FOREWORD

The Obit of 1922
Wherein fond memories lie,
A souvenir of increasing joy will be
As the years speed quickly by,
It has been our highest endeavour to choose
Things pleasantest to recall
In the days when college memories
Will be golden memories for all.
As you read this book in future years
May you relive in memory
These days of youth and joy and cheer
And friendly rivalry.
If we shall have helped to make memories more dear
Reminiscences more plain Our mission will have been realized
Our efforts--not in vain.

Loyal Forever '22

Alma Mater, on the hilltop,
We must say farewell to you,
We pledge our hearts true allegiance
We, the band of '22.

We exalt you, and we thank you
For your lessons nobly taught,
You have proved life's great achievements
Are by trial and hardship wrought.

You have girt us for life's battle,
Have prepared us for the fray,
Now we hear the bugle calling,
We will proudly march away.

We must e'er press onward, upward,
Tho the way be rough and long,
We must never be discouraged,
'Tis by struggling we grow strong.

We can't fly to realms of wonder,
We can't leap to heights sublime,
We must walk, but never falter,
For swiftly roll the wheels of time.

We may find some on this journey
Who are weak, while we are strong,
We will share their burdens gladly,
Try to fill their hearts with song.

We will strive to show by our deeds
What we owe, Bloomsburg, to you,
May this old world be made better
By this band of '22.

Then, when we have fought life's battle,
And feel the thrill of victory,
We will bend our knee, Old Normal,
And thank God, who worked thru thee.

—Kathryn E. Gamble.

In Memoriam

Jacob Chamberlain Foote

1874-1922

"How grand is life where one may close
The eyes in peace for death's repose:
When, life's day o'er, the angels come
And bear the spirit to its home
Of heavenly peace!"

—J. C. F.

So lived and died one whom we shall all remember as a dear friend, an efficient instructor, and a man of strong and sterling character.

During the eighteen years of his service in our Normal School Mr. Foote's influence upon each student who came in contact with him, has been a constant and growing good. One could not meet him casually and not recognize the sweetness of his spirit; while to work with him in the close associations of school life was to recognize the strength and unyielding rightness of his ideals.

The student body and the alumni as well as the faculty of this school have lost thru the death of Mr. Foote one whose life pointed the way and led to higher ideals.

Because we so esteemed him, we sympathize with his family in their irremediable loss.

—E. M. Gill.

Freshman Year

The saying, "All things come to him who waits," came true and we found ourselves "Freshies" at B. S. N. S. in the year 1918. Since "quality" was the key for admittance to our class, we were not troubled because our number was only twelve.

Under the supervision of the president of the class of '19 our great and famous ship was launched. We decided upon the following officers in command:

John Constine	President
Violet Marchetti	Vice-President
Hazel Hensel	Secretary
Miller Buck	Treasurer

Mr. Constine soon left our ship and Mr. Davies succeeded him in command.

On Arbor day we planted and dedicated a tree to Captain Williams, who died for his country.

Sophomore Year

Our second year found our ship plowing through the sea of knowledge and making good progress. The officers were:

Benjamin Augenblick	President
Evadne Ruggles	Vide-President
Violet Marchetti	Secretary
Edna Santee	Treasurer

Later Mr. Augenblick left school and Mr. David Bakeless took command. During the year several members were added to the crew and the success of our journey was established.

Junior Year

In our third year our crew increased to one hundred forty strong in order to better handle our large ship. For officers we chose:

Francis Donnelly	President
Evadne Ruggles	Vice-President
Lois Pfahler	Secretary
Thomas Hinkle	Treasurer

We were ably represented in Athletics by Shepela, Hutton, Smith, Foust, Hinkle, Hoy, Donnelly; and our Girls' Basketball team won fame for itself. Almost the entire Varsity consisted of Junior Girls.

The Junior Drama, "Green Stockings," was a fitting climax for such a splendid year's work. We were one year nearer to the end of our journey.

1922---Senior Class---1922

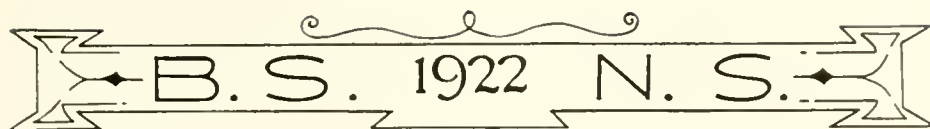

Land is sighted! Although we have encountered many storms our good ship has not failed us, and our crew, because of the willingness to work hard, developed excellent ability in handling her. This year we took on new members in order to fill the places vacated during the summer recess.

The following officers were elected to command the boat when she was on the last stretch of her journey:

William Payne	President
Evadne Ruggles	Vice-President
Lois Pfahler	Secretary
Harold L. Hoy	Treasurer

Again our class is well represented in athletics and though many changes are being made about the Normal, we are always able to adjust ourselves to them.

And so, with the American beauty rose as our flower; with Maroon and White, our colors, flying at topmast, we have attained our motto "Judgment, Reason, and Truth."

OUR MASCOT

O, it's I that am the captain of a tidy little ship,
Of a ship that goes a-sailing on the pond:
And my ship it keeps a-turning all around and all about,
But when I'm a little older, I shall find the secret out
How to send my vessel sailing on beyond.

LILLIAN E. ARNOLD,
Shickshinny, Pa

S. H. S.; Callie; G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; (4) Floor Board (3); Senior Glee Club; Choral Club; Editor in Chief of Obiter.

When anything is planned around Normal that's going to take brains and hard work, someone is sure to say "Get Lillian Arnold. She'll help." As Editor in Chief of the Obiter she is doing her "derndest" to make this the best one ever put out. Many Callie programs would have been dry affairs if it hadn't been for Lillian and her talent for giving readings. To see her program makes one gasp for breath, yet she manages it without becoming a grind.

She has a keen sense of humor and one of her favorite pastimes is entertaining her "bunch" with her particular brand of nonsense.

Lillian is sure to make good in her chosen field, the Measurement of Intelligence. She expects to make a humor test that will make her famous.

GENEVIEVE BAHR
Wyalusing, Pa.

W. H. S.; Philo; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Student Council; Eagles-Mere Delegate; G. A. A.

"Cutie"

Genevieve hails from Bradford County. 'Nuff said, for old Normal has learned to welcome and respect Bradford County students. And Genevieve has certainly lived up to the standard set by her county. She can certainly make things go. Third Floor found that out while she was Supervisor. The Training School found it out during her teaching semester, for every now and then reports reached our ears of what she was doing with those Junior High School pupils of hers. Somehow, we expect unusual things from Genevieve;—she has the ability, the pep, and the support,—if the hearty wishes of her classmates may be so called.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

GERTRUDE BAKER
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S., Philo, Choral Club, Sr. Glee Club.

Gertrude is one of the little members of our class. But in spite of her shortness in stature, one generally knows when she is around. Her black eyes sparkle with fun and a good time is assured when she is present.

When once Gertrude makes friends she is sure to stand by them. She is loved by many and her friends wish her the greatest success and happiness in her life's work.

ELIZABETH BARNETT
Miners Mills, Pa.

Philo.; Athletic Association.

Bessie, in your future life
You'll make a dandy doctors wife.
For you're always ready to aid,
When there's the life of a chum to be saved.

Bessie came back to Old Normal in '20. We are very sorry that she was ill and could not graduate with the class with which she started. But we are very glad to have her and we don't see how we could get along without her. Bessie knows every one and is a friend of every one. If you wish to know anything, just ask talkative Bessie and she will tell you.

She is of great use to every one in times of trouble. She not only doctors persons who are ill, but above all she doctors those who have the "blues". Just ask any one how many times Bessie sat at someone's bedside with the aromatic spirits of ammonia until long after midnight. We all know that she is going to make the best kind of a doctor's wife. Good luck, Bessie.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

SAMUEL WALLACE BAROW

Ringtown, Pa.

R. H. S.; Callie; B. D. C.; Varsity Football; Obiter Staff; Y. M. C. A.

"Sam" came to us this year and immediately began to help make up this book. Even though he does seem shy around the ladies, still he is to be seen very often with fair ones at his side. Sam is not like the rest of the Ringtown group, for he doesn't try to impress upon our stubborn minds the fact that Ringtown is a very essential part of Pennsylvania. Girls, Sam isn't as angelic as he looks!

HELEN K. BERRY

Central H. S., G. A. A., Jr. Drama, Philo.

She is of a very sweet disposition,
She is loving, wise, and kind,
She is full of true affection
And cannot be defined.

When the class of '22 entered B. S. N. S. it was unaware that it held within its numbers, one of the best examples of American girlhood. We were not slow in finding out that Helen was an ideal friend and those who were lucky enough to secure her as such will always remember her with tightenings around the heart strings. She has an abundance of wit, humor, and oh, so much love. We cannot imagine what school life would be without Helen, for her ready laugh can be heard thruout the corridors at all times. Helen informs us that she intends to teach but we feel certain that she will not follow her chosen profession very long, before some Prince Charming will claim her as his own.

When you go out from B. S. N. S. the hearts of '22 go with you, Helen.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

SARAH BIRCH

Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Primary Group.

Sarah is another one of the day students who graduated from the Bloomsburg High.

There are some people who, because they do not talk a great deal, are not easily discovered. It took us some time to really know Sarah. However, we have found her to be a true friend. "You cannot always sometimes tell about these quiet ones."

RUSSELL BOWER

Berwick, Pa.

B. H. S.; Day Student; Junior Drama;
Jr. H. S. Group.

"Bower"

Bower is one of the "bright lights" of our class. He can always be depended upon to do his part whatever it is. This is the reason he receives so many A's and B's. Do not think, however, that Russell spends all his time studying. Remember the proverb "Still water runs deep."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MARLIN BOOP

Millmont, Pa.

Normal Course, Callie, Y. M. C. A.; B. D. C.; M. H. S.

"Boopie"

Behold, gentle reader, he whom we regard as the modest man of the class. Marlin is very quiet, and to be in his company one gets a very good idea of the expression: "Silence is golden."

"Modesty" personified joined our class in the second semester of our junior year, and by his earnest effort has proved himself to be a worker who can get results.

The Y. M. C. A. is especially indebted to this conscientious member who has a well established reputation of being a beacon light in that student organization.

We feel that success will reward your honest work, Marlin.

COREENE BRITAIN

Berwick, Pa.

B. H. S.; Philo; Day Student; Normal Course

"Bnt"

Once Coreene was at the head of the Honor Roll (of the list of gigglers), but lately she has assumed the dignity befitting a Senior. She is naturally quiet but get her started and then watch out! Coreene has the faculty of laughing at just exactly the wrong time. She has a wide circle of friends and delights them with her kind deeds and happy smiles.

Good luck and every success, Coreene.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ALICE BURKE

Plymouth, Pa.

P. H. S.; Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course, Philo.

"Burkie"

Our bright-eyed, brown-haired Alice came to us in our Junior year. She is one of the Fourth Floor cherubs. Her gay laugh can be heard any time ringing out thru the halls. She is full of life and fun, and if there is a good time any place, Alice is always in it.

A great deal of Alice's spare time in her Junior year was spent on the campus, but this year she is more frequently found in her room. What is she doing? Perhaps the postman could tell us.

Alice expects to become a professional teacher. We wish her the best success.

SARA CAMPBELL

Doylestown, Pa.

D. H. S.; Y. W. C. A.; Philo; Rural Club.

"Sara"

Here's to our little Sara
With her sunny smile;
Always up and doing
Smiling all the while.

Yes; this is our Sara. Did you ever know her to be idle? We never did. She is always ready to help until the last bit of work vanishes. Besides all this, she is assistant nurse. Whenever anyone is sick, a notice is sent to Sara and Presto! her meal appears. This of course is good practice for her, for some day cooking will be one of her daily duties. We know that Sara is loved by all in our group and will be by all who come to know her.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

JOSEPHINE COIRA
Bloomsburg, Pa.
B. H. S.; Callie.
"Jo"

"Jo" came to us from B. H. S. in 1920 and has been a booster ever since. There are many things that Jo can do but we have lately discovered that one thing that she cannot do, is, use her imagination. "Jo" has many friends, but then "Jo", whose fault is it? Jo has many ideas to put into practice when teaching and she can always be heard saying, "When I became a teacher—? and talk on until day is done and everyone is ready to retire. But putting all joking aside, we know "Jo" will make a success of whatever she attempts.

Here's luck to you, Jo.

ANTIONETTE COOLBAUGH
Dallas, Pa.

Day Student, Normal Course, Philo.
Girls' Chorus, Senior Glee Club.

"Cooly" "Tony"

This charming girl whom we all know by her winsome smile and good nature has been with our class only one year. Her chief qualities are modesty, quietness, and sedateness, and she always meets her classmates with a cheerful smile.

She studied hard and faithfully, and as a result she stands in high favor with all the teachers. Cooly is talented along many lines, but her chief talents are drawing and music.

She is always ready to do her share of any work that might be on hand. All in all she is a girl who is Pretty to walk with,

Witty to talk with,
And pleasant too, to think on.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

BEATRICE CORNELL
Callie, Normal Course, Day Student
"Cornie"

Cornie is one of our "down town" girls. When she entered our class in its Sophomore year, everyone thought she was a shy, modest maiden. To all appearances, "little girls should be seen and not heard," was her rule in life. However, her many friends soon discovered that appearances are sometimes deceiving. But Beatrice has no time for frivolities, and the good will of '22 will follow her wherever she goes.

ADELLE CRYDER
Berwick, Pa.
Day Student, Normal Course.
"Del"

Behold a happy go lucky girl, with a laugh that is catching and can't be described or canned. She can do anything and everything from telling fortunes to giving advice. She is an optimist and makes sunshine wherever she goes.

Keep up the good work, "Del," for "Every cloud has a silver lining."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

FLORENCE DAVENPORT
Sweet Valley, Pa.

Day Student, Normal Course, Callie, Sr.
Glee Club, Choral Club, Basketball (2).

"Flo"

Although "Flo" is a Day Student she is widely known throughout the school. She spends a great part of her time worrying about nutrition. We wonder how soon she will apply her knowledge of the Subject.

She says she is going to teach school in the country. We hope she will keep us informed of her success as a teacher by sending us snap shots of her pupils at work. Not having a camera we all know she will choose an "Eastman."

We fell sure of her success in the future if she spends her time as profitable as she done during her course at B. S. N. S.

HELEN DEITERICK
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S., Day Student, Normal Course, Girls' Chorus.

"Happy"

Helen is a very "Happy" personage, especially when a nice fat letter comes from Shamokin. There's a reason. You can hardly realize that Helen is a downtown girl, because she is so quiet. Some characteristics of Helen's are a sweet disposition, always thoughtful of others, a possessor of brains; also curly hair, except on rainy days.

But you should see her in the downtown bunch. Oh! my!

We know that Helen will make a success of anything that she tries, because she always has in the past. If you want a real, true friend, call around to see Helen.

"Once your friend, always your friend."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

FRANCIS DONNELLY

Loenst Gap, Pa.

Mt. Carmel H. S., Callie; B. C. D., Sec.
B. D. C., Pres, Junior Class, Callie Drama,
(2), Junior Class Drama (3)

"Mike"

People, behold one of our ladies' men! Francis is very fond of fruit, especially "Berries." If you want to know more about "Berry" as a fruit just ask him. "Mike" was very fond of Prof. Wertz last year and since he has left school Francis is on "Easy Street."

Someone has said that the professor does not live who can make this restless fellow worry about his studies; at least, he never displays any signs of concern.

Here is another secret. Francis has hopes of becoming a movie star, too. He claims that as soon as he has finished speech, under Miss Sherman, and has read all "Moving Picture" magazines available he will be better than "William S. Chaplin."

MILDRED DOUGHERTY

Old Forge, Pa.

O. F. H. S., Philo Drama, Philo, Normal Course.

"Mil" "Doc"

"A winsome face, a rosy cheek,
A gentle smile where'er you pass,
A graceful form, a quiet (?) way,
In all a winsome little lass."

When this young maiden entered B. S. N. S., it was not long until she had won the hearts of all who met her.

"Doc" is famous as a dramatist. She is an ambitious worker and some of the teachers have quoted this motto for her; "Work while you work and play while you play."

When asked what her aspirations for the future are, she replied: "To get married, but I suppose I'll teach school and end up in an 'Old Maid's Home.'" Never fear, "Mil," while there's life there's hope and you've heaps of life—hence heaps of hope.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

TYDVIL EDWARDS

Ashley, Pa.

U. T. H. S., Y. W. C. A., Normal Course.
"Tyd"

"Nothing is more simple than greatness; indeed to be simple is to be great."

A glance at "Tyd" would leave an impression of a very quiet girl, but a visit to her room would soon change such an opinion. She is a picture of innocence, her crowning glory being her hair.

"Tyd" is always game for a merry lark, but also attends to her business. She is very ambitious and is always ready to help a friend in need.

She is constantly worrying over her lessons, but generally knows them. "Tyd" is talented in the musical line (?), but does not display her ability.

We are sure her future as a school teacher will be a success, for she is interested in her work and overcomes all obstacles.

HELEN ELY

Milville, Pa.

Philo, M. H. S., Y. W. C. A., Eagles' Mere Delegate.

Helen is one of our sweet, shy girls. At first we were afraid Helen might swerve from the profession of teaching as she became interested in "Butch" ering. However, she finally decided that butchering was not a very romantic business so now her fancy and her heart turn toward "Normandy." Of course she's peppy and full of vim.

With all her fun and pep she is still a very earnest and studious young lady. She says she likes the teaching profession and thinks she will enjoy it.

We are sure Helen's "Oh Glory" will carry her thru successfully.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

HANNAH EMANUEL

Wilkes-Barre, Pa

H. T. H. S., Normal Course, Philo, Y
W. C. A.

"Nan"

If you saw a girl who was happy and gay,
And always seemed ready to smile,
Who knew just how and just what to say,
When work didn't seem worth the while
A wonderful star in athletics and fun
Whose laugh with joy overran,
You've met no other than this very one,
Our own friendly, lovable Nan.

Yes, Nan was a little taller than the majority of the girls who came here at the same time as she did but she soon proved to us that her adaptability was 100 per cent efficient. She could be as short as the shortest of us and taller than most of us as suited her fancy. Nan also proved her ability in this line when she started teaching in the Kindergarten for it was easy for her to adapt her size to that of the Kindergarten chairs.

Nan was a star at Basketball. She was one of our best side centers and usually helped furnish a great deal of "pep" at our games.

Oh my yes, Nan can dance. She can do a great many things. Whatever she may choose, she carries with her our very best wishes for much happiness and success.

BEAVER FAUST

College Prep., Y. M. C. A., Callie, B. D. C., Rural Club Football 1920-1921. Basketball 1920-21-22.

"Beezer"

Beaver's greatest ambition is to increase his avoirdupois, as he feels the lack of this weight is a great hindrance in athletic contests. Be careful you don't add too much, "Beezer." You are to be commended for the fine spirit you possess in trying for the teams, as that is what won the berths on the teams for you.

Beaver, in increasing his weight, has decided that Campbell's products, such as Campbell's baked beans, tomato soup, etc., play a great part. Here's wishing you success, Beaver.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

DOROTHY FAUST

Hazleton, Pa.

H. H. S., Philo, Y. W. C. A., Choral Club, Senior Glee Club, Girls' Athletic Assoc.

"Dot"

Dot is the life of fourth floor. Did you ever see a little girl wandering around the halls, or did you notice among the Kindergarten children in the Halloween party, the little girl with long curls and brown eyes? Yes, both times you saw Dorothy. Notice her more carefully next time, for if you do, you will learn a few things about making a good time.

Dot is very fond of hiking. Perhaps some day she will win a medal for hiking across the continent. At any rate she frequently threatens to be among the missing here at Normal for several days, while going home to Hazleton on foot.

JANE FULLER

Lightstreet, Pa.

Here she comes! Who? The chatterbox of the "Locker Room Gang." Jane always has her mouth open. Sometimes she is saying something, sometimes she isn't, but that makes no difference whatsoever to Jane.

She is very industrious and energetic, and is always willing to help her less studious classmates out of any of their troubles. You may always see her hustling around when it is time for a class to begin.

A person with these characteristics will gain—well you can draw your own conclusions.

Success to the successful."

KATHRYN GAMBLE

Wyalusing, Pa.

W. H. S.; Philo; V.-Pres. Student Gov. (3); Pres. Student Gov. (4); V.-Pres. Y. W. C. A. (4); Senior Glee Club, Choral Club; G. A. A.; Eagles Mere Delegate.

"Katrinka"

Kathryn is the second of the famous Gamble sisters. In her Junior year she was a carefree, bobbed-haired lassie, but this year she came back with more dignity since she had been elected president of the W. S. G. A. She has directed life in the dorm wisely and with rare tact, for she got results without losing friends. It's no small achievement to be Student Government President and the most popular girl in school.

Kathryn has been a faithful worker in the Y. W. In fact, she works faithfully at anything she undertakes. That is the reason she stands so well in her classes.

The best of success to the best of girls.

MARY GETTY
Strawberry Ridge
Philo

Mary is not very large, but when you get to know her you will agree that there is a great deal to her. She does not make much noise, and perhaps that is why she usually says something worth while when she talks. Do not think from this, that Mary and fun are strangers. They are the best of friends. If ever you have seen those eyes dancing when something pleasant is about to happen, you certainly are convinced that Mary likes a good time.

Mary went to High School down Jersey way. It is glad we are tho, that now she lives out near Strawberry Ridge, not twenty miles from old Normal.

She is making good here, and we know without doubt, that she will be doing fine work next year with some Junior High School folks. Here is wishing you everything that is good, Mary.

ELIZABETH GILBERT

Potts Grove, Pa.

P. H. S., Callie, G. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Floor Board (4).

"Betty"

Black, snappy eyes has our Betty. When you look at Betty's eyes you know she means business. In our Junior year we found out that she was one of our "knowing ones," and she has never failed to live up to her reputation.

But Betty's eyes do not only mean business, because she is just full of fun, and also spunk. Many a night Betty's voice could be heard singing, accompanied by her ukelele. We often wondered what she was thinking of when she sang "Love's Old Sweet Song." Perhaps if she told us about the trips she took every week-end we might understand this mystery. Best wishes for you, Betty.

ANNA GILLIGAN

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W. B. H. S., Normal Course; Philo, W.
S. G. A., G. D. C. A. A.

"Gilligan"

She isn't very tall,
In fact she's rather short,
But she is happy all day long,
If mirth is true report.

Here is a jolly good classmate who knows her own mind and has a will of her own. There is no use trying to nurse melancholy when she is around. She'll scatter the blues before you know it. Did you say brown eyes and glossy black hair? Anna, be careful with those dusky orbs, for who is it says "Brown eyes hold such charms for me." We wonder. Our love to you.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MARION W. GRAHAM
Peckville, Pa.

P. H. S., Philo, Y. W. C. A., Normal
Course.

"Tiny"

Marion's about our "littlest" girl,
She's neither stout nor tall,
In fact, considering everything,
She's really very small.
But measuring her own true worth,
Her size don't count at all
For she's as good as she could be
If she were twice as tall.

When Marion came to B. S. N. S. her proportions did not impress us as being "immense." We found that the old saying, "Good things come in small packages" did mean something after all. Marion showed us that a small body could hold great vitality; and that a powerful will could accomplish great things. Marion surely did make us "hers for keeps" during our acquaintance.

As a teacher, Marion has proved herself a success in her practice teaching at Normal. We hope that she may be just as successful in her future teaching and her efforts in every line when our days at Normal have become "just memories."

ANNA GRANHAN
Pittston, Pa.

St. John's H. S., Philo, G. A. A., N. D. S.

"Granny"

True enough, it's our Anna,
Ever willing to do things so kind,
All this and more; you'll agree to be sure,
That she is lovable and superfine.

A more faithful girl never lived. Anna sure was loyal to every person and thing that she ever came in contact with at "Bloom." Speaking of kindness, well Anna would take the prize if we had any to offer, for she never spoke but kind words and never did but kind deeds. She shone in her class-rooms during her stay in our school and it is the sincere wish of all her classmates that she shines wherever she may go.

MILDRED E. GRAY

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Miner's Mills H. S., Wyoming Sem., Normal Course, Philo, S. C., B. D. D., Choral Club, Sr. Glee Club, Y. W. C. A.

"Mil"

"Here's a girl that's always in it,
Doesn't loose her head a minute,
Plays the game and knows the limit,
Yet gets all the fun that's in it."

For a short time after Mildred, or "Mil" as she is better known, joined us she remained in the background, but soon became everybody's friend. Many a plot and joke originated in Mildred's room.

Mildred makes a good floor supervisor. Every night at a few minutes after ten her merry voice is heard—"Say kids, out with the dope." She doesn't loose patience very often, but when she does—Oh, Boy! Never mind, Mildred, we all wish you luck as a teacher.

LEAH GRIFFITH

Plymouth, Pa.

P. H. S., Callie; Senior Glee Club; Choral Club.

"Griff"

"Take the slide rule and figure up these I. Q's." "You make a graph of the M. A's. of the children in the Training School," etc. This is Leah, one of Dr. Herring's assistants, talking. She joined us in our Senior year and she's made a valuable addition to the class. The only trouble is, that her services are so much in demand in the Bureau that we seldom see her anywhere else.

"Griff" isn't just a grind, however, as the folks in the Bureau will testify, for at the hikes and parties she's much in evidence and makes as much noise as anyone there.

Leah is aiming at a Ph. D. and we prophesy she'll have it in a few years.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

DOROTHY GROTZ

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Day student; Normal Course

"Dot"

Dorothy takes frequent trips to Danville that we wish she would not take, but then she's her own boss. Be careful "Dot."

"Dot" has not been working to capacity since she came to Normal, but we have all found out what a fine mathematician she is. We have heard she is going to specialize in "math" and we wish her a howling success. "Dot" gives everybody within her reach a boost, and we know that whatever she does in the future will turn out all right.

"Here's wishing you a bright future."

ALMA HAMPTON

Nescopeck, Pa.

N. H. S., Athletic Association, Normal Course.

"Alma"

Blue eyes and light hair,
Unselfish and always fair;
A dash of temper and lots of pep,
And still there's lots to Alma yet.

Since Alma entered B. S. N. S. she has been one of its ardent workers, especially when it comes to class spirit. She certainly has her share of that. At the games her voice can always be heard above the others cheering the players on to better work.

She speaks her own mind in every case, no matter what the odds may be. She is energetic, full of life, and quick in everything she undertakes.

Alma shows special ability in "gym" class and we predict that in the near future, she will be presiding over such a class of her own.

We admire your indomitable spirit, Alma, and the best wishes of the class of '22 go with you in whatever line of activity you take up.

MILDRED HANKEE

West Pittston, Pa.

West Pittston H. S., Normal Course, Callie, Y. W. C. A., Choral Club, Sr. Glee Club.

"Mid"

Happy am I, from cares I am free,
Why aren't they all contented like me?

"Mid" is always happy. She is ever ready to lend a helping hand, even to Dr. Herring.

"Mid" has become our star debator. Her chief subject is Junior High School English. We are very thankful of this because we are often helped when in a difficult discussion.

This petite lass always trips along and welcomes you with a smile and "how-yah?"

Last year "Mid" had a hobby of going for walks. She was ambitious along this line and often we would see her out when the riser was ringing. During one of these walks she taught us to be good Samaritans by helping earthworms to their destinations.

MARION R. HART

Mountain Grove, Pa.

Philo: Des Moines Conference 1920; Y.
W. C. A. Cabinet (1) and (3); Pres. Y. W.
C. A. (4); Student Council (3); G. A. A.

"Marion"

Marion lives in Mountain Grove and since they haven't a high school there, she came to B. S. N. S. for her prep work, entering as a Freshman. Folks soon found out that Marion was the kind of girl who could always be depended upon and before long she was a very important person around here.
The Y. W. will lose a very faithful worker when she leaves. She was a representative at the Des Moines Conference in 1920. In her Junior year she served on the Cabinet, Senior year as president. Last summer she was one of the delegates to the Eagles Mere Conference.

"Mom" is not always serious and she isn't too busy to have good times with her "family" and other folks. You can see her down in Sands almost every evening after classes. We expect to hear great things of Marion as a Jr. H. S. Math teacher. Good luck, Marion.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

EDNA HARTER

Nescopeck, Pa.

N. H. S.; Callie; Y. W. C. A., Student Council (4); Choral Club; Sr. Glee Club.

"Edna"

Bright eyes and brown hair,
Jolly ways and a winsome air,
She speaks her mind,
Her opinions she doth pass
Yet, she is a very kind
And very efficient lass.

This very jolly brunette entered our class in the Junior year. Her work went along very uneventfully until she became supervisor of second floor. Edna just hated to squelch the girls and was often heard to exclaim, "Oh, I didn't hear that noise" Often she would merely tap on your door then slip quietly into her own room. Nevertheless, Miss Kingman often said that Edna's floor was among the best and that it was even almost perfect.

"Edna's" voice has always been a source of wonder to the girls. Its base-like qualities made it penetrate even farther than she thought it did. Still, Edna, we appreciate the strong help you were as alto in the choral club.

Edna has always been a good, faithful worker and we picture her as presiding over a well disciplined county school some day.

LILLIE HARTER

Nescopeck, Pa.

N. H. S.; Callie Sec'y (3); Y. W. C. A. Treas. (4); Athletic Asso.; Eagles Mere Delegate.

"Bill"

Every single day we know her
We love her more and more,
Every day we find her better,
Sweeter, kinder, than before.

"Bill" is the 'true blue' member of our class. She has never been known to break a rule. Every night after seven o'clock this blonde can be found in her room deeply engrossed in her books. She is a true friend to every one.

"Bill" has never been known to have "a case." But we often wonder why she has that far away look in her eyes. The man who will eventually be successful in breaking thru her shyness will certainly get a prize.

CATHARINE HARVARD

Plymouth, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo; Y. W. C. A. Plymouth H. S.

This blue-eyed, golden-haired lass came to us when we were but two years old. To look at her, one would think her very quiet, but only to know her well is enough to change our minds.

Catharine is noted for her kind disposition. She is always ready to give a cheerful word or help in any way possible.

We know Catharine will make a successful teacher and she says she expects to teach for many years. But that can hardly be expected if we are to judge by the letters she gets. How about it Stanley? Just the same, we wish her the best success and happiness.

KATHARINE ANNE HAYES

Scranton, Pa.

Normal Course; C. H. S.; G. A. A.; Junior Drama; N. D. S.

"Kay"

When afterward, in future days,
When things both good and ill,
Are offered for her choosing,
May it always be her will
To take the good and leave the bad,
And always have her "Phil."

Katharine is the sort of a girl you would like to meet. She is as true a friend as you will ever find and more than willing to do something kind.

Katharine has been with us two years and during this time she has made many good records that correspond to those she left behind her at "Central." We are all ready to agree that she is very literary, but the large majority of her master-pieces are enjoyed only by "Phil," for it is an every night occurrence to see "Kay" tip-toeing thru the hall on her way to mail this promised letter. We believe that her teaching career will be a short, snappy one.

The best to you always "Kay."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MIRIAM HENDRICKSON
Danville, Pa.

Danville H. S.; Normal Course, Y. W. C. A.; Philo;

"Mire"

Yes, Miriam lives on a farm, but take it from me, there's nothing green about her. It took us sometime to really get to know her, but now that we do, we take notes on her way of doing things. See that intellectual brow?—that's the secret. And to look at her schedule this year would make your hair stand on end. Yet she gets things done, and has time for fun. She helps out at a good many programs in Philo, and we like to hear from her. Helpful, did you say?—she's right there where there's work to do. Say the word and presto, tis done! Altogether she's the right kind to have around.

Miriam decided she wanted to teach the little tots. We know she'll make good at it, because she does well whatever she attempts. Here's success to you, classmate.

STANLEA HENRY
Dorranceton, Pa.

Callie; Y. W.; Varsity basketball; Senior Glee club; Choral Club; Eagles Mere Delegate.

"Bob"

Here's "Bob", one of the best all around girls of our class. She's sure to be in on everything from a basketball game to a Y. W. Conference. In her Junior year she was one of the mainstays of the girls varsity, for the forwards she guarded seldom scored.

"Stan" was one of Group III's stars in the training school. However she managed it, the Jr. H. S. faculty almost ate out of her hand. "Bob's" a good student tho, and deserved all the credit she received and then some.

Last year "Bob's" hobby was cases and she used to have a new victim every few weeks. This year, however, she has settled down to five or six letters a week from Wilkes-Barre and occasional trips home, contenting herself meanwhile by making luncheon sets and such things for a hope chest. His name? Oh! "Good luck to you, "Bob."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

HELEN HESS
Benton, Pa.

B. H. S.; Normal Course, Day student.

Helen entered our class in our Junior year, having graduated from Benton High School. Altho she is a happy-go-lucky girl, she is a good student.

The pleasure she takes in going home over week-ends and on holidays makes us feel certain that there is some attraction in Benton.

As a day student, she is seen every day, slowly toiling up the hill to the school, where, because of her eagerness for knowledge, she has become a credit to our class.

We do not think that Helen will teach the proverbial twenty years, but no matter how long she does so, we feel sure she will make a success of it.

THOMAS L. HINKLE
Milnesville, Pa.

Hazle Twp. H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; Pres. Y. M. C. A.; Pres. B. D. C.; Treas. of Class (3); Junior Drama; Football Varsity (3); Baseball (3). Callie Drama (4).

"Hinkle"

Hinkle will soon need a pair of "leather spees." He watches his mail box like a fox. Every time he passes it, it must come open. He only gets two a day from her, but he doesn't seem to think that sufficient for, when Saturday comes he just must go home to see her. Outside of Hinkle's absences from our week-end social affairs, he is a very active member of our class and we all know he will make a big success in life. We know too, that he will also make a "Model"—??? Ask someone from Hazelton.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

HAROLD L. HOY
Milton, Pa.

Milton H. S., Callie President, Y. M. C. A. Treas., B. D. C., Football (3), Baseball (3), Pres. Rural Club (4), Delegate to Indiana Convention (4), Class Treasurer (4), Jr. H. S. Group, Business Mgr., Obiter Staff.

"Hoy"

Hoy is one of our few broad-minded men who thinks that if a class is not interesting it can be put to some good use—so he falls asleep. What! Why does Hoy hang around the mail boxes? Didn't you know that he gets a letter every day from her? Nevertheless, Harold is one of our best class members and we are all confident of his success in future life.

NEAL HUTTON
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Callie, Basketball (2) (3) (4), Tennis Team, (3) (4), B. D. C., Rural Club, Men's Glee Club, Roosevelt Literary Society, College Prep Day Student.

"Slim"

Slim is a very familiar person around old Normal having come here as a modelite in the first grade. We think "Slim" should be a child of exceptional ability since he has been under the influence of student-teachers his entire school life. "Slim" is one of our College Prep boys and expects to attend college next year. He seems to be considerably interested in a "graph". Here's luck, "old top," we expect to hear great things from you as a college basketball star.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ISABEL JONES
Peeley, Pa.

Hanover Township H. S.; Philo, Normal Course.

Isabel joined the "Leventeens" early in her Junior year and has been one of their best members. Although she may seem rather distant to those who do not know her well, yet she is a very lovable girl as can be seen by her numerous friends.

Isabel has become famous by her laughing. Not only is there this to say, but Isabel is also a very studious girl as her class standing will prove. As a teacher here at Normal she proved very successful and here's wishing her the very best of luck as she departs from us.

GRACE JOHNSON
Weikert, Pa.

Laurelton H. S.; Philo.

Grace came to us in her Senior year. She is one of the quiet members of the class. But she is a very thorough, conscientious student so we were glad to put her name down on our roll. She has already taught, so we know that when she again returns to the profession, having her experience and training back of her, she will make a splendid teacher. Our best wishes go with you, Grace.

MADÉLINE JONES
Laketon, Pa

Edwardsville H. S.; Callie; Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; G. A. A.; S. G. A.

"Madge"

"Still water runs deep"

Somebody told me that Madge was quiet. She appears so, until you know her. She is indeed, an all round good sport, well liked by all who knew her. She loves to play jokes, so whenever Madge is about, those who are wise, keep their eyes open. Madge is a jolly girl. She is bound to be a success as a teacher. Here's wishing you luck, Madge

MARGARET E. JONES
Plymouth, Pa.

Philo; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3); Senior
Glee Club; Choral Club

"Peg"

"Peg" is one of our many "real nice" girls. She is rather quiet at times, and is very busy, her favorite occupations being writing letters to her many correspondents and reading the stacks of letters she receives with each mail.

"Peg" is noted for her singing ability, and is ever ready to help the amateur. Her sole ambition is to teach music, but we hope it will be teaching in more than the ordinary fashion. From her confidences we are led to believe her place in the world is a great one.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MARTHA JONES

Seranton, Pa.

C. H. S.; Callie; G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Delegate to Eagles Mere (2).

"Marsie" or "Pat"

"Marsie" is a jolly maid,
Who is happy from spring till fall,
And even when we go to bed
Her laughter echoes thru the hall

Did you ever hear Martha's characteristic little scream? Well, I am surprised. If you once hear it, you will know it forever. Perhaps she saw a bug, or no doubt, a dog.

Despite this fact she is a dear, sweet girl, and we all look forward to her success as a teacher. She is studious and can usually be found buried deeply in a pile of books. This, together with the fact that she never bothers with the opposite sex, leads some to think that she will spend her life time at this profession. But we wonder.

"Marsie" is one of the artists of our class. If you want help in this line of work, just go to her and she is ever willing and ready to stop what she is doing to help you. We wish you a happy, bright, and prosperous future, Martha.

MAE JUDGE

Jessup, Pa.

Jessup H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; W
S. G. A.; G. D. C.

"Judzie"

Tall and slender, very fair;
Blue eyes and black hair,
Bright pink cheeks—a blase air!

If you should some day see, tripping down some Bloomsburg boulevard, a person whom you at once think you recognize as Dame Fashion of Paris, look again and carefully—there, now, I told you so!—it's Mae Judge!! She is very popular because of her pleasant manner and her unvarying good nature. We love her. Here's to your success, Mae!

LUCILLE JURY
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Callie, Normal Course; Day student

Lucille is an earnest and industrious girl, striving to make the most of things; ever ready for a good time as well as to help others.

Lucille says her future is that of a school teacher; but we know that a lad from B., is slowly changing her mind.

Lucille's originality has been shown in lines other than teaching, especially in the line of naming things. How about the potato chips, Lucille?

HAZEL KIMBLE
Scranton, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo; Rural Club.

Hazel came to us from the big city of Scranton in the fall of 1920, as a Junior. City life had not spoiled her as she was a sweet modest girl. At the end of the first semester when we were given a chance to choose the work we wished to pursue Hazel selected Rural Work. We then wondered why but now we can understand. Ask Hazel to do something for Group IV or the Rural Club and she is always willing. Even though Hazel grows old the class of 1922 shall always remember her as the little girl with black curls.

The class of '22 join in wishing Hazel a prosperous future.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MARIE KING
West Pittston, Pa.

West Pittston H. S.; Y. W. C. A. Drama;
Callie; S. G. A. Normal Course.

"Marie"

Introducing one of the members of the firm of "King and Ruggles Company."

Marie came into our midst in her Junior year from West Pittston, H. S.

She has a warm spot in her heart for Syracuse and we sometimes hear her sigh, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling".

Marie likes lots of fun and she generally is the leader when anything lively goes on.

Marie likes music and domestic science and when it comes to choosing curtains for Callie Hall she is usually elected chairman of that committee, as she says, "now is the time to learn how to decorate a home," but we think she had better follow the old rule, "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

We know happiness and success will follow you, Marie.

THERESA KNOLL
Nanticoke, Pa.

St. Mary's H. S.; Philo; G. A. A.; N. D. S.

"Teppy"

Oh, yes, she's our graceful one,
Our very best dancer, and full of fun,
A clever girl, smart as can be,
It's none other than "Teppy" as you can see.

It is very difficult to give an account of "Teppy" in this small space, for her good qualities excel the stars. As a matter of fact she has no bad qualities. She is a bundle of kindness, generosity, and truthfulness combined. When it comes to fun, "Teppy" is always on time. Her famous expression is "Going to the Antlers?" You will infer that she is a good eater. Well, she is a good teacher too.

Your classmates wish you all kinds of good things "Teppy".

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MARGARET KREISHER
Catawissa, Pa.

Day Student, Music Course.

Margaret wended her way to Bloomsburg in our Junior year and our class has profited greatly by her doing so. She is one of '22's talented musicians. Often we are entertained by her singing. We know she will make a good teacher, too, for when it comes to sequential singing—we've got to sing—that's all.

Margaret has proved a true friend to all who knew her, and we know that when she takes up her life's work, she will be successful.

RACHAEL KRESSLER
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Philo; Day student; Normal Course.

"Shorty"

Rachael, more commonly known as "Shorty" hails from "Downtown" and is "everybody's friend."

Short's "red" hair has nothing whatsoever to do with her disposition for she is modest, calm, and very dignified (?). She is one of the jolliest, sweetest, and smallest girls in the class. Good things always come in small packages, and Shorty is no exception.

She has numerous affairs of the heart, and we can't seem to keep them straightened out. We all join in wishing Shorty the best of "school-marm" careers.

"A quiet manner is sometimes deceiving."

MARTHA LAWRENCE

Plymouth, Pa.

Plymouth H. S.; Normal Course; Philo;
Y. W. C. A.

"Martha"

Martha comes to us from Plymouth. She is a charming lass liked not only by the girls but also by the opposite sex. We'll tell you a secret if you promise not to tell. "We heard she gets special deliveries from State." We wonder what's at stake.

Well, she's a good student anyway and a friend to everyone. Here's our best wishes for a bright and happy future, Martha.

MARY LAWRENCE

Danville, Pa.

Danville H. S.; Callie; Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club.

"Mary"

Mary is a hard working, studious girl. She is taking up rural work and we are sure she will be a successful teacher. Good luck to you, Mary. You have our best wishes for a prosperous future.

When anything is to be done in the Rural Club, call on Mary, and she is sure to help. She is one of these girls you can depend upon to do her share.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

HELEN LEES
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W-B. H. S.; Philo; G. A. A.; Philo Drama.

"Helen"

Helen has a Bloomsburg beau,
On courtship he is bent,
And every where that Helen goes,
Ralph's car is sure to "went"

Helen comes from Wilkes-Barre and we are all willing to agree that she is nothing less than a "peach" of a girl.

Speaking of a good student, well she is there some. Helen is faithful to her studies during the course of the week, but, we are inclined to believe that Sunday to most of us,—is more than Sunday to her—in other words she frequently enjoys auto rides on the afternoon of the Sabbath. We extend our wishes for many more rides and "heaps" of success to you, Helen.

MARGARET LESSER Freeland, Pa.

Freeland H. S.; Philo; G. A. A.

"Marg"

Big dark eyes of brown,
A fair face that knows no form,
A pleasant manner, a winning way,
That's our Margaret every day.

Have you ever seen a nice big girl with sparkling eyes and a smile that never wears off? Well, that's "Marg" Lesser and once you see her you will never forget her. That smile seems to haunt you during your waking hours and while you slumber peacefully, you dream of brown eyes, and wish that you might have them too. "Marg" is energetic, never failing to have her work done, and feeling quite badly when the teachers make a mistake in rating. At such times Marg's vocabulary is not limited. During her stay in B. S. N. S. she has surrounded herself with a host of friends, and we wish her the best luck possible, for we feel certain that wherever she goes she will make friends as readily as she has here.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

OLWEN LEWIS

Scranton, Pa.

Central H. S.; G. A. A.; Philo; Normal Course

"O!"

A quiet kind of girl
Of whom it may be said,
There's something more than nonsense
Lying inside her head.

Olwen came to us, in the second semester of our Junior year. Since that time we have had ample time to know her. Underneath that quiet exterior there is a wealth of goodness. She is ever ready to help, and is the joy of all people who dislike library work, for Olwen is a constant source of information. She intends to teach and we feel certain that she will be an expert manager. Here's the best of luck to Olwen.

HAZEL LLOYD

Starruca, Pa.

Normal Course; Philo.

A shy little maiden she came to us and a shy little maid she leaves. But we have learned to know her just a wee bit during the two years she's been here. That is why we are convinced there is more to Hazel than she lets any of us suspect. Good in her lessons, too, and conscientious,—oh, my! She isn't to be surpassed. Entertainments hold no attraction for Hazel as long as there is a map to be drawn or a problem to be solved. But that's a good way to be. There would be more A's in Prof.'s record book if more of us were like her.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

RUTH E. LOGAN

Falls, Pa.

Soph. Contest; Y. W. C. A., Normal Course, Callie, Basketball Mgr. (2) (3) (4), Varsity (3), T. O. M.

"Logan"

Ruth came to us in our Sophomore year and decided she would stay. Maybe a little boy with dark hair and snappy eyes had something to do with it, we can't tell.

Ruth has the reputation of being the sweetest girl so we can't blame everyone for loving her. She has a charming personality which makes both large and small adore her.

She became a star in her sophomore year by showing us how to play basketball.

We aren't sure as to Ruth's future whether it will be physical culture or dramatics. However, we know she will be successful in Binghamton.

CECELIA LUMBERT

Forest City, Pa.

Forest City H. S.; Philo; Normal Course

"Ceil"

Pep!—a synonym for Ceil.
 Love?—The way toward her we feel,
 Dance?—Why she excels us all,
 To her?—The hardest heart must fall
 In love and admiration.

Yes, Ceil did come from Forest City and she brought us some of the fun and good-nature of that little town when she arrived on Fourth floor front. She had a habit of becoming lonely occasionally when she was a Junior but she overcame that feeling. Now, she keeps everyone else from being blue and she's a sure cure.

You will notice that we said she could dance—well, she surely can and she can help others enjoy dancing too. If anyone happens to want music for that particular form of diversion they can call on Celia for she's always up to time when it comes to knowing popular songs.

We know that Ceil is going to make a wonderful teacher. She has every wish for good fortune and success from those who know her.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MATTIE L. LUNTON
Minersville, Pa

Cass Twp. H. S.; Callie; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; Choral Club, Senior Glee Club.

"Mat" "Lavinia"

Here is our star student, who comes from Minersville with a very good record, having graduated from High School as valedictorian in a class of one. No sarcasm meant, Mattie, for we like you just the same.

Mattie is very witty and, if you have the blues, just go to her and she will cheer you up. If you want to keep on the right side of Mattie, don't give her a fiddler's invitation to anything. We know that she will be very successful as a teacher but we are sure that she will not have to teach until she is pensioned.

OLIVE MARTIN
Shamokin, Pa.

Houghton H. S., Michigan; Sec. Philo; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Choral Club, Senior Glee Club.

"Olive"

Olive hails from upper peninsula of Michigan. Of course, with the plentiful snow and ice of their winters, Olive is a "fresh air kid." We know that from her pink cheeks and sparkling eyes.

Olive is not only good in her classes. In the Magee Contest last year, she made the Normalites proud of her. This year she repeated the process as "Hilda" in one of the Philo plays.

Do not think however, that she studies and works all the time. She is always "right there" for the fun, and does her part to make it, too. That is why she has so completely won our hearts.

We surmise tho, from the letters that come from a mysterious "little minister" somewhere back west, that she has won a particular heart up home, and that Pennsylvania will not keep her long. Be this as it may, we are glad that she is here now, and hope that Michigan will share up again, if there are many more like her.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

LUCY McDERMOTT
Jessup, Pa.

J. H. S.; Normal Course, Callie, Callie
Drama; Basketball (4).

"Mac" "Lu" "Pep"

Vigor, Vitality, vim and punch—
That's pep!

The courage to act on a sudden hunch—
That's pep!

Impressionable, jolly, friendly, Lucy is widely known and universally popular. She can study, she can teach, she can dance—honestly she can do almost anything which she desires. It is a pleasure just to meet Lucy. She has a pleasant smile and a nod for everyone; lots of pep, good sense, and plenty of time to listen to your troubles and to sympathize heartily with you. She is the same dandy good girl every day in the year. Receiving letters is her specialty, after the reading of which you invariably hear her exclaim—"Gee! I wonder how long I have to teach."

CRESCENTIA McGRATH
Forest City, Pa.

Forest City High School, Philo; Normal
Course.

"Chris"

Chris, as you have noticed, is one of our fierce Forest Citizens. She certainly Captivated us with her winning ways, and, in the same connection, she captivated some that did not belong to the "Paradise Alley Leventeen." Dancing and composing poetry were her favorite indoor amusements, but "writing letters to Frank" gave her little time for much work in the line of poetry.

Chris has given us several reasons to believe that she won't teach school all her life, but perhaps her alluring eyes help us along in our belief. However, all we can prophesy for her is success and happiness if our wishes have anything to do with the future.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

RUTH McINTYRE

Bloomsburg, Pa.

Day Student; Normal Course; Philo.

"Ruth"

This is Ruth; always getting into mischief and always helping someone else out of the same predicament.

Ruth is also a member of that famous "Downtown Bunch," (famous because of its quietness?).

Ruth is a good sport, a friend of everyone, "meek as Moses," fond of teacher (?), and one of the best liked girls of the "locker room gang."

Good luck to you, Ruth.

ANNA C. McKEON

Olymbant, Pa.

Blakley H. S.; Philo; Student Council.

"Mickey"

To introduce our "Micky,"

These few short lines propose.

She's very good and gentle,

And an "all around" sport, who knows

When to be gay, or sober,

To laugh, and when to sigh,

So give a glance at a real, true girl

Before you pass her by.

Mickey came to us a little bit late in our Junior year and she surely did brighten things up. She "roomed" on third floor, but at any hour of the day you might find her gracing Paradise Alley, where she was always welcome. She really has a very charming laugh and uses it occasionally when the world is particularly bright to her. We hope that it will never wear out for want of use.

We think Anna is a wonderful girl and wish her heaps of happiness and good luck.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

CLEORA MCKINSTRY
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Philo; Y. W. C. A.; Choral Club; Sr. Glee Club.

"Mack"

Step aside! Here comes Mack! Yes and as usual she has all her pep along. Have you ever heard of good sports? That's Mack all over. She is always ready for a game, or for something to eat—salted nuts, kisses, lollypops, or chocolate eclairs. Her pockets are always bulging, and just guess what they hold—Eats for her classmates. Mischief is her middle name. Tying her classmates in their chairs is one of her chief sports. Sashes prove to be quite helpful in these instances.

We hope that by next year, she will learn to use her smile within the walls of her school room as well as without.

W. PAULINE McLEAN
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

St. Mary's H. S.; Philo; G. A. A.; Corres. Sec. of Philo; N. D. S.

"Mickey"

It's Pauline, the girl who knows how to "chat,"

A pretty girl, a witty lass,
She isn't too thin, she isn't too fat,
Just half way between, and a "peach" at that.

Did you hear that giggle? Well, it's Pauline, our brown eyed beauty from Wilkes-Barre city. Don't ever try to pull anything over on "Mickey" for it's the common opinion of her friends that she doesn't miss a "trick." She is ever ready for fun,—oh yes, one of our ring leaders in that line.

Pauline tells us that she is very much interested in Kindergarten work. We are all ready and agree that success is sure to come her way. It is the earnest wish of your classmates that it will.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ESTHER L. MENGEL
Sunbury, Pa.

Sunbury H. S.; Philo; Y. W. C. A.; Choral Club; Senior Glee Club.

"Esther"

Here is another girl who makes Fourth Floor lively and is always up to some mischief. If you ever find your room stacked, blame Esther and you're almost sure to blame the right one. But we think a lot of her, just the same; and we know some others who do, too. Esther keeps her secrets to herself but we have found out that she likes to receive letters from State College and is particularly interested in Sox.

May you be very successful as a music teacher, Esther; and may your music charm many a soul.

GERTRUDE MILLER
Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; Philo; Rural Club; Normal Course.

"Gerty"

Gertrude is a demure little maiden. Altho she seems quiet, she can talk, when she once gets started. She is one of our day students. We are sure that as she goes out into the world she will bring much credit to the class of '22. Her aim is to be a rural teacher. The best wishes of the class go with her for success.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

LAURA MILLER
Mainville, Pa.

Mainville H. S.; Philo; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; Rural Club; G. D. C.

"Tony"

Laura is one of the pioneers who helped to blaze the trail of our class. She is a bright, industrious girl, who is always cheerful. During her second year here, she took an active part in athletics, playing side center on the class basketball team. She is a willing worker and always ready to take part in all school activities.

We feel sure that with her smile and helpful traits she will be a successful teacher.

BERYL MOON
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Callie Drama; Normal Course Day Student.

"Beryl"

"Love is the only fire against which there is no insurance."

This bright eyed, smiling little Miss, entered the far famed portals of B. S. N. S. with the sole end in view of "vamping" the bashful swains about the place. We must say she has succeeded. But smashing hearts is only one of her accomplishments.

Although Beryl loves to dance—and she is a good dancer too—she never shirked (in our before "gym" dances) when it was time to take her place at the piano for the rest of us.

Aside from her smiles and pleasant disposition, we have learned there is a serious side to Beryl's nature—which is, writing to Baltimore.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

EVA M. MORGAN

Scranton, Pa.

Scranton (Central) H. S.; Philo; Normal Course.

"Pat" "Morgan"

"Don't make so much noise, I want chance."

Our slender little lass, Eva is going to be famous. Did you say, "Can she sing, and dance?" Well I guess. When she has taught her two years she is going to become a supervisor of art and music because she has said "I LOVE it."

Eva is always full of fun and ready for a good time. Her favorite sport is spending the night with four in a bed and giving the order, "right face." She seems to think because she is small everyone else should enjoy such a pastime.

Altho Eva didn't come to Bloomsburg until January of our Junior year she has won a host of friends who wish her success in her life work.

MARGARET MURRAY

Mahoney City, Pa.

Mahoney City H. S.; G. A. A.; Philo.

"Marg"

Here's to a girl
And a peach at that,
May she always be thin
And never be fat,

Marg's chief cause of annoyance seems to be her regular gain in weight. Perhaps it was the food which did it, but we feel certain that it was her joyous manner and her ever ready laugh which caused the calamity. "Marg" is a steady worker and we predict a great future for her. She possesses a host of friends because of her wonderful personality which causes gloom to vanish whenever she appears.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ANNA G. NAYLOR
Old Forge, Pa.

Old Forge H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course,
Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.

"Anna"

Anna is a member of the "Fourth Floor Gang" and is always in for a good time. She is very popular, especially when a committee is being appointed.

Anna's chief interest is a certain young High School teacher in Danville. That's why she is so familiar with the Danville girls, especially those who go home every week end. Altho she is preparing to be a school teacher, we doubt if she will ever teach after leaving B. S. N. S. Good luck to you, Anna.

AGNES M. O'BRIEN
Forest City, Pa.

Forest City H. S.; Philo.; Normal Course.

"Ag"

When she uses her Irish wit,
The girls will almost take a fit.
Yes, she is of the gayest sort,
And really, truly, "gosh darn" sport.

Not long after Agnes joined us she had won many friends through her keen wit and winning ways. "Ag" was always ready to start something, never stopping to think of the outcome. However, she usually managed to come out all right.

We hope she will be successful in her life's career.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ANNETTE J. O'BRIEN
Forest City, Pa.

"Annette"

"God made the sunshine and flowers;
He made the skies of blue;
And then to do the job up right,
He made good friends like you."

Annette is one of the quiet, shy kind, and it took us a long time to get acquainted with her; but when we finally succeeded we found her to be jolly, witty, and lovable.

During her Junior year Annette was a frequent visitor to our town library, and was such an ardent reader, that there was nothing left for her to while away her time with during her Senior year. We predict success for you, Annette, if you wish to continue your teaching.

MARGARET E. O'ROURKE
Pittston, Pa.

St. John's H. S.; Normal Course; Philo;
G. A. A.

"Marg"

"There's joy of life within her eyes,
And sweetly does she sing."

Margaret with her sweet smile, good nature, and winsome eyes has won many friends in B. S. N. S.

Altho we can predict success for her in the teaching profession yet we hesitate to say that this will be her life's work. The prominence of a certain picture upon her dresser, together with the fact of her receiving frequent letters from—leave us a little doubtful. However, she certainly has our best wishes.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ELIZABETH OWENS
Scranton, Pa.

Technical H. S.; Calhe, Asst. Recording Secretary, Calhe Drama (3), Varsity Basketball (3) (4); Eagles Mere Delegate (3); Senior Glee Club; Choral Club, G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Obiter Staff

"Betty"

Have you ever seen a smile quite like Betty's? It seems to be a mixture of quaint mischief and genuine affection. To know Betty is to love her, and she surely does possess a quantity of "knowing" friends.

In all the school, there is none quite so accomplished as Betty. She is an expert pianist, quite a genius in art, a dancer who is always in demand, and when it comes to singing "sequentials" she is right there with the goods.

Betty is an example of an ideal Student Governmenter for she has never been known to break a rule (?). However, she finds time "in between times" to form marvelous friendships and we feel certain that whatever calling she decides to follow, she will always be successful.

CATHERINE PAYNE

Shamokin, Pa.

Shamokin H. S.; Philo; Y. W. C. A.; Normal Course.

"Kit"

Catherine, otherwise "Kit", comes to us from Shamokin. Yes, she is quiet when you do not know her, but get acquainted before you make any rash decisions. Without a doubt you will then solemnly declare that she does like fun.

You may be entirely certain that it is she speaking, when you hear someone say in response to any exciting or troublesome news "Oh dear, oh dear."

She does study hard in school, but in the summer time, at home, she lays aside her books and rides around in an auto. We wonder why Shamokin is so very attractive to our Kit.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

WILLIAM TAYLOR PAYNE
Girardville, Pa.

Callie; Callie Drama (2); Y. W. C. A.; Delegate to Indiana Conference (4); Cabinet (4); B. D. C.; Class President (4).

"Bill"

This is our William. He has been at B. S. N. S. for three years and consequently he is an authority on matters NOT pertaining to class rooms. Besides being our class president he dictates matters concerning the ladies aid society. Yes, he is an authority on practical politics as applied to student organization.

Tobacco is not his only bad habit as he attended gym class once in the first semester.

For you, William, a bunch of onion tops so your strength for the right may increase.

LOIS PFAHLER
Numedia, Pa.

Philo; G. B. A.; Rural Club; Class Secretary; Y. W. C. A.

Ye—a, Boom! Ye—a, Boom!
Pfahler, Pfahler, Pfahler.

Who is more deserving of a yell than "Lois," who has led us in our cheering on more than one occasion? Lois brought a large amount of that "live" stuff we call "Pep" when she came here in her Senior year.

Lois is active in sports and won her "B" by doing effective work. At basketball Lois is, in plain words, a shark.

Lois is always in for a good time. She has an ever present sense of humor. She has succeeded in making many friends at Normal and their good wishes will go with her as she leaves these halls for her ideal position—An old maid school-marm?

B. S. 1922 N. S.

CECILIA PHILBIN

Archbald, Pa.

A. H. S.; Philo; Girls Chorus, Sr. Glee Club.

"Philbin" "Ceil"

We could write forever about Philbin and still have more to say, for there's not a thing that she wouldn't do at any time for anyone. However, her favorite sport is writing poetry and in the long hours of the night you can find her writing a poem for some one of whom she is very fond.

Philbin's lovable disposition has won the hearts of everyone.

Her favorite haunt is fourth floor front and you can find her there most any time.

Yes, Philbin is fond of fun, sport, and study. In short, she is an "all round girl" who will live in our hearts until the last page in memory's book is closed forever.

EARLE W. PHILLIPS

Turbottville, Pa.

T. H. S.; Vice Pres. Y. M. C. A.; Callie; B. D. C.; Rural Club; Rural Group; Junior Drama; Callie Drama (4).

"Earle"

Earle is the courteous gentleman who can be seen walking in the halls at almost any time; especially around meal time. His constant sources of worry are his teeth and whiskers. Someone estimated recently that Earle cleans his teeth six times on weekdays and twice as many times on Sundays. Keep it up, old boy, and some day you may become one of our world's best sanitary engineers. At least, we can all forecast a successful future for "Phillips."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

RICHARD D. POWELL
Scranton, Pa.

C. H. S.; Scranton Business College; College Prep.; Pres. Callie; Callie Drama (4); B. D. C.; B. G. C.; Y. M. C. A.

"Dick"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Dick is a firm believer in this motto. Rarely, if ever, is he seen without his smile. He does not belong to the bashful type and, therefore, is quite popular with the opposite sex. He never lets business interfere with pleasure. Ask the girls in the "Bureau"

There is no doubt about his making good. His bright smile and cheerful ways will make him win his way into the confidence and respect of his fellow men.

GLADYS E. RAMAGE
Pittston, Pa.

West Pittston H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; Choral Club; Sr. Glee Club.

"Glad"

She is surely cute and sweet
Because she is so shy and neat.

Gladys makes us all love her because she is such a doll. She has such a sweet personality that you simply can't help liking her. She won't quarrel and if anyone comes to her in a cross mood she sends them away with a smile.

She is very fond of teaching, especially penmanship. She wants to specialize in that and do as well as her old professor. Well Gladys, we wish you health, we wish you wealth, and we know you will achieve prosperity.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

BERTHA RANDALL.

Trucksville, Pa.

Callie; Rural Club; Normal Course

"Bertha"

Bertha is such a shy, quiet, little maiden that usually one scarcely realizes that she is present. But if there is work to be done and volunteers are called for, you may depend upon her to do her share.

She belongs to the Rural Group but we can not imagine her in a one-room country school. How could she be separated from Hazel? Perhaps there will be two teachers for this particular school. Here's hoping!

HELEN GERTRUDE REED

Mt. Carmel, Pa.

M. C. H. S.; Philo; G. A. A.; Junior
Drama; Philo Drama; Treas. S. G. A.

"Reedie"

With a sunny disposition,
Bright, and always full of "pep",
It's our Reedie that you mention,
For she always had that "rep."

"Reedie" is our bright light from Mt. Carmel. She sure did put Mt. Carmel on the map too. Speaking of studies, well, she lead our class the two years she was with us. She is that dependable sort of a girl that is so rare today. Helen is just so chuck full of good qualities that to mention them all would include volumes.

When we wanted a "star" for our dramatics, we thought of "Reedie", when we wanted a good entertainer, we thought of "Reedie" when we wanted lots of fun, we depended on "Reedie" to furnish the pep. What would we have done without you? We assure you "Reedie" that your memory will be everlasting.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MABEL A. REESE
Peckville, Pa.

Blakely H. S.; Philo; Y. W. C. A.; Girls Chorus; Sr. Glee Club.

Mabel, she can sure work steady,
But, for a laugh she is ever ready.
You'll find her happy all the while
And ready to give a winning smile
When you come into her company.

These few lines are to introduce our Mabel. She's a very quiet little girl but she's also a very lovable one.

Mabel studies hard and often sacrifices pleasures for work.

Her favorite summer resort is Newton Lake. You may travel there any time and find a hearty welcome if Mabel's on the beach.

We know that Mabel will make a success of teaching and here's wishing her the best of luck.

GEORGE RHAWN
Catawissa, Pa.

C. H. S.; Day Student; Normal Course; Jr. H. S. Group.

"Rhawnie"

Rhawn is the baby boy of our class, that is, in size. But, Oh! what a noisy baby. We often wonder if he doesn't get tired making weird noises. Rhawn also has an aptitude for telling stories and his collection is numberless. Believe me, you always get the point of the story when Rhawn tells it. We sometimes think that Rhawn chose the wrong group for teaching. We believe he would make an excellent Kindergarten teacher, for the children would be held spellbound by his wonderful stories. That's all right, Rhawn, we know you will be a "Prof" some day.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

HENRIETTA RHOADES

Philo; G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A. Sect'y (3)
(4); Delegate to Eagles Merc (3)

"Hene"

The girl with the big blue eyes
In which mischief and squealing lie-

Everyone at old Normal knows "Hene". Her appearances are very deceiving. To one who does not know her well, she is a very quiet, dignified person. But after you know her, oh!—how you do change your opinion. She is very jolly and is always ready to play a trick on some one.

Altho Hene never took a very active part in basketball, she is an athlete, and a very graceful one at that. Just ask anyone how many times, during the Junior year, "Hene" was Miss Schools' Model in gym class.

She is a very good leader as is shown by her ability as fire chief. We know that this, together with her dignified manner, will bring her success as a teacher.

JOHN R. RHOADS

Ringtown, Pa.

R. H. S.; Callie; Football (4) B. D. C.; Y.
M. C. A.; Glee Club; Normal Course.

"Doc"

"Doc" joined our ranks this year and since school has opened he has made himself known to everyone. He possesses a "terribly" fine voice, "a good line", and a very pronounced craving for knowledge?? —of football. We can recommend John very strongly to any Railroad Company desiring a train caller of good and ample voice.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

THELMA RIEGAL

Nescopeck, Pa.

N. H. S.; G. A. A.; Philo; Normal Course.

"Thelma"

Short, did you say?—and blonde and laughing? Why, its Thelma, of course. Thelma has made us all proud of her by her studious habits and good recitations. If you want something to be put thru, be sure to include Thelma in the pushers and off it goes. Although she is little, she surely is mighty pleasant, unselfish, good-natured. She has won many friends by her agreeable disposition.

She is undecided whether she shall take an A. B. or an A. M. (these abbreviations meaning in her vocabulary a boy or a man). Whatever she may choose as her life's work, we feel confident that she will be an honor to the class of 1922 and to her Alma Mater.

FRED RINGROSE

Espy, Pa.

Philo; Cheer Leader (4); Rural Club; B. D. C.; Roosevelt Literary Society; Sec. of Boy's Glee Club; Philo Drama (3) (4).

"Fritz"

Fritz, who is our cheer leader for this year, is one of those likable fellows who easily makes friends. If you hear the piano in the Boy's Recreation room you can be assured it is "Fritz" tickling the ivory. He is very musical and is almost always surrounded by a group of our well intended male singers. We believe Fritz will be a composer of music some day. You should hear his original compositions. They sure are "Jazzy". Fred seems to have a stand in with the ladies which is hard to explain but we guess they are entranced by his wonderful music.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

EVADNE M. RUGGLES
Pikes Creek, Pa.

Normal Course; Vice-President Class (2) (3) (4); Callie; D. B. C., Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3) (4); Delegate to Eagles Merc. Callie Corresponding Secretary (3), Recording Secretary (4); Basketball (2) (3); Choral Club; Senior Glee Club

"Vad"

This smiling dark haired maiden made her appearance at Normal in our Freshman year. She has won many friends by her frank and pleasing personality.

People who do not know "Vad" receive a shock when they become acquainted with her, for this gray eyed maiden can be full of fun and keep us laughing for hours.

"Vad" is fond of ministers, especially those who study for more than ten years. Then, as "Vad" says, "they are ready for their vocation."

We are sure "Vad" is going to make a splendid teacher because she understands the children so well.

Here is to your success, "Vad," during your ten years of teaching.

MARGARET SAMMON
Pittston, Pa.

St. John's H. S.; Philo; Normal Course.

"Margaret"

Last year Margaret belonged to Group Two, but she heard such splendid reports of the Junior High School Groups that she decided to join them. This meant making up work but she was able to do it.

She is very quiet and it took us some time to become acquainted with her and learn what a charming girl she is. But we know her now and she can always count on '22 for friends.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

MARY SAVIDGE
Northumberland, Pa.

N. H. S.; Philo; Normal Course.

"Mary"

Mary's very kind and friendly
Says little but is very deep,
When you know her, you will find her
Just the friend you want to keep.

Mary joined our class in our Senior year, having been here two years ago. She certainly was a good addition to our number. She is not a girl who says a great deal but when she says something it is worth while. Mary will agree to almost anything you say on certain subjects just as long as it takes her to say, "but that's entirely the wrong viewpoint," and seldom longer. Not that she's not agreeable, for she is, but we always found that Mary could use that phrase to a remarkable advantage when she was in need of a "start" in expression. We know now that Mary looks on sadness and gloom as "entirely the wrong viewpoint" and hope she will continue to do so all through life.

ESTHER SANE
Trucksville, Pa.

Kingston Twp. H. S.; Vice-President
Philo; G. A. A.; Y. W. C. A.

"Esther"

"Business like" did you say? Well, I agree with you. When you see Esther come marching up the hall, you know that matters of grave importance—such as new Philo officers, or details of the Philo drama—are about to be discussed, and duly considered. She is a loyal Philogian, and shows her interest by working hard, and by faithfully supporting the society.

Esther makes a fine proctor, too. Have you heard her issue commands? If you have, you will certainly agree that Napoleon could not have been much more proficient.

We know that Esther will do big things out in the world, for once she becomes interested in any work, no obstacles can dampen her enthusiasm. The class of '22 extends hearty wishes for success to you, Esther.

GERALDINE SCHULTZ

Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. H. S.; M. H. S.; Rural Club; Normal Course; Day Student.

"Gerry"

Gerry is quiet and studious and altho she is a downtown student she is not oiten seen out after dark. She is a very practical girl and is always ready with a plan.

She likes to be alone with the mountains and "Dales" of her home community.

Good luck to Gerry as a "Schoolmarm".

HARRIET SCHULIZ

Millville, Pa.

M. H. S.; B. H. S.; Rural Club; Normal Course.

"Harriet"

Harriet hails from a farm north of Millville, we are proud to say. She isn't especially fond of city life, and each vacation sees her back on the farm. She is very modest and shy, and hasn't become acquainted with many of the Normalites. Nevertheless, she has many good friends from B. H. S. '20. She is one of Professor Black's star pupils in penmanship, and has spent many hours counting for the benefit of the rest of the class. Harriet has specialized in rural work, and we all join in wishing her the best of luck, for we know that she will be a credit to any school.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

EMMA SHAFFER

Gravity, Pa.

L. H. S.; Callie; Normal Course; D. B. C.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Callie Corr. Sect'y. (4).

"Emma Lou"

She has bright blue eyes,
And a complexion fair;
She is tall and slim,
And has golden hair.

When first we saw "Emma Lou" we thought she was a shy, quiet, young lady, but as soon as we saw her smiles and the twinkle in her bright, blue eyes we changed our opinion.

She has a sweet, lovable disposition thru which she has won a host of friends at B. S. N. S.

In her Junior year, Emma had a bad habit of throwing water at the girls on fourth floor, long hall. But now that she is a Senior she has lost this one bad trait.

We think "Emma Lou" will be a efficient school teacher, and we wish her success and happiness in her chosen profession.

CLARISSA SHARRETTTS

Berwick, Pa.

B. H. S.; G. A. A.; Callie; Normal Course

"Clariss"

Is it the little things that count in life? Clariss certainly has proved this to us. No one has ever seen her cross. She is full of wit and humor and always greets you with a smile.

Oh! yes, Clariss likes to study, but she is a firm believer in the saying, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." She is a girl of few words, thus obeying to perfection her mother's saying "children should be seen and not heard."

Her pleasant smile and cheerful ways have won for her many friends. Surely the future for such a one as this can be naught but happy and prosperous.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

FRANK B. SHEPELA

Alden Station, Pa.

Newport Twp. H. S.; Jr. H. S. Course; Varsity football (3) (4); Varsity Basketball Capt. (3); Varsity baseball (3); Philo Drama; Junior Drama; President of Philo; B. D. C.; Y. M. C. A.; Obiter Staff.

"Shepela"

"Shepela" is a veritable "war horse" on the athletic field or in the gym, but, when it comes to considering the fair sex, he is as lowly as a lamb. Frank is very fond of having "just a little harmony" and when he and "Fuzzy" and some of the other men with such "TEARIBLY" sweet voices get together you can just imagine what happens.

Here's luck to you, Shepela.

KATHEREEN SHEERER

Philo; Choral Club; Sr. Glee Club.

"K"

If we hear someone singing along the way, without a doubt we blame it on "K." Her vocal ability has been well shown in many successful entertainments, in fact, her music claims most (?) of her attention.

Besides her music, "K" is very fond of movies; indeed, she has shed many a tear while attending them. After the show she entertains her best friends by reproducing the plays given at the Victoria. In this way "K" keeps us all posted on the latest productions. As for her future, her voice, together with her poise, personality, and appealing eyes, point favorably toward the making of a Prima Donna.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

CARLTON C. SHERMAN
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Hanover Twp. H. S.; Football-1916;
Baseball, '17; B. D. C. Jr. H. Group.

"Sherm"

"Sherm" came back with us this year after committing two very noble sacrifices: Fighting in France, and getting married. It was very hard for him to readjust himself to school life again, but he was not the one to shirk his duties, and, as a result, he is getting along very well. Carlton has already started a school of his own and we all wish him and his FAMILY the best of success.

MARY SICKLER
Wyoming, Pa.

W. H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; Y. W.
C. A.; D. B. C.

"Mary"

Here is a girl who has taught us the value of true friendship and what it means to stick to one another.

She is particularly fond of roses, especially those which are concerned with "rings". She seems to think they are prettier.

One thing which we so admire about Mary is, that she is always the same. She never has a cross word for us and always gives us sympathy. We are sure this will make her succeed in everything which she attempts.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ALDERETTA E. SLATER
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

W. B. H. S.; Normal Course; Vice-Pres
Callie; Callie; Y. W. C. A.; Choral Club;
Sr. Glee Club.

"Slats"

Wavy hair and bright blue eyes
Loved by everyone, she's a prize

Slats at first seemed to be a shy lassie, but when we came to know her, we found a jolly companion among us. We learned that she wasn't afraid of leeches in Fishing Creek or of thunder. She was a sport with us even tho we were soaked.

Whenever Alderetta attempts to do anything, even to COOKING she makes a great success.

Slats has told us repeatedly that she is going to teach in Wilkes-Barre but it is hard to convince us because some of us feel she would rather teach in Atlantic City. Never mind, it is a beautiful place, isn't it, Alderetta?

MARY C. SMILES
Pittston, Pa.

St. John's H. S.; Philo; G. A. A.; Normal
Course.

"Smiler"

There is always an exception to every rule and Smiler is surely an exception to "Good things come in small packages." True to fact, there is a lot to Smiler. In all our travels, we have never come across one who can dispel gloom as readily as she. She possesses every quality necessary for an ideal girl, truthful in all things, witty, jovial and ever ready to help. She is a true daughter of "Old Erin" and can surely uphold her side of the "Anglo-Irish" question. Nobody could ever accuse Smiler of lacking executive ability. As a friend she is absolutely indispensable, and we feel certain that wherever she goes, she will radiate sunshine and work her way into the hearts of many as she has done into the hearts of '22.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

HERVEY SMITH
Bloomsburg, Pa

Philo; Treas. of Philo; Philo Drama (3)
Varsity Basketball (3) (4); Football (3)
(4); Tennis team (3); B. D. C.; Rural Club; College Prep; Day Student.

"Smithy"

Hervey is another of our College Prep boys. He is a good sport, makes friends easily, and is always ready to take his part in school activities. We are sure he will be missed when he leaves Normal after having made a long sojourn here. He is small of stature but an all around athlete. We shall always count you as a friend, "Smithy."

LUCILE M. SNYDER
Hazelton, Pa.

Philo; Y. W. C. A.; G. A. A.; Normal Course.

"Snyder"

Lucile is one of our smallest girls and it is hard to imagine her as a teacher. She makes herself famous, wherever she goes, by her giggle. She has great ability in imitating a kindergarten child, as was shown at the Halloween party.

Snyder is making herself quite popular among the male sex and seems to be quite fond of serving on stage committees. Her chief ambition in life is to own a pair of high heeled slippers so that she will look a little taller; and who can blame her? We almost forgot to say that she is very fond of red hair. Sh! that's enough. We wish you the best of luck, "Snyder", after you leave B. S. N. S.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

RUTH SOBER
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Bloomsburg H. S.; Callic, Normal Course; Day Student.

"Ruth"

"A smile is the head light of success."

This tall, attractive girl, has a personality which has won for her friends on all sides, and she is loved by all with whom she is acquainted.

Her beautiful hair is a source of envy, and we often wonder if the reflection from her sunny locks, helps to give her that sweet disposition.

Witty, optimistic, and always ready for a good time, she is sought by all.

Ruth is gifted with a wonderful voice, and with the talent for teaching kindergarten pupils, whom she loves with all her heart.

There is not much question as to Ruth's success, but at any rate "Here's success, Ruth."

FREDA STEELE
Orangeville, Pa.

O. H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student.

"Freda"

"Blessed is the man who first invented sleep.

Does this apply to Freda? We will let her answer this. But she never retires until she has her "What has Literature done for me?" mastered. She says if all her studies were like this, "mine would be a pleasure course."

"Freda" hails from that tiny town of Orangeville (If you don't know where it is, please don't consult the map.)

On short acquaintance with Freda one would judge her to be quiet and rather bashful, but after knowing her better we find her to be a jolly girl always ready for a good time. After graduation she expects to teach at Stony Brook and we are assured of her success if present indications are true.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ROBERT STEWART
Weatherly, Pa.

W. H. S.; Normal Course; Y. M. C. A.;
Callie; B. D. C.

"Stewart"

Stewart is a long and lean chap and an earnest worker. He is one whose thots never touch upon the fairer sex. He has never been known to have a "case" during his entire stay here. This is remarkable for he is a young man of talent.

We wish him the best of luck as a Junior High School Principal.

FLORENCE H. SUGERMAN
Scranton, Pa.

Scranton Central H. S.; Philo; Choral
Club; Sr. Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; R. A. C.

"Sugie" "Flos"

Sugie with her music,
Sugie with her noise,
Either playing the piano,
Or smiling at the boys.

Flos is a hard and willing worker and takes great interest in her lessons, especially those in the biological department where she acts as an assistant. She is a very lovable girl and makes friends with both boys and girls quite readily. The gymnasium piano will feel lonesome when "Flos" leaves, for they have become fast friends. She may well be proud of her musical talent and some day the class of '22 may be honored by having one of its graduates a musician of fame. We know that Florence with her sunny ways will get along just the best in this big world

B. S. 1922 N. S.

EDGAR B. SUTTON

Wyoming, Pa.

West Pittston H. S.; Normal Course;
Rural Group; Y. M. C. A.; Callie; B. G. C.; Rural Club; Junior Drama.

"Bessie"

"Bessie" is his first name
Sutton is his last
He wouldn't room with Stewart,
Because he was too fast.

Sutton's greatest asset, next to boxing, is his affability. If you wish to know anything about boxing, wrestling, Psychology, Ed. Measurements, or girls—go to Sutton. He is an authority.

His one ambition is boxing. Here's hoping he realizes his ambition.

ANNA SWIGART

Espy, Pa.

E. H. S.; Normal Course; Day Student.

"Swag"

Anna with a jolly disposition with which she can drive the blues away, became a member of our class after she had graduated from the Espy High School and Bloom High. Did you ever hear of Espy before. Well, it is on the map, and by looking closely for it, your search may be rewarded.

After graduating from Normal, Anna expects to teach but we would not feel safe in prophesying that Anna will teach for a very long time, for such a little miss with such a choice of "cases" would never care to classify herself among the self supporting women.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

VALERIA SYPNIEWSKI
Nanticoke, Pa.

N. H. S.; Philo; Floor Treas. S. G. A.
(4); G. A. A.

"Valere" "Syp"

The gates of quietness unfurl,
And there stands Valere our modest girl.
If all would heed the rules as she,
Need of S. G. Meetings would not be.

You must look twice to see this maid for she never makes a noise except when she pulls an immense grade in an exam. "Still water runs deepest" is the saying which best describes her.

To look at Valere one would think that she is the kind that never likes fun. But if we look beneath this layer of seriousness we will learn that she is ever ready to make and enjoy fun.

Loved by all who know her, Valere leaves B. S. N. S. with a host of friends.

The present indications are that she will be a success as a teacher in the intermediate grades. Her ability together with her earnestness bespeaks a career which will be most successful.

ELIZABETH J. THOMAS
Olyphant, Pa.

Blakely H. S.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet;
Philo; Sect'y; Girls Chorus, Sr. Glee Club.
"Betty" "Lesbia"

Betty, one of our sweetest girls
Came to Bloom with her hair in curls.
Her winning ways soon won our hearts.
In our play of memory, one leading part
Will fall to our fair Lesbia.

Elizabeth was assigned to room 407 when she came to Normal. It was a gloomy day but Elizabeth made sunshine for us. Elizabeth was very energetic, and in the long run guests were often neglected. Not that E. J. is not a delightful hostess. Anyone of her acquaintances can tell you that but she often sacrificed play for study even in the long hours of the night. Lesbia worked hard for society, Y. W., and everything that was good. We hope that she will always find as loyal a supporter as she herself is for she deserves as much success as we can wish her, and that is as much as we can possibly offer.

FLORENCE E. THOMAS
Moosic, Pa.

Moosic H. S.; Dunmore H. S.; Philo, Y.
W. C. A. Cabinet; G. A. A.

"Fet"

Florence is fat, fair and funny. Some day she will win a medal for her wit. If you want to spend an evening in laughter, call on "Fet." She is one of our best sports, and if any trick has been played, you may be sure that she has had a hand in it. Her chief amusement is stealing pictures from her friends on Fourth floor. If you are sick at any time, you may feel sure that Florence will bring you something to cheer you up, if it is only two withered roses. There are some secrets connected with her life but we don't want to mention those. However, ask "Fet" how it is to spoon under the silvery moon.

MABEL THOMAS
Old Forge, Pa.

Old Forge H. S.; Normal Course; Philo;
Y. W. C. A.; G. D. C.; G. A. A.

"Tommy" "Maybelle"

On with the dance
May joy be unconfined.

Lovable, excitable Mabel who roams in our midst, lives for the dance. Oh, how she can dance! An unusual sort of person—everybody's friend and a friend to everybody. As a comedienne Mabel has no peer in B. S. N. S. Her acting, spontaneous and natural, evokes roars of laughter.

A bright and amiable lass we say;
And, taken all together,
The kind of friend you want about
In fair and cloudy weather.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ZELMA L. THORNTON
Old Forge, Pa.

Old Forge H. S.; Philo; Choral Club; St. Glee Club; G. A. A.

"Zell"

Zellma is one of those lovable blondes, who makes things lively on Fourth Floor. She is very fond of aesthetic dancing and often amuses the girls by posing as the Statue of Liberty. She is also very fond of squeeling, as many of the girls know.

However, laying all foolishness aside, we know that she is a very good singer and some day she will be famous among the great opera singers of this country. We wonder why she makes her flying trips home; but, like Postum, there's a reason.

ARLINE G. TOSH
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Hanover Twp. H. S.; Philo; Normal Course.

"Toshy"

Arline's a real heart smasher
She snatched our hearts away,
When she joined the "Paradise Alley Gang"
That fair Autumn Day.
So here's an indroduction to our fair friend
Arline,

Do you blame us for electing her,
Queen of the "Leventeen"?

Arline was our most "Serene" lass. She could sleep thru fire-drills, breakfast and everything. She "owens" all the hearts of "the gang," also of some who have not been admitted as members of the Paradise Alley Bunch. Whatever will "fourth floor front" do without Arline?

Who ever decorates 404 will see some of Arline's life history on the wall in the form of poetry. Every word of it is true. We can say that Toshy will make a good teacher but we know that she'll "Dodge" the profession after a few years. Much success, Arline.

RUTH WAGNER

Hazleton, Pa.

H. H. S.; Normal Course; Callic. Y. W.
C. A.; G. D. C.; G. A. A.

"Chum"

Ruth of the kind, kind heart
And sweet and gentle ways;
We love you and admire you,
May sunshine flood your days

Big blue eyes and a face that is sweet and strong, a disposition amiable, cheerful, all day long—that's Ruth. She is bubbling over with life, mischief and good will. You like to be with her. She brightens the way with her fun and her laughter. Perhaps the best way to describe this lass who engages in so many activities that one knows not which to emphasize is to use a phrase which contains one of our modern ideals "an all round girl".

MARJORIE WALKER

N. H. S.; Hood College; G. A. A.; Philo;
Sr. Glee Club; Choral Club.

"Marge"

None knew her but to love her
None named her but to praise.

It takes but one look at Marge, to realize that she is a girl whose friendship is well worth cultivating. She is an ideal combination of wit, joviality, and love. Marge is noted for her clever dancing and her love for the works of Rousseau, which was shown by her ready adaptability to "nature" dances. If you are looking for someone to sympathize, go to Marge; if you feel you want someone to scold you just a little, go there likewise; and if you want someone to make you feel that life is worth living, then please wend your steps Marge's way, for she has a wonderful conception of human nature and uses it promiscuously. When Marge leaves B. S. N. S. the best wishes of '22 go with her.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

ESTHER WELLIVER

Millville, Pa.

M. H. S.; H. H. S.; Callie; Y. W. C. A.;
Student Council; Varsity Basketball (3);
G. A. A.

"Esther"

If you should see Esther walking thru the halls with her head in the clouds and her thots in Hughesville, you would think "What a solemn, serious person she is!" If you should see her teaching, you would exclaim "What an excellent teacher! How dignified!" But if you should see her in her room or out with the crowd—well then you would know that she is just as jolly and full of fun as the rest. In fact, she is the life of the crowd.

Bright in all her classes, she fairly shines in gym. Basketball! She was Normal's star jumper in her Junior year. You could always depend upon her to get the ball across.

Using her school records and our knowledge of her as guides we feel sure she will be successful.

STELLA M. WHEELER

Catawissa, Pa.

C. H. S.; Phils; Rural Group; Day Student

"Stella"

"As gentle as a lamb, as modest as a violet"

Constantly attending to her own affairs, Stella throughout her two years of Normal life proved herself to be one of the quiet workers of the class.

After graduating from Normal, Stella expects to teach in the rural schools, and we feel sure of her success, due to her perseverance and determination.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

LOUISE WILLIAMSON
Shamokin, Pa.

S. H. S.; Normal Course; Callie; Y. W.
C.A.

"Louise"

Bright, witty and ever gay,
That's our Louise every day.

Louise is one of our rare kind of girls. She possesses heaps of good qualities. In fact we have failed to discover characteristics that were not the best. She is an all round good sport, and a joy in all school frolic. What about her record? Well that's exceptional too. "At the top of everything" is applicable to Louise. Wherever Louise made her appearance she stood out in the estimation of her friends. Her friends are numerous as one could only readily expect from the above description. Happiness and prosperity are our wishes to you.

MABEL WINTERMUTE

Philo; Rural Club; Normal Course.

"Wintermute"

To look at Mabel you would think she is one of the quietest maids in the school, but when you hear her laugh you know that appearances are deceiving.

Mabel is always happy and she isn't afraid of hard work. How do we know? Mabel is specializing in Rural work. But we are quite safe in saying that not all of Mabel's life will be spent in building fires in country schools.

Good luck to you, Mabel.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

BEATRICE WOOD

Callie; Normal Course; Day Student.

"Bea"

"Bea" joined us in our Senior year but one would hardly know that she is present because she is so quiet.

She is always busy with her school work and on one occasion became so deeply interested in Educational Measurements that she forgot to get off the trolley at her stopping place.

She has gained many friends especially among the day students who often call on her in time of need as she always has her work prepared.

The Class wishes her success as she goes out in her new field of work.

EDWARD YOST

Ringtown, Pa.

Ringtown H. S.; Y. M. C. A.; B. G. C.; Rural Club; B. D. C.; Treas. Callie; Student Athletic Manager.

"Ed" "Jock"

"Ed" is the fellow that believed for a long time, that they were going to dredge the Susquehanna and make a seaport at Catawissa.

He is the man that holds the record for "stacked" rooms. His room was only "stacked" twenty times last year and an equal number this year.

"Jock" has a language of his own that he always uses with professional spirit while in the dormitory.

He is the human questionnaire of the Senior class and besides holding many other uncoveted positions he is the student manager^{???} of athletics.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

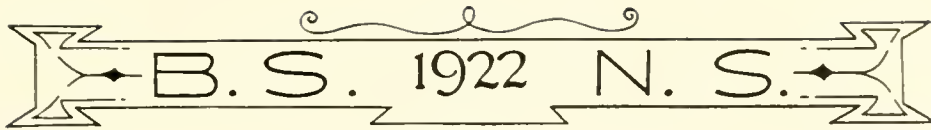

"DADDY" GROTZ

"Daddy" is the one who takes care of us while we are sleeping. Every night we can hear him as he makes his rounds thru the halls, and his cheery "good night" is the last thing we hear before we drift into slumberland.

"Daddy" is also our postman. Every night he gathers piles and piles of letters to mail for us so that they may go on the first train in the morning.

When we think of the happy days spent at B. S. N. S., there will always be a place in our memory for "Daddy" who helped to make our stay enjoyable.

The Seniors

Our class has distinguished itself in many ways. '22 was the first class to enter Bloomsburg Normal under the new regime. This unusual advantage together with the wise guidance of the faculty has inspired us to work toward high ideals.

We have acted as hosts to the people of the town who attended our Sunday afternoon meetings. This pleasurable duty has served to prepare us for the community work which we all expect to do.

The Dental Clinic of our school is a memorial to '22. To help finance this enterprise a tag day was held under the auspices of the class.

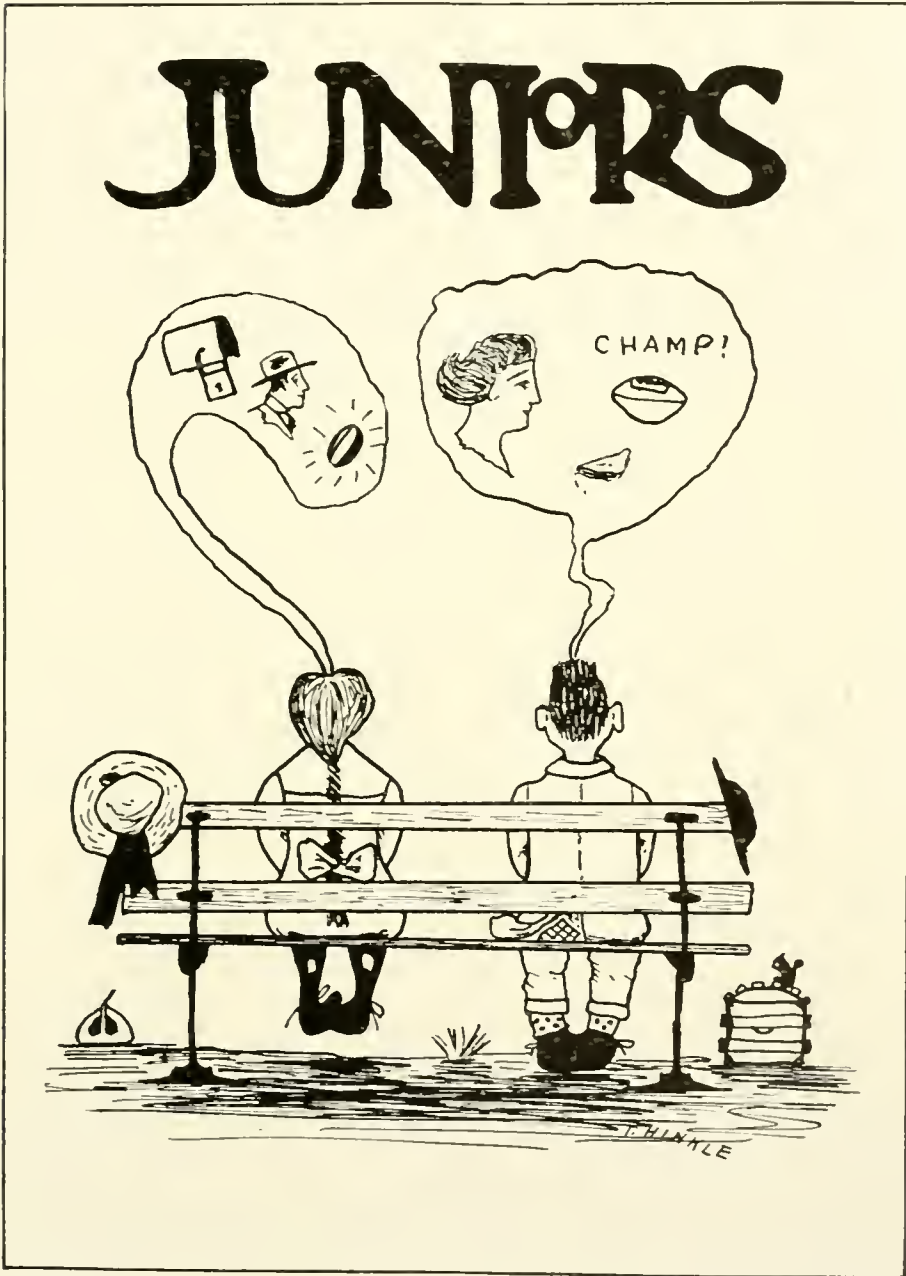

We can play as hard as we work. The splendid spirit shown at the Senior Sleighride proved this. Can any of us ever forget the fun and frolic, the pure joy of that memorable occasion? Then there were the dances in the gym, the hikes, the parties. But best of all are the true friendships we have formed. As we leave our Alma Mater we shall carry with us not only the knowledge we have gained and the ideals visualized but also a wealth of golden memories.

"All By Myself"

JUNIORS

B. S. 1922 N. S.

Junior Class

Colors: Purple and White

Flower: White Rose

Here stands the class of twenty-three
Not small, but great in number, we,
Our service low, ambitions high,
You watch us climbing toward the sky.
We've come to Bloomsburg Normal School,
To live and learn by Normal Rule.
We'll pledge our life and works to you!
We'll aim to reach your ideals true.

Did we hear someone mention the "Class of '23?" Yes, here we are, both in number and in quality. On the nineteenth of September, the Junior class two hundred seventy-five strong, entered the Bloomsburg Normal to join a band, attempting to achieve the highest rounds of success.

On Arbor Day, as our first memorial we planted five trees on the campus.

The Intelligence tests which we underwent early in the year, revealed to the world that the average member of the Junior class was almost human.

With only four "vets" to open the football season last fall, it was with great anxiety that Coach Mead looked forward to the Junior Class to replenish the ranks. And, behold! out of twelve sweaters awarded to the Varsity, ten are worn by Junior men who are Lerda, Derk, Rhode, Weisenfluh, Haupt, Captain Foster, Felker, Schwartz, Lawson and Morgan. There certainly is some good stuff in our men since Foster was chosen to pilot the squad this year and Haupt elected for the coming year.

We take great pride in having such players as Haupt, Derk, Morgan, Lerda, and Krolokowski, represent us in basket ball. Morgan, the midget guard, is a flash on his feet.

The men who formed the nucleus of last year's powerful baseball aggregation have graduated and again the energetic Juniors will step in to keep our school on the baseball map.

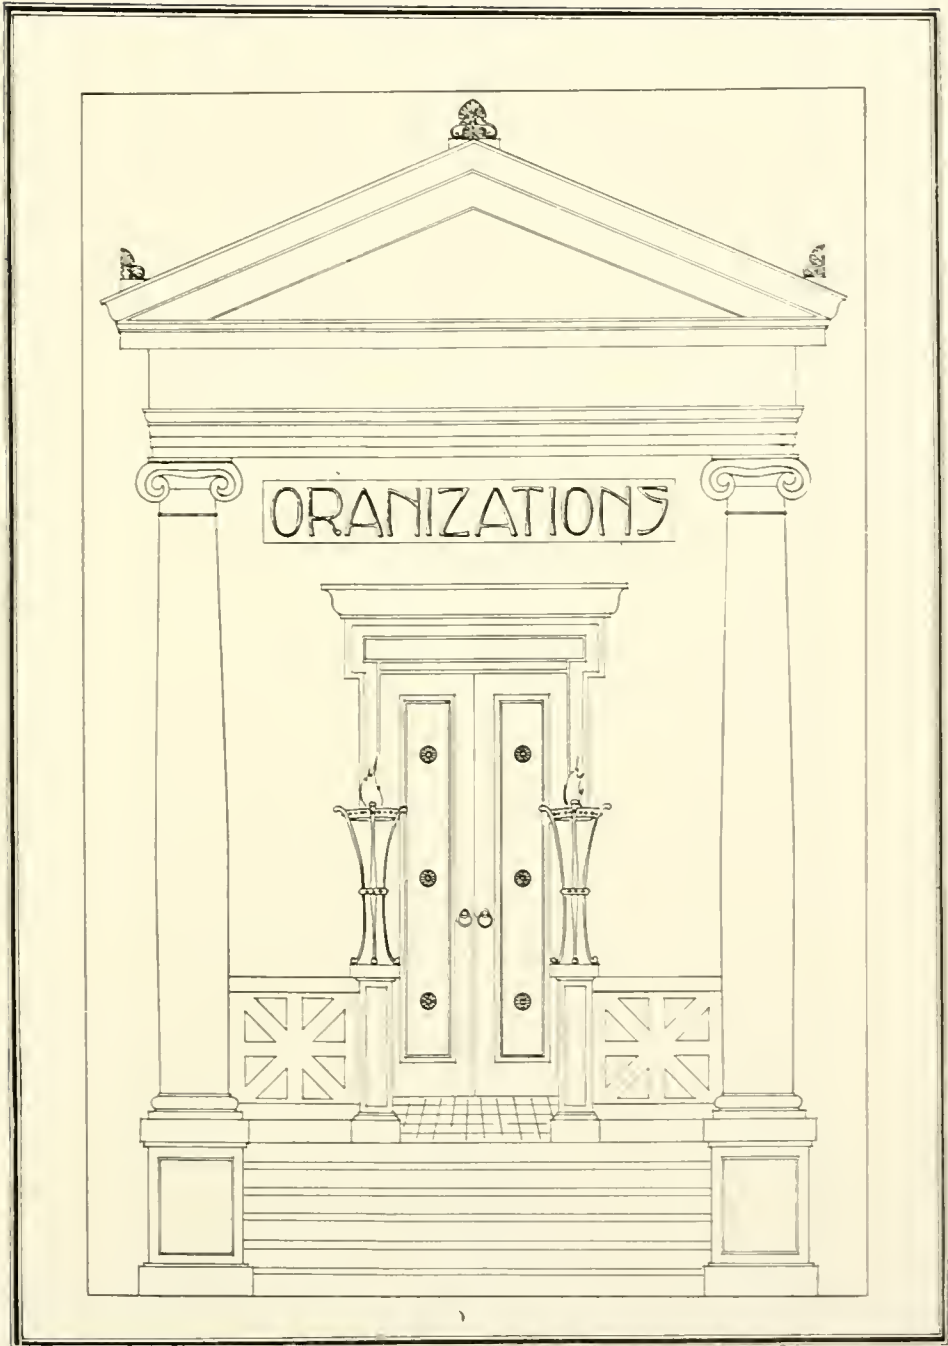

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers to guide us through the year:

President	Raymond H. Edwards
Vice-President	Annie F. Quick
Secretary	Marjorie S. Gamble
Treasurer	Lester G. Bennett

So we, the Class of '23, look forward to the year at Normal which still remains to us as an opportunity to accomplish things worth while.

Motto: "Praestantia Aut Nihil"

Colors: Yellow and White.

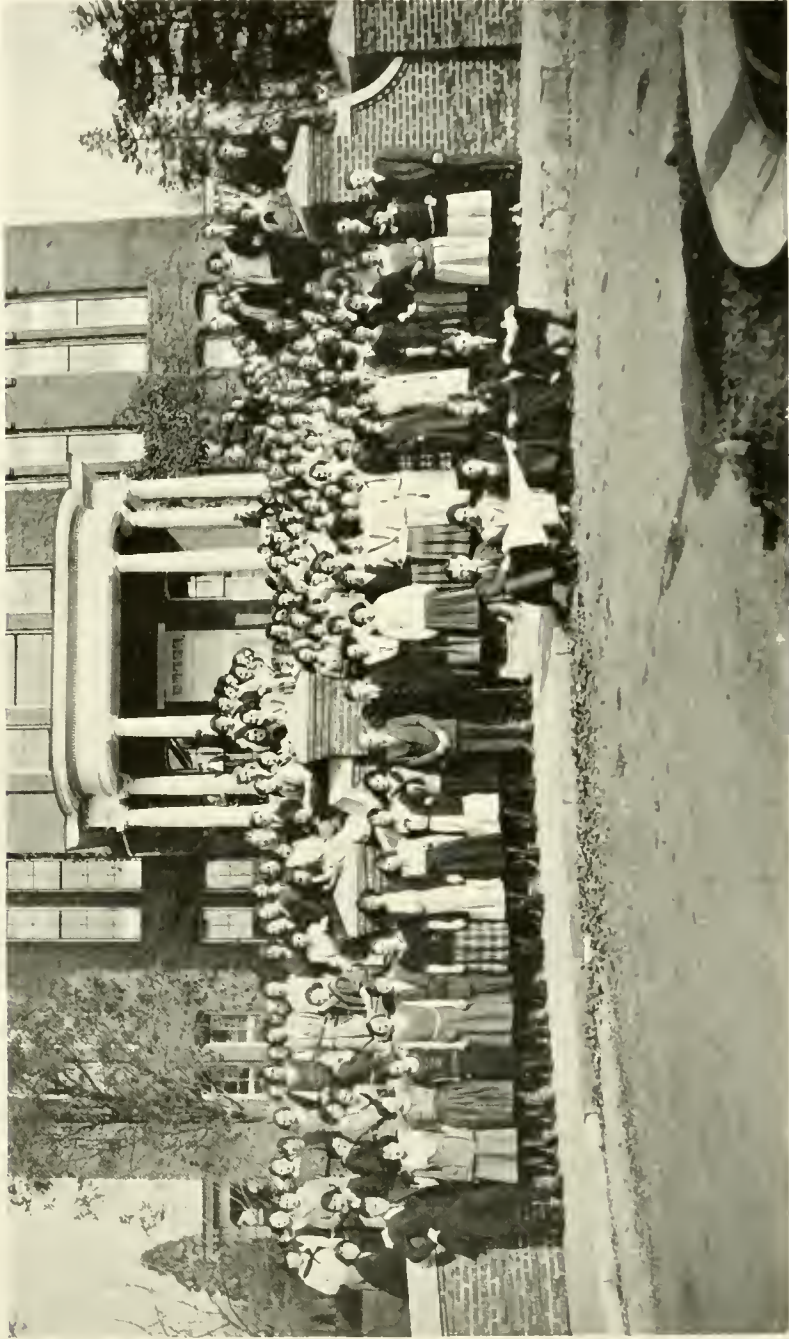

This has been a banner year for the Calliepiean Literary Society. We have maintained very high standards throughout the year endeavoring to live up to our motto—"Praestantia Aut Nihil." All Calliepieans will agree that our Saturday evening meetings were very profitable as well as enjoyable.

Callie was not slow when it came to athletics. We formed the "better half" of all the varsity teams.

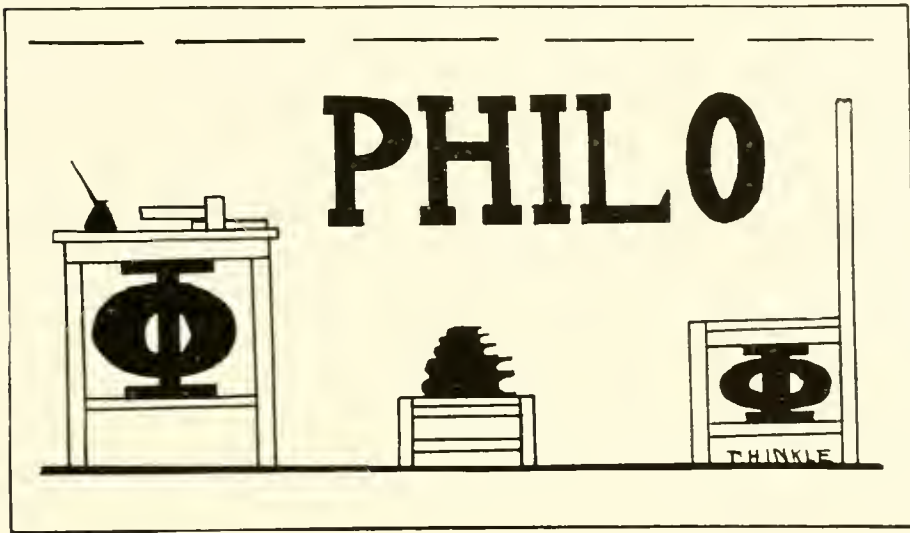

Our annual reunion was held on February 18th at which time we celebrated our forty-seventh anniversary. We danced at the Casino in the afternoon and in the evening presented three one-act plays. The return of many former Calliepieans made the event an unparalleled success.

As Calliepieans of '22 we depart from dear "Old Normal" wishing her always the greatest of success.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

Motto: "Speech is the Image of the Mind."

Colors: Light Blue and White.

As the motto of the Society indicates, Philo aimed to give us a preparation for later life in that one thing, so valuable to us in our every experience, Speech. Every Saturday evening after the business of the Society had been transacted, a program was given for our benefit.

Philo reunion, an event anxiously awaited by every Philologist of the past and present, was held on November 12, 1921. The dance at the Casino was one of the most enjoyable in our experience, and Philo drama, the crowning event of the day, proved, as has always been true, that Philologist talent could not be surpassed. The three one-act plays reflected a great deal of credit on the actors and on the society and merited the praise of everyone who saw them.

In athletics as well as in literary work, Philo plays a leading part. Her teams have never, as yet, known defeat.

With the splendid record that Philo has held in the past and the increase of membership and talent that is hers every year, does it not rest upon us, as members of Philo and supporters of our Alma Mater, to make our society the wonderful success in the future that it has been in the past? It does, but we can accomplish our end only through the cooperation of those who have left the school to begin careers of teaching and the other professions, as well as those who are still at B. S. N. S. For "in unity there is strength" and as members of so good a society we should unite our hearts and our efforts to accomplish great things for Philo.

B. S. 1922 N. S.

Y. W. C. A.

"Not by might, not by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts—Zech. 4:6.

"The purpose of the Y. W. C. A. shall be to unite the women of the institution in loyalty to Jesus Christ, to lead them to accept Him as their personal Savior, to build them up in the knowledge of Christ, especially thru Bible Study and Christian service, that their character and conduct may be constant with their belief. It shall thus associate them with the students of the world for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. It shall, further, seek to enlist their devotion to the Christian church and to the religious work of the institution."

The work of the Y. W. is felt thru out the whole school. Not only thru the religious activities does this association reach the girls, but also thru the social affairs. Every member carries a fair share of responsibility in developing the plans which make the work of the Y. W. C. A. a success. By this hearty cooperation a spirit of service for others is developed among the members. Each committee supervises certain phases of the work.

The leaders and topics for the religious meetings are provided for by the Meetings Committee.

The Bible Study Committee organizes the Bible classes. The first year Bible class is in charge of Professor Brill. The second year class is in charge of Miss Gill. The purpose of these classes is to make their members better acquainted with the Bible.

No one ever forgets the happy time enjoyed at the Y. M. and Y. W. reception at the beginning of the school year. This was conducted by the Social Committee.

The Social Service committee sends cheer thru gifts to the homes of poor families, and shows the love of Christ thru the Christmas party given the poor Kiddies at Christmas time.

The music committee provides music for our meetings.

Our interest in our fellow students is shown thru the work of the World Fellowship committee. This committee sent money to South America, Mexico, and Europe to help the students and to advance the Kingdom of God.

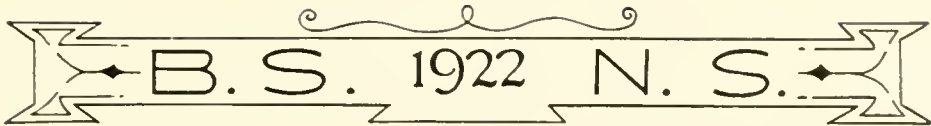

The duty of the Information Committee is to provide information to the association and make posters to announce various events conducted by the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Finance committee is to raise funds to meet the expenses of the Association and to send delegates to the various conferences.

The Membership Committee endeavors to have every girl a member of

Y. M. C. A.

"As the heart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God."

During this year the work of the Y. M. C. A. has been carried on under the leadership of the following officers:

President	Thomas L. Hinkle '22
Vice-President	Earle W. Phillips '22
Secretary	Wm. T. Payne '22
Treasurer	Harold L. Hoy '22
Devotional Committee	Fred Felker '23
Social Committee	Harry Schlegel '23
Athletic Committee	Frank Shepela '22
Music Committe	Edgar Sutton '22

In spite of the fact that the officers of our organization were kept very busy at other work, they found a lot of time in which to help spread good will and right feeling among the men. Although the membership could have been a little larger, we were not disappointed, or in any way held back, for every man, regardless of creed, helped to make the work a success.

The Wednesday evening prayer meetings ran along very smoothly under the guidance of Mr. Felker; and the unfailing presence of our overseer, Professor Brill, at every meeting added new life to our meetings. We are, indeed, very grateful to Professor Brill for his kindly advice and his well-timed suggestions. He was always an inspiration to us in all of our work.

When the call came for delegates to the Y. M. C. A. conference at Indiana, we responded with a delegation of two members, William Payne and Harold Hoy. These men returned with a very comprehensive report of the things accomplished at other schools and what we were expected to accomplish. They also extended the invitation of Bloomsburg for the 1922 conference and it was gratefully accepted.

In December Mr. Miller, State Secretary, visited us and gave us a very interesting talk in the Recreation Room.

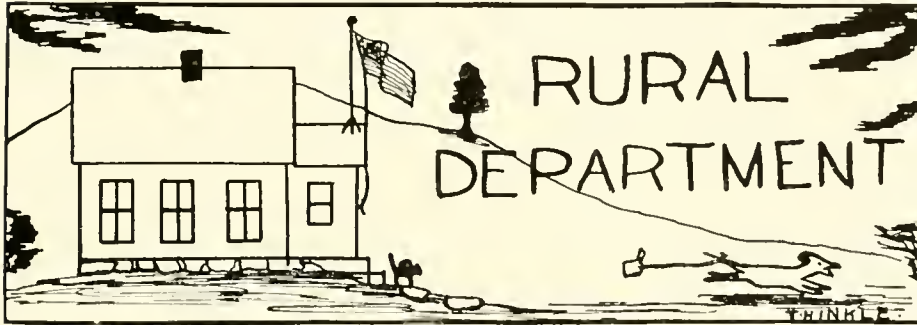

The officers cooperated with Mr. Meade in helping to fix reasonable regulations for the men in the Dormitory.

The first week of the school year the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. arranged a very delightful reception for the new students. This "get acquainted" meeting was filled with good things and there was not an idle moment for anyone from start to finish.

Rural Club

The Rural Club, although the youngest organization at Normal, is passing thru its second year and has proved by its usefulness that it has come to stay. Programs are furnished by the members of the club, for its meetings every second and fourth Thursday in each month, and these have become an important factor in school life.

We study the conditions of the Rural schools in order to encourage a love for and just appreciation of life in Gods great out-of-doors, the country. Our work is interspersed with excursions into the country and other wholesome forms of recreation.

In December we gave an afternoon tea, at which time we entertained Dr. Fannie Dunn of the State Department, Miss Tyrrel, Head of Home Economics of Columbia County, Miss Kingman, Dr. Albert L. Rowland, of the State Department, Dr. Fisher, and a number of alumni who were members of our club during the year of '20 and '21.

During the year we also enjoyed four excursions that we will always remember. The first, a "weenie" roast at Dillon's Glen, the second a trip to the woods where we gathered greens to be used in making Christmas wreaths. These wreaths were sold and the money used to establish libraries in the Rural schools under our supervision. The third was a trip to Mainville by bus where we attended the services incident to the dedication of the new Junior High School, of which our last year's president, Mr. Warren Fisher, is principal. Our fourth trip was to Grovania where we gave an entertainment aiming toward better Health for school children. Our health Fairy, Miss Kimble, assisted by puppets representing vegetables and operated by members of the club, charmed the "Kiddies" and we are sure good results followed. Plans are now under way for a supper at the Hotel Remly of Lightstreet, and everyone is sure to appreciate the good eats that go with such a trip. We have also engaged Miss Edwards of Massachusetts to come here and give a Puppet show for the benefit of the Rural schools.

With Mr. Phillips as our president for the second semester, and Mrs. Brown continuing to devote her time and energy to help, our club is sure to be successful and the Rural club can well look forward to a brilliant future.

Senior Glee Club

The Senior Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ruth L. Myers, has had a very successful year. There are about thirty-five members, the majority of whom are members of the Choral Club also. The Choral Club is a combination of the Senior and Junior organizations.

The four o'clock Sunday afternoon lecture would scarcely be complete without the usual selection by the Choral Club. This has been our regular work all year while, frequently, on special occasions we have been asked to contribute the program.

During Song Week, a special music program was presented in the Auditorium by the Choral Club. Rumors told us that not only the student body, but also the townsfolk enjoyed it very much.

Women's Student Government Association

The class of '21 paved the way for adoption of a form of government in the dormitories which is known as the Women's Student Government Association of the Bloomsburg State Normal School. As '21 so nobly launched the ship, '22 has done her best to steer her in a straight course and keep her from the jagged rocks which always threaten destruction.

The object of this Association is to control matters of student life, to increase the sense of individual responsibility and to maintain a high standard of scholarship and life.

The officers of the Association consist of a president and a treasurer from the Senior class, a vice president from the Junior class, and a secretary from the group of students who are taking special courses. These, with the Dean of Women, one representative from each class and the floor supervisors form the Student Council — the executive body of the Association. No one who is not of excellent standing, so far as deportment and scholarship is concerned, is eligible for its membership.

Boys' Dormitory Club

"The branch of education which touches the universe at the greatest number of points must be of the highest value in revealing to the individual the true meaning of life."

Sutherland

The Boys' Dormitory Club passed through one of its most successful years under the guidance of the following officers:

President	Thomas Hinkle
Vice-President	Fred Felker
Secretary	Irwin Beaver
Treasurer	Edward Yost

Owing to the great pride of all members we were unable to settle the honored position of Janitor on anyone.

The club added new responsibilities to its name when Mr. Meade, Dean of Men, placed very much of the Dormitory's government in our hands. Even though this was a new venture, the club carried out many of the plans originally arranged.

The club's membership is almost double the membership of last year, owing to the large number of new men. We are also very proud of our 100 per cent membership in the Dormitory.

The several initiations which we held, were a departure from former severe methods and each ceremony was arranged differently so that no one could have guessed what his medicine was to be. The ideal location for most of our ceremonies was "the statue on the square" and many of our promising men were given their start upon a public speaking career at this place. Such deep topics as:

- "How High is Up"
- "Why Don't They Grow Hair on a Cue-ball?"
- "Which Would You Rather, Do or Go Fishing?"

were discussed at length by the candidates.

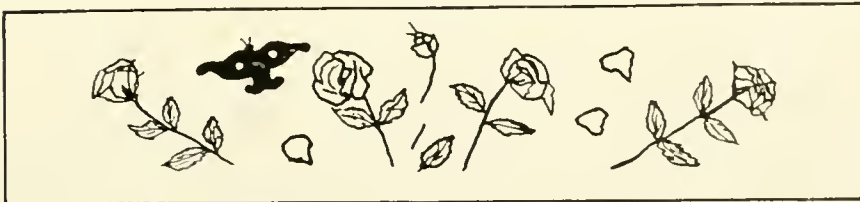

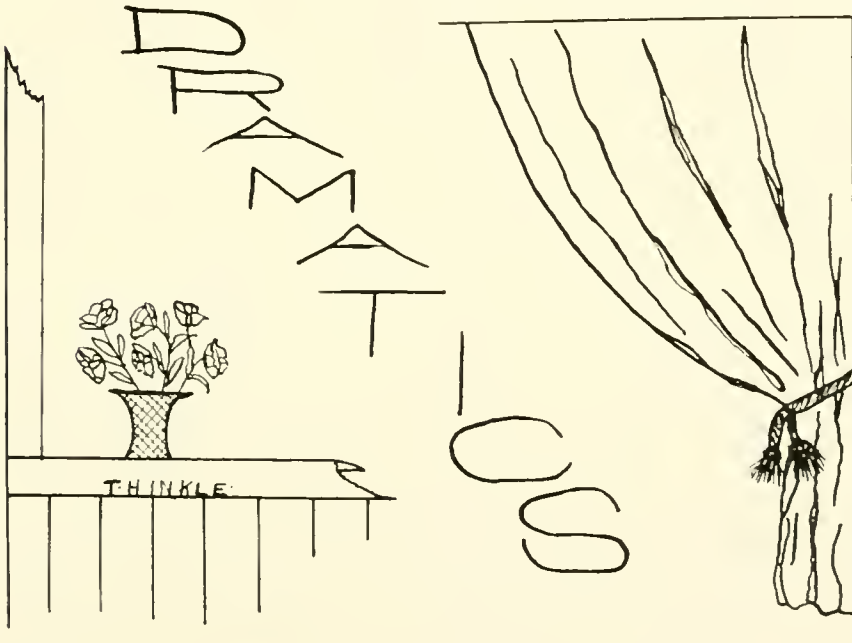

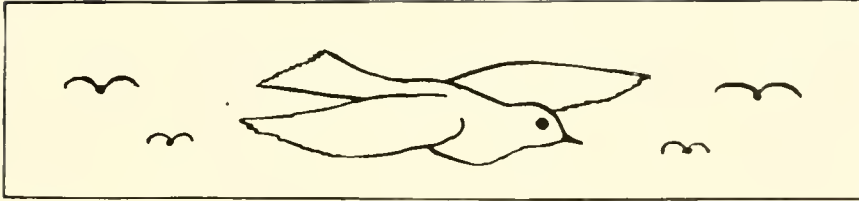

At the end of our first semester Dr. Fisher gave us an inspiring talk and complimented the men on their good order of life in the Dormitory.

The following officers were elected for the second semester:

President	Carlton Sherman
Vice President	Beaver Faust
Secretary	Eliakim Painter
Treasurer	Samuel Barrow
Janitor	Lyddon Kenworthy

Junior Drama

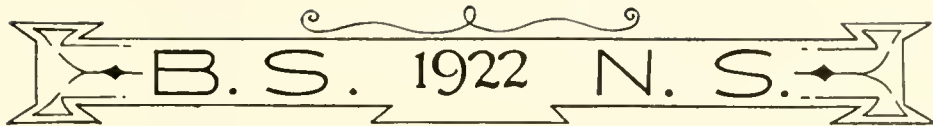

The climax of our Junior year came on the evening of June eleventh when we presented, as was customary, our Junior drama.

"Green Stockings" was a success in every sense of the word. Miss Perry not only "coached" but herself played the role of the leading lady. She was ably seconded by Miss Ely, Miss Berry and Miss Reed who carried their respective parts very well indeed. Miss Sharretts made a charming little maid, and said the proverbial "Yes, sir. Won't you come in, Sir" with a unmistakable realness. Messrs. Sutton, Phillips, Shepela, Donnelly, Hinkle, and Bower constituted the male force in our production. We have reason to be proud of their excellent work.

At the close of the evening the Juniors agreed to the last man that "Green Stockings" realized their every expectation.

Callie Drama

The three one-act plays which constituted Callie Drama, caused a decided sensation this year.

The first play was "A Night at an Inn".

Characters

A. E. Scott-Fortesque (the Toff)	Thomas Hinkle
William Jones (Bill)	Richard Powell
Albert Thomas	Albert Foster
Jacob Smith (Sniggers)	Russell Bower

Merchant Sailors

First Priest of Klesh	Leslie Seeley
Second Priest of Klesh	Beaver Faust
Third Priest of Klesh	Carlton Sherman
Klesh	Harold Hoy

The second play was a pantomime, "The Shepherd in the Distance."

The Persons

The Princess	Dorothy Barton
The Attendant	Grace Thomas
The Shepherd	Clair Klees
The Wazir (the guardian)	Mildred Hankee
The Vizier	Alderetta Slater
The Nubian	Edna Harter
Ghurri Wurri (the beggar)	Stanlea Henry
The Goat	Earle Phillips
The Slaves of the Princess	Lillie Harter, Madeline Noack
The Maker of Sounds	Elmer Haupt

The third play, "The Pot Boiler," was a satire on modern playwrights.

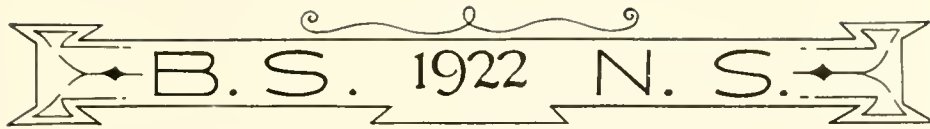

CHARACTERS

Thomas Pinikles Sud (the playwright)	Herbert Jones
Wouldby (the novice)	Earle Phillips
Mr. Ivory (the financier)	George Rhawn
Mr Ruler (the hero)	Sam Barrow
Miss Ivory (the heroine)	Beryl Moon
Mr. Inkwell (the villain)	Harold Hoy
Mrs. Pencil (the woman)	Helen Dieterick.

The cast performed their parts exceedingly well, and the plays brought about a suitable climax to one of the most successful reunion days in the history of the school.

Philo Drama

November 21, 1921, marked another step in the success of the Philologian Literary Society. It was the first time in the history of the school that a program of this kind had been given. The Philologists presented three one-act plays which were exceptionally good, not only from a standpoint of presentation, but also from one of art.

Plays.

I.

"The Maker of Dreams"

A Fantasy in One act.

May Day 1921

One of the most delightful events of our Junior year was May Day, a fitting climax to the work of the Health Education Department for the year. All of the Training School as well as the Normal School, took some part in the festival.

The program took the form of a pageant called "All In a Garden Fair."

Queen of the May	Edith M. Perry
Spring	Emma Cleaver
Summer	Theresa Knoll
Forget-me-nots	Kathryn Fritz, Dawn Townsend.

Part I.

Spring finds an old, old garden. She invokes the blessings of the blue skies, all living things beneath the sod, to help her make it a garden fair. After scattering the few remaining snow flakes of the winter, she calls her birds. They appear. She places a Yew Hedge here, Modest Violets and Golden Daffodils there.

Ah! it is beautiful and ready for the coming of the Queen of May. The Queen is crowned. The little children are so happy. They dance for joy.

Part II.

Summer appears and keeps a tryst with Spring. After she leaves, Spring falls asleep and Summer silently brings to life his Summer flowers:

Gay Marguerites

Roses Rare

Stately Hollyhocks

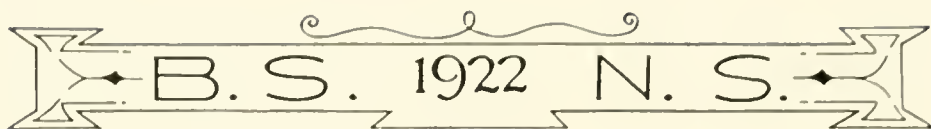

Creeping Grape vines

He adorns the garden.

The drifting Summer Clouds float thru the garden.

Summer sends the Little Forget-me-nots to waken Spring—to see the garden now—and ask her to come to him.

The Forget-me-nots marry them and we leave them dreaming in their Garden Fair.

Magee Contest

The annual Magee Contest took place, April 25, 1921. The class of '22 was ably represented by Mildred Hankee, Lois Pfahler, and Olive Martin. All productions showed unusual ability and careful training on the part of the participants. Mildred Hankee gave an essay entitled "The Enrichment of American Poetry." Lois Pfahler followed with a short story "A True Friend." Olive Martin delivered an oration "War Devastated Armenia." The fact that the selections were so different in form, added a spice to the entertainment. We are proud to say that a Junior was among the winners, second prize being awarded to Olive Martin.

FOOTBALL

Football 1921-22

Albert K. Foster, Capt.
George Meade, Coach

George N. Hall, Manager
Edward L. Yost, Student Mgr.

The season opened up under the leadership of Coach Meade, a graduate and a prominent athlete of the University of Michigan. The team was somewhat handicapped by having lost three weeks of practice due to the late beginning of the school term. A call for candidates was made with the result that almost all of the boys reported for the first practice. The letter men who reported were Foster, Shapela, and Lawson. Many shifts were made on the team until the men were adjusted to their positions.

The team was well equipped with new uniforms. New goal posts and a new tackling "dummy" were put up and the field was kept in good condition.

The season opened up on October 1st, with Northumberland as our opponents at home; and although our boys were defeated by a score of 21 to 0, they showed great progress in the succeeding games.

Other games played were as follows:

October 8	Normal	0	Keystone Academy	6	(away)
October 15	Normal	0	Dickinson Seminary	28	(here)
October 22	Normal	0	Shippensburg	13	(away)
October 29	Normal	0	Millersville Normal	0	(here)
November 5	Normal	0	St. Thomas College	6	(away)
November 12	Normal	32	Shenandoah High	0	(here)
November 19	Normal	0	Wyoming Seminary	35	(away)

The hardest fought and the best game of the season was the Millersville Normal game. Both sides put up a hard battle in which several of the players were seriously injured.

Although Wyoming Seminary intended to trim our boys by 100 points they had great difficulty in scoring their 35 points.

The Shenandoah High game was played in the mud and rain. Spectacular playing and the "muddy" style of football kept the crowd in the rain until the end.

Sweaters with eight inch B's and gold footballs were awarded to the players making the football letter.

Varsity lineup:

Smith, Morgan, Felker, Ends; Lerda, Schwartz, Seeley, Weisenfluh, Guards; Lawson, Barrows, Capt. Foster, Tackles; Rhoades, Foust, Centers; Haupt, Sterner, Quarterbacks; Shepela, Rhode, Halfbacks; Derk, Fullback.

Basketball 1921-22

Neal Hutton, Capt.
George Meade, Coach

Edw. L. Yost, Student Mgr.

The prospects for a winning team were never brighter when the candidates appeared for the first practice. Hutton and Smith were the only letter men from last year who reported for the first practice. Shepela, last year's captain, did not report until the sixth game due a broken collar bone received in the Wyoming Football game. Around these men, Coach Meade developed a winning team, having Haupt and Derk of Treverton High. Morgan of Nanticoke High and Lerda and Krulikowski of Newport High.

The season opened up on January 6th with Normal defeating Bloomsburg High by a score of 46 to 11.

A. McDonald, Capt.

Prof. Sutliff, Manager

R. H. Dietrich, Coach.

The 1920-21 baseball season was a great success. Although our boys faced some of the strongest independent, Normal, and Prep school teams in the state, they won eleven of the fifteen games played, thereby attaining a superior standing average of .732. The team was one of the best teams Normal has had in years. The infield was the fastest aggregation since the days of Leidich, Redelhamer, Gress and Eves. Very few Normal and Prep schools can boast of such an infield. The outfield kept up its reputation by fast fielding and by covering up drives that were sure hits.

Shepela caught for Thomas and this battery was the defeat of many teams. Chuck Felker, "Mac" McDonald, Reiter, and Shaffer made one of the finest working infield combinations. Fred Felker, Foster and Wernert composed the outfield. Hinkle, Hoy and Burlingame contributed much to the success of the team.

The season opened up on April 17th with Normal defeating Catawissa by a score of 12 to 4.

Bloomsburg High 3	(here) April 20	Normal 6

The 1921-22 squad is rounding out in fine shape and a fast team is expected to be seen on the field for the first and the remaining games of the year.

Fred Felker was elected captain and is working earnestly. Krulikowski was selected student manager and together with Manager Hall, has arranged a "stiff" schedule.

Class Basket Ball '22

Although Normal had no girl's varsity basket-ball team this year, it was well represented by class teams. Real class spirit was shown by the '22 class throughout their two years of stay at Normal. The '21 and '22 basket ball seasons were extremely interesting as the Senior and Junior teams were well matched both years.

In the final game between the '22 class and the '21 class the '22 class showed superior ability by trouncing the class of '21 by a score of 35-22. The '21 class had no chance whatever of winning the game.

This year the '22 class handed the '23 class a fine defeat by trouncing them by a score of 28-8.

Ruth Logan served faithfully as Captain of the '22 class team during the Junior year while Lois Phaler was elected Captain during the Senior year.

The class games were marked by great excitement and cheering on the side lines.

"Ain't
We

"Got Fun?"

Dear Hoy, pray pardon me for paying late,
Payment detained by grave and cruel fate
But since I needs must pay my class its dues
I herewith send this paltry sum to you.
The mail-train robbers as perhaps you know
Are working fast—they're never very slow.
So this may be the reason for delay
Or it may not—the which I will not say.

Here goes — $1.40.

Betty Thomas.

ADVERTISEMENTS

WANTED—A number of Student Rating Cards—Miss Babb.

FOR SALE—A well developed talent for bluffing. Will be graduated this year and can use it no longer. — Kathryn Hayes.

FOUND—Hydrophosphorus, persulfuric, hydroflouric, thaumatargus, tetrasyllabic, and a few other large words. Any one who can use them inquire of the Faculty.

LOST—My head.—Finder please return to Mildred Hankee.

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN—Somewhere on the campus, a little boy from Ringtown. The same can be identified by his infantile expression and aimless manner. Finder please return to Dr. John R. Rhoades, Ringtown, Pa.

Heard at Normal

In Art Appreciation:

Miss Brown.—“How many of you have ever seen the tower going up the steps from third grade?”

In Speech:

“As you leave the room, kindly place your vacant period on the table.”

In Educational Measurements:

“Always use a second hand watch in giving a test.”

Prof. Brill:—“Now, Miss Gamble, tell us about the Lincoln—Douglas debates; who these men were and the significance of their debates.”

Kathryn—“Lincoln and Douglas were—a—two men—a—two men—a—a—arunning after something.”

Miss Patterson.—“Never point your baton at your audience. Three-fourths of the people will not see the point.”

Announcement made by Miss Myers after Choral practice.—

“Mr. Schwartz, you three men may take the music books back to the auditorium.”

On Armistice day just after bells has stopped ringing, Prof. Foote calling the class to order.—“Wasn't it Kipling who said, ‘The tumult and the shouting dies’? Let's come to order.”

Martha Jones.—“Yes, and he said, ‘The captains and the kings depart’, so let's go.”

How About It?

Zelma had a little lamp
And it was trained, no doubt,
For every time that Herbert called
The little lamp went out.

If a body spy a body
Blushing in the face
When looking at his time piece,
There's a woman in the case.

A crowd of men,
A social whirl,
And there you are—
The Modern Girl.

On mules we find
Two legs behind,
And two we find before;
But we look behind
Before we find
What the two behind be for.

If Eike had a whell-Barrow
Would Monroe have a Payne?

If Keller sat under a board,
Would he be Underwood?

A Senior was born for great things,
A Junior for small;
But no one knows at present
Why a "special" was born at all.

Breathes there a lad with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said
As he racked his brain and scratched his head,
!!!!!!! ???????
this Educational Measurements!

ONLY TOO TRUE

The Obitier Staff may dig and toil
Till their finger tips are sore,
But some "poor fish" is sure to say,
"Oh, I've heard that joke before."

Just for Fun

KEEPING YOUR FEET

It's not what you stand for nowadays—
It's what you fall for.

Announcement by the Wit Committee.—
"Wanted.—Jokes for the Obiter."
That same afternoon ten Juniors applied.

Sam Barrows.—"How long could I live without brains?"
Prof.—"That remains to be seen."

Miss Kingman (after the Sr.-Jr. basketball game)—"I wonder how Dily's Rowland is?"

Mr. Englehart.—"O, she's all right. She knocked her knee out, but Mrs. Holmes felt her pulse and gave her some pills, so she's all right now."

Rhawn—"Don't you think my moustache becoming?"
Marion Hart—"It may be coming but it hasn't arrived yet."

Mr. Herring (giving a test)—"Name two important articles you find in the Bureau of Educational Research."

Found on a brilliant's paper "The Wilners."

What is slang? An abomination of the English teacher but a present help in time of need.

Sam's definition of a kidder: One who says the most and means the least. (See Obiter Honors!)

Harold Hoy (reading)—"Would the world come to an end if Kathryn saw thru a joke." "Hadn't you better put "Gamble?" There are several Kathryns in our class."

Lillian—"Oh, but no one would ever mistake that."

SO CLEVER

Dr. Fisher (addressing a crowd of Juniors who entered his office)—
"Take seats."

Smarties—"Oh, no, we're the standing committee."

WELL, IN THAT CASE—

Dick Powell—"Coach, I want permission to be away three more days after the end of vacation."

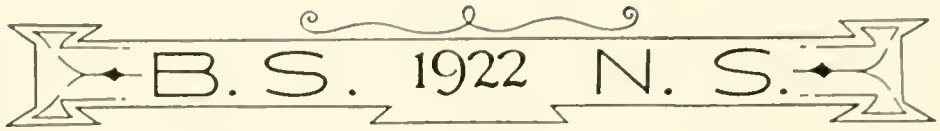

Coach—"Oh, you want three more days of grace?"

Dick (blushing)—"No, sir; three more days of Helen."

SHE KNOWS

Reedie—"Miss Runyan, if I'd live in a room like this with new wall paper on it, I'd think I was in heaven."

Miss Runyan (disgustedly)—"There isn't any wall paper in heaven."

Proper Odds

Bill Payne—"How about a date with Madeline tonight?"
Schwartz—"Let's spin a coin. If it's heads, one of us goes; if it's tails, we both go; and if it stands on edge, we stay home."

Shepela—"What's the argument in the chapel?"
Fuzzy—"Oh, that's the Junior Glee Club."

VERDICT

Esther—"Prof. Brill's sick today."
Stan—"Is that so? What's the complaint?"
Esther—"No complaint. Everybody is satisfied."

THE REASON

Sutton—"Why do the girls always smile at me?"
Phillips—"Maybe they are too polite to laugh out loud."
Granny—"Oh dear, I don't know what to do with my week-end."
Reedie—"Put your hat on it."
Martha Lawrence (with a wounded finger)—"Shall I ever be able to play the piano when my finger heals?"
Doctor—"Certainly you will."
Martha—"Gee! That's great! I never could before."
Marg. Lesser—"Why is the first kiss in the evening like an umbrella in April?"
Marg. Murray—"Because it never gets a chance to dry."

BLIND DATES?

What does a girl get out of college anyway?
Well, she may get someone pretty good, or at least a lot of experience.
Third grade boy—"Teacher, I forgot my pencil."
Henrietta Rhoades—"What would you think of a soldier who went to battle without his gun?"
Boy—"I'd think he was an officer."
Derk—"Hey 'Doc,' what are you doing? Surveying the town?"
"Doc."—"No, measuring it for a coffin. It's dead!"
"Smiler"—"Why are you always behind in your lessons?"
Pauline McLean—"That gives me a chance to pursue them."
New Junior—"I didn't know this road took baggage on its trains."
Wise Senior—"Oh, yes; it's a trunk railroad."

B. S. 1922 N. S.

Marge W.—“Your dancing is like poetry.”

Haupt—“How’s that?”

Marge—“Like Skinny Thuman’s poetry; the feet are all mixed up.”

“Doc” Rhoades—“Gee! I’ve got a beastly cold in my head.”

Eddie Yost—“Never mind, old top, even if it’s only a cold, it’s something.”

“Locomotive.”

Prof. Albert (to his Geography class)—“I’m dismissing you ten minutes early today. Please do not wake the other classes when you go out.”

Helen Ely—“If you see my alarm clock, send it home. It went off this morning.”

Nan. E.—“Has Celia many suitors?”

Chris. M.—“Yes, but none of them do.”

Nan.—“Do what?”

Chris.—“Suitor!”

“Doc” Rhoades (discussing sigma)—“You must find two-thirds of the cases.”

Marion Hart—“But where are the cases?”

Esther Welliver (from the other side of the room)—“You’ll find them in the library.”

Who was the fellow who went down to the D. L. & W. station to catch the 5:04 Pennsy?

One of the improvements that should be made in this school is the placing of “No Parking” signs at the entrance of the dining room and at the boy’s mail box.

Martha Lawrence (to 7 A’s in Composition)—“Now I want you to re-write this paragraph and put in all the decimal points.”

Elizabeth Thomas—“Chris. is sick this morning and can’t come to teach.”

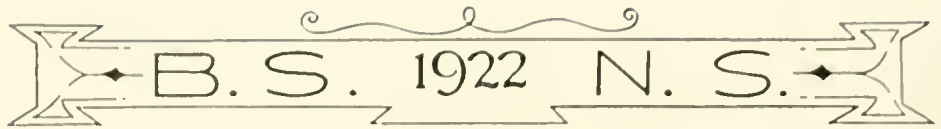

Miss Azadian—“Well, it’s all right this time, but she should notify me twenty-four hours in advance.”

The biggest bores in B. S. N. S.—Exams and quizzes.

Mil. Gray (all excited) “Say Ag, I want to ask you a question.”

Ag. O’Brien—“Well, what is it?”

Mil.—“Does spearmint lose its flavor if stuck on a bed post over night?”

Two men most particular about their wearing apparel are "Doc" Rhoades and George Kelly. They would not think of going into the dining room with their shoes unlaced.????

Some girls have great magnetism, but when they can draw a fellow forty miles, they are very, very magnetic. How about it, Hinkle?

Prof. Hartline (to Junior class)—"Name the chief characteristic of an Ash tree."

Bright Junior—"It bears cinders."

Miss Rogers would like to serve chicken for Sunday dinner, but offers the excuse that there are too many old hens around the school as it is.

Accepted!

Mrs. Brown (at the table one day)—"Do you know, I think Charles Miller is the laziest boy in this school."

Helen Ely—"Why?"

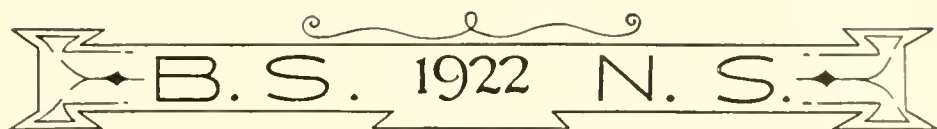

Mrs. Brown—"Because he lies the longest (6 ft. 6 in.) in bed."

What is a quizz? That which causes your knotted and combined locks to part and each particular hair to stand on end.

Lois Pfahler—"What is that bump on your head?"

Sugerman—"That's where a thought struck me, once."

When is a joke not a joke? Usually.

Best Wishes

To the classmates we love and admire,
To our teachers so helpful and true,
To our friendships so strong and so hearty,
We pledge our allegiance anew.
