generally a quiet lass but in library she is the bane of the poor librarian's life.

We have heard that she is going to teach until she is pensioned, but we can scarcely believe it. We know she can make a success of anything she tries to manage, from a man to a schoolhouse.

MARGRETТА SMITH.

Hazleton, Pa.

Hazleton H. S.; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course; G. A. A.

"MARGRETТА."

Margretta has won the favor of the class in no uncertain way. Always quiet and reserved, she is never found forcing her opinions on others, but is usually listening to what others have to say. Her classmates have found in her a true friend. She has ever been a faithful member of the class and ardent supporter of school activities.

She has shown exceptional talent in the line of music, has played in Philo. many times. She has won a place in the hearts of all; and now in parting, the best wishes of the class are extended to her.

ERMA N. SOUDER.

Nescopeck, Pa.

Nescopeck H. S. '19; Y. W. C. A.; Callie; R. C.; Supervisor of 2nd Floor; W. S. G. A.; Normal Course.

"ERMA."

*"I quiet kind of girl,
Of whom it may be said,
Has something more than nonsense
Lying inside her head."*

Erma entered the Normal Course as a Junior in '19. Her career has been uninterrupted except when the supervisorship of second floor for first semester fell to her lot. The girls knew that Erma had ability and she didn't disappoint them. Our one worry is that Erma may have a narrow escape if ever a fire broke out. Because since she never hears the alarm clock in the morning she may not hear the fire gong.

Her school work is always the best and we are certain of her success in whatever choice of profession she makes. She carries the good will and good wishes of the class with her.

LYDIA E. STANTON.
Pittston, Pa.

"LYD."

West Pittston H. S.; Normal Course; Y. W. C. A.; Philo.; G. A. A.

We know very little about "Lyd" for last year she devoted the greater part of her time to Seniors, and this year seems rather unsettled. We do know though that she is an earnest worker, which was especially evident last year.

She came here after taking a Commercial Course at Pittston H. S. and was successful in taking up the regular Normal. Then, too, she declares she is a staunch Philologist.

EDNA STERNER.
Funkhannock, Pa.

F. H. S.; Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; G. D. C. (3); Rural Club; S. G. A.

"STERNIE."

"Sternie" is one of the dearest, sweetest little girls of the school. Her merry laughter is infectious and would be missed immensely on Front Hall Third Floor. We may really say she is the life of the floor because at any time of the day you can hear someone yelling, "Hello 'Stern'!" "Sternie"!

She is liked not only among the girls but also the opposite sex. They like her jolly manner and enjoy herself, her talk and laugh.

She is what we call an all around good sport, always ready for a good time but willing to work if her help is wanted.

We all know "Our Sternie" will make someone a very good —— (?) "Sternie", you have the best wishes from all for a happy future.

ANNA L. SWANBERRY.
Wanamie, Pa.

Newport Township H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course.

"SWANEE."

Anna is known to all her friends as "Swanee", which is quite appropriate. The best way to explain her is by a series of questions: What? Where? Who? When? Why? etc. The only way to keep her quiet is to give her something to read. From this you can judge that "Swanee" is a great lover of books.

Her favorite pastime is "star gazing" and growing ecstatic over the "golden moon". This, we are sure, has been acquired in her study of astronomy with Professor Hartline and (?). At times she entertains her friends by reading the "Heavens" to them.

"Swanee" is of great use to her friends in doctoring cuts, bruises, bumps and above all, the "blues".

ANNA THOMAS.

Plymouth, Pa.

Plymouth H. S. '19; Normal Course; Philo. Society; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; S. G. A.; N. H. B.; Secretary of Philo.

*She is little, she is pretty,
She is quiet, she is wise,
But, how does she get the boys?
Well, she does it with her eyes.*

The one with the blue eyes? Oh! that is Anna, another member of the famous N. H. B.'s. At a first glance you would think she was very serious, but, not so, for whenever we plan a good time we can always count on Anna to join in the fun.

Ever worry? Oh! my yes—especially about two minutes before class time when you can hear her say: "Oh, do you think she'll ask for this report—I didn't do it." But no matter what happened, we feel sure Anna would not lose her calm, sweet ways.

It goes without saying that such a girl as Anna will be successful whether she teaches in a little two-by-four, or teaches a special pupil forever.

BEATRICE D. THOMAS.

Dorranceton, Pa.

D. H. S.; Normal Course; Callie.; Vice-Pres. Callie (4); Callie Drama (3); Callie Sec. (4); G. A. A.; G. D. C.; Y. M. C. A.; Editress "Obiter".

"B".

"B" is entertaining us—is frequently heard when anyone approaches. We'll admit she is mighty good at that; also they made no mistake in making her a member of the Wit Committee.

And did you say personality, magnetism, and attractiveness? It just sticks out like a halo all over her. Speaking of originality, did you ever see any of "B's" drawings? Well, let me tell you, she can make her pencil wiggle.

GWEN THOMAS.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

P. H. S., Plymouth; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course.

"GWENNIE."

*"Quiet, meek, and even wise,
Cares nought for play,
But to her books she lies."*

Sh! Sh! Don't disturb her. She is engrossed in the strenuous job of keeping silent. Gwen is one of our most lovable Seniors but she sure is quiet.

She never needed to worry about State Board or any of those things, for her motto was: "It's not what I say, but what I do that counts."

Here's success to you, Gwen.

NORTON JACK THOMAS.

Espy, Pa.

Benton H. S.; Normal Course; Baseball Team
(3).

"NORT."

*"Two, four, six, eight,
Who do we appreciate?
Nort! Nort!"*

"Nort" came to us in the Fall of our Junior year and since then has been one of the most loyal and famous members of our class. He is especially noted as a baseball star, and is quite popular among the fairer sex, although we are sorry to say he is not easily "vamped" and thus he is never captured by any of them. We predict a wonderful athletic career for you, "Nort"!

MILDRED TREVERTON.

Hazleton, Pa.

H. H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course; S. G. A. (4);
G. A. A. (3); Y. W. C. A.

This tall, queenly blonde, seemingly very quiet, comes to us from the mountain top, Hazleton.

During study hour if one should say, "What are you doing, Mildred?" the reply would be with a grin, "Writing letters". This is the young lady who made so many visits home and n-e-v-e-r returning Sunday night, because she was busily engaged. Tell us what the idea of staying over could be Mildred, we won't tell.

EMILY TRIMBLE.

Kingston, Pa.

Kingston H. S.; Callie; Normal Course; R. C.;
Y. W. C. A.

Emily joined ranks in her Junior year. She is quiet, but her ready smile has opened the hearts of many of us to her. She is always willing to assist in any good movement or enterprise.

She is making a success of her work in the Training School. This is excellent practice for her since she intends to teach indefinitely. We will never forget you, Emily, and you have our best wishes.

CLAIRE UTT.

Pottsgrove, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo.; Y. W. C. A.

Yohoo! Youhoo!What does Claire say?If you like me as I like youYou like me pretty well, I'll say.

A little bird just came and told me about one of our fine new teachers. Did you ask if he mentioned any names? Yes, he said very distinctly, "Claire Utt". Those that teach last teach best, Claire.

ELISHA VANDERSLICE.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Center H. S.; Commercial Course; Day Student.

Elisha, graduate of Center Twp. High School, coming to us in our Junior year, proceeded directly under the firm hand of Professor Goodwin.

He is of a very nervous disposition and is usually seen flitting around the halls by himself, indulging very little in school activities.

He is one whose thoughts never touch upon the fairer sex, but whose countenance teems with intelligence and whose sturdy form contains "a heart as far from fraud as earth from heaven".

For these reasons we know he will attain real success in life.

"Even small hairs cast a great shadow."

NORA VAN GORDEN.

Moscow, Pa., Lackawanna County.

Graduate of Moscow H. S.; Vice-Pres. of Y. W. C. A. (3), (4); Callie Society; Pres. Student Government (4).

"NORIE." "PRESI."Very pretty, very sweet,But, oh! my goodness, how petite!Cheerful, happy, never sad,Always gay and always glad.

One could write forever about Nora and still have something to say. She is little but oh! she sure does know a lot. And sensible? Yes. But, nevertheless she is always ready to have a good time. A good all-round girl, upon whom responsibility can be placed, as has been already proved by the efficient way in which she has performed the duties of President of Student Government Association. Nora has the honor of being the first President of Women's Student Government Association of B. S. N. S.

MARY C. WARD.
Avoca, Pa.

St. John's H. S. '19, Pittston, Pa.; Normal Course; Philo Society; G. D. C.; G. A. A.; Pres. W. S. G. A. (4); Sec. of Philo (4).

"MAREE." "WARDIE."

*"Who is our most unselfish girl?
We say with one accord,
'Tis Avoca's fairest daughter,
Our own sweet Mary Ward."*

We all recall Mary's arrival at old Normal with her old fiddle box under her arm, with which she intended to make Normal famous. She displayed her talent early in her Junior year, by making her debut in Philo. Mary took a prominent part in all school activities in her Junior year but showed her real ability in different ways; most important of these was drawing up the Constitution of the "W. S. G. A." Here's all the success in the world, "Wardie".

HELEN P. WEISS.
Glen Lyon, Pa.

Newport Typ. H. S. '19; Normal Course; Philo Society; G. A. A.; G. D. C.; W. S. G. A.

"WEISSE."

*Happy am I, from cares, I am free,
Why aren't they all contented like me?*

That's Helen all over. She entered our midst late in our Junior year, but without difficulty succeeded in catching up to us and ever since has an important part in our school activities. Miss Kingman delights in her model room which is shown by her little "excellent" notes which are always found after her visits.

"Atta boy, 'Weisse'."

ARLINE WEISS.
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S. '19; Normal Course; Callie Drama (4); Callie Society; Basketball—Varsity and Junior Teams.

"WEISSIE."

*Bright and gay,
I pleasant way,
Lots of cheerfulness
And brimful of happiness.*

"Weissie" is interested in basketball and was a star member of both the Junior and Varsity teams of last year. But this is not all that she is interested in. Her other interest lies along a far different line. It seems to center on a certain individual in Pittsburgh. As that city is quite a distance one would think her interest would die but then there are always letters.

HELEN WELLIVER.

Jerseytown, Pa.

Jerseytown H. S.; Callie; Rural Club; W. Y. C. A.; G. A. A.; D. G. C.; entered as Sophomore.

*Here is a girl, whose name is Helen,
 Industrious, good-natured and solemn;
 Never shirking, always working,
 Her nickname—I will not include
 For Helen thinks it would be very rude.*

Helen is one of the quietest, soberest and busiest girls of Second Floor. She is continually "on the go" from early morning until late at night.

In class she always has an answer for a question. Rising in class to recite she always begins, "Well now, I would say" etc.

Her spare time is spent in the library. At least we never went in to work yet that Helen didn't have the book we were looking for.

KLINE S. WERNERT.

Minersville, Pa.

M. H. S.; Commercial Course; Philo.; Football (4); Y. M. C. A.; B. D. C.

"WERNERT."

"Don't make so much noise, I want a chance."

"Wernert", as he is called by most of the fellows, joined our class in its Senior year. He is greatly interested in athletics and also fun. Whenever fun is brewing "Wernert" will be "Johnny on the spot", especially when it pertains to tricks on the hall. We hope his fun out in life will always be as "bright" ( ? ? ? ? ? ).

JENNIE WHITE.

Blakely, Pa.

Normal Course; Blakely H. S.; Philo.; Rural Club; G. A. A.; G. D. C.

*Fond of music and of dance,
 Always ready to take a chance,
 Is this quiet maid whose name is Jennie
 Thought by some, to be very funny,
 I introduce this little lass—
 "The musician of the Senior Class."*

Jennie is an entertainer in the full sense of the word. Many a day she has made the "Rec" room piano talk, when we were all "blue".

Case or cases?! On the Campus, in the Gym, in Chapel, everywhere. Cheer up. You are still young.

Did anyone ever see her at a meeting of any kind without her knitting or crocheting? This proves her industrious nature.

Jennie, how could we ever have gotten along without you for these last two years?

BEATRICE WILLIAMS.

St. Johns, Pa.

Butler Twp. H. S.; Entered Sophomore Year; Normal Course; Philo. Society; Asst. Treas. of Y. W. C. A.; Pres. of G. A. A. (+); Eaglesmere Delegate; Basketball Captain Class Team (3), (+); Asst. Marshall Philo. (+); Sec. of Philo.

"B."

Everybody loves to see a person who is always good-natured about everything, even basketball defeats; well, just such a person is "B". Many times, the people who are always so good-natured and happy, are not in love with work. Not so with "B". She is a willing worker in Philo., her class, Y. W. C. A., and anything else you wish to mention.

HAZEL M. ZEIGLER.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S. '19; Day Student; Normal Course; Philo.

When you see a wee small girl going down the hall talking at the rate of 150 per minute, you just have an idea of Hazel. Even if she is small, remember, good things come in small packages.

Her chief amusement is dancing and when she is quiet she is usually thinking about the dance tonight. Some day we may see Hazel on the stage. Luck, Hazel!

"DADDY" GROTZ.

Always a pleasant word to say,
Jogging along in his sunny way;
The friend of old and young alike,
E'en four-footed friends, from squirrel to tike.
They know that love is at Daddy's door
And a bite to eat when cold reigns o'er.
We still can see as we go away,
With setting sun this Commencement Day,
His kindly eyes light in gentle quiz,
As he'd say in that old, soft way of his,
"Rest is joy when your work's well done,
It's peace for us when our battle's won."

To Our Alma Mater

Dear Alma Mater, now we raise
To thee, our hymn of grateful praise.
For guidance thru the few swift years,
For healing wounds and drying tears,
For watching o'er us where'er we be,
Our Alma Mater, we thank thee.

We love thee for thy records true,
Of guiding youth to dare and do;
Of growing, climbing, day by day,
A beacon light upon our way;
For making men noble, strong, and free,
Our Alma Mater, we love thee.

Thy ivy-twined walls have seen,
So much of life that long has been;
Here friendships lasting have been found,
And grown, like rootlets in the ground;
True love reigns here, as all may see,
Our Alma Mater, we cherish thee.

Thy sons are scattered far and near;
Each holds in his heart the memory dear,
Of years spent here that have gone too fast;
Of lessons learned that will always last.
And each one in reverence bends the knee;
Our Alma Mater, they worship thee.

Each day spent here has left its trace
Of knowledge time cannot erase;
Each day we felt that life meant more
Than we had even dreamed before;
Thy hand has held the golden key,
Our Alma Mater, we honor thee.

Each heart of "Twenty-one" bows down
To thee, our precious hill-top crown;
Our prayers, our hopes, and all our fears,
Our inward longing and our tears
Are not too great for thee to see,
Our Alma Mater, we are true to thee.

We'll love thee with a love sincere,
And thy name to us, will be ever dear;
We thank thee for the lessons given,
For thou hast bro't us nearer Heaven;
And may we always faithful be,
Dear Alma Mater, may God bless thee.

—MARY GILLASPY, '21.

JUNIOR

Junior Class

CLASS COLORS:
Maroon and White.

WHEN we entered B. S. N. S. as "Freshies", there were only about a dozen of us.

Our first class meeting was called to order by the President of the Class of '19, Miss Mary Williams.

The following officers were elected:

John Constine .....	President
Violet Marchetti .....	Vice-President
Hazel Hensel .....	Secretary
Miller Buck .....	Treasurer

Mr. Constine left school, and Mr. Russel Davies was elected President as his successor.

On Arbor Day we planted a tree on the Campus and dedicated it to Captain Williams, a graduate, who gave his life for his country.

Our first meeting of the second year was called to order by the President, Mr. Russel Davies.

The following officers were elected:

Benjamin Augeablick .....	President
Evadne Ruggles .....	Vice-President
Violet Marchetti .....	Secretary
Edna Santee .....	Treasurer

Later Mr. Augenblick left school and Mr. David Bakeless was elected President as his successor.

During this year, several new students entered our class, and we took an active part in the athletics of the school.

Our first meeting of the Junior year was called to order by the Vice-President, Miss Evadne Ruggles, our President being unable to be in school.

The following officers were elected:

Francis Donnelly .....	President
Evadne Ruggles .....	Vice-President
Lois Pfahler .....	Secretary
Thomas Hinkle .....	Treasurer

Our class is well represented in athletics this year. Many of our boys took an active part on the gridiron; and our girls' basketball team has won fame for itself.

At last the Class of '22 has come into prominence, and we hope to have it steadily grow until it reaches the top.

High School Department

WHEN we first entered the spacious halls of B. S. N. S. we were a wide-eyed, questioning and unsophisticated group, but gradually we are getting into the rounds of things.

Last year we were known as "Freshies" but when we arrived this year the "Profs" told us that we were to be called High School Students. Later in the year we organized and elected the following officers:

- Raymond Edwards .....President
- Irvin Beaver .....Vice-President
- Annie Quick .....Secretary and Treasurer

We decided on Black and Orange as class colors.

The High School was well represented on the gridiron by Foster, Hervey Smith, Schlegel, Faust, Lawson, and F. Felker. All these men earned their letters. Foster, a star of former years, greatly steadied the team by his consistent playing. Hervey Smith, our scrappy little end, showed signs of a coming player.

The High School basketball team played several class games, breaking even in these. We gave to the Varsity basketball team Hutton, Hervey Smith and Miller. Hutton was one of the mainstays of the team.

The Gym Exhibition is just around the corner and we are working hard under Mr. Diedrick's and Miss Beckwith's instructions to make a good showing at that time.

We now turn our faces toward the ladder of success and by perseverance hope to attain the utmost round.

Commercials

*On days when you are lonely and you're feeling rather blue,
Just think of dear Old Normal and what it's been to you;
And as you go a'wandering, and the hours all happily fly,
Just think of "Jimmie" as a friend always, and not as a passer-by.*

PROGRESS:—'THAT'S THE KEY NOTE.

AND this year's class by its earnest and persistent efforts to master the requirements of the course, has made marked progress. The Commercial Course has been modified so as to give teacher training a prominent place as well as to prepare for office and business positions. A number of first grade high school graduates who are preparing to teach commercial subjects have had some splendid teaching experience this year, and the members of the class will unquestionably make good, both in the teaching profession and in business.

No doubt, in the years to come when the members of the present class take time to lay aside for a few minutes the cares and responsibilities of their high places in business and to dream of the school days long past, they will, in imagination again hear a well-known voice saying: "Now, take this letter"; or "You may pass to the board"—familiar sayings of Professor Goodwin.

Several of the strong students of this year's class aspire to become commercial teachers of note in the State. They have the best wishes of their co-workers who plan to follow business careers.

It would be neglectful on our part if a few lines were not devoted to the outstanding events of the year. The Commercial basketball team after many a heated contest, which was a source of delight to the many followers because of its novelty and rivalry, was awarded the Pennant of Inter-Class basketball. For were they not well represented having such men as Parulis, Runciman, Cotner, Wernert, Serene, and Ruck to carry them on to victory?

Also, this year's class has the credit of developing a class organization in the Commercial Department, which will enable future classes to command a definite place in School activities. This organization was perfected on March 4, 1921, in the Chapel, where all Commercial students assembled to nominate officers. Mr. Shafer, president of the Senior Class, acted as chairman, and after some discussion final action was taken by electing the following officers for the year:

Joseph A. Parulis.....	President
Owen Serene .....	Vice-President
Clyde E. Cotner.....	Treasurer and Secretary

The members of the present class look to future Commercial classes to continue the good work of this organization of the Commercial class, and hope they will endeavor to take their part in the social and athletic affairs of the School.

TRAINING School

The Training School

IN THE year of 1869 the Training School was first established at the Normal School. From this year it advanced steadily, but an unusual growth has occurred this past year. The Class of '21 all feel it is because Dr. Fisher has been very fortunate in securing Miss Roxana A. Steele, a graduate of Teachers' College, Columbia University, as its director.

Miss Steele has had wide experience and therefore is handling the situation splendidly.

Last year there were about one hundred and twenty-five children in the Training School but under the new plan, there are now about three hundred and sixty. This is about all that can be accommodated for many of the Normal School class rooms have been given over for these children.

The Training School children use eleven school rooms and eight class rooms regularly and have certain periods in the shop, Science Hall, Room K and the Auditorium.

These children are instructed by one hundred and thirty Senior teachers, under the supervision of ten very capable training teachers:

Miss Marie M. Seigler, Kindergarten.
 Miss Sara E. Baldwin, First Grade.
 Miss Mabel Moyer, Second Grade.
 Miss Marion F. Kirk, Third Grade.
 Miss Helen F. Carpenter, Fourth Grade.
 Miss Ina Jenkyn, Fifth Grade.
 Miss Catherine Shell, Sixth Grade.
 Miss Helen Babb, English Junior High School.
 Miss Gertrude Sipple, Mathematics Junior High School.
 Miss Helen Underwood, Social Sciences Junior High School.

In addition to this supervision by grades there is also supervision by subjects; Miss Myers of the Music Department, Mrs. Goodwin of the Art Department, Mr. Black of the Penmanship Department, Miss Beckwith of Physical Education and Mr. Hall of Industrial Arts, have charge of the training of Student teachers.

It can easily be seen that the work is becoming more efficient since each grade has its separate teacher. In former years there was one teacher to every three grades.

The aim of the Training School is to give the children the best training in the most up-to-date methods and at the same time it affords a practice ground for the young men and women preparing to teach in the schools of the state.

By means of the many very good advantages at the Normal School the children are able to see the world about them in a clearer light, than merely getting their knowledge from books.

Each Senior will leave the Normal with many valuable experiences and suggestions as well as fond memories of his work in the Training School.

COURSES

NORMAL COURSE

Teacher Training

THE Teacher's Course at the Bloomsburg State Normal School is a two-years' course, based upon four years' work at a High School. Graduates of approved secondary schools, having completed 15 units of High School work, will be admitted as regular students. They are Group I, or the Kindergarten-Primary—for teachers of Kindergarten and grades 1, 2 and 3; Group II or Intermediate grades—for teachers of grades 4, 5 and 6; Group III or Grammar Grades and Junior High School—for teachers of grades 7, 8 and 9; and Group IV or Rural—for teachers of rural schools.

GROUP I prepares students to teach in the kindergarten and first, second and third grades. The work done here is under the direct supervision of four very capable training teachers. The student who wishes to specialize in this group must love children and must be able to bring herself down to the child and child life. Among other things children are taught dramatization of stories and of songs. This is very helpful as it gives lasting impressions. Here are taught, also, games and plays, reading, spelling, writing, arithmetic, drawing, and music. They also begin the study of history. The Student Teachers, together with their training teachers, work out some very interesting projects.

Observation and participation in the Training School is a prominent feature of the course.

GROUP II prepares students to teach in the intermediate grades, four, five and six. This course correlates closely with the Student teaching, deriving a large part of its meaning from the teaching experience of the student. The instruction is shaped by the purposes and nature of the work, which includes class room routine, the daily study and recitation program, hygienic standards for and care of class rooms, the making and keeping of records, which is followed by the analysis and study of such class room technique as: Methods of lesson assignments, types of class room exercises, efficient methods of study; types of questioning and the project and problem method as applicable to the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The problem of discipline in these grades receives attention.

GROUP III prepares students as teachers in the Grammar Grades and the Junior High School. The work here is on a departmental basis, under the direct supervision of three Training Teachers, in English, Mathematics, History and Civics respectively. The other special teachers are in General Science, Manual Training, Domestic Art and Cooking, French and Latin, Fine Arts and Music.

The Junior High School consists of two seventh grades, one eighth grade and one ninth grade, including in all 125 pupils. The student teachers come in direct contact with practical school-room situations in these grades in doing practice teaching for two hours each school day for one semester.

GROUP IV prepares students to teach in rural schools. In addition to the problem of the technique of teaching that all teachers face, these students much learn to take care of their pupils between recitations; to adjust their program to suit the conditions of a country school; to take care of the pupils on the playground; to keep daily records of attendance, scholarship, etc., and to make monthly reports; and to take part in the life of the community. Four country schools are used, in addition to the practice school, to give the students opportunity for practice teaching in a rural situation. The work of this group is in charge of Mrs. Hetty S. Browne, Director of Rural Education.

TO THOSE seeking a general education in Music and those preparing to teach music, Bloomburg State Normal School offers superior advantages. Instruction is given by capable teachers of broad experience.

Mrs. J. K. Miller has charge of Violin, Piano and Orchestra; Miss Ruth L. Myers has charge of Public School Music, and Miss Helen M. Stackhouse has charge of Piano, Harmony and Theory of Music.

Special attention is given to beginners of this course, as much depends upon the early training.

The result of establishing correct fundamental habits is a steady, satisfactory growth and development throughout the course.

The Class of '21 most heartily thank the teachers of this department for their assistance in so many of our school activities.

The Art Department, under the supervision of Mrs. Goodwin, has been very successful this year, due to Mrs. Goodwin's skill and ability.

Mrs. Goodwin has also supervised art in the Training School. She has very skillfully selected nine students from the Senior class who are interested in art to be her assistants.

An art exhibit has been given by the Senior class under the guidance of Professor Bakeless and Mrs. Goodwin and several beautiful pictures are being purchased for the corridors; thus giving all the students a very good opportunity to enjoy the best art.

COMMERCIAL

THE Commercial Department of the Normal School is enjoying an excellent patronage this year, both in quantity and quality of the students.

The purpose of this department is to give students preparing for business a thorough training for work as stenographers, bookkeepers, and office assistants, and also to give students preparing to teach an opportunity to specialize in the commercial branches.

Professor Goodwin, the head of this department, is an expert accountant and stenographer who has taught commercial work for many years. Many expert and well-trained stenographers are giving this department a wide reputation.

People who come to take this course must work. Some have the idea that they can skim through the course, but, they soon change their minds when they start to work under Professor Goodwin.

Motto: "Praestantia Aut Nihil."

Colors: Yellow and White.

THIS year the high standards of the Calliepiean Literary Society have been maintained and we find her at the pinnacle of success in literary and social attainments, upholding her motto, "Praestantia aut Nihil".

All Callies will agree that the Saturday evenings spent in our Society Hall were among the most enjoyable of our school experience. From them we have derived much pleasure and profit. As graduates we shall enjoy the memory of the interesting and entertaining program and the "rather warm" discussions.

We have taken in many new members this year who have proved themselves well worthy to be Calliepieans.

In addition to the regular meetings held every Saturday night in Callie Hall, a public program was given at the beginning of the year. It was a "ousing" success.

On February 19 we held our annual reunion, the forty-sixth Calliepiean anniversary. The public program, the dance at the Casino, and, as a crowning success of the day, the presentation of the two one-act dramas, "The Florist Shop" and "The Neighbors" made the day a memorable one. But, best of all, it was marked by the return of former Calliepieans in large numbers.

As we depart from "Old Normal" we, the Calliepieans of '21, wish her many years of success.

Motto: "Speech is the Image of the Mind."

Colors: Light Blue and White.

PHILO began its career in the year of the Bloomsburg Literary Institute, which later became the State Normal School.

This society was organized in 1866, with ten charter members, among whom we are proud to number Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., our former principal. During these years Philo has steadily grown, and during the first semester of this year we received one hundred and fifty new members.

The aim of the Philo. Society is to give its members the necessary training and preparation to enter upon public literary work, which is a necessary factor in a successful teacher. In order to develop our aim Philo. adopted the plan of holding weekly meetings.

These weekly meetings are held Saturday evenings and programs consisting of readings, musical selections and debates are given by members of the society. Through the leadership of Miss Gill we have launched the Shakesperian movement, namely, at each meeting one or more scenes from one of the many masterpieces of Shakespeare are reproduced and a big Shakesperian pageant will complete our efforts.

We gave a public program on March 12 which was enjoyed by all.

Aside from literary work Philo. is a strong supporter of athletics, and boasts of two fine basketball teams. Philo.'s ability has been shown in the games this year and she has not as yet known defeat.

On December 4 we celebrated our reunion. The afternoon program was made up of selections of the finest character and we received the praise of those who were our guests for the occasion. The dance in the afternoon in the Casino hall proved very delightful and the important event of the day, namely, the Drama, was carried out with the rare skill and remarkable ability for which Philo. is so noted.

The work of our society cannot be overestimated by members of the school. We must each do our share in trying to make Philo. the success in the future that it has been in the past. We must be united as one to accomplish big things, and Philos., who have graduated, must help even as those who are yet at school.

Y. W. C. A.

"Create in me a clean heart, O God and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51.

THE purpose of the Y. W. C. A. shall be to unite the women of the institution in loyalty to Jesus Christ, to lead them to accept Him as their personal Savior, to build them up in the knowledge of Christ, especially through Bible study and Christian service, that their character and conduct may be constant with their belief. It shall thus associate them with the students of the world for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. It shall further seek to enlist their devotion to the Christian church and to the religious work of the institution."

Miss Dickerson by her untiring love for the Y. W. C. A. has spent many years as head of the Advisory Board.

Leaders and topics for the religious services are provided for by the Devotional committee.

The Second Year Bible Study Class is under the supervision of Miss Gill, while the first year is supervised by Professor Brill. The purpose of these classes is to make the student body as a whole better acquainted with the Bible.

Among the happy remembrances of the year will be the work of the Social Committee, such as the reception held at the beginning of the year under the auspices of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s and the different teas held throughout the year.

Social Service. The purpose of this committee is to brighten the homes of the needy around Thanksgiving and Christmas time by donating food and clothing; also to arrange for the Christmas party held at the school for the poor kiddies of the town.

The work of the World Fellowship Committee is to provide for the maintenance of the Field Secretary in South America. The Mission Class is under the direction of Mrs. Browne.

The Music Committee provides for the musical part of the weekly meetings.

The duty of the Information Committee is to provide the information needed to carry on the work and to make posters to announce the various social events under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Finance Committee is to secure funds needed to send delegates to the different conferences.

The work of the Membership Committee is to see, if possible, that every girl in the school is a member of the Y. W. C. A.

The influences of the Association have been felt by nearly every member of the school. One of the greatest elements of the Y. W. is the development of the spirit of service for others in its membership.

Y. M. C. A.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of heaven and all these things will be added."

URING the latter part of 1920 the following young men were elected as officers to carry on the work of the Y. M. C. A. in our school during 1921:

President .....	Wilbur Foresman, '21
Vice-President .....	Edison Fisher, '21
Treasurer .....	Howard Corse, '21
Secretary .....	Myrlynn Shafer, '21
Devotional Committee .....	Edison Fisher, '21
Social Committee .....	Sam Davis, '21
Athletic Committee .....	Myrlynn Shafer, '21
Bible Study Committee .....	Ralph Shuman, '21
Music Committee .....	Albert Foster, '23

These officers should be complimented for the good work they have done among their fellow students. They had many difficulties to overcome, the chief one being the small number of boys and the different religions represented. Their aim was 100 per cent membership, which was attained. Another question was the one of finance. In order to increase the amount in our treasury, we had several social affairs, one of which was a basketball game between members of the Faculty and of the Y. M. C. A. This proved very interesting and entertaining and was a successful finance affair.

When the call came for delegates to the Y. M. C. A. Conference at Silver Bay in June, we responded with a delegation of two members, Myrlynn Shafer and Howard Corse; but as the distance was so great only the first named made the trip. Then came our summer vacation.

Our first meeting of the new school year was taken up in discussing plans and some of which materialized are as follows:

The Y. W. C. A. joined with us and we gave a delightful reception in the gymnasium to the new students. This was our "get acquainted" meeting and everyone had a fine time.

The Y. M. C. A. delegates who met at Silver Bay during the summer decided to have a permanent organization of the Y. M. C. A.'s of the State Normal Schools. Mr. Shafer, our delegate, had an active part in forming this. The first meeting was held at Mansfield in November. We sent two delegates, Edison Fisher and Howard Corse, to the meeting.

Later in the year Mr. Miller, State Y. M. C. A. Secretary, visited us and gave us some very interesting talks.

In January a boys' Bible Class under leadership of Professor Bakeless was formed and this is proving to be the most successful of our undertakings.

Aided greatly by our overseer, Professor Brill, the officers realized that the world needs better Christian men and women and had this as their aim which in their short terms they have tried to impress upon the minds of their fellow students.

THE Rural Club of our school, although it is the youngest of our organizations, is thriving daily, having at present one hundred members; and having already become an important factor in our school life. The purpose of the organization is two-fold, that of work and of play. The work consists of studying rural conditions in order that its members may have a love for and just appreciation of life in the country. Through play the members are brought together for excursions into the country and for other wholesome forms of recreation.

To give an opportunity for the development of the function of the club regular meetings are held every third week. Usually the members of the club furnish their program; but, occasionally, others are called in to explain some particular phase of the work in the rural field. For example Superintendent W. W. Evans presented to the club a plan for the formation of Junior High Schools in Columbia County, Miss Nancy Hunter and Mr. Brandon Wright told of their work in vocational education in the county. At another meeting our own Professor D. S. Hartline interpreted to us the phrase "Holy Earth".

There are two excursions that stand out in our memory, one of these was a potato roast in Dillon's Glen; the other a chicken and waffle supper at Espy.

During the winter the Rural Club had the honor of entertaining several noted people, among them were Professor Mabel Carney of Columbia University, Doctor Lee Driver of the Educational Department of Pennsylvania, and Doctor Smith Burnham of Kalamazoo, Michigan. A tea was given to these friends the latter part of November.

On December 20th and 21st two Christmas programs were given, one at the Grovania School, the other at Rupert. The former program was in charge of Misses Sauder, Williams, and Mr. Edison Fischer; and the latter program was in charge of Miss Edna Seigel.

As the club has no financial motives, the proceeds from these programs go to rural schools for apparatus for their regular work and outdoor gymnastics.

Mrs. Hetty Browne came to us at the beginning of this year, and it was through her that the Rural Club was organized.

The Rural Club looks forward to a brilliant future. These few incidents recounted here are but the beginning of a thriving organization. For as it grows, its activities will also grow larger and greater until through the entire country, its influence may be felt in behalf of Rural Education.

Women's Student Government Association

IT IS with a deep feeling of pride that the girls of the Class of '21 point to the fact that they were the people who paved the way for the adoption of a form of government in the dormitories, that will undoubtedly be of great value, not only to the present members of the school, but also to those who will follow in the future. This government to which we refer is the association known as the Women's Student Government Association of the Bloomsburg State Normal School.

The object of the association is well stated in the second article of the Constitution of the organization which reads as follows: "The object of this association shall be to control matters of student life, entrusted to the organization; to increase the sense of individual responsibility among students; to help them train themselves to be ideal members of a community; to co-operate with the President and Faculty of the School, to maintain a high standard of scholarship and life."

Surely an organization that gives to its members responsibilities that must be assumed is preparing us for our life work; for we ask, what work, what duties can we assume, when we step forth from school life into life's school, that do not require that we bear some responsibility? Is it any wonder that we as a class should feel elated over the part we played in introducing this remarkable organization into our school?

The officers of the association consist of: A president from the Senior class; a vice-president from the Junior class; a treasurer from the Senior class; and a secretary elected from that group of students who are not registered in the Normal Department, but are taking special courses.

The Student Council, consisting of the Dean of Women, the four officers, a representative of each class, and each floor supervisor may be called the main spring of the association; for first, it enforces all the rules of the association; second, it fixes and enforces penalties for violations of the rules; and third, it makes, with the approval of the Dean, such rules as are found necessary to secure better conduct on the part of women students.

These are a few facts concerning Student Government. We are proud to add that the plan is giving the best results that could be hoped for. It is our earnest hope that the Class of '22 will carry forward to a more glorious end the work begun by us, the Class of '21.

Boys' Dormitory Club

An education is incomplete which does not place a noble purpose behind mental training and makes the hand willing to work.

—W. J. Bryan.

THE Boys' Dormitory Club is an organization made up of the young men residing in the dormitory. Day students were not considered members of the club until this year when the organization considered that they had no place to go during recreation hours while at school and thought it might be well for them to join us and have a good time during our few leisure hours.

The main purpose of this club is to secure closer relationships between the boys and the Faculty. If the boys feel that conditions in the dormitory can be bettered, Dr. Fisher is invited to attend their meeting and the needs are presented to him.

It is here perhaps that the boys get their first chance in speech-making before they become bold enough to deliver an address before the literary societies.

This is the most prosperous year of the B. D. C., for the dues have been raised and this enables the club to get the latest magazines of all kinds, sheet music and games. Then too through the interest of Dr. Fisher new furniture has been added to the room and a fresh coat of paint serves as the finishing touch. The boys have secured the most coveted of all furniture—a pool table,—but my how tempting it is to have a game of “French” during class periods.

The club held its first meeting this year with Mr. Fischer as President. The year began with a double success and every member contributes to the loyal support of the club. Mr. Patrick was elected Treasurer and saw that no members allowed their dues lag till the regular “pay days” to be collected. It was altogether fitting and proper for the club to elect Mr. Grossman as Marshal, for he could usher in all new members in such an impressive manner that the club immediately gained in membership.

The second semester was also a great success. Mr. Shafer, the most influential politician in the school, came under the spotlight and was elected President. Mr. Johnson was elected Chancellor of the Exchequer and could always boast among the boys of having money, even if it was not his own. Mr. Hess came into power by being elected Marshall and there is no doubt he is able to carry out his obligations successfully.

The Class of '21 are hoping that in years to come they can look back to their Alma Mater and find the B. D. C. the strongest organization at the Normal.

Junior Drama

UNE 7, 1920, the Junior Class of '21 presented their play, "The Rivals". It was interesting as well as unique.

The character, Bob Acres, was well taken by Myrlynn Shafer, who brought into play all the wit and humor of the part.

Miss Blackman as the heroine, Lydia Languish, played a very successful and enjoyable role.

The last scene clears up the mystery that Beverly and Captain Absolute are one and the same man, and reunites old hearts as well as young.

All the participants can be complimented on their parts in the play.

THE CAST.

Thomas, the Coachman .....	Warren Fisher
Fag, Captain Absolute's Gentleman.....	Harold Fish
Lydia Languish .....	Beatrice Blackman
Lucy .....	Mae McShea
Julia, Cousin to Lydia .....	Alice Smith
Mrs. Malaprop .....	Mary Fernsler
Sir Anthony Absolute .....	Paul Patrick
Captain Absolute (Beverly) .....	William Payne
Faulkland .....	Wilbur Foresman
Bob Acres .....	Myrlynn Shafer
Sir Lucious O'Trigger .....	Howard Corse
David, Bob Acres' Gentleman .....	Warren Fisher
Boy .....	Warren Fisher
The Maid .....	Mae McShea

Callie Drama

ALLIE Drama, in the form of two one-act plays, scored a big success this year.

The first play was "The Florist Shop" in which Miss Wells, a spinster, and Mr. Jackson, her fiance of fifteen years standing, have some differences of opinion concerning orchids. The quarrel, however, ends happily. Cupid's aid in this happy affair was Maude of Slovsky's who sends the orchids, to the disgust of Mr. Slovsky, who however, is completely won over when he learns that it is to be a church wedding, with flowers from Slovsky's.

THE CAST.

Maude, the Florist's Bookkeeper.....	Frances Martin
Henry, the Office Boy.....	Lawrence Cherrington
Slovsky, the Florist.....	David Bakeless
Miss Wells, a Spinster.....	Arline Weiss
Mr. Jackson, Her Fiancé.....	Wilbur Foresman

The second play, "The Neighbors", was a scene from a "gossipy" but kindly neighborhood in which Mis' Ellsworth lived.

Mis' Ellsworth's nephew was to come to live with her, but after the whole neighborhood had stopped its other occupations to plan and prepare a shower of food and clothing for the newcomer, word arrived that the boy was not coming.

THE CAST.

Mis' Abel .....	Lucy McDermott
Grandma .....	Mildred Downing
Inez .....	Elizabeth Owens
Mis' Moran .....	Oda Behr
Mis' Trot .....	Margaret Baldauski
Mis' Ellsworth .....	Martha Cole
Peter .....	Fred Felker
Ezra Williams .....	Paul Patrick

The parts were well taken in both plays and the evening gave a fitting climax to a successful reunion day.

Philo Drama

THE evening of December 4, 1920 was a triumphant one for the Philologian Society. The success of Philo. progressed through the year and culminated in the drama, "Why Did He Do It?"

It is a light comedy in two acts. The scene is laid in a modern college town. The action takes place at a house-party given by Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Phillips in celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary.

The story is that of a college student, "Slats" Remmington, who is a member of Mrs. Phillips' house-party. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are middle-aged people but keep in touch with the society life of the college through their niece, Polly, who although not a student has other interests there. Also Miss Kitty Davis, a co-ed, has interest in the same person, namely, "Slats". The other invited members of the house-party were: Miss Helen Saunders, a co-ed; Mr. "Bubbles" Clinton, who is very much attached to Miss Saunders, and Mr. Steve Ward, an amateur detective, who is interested also in Miss Davis. The uninvited guests are "Pecks", "Shortie", Kennedy, and Mr. Foster, a real detective.

Mrs. Phillips receives from her husband a beautiful gold vanity case containing two hundred dollars in gold. Frequent robberies have occurred in different parts of the town and all evidence pointed to a mysterious "Raffles". Shortly after the arrival of "Slats", Mrs. Phillips' vanity case disappears. Who took it? The amateur detective starts to find clues and is the comedian throughout the play. A real detective is engaged by Mr. Phillips to protect the guests at the dinner dance. Notwithstanding this precaution, a diamond pendant is stolen. All clues point to "Slats". Polly, who has just become engaged to "Slats", is much worried over the turn of affairs and tries to shield him. Foster tries an experiment. It works, and "Slats" is "caught with the goods". The diamond pendant, however, is missing. "Slats" is about to be taken to jail when "Bubbles", "Pecks" and "Shortie" rush in and proclaim, "Time's up". "Why Did He Do It?"

It was his initiation into the Alpha Phi frat; that's why he did it.

However, the real Raffles was caught and the pendant returned. Polly decides to marry "Slats" and the house-party that almost ended in despair ended in matrimony.

The play throughout was excellent and the cast cannot be too highly commended.

THE CAST.

Delmain Remmington, "Slats" .....	Frank Shepela
Rowland Phillips, of Phillips & Randolph, brokers.....	Harry Schlegel
Stephen Ward, an Amateur Detective.....	Clarence Shaffer
Charles Foster, a Real Detective.....	Frank Klem
Ford "Bubbles" Clinton.....	Myrlynn Shafer
"Pecks" Baxter .....	Fred Ringrose
"Shorty" Ross .....	Hervy Smith
Kennedy, a Policeman .....	Edison Fisher
Jean, Mrs. Rolland Phillips .....	Marian Brown
Pauline Winthrop, her Niece.....	Mildred Dougherty
Katharine Davis } .....	Alice Manley
Helen Saunders } .....	Marian Hobbes

ACT I. Mr. Phillips' Den. Friday evening.

ACT II. The Same. The next night.

May Day 1920

NE Monday afternoon, May 17, 1920, at 3:30 o'clock all the friends of the Normal School met on the back campus to view the crowning results of a year's gymnasium work. We have been told they went away greatly pleased with what they had seen.

The grand procession came out of the Grove in a long, winding trail, headed by the May Queen, representing the Spirit of America, and her followers, Education, Health, and Time, who took their places on a platform, erected for the occasion.

The scene opens, disclosing the Spirit of America, attended by Health and Education, and surrounded by native-born citizens.

America speaks, rejoicing that the splendid ideals for which she stands have at last been recognized by the peoples of the Old World, who turn to her for help in their distress. Even now a band of unfortunates stand pleading at the gates. Shall they be allowed to enter? The citizens are doubtful, but America assures them that by saving these unhappy ones they will gain loyal citizens. The foreigners are made welcome, but their joy is short-lived for the cohorts of disease enter stealthily and fall upon them. Health intervenes, but Disease seizes her, and with all his prisoners mysteriously disappears, none knows where.

America, amazed and horrified, commands her people to arm themselves, search out the enemy and recover the prisoners, giving Education supreme command.

Father Time is called to advise Education, and he bids her visit his domain in search of the Spirits of Beauty, Joys and Love o' Nature, who are guardians of Health and who only can restore her.

Father Time turns back the pages of history and reveals a festal day in old Greece. Out of this springs forth the Spirit of Beauty, who is carried away by Education. A May Day in Merrie England where Joy is found and America where Spirit of Love o' Nature is found is portrayed and the problem is solved.

Coach

C. L. WERTZ
Manager

THE season opened up with a fair-sized squad reporting for training the second week in September. The only letter man who reported was Foster, all the other men having little or no experience in the game. Raymond H. Deidrick, our new coach, found it difficult to make a team that would be worth-while representing our School. The conditions that confronted us were such that too much cannot be said of the excellent work performed under adverse and discouraging circumstances.

The season opened up with Centralia Ex-High as our opponents. Though our men were defeated by a score of 21—0, they were not disheartened in the least. The following week they defeated Susquehanna Reserves by the score of 7—0. Dickenson Seminary also went down to defeat at the hands of Normal by a score of 7—0.

Other games played were as follows:

Normal	Opponents
0.....	21 St. Thomas College
0.....	20 Mt. Carmel High School
0.....	40 Shippensburg Normal
0.....	27 Millersville Normal
19.....	7 Northumberland A. A.

The last game of the season was played against the strong Wyoming Seminary team, who defeated our team by a score of 57—0.

The team lined up as follows:

Felker, L. E.		Wernert, R. E.
Parulis, L. T.	Cotner, C.	Foster, R. T.
Hess, L. G.		Foresman, R. G.
	Captain Shafer, Q. B.
Runciman, L. H. B.		Reiter, R. H. B.
	Shapela, F. B.

Captain Shafer worked hard and served faithfully.

“Chuck” Felker, a last year’s star, strengthened the team considerably in the last two games.

We can say that every member of the squad worked as hard as possible to make a winning team.

Substitutes who received their letters: Klem, Schlegle, Hinkle, F. Felker.

BASKETBALL

FRANK SHEPELA
Captain.

R. H. DIEDRICH
Coach and Manager

WHEN the candidates reported for basketball in the beginning of December, the prospects for a winning team were never brighter. Shafer was the only letter man from last year who reported for practice. Around him Coach Deidrick developed the champion team, having Shepela, a Wanamie High star; Hill, a day student; Hutton, Reiter and Grossman, "scrubs," from last year.

Shepela was elected captain and served faithfully.

The season opened with Normal defeating the "Big Five" of Bloomsburg by the score of 28—7.

Normal was then defeated by the strong Susquehanna University five by the score of 21—13. This defeat did not discourage our team in the least, for it can be seen by the following scores:

Normal 33.....	Keystone Academy	6
Normal 22.....	Mt. Carmel High	12
(Away) Normal 22.....	Freeland High	20

The game with Wyoming was one of the greatest games ever witnessed on the Normal floor. Normal outplayed them every minute of the game, our team defeating them, 23—16.

Other games played:

Normal 30.....	Moravian Prep.	22
Normal 38.....	Dickinson Seminary	13
Normal 39.....	Stroudsburg Normal	19
(Away) Normal 19.....	Wyoming Seminary	32
Normal 31.....	Freeland High	12
(Away) Normal 12.....	Stroudsburg	19
(Away) Normal 28.....	Moravian Prep.	22
(Away) Normal 46.....	East Mauch Chunk High	15

Coach.

W. B. SUTLIFF
Manager.

THE 1920 baseball season was a glittering success. Under the able leadership of "Billy" Pownall the Normal nine played a brilliant game. The team played better ball the closing half of the season, after Coach Pownall struck a winning combination. The two games with Susquehanna University were lost in the last innings and as a result Coach rebuilt his team, which played winning ball the remainder of the season. Schell caught for Thomas and Strange. Strange was a "find" and he quickly demonstrated his ability as a moundsman. The infield was composed of Felker, MacDonald, Reiter and Cain. It was a snappy combination and the brilliant work of this quartette saved many games. Shafer, Fish, Sweeney and Markly made up a fast outfield. Strange topped the team in batting with an average of .540.

The strong Lycoming Foundry team of Williamsport was given a hard battle by Normal.

Normal	2	Susquehanna University	4
Normal	22	Sunburg P. R. R. Y. M. C. A.	6
Normal	19	Dickinson Seminary	4
Normal	4	Susquehanna University	5
Normal	0	Wanamie High	0 (rain)
Normal	8	Wyoming Seminary	16
Normal	4	Lycoming Foundry	8
Normal	14	Pittston	1
Normal	3	Shippensburg Normal	3 (rain)
Normal	24	Lock Haven Normal	5
Normal	7	Carpet Mill	2

The 1921 squad is rounding out in fine shape and it looks like a winning team.

THE year 1920-21 has been one of the most successful ones in Girls' Basketball, if not the most successful in the history of Old Normal. The school has kept the spirit of the girls up to concert pitch and the interest has been unusually high.

Our Varsity team is composed of partly Juniors and Seniors. The team has made wonderful progress this year owing to the faithful coaching of Miss Schools and her assistant, Miss Beckwith. The team has played nine games with the record of losing only one game, and we have one more game to play, which looks as promising as the first one.

Class Basket Ball '21

WHEN it comes to real class spirit the Seniors have shown it this year. The basketball season was extremely interesting as the Senior and Junior teams were well matched.

The first class game of the season was played on January 18. Both classes were well represented on the cheering lines. It was through the splendid team work in the latter, that the Seniors walked away with the game, the score being 17—13.

The second game was played April 11. An exciting time ensued as the Juniors came out victorious, the score being 35—22.

The result of the second game has given the Seniors a renewed inspiration to win the final game.

Here's hoping the Juniors will have a very successful season, next year.

IN ONE of the hardest fought inter-class track meets ever staged on the Normal field, the Seniors won from the Juniors by a margin of only one point. The point scoring gives the Seniors 35, the Juniors 34, and the High School Department 25 points. Runciman leads in point scoring with 11. Seeley is next with 10 and Schlegel and Sutton each had eight.

A banner was awarded to the Seniors, and ribbons went to the winners of the first three places in each event. R. H. Deidrick, referee, with Prof. J. C. Foote the starter. The scorers were Miss B. M. Schools, Miss E. Perry and Miss E. Beckwith. Judges at the finish were Miss Schell, Miss Baldwin, and Miss Zeigler, while Prof. Hall and Prof. Black were field judges.

Following are the results:

100 yard dash—Donnelly, Junior, first; Davis, Senior, second; Runciman, Senior, third. Time 11 seconds.

220 yard dash—Seeley, high school, first; Davis, Senior, second; Fisher, Senior, third. Time 31 seconds.

440 yard dash—Seeley, high school, first; Bower, Junior, second; Parulis, Senior, third. Time 1 minute, 6 4-5 seconds.

880 yard run—Sutton, Junior, first; Stewart, Junior, second; Wernert, Senior, third. Time 2:19 2-5.

Mile run—Beaver, high school, first; Sutton, Junior, second; Wernert, Senior, third. Time 5:50.

Running high jump—Runciman, Senior, first; Chamberlain, high school, second; Shapela, Junior, third. Height 4 feet, 9 inches.

Running broad jump—Runciman, Senior, first; Schlegel, high school, second; Ringrose, Junior, third. Distance, 16 feet, 8 inches.

Shot put—Schlegel, high school, first; Shapela, Junior, second; Thomas, Senior, third. Distance 31 feet, 3 inches.

Discus throw—Hutton, Junior, first; Shaffer, Senior, second; Ringrose, Junior, third. Distance 83 feet, 9 inches.

Class relay—Seniors.

The Gym Exhibition

“A HERRING”.

I.

A herring is a little fish,
 Most everybody knows;
 But every week on Friday night
 A “Herring” is our woes.

II.

He speaks of correlation,
 Of “Q” and “Sigma” too;
 But when examination comes
 Whatever shall we do?

III.

This week, he speaks of project,
 His brown case has he brought;
 And if he gives a test, he'll find
 Of “I Q” have we nought.

—M. J. '21.

Student's Lexicorn

A—Highest grades given. Sacred to the toreadors (those who “throw the bull”.)

Brains—What everyone has and the other fellow hasn't.

Chapel—Cruel and unusual punishment inflicted upon innocent and guilty alike.

Damn—Word used for “piffle” when a fellow wants to show that he (or she) is a devil in his (or her) own home town.

Margaret Baldauski: D'ju pass French?

Hervey Smith: Best in the class.

Margaret: How, d'ja know?

Hervey: The Prof. told me I didn't need to come any more.

Scene: Bill Payne taking a huge mouthful of orange.

“Bee” Blackman: Why, Billy, don't swallow that whole!

Billy: What hole?

Felker: Is Fisher lazy?

Foresman: I should say so. When we roomed together at the Normal, he would wait until I finished my prayers, and say, “Amen”.

C. Herman to W. Foresman in the parlor: Dearest, I have often wondered what real love is.

Foresman: Love, dearest, is a tickling sensation of the heart that can't be scratched out.

Shuman: I bet you never saw dancing like that way back in the nineties.

Daddy Grotz: Once, but the place was raided.

He: I wonder why it is that people cry at weddings?

She: I guess it's because they've been married themselves and they haven't got the heart to laugh.

Prof. Werntz: Does your wife miss you much?

Foster: No, she can throw as straight as I can.

Dear Friends, there is a proverb that runs: You learn as long as you live. Just think if a person never died what a wonderful knowledge one would have.

D. Johnson: Which is the logical way of reaching a conclusion?

Prof. Werntz: Take a train of thought, my boy.

Prof. Werntz in Chemistry: Tomorrow we take cyanide and on Wednesday arsenic.

Foster: I suppose Grossman has at least acquired some polish by this time.

Reiter: He should have. Since prohibition he's been drinking nothing but liquid veneer.

Prof. Werntz in Trig.: You should not eat so much for dinner, and then you would not get sleepy in class.

M. Shaffer: Why not have Trig. after breakfast, in the morning?

Edison Fisher: Guess what's in my hand and you can have it

"K" Shearer: Nothing.

Edison: You win.

HELP!

I.

They stood upon a moonlit stair,
His head was in a whirl,
His eyes and mouth were full of hair,
His arms were full of girl.

II.

He pressed her to his throbbing breast,
The color left her cheek,
But it stayed upon his overcoat
For nearly three whole weeks.

"Red" Chamberlain: "There are just two girls in this world that I love."

Emma Seltzer: "Now, I suppose you are going to pull a good one and say I am both of them."

"Red": "No, you're neither of them."

SAMMY.

I.

Sammy has the nicest way,
 Sammy has the broadest smile;
 Sammy has a car that goes
 In a minute—most a mile.

II.

Sammy dances like a dream,
 Send me flowers—candy, too;
 Takes me out to shows and teas,
 Does just what a man should do!

III.

Says he loves me quite a lot,
 I'm sorry though for that—
 Sammy votes Republican
 While I am a Democrat!

Yes, says "Mil" Anderson, my description of a mean man is one who takes his girl on a joyride, promises not to kiss her, then keeps his promise.

All girls like to have men "rush" them, but not all of them know that often these are only "bull"-rushes.

"Billy" Payne: "I remember, how at fourteen, I never used to know what to do with my hands and feet."

"Bee": "But now you don't seem to know what to do with your arms."

Ed. Reiter: "So you call the door of your buffet an ouija board. Why is that?"

Grossman: "Because it communicates with the spirits."

As We Speak

"I left my money at home," said the lady on the train to the conductor, "you will have to trust me; I am one of the director's wives."

"I am sorry, madam," replied the conductor. "I can't do that, even if you were the director's only wife."

"Who gave the bride away?" asked Mother as her daughter and Johnny, aged ten, came back from the wedding.

"Bobbie did," replied Johnny, "he whispered to his mother, 'Hurrah for Blanche—she's got him at last'."

A small very black negro was standing very erect at one side of the door of a house where a colored man had just died. The services were just about to begin, when the negro clergyman appeared at the door and said to the little fellow:

"The services are about to begin. Aren't you coming inside?"

"I would if I could," said the small boy, "but, you see, I se de crape."

"Wanted—A steady respectable young man to look after a garden and care for a cow who has a good voice and is accustomed to sing in the choir."

Meynard—"Have you forgotten you owe me five dollars?"

Parulis—"No, not yet, give me time and I will."

Kate Gronka—"Is my hat on straight?"

Anna S.—"No, one eye shows."

"Howard hasn't been in the city long has he?"

"From appearances he hasn't; when the waiter handed him the menu last night he said he didn't care to read with his meals."

Worthless—"I gave that beggar a penny and he never thanked me for it."

"No, you can't get anything for a penny nowadays."

Novelizeit 1921—"Did you see that movie, 'Oliver Twist'?"

Junior—"Yes, and say, wouldn't that make a peach of a book."

Mrs. Brown—What are some of the scientific discoveries that have overcome our surroundings?

Mr. Shuman—Prohibition.

Mrs. Brown—How has that helped?

Shuman—It has overcome wetness.

An Irishman and a Frenchman were disputing over the nationality of a friend of theirs.

"I say," said the Frenchman, "that he was born in France; therefore he is a Frenchman."

"Not at all," said Pat; "begorra, if a cat should have kittens in the oven would you call them biscuits?"

If money talks
 As some folks tell,
 To most of us
 It says "Farewell".

MOTHER'S EXCUSES TO TEACHERS.

Dear Teacher: Pleas excus Fritz for staying home he had der meesells to obilge his father.—J. B.

Dear Miss Teacher: Frank could not come these three weeks because he had the ammonia and information of the vowels.

Miss Teacher: Please let Willie home at 2 o'clock. I take him out for a little pleasure to see his grandfather's grave.

"Willie, you must stop using such dreadful language," said his mother. "Where in the world did you learn it?"

"Why, mother," replied the boy, "Shakespeare uses it."

"Well, then, don't play with him."

Prof. Bakeless: You people still waste your money on C. M. P.'s, and I don't know what else.

Marion Dennis: The Antlers.

Prof. Bakeless: I don't know what they are.

Mrs. Browne (to Josephine Allison): "All right, Miss Allison, you needn't read any more, you are a little horse (hoarse)."

Grossman: "My girl sent me up some brandied peaches the other day."

Reiter: How were they?"

Grossman: "I didn't enjoy the peaches so much, but I did enjoy the spirit in which they were sent."

Love Letter (of Some Rookies) During Easter Vacation

B. S. N. S., March 23, 1921.

My Deer:

I feel that I owe ye an apology for not getting to kiss ye good be before ye left. The fact of the matter is my chum and I started to our room but we met miss Kingman and by the time we reached your room you had departed.

My chum and I were at a tough dance last evening. Your father and cousin was along. After the dance we went to our fathers rooms and smoked cigarets til morning.

We also talked about the good old days when we stopped the Germans at Gettysbury and how we drank brandy and wine in the Battle of Brandwine; how Napoleon sank the Spanish Armada in the Mississippi and prevented the British from capturing the imortant towns of Bloomsburg, Ringtown and Mehoopany. I told how Ambrose Ale fainted when he saw Caesar's ghost. Ben Grossman was along. He and I are writing essays for Miss Gill. His is "How a Young Jew Saved Ireland", and mine is "The Possibilities of a Hair Net".

Sunday we went fishing in Dillon's Glen. About noon Game Warden Daddy Grotz came along and pinched us and brot us before Squire Edison Fischer. He said in a dignified way, "One dollar and thirty-three and one-third cents, or thirty years in Jamison City. Imagine: None of us had a copper. Lucky for us an old pal came along. Chief Justice Smose! He ordered our release. Smose whispered to the Squire and he took us into the back kitchen and drew a bottle of bootleg from his shoe. We surely did appreciate that.

I left for home Sunday morn. Nothing unusual occurred on the trip. I crossed the "Susquehannah" below Rupert on a canal boat. It took seven days and four nites to cross. The sea was very rough. My wife didn't accompany me. She is ill at her father's home. I believe she contracted a cold or hay fever while trying to draw a C. M. P. thru a straw.

Of course you are anxious to know what is doing here. Yesterday Elenora rode into town on a new six cylinder bicycle. She is married now and has 6 boys one of which is a girl. They say she resembles the librarian deeply.

You heard about the big fire at North Hall. Yes, the old mansion is a total wreck. They say McDonald was calling there and threw a lighted cigarette into a box of powder which was sitting on the table and started the catastrophe.

The fire raged for nine days and 3 nites until the Light Street fire company arrived at the eleventh hour and blew it out.

I met Dr. Fisher after the fire and we have decided to make over the monkey house into a Girls Dorm.

Yesterday our maid found a hair net in Foresman's room. She reported him to the President. Foresman claimed he was agent for them now.

Tomorrow we move Science Hall one inch forward so the sun will shine in the west side in the morning.

Yours til the Deleware water gaps.

Paderiski.

Obiter's Farewell

In the glory of the sunset,
In the purple mists of evening,
To the regions of the home-wind
We leave our thoughts behind us,
In your watch and ward we leave
them ;
See that never harm comes near
them ;
See that never fear molests them ;
Never danger or suspicion for the Class of '21.

Bloomsburg State Normal School

---

Located in one of the largest and most accessible normal school towns in Pennsylvania, and surpassed by no town of its class in the state in attractiveness and beauty, making it an ideal location for a school.

A Teacher Training Course of two years, requiring a four-year high school course or its equivalent for admission. The work will be of college grade and will receive full college credit.

A High School Department is maintained for those not having a four-year high school at home.

Commercial Department - Music Department

The school has been completely reorganized under a new administration. The faculty has been greatly increased and strengthened.

Free Tuition to Students Preparing to Teach

Because the normal schools are supported by the state, they are able to offer a high grade education at more moderate expense than other schools in the country.
