FOREWORD

WITHIN these pages are depicted our best efforts to; increase the love for our Alma Mater, depict each individual as he is best known to the members of the class of '26, renew fond memories of school life, both on the campus and in the classroom, and recall old acquaintances and friendships. Our success in completing this task has been due largely to the co-operation given us by our instructors and fellow classmates.

Librarian and Teacher

PEARL L. MASON, to whom our book is dedicated, was born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, and received her early education in the schools of Adams, Massachusetts. Later she graduated from Simmons College, Boston, with her degree of B.S. from the School of Library Science.

After her graduation, she held responsible positions in the public libraries of Leominster, and Athol, Massachusetts, and entered very actively into the life of both communities.

It was in September, 1922, that she came to Bloomsburg. Her willing assistance and ever ready enthusiasm to give her time and advise to worthy students of the school immediately made her known as a friend to all.

She is faculty advisor to the Young Women's Christian Association and the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, and is Manager of the B. S. N. S. Double Quartettes, with whose assistance she has promoted a new type of library extension service to rural schools in Columbia County.

Many students and teachers have been grateful to her for her kindly interest and assistance during her four years at the Normal School.

His Contribution — Love

As the lengthening shadows deepened,
He lay himself down to rest.
For his mission on earth was ended,
And he sought the one he loved best.

His master's flock he watched o'er,
And he gave all he could for their care.
He taught them to follow life's pathway,
Keeping clear of its evils and snares.

He knew he had fulfilled his duty
For his conscience was free from all stain.
He went to his grave only hoping,
His teaching had not been in vain.

O God! What a friend you have taken!
No other more kind have we met.
We pray that you only shall help us,
To carry on the task he has set.

The Passing of Professor William Brill

PROFESSOR BRILL will long be remembered by the students and the teachers of Bloomsburg State Normal School who, during his many years of service here, came to know him as their teacher and friend. His kindly yet dignified bearing marked him as a courteous gentleman. A short association with Mr. Brill soon impressed one of his thorough scholarship, high ideals and that a keen growing mind backed by the experience of a life devoted to scholarly pursuits gave weight to his judgment and procedure.

Professor Brill began and ended his professional life as a teacher. After teaching four years in the schools of Shamokin, he entered Dickinson Seminary, prepared for college and was later graduated from Wesleyan College with the class of 1886. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Psi Upsilon Fraternities.

He at once began his chosen career as a pastor in the Methodist Church. He served in this capacity until 1909, having charge of the work in Port Matilda, Pine Grove Mills, Birmingham, East Tyrone, Altoona, Newberry, Shickshinny, Sunbury, and Danville.

In 1909 he re-entered the work of teaching in the public schools by accepting the position of teacher of classical languages in Bloomsburg High School. In 1911 he became head of the department of history and civics at the Bloomsburg State Normal School and continued to serve in that capacity until within a week of his death which occurred on June 8, 1925.

Professor Brill had planned to retire as he reached the age of seventy years on February 23, 1925. He confided to his friends the anticipated pleasure of a few years of life at State College where he had planned to live with Mrs. Brill and his daughter Julia, the latter being a member of the faculty of State College.

His sudden death frustrated these cherished hopes and brought to an end the career of an esteemed teacher, a valued friend to the students of this school, and ended the active services of an untiring worker in the ranks of his chosen church.

His influence will long continue to be a precious memory to the hundreds of students who came under his care. In his passing we have lost, not only an efficient teacher, but the guidance of a wise counselor and friend.

"A gentleman on whom we build an absolute trust"

DR. G. C. L. RIEMER was educated in the one-room schools of Elk and Forest Counties. After spending three years at the Clarion State Normal School he entered Bucknell University from which institution he was graduated with the degree of A.B. in 1895. He spent the summers of 1896 and 1897 in France and the summers of 1898 and 1900 in Germany. In 1896 he took the degree of A.M. at Bucknell University. From 1899 to 1901 he was a graduate student at Harvard University where he again received the degree of A.M. in 1900. From 1903 to 1905 he took graduate work at the universities of Leipzig and Berlin, receiving the Ph.D. degree from Leipzig in 1905. He attended the summer sessions of Columbia University in 1919 and 1920.

Dr. Riemer was instructor at Bucknell University from 1895 to 1899. He was also at Harvard from 1899 to 1901 while engaged in graduate work. From 1905 to 1918 he was Professor at Bucknell University. In the summer of 1910 he taught at New York University.

During the war he had complete control of a camp at Muscle Shoals. From 1918 to 1923 he was a member of the department of Public Instruction. Since 1923 he has been Principal of the Bloomsburg State Normal School.

He is a member of  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$  Fraternity.

Junior Class

On September 14, the largest Junior Class in this school's history entered Bloomsburg State Normal School. They were three hundred and seventy-five strong. With determination and courage in their hearts they firmly resolved that the name of the class of '27 would ring down through the ages.

Accordingly, they held a class meeting for the purpose of organization. Their excellent selection of officers gained the first milestone of their progress.

The poor Juniors met their first test of real courage in the infliction of Junior customs. Naturally their pride and dignity were hurt. Should they go around decked in green and other signs of stupidity? However, such signs of compulsory false pretense could not hide our brilliancy. These customs were overthrown in a football game for the boys—Juniors victors—and in a party for the girls.

They met their first defeat in the annual Junior-Senior Basketball game but they know that success is always accompanied by a few failures.

Several of the Junior Class held important positions on the varsity teams and thus helped B. S. N. S. gain many of her victories.

Their first social activity was a Kid's party.

Their dramatic ability, displayed in the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," made everyone sit up and take notice. At last they won recognition.

In chapel exercises they proved themselves to be capable and efficient leaders.

Their name is on every tongue. Although they are sorry to bid their Senior classmen farewell, they are eager to take their rightful places. In their Senior year they expect to continue with their aim of winning distinction for their class and fame for our Alma Mater, which has given them ideals and standards for life.

Long, Long Ago

In the very distant past, on a certain Monday morning in September, about three hundred young men and women boarded trains in various cities, and towns and villages. All these young men and women were going to the same place—Bloomsburg. We had all known that some day in that most eventful we would journey to Bloomsburg. But I wonder if we will ever forget that day. Some of us laughed, some of us cried, and others—well, too scared to do anything. When we landed in Bloomsburg every one was in a hurry, but most of us did not know what the hurry was about. We soon learned why we should hurry—Registration—our most informal introduction to Normal.

After about two weeks of being alternately lost, strayed, or stolen and found again, we became accustomed to the whys and wherefores of the institution.

We soon organized our class and began the business of being prospective teachers. We very soon learned that teaching was not going to be all play; but when we were overwhelmed with work we consoled ourselves with the thought that we were the best Junior Class that had ever been at Bloomsburg.

After about a month of sojourn at B. S. N. S. we were all well acquainted and then we planned some social functions. Our first was the Y. W. C. A. Reception, then our Hallowe'en party where our fellow classmates blossomed out in vari-colored costumes. At our Junior Prom, which everyone enjoyed, we showed the Seniors how well we could entertain. One night we forgot the fact that we were grown up and staged a very successful Kids Party.

In order to show the other classes who and what we are we staged three one-act plays which were very well received. These plays were purely class productions and they did credit to all the Juniors.

"All is well that ends well," and after passing a year as Juniors we were well fitted to take on our shoulders the burden of the responsibilities of the Seniors at B. S. N. S.

I hold no dream of fortune vast,
Nor seek undying fame.
I do not ask when life is past
That many know my name.

I may not own the skill to rise
To glory's topmost height,
Nor win a place among the wise,
But I can keep the right.

And I can live my life on earth
Contented to the end,
If but a few shall know my worth
And proudly call me friend.

These verses by Edgar Guest give as clear an impression of our class adviser as can be written. Nothing more need be said in tribute to him who has guided our destinies through these brief years here at Normal. Paul Foote.

Alma Mater

Far above the river winding,
Midst the mountains grand
Stands old Normal, dear to students
Far throughout the land.

CHORUS:

Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg Normal
Up on Normal Hill,
Years to come shall find us ever,
True to Bloomsburg still.

Far and wide though we may wander,
Still our hearts are true
To our hilltop Alma Mater,
We our pledge renew.

Ever seaward Susquehanna,
Never resting flows,
Ever upward, striving, climbing,
Onward Bloomsburg goes.

ANNA T. ADAMSON
Mahanoy High School
Mahanoy City, Pa.
"Anne"

The future Miss Swift you see before you. Anne is, so to speak, "some artist." She appears to be a very quiet girl, but appearances are deceiving. Just ask the students!

Anne is as true a friend as you will ever find, and is always willing to do a good turn.

She is fond of fun, sport and study, and is one of the Chief "Merry-makers" of fourth floor.

We all know that Anne has all the best qualities for teaching but we would not feel safe in prophesying that she will teach for a very long time, for such an attractive little Miss would never care to class herself among the self-supporting women.

Luck to you, Anne.

RUTH ALLEN
Jermyn and Carbondale High School
Jermyn, Pa.
"Ruth"

A very quiet girl with a sweet disposition and a smiling countenance is our Ruth. One of our most industrious and hard working girls, always very exact and thorough in her work. Is she conscientious—well, she never goes to class unprepared and her name is near the top of the honor roll.

She is a good sport, always ready for a good time. We wonder why she likes her work so well as a member of the H. S. U.

We must not fail to mention Ruth's willingness to accommodate. Not once has anyone asked her to do something without its being cheerfully and well done.

If you want to tease Ruth, just ask her about the write-up in the paper.

The kiddies love Ruth and we know she will be a successful teacher. Of course we don't know how long she will be in the profession, although she says she is going to teach and when she says a thing she generally means it. However, our wishes for success are yours in whatever you undertake.

REGINALD V. ANSKIS
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Mutt"

The town of Glen Lyon calls this worthy lad its own, for it was there that he first saw the light of day. In the fall of 1924 "Mutt" transferred his credits from Penn State College to the University of Bloomsburg.

He was not a bit shy of the ladies and finally acknowledged that he was successful in fulfilling his duty by giving them attention. All men like chicken in some manner but "Mutt" liked little "Chick" so much better than any other variety. "Mutt" is a lover of hooks, but that is not all that he loved. Yes! A woman was concerned.

His ability as a student was greatly shown when he selected Nature Study for his practice teaching. He was one of the best student teachers that the school had. Probably it was the inspiration. We do not know what his plans are but we know he will succeed in whatever he professes to be. Good luck to you, "Mutt."

ANTONIA ASHTON
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Tony"

"Tony" is another one of these all around good sports; full of pep and always ready for a good time.

Since this picture was taken "Tony" has given us a shock by bobbing her beautiful long tresses; but we cannot blame her much, as bobbed hair is much more becoming to some people???

When it came to a certain class, "Tony" shined—especially in Nature Study—we wonder why she took such an interest in it?

What has happened to the letters from Mercersburg that used to swamp the mails last year? Does Plymouth hold more of an attraction? Or, if our suspicions are correct, we judge the attraction to have shifted to B. S. N. S.

Well, here's wishing world's of good luck to a good little sport, whether it be teaching or —???.

GERALDINE AUL
Scott Township High School
Espy, Pa.
"Gerry"

"Gerry" is one of the best sports in our class. No matter what the difficulty may be, she is always willing to help. However, her excess amount of vitality is not all directed toward having a good time. For from all indications she will surely meet with success as a teacher.

Her specialty is talking. However, it is to good advantage for she is continually cheering some one up or adding a new friend to her already large number.

"Gerry," although loyal to her Alma Mater, is very much interested in higher institutions of learning. Whatever you do, "Gerry," our class wishes you success. We feel confident of this, for with your attractive personality and ability to make friends you are surely going to be successful.

LETHA M. BAER
Shickshinny High School
Shickshinny, Pa.
"Lee"

A wonderful girl, a true friend, a good sport, this is "Lee." Her main interest is in the mail box, for it brings some places nearer to B. S. N. S. We can't blame her for that.

Wherever you meet her, "Lee" always has a winning smile, is always ready for fun and ready to eat. She is a great lover of hikes, as has been shown by her frequent indulgence in them. She is a carefree, happy-go-lucky person who positively refuses to worry until the last minute.

We all wonder why "Lee" is always singing "Otto, My Boy," instead of "Charley, My Boy." Is it a mistake, or what? Never mind though, time will tell.

"Lee's" highest ambition is to become an efficient teacher, but we all have our doubts as to how long she will stay in this profession.

We all wish you success and happiness.

VERA L. BAER
Shickshinny High School
Shickshinny, Pa.
"Turnips"

Quiet, good-natured, a wonderful friend and yet a lively sport, that's Vera. Although she hasn't been with us but one year she has made that one year well worth two by knowing and associating with her.

A feed or party! You bet! She's right in on all of them and, above all, a willing helper for clean-ups. It's a trait found in so few girls that we just have to mention it.

Vera is also an active member of the S. I. K. the good old club of Third Annex. She is a very industrious worker. Many a time "Turnips" has burned the "midnight oil." We all feel sure of Vera's success as a teacher for this reason. But—(there is always a "but") we also know "Turnips" will not be the proverbial "Old Maid" cause—well, we don't tell tales out of school.

We wish the best for you, Old Pal.

ETHEL D. BAKER
Milton High School
Milton, Pa.
"Ethel"

Ethel is one of the quiet, shy kind, and it took us a long time to get acquainted with her; but when we did get acquainted, we found her to be a true friend. Ethel is a faithful worker and always willing to do her part. She is patient, optimistic as a person and she is one of the self-possessed members of the Senior Class. Whenever anything that is disconcerting has to be done, give it to Ethel, for she will carry it through without a tremor.

Ethel always liked school, and so we think she has taken up the right profession; however, how long she will be interested in this profession is a question as she is a good cook and housekeeper, and her greatest ambition is to marry a minister. We hope you shall be successful in your quest, Ethel.

Luck and happiness are our wishes for you.

DORETTA PAULINE BEAVER
Nescopeck High School
Nescopeck, Pa.
"Doretta"

Doretta is a member of the Locker Room Bunch, and a very jolly one, too. In fact, it's a hard thing to say just what will affect Doretta's sense of humor; just ask some of the day pupils, if you don't believe it. Seriously, however, I have heard it remarked that Doretta makes a sincere, true friend—the kind to lend a hand in time of trouble.

Although living in town, Doretta hails from Nescopeck. The fact that she is not living in the "Dorm" does not keep her from joining in school sports, and she comes out for both hockey and basketball, both of which she enjoys very much.

Her fondness lie in other directions; music and art both appeal to Doretta. She is a member of the Glee Club, and we are sure her ability in singing will help her in her chosen work of Primary teaching.

Just one more of your likes must be mentioned, Doretta, before your history is complete. Did you say his name was Morris?

CLAIRE R. BECKLEY
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Claire"

Who's going down for mail? 'S'your turn, Claire! Oh, I never get any letters (from Claire) and in another minute she returns with the mail—hers mostly. Judging from the variety of sources you might guess that she was taking her college course by correspondence—maybe so—at least the best colleges are represented.

However, letter writing isn't the main feature in Claire's life down here. Have you ever been anywhere at any time at any place where there's something happening and not seen Claire?

But her enthusiasm is not limited in the least, for she has an overwhelming amount of "pep" saved up for teaching, and if "pep" and personality have anything to do with it, "Claire" will surely have a successful career.

Here is wishing you all the luck in the world, "Claire."

IRENE BESTEDER
Trucksville High School
Trucksville, Pa.
"Irene"

Irene came to our midst from Trucksville. She is very studious, conscientious and appears to be very quiet. We soon changed our minds about Irene being quiet after we once knew her. She enjoys having fun as much as any of us. If you think she is so quiet just get her started and then you can see for yourself how much fun she possesses.

Regardless of Irene's study habits, she has good times, but work must come before pleasure. Her motto is, "Work before pleasure." It would be better for more of us if we would adopt her policy.

Irene is a true and sincere friend and when once her friendship is gained you have a friend that will last.

Here's wishing Irene the very best luck and success in all her future undertakings. May happiness and success be yours.

MARY K. BEVAN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Bevy"

Here is another little black-haired lassie that hails from Hazleton. Whenever you hear someone come singing up the hall, why you know that's "Bevy."

"Bevy" is a very conscientious student and we are sure she will make a good teacher—especially in Art and Art projects. "Bevy" can always be found in some jolly crowd, and whenever they are in need of anything she goes out to her many friends and borrows—even though they did have to have the patience of a saint waiting for her to return.

I suppose everyone wonders why "Bevy" went to the church on Iron Street. Yes, it does leave out rather early and—well, "Bevy" doesn't lack boy friends.

As a teacher we are sure you will make a success, and the class of '26 extends to you its best wishes.

BERTHA BISSET
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Bertha"

Bertha is another one of our ever faithful commuters. At first one might think Bertha very quiet, but we who know her find our first impression entirely wrong. To know her is to love her.

Bertha is a conscientious student, but work never interferes with her having a good time. Just mention the movies, and she is ready to go with you at once.

Did you say Bertha likes sports? She certainly does—especially, hiking, skating, and coasting. There's a reason. We wonder why?

We are sure Bertha will be a success as a teacher, for the children all love her. We sometimes wonder though if she will teach very long.

Here's wishing you success in whatever you do.

LAURA BLAINE
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Blainie"

Laura is another one of our day students who comes to us from Berwick, and unfortunately since the trolley schedule seems to be so irregular, she sometimes misses the seven o'clock car and as a result she is with us infrequently, and we are without her occasionally.

Laura tells us that life is too short to spend all of your time working, however; she sometimes forgets herself and studies her lessons.

She has a pleasing personality and is always ready to help in any way. During her two years here, she has made a large circle of friends and we all wish her much success in her teaching career.

MARVIN BLOSS
Hobby, Penna.
Nescopeck, Pa.
"Blossy"

From the metropolis of Hobby came an innocent, ambitious lad to follow the teaching profession. Through his stories and ability to recite poems, he was soon well known by both faculty and student body.

The bookroom receives many visits from "Blossy" because he must buy stationery. He is a very good letter writer, judging from the number of letters he writes and receives. Most of these letters are either from or directed to a certain young lady in Hobby. Occasionally she visits Normal.

We are very doubtful as to whether "Blossy" will follow the teaching profession, because he is always on hand when it comes to making various stage settings. No matter what kind of work he may follow, we are sure he will make a success of it.

"Blossy," we hope you have "heaps of luck" and wish that through your personality and ambition you will always be the friend and student you were at B. S. N. S.

EVELYN BOMBOY
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Evie"

Evelyn did not have to come very far to join our ranks for she was already stationed here at Bloomsburg.

Some one asks "Can she sing?" Well, I should say she can. She is not only one of the most willing members of the famous Double Quartet but she is doing her bit towards the furthering of music in the public schools.

"Looks are deceiving," for Evelyn appears to be a very sedate and studious girl. As for the latter "all is well," but Evelyn is just the girl to brighten one's lowered spirits. No one gets more out of life than she, because she always looks on the bright side of things and goes on just as happy as before.

From all appearances, we are sure that Evelyn is going to be a grand success in her chosen work.

Best of luck to you, Evelyn.

MARY BOMBOY
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Mary"

Mary and music are closely associated in our minds. Her charming voice has entertained and delighted us many times and the Double Quartet just couldn't get along without her. This little girl has many friends for her disposition is as sunny as a June day. Mary is a very conscientious student as well as an intelligent one. What she can do she does willingly and readily. She is interested in everyone but in "some one" in particular. We expect to hear of Mary becoming a prima donna after leaving dear old Normal, and we have a distinct notion that our expectations will be realized. Good luck, Mary, and may your life be as sunny as your smile.

MAE BONHAM
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Mae"

Mae is one of the little members of our class, but in spite of her shortness in stature one always knows when she is present by her sunny disposition.

One can never feel blue when she is in the room and she is always ready to help a friend in need.

Mae is one of the optimists of our class. Even though things may go topsy turvy and everything seems upside down they will always come out all right for Mae, because she looks on the bright side only.

She has been a good, industrious student and we know she will be successful in anything she may undertake.

"There is no better relation than a true and faithful friend."

CATHERINE BOYER
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Doll"

Those who know her intimately call her "Doll" and it is a privilege to know her intimately. She may be a little hard to get acquainted with but once you know her—

She has the rare quality of being nice to everyone. Her friends know that they could not have a better friend. She is always willing to aid others in any way possible.

She is a good student, one who knows how to work well, but also knows how to play. Her motto is, "Work while you work and play while you play." Work and play, sometimes, are like oil and water—they do not mix well. Hence we find her to be a successful student.

She is dainty, petite, good and true. We know she will attain success as a teacher. Our best wishes go with you, "Doll."

MARGARET ETHEL BROGAN
Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Margaret"

Margaret is one of these girls with a versatile personality, signified by her black hair and blue eyes. At one minute she is full of fun and with mischief shining out of her eyes. The next she can be just as serious and sympathetic. Either way she is attractive and lovable. Her greatest delight is teasing someone which she does to perfection much to her victim's discomfort. Yes! we all remember how she chased us with a June bug one night. (The June bug proved to be an imaginary one.)

Does Margaret like "feeds"? I'll say she does! Are they good for Margaret? I'll say they aren't!! Her favorite combination is chocolate cake with pickles and ice cream.

Margaret expects to be a teacher and has worked hard during her time here to be an efficient one. We are sure she need have no doubts on that point. Whatever she takes up or whatever she becomes we all wish her loads of luck and success.

ELIZABETH M. BROOKS
Milton High School
Lewisburg, Pa.
"Betty"

If you ever see a tall, graceful form approaching, and hear a laugh and a giggle, you'll know it's "Betty." She has such a cheery laugh that to hear her would drive all thoughts of the blues away.

"Betty" also has one of those things called a singing voice. "Show Me the Way to Go Home," and "I Love You Truly," are her favorites. On the Uke she is a wizard, too. Any popular song is at her command and she sure does strum!

In the training school "Betty" is teaching those Junior High "kids." The pupils seem to be hard to manage ???, but "Betty" can take care of them and answer all their questions.

In addition to her teaching "Betty" works on the Maroon and Gold staff and is an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma. As a charter member she has helped the sorority to become a thriving organization in our school.

"Betty" lives at Lewisburg, so you can judge for yourself why Bucknell holds such a charm. Fraternities are very near and—well, leave it to "Betty."

Our best wishes and our love go with "Betty" in her future work, school teaching and whatever else she undertakes.

EDNA BROTHERTON
Forty Fort High School
Forty Fort, Pa.
"Eddy"

Here's a surprise, Edna comes from Forty Fort and not from Nanticoke as most people suppose. Wherever you find Edna you find the Nanticoke girls, for they are the best of friends.

Have you ever been down to the "gym" or any place and failed to see her? No, she is always ready. Does she like to dance? There's no doubt about that.

There are other things Edna is very interested in, too. She is one of the famous Athletic leaders.

If there's ever any work or posters to be made, just go to Edna, and she will gladly assist. It can be said by everyone that knows her that she has a very lovely disposition and is a good sport. At present, she is busily engaged in teaching and we all expect her to be very successful.

ALICE M. BUDD
Honesdale High School
Beachlake, Pa.
"Alice"

Hark! Did I hear someone say they were going to write a check? Yes, and it was Alice. This is a favorite saying of hers which does not always end in words.

Alice is a quiet girl in her way, but it is generally the quiet ones that get there, and leave it to Alice. They say it is a good thing to forget and Alice forgets all else when there are lessons to be learned. She is one of those faithful, conscientious workers upon whom one can depend.

But all work would make her a dull girl and she is by no means dull. She is full of fun and surely enjoys a good time. She likes to indulge in that past time known as teasing. She especially likes to pick on the ticklish ones. Like a small boat she "bobs" about a bit, but we feel sure that some day in some way she will anchor.

We suppose, since you intend to do your bit as a teacher, that you will stick to it, but how long we do not know. Whatever you undertake, Alice, we wish you the best that can be derived from life in this strange world of ours.

EVA BURLINGAME
Almedia High School
Almedia, Pa.
"Eva"

Eva, with her shy, winning ways hails from Almedia. She is one of those girls who comes on the trolley and is always coming to class late. Is the trolley always the cause? Of course it is—for Eva would never try to deceive anyone. She studies hard along every line of school work and can always be found working in the library.

She is very quiet and quite dignified. No one would mistake her for an underclassman. Senior is written in her actions, her conversation and her studies. If you don't believe in being treated as an undergrad once in a while follow what you've started. But you're not interested in school work alone. How about bills, especially the "Bill" from Berwick?

We all wish you great success in your teaching, but we doubt if you will teach school very long.

ELEANOR M. BUTLER
Northumberland High School
Northumberland, Pa.
"Skeet"

"Do you know any new games for word drill?" is "Skeet's" most common work of announcing her presence. She is always interested in the welfare of her young pupils, and she just can't seem to do enough for them. No one can say that she isn't going to be an ideal teacher.

However, "Skeet" is clever at other things besides teaching—for instance, sewing. One day one of her roommates found her sewing for all she was worth, and she wasn't sewing a dress either. Never mind, "Skeet," when it comes to mending men's vests, we have to hand it to you.

To look at "Skeet" you would think her the very essence of quiet, but not so. After you get to know her you'll find she is just the contrary. She has just enough pep and independence to enable her to meet with success in her chosen profession. Yet, according to all appearances now we fear that in a few years, Pennsylvania will lose one of its best teachers. How about it, "Skeet"?

ELIZABETH G. BUTTON
Springville and Montrose High School
Springville, Pa.
"Betty"

Betty lived on Long Hall, overlooking the kitchen and she seemed to like it there. One reason for her liking it was, perhaps, that she could see everything and everyone that was going on or by.

Like most girls, Betty liked a good time, but never neglected her work in so doing. She never worried and most always saw the funny side of life. Although very quiet in appearance there is a saying that "Still water runs deep." I think it proves true of Betty.

She has a pleasant personality and by her sweet smile, and gentle ways, she won many friends. She can take a joke for her room was often stacked, and while she tried to act cross, her sense of humor always came to the rescue.

After joining the H. S. U., her activities were greatly multiplied, but she never forgot what time the mail was put in. (There's a reason). She says that she intends to make teaching her profession, but from reports and observations, we doubt if it will be permanent.

Here's wishing her success and happiness in whatever she undertakes, whether it be in teaching or otherwise.

MARY CAFFREY
Sugar Notch High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Caffrey"

Blonde hair, bright blue eyes alert, a small trim figure, and Mary stands out before you.

Her laugh can always be heard in the halls above every other voice. She has often gotten in Dutch with the proctors and the dean.

We all wonder why Mary's favorite slogan is "Is the mail in yet?" Is there someone back there, Mary? Oh! Well! time will tell.

Mary is one of the happiest and most likable girls in our dormitory. She has great hopes as a teacher for Uncle Sam's children but we can see her only in her rightful place, and that is not in the schoolroom. The best wishes of the class go with you, Mary.

MARGARET CAMPBELL
Wyoming High School
Moosic, Pa.
"Peg"

"Peg" meekly walked up Normal Hill to begin her career September 15, 1924. The following day she attended classes where opinions were formed, namely—"My! Isn't she quiet?" A lovely girl but, oh, so quiet. This was the case for a very short time for we soon heard, "'Peg,' did you do that?" A guilty "Um hum"—a scamper of feet—the fun was on and the culprit—punished? No—forgiven with a sigh because something else was sure to follow.

Don't form the wrong opinion of "Peg." She could and would be serious in and on all occasions. Those big brown eyes would glow with sympathy as well as sparkle with mischief.

Her favorite quotation is "Variety is the spice of life." This applies to everything.

The sterling qualities of a friend and teacher are very evident and we send our heartiest wishes for your success.

AUDREY CARLE
Kingstown Township High School
Trucksville, Pa.
"Carlo"

Audrey, better known to her friends as "Carlo," is a true friend and a marvelous roommate. On first meeting her, one would think her to be very quiet and sedate, but wait until you know her! Those brown eyes of hers just twinkle with merriment and mischievousness, when you get her started.

Audrey has an interest in all metals, but at the present time her greatest interest is centered upon one particular kind—Copper. She loves red curly hair. Do you wonder why? Well, just you take a good look at "Copper" and you'll have no further reason to wonder.

We all have our ambitions and Audrey's is to become an efficient teacher???. Well, Audrey, we all love you and wish you the best of success in the future, no matter what or where your work might be.

MARION CARPENTER
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Carp"

"She is not big, she is not tall,
But she is very kind to all.
She wears a smile, has a fine disposition,
Which in life is sure to gain her a position.
She's never downhearted, she's never blue,
To her classmates and schoolmates, always true."

"Carp" spends most of her time seeking information. This information is not only upon school work but often upon such topics as "Why do boys write upon blue paper?" and other such interesting topics.

She is very studious—sometimes—but she has proved that teaching is her chosen profession by the interest she shows.

"Carp" says that men mean nothing to her but we would like to know whether "Charlie" is the name of a horse or—?

Everyone knows that girls at school like eats, and "Carp" is no exception to the rule.

She has made many friends during her two years at Normal and we are sure that she will continue to make friends in her future work.

With "Carp" go our best wishes for success in her chosen profession.

BLANCHE CARROLL
St. Basil's High
Dushore, Pa.

"A maiden modest and self-possessed,
Yet beautiful and sweetly dressed."

Blanche is a clever blonde who has a smile for everyone. She could well be the author of a joke book because she has had so many played on her. There's nothing like getting the inside dope, eh, Blanche? The school which is lucky enough to claim this little lady for its teacher may well be proud because of her charming personality and her talents along artistic musical and literary lines. If you were to examine her B. S. N. S. text books you would there find miniature drawings of her professors. Each of these drawings exemplify an occasional mood of the respective instructors.

Who would dream that this accomplished girl came from the "Wilds of Sullivan?"

RUTH CARVER
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.

Ruthie, a true friend and a real good sport, is a member of the 400 suite gang. Always willing, always ready, she is never missing at work or play. No trick, no joke was ever quite successful without her. We must admit that she is responsible for much of the noise that disturbs the Engleharts.

Up until recently, Ruth was our official alarm clock each morning, but now, she seems to like her bed better than the best breakfast ever served. We are sorry because, as you see, we must now scramble for ourselves.

Ruthie loves to dance; for that matter she is fond of all sports and her love of the outdoors will not permit her to stay inside, regardless of the weather. Judging from the amount of walking she does she is a natural born hiker. Her favorite expression is "heck," nothing more. Her motto is apparently, "Smile and the world smiles with you." Perhaps you can tell us why she is glad when we are sad. Her pleasant disposition has won herself a host of friends. She is a girl we shall never forget.

MARGARET COBURN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Marg"

Most people say, "Oh, Margaret Coburn is that quiet girl." Quiet! You should hear her practicing her music. She looks quite sedate, doesn't she? But if you watch closely, you'll see the nonsense reflected in her eyes. Whenever anyone found a tack in her bed or an alarm clock went off at 3:30 a. m., Margaret's blushes proclaimed her participation in the trick. But for all that, she was most studious and plied herself at her lessons with an earnestness that brought reward, for more than once those same blushes chased each other over her face when her instructors gave her well-deserved commendation.

Her all-around good nature and sportsmanship has won for her many friends and we feel confident that her success which came with her from Hazleton High School and remained with her here will continue in the future.

HOPE COLLEY
Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Hope"

A peculiar laugh that attracts attention! Yes, back of that laugh is Hope. She is a lovable girl, fond of fun and pleasure. If Hope is in the right mood you may expect anything to happen that is unusual. She is just full of surprises.

We all know Hope's interests are varied. She has shown her ability as a student and teacher.

By the way, did you ever hear about her sleigh riding parties? There is a beautiful light-haired male in this case—But alas, he measures just four feet in height. Isn't it dreadful? HORRORS!!! Well, he'll grow up some day.

We sincerely wish you success in whatever you undertake to do, Hope.

RUTH COLLINS
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Ruthie"

"Ruthie" comes to us from Nanticoke and we are certainly proud of her. She is not the type that pushes herself forward but if you have ever seen a black-haired girl, yes, she is the only black-haired girl in the gang, full of fun, you will find that it is she.

"Ruthie" has "oodles" of fun and pep, which she is never able to display down here but she keeps it for when she goes home.

She is a famous proctor, and if there is ever any help needed in the halls she is always ready. Wonder why? She just detests going to bed early and we also think that she detests getting up early. The first thing in the morning we hear her say, "Oh, I'm so tired," but it doesn't take long in the day to find out she has a great deal of ambition and energy stored up. Best wishes of our class go with you, "Ruthie."

FRANCES CONNER
Orangeville High School
Orangeville, Pa.
"Frances"

Frances is one of our day students, coming from the distinguished town of Orangeville. She has been faithful in her attendance for two years. While here, she has acquired a great deal of knowledge which we know will be quite invaluable to her in the future, especially that which she has learned in household arts???

Frances is a quiet little girl and is always preparing her work or reading interesting articles in the Good House-keeping Magazine; but aside from this she still finds time for fun.

We all like Frances and she has made many friends during her stay with us. We wish her success in her chosen profession.

EVELYN CONVILLE
Mount Carmel High School
Mount Carmel, Pa.
"Ervie"

Evelyn is a good sport. She has never been known to want for a good time. With her sunny and cheerful disposition, she has won countless friends in B. S. N. S. One of her favorite diversions is dancing. Whenever there is a dance within reach "Ervie" is sure to be there. We may well say that she is one of the best dancers in our class. Besides this, "Ervie" is also a good talker. This, however, is nothing to her discredit, for she can be very interesting. When glancing in the male direction she doesn't seem to give one a more lingering glance than another, but it is a fact that when the male looks in her direction, he is bound to be overcome by a serious attack of heart trouble. We are certain that "Ervie" will make a charming little schoolmarm, and wish her the greatest success.

ARLENE COOLBAUGH
Trucksville High School
Trucksville, Pa.
"Cooley"

"May I borrow your grill?" "Yes, surely." Of course, being polite we never ask what it's for, but we know. Just ask a certain someone at "State" if he likes fudge.

Arlene is already a full fledged schoolmarm. Last year she left our midst to teach and we mourned her loss; great was our joy when she returned this year.

Judging from her success in the training school she will be an excellent teacher as long as she is a teacher.

Remember the day, Arlene, that you caused such excitement in fifth grade? I know someone who will never forget it.

We wish you every success in any undertaking.

LAWRENCE COOLBAUGH
Trucksville High School
Trucksville, Pa.
"Shiek" "Larry"

"Larry" came to us from Trucksville and it seems as though they made a specialty of handing out Shieks to the world. For this reason "Larry" soon became very popular with the opposite sex. He has had more girl friends than Solomon had wives and he seems to be able to handle them, too.

His sleek, shining, black hair, his debonair looks, and his dancing ability gave him the right to be the ladies' friend. Anyone who can dance like Eddie Tracey and have the looks of Valentino must be popular with the ladies.

"Shiek" is also a good student and he has a record of passing every subject which he carried at the Normal School. When we remember the course of study which he selected and the number of hours which he carried this is quite a record. We are certain that he will be one of the best teachers that the State has ever sent out in the teaching profession. We give him our best wishes and hope he succeeds in this great wide world. Good luck, "Larry."

ELIZABETH COOPER
Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Betty" "Betz"

Quiet, demure, serene, serious—yes, when she wants to be, but oh, my! When she is cranked up no Lizzie can beat the Lizzie of 360. Punctual—hurry, never. They're not in her line of life. Losing hankies? Now you've hit the nail on the head.

Yes, Betty is one of the original "Three Muskratears." Just ask either of the other two and they can tell you all about Detroit, her favorite topic.

"Pictures I have seen" is another of her specialties. She is one of the best references on movies we have in the dorm.

She is also the go-getter when it comes to S. I. K. dues. What would the treasury be without her efforts? We surely pity the males if she rushes after them as persistently. Betty has many friends and is an active participant in hikes, parties, and "feeds."

"I'm gonna be an old maid." We've heard that before but—well, we wish you the best of everything in life.

GILBERT COOPER
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Coop"

M. ALMA CORMAN
Gregg Township Vocational School
Rebersburg, Pa.
"Al"

"Coop" is one of the Seniors who belonged to the first Junior High School class ever formed at this institution.

His first rush for popularity came in his Junior year when the fellows who wanted their sweat shirts decorated learned that he was an excellent artist. His artistic ability was developed further when he came under the direction of Prof. Keller. His artistic ability was best shown in the gymnasium when it was decorated on various occasions and also in the Junior High School play, "Cinderella."

Art was not "Coop's" only accomplishment. He has also shown his ability along athletic lines. His skill was best shown in baseball, although he played a prominent part in winning many basketball and football games.

The only change that has been noticed in "Coop" during his three years' stay at Bloomsburg is along feminine lines. Last year his interest centered on a certain young lady but this year his interest has varied.

The best thing we can wish "Coop" is success and we wish him heaps of it.

Even though "Al" was one of our Shortess "gang," the whole school knew her and loved her.

"Al" stayed with us but one semester this year and tears flowed aplenty when she left; however we'll hail her back in June.

"Never late, never early,
Always on time.

She's that kind of a girlie."

Although naturally quiet it didn't prevent her from making many friends. The West Chester trip proved to us that still waters run deep, and that looks are deceiving, for she is full of fun.

Her personality is a gift from the gods. We hope to be proud of her as a teacher some day. We are wondering who will be the lucky one to know her best of all.

JAMES A. COURSEN
Larksville High School
Larksville, Pa.
"Jimmie"

"Jimmie" makes himself known whenever the occasion calls for it. Whether it be in the dormitory, on the campus, in the class room or laying someone out at a B. D. C. meeting he is the same "Jimmie." He is always serious when something is to be done and is ever alert to what is happening about him. He has certain well defined convictions to which may be added courage to state and stand by. We think his one hundred and eighteen pounds are fifty per cent grit. His studious attitude in class and his fine demeanor both in and out of school may be set as an example for our newer acquaintance to follow.

"Jimmie" is also quite an athlete. Last year he was the best second baseman we had on the baseball team. When he took over the reigns in basketball his managerial ability was well worthy of recognition. With "Jimmie" as manager the team was one of the best ever sent out of this institution.

Yet, with all his fine qualities, he has one weakness. But, then, who can boast of none? "Jimmie" is no misogynist for we see him often with a certain "Fae." If you have never noticed him at a concert or any other school function, allow us to inform you that he is never without a companion.

SARA V. COYNE
Jenkins High School
Pittston, Pa.
"Sally"

It's the girl with the smile that always wins, and "Sally" sure is a winner. She has a smile for everyone and it is a sure cure for the blues.

With all her fun, still she is a very earnest and studious girl, and is what we call an all-round good sport, always ready for a good time, and willing to work if her help is needed.

"Life is too short to spend it at hard labor," is "Sally's" motto. In spite of this, she often gets absent-minded and studies her lessons.

Did you ever look in box 345? Yes, indeed, there is always a letter there from Pittston. We wonder why? Huh!

We notice this one thing about "Sally." She is very particular in addressing envelopes, especially to someone whom she admires. It is too bad she has to spoil so many envelopes to get the last name on.

"Sally," if you keep on smiling you will always have friends, and we all wish you the best of luck and success.

HELEN DANIELS
Duryea High School
Duryea, Pa.
"Helen"

Helen generally appears quiet and pensive but, oh, my, from behind that cloak creeps that impish look through her eyes. After all she's a real good pal and a wonderful sport. Helen is also not lacking in friends—'specially male.

Helen is also an active member of the B. S. N. S. Orchestra and helped make our good times much better and happier by her presence and that shy smile. What wonders us is—why does she have such a grudge against small boys. I suppose Helen believes in getting those you can handle best. All we know is she gets them. Hook or crook? Ask her.

We often wonder whether our little blonde Helen will stay in the teaching profession. Of course she likes it, but then—well, whatever walk in life you choose, be sure to read the right signpost so you know and feel sure of your step. The best regards and wishes of the school go with you, Helen.

MARJORIE DAVEY
Honesdale High School
Honesdale, Pa.
"Margie"

"Oh, bed! Oh, bed! Delicious bed, that heaven on earth to my weary head."

If one did not know the birthplace of this young lady, he would be likely to suspect that she hailed from Reading since her middle name is "pretzels." Perhaps this may account for what she calls her "Davey characteristic," namely, a double chin. Though often pressed by weighty and serious problems, one invariably finds her swinging a wicked racket on the courts of King Tennis.

Although the Glee Club will miss her alto warbling, we know she will sing along Life's pathway with just the same old smile. The Uke Club, too, will miss her little plunk-plunk-plunk.

"Margie's" ambition is to be either a music supervisor or a kindergarten teacher. There, little girl, don't cry. You may have your own little kindergarten bye and bye.

EMILY B. DAVIES
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Em"

Just a little girl; a quick step; a flashing gray eye—you couldn't be mistaken—that's Emily. Yet her size certainly doesn't interfere with her independence or her desirability to us.

"Em" is a strong support of the Glee Club where she heartily exercises her alto voice and she is an ardent follower of all athletics. Then in Y. W. C. A., what could we do without our social leader?

Judging from her popularity here we are sure Emily will always be successful wherever she goes and whatever she does; yet we think there won't be any danger of her becoming a "super-annuated spinster" for she's pretty to walk with, witty to talk with and pleasant to think about, too. But "Em," just one word of warning: "Be off with the old loves before you are on with the new," even if the Atlantic does lie between them and you.

For if she will, she will,
You may depend on 't,
And if she won't, she won't,
And there's an end on 't.

MABEL M. DAVIES
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"May"

No use asking if you know our Mabel. Everybody does—at least they've heard of her. Mabel isn't the kind that pushes herself to the front but she gets there anyway. It's just natural.

It seems to us that somehow this last year Mabel looked a bit lonesome, especially after coming back from a visit home. Never mind, Mabel, we all know where your heart is. There's an excuse for everything in this world. We all like "Arch."

Second Floor Back Hall is going to miss Mabel next year. Where ever Mabel was, there was sure to be laughter. Yes, we will all remember Mabel in her famous role, "Ollie."

Mabel expects to be a teacher. From all evidence, however, we doubt if she will be one very long, for Cupid insists on being in the picture. Whatever she becomes we wish Mabel all the success in the world, whether as a teacher or as—well, we won't say a word more.

MARION DECKER
New Albany High School
New Albany, Pa.
"Marion"

We all know Marion as the girl with the friendly smile. Her cheery "hello" made many a dull face brighten. But her bright smile is not her only adornment, for her face is framed with a halo of exceptionally beautiful blonde curls.

Marion's ready wit along with her roommate's good sense of humor has been the "bugbear" of many a weary proctor after lights are out.

She may appreciate "good fun" but she never forgets her work and applies herself to it with a thorough diligence that always brings fine results. As a member of the Maroon and Gold staff she has adequately illustrated this.

To Marion we wish the best of luck and happiness in teaching or whatever else to which she may aspire.

CHARLOTTE K. DEEBEL
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Deeb's"

"By her laugh, ye shall know her!" We all have heard "Deeb's" hearty laugh at one time or another and it sure brightened the day for us. With that characteristic we feel certain she will always have as many friends as she has made during her two years here.

"Deeb's" hails from the renowned city of Hazleton, which is famed in Bloomsburg annals for its many intellectual wonders. If you don't believe it leaf over the pages and see how many there are to be found.

She is undoubtedly one of our outstanding personages and one who has found time for more things than study. In entertaining "Deeb's" shined. Remember in our Junior year the Dramatic Club play which she helped to make a success? This year we saw what a fine Irish cook she could be in the play, "Between the Soup and the Savory."

With her ability and ambition to back her we know she will climb far up the ladder of success. Go to it, "Deeb's!"

MILDRED DEITRICK
Williamsport High School
Williamsport, Pa.
"Millie" "Mid"

Millie has been a member of the "Shortess Gang" both years, and a lively one, too, we'll say. Tall, light, curly (?) hair, blue eyes and an everlasting smile are her outstanding features. If you think she is quiet and reserved you really don't know her.

When you hear someone calling, "Hey, Gavinnia," or sing, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," you know that it is Millie.

Study? Well, yes, but we won't say what.

She is always in style, anywhere from appendicitis and chickenpox to silver hats. She sometimes starts styles of her own, for instance, being knocked down by a bicycle.

Millie travels extensively between Ashland and Bloomsburg. She says she helps her sisters at the tea room over the week-ends, but we wonder whether there isn't some other big attraction besides the good meals she gets.

Millie has the qualities of a very efficient primary teacher, but her love for children and her ability to make candy and cake (ask the North Hall boys) might lead one to believe the primary school will never see her. If it does, she has our best wishes for her success.

HELEN DICKINSON
Wyoming High School
Wyoming, Pa.
"Helen"

Look what Wyoming sent to Bloomsburg! Yes, that is where Helen comes from. Does she like to hang about the town? Just ask the girls!

Three years ago, Helen boarded the train and started her career. People who have been with her for three years have noticed many changes in Miss Helen. She is no more the demure little girl which landed here the first day of school in September, 1923. Helen has cultivated a great fancy for dancing. She might have a reason for going to after dinner dances—whether that exists as a memory or an actual being cannot be said.

She has been a member our B. S. N. S. Orchestra, in fact one of its best violinists. Athletics and the social affairs of the Mu Phi Sigma have taken a great deal of her time while here.

So far we have added nothing which will prove that Helen is not always as good as she seems. She had two great failings—she hates to get up in the morning, and she would rather read than eat. Then, too, she is one of the biggest pests in the school when it comes to coaxing.

Helen is planning on furthering her education at another school, but indications point to the fact that the years spent teaching will be few, we wonder.

MARY DODSON
Benton High School
Benton, Pa.

"Good things come in small packages," says an old maxim. This is proved true when one meets this plump little slip of a girl. And when one gazes into those blue eyes of hers—well, no use to try to describe their effect, for it can't be done—they are just Mary's own eyes!

Mary always pops into first class shortly after the last bell rings, then she looks around so innocently and smiles her engaging, happy smile which makes us forgive her immediately.

Smooth and glossy is Mary's hair, making a frame for the joyous little face. We like straight hair when it is as becoming as yours.

Although we are saying adieu to you now and we're wishing you happiness and luck; yet we will always remember our dear, little, red-haired Mary, who captured and held our hearts while she attended old Normal on the Hill.

CLEMENTINE DOMINICK
Plains High School
Plains, Pa.
"Tina"

"Is there anything to eat?"—hello, Tina's here! Before we have a chance to answer, a slamming of books, chairs and doors, and a scraping of heels down the hall informs us that Tina has gone to look for mail.

Eating and looking for mail are Tina's pet diversions. In fact, of the classical atmosphere of Bryn Mawr or vicinity is not wafted by mail to our school at least twice a week, the furniture of Room 214 begins to suffer. Of late though—Tina has developed a hitherto unexpected interest in things artistic. We are taught that our associates influence our ideas—perhaps that is the case in this instance. Who knows but that Tina's name may some time rank high in the list of famous artists? Anyway, Tina, we know that you are a staunch, sincere friend and we wish you just as much happiness in life after you are through school as you have had this far.

KATHLEEN DORMER
Shamokin High School
Shamokin, Pa.
"Dormer"

"That she is timid and sedate
No doubt you may aver;
But that proves well enough perhaps
How little you knew her."

Kathleen is capable of impressing one that she is very sedate and silent—but not when you know her very well. Whenever you see Kathleen she is either talking or laughing. She possesses an unusual personality, as well as ability. Kathleen's hobbies are tall fellows and dancing. She is one of the Shamokinites and is very seldom seen unless accompanied by the other four. Heaps of luck in teaching, Kathleen.

FREAS DOWNING
Huntington Township High School
Cambria, Pa.
"Downing"

Downing was an all-around student and an enthusiastic worker. After attending Normal for a number of summer terms, he entered the Senior class in the mad rush of 1926. His words are few but cheerful and they sure do carry weight.

Here is one of the men whose thoughts never touch the fairer sex, but whose countenance teems with intelligence and whose manly form contains a heart as far from fraud as earth is from heaven.

Downing was also a member of the Hash Slingers' Union. If you should ask any of the members of his table if he was punctual the reply would surely be in the negative.

Downing certainly did enjoy modeling horses and railway coaches. He was a man of his word, who respected the rights of others and when the revolt of the Juniors came, he stuck to the colors and obeyed the laws of wearing the black ties, dink, etc. The Seniors have not forgotten you, Downing and we trust you have not forgotten us.

Downing is sure to make his mark in the wide world. We wish him the best of luck in all that he undertakes.

KATHRYN DRUMM
Centre High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Kate"

Here's a girl, as you see, who has retained her long tresses because she disliked to lose those pretty curls.

Kate is one of our happy go-lucky girls who always sees the bright side of life. She believes in the maxim, "Always put off until tomorrow what you should do today," and her motto is, "It is not what I do but what I say that counts."

It did not take us long to learn that Kathryn was a girl with a sunny disposition and one quite worth while having as a friend.

Kathryn is particularly interested in art and her sole ambition is to become an art teacher and as she is especially talented along this line we feel sure she will make a success of her profession.

The class of '26 wish you luck.

MAE DUGAN
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Mae Rita"

Behold! another one of the "Cheery Eight." A wonderful girl, a true friend, a good sport—this is Mae. Her chestnut hair and big brown eyes make the name "Mae Rita" a by-word of loveliness throughout the dormitory.

We have all wondered why "Mae" seemed a "wee bit" partial to a little chap in second grade called "Red." It didn't take long for us to find out though.

And play the piano? She surely knows her stuff. Very willingly "Mae" always contributes her share of playing at the dances held after dinner in the gym. "Mae" has a very pleasing voice, although we were unaware of it at first. Her ability could not remain hidden very long.

Looking for Mae? Find out where the cats are and there you will find her. Our best wishes for success and good luck go with you, Mae.

JOSEPH L. DUGAN
B. S. N. S. High School Dept.
Lost Creek, Pa.
"Dugan"

Joe attended Grammar School in West Mahonoy Township High School. After pursuing a business course, he decided to enroll in Bloomsburg State Normal School in 1922 and follow the teaching profession. While here, he finished his High School course and started out on a three-year course in the Normal School.

During his stay here, he was elected President of the B. D. C. and that is where Joe showed the fine qualities of which he is made.

Dugan was a working studious lad. The only deficiency he ever received was for waiting on tables. Aside from this, Joe was a good hash slinger and believe me he sure did have to sling it for the training tables.

We think of Dugan as one, who attends to his own affairs and yet has time to give a good healthy smile to a friend. Oftimes his Irish tenor voice was heard singing, "My Rosary."

Furthermore, Dugan was quite an athlete and his record still stands in the books of the class team. Rah! Rah! Remnants! This was the name of Dugan's team, but Joe never seemed to tell where they received this name.

May success always be yours, B. D. C. meeting to-nite.

HELEN LOUISE DUNN
White Haven High School
White Haven, Pa.
"Helen Louise"

Who could be sad or homesick when Helen was around? No one! Her jolly good wit and merry fun, which fairly overflows until it floods her pretty blue eyes and simply has to come out, is a panacea for all sorts of homesickness—deep or merely surface.

Helen made her debut into B. S. N. S. after graduating from White Haven High School with the class of '24, in which, it cannot be doubted by anyone who knows her, she was an active member.

But Helen was not always the merry-maker, for very often we saw her studiously pouring over her books, and, by examination of her standards in the class, we feel she was amply rewarded for thus persevering.

Helen has a "flair" for good house-keeping which we fear will interfere with the length of her career as a school teacher, for we notice that we are not the only persons who have recognized this fact.

No matter what you do, Helen—may the best of luck be yours!

EMILY EDWARDS
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Em"

"Em" is one of our quiet girls—sometimes. She is one of our commuters and lives on Main Street.

"Em" started school here by taking music only, but has finally decided that school teaching is the only profession for her. We hope it is, but we have our doubts for "Em" seems to have other interests outside of school.

Although "Em" appears to be very shy and quiet, she is not always "mum." Wait until you get her started.

"Em" is a very industrious girl. She knows just what she wants and goes after it.

Judging from all appearances, we know "Em" will be a successful teacher and we wish her the best of luck.

MARGARET EMMITT
Bloomsburg High School
Danville, Pa.
"Marg"

Margaret Emmitt! Who does not know her? If they do not, they have missed a great deal, because she is one of the three-year students who is always "on the go."

She is a member of the Dramatic Club and proves her ability by taking charge of the Junior High School Dramatic Club. Her social activities are scattered over a wide range of territory and a variety of subjects. We must not forget to mention that a great deal of our Mu Phi Sigma is to be accredited to "Marg."

Her many outside interests, however, do not detract from her studies. She is one of our best English teachers and I have no doubt that it is such persons as this whom the State covets. But I'm afraid Margaret has another calling in an entire different direction. Bucknell seems to have within its "walls of fame" some magnetic personality who wields a great influence over "Marg."

Margaret, we'll be proud of you whatever you undertake and may happiness and success stay with you.

MARY S. ERICKSON
Technical High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Mary"

Those who have known Mary for the past two years have found her a true friend; but those who have known her for three years know her as a wonderful "pal." You ask why Mary rises so early in the morning—why, don't you know that she has chosen English as her life's profession?

In more than one way has Mary proven herself a capable student and leader. She served on the Obiter Staff in her middle year and also as Treasurer and an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma.

There are four things that Mary really loves to do and they are—eating, skating, dancing and teasing. This is a strange combination, but Mary is an unusual girl.

When it's mail time, Mary's inquiry is, "Did I get a letter?" "Well, I don't see why I didn't."

Best of luck, Mary, in all your work, whatever it may be.

LOIS EROH
Berwick High School
Mifflinville, Pa.

Who is this quiet little girl with her pretty blue eyes, black curls and a pleasant smile? That's Lois Eroh! She comes to us from Mifflinville, gifted by nature with an easy-going manner of accepting the inevitable, so we never see her demeanor ruffled or her placidity disturbed.

All girls love their brothers,
But I so good have grown
That I love the other girl's brother
Better than my own.

We were all much surprised to find that the above was true of Lois, but nevertheless, we consider the other girl's brother mighty lucky.

Here's wishing you success and happiness in whatever you undertake, be it school teaching or otherwise.

ELEANOR T. EVANS
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"El"

What would the "Cheery Eight" be without "El"? We all know that good things come in small packages. So it seems with "El." Her pleasant smile and charming ways have brought her many friends.

"El" is faithful to all her tasks and never stops until they are finished. Making lesson plans, everyone knows, is her one delight. "El" says that teaching is her life-time profession. But we know some people who would go back to school, only to have "El" as a teacher.

"El's" main delight is being proctor, but like "Postum," there's a reason. A little bit of eats gathered here and there helps when you're hungry.

She is full of pep and life, and is always looking for a good time, and finds it. She might be small but she can make a lot of noise.

In your teaching, "El," the memorable gang and the rest of the class wish you the best of luck and success.

KATHRYN R. EVANS
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Katty"

"Katty" is one of the small, talkative members of our class. Whenever you hear someone coming along the hall with a quick, light step, and talking at the top of her voice, you can be sure it is "Katty."

She is a regular "go-getter." Whenever she wants anything she goes after it until she gets it from someone, even though she never knew the person before.

"Katty" certainly receives her share of mail from Wilkes-Barre, and it isn't all from home either?????

"Katty" is one of the best sports we know and is always willing to help someone.

She certainly enjoys reading "Parker's." Never mind, "Katty," you won't have to study forever; your big troubles will soon be over and "little ones" will take their place.

Best wishes and success from the class of '26.

MARGARET LOUISE EVANS
Edwardsville High School
Forty-Fort, Pa.
"Peg"

The mischievous smile tells you a lot about Peg. She is good-natured, fun-loving, and witty—yes, and generous beyond a doubt. Her wide-awake brain needs no books to make her a success. "Brevity is the soul of wit" and Peg proves it.

Our Peg is clever at entertaining, too. Her "uke" and unusual songs keep us in the best of humor. Did you ever hear her recite? The Double Quartet appreciated her elocution on their many trips.

Peg loves dogs devotedly. She gives a friendly pat to every one she ever passes. Since she cannot have a real dog at school, she keeps "Methusaler" to comfort her. (Methusaler is the best the five and ten could do in the way of dogs.)

Whenever Peg gets a candy bar at the "V", she is particular about its being a "Hey, Eddie." But then—so are we all.

Vivacious, Peg can be nothing but a success in her teaching career. With you, Margaret, go the best wishes of the class of '26.

HILDA FEISSNER
Foster Township High School
Eckley, Pa.
"Hilda"

Although Hilda just came to us in the second semester of our Senior year we all bid her a hearty welcome. Needless to say, whenever you find Hilda, you also find plenty of fun and laughter, for she is the one who just bubbles over with fun and tricks.

Hilda does not believe in all fun and no work, because she is always well prepared for her lessons. She sees to it that her work is all finished before she starts on her rounds of merry-making.

Hilda is very successful with the children. We know that she has been and will continue, that is—if! Now Hilda says she is going to teach forever, but we have our serious doubts as to that. Beware, lest H. D. M. does not agree with you. Someone suggested that even if you go on with studies to a greater extent, your final degree will be a M.R.S.

All your classmates extend best wishes for success in any of your undertakings.

FRANCES FESTER
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Frances"

Frances is a quiet, good-natured girl from Berwick. We found a good all-round sport in the girl who came to us in 1925, for whenever there is to be any fun, she is right there. She likes a good time, but never neglects her studies for pleasure. Besides all these good qualities, you can't help notice her beauty. It's no wonder her Susquehanna boy friend has so many rivals.

Frances likes Oakland cars—other cars, too—and she surely knows how to drive one. If you don't believe it, take a ride with her some time. We'll guarantee that you will safely return.

She is a girl who has proved herself a good friend to each and every one of us, and here's wishing her joy, happiness, good luck, 'n everything.

VERNA FETTERMAN
Sunbury High School
Sunbury, Pa.
"Verna"

Verna has only been with us this year but in that short time she has won many friends due to her pleasing personality. We wish you could have been here longer, Verna.

This little lass has a big heart. If you want a favor done, go to Verna, and, if there is any way in which she can help you, you can be sure of help.

Happy, jolly, and full of pep that is our Verna. An all-around good sport is she.

Yet, she is studious. She surely lives up to her motto, "Work before play," but she does like to play, too.

We wish you all the success you deserve, Verna, and that is by no means a little bit!

FRANCES I. FISHER
Kingston Township High School
Trucksville, Pa.
"Fisher"

The old saying, "You can't judge a book by its cover," is true in connection with Fisher. Because behind that pair of brown eyes lurks more mischief than one would think.

We know that Fisher has all the best qualities for teaching, but we would not feel safe in prophesying that she will teach for a long time for such an attractive "Miss" would never want to class herself among the self-supporting women.

Of course, Fisher does not spend all her time studying. In her spare moments you will always find her with the rest of the double quartet eating, hiking, telling jokes or going down town.

Her chief worries at school are eats and trying to get enough sleep.

As a girl who is always full of fun, a pleasant companion, and a good school teacher, you take with you best wishes for your happiness and success from the class of '26.

STELLA FLYNN
Jenkins High School
Pittston, Pa.
"Stella"

Stella is loved by all who know her. No one ever meets her who doesn't remember her. It's not only her brown eyes, but it's her wonderful disposition and her charming ways which attract. Stella is a true friend and a marvelous roommate. She is always ready to have a good time and enjoy life, especially when she receives a letter from some one at St. Bonaventure's.

Stella is a very great talker, too, but we like her all the more for it. We are sure she will use this talent very well in teaching, and we all wonder if it will be necessary for Stella to use a "triangle" in her class room.

Stella receives many letters from "my mother," or "my sister," as she says, but we doubt the source.

We hope after you leave Bloomsburg you will be loved as well as we love you, of which we have no doubt. May you be successful in your future work.

RUTH FORCE
Benton Vocational High
Benton, Pa.
"Ruth"

Ruth comes to us from that "wonderful city of Benton. Although she was out of school for one whole year she has not forgotten how to study intelligently the many difficult studies she claims she meets at B. S. N. S. One of Ruth's favorite expressions is "I'se never knows anything no matter how many times I'se studies it." If this is true Ruth is certainly a good guesser for she usually has a brilliant answer ready for the questions she is asked.

Between her periods of worry over her lessons and her troubles—for she says she has many—she has time to be a very pleasant companion to all and because of this companionship we feel sure she will never lack friends.

We wish you well, Ruth, in whatever new undertaking you start and we hope those "worries and troubles" of yours will soon subside.

ARLINE H. FRANTZ
Dallas High School
Dallas, Pa.
"Arline"

"Don't do anything I wouldn't do," and "Don't take any wooden nickels," were Arline's favorite expressions. Of course every one can't appreciate it, but a few of us can.

If ever you are looking for some one to eat, drink and be merry with you, Arline is the one to call upon. She's a "Pep Meeting" all herself. That's why the "Third Floor Annex Gang" is never complete without her.

You couldn't talk to Arline long without hearing about her Wyoming Seminary days but she'll have to admit that the Jr. Prom in 1925 will provide memories to last for many a day. Thanks to "Fisher." N' est-cepas, Arline?

There is always a letter in Arline's box. If you happen to meet her after she has read "the Lewisburg letter" you will see a far away look in her eyes.

As a teacher Arline is a huge success and we know that her two years spent along that line will be a pleasure rather than a task. Here's wishing you success and happiness—be it in teaching or otherwise. Only don't forget that

"Early to bed, early to rise,
Makes a girl healthy, wealthy and wise."

FLORENCE FRIEDBERG
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Flo"

Florence is an extremely industrious young lady. Never does she go to a class without her lessons well prepared. A common expression often heard is, "Oh, 'Flo,' do you have that last assignment finished?" Of course, "Flo" has, and gladly shares it with others. A good sport and pal is she.

"Flo" is very fond of dancing, and it is said that she rarely misses a dance. "Flo" believes in the motto that all work and no play makes "Flo" a dull girl. Therefore, she lives up to it to the last degree.

"Flo," do you remember on two occasions you wrote compositions for Mr. Black's class? Only a joke, but you are the kind that can take a joke.

The best of success to you, "Flo," is the wish of all your friends.

ELLA C. FRIEDLY
Benton Vocational School
Benton, Pa.
"Ella"

One's first idea of this girl is that she is a very quiet person but on furthering her acquaintance they will find that she is very lively, indeed, as many from the locker room have found out.

Ella is a commuter and arrives on the B. & S. every day at 7 a. m.

She is a graduate of the Benton Vocational School and although not very much interested in Domestic Science now, from all appearances she will some time take more interest in it.

Ella, we wish you success in whatever you may do in the years to come.

DOROTHY FRIEDMAN
Luzerne High School
Luzerne, Pa.
"Dot"

A shy little maiden was "Dot" when she came to Normal School as a Junior, but two years of school life has greatly changed her. Nevertheless she is still shy of cats and mice, and does not care for a black cat as her bed fellow. We have heard that Dorothy would rather be called "Dot" than "Lefty"—ask Dodo, he knows. Men aren't a topic that "Dot" discusses very often but we wonder who sent her the drawings that are displayed in her room. When it comes to being a good sport Dorothy is always there. One will always find her as a real friend. "Dot" is a willing and earnest worker as a member of the Y. W. C. A., and can always be found on some committee doing her share. The "Alpha Delta Zeta's" have a loyal sister as recording secretary when they chose "Dot" to fill the office.

In the years that are to come we, the class of '26, wish "Dot" the best success and happiness.

CLOREA FRITZ
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Clo"

"Still water runs deep." You can prove this saying if you know "Clo." Although she appears to be a very quiet girl, she can certainly make things hum once she is started.

She has a fine disposition and always has a smile for any one who comes along her way.

"Clo" is one of our commuters and can often be seen traveling up over the hill to school.

Did you say industrious? If you have any doubt about assignments, go to Clorea. She always knows. No bit of instruction conveyed in the classroom ever escapes her hearing and her tasks are always well done.

Success to you in your teaching, Clorea.

HARRIETT FRY
Shamokin High School
Shamokin, Pa.
"Harry"

"No-o-o, don't touch my hair" is Harriett's favorite war cry. Now don't think "Harry" is a pugilist, she isn't exactly. Instead she is a futurist, foretelling fortunes. This is her chief hobby. As a soothsayer, she certainly has some line.

This little dark-eyed girl is a hearty supporter of both the Glee Club and the Uke Club. It seems she has a natural bend for strumming the Uke.

When "Harry" dislikes a thing, she fairly hates it; for instance, Fridays. Oh, how she detests them, first its get sheets, then clean, go to fifty different classes and chapel. That's enough to make anybody hate a day. However, Harriett likes some things as ardently as she hates Fridays. Now for one thing let us think of carnations. Every Sunday night Harriett wears one or more of these sweet flowers.

May the clouds in your future be a bright and happy one, Harriet, just as your eyes are.

THELMA M. FULLER
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyncn, Pa.
"Fuller"

No, Thelma doesn't room up in the dorm, although she can usually be found there, especially when somebody needs a haircut. She has a standing invitation to the room of any Senior who has had the pleasure of being in any class with her.

Thelma's supply of jokes and stories is inexhaustible. Even if you did hear them many times before, she can tell them in a new way and make you enjoy them.

Some people are gifted with the art of not only speaking with their mouths, but also speaking through their facial expression. Thelma is one of these lucky persons. Her flashing eyes and the tilt of her head, aid in this mode of expression.

You are a classmate of Thelma's but a short time before you can readily appreciate the keen mind this girl possesses. It can never be said of Thelma, that she does not participate wholeheartedly in all class room work.

If Thelma is loved and appreciated in the outside world as much as she has been loved and appreciated during her stay at Normal, she cannot help but be a success, in whatever career she chooses.

MAE GABLE
Tower City High School
Tower City, Pa.
"Mickey"

"No, she is not as quiet and prim as she looks"—not when she once gets started. Full of life, pep and vim, and game for anything from an all-night party to a game of Mah-Jongg. She is the "life of the party" as far as the "S. I. K." is concerned as well as its President.

"Third Floor Annex" all know "Mickey" and 360—and, oh yes, her famous guitar. Many are the solos she has rendered for spell-bound audiences.

In fact her three main talents all begin with M—Music, Math., and Men—or should I say "Man"? Judging from the number of times a certain "Bill" is mentioned in 360, we would answer "Yes." "Mickey" is peculiar in that, unlike the rest of us, she does not object to "Bills."

We have our suspicions as to how long you will teach, but we wish you success and happiness in whatever field you choose.

MAGDALENE GALGANOVICZ
Hazle Township High School
West Hazleton, Pa.

Magdalene is a true example of that well-known proverb, "Still waters run deep." She is one of the very quietest girls at B. S. N. S. and is more interested in her studies than in any other phase of her school life. Magdalene is such a model young lady that if she were guilty of one little piccadillo the strong foundations of the worthy institution of B. S. N. S. would crumble to dust. She is a very diligent and keenly interested in her numerous studies but there is one subject of which Magdalene will always have painful reminiscences. This undesirable subject is mathematics.

Our Normal may well be proud of its work when it turns out such a finished and accomplished teacher as Magdalene is destined to become. We feel confident that the children entrusted to her care will receive a careful and thorough education.

We wish Magdalene the greatest success and happiness that can be attained in her career.

MARY A. GALLAGHER
St. Vincent's High School
Plymouth, Pa.

Here is another one of our girls whose appearance denotes modesty and quietness, but we find appearances deceiving because Mary is generally present when we have fun on third floor. She is quiet—yes—but in a group of merrymakers she is sure to do her part.

Mary is very conscientious especially when she is proctor. She always polices the halls until every one is very, very quiet and asleep. Is that nice, Mary?

Mary has only one worry and that is her roommate's behavior. One of her favorite sayings is "Oh Sweeney!" She is a very popular young lady as you can see by her mail box.

What is pie without filling and what is Mary without her nightly visit to Reilly's for chocolate cake and peanuts? This was one of her famous past-times.

We all have our ambitions and Mary's chief one is to become an efficient teacher and we have no doubt that her ambition will be fulfilled.

JOSEPHINE M. GAVEY
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Jo" "Gavey"

"Gavey! Hello 'Gavey!' Come on, we are going!" was one mark of distinction this little maiden had. She was one of the famous Newport Gang, and room 458, fourth floor annex, was never without the sweet melody of her voice, mingled together with the other members of her "Gang."

If only the walls could speak, they would have a fine time relating all the experiences in that room.

One of "Jo's" past-times was steaming her hair. We wondered for whom this took place?

We shall never forget the surprise party which was held in her room in our Junior year. Toasts and speeches were numerous. The gang, together with "Jo," assured the attendants a very good time according to Miss Munroe's report. She was one of the very many who attended.

Loads of success, love, and happiness and all that goes with it we wish you, Josephine.

PEARLE GEARHART
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.

Pearle's motto is "Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you." Her favorite occupations are reading and laughing. Pearle surely is a friend worth having. She is kind and has a great deal of sympathy for every one. When in trouble seek Pearle and she will surely cheer you up.

Ask Pearle what is the big attraction for going home every week-end? Of course, she will say to get away from the monotony of school life, but we do not have to accept this; we can draw our own conclusions.

However I am sure everyone is glad to claim Pearle as a friend and school-mate while at B. S. N. S.

RAYMOND GETZ
Millville High School
Millville, Pa.
"Getzie"

"Getzie" hailed from that illustrious town of Millville. He joined our class in the Senior year, having spent some time in this institution in previous years. "Getzie" is one of our jolliest classmates and hash slingers. Although he has a serious look about his face, if there is anything of innocent fun, he is sure to be in it for all he is worth.

"Getzie" seemed to take no interest in the fairer sex but we are inclined to believe that he is interested in some one at home. He is also gifted with the power of oratory, especially when serving as chairman of certain committees. Don't forget the "B. D. C." Getz.

No man is without faults, so a secret must be revealed. "Getzie" is very fond of cookies and apples and he tried very hard to keep a supply of them on hand.

But, there are moments when the best of friends must part, when the long-loved ties must be torn asunder, and the words of parting unwillingly uttered. Such are these moments, but even though we will miss "Getzie's" smiling countenance, yet we can rejoice in the memories of our school days at old Bloom. Success to you, "Getzie."

RUTH J. GILL
Blakely High School
Blakely, Pa.
"Ruther"

Happy, carefree, lively, and optimistic—just a few of the words that describe her; sorrowful, angry, quiet, and pessimistic—just a few that don't. Ruth is a lassie, tall and dark, with one of those happy dispositions that are so rare in such a busy world. Is it any wonder we are proud of her?

Sometimes we worry over the effects of over-study upon certain people, but in Ruth's case such worry is quite unnecessary. Of course she studies but—what we mean is that there are other things more agreeable to her—for instance, eating. Poor Ruth is always starved and she'd walk a mile for a sandwich. If you don't believe us, ask the Y. W. what kind of customer Ruth is.

Now, Ruth, despite the facts that you are not "study crazy" and are always hungry, we love you. We are sure you'll be a teacher, successful and worthy of the love your young pupils will have for you, and we all join in wishing you success and happiness in everything you may attempt.

ANN GOGOLACH
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Ann"

Ann came into our midst a shy, demure little girl, but after a year had elapsed she was completely transformed. She is now noted for her good nature and certainly enlivens things with her ready giggle.

We wonder why Ann always has a great deal of trouble keeping her pretty yellow handkerchiefs??—and who she brings the pickles from home for??—ask her "roomie."

Ann is also an active member of "that famous orchestra" which meets every once in a while in room 280.

Ever since she has had her fortune told she has changed her attitude toward life—we wonder why.

We can easily say that Ann will never again trust her raven tresses to the "unskilled"??

Ann has assured us that teaching will be her life profession but one can never tell what the future will hold for her. Anyway we wish you luck in what ever it may be.

A. HELEN GOULDEN
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Goulden"

"A girl who is witty,
A girl who is true,
The bunch without "Goulden"
Would always be blue."

If some day you should happen to cross the street in front of an approaching car you might hear a cheerful voice behind you say, "Are you tired of life?" Then turning around you would behold a tall girl with straight blond hair and with a smile on her face which makes you want to know her better—this would be our "Goulden."

When you know her better your first discovery will be her possession of a never-ending supply of wit and humor.

Every day you will learn something new about "Goulden." She will tell you she is a "man-hater" but—she may some day slip a certain story about her father winding a clock as a gentle reminder to a certain young member of the opposite sex.

As a final tribute to our "Goulden" we can say—

"To know her is to love her—and we surely knew her well."

HAZEL GRAHAM
Technical High School
Peckville, Pa.
"Shorty"

She may be small but as they say "good things come in small packages" so "Shorty" is one of the little girls who comes from the unknown town, Peckville.

She has a personality that has won for her many friends and is loved by all who know her as a true and faithful friend. She has always been a diligent, earnest student as well as a jolly companion.

As to her career, we are not at all well posted. Oh! yes, she intends to teach for some time, but we fear, according to some letters that she has received recently, that she will not make it a prolonged experience.

Did you mention eats—well, Hazel is always at hand when there is a feed. But how generously she has supplied us with eats, too. We shall never forget them.

We will always remember her as a good sport, a true friend and a pal to everyone.

MARIE GRIER
Pittston High School
Pittston, Pa.
"Marie"

It is quite impossible in such a short sketch as this is to do anything like justice to many of our excellent classmates, and Marie is among the first people on this list.

Marie is an industrious girl and a very good student. However, she does not spend all of her time on her books, and can enjoy a good time just as much as any of us. She never misses a trick, and many times she has taken the blame for things that she knew nothing (???) about.

As a teacher, Marie has met with a great deal of success in the training school, and we all feel certain that she will be even more successful when she enters the teaching world. "How long will Marie's career as a teacher last?"—I hear someone asking. I really cannot answer that question, as Marie has kept us all guessing.

Well, anyhow, Marie whether your choice shall be to settle down in a home of your own on the "sandy" streets of Pittston, or to make teaching your "life" profession, you have the best wishes of your classmates for success and happiness.

BESSIE GROSSMAN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Bess"

"Don't bite the hand that feeds you" is good advice. We followed it and as a result, "Bess's" room was usually converted into a veritable cafeteria. Many a "thin school marm" would have been graduated from B. S. N. S. had it not been for room 460 to which we went time and again to appease those pangs of hunger to which all are subject at some time or other.

Now a question arises in my mind. "Bess" called often on a well-known Bloomsburg family. Contrary to the custom of most people, she went when the son was in, rather than out. It seemed to agree with her, for she always returned from her visit feeling fine and looking the same. "Son" is a cure for many things.

Stodious, eager to help, full of pep, always ready to laugh, a good sport and last, but not least—an honest-to-goodness friend. All these and more was "Bess." Not was, but is, and always will be.

We wish you health, wealth, happiness and luck. What more could we wish you?

IRENE B. GUFFROVITCH
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Irene"

Crash! Bing! Bang! Irene is in the room. We are all aware of her presence. Wherever Irene is you can usually hear a strain of some popular piece of music. Yes, Irene is quite a singer. Besides, singing, she dances too.

Irene is noted among the "400" gang for putting on the one-act plays. Irene usually features herself as the vampire. She carries off her part well, with the aid of some of the other members.

Sports seem to be of great interest to her, especially, football. I wonder why? But then, Irene is a jolly companion and a good sport.

Although she is often seen out for the fun of things she does have some serious thoughts. Teaching is her uppermost one, now. However, we are quite sure that she will be a success since she has everything for making one.

We wish you luck, Irene.

RAY HAGENBUCH
Center High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Ray"

"Ray" is an out-of-town student and whenever we hear his Ford rattling up the hill, we can easily tell it. The reason for this is that his Ford has a particular rattle. The rattle of his Ford is distinctly known by a number of female voices of the student body. Do not mistake me because he does not drive a Jitney. There is a reason for everything and we wonder what his reason may be.

Ray is always ready for a good time and we are sure he has had many of them when he has been with us. He is the type of person who can liven up any party and as you see his presence was greatly appreciated.

The Rural Group has the honor of his membership while he is also a member of the B. S. N. S. Symphony Orchestra and the Basketball Reserves.

He intends to teach in the rural schools of Pennsylvania but we are not sure as to whether he will carry out these plans, because he has a musical inclination. We wish him heaps of luck and success.

PEARL HAGENBUCH
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Pearl"

It will do you no good to go hunting for Pearls in Bloomsburg, for someone has already hunted and has found this one. How about it, Pearl?

She is one of our commuters and can often be seen hurrying and puffing up the hill at about five minutes to eight. However, she always manages to land in her seat number in Efficiency class by the time the bell has rung.

This does not mean that Pearl is actually slow for she is not. She is one of our industrious girls who succeeds in everything she attempts.

Pearl says she is going to be an artist and I think that there is no doubt that she will succeed.

Whatever your future work will be, we wish you the best of success.

MARY ELLEN HARKINS
Hazel Township High School
Harleigh, Pa.
"Nellie"

Judging "Nellie," as she is most commonly called, from her placid and serene countenance one is led to conclude that she is a very quiet and calm young person. Quite the contrary is the fact. "Nellie" is gifted with an overwhelming and overflowing sense of Irish wit and humor.

She is one of the busiest persons at the B. S. N. S. "Nellie" spends one-half of her time thinking of home and wishing she was there. The rest of her time is spent in assiduously marking off the dates of the days on the calendar trying to spur old Father Time a little further on in his slow travels.

"Nellie's" great ambition is yet to be realized. She is imbued with the adventurous spirit to travel and see the world. "Nellie" keenly feels that her education is incomplete until she broadens her intellect by actual traveling. May she achieve her desire and all the success and happiness that goes in realizing one's ambition.

GRACE E. HARLOS
Dorranceton High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Grace"

"I'm so sleepy—and yet I have just 'oodles' of work to do!" Yes, that's our Grace. Ah, I got a letter, comes floating down the hall, and her face is wreathed with smiles. We are sorry to hear that he isn't nearer to B. S. N. S. if that is the way it affects you.

Grace takes considerable interest in school activities. This year she is our class reporter on the Maroon and Gold. She is fully prepared for this responsibility, because she is specializing in English. If your name doesn't appear in print it's her fault, if it does it's her fault anyway, so you see what sort of a person she is.

Last year Grace was particularly interested in tennis and football, but this year she is interested in learning to play cards. Of course there's a reason—but it is for you to fathom.

Grace has spent three years within the portals of Old Normal. So you see it isn't necessary to say any more about her, for she is well known and liked by all of us. The best of luck, Grace, in the years to come.

EDISON D. HARRIS
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Ed"

"Ed" hails from that well known town of Edwardsville. His popularity among the students has been won by his leadership, personality and his ability to sing. "Ed" takes an active part in all of his school activities. He was Manager of the Football team, Editor-in-Chief of the "Obiter," until his sudden departure, a member of the Double Quartette, Editor of the Maroon and Gold and one of the most industrious students which the Normal School ever has had.

When the Double Quartette shines, "Ed" shines. He is Miss Perner's "right hand man." Frequently during the day we can hear "Ed" singing some very melodious songs. From the type of songs he sings we wonder to whom they are dedicated—maybe she is at Normal.

When we think of the vaudeville, the fight for better cats, and the school paper, we think of "Ed." "Ed" has ambitions of pursuing his vocal culture. We all wish you success and trust that we may hear of you in the near future. Good luck to you, "Ed."

MARTHA HARRIS
Center High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Martha"

"If you don't believe Martha is good natured just look at her picture. Can't you see her laughing with her eyes? Of course you can and we who were with her every day know that she is always jolly and full of fun.

Martha is a commuter and usually rides in a Ford. I guess that is why she is so happy. If she feels bad when she leaves home, her troubles are forgotten when she reaches here.

Usually we see Martha and "Peg" Zettle together. They seem to be an inseparable pair, and always have the best of times. You can imagine.

What will Martha do? Oh! yes, we know she is training for a teacher but not every one sticks to his profession. However, we know she will have good discipline in her school-room as long as she teaches, for she is an orderly little person. Martha, we want to see you succeed.

ELIZABETH HARTMAN
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Betty"

Elizabeth is not under "dorm" rules and regulations for the simple reason that she is one of our town belles. Bloomsburg is her home.

Dark, chic, attractive and most popular with—there, we wouldn't tell tales out of school for the world.

"Beth" is a faithful member of the Methodist choir. Her excellent voice entitles her to that place. Every Sunday, rain or shine, will see her standing in her place beside Mrs. Ent.

She is a good student as well as a good singer. Bloomsburg will be mighty proud of her some day.

Always jolly, she is a good pal and a wonderful friend. She will never be lacking in friends—of that we are sure.

Concerts, lectures, and social functions always find Elizabeth present. She is devotedly loyal to B. S. N. S.

We know of one "old-maid" school teacher that will never be. Our hearty good wishes for every success go with you, Elizabeth, in whatever you undertake.

ARLINE HARTWIGEN
Ashley High School
Ashley, Pa.

Arline might appear quiet and sedate but if "you knew Susie like I know Susie."—!

Arline did give us that impression when we first met her in our Senior year at B. S. N. S. but when we became better acquainted with her we found a girl whose pretty brown eyes twinkle not merely for decoration but from an inherent love of pure mischief which would stay bottled up within her for just a certain time and then pop! the cork would blow off and someone would wonder why the cookput so much salt in the cocoa or what made the bed feel so "lumpy," or why the bed clothes clung so tightly to each other—it really appeared that they were sewed together.

She is a combination of many desirable things—sound intelligence, originality, initiative, humor, and good-fellowship.

With such a repertoire of fine qualities we cannot but feel sure that she will be successful in teaching or in any other profession she may later choose. Heaps of luck to you, Arline.

EVELYN HAUPT
Tracksville High School
Tracksville, Pa.
"Ed"

Evelyn likes the proverb "Little girls should be heard and not seen." She is quiet only when she is sleeping. She never lets her work worry her. Eating and dancing are what she likes to do most and best.

She joined the "Shortess Gang" this year but we haven't found the reason why. She is a good sport, and puts life and pep into a crowd.

If you become ill call on Evelyn, because she has great faith in "Herbs."

She has chosen to be a primary teacher, but we think she should have been an acrobat. She can very cleverly stumble over rugs, pails, pins and almost anything. When we count the letters that come from Tracksville, we doubt very much whether she will be a school teacher very many years.

We all wish you success and happiness in the future, Evelyn.

RUTH P. HAUPT
Frackville High School
Frackville, Pa.
"Ruthie"

Brown wavy hair, brown eyes alert, small trim figure and "Ruthie" stands out before you.

"Ruthie's" favorite pastime is dancing and men—mostly men. She is always ready and she may be counted upon to help others in trouble.

As a teacher "Ruthie" is a success and her personality is such that everyone is attracted to her.

"Ruthie" is usually calm and very self-possessed but when anyone crosses her—beware!

On Sunday's "Ruthie" may be found in the hall entertaining a certain party—Ruthie and the certain party were honorary members of the Long Hall Gang—enuff!

"Ruthie" has made many friends in the dorm and we are sure that she will make many more as she goes out in life. Although we doubt that she will teach long we wish her the best of luck throughout her whole life.

MILDRED HAUSCH
Wilkes-Barre High School
Laketon, Pa.
"Mil"

On a wonderful September day, Mildred started her Normal life. She tells us that she had been in Bloomsburg a few times; but we can bet with safety that she knows more about Bloomsburg now than before. It is a pretty good place; isn't it Milly? Just look who lives here.

Mildred is one of our athletically inclined girls. When basketball was mentioned she was all alert for we all know Mildred played forward and was quite capable of holding that position. And hockey—oh well—just ask Mildred about her adventures.

Nor does she take a back seat when it comes to the opposite sex. Let's not stop to count for we probably would run out of numbers. Mildred backs the saying "The friend in need is a friend indeed." Those blue eyes of yours were not meant to be valueless and—maybe they don't count.

Any way the class of 1926 wish you luck in whatever you undertake.

ALETHA HEADMAN
Lehman High School
Dallas, Pa.
"Headman"

Aletha came to us very meek and mild. She was so quiet no one knew that she was around. She spent her first few weeks in hard study.

But now, did you say quiet? Well, I guess not! She is an all around good sport and is always ready to help everyone.

Did Aletha like to get mail? Yes, if from (?). She has a peculiar weakness for the name "Ed." That's all right, Aletha, stick to your old "Pal."

"Eats" attracted Aletha. Was she ever at a feed? Ask her roomie. "Ke-Wad-In" was a real lively place for feeds.

Aletha took an active part in the Girls' Glee Club and also showed her musical ability in "Patt's" class.

Were all her week-ends spent at Normal? I should say not. Just ask her about her Northumberland trips.

We wonder why Aletha liked summer school so well. Ask the rest of the "gang."

We sure wish you success, whether you teach or (?).

LUCILLE HENRY
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Lucille"

The famous saying "You cannot judge a book by its cover" is true in the case of Lucille. Behind those hazel eyes lies a great deal of mischief. Always smiling, a good sport, and a peach of a girl is our Lucille, and whenever eats are to be served, she never leaves any of us out.

Her awakening thought is—will I get any mail today? She is very seldom disappointed for she is one of the truest pals we know and we know that others think the same way about it.

She doesn't speak so very much of the opposite sex but we have no doubt that her contribution to the State Teachers' Retirement Fund will be quite small. We would all like to meet the "John" we hear so much about. How about bringing him down, Lucille?

However, Lucille is very studious. This along with her ever sunny disposition will certainly result in her success and happiness.

LOUISE HIDLAY
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.

So this is a Bloomsburg girl. Straight from downtown she is.

You know appearances are deceiving. We thought we knew Louise in our Junior year, but we had to wait until our Senior year to discover Louise and her other self.

Now Louise's hobby is athletics, and once the tennis courts are in shape you can see her there any spare moment she may have, and she usually wins too.

"Life is too short to spend it at hard labor," is her motto, but in spite of this she often gets absent-minded and studies her lesson. She is a fond lover of fun and enjoys dancing like the rest of us.

We know Louise rather expects to teach, but expectations do not always come true, especially in the face of such circumstantial evidence. Nevertheless, Louise, we wish you a whole world of success in your teaching career.

MILDRED HIGGINS
Wilkes-Barre High School
Dallas, Pa.
"Milly"

When "Milly" first came to us as a Junior we all thought her to be very quiet and sedate, but now since we know her we think quite differently. She is no longer the "prim Miss Higgins," but a "smiling, good-natured 'Milly'." She is very much interested in her school subjects, but her greatest interest is centered in church activities. She loves to read "The Little Minister." We wonder why.

She is always ready and willing to do anything she can to make every one happy, and whenever anyone wants anything done, they always rush to her, for she never says, "If you want a thing done do it yourself."

We are very sure that "Milly" will make a splendid teacher, for those big blue eyes of hers look with loving interest upon all the children. Her aim is to go on to College in a few years. All right, "Milly," best of luck to you in all your undertakings! We feel confident of your success.

FANNIE H. HILBERT
Dorranceton High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Pat"

MIRIAM HIPPENSTIEL
Orangeville Vocational High School
Orangeville, Pa.
"Hippy"

Fannie, most commonly known as "Pat," came to us from Kingston. We are very glad that "Pat" decided to come to B. S. N. S., for we found that she was very sociable and a friend to all.

Whenever we see "Pat" we are sure to find her busy at some school work or other. She is cheery and gives everyone a smile when she meets them. She has made many friendships here by her pleasing personality and joyous spirit. We know "Pat" through her affiliations with the Y. W., Dramatic Club, Glee Club and the Maroon and Gold.

You should see how "Pat's" face brightens up when the mail comes in and you announce to her "A letter from Boston." Her favorite pastime is writing letters to Boston, and we know she is especially fond of Boston Baked Beans, Boston Cream Pie, and many Boston products.

We think "Pat" will get a Massachusetts State Diploma rather than a Pennsylvania one if the present plans work out.

But here is the best of luck to you "Pat," when you enter the teaching world.

"Hippy" is one of the prettiest and liveliest girls in the Rural class. She is a member of the Group and is always ready with her share of work. Although she is studious, she is always ready for a good time. No one feels sad when she is around.

She is a commuter and has made many friends on her travels as well as at Normal. Among them is a little Junior who carefully guards her coming and going train.

Our "Hippy" is a lightweight champion at Basketball. When she plays, the ball just seems to roll from her hands into the basket every time. Naturally she's a good one to have in a game.

Along with these good qualities, we know, she'll make a good housekeeper for someone, as well as a teacher. We wish her success and happiness in whatever she undertakes.

MARY HOCHBERG
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Mary" "Wee-Wee"

Here's another one of our Hazletonians and she's a good representative of our fine city. Jolly is no name for Mary—ask anyone on fourth floor annex. Mary is an excellent entertainer too. Many of the girls come over to 454 to spend a pleasant hour listening to Mary tell their fortunes. According to the number of compliments she has received, we wonder that she hasn't hung out a shingle.

Whenever you see Mary, she will greet you with a smile and when it came to talking, Mary was never missing.

Mary intends to teach intermediate grades but according to the mail she receives we wonder how far her good intentions will go.

With her pleasant ways we know that Mary will be a success in all she undertakes. Here's to your success, Mary!

ALICE HOLCOMBE
Dushore High School
Dushore, Pa.
"Alice"

If you've ever seen a tall, dark, exceptionally cheerful girl with a dozen books under her arm, parading through the hall of the training school, you'll know you've seen our Alice. Alice is a studious lassie, and with all her trials or troubles we never saw her lose her smile and her sweet disposition. Oh, no, Alice doesn't study all the time. She just loves to dance and whenever dancing is mentioned, she is right there. She surely is a whizz at it. Look the crowd over at the "gym" every night and if she isn't there, you'll know something is radically wrong. We all love our Alice, and although we feel sure she'll make the best school teacher in the world, we doubt whether she'll teach so very, very long. How about it, Alice? Here's good luck to you from your B. S. N. S. friends where ever you roam or whatever you do.

MARY H. HOOVER
Duryea High School
Duryea, Pa.
"Molly"

"Molly" looks like a sweet and quiet lassie and if you do not take her too seriously, she is. She is very quiet among strangers but when she is with her friends, it is quite a different story.

Mary is the kind of a girl who doesn't study too hard, but yet always has her work done. Then when work is o'er and it's time for play she's anything but quiet. Haven't you ever heard her characteristic giggle? If you haven't, you don't know her very well and if you have you will understand why her middle name isn't "Silence."

You would never think Mary would let men bother her in the least, would you? Yet looks are deceiving. After we have returned to old Normal after a pleasant vacation and we are discussing the good times we've had, our conversation is never complete without Mary's "Oh, boy, last Sunday night at this time." She never says much more but that's enuf to assure us she isn't a man hater.

Best wishes for success from your friends at B. S. N. S.

EMILY HUTTON
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Em"

"Em" is one of our very best athletes. She excels especially in tennis, having won several banana splits by her ability in that sport. She is also an excellent swimmer and skater and likes to play basketball. We have heard from close friends that "Em" is also good at arguing, that is, among friends. We have never heard Emily debating on a public platform.

Some people that have either ridden with Emily or have seen her drive think she may compete some day for the national championship. That may happen if she becomes more reckless than usual. But Emily is quite determined and she will eventually win in the end. We have not told you yet of Emily's most treasured accomplishment. She can sing like a nightingale on a moonlight night, and if you doubt this, just ask any one who is in her music class.

With all these talents "Em" is sure to succeed after leaving her Alma Mater.

BERYL IKELER
Orangeville Vocational High School
Mt. Pleasant, Pa.
"Beryl"

Beryl started with us our first semester alone, but became so lonely without her sister that she brought the sister with her and we enjoyed the companionship of both. Beryl seemed to be herself then. However we started the third semester without the sister although we have Beryl.

You may think Beryl is quiet but just give her a chance and she can hold her own with any one. Who likes a joke better than Beryl and who finds keener enjoyment from playing a joke than Beryl?

Beryl sure is a good entertainer and how many of the Rural Club wouldn't like to go over to Beryl's for a Sleigh Ride again?

Good luck from the class of '26.

MARGARET R. ISAACS
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Peg"

"Peg" is one of our little girls with a big heart. If you want a favor done, go to her, and if there is any way in which she can help you, you can be sure of the help.

Do you notice that smile on her photo? That is just one of her winning possessions. She is our Glee Club secretary and a member of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority. "Peg" is a wonderful sport and is always ready for anything that promises to be fun.

She has chosen teaching as her profession—and is said to be a shy maid but beware—those eyes were made to love and admire women alone.

Keeping these qualities and many unmentioned ones in mind, we hope for and predict nothing less than an ideal future for our "Peg."

ARTHUR JENKINS
Newport Township High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Jinx"

When "Jinx" entered this institution he carved a figure worthy of much respect and admiration. His personality won a place in the hearts of every student and he was elected president of the class in the Junior year.

Soon we met him on the athletic field. During his three year stay his athletic ability brought him fame as he was a four sport man. During his second year his ability on the basketball court coupled with his manly ideals brought about his being elected captain of the team of '26. With "Jinx" as captain we put out one of the best teams ever entering a B. S. N. S. Court.

At the beginning of the third year when we were selecting a President of the Senior Class we knew of no one any better than "Jinx." Carrying this task on his manly shoulders, he made the name of the class of '26 ring out among the ages. He was also a member of the Male Octette.

With all this work he still found time to loiter about the halls in the presence of some of the fairer sex.

We know, "Jinx," that when anyone goes out in life there is always a task awaiting him and we are certain that such obstacles you can very easily remove.

GORDON JOHNS
Coal Township High School
Shamokin, Pa.
"Gordy"

His full name is Gordon Percy. We like "Gordy," however, and that is all he gets besides "Johns." Now Johns is a very nice fellow. You just can't help it. He is so frank and open—almost of an explosive like nature. And it doesn't make any difference whether he is playing football, chewing tobacco, waiting on tables, or talking to girls, he is the same "Gordy." You can't change him. He makes himself at home and that's all there is to it.

Johns was a candidate for football during his three years stay at Normal and his worth was appreciated. He also goes in for baseball every spring. He has shown so much improvement in the latter sport that it is said he will easily make a position on the team this year (or on the long seat). Now this year he has come out for basketball and he is now classed among the three letter men.

Perhaps you have an idea that "Gordy" is not studious? If so we can advance an argument strong in his favor. When the multitudes were going after arm-chair electives in their second year, "Gordy" chose Biology for six hours a week and that is saying something.

MILDRED JOHNSON
Avoca High School
Avoca, Pa.
"Milly"

"Milly" is one of those girls whose friendship we all wish to hold. Her loving disposition and kind heartedness are just a part of her very charming personality. She is an all around good sport and pal. Just one look at "Milly" and you can decide for yourself that she is full of pep and fun.

"Milly" is always ready to have a good time and is a live wire if there is anything going on. Behind those brown eyes there is an unending story of mischief which crops out about every so often.

As for the opposite sex, she doesn't say much, but we often wondered why she wrote so many letters to "Port-Griffith." She said she had an uncle living there, but never mind we promised not to tell. But, "Milly," we are still wondering why you stopped reading "Quo Vadis." Perhaps you can answer that one for us.

"Milly" has a great many friends which makes her a welcome guest no matter where she goes. May the best wishes from the class of '26 follow you "Milly."

JAMES JONES
Dorranceton High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Jimmie"

"Jimmie" is one of the bunch and is undoubtedly a leader. His pleasing personality and his winning ways have won many friends for him. He is one fellow who is very frank and is not afraid to state his opinion. He has a wonderful memory and can recall occasions to very minute detail (remember the B. D. C. meeting).

His room acted as a Forum for the fellows of North Hall and after every athletic game a post mortem was held in his room. At the sessions many questions of vital importance were brought up. Ask him about them.

Does "Jimmie" like girls? Why certainly, but there is one in whom he is very much interested. We won't mention her name though, "Jimmie." "Jimmie" has a very good choice of friends. You would find this out if you ever attended a session held in his room.

During his stay at Normal he has proved to be very worthy of recognition on the athletic field. He was manager of Baseball last year and his team only lost three games all season and won eight. He was also a member of our Track Team.

Here's wishing you all the success in the world, "Jimmie."

LETHA M. JONES
Noxen High School
Noxen, Pa.
"Lee"

If you feel the sides of the dorm bulging in or the halls resounding after "ten bells" you know it is Letha's musical sneeze. Again she is the S. I. K. comedian and nightingale. Her famous song is "Let Me Call You Sweet-heart."

We're not sure but we think Letha has mistaken her profession. We just know she will turn out to be a manicurist as she is so handy in managing "Emery" (sticks).

As an entertainer, Letha simply can't be beat. Ask any of her classmates or teachers and they certainly can give you some inside dope on our "Lee." If anyone has the blues, the best cure is to spend awhile in Letha's room and presence.

There is no question about Letha's success as a primary teacher.

"Lee's" ability as a student and her sunny disposition will surely result in her happiness and success. Here's wishing the best of everything for your future.

WILLIAM B. JONES
Wilkes-Barre High School
Lafin, Pa.
"Billy"

Here is one of our jolly fellows from North Hall and anyone not finding him in his room will hear his laugh around second floor.

He has distinguished himself among his classmates and was chosen President of the Rural Group. Under his administration many things have been put across among which is "the organizing of a Circulatory Library for Rural Schools."

Yes! "Billy" was a charter member of the Hash Slingers Union. His superb ability as a hash slinger was soon recognized by the Dietitian and he was promoted to the position as dish washer.

"Billy" is also a violinist in the B. S. N. S. Orchestra, where he has greatly distinguished himself as a musician. He was also originator and leader of the B. D. C. Orchestra. He hopes some day to become a Music Supervisor.

Surely, fortune will smile on such an ambitious young fellow and he will accomplish his aim. The best wishes of the class of '26 go with you, "Billy."

JOE KANE
St. Mary's High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Joe"

As an all around student and worker Joe started out with us as a Junior. He can discuss with marvelous fluidity of speech any subject which may come up (ask Gallagher). Joe has proved to be one who never shirks when work is to be done but rather is always near with a helping hand.

Joe makes a visit up into the heart of the anthracite region quite frequently. We wonder why? Surely you are not trying to settle the coal strike, are you Joe? Probably, a certain member of the fairer sex who was at this school last year could tell us why.

Joe is quite an athlete, too. He has proven his worth on the football team last year when our team shined. His ability as a Baseball player was worthy of so much recognition that he was elected Captain of the team of '26.

We know that Joe will go out and be a very successful teacher. The best wishes of the class go with you, Joe.

JOHN KANYUCK
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Hook"

Here is a boy from Nanticoke and well did he uphold the name of Nanticoke. "Hook," as he is called, was a charter member of the Nanticoke Gang, which originated last year.

Hook's complex was popularity, because he would fit in anywhere. He could dance, sing, tell a funny story that was funny, and do a thousand and one things with his one hand that most of us could not do with two. He could even recite "The Shooting of Dan McGru" and many other poems so well that if the authors could hear him they would feel ashamed of taking the honor of writing them and would hand it over to "Hook."

On the dance floor he was an intricate stepper. He could do most any step that came along and wherever you saw him he was always trying a new one. We are certain that if he conquers obstacles in life as well as he has conquered a new dance step or a new trick, we will hear from him in a few years. May the best wishes of the class of '26 go with you.

D. LUCILLE KAUFMAN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Lucille"

A bundle of wit, energy, smiles and laughs. Lucille is one of the best girls in the dormitory. She is always happy and her merry disposition is really contagious for she has the knack of making those about her feel the same way. She was an active Athletic Leader, also President of the Glee Club for two years, on the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and a member of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority. A glance at that list of activities will bear out our statement that she has done a lot for our class.

She is always ready to do the task assigned to her and because she undertakes her work with a smile, she wins the esteem and help of her fellow workers.

She possesses enough foresight and will power to be successful in whatever she may undertake. Thus we feel sure her choice in life will be a good one. Already she is directing her footsteps along the right path.

Nevertheless we are doubtful whether teaching will be her calling for there seems to be frequent letters from—?

We wish her all possible success in her life's work, nor do we feel that we all are wishing in vain.

THEODORE KEEN
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Dud"

Of course we all know "Dud" and we can not help but like him. With his manly characteristics he has attained many heights since he entered this institution. He is a person who will succeed no matter what he undertakes in life. Full of determination—that's "Dud."

"Dud" has proven his worth to his Alma Mater in many ways. He is a member of the Double Quartette and many times we have heard his deep bass voice. He has also uplifted the school through athletics. He has played football and baseball three years and his ability was greatly appreciated.

Girls? Why sure "Dud" likes the opposite sex. Last year it was Isabel and this year it was ????—ask him, he knows. Being attractive and having a wonderful personality were the assets through which he gained many friends.

When you have chosen your life's profession, think back of the happy times you spent at B. S. N. S. and we are certain that you will have some inspirations. Good-by and good luck, "Dud."

HELEN J. KEHLER
Ashland High School
Ashland, Pa.
"Heck"

Here is "Heck," another member of the Cheery Eight and one of the best sports we know. She is loved by all and no one enjoys a good time better than she does.

Every now and then "Heck" rushes into the room to tell something real thrilling to the gang but it takes her so long to reach the climax that everyone leaves the room by the time she has finished the story. "Heck" believes that the longest way around the bush is the shortest way home.

"Heck" seems to have a mania for things that come in sacks. We wonder why. If you ever hear a fire whistle blowing during study hour, ask "Heck," she knows. When it comes to be good natured though, "Our Heck" can not be outdone. She is always ready to help someone.

Best of luck, "Heck" and may you achieve your aims successfully.

SARA KEITER
Millersburg High School
Millersburg, Pa.
"Sara"

Sara, another one of the Shortess Gang, just came to us this year. However, she has won many friends in this short time. She spends most of her time studying and looking for letters. She says men are the least of her troubles but we wonder why the attraction at State College.

Although Sara does not care to participate in Athletics she is always on the job at all games—even in the rain.

You may think Sara is quiet but then you don't really know her. Ask a certain Normal man. She has spent three years at Bloomsburg, during which time she was an earnest student in the study of "campustry." We wonder why? There is no doubt but what she will make a very successful teacher for she has already proven her ability.

Here's the wish of your classmates—success in your chosen profession.

HELEN KELLAM
Greene-Dreher Vocational School
Sterling, Pa.
"Helen"

Helen, one of our three year students, comes from the town which possesses many Sterling qualities. At last Helen has told us about the products that come from that place. His name we dare not mention here, but then she can give you the necessary information.

She was one of our hockey stars and is looking forward to the basketball season. By this bit of information you can gather that she is athletically inclined. You must not get the impression that Helen is not socially a favorite because she is a member of the Mu Phi Sigma. Helen shines in Education 631, where other lights are dim.

As a teacher she seems to be performing her duties remarkably well. When she will teach and how long she will teach are things which Old Father Time will have to decide for us.

The class of '26 wish you the best of luck, and may happiness be ever yours.

ELIZABETH KELLER
Orangeville High School
Orangeville, Pa.
"Betty"

"Betty" is a small girl but a good student, and is one of our Locker Room Gang. She hails from the city of Orangeville and travels to and from school on the B. & S. She is usually accompanied to and from the station by a friend who is in Group III. She appears to be very much interested in her work and we know she will be a success when she leaves us.

"Betty" has attained some winning ways and a pleasing personality which have won for her many friends since she first entered this institution. She is an earnest worker and is never known to enter a classroom unprepared.

She also drives an Overland car and she is a competent driver. She is a great mechanic and is very handy in working about a machine. When we see "Betty" in her Overland she is an inspiration to hurry out and buy a machine before they are all sold.

Here's wishing you all the success in the world, "Betty."

GENEVIEVE KELLEY
St. Cecelia High School
Exeter, Pa.
"Jen"

If it's a good sport you are looking for, you have one right here. Judging from appearances, one would think she is a quiet, shy girl but she is far from that. You can not always judge a book by its cover, and looks certainly are deceiving at times. A sweet girl always ready for a good time and always on the job is Genevieve.

Teaching as yet is Genevieve's confirmed vocation, and a more interesting and conscientious teacher than she would be hard to find. Besides this "Jen" has many avocations. She possesses much talent in the line of music. She is a fine violinist and is a member of B. S. N. S. Symphony Orchestra.

All of your classmates wish you luck and success as we know you are deserving of both.

MILDRED KELLY
Montoursville High School
Montoursville, Pa.
"Pudge"

"I chatter, chatter as I go."

Here is one bad failing and that's her weakness for pie. Oh me, Oh my, how she loves custard pie! We believe in this instance that Nature made a tragic mistake in fashioning her as a girl, for on the stage of life she would have made a much better "Little Jack Horner."

As a proctor, "Pudge" cannot be beat. It made no difference to this young lady how many hours she devoted to this serious business; in fact, she often substituted. Ah, she was faithful—yea—more than faithful—(writing letters).

She is a fine student of whom the class of '26 can be proud. Her abilities on the stage have been proven by her active part in the Dramatic Club. Her favorite pastimes are swimming and music (providing some one else does the singing).

Best of luck to you, "Pudge," in whatever the future brings to you.

MARGARET KILLIAN
West Pittston High School
West Pittston, Pa.
"Peg"

"Early to bed, early to rise,
Makes a man healthy, wealthy and
wise."

If you were to broach this maxim to "Peg," I am sure she would heartily disagree with it. She seems healthy, wealthy and wise in spite of the fact that late retiring and rising are as essential to her well-being as hibernation is to a bear. Give "Peg" and the bear equal chances by sleeping, and we are sure she would beat the bear by sleeping all winter and summer, too.

Now for a few of her numerous virtues. Loyalty, unselfishness, and humor are only a few of these. However, we must not omit that to be her friend we must be honored. As is often said—"To know her was to love her." As proof to this statement, we may refer you to Delaware Avenue, West Pittston. Doubtless you will wonder why we say Delaware Avenue? It is there that her "young uncle" resides. Somehow or other these "young uncles" are quite numerous and well liked.

As a send off we quote our teacher and friend commonly known as "Pat." "Teach only four years. Then do two things—specialize or get married."

We leave it to you to decide which course "Peg" will follow.

JOSIE KIMBLE
Clerks Summit High School
Clarks Green, Pa.
"Josie"

"Still water runs deep" and that's the case with our Josie. She doesn't talk much, but when she does it really counts. She is one of our honor students and we are proud of it.

Because of her artistic ability her suite friends call her "Venus." She is a big help to the art students of our school for whenever they want to know anything they come to Josie.

To her friends she is the best pal ever, and they'll never, never forget the good turns she has done them. Good natured! Did I hear you say it? Well, I guess.

She is bright, studious and energetic, but for all that, she is a light sleeper and sometimes wakes up in someone else's room about midnight.

If anyone deserves success Josie really does, and we all join in wishing her the best of luck in her kindergarten work and everything she attempts.

THALIA KITCHEN
Catawissa High School
Catawissa, Pa.

Dark, chic and popular is our Thalia—especially so with the male half of the world. Who is it we hear about so often? O, dear me, I mustn't tell; as it is a deep secret.

Thalia is one of our commuters. She not only commutes to school but to all of our concerts, lectures, and social functions. She is completely a part and parcel of us.

Although her name is Kitchen, she seems to be cut out for the school-room, but I wonder for how long. Perhaps it will be "kitchenette" instead of Kitchen.

If we are to judge Catawissa by the people who hail from there, then our decision is made presto. We would say it couldn't help but be a most lovely place.

Our good wishes go with you, Thalia, whether it be kitchen, kitchenette or schoolhouse.

MARGARET A. KRAFT
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Peggy"

"Peggy" looks to be a very quiet lass but, to those who know her, she is far from being quiet. She is right there when the fun begins.

"Peggy" is a very conscientious and industrious girl—always aiming to do her best work though it requires a great deal of time. But, we find her taking an active part in the school activities too. Thanks to "Peggy" for our splendid Y. W. C. A. meetings. She has worked faithfully as a member of the Cabinet. Then, too, she is an active member of the Glee Club.

There is no doubt that you will make a successful teacher, "Peggy," for your pleasing personality has won many friends for you.

The class of 1926 wishes you the best of joy and happiness in whatever the future has in store for you.

ANNA KRAUSER
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Anna"

Anna is a very conscientious, quiet, and modest little girl who came here in the fall of '24, having been graduated from the Nanticoke High School. Her pleasing personality has won for her many friends here at school. To know her is to love her.

Is she studious? Well, I should say she is. Her record here has proved it. Whenever you go into Anna's room, you will find her doing school work. You may always count on her having every lesson, for Anna wouldn't think of going to class otherwise.

Even though she does not take an active part in social activities of the school, she is always interested in and hoping for the successful outcome of everyone. It is never too much trouble for Anna to help anyone out. She is always on the job.

We know, Anna, you will be successful in your teaching and whatever follows. But wherever you go and whatever you do, do not forget your classmates.

MARY KUCHTA
Wilkes-Barre High School
Harvey's Lake, Pa.

A wonderful girl, a true friend, and a good sport is this Mary. She is a very studious girl, but with all her studiousness, she always finds plenty of time for fun. She never minds how many tricks Milly and Ellen play on her either. Just ask them about the night they sewed her bed shut! Did the proctor try to quiet them? Yes, but— Mary tries to make us believe that she doesn't like the boys, but she can't fool us. Why does she ride all the way to fourth floor and then back to third in the evenings when a certain young man is running the elevator? And why does she always sit at Ellen's table instead of with her roomie? There's a certain young man at Ellen's; that's why.

Mary has great musical ability and all the girls on third floor know by her melodious voice when she's coming.

Her greatest aim is to be an efficient teacher, and even if she does meet that millionaire she talks so much about, we feel confident of her success.

Best of luck to you, Mary.

MARGARET E. LAMBERT
Elysburg High School
Elysburg, Pa.
"Peg"

The old adage says "Still water runs deep." She might be deep but her stillness cannot be vouched for, although at first glance you might think she is very serious. One could write forever about "Peg" and still have something to say. Her friendship is well worth cultivating and her interest in human kind centers itself in an ever willingness to help others. "Peg's" apparent unselfishness is not the only thing that is noticed by all the girls. Be happy yourself and make others happy is this lass's fine motto.

You will always find her about when there is any fun to be had. If you don't see "Peg," you can hear the merry tune she hums as she goes around the halls.

For two years she has taken vocal lessons and has helped swell our Glee Club. The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet was glad for her faithful assistance.

An all around good sport is the term applied to this young lass by all who know her, for "Peg" shows her spirit wherever and whenever she may be called upon to do so.

The class of '26 wishes you an ideal future, with success in whatever you may undertake.

MARJORIE LAUBACH
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.

From Berwick, comes Marjorie, one of the "happy go lucky" girls of our class. Marjorie's motto is "A good time first and then school." Her love of pleasure and pleasant smile has won for her many friends in B. S. N. S.

Marjorie's greatest trouble is getting to school on time, but here again, she clings to the old adage of "Better late than never."

We know Marjorie is courageous. Do you want proof? Here it is: She rides on those terrifying Berwick trolley cars twice a day. We admire such courage.

One of Marjorie's diversions is dancing. She loves to talk and is usually ready to relate the news of the dance the night before.

We are sure Marjorie will make a charming school teacher; but of course we don't expect miracles so, of course, we can't expect her to teach long. No, of course not, we know you will be a queen of the hearth.

MARION LAUBACH
Benton High School
Berwick, Pa.

Here's another of our jolly trolley tribe who appears reserved and quiet but those who know her find that she is really full of fun and ready for a good joke.

Marion's motto is "Never do today what you can put off until tomorrow and don't do it then if you don't have to," nevertheless she always has her work prepared.

A pleasing personality Marion has, and she is a fine friend and pal to all of us. Perhaps that is why she makes such a good teacher. But even if her teaching was so successful and she says teaching will be her profession, we are positive she will not teach more than ten years if Don has his say.

Success be yours, Marion.

RUTH B. LAUDE
Ashley High School
Albert, Pa.
"Ruthie"

"Whistle, 'Ruthie,' whistle,
And you shall have a horse,
I can't whistle, mother,
Because I think it coarse."

"Whistle, 'Ruthie,' whistle,
And you shall have a man,
.....
Just found out I can."

Now, whenever you hear a sweet little whistle, you can guess that Ruth is near.

Now don't think that whistling is the only thing that this good-natured young lass can do for she is an ambitious student, a great reader, an interesting conversationalist and has many other charming assets. Eating is one of her favorite pastimes and nearly all of the fourth floor girls have had a taste of her "jelly bread."

When Ruth decides to accomplish a task she is always successful. This will be of great value next year in disciplining naughty children and disposing of the "too ardent suitors." May you keep your ever cheerful disposition in the "ups and downs" of life and success will be yours. Go after it!

ISABEL LEE

Gregg Township Vocational School
Spring Mills, Pa.
"Belle" "Isy"

Although Belle was not here the first semester she was here in spirit. Why?

She is a fine sport and a jolly good pal and always on the job for eats and fun.

Her favorite sports are talking and watching the moon.

That she has many friends has been proved by the many letters received by her when she is at home or at school.

She was the bravest of the "Shortess gang," but ask her about the night she thought there was a man on the porch roof.

Belle finds time for her work even though she does have good times.

We feel confident that Belle will make a good primary teacher but something tells us that she will not teach all her life.

Here's wishing you success and happiness in whatever you undertake.

MARY K. LEIBY

Elysburg High School
Elysburg, Pa.
"Mary"

Mary was a summer school student and has already tasted of the "joys" of a school teacher's life. Still she is not ready to give up the ship. If she does not re-enter the profession next fall, she will work on the side line as home adviser for a certain school teacher. She will surely be able to fill this position satisfactorily, as during the term she has received daily information on administering such aid.

Just why her mother writes an excuse for her to come home every two weeks is hard to understand. Perhaps mother (?) gets lonesome.

Nevertheless, Mary manages to prepare her lessons between letter-writing periods. She is a modern Priscilla, loved most by those who know her best. We hope the future may hold nothing but happiness and success.

ANNA E. LENAHAN
St. Joseph's High School
Ashland, Pa.
"Bud"

Here is another one of the "Cheery Eight."

This tall blue-eyed, curly-haired lass is distinguished from the other blondes by her pleasant "brogue." We just love to hear her talk because her witty sayings pour out ceaselessly. She is sure to create laughter when she entertains—and she does entertain at times. Have you heard her imitate a little kid? Well, she can to perfection.

It was only through discovery on our part that we learned "Bud" can sing well. She is the modest possessor of a rich alto voice.

Our Anna is quite an efficient barber, too. Yes, sir! "Barber Bud." Many a half dollar she helped the "Cheery Eight" save—for eats.

Anna took up primary work and we know that she will succeed in her teaching because she understands children. Proof? Her interpretations of children's chatter.

With you, "Bud," go the best wishes of the Senior class.

MARGARET LENAHAN
Sugar Notch High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Peg" "Maggie"

"Peg" Lenahan! Who in B. S. N. S. does not know this little student? Ever ready and willing to help others seem to be her chief aims in life. Good-natured and witty and mischievous—that's "Peg."

She's quite an athlete, too. Tennis, hockey, basketball—in fact all sports—claim a large percentage of her time. "Peg" is Johnny-on-the-spot for a good time. The "Suite" can vouch for that.

Our "Peg" portrays a studious nature, also. Her work is always up-to-date—and usually ahead of time. When she works, she works with a will and manages to leave ample room for fun.

When one of the crowd bewails "No letter for me," "Peg" rushes to her rescue at once. Big-hearted, she fixes up a letter by changing the date. Does it satisfy? You bet it does—it is a letter. We hear that fat men have a peculiar attraction for "Peg"? We also notice that the mailman between New Jersey and B. S. N. S. is being kept rather busy. We wonder why?????

"'Maggie,' could you ate a buen" "Yes, I could ate a duzen of them today, Jack."

Best wishes of the class of '26 are yours, "Peg."

LOUISE F. LESSER
Freeland High School
Freeland, Pa.
"Charlie"

When you hear some one hoiler H'ya! that's "Charlie."

"Charlie" is noted for her good nature and humor, cause we girls know that whenever she is around we are sure to laugh. "Charlie's" chief occupation is dancing. Whenever any one wanted her after dinner they were sure to find her in the gymnasium trying some new steps.

As to "Charlie's" athletic ability, well she excels, probably this exercise is the cause of "Charlie's" eternal hunger. For the only time when "Charlie" feels blue is when she finds that there is nothing more to eat.

We wonder why "Charlie" is all excited when Bill is mentioned. Now we don't mean bills to be paid but—

Good luck to you, "Charlie," and may you always gain as many friends as you did at B. S. N. S. as the result of your winning personality.

BENJAMIN LEWIS
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Beagle"

"Beagle" came to us from Bucknell this summer and since his arrival, he has proven to be a very worthy fellow. He cuts quite a figure as a toastmaster and orator, and if you ever need him he is only too glad to accommodate you. By being such an accommodating fellow he is kept quite busy a large part of the time but amid all of his toil, he never slights his class work. Never does he enter a classroom unprepared.

Benny says that his main desire in life is to some day have a "Butler" from whom he will never have to depart. From the progress which he has made along this line since he entered B. S. N. S., his desire will some day be fulfilled. The class of '26 wishes you all the success in the world, Benny, in order that your wish may be gratified.

"Beagle" is the type of fellow who could change a morgue into a fit of laughter. When he is around everyone expects a real lively time and we are never slighted. Benny will put life into any crowd.

Here's hoping that your life success depends upon your manly characteristics because we are certain that they will prove as they have in the past to be very worthy. Good luck, "Benny."

RUTH LEWIS
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Ruthie"

Here is another one of our quiet girls. "Ruthie" is considered very bashful but we have our doubts. Her kind-heartedness has won her many friends, and she is always willing to share her most precious possessions with others.

"Ruthie" is the type of a person who is always out for a good time and she is always willing to contribute her share in making a good time. She is the type of a person who can study and really enjoy it. She spends most of her leisure moments in a good manner because she was never known to enter a classroom unprepared.

"Ruthie" is a very good student and we know that she will make a good teacher if she does not get side-tracked before she starts in. Here's wishing you the best of luck and success in everything you undertake in the future.

MARTHA M. LINGERTOT
Bloomsburg High School
Hunlock Creek, Pa.
"Martha"

Here is one of the most lovable girls in our Senior class. Yes, she is shy, but nevertheless, she is popular. Martha has won a wide circle of friends at school and in town. She is another student from Hanover Township. She was graduated from Bloomsburg High School and also from Bloomsburg State Normal school, '23.

Martha was on the Editorial Staff of our first newspaper, "Hill Top News and Views."

When she finished her course here, she taught for a year in a rural school in her own home district. Now, she has returned and joined our present Senior class. We all agree that we wish that she had been with us longer.

Martha never lingers long over a task. She gets it done quickly and always does it right. If something is to be accomplished one needs only to ask Martha. She's ready and willing to help every time.

Do you wonder that we hate to see her go? Some school will join a treasure.

ESTHER M. LLOYD
Thompson High School
Starruca, Pa.
"Esther"

Esther is one of those girls who had the courage to choose the three year course. She doesn't seem to mind it here at all. It hasn't been hard for her to do the work, she is naturally conscientious and ambitious and those two qualities in one person surely will lead to success. In Esther's case it is so, at least, so far.

Esther is so quiet that most of us do not really know her. She has one failing and that is giggling. She giggles with reason and without. She is always willing to help those who go to her and especially those classmates who frequently misunderstand the assignment.

She is one of those girls who call themselves the Mu Phi Sigma.

We, your classmates, wish you much success and happiness, when you leave B. S. N. S., wherever you may go and in whatever you may do.

LOUNETA LORAH
West Pittston High School
West Pittston, Pa.
"Louneta"

Louneta should be called the information bureau for the girls' dormitory because she is always sure to know all the girls and also where they live. This is also true, everyone knows Louneta. She is small in stature but she can show anyone how to be serious in school matters. She showed this ability by being in the front ranks of our Junior Honor Roll.

We don't know how Louneta became a man-hater, but we do know that she likes to talk to a few young men who happen to sit at her table.

Louneta was one of the committee for Junior Customs. Some people might think the fact to be an honor but Louneta thinks it was some work—just ask her?

Although Louneta is very studious she manages to get some spare time. This time is used in playing tricks upon the girls and she seems to be an expert at this.

We are sure that Louneta will make a very successful teacher and with her go our best wishes.

HANNAH LUTZ
Mifflinville and Berwick High Schools
Mifflinville, Pa.
"Hannah"

Hannah comes to us from that pretty little town of Mifflinville and one need only to get acquainted with her to feel that she is a fine representative.

Besides being a faithful and industrious student, Hannah has many other talents such as playing the piano, painting china, doing all kinds of needle work and last of all being a good automobile driver.

We are sure that this young lady will make a success of school teaching and from the look in her honest brown eyes, she will be able to discipline her school by love and sympathy instead of the use of the "birch rod" which so many resort to.

When Hannah passes beneath the arch of her Alma Mater, the school will lose a genuine student and the Alumni Association a valuable member.

EDITH M. LOWRY
Carbondale High School
Uniontown, Pa.
"Edith"

Another one of those quiet, demure and lovable girls. Edith does not live in the Dormitory and most of her time was spent out of school.

As for being studious—there is no question. She worked hard both her years here to a desired end—a school teacher, and we believe that she will be successful.

Edith, too, has a bit of ability in athletics. She was a very good hockey player and loved the out of doors. In basketball she is a star guard and no forward has a chance when she's working.

Now, not all her time is spent in studying. Some happy and pleasant times may be found in the lives of all; and in Edith's life there is no exception, for she was always ready for a good time with her happy disposition.

May the happiness of your years at Normal be the mainstay of your future years, Edith.

KATHERINE A. McHUGH
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Kitty" "Mac"

She didn't miss a thing! Who? Why, "Kitty," of course. Have a good time while you have the chance, seemed to be a go with her. We wonder if she always did?

We cannot forget her as one of the jolly members of that everlasting "Newport Gang"—a born member of that organization. She did her part when her Newport Comrades assembled in one of their many rendezvous. If you can't see her, you can always hear her.

"Kitty" is responsible for a good deal of commendation when it comes to Cheer-leading. Through her leading the cheers, our team's reputation was uplifted. She helped lead them to many a victory, and she didn't mind it a bit to stand in front of a body of students and make them do their part. At any game if "Kitty" was not there to lead the cheers, the school spirit was at a very low ebb.

Then, too, we know that "Kitty" won herself a great many friends through her quick and pleasant service in the dining room. She couldn't see herself at the end of a line anywhere and as a result we saw her finished serving first. Who always got their ice cream first on Sundays?

MARGARET M. McLAUGHLIN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Peg"

Wit, wittier, wittiest. Yes, that's "Peg," and she is one of the three sillies. "Peg" is known to be one of the best kidders the Normal possesses, and her policy is "never check your baggage." We wonder why! "Peg's" chief occupation was walking up and down the Main street at five o'clock. Was she always on time? Well, I guess!

"Peg" attended all the lectures at the auditorium so why wouldn't she be a good teacher? Her only regret is that she did not take the secretarial course, probably she could have been of some use in the sale of Gardners and Willys-Knights.

Here's hoping that your career as a school teacher will not be too long, and always keep smiling at trouble.

ANNA MADDEN
Jenkins High School
Pittston, Pa.
"Nancy"

Just one look at her and you will agree that she is a very fine girl. Full of fun, and a friend most sincere—that's Anna. Whenever a word is needed she always supplies it in a cheerful fashion. Is she not worth while?

One of "Nancy's" favorite sports is walking down town at nights. We wonder why?

However, do not think that she does not study. She is one of our best students, and as for teaching, we are sure that she will be successful with the "kiddies." She has selected the Primary group.

We all hope that your happiness and most successful days are ahead of you. "Nancy."

MARCELLA MAHER
Nicholson High School
Foster, Pa.
"Marcella"

Here is one of our hard working girls. She has not been with us long, as she has been taking work at summer school and teaching winters. However, she has readily shown some fine qualities both as a classmate and prospective teacher.

She has a personality that has won for her many friends and she is loved by all who know her as a true and faithful friend. She has always been a diligent, earnest student as well as a jolly companion.

Success has always been hers in the past and we are sure she will have more as she strives onward to reach her goal.

Marcella, we wish you the best of luck and success. We know it is not an idle wish for if anyone deserves success, that one is you.

MARGARET MAHER
Montrose High School
Foster, Pa.
"Margaret"

Margaret is another member of our class who joined us in our Senior year. We are sorry that she didn't join us sooner because she is a good sport and a loyal friend.

She is a student with ability and has been very successful in the work of the intermediate group, in which she has chosen to specialize.

Her first work at Normal School was done at Mansfield but she later decided that Bloomsburg was the best place, so came down and joined our happy class at the beginning of our Senior year.

Margaret is always ready for some fun. Whenever we mention eats, she says, "Sure, I'll come!"

She has won the love and friendship of everyone with whom she has come in contact with, and we all wish her the best of luck and success in her chosen profession.

MARY P. MAHER
Brooklyn High School
Foster, Pa.
"Mary"

Mary is a prominent member of our lively crowd on Third Floor Front. When she arrives things begin to happen. If you want to pack up your troubles, just visit Mary, who with her ever ready wit is a sure cure for your malady.

Mary just loves to make you comfortable. Some of the methods she employs is putting hard bread crumbs and pine needles in your bed. But do we mind that from Mary? Certainly not, for Mary is a good sport when she happens to be the victim. It is never too much trouble for her to help anyone. She even goes to the trouble of bringing the garbage can to your door. She has found pleasure in everything so far and we are sure she will find it in teaching.

We know that with your many friends you will be an efficient teacher, Mary, and the class of '26 wishes success to you.

ELEANOR MAINWARING
Plains High School
Plains, Pa.
"El"

Eleanor joined our ranks at the end of the first semester last year and has proved herself a worthy addition to our class. She joined the Primary group and attended the summer session of school at B. S. N. S. that she might be able to graduate with us. She always has a cheery smile for her friends and never lets work take the pleasure out of life. In fact, her motto seems to be "When joy and duty clash, let duty go to smash."

Eleanor seems to be very fond of that little song which contains the following line: "Each roomie will help you, her brother to win." We leave you, dear reader, to guess the reason.

Although we firmly believe, Eleanor, that some day you will depart from teaching to a lifelong profession, we wish you crowning success in whatever work you may undertake.

MABEL MAJOR
Kingston Township High School
Tunkhannock, Pa.
"Mabel"

Here is Mabel, one of our most industrious girls. Did she ever enter a classroom unprepared? Well, I guess not! Mabel was a good sport, and liked good times but her work came before her play.

An active member in the Girls' Glee Club was Mabel. Each day, we could also see her crossing the campus to Science Hall to practice her music lesson.

Mabel was a most desirable friend who always extended a hand to help anyone in a sympathetic way.

Her greatest hobby was "sleep." Her Saturday night's last words were, "Tomorrow morning I'm going to sleep." Was she ever awakened? Ask her roomie.

We know Mabel will be a success in teaching as she has chosen the Primary group and is very fond of it. She thinks teaching will be her life's work, but judging from the letters she gets from the "Sem," she will not remain in the profession long.

The class of '26 extends its best wishes and success in all your future years.

LAURA MANN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.

Did you ask who it was who was trilling so sweetly down the hall? Why it is our Laura.

Some say that good goods come in small packages; it seems to be proved here. Laura may be small but she flits from place to place always willing to do her bit. Most every organization claims her as a member.

Laura seems to have a specialty for Pauls. If she can't have the one we saw here on a few week-ends she may find another close at hand.

As a teacher here Laura has made a great success and we all know that she will make an "A" teacher next year. So, to you, Laura, the class of 1926 wishes you the best of luck and happiness. We prophesy a short teaching career for you.

MARY G. MARTIN
Jermyn High School
Jermyn, Pa.
"Mary"

Here is another member of the "Cheery Eight." A sweet personality, full of rascality—that's our Mary. This good-natured, winsome lass has made many friends since her first appearance at B. S. N. S. How? Through her contagious, wholesome laugh.

We know, Mary, that when "salting beds" or "wrecking rooms" was to be staged, you were never far away, and your characteristic laugh followed, no matter what the outcome was.

Our Mary had a privilege which very few of us could boast of. We never saw the halls quite so clean as the morning after Mary got through sweeping them???

We know Mary's pet verb—it's "eat"—especially if an "Oh! Henry" candy bar comes her way.

Her industry in school work was, at times, appalling. She knows how to get along in classes as well as she knows how to dance. We know the kiddies will love her as a teacher. You have our best wishes, Mary.

MARGARET M. MATHEWS
Sugar Notch High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Peg" "Math"

Here is another of those good-natured kids from Sugar Notch, always ready to give you any help that she can. "Peg" is very fond of sports, including basketball and tennis. And Oh! We mustn't leave dancing out as that is one of her favorites. You can see "Peg" and her roomie spinning around the "Gym" every evening after dinner.

Of all the teasers in the world, none could beat "Peg." She delights in teasing people. She has a characteristic smile that would cheer you even on the gloomiest day. Happy, jolly and full of fun, that's our "Peg."

Really it would be hard to find a better sport or a more charming companion; but she isn't an angel by any means.

Ambitious? Maybe so—but we can easily forgive that after knowing her, and we know she will make a perfect school teacher or??? No matter what it will be we wish her luck.

ROSE MEDO
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Rose"

Rose, in spite of her smiling face, happens to be a very reticent young person. Her first great ambition in life was to become a nurse. After she was graduated from the nursing profession, Rose decided that greater opportunities lay in the teaching field. So very suddenly she packed and embarked on her new experience, coming to our normal school, several weeks late but none the less determined to stay. Judging from the character of her good work at school and favorable standing with her classmates, Rose is more than pleased with B. S. N. S. She is destined to become an excellent teacher and we sincerely hope that this profession will fill her life so completely that she will find boundless joy in fulfilling its many duties and obligations. We sincerely wish her much success in life.

RUTH E. MEIXELL
Nescopeck High School
Wapwallopen, Pa.
"Ruthie"

Ruth came to us in the fall of 1924 after graduating from high school. When first seeing her, we thought her quiet and shy but now we know she is possessed of much fun and jollity.

She is always kind-hearted and helpful to everyone. From the signs on her door, "Studying—keep out," we have decided she is very conscientious about her work. Her favorite pastime is to get a book, curl up, and read.

Last year she liked Gymnasium because Miss Munroe let them play "Jolly is the Miller." This year she does not play the game but has the Miller anyhow.

We know Ruth will make a successful teacher but we wonder how long she will teach. No matter, Ruth, good luck.

LENA MELICK
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Lena"

Lena is one of our commuters and also one of the locker room "bunch." She is one of the charming girls of our class and always has a smile ready for her classmates. Should you feel blue, go to Lena; she will chase the gloom away and bring a grin to your face.

We all think a great deal of her, but we are sure someone else thinks more. How about it, Lena?

One of Lena's chief enjoyments is reading or reciting poetry. Some day, you may hear of a great elocutionist coming to your town, and it may be none other than our old classmate.

We believe Lena will be a very capable teacher—one whom the school will be proud of having produced. You have the best wishes of the class, Lena.

PAULINE S. MENSCH
Mifflinburg High School
Mifflinburg, Pa.
"Pauly"

You all know the saying "Good things come in small packages" and this certainly proves true in "Pauly's" case. "Pauly" has been with us only one year but in that short period of time she has formed a circle of friends.

To look at her you would think that she was a quiet lass but when you really know her you are forced to change your opinion. Whenever there is any fun or mischief going on on Fourth Floor you can find Pauline as the leader of it.

Pauline has proved to be a very successful teacher in her work here and we are sure that she will be successful in her work next year. We can not tell how long she will carry on this profession. Whenever we hear the term "Efficient Teacher" we shall remember our Pauline.

Here's wishing you the best of luck, Pauline, in whatever you may undertake.

LOIS M. MERRILL
Northumberland High School
Northumberland, Pa.
"Louchee"

So, this is Lois. One of our very quiet and meek little girls who says not much but smiles a great deal.

Lois is right there when it comes to fun and jokes but never forgets her studies.

Her favorite sport is going home over the week-end to visit parties in the country. We wonder why? There must be some attraction!

Lois is always telling us how much she loves to sing and study music. Her greatest ambition is to become a school teacher, whether she will follow this profession or not, is doubted by all her close friends.

We know that you will succeed, Lois, and you have our best wishes for a bright and prosperous future.

JENNIE MEYERS
Allenwood High School
Allenwood, Pa.
"Jen"

Quiet but preserving is "Jen," one of our third floor girls. She believes in the maxim, "Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today." She studies hard and is always ready to do a little more than is asked of her.

Jennie returned to us the second semester of our Senior year to finish her teaching course. She has taught in Clearfield County for a few years and she was very successful in the profession.

She is a good sport when it comes to hiking and parties. Success has been hers in the past and we are sure that she will have more as she strives on in the future toward her goal. We wish her the best of luck and happiness in her chosen profession.

ANNA MILLER
Mifflinville High School
Mifflinville, Pa.
"Anna"

Anna is one of the Mifflinville "gang." Her broad smile and happy-go-lucky appearance are her chief characteristics.

Now Anna really doesn't want to teach. She has her whole heart set upon nursing but, unlucky for Anna, she is afraid of dead people, and she certainly makes up for it with those who are alive.

I wonder how long Anna will teach for when it comes to cooking and baking, she is right there with the new tasty dishes even though she always includes celery. Just how does she do it and what does it mean?

Well, if she doesn't follow up her profession, we know she could fill up her idle moments by sewing, too. If you had seen her "art dolls" you would realize that this young lady possesses artistic ability.

Anna is an all-round good sport and her cheery laugh may be heard any time.

The class of '26 wishes you much success in the future, Anna.

BEATRICE MILLER
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Beatty" "Lundi"

Do you see that slim brown-eyed girl over there? That is Beatrice Miller, the philosopher of B. S. N. S. Locker Room girls. "Beatty" can discuss any topic by just asking "What's the Use?" and she gets a liberal education. However, she is really a good student, popular, generous and cheerful.

She is also very witty.

Beatrice graduated from Bloomsburg High School in 1923 but it was not until 1924 that she decided to enter B. S. N. S.

It is a puzzle to most of us which "Beatty" will be—a teacher or a housewife. She is wearing a beautiful diamond and is intensely interested in State College. It is said that one and one make two—draw your own conclusion.

Beatrice, you have our good wishes for success in all your future undertakings.

DORETTA MILLER
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Doretta"

Our first impression of Doretta is that she is a quiet girl, but knowing her has proven her to be quite different.

Doretta loves to have a good time, and you may always count on her to be present if any mischief is at hand.

Her one failing is always to be late to classes. Do not misunderstand me though; she is a conscientious student.

Speaking of talent—Doretta excels as a pianist. Another of her fond pastimes is reading poetry or translating Latin or French into English.

As a teacher we feel sure you will be successful.

EVA MOORE
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Eva"

Eva is one of our day students from Danville. We first thought that Eva would be very hard to get acquainted with but after a few days of companionship we learned that she was a fine girl. She has those sad, tearful eyes, which gives her face such a wistful expression, but, you know they say, "Looks are deceiving," and in this case it is true.

Readers, take heed, beware of those eyes, for you can never tell what is behind them. Once in awhile she expresses her thoughts such as, "Would one of you like to go with me to Buckalew's to look at some shoes? Eva, did you really desire to see them alone?"

Eva, we wish you luck in anything you undertake.

ALICE M. MORGAN
Kingston High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Al"

"Al" has a wonderful vocabulary and always expresses herself exceedingly well.

At a glance she appears to be quiet and studious, but knowing her changes this idea for she really is jolly and full of fun.

She alarms us occasionally with some startling remark—jocular or otherwise—and when she is in this mood people around sit up and take notice, as her jokes always "go over big" and are the funniest and most unique.

We wonder why she is always so anxious to get home for week-ends. We feel sure there is more attractive things than cats.

We are inclined to envy "Al" in her choice of M-A-L-E because while we sit around waiting for letters to come he says it over the telephone.

We all know "Al" does not intend to follow the teaching profession but in whatever she may undertake we wish her success and happiness.

ANNE R. MORGAN
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Anne"

Was there ever a pal like you? Was there ever a gal so true? I am sure that everyone who knows Anne would answer these questions in the negative—because she surely is a wonderful "gal" and a true pal.

Like the rest of us, Anne is always ready for fun. She never wants to miss a "wise crack" and offers some good ones in return. But, along with fun, she is also—like the rest of us—very studious. If she isn't playing "Hearts" or "Solitaire," she's writing lesson plans!!

Anne never talks about her boy friends, so she keeps us guessing as to whether or not they interest her. We know she has many, for her sunny disposition will always win her friends.

We feel sure that Anne will make an exceptionally good teacher. She's taking up primary work and all the children love her. Why shouldn't they? She is always full of pep and keeps them interested.

Our best wishes go with you, Anne.

CHARLOTTE MORGAN
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Charlotte"

"Nobody ever saw her cry.
Nobody ever heard her sigh,
That's why we like her so."

Wherever Charlotte is, there laughter reigns supreme, she seems to be quite hi-larry-ous. She is good-natured, a good sport, an interesting conversationalist, especially where Jimmy is concerned. When she was president of the student government, often we heard her clarion call echoing through the hall, "Girls, we must have quiet." She has a cheery hello and smile for everyone. When work is mentioned, Charlotte becomes suddenly serious—but then, why worry about work when there is intuition. Our Charlotte made a very good record teaching and seems pointed for a success there. Here's luck to you, Charlotte.

GILBERT MORGANS
Old Forge High School
Old Forge, Pa.
"Sonny"

"Sonny" hails from that well known town of Old Forge. Being small in stature when he entered this institution, he received the name of "Sonny." But B. S. N. S. must have agreed with him because during his two year stay at the Normal School he has grown both physically and mentally.

When he entered this institution he said that he was a woman hater, but like many other great men he weakened and was conquered. He turned out to be one of the Romeos who never misses an after dinner dance. Perhaps there is a reason. He always said he was interested in the situation of Loomis Park.

"Sonny" was one who was always prepared in all of his work. And when it came to real study he could show up many of the students. He was the type of a person whom we could easily like because his disposition was one that always left him satisfied. The best wishes of the class of '26 go with you in all your undertakings, "Sonny."

MARGARET MORGAN
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Peggy"

Wherever there is something stirring going on, you will be sure to find "Peggy"—for instance she'd never even dream of missing a basketball game when the Normal team plays at home. Petite and peppy, she sweeps everything before her. She amuses us sometimes by her extreme excite-ability but when it comes to original ideas, she is always right there. She gets her studies done in the same business-like manner that she does everything else, for she is a great believer in system.

"Peggy" is always ready to help out in any way and is a friend worth having. With her go the best wishes of her class.

EMILIE MORRETT
Luzerne High School
Luzerne, Pa.
"Tommy"

"The man of the crowd in our crowd" is our "Tommy." At least she seems so to the "S. I. K." Don't ask us how she ever came to be called "Tommy" but the name fits at any rate.

"Hot Dog" should be "Tommy's" middle name. She as well as the rest of us seems to thrive on them.

Our "clean-up" supervisors is always ready to join the ranks of the "eat-ups." She is there when it comes to feeds, parties, and all-around good times.

"Tommy" is a good student too, and we are sure she will make an excellent teacher, but for how long? We have our doubts and fears.

If you hear the banjo-uke strumming in Room 360 you'll know it is "Tommy" practicing "Ukelele Lady," "If I Were a Student in Cadiz," or "Sole Mio."

The best of luck go with you, "Tommy," in all of your future life.

EDITH M. MORRIS
Newport High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Edith"

Since Edith first entered Normal School she has been very active and one of the leaders of the school. During her Junior year we heard from her occasionally but when she became a Senior we heard from her more often.

As an athletic leader, Edith is good, but as a "Y. W." president she is still better. Under her leadership the "Y" has done big things and accomplished a whole lot.

Edith is full of life and pep and can even ride horseback when the groom goes along. Ask her why she always laughs when anyone says, "Girls, can't you speak?"

There is a certain someone that Edith seems particularly interested in; his first name is Jack. Do we need to mention the rest?

We cannot say how long Edith will teach but we wish her the best of luck, nevertheless.

KATHRYN MONROE
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Kay"

Loved by one, loved by all. No one ever meets her that doesn't remember her. She is carefree, happy-go-lucky, refusing to worry until the last minute. Her charming personality has won her many friendships.

"Kay" has taken Primary work and we all know that she will make a good Primary Teacher because she likes the kiddies.

As for taking part in school activities—Kay is right there on the job. As president of the Alpha Delta she is one of our peppiest sisters and the "Y" cabinet would not be complete without her, for she has proved to be a most reliable treasurer.

This little lass does not believe in all work and no play. After the work is finished there are few jollier girls than she.

"Kay" will always be remembered as one of our sweetest girls, and we hope she will always be considered such. It is certain she will have a most successful life as a school teacher until—. Here's to your success and happiness, "Kay."

CATHERINE MURPHY
Middletown, Pa.
Montrose High School
"Murphy"

Here is Catherine, a good girl with a very pleasing personality. She has won many friends by her sweet smile and gentle ways. This year she joined the clas of '26, which would not be complete without her.

She is a very industrious student and we always find her preparing lesson plans. Catherine has proven herself a great success in her practice teaching at Normal. We know she will be just as successful in her future teaching and hope it doesn't end too soon.

Catherine doesn't believe in "All work and no play." The pleasant cry of "Come, kids, I got a box," indicates that everyone is welcome to share a treat with her.

Whenever Catherine attempts to do a thing, she works until she accomplishes her task. In whatever field you choose, our best wishes for good luck and success go with you, Catherine.

AGNES L. MYLES
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Agnes"

Quiet and demure?—in appearance, yes—But both wit and mischief lurk behind those gray eyes. Lovable and obliging, she is everybody's friend and is particularly loved by the kiddies in The Training School.

Agnes is very fond of everything pertaining to music—piano players, for instance, and there is real meaning behind her favorite exclamation, "Oh, for the love of John!" She is a very clever artist—in fact she designs most of the note book covers and posters of Fourth Floor Annex.

She is very conscientious and industrious when we allow her to be, although she contributes her share of fun and noise to any gathering. This young lady is as it were "castle crazy"—here's hoping she gets one some day.

Who remembers the time Agnes forgot to go to her birthday party? However, that was the first and only time she was not the first to any feed.

We are sure that Agnes will make good in her profession and we all wish for her the success and happiness she deserves.

THELMA NAYLOR
Old Forge High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Thelma"

Here is another one of our quiet girls—that is she appears to be. We understand, however, that she can always find something to talk about after ten o'clock at night.

Thelma believes she gets her beauty sleep in the morning for she never gets up before the class bell rings. We heard she has taken lessons from firemen concerning the proper methods to don clothes in a hurry.

Her favorite topic for discussion is "Charlie" and her favorite expression is "Applesauce."

We wonder why she dines at Rinkers every Friday evening? Normal School has given Thelma two inseparable pals, Helen and Betty.

The best of luck and success to you is the wish of your classmates.

DOROTHY ELEANOR NEWMAN
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Dotty"

The second semester of our Junior year ushered into our midst a sweet black-haired lassie. Smiling and gay, always ready with a cheery "hello" and a helping hand, she soon won our hearts. "Dotty" joined the beloved, merry gang of renowned back hall fame. Whenever anyone was lonesome or blue, she immediately went to back hall for cheering. Dorothy fitted into her niche and soon helped keep the merry ball of joy rolling.

Dorothy is not only a good sport, but also a good scholar. This young lady has her serious studious mood—and woe unto the person who disturbs her studying!

"Dotty's" joy is art. She can sit, patiently for hours in order to make a detail to suit her taste. She has made many clever designs.

We are certain that "Dotty" is going to make an excellent teacher. We wish her luck in her profession. However, not for a long time, because "Dotty" admits that she likes to cook. As a parting word we wish to say "Good luck and best success. Do not forget your old B. S. N. S. friends."

MARGARET T. O'BRIEN
Saint Mary's High School
Miners Mills, Pa.
"Margie"

The old saying, "You cannot judge a book by its cover," is true in connection with our little Margaret. Behind her big brown eyes, there lurks a great deal of mischief. Modest, shy, and the best and truest friend anyone could have, is our "Margie."

Wherever there are "cats" to be served, Margaret always manages to have a little corner of the table reserved for her own little spread—consisting of coffee, crackers, ketchup, ginger cookies, etc.

Although she is always ready to enjoy a good time, "Margie" has never been known during her two years at Bloomsburg to have let a single lesson go undone. She is a very conscientious worker; our Margaret is the kind of student of which any school might rightfully feel proud.

We all hope and we feel sure that you will win success and happiness wherever you may go, and whatever you may do, Margaret.

HELEN O'DELL
Falls, Pa.
"Helen"

Helen is one of our quiet, conscientious girls who is bound to make a success in her profession. She possesses the sterling quality of being dependable. Ever willing and gracious in helping her classmates in their schoolwork makes her popular. We know how helpful she was to us when we struggled through Nature Study!

We know that Helen has inherited artistic ability. She was always one of the best students in our art classes. Her clever paintings in the group project note-books testifies to this. One of her hobbies was tramping through the woods to find something she had never seen before.

Her peculiar and characteristic smile suggested a vein of mischief—hidden until her lesson plans were finished. We wonder why she was so interested in learning to play "Home, Sweet Home" on the uke?

Helen is so versatile in all her work that we are sure that she will succeed in all her undertakings.

CORA OHL
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Bud"

"Bud" is one of our brown-eyed bobbed hair lasses. She is one of our jolly students and always ready to do her share of fun.

One's first impression of "Bud" is that she is quiet, but that droll little mouth always assures the "locker room" of loads of fun.

They say her hobby is "Tardiness," but then, everybody likes to get the mail before leaving home. That's all right, she is an earnest worker and always succeeds at whatever task she may perform. You may be assured that she will always do her best.

"Seek 'Bud' and you shall find
The sun shall always shine."

ELIZABETH THELMA OHLMAN
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Betty"

Here's a girl who is overflowing with sunshine. Just one look at her smile is a cure for melancholy. And that many people seek this sort of cure is proved by the quantity of friends "Betty" possesses at Old Bloom. Her room on fourth floor is a popular place.

To tell you the truth, "Betty," herself hates to leave it, especially in the morning. It is rumored that "Betty" is one of the two hundred and fifty who are ruining health by going breakfastless rather than lose the morning dose. The pace has evidently had no effect upon "Betty," judging by her bright eyes and pink cheeks.

"Betty" is trying hard to practice our last year's course in penmanship by writing those daily letters to Syracuse. Her favorite song should be "Charley, My Boy."

We envy "Betty's" future pupils, and feel sure that she has found her sphere in Primary work. Her cheery influence will long be remembered by her classmates.

CATHARINE OLMSTEAD
Northumberland High School
Northumberland, Pa.
"Kay"

Although "Kay" has been with us only one year, she has won a place in our hearts. Her pleasing personality and unflinching good humor have made her everyone's friend. She is always ready for a good time. It is usually up to "Kay" to start the fun.

"Kay" is very studious. She always manages to get her work done. If you ever want any help don't be afraid to ask her.

Every day "Kay" gets a letter from Sunbury. She goes home quite frequently, too. We wonder what this is all about?

Did someone say swim? "Kay" seems to take more interest in this sport than anything else, although she is also an active member of our Glee Club.

We know that "Kay" has all the best qualities for teaching, but we would not feel safe in prophesying that she will teach for a very long time. However, "Kay," we wish you the best of luck both in teaching and??

JOHN OPIARY
Foster Township High School
Upper Lehigh, Pa.
"Tip"

"Third floor, please." This is the cry which "Tip" has heard all summer long while working as elevator boy. This year is substitute on the elevator and it is due this work of his that he has gained the reputation of being a full fledged shiek. It was at this work that he met mostly all of the girls at the school.

John is one of the faithful members of the Rural Group and he hopes to become a good teacher in that field. He is a very industrious lad and can always be found in his room studying for some one of his classes.

"Tip" is no exception to the rule and during his stay at this school he has had one weakness. Many times he could be seen out on the campus with a girl friend. He was always in favor of queens, especially the "Queen of Sheba." Still, this is a weakness which all men possess and we should give him due consideration for his choice of friends.

Here's hoping you as much success in your teaching profession as you had during the two years stay at Normal School. Best wishes of our class go with you, "Tip."

ELLA M. OTTEN
Tunkhannock High School
Mehoopany, Pa.
"Ella"

Ella came to us in our Senior year, but it does not mean that she was a perfect stranger at B. S. N. S., for she had spent a summer here and then learned the customs and acquired the peculiarities characteristic of our school. She has also had three years of teaching experience, thus it is to her we come when we get stuck with hard problems. She seems to know just how to get us out of difficulties.

She is very much interested in school work and her marks prove this. But with all her work and care of others, Ella is always ready and willing for a good time. To prove this just invite her to one of your midnight feeds. She also loves to get letters, especially from Tunkhannock—Oh, no, they are not from Mother and Dad for they live at Mehoopany. Never mind, though, we don't blame her a bit for wanting to receive them.

It has been a pleasure to have you with us this year, Ella, and we all feel that you will be as successful in the future as you have been in the past.

DOROTHY PARTRIDGE

Trevorton High School

Trevorton, Pa.

"Dot"

Here is one of the down-town gang, and many have wondered why Dorothy did not room in the "Dorm." Probably she heard of the strict rules of Normal Hill.

"Dot" is always ready for a good time, and is a live wire if there is anything going on. Behind those bright eyes there is an unending story of mischief which crops out about every so often.

Her favorite expressions are "Bring on the cats," or "Pass the Goopy."

We wonder why "Dot" is always singing "Bobby, My Boy," instead of "Charley, My Boy."

Why does she show such a great interest in State College affairs?

Wishing you the best of luck and the ability to say "Yes."

MARGARET PATRICK

West Phila. High School for Girls

Millersburg, Pa.

"Peg"

Here's another charming young lady who makes us sit up at night, to keep up with her report card. During her Junior year she was on the Honor Roll and she has shown her superiority in her practice teaching.

But study does not occupy all of "Peg's" life. Does she know how to have a good time? Ask her about it!!!

"Peg" is some dancer, and you can always find her where there is dancing. Oh! that reminds us of the night in the "gym" when our belief in her sweet temper was slightly changed by her sudden and furious attack upon the "Army." Never mind, "Peg," even the best of us show some faults at times.

Whenever talking about autos, "Peg's" face brightens and she is sure to mention a little green car. We wonder why! Perhaps "Peg" is one of the girls who is attending one institution, while her heart is at another.

But "Peg's" friends aren't all boy friends, for her pleasing personality and her willingness to help others have won the hearts of the girls in the "dorm."

You have proven yourself a good student and a true friend, "Peg," and when you leave us may you push on to that success which no graduate of B. S. N. S. has ever failed to win.

CLARA F. PEFFER
Dorranceton High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Peffer"

Clara didn't join us until this last year when she entered the Senior class in the Junior High group, but her stay with us, short as it has been, has shown us what a wonderful girl she is. Peppy, attractive, an ideal dancer, and an all round good sport—all of these qualities make her a most interesting person.

Of course, Clara likes to study—especially when there's a College Humor lying around unattached—but nevertheless she manages to keep ahead of the rest.

Aside from studying the required school subjects, Clara is quite keen on poetry. Now who can tell us why? I wonder. P'raps she will go to Mont Alto through June after she graduates from Normal.

No doubt Clara will teach—at least for two years—so we all join in wishing you the best of luck and a successful career.

MARY G. PENMAN
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Mary"

"When play and duty clash
Let duty go to smash."

That just suits Mary. Here she is full of life and pep. A good post and a wonderful pal is our Mary.

If you should happen to be in the dormitory and hear a lively tune coming from fourth floor annex, you can make up your mind that it is Mary.

She is a member of the Dramatic Club and a "whiz" in art. In spite of the fact that our happy-go-lucky classmate always finds good times, she sometimes takes a pile of books home. But we have never been able to discover whether she peruses them or not.

Here's wishing you the most and best o' luck, happiness and success—school teaching or no.

MARGARET PHILLIPS
Newport Township High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Peg"

"Peg"! Yes, we all know the name. A good sport and a real friend is our "Peg." She strikes one as being of a quiet type but, when with the gang she surely does her part. Although she does not play the "uke" she helps to supply a good deal of the music that accompanies it, which we so very often hear floating around second floor. We enjoy it, "Peg." Keep it up.

Her favorite pastime is reading, sleeping and eating. If you ever want something to eat, go to "Peg's" room. MY! those delicious chocolates. Where do they all come from? Those black, snappy eyes tell the tale.

Margaret has chosen the Intermediate work as her field of activity and her famous saying is "Are you going to play the baseball game tomorrow?"

We know she will make good, but we wish, to this Newportarian, heaps o' luck, success, and happiness.

VIVIAN C. PITT
Hazle Township High School
Lattimer Mines, Pa.
"Viv"

Vivian's personality is her chief attraction. It seems nothing can effect her general disposition. She is always willing to help her fellow students and does each deed of kindness with so light a heart, and with such willingness that she has won the hearts of all who know her. Vivian is ever ready to have a good time but her studies are never neglected. Because the ambitious are always great, we expect great things from Vivian, because we know her to be capable of performing great things.

We have often heard Vivian say "Monotony is unnecessary," and she sure lived up to that. She lived down town the first year and kept things "humming" and as soon as she reached the "dorm" she thought out the fifty-seven varieties of arranging a "dorm" room. Only great minds could be able to work wonders with a four by eight. You will be a clever house-keeper but don't leave the professional ranks for any "mere" man.

RUBY PLOTKIN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Ru"

Beware! oh men, for here is one heart invincible to charms!

Invincible perhaps to make charms but as to female—there is yet to be found a heart that can love more truly than this one. Once your friend—always your friend.

Her specialty lies in curing lovers' quarrels. She is A-1 at sanctioning letters to be sent to anyone at any time. She is a girl to whom one can trust her most precious secrets and know that her confidence will be respected.

Ruby shows promise of being a splendid teacher. However, we know she will not always teach school for there are other things in life. Now don't get excited. She intends to specialize. If, at some time, you hear of a Miss Plotkin at the head of the B. S. N. S. Training School, it will be none other than our classmate making her mark in the world.

Good-by—good luck—God bless you, is the wish of your pals.

In years to come, when memories haunt, think of the Normal "gals."

SOPHIA A. PODSIADLIK
Hanover Township High School
Warrior Run, Pa.
"Soph"

Podsiadlik! What a difficult matter it was for everyone to pronounce that name—for both teachers and pupils. But that wasn't so about her character. This was definitely proven when she was enlisted into the "Newport Gang" this year. She is quiet but only in its place. She sure helped to provide entertainment for the crowd. When it came to feeds Sophia was seldom lacking if it was for nothing else but "that cup of coffee," even though she had plans galore to write.

Talk about a real athletic girl! In basketball she made a first hand guard. A tennis racket is her best friend. She can outshine most of our good athletes in this respect. Hanover Township certainly had her inspired in these sports and she continued to show us what she knew in Athletics when she came to B. S. N. S.

Judging from her remarks concerning practice teaching, we know Sophia will be a good teacher. Don't disappoint us, Sophia.

GERTRUDE M. POWELL
Fairview High School
Mountain Top, Pa.
"Powell"

One could not fail to recognize "Powell" with her blue eyes, rosy cheeks and that pleasing personality.

Gertrude is a true friend, and a wonderful roommate. Last year we all thought Gertrude was safe and hidden from the darts of Cupid, but she has disappointed us.

"Powell" is an all round good sport and nothing is ever too much trouble for her if she can be of service to anyone.

Whenever there is anything like eats or a feed you can make sure "Powell" will be there.

Success and happiness in whatever you do, Gertrude, whether it be teaching or otherwise.

ELGIE V. PRUTZMAN
Luzerne High School
Luzerne, Pa.
"Lg" "Elg"

Everyone knows Elgie by her smile. Ever since she first came to us she has been an active member of the "Y. W." Through her experience as secretary, she, no doubt, will become a great help to the young gentleman she refers to so often as "Billie." We also know her as a member of the cast of "Pomander Walk" given by the Dramatic Club, in her Junior year. We have learned that she is a lover of samples. Be careful, Elgie, or you may get the kind that comes in small bottles. When it comes to being full of pep, she is always there with her tricks. Last but not least she is an Alpha Delta Zeta sister. Her hobby is writing letters to—well, we have mentioned his name before.

As a prospective teacher we wish her heaps of success, but as a future society woman we wish her still more.

HELEN PURSEL
 Danville High School
 Danville, Pa.
 "Percy"

And there came into our midst from the well known city of Danville a dark haired, brown eyed maiden whom everyone called "Percy." To know her is to love her. Her charming personality has won for her many friends.

Why "Percy" has chosen teaching for her profession instead of elocution is a puzzle which as yet has not been solved. We loved her as "office boy" in the Dramatic Club play, and praised her in the heavier Shakespearian role from "Twelfth Night."

She is also quite renowned for the poems which she compiles. Who's good at fortune telling, did you say? Well, just get a clean handkerchief and look for "Percy."

Why should "Percy" be partial to brown and white? We have just recently discovered that she is quite interested in Lehigh. "Percy" means much to Alpha Delta, and vice versa.

We wish this demure little girl the best the world contains.

VIOLA QUICK
 Huntington Township High School
 Fairmount Springs, Pa.
 "Quickie"

Here is another of those meek and quiet girls. She is not quiet, however, in Hygiene class. You see she belongs to the "giggling trio" there.

We certainly missed a lot by not having her in our Junior class. She will be leaving us again Second Semester.

Now, we wonder why she is interested in a place like Boston. Well, if you would like to know just look in the back of her watch. "Quickie" is certainly a good sport and always ready for fun. If she failed once in a certain test it was due to—just ask her. We know but we won't tell on you, "Quickie."

"Quickie" says she is going to teach next year but judging from letters and photographs from Boston, we would say differently. However, the jolly class of '26 send with you all good wishes in whatever you undertake.

AUDREY RAMBLE
Greene-Dreher Vocational School
Greentown, Pa.
"Audrey"

Here's to Audrey, the four square girl from Greentown. In other words Audrey is a good student, a good sport, a good classmate and a good friend. There is one great mystery about Audrey which has never been solved—she is very quiet among strangers but among her friends she is a never tiring conversationalist.

Audrey is seldom guilty of day dreaming but there are rumors that she spends much of her time gazing at the picture of two young athletes which hangs in her room.

Audrey is never idle a minute; when she is not up to mischief, she is working. She is a living example of the law of readiness—always ready to eat, ready to play, ready to work—sometimes. Audrey never fails to accomplish anything that she sets out to do and for that reason she is sure to make good in teaching.

STEPHINA H. RASMUS
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Steph" "Stephie"

"Stephie"—who on fourth floor does not know her? She was one of the famous "Newport Gang" which was so well known on fourth floor. We do not know which career she will follow for she seems to be quite a comedienne, as well as a very good student.

When it comes to "eats" there is no question of who should eat. It was always settled before hand. As a leader of parades and bands none could fill the role better than "Stephie."

Latest dance steps always set "Stephie" into action and the gang followed. A "loyal" member is the way we describe her.

She has the love and friendship of everyone she has come in contact with, and we all wish her the best of luck and success in her chosen profession, whichever it may be.

FLORENCE REES
Blakely High School
Peckville, Pa.
"Flossie"

Have you ever heard a rich baritone voice floating out of the Girls' Dormitory windows? If you have don't get excited. It is only "Flossie" entertaining her roomies. She not only entertains with her voice but she is also a second Fritz Kriessler.

It seems that skills not only attract her girl friends but also a certain young man who voices his attentions by his daily letters. Possibly this explains many of the week-end trips to Parsons.

But when it comes to work, "Flossie" does not care for it so much, but she is always prepared for her classes just the same. Sometimes "Flossie" gets the idea she is too tall but there is nothing like a tall and stately school teacher or director of music, so here's hoping you heaps of success.

LA VERNE REES
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Tod"

A burst of song, "two eyes of blue," smiling through a stray ringlet of brown hair, and before you is our La Verne. This introduction will always stand good, for she loves to sing. Such preference certainly indicates a sunny disposition in this case, as all who know her will testify.

It has been rumored throughout the school that those two blue eyes have wrought havoc upon more than one masculine heart at home and at school. If this is so, we think that the owners of said hearts have shown very good taste.

Everyone's friend, always willing to help and always in the front ranks when any mischief is on—this is the La Verne we'll remember and to whom we wish all success in the future.

MARGARET REESE
Mount Carmel High School
Mount Carmel, Pa.
"Peg"

All-hail to Mount Carmel for sending us such a pleasing little lassie as "Peg." This friendly little girl with her pleasing ways has made many friends here who will always remember her as a good quiet student (?). Oh well, she may not be as good and quiet as she seems; you'd know that if you had ever visited her when the gang had convened. "Peg's" hearty laugh can always be heard and jokes—none of them have anything on her.

"Peg" takes her work and teaching seriously and in consequence has proved herself a credit to our class. "Peg" is also one of the song birds, and has helped to push our Glee Club to the front.

To be or not to be, that is the question. Take our advice, "Peg," and be—we know how much he likes you! No, we won't tell any secrets.

Good-bye and the best of luck from
B. S. N. S.

MARION J. REINBOLD
Ringtown High School
Ringtown, Pa.
"Marion"

Marion isn't seen very often by many of us anymore, for most of her time is taken up by catching trains. Yes! she is another commuter who prefers her own home to "dorm" life.

She is studious and quiet, rarely giving her opinion, but when she does she means what she says.

She is a third year student, having taken the Junior High course. We cannot say that her teaching experience will be of any great length, for her heart seems to be bent toward the medical profession. Go ahead, Marion, for only the greatest success can be obtained by doing what your heart desires—if you love it, keep on striving for your M.D.

Marion is very shy about telling of her interests in other people—especially the opposite sex—yet there must be some one or why commute.

We, the class of '26, wish you all the success possible in whatever you do.

IRENE RHINARD
Benton High School
Still Water, Pa.
"Irene"

Irene is a pleasant and rather quiet, reserved young lady, and is a friend to everyone. (You can tell that by her smile which seldom comes off).

She does not live in the dormitory but is well known among her student friends. She is a good student and is always attentive in her work. We do not know much about her outside of school, for she doesn't advertise, but we do know that because of her understanding and sympathy she will be a wonderful teacher.

She is another one who is braving the country life, for she too is a member of the Rural Group.

Irene, your classmates are interested in you now and your future also. We have confidence in your ability to make good and we send you our heartiest wishes for the fulfillment of your desires.

MARGARET RICHARDS
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Peg"

Blue eyes, brown hair.
Gentle ways, never a care,
A happy smile, full of fun,
A girl who's loved by everyone.

"Peg" belongs to the very exclusive Locker Room Gang. We are very glad to have her too, for to know her is to love her. To her acquaintances, "Peg" appears reserved and quiet, but those who know her realize that she is full of fun. When you see "Peg" with a smile lurking around her lips and a mischievous twinkle in her eyes you can just bet that she has a secret to tell. How interesting it has been to listen to her delightful secrets about???

What a pleasure it would be to be a pupil in one of "Peg's" classes. I am sure that we should all love our teacher.

The Gang wishes you heaps o' success.

RUTH RICHARDS
Huntington Mills High School
Huntington Mills, Pa.
"Ruth"

Ruth is one of these girls who, no matter what happens, always looks serene and calm. We can't tell just what she is thinking that's what makes her all the more mysterious. She's a good sport though, and when you see that twinkle in her eye, you can well wonder how she manages to keep still so long in Sociology, etc., etc.

Ruth boards in town and that is probably the reason we don't see as much of her as we would like to. She is industrious but enjoys a good time as much as anyone. She wins friends easily and after you know her you can appreciate the saying, "Still water runs deep."

Although men do not seem to worry Ruth at all, we'd say, "You never can tell!" and let it go at that. This means there are some secrets we can't tell.

We know she enjoyed her practice teaching and we are sure she will enjoy teaching just as much, after she leaves here. No matter what line of work you take up, Ruth, here's wishing you the most and best of luck, happiness and success.

JAMES RITTER
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Jimmie"

"Jimmie" brings with him the qualities of a real, lively, up-to-date, 1926 student. He is seen very often standing about the halls studying some phase of Science. He is very highly educated along the lines of Science, Biology, and Nature Study.

Though "Jimmie" did not engage in any athletics during the stay at B. S. N. S., he has proved to be a valuable person during any athletic event. His cheering can be heard far above the multitude of voices.

"Jimmie" is ready to debate on any subject that may arise about the Locker Room or Class Room. Then, too, he can keep a solemn face after he has played some pranks upon the boys of the Locker Room.

Here's wishing you the best of luck, "Jimmie."

ELSA ROBBINS
Millville High School
Millville, Pa.
"Elsa"

Elsa is another downtown girl that we can't help but love. She has won the hearts of everyone by the rare charm of her personality. An all around sport is Elsa. Hiking, swimming and canoeing are her chief delights.

Is she courageous? Well, I guess! This she exhibited last year when she jumped out of the Nature Study lecture room window. This has been a secret of Elsa's, so we will not tell anyone. If you care to know how it all came about, consult Elsa.

Elsa is a good student and we are sure she will make a good teacher if she doesn't get side-tracked by cupid. Whatever it is, Elsa, your classmates wish you the best of luck and happiness.

GRACE D. ROBBINS
Tredyffrin-Easttown High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Grace"

When we returned to school this fall and found Grace's little sister gone off to Columbia, we wondered how Grace could ever have allowed her to do it—why she didn't go along too. But—after being in town a few weeks I think we have been able to solve the problem. "Don't blame you in the least, Grace, we wouldn't be so interested in college, either!"

Grace is quite athletically inclined; she also likes to sing, dance and hike, but the sport she likes most of all is exercising the Durant. Who can blame her? Most of us would like to do the same thing if only we had the same chance.

We really don't know what Grace is studying for but we are interested and anxiously waiting to see how she solved her various cases. Throughout her three years of study Grace has been a diligent student and an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma.

We wish you a happy and a successful career.

MARY J. ROBERTS
Plains High School
Plains, Pa.
"Mary J."

Mary J. is another one of the charming lassies of B. S. N. S. who can be called a good sport. This good-natured talkative lady is a source of fun and entertainment to her intimate friends, although she appears rather quiet and sedate to the rest of us.

Mary J.'s weakness, it seems, is hot-dogs. How she does love them! But, Mary, they are served cold in Plains, aren't they?!

Mary has her own ideas of fun, too. Capricious Miss, that she is, derived much amusement from dressing brooms up as ghosts and putting them in other girl's windows. We know you were partly responsible for those tricks in your Junior year, Mary.

A chevrolet seems to be the most attractive car on the market to her. But then—we don't wonder.

She is very much interested in her teaching and we know that she will make good. The best of luck to you, Mary.

BARBARA ROCHE
Ashley High School
Ashley, Pa.
"Babs"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you; weep and you weep alone," so "Babs," who never liked to be alone, never wept.

"Babs" graduated from the Ashley High School in 1924, where she was very active in school athletics, being on the Girls' Varsity Basketball team for two years.

She went to West Chester Normal School for one semester and came to Bloomsburg during the second half of our Junior year. We were glad to have her for every where she went she spread the contagion of happiness. She is one of those happy-go-lucky-divil-may-care girls, who never worry about anything until they have to. We have found evidence also that if we were to travel o'er "Babs" mind we would hit a considerable number of "bumps" of knowledge. When tests came along Barbara's speedometer registered one hundred per cent. plus.

Laugh along "Babs"! May good luck be yours!

ELEANOR J. RODERICK
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Eleanor"

Eleanor is a quiet, industrious sort of girl, who always has everything up to date. She has a big heart, which is the kindest ever, and she will do anything for her friends. She is a blue-eyed, curly haired maid with a pleasant smile and a merry laugh. What would fourth floor annex do without her? We simply can't imagine anything so dreary. Everyone knows when there's any fun to be had, Eleanor wants to be in the midst of it. And as for "cats," the gang can testify to that.

Eleanor has proved herself sincerely as a friend and pal. We are sure of her success, and our best wishes are hers.

CHRISTINE B. ROEDER
Catawissa High School
Catawissa, Pa.
"Teen"

Christine is one of the best "regular good fellows" around. Everyone loves "Teen" and when she is not around there's always the cry, "Where's Christine?"

In the Mu Phi Sigma she's on the regular demand. As our secretary she has duties galore, but she never shirks. We're not only proud of her for her many good qualities but also for her high standing in scholarship. She's a fine pal in every way.

As far as we know Christine never gets into scrapes. According to one of her chums we learn that she never did anything disgraceful except have the chickenpox in High School. How extremely alarming! Poor Christine!

Is it any wonder that "Teen" is going to make a wonderful success? We should say not! It's perfectly certain that this is true after only one visit to her class room during a teaching period. Well, old pal, just heaps of success and much, very much, happiness.

JOHN ROWLANDS
Plains High School
Plains, Pa.
"Jack"

"Jack" came to us from Plains High School just two years ago. His disposition, being that of a quiet unassuming person, caused us to wonder just what he would mean to us. We did not wait long, however, for "Jack" soon won a place in our hearts.

Knowing his ability at leadership and for winning friends, he was elected Captain of our Football Team and he played a great game all season. He held a few other offices while at this institution, among which fell President of the Dramatic Club and Treasurer of the B. D. C. Organization.

When off the gridiron Jack spent most of his time studying and he certainly can study. He is at present undecided as to what he will take up in later life. Irrespective of what he may choose to do he may rest assured that he carries with him best wishes of a legion of friends for a big, successful life—one particular friend especially—no need for blushing, "Jack." Play the game of life as hard as you played football and you will come out on top.

JEANETTE RUSSEL
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Jean"

"Jean"—"Jean"—"Jean"— Calls of friends and calls for aid. Her friends were many and she was never too busy to help some one.

"Jean's" virtues are many, and we find her a friend true blue, ready for mischief, eager to help—an all-round pal.

Can she sing? You should hear her. Songs never ending—funny songs—sweet songs—sad songs—merry songs—"Jean" is never at a loss—Music is her pal. "Jean" is also in love with dress parades, especially when she can wear a certain hat. Ask her about it.

"Jean" tells us she is going to teach at least six years. But, my friends, if you could see the handwriting on a certain wall and know certain some-things, you would sort of raise your eyebrows and think things and agree that a certain avocation, as well as a vocation, may be obtained in Hazleton.

We bid you farewell, "Jean," and wish you luck, happiness and success.

GEORGE SACK
Newport Twp. High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Sockie"

"Sockie" came to us known as a great basketball star. He received his reputation during the High School Basketball Tournaments that were held here, and he certainly has lived up to it. He has had three years of playing while at Normal, for he is a member of the Junior High School group, and he has developed a reputation of being one of the best guards that ever set foot on Bloomsburg's Basketball Court.

"Sockie" was also noted for his ability to entertain his many friends. While in his presence you were never known to lack enjoyment.

He joined the B. D. C. Orchestra, and wherever they played "Sockie" was always surrounded by a multitude of students.

Although many of the fairer sex have tried to charm "Sockie," only one has ever succeeded during his three years' stay at the Normal School, and that was during his first year.

"Sockie," we are sure you will always reign supreme and here is wishing you the best of everything throughout life.

HELEN SANDERSON
Honesdale High School
Honesdale, Pa.

"The best way to have a friend is to be one."

This seems to have been Helen's motto during her two years of work here, for wherever she goes she is greeted with a cheery smile. Everyone knows her, and to know her is to love her.

Helen is always in for a good time and has livened up many a "gathering." That she is also studious was shown by the fact that she was second on the Honor Roll during our Junior year. She is an Athletic Leader and it is her artistic hand which decorates the athletic posters so often seen in the halls.

Helen's favorite topic of conversation is Penn State. As the popular advertisement says, "There's a reason," and there are strong indications that the reason is a Sophomore at the said institution.

Here's wishing you luck, Helen, and hoping that you always get the thing you want and always want the thing you get. You have the best wishes of the class of '26.

JEANNETTE SAVIDGE
Mifflinville High School
Mifflinville, Pa.
"Jeannette"

Jeannette is another one of our commuters. If you do not know Jeannette, by all means, make her acquaintance. Her dark eyes fairly sparkle with mischievousness, and wherever she is, a good time is assured to all. She is a friend always worth having.

Her one failing is laughing. She surely has a hearty laugh, and makes all about her laugh, also. May you always keep such a happy disposition.

Jeannette is a hard worker along with all her good times. As a teacher she has met with a great deal of success here, and we feel sure that more success will be hers within the future.

Best luck to you, Jeannette.

MARGARET H. SCANLON
Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
"Peg"

"Peg" is one who helps comprise the famous "Three Sillies," and is well known throughout the Dorm for her queer giggle and cheery ways.

If ever in demand, "Peg" can always be found in the gymnasium trying the latest dance steps, or else in someone's room, where a feed is going on. And we are sure she missed her vocation by coming to B. S. N. S., because of a sudden interest in shoes and boots?!

Accidents are bound to happen and this she discovered at the game between our Normal and Seminary, but don't care, "Peg," it couldn't be helped.

"Peg" is also known for her public speaking and athletics, especially basketball and tennis.

Due to her winning personality she has won her way into the hearts of many and alas! not only of the female sex. Judging from "State" letters she gets, we are sure her career as a teacher will not be a long one.

Success and happiness are our sincere wishes for you, "Peg."

MARION SCHELBERT
Greene-Dreher Vocational School
Newfoundland, Pa.
"Bert"

"A meek little damsel,
Who never frets or frowns,
She meets with smiles and laughter
All of life's ups and downs.
She's neither pert nor saucy,
She's always willing to please—
What, may I ask, other virtues
Can be found to outdo these?"

Meet "Bert," our worthy representative from that little town above Scranton. This piece of poetry was written expressly for her—she's all that it personifies, and more. By her virtues, she came to be a member of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, an athletic leader, and one of the first on the Honor Roll of '25.

"Bert" is everything "good" you can think of—good scholar, good conversationalist, good sport and so on. She has no failings besides chocolate—in any form, Penn State, Proms and "Earls" with a "Price" on their head.

Her aims are high, her wazons are hitched to stars which can be reached by such as she; and her life is bound to be full of success and brilliancy—here's wishing you loads of both!

SUE ETHEL SCHOLL
Rochester Business Institute
Halifax, Pa.
"Ethel"

Many people have gone to "Halifax," but our "Ethel" was the first one to come back again.

A few years ago Sue Ethel was a student at Bloomsburg, but she had a stronger appeal for the Commercial line of teaching. As a Commercial teacher she has been in the Cold Northwest and in the Sunny Southland. For the last year and a half she was in Perth Amboy, New Jersey, but she finally decided that Pennsylvania was the best state after all.

Although she has been of the class only one semester we have found that she is not only capable but also laughable.

Since she has already been most successful in her teaching we can but add our best wish to that.

MILLIE I. SHROPPE
Tower City High School
Tower City, Pa.
"Millie"

Has she pep? Can't be beat! She never remains quiet or allows anyone else too. Who was it that helped the Juniors forget their homesickness but Millie? She is always ready to cheer somebody's drooping spirits. It is impossible to feel blue when she begins talking and joking.

Millie can always be found in the "Gym" after dinner. Can she dance? She surely can and she never lacks the practice for she goes to every dance that the school ever gives.

Those who ever walked down town with Millie know what invariably happens if a "Bull Dog Mack" truck passes. She will give a gasp and say, "Here comes a 'Bull Dog Mack. Where is the Arm Leader?" We have not been able thus far to find the meaning of these words—but you know that more men drive cars than women!

We know that we shall all miss Millie's jolly personality, but we also know that she will be a success in her school teaching career or in any other work she might take up. Millie will always have a host of friends wherever she goes for she will be well worthy of these words—a true friend.

ANNA JEAN SCOTT
Kingston High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Ann" "Scotty"

Clickety-click-click comes a pair of heels down the hall, slam goes the door, bang goes a pile of books on the study table and without looking up we know the whirlwind is "Ann."

She has always been full of life and zest, whether it be constructing human beings from brooms, pillows, slickers and hats, or making charts and lesson plans. For further information concerning the first, consult any of her neighbors on fourth floor annex.

But down underneath the fun-loving surface there is a serious side which comes to life whenever there is work to be done. She is the best pal and friend a person could have. All in all "Ann" is just an adorable bit of humanity.

The class of '26 wish you all the luck and happiness possible in your teaching, "Ann."

CARRIE I. SCOVELL
Lehman High School
Shawanese, Pa.
"Carrie"

Carrie came to us two years ago a very quiet, but industrious little girl. She was another fellow sufferer in music class, but with might and main she toed the mark.

Does she study? Well, I guess! She is fond of teaching and likes to make lesson plans. She says she is going to be a school marm all her life, but we doubt this as she seems to be very anxious to go home when vacation time comes. We wonder why???

We never could find out why she didn't want to room in the dormitory. Maybe it was the fudge that "Bob" made. However, we can all have our own ideas.

Carrie, we know that you will be a success in the vocation you have chosen, and the class of '26 knows that you will always be as sweet as you were during the two years that you were with us.

Much love to you, Carrie.

LOIS SECHRIST
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Lois"

Lois is loved by all who know her because of her gentle, winsome ways. One might think her very quiet until they know her, then they change their mind.

Lois is one of '26's earnest workers. She often wears a serious expression on her face and works with untiring effort. When matters of grave importance are about to be discussed and duly considered, Lois shows her interest by contributing her share to help the cause.

Now, dear readers, don't think from this that Lois and I am strangers, for there you are wrong. They are the best of friends.

We feel sure that her pleasant disposition and her desire to help others will make Lois's life a happy and useful one.

EMMA D. SELECKY
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Emma"

Have you ever noticed the little blond girl who belongs to that organization known as the "Newporters"? It is none other than Emma.

She looks quiet and demure, doesn't she? Well, if you ever happened on fourth floor, main hall, you wouldn't say she was quiet. Of course, there are exceptions to every rule, so we can say this: The proctors never had to rap on her door after ten o'clock.

You will all agree with me when I say that Emma's two years at Normal were very happy ones. Surely all the Newport girls know that! Along with the happy moments, Emma was sure to get her work done, for she was a studious girl. Especially when it came time to practice for the next music class, Emma could be heard far above the others doing her best to be sure to know it.

Emma has nothing on the rest of us when it comes to eats. Her favorite saying was "Let's make cocoa." Does she like candy? Well, we'll say so! If you won't tell any one, I'll tell you a secret. Between classes when the rest of the "gang" were out of sight, she and her girl friend spent most of their time in the pressing room making fudge. They thought it was a secret, but—?

VIOLA SHIBER
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Viola"

Just look at her picture and you will know that Viola is mischievous. She is just bubbling over with fun. It is a pleasure to hear her jolly laugh. That curly hair is her crowning glory. Viola is ambitious, jolly, good natured and, after her work is finished, always ready for a good time. She finds pleasure in everything she does. Her friends always appreciate her treats when she has eats, for one of her favorite sayings is "Want something to eat?" She has another famous cry, too, "Is the mail in?" We are wondering why?

Viola is a friend whom you would be really glad to have. She had much success in her teaching at Normal, and we feel sure she will be just as successful in the future. Our only warning, Viola, is "Do not make your career as a teacher too short."

M. FLORENCE SHOVLIN
Freeland High School
Drifton, Pa.
"Flossy"

Industrious and quiet is our "Flossy." Do you think she will ever stop studying and having a good time? I should say not.

"Flossy" comes from Drifton. Did you ever hear of that place? No, well, it is on the map and is a very nice place and so is "Flossy." She likes to go home quite often but she likes to stay at B. S. N. S., too. I wonder why?

She is a good sport, always ready for a good time. She rather expects to be a school teacher, but we have our doubts. However, we wish you just the best of success and happiness.

MARJORIE K. SICK
Tunkhannock High School
Mehoopany, Pa.
"Marge"

"Marge," after teaching and attending summer school, decided to try a winter with us at B. S. N. S.

She is always ready to help anyone along any line. Nothing that she has undertaken has remained unfinished. She possesses that wonderful faculty of being able to make and keep friends.

"Marge" receives many boxes and tells us they are from home, but we doubt it. Every day she makes a resolution that she will not visit Bush's any more, but every afternoon she breaks it and then???

"Marge" is diligent and thorough in her school work and is consistently efficient in all she attempts. She does not believe in all work and no play, however, for after the work is finished there are few jollier girls than she. She has chosen the Intermediate work as her field of activity. We feel sure that she will succeed in all her endeavors and we wish her luck.

FRANCES SILVERMAN
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Silverman"

"Silverman" hails from Bloomsburg and is very proud of the fact. Every day she may be seen wending her way to the Normal to acquire an education. She is a very studious young woman and seems to take her work very seriously. She is always willing to help a friend and many times has proven herself a friend in need.

One of "Silverman's" pet hobbies is being saleslady in her father's shoe store. At this she seems to be very proficient and seems to win the favor of her customers.

Although "Silverman" does not live in the dorm she may often be seen there dressing dolls for art projects. She is also very fond of music and was an active member of the Glee Club.

We hope that "Silverman" will be as successful in teaching as she has been in the training school. Here's luck!

SARAH SISKIN
East Chicago High School
Shenandoah, Pa.
"Sally"

One could write forever and still have something to say. From glancing at the picture you would think her very serious, but not so, for wherever there is any fun "Sally" is in on it. Many a night she has entertained the "gang" in Room 280 with thrilling accounts of her experiences while living in England and in various parts of the United States.

"Sally" is an excellent pianist, which she has proven to us on many occasions. Her future can easily be predicted by her impersonations of the musical artists that visit B. S. N. S. and other operas which she has witnessed. We all wish you success and hope that some day we have the pleasure of seeing you fill that position — or teaching — or ??????

HAZEL SMITH
Huntinton Mills High School
Shickshinny, Pa.
"Hazel"

Hazel is one of the faithfuls of the rural group. She has lived at Shortess's for the two years, so that we haven't seen much of her, but we must say to those that don't know her that you have missed much.

She spends most of her time studying and takes great pleasure in helping others. If you ever need a friend, go to Hazel. She is always willing to do whatever she can for anyone.

Hazel gets a great many letters from New York and she insists that they are written by her cousin. We wonder if any one could be so excited and delighted upon receiving a letter from a cousin. There is no doubt that Hazel will be successful for anyone who is as conscientious in their work as she is cannot help but succeed. So here are our best wishes to you. GOOD LUCK.

MARGARET M. SMITH
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Red"

OII! that Red Head Gal. She's got lots of 'em worried. Yes, "Red" is one of the three Sillies, who has gained much popularity at school, due to her great athletic ability. "Red" does not believe in having artistic ability, because of the extra work—! She is always found where her other two pals are—"The Pegs."

Since September "Red" has taken a fancy to house furnishings, such as sofas, and especially a Davenport.

"Red" regrets that the mail service is so slow between Notre Dame and B. S. N. S. But in the meantime she contents herself by singing, "Oh, how I miss you tonight."

Success to you, "Red," and may your future be always as bright as your hair.

LEORA V. SOUDER
Nescopeck High School
Nescopeck, Pa.
"Leora"

Leora is one of our quiet girls who hail from Nescopeck, but everyone who has been fortunate enough to gain her friendship prizes it very highly.

We notice that Leora has plenty of time for reading, and going to the movies. But she always has her work done, for when she works she works with a will.

Leora is interested in all sports, especially basketball. We wonder if that is the only reason why she goes to the Library seeking news of the Y. M. C. A. Basketball Team at Berwick, or if there is another reason.

Leora is always glad when some one mentions a hike to Light Street. Remember the good cats you had at Hotel Remely. Another way to make Leora happy is to notify the weather man to send snow.

From present indications we think she will stay long with us as a teacher, but from a hint dropped we are lead to believe she prefers the sea to land.

Whatever you may do, Leora, good luck.

HELEN MAY SPARE
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Spare"

There is a friendly, jolly look about Helen which will make you wish to know her better. That this first impression is correct, is shown by the way she has made friends both here and elsewhere—Mauch Chunk, for instance. If you ever wish to locate Helen, simply look for the neatest room on fourth floor—it will be hers.

"Spare" has an original way of expressing herself, to which her pet expression bears virtues. We all admit that "My cow" is in a class by itself as an exclamation.

Once safely out of the dining room, "Helen May" confesses a liking for cinnamon buns, especially if the evidence is upon her.

The Dramatic and Glee Clubs are among the activities of this busy girl. She is fond of hiking, dancing and music. Her attractive personality and many interests will surely be aids in her future work. "Spare," we speed you on to success.

HELEN A. STAPINSKI
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Helen"

"The lights are out, girls!" "Here comes the 'sup'," were two famous expressions heard on fourth floor after ten o'clock.

Helen's name was never omitted from the program given by the Newport crowd. Her favorite feature was a dancing stunt, accompanied by the "Newport Orchestra."

As President of the U. N. I. Club, Helen was always at the lead of everything, especially in getting up for breakfast every morning. When business was over her cry was, "When do we eat?" I wonder if she always got what she wanted at these feeds?

Did some one say she was artistic? You should see some of the work she has done in the art class, and also some of the posters she made for the Children's Literature class. Suggestions and help! You just ask any one on fourth floor, or anywhere in fact, if Helen was ever willing to help or give any suggestions when any one was in need. Her alert mind and her pleasing personality and disposition are some of the many things that have helped her to gain as many friends as she has. As for her being studious herself—why a look at any of the teacher's roll book or the honor roll will show that Helen was always at the top.

IDA STEINERT
Sunbury High School
Sunbury, Pa.
"Ida"

"Who's the girl with the smile?"

"Oh, haven't you heard? I thought everybody knew Ida. She has a football, they say, in her top bureau drawer. Kazlusky must have given it to her. You didn't know Kaz, did you? He was one of the three all round sportsmen named in last year's Obitier. As luck would have it, he happened to be around when Ida lost her way in the kitchen, so he helped her out again. We won't tell you the rest of the story; nevertheless, she gets mail from Michigan.

Ida is a fine girl and right jolly on occasions. Her smile, as you have noticed, has made her famous at school and won for her many, many friends.

She is a staunch member of the Rural Club and will make a splendid teacher. She's a peach of a girl all right, and here's wishing her luck.

LAURA B. STEVENS
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Stevie"

Here she is! If you don't know "Stevie," I should advise you to get acquainted with her. She is a jolly, good-natured, golden-haired lassie beloved by everyone in Normal. Laura is always ready to have a good time, and is a live wire if there is anything going on.

She is a student with ability and has been very successful in the work of the Junior High School group, in which she has chosen to specialize.

She is a happy-go lucky girl and rather expects to teach, but expectations do not always come true, especially in the face of such circumstantial evidence. Doncha care, "Stevie." Whether you teach a group, or one single person, may success always be with you.

CLEOTA STINER
Orangeville High School
Orangeville, Pa.
"Cleota"

Cleota is one of our day students hailing from the town of Orangeville. She prefers the quiet life at home and the daily drive in her Ford Coupe to the "quiet" life in Bloomsburg.

Cleota's appearance denotes quietness but we find appearances deceiving, because Cleota is generally present where there is any fun.

When you speak of any sports, don't forget to mention Cleota, for she is very fond of all athletics, particularly basketball, where she plays center, and she certainly does fulfill her position.

We must not fail to remember Cleota's willingness to accommodate. Not once has anyone asked her to do something without it being cheerfully and well done.

We know that you will succeed in your chosen work. Cleota, and you have our best wishes for a bright and prosperous future.

WILLIAM STOKER
Newport Twp. High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Bill"

"Bill" has proved his worth to us in many ways, especially on the athletic field, his specialty being line plunging. His ability on the basketball was also far above the mean. Although he has taken part in athletics he has not slighted his studies in the least. As far as we know, he is an earnest student and spends his spare moments well.

Yet there is one thing singular about "Bill." The fact that he has not at any time given way to the fairer sex is a point strong in his favor. To be sure there were occasions when a moving picture or a Sunday evening service presented exceptional opportunities and a slight deviation from normal occurred. Or, perhaps, a well balanced meal may have prolonged a conversation in the hall, but on the whole his course was rather steady. Strong must be the man to direct his course without some little departure or adventure into a love affair. And when good looks are concerned the task becomes intensified.

Wanamie is one of the most highly respected communities in the state, and as a model of its citizens, we present "Bill." Good luck to you, "Bill," in all of your undertakings.

MIRIAM STRAUB
Scott Township High School
Espy, Pa.
"Teddy"

"Hurry on, girls, we'll be late for class!" When you heard this exclamation, you could be very sure that "Teddy" was in the vicinity. She always had such a dreadful time getting the girls started for class!

Those who know "Teddy" say she is an ideal girl. She has all of those qualities that make for character, ambition, ingenuity, and a lovable personality. Besides possessing all of these qualities, "Teddy" has a sunny disposition, which makes all whom she meets love her. She thinks—

"Keep your face always toward the sunshine and the shadows will fall behind you."

As a teacher here at school she has shown unusual ability, and so "Teddy," we wish that you may meet with success and happiness, and that all of your dreams will come true.

CATHERINE A. STRINE
Milton High School
Milton, Pa.

From the neighboring town of Milton came this lass to travel the road of Knowledge.

When you want something done, you can depend on Catherine. She has shown herself to be an able scholar, which can be proven by a peep at the Honor Roll. Small wonder! Whenever you see her she is poring over a book. She always has time, however, to lend a helping hand to someone in need, and to give a pleasant smile. Often you can see and hear her cheery laugh ring through the corridor.

Catherine says she can not be bothered with the opposite sex while in school. She is not wholly indifferent in her attitude, we notice, and there will be plenty of time when B. S. N. S. days are over.

Catherine, we are sure you will be successful.

RUTH SULT
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Rusty"

They say that good things come in small packages, and after we saw "Rusty," we believed it. Unanimously, we vote her the happiest, most cheerful little girl we know. She has never been known to lose her temper or become the least bit angry, which is saying a lot.

Like everyone else, "Rusty" has her hobby—dogs. One day during a gym class on the hockey field, we discovered that one of our teams was minus a player, and we wanted "Rusty" to take her place, but—"Rusty" was too busy playing ball with two dogs.

However, we have found one topic which she dislikes to discuss and that's study. Oh, yes—of course, she studies but she'd much rather do almost anything else. Who wouldn't?

Well, Rusty, we all contend that if you keep your sunny disposition, you'll make a wonderful teacher, not only in the intermediate grades but in the kindergarten—and you take with you our best wishes for success in teaching—and every thing else.

BERTHA M. SUTLIFF
Kingston Township High School
Trucksville, Pa.
"Bert"

Shy and timid—yes! until you know her, you would think that Bertha was "silence itself." She has a laugh which is really contagious and she never seems to worry over anything. She is always willing to help someone less fortunate than herself. She is never happier than when making a week's supply of lesson plans.

We can't understand what the attraction for M. S. N. S. is, but there must be one, for "Bert" is always looking for mail from Mansfield. If she doesn't watch out, we will doubt her statement that she is going to be an "Old Maid school teacher."

Bertha chose the Primary group upon which to center her attention and we feel sure she will be a success, for she just loves the "kiddies." The class of '26 wishes you a measure heaped and overflowing of success.

MARY A. SWEENEY
St. Vincent's High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Sweeney"

Happy-go-lucky and smiling Mary. Sometime she looks quiet and sedate, but is she? Just step in front of Room 303 some night and then you will know. You will no doubt hear merry peals of laughter caused by "Sweeney's" anecdotes and antics.

"Sweeney" is always ready to have a good time and she is a live wire when there is anything going on. Behind those blue eyes there is a deep unending story of mischief which crops out every so often.

When "Sweeney" is not sleeping, she is playing cards. Another pastime of her's is dressing herself up in trunk-covers, curtains and draperies. We wonder why she does this? If she is not entertaining us with her ready wit, she often delights in teasing us.

Mary's one great ambition is to become a member of the B. S. N. S. Faculty—but in her Junior year she thought seriously of becoming a fireman.

As a teacher Mary has met with much success and we are sure that more success will be her's in the future. Here's our best wishes.

ARLENE SWEET
Clarks Summit High School
Clarks Summit, Pa.
"Sweetie"

"Sweetie" was a demure little lass when Clarks Summit handed her over to the care of B. S. N. S. in the September of 1924. She soon made us sit up and take notice, however, and was elected Class Secretary, and first secretary of the Student Council. Her superiority was also shown by the fact that the end of first semester saw her in the front ranks of the Honor Roll.

If I were to stop now and leave you with just these impressions of "Sweetie" you would never know the other big side of her personality.

Does she like the boys? Here is the answer: "Most girls like their brothers, but I so good have grown. That I like other girl's brothers far better than my own."

Yes, "Sweetie" is a regular heart breaker—hold'er, K. A. For additional information read the following:

She has learned the meaning of a frat pin.

She will loan a party dress to any girl who is small enough to wear one.

Last, but not least, she always lives up to her name, and if she keeps up this last, we'll forgive the rest.

JOSEPHINE TEDESCO
Old Forge High School
Old Forge, Pa.
"Jo"

No one could fail to recognize "Jo" with her thick, black bobbed hair and her sparkling eyes which are simply brimming over with mischief. She has a smile and a cheery "Hello" for everyone, and in exchange she looks for something to eat. Her famous cry is, "Are you going down town for eats?" This can be heard through the halls frequently.

We wonder why "Jo" likes to attend all the games and dances? Maybe time will tell. Although men do not seem to cause "Jo" much concern this year, we are inclined to believe that her interest is centered around Scranton, judging from the numerous letters she receives weekly. Every Sunday afternoon you hear "Jo" say, "Here comes a Ford Roadster up the hill; I wonder—?" So do we all, but what's the use?

Here's wishing that "Jo," a good sport and a good friend, will meet the problems of teaching with the same attitude as she meets her friends. We, as a class, wish you success and happiness in all you undertake.

ELIZABETH A THOMAS
Dorranceton High School
Luzerne, Pa.
"Liz"

In the fall of 1924, among the many new Juniors that entered B. S. N. S., Elizabeth came with the idea of becoming a sedate school teacher. It was not long before we learned to know her as a vivacious young lady who was always willing to play a joke on someone. She was a member of the Glee Club during her Junior Year, as well as the Y. W. C. A. Some day we expect to see Elizabeth on the stage as an opera singer, because of the extraordinary quality of her voice. Best of success along that line, Elizabeth.

We wonder why it is that she is always happy when berries are served for dinner. There must be a reason. Elizabeth is a peach of a girl, a real buddy, and always has a laugh for everyone. We know that she will make a good school teacher but we doubt if she will teach very long. However, best of luck and success for your future happiness.

LOUISE J. THOMPSON
Peckville High School
Peckville, Pa.
"Skinny"

If you haven't met Louise, you haven't met one of the jolliest girls here. A good sport? Well, we should say so. She can enjoy a joke on herself as well as on the other fellow.

Louise bids fair to be one of our future "Hockey Stars." When she comes down the field driving that ball, well, there simply isn't any stopping to her. As all athletes need real food, she is no exception to the rule. If she isn't eating it isn't she. Often when we are leaving a mid-night feed, she is the life of the party with her wit and clever acting.

Louise always looks forward to vocations. Shall we tell the reason why?

A little birdie tells us that she is not the demure little lady she may appear to be when they are looking for the person who played the pranks, especially the night of the athletic banquet. Do you remember? In whatever you do in life we wish you the best of luck and success.

JOHN TIMKO
Mining and Mechanical Institute
Freeland, Pa.
"Timko"

"Timko" entered our class in the mad rush of '26 in our Senior year. He had previously spent a few summer sessions here and had thus made up his Junior work.

"Timko" was a valiant worker and his worth was soon felt when an advertising manager for the Ohiter was needed. He fulfilled his position in a wonderful manner. He is also a real worker about the classroom and he spends most of his leisure moments studying.

He is the one person in this institution who seems to be living on love. He is a very light eater and it seems to be a miracle that he is able to survive on such a small amount for such a large person.

"Timko" seems to be well supplied with mail from Freeland and he seems to be highly elated after reading these letters. Is that why you never developed a case here????? we wonder. Here's wishing you all the success in the world, "Timko."

ARLENE TITEL
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.

Although Arlene is a down-town girl her face is familiar in the girl's dormitory.

She possesses a most pleasing manner and she is always in the bright side of life, never bothers the dark side. One's first impression of Arlene, that she is very quiet and reserved girl in true, but yet rather deceiving, for we all come to know her to be loving and jolly.

By the way, from the fine reports that come from her training teacher, we believe Arlene is going to make one of our first class intermediate teachers, but if all we hear is true Arlene's teaching career will not be long, but whatever your future work may be the class of '26 wishes you success and happiness, Arlene.

LOUISE E. TREGASKIS
Plains High School
Plains, Pa.
"Lou"

Here is another one of our quiet girls, but if you should catch her unawares and happen to get a glimpse of the ever present twinkle in her eye, you would know that she is not as quiet as she seems and she, too, like the rest of us, loves a good time.

There is a little lady on back hall who is always anxious for the mail (when the marks are out), and she almost always receives a letter. Never mind, Louise, we are anxious for the mail to be put in, and often receive letters ourselves, but time will tell why you watch the mail box.

She has a personality that has won for her many friends and she is loved by all who know her as a true and faithful friend. As a teacher we don't think she'll last long, that is, if letters from Maryland mean anything.

We predict a speedy journey to success, though along what line we cannot say. In the meantime, best wishes from the class of '26.

ELIZABETH TREIBLEY
Shamokin High School
Snydertown, Pa.
"Betty"

Lots of pep, a cheery greeting for everyone, always that's "Betty." She surely does have a bright and sunshiny disposition.

By the way, "Betty's" the only one in our crowd with a pet name, but Elizabeth is such a long name and we're not so sure but that Jerry might have had something to do with the shortening.

We wonder what has become of "Betty"? She used to play for us in the Gym, for the evening dances, but since Jerry has returned to his Alma Mater, Betty is playing sweeter music in the parlor.

"Betty" did her practise teaching first semester so she has already shown ability along this line and we feel quite confident that she will be a successful teacher.

JESSICA C. TRIMBLE
Kingston High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Jep"

We'll say she has pep. Never remains quiet or allows anyone else too; that is, of course, excepting her "study hour"???

"Jep" is an all round good sport, especially does she like coasting. We'll never forget the time she coasted to Light Street, and some of her experiences on the way. Never mind, "Jep," we all had fun and anyway, "It's the little things that count."

"Jep's" smile has won for her much popularity among the students. We never yet have seen her without it, so evidently she must be thinking pleasant thoughts.

"Jep's" favorite boast is, "I'll never encumber myself taking a husband"—but time will tell???

We all wish you the greatest of success as a teacher, whether it be in the class room or in the home.

DOROTHY TROY
Hazleton High School
Rock Glen, Pa.
"Dot"

She talks when she comes,
She talks when she goes,
And what she talks about
Every one knows.

Since "Dot" entered Bloomsburg Normal she has proved herself to be a student tried and true. One can always see her trotting around busily engaged in some task or other. The evidence of this is seen in her participation in the Glee Club, Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority, Presbyterian Church Choir, and other school activities.

"Dot" appears to be a firm believer in the quotation, "All that you do, do with your might; for whatever she attempts she goes at whole heartedly and with a do or die spirit.

Although we fear that Dorothy will not stay at her chosen profession long, we are confident of her success, as merit goes never unrewarded.

ROY TROY
B. S. N. S. High School Dept.
Nuremburg, Pa.
"Tucker"

"Tucker" is one of North Hall's happy-go-lucky fellows. He can always be seen hurrying to classrooms just as the second bell is ringing. He never hurries until he hears the first bell ring and then by the time he gets all dolled up the second bell rings and he is late to class.

Do not misjudge "Tucker" and think he is a slacker, because he isn't. He is one of the number who helped make the B. S. N. S. Symphony Orchestra possible. Roy and his drums aided Mr. Carter in organizing an orchestra, which was thought impossible. He also loves to study nature and to follow the Biological Sciences.

Yet, amid all his toil he still finds time to loiter about the halls in the presence of a fair young lady. He is a firm believer in the fact that variety is the spice of life. During his three years stay at Normal he certainly has had variety in his choice of friends from the fairer sex.

Here's hoping you continue your education and make a success in every thing you attempt.

GRACE VAIL
Jermyn High School
Jermyn, Pa.
"Grace"

Grace is one of our tall dark-haired girls. She is very studious and her work comes before play at all times. Did she ever enter a class room unprepared? I should say not!

She is particularly interested in football, and we wonder why? But a captain at home settles the question. She was always ready for mail but we don't blame you, Grace.

Grace made a wise choice when she chose the Intermediate Group. She finds it interesting, and we hope she stays in the profession as we know she will be a help to any community.

Grace has made a number of friends while at school. She is one who is loved by all, and it is no wonder that the kiddies like her so well.

We surely wish you luck and success in your future.

KANNETH VAN BUSKIRK
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Whitey" "Van"

Full-of-pep, cheery, happy-go-lucky—that's "Van." He goes on about his work as though he is not the least bit concerned, but when the grades are handed out, he is always collecting the "A's."

"Whitey" has been a great asset to us on the Football Team and his work at right end was greatly appreciated. His spectacular playing won for him many friends of the opposite sex. "Van" was also a prominent figure on the dance floor. This ability, along with his winning ways and pleasing personality, made him known by all the students.

"Van" was always out for a good time and if he did not find one he could very easily make one. He was the sort of a fellow who could install a jovial mood about a morgue. He was also a lover of music and he made it a hobby of his to collect all music books possible—especially those which were flying about the halls loosely. At every "Post Mortem," after each athletic event, "Van" was always the presiding officer.

Here's wishing you the best of luck in whatever phase of life which you choose to enter.

LOLITA VAN SCOY
Tunkhannock High School
Centermoreland, Pa.
"Lolita"

Lolita is a girl who seems very quiet but after you know her you will find that she is very jolly and witty. There is an old proverb which says that "Good things come in small packages." This is proved by Lolita. Small people are not supposed to eat much, but if you think Lolita does not welcome boxes of eats—just ask her roomie.

Lolita is one of the few girls at Normal who takes her work seriously and in her work must be included many good books. She is very fond of reading these.

Although Lolita was born in Centermoreland she attended High School at Tunkhannock. From various reports we have heard that she had many good times there. We wonder why Lolita has a prejudice against light haired fellows.

Lolita has made many friends here and we all send with her, as she goes out to teach, our best wishes for a successful career.

MILLICENT A. VAN ZANDT
Waverly High School
Waverly, N. Y.
"Milly" "Mil"

"Milly" is one of the 29 varieties we find in the Junior High School Group who are here for their third year. She is a "foursquare" girl, and is always the life of the crowd she is with. Can "Mil" laugh? Well, we'll let you see for yourself, because she surely will demonstrate it without much trouble, and the best of it is you'll find it contagious.

"Mil" is very studious, too, but she says she just gets started right when the lights go out. Hard luck, "Mil"—when you get out teaching, we hope you won't have to blow out the candle until you are finished your lessons or—well, we know "Mil" won't do lessons all the time.

We find this young lady also a member of the Mu Phi Sigma. She is an enthusiastic supporter of this thriving organization.

We know you will be successful in your teaching profession even though you do go West to teach (???). Our best wishes for success go with you from your many friends you made while at B. S. N. S.

WILLIAM WALSH
Old Forge High School
Old Forge, Pa.
"Billie" "Walshey"

"Walshey" came to us from Old Forge High School with the reputation of having great athletic ability. We learned the value of this gallant young man in the season of '24 when he played such a wonderful game on the gridiron. Last year his worth was also fully appreciated. His ability on the basketball court was also far above the mean. When the first track team was being formed, "Billie" came out as an aspirant and soon he began to make Joey Ray look foolish running the hundred-yard dash.

Though "Billie" took such an active part in athletics, he never fell down in his school work. When his duties on the athletic field were through, he spent most of his time studying, and he certainly new the art of studying. Still with all his work, which took up so much of his time, he could always find a little time for some fun.

Due to his personality and his athletic ability he became very popular among the members of the fairer sex. Amid all his popularity he showed a strong will power and firmness because he never developed a case. Here's wishing you all the success possible in whatever field you may choose to follow.

ALICE WARD
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Jerry"

This demure little lass comes from Danville. Every morning she may be seen rushing from the street car toward the school. In the evening she is going in the opposite direction.

When she isn't rushing for a street car, or in school, you may see her riding her horse, for "Jerry" certainly loves that sport and indulges in it. We think that if she has her way she will ride straight through life on her horse and laugh the automobile to scorn.

Alice is one of those wise girls who failed to hear Dame Fashion's call, but kept her crowning glory. We are sure she has held her dignity by holding to her tresses.

We always thought Alice to be a quiet, backward girl, but we changed our opinion when we saw her great interest shown in athletics at the track meet.

She's a peach of a friend to every one, and we wish her the best o' luck.

ISABEL WARD
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Izzy"

Whom have we here? Well, if it isn't another of our town girls. "Izzy" is one of Bloomsburg's jolly, sunny tempered, good-natured girls. But why shouldn't she be? She never worries and never lets worry worry her. She never gets excited nor is she ever in a hurry. So why should she not be jolly and happy? Much can be said of "Izzy's" taste in cars—at any rate her infatuation in that direction is remarkable. If you want to start a conversation with her just say "Essex." One of the most important factors in "Izzy's" young life is her radio. It is so useful. She can tune in any time and see just how far up the hill the expected Essex is.

"Izzy" chose teaching for her life profession, but from all appearances we doubt if she will teach long. We wonder why she is so anxious for certain nights to come! Judging from all appearances, we know "Izzy" will be a successful teacher and we wish her the best of luck.

MIRIAM WARNTZ
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Miriam"

Miriam is one of our all around good sports. She has lots of life and pep. By this we do not mean that she neglects her work, for she is a very conscientious student and we feel sure she will be a success as a teacher, especially at teaching the kiddies.

She is everything that is lovable and kind and it is worth your while to make her acquaintance. She has large eyes that fairly sparkle when she talks. They seem to say, "I want you for my friend." Some say she uses them to advantage. We wonder.

Miriam is very fond of poetry and music, especially the latter. They form one of her chief means of diversion.

May joy be with you wherever you may go is the earnest wish of the class of '26.

DEBORAH STARR WATERS
Catawissa High School
Catawissa, Pa.
"Deb"

When one gets a look at "Deb" its very evident that she's a good sport, but after one really knows her, well, it's decidedly more evident that she is four-square too. Every one loves our "Deb"—including her 7 B's in the Junior High School, and other pupils, also. No wonder, she's their "little girl"—or as we hear, maybe it's her hair-cut or perhaps it's just because she is just "one of them."

We certainly wish our "Deh" all sorts of good luck and happiness in teaching and otherwise—just to keep those blue eyes shining, no, not with mischief alone, Deborah, but with real happiness as well.

OLIVE WATTS
Millersburg High School
Millersburg, Pa.
"Ollie"

There is one girl whom every one knows and likes, and she's no other than our "Ollie." It's true—she has friends and friends of whom she is very worthy because as it is often said, "It takes a friend to make a friend." Although her popularity is a well established fact, she shines particularly with the male sex. As a heart-breaker she takes the prize. The poor Beau Brummels flock to her, only to be coldly turned down.

"Ollie" is an ambitious sort. Whenever she has anything to do, she does it without hesitating. She never wastes time, and she does more in a few minutes than most of us would do in the same number of hours. Instead of grumbling and fretting about her work, she goes at it cheerfully and willingly.

Now, Ollie, if you hold to your policy of "work while you work, and play while you play," success will surely come your way. Take with you our sincere wishes for success and happiness.

ELLEN WHITEHOUSE
Wilkes-Barre High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Ellen"

"Look who is here? It's the little white haired girl who sang in chapel." Did you say, can she sing? Well, I guess she can! Ellen was an active member in the Girls' Glee Club and the Double Quartet.

Ellen did not stay here many weekends, but there was a method in her madness. She is particularly fond of Liberties and Hups. We do not blame you, Ellen. Stick to your good work.

She has chosen the Primary Group, in which department we all know she will be successful, if she stays at teaching. Time will tell.

Was she fond of feeds? Just mention "eats" and Ellen was "Johnny on the spot." The corner table in the annex surely would have been dull without our Ellen.

Ellen had many, many friends. Her pleasing personality and kindness help to win them. Ellen's sport was basketball. Her pleasing voice could be heard at any time except when lesson plans were on her mind.

We extend the very best of luck, and success in whatever you undertake.

JENNIE WHITENIGHT
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Jennie"

Jennie is probably not known to most students at B. S. N. S., for she is a quiet and unassuming little lass. But, quiet as she may seem, she is endowed with the characteristic of conscientiousness which played a great part in her success as a student teacher in the Junior High School.

Jennie doesn't seem to express her likes and dislikes very freely, but she probably likes the song, "The Little 'Dutch' Garden" particularly well. She cannot be blamed for that, however.

Her one great worry seems to be that she will have to go away from home and teach, but Jennie, you will find that there are places just as nice as Bloomsburg.

Jennie certainly has our wishes for all the success in life possible. Her friends may well say, "Life has no pleasure nobler than that of friendship."

INEZ WINTERSTEIN
Berwick High School
Mifflinville, Pa.
"Inez"

Inez is a very meek looking girl, but she is really just as mischievous as any girl we know. She believes that "We girls must have our fun" when she gets to the girls in the locker room.

However, Inez does not believe in too much fun, for she is a studious girl, and is always prepared when class time comes.

We are glad she is spending her third year with us. She is a girl worth while, and a friend worth having, as she has many desirable characteristics. Inez is interested in college, especially State. We wonder why?

The class of 1926 wishes you lots of success and happiness in your future teaching, Inez.

WILMA FAE WOMMELSDORF
Newport Twp. High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Fae"

Here is another one of the jolly gang that came to us from Newport Twp. High School. "Fae," as she is always called, is full of fun. Her numerous friends will tell you the same. During her two years stay with us she has won many friends through her happy smile and pleasing personality. Whenever you hear a giggle and rush to the scene, you would always find "Fae" teasing some one.

At the end of her first year we always found "Fae" on the tennis court. We wonder why?—oh—well—she loved to play tennis and—it is an attractive game. Her second year was made brighter by the advance of one of the opposite sex. No need for blushing, "Fae."

Fae was always striving to make good and we know that she has thus far accomplished her goal. Though she was always on hand for a good time, she never entered any of her classrooms unprepared. Well, "Fae," here's wishing you success in all of your life-time undertakings.

ALICE YODER
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Alice"

Alice is one of the most loving and sympathetic girls in our class. Her sweet disposition and pleasant smile have helped to win her way into the hearts of every one. She is always ready to lend a helping hand, and nothing is too much for her.

Besides these characteristics, Alice is a good all round student. However, she takes time for the social side of school life and has been the very successful President of the Mu Phi Sigma this year.

We can wish nothing too high, too lofty, or too successful to Alice, one of our best pals.

"You are sweet of disposition,
You are loving, wise and kind;
You are full of true affection,
You cannot be defined."

RUTH YOUNG
Dorranceton High School
Wyoming, Pa.
"Ruthie"

"Ruthie" was another one of the downtown girls whom we wish we knew better. Ruth forsook the business world and entered B. S. N. S. last year and then joined us the second semester this year. Although the attraction at home is strong, we can readily see that she won out. She could not get along without us.

For some reason "Ruthie" is partial to Music and Gym. Her chief delight is in entertaining her room-mate with "Loo-loos" and "Liza Jane."

"Ruthie" is diligent and thorough in her school work and is consistently efficient in all she attempts. She has chosen the Primary work as her field for activity. We are confident that "Ruthie" will succeed in whatever she attempts, and our best wishes go with her.

MORJORIE ZEHNER
Hazleton High School
Sugarloaf, Pa.
"Marjie"

One of our most charming fair-haired damsels of the class of '26 is Marjorie Zehner. She has selected for her field in the work of teaching one of the most difficult groups—the Rural, and we heartily wish her every success in her teaching career.

Speaking of teaching careers, they very often do not last long, as we are afraid will be the case of "Marjie"—but we wish you every success in that field too. She is, by the way, deeply interested in Latin, especially "Virgil," with whom she is well acquainted; judging by the letters, candy, etc.

If you want to locate "Marjie" come to Room 360, although her room number is 359.

She has many devoted friends in the "dorm" and is a beloved, respected member of that famous club the "S. I. K." We hope her future life is as happy as her life at B. S. N. S. proved to be.

SOPHIA M. ZELINSKI
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Zosh"

Did you say another "Newporter"? Yes, she is. Up on fourth floor annex stood 459, a favorite assemblage for her Newport friends.

"Zosh" is distinguished from the other members of her "crowd," by her towering stature—the tallest of them all.

Good things come in small packages? No, not in this case. If ever you needed ideas and assistance, "Zosh" would offer her kind help for she foamed over with knowledge and suggestions.

Sophia thinks every one of her loyal friends are going to desert her after having followed the teaching profession for several years. We hope, Sophia, that they influence you to accept their views concerning the future for, perhaps, teaching may not prove to be a life-long profession for you either.

Studiosness is a quality which can readily be applied to this girl. Her studies meant what she was aiming for, namely, to be a good school "marm." And with this aim in mind she did her work well and diligently. With such desires and aims as Sophia reveals to us here at Normal she will certainly be a fine school teacher.

MARGARET ZETTLE
Center Township High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Peg"

Here is a girl who spends many hours in the library reading. Her favorite novel is "Whatsoever we sow." How do we know? Well, we saw her reading in class one day, and she entertained us a while, too.

She is one of the "locker room gang" and seems to be quite an entertainer. One of her chief pastimes is numerology and making up endings for letters.

The name "Bill" seems to be her favorite gentlemen's name, although she refuses to tell us any more. We missed her this winter when she was snowed in for two days. Don't you think we should buy a snowplow and donate it to her for future use? "Peg" always knows her lessons and is valuable to her class. With all that she is a nice girl and we want her to always be happy.

LAURA ZIELINSKI
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"LuLu"

During the first year little was seen or heard of Laura except when she practiced her music, but her class standing at the end of the year showed that she used her time to advantage.

As a student, she is a consistent in the very real sense of the word. She is conscientious and has worked hard for the A's which she earned.

A valuable reward is offered to any one who can supply information leading to the fact that Laura ever looked even sideways at any of our Normal boys. But that doesn't say anything for we are sure that there is a professor from a college in another city who claims some of her time.

Laura, here are our best wishes for success in life and especially in realizing your ambitions.

JESSIE ZIMMERMAN
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Chick"

"Chick" is one of the bright Berwick bunch and her brightness is evident in all the extra activities into which she enters, as well as in her scholastic standing. She is not only an "Athletic Leader" but a leader in every phase of her school life—not saying a word about eating.

"Chick" has always been a good sport in every sense of the word, be it in the classroom, on the basketball court, tennis court, or in the gym, where she often officiated at the piano in place of an orchestra, so that we might enjoy dancing after dinner evenings. She was a familiar figure in Dramatic Club and all other school functions. "Chick" was often seen about the halls in the company of a certain young gentleman. We admire her choice of friends very much. No, we will not tell his name. No need for blushing, "Chick."

"Chick" has quite made up her mind that she will be an "old maid" school teacher, but of this we have our doubts. However, we are quite sure that she will be a success in whatever field she may choose to enter.

EVELYN ZIMMERMAN
Ringtown High School
Ringtown, Pa.
"Jimmy"

Concerning Evelyn's history, there is only one fact we're sure of and that is that she was born. However, further investigation offers more points.

"Jimmy" spent only one semester in the dorm—we enjoyed her company, and her departure made us realize that we'd like to know her more. She is the personification of that adage, "Patience is a virtue." Proof—those afternoons she sat on the campus waiting for that red roadster. Her vivacity, dark, curly hair, and sparkling, daring eyes are real snares for persons or person of the opposite sex—and they or he become her slaves or slave (We've used the singular through there because of the repeated visits of one certain man to this place). These same traits of personality win for her a place also among females and the kiddies who have been taught by her. As to her outlook on life—she views the world through a rosy mist and spills jazz and sunshine wherever she goes—Here's love and luck, "Jimmy!"

DORIS REES
B. S. N. S., '27
Our Departed Friend

Its fruit a tree lifts to heaven,
A sacrifice therefrom to take.
For the best it has is for Jesus,
And it willingly gives all for his sake.

Our school, let us say, is a love tree,
And He's plucked from it one of its best.
He keeps her in Heaven close by Him,
And lets only her love for the rest.

Our Editor-in-Chief, because of his high scholastic standing, received a position as a teacher in the Easton Junior High School, leaving the responsibility of finishing the work he had so well advanced upon the new Editor-in-Chief, James Coursen, selected by the staff.

We also feel that we should mention Marvin Thomas because of the assistance he rendered us in typing.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Debating Club

As you all know this school ranks first in all it undertakes, be it athletics, education or any other line of activity. Another step in advance for this school was the formation of the debating club. This organization was organized so recently that it cannot be immediately pronounced a success, but its live, energetic members ask, only, to be given a chance and they will make it a success.

The purpose of the club is, to promote better speech, to enable the members of the club to appear before an audience without that age old enemy, stage fright, to enable them to put forth a sound, worthwhile argument, to prepare them for impromptu speaking and to prepare them for their work in life as school teachers.

The club, organized January, 1926, is under the management of Miss Alice Johnson, oral expression teacher of this school. She acts as critic, supervisor and director of the club's activities and a better one could not be found.

The club, at its first meeting, decided to have only two officers, a president who was to act as chairman in all debates, and a secretary to keep a record of the proceedings of the club.

The present officers are:

President	- - - - -	WILLIAM SWINEHART
Secretary	- - - - -	MYRTLE TREMBLEY

Claire M. Conway

MISS CLAIRE M. CONWAY received her early education in the public schools of Union City. After graduating from Union City High School, she spent two years at Thiel College, after which she entered Bucknell University, receiving both her Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts Degrees. To further her education she has attended summer sessions at Columbia University. She is a member of ΗΒΦ.

Miss Conway taught English at Nanticoke High School and was at the head of that department for ten years. She has appeared upon the programs of the High School Department of the State Educational Association and the National Council of English Teachers. Her activities in these organizations won for her the Presidency of the English Section.

At present Miss Conway is teacher of English and Dean of Women at the Bloomsburg State Normal School.

As Dean of Women, her policy is: "Help every girl to develop into as useful a woman as possible; useful to herself, to her profession, and community." This policy has developed among the women a standard which is highly commendable.

Women's Student Government

It didn't take the new students in the dormitory very long to know what is meant by Student Government. Temporary floor supervisors and proctors were on the job—quieting and hushing them up. Regular officers were soon elected and they consisted of the following:

President - - - - - CHARLOTTE MORGAN
Vice President - - - - - RUTH ANTHONY
Secretary - - - - - EDNA BROTHERTON
Treasurer - - - - - GENEVIEVE KELLEY
Floor Supervisors—MARGARET KILLIAN, HELEN STAPINSKI, BLANCHE HERRING, MARGARET O'BRIEN, LUCILLE KAUFMAN.

The Dean of Women should really head the list of officers as well as her Assistant. It is they who have been our constant guide—ever ready to help the officers and students.

It has been our aim to carry on this work as well as was done by our predecessors and it is our desire that the incoming Senior Class will hold up our aims and ambitions and will have even a better Association next year.

George J. Keller

Mr. Keller graduated from Columbia University, receiving his B.S. Degree. He has also received the Degree of F.R.S. from the Royal Society of Arts in England, and he is a member of the American Federation of Arts.

Following his graduation Mr. Keller taught in the Horace Mann School of New York and in Teachers' College, Columbia University. Previous to his teaching he was a magazine illustrator and cartoonist for America's leading magazines.

As a Director of Fine Arts we next find him at the head of the Department in Bloomsburg State Normal School. His great achievement here is the founding of the nationally known Jr. H. S. Art Club which broke the state attendance record for original dramatic productions.

Mr. Keller was appointed Dean of Men at the close of the first semester of our Senior year. Where "boys will be boys," there is always a problem, and knowing young men he came to North Hall so that he could iron out our difficulties. It is interesting to know just how he set about this task. When talking to the boys after his appointment, he said, "We must create a sense of loyalty, loyalty in its broadest sense, to ourselves, home and the school. With such a quality you young men of this institution will develop morally, mentally and spiritually, and will acquire all the attributes of real men. Let us treat North Hall as our Home and govern ourselves accordingly. As Dean of Men I will do nothing more than act as head of the household. If you have troubles bring them to me and I will try to straighten them out."

With this spirit almost instantly arising among the men, we find North Hall better than it has ever been.

Mr. Keller does not want to take all the credit for the smooth way in which we have gotten along because he believes without the hearty co-operation of the men we could have never done so well.

Boys' Dormitory Club

The Boys' Dormitory Club, or, as it is known throughout the school, the B. D. C. is an old, established, respected, and influential organization. It has been here as long as the oldest resident can remember.

Since the advent of the men to North Hall, the Club has had a home of its own. Ways of doing things change with the passing of years and this year a more dignified, though a more thorough ceremony of initiation was introduced. The school at large could see who was taken in and enjoy their humiliation.

Among other things, the Club is more able to put over a real party for the faculty. The party this year lasted two nights, one night for the men of the faculty and one for the women of the same group of people. A great time was had by all and the cats were good.

A great institution, just made possible, is the seasonal open house. The dormitory is dressed up in its holiday clothes and its girls came up to see where the men hang out. Often the ladies rooms are differently decorated the next day; often the men go clamoring for lost neckties, but in vain. It's good "open house" doesn't come every day as the room would go naked.

The election of officers is always a most solemn affair and only the best are called. According to the constitution, an officer lasts only a semester and only members in good standing are eligible. The officers are given the co-operation of every member.

The present officers are:

President	- - - - -	R. VICTOR ANSKIS
Vice President	- - - - -	RALPH DAVIES
Secretary	- - - - -	JOHN KANYUCK
Treasurer	- - - - -	JOHN ROWLANDS

Daddy

There are men who grow old early,
Whom the cares of life overcome,
Who fret and fuss at the slightest sound—
For them the spice out of life's taken from.

There are others who care not nor worry,
Who the bright side of life always see,
Through the turmoil of trouble whirls past them,
They grow toward the sunshine like a tree.

Among us we have such a person,
Who laughs when we laugh night and day,
For him clouds have always a lining
And glistening through comes a sun ray.

We love him because he lives with us
And we know that our friend he must be,
The garden to sunshine he opened,
For his smile is its magical key.

Mu Phi Sigma

The Mu Phi Sigma is made up of girls taking the three course. The sorority was organized in January, 1925, to fill up the lack of other class organizations at that time. The charter members are:

Elizabeth Brooks	Marion Reinbold
Gretchen Culver	Evelyn Robbins
Helen Dickinson	Grace Robbins
Margaret Emmitt	Florence Schultz
Mary Erickson	Laura Stevens
Mary Ann Fetch	Ruth Thomas
Suzan Fetch	Millicent VanZandt
Grace Harlos	Deborah Waters
Audrey Hidlay	Isabel Williams
Esther Lloyd	Inez Wintersteen
Edith Poyck	Jennie Whitemight
Christine Roeder	Alice Yoder

In the middle of the first row of our picture you see our president, Alice Yoder. On either side of her are Miss Maupin and Miss Mason, our faculty advisors. With such a president and such advisors our sorority has made rapid progress during the last year.

New members will be pledged at the beginning of the second semester. Since the standard of the sorority has as its standard an average of "B" in all work all third year students are not eligible. This is a high standard but all our ideals are high, and in the future we look forward to being a national sorority of some note.

Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority

Zeta Chapter—Founded May, 1925

This Sorority endeavors to secure greater permanency and efficiency of effort in literature and debate; to promote intellectual, moral and social improvement; to bind the students of Normal Schools and Teachers' Colleges closer together in their work. Until a founding of a chapter at B. S. N. S. this Sorority was strictly confined to New York institutions. This branching out promises a fair future for Alpha Delta.

Y. W. C. A.

At the middle of the first year the Seniors of '25 passed the "lighted torch" on to us, the Seniors of '26. It has been with pride and joy that we have cherished it and held it high.

Last year a number of select and earnest speakers gave us talks that proved to be helpful and most interesting to the student body.

During this year the interest of our regular prayer services has been kept up by a varied and most fascinating program. The members of the faculty have at different times spoken to us on the problems of every day life. Various types of entertainment have added interest to the meetings. Our discussion meetings have also been of great interest to the girls.

At the beginning of the year the "Y" Welcome went over big. Every student attended and breathed a sigh of regret when it drew to an end.

The membership has been almost doubled this year.

Little needs to be said of our Japanese Bazaar, which was a success socially and financially. The gym was transformed into the land of the Orient with the fragrance of incense and Geisha maidens tripping about their dainty booths, selling their charming wooden and china ware.

Conferences! The joy of our girls. Little can words express the benefit the girls received who attended the conferences at Kutztown and Eagles Mere. The girls returned from these conferences benefited individually and inspired to carry on the work in the Y. W. C. A.

Our "Y" of which we are so proud has been a success. This we owe largely to our president and our dear faculty advisor, Miss Mason. We all love her and her efforts have been untiring.

Officers

President - - - - -	WILLIAM JONES
Secretary -	BERYLE KEELER
Vice President - - - - -	IDA STIENERI
Treasurer - - - - -	JOHN OPTARY

The Rural Club is a group of students working for the interests of the boys and girls of the country as well as for themselves. We realize that the children of rural communities need an education and a place in the world as those who live in towns and cities. To make this possible they must have trained teachers who are able to understand and appreciate their needs and to be able to give them aid. We are making an effort to take with us something of value to them and with the help of instructors and classmates we feel sure of success.

Our group was organized in the second semester of our Junior year and with the help of the Seniors' Rural Group we were able to start a circulating library among rural schools and to learn more about our work.

We have had a few social functions, such as "weenie roasts" and sleighing parties in order to relieve the strain of study. Our Tuesday meetings were interesting to all those who were present. After business discussions a few jokes and a song sent us away good naturedly.

We wish to express our appreciation to the faculty and students of B. S. N. S. for the encouragement they have given us. We owe more than we can repay to Professor Robbins, who was always on hand to guide and direct us. To the coming Seniors we extend our heartiest wishes for success.

Sincerely yours,

RURAL GROUP.

Double Quartettes

The double mixed quartette has had another busy and successful year. It has made rapid progress since its organization in 1924 and it has won for itself an enviable reputation, both with the school and with the general public throughout this part of the state.

It has a repertoire of some forty numbers, including folk songs, popular ballads, sacred music, and excerpts from the operas, which afford a variety of musical selections to suit the various tastes.

The quartette has been featured on many school programs and as a part of the Extension Service of the Normal School, the quartette has rendered its services, as during previous years, to rural schools in Columbia County for the purpose of raising funds for the school libraries. More than a dozen schools have profited by these concerts and there have been a number of new and return library engagements during the past season.

Another popular organization that has been heard and enjoyed this year is the double male quartette.

Senior Girls' Glee Club

In September, 1924, the Girls' Glee Club was organized under the direction of Professor Carter. The organization had a very successful year.

This year, the girls met and organized under the capable direction of Miss Louise Skinner. At the first meeting the following officers were elected:

President	- - - - -	LUCILLE KAUFFMAN
Secretary	- - - - -	MARGARET ISAAC
Treasurer	- - - - -	LAURA MANN

The members meet once a week at which time rehearsals and business meetings are held.

The work is purely voluntary on the part of the members who are now working earnestly to give a concert in the near future.

B. S. N. S. Orchestra

The B. S. N. S. Orchestra is a comparatively new organization. It was organized in 1924 under Mr. C. Rush Carter with a membership of twenty-one.

Twenty-eight members are enrolled at present, playing ten first violins, eight second violins, 'cello, piccolo, clarinet, two saxophones, cornet, two trombones, drums and piano. Weekly rehearsals of two or more hours are under the direction of Miss Harriet Moore.

The Orchestra has assisted on programs whenever its services have been requested and will continue to do so. An entire program of Orchestra music was held on the evening of March 16th, the proceeds of which were used to purchase Orchestral instruments for the Normal School.

Y. W. C. A. Uke Club

The Y. W. C. A. "Uke Club," which was organized during the first semester under the direction of Miss Mildred Boyd, has made a splendid record for itself and has delighted many audiences.

It is composed of sixteen volunteered members, all of whom are members of the Y. W. C. A.

The club made its first appearance at the Japanese Bazaar. It proved such a success that it was engaged to play at the B. D. C. dance, and later it entertained at Junior Chapel Program.

The success of the club is due to our leader, Miss Mildred Boyd, whose inspiration and enthusiasm has enabled us to take our place as a recognized organization in the life of the school.

The Bloomsburg Players

The Bloomsburg Players, dramatic club of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, is finishing the second year of its life. In the year 1924-25, a group of dramatic enthusiasts drew up a constitution, and today the club is a group of talented actors and actresses.

The club is directed by Miss Alice Johnston of the Normal faculty.

The club puts on an annual production which is already being looked forward to from year to year by the public. The first production, given May 22, 1925, was a great stage success in New York and London but a greater in Bloomsburg. It was "Pomander Walk," and the cast consisted of the cream of the school's personnel.

The great work of the club, however, lies in the weekly productions for members only. These plays are chosen, directed, acted, produced by the students. A few of these have been presented to the student body. Some real ability has been discovered through them.

The club has had a distinguished list of officers. They are changed every semester. The presidents have been Grier Riener, George Jannell, Arch Austin, Jack Rowlands, respectively.

The present officers are:

President	- - - - -	JACK ROWLANDS
Vice President	- - - - -	DAISY ALLEMAN
Secretary	- - - - -	JOSEPH KANE
Treasurer	- - - - -	ROBERT SUTLIFF
Director	- - - - -	MISS ALICE JOHNSTON

Maroon and Gold

At the beginning of the year 1925-26 the staff of the Maroon and Gold was completely reorganized. The names of those who wished to help in the publication of the weekly paper were put in the mail box of the staff office. They were approved by a faculty committee and voted on by the student body. Twelve of that number were elected and from among them one of that number was chosen as editor.

It has been working very successfully this year and some very good editions have been published.

Every member of the student body and every faculty member is a subscriber. This makes it possible to meet the financial obligations of the paper.

The Maroon and Gold has added a new department to its already numerous departments. All departments have been working smoothly and together they have made this a successful year. A success is inevitable with a faculty committee such as this: Miss Claire M. Conway, Miss Nell Maupin, Miss Pearl Mason, Mr. George Keller, Mr. Edward Reams.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Junior Class Plays

On Friday evening, March 6, 1925, the Junior Class made their initial bow in public dramatics with the production of three one-act plays.

The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife

The action of "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," by Anatole France, took place in front of Master Botal's house in Paris, during the Thirteenth Century. The cast:

Master Leonard Botal, Judge	- - - - -	WILLIAM JONES
Giles, Master Botal's servant	- - - - -	LAWRENCE COOLBAUGH
Chickweed Peddler	- - - - -	LAURA MAXX
Master Adam Fumee, Lawyer	- - - - -	GEORGE JANELL
Water Cress Peddler	- - - - -	MARY ISAACS
Catherine, Master Botal's wife	- - - - -	EDNA BROTHERTON
Blind Beggar	- - - - -	LAVERNE REESE
Chimney Sweep	- - - - -	FANNIE HILBERT
Master Simon Colline, Doctor	- - - - -	WILLIAM SWINFHART
Master Jean Haugier, Surgeon	- - - - -	JOHN KANYUCK
Mademoiselle De La Grandiers	- - - - -	HELEN PURSEL

The Diabolical Circle

"The Diabolical Circle," by Beulah Bornstead, had as its setting a living room in Cotton Mather's home during the Seventeenth Century. The action of this play centers around the clock, in which the young people hide, in order to confuse the stern Puritan father and also the stern Puritan suitor who is the father's choice for his daughter. The cast:

Cotton Mather	- - - - -	ARCHIBALD AUSTIN
Betty, his daughter	- - - - -	MILDRED HAUSCH
Adonijah Wigglesworth, a stern Puritan	- - - - -	VICTOR ANSKIS
Charles Manning, almost a Cavalier	- - - - -	GRIER REIMER

The Wonder Hat

As a fitting climax to the evening's entertainment, "The Wonder Hat," a fantasy by Ben Hecht and Kenneth Goodman, was presented. The action of this play took place on an evening in the woods. Contrary to the usual themes of Harlequin plays in which Pierrot and Columbine are united, this play made Harlequin successful in obtaining the affections of Columbine. The cast of this play:

Harlequin	- - - - -	PAUL LANSCHIE
Pierrot	- - - - -	JOHN REILLY
Bunchinello, an old peddler	- - - - -	HUGO REIMER
Columbine	- - - - -	PEARL HAGENBUCH
Margot, Columbine's companion	- - - - -	MARY LEE ROBERTS

At least ninety Juniors aided in making these plays a success. Some assisted in the making of costumes, some in designing and painting scenery, while others managed the financial and publicity end of the plays.

Cinderella

"Cinderella," the Jr. H. S. production, is being produced for the screen by the Bloomsburg State Normal School. The project is purely educational; the films of the play are being sent to all the towns from which the school draws students and to educational centers and conferences.

Since the plays were started three years ago by Professor George J. Keller they have set a new standard of plays for their type and each one has been presented before appreciative audiences. Some of the plays were witnessed by record breaking crowds for amateur productions. This year's performance was exceptionally good and Dr. Reimer and Professor Keller decided to have it filmed. The project is the biggest thing of its kind ever attempted here or at any other school circles.

It required two months to film the play and all the work was done outside of school hours. The film complete required about 6,000 feet and cost approximately $1,000. This figure is quoted as additional cost over and above the initial expenditure of the play itself.

The film shows more than the finished product. It presents the work on the scenery, the costume designing, the printing of the tickets, posters and all other projects leading up to the production. In this work practically all of the students of the Normal School had a part and they are shown in the films. Over 150 of the training school were used.

Many of the scenes were taken at the Normal School and all of the school buildings were shown, forming an introduction to the play. Local homes were used as settings for the scenes, and it is the first play ever to be made here for the motion pictures.

The values which can be derived from a project so wide in scope as this are self evident, and we are truly impressed with the fact that "Cinderella" is the greatest factor the school has proffered toward the fulfillment of its ideal that "art is power."

Students who directly contributed to the production are:

GILBERT COOPER
PEARL HAGENBUCH
JOHN B. TIMKO
RAYMOND GETZ

JOHN OPIARY
ROY TROY
WILLIAM B. JONES
RAY HAGENBUCH

MARVIN BLOSS

The music for the production is furnished by the Bloomsburg State Normal School Orchestra.

Progress

During this year the Faculty, after deliberation and argumentation, turned the mid-week Chapel period over to the students, the President of each class appointed a committee to consider the advisability of student Chapel from the student view-point and to arrange programs for the meetings of Seniors and Junior Chapel.

The Seniors immediately took the bit in their mouths and the first Chapel period of the second semester had a student as chapel leader, a student as song leader, and a student at the piano. Since then every day has seen students leading and students on the program. The Juniors also started and had musical programs, speeches, and novelties. This arrangement has given the faculty pleasure and the student body a valuable experience. Many students appeared on the platform who had never before thought of the possibilities and many others are now experts.

This idea is a step ahead in school management and gives every student a chance for play of initiative and exhibition of novel abilities. An investigation has shown that no other school has, as yet, reached our standard. We are pioneers in the field of a more socialized school. The students are proud of themselves and of their school, that it stands high.

Dances

Sport-loving and fun-loving are the students of our B. S. N. S. From the dining room, at six-thirty, streams a long line of well-fed, happy, young people. Where do most of them go? They head for the "gym." What do they do there? They dance to the time and tune of the latest jazz, properly chaperoned by the Dean, Miss Conway, or the assistant dean, Miss Edmunds. Coming right after dinner, as it does, it is an excellent exercise for some of our "pleasingly plump" prospective school teachers. Last year we enjoyed this privilege until seven o'clock; this year the fun lasts till seven-fifteen. We feel deeply indebted to those who have contributed to our pleasure by playing the piano. On Friday night, ofttimes, our famous school jazz band livens up our spirits.

Frequently, on special occasions we hold dances, formal and informal, large and small. Last year we, as Juniors, enjoyed many of these. Some were held in the "gym" and others in the dining hall. Our famous standby is Alexander's Orchestra. They come at our call and furnish good music. Refreshments? they are welcome and good.

"Collegiate—collegiate, yes we are collegiate!" Proms and everything. On such nights our school is double its number. Young men from all over the countryside flock at our call—he comes at her call. A year ago at the Prom we gave the Seniors, "The Pennsylvanians" from Scranton furnished the music.

Hallowe'en is ever greeted with a celebration. Bright scenery and gay costumes. I wonder if any of us shall ever forget the Black Devil—or perhaps better—Black Imp, that carried away high honors and amused us so greatly. How about it, Mr. Nelson.

B. S. N. S. is famous for its hospitable reception we always accord visitors. The Indiana boys will vouch for that. The dance given them was a huge success and was tastily decorated by our artist, Mr. Keller. The huge football in the center of the floor was not only unique but clever.

Neither is St. Nicholas neglected. We danced joyfully around a large Christmas tree set in the center of the floor. It injected Yuletide cheer and goodwill into us all.

And then, of course, the Seniors always celebrate. Our last farewell will be in the spirit of joy but beneath will be a sadness at the parting.

S N A P S

In making up our snap section we have covered groups, individuals, faculty members, and such pictures that run true to life and are different from the ordinary snap.

This year we have added a page titled "mistakes." All concerned in this grouping are victims of chance, such being the method by which they are paired off. We thought this a better plan than grouping the—life—couples under the same title.

Arranging the snap shots was an easy task, the credit is due the students for their hearty co-operation. The staff also took it upon itself to send its photographer out after the snaps of the faculty members. With the student body and staff working together in this way we can now offer the best section any class could hope for.

Football

When the leaves have turned to a golden color and a chill creeps into the air there is a peculiar, unexplainable something that steals into a fellow's heart. Accompanying the chill in the air like its shadow comes the thud of a pigskin as it's met by the toe of a shoe.

That the longing for action was pulsating in the blood of the men of Bloomsburg became evident when the coach made the initial call for football candidates. Practically every man in the school responded, and soon after the call every uniform in the school had been taken off of Manager Harris' hands.

They had a real task to undertake—the schedule was the hardest our school had bumped up against in a long time, the team had to be from new material, and Captain-elect Haupt had not returned to school, but to aid them in their struggles, they had Coach Jackson, a real leader, a born fighter, and a master of the coaching profession.

To fill the vacancy left by Captain-elect Haupt, the boys chose John Rowlands, whose competency and ability as a leader of men was unquestionable. With Jack as their pilot the team weathered rough seas. It encountered stretches of miserable weather and came out patched up but ready for more.

Pitted against teams much heavier than it, the team proved its mettle in every game. For although defeated in some of its games, it always made the other team travel at a terrific pace in order to win. As proof of this we refer you to the close margins by which the opposing teams were victorious.

When football season is again ushered in, we should find Bloomsburg represented by a team of veterans led by captain-elect for 1926, Bill Swinehart, a man worthy of the confidence placed in him by his fellow teammates.

The season opened on September 26 at Bloomsburg. Freeland Mining and Mechanical were our guests and we made them dance to the tune of 14-0. We then traveled to West Chester and were defeated 13-0. Indiana came here the following week and again we were taken over. Shippensburg, traveling through a sea of mud, pushed us back another notch. Our old rivals, Wyoming Seminary, had a difficult time defeating us at Kingston. Lock Haven was easy, but Stroudsburg again turned the tide. We finished up by landing Mansfield a setback by the score of 13-7.

Following is a list of our victories and our defeats:

Basketball

Winter ushered in that which is considered one of the world's most strenuous sports, basketball. But Bloomsburg was ready for the occasion. For although left with only two of last year's regulars the school was undaunted. It had confidence in Coach Jackson's ability to produce a winning team.

He did not fail them, using Captain Jenkins and Sack, the only veterans left from last year as a nucleus, he started to work. To pair off with Jenkins at forward he had either VanBuskirk or Garrity. For the center position he developed Austin and McGrath. For a running mate for Sack he had plenty of material from which to select. Foremost, however, were Walsh and Swinchart. This combination he taught to combine a superb offense with an almost impenetrable defense, using a style of play never before seen in this school. They delighted the audience that packed the gymnasium to watch them play.

We opened our season at home with West Chester Normal as our opponents. The opposing teams, although much taller than our team, was unable to accomplish much against the sure shooting of our warriors. The following night we took Shippensburg over in a tight game, but lost two hard games to our ancient rivals, Wyoming Seminary, but atoned for this by defeating Indiana State Normal School in the first basketball contest staged between these two schools. Lock Haven bowed to us as did Dickinson Seminary.

The team suffered to a large extent about the middle of the season because of injuries. It was deprived of the service of Sack because of illness. But this only caused the boys to work harder and they pulled out of the rut in a praiseworthy manner.

Credit must be given to the Junior Varsity for the fine spirit they showed and for the excellent record they made during the season. Coach Jackson had a fine second team composed of Davis, Yarashefski, Reimer, Hawkins, Stoker, McGrath, and Johns.

The teams were efficiently managed by Professor Nelson and James A. Coursen.

With many handicaps to overcome, the boys struggled night after night until they had perfected themselves. They worked hard so that they might become a team that Bloomsburg might be proud of. From an experienced five they developed into a smooth-working aggregation that knew not how to quit fighting. Much of the blame for the games they lost can be given to the conditions under which they were forced to play while on their trips.

No better tribute can be paid to a team than to say they did their best. The basketball team of Bloomsburg did its best.

Following is a list of the games they played:

Baseball

After a long dreary winter, spring was ushered in with all its beauties. As an attendant to this beautiful queen we find our national game, baseball.

The bigger baseball leagues will soon be honored by the presence of some of Bloomsburg's famous baseball men. For surely a famous team must be composed of worthwhile members. And there is little doubt but that the Bloomsburg team made a name for itself.

To captain such a team we needed a fighter, a past master at the game and a brainy leader. We found such a man in Anthony (Mike) Beshel. As a past master at the game we had no doubt about Mike's ability and he proved his ability as a leader of men during the season.

George Mead, physical director of the school, coached the team and a better coach could not be found. To make sure that all the affairs of the team should be capably cared for we put them in the hands of managers, Professor Nelson and James W. Jones.

The team not only excelled in fielding, but also surpassed most of the teams it bumped up against in batting. And when you find clever fielding coupled with sure hitting you find a winning team.

The team started out with a rush by snowing under Newport Township High School, but were given a setback by Susquehanna University, and Mansfield Normal. The boys came back strong and took over Stroudsburg, Shippensburg, and Mansfield Normals, and Dickinson Seminary. Although we were defeated by Wyoming Seminary, we gave them a run for their money.

Archie Turner, considered one of the best catchers Bloomsburg ever had, wore the mask during the season. Chet Haupt did most of the pitching, but was often relieved by Gil Cooper, who is a past master at guarding the hot corner. Skipper Austin used his height to good advantage by pulling down the high ones at first base. These high ones were few, however, for Capt. Beshel at second, and Capt.-elect Kane at short most always threw them where Austin had little difficulty in reaching them. The outfield was capably taken care of by Najaka, Yozviak, Keen, Fought, Stoker, and VanBuskirk.

Track

Because many of the boys of Bloomsburg showed an interest in track and because it is desirable to get as many students as possible to participate in athletics, a track team was organized in the spring of 1925.

Although it was the first year that this was attempted, it did not lack for participants. Neither did it lack for ability for many of the members of the team had unexpected talent.

It was decided that a relay team should be sent to the normal school relays at Philadelphia. Although our team did not win it made a fine showing and the school is proud of the boys who were its members. This team was composed of Reimer, Zeveney, Walsh, Kanyuck, and Jones.

In a dual track and field meet between Wyoming Seminary, Dickinson Seminary and Bloomsburg, our team come in second. In this meet Bloomsburg won more first places than either of the other teams. Walsh won both the hundred and two hundred twenty yard dashes. Schwall took first place in the high jump, the discus and the javelin throws. Kanyuck was the victor in the high hurdles, second in the low hurdles and tied for third place in the high jump. Jenkins was tie for third in the high jump and was fourth in the high hurdles. Kazlusky was second in the discus. Zeveney was fourth in the four-forty. Reimer won both the half-mile and the mile. Welliver was fourth in the low hurdles.

Kanyuck was selected as captain of the team and he showed his mettle on both track and field.

The season was considered a great success by all the school and it is expected that our track teams will soon be the equal of any normal or prep school teams in the state.

High School Tournaments

Inaugurated three years ago by George M. Mead, then serving his first year as physical director and coach at the school, the High School Invitation Basketball Tournament of the Bloomsburg State Normal School has grown under his guidance and effort. It has now taken its place as the premier event of its kind in Central Pennsylvania, and as the only outstanding athletic event of its kind sponsored by any Normal School in the Keystone State.

But in spite of the wonderful progress being made, we are confident that the tournament's greatness is still in its infancy and that in a few more years the event will be on the par with the leading high school tournaments sponsored by the colleges and universities of the East.

The tournament was originated in the spring of 1922, when four teams, Bloomsburg, Danville, Berwick, and Newport Township battled for the honors that went to the latter team.

The following spring the number of teams increased to six with quintettes from Bloomsburg, Berwick, Newport Township, Hanover Township, Treverton and Plains taking part. Newport Township again triumphed.

The following year the number of contesting teams increased to eight with fives from Wilkes-Barre, Kingston, Berwick, Newport Township, Hanover Township, Bloomsburg, Treverton, and Shenandoah entered. Last year sixteen schools entered and it was impossible to accommodate many other applicants. An invitation meet from the start, the event has grown so powerful in state basketball circles that schools now ask for permission to enter their teams. Last year and the year before, on account of the number of schools entered, the tournament was run strictly on an elimination basis. Last year the tourney was won by Taylor High School, Wilkes-Barre High School ran a close second.

This year the tournament was conducted by Coach A. K. Jackson and Mr. E. H. Nelson. A new plan was introduced. The event was extended over two week-ends, March 12-13, March 19-20. It was won by Newport Township.

Football—Seniors vs. Juniors

In a sea of mud and a downpour of rain they battled, clawing, biting, digging they fought from one end of the field to the other.

Neither side was able to score until Brunozzi, thinking he was picking up a lump of mud, threw it at Mathews. It stuck against his jersey. He thought the Seniors were getting too rough and so he began to run toward Science Hall, but he tripped and fell after he had crossed the goal line. The ball was lost and they had to hold the game up until they found it. After a long hunt, they discovered that it was hidden in the lump of mud that Brunozzi threw at Mathews.

The Seniors were determined to win so they gave the ball to Nick VanBuskirk. He buried himself under the mud and squirmed half the length of the field. He was on his way for a touchdown, but Brunozzi happened to see him. He told the rest of his team and they hurriedly built a stone wall in front of Nick, for that was the only way they could stop him.

The Seniors, seeing that fate was against them, determined to battle against all odds and tried an aerial attack. They were very successful but while on their way for a sure touchdown the whistle blew and the game was ended.

Athletic Leaders

The first group of Athletic Leaders was chosen in the spring of 1924, and, under the leadership of Mary Launon, their president, they functioned successfully last year. In the spring of 1925 eight new Leaders were chosen from the Junior Class. These, with the help of one "Third Year Senior" Leader, have striven to carry on the work of the association and we believe that, with Miss Anderson and Miss Drummond as our Faculty Advisors we have accomplished much.

As Athletic Leaders we have endeavored to stimulate and develop leadership, to promote a wholesome spirit throughout the school, and to raise the standards of Girls' Athletics as well as Physical Education in the Normal School. The members have assumed many responsibilities such as taking and recording roll in the Junior classes, making announcements and inspecting uniforms. With the aid of the Physical Education teachers the point system which was built up last year has been revised and a new system of checking points is being used successfully.

JOKES

We, the undersigned, in view of our limited powers of observation, our intense interest in and loyalty to Bloomsburg, and our unbounded sympathy for those not so well informed as ourselves, have collected, compiled and classified the following bits of information for the delectation of all you Bloomsburgians who are not so well informed.

(Signed) JOHN KANYUCK,
GEORGE SACK.

In Devious Ways We Have Learned:

1. That B. S. N. S. is not a school for boys.
2. That Ivy Day is not the name of an Aluminus.
3. That "Mutt" Anskis does not intend to marry in June.
4. That the Coach has characteristics of "Stonewall."
5. That "Dud" Keen does not own the library.
6. That the path to North Hall does not necessarily wind around Science Hall and through the grove.
7. That Mt. Olympus is the Athletic Field.
8. That Prof. Hartline is not in favor of "Freshman Customs."
9. That it is not necessary to cut classes in order to flunk.
10. That Miss Conway means whatever she says.
11. That not all immovable objects on the campus at night are necessarily trees.
12. That Freshmen use their heads—as dink supports.
13. That "The Hesperus" (Janell's Ford) is still hitting on four cylinders.
14. That it is not necessary to be a female to enter the girls dorm. We are well informed that two "mails" enter daily.
15. That it is not necessary for our athletes to train, because the "profs" keep them well "conditioned."
16. That the pest house is not the home of fleas.
17. That this OBITER is the best that was ever published.
18. That "I don't flunk you, you flunk yourself is a lot of "boloney."
19. That he who rises early will have more time to loaf.

JOKES — Continued

Prof. Roem—"Does the class have any other case to bring up?"

Grace Robbins—"I have!"

Prof. Roem—"Who is he?"

Prof. Keller—"What color are the curtains in the girls' dorm?"

Helen Daniels—"They are all shades."

"Skipper" Austin—"Daru that roommate of mine."

"Piggie" Swinchart—"Why? What's the matter, is he wearing your clothes again?"

"Skipper" Austin—"No, he failed to answer the last letter my girl wrote me."

"Hugo"—"Did you ever play strip poker up at N. Hall?"

"Mary," Bloss—"Yes, we started once but we got cold feet."

Dumb Waitress—"Here's your shortcake."

"Jamie"—"Call that shortcake? Take it out and berry it."

Prof. Hartline—"As I have said before, all living things come from cells; now, Miss C. Morgans, where do you come from?"

Miss C. Morgans—"Edwardsville."

It's a sure sign that you are losing your drag with the Prof. when he stops calling you "Mister" and begins to address his remarks to you in the back seat.

Late to bed,
And early to rise,
Keeps the dear brothers
From wearing my ties.

If a girl is really clever, she can get so close to a man that when he tries to kiss her, she can't get away.

Miss Conway—"Girls, do not roll your stockings."

Girls (in chorus)—"But, Miss Conway, we're not a bit cold."

Life is like a game of cards—the queen always follows the jack.

Being in love is like a scoot on a scenic railway—the thrill doesn't last long.

"Jakey" Baum—"May I have the pleasure of this dance with you?"

"Olly" Watts—"Sure, sit down."

"Peg" Scanlon—"What are your favorite flowers?"

Mary Bevan—"Tulips and honeysuckles."

ANY GIRL
Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
I love myself,
And so do I.

"Shiek" Coolbaugh—"I could just die dancing with you, Charlotte."

Charlotte Morgan—"On with the dance."

Lulu (on phone)—"Is this you honey?"

Honey—"Yes, this is honey, Lulu!"

Lulu—"Great heavens, Honolulu! I'm on a long distance wire."

Joe Kane—"I understand that a student was flunked in Biology for cribbing during an exam."

"Peg" Killian—"How did he get caught?"

Joe Kane—"He pulled out his handkerchief to wipe the sweat off his brow and some bacteria fell out of it."

JOKES — Continued

It isn't the fact that she knows that bothers us; it's where did she learn it?

Our idea of an optimist is the student who sets his alarm clock to ring at 6:00 A. M. in order to prepare a lesson for an eight o'clock class.

Anna Krauser—"Those Prosser twins manage very well with a broken mirror in their room."

Alice Holcombe—"How come?"

Anna Krauser—"They just face each other to comb their hair."

We would like to call your attention to the fact that a cut a day keeps commencement away.

"Fae" Womelsdorf—"Hey, Mabel. Let's go skiing this afternoon?"

Mabel Davies—"Oh! I don't have any skis."

"Fae"—"Waddaye mean, why there's Yoblonski, Strohoski, Yarashefski and Mikel-ski."

She was only a professor's daughter, but she was "up in her books."

"Prof." Reams—"To what great race do the co-eds of Bloomsburg belong?"

Jr. High Student—"To the Normalites."

"Mutt" Anskis—"My girl spoke to me this afternoon."

"Hook" Kanyuck—"What did she say, 'Mutt'?"

"Mutt"—"Nothing."

"Sonny" Morgans—"Do you know that Miss Nell Moore is in a class by herself?"

"Ann" Scott—"How come?"

"Sonny"—"She was nine minutes late."

Mae Dugan—"Does 'Red' Garrity snore in his sleep?"

Bill Walsh—"How should I know; I'm not in any of his classes."

Brunozzi—"Why does Bradshaw have a cat painted on his slicker?"

Hawkins—"Well, I'll tell you, Dumb. That's just to remind him of Kitty."

Advice to Freshman on Taking an Examination

1. Always come late. Tell the Prof. you were studying so hard you didn't hear the bell. That will please him.

2. If you do not understand certain questions, ask your next-door neighbor. Do not annoy the Prof.

3. Never write in ink. Hard pencils make the best impression on the Prof.

4. Do not answer all the questions. The Prof. in charge wants you to make a choice even though he forgets to mention it.

5. If you don't know the answer to a question, bluff it. It is always gratifying to the instructor to discover a spark of originality in a student.

6. If possible, look on the next fellow's paper. Then correct any errors on your own. It will help the Prof. greatly, as he will have less to correct.

7. Above all, don't sign your name on your paper. It will furnish the Prof. some amusement to guess who it is.

8. Co-eds should smile sweetly, and whenever possible tickle the Prof. under the chin before the examinations.

A Toast and No Coffee

Here's to all good students
 In this school and the next,
 We drink to you a toast tonight,
 Good fellowship is my text.
 Not the student that ponders on books
 When there are idling hours you know;
 Not the student that worries and crams
 As long as the lights are aglow,
 But the chap that pulls a wise crack rare
 When classes seem to be running wrong
 The student that grips your hand like I—
 And tells you life's a song.
 What if you know the suker lies,
 What if he knows it too,
 There are times in life when a friend that lies
 Is the only friend that's true.
 Caval and rant, ye prudes, who will
 Over textbooks, themes and reports,
 But somehow the real true things we feel
 Don't come from any of this sort;
 So drink this toast from your hearts, my friends,
 From a heart to a heart let it flow.
 Here's to good students all over the world their health, and God bless everyone.

A MYTH

It was the day of my first Junior Prom at the Normal School. Appolo and his fiery steeds started their day's journey earlier than they usually did. The campus, which was covered with dewdrops, resembled a monster cornucopia spilling its contents of prismatic color, life and laughter.

The whole school spun in a golden glow like imprisoned notes racing to come out of the mouth of a monotone Junior. Students rushed to and from classes, (those who attended) and everybody was greeted with a cheery "Good Morning."

Everyone was as busy as kiss timers in a moving-picture studio, preparing to make this affair the biggest and best in the history of the institution.

Then came the hour of the prom.

The dining room was provided with most luxurious decorations. Ponderous crystal-dripping chandeliers vied with sparkling diamonds hung from the ceiling. Cut flowers scented the room with langorous perfumes. From behind a frond of palms floated the refrains of Neil Guillian's Palace Royal Orchestra. It was going to be a great night.

Decollette gowns shimmered with the rainbow iridescence of butterfly wings. Fans and colored ribbons fluttered gently like whiskers dropping on a barber-shop floor. Tuxedo's and diamond studded shirts also added color to the brilliancy of the affair. A few of the gentlemen who wore rented uniforms looked like accidents going some place to happen. The room was as crowded as a bathroom medicine chest. Everybody in the world seemed to be there. The girls seemed to hang on to their boy friends like sapho kisses. The "stags" were as popular at this affair as snakes are in a St. Patrick's Day Parade.

The strains of a soft sensuous waltz floated lazily over the room, and a thousand commingled perfumes hung in the air like the too sweet scent from some night flower that drugs the senses. On the floor the crowd moved as though swayed by one rhythmic impulse.

The Normal School was caroling its Annual Anthem of unrestraint. The floor was ankle deep in confetti. Horns and laughter split the air.

A few girls who were all "decked out" to kill stood in the doorway with faces as long as winter nights in Norway waiting for their brothers or sweethearts. They, no doubt, felt like something somebody had ordered and forgotten to call for.

Somebody shouted, "More Wine!" and the students ran toward the person so fast that they would make Nurmi look like a snail in low gear. The night was as wet as alumni day is at State College.

About midnight whispered tautness began to loosen and gentle smiles reached a crescendo of ribald giggles. Formality sloughed away as the weird, uncanny, jazzy (call it what you like) strains of "Hotsy Totsy" poured forth from the instruments of the musicians. By this time everyone was having a hot time. Fox-trots became "taboo" and every couple was doing the "Charleston." Some of the girls would make Gilda Gray look like a baby six months old trying to walk a tight rope. It was nearing day-break.

And then she arrived!

There was that slight pause that an overwhelming personality brings to any gathering; the slight intake of breath that in a seance room presages a presence: Everybody was so still that you could hear the moths gnashing their teeth in the borrowed tuxedos. She stood for a swish of seconds in the doorway while several men and women hastened to greet her. She held her head high like a princess and looked around the room. A poet would compare her to Joan of Arc.

The prom ended—quick, pronto!

For the Good of B. S. N. S.

1. Have all the professors take a course in room-ventilation.
2. Enroll fewer children and more men and women.
3. Buy Prof. Korem an alarm clock.
4. Install a better heating system in North Hall.
5. Deliver the "Morning Press" to each student's door.
6. Have mail delivered four times a day.
7. Employ one or two finger-print artists for night duty.

Round Out Your Stenographic Course

By avoiding overlapping and wasted time can be found in any school for the essentials of a well rounded stenographic or secretarial course.

Gregg Stenographic Books were planned to meet the requirements of an all round stenographic and secretarial course.

Each book is a definite unit of a course in which all duplication and overlapping have been eliminated.

THE GREGG STENOGRAPHIC COURSE

Gregg Speed Studies (Gregg)
New Rational Typewriting (SoKelle)
