Our President

Francis B. Haas was born in Philadelphia, receiving his elementary and secondary education in the public schools of that city. Following his graduation in 1904 from the old Central High School, he entered the Philadelphia School of Pedagogy to begin preparation for entering the profession of teaching.

In 1906 he took his first teaching position in the Kenderton Elementary School. When the practice department of the School of Pedagogy was reorganized in 1913, Dr. Haas was chosen as one of the four demonstration teachers to assist in the preparation of male teachers for the public schools of Philadelphia. Later he became a member of the educational faculty of this same institution. After three years in the School of Pedagogy he was elected to the principalship of an elementary school. In the five years following he had successive charge of three such schools.

Along with his work he continued his professional preparation; receiving his Bachelor's Degree from Temple University in 1913; the degree of Master of Arts from the University of Pennsylvania in 1922; the Pd.D. from Temple University in 1927, and in addition spent a semester at Columbia University.

He was called to the State Department of Pennsylvania in 1920, at which time he became assistant director of the Teacher Bureau. He assisted in the formulation of the improved teacher standards that became effective in 1920 under the Edmond's Act. In 1922 he was promoted to the directorship of the Administration Bureau. He was made Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1924, and succeeded Dr. J. George Becht as State Superintendent in 1925.

Dr. Haas is 45 years old, and has three children, Francis, Mary, and Jean. He is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa Honorary Educational Fraternity, the Pi Gamma Mu Social Science Honor Society, was vice president of the National Education Association in 1925, and is an active member and participant in educational associations and movements and a contributor to educational literature.

Professor O. H. Bakeless

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has looked for the best in others and given the best that he had; whose life is an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction."

Such is our estimate of Mr. Bakeless. He has fulfilled to the finest degree the meaning of the word "Teacher." Through his classes he has taught many things, but by his life and influence he has taught more of honor, love, friendship, duty to oneself and one's fellowmen than any mere curriculum could contain.

His work with the Art League has brought to this school beauty and appreciation of the beautiful seldom seen and found elsewhere. By his wide reading he has challenged and stimulated the minds of many students to an understanding of literature. By his wit and humor he has endeared himself to the classes of the past until it is with a great deal of regret that we say "Goodbye" to a true Christian Gentleman.

FOREWORD

• • • •

As the symbol of the spirit of school life,

As a record of lasting friendships and hours of joy and toil.

As a service to our college whose future shall uphold the traditions of its past, this book stands.

If these things are embodied in its pages then our purpose has been accomplished.

Alma Mater

Far above the river winding,
Midst the mountains grand
Stands our College, dear to students
Far throughout the land.

Chorus:

Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg College
Up on College Hill,
Years to come shall find us ever,
True to Bloomsburg still.

Far and wide though we may wander,
Still our hearts are true
To our hilltop Alma Mater,
We our pledge renew.

Ever seaward Susquehanna,
Never resting flows,
Ever upward, striving, climbing,
Onward Bloomsburg goes.

THE COLLEGE

"We clamb the hill thegither,
And monie a canty day,
We've had wi' one anither."

—Burns.

How strange and wild to hear the tower
Suddenly take life and speak the hour.

"O, let stand, still proud,
This Home of Voices,
Reaching high to meet a cloud."
—Unbecust.

Senior land! What joys, and privileges and heart-throbs have been felt here.

"My favorite haunts, the shores, the ancient woods
Where with my schoolmates I was wont to stray."

—Sargent.

A spot of ideal loveliness, a little white shrine of young dreams found at the end of a winding trail.

"Let me live in a house by the Side of the road and
Be a friend to man."

—Foss.

Community Government Association

The Community Government Association of our college was organized during the second semester of 1927. The membership of this organization is composed of all members of the faculty and registered students. The Association has for its object co-operation, with the responsible authorities in promoting personal and group responsibilities in guiding and regulating the affairs of all students under the jurisdiction of the college.

When the Constitution was drafted the members of the committee realized the necessity of close co-operation for the successful functioning of this body so they provided that a meeting of the Association be held at least once a month plus any other meetings called by the President upon petition of twenty members. They aimed to give equal and just representation to men and women of all the classes.

In order to carry on the work of the Association four officers of good scholarship, citizenship, and conduct were elected by the members of the Association for a term of one year. The President must be a Senior of the four-year course. All other officers may be members of either of the remaining classes except the Freshman class.

Officers of the Association are:

GEORGE MATHEWS	- - - - -	President
MAUDRUE O'CONNELL	- - - - -	Vice President
RAYMOND HODGES	- - - - -	Secretary
CHARLES WADAS	- - - - -	Treasurer

Student Council

The Student Council which is the executive, legislative, and judicial agent of the Association is elected on the first Tuesday in May by the various classes. Representation in the Council is based in classes. Each class elects two representatives, a man and a woman. The day students or commuters also elect two representatives, one of each sex.

The Council meets once every two weeks on a day agreed upon by this body. Matters of minor importance are taken up in Council and the work is disposed of in that way while matters of major importance and consideration are referred to a committee, the chairman of which must be a member of the Council is appointed by the President. After an investigation, the matter is presented to the Council by the Chairman at the next meeting and action is taken in the Council. All recommendations must be approved by the President of the College.

Besides the student representatives, the President of the College, the Dean of Instruction, the Dean of Women, the Dean of Men, the Director of Teacher Training, are members of the Association, Student Council, and all committees.

Jessie Anders Patterson

Our Advisor

One of the first problems confronting every freshman class is that of choosing an advisor. Knowing Miss Patterson we had no difficulty in solving that problem. We immediately chose her as our Advisor.

Miss Patterson was born and reared in Jackson, Ohio. After graduating from high school she attended Ohio University, at Athens, Ohio. Later she received her diploma from the Oberlin Conservatory, at Oberlin, Ohio, and her A.B. from the University of DePauw, Greencastle, Indiana. Her advanced work was done at Cornell and New York Universities.

She has had considerable experience in her profession, having taught in the Music Department of the DePauw University and having served as Director of Music in the public schools of Greensburg, Pa. Miss Patterson has been a member of the Bloomsburg Teachers' College faculty since 1921.

The class of 1929 appreciates her sincerity and helpfulness. We have found her to be a real friend.

Class Poem

(Tribute)

If we could but release all sounds
Embedded in each wall
What voices would we hear,
The passing tread of whose footfall?
When Suns have made their hundredth round,
Will these walls re-echo
The lessons taught and learned,
Our voices of this long ago?
The creeping ivy seals within—
And mem'ry seals my heart—
The drone of voice and sound,
The last farewells that part.
Old walls; old ivy twining high
Will last through star-dimmed years;
But long and long ago
Old Masters passed beyond all fears.
As you—and I—and all will pass.
But, O, let stand, still proud,
This Home of Voices,
Reaching high to meet a cloud!

—MARGARET UNBEWUST, 29.

ELEANOR G. AMOS

J. M. Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"E" "A"

Blue eyes, blonde hair,
Never a worry, never a care;
A silly giggle, full of fun,
A girl who's a pal to everyone.

Eleanor? Oh, yes, she's the blonde of that gang from fourth floor who is always laughing and full of pep. But we can remember the time she wasn't so happy. Last year she went home every week-end, but now she almost dreads going home for holidays. What caused the change? We don't like to comment, but between you and me, a broad-shouldered light-haired football hero from Bloom is responsible. We don't know much about the significance of names, but Steiner sounds as if it might be Dutch.

Eleanor and one of her room-mates, Peg, can be found any evening at 4:10 in the Martha Washington drinking tea, or any night at 9:30 in the press room frying cheese.

The ukulele music from 483 shows that she is musically inclined. Her favorite songs are "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," and "That's My Weakness Now." She has an artistic hand which was affirmed by her appointment to Art Editor of this book.

She is a member of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority, and is supervisor of fourth floor.

To a true friend and a loyal classmate of '29, we wish her the best of success and happiness.

LILLIAN W. ANDERS

Fell High School
Simpson, Pa.
"Lil"

Small of stature
But great of mind,
That is our Lillian.

Lillian is one of our industrious, energetic, and studious girls. She finds time for work and time for play in all that she does.

She is the kind of a girl who studies earnestly, and always has her work done. "Lil" always greets one with a smile and believes in mixing a little laughter with the serious aspects of life.

As a student teacher she has made considerable progress; her attitude towards her work and her natural love for children tend to make her an ideal teacher.

Although very studious she finds time to join the large circle of friends which she has formed at B. S. T. C.

Lillian's favorite sports are hiking, hockey, and basketball. She won her numerals during the first year. The B. B. A. Club claimed her as a member.

We all wish Lillian the best of luck and success.

ALBERTA ANDRE
 Montrose High School
 Montrose, Pa.
 "Bert"

"Bert" was in one of her frequently noticed moods—hilariously laughing, a high sweet voice raised higher in protest and a kicking of tiny feet, when we entered. Our entrance created another mood, this time the mood was a coaxing one. She wanted to room with a girl from home, not for fear of being blue, but just "'cause it makes me feel at home."

If one should have cause to worry about her studies with such qualities, all fears vanish when you catch her buried in textbooks. Friends, looks are deceitful! We know from experience that College Humor is at the bottom of that grave of books. Beware of "Bert" when it's time for play.

Often we have wondered if our "Bert" is really going through with her good beginning of teaching. Perhaps if we see her teach at the end of this year we will know for sure. We have always rather feared a shadow over her teaching—the shadow of a tall young man named—who knows? Maybe she might change the name before we get around to read this again. But no matter what she decides to do, we wish her success and happiness.

MARGARET H. ANSTETT
 Trucksville High School
 Trucksville, Pa.
 "Peg"

Always happy, never sad,
 That's how "Peg" makes others glad.

Don't know our "Peg"? Step right up! Not very tall, five foot three to be exact, with light brown hair and eyes blue or gray as you wish, quiet and demure? Well, we thought so once, but then college does change one so.

"Peg" at present shows great promise of becoming a bright light in the literary field. Read any of her masterpieces, in the line of postscripts to letters written by "the gang." Along with letter writing "Peg" has other accomplishments by which we will always remember her. The "uke" under "Peg's" hand often added to the merriment of the occasion as did also "Peg's" fudge and taffy.

"Peg's" one weakness, as we know her, is her stomach. Any time, any place, any where "Peg" can be heard, "Got anything to eat?" Never mind, "Peg," we like to eat, ourselves.

As yet, "Peg" has not played the role of teacher, as her student teaching is reserved for second semester. Her one concern at present is Berwick and whether or not she will be sent there. Wherever she teaches we know she will be successful and our sincerest and best wishes follow her in any-thing she may do in later life.

ELIZABETH M. ARCHIBALD
 Technical High School
 Scranton, Pa.
 "Dixie" "Archie"

"Dixie" has a sunny disposition which makes up for her lack of height. Her motto is, "Have a smile for everyone you meet, and everyone will have a smile for you," and she certainly tries her best to follow it all the time. Perhaps this is the reason why she has so many friends who love her dearly. She believes in having a good time and in helping others to do likewise.

Nothing is ever too much trouble for "Dixie" to do. If there is something in the line of work to be done, call on "Dixie" and you will find her more than willing to do her share.

She is very studious and although she believes in having a good time, says, "Having your work up to date comes first, then fun."

Did you say sports? "Dixie" is right there on the top o' the heap. She is working hard and expects to get a letter this year.

We wonder what it is that causes "Dixie" to look out the window whenever she can? Can it be that one of the boys from North Hall has caught her eye? One never can tell—we'll just have to sit and wait to find out. "Cheer up, 'Dixie'."

We, your classmates and friends, wish you the best of luck and success in your future work. Keep your sunny disposition for this can bring you nothing but success and happiness.

HELEN A. ASH
 Benton Vocational School
 Stillwater, Pa.
 "Ashie"

Helen is another of our ambitious students hailing from the vicinity of Benton. "To know her is to love her." Her loving and honest ways have won for her a host of friends. Although Helen never appears to be in a great rush she gets there early and waits for the others. She has chosen as her profession, school teaching, but who can tell how soon she will drop this and take another. We often wonder of whom she is dreaming?

Helen is a diligent worker but she finds plenty of time for play and you simply cannot get lonely with her around. Complaining that her life depended too much on bells, she has moved from the Dormitory down town. Here's hoping she will always remember the parties in a certain third floor room.

The primary work has appealed to Helen. With her personality she will win the hearts and good will of her pupils as she has won ours. We all wish you the best of luck and success in your work.

MARION ELEANOR ASHWORTH
Nescopeek High School
Nescopeek, Pa.
Marion

This little girl from our locker room gang comes from the big town of Wapwallopen and we all hope that the town will send us many more like Marion.

Ready for work or play and serious about each—that's Marion. This perhaps, accounts for the fact that she numbers her friends by the dozens.

Marion is very studious sometimes, these "sometimes" usually occurring right before a test is to be given. Then she is much worried about her lessons and can be found only in the library applying herself industriously.

When we hear someone saying, "Let's go down town," we know at once that Marion is tired of lessons and ready for a little recreation.

Berwick has a big blonde attraction for Marion and this may account for her inability to study at home in the evening.

Lots of luck, Marion, and all good wishes for your future success and happiness.

LEONORA GRACE AUSTIN
Forty-Fort High School
Forty-Fort, Pa.
"Toady" "Lee" "Darlin"

She's got eyes of blue,
And she's just five foot two,
With her smile as sweet as—!
She's my weakness now!

"Toady" sure does love apples, and how! She has said very often to her friends that, "An apple a day will keep the diagnostician, the psychologist, the neurologist, the ear, eye, nose and throat specialist, the gastro-intestinal specialist and the head and skin specialist away."

Fudge! Chocolate Cake! Toast! Tea! Jam! Rare specialties in the dorm but "Toady" always had a closet full, and mind you—she gave some to us, of course. She could eat! "Toady" would have her breakfast, luncheon, dinner and besides a dozen "take a bite while you stand," or I think she would have wasted away, then we would have no "Toady."

Yes, mail was the chief factor in our darling's life. If she didn't receive at least six letters a day, there would be tears and howls for one whole day.

"Toady" excels in tennis. Ask anyone that she has exchanged rackets with whether she can play ping-pong or not.

LILA E. BARBER
Dalton High School
Factoryville, Pa.

Lila entered B. S. T. C. as a Freshman with our class in September, 1927. Her pleasing personality and pleasant smile soon won her many friends among her classmates. We surely believe that Lila recognizes the words of the poet, "Laugh and the world laughs with you; sigh and you sigh alone." As a fact, this is true for you seldom see her when she is not joking and laughing about something. Lila is a good sport, always ready to go along when anything exciting is going on and willing to be the loser if such is the case.

Lila is a real student. She never goes to class unprepared and you seldom see her without a book in her hand. She knows how to plan her work so as to not waste her time foolishly. If there is some lesson to prepare she does not spend a great deal of time dreading it, but rather settles down to work and does it.

Sports are among Lila's hobbies. She loves to dance, play tennis, basketball, and baseball. For all this she lives up to the motto, "Work before play," and we feel sure that this is the secret of her fine record with us as well as in High School.

If you continue as faithful and earnest a worker in your own school as you have here, your success as a teacher is assured.

MARY M. BARTKO
Villa Sacred Heart Academy
Kulpmont, Pa.
Mary

The above picture speaks for itself. Mary is dark, neat, and petite. We have all been attracted by her quiet, yet pleasing personality. This personality has attracted many who later became her friends.

Mary is quite a student. She can always be found working very laboriously in the library. It seems that that is about the best place where her work can be done in the best possible way. That's right, Mary. We all agree with you, "Two are better than one." But work as hard as she does we don't believe that she could get along without the fourth floor lobby.

Mary does not take a great interest in sports. Why, we do not know. Perhaps time will tell. But there are many other things which may be classified as sports besides football, basketball, baseball and tennis. Perhaps she will substitute a sport of her own.

We wish her the best of success and happiness in whatever the future has in store for her.

GRACE PAULETTE BASKERVILLE
St. Ann's Academy
Scranton, Pa.

Laughing brown eyes
And a sunny sweet smile;
Just to meet her is worth your while.

Here we have an energetic, refined, faithful, progressive and philosophical girl. You will always find her in a wide-awake, active, pleasant mood.

Just Grace, and no more, makes her one of the most loved of our class. She has many fine qualities, one of which presents itself as her name is mentioned, this outstanding characteristic is her personality. Grace has a sunny smile for not only her friends but everyone.

As a member of the Senior class Grace is always ready to do her bit. She has proven her dramatic ability in portraying the leading role of Eleanor in "So This Is London." She is also an active member and officer of the Tau Phi Epsilon Sorority.

Just pursue the course you have begun and you will hold the same high place in the world that you hold in the estimation of your sister classmates and all the school.

VIVIAN BASKIN
Foster Township High School
Drifton, Pa.
"Viv"

Baskin is the sort of creature who will fit "in any clime." Her disposition is one of sociability for when you are in her company for two minutes, you feel as though somewhere—sometimes—you have met a real girl. Perhaps you have, but probably you have not.

Like all girls, Baskin enjoys playing tricks on her schoolmates and it was the cleverness of these pranks that made us sit up and take notice.

"Eats," 9:30 sharp. She's there with bells on. In fact, Baskin is always ready to eat. She is Bush's most frequent customer. Chocolate fudge sundae seems to be her favorite dish and especially if she's with someone.

"There are smiles"—Baskin smiles and smiles and smiles some more. Giggles, jokes, and even cries are just some of the things she does and the only time she is very quiet is when she's asleep—and she doesn't snore either.

A helping hand, a willing heart,
Always ready for any part.
A wonderful girl, a friend so true,
What more can one wish of you?

MARY LOUISE BECKER

Scranton Central High
Scranton, Pa.

"Becky"

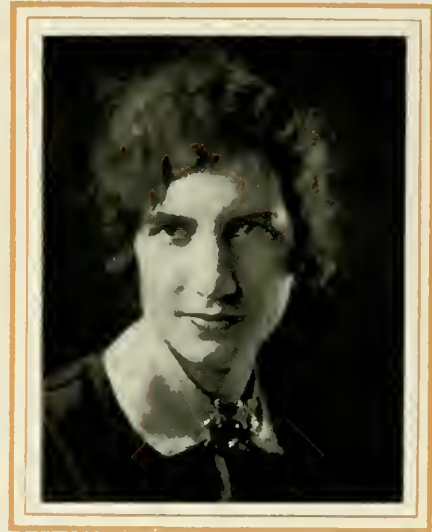

"Life holds no charm like loyal friends,
And Mary is one till life shall end."

Charming is our "Becky" with her pleasing personality and hospitality. "Mary Becker"? "Oh, yes, she's that tall girl with the sweet smile." Yes, that's how they describe Mary. Mary is an honor student and belongs to the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority. She loves teaching and we'll tell you why. Kiddies are her weaknesses, as one can tell when she describes one as having melting brown eyes.

Mary has a clever sense of humor and her cheering, "I'll help you," has saved many from a D.

Her long arm is a big help in basketball, and her swift feet earned praise in hockey. Mary excels in all sports and enjoys herself immensely, either playing or watching a clean game.

We are sure Mary will make a success in her chosen field because she not only knows her subject but can put it across. Life leads us to many channels, totally unexpected, but wherever they lead we know Mary will follow with a cheery word on her lips and a smile in her heart.

AGNES BEEHLER

Greene Dreher High School
Scranton, Pa.

"Aggie" "Bee"

She looks like an angel and acts it too,
But you never can tell what an angel will do.

"Aggie" hails from Hyde-Park, Scranton, and has been an added attraction to the primary department. During our short acquaintance of two years, we have found her to be exceedingly sweet and lovable. She is studious, industrious and very dignified, although she never misses a laugh, dance, talk or song, if possible. She is one of the "moving spirits" of this year's class.

With her quiet sense of humor and winning personality, she has made many friends, as well as kept the old, especially in the strong sex. However busy she is, Agnes is always ready to help one. She likes a good time as many of us can testify.

A good sport is always a welcome person to any school. She aided many losing and winning sides of volley ball and hockey accomplish what they desired.

We know by her success here at Bloom she will get results in all her undertakings and during the coming years will be successful.

Laura Jane Benfield
Conyngnam Township High School
Centralia, Pa.

Laura has the pep and ability that makes for an all-around sport. We can truly say, "She is a jack of all trades."

"There isn't much that she can't do
With needles, hammer, pen and glue."

Laura is an able basketball player and was one of the members of the All-Star Junior Basketball Team. Sympathetic, witty, jovial and friendly are but a few adjectives that describe "our Laura." It is impossible to appreciate her until you know her—but we all know her.

Laura makes everyone she meets feel that life is worth living for. She never worries about anything, yet always comes out O. K. Wherever there's a bit of mischief or racket you may be sure she is present.

EATS—well, chocolate cake is her weakness.

Laura is a faithful fire lieutenant. Whenever the fire bell is sounded, she is the first to open the door. Her cheery voice can be heard above the rest, crying, "Close your transom, girls."

The Tau Phi Epsilon is proud to claim her as a member of their organization. She is also an active member of the Girls' Chorus.

Margaret Alice Benfield
Mount Carmel High School
Centralia, Pa.
"Peg"

On first appearance, one would think that "Peg" was dignified, quiet and sedate, but underneath is found a fountain of laughter always ready to bubble forth.

"Peg" has been a friend to everyone, always ready to lend a helping hand but never looking for a reward.

Dark hair and blue eyes are "Peg's" greatest assets. Wherever she goes, someone is sure to say, "What pretty eyes," and this exactly describes them. We have heard that "Peg" writes a letter daily but like Postum—"There's a reason."

She is a devoted member of the Tau Kappa Phi Sorority and was a member of the Glee Club in her Junior year.

"Peg" did her practice teaching in Berwick and if reports are true, she certainly was a success. We also have the report that she was always the center of the pranks that the student teachers played on each other. "Peg" is one of the little girls of our class but she is a verification of the fact that, "Good stuff comes in small packages."

We all wish "Peg" heaps of success and happiness in the future.

FLORENCE BIEFELDT

Central High School
Scranton, Pa.

"Floss" "Flossie"

"She is not big, she is not tall,
But she is very kind to all.
She wears a smile, has a fine disposition,
Which in her life is sure to gain her a position.
She's never downhearted, she is never blue,
To her classmates she is always true."

"Floss" is a true friend and a real good sport. Judging from all appearances one would think she is very quiet and sedate, but appearances are deceiving. She is good-natured and always willing to help others.

"Floss" is full of fun and one is sure to have a good time and many a good laugh when with her. She can also be serious when the right time comes.

There are four things "Floss" really loves to do—skate, dance, swim and play tennis. This is a strange combination, but "Floss" is an unusual girl.

"Floss" comes from Scranton, and we often hear her rave about her dear "Old Alma Mater." We often wonder why "Floss"—is there an attraction, or is it that you really like the school?

We take the opportunity to wish you success in your life, "Floss," and in your teaching. We hope you will often think of the pals you met while at Bloomsburg.

KATHRYN BINGAMAN

Tamaqua High School
Tamaqua, Pa.

"Kit"

"Friendship's ties, above all, binds the heart and faith in friendship is the noblest part."

Crash! Bing! Bang! "Kit" is in the room. We are all aware of her presence. She is very witty—Oh, yes—I know. She has a "wise-crack" for everything you say. The size isn't considered. Wherever she is, you can usually hear a strain of some popular melody. Yes, "Kit" is quite a singer.

"IT"—Well, "Kit" has it and I don't mean maybe. Just watch her and see how it comes out, especially when she is dancing with the rest of the crowd.

What has happened to the "Special Delivery Letters" that "Kit" received from Tamaqua last year? We have come to the conclusion that perhaps Penn State and Gettysburg hold a greater attraction.

"Hello, Sweetheart! I am starved. How about something to eat?" This is "Kit" any time of the day.

"Kit" took up primary work and we know that she will succeed in her teaching, because she understands children.

"Kit" is an active member of the Alpha Delta Sorority.

JEAN BITTENBENDER

Nescopeck High School
Nescopeck, Pa.
Jean

A pleasant smile when'er you pass,
A very sweet and friendly lass.
Dark brown hair and friendly eyes,
Very witty and very wise.
She speaks her mind, but yet you'll find
Her thoughts are very deep,
And in the end you'll realize
A friend you want to keep.

For wit and clever jokes, Jean has no equal. Whenever Jean is around you are sure to be laughing, for she is witty, humorous and entertaining.

Mischievous—fun loving—teasing—Jean answers to them all. Whenever Jean is around there is no rest for the weary, she is always ready to tease when everyone else is ready to study.

Her favorite expression is, "I wish something thrilling would happen." She craves excitement and is always on the lookout to play a trick or joke. She has kept more than one of us in a gale of laughter over some funny joke.

Last year she lived in the dormitory but this year she is commuting. We think there is a very special reason for this.

We feel sure she will make a success of her work, and the best wishes of the class of '29 go with you.

LOUISE C. BLACK

Lake Ariel Vocational High School
Lake Ariel, Pa.
"Louie"

Upon first acquaintance with Louise, you get the impression that she is very quiet, but just wait until you get acquainted with her. A pleasing personality and a cheerful disposition help in winning many friends for her.

Louise is one of the industrious students and at any time you might see her busily engaged upon the next week's assignments. Two of her favorite sayings are, "Now, where did I put that book?" and "Oh, dear; I'll be late for class." As to being late for class we are doubtful of the fact.

Not only studies interest Louise, for extra-curricular activities come in for their share of attention. If you wish a faithful Y. W. C. A. member or a good tennis player, look for Louise.

She has great artistic ability—anyone who has seen some of her work can testify.

Is she a good teacher? Ask the sixth grade if they enjoyed the story of "Helen Keller," and your decision will not be hard to make. Success for this young lady is assured.

Although Louise did not live in the dorm during her Senior year, we did not forget her and we certainly missed our school-mate, who was ever ready to help.

With this true friend it is hard to part;
Great of mind, and big of heart.

ELIZABETH BLACKBURN
Newport Township High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Iz" "Liz"

Brown eyes and brown hair—quite an extreme type, to be sure, but then, they belong to an unusual girl. Her personality is winning when you know her, you just love her.

Elizabeth is a conscientious worker. When doing her student teaching she always aimed to please, but her answer generally was—"Of course, I'll go along, but just wait a few minutes!" Why she didn't go was because she had to finish her lesson plan.

"Iz" has a weakness too! She is quite fond of dancing but that plays second to her appetite. Every night at five o'clock her usual saying was, "Who knows what we are going to have for dinner? I'm starved!"

"Liz" has an avocation, one which is very popular with the girls. This was the usual scene at Hartman's in Berwick, whenever there was a few minutes to play. A blonde girl with a red bandanna on her head squatting on the bed and peering into the dim distant future. I see in these cards—But then, we mustn't tell secrets!

We all wish her success in all that she undertakes.

HELEN BLACKWELL
Taylor High School
Moosic, Pa.
"Helen" "Fatty"

Helen Blackwell is her name,
Drawing pictures is her fame—
She certainly can make them great,
But to be a teacher is her fate.

How well do many of the girls know that Helen is somewhat of an artist. When they couldn't get some imaginary creature to behave just as they wanted him to, they brought him to Helen to doctor. No matter if she was deeply involved in solving some of her own difficulties she never refused to lend a helping hand. Our Helen certainly must have a steadfast mind for although she is of the type gentlemen prefer, with big blue eyes and blonde hair, nevertheless lessons are of the first consideration. We also have often perused her mail, but have never seen anything of a suspicious nature.

No matter what time of day or what day it is, the first thing seen on entering the room is Helen busily engaged in something, if nothing else at least her favorite indoor sport—drawing. It is our belief that some day she will be a great artist, but as yet we are not going to say anything about it.

She doesn't say much but still she can appreciate a joke. And hike—if you want to reduce, hike with Helen. We'll never forget, and rather imagine she won't, the day she hiked to Light Street and then to Berwick—ouch, those blisters.

We mustn't forget to mention that Helen is a member of the Delta Phi Sigma.

EDITH FAY BLUD
Northumberland High School
Northumberland, Pa.
"Fay"

A bundle of wit, energy, smiles and laughs. "Fay" is one of the best girls in the dormitory. She is always happy and her merry disposition is really contagious for she has the knack of making those about her feel the same way.

She never misses a feed for two reasons—first, cats, and second, to add more jokes to her collection and to entertain us with some of her sayings which are: "Oh, My Gosh," "Good Heavens," and "Do you know the lesson."

"Fay," what has happened to the letters from Bucknell that used to swamp the mail last year? Does Bloomsburg hold more attractions?

"Fay" has assured us that teaching will be her life profession, but one can never tell what the future will hold for her. Anyway, we wish you success and happiness in whatever it may be.

THELMA A. BOMMER
Hazel Township High School
Milnersville, Pa.

There came to B. S. T. C. in the year of '27, a dark-haired brown eyed maiden from the town of Milnersville. "To know her is to love her."

Why Thelma has chosen teaching for her profession instead of hairdressing is a puzzle which as yet has not been solved. Judging from the character of her good work and her favorable standing with her classmates, we are sure this young lady will make a success at anything she tries.

When you speak of any sports, don't forget to mention Thelma. She is very fond of athletics, particularly basketball. She plays guard and certainly fills her position.

Thelma possesses enough foresight and will-power to be successful in whatever she may undertake. Thus we feel quite sure that her choice in life has been a good one. Already she is directing her footsteps along the right path. Surely fortune will smile on such an ambitious person and she will accomplish her aim.

MARGARET A. BOWER

Clarks Summit High School
Chinchilla, Pa.
"Peg" "Mickey"

Five foot two.
Eyes of blue.
She's always thinking of someone,
Guess who?

Bang goes the door. We hear a clinking of heels and books being dropped on the table. Here she comes—the life of the 483 suite. None other than our "Peg." Have you ever met "Peg"? If you haven't, you sure missed something. She always has a cheery smile and a pleasant hello for you whenever you meet her. When we first met her she was a shy Junior, but that has disappeared.

"Peg's" chief diversions are: Talking, failing to answer roll call in her classes and letter writing. From the appearance of her mail box everyday, "Peg" should have lived in the days of knights, she's so fond of "mail."

Judging from outward appearance, one would think that "Peg" was beyond fear, but her most decided weakness is "chicken feathers." "Peg" thinks they are not so bad when viewed from a distance, but dreads having them near her.

Although "Peg" is interested in sports and has won a place on the basketball, hockey and baseball teams, she would much rather devote her time to learning that 12 dozen equal one "GROSS."

GERTRUDE MARIE BOYLE

Freeland High School
Freeland, Pa.
"Duts" "Gerty"

Brown eyes, black hair,
Never a worry, never a care.
Her ready wit and willing hand
Always place her in demand.
This is our "Duts."

This dark haired, brown eyed miss with a sunny smile is "Gert," who comes to us from Freeland. While gazing upon her fair countenance one is bound to remark, "How quiet, how bashful," but that person does not know "Gert," for you can't imagine the mischief she is always contemplating.

"Gert" is an industrious person even though her picture does not reveal this trait. However, we have found her in her busiest moments always ready to lend a helping hand.

As a teacher "Gert" has a knack of winning the confidence of the children—which is characteristic of all good teachers. This, combined with her untiring efforts and a desire to become a moulder of children's lives should carry her to great heights in the profession with which she is allied.

"Gert" proved to be an all around good sport in baseball, basketball and hiking. She was also an active member of the Women's Chorus.

CLAIRE BRANDON

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
Claire

Claire is a girl of surprises. We never know what she is going to do next. About the time we expect her to do something in accordance with her "snappy" appearance she does just exactly the opposite.

Claire came to us from Berwick in 1927. She is one of the commuters who enjoys the twelve mile ride on the bus every morning to attend college. Claire is a popular member of the "Locker Room Gang" and is liked by all.

She is a most versatile girl—with that almost rare combination of abilities—athletics and good scholarship. Everyone should see her play basketball. She knows how! She is particularly well adept as forward. She is also a member of the Mu Phi Sigma.

Claire is a rare type of a girl, and we have never known of any one like her. When our school days are ended we shall always think of Claire, as one of the writers expressed it:

You came like the wind, the life begetting;

You went like flame at the sun's setting;
You were swift as time, the unregretting;
But Time will be dead when we are forgetting!

MARIE BRISLIN

Plymouth Township High School
Plymouth, Pa.

A Sunny smile and sparkling eyes,
A nicer girl you'll never see,
Nor one more agreeable and wise
Than our curly haired Marie.

Oh, Marie! Can you tell me how? Not infrequently do we hear this bit of conversation in room 462. Ever eager to help, everyone's friend—that's Marie.

Marie is the industrious type of pupil, who takes lesson plans seriously. Indeed lesson plans seem to be Marie's hobby. No scientist ever prized a specimen as Marie does a perfect lesson plan.

Marie's indoor sports are reading the spookiest mystery tales and answering telephone calls from Nanticoke. Now we know why Marie finds week-ends so interesting.

Last year she belonged to the First Aid Club and to Miss McCannon's winning baseball team.

Marie has many, many friends who find her an agreeable, lovable and interesting companion.

We voice their feelings in wishing you the best of luck in the future.

AGNES E. BURNS
Kingston High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Burnsie"

She always greets you with a smile,
A good little sport, and friend worthwhile.

If you are greeted with a sweet "Hell-o" you can bet your boots its "Burnsie." She also has a peculiar laugh that attracts attention. She is a lovable girl fond of fun and pleasure. If she is in the right mood you may expect anything unusual to happen. She is just full of surprises. Those brown eyes twinkle with merriment and mischievousness when she gets started. Her greatest delight is teasing someone, which she does to perfection, and her favorite expression, "Don't do anything I wouldn't do."

Her excess amount of vitality is not all directed toward having a good time, although she is known as one of the chief "Merry Makers" on third floor. However, the next minute she is just as serious and sympathetic. No matter what the difficulty may be she is always willing to lend a hand.

If "pep" and personality have anything to do with teaching, she will surely have a successful career.

The class of '29 extends to her its best wishes for success.

MARIE K. BYERLY
Dalmatia High School
Herndon, Pa.
"Rie"

Always smiling, always happy,
Always full of glee;
Always helping one who is blue,
Proving herself a friend who is true,
That's Marie.

Marie came to Bloomsburg unknown to any of us, but she made friends in a hurry. She has a pleasing personality as is shown by her score of friends. She entertains them by her speeches and jokes and in turn likes to be entertained too. Her weakness seems to be talking about Susquehanna.

Marie goes home only on special occasions. She thinks it is easier for her parents and friends to visit her, than for her to spend a short time with them.

Marie is very studious, and is quite learned in some special subjects. Of course, she likes some better than others, why not? Her favorite pastime is studying, not saying what kind. She is even so interested in her studies at times that she forgets where she has placed her class equipment and can't find her keys. Then her favorite saying is: "Where are my keys?"

She is specializing in rural work as she expects to teach in a school near home. Good luck and happiness in yours to be, Marie.

CLARA CADWALADER
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Caddie"

Clara is a girl that everyone should know. She hails from Edwardsville and is a sure cure for the blues of any type. If you are sad she will cheer you up, if you are happy she will add to your happiness. In fact, she is just the kind of a girl who is everyone's friend.

Are you hungry? See Clara; she will give you a variety, such as was never seen on a menu in any first-class restaurant. A big smile is the only meal ticket she requires.

With such a reputation how can Clara be anything but the kind of a teacher which pupils refer to as "Our teacher?" The kind of a teacher that makes school an actual joy instead of a dreaded routine of daily doings.

"Caddie" certainly does take a great interest in athletics. She was a member of the hockey team, baseball team and basketball team. She supports her teams with a good spirit.

She is treasurer of the Delta Phi Sigma Sorority.

And to a future teacher, we wish success.

HELEN B. CAFFREY
Sugar Notch High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Ca-free"

She is not big, she is not small.
But she is very kind to all.
Her winning smile and fine disposition,
Will in life, win her a mission.

Helen is a clever blonde with blue eyes and an everlasting smile which is her outstanding feature. She is not the type that pushes herself forward, but nevertheless she is always there. Whenever you see a blonde-haired girl—yes, it is Helen, the only blonde in "our gang." However, if you think she is quiet and reserved, you don't know her.

Helen is particularly interested in Art and her sole ambition is to become an art teacher. We also find her to be a lover of music. She is one of our faithful students registered in the Music Department. Sports? This is really her main hobby. With her co-operation the Senior Hockey Team gained championship. Helen is also an active member of the "B" Club. However, her interests do not end with athletics. She is a member of the Girls' Glee Club, the Baton Club and the B. B. A. Club.

May the events in your future be bright and happy, Helen. Our best wishes for success go with you.

MABEL CARL
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Hon"

"Some love three, some love two,
She loves one—I wonder who?"

This pretty little miss hails from our city of Danville. She has won the friendship of many in B. S. T. C. How has she done it? By her cheerful smile and ever readiness to lend a helping hand. There is one thing at least, about "Hon" that we all admire—that is her red hair. You know it is often said that a person who has this color of hair has a quick temper, but not so in this case. If you happen to see a big "Paige," driven by a little girl, you'll know who it is. Whenever you go to the library you are sure to see Mabel pouring over books. Her motto is, "First the work, then the play." Mabel has taken up primary work and we're sure that she will be a successful teacher of little children.

Mabel, your friends wish you all the happiness and success in the world.

ANTOINETTE CARMEN
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Tony" "Ant"

You wouldn't think that this sweet young Miss crossed the big wide ocean, would you? Well, she did. Although the people of Sicily seem to inherit the dark skin and black hair, Antoinette had to be different. We can see this by her light hair and fair complexion.

Her kind nature and friendly disposition have won her many friends of both sex. Now don't be surprised, for I know that one of them has been waiting for four years, and he still has hopes of stealing her heart.

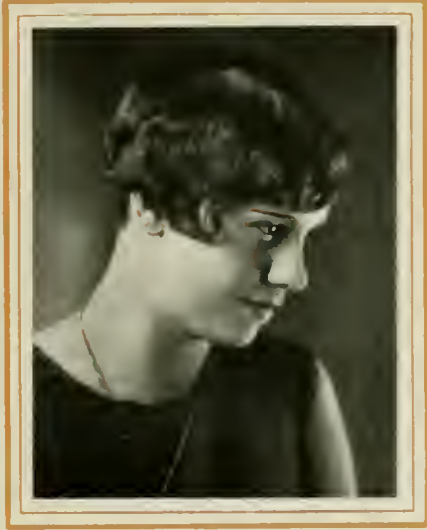

She is a girl who loves music and who is also fond of the French language, which she will never forget.

Indeed we all missed her the first semester, for she taught in Berwick. The children hated to give her up. We know you will make a successful teacher, and we all wish you success. Perhaps she will give teaching up for her favorite hobby, which is "Travel."

Cheer up, Antoinette, your wish may come true, if you wait patiently. Some day you will visit the place where you were born, and for all we know you may teach there. We know you will come back to dear old United States, for you said that there is nothing like good old America.

We are sorry to lose you and we wish you the best of success. Never forget the friends you have learned to love in dear old B. S. T. C.

ALTHADELL BEATRICE CARPENTER

James M. Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Jerry"

Jerry is one of the dearest girls
That Bloomsburg ever knew.
To her studies she is faithful
And her friends—most true.
Whenever there is work to do
She always does her share;
Yet, when there's food or fun around
You're sure to find her there.

Did it take "Jerry" long to become acquainted upon her entrance at Bloomsburg? Not much. Her sociability and sincere friendliness were contagious and before many weeks had passed she could boast of a host of friends. But, then, what barrier would not be broken down by "Jerry's" bright smile. Judging from the frequent visits to the library, we are almost certain that she likes to study there.

"Jerry" loves to dance. Learning new steps is her favorite pastime. Everyone clamors for her in the "Gym." Cries of "'Jerry,' lead me in this one," fill the air. Lonesome would be the party that hadn't "Jerry" for a guest. You can always be sure you will have an enjoyable time when she is present.

"Jerry" is a very active member of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority, holding the office of president. She is always doing her bit at parties, teas, and all other social events. In addition to this, she is a member of the Student Council and Y. W. C. A.

As a teacher, "Jerry," we envy you; as a woman, we honor you, and as a friend, we treasure you.

MARY E. CARR

Peckville High School
Peckville, Pa.
"Molly"

Just why, how, when or where our active, restless, ever-mischievous Mary acquired a prim "Molly" for a nickname is a mystery, but it sticks so that is all we ask of it.

Whenever "Molly" departs from her usually joyous, mischievous mood, we are at once aware of it by what we have come to term "that pass-away look."

Of course, we keep a few things at hand for a come-back when "Molly's" jests become too clever. No one from Peckville will ever forget "Howard," the hero of high school days; the intimate friends know "Jimmy," and those that knew "Molly" in Berwick can always feel sure that the mention of "Mirandy" will bring some active response.

Well, "Molly," you certainly worked hard for Mu Phi Sigma and Mixed Chorus. As time rolls on you can feel assured that we will remember you with pleasure, for you have helped us pass many hours, that, without you, would have been dreary. We all wish you luck, health, and happiness—yes, and wealth if you so desire.

ISABEL CHELOSKY
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Utzie"

Did you see a tall, slim, wiry brunette around anywhere? Perhaps she is on the tennis court or hockey field; maybe she is playing basketball or she may be in the gym dancing—anyway, wherever she is—it's good old Isabel! See all! Know all! That's her motto and many's the big boy who has poured forth his tale of woe on "Utzie's" shoulder. Maybe we should say—"Understand all," too. She simply can't be still and we can bet you never did see her without a smile and a "Hi, everybody." "Utzie" is a happy-go-lucky individual, but she just loves to study, too. She really is kept busy dashing home to see her latest thrill—but she's independent—she makes them come down and we notice they all have ears, too. "Utzie's" favorite saying is "My word," "Bein's how," etc.

Isabel is an active member in the Delta Phi Sigma—secretaries are always busy. She's the champion restaurant goer in the state, usually taking in 5 to 11 eating places from 4:15 to 5:45 and still she retains that girlish figure—perhaps she's on the right side of the druggist.

We are confident and know she will be a success in her teaching profession.

Among her activities were Assistant Business Manager of Obiter, "B" Club, Maroon and Gold, Y. W. C. A., Basketball, Tennis Tournament, and Delta Phi Sigma Sorority.

MABEL COBB
Moscow High School
Moscow, Pa.
"Cobbie"

What are we getting to eat today, Mabel? Mabel immediately proceeds to string off a menu a mile long and most of it is applesauce.

Mabel, you know, is quite a favorite with our dining room "Romeos." These dining room romances are getting quite serious, but Mabel says she won't bother with any of them because her heart-strings are securely tied around someone in Dickinson, or is it Penn State?

Mabel is rather finicky about songs too. When Katink or Irene begin to sing, Mabel chirps up with something like this: "Don't sing that one," or "That one is too much for me," or "Sing this one, I feel like this tonight."

We remember Mabel very plainly as proctor in Long Hall. Mabel is very particular about noise after "lights out." We remember her standing like a sentinel outside Mabel Highfield's door. That's right, Mabel. No one is making noise while you're proctoring, are they? You surely can show your authority when you want to, can't you?

Mabel's favorite sport is hockey, but she's not slow at basketball either. Mabel is very studious, and is an A-1 student in every class. She was the industrious chair-lady of the Senior Art Exhibit.

Mabel, I'm sure the class wishes you health, luck, and happiness.

DOROTHY COLLEY
Benton Vocational School
Benton, Pa.
"Dot"

A hard hitting of heels—a shout of laughter, and "Dot" is properly announced. Rumor has it that once "Dot" kissed the Blarney Stone in old Ireland (you know the old legend) and her ready wit is proof enough to us.

In the locker room, "Dot's" a friend to everyone, even the ever present mice. She arrives there early, you know, with the aid of the B. & S. Railroad and thus has a chance to cultivate a shrieking friendship with the grey-coated occupants.

Every class needs someone to talk for it. "Dot" keeps us in the race. Oh, its nothing of which to be ashamed. On the contrary, we are proud of her. Besides, we need someone to speak up for us. Who could do it better than "Dot," when you consider the proper effect of an Irish vocabulary?

She also is something of a radical. Her latest thought is—that study doesn't make any man wise. However, don't misinterpret her attitude by that. It's a false alarm, for she is every bit as studious as any of us. It's just that she very wisely argues that a little fun now and then can not harm the covers of the deepest text-book nor the knowledge gleaned thereof.

A jolly good friend is "Dot" and our best wishes are for her success and happiness.

AMELIA CONNELLY
Nantleoke High School
Nantleoke, Pa.
"Meal"

Golden hair, a winsome smile and a pleasing personality—that's "Meal," just "Meal." None, but herself can be her parallel. She is neither bold nor shy, nor short, nor tall, but a mingling of them all. We can't help but like her—and we don't want to help it. We pamper her when we say her hair is golden because we know it is red and will be until she "dyes." "Meal" is never lonely because a smiling face is always good company. Since we have known her, we have realized that we can find "peaches" where there aren't any trees.

She's a good fellow, always ready to make herself useful. Whether it be a Freshman in despair over her Art, or a Senior in our hall who must get up early the next morning to finish that graph and does not have an alarm clock, "Meal" is right there.

Another one of her eccentricities is her daily walk to Bush's when you are in a mood for a nut sundae. She could not live through a whole day without her "Koke" and pretzel. "Meal" likes apples, too, when someone else goes for them. She does not like to hike except on the gymnasium floor to the accompaniment of music.

All these qualities will help to make her a success in her teaching and are shown to the best of her advantage in her many affiliations—Tau Kappa Phi Sorority, Lantern Club, Dramatic Club and Y. W. C. A.

MARY CELIA CONNOLLY

Forest City High School
Forest City, Pa.
Mary

When the great noise died down in September, '27, we found in our midst a fair haired, blue eyed maiden, whom the "Seranton Gang" called Mary. At first she was very sedate and calm, but to our astonishment she did not remain quiet. She soon mixed in with us and became one of the jolliest of good sports.

Although she appeared inactive at times, she nevertheless showed great interest in the extra curricular activities. She joined the Girls' Glee Club in '27. When the Tau Phi Epsilon Sorority was seeking the companionship of new members they did not overlook Mary. She became an active member of this sorority in '28, and is one of its most active members.

Mary is an ambitious teacher. Her work in practice teaching proved that she is capable of handling any difficulty she might meet in her future work.

Many happy hours we have spent together during our stay here, and with a pang of regret we see the good times coming to an end. But we are sure that she will meet with success out in this wide world; furthermore, we are sure that she will not tread the road of life alone.

JENNIE CONTINI

Foster Township High School
Freeland, Pa.

Brown are her eyes,
Black is her hair.
She may be small,
But that's not all.

This young lady came to Bloomsburg full of ideals. She is one of those good natured girls who would do anything for a friend. Our love for her has been increased by the little favors she did for us.

Whenever you see Jennie she is always working earnestly, her work is always prepared—that is one of the reasons why she is so capable in her schoolwork. Work always comes before play. When her work is done we can always find her among the jolly crowd laughing and joking, taking life just as it should be taken.

She has brown eyes that fairly sparkle; some say that she uses them to advantage. We wonder!

Her aims are high and her ideals are attached to stars, which can only be reached by such as she.

All your classmates are extending to you their best wishes for your future happiness and success.

MARGARET M. CONWAY
Johnstown Central High School
Johnstown, Pa.
"Marg"

"When Irish eyes are smiling, then the world with you will smile." Only those who really know this blonde-haired miss can appreciate the truth of these words. It takes fifty-four muscles of the face to produce a frown and only two to make a smile, so—"Marg" smiles.

Little surprises always make "Marg" raise her voice and then it suddenly drops, like a scale. By the particular tone that she uses you get the meaning behind it. Even the look in her eyes portrays every inward thought and her very movements reveal her emotions.

"Marg" is a member of the Dramatic Club and the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority.

We cannot finish without mentioning "Marg's" blue eyes. They radiate the happiness of their owner.

She is chic, she is gay,
A jolly girl, a real sport.
With such a girl I'd wend my way,
And say she's the ideal Sort.

LUCILE G. COOK
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Pete"

"Did you get a letter, 'Pete'?" There is no answer but then, none is needed as the evidence is right before us, and "Pete" is too busy to answer. The puzzle is, "Where's it from?" for we know "Pete" has a weakness for Scranton via State. Now we wonder "Why such a round about way?" Another puzzle to us is—why does "Pete" cling to "Girl of My Dreams," when we know it is passe?

Never mind, "Pete," the gang in back hall couldn't do without your contribution of eats and fun.

Even though she is a conscientious worker, "Pete" is a good sport and well deserves the many friendships she has acquired at B. S. T. C.

"Pete's" sweet voice has placed her in the Glee Club, while her attractive face and personality have won her over to the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority.

Lovable is the word that describes "Pete" better than any other. Her cheery "hello," quiet acquiescence to another's will and keen good judgment will aid her through life.

JESSIE EDNA CORNWELL

Business High School
Washington, D. C.
"Jess" "Smiles"

A sunny smile,
A winning way;
We hope she will always
Be happy and gay.

There is no doubt of the love and admiration our Southern lassie throws about her wherever she goes. "Jess" possesses a typical southern smile, accent and disposition.

"Jess," well-known as one of the sweetest girls in the school, has for the past two years spread an atmosphere of good comradeship and love among her friends at B. S. T. C.

She was active in many affairs, being a member of the Dramatic Club. Music plays no small part in her life and she has expressed her talent in the Glee Club. She has a sweet, pleasing voice and a light expressive touch. She has played the piano for many entertainments in the primary department and children's literature class.

At the beginning of the second semester, the close of a busy "rush" reason, the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority claimed her as a devoted member.

She has not only proved her merit as a Y worker but as an efficient Class Secretary.

Parting is such sweet sorrow, but Jessie, dear, we know success will follow you, what e'er you do.

ALDA MARIE COTNER

Watsontown High School
Washingtonville, Pa.
Alda

When you first meet Alda you have the impression that she is one of those quiet girls, but when you have known her awhile you find that she is just the opposite.

Alda is very studious and earnest in her work. She is never known to have entered the classroom unprepared or late. You could always see her hurrying down the hall with her notebook as soon as the bell had rung.

However, she is not so wrapped up in her work that she has no time for fun. She is always ready to laugh at a joke and join in any mischief that happens to be going on. And when it comes to "feeds" she is never absent.

Alda has chosen the teaching in the primary grades for her life work. She has been very successful in her practice teaching, and we feel sure that she will be just as successful in her own school. The children are very fond of her.

We wish you success and happiness in your work.

AGNES COTTERMAN
Huntingdon Mills High School
Huntingdon Mills, Pa.

Town Hill has given us one of our best loved Locker Room girls in the person of our curly-haired (and it's natural, too), blue-eyed Agnes. Whenever we see her bright smile and hear her talk we wonder how the home folks get along without her.

They say that she has actually taught school, but what we would like to know is how anyone could tell the teacher from the pupil. Besides being a good teacher she can do many other things equally as well, such as playing the piano, driving a car, singing in the Glee Club and taking an active part in the Athletic Club.

Her greatest accomplishment is being just an all-around good sport who can always be depended upon. When she plays basketball, can she make a basket every time she aims? We'll say she can! We hope that she achieves her aims in life as well as she achieves her aims in making baskets.

LAWRENCE H. CREASY
Catawissa High School
Catawissa, Pa.
"Creasy"

The young man pictured here dwells in that pleasant locality called River-Hill, where they raise "goofer feathers." The inhabitants there, however, have one particular advantage: they look down on the rest of us.

First appearances are said to give lasting impressions. If so, Mr. Creasy must have made a good impression on his first day of college life.

Modesty is sometimes mistaken for bashfulness. This has been true of Lawrence, but he outgrew that when the young ladies began to show an interest in his delightful smile. His interest in them, however, was uncentered and unsustained until the last part of his third year. Those who were on the Harrisburg trip that year will understand. Also, those who know him well have come to the conclusion that he has an especial liking for the name Margaret. Yet through all this he is an excellent student. Rumor has it that his report cards are graced only by a-plus's. He is a pleasant companion, a true friend, and always willing to co-operate in any meritorious enterprise.

Activities: Orchestra, '27, '28, '29; Mixed Chorus, '27; Men's Glee Club, '28, '29; Science Club, '27; Student Council, '29; Associate Editor of Obiter, '29; La Mascotte, '28.

LAVINA K. CROWELL
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Lovey"

There's a little bit of bad in every good little girl. And "Lovey" is a good example of this. Her cameo-like features are lit up by her flashing smile and dancing, firelit eyes. Witty remarks come from soft rosy lips, and her blonde hair is a mass of rippling waves.

What are "Lovey's" hobbies? Eating—Olives and Apple Pie. Dancing—All the latest steps and even those of her own invention are practised in the gym after dinner. North Hall????

"Holy Cow," "Can you beat that!" Whenever you hear these, you can bet your last year's straw hat that it's "Lovey" coming down the hall, very much agitated at someone.

Candyland was never passed up because a coc-o-lem stimulates one so for the hard work of the oncoming night.

All is fair in Love and War, but "Lovey" surely did work. Many a night was spent by a troubled blonde head on a hot and uncomfortable pillow. But joking aside, "Lovey," best wishes and success to the girl who liked to make us guess.

ESTHER O. DALLACKEISA
Rock Glen High School
Weston, Pa.

A pack of books,
Loads of knowledge;
Picture this girl
In our college.

Eyes of brown,
Hair the same—
Who, from afar
Off Weston came.

To a sorority
She was rushed.
The Tau Phi's
Would not be hushed.

'Til Esther joined,
Witty and merry.
She soon became
Its secretary.

The clubs she joined
Were quite a few,
Y. W. C. A. and Glee Club too.

In sports, she Finds lots of fun,
Especially hockey
And basketball.

Loads of friends
Has she, no doubt.
We wonder if
One is a male?

RALPH DAVIES
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Raffles"

When "Raffles" first appeared here at Bloom he apparently was a modest individual for nobody knew he was around. This, however, did not last long, for his debut as Captain of the track teams of '27 and '28 brought him in the limelight.

Ralph has many achievements to his credit due to his perseverance and determination. He delights in singing and has been a member of the Men's Glee Club for the past two years. In '27 he managed the Basketball team. He is a charter member of the Omega Chi Fraternity and takes an active interest in its affairs. He reached the pinnacle of his success here when he was elected Editor of the Obiter.

Many wonderful days we have spent in his company and many have found him to be a true friend and classmate. We now wish him the fruits of a happy and successful career in his future work.

ROBERT DAVIS
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Bob"

"Bob" is one of the members of our class who believes in the old quotation, "Success depends not so much upon studying nights as in being awake in the daytime." "Bob's" proof of this old adage is his many night activities and his high scholastic standing. Besides escorting a certain girl of our class he found time to attend to many other activities such as: Secretary of North Hall Student Council, Treasurer of the Nanticoke Club, Member of Junior Varsity Basketball Squad and also of the Davis, Davies, Edmunds and Jones Pinochle Club.

"Bob" played an end position on the Freshman and Senior football teams. He was a member of that famous right side of the Freshman line in '27. Time after time, with the aid of his cohorts, Stoddard and Jones, he would smear his roommate, "Shorty," and the other three horsemen of the Senior's backfield. He also played a bang-up game in his Senior year, contributing largely to the Freshmen's defeat.

We always will find him the loyal defender and supporter of B. S. T. C.

"Bob" showed ability as an editor on the Obiter staff. Booth asked him to join the varsity basketball squad but "Bob" preferred to play with the Jay Vees.

DOROTHY DAVIS
 Technical High School
 Scranton, Pa.
 "Dot"

When the world is blue,
 And I've nothing to do;
 I'll eat, sing and dance,
 Oh, yes, and always take a chance.

That's "Dot" through and through. Just as soon as the gong goes off in the morning you can hear, "All Alone" or "Angelia Mia" and sometimes "When Father Papers the Parlor." As the lark goes upward singing, "Dot" comes downward yodelling.

Taking chances are "Dot's" specialties. If someone told her to do the "Highland Fling" on the roof of the dorm at 3 A. M., "Dot" would be there with bells on to add to the charm of the affair.

Hey! Move! I want to get my mail. Yeh! Who from "Dot"? Is it from that tall, handsome darling? Let us in on the secret when??

"Dot" certainly is a neat dancer. If dancing was prohibited at the school, among the missing would be "Dot." She is a good butterfly that's not caught in the rain.

May happiness be yours, "Dot."

RUTH A. DAVIS
 Nanticoke High School
 Nanticoke, Pa.
 Ruth

And then there came to our college—Ruth. A fair maid, desirous of edifying the minds of the younger generations. Has she succeeded? Well, she's a certified "school ma'am."

But Ruth's education did not end with books. How could it, when the college offered hockey, volley ball, basketball, baseball, hiking and tennis? Tennis. It's great for reducing—even better than counting Calories. And then, it does away with the formality of introductions, too.

You didn't know Ruth was reducing? Oh, yes, she's counting calories conscientiously. The reason—she wanted to prove herself worthy of her name—Venus.

We have high hopes for Ruth as a teacher, especially as a teacher of English. She launched several campaigns in the interests of purifying the mother tongue among her associates. For the benefit of other Good English Enthusiasts, we have recorded the opening speech of one of these campaigns. "Hey, listen, kids, we gotta cut out this slang and start usin' decent English, or we won't know how to talk when we get outa this joint." But that was before Ruth began teaching. Even her own English has improved now and we all wish her the best of luck in teaching English—and every other subject that comes her way.

THEODORE S. DAVIS

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Tax"

Not to be excelled in the possession of that admirable quality, good nature, never too busy to aid a brother floundering in the fog, never too blue to smile, "Tax" has crashed through the gates of popularity to win a host of friends.

He is one of those lucky creatures who gets his work out as it should be and at the same time with the minimum of effort.

Basketball is "Tax's" chief hobby. As Captain of the Junior Varsity he made an enviable record for himself. In the class football game "Tax" also showed his ability as a player.

"Tax" is also gifted with an insatiable desire for "hot" music and almost daily you can hear him coaxing weird noises from his sax.

"Tax" served on numerous committees, one of these being the Social Committee. Besides he has held many important offices:

President of Nanticoke Club.
President of Dining Room Club,
President of Omega Chi Fraternity,
President of Senior Class.

VIRGINIA E. DAWE

Ashley High School
Ashley, Pa.
"Jinny"

Virginia seems to be such a quiet little girl on first acquaintance, but—all who really know her will tell you how full of fun and enthusiasm she is. She is seen at every social gathering, especially football games, and one of her favorite pastimes is trying to stage a miniature one in her room. We remember one day in particular when the supposed-to-be football went flying through the window and caused quite an uproar on the campus. When classes get exceedingly boring to Virginia she works cross-word puzzles. She seems to have loads and loads of them on hand. We often wondered who kept her supplied with them, but it is a secret between her and "someone."

But she is also in for all kinds of sports, mainly, hockey, basketball, hiking and baseball. She really was fine in baseball and still boasts about the time she made a home run.

Two things Virginia dislikes most are writing letters and getting up in the morning. She loves to read—anything from Chaucer to John Galsworthy, and we even find editions of "Screen Secrets" adorning her room at times.

Virginia intends to teach until she is twenty-five years of age. We pretend that we think she is serious, and she might be—but everyone will admit that there are often changes made in the best of plans.

May success and happiness go with you, Virginia, wherever it may be and may you always be a steadfast and true friend as you have been.

A. EDNA DECKER
Nanticoke High School
Hunlock Creek, Pa.
"Bubbles"

"Five foot two—eyes of blue,
Does anybody need a pal?"

'Cuz if you do, she's right there. Whether it's a group of Freshmen looking for a leader to hike or someone in desperation because there's no sugar for the fudge—she knows the way out.

Before she began counting calories she said she was big enough for two, but it is our opinion that she is big enough for the whole dorm when it comes to being a pal.

She participated in hockey, volleyball, basketball, baseball and tennis. A very able athlete indeed.

With all her reducing, she is too big to be written up in such a small space. If you haven't known her you have missed something.

She is an ardent member of the Tau Kappa Phi.

Good wishes from the class of '29 go with you.

LESTER DEVINE
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Scrub" "Scrooge" "Higgins"

The cosmopolitan city of Berwick is where this congenial young man hails from. So, we suppose, we may designate him as a cosmopolite. Also, we are told, the region of the rather heterogeneous tendencies, known as West Berwick, is his "patria." As a commuter, he made an impression on and created a sensation among the young lady commuters who travel on the bus. Of the fact that the sensation was pleasant and reciprocated by the young ladies we have sufficient proof for, we are told, the slightly retiring Mr. Devine became so bold as to solicit free rides from passing vehicles to avoid riding on the bus.

Incidentally we hear that he spends his time in Berwick as a drug store "sheik." Now, Lester, don't leave any "ice cream parlor sheba" get you.

We are sure that Lester will make an excellent school teacher and that he will be a success in this or any other profession.

STEFANIA E. DOMBROWSKI

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.

"Stef"

"Stef" hails from Nanticoke. Now that's a time worn expression but "Hail" is the word here, for she always takes people by storm. That is to say, wherever she goes she provokes gales of laughter, storms of applause and in the heart of a certain young man, we think she reigns supreme.

Our "Stef" fulfills all the requirements of a good sport and a true friend. Life is so short why spend it at hard labor? She never worries about work and yet she seems always to come out O. K. There are many things she would rather do than study. She has a terrible weakness for dancing and is always learning or teaching a new step.

"Smile, Smile, and Smile some more" is "Stef's" philosophy of life and who can doubt that a girl with such a philosophy of life can do anything but succeed in whatever she undertakes.

Well "Stef" here's to your future, may your life contain a little love, a little happiness and heaps of success.

BESSIE DOUGHERTY

Hazleton Township High School
Hazleton, Pa.

"Doc"

Bessie was offered to us by that illustrious town of Milnesville, and in taking her we received a rare jewel. Her cheery disposition and amiable manner have won for her a place in our hearts. Bessie is a friend worth having, and we are proud to list her among our classmates. Her greatest aim in life is to become a teacher, and we sincerely hope that she will attain her ambition.

Bessie never cared for the opposite sex, but she did like "one." Who didn't? Yes, Bessie, we know that you had a good time in the library many times.

As we have said before, Bessie is a girl that likes to study and get her work done before she attempts to do any play; that is just the type of a girl she is. She was missed quite a lot when she left for Berwick to do her teaching. We were glad to hear that she had made a success out of her teaching, and we know that she will be a success when she gets out into this great wide field of education.

Bessie is quite an athlete, she has participated in hockey, basketball and tennis.

We all wish you the greatest of success that the world can offer.

FLORENCE DRUMMOND

Hughestown High School
Pittston, Pa.
"Flo"

Brown hair, brown eyes,
A girl that you could idolize.
She's a friend to all, a friend indeed,
She helps you out whatever the need.

"Flo" is a true pal and a real good sport. She has many friends and keeps making more. Her smile and laughing eyes always greet you wherever you see her.

In sports she is ready to participate: especially basketball and hockey. She was a member of the hockey championship team. She is also very much interested in becoming an expert tennis player. We think most of her games will be played on the courts of Peckville. We wonder why?

"Flo" is also a member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, and also received her numerals for participation in sports.

"Flo" believes there is a time to work and a time to play. She never neglects her work and she is very studious. We know that she has made no error in choosing her profession, as she is well capable of filling this position.

We wish her success in her profession.

MARGARET CLAIRE DULA

Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Peg"

If, when you visit the College, you should see an erect figure, clad in skirt, white beret and sweater with spotless white cuffs and mannish collar open at the throat, walking through the halls with a firm, masculine tread, you can rest assured that it is none other than "Peg" in her favorite attire. In all types of sport, both indoor and outdoor, "Peg" is truly a "star." Try and keep up with her on a hike!

Yet in spite of all this fervor on the athletic field, her lessons come first. When, not haunting the gym, she is studiously engrossed in a book. "But what about that tardy notebook, 'Peg'?"

By the way, have you ever heard her try to imitate a certain famous operatic character? If not, you are missing something. Probably her roommate can enlighten you upon this subject.

An excellent athlete, a good student, and always a staunch and true friend—that is "Peg." May Bloomsburg have many more students like her! Good luck, "Peg!" Happiness and success be yours always!

RUTH A. EADIE
Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
Ruth

"A quiet kind of girl,
Of whom it may be said,
Has something more than nonsense
Lying underneath her head."

Ruth came to us from Weatherly. From all appearances she looks to be a demure little girl, but when you become acquainted with her she can talk just as much as you can. Whenever you hear, "Oh, my cow," you know Ruth is somewhere in the vicinity.

She is very industrious and always gets her work done before she plays. After her work is done she is one of the merriest. Do you remember the feeds we used to have?

We might say she is a good candidate for the pipe fitters union. She had all her experience answering the taps of the third floor pipers.

She has chosen the primary group as her field of work. We know she will be successful because she loves little children.

We, the class of '29, extend her our best wishes.

BETTY M. EDWARDS
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Betz"

At first glance one would judge Betty to be a quiet girl but when you know her you discover that she is good-natured and full of fun.

She is a good sport and a wonderful pal.

Betty's favorite pastime is telling fortunes. She could easily earn a living at this if she decides not to teach school. She also likes to read and to eat and spends some time trying to find the way to eat and grow thin.

Betty says she is going to be a sophisticated school marm forever and ever, but we don't think so. We do know, however, that she will be a very successful teacher, for she has all the qualities that make up a good teacher. She has chosen the Primary grades as her realm in which to guide the coming generation along the paths of education.

Here's to the girl with dreamy eyes,
With coal black hair and ready smile,
May she attain what she desires
In this world that is so worthwhile.

WILHELMINA ELDER

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Billy"

This young lady came to us with the group that entered here in our Freshman year. She is one of those good-natured girls who would do anything for a friend. As a result of her fine personality and sacrifice she has many friends whose companionship have made her enjoyable.

Like all girls, she enjoys playing tricks on her schoolmates and it was the cleverness of these pranks that made us sit up and take notice.

She is a real student and distributes her time properly in applying herself to her work. She is very often seen in the library busily engaged in selecting material for the following day's classes.

As a student teacher she has made considerable progress, as our observations and review of her records have shown us. Her attitude toward her work and natural love for children tend to make her the ideal teacher.

Judging from her application to her studies here we hope to hear of this young lady on the road to success in the near future.

MARJORIE ALICE ELEY

Technical High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Marj"

Ever happy go luck is Marjorie. "Marj" is always on hand when a good time is to be had, and if there isn't one here off she hops to State. That's quite a trip but—?

In sport, Marjorie has long been interested, and in the near future will receive that much desired honor, her "B." Every evening one finds her in the gym dancing and here she is at home, for she loves to dance.

The Delta Phi Sigma Sorority picked Marjorie as a member. The Children's Literature Club was "Marj's" choice in extra curricular fields and we will always remember our dashing "Robin Hood."

As a teacher, "Marj" will be a success, but we fear that future graduates will not have to wait long to take her place. She will be teaching but a short time. However, long or short, it may be, or whatever else she undertakes, may fate be her friend.

KATHRYN ENGLE
Sunbury High School
Sunbury, Pa.
"Kay"

All hail—gentlemen—another blonde for you to prefer. Well known in many circles, well liked by all—you've got "it"—"Kay."

Rome wasn't built in a day, neither are Kathryn's friendships, but when Rome was completed it was admired by all. Kathryn's friendships are far advanced toward the same goal. So it takes a while until you know her and in knowing come to admire her.

Next to her friendly, "Hello," you will find her most frequent outbursts to be—"Got anything to eat?" and "Did ja get my mail?" Well she may ask for mail for her morning would not be complete without that letter from Sunbury. Of course, there are others, too, but of no importance until the "special one" is read?

A well known member of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority, she will be remembered as a true friend by many of the girls.

Her kindness will never be forgotten and she will remain in our thoughts as a good sport and a true pal.

SARA IVA ERMISH
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.

"Wait till I tell you! Something exciting happened!" Sara's joy in life is telling her exciting experiences. If Sara feels blue just be a good listener and soon her troubles will vanish. She has lost her voice at times but no wonder—She had a reason for that, too.

She likes music, which accounts for her romantic spirit. Her favorite sport is tennis. She plays tennis from morn till night. It is here she finds so much enjoyment.

Sara likes to study and stands high in her class work. When she was doing her practice work in Berwick, we missed her very much. Sara is another member of the primary group. We hope she is a success as a teacher, but we fear she may not get that far. She likes housekeeping too well.

Among her many activities are: Camp-Fire Girls, Tennis, Baseball, Volleyball.

DOROTHY J. EVANS

Taylor High School
Taylor, Pa.
"Dotty"

"A pleasant word, a friendly smile, That's 'Dotty' all the while."

"Dotty" is one of our fair lassies from Taylor. To know her is to love her. If you are searching for or are in need of a friend just look for "Dotty." She is always ready with her friendly smile. Upon first acquaintance you will think her very quiet and demure. This opinion soon vanishes after you become better acquainted with her. Her enhancing personality alone is enough incentive for one to desire her friendship.

"Dotty" is a very good sport. She is always ready to contribute her share. Willing as she is, she never shirks her work for pleasure. She always has her work done well and long before any one else has started. As a teacher she has proven herself to be capable and efficient.

There seems to be some great attraction for her in Taylor. We do not exactly know what it is but sometimes think that it would not be hard to guess.

As a Y. W. C. A. Cabinet member, "Dotty" is very loyal. We find her ever ready to assist in whatever is to be done. If "Dotty" continues her work in her sincere way, we are confident of her success.

HORTENSE EVANS

Memorial High School, Hanover Township
Lee Park, Pa.
"Tens" "Horty"

"Music, the essence of things past and things to be."

Music is "Tensy's" greatest pleasure. Night after night her syncopated rhythms were heard in the gym where the crowd gathered to dance. All types of music appeal to her, from Moonlight Sonatas to the Johnstown Rag—and how she plays them!

Good-natured, happy-go-lucky is "Tens." If not popular for one thing she is for another, and if she was ever known to worry, it hasn't leaked out. Very petite, with large blue eyes that describes her best.

As a tennis player she was one of our best, and was equally good at hockey or basketball. She stands high in her classes, knows all the latest books. "Tensy" is also a member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority.

Just between us, "Tens" has a quality called for in a school teacher, "Personality."

And though we doubt if school teaching, rather than literature or music is her right chosen field of achievement, we wish her "Bon Voyage" on her life cruise.

JANE B. EVANS
West Pittston High School
West Pittston, Pa.
"Janie"

The name Jane suggests a quiet, demure girl with her thoughts usually on her studies. This is partly true of "Janie," but after all what is in a name? She believes in having a good time and her motto is, "Make others happy and enjoy life." With this pleasing personality, "Janie" made a host of friends at B. S. T. C.

"Janie's" hobby is music and her minor one is eating. She has a sweet voice and was always found singing, especially in the morning when one wanted to sleep. Ask the girls on the fourth floor—they know. As for eating—the good feeds that we had in her room will always remain in our memories, chicken and everything.

"Janie" took part in extra curricular activities, being a member of the Girls' Glee Club and Women's Chorus. In the latter, she held the post of Group Secretary. She is also an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma.

MILDRED EVANS
Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

We find that "Mil,"
Though rather small,
Is far more sweeter
Than if she were tall.

Big brown eyes, a pleasant smile, rather short—that's Mildred. Everybody's friend and pal. If you want a helping hand with your lessons, all you need to do is to ask Mildred, and she will be only too glad to help you.

Mildred is a hard, conscientious worker and seldom goes to classes unprepared. Just the same she likes a good time and is always among the first in any escapade, especially if there are eats.

She spends part of her spare time wishing she were home. The rest she spends in marking off the days on the calendar, trying to persuade herself that vacation is near.

To you, Mildred, the class of '29 wish you the best of luck and success.

PEARL C. EVES
Jerseytown High School
Millville, Pa.
Pearl

Pearl comes from the large city of Millville. She entered Bloomsburg State Teachers' College in the year of 1927.

Before Pearl entered B. S. T. C. she had been a successful teacher in the Millville schools.

She is studious and a diligent worker, always lending a helping hand to those in need of anything, and nothing seems too great for her to accomplish.

Pearl drives a Ford car back and forth to school, but is continually getting it mixed up with some other Fords. One mix-up cost her a wind-shield wiper. One of the sports Pearl enjoys is tennis. She loves the sport and she willingly teaches others the game. Pearl was an active member of the Design Club and the Sewing Club, in which she took great interest. We wish Pearl the best of luck in all that she undertakes.

ANNA FARRELL
Archbald High School
Archbald, Pa.
"Farrell"

"To see her is to love her,
And love her but forever."
For nature made her what she is,
And never made another.

The old saying that, "You can not judge a book by its cover," proves true when you meet Anna Farrell. Is she quiet and reserved? Yes, when she's asleep.

You will always find "Farrell" with those big brown eyes and sunny smile, having a grand and glorious time.

When anyone mentions Bucknell you should see the look on "Farrell's" face. I wonder why? I thought for awhile that she was interested in State, but when the mail came the other day—well—I guess you know.

She has been an active member in all college affairs, especially the social events. You never go to a college dance or party unless you see "Farrell."

"Farrell" is treasurer of the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority, a member of the First Aid Club, a fire commissioner, and is also on the House Committee. O! Lest I forget, "Farrell" had a leading part in the Senior Play. She led the people to their seats.

Here's wishing you the best of luck from the "Harp Club."

MARY GENEVIEVE FERRY

Freeland High School
Freeland, Pa.

Mary, Mary, quite contrary,
How does your language grow;
Funny words—not ordinary,
But don't you fret—we like 'em so!

This describes our Mary. Her name should really be Merry, for she is always scattering sunshine somewhere to someone.

Mary is noted for the novel way in which she expresses herself. If you heard a group laughing in the hall then you can just bet it's Mary adding to her vocabulary!

Her obliging manners and sunny disposition have gained a wide circle of friends. Mary would remind one of a saucy pansy—looking quite mischievous at times, yet, possessing the depth of that flower coupled with its simplicity and sincerity.

She is that ever-ready and willing type of girl. The sort one likes to call "my pal."

We all feel confident that that crop of curly hair and twinkling blue eyes will capture even Father Success.

FLORENCE FEST

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Flossie" "Flo"

"It's the song ye sing,
And the smile ye wear,
That's a-makin' the sunshine
Everywhere."

That's Florence! She has the jolliest laugh, and certainly knows the value of a smile. "Flossie" belongs to the family of commuters who are seen daily hurrying up College Hill. "Flossie" enjoys walking, but it isn't wise to ask her about her attempts to make the eight o'clock classes.

She is a valuable member of the Dramatic Club and of the honorary dramatic fraternity, the Alpha Psi Omega. Her recent efforts in dramatic work have resulted in making her an expert in throwing antique bananas about.

A winning personality and a sympathetic nature have gained for Florence many friends who wish her success in all she attempts.

ANNE K. FETCH
Wyoming High School
Wyoming, Pa.
Anne

Blue eyes, red hair,
Loving ways and a winsome air.
A little temper, but lots of pep,
And still more could be told.

Anne is always in search for new thrills. She likes dances and athletics, especially football. We wonder why? Of course, there are some especially nice football stars (aren't there?), so we can't blame you at all.

"Dimples" is a better name for her. Everyone admires her dimples, which are always seen, for she is always smiling. She is everyone's friend.

Anne has chosen the Primary work and, indeed, if you could see her working with the little tots you know that her choice has been a wise one.

We could write on and on good words about Anne, but since space is limited we will have to say in these few words: We wish you all the success and happiness that you will attain in your future life.

WILBUR J. FISCHER
Newport Township High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Bud" "Fish"

Anyone venturing past North Hall on a warm spring night may hear a melodious refrain of a ukulele. Upon further investigation they will find a tall, slender, dark-haired chap strumming away, while around him are members of the North Hall gang harmonizing. Boy! how he can play a uke. A born musician—he can pick beautiful chords from a piano, and give him a "gazabo" and a pair of drumsticks, and lo! you have an orchestra.

"Bud's" Forte is basketball; from his "high school" days he has been playing this game. We won't forget that great game he played at center against Stroudsburg.

However, "Bud" does not excel in athletics alone. He also did commendable work in extra-curricular activities. In '28, he was a member of the double quartette and in '29 a member of the Men's Conservatory Glee Club.

"Bud" is also a humorist of rare ability. As Humor Editor of the 1928 Obiter and as endman for the minstrels of '27 he proved to us to be a man of rare wit. His somewhat shy manner, mixed with plenty of this wit, makes him popular among the both sexes.

Now we know that "Bud" also possesses "actorial" ability. Those who saw him act in "Applesauce" will tell you that he was the "It" of the play.

He is an active member of the Omega Chi Fraternity, having been elected Vice President in '28 and Treasurer in '29.

MAE FLAHERTY
 Bloomsburg High School
 Bloomsburg, Pa.

"Mae" is another of our downtown girls. To look at her, one would judge that she is by no means a pessimist and judge correctly. She always sees the funny side of life and many a twinkle has livened those moments when "lass sunk into the dullest stage."

When it comes for a good time, Mae is always there. She is very fond of swimming, especially at "Columbia Park." If you ever hear a group of locker girls laughing heartily, you can be sure Mae is there, entertaining them with some of her latest jokes. She is always ready for mischief, and just as ready when there is work to be done.

Anyone who has had the privilege of knowing Mae will agree that she has a striking personality.

Our best wishes follow you, Mae, when we part at the end of the year.

"We Seniors won't forget you

When we have gone away.

But only love you more and more

Forever and a day."

LAWRENCE FORD
 Nanticoke High School
 Nanticoke, Pa.
 "Red" "Lemons"

A serious minded young man was "Lemons" when he first entered the pearly gates of dear old Bloomsburg. But customs, fashions and what not changed him to a second Bill Rogers. "Hey, Ford, tell us a joke." This is the cry of the North Hall boys, thus Ford, with his original anecdotes became a member of the popular youth.

"Lemons" is a conscientious young man and he puts his studies above pleasure. But he found that he could afford sometime for sports so went in for football and baseball. "Lemons" is a born baseball player and in years to come we shall see Ford in the big leagues.

"Lemons" has a taste for good looking girls, but he never allows them to get the best of him. He likes a date now and then but, as for coupling up with them—was not his idea.

The North Hall Council chose "Lemons" to act as Chairman of the party given to the Faculty by the men students. It was a memorable event, and due to Mr. Ford's skill as a director of mirth, the party was a huge success. Then and there Ford made good with the professors.

JACK B. FORTNER
 Bloomsburg High School
 Bloomsburg, Pa.
 "Jackie"

Jack needs no introduction for by his winning personality he has made many friends. Although one of the "downtowners" he participates in the entire social life of the school, being present at all dances, school parties and after-dinner dances.

He is an enthusiastic supporter of all athletics, being manager of the baseball team in '28 and participating in football and basketball. His ability as an actor led him to join the Dramatic Club in the fall of '25. His ability along this line was demonstrated in two club productions, "The Rivals" and "As You Like It," the Senior Class play, "Applesauce," and the Sophomore Class play, "The New Poor." Other activities include Men's Glee Club, Double Quartette, Mixed Chorus and First Aid Club. His active school life did not hinder but instead forwarded his fondness for the fair sex and aided him in securing sufficient acquaintances to fulfill the proverb believed by Jack that "Variety is the spice of life."

With his ability to make acquaintances and keep them and his enthusiasm in English and Social Studies we are sure of a bright and successful future for him.

MARK FOWLER
 Scott Township High School
 Espy, Pa.
 Mark

"Who's this?" Why one of our progressive Seniors, of course. He comes from Espy; and if you are in doubt about any of the happenings, ask Mark—he knows all—I mean all about Espy. In fact, it is said that he will, in time, be the Mayor of that thriving village.

Mark doesn't like to dance and abhors playing cards? He is interested in Bloomsburg, I mean one particular individual of this city, but I do think he is interested in B. S. T. C., because he is a very devoted student.

Whenever you hear laughter issuing forth from the corridors of the locker rooms, you may be sure that Mark is telling another of his kind jokes, for he has such a store of them that he can tell several new ones each day. We certainly will miss Mark's presence in the locker rooms, especially after lunch.

Mark is interested in teaching primarily, and when he gets his degree we think that mathematics will be somewhat over done.

We are sure that Mark will keep to teaching after he finishes here, but how long he will continue in this field, time alone can tell.

Mark has often quoted several good mottoes for life, but we think that his best one is, "Give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you."

CORA ETTA FRANK
 Mahanoy High School
 Mahanoy City, Pa.
 Cora

Cora is one of our degree students this year. She did not come to us until the fall of '26, having spent her Freshman year at the University of Pennsylvania. Her big brown eyes and charming smile have won her many friends during her three years here. In addition to her talent for making friends, she has music talent. Her clear alto voice has won her an enviable place in the Presbyterian Choir. She plays the piano as well as she sings.

She is a member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority. Her time has been quite full of Freshman and their doings this year, because of her position as Chairman of the Customs Committee. She is the Representative of the Four-Year Girls on the Governing Board of Waller Hall.

She majored in English and Social Studies. Her practice teaching was successfully done last year in the Bloomsburg High School.

So here's to you, Cora. We wish you success and FRANKLY, we know you have it.

ARLINE FRANTZ
 Kingston Township High School
 Truexville, Pa.
 "Fran"

"Kids, do you know what happened?" Arline bursts in upon us and from that moment all else is forgotten, while she tells us about her latest experience.

Pep, energy and ambition—yes, and plenty. What is it that makes us love her so? We can't say exactly but her friendliness and good nature are part of it. "Fran" isn't satisfied with a smile for she is generally laughing that contagious laugh that makes you join in.

Arline has had one great difficulty in her college life. Don't guess, we will tell you. She never has enough to eat! Such a thing would daunt anyone, but not "Fran." She received some boxes and we received some boxes and she survived.

Every student has to study at times and so Arline does, occasionally. Strange to say, she can work when necessary and her success in practice teaching promises a like success out in the world.

Oh, we almost forgot Paul, or is it Lewis now? The more the merrier seems to be "Fran's" theory on this question.

We are happy to have been with you here and our sincerest wishes go with you, Arline.

MARY M. GALGANOWICZ
Hazel Township High School
West Hazleton, Pa.

Pretty, popular, peppy, proper—isn't that Mary? Our Mary came to us from West Hazleton. She always insists on the West.

The height of Mary's ambition is to have the children pronounce her name correctly. If you want to be a friend of hers, be careful what you call her. We must admit, though, she's very sweet tempered on every other subject.

One trait of Mary's is that she never worries. She is able to look on the bright side of everything. Mary always meets you with a smile. She believes in mixing a little laughter with the serious aspects of life.

On the other hand, we find her an industrious, conscientious and all around student, both in class work and outside activities.

Dancing is another favorite and 6:30 always finds her in the gym.

Bye, Mary, and best of luck. We of '29 wish you success and happiness. We've enjoyed having you with us.

RUTH GARDNER
Dalton High
Dalton, Pa.
"Ruth" "Pinkie"

A look that is full of dignity.
A sober, stern expression.
A very dignified teacher—
That's your first impression.

First impressions are often deceiving! When you meet her in the hall you say, "Doesn't she look studious?" But just step into her room after study hour sometime and you will surely find her in the midst of a jolly crowd. She is telling them a good joke or reciting one of her famous poems to them. Ruth is never in need of anything to say; her original jokes and merry make her a welcome addition to any party.

At the beginning of our freshman year, Ruth was very lonesome. She often wished that she were home, but after a few weeks she decided that B. S. T. C. was a nice place and that there were some fine people in it. She has decided that Wilkes-Barre also has its advantages.

Many girls have sought Ruth's help and advice and received bountifully. She is a prominent member of the Rural Club. She expects to teach in a rural school, but of course not all her life.

MARGARET K. GARVEY

Ashland High School
Ashland, Pa.

"Peg"

A wonderful girl—a true friend—a good sport—this is "Peg." She is everything that is lovable and kind, and it is worth your while to make her acquaintance.

"Peg's" magnetic personality won for her a host of friends who will never forget her. No one can resist her charming smile and pleasing disposition.

"Peg" is a very conscientious student, and we all feel sure she will make a successful teacher.

Well, "Peg," we wish you health, success and happiness in your profession.

She's sweet of disposition,
She's loving, wise and kind;
She's full of true affection,
She has an active mind.

FRANCES DOROTHY GAYEWSKI

Plains Memorial High School
Plains, Pa.

"Franie"

A quiet kind of girl, of whom it may be said has something more than nonsense. "Franie" is a very industrious person. She never goes to class unprepared. She is always ready to respond in class. In short, "Franie" is an all-around sport. You can always see her at a football, basketball or a baseball game. Her pep and enthusiasm are always with her. In her Junior year, "Franie" was an all-around champion and we hail her as the best server in volleyball.

If you want someone to take an interest in your joys and sorrows, go to "Franie." She is always ready to caress all your troubles away.

From the way the little tots all tumble for her points to a big success. The class of '29 greet you with their best wishes, "Franie."

"Where ever you may go,
What ever you may do,
We hope that success
Will always follow you."

RACHEL GETHING
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Rae" "Gething"

"Gething!" If you ever heard this in the halls you would have known that some one wanted her to do something or was calling her for class. But here would be the puzzle—find her! She would start out—no one would know where or when to expect her back. Everybody knew "Gething" and "Gething" knew everybody. Being on the Governing Board she landed in more feeds than any other girl in the Dorm. "Laugh and the world laughs with you," is her motto and it is true in her case, for no matter who she is with or where she is, she laughs.

Sometimes we think "Gething" has missed her calling—as a hairdresser, she simply can't be beat. Ask anyone who wanted combs put in their hair.

When "Gething" went to Berwick to do her practice teaching the following organizations missed her:

Alpha Delta Zeta, Governing Board, Finance Committee and Y. W. C. A.

IDA E. GITLOVITZ
Hanover Township Memorial High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Love"

Ida is a jolly kid. Many can tell you that, I am sure. Ask some of her friends who know. Her laughter resounds through the halls at all times.

Ida is a heart-breaker, too. Boy and How! She's got "IT!" Who's got IT? Ida!

Ida loves sports and she has been seen on several teams such as the Hockey, Baseball and Basketball Teams. When one plays these games, one is supposed to possess a good sportsmanship attitude. Ida found this out and we always find her ready to wear and tear herself for the right and B. S. T. C.

Ida gets down to work also. As a school teacher, she is bound to make a success. She has a way of making the children love and obey her.

Ida, we the class of '29, wish you all the success and happiness in the world.

HELEN KATHRYN GOGOLACH
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Tommy"

Here she comes down the walk now in a big rush. The girl with the dazzling smile, wind-blown bob, and the mannish air. Do you know who she is? No other than the "Tommy" of our merry 'ole gang. Helen can be recognized by her pearly teeth over which the question, "Do they come out," has many times been asked.

She is one of our athletic girls and went on many hikes until she was finally awarded her letter. She is an active member of the "B" Club. "Tommy" stayed on in Berwick to do her practice teaching the entire semester. There surely must have been a strong attraction. We heard that she kept the girls in her room at Seiberts nearly doubled up with laughter with some of her remarks.

She made many hurried visits to the mail box looking for mail from a far away place. Where from—whom from—well, "Tommy" can give us some information on the benefits of the air mail. We wonder why Helen and her roommate, Isabel, made so many week-end visits home in their Junior year? Just like Postum—there is a reason.

ERMA C. GOLD
Milton High School
Milton, Pa.
Erma

Like all girls, Erma enjoys playing jokes on everyone, especially her roommate, but it is the wisdom of these tricks that have made us sit up and take notice.

"Excitement" and experience play a large part in her life—from the physical, as well as the mental viewpoint.

Erma has chosen rural work as her vocation. She has chosen this because of larger opportunities in the educational field. She was chosen by her fellow students in the Rural Club as their vice president because of her leadership.

Most all of the girls wonder how Erma spends her leisure time, for she is seldom seen on Sunday afternoons. On these occasions she can be found indulging in one of her pet hobbies—reading, anything from the dictionary to the modern novel.

We hope others will enjoy having Erma with them as much as we have.

MILDRED A. GOODWIN
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Goody"

Did you ever hear her laugh? Then you know "Goody." If you haven't you've missed something. For no one can describe or hope to have a laugh like hers. We know she goes right up and down the scale.

No one has ever seen "Goody" in a temper; it seems to be against her nature. If she cannot say something good about anyone she says nothing at all, but from all this you must not think "Goody" is a "goody-Goody." She enjoys fun, especially with a little mischief for flavoring. As the little saying goes, "A little mischief now and then is relished by the best."

And eat! You should see her! And still she remains slim. We cannot understand it.

With Senior writeups, "Goody" is the last word. If one passes her censorship, it must be pretty good. "Practise makes perfect." During the Christmas rush, she seemed to be writing them wholesale.

"Goody" can be characterized by her dark hair, her winsome brown eyes and her complexion, together with a charming dimple. Although her one desire is to be the cowboy type, we hope she never attains it, for we like her own sweet self as it is—don't you?

PEARL GOSCINSKI
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Pearlie" "Pal"

Always ready for a good time, that's "Pearlie." If there's anything devilish on foot she is there with bells on. She fairly radiates good nature, and can take a joke in the same spirit in which she hands them out. A good characteristic, Pearl, hang on to it.

Is it athletics? And how! Basketball, hockey, tennis—they all find her ready. The tennis courts see a good bit of "Pearlie" when tennis is in season. And the girls certainly showed their good judgment when they chose her as captain of their hockey team.

"Pearlie" excels in the finer arts, as well as in athletics. Music appeals to her. She is always ready to give us a treat in the way of a vocal solo. She and her "uke" have enlivened more than one party.

Bloomsburg has no attraction for Pearl over week-ends. Saturday usually finds her dashing for the train. What is in Nanticoke that calls so loudly, Pearl?

What are her weaknesses? The only one that we have found so far is her weakness for fudge. But this surely does make up for all the rest.

We say, not goodbye, hut an revoir, Pearl, with wishes for the best of luck.

Always happy, always glad;
'Tis said of her, she's never sad.

MAGDELENE GREISING
 Hazle Township High School
 Ebervale, Pa.

Magdelene is always in a merry mood. She certainly has pep and lots of it. Magdelene likes to study, but she also likes to go shopping and buy pretty things in order to keep up to the style.

"Mag" is also a very charming girl and has many friends in the college. One thing that is very characteristic of Magdelene is that whenever you go into her room you will be sure to find her eating some delicious chocolates and reading—not studying—but reading a book, not mentioning the title of it. Nevertheless she always wears that merry smile and that is all we want.

She has come to this college to take up teaching, but we wonder, yes, we wonder, if she will ever be one. Perhaps there is some one else to think about.

We feel confident that whatever Magdelene does she will succeed. We wish you all the luck and happiness in the world.

ELVA GRIFFITH
 Sugar Notch High School
 Sugar Notch, Pa.
 "El"

"A loving being, scarcely formed or moulded,

A rose with all its sweetest leaves yet folded."

Mighty like a rose-bud is our "El." A rose leaf complexion, with two eyes of brown, are her outstanding features. Decidedly with those characteristics makes her one of the popular co-eds of the college.

She can play at basketball, baseball, hockey and tennis, yet is no less graceful on the dance floor. She has her "B" in athletics and holds to a "B" average in grades. "El" was an active member of the Girls' Glee Club and took a great deal of interest in Current Events Club.

Elva could grace any place from a school room to an art panel. She numbers among her friends as many of the male sex as the female. She is the better-half of what is known as "one of the cases."

Work does not disinterest "El," so we know that life will hold the best for her.

IRENE E. GUEST

Scranton Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Rene"

"What ya tink me is?" This is the inevitable reply from "Rene" when one of "The Gang" makes a request of her. But—dear friends, don't think she is a shirker. This reply means, "Since it's you that asks, I'll do it."

With Irene, work does come before play, but she is ever ready for a good time. "The Gang" wouldn't think of planning a party without her.

She is quiet, a good listener and a true friend.

Although for the most part congenial, "Rene" has her own ideas and sticks to them. To prove this, go to Irene and insist that giraffes like peanuts. You will readily find that Irene does not agree.

A better or more conscientious student would be hard to find. She carries this quality from her high school days.

She is treasurer of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, an active member of the Girls' Glee Club and the Scranton Club.

KATHRYN M. HAGENBUCH

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Kay"

"Kay" comes to us from Bloomsburg High. She entered B. S. T. C. in '28. She is one of the ambitious students, who had the courage to select the Rural Course. We know she will meet with success as a teacher. She likes children and knows how to handle them.

"Kay" is one of our most popular girls. Her sunny disposition is most likely responsible for this attraction. She is often heard exclaiming, "Oh! I met the nicest young man, last night." "Kay" is always laughing. Her motto seems to be "Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone."

"Kay" is a very active member of the Dramatic Club. She is always ready to give a helping hand. "Kay" is quite an athlete also. We often see her out on the field playing hockey or baseball.

"Kay" spends her summers in Montgomery County. In fact, she likes the place so well that she wants to teach there. I wonder why?

Success and happiness, "Kay."

ELIZABETH HALUPKA
Shickshinny High School
Mocanaqua, Pa.
"E-e-e-e-e"

Elizabeth is one of our few "happy medium" girls. She possesses enough pep and wit to add to all of our good times and enough common sense to balance her love for fun.

When you hear the well known expressions as, "Oh, yeh," and "How's your mother?" you are bound to know that she is around.

The secret of her success in winning such a large number of friends seems to be in her personality. Expressive of her personality is her smile, which has some hidden quality behind it that never fails to attract.

Elizabeth is very sincere in all her undertakings and when she sets out to win a goal you may be certain that she will win it. From past experience we thought that Elizabeth would be a confirmed "Old School Mam," but from recent observations we have changed our minds. She seems to enjoy "blowing bubbles." We often wonder what she sees in them.

To a pal and friend we wish all the success and happiness possible.

SARA J. HARLEM
Columbia High School
Columbia, Pa.
"Sal"

She's a peach! She's little but she has the biggest heart in the whole dormitory. Will we ever forget the first few weeks here, when she was a timid, homesick, little girl, whom the Nanticoke Gang of back hall adopted. The saying, "Good things come in small packages," fits in with "Sal." She always has her work done, never leaves things go until the last minute and she's one of the best natured girls in the college.

A party is never dull when "Sal's" around, because she has a good supply of natural wit. Her boxes from home make her quite popular with the girls. She is always willing to share her eats, and no one is hungry while she has a box. Somehow, sports hold a great attraction for her; she played hockey, baseball and basketball, and we wonder why she was so popular on the tennis courts. It certainly gave us much pleasure to watch her swing a tennis racket.

She was always right there in every social event, whether dance, party or play. "Sal" wasn't a bit hard to please; she took circumstances as they were and never complained. The girls missed her as a supervisor when she had to go to Berwick to do her practice teaching.

"Sal" has participated in the following clubs and offices: Floor Supervisor, Dramatic Club, Y. W. C. A. and First Aid Club.

CAPTAIN AMI HARRISON

Shickshinny High School
Huntington Mills, Pa.
"Cap"

"Cap" is one of the few reserved men of the college. He takes college life seriously. He has been attending summer school, but this year he decided to complete his work and he stayed with us a whole year.

We all know that "Cap" goes home every week-end, but here's a puzzle—does he go home to work or to visit? His favorite song is "Girl of My Dreams."

"Cap" always plays a wicked game of baseball. He is a real first baseman. Let's hope he does not go in for professional baseball for then we would lose a mighty fine teacher.

"Cap" is an active member of the Rural Club. His Ford car surely sees plenty of action, for between using it for "Teaching" and traveling "Home" it won't be long before he'll need a new one, even though Fords have a "long life."

"Cap" is sure to make his mark in this "cruel, cold world." We wish him only the best of luck and happiness in all that he dares to attempt.

FREDERICK HARRISON

Huntington Township High School
Huntington Mills, Pa.

This is "Fred's" first year as a regular student. He came to summer school several successive summers.

"Fred" came to us from Huntington Mills High School to take up the rural work course. In his time here, those who have come to know him have found him a quiet, unassuming young man.

During the summer sessions "Fred" seemed to be a universal favorite with the ladies here at college, until this year when he has learned where Fourth Street is. Then, to our amazement, his thoughts began lingering elsewhere. And, yes, those appointments at Science Hall. We won't mention her name, "Fred."

"Fred" is one of the faithful members of the rural group and he hopes to become a good teacher in that field. He is a very industrious lad and can always be found in his room studying for some of his classes.

"Fred," we hope you have "Heaps of luck," and wish that through your personality and ambition you will always be the friend and student you were at B. S. T. C.

ESTHER HARTER
Slatington High School
Slatington, Pa.

Esther is one of our ambitious and studious girls from Slatington. Good-natured and always willing to help others, that's Esther. As a result of her fine personality she has won many friends. Being active in Dramatics and Art we can prophesy a successful future for Esther.

She is an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, Dramatic Club and the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and takes part in all social functions.

Even though our Esther is taking up the profession of teaching she expects to go to Columbia some day and take up a farther study of Art. That is her one main ambition and we know that someday it will be obtained, for she is an earnest and conscientious worker. There are many of her drawings around the dormitory, and one can tell by looking at them that she has talent.

We wish you all the success and happiness that life can give.

"That she is timid and sedate,
No doubt you may aver;
But that proves well enough, perhaps,
How little you know her."

BEATRICE HARTMAN
Benton Vocational School
Benton, Pa.
"Tiny"

"Tiny" is a wee bit of a girl hailing from the vicinity of Benton, a little town among the hills. She has caught all the sunshine that ever shone upon it and delivered it to us personally. This sunshine "Tiny" delivers in her smiles and sweet personality. She is a good sport and a real girl friend. She has a knack of winning friends and knows how to keep them.

"Tiny" is a locker room student, although she has contributed to some good times in a certain Dormitory room.

The last four summers have found "Tiny" in Eagles Mere, where she has won a large circle of friends. We often see her day dream. Sometimes we wonder.

"Tiny" is very studious and we are sure she deserved all the good grades she received while attending school. She has chosen the primary work and possesses the qualities needed. We are sure "Tiny" will succeed in whatever she attempts.

All your friends of B. S. T. C. wish you the best of luck and success in your chosen profession and hope your little "dears" will love you as we do.

THELMA HARTZEL
Coal Township High School
Excelsior, Pa.

Thelma is a real student, but her studies are not all that interest her at Bloomsburg.

Like all great people, she has a hobby. Her peculiar hobby is collecting antiques, umbrellas preferred.

Thelma has doubts as to the ability of all men under six feet, but remember Napoleon.

Many times has Thelma saved us from starvation. How? By bringing a suit-case full of eats from home on Sunday nights. Dance? Just take a look in the gym some night and you are sure to find Thelma there, dancing until the last moment.

A little secret—Thelma forgets once in a while, especially when there are eight o'clock classes and we have known her to forget she has class at times.

Thelma is partial to a little lad in the first grade by the name of JACK. Oh! that all of Thelma's pupils were named JACK.

We hope that Thelma will teach a little while, but—? Best of luck.

VERONICA HAYER
Larksville High School
Larksville, Pa.
"Vee"

"Vee" came into our midst a seemingly quiet and reserved young lady bent on study and learning only. But, lo! Just one hour in her presence and our first impressions were shattered. Beneath that cool, dignified exterior lies a laughing friendly nature, which proves that here again, Fate has played a trick in appearances.

Have you noticed that a certain chair at a certain table in the dining room is always unoccupied during the breakfast hour? Who? Why? Well, in reference to the "who," you can rest assured that "Vee" is still under the influence of sweet dreams. But as to the "why"—don't embarrass "Vee," please. Yet, let it be known that she is one of the few who have courage enough to venture out on the five o'clock-in-the morning hike.

A staunch supporter of athletics, and a fair athlete herself. She is also a good student. If just before class you should inquire whether or not her lesson is prepared, the confidential reply is bound to be, "I haven't even opened my book." Then how does she manage to guess so well when called upon to recite?

MARY A. HAYS
Nescopeck High School
Nescopeck, Pa.

She is witty, she is wise;
She's a wonder for her size.
Although she's very slight and small,
What she doesn't know, isn't nothin' at all.

This describes our Mary exactly. Authors come first in Mary's life. She knows them all from McCutcheon to Gates and Kilpatrick. The downtown librarian can tell you how well Mary knows fiction and her grades speak for the rest.

Mary goes in for athletics. She happens to be one of the fortunates who received their numerals and letters in Freshman year.

Ask the girls in room 206 who can make the best fudge and toast! How well we remember the fudge Mary was sure to bring back to school with her.

Mary is very fond of dancing and is a familiar figure, to be seen, gliding around the gym floor. Mary is very versatile in getting the most out of one day. She has been known to read a novel, prepare an exceptionally good lesson on Gates, hike to Light Street and finish the afternoon by dancing in the gym. We don't mention here how she spent the evening!

IDA MAE HENSLEY
Parsons High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Willie"

Sleep, sleep, sleep,
How I love to sleep.

With many grunts and groans, Ida emerges from her bed every morning about three minutes before time to go to class. She always gets there in time, however. We remember one day as Ida was on her way to a 3:10 class she said, "Good Morning" to one of the faculty members.

Ida's ready wit and charming personality soon won her many friends. Music, noise and laughter echoed from her room constantly as anyone on fourth floor will tell you.

Judging from outward appearances one would say that Ida had never a fear, but I'll tell you quite confidentially that she goes into hysterics at the sight of a mouse.

Ida's temper is like a thunderbolt. It comes from a clear sky and leaves whom-ever it strikes shaking, not with fear, but laughter. It soon clears away, however.

Ida is really quite industrious and is one of the leading ones in her classes. She intends to teach the rural children and we're all sure that Ida will make a success of her life.

LOUISE HEWITT
Luzerne High School
Luzerne, Pa.
"Lou"

"The sweetest noise on earth, a woman's voice,

A string which has no discord."

In this modern day, when girls are cheer leaders, one can appreciate Louise's sweetly modulated voice. This conversation often took place and is typical of Louise: "Do you know Louise Hewitt? Oh, yes! She's sweet."

Louise is Vice President of the Y. W. C. A.; she is also a member of the Alpha Delta Sorority. In both of these organizations she has been a very active member.

Brightness is a good name for Louise. She always has her work done and does not believe in going to classes unprepared. She is always ready to help all others, not thinking about herself.

"Hitch your wagon to a star," is Louise's motto. The best is none too good for her, and we hope the best will be her lot forever.

EMMA D. HIBIAN
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Hibby"

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

That describes our "Hibby" through and through. Who is "Hibby?" Why, she is none other than one of that good old "gang." As a friend, she is a "WOW." Whenever there's anything to be done, "Hibby" is always there to do it. If she is asked to help someone, especially one of the gang, she does it gladly.

"Hibby" is keen about sports. She can always be seen in the front row at any of the games, on the field or in the gym. Along with the rest of the crew, she can be seen cheering away with her utmost strength. We wonder! Why all this intent in athletics????

She is a proud possessor of a "B," which makes her an active member of the "B" club. She shares equal honors in the Dramatic and First Aid Clubs.

"Hibby" has shown us that, as a teacher, she will be a success.

To "Hibby" go the sincerest wishes of the class of '29 for a successful future, whether it be in the teaching or in anything else.

MARGARET HIGGINS
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Peg"

"Lights out!" "Quiet, Please!"—Yes, it's "Peg" making her rounds. Faithful to everything she has to do, and maybe she isn't one busy girl. Oh! no, she isn't too busy for boy friends. I say boy friends because the more the merrier. "Peg's" heart is big enough for many, but hush! And then we hear, "Frosh, why don't you wear your arm bands?" "We would like to see more of them." If "Peg" gets grey, prematurely, it won't be the fault of the boy friends, but the Frosh class of '30.

"Peg" is out for everything—sports, social functions and studies. Not only is she out for her own enjoyment but also how much joy she can give others. If you ever need a helping hand, you can ask "Peg," and you will always find her willing to help.

Her many activities are: Secretary Freshman Class, Nanticoke Club, Y. W. C. A., Alpha Delta Zeta, Gov. Board Secretary of W. S. G. A.

MABEL EVELYN HIGHFIELD
Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Miggs"

A demure, reserved girl came to us from the Electric City, September, 1927, but through lapse of time she became one of our outstanding workers in our college. In the first year we find her interested more in athletics, such as hockey and basketball. Later, during sorority rushes, we find her busy with parties and teas. Now, Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority claims her as one of their cherished members. We must not omit the many occasions which the Electric City Club sponsored in which she took part.

In her second year we find our "Miggsey" a prominent worker on the Governing Board, who has gained the sincere admiration of us all. She was an active member in the Dramatic Club and the Y. W. C. A. Her untiring devotion and sweet gentle influence have merited her not only a place in our hearts but also a class officer, that of Vice President.

"Miggsey," dear, may the world without treat you as generously, and the friends you make love you as loyally, as we, your classmates, have done.

FANNIE E. HILL
 Millville Vocational School
 Millville, Pa.
 "Fanny-bell"

Here's a girl whom the locker room is glad to have as a member because she is so ambitious. She is also one of the most sociable and talkative girls that enters the locker-room. The place seems to brighten up immediately upon her entrance.

Fannie is going to teach the intermediate children at school. Now, look at her picture. Doesn't she look like a school marm? At any rate, that is her one ambition; and so, of course, she will succeed, for whatever she tries, she always comes out successful. Fannie is a firm believer in the idea that all play and no work is not good for the system; consequently she often burns the midnight oil.

We know that she will make a good housekeeper (because of her practical experience), for someone, some day—although we never see her strolling about with the opposite sex—a girl like Fannie couldn't help but be attracted by some of the college boys of B. S. T. C.

We, the class of '29, wish you all the success and happiness that this old world of ours can give.

"A smiling countenance, a kind heart—
 Both blaze the way to happiness."

FANNIE I. HILL
 Hazle Township High School
 Milnesville, Pa.
 "Fan"

If you saw a girl who was happy and gay,
 And always seemed ready to smile,
 Who knew just how and just what to say
 When work didn't seem worthwhile,
 You've met no other than this very one,
 Our own friendly, lovable "Fan."

Here is a jolly good classmate who is always ready with some remedy to chase the blues away. There is no use trying to nurse sorrow when Fannie is around for she will scatter the blues and have you smiling before you know it. Fannie is noted for her kind disposition and she is always ready to give a cheerful word or help in any way possible. Her good nature and jolly, carefree disposition have won for her a host of friends.

Although we can predict success for Fannie in the teaching profession, we hesitate to say that this will be her life's work. The prominence of a sailor boy's picture on her dresser, together with the fact of her receiving frequent letters from—leave us a little doubtful.

MARION HOEGG
Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
"Hoeggie"

"Hoeggie," with her keen sense of humor adds much spice to the old gang which occupies the annex of the third floor of our dorm.

Many folks think her to be a quiet and shy lass. But "Hoeggie" is always ready for a good time, and especially when there is something to eat around. She is one of Born's daily visitors.

"Hoeggie" never fails to remind the gang of her last summer's vacation, which she recalls by singing her favorite song, entitled, "Then Came the Dawn." We all wonder why this song has such a strong effect upon her mind, and if this is the cause for her visiting the mail box so often during the course of the day. In spite of all the gang's constant teasing, "Hoeggie" still clings to them with a pleasant and happy attitude and disposition.

She is an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, the Children's Literature Club, the Girls' Chorus and the Mixed Chorus.

MYRTLE HOEGG
Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
"Myrt"

"Myrt" may seem quiet and bashful to those who do not know her, but to those who know her she is quite the opposite. She is one of the gang who lives in the annex; this gang never gets lonesome when this young miss is around. She loves to tell stories and Room 328 is the scene of many pleasant evenings.

"Myrt" is always ready to put her work aside and have a good time. One of her favorite pastimes is eating; she enjoys this as much as the rest of the gang.

"Myrt," with the aid of a co-worker or two, often stages a comedy which is amusing to all on-lookers, as well as to herself.

"Myrt" is an active member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, the Girls' Chorus, the Mixed Chorus and the College Orchestra.

Our wish for her is success and happiness in any undertaking she may choose to follow.

LILLIAN B. HOOPER
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
Lillian

Lillian is a tall, fair, dark-haired maiden, who has chosen as her profession the teaching of small children. We can all understand why she chose the primary grades when we see her entertain them.

She enjoys spending her time in study and never goes to class unprepared. Lillian will not allow pleasure to interfere with her work at any time. Did you say she is speaking? We are considering presenting her with a loud speaker so that her class will be able to hear her more easily.

She is truly still and quiet and we cannot imagine her in an argument. She rarely speaks of any of the opposite sex, but "actions speak louder than words," for just mention a certain name and those telling blushes rise to her face.

Lillian can always be found spending her leisure time sleeping, dancing, or attending the movies. These things she enjoys most.

The Alpha Delta found Lillian a faithful member and a good worker. She enjoyed their meetings and made many friends among them.

MARIE LOUISE HOWETH
Forest Park High School
Baltimore, Md.
Louise

Blue eyes,
Light hair;
Never a worry,
Never a care—that's Louise.

Louise came to us all the way from Baltimore. She was very timid and shy when she first came into our midst, but it wasn't long before she showed us that she didn't mean to be that way all the time.

Louise has an unusual gift of being very talkative. Of course, we don't mind how much she talks as long as she brings in those long, drawn-out "you alls."

"Louise" had a varied interest while at school. She divided her time between basketball, baseball, hockey, Y. W. C. A. and Glee Club.

When this fair lass came to us she told us that she was going to become a teacher. Later she professed a desire for library work. She loves books, so we shouldn't blame her for liking this kind of work.

Louise is also a lover of music and shows remarkable talent in playing the piano.

We have not learned exactly what she expects to do after she leaves school.

ELEANOR LOIS HUGHES

J. M. Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"El"

"Gee, what else shall I say?" Whenever you hear that you'll know "El" is writing letters she can't finish. Maybe it's a strain of music or maybe a pound of chocolates or maybe???

And as for making friends, "El" has "IT." She knows the how's, why's, when's and where's. No stranger is really here if "El" does not know her.

Candy? Just bring some good chocolates around. We shall judge five minutes the maximum time to have these as relish for the palate. Why? Gone, of course; "El" has 'em. She goes to Candyland too—cause you can dance, if someone puts a nickel into the new victrola.

She's always neatly dressed and, of course, her work is done neatly, too. We think she does more work for Miss Jeffries' "Good English Club" than for the rest of the teachers.

"Kathryn," "Peg," "Alice," "Loretta," "Anna Mary." Always calling and wanting everyone to laugh with her. She's always smiling. No smiling zero here.

CATHERINE JACKSON

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Jack"

"Jack" is one of the smallest, yet one of the most energetic members of our class. Her quiet dignity and admirable disposition have won many friends for her. In her classes, Catherine has displayed the intelligence and alertness which are characteristic of a good student.

Really, Catherine has only two faults, and they aren't actually worthy of the appellation. One is a tendency to an extreme conscientiousness and the other a proneness to spend too much time in anticipation of coming week-ends and reflection over past ones.

Besides being very enthusiastic about her teaching, she is interested in music and art and—SUNBURY. For a girl of her purpose, her ingenuity and her capabilities, the class of '29 can be proud of and extend to her its sincerest wishes for her success in her teaching. However, Catherine, we are not limiting our good wishes for your teaching days alone, but are giving them forever and ever.

NICHOLAS JAFFIN
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Jaffin"

"A warrior strong but not of sword."

Small, wiry and vigorous. This lad is a typical American boy. Swimming, wrestling and running he excels in all. With his fondness for outdoor life, "Nick" has developed a love for the higher and finer things of life.

His ability on the football team was somewhat handicapped, due to his size and weight. Nevertheless, he gained recognition by his consistent work. For two years he played varsity back. In track, "Nick" excelled, and in various meets he easily won the quarter-mile. His ability gained for him the Captaincy.

The play, "So This Is London," was a great success, but there was a reason. "Nick" was stage manager and he spent all his efforts into the making of a clever stage set, with the result that the Dramatic Club eagerly accepted him as one of their members.

"Nick" has been spending his spare time in local Scout work and Y. M. C. A. work, and as for the fair sex they are of minor importance to him.

Here's wishing you success and happiness in all that you undertake.

ALICE E. JAMES
Newport Township High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Jamsey"

She is not big, she is not tall,
But she's loving, wise, and kind to all.
She's never downhearted, she's never blue;
She's got a disposition
Which will hold her classmates true.
She's plucky and she's lucky;
She's always full of fun.
Always smiling, seldom sad,
She's the best little pal that we've ever had.
She's liked by everyone, wherever she goes.
A girl like "Jay"
Will make her way
To the ladder of success.

When "Jay" was in Berwick doing her student teaching, something (somebody) was missing; and only the lack of a tin orchestra and a brass band kept us from going and welcoming back to us "Jay" with a royal celebration.

"Jay" was very fond of all sports, having participated in basketball, baseball, hockey and tennis, and attended many games played by the college teams.

Dear "Jay," the class of '29 wishes that the Star of success will shine upon you.

LOUISE JARZENBOWICZ

Sugar Notch High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Baby"

"Louise"—Graceful, no less than grace itself, contained the play spirit."

Louise does contain the play spirit to a great extent. Every aspect of life is a game to her and she plays like the true sport she is.

Naturally brilliant, teaching comes to Louise as an easy matter, yet with all of her physical charms and easy swinging walk, one wonders if this is her right chosen profession. She is doubtful herself, but is quiet as to her real ambitions.

A favorite among many is Louise, and she has an outstanding personality in athletics. Her winsome gracefulness shows to its best advantage on hockey, basketball and baseball fields.

Louise is a go-getter and we are sure that life will offer her just what she most desires.

"Brown eyes and petite,
Mischievous smile and dancing feet,
If, on rainy days, you feel blue,
Have "Babe" to doctor you."

IRENE JOHNS

Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
Irene

Some call her Irene, others "Johnny," but whatever we call her, she is one of the dearest girls we know. Her friendly disposition and willingness to help others are characteristics for which we all admire and love her.

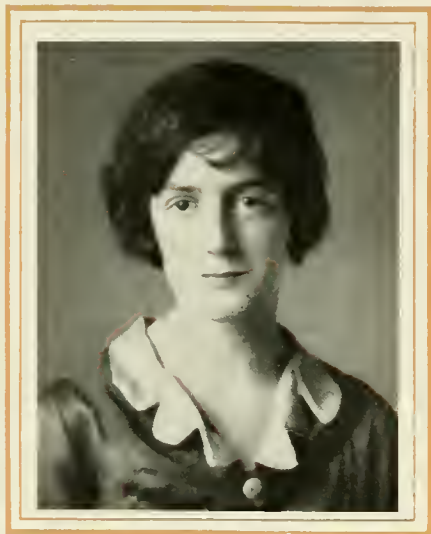

We all think a great deal of her, but we are sure someone else thinks more. We wonder why most of her leisure time is spent in writing letters and why she is anxious to get to the mail box on time.

She's full of "pep." You should hear her strum a uke.

As for sports, Irene takes part in all.

She is one of the shining lights of the class. Oh! those A's! She's sure to have five. From the way she tutored second floor we think that, as a music teacher, she would be a success.

"Life holds no charm like loyal friends,
And many are yours until life ends."

DORIS AUGUSTA JOHNSON

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Deacon"

Whiz! Bang! What's let loose! Papers flying everywhere—books slamming—ink splattering—but calm down, "Deacon" is just hunting for a lesson plan. The girls in the locker-room are quite use to "Deacon's" sudden outbursts.

"Deacon" is very small but it is a good thing, for she loves to be everywhere at the same time, especially where there are "eats." It seems a gift of nature for some people to be forever eating and never grow.

"Deacon" like sports of all kinds—says she wants to develop strong muscles so she can handle the boy friend better. Basketball and swimming are her favorite sports. She likes to swim as well as eat.

Don't be mistaken—"Deacon" can live up to her nickname. She teaches a Sunday School class in Berwick and was quite a modest little teacher in the Kindergarten for the first nine weeks. When she taught in Berwick we all missed her very much.

She is always willing to help when one is in trouble and has been a loving friend and classmate. We wish her success of the highest type in her future years.

ANNA E. JONES

Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Teashion"

Sleep, sleep, sleep,
How I love to sleep.
Oh, yes, it may be ten or eight.
Why should I care if I am late?

Anna, with her brown hair and brown eyes, wears that smile which we will never forget. Even though she does love to sleep and at every opportunity is doing so, she is full of life and pep when awake. She is as happy-go-lucky as the day is long and nothing worries her no matter how serious it is.

Some night when you are hard at work and hear someone coming down the hall laughing and talking, you had better lock your door, for when Anna arrives work ceases. One of her great failings is talking, and when there is someone around she simply cannot study.

Those who know her will tell you that she will argue for the sake of arguing any day in the week, and will not stop talking until the opposite side is so out of breath that they cannot talk any longer. Did I hear some one say that mail is in? I wonder how many letters I shall receive today? Anna never fails to get at least one and more often it is five or six. She enjoys spending her time wishing she were home, or elsewhere and marking off each day on the calendar.

DORIS R. JONES

Duryea High School
Duryea, Pa.
"Jonsie"

"Who does not know Doris?
Always smiling, always glad,
Never hurrying, never sad."

Doris is usually found with a crowd. For some unexplainable reason she is never seen alone. Her pleasing personality aids her to make and keep many friends.

"Some music, Doris—we should like to dance." Doris is a very good pianist and never tires of playing for her friends. One never has to coax her.

Doris is very studious, but we sometimes wonder if she would not rather sleep than eat. Doris prefers sleeping to eating, especially at breakfast time.

Another of her pastimes is dancing. She loves to dance and, of course, we all love to dance with her. Wilkes-Barre seems to hold an added attraction in dancing for her.

In basketball, one always dreads to be her opponent. It is hard to make a play when being guarded by "Jonsie."

Doris is a member of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. Her duty is to play the piano, but we find her always willing to assist whenever she is needed.

FLORENCE GERTRUDE JONES

DuBois High School
DuBois, Pa.
"Flossy"

"Flossy" is one of those girls whose friendship we all wish to hold. Her loving disposition and kindheartedness are just a part of her charming personality. "Flossy" is an all-round good sport and pal. When you meet her you always want to know her better. Look at her and you know she is full of life and fun.

When school opened this fall, "Flossy" was not seen around the campus. Why? She was in Berwick guiding the young Berwickians. The only weakness that "Flossy" had in Berwick was "chocolate cake."

Florence is very fond of music, but it makes her sentimental. We wonder why???

"Flossy" is a real student and distributes her time properly in applying herself to her tasks. Her attitude toward her work, and her natural interest in the profession, make her an ideal teacher.

She is Secretary of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority and the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. The Dramatic Club also claims her as a member.

We expect "Flossy" to go "smiling through," and in so doing she can be nothing but successful.

MURIEL P. JONES
Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
Muriel "Shorty"

Here is a girl who everyone knows,
And always is welcomed wherever she goes.
Besides a true pal, she is also a sport,
And we wish her much luck as she sails from this port.

Muriel has not changed since she came to Bloomsburg. As we met her two years ago, we still find her, a true and willing friend, always rushing from one place to another doing a good turn. With her sunny disposition and ready jokes she has made many friends who will never forget the old days at "Bloom."

Besides being a prompt and enthusiastic rooter for all athletics, Muriel takes an active part in playing hockey, basketball and volleyball. It is here that we find her height somewhat of a disadvantage, but it doesn't hold her back when she gets possession of the ball and dodges around her lanky opponents.

In her first year, Muriel took an active interest in the Y. W. C. A., which developed into her appointment to the "Y" Cabinet. Here her loyal support and backing has been gratefully appreciated. Since Muriel possesses a beautiful alto voice she was welcomed into the Girls' Glee Club and the "Y" Quartet as a member during her two years at "Bloom."

Is it any wonder that Muriel has gained weight? Of course it is not due to the meals in the dining room, but to the feeds at 9:30 and to the numerous boxes that have entered her room.

Since our little Welsh girl has chosen the Intermediate children to guide and influence, our hopes are for her success.

WILLIAM JONES
Scranton High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Bill"

To get an idea of the energy, talent and versatility of this chap, one must be thoroughly acquainted with him. "Bill" has a certain amount of reserve mixed with a love of humor which attracts him to all who know him. A staunch and loyal supporter of the Senior class, thus they elected him their Treasurer.

"Bill's" interests are in his studies; he has no great desire for gridiron fame. His one desire is to be a real "Professor." Who knows but that some day he will be a prominent figure in education.

"Bill" showed his talents as an actor when a candidate for the Freshmen play. He was elected as one of the characters and capably fitted his role.

When women are mentioned, "Bill" becomes a man of mystery. Now whether he has "One and only one," we do not know.

We hope that as you go out into this great world of ours that luck, happiness and success come your way.

SOPHIE KASZEWSKI
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.

Sophie is one of the most versatile members of our class, taking part in all of the school work and enjoying all of it. In the fields of athletics she has achieved success in playing basketball and baseball.

Sophie is our idea of perpetual motion, always making up some energy in ways distinctly her own. What an asset to Sophie are her eyes, they certainly help to make the pleasing personality that she possesses.

Sophie has chosen the Primary field, and we know that she will be a success when out in the world. Sometimes she appears to be very quiet—that is, the time she is thinking of what she is to teach the next day, after this mood passes she becomes one of the jolly girls and tries hard to make every one about her happy.

As you step from our midst we wish you success and happiness in your future work.

JULIA KELECHAW
Blakely High School
Peckville, Pa.

Whose notebook is this? Oh, Jule's, of course, it's written with purple ink. Carter's ink gives her a touch of individuality.

Last year she was a blithe, frivolous, happy young person. This year she has developed into a serious, exact, thorough school teacher. Although we laughingly chide her for her attention to details, yet we know that it is but an indication that whatever life may hold for her will be done faithfully and well.

We shall never forget the many evenings we spent with her while she sang for us the old ballads, snatches from operas, folk songs, and popular compositions. Her repertoire is unlimited.

"Jule's" interest lies not only in books and music but also in athletics and social activities. She plays a splendid game of basketball, throws a baseball with sure aim, hikes like one of Gene Stratton Porter's heroines, and even roller skates to Danville upon occasions.

During her first year she was a member of the Mixed Chorus and the Girls' Chorus. During the second year she was on the Governing Board.

MARGARET W. KETCHAM

Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
"Ketcham"

"A little miss, not very tall.
A quiet miss, and a friend to all."

"Good things come in small packages"—this we learned when "Ketcham" entered B. S. T. C. She has won many friends among both sexes, even while living up to the old saying, "Gentlemen prefer Blondes." She took a course in Library Methods last year, but she prefers the advanced course that she is taking now. Well, I guess, you know! She can be heard walking through the halls and singing her favorite song, "My Buddy."

"Ketcham" is always smiling and is ready to help any one. In all her studies she has displayed vim and persistence, which are two qualities necessary for the successful teacher.

"Ketcham" is very active socially. Very few dances passed without her attendance. She is an active member of the First Aid Club and the Secretary of the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority.

MARGUERETTE B. KIETHLINE

Shickshinny High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Peggy"

Two years ago "Peggy" entered B. S. T. C. She, like the rest of us, was "green," but it didn't take her long to become acquainted with the college and she soon acquired a host of friends by her pleasing personality and ever-helping manner.

"Peggy" is a graduate of the Shickshinny High School, but she now resides in Wilkes-Barre. We are certain that Shickshinny misses her and that Wilkes-Barre is pleased to have her.

Those who have become acquainted with "Peggy" during the last two years value her friendship dearly.

She is a very active member of the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority and we really wonder what will become of that society when she graduates.

"Peggy" doesn't seem to be interested in the boys, but we have a slight suspicion that there are a few who are interested in her.

"Peggy" is a real pal, a true friend—one who is always ready to lend a helping hand to any worthy cause.

"Peggy" is one of the industrious students of our college who puts work before play. She likes fun and lots of it, but not until her work is finished.

Farewell, "Peggy." We feel assured that you will be successful in your future endeavors.

ELIZABETH KILLIAN

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.

"Who is Elizabeth? What is she?
That all our swains commend her,
Holy, fair and wise is she;
The heavens such grace did lend her,
That she admired might be."

This young lady is always ready for fun. She is likewise ready for work. Her motto is, "Plenty of work and play, enough of each to make the other appreciated." She has many friends in spite of the fact that she is quiet. We all like her. She is pleasant and kind to everyone. Elizabeth is never satisfied until she has done her best in her studies. We are quite sure that, as a teacher, Elizabeth will be a huge success.

Our best wishes go with you towards the top of the ladder you have chosen to climb.

GRACE B. KIVLER

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Kivler"

The city of Nanticoke calls this smiling girl its own. She is not a bit shy of the men and always has a good healthy smile for a friend.

She makes a visit up the river occasionally, and the purpose of this visit is not always to bring back eats.

Can "Kivler" act? You should have seen the Junior play. "Kivler" is one of those happy-go-lucky girls who is always in for a good time. But in spite of all her good times, she ranks high scholastically.

She also took part in the extra-curricular activities of this school. Some of the attainments which she reached during her two years here may be listed as: Dramatic Club, Dramatic Fraternity, Secretary of Dining Room Club, Vice President of the Nanticoke Club, Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, member of Alpha Delta Sorority, Vice President of Freshman Class of '29.

Here's wishing you success, "Kivler," in your chosen profession.

MARGARET KLEBACK
Taylor High School
Taylor, Pa.
"Peg"

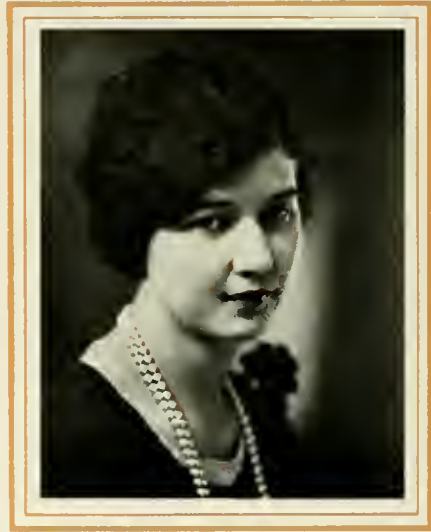

Big brown eyes, wavy hair, welcome smile—that's "Peg." She is one of those studious girls that hailed from Taylor High School two years ago.

"Peg" has chosen the Intermediate Group as her vocation. We are all sure that she is capable of the work in which she has undertaken. She has done her practice teaching in Berwick and has been very successful in this line.

Margaret, as she is often called, is a quiet girl who believes in the motto: "Work before pleasure." She likes her good times, but when it comes to work she is there on time. Did you ever see her go to class unprepared? Well, I guess not. That's the type of a girl she is. You will always find her willing to do all that is possible for the good of the others.

Best of luck and wishes to you at all times, Margaret.

"She has a will, she has a way,
We know success will come to 'Peg'."

LENORE W. KOCHER
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.

"It's the song ye sing and the smile ye wear.

That's a-making the sunshine everywhere."

Lenore is very studious and appears to be very quiet. We soon changed our minds about her being quiet after we once knew her. Her blue eyes take life, church, state, school and affairs of the heart most seriously. Really, on these subjects, she would argue and discuss until—well ask Jimmie.

What does she like to do? Well—we should say dance, dance some more and dance again. That seems to be her hobby and we must say she rides it well.

She has chosen teaching in the Primary grades for her life work. Because of her personality, she has many friends and the children are very fond of her. It is doubtful whether Lenore will follow the teaching profession for very long. We wish her the best of luck in whatever she decides to do.

SARAH LILLIAN KRAUSS

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Sally"

Here she is! If you don't know her I should advise you to get acquainted. She is a jolly, good-natured, black-haired lassie, beloved by all who know her. Sarah is so fond of candy that her father decided to keep a store in order to supply her with all that she needs. Now the whole "dorm" profits by it. Sarah is studious. If you would like to know how to study just come around and she will teach you whenever she has the spare time. But don't you worry, Sarah doesn't study all of the time, because she is too fond of dancing and devotes some of her time to it.

Her motto is, "Be sincere; work hard; never fail."

"A smiling lady,
Who never frets or frowns,
Who meets with song and laughter
All of life's ups and downs."

MARTHA ANNA LAIRD

Picture Rocks High School
Picture Rocks, Pa.
"Marts"

Martha has been with us four years, and we consider ourselves very lucky. As a student, she has ability and untiring energy. As a friend, she is sincere and sympathetic. Regardless of what you want done—a committee meeting, help with a difficult lesson, or anything else—just ask Martha and she'll do it.

She is also very active in extra-curricular affairs, and has helped with many of the worth-while things that have taken place during her four years here. We find her (at one time or another) in the Science Club, Y. W. C. A., Phi Lambda, Clothing Club, Debating Club, Campfire Girls, Student Council, and a member of the Maroon and Gold Staff. If Martha is behind an idea we know it will go through. She has specialized in English, Latin and Social Studies. However, her interests are not confined to academic subjects, for she possesses one of those much coveted athletic letters earned in her second year at college.

We know from Martha's abilities, leadership, qualities and ambitions that her future is a bright one. And we are sure in promising that in the future our college will view her work with pride, remembering that she received her training and is an Alumni of B. S. T. C.

MARY ALICE LAIRD
Picture Rocks, Pa.

"Small of stature,
Great of mind;
Always pleasant,
Gentle and kind."

Mary is one of the members of the Junior High School course of the class of "28," who returned to us this year for her B.S. degree. She is one of the best members of her class, as she has been on the Honor Roll ever since she entered B. S. T. C.

Mary is also an active member of several extra curricular activities. She is President of the Phi Lambda Nature Fraternity, as well as the Nature Study Club. She is one of the Literary Editors of the Maroon and Gold.

She has majored in Science, Latin, and Social Studies. We know Mary will be a success as a teacher because she is successful in everything she undertakes. She is a true friend to everyone. Nothing is ever too much for Mary to do for her friends. She will help you to the limit. She is a wonderful girl and a true good sport, so here's luck and success to our friend.

ELEANOR LAPINSKI
Hazle Township High School
Hazleton, Pa.

Down from the forsaken town of West Hazleton,
About two hours ride from Bloomsburg,
As is counted by the students here,
Came a shy miss of eighteen years,
To further her knowledge at Bloomsburg College.

A friend in need is Eleanor indeed. When in trouble, she is a bubble of sympathy. Your troubles of woe and sorrow are listened to by this wonderful friend, Eleanor.

She is coming down the hall,
But she is not so very tall.
She has a pleasant grin,
But she is not so very slim.
Light brown hair with a curly twist,
Medium blue eyes that you can't resist.

She certainly enjoyed being a member of the following activities:

Y. W. C. A., Camp Fire Girls, Current Events Club.

MARTHA ELIZABETH LAUBACH
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Lib"

You probably all know "Lib," as she is generally seen in the library, working very hard. I wouldn't like to mention what she does most of the time, but I think you will agree with me that she is quite studious at times.

Her chief ambition is to be a star dancer. We all hope she will be successful.

"Lib" graduated from Berwick High with the class of '27 and the following year she entered B. S. T. C. She is taking the Rural Course, in which she seems very much enthused.

During her Freshman Year, "Lib" was a member of the Campfire Girls' Club. Sports also attracted her. She took up hockey, volleyball, baseball and hiking.

This year she is a member of the Rural Life Club and the Locker Room Gang.

We all wish you the best of success and—

"When a bit of sunshine hits ye,
After passing of a cloud,
When a bit of laughter gits ye,
An' yer spine is feelin' proud,
Don't forget to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue,
For the minit that ye sling it,
It's a boomerang to you."

MIRIAM LAWSON
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Mim"

Miriam is one of the fortunate winners of the B.S. degree this spring. Ask about it and she will tell you of the troubles it takes to get one. She is loved by her friends and respected by her acquaintances for just that same perseverance against odds. Her work has not kept her from enjoying many of the social occasions of the school. She was a faithful and consistent booster of the Team. She is one of the most active members of the Geographic Society.

"A wholesome girl with face so sweet,
One of the kind you like to meet;
And when you do, you want to be
One of her closest friends. You see
She is a Comrade truly rare
Whose deeds and thoughts are always fair;
She is a friend to everyone
Upon whom beams the shining sun;
She has a quiet humor dear
Whose gentle satire you needn't fear;
She laughs and works and plays and gives,
But best of all, she truly lives
A Life of true and honest deeds—
Of lovely character the seeds."

ELSIE M. LEBO

J. W. Cooper High School
Shenandoah, Pa.

By looking at her, you can find out just what kind of a girl she is. Elsie has won the friendship of many since she has come to Bloomsburg. To know this lass means to love her. She is a very conscientious student and always does her work when she has to. She never worries about anything except one person. (?) Better days are coming and someone's waiting for them. Elsie.

Elsie is going to teach the Primary children at school. Now, look at her picture. Can you imagine her a school teacher? At any rate that is one ambition; and so, of course she will succeed, for whatever she tries she always comes out successful.

Elsie is a good all-around sport, always attending games and letting people know she's there, by giving an individual cheer now and then. Elsie is particularly fond of tennis and dancing.

HELEN LESHER

Middletown High School
Middletown, Pa.

"Still water runs deep." Yes, that's Helen. She may seem quiet, but when you get to know her you find a jolly girl, who is always ready for fun.

Helen came to us as a Senior from Ball State Teachers' College in Indiana. We have enjoyed your presence with us, Helen. We hope that you will always remember us when you are out in the field of teaching.

Is she studious? We often hear her say, "Oh, I have so much to do." We know the reason why. Whatever she does she does well. Helen is meeting with success in her student teaching and we feel certain that nothing but success will come her way.

Best wishes to you, Helen.

Here's a friend that's quiet too,
A girl who's fair, a girl who's true.
A happy smile so full of fun,
One who's loved by every one.

FANNIE LINSKILL
Pottsgrove High School
Pottsgrove, Pa.

Outstanding with her cool grey eyes and auburn hair is our Fannie. Fannie has a quiet dignified demeanor that makes one realize that she doesn't say much, but what she says she means. Those who know her know her remarks to be terse and to the point.

Because of her ability she was chosen by the Y. W. C. A. as one of their most active members. Last year she was selected to journey to Eagles Mere as one of their representatives. This year she has been a devotional leader and served on the "Y" Cabinet.

Fannie is Recording Secretary of the Alpha Delta Sorority and has also proven to be one of their active members.

In addition to this, Fannie is very fond of athletics. She has participated in basketball and hockey.

Determination has made Fannie a success in her school work and in other activities. We are sure that as life trails on it will always find Fannie going on, making her decisions quickly and never faltering at the crossroads. Here's wishing you success and happiness in all of your undertakings.

CHARLOTTE VIRGINIA LORD
Nanticoke High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Lordy"

L ovable
O utstanding
R efined
D igned
Y ou'll love her!

That's Charlotte!!

Charlotte roomed alone last year. That does not signify that she was alone. Never! The room was small, but every last admirer managed to fit in somehow. At times one wished wall-hooks were available.

Charlotte was not here long before various organizations claimed her. The Dramatic Club gained a clever new member. As Milton, Charlotte took part in the Current Literature Club program in chapel. She is a member and President of the Tau Phi Epsilon Sorority. Charlotte plays the piano exceptionally well, as she has proven so many times.

Charlotte is living up to her last year's record. We are proud to say "she is beautiful," but not dumb, for Charlotte is a two-point student. Always generous and glad to help a fellow-student over difficulties, which seem so easy after she has explained them. We all know that, as a teacher, Charlotte touches shoulders with the ideal. She is brilliant, tactful and lovable.

As for Charlotte's power over the opposite sex—tip-titled nose, come hither brown eyes, and a humorous smile. Doesn't that suggest something? Yes, she has "it."

That's our Charlotte!

DOROTHY ALVERNA LORD

Mt. Carmel High School
Mt. Carmel, Pa.
"Dot" "Lordie"

The keynote to "Dottie's" personality is one word—modern. The latest songs, newest dances and latest whims of Dame Fashion are hers.

If you can picture to yourself a jolly, rollicking, carefree girl, with a companionable disposition, you have "Dot." Wasn't it she who entertained the whole class and was in the center of laughter?

She loves excitement and took part in many activities of school life. "Dot" was an active member of the Glee and Baton Clubs and was also one of the members of the basketball team who helped win so many games.

"Dot" could be serious too. No doubt it was this quality that helped her become one of the best teachers this year. While in Berwick, "Dot" was President of the Student Government and had the position of saying "lights out."

We were always sure of one thing, that if "Dot" was taken from our midst, her absence would leave a vivid impression that could never be filled.

May happiness be yours always, "Dot," and success be ever with you.

VALENTINA LUBINSKI

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Val" "VI"

She has blue eyes, blonde hair,
There's never a worry, never a care;
A girl who's a pal to everyone.

There's never a task, she leaves undone,
She is willing to help most anyone.
Honesty is her policy in work and play,
And she will be sure to pave her way.

"Vi" has won favor among the girls because of her pleasing personality and kindness. She is very studious and never goes to class with her lessons unprepared.

"Vi" also likes a good time now and then. After her lessons are completed she makes good use of the recreation period. If she has any eats we are always invited and we all get an equal share.

"Vi" has chosen the two-year course in Primary work as preparation for her teaching career. We know she will be successful because of the interest she has always shown.

"Vi" took an active part in the Y. W. C. A., Nanticoke Club and First Aid Club. She sure has chosen wisely because they have proven beneficial to her. As for the First Aid Club we're sure it taught her to fix up all the bumps and bruises of her little school friends.

DORIS LUCE
Meshoppen High School
Meshoppen, Pa.
"Dat"

Tall?—Well, 5 ft. 2.

Hair?—Blonde.

Eyes?—Brown and inquisitive.

Oh, dear! Did anyone bring a letter up for me? Doris' day never does begin until that letter arrives. It seems to be her sole incentive for a day of hard work.

Doris hails from Meshoppen. Last year she came to B. S. T. C. a quiet, unassuming lass. We met her, loved her, and accepted her as a friend worth knowing. After knowing her we found that wit, pep and humor were strong characteristics in her general make-up. Where there are cats, Doris may be found, and how that girl can make fudge. All residents of Josephine Dormitory recognize her as champion fudge maker.

She is an active member in the First Aid Club and excels in hockey and basketball. She is studious and believes that work comes before play, which accounts for the fact that she was so often found writing brilliant essays during study hour.

Yes, Doris, the class of '29 wish you the best of luck in teaching. Your sweet disposition assures us our wish, but how long will you teach?

HELEN F. McCORMAC
Archbald High School
Archbald, Pa.

Helen is one of those sweet, loving, and helpful girls, beloved and admired by a large circle of friends. She has taken an active part in all of the school activities.

Helen came to us from Lock Haven and we have found her to be a very interesting little miss. She is a good natured girl. The way she portrays this is by the pleasant manner with which she greets all of her classmates.

Among those hobbies of hers, she enjoys eating best of all. This, however, is nothing new, for who doesn't like to eat in the dormitory? Helen is a member of the Baton Club and the Girls' Chorus. From what we have seen and heard we know that Helen is very much interested in music. She has a ukulele and she certainly does keep it going.

We wish you the best luck and happiness that this wide world can offer you.

CATHERINE V. McENEANY
 Saint Basil's High School
 Dushore, Pa.
 "Kay"

Did you hear that jolly laugh? Just follow it up and you will find "Kay" making someone feel that "today is the tomorrow they worried about yesterday and hasn't happened yet."

In the fine art of laughing, "Kay" reigns supreme. We love to hear her because her laugh is so contagious. Catherine also allows her melodious voice to be heard in the Girls' Chorus. What would the chorus do without her?

To be with "Kay" is to be with a live wire. Being a typical American girl, she does not confine herself to study alone. She is always a good sport and athletics claim her as a lover and participant. She was captain of her hockey team, starring as center. If you want a good partner for tennis, call "Kay." She's always ready and always full of pep.

She has a passion for red, which is very becoming with her blue eyes and black hair. "By red you shall know her."

O. K. can be heard frequently echoing through the "Dorm" halls, on the tennis court or hockey field, and even in the dining room on occasion.

"Kay's" attitude toward life is optimistic. She plays and works hard. Her cheerful smile and lively spirit make her welcome everywhere.

She has a will, she has a way;
 We know success will come to "Kay."

MARY McENEANY
 Saint Basil's High School
 Dushore, Pa.

Mary is always merry. She believes that school is a tonic for the mind and should be taken regularly and calmly—though, like all medicine, it is a pill to take sometimes.

Mary comes to us from Saint Basil's High School, Dushore. She tells us that Dushore is quite some place, though we have been unable to get any reliable information as to its size.

With her twinkling eyes and quiet smile, Mary is a welcome addition to any group. You would think she is quiet until you get better acquainted with her, then you are apt to change your mind. At least she can help out with the noise on third floor when occasion demands.

Hockey is one of Mary's weaknesses. She fell hard for this sport, having played on two teams during her Senior year.

Mary is Irish and proud of it. We wouldn't be surprised if she started to wear a little green shamrock for loyalty's sake. We would like to add one leaf to your shamrock, Mary, and with it luck for the rest of your life.

MARY COLLISTER McGRADY

Plains Memorial High School
Plains, Pa.
"Mac"

"Blue eyes, red hair,
Ne'er a worry, ne'er a care.
A flashing smile, full of fun,
A girl who is a pal to everyone."

A sweet, shy lassie and the possessor of red hair, beautiful pearly white teeth and a sunny disposition. This is "Mac's" donation to B. S. T. C.

If you ever feel blue, just call on "Mac" and she will cheer you up. She is a real student and distributes her time properly among her studies. She is seen in the library busily engaged in seeking material for her lesson plans. We know, by her records and observations, that she has progressed wonderfully in her practice teaching. Her attitude toward her class-work and her ways all add to her success as a teacher.

The friendships she has formed here and the little favors that she obliged us by doing have increased our love for her. Judging from her application to her studies here, we hope to hear of "Mac" well on the road to success in the near future.

MARGARET J. McHALE

Dickson City High School
Dickson City, Pa.
"Peg"

Do not judge "Peg" by her face. You will admit she looks exceptionally angelic, but, "Oh, my! Look again." Don't you see the something there that you missed the first time. Looks, yes, indeed, are deceiving.

She is quite a singer, and often entertains fourth floor with one of her concerts. She is always around when there's mischief to be done, and takes a leading part in it.

"Peg" is a true friend and a real pal. School would be a dull place, indeed, without the cheery girl as our pal.

"Peg" is a member of the Dramatic Club. She is also Recording Secretary of the Tau Phi Epsilon Sorority.

She is always ready for a good time and enjoys all kinds of fun.

"Peg" has the perseverance to attain a successful career and she has the well wishes of all her friends.

ALICE MACHUNG
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Al"

"A bright girl you must admit
And always willing to do her bit."

Alice looks like a quiet, shy girl, but when you get acquainted with her you find she can laugh as heartily as you can. She can also tell as good jokes when she isn't counting calories. Gracious sakes! can she eat? She'd hike to Light street for a piece of carnal pie.

Her chief regret about the "Physical Education Department" is that it does not offer more sports. As it is, she went out for basketball, baseball, hockey and tennis. She was right there in social activities, participating in the Nanticoke Club, Tau Kappa Phi Sorority, Y. W. C. A., Children's Literature Club and First Aid Club.

Study! Well, "Al" found enough time to get that in and received her A's and B's.

She has made a success in her practice teaching and we feel quite sure that her profession has been well chosen. Success is won by patient endeavor, Alice.

SOPHIE MAKARCZYK
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Mack"

You can tell by a glance
That our Mack loves to dance;
Sports she loves (and how),
Specially the ones who play and

When she will, she will,
You can depend on it,
When she won't, she won't!
And there's an end to it.

"Mack" is just another one of those little misses, neat in appearance, pleasant in manner and independent. She is one of a known gang and needless to say they couldn't do without her because they love her even more than the others.

She takes an active part in the school activities and is greatly interested in the "B" Club, as well as the Nanticoke Club.

She secretly admires our "huskies," but never admits it. Why? Oh!—she goes home so often that we're getting suspicious.

"Mack" steadfastly maintains that she will stick to the teaching profession and be content with that, and the little roadster she intends to own—we have our doubts.

MARY V. MALONEY
Dickson City High School
Dickson City, Pa.
"Dick"

Blue eyes, wavy hair,
Never a worry, never a care;
Dancing feet, full of fun,
Dimples flash, your heart is won.

"Dick" is a member of the Dramatic Club and the Vice President of the Tau Phi Epsilon Sorority. She is an earnest worker and always puts work ahead of fun.

"Dick" is one of the snappiest, jolliest, all-around sports you ever saw. She likes to do most everything and can do it too. "Dick's" favorite pastime is dancing and she sure can dance.

As you look at "Dick's" picture aren't you thinking, "Sweet, shy, modest and retiring?" Yes, we did, until we knew her better. Oh, she's all those until something comes up with which she does not agree and then—"Dick" has the floor!

At present, "Dick's" affections are divided between State and Lafayette. She seems to have lost her weakness for candy, of late.

"Dick" is very ambitious toward the teaching profession but we are sure there isn't any danger of her ever becoming an "old maid" school teacher.

MILDRED MANBECK
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.

And this one comes from Bloomsburg. Mildred is one of those girls who can claim a large circle of friends, the reason for this being her pleasing personality.

Mildred's leisure time finds her holding lengthy conversations with the North Hall boys, but we hear that another comes first.

We have often heard lectures about "school spirit" and about the lack of it. Mildred always gave her time and attention to every activity that was connected with the school. Whenever it was possible for her to do so, Mildred attended all of the games.

We all wish you success in your teaching and hope that some day you will attain your greatest ambition.

It's the spirit that you put in your work
That makes your friendship worthwhile.

EMILY MARONEY
Berwick High School
Millinville, Pa.

When you want a quick worker who will respond at once, whether it be for basketball practice or anything else call on Emily. Her cheerful manner and sympathetic smiles are like sunshine on dark days. Emily is one of those who are untiring in their efforts and unflagging in their zeal to aid in the accomplishment of a righteous end. That's the kind of a girl we all love.

She is one of our commuters and a member of the Locker Room Gang. She has taken part in many school activities and is a very earnest worker. Whenever you need any help in your work just ask Emily and she will be right there to help you in all that you need.

Even though she is a commuter she never comes into class late. "Punctual," she certainly does know what that word signifies. That is more than some of us right here at the college know.

Emily has chosen the Primary Group, and we know that she will make a successful teacher. Whatever path of life you may pursue, we hope that your voyage will be long, happy and successful.

Jermyn, Pa.
Claire

Do you like plenty of wit and humor? Then we know you will like our Claire. She enters everything with lots of pep and is always ready for a good time. Would you like to see Claire display some of her pep? Just mention cats. Immediately you will see her running from one end of Waller hall to the other in order to find them. Another instance where she displays pep is in the gym. What doing? Why dancing the latest steps, of course.

Just by her sweet smile and attractiveness can you wonder that she has been leading one man after another in a wild chase. And by the way, she intends to keep up the chase until a millionaire steps in. Here's hoping you succeed, Claire. Oh, yes, she can be serious even though it takes quite an effort at times.

She has shown us how to be a real student and we know she will be a great success in the teaching profession. How long she will be in this profession we don't know, but we have our suspicions that it may not be very long.

If at any time you are stricken with a severe case of blues, look for Claire—she'll banish them.

R. LUCILLE MARTZ
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Cile"

"Cile" is a classmate with many and varied abilities. As for scholarship, she gives great credit to her high school Alma Mater; her skill in handling a full-sized piano, as well as a full-sized man (at times) has also reached no mean degree of excellency. And then her tennis has developed far beyond the beginner's stage. Just ask anyone to whom she serves those aces. Last year Mu Phi Sigma noticed all these qualities and claimed her as a member.

For some of her chums, Lucille's ability in acquiring all these talents is sometimes beyond their comprehension. She has another trait which not infrequently asserts itself—absentmindedness, we are forced to call it. The periods occur, we are led to believe, when her thoughts are preoccupied with the whereabouts of an auburn-haired person. Although she sometimes displays unmistakable signs of a certain proneness to anger, "Cile" good-naturedly accepts perhaps a little more than her share of the razzing with which she is confronted. But such is the fate of any maiden with a particular friend of the opposite sex in B. S. T. C., the school where men form such a popular minority.

GEORGE A. MATHEWS
Hanover Township High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Ex"

We all know that in Math "X" is an unknown quantity, but "Ex" in humanology is a well known person. "Ex's" philosophy of life is, "Every day make someone happy by a song, a joke or a laugh." When "Ex" is around the blues are gone.

Rarely do we find a fellow with a variety of talents such as "Ex" possesses—a good tenor voice, a clever speaker, a winning personality, and a capacity for leadership. All these bring to "Ex" a popularity among the students. No Bull session at North Hall was complete without him. Did you ever hear him sing "Red Hot Henry Brown?" It's a real song—ask him to sing it.

The class of 1927 voted solid for him as Editor-in-Chief of the Obiter. That year "Ex" worked like a Trojan, for between football, Manager of basketball, Director of the minstrel and Editor, he had his hands full, but those talents of his pulled him to the top.

It was no wonder then that "Ex," having decided to come back for a degree, shunned any office; but the students would not permit him to rest—they immediately elected him as President of the Community Government Association.

During his stay here "Ex" has been:

Manager of Basketball, '27; Editor of Obiter, '27; Tackle on Football Team, '27; President Omega Chi, '27; President Community Government, '28.

MARY E. MATTAVI

Freeland High School
Freeland, Pa.

"Tavy"

She isn't tall, she isn't short,
She isn't thin or fat;
She's just about half-way between,
And a jolly good sport at that.

"Tavy" hails from the coal regions. She entered Bloomsburg State Teachers' College in the year of '27. She has chosen the teaching profession as the field of her endeavors. This is sufficient to prove to us that "Tavy" has lots of ambition, for very few girls select this work.

This young lady with the smiling countenance is known to have a loving and gentle disposition. She is inclined to be quite studious. She is one of the best sports in the class and is always ready for a good time.

"Tavy" likes athletics and her main hobby is basketball. Another of her hobbies is putting combs in her hair. She was also an active member of the Girls' Chorus.

We hope that "Tavy's" ambition as a teacher will last a long time, but we are afraid not, knowing as much as we do about her popularity with the opposite sex.

To "Tavy," we extend heartiest wishes for her success.

MILDRED MATTHEWS

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.

Luck seems to always be with her—spending every night at home. This is nice for Mildred but hard on "The Dorm" girls, as they do not get to know her as well as they would choose. Where is Mildred? Where is Grace? Find one and you will simultaneously have the other. Mildred and Grace work in the library every afternoon until about five o'clock. They say they must get their reference work finished.

We remember Mildred in various poses—dashing here, dashing there—she always seems busy. She is a quiet girl, but yet behind that expression is a huge store of mischief.

Enumerating a few of her virtues, she is a good dancer, good dresser, and—where some fall sadly short—a good student. Whether she will go into school teaching or matrimony we do not know—but whichever it is we wish her the very best of luck.

As the scenes of youth become treasured memories we will value Mildred's friendship as we recall her true worth.

CHARLOTTE E. MEARS

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Toddy"

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

Charlotte is one of the ambitious girls in our class. We are proud to have her as a member. She does look rather serious at times but you should get acquainted with her and you would change your opinion.

Charlotte believes

"True happiness
Consists not only in the multitude of friends
But in worth and choice."

Charlotte is a member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority and also the Dramatic Fraternity. We will not forget the gossip in "Apple Sauce."

If the class room opens at the last minute before class you may be sure it is Charlotte, because she has probably been talking to someone. Her reputation is that she can carry on a good conversation.

We are sure that we have found a true, trustworthy friend in Charlotte, and we wish her success in anything she undertakes in life.

GENEVIEVE E. MEIXELL

Bloomsburg High School
Espy, Pa.
"Gen"

Hark, did I hear a light step and a low call? Yes, it's 7:45. The Berwick bus has arrived and that small demure young lady calling me was no other than Genevieve. She was a familiar figure here in the group of old '23. Her's was a valuable and successful teaching experience and now she is back at B. S. T. C. specializing in Primary subjects. We certainly appreciate her loyalty to our college. We can always rely on "Gen" to subscribe to our school paper and contribute to any worthy cause.

"Gen" has been an active member in the Children's Literature and Current Event Clubs. She is to be seen in the library during her vacant periods. If you ask her what she is doing she invariably answers, "Oh, reference work in History and Organization of Education in Pennsylvania."

Genevieve may be one of the small and quiet members of our class, but not one to achieve insignificant results, for she has successfully crossed the goal line in four years of teaching experience.

Our best wishes go with you, "Gen." Yours is the work of starting the children of America on the highway of education. We are confident theirs will be a triumphant beginning.

MARY CAROLYN MELAN

Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Andy"

Eyes of blue,
Heart so true,
Mary, dear, that's you!

This young lady came to us with the group that entered here in our Freshman year. She is one of those good-natured girls who would do anything for a friend. As a result of her fine personality and sacrifice she has many friends whose companionship has made her life enjoyable.

Like all girls, she enjoys playing tricks on her schoolmates and it was the cleverness of these pranks that made us sit up and take notice.

She is a real student and distributes her time properly in applying herself to her work. She is very often seen in the library busily engaged in selecting material for the following day's classes.

She proved to be an all-around good sport in baseball and volleyball. She has been an active member of the First Aid Club and the Girls' Chorus.

Our love for her has been increased, if that be possible, by the little favors she obliged us by doing.

"When you go out without your umbrella, We hope that you get caught in a rain of success."

MINNIE MAE MELICK

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Minn"

Who is the tall girl who acts as though she had all day to get to class and walks so sedately? Why that is Minnie. Looks are deceiving because we notice she works hard in the library and always has her work done on time.

We are afraid she will lose her good health because she has only eaten one meal a day for some time. So far she shows no ill effects from her dieting, so we wish her success.

Now don't get the impression that Minnie never eats; we know she does. She is always telling us about the parties she attends and how good the eats are. Several times we heard about the delightful lunches served in Miss Kline's suite. Just think, they had two salads served at the same meal, too.

Our friend, Minnie, has had some experience in teaching, but she had such a liking for Geography and Social Studies that she has come back to major in those subjects, in order to be a more efficient teacher. She is one of our shining lights in those subjects and we heartily congratulate her on her pluck. Her pupils should certainly understand Social Studies with the geographical background she is able to give them.

Minnie is an active member of the Current Events Club and has participated in Local History and Geography Clubs.

TERESA MERRICK

Plains High School
Plains, Pa.
"Tess"

The door opens silently and who enters the room but "Tess." No doubt the first impression you would get of Teresa is that she is one of those quiet girls, but looks are sometimes deceiving and this is one of those times. Like most women she will talk even if she has much competition.

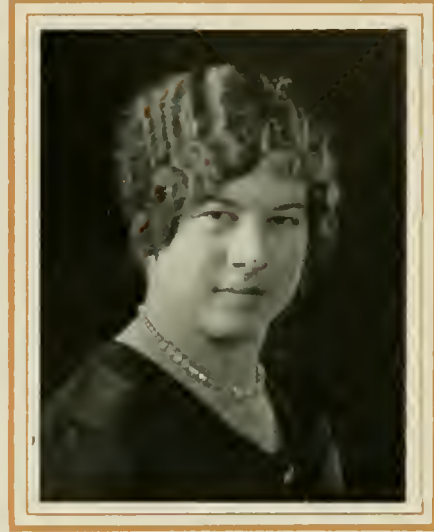

"Tess" came to us from Plains and upon her arrival made many lasting friends. However, this was to be expected, as she is good natured and always willing to help others.

Speaking of hobbies, just give "Tess" a good book and she is satisfied.

At night "feeds," "Tess" is always ready to make things jolly, and well she might, for eating is a specialty with her. "Tess" takes a great interest in her primary children. She is a diligent teacher and is seldom seen around the campus without an armful of books. Although "Tess" is a busy girl, she has found time to take an active part in the Children's Literature Club.

Teresa has been a credit to our class and we have great confidence in her future.

The best of success to you, Teresa.

NITA M. MIDDLESWORTH

Hartley Township High School
Laurelton, Pa.
"Middlesworth"

Speaking of B. S. T. C. students we must not forget Nita, a girl of a sunny disposition, just the type of student whom one likes to meet and call "friend."

Nita is a lover of music and finds great pleasure in teaching many songs to her pupils. With this great gift we are certain she will be a great success.

Whenever volleyball, baseball or tennis are mentioned, Nita is at hand to engage in these activities. She finds volleyball very interesting and many times scored a large number of points for her team by her excellent playing.

Nita is truly a loyal and conscientious student, always willing to help whenever needed, but do not think that Nita is shy or extremely quiet for she is not afraid to laugh. She does, however, believe in silent approval and through it we believe she gets her full measure of happiness.

As for her favorite expression, "Oh, My Heart," is repeated most frequently during a conversation. Perhaps she has had a disappointment at some time or other, who knows?

Because of Nita's excellent qualities we know she is sure to be an ideal teacher.

BETTY MILLER
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
Betty

No one need ask if she has personality. We all know that her winning smile and cheerful manner has won her numerous friends from both sexes.

She is a great lover of music and dancing. The girls in 461 who saw her Mississippi Mud Hops only wish everyone could have shared our view. Whenever there is a dance at school she has to send about six invitations to those Danville fellows—not all for herself, of course, because she is too generous and accommodating for that.

Music, art and handwriting seem to be her greatest pastime. They, being co-operative subjects, imply why she is such a genius in them, especially the latter two.

She is indeed athletic—very! Ask her classmates in Senior gym how she did those exercises. Hiking at Berwick and basketball at Bloomsburg were the activities in which she excelled.

Betty's worries are few and when others are trying to study she is most highly delighted if she can, in the meantime, entertain them with an original song, both words and tune. This is one way of explaining why she is an ideal roommate. The meal most enjoyed by her was breakfast, because it was the one of which she had the least.

She is a very popular student at B. S. T. C. and we are sure that she will always continue to be.

LOTTIE M. MILLER
Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
Lottie

Brown eyes and dark curly hair. That's Lottie. She is cheerful and industrious. She can be serious, as her picture will tell you, but usually she keeps us in a gale of laughter with her ready wit. Lottie's most familiar expression is, "Well, I nearly passed out."

She is always careful to put work before pleasure. She enjoys dancing and reading. Lottie is also interested in athletics, chiefly basketball, in which she stars as a guard. Last year she was a member of the Junior Champion Hockey Team. She has earned both her numerals and her "B," and consequently is a member of the "B" Club.

Lottie has chosen the Primary group as her field of work and has been successful in her student teaching. Because of her natural love of children, and her ability to direct their work, we prophesy that Lottie is going to be a very capable Primary teacher.

Her vivacious personality has won her a host of true friends, who extend their wishes for her success and happiness in the future.

BERNARD E. MOHAN
Conyngham Township High School
Aristes, Pa.
"Bernie"

As our memory drifts back to the fall of 1927 we see a young man coming into our midst. He is very shy and bashful; but it does not take long to find his way around. His pleasant disposition wins him a host of friends at B. S. T. C. He seems quiet but then wait until you become better acquainted with him.

"Bernie" is very studious, but he says that he about gets started when the lights go out. It's too bad, "Bernie," but "cheer up," you have lots of company. He is specializing in Intermediate work and we know that he will make a success of it. He is very serious in his work and we feel sure that he will make a very capable teacher.

"Bernie" is always ready for a good time. He never misses a dance, party or smoker.

He finds time to participate in other activities and especially loves baseball. He is a capable young baseball catcher with a good future.

We wish him heaps of fame and success, and also health, wealth and happiness.

AUDREY H. MOORE
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Moore"

Audrey's career at B. S. T. C. might be divided into two parts, for she lived in the "dorm" her first year and commuted her second.

PART I

"What's all that noise and confusion in 429?" Why, can't you guess? Audrey's up to some more of her tricks.

"Get a box!" yells Audrey. Oooh! I'll be right over. Don't eat without me." Take it from us, "Eat while you can for when Audrey comes—goodbye, box!"

Audrey just loves to dance. "What would school be without that dance in the gym each night?" thinks Audrey. Think we, "What would the dance be without Audrey?"

PART II

Audrey is now playing chauffeur to the Berwick gang.

Why is Audrey so late in leaving some mornings? The mail from Philadelphia isn't in yet, and she just can't leave until it comes.

Ask any of the gang, they'll tell you about the thrills she gives them each day. It isn't all of us who can knock off a couple inches of concrete from a culvert, smash the car, and still injure no one. Let Audrey tell you how she does that: it's beyond us.

ETHEL MOORE
 Hazleton High School
 Nescopeck, Pa.
 Ethel "Moorey"

"Has the mail come yet? Did I get any?" You can be sure of hearing Ethel asking these questions about the time for mail. There is always a letter for her from —. She spends her spare moments answering and pondering over these letters.

Ethel has a variety of interests at school. She divided her time between basketball, hockey, tennis, the Mixed Chorus and Glee Club. Her ability and conscientiousness have won her a place in all of her activities. Greatest of all her activities are eating and dancing. She never misses an afternoon dance or refreshments. But with all these activities, she did not neglect her studies.

"Moorey" has a pleasing personality, for she has proven to be a firm friend and pal to all of us. Perhaps that is why she makes such a good teacher. But even if her teaching is so successful we doubt that her years in her chosen profession will be very numerous.

Here's wishing you the best of luck, happiness and success throughout life.

DOROTHY MORGAN
 Forty-Fort High School
 Forty-Fort, Pa.
 "Dot"

"Dot" appears to be quiet, but appearances are often deceptive. Whenever there is a good time to be had she is always ready for it. She is studious and still has time for fun. Almost every night, after the lights are out, she can be seen in the lobby studying.

The Mu Phi Sigma Sorority claims her as their own. Ask any of her sorority sisters and they will tell you of her artistic and social abilities. She is a valued member of the Girls' Chorus and the Y. W. C. A.

"Dot" is fond of athletics, especially tennis. She received her numerals in her Freshman year.

"Dot" can be seen almost every afternoon in Bush's, because of her incurable weakness for "cakes."

Dancing holds a great charm for "Dot" and so, every night, she is in the gym dancing to the latest music. She certainly can step!

As for her teaching. We have no fears that she has erred in choosing her profession. We wish her the greatest possible success and happiness.

HENRY C. MORGAN
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Hienie"

Nanticoke sends to our school a large delegation of students. "Hienie" is one of the outstanding.

We first met "Hienie" on the football field and, although he is small, he stuck to the game and gave the Varsity plenty of trouble in the scrimmages. Next came basketball and "Hienie" was there again. He proved to us that short fellows may be good basketball players also. Next in sports comes baseball and here again we find our "Hienie." He pitched a number of games, including a twelve inning game in which we beat Mansfield, 6 to 5.

"Hienie" is a letter-man in both basketball and baseball. The Omega Chi Fraternity and the Nanticoke Club count him as one of their most active members. With all of this outside activity "Hienie" also has a creditable scholastic standing.

He is always in need of sleep, but he also has his pleasant smile and we must not forget his curly hair. "Hienie" seems to have no special attraction in the school, although he is a good dancer. Still we think he has some attraction in Lee Park, because every time that he gets a chance he "bums" the highway up the river.

We know that "Hienie's" smile and ways will win an honorable place for him in the teaching profession, so here's wishing you good luck, "Hienie."

KATHRYN E. MORTON
Dunmore High School
Lake Arlet, Pa.
"Mort"

Flaming hair, dimples round,
Great big shining eyes of brown,
She's not too short, she's not too tall,
She's just a girl well liked by all.

Whenever you hear "Whoopie" you can be sure that Kathryn is around. When we meet her, the first thing we notice is her sweet disposition. She has a jolly laugh for all she meets, and as a result she has many friends.

"Mort" has chosen Primary work. Judging from her interest in a certain young person in Berwick, we know she will not be a failure as a Primary teacher.

Kathryn is a very industrious girl. She never gives up until she has done her best. It is this quality of hers that will insure success.

"Mort" showed a great liking for athletics; she served on both the basketball and hockey teams. Whenever there was cheering, Kathryn was one of the leaders.

May the best of success be yours, Kathryn, in all of your undertakings.

MARY FRANCES MORTON

Berwick High School
Penn Hall, Chambersburg
Berwick, Pa.

Generous, kind, true—these three words describe Mary Frances, one of our Berwick girls. Every morning and afternoon a new green Ford can be seen on the road from Berwick to Bloomsburg. If you look closely, you will see that Mary Frances is driving it. She always has someone with her. No matter where you want to go, just tell her and she will take you there. She is not only generous with her car but also in sharing her lunch (if you should leave yours in the bus), and in leaving you wear her red jacket.

She is always ready to enter into any fun-making.

Her chief ambition is to be a governess. We sincerely hope for her success and happiness in her chosen work.

She often speaks about Penn Hall, but we are quite sure that B. S. T. C. has found a place in her heart.

IRENE A. MOSS

J. M. Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Irene"

Here she is! Look several times, for her most intimate friends will grant you that her friendship for them was not won at a single glance. Probably the greatest attraction to her roommate first—was "eats." We were not there once, but always; and so were the eats.

Oh! what a sport she is. If she does not earn her "B," it will not be because she has not worked for it. No—she hikes whether it rains or shines. And as for tennis, she says, "What difference does it make who wins? Someone has to." Perhaps it is a good thing she feels that way about it.

When she came to school she said she was never going to dance. But then, other great dancers once said the same thing.

It has always been said by those who know and love her that she is a real friend. There are so many things to say about you, Irene, that we, your friends and classmates, can only say, we wish you the most successful career possible in the teaching profession.

MYRON MOSS
Shickshinny High School
Broadway, Pa.
"Mossy"

"Mossy," as he is called by a host of friends, began his work at Bloomsburg during the summer session of 1925, coming from the big city of Broadway. During his first summer here he became a member of the "Hash Slingers."

Indeed, while he is home he goes out about every night, and he got so used to it that he tried going out one morning, but it didn't work. He runs a close second with C. A. Harrison. He is very popular around the place by the name of "Roaring Brook," an attraction among the ladies, and one especially by the name of Viola.

"Mossy" is a great hunter and trapper. One day the boys said, "Well, 'Mossy,' deer season is out, and you didn't get a deer." He spoke up and said, "Season is 'IN' all the time with me. I have a deer."

He is a good baseball player. When he gets up to bat the ball he is sure to make a home run. We all give him credit for being a good baseball player and a good student. We wish him the best of success in this wide world.

GRACE LUCILLE MUMAW
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
Grace

No doubt that Grace knows her "notes." Doesn't she sing in the chorus? However, it's interesting to notice two kinds of "notes," those sung for conveying expression of soul and those written for the same purpose. Yes, Grace, knows her notes. Frosh remarks, which notes? Such remarks are expected from Frosh.

We ask, "Why does 'Gracie' have an unlimited passion for brutish men?" Meaning not college boys, but football heroes. Incidentally, the pig-skin carriers meant are not the Wyoming Sem. eleven. 'Nough said. Grace sure does tackle her man well. Watch him "hit the line." Bell System being used.

Grace carries a bell which tinkles at unexpected times, a giggle defying the sternest eyes. It's this cheerful attitude that keeps her working without complaints. As for her friends, Grace is rivaled only by the Good Samaritan's Spirit. Anyone would be better for having enjoyed Grace's friendship. Amid much of the insincerity and "make-believe" of today, it is a rare and sincere thing.

Knowing her as we do, we cannot help but earnestly wish her happiness and contentment as a teacher of "mischievous chips off the old blocks."

ELIZABETH I. MUNSON

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Betty"

"Betty" looks as though she is very quiet, but when you get acquainted with her you will find that she is full of fun. She is a very steadfast friend and is always ready to assist those who need aid. We often wonder why "Betty" becomes so interested when she hears someone say "Bethany." All that is necessary is to question the postman and he will solve the problem.

"Betty's" ambition is to be a successful teacher for several years. Then she will accept the position of being a minister's wife. But whatever you do, "Betty," we wish you good luck.

Her joys in life are only three,
A minister, good eats, and me.
The last is good, the second great,
But the first is where she met her fate.

JOY MUNSON

Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.

If there is ever a loving girl in college, Joy is one. It would be hard to find a sweeter girl than Joy. But take advice from some one who knows, when she says a thing she means it. And the same with her work. When a task is put before her, whether easy or hard, she goes at it with all her might and usually accomplishes it. Did you ever hear her laugh? Well, she is just about as bad as Uncle Josh, for she never knows when to stop. Joy's smiles are plentiful, too. They are not to be wasted on just anyone, but upon school children who will appreciate them more. Doesn't that tell you that she expects to be an old maid? But, I doubt it, for already she receives letters from someone.

No matter what turns up, Joy's motto will always be:

Work comes first,
Pleasure next.
Then someday
I'll find rest.

PAULINE E. NELSON
Thompson High School
Starrucca, Pa.
"Prindy"

Pauline believes in the saying, "The less said, the more accomplished." Yes, she is a quiet girl, but she doesn't sit back and let the rest have all the fun. Her favorite saying is, "Oh, you're the pruniest thing." Judging from former instances, her bark is worse than her bite.

Amiable, helpful, industrious and jolly—that's Pauline. As a Freshman, she participated notably in athletics, receiving her "B" with a few extra points to her credit. You should see her play basketball.

If you ever feel a breeze from someone passing and hear snatches from one of the latest songs, you'll know that it is Pauline. She can make the birds stop singing when she starts tuning her "sax." Last year's orchestra certainly did enjoy her assistance. She also took part in the Mixed Chorus. Yes, sir! When you want a friend and a jolly old sport to pal around with, look for Pauline.

"Brown eyes, brown hair,
Gentle ways, never a care,
A pleasant smile, full of fun,
A girl who's loved by every one."

FREDA NOVAK
Centrat High School
Scranton, Pa.
Freda

Freda is one of a large group of girls who come from Scranton.

During her Freshman year she was a little lonesome, but when her sister, Edna (who is enough like her to be her twin), joined her in her second year, her happiness was complete.

Everyone who knows Freda likes her. She has a naturally friendly disposition. She believes in the saying, "If you would have a friend, be one." Her popularity extended not only to B. S. T. C., but to down town as well. During her Senior year, while she was doing her practice teaching at Berwick, she was elected the President of the Berwick girls.

Freda does not believe in going at anything half-heartedly. Her work in school was proof of that.

In the spring of her Freshman year, Freda became very much interested in tennis. At all hours of the day one could find her out on the courts engaged in her favorite sport.

All of her classmates will remember her as one of the sweetest and most likeable girls in the class of '29.

Her favorite expression was, "Everything is rosy and the goose hangs high." We hope everything will always be "rosy" for Freda.

DOROTHEA O'CONNELL

Kingston High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Dot"

Black hair, blue eyes, a sunny smile and a charming personality. Just the reasons why this flashing beauty from Kingston is so popular.

During her two years, "Dot" has won many friends and is loved by all. Her keen sense of humor and ready wit is known all over the dormitory.

Last year we thought she would be satisfied with the opposite sex from North Hall, but we were wrong, because she likes to be a H. P. Q. at Penn State. You should see those blue eyes shine when a letter arrives from Penn State or White Haven.

She is very punctual with her assignments and excels in all her subjects.

She is Vice President of the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority, and I guess you know we couldn't manage without her. The Harp Club considers "Dot" as a very valuable member.

She is also an active member of the First Aid Club, House Committee, and Dramatic Club.

MARY O'DONNELL

St. Gabriel's High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Shorty"

Mary is a true case of "still water flows deep." "Mum" is the word, but try to put anything over on Mary. Oh, yes, she's Irish; blue eyes and brown hair. Sure she's Irish—listen to this: One day she was expecting mail from??? Well, I guess it was "Ed." She asked her roommate, "Did you get any mail for me?" Her roommate said, "Well, what's your name?" Mary wisely replied, "You'll find it on the envelope." Now try and put anything over on the Irish. It simply can't be done.

Mary went to Berwick to do her student teaching. Did she like it? No—you see here's the whole trouble. When the 6:45 bell rang, Mary had to get up. Sad, wasn't it? By the way, she didn't like the meals. Can you beat that? Well, here is the reason: She didn't get enough to eat. Poor Mary. Just tell Mary you have a box and here's her answer: "I'll be over at 9:30 sharp. I'm going to take a nap now because—Oh, dear, I'm so tired." Off she goes to sleep.

Well, don't worry about that, Mary—of course you won't we know. Here's hoping you like to teach, even if you don't like to sleep and eat???????

EVELYN J. OLVER
Honesdale High School
Beach Lake, Pa.
"Evy"

When Evelyn came to us from the Beach Lake and Honesdale High Schools she brought with her a famous smile which soon won us. She is one of the few girls who are popular in many groups. The reason is evident. She follows with never a waver the code of finest sportsmanship and honor. As the vanquished, she never hesitates to admit her defeat and to congratulate her opponents; as the victor, she is generous and unassuming. As captain of the teams she has participated in every athletic feature which the College offers.

She has been President of the Girls' Chorus, Vice President of the Geographic Society, and a member of the Sewing Club. Her scholarship has not suffered as a result of these activities and undoubtedly there is a brilliant future for her in the field of mathematics.

As a friend, she is loyal, trustworthy, dependable and always full of joy.

MARJORIE ORR
Shickshinny High School
Huntingdon Mills, Pa.
"Marge"

Don't you know "Marge?" Why, of course you do! Everyone knows "Marge."

She came here in the fall of '25 as a verdant Freshman, but soon made her way into the hearts of student body and faculty alike. She has been among the best of students for four years and yet had much time for other activities. She has participated in many extra-curricular clubs and has always been a leader in school affairs.

She is a popular member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority.

Marjorie has proved her worth as a future member of the teaching profession in her practice teaching done last year in the Bloomsburg Junior-Senior High School. She has proved her worth as a citizen in a community by her hearty co-operation and leadership in all worth-while projects of the school. She has made herself indispensable in dining room, class room, committee and social functions. Want anything done? Ask "Marge"!

At school—

Not only books, yet a student fine,
Few toed her high-drawn line.
Many loved her for real worth,
Great and generous, full of mirth.

SARAH ELEANOR PEARCE
Mt. Carmel High School
Kulpmont, Pa.
"Sally"

Here we have "Sally." She has many friends in our college who will regret the day when their ways will part. She has won those friends through the magnetic personality that she possesses. Every time you see "Sal" she always has a smile ready for you. Never a day passes without a song and a cheery smile. She is an all-around good student, but she is exceptionally good in music. We often wonder if it were merely her voice that won for her the A's in music. We hope to hear that some day she will be a singer of great renown. She often displays this talent of singing in the gym class.

Every time that "Sally's" mother comes to visit her she brings a box of eats, which are appreciated by many of her friends. When her birthday arrived we had no trouble devouring the angel-food cake and many other eatables. We certainly wish that more birthdays would soon arrive, then perhaps we would have enough to eat for a while.

"Sally" made quite a few trips to Bucknell. Well, why not? She must have a strong motive in back of it.

Here's wishing you the best of luck and success in all that you undertake.

MARGARET CATHERINE PEIFER
Mifflinville Vocational School
Mifflinville, Pa.
"Peg"

"Peg" is one of the Mifflinville "gang." No one could fail to recognize her with her black, hopped hair and black eyes which are brimming over with mischief. She is a sport in every sense of the word, be it in basketball or in the gym, where she officiates at the piano in place of an orchestra, that we may enjoy dancing after lunch. Although she plays the piano, she must have a turn at dancing, which is her pet hobby.

"Peg" is particularly interested in Art and her one ambition is to be an Art teacher. She is especially talented along that line. She has chosen the Primary group upon which to center her attention and we feel sure she will be a success, for she just loves the kiddies.

Her own failing is laughing. She surely has a hearty laugh and she makes every one around her laugh. May she always keep such a disposition. You have the best wishes of the class of '29.

MABEL G. PENMAN
Hazleton High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Penny"

O, where! O, where, is my little "Penny" gone? Oh, there she is. That little girl with the flashing blue eyes, and an impish little dimple, is she. Like a had penny, she always turns up, especially when food is within reach. She has been a petite but very essential part of that "old gang," which has back-hall for its abode.

It has been said that good things come in small packages. Who is there to deny this adage after knowing our "Penny"? She may seem shy to some, but "The Gang" has our hopes never to find her so. She's really "the life of the party," once she gets started.

Ssh, it's a secret. But we wonder why "Penny" has that weakness for a certain popular vehicle used for conveyance. And why she seems so electrified when a certain whistle is heard.

"Penny," with all her pep and vivacity is one of our most conscientious workers.

She is secretary of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, an active member of the Dramatic Club and Mixed Chorus.

We'll miss you, "Penny."

ALICE B. PENNINGTON
Millville Vocational High School
Millville, Pa.
Alice

"In smiling, not moping;
In knowing, not hoping;
In being, not seeming;
In working, not dreaming."

Alice finds life worthwhile.

Alice is one of the most capable and popular girls of the four-year group. Her scholarship record has always been above question and her attitude toward others is the best. She is conscientious in regard to all things, never slighting her work for pleasure.

She is a most delightful friend and a popular member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority.

She has been an active leader in the work of Student Government since its introduction. If you want a capable chairman for a committee, a good student, an industrious worker or a true friend, go to Alice. She is all that and more.

Many extra-curricular clubs have profited by her membership, but to none other has she given the loyalty and support that she has given to the "Bloomsburg Players." She is also a member of the National Dramatic Fraternity, having been enrolled during her Junior year.

WINIFRED PETEKOFSKY

Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Winnie"

"Winnie" has a smile for everyone,
Always ready for some fun.
First a giggle, then a grin;
"Winnie," now what have you been in?

It is indeed a pleasure to have in our Senior class a girl like "Winnie." She's a very nice person and full of fun. You're liable to hear from her anytime, for nothing humorous ever passes without first being registered by her giggle. "Winnie" is small, slender and brown eyed, and is very much interested in aviation. We wonder why? Is it a "he," "Winnie?" We hope he has brown eyes and black hair, since that's the type that you prefer. The three musketeers are waiting patiently for the day when their little aviatrix will take them for their first flight. It won't be long now. "Winnie's" motto is, "Some think the world is made for fun and frolic and so do I." She certainly does live up to it. When "Winnie" starts to giggle no studying is ever done. May she win much fame in the teaching world and not forget us when she becomes a successful school teacher.

CAROLINE E. PETRULLO

Northumberland High School
Northumberland, Pa.
"Carrie"

From Northumberland High School came a jolly, good-natured, curly-haired lass "Carrie."

She is an all-around good sport and pal; always ready to help anyone. Her loving disposition and kindheartedness are but a part of her charming personality.

"Carrie's" favorite pastime, besides waiting, is dancing. She can also sing, as was seen by her ably taking part in Mixed Chorus and the Glee Club. She is also interested in sports. She was a member of the hockey and volleyball teams. We know that "Carrie" has all the best qualities for teaching, but we would not feel safe in prophesying that she will teach for a very long time—five years, so she says—because of a "special case" that has arisen concerning a certain party in New Jersey. She regrets that the mail service between New Jersey and Bloomsburg is so slow (something faster than the air mail ought to be invented).

She constantly talks of her wishes in later life. May all your dreams come true, "Carrie." Here's luck to you, "Carrie," in whatever you do, whether it be teaching or—anything else.

LEO A. POLNASIK
Newport High School
Wanamie, Pa.
"Plack"

Why do the girls stop and inquire, "Who is that fellow?" "Oh! that is 'Plack.' Everyone knows him." One great characteristic of "Plack" is his fondness for the weaker sex, and for the past year his time has been spent on one certain young lady.

"Plack" has taken the Intermediate Group as his line of work and likes it well. Can you imagine him as a school master? At any rate that is his one ambition; and so, of course, he will succeed, for whatever he tries, always comes out successful. He is quite a student. We know that by the result of his diligent work. What kind of a teacher will he be? Well, we assure you that we see success dawning at the threshold of his life's work. What else could it be with such an earnest worker, possessing such fascinating qualities.

Aside from being a diligent student, "Plack" is a lover of sports. He enjoys taking his pals in a love set at tennis. "Plack" loves dancing and never misses an opportunity to attend a dance.

He has taken an active part as a member of various clubs and committees. He never hesitates to aid anyone in their work. We will always remember him as a good sport, a true friend, and a willing helper to all in need. Good luck, "Plack."

CHARLES POOLE
Newport Township High School
Alden Station, Pa.
"Chubby"

Sixty-seven inches of good humor, a hearty laugh and lots of "IT"—that's "Chubby" all over. His two-year stay here has proven his ability along lines and—more lines. Why this chap never went out for basketball is more than a puzzle to us. Perhaps he'd prefer spending his time on his studies or writing letters? But coming back to the subject he did play a great game in the class games. He should have been nicknamed "Mercury."

Teaching, business or what-not that "Chubby" will engage in after leaving here, he'll be a success. Why? I'll tell you, because he is 100% pep. Studying, dancing, playing or whatever it is, "Chubby" is in heart and soul, and therein lies the secret of having so many friends.

"Chubby" made quite a reputation in his practice teaching. He'll not be content until he obtains that Ph.D. Who knows, perhaps he'll be the head of some college; he will if a certain maid will have her way.

We have no fears of "Chubby" failing in later life; he has proven to us that he is capable of taking care of himself.

STELLA POPLOSKI

Hanover Township Memorial High School
Hanover Township, Pa.
"Stell" "Pop"

Charming—You Bet!
Taken—Not Yct?
Clever—I'll Say!!
Funny—All Day!!!

Conscientious—Stella—conscientious to the nth degree. She never lets her conscience interfere with her good times—but there—her good times never run contrary to her conscience. If you meet someone coming along at high speed and in a very business like manner. You can always depend on that.

"Stell" is an active person athletically, as well as scholastically. She participated in many sports during her short stay here, among the ones that she was most prominent are hockey, basketball and baseball. Hockey seems to be her hobby, for she helped the Senior team attain the championship. "Stell" was also a member of the Girls' Glee Club and Campfire Girls.

Stella means star,
We hope you will be,
We know you are
A star at your chosen profession,
With luck and joy ruling all.

RACHEL W. PRATT

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Pratty"

If coming through the corridor we hear someone singing we can, at once, recognize it to be "Pratty." At first, one would think she was very quiet, but after you know her, you are under a different impression altogether. If you want to meet a true, loyal pal, get acquainted with "Pratty." Her disposition is a drawing force to everyone.

She ranks high in her scholastic activities.

Her choice in the teaching profession is Primary work, and we are sure that she will make a success of it, for with such a disposition how could she fail to win the hearts of the "kiddies" in the Primary grades. She is not only popular with the "kiddies," but also with the students at B. S. T. C.

The Alpha Delta claims "Pratty" as one of its own. She also is a member of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, Dramatic Club and the Nanticoke Club.

The wish that is extended to her by her classmates is to attain the goal for which she is striving.

"Here's to the girl with mischievous eyes,
With close cropped hair and ready smile,
She will attain what she desires
In this world that's so worthwhile."

ELEANOR PULSON
 Sugar Notch High School
 Sugar Notch, Pa.
 "Pulson"

True pal, good-natured, kind and friendly are the outstanding traits of a dear friend we call "Pulson."

In a chain of hardships and difficulties that are to be mastered, "Pulson" is sure to put the link in the proper place.

Sympathetic? Well, I guess. A down-hearted roommate or friend will always be consoled by the welcome phrase of "Pulson's" "Come, let mother love you."

Eleanor has participated successfully in the Girls' Glee Club and First Aid. She also played hockey, baseball and volleyball. As to her scholastic standing, she ranks high. She is a girl who believes in the motto, "Work before play." Although "Pulson" is a steady worker she never neglects the amusements and enjoyments that the college offers. Whenever there is a party or social affair to be sponsored, "Pulson" is always ready with suggestions.

Success is above all standards in "Pulson's" line. Without a doubt or difficulty, Eleanor will reach her goal. We are all wishing the best for you.

CORA ALICE RABUCK
 Sunbury High School
 Sunbury, Pa.
 "Alice"

Sweet, vivacious, witty and red haired—it would take a great many more adjectives to describe "Alice," but these will produce a general impression. "Alice" comes from Sunbury, a fact which a few minutes conversation with her will confirm.

Last year she came to our midst a very quiet, serious girl. The many friends which she has made have found, that under her seriousness, she is a good sport and full of fun. She is very studious and always places her work first, but after the work is done who could wish for a better and finer companion.

Her interest seems to be centered around an "Oliver," and he doesn't come from an olive tree, either. She has chosen the teaching of the children in the Primary grades for her life's work. She has been very successful in her practice teaching, and we feel certain she will be just as successful in her own school. Because of her personality she has many friends, and the children are very fond of her.

May your life be like a radio, "Alice," fine and clear and omitting all static.

RUTH RARIG

Locust Township High School
Numidia, Pa.
"Ruth Ann"

"Ruth Ann" has acquired many friends since her arrival at B. S. T. C. Her friendly smile and charming personality have made her very popular with everyone. If you like entertainment in the form of stories about airplane rides, then go to Ruth. She is well supplied with information about airplanes and aviators!

We can always tell when Ruth is pleased with her share of mail. She comes away from the mail box with sparkling eyes that seem to tell you she is thrilled over the contents of her letter.

We have found, too, that Ruth likes a certain kind of curtain—at least she entertained quite a number of girls on fourth floor last year by an exhibition of a parade with a curtain!!!

Ruth is quite experienced in the art of flirting and uses her eyes to great advantage at all times. However, she allows nothing to develop from this, perhaps because of a certain follower of "Lindy."

Sports and dancing also enter into Ruth's activities. It is certain that when a good time is to be had, Ruth is ready for it.

The Mu Phi Sigma Sorority has been fortunate in having Ruth as a member.

Since she is as good a scholar as she is a sport, we have no doubt as to success in her chosen profession.

PAULINE REECE

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.

Poor Pauline!!

We pity poor Pauline.
Just now she's as free as free as can be.
We wonder how it all will be
When she is teaching in the country.

Poor Pauline!!

Pauline is another one of our "blondes." She is an industrious and very capable school "marm." She is looking forward to the day when she will be her own boss. Won't those kiddies have to step around! She'll know all about the butterflies, snakes, and the wriggly worms that the boys find on their way to school.

We know that Pauline will not continue her work in the teaching field very long. That particular party rings the little cottage door-bell too many times a week. Such happenings as this couldn't permit this sweet little blonde to remain an "old maid" school teacher. However, we feel sure that she will be a success, both as a school teacher and a wife. Both have been thoroughly discussed at B. S. T. C. We all noticed that Pauline was particularly interested in the matrimonial discussions. Never mind, Pauline, some of the rest of us are just jealous because we aren't as lucky as you.

Pauline spent her leisure hours playing hockey and basketball. She was also a member of the Children's Literature Club.

ARCHIBALD REESE
Scranton Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Arch"

For two years "Arch's" hearty laughs have echoed in North Hall. Though naturally of a cheerful disposition, "Arch" has proven himself conscious by attaining the heights of the Freshman class. To become President of a class is an attainment worth while.

Hailing from the city where they say brilliant boys and beautiful women grow, "Arch" appears the testimonial to the former and he is always ready to talk about the latter.

Spare, blue-eyed, black curly hair, "Arch" is not only a good scholar but also an athlete. At football he proved that a good "end" does not necessarily have to be big and husky. He certainly did work hard for that coveted "B."

"Arch" is also musically inclined, his main hobby is to tickle the "keys" of his cornet. He was one of the famous "50." Although he is kept busy with his daily work he manages to find time to throw out a "line" each night to a certain party. Practice makes perfect, thus we do not doubt that "Arch" is a perfect letter writer.

MILDRED REHM
Bloomsburg High School
Bloomsburg, Pa.
"Milly"

Mildred is one of the happy girls that has kept the College Hill warm for the past four years, and now that she has successfully completed her four-year course she will receive her B.S. degree.

Through her entire course, Mildred has been an excellent student, and surely success will follow her everywhere that she goes. As a student teacher she certainly was good. A demonstration of this fact—ask anyone "Who substitutes in the High School when another teacher is ill?" The answer will be "Miss Rehm."

Besides being a faithful member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority, she also has the distinction as being a charter member of the Alpha Psi Omega, an honorary Dramatic Fraternity. Everyone will agree that "Milly" is one of the bright lights on the stage at B. S. T. C., and everyone knows that the success of a great number of plays depended on her.

Mildred gives most of her time to her school work in which she has succeeded very well. She is one of the resourceful types that always has a ready answer for everything.

With her experience and personality Mildred should be very successful.

EDNA REYNOLDS
Clarks Summit High School
Clarks Summit, Pa.
Edna

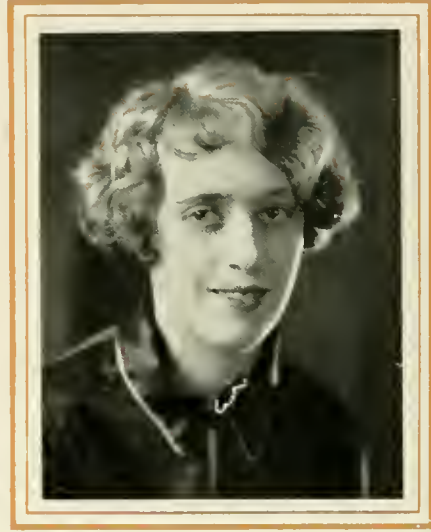

Graduating from Clarks Summit High School with honors, Edna has continued her fine record during the two years at Bloomsburg.

This was not the first school she attended. Previous to coming here she spent three years in Bible training, completing this work by a trip through the Holy Lands, Mediterranean countries, and Europe. Later she continued her Bible work by traveling extensively through western United States, making an especial study in the missionary field.

We have found Edna to be a "real" friend. At all times of the day you might hear various shouts from every part of the dormitory, demanding Edna's help with outlines, charts, imaginary pictures, and all sorts of bug bears to most students. Again you might hear a call for quick surgery. Everything considered she is a Jack and Master of all trades.

Her public experience has been varied. While at school she found time to teach a college girls' Bible class and also a large class of women at the M. E. Church. Occasionally she has even substituted for ministers.

Edna is planning to work for her degree at a university next year.

MILDRED REA RIDALL
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.

The lone little blonde girl of our gang from Berwick is Mildred. That she is different from the rest of us, by being the only blonde, does not say that she is not well liked, for she has many friends.

It is often said, "Gentlemen prefer blondes." Mildred has proven this. Being a blonde is not the only thing that makes her popular. She is a good sport and always smiling, even though the skies are gray.

She took an active part in basketball, baseball and hiking during her Freshman year. She was also a member of the Camp-fire Girls.

Mildred is at present being missed by all her friends, for she is doing her student teaching in Berwick. Her faith in and love for little children, also her plans toward helping them to go forward in their work, explain why Mildred is taking the Primary course. We all wish Mildred the best of success and happiness in everything she undertakes.

MARGARET AGNES RILEY

Saint Gabriel's High School
Hazleton, Pa.
"Peg"

"Peg" is a member of the Hazleton aggregation. She is full of fun and one is sure to have a good time when with her. She can always be very serious when the right time comes. Study?—"Peg" is generally ready to help others get theirs out, too.

As for her teaching, we have no fears that she has erred in choosing her profession. There is no doubt about it—"Peg"—she certainly won't have any trouble in disciplining her pupils, and for some reason they always put forth their best efforts.

"Peg" has secrets as well as the rest of us. She doesn't bother her head about men while here at school, but we wonder why she goes home every week-end. There's a reason for everything, so we have hope that her's is a good one.

The Tau Kappa Phi, the Children's Literature Club and the Current Events Club all claim her as an active member.

All in all, she's a wonderful girl, a true friend and a good sport, so here's luck and success to our friend, "Peg."

ROBERT RODDA

Nantioke High School
Nantioke, Pa.
"Rodda"

In every great school we must have some one who does the least spectacular work, so that the school may succeed. One of the most indispensable ones is "Rodda." He works faithfully at whatever task he is at—yet, we find him performing another quiet duty—or, shall we say—pleasure, namely chaperoning the fair sex.

A heap of curly black hair and a wicked smile go to make "Bob" a real fellow. His real hobby is pressing suits; and man—what a crease that boy can make—perhaps that is why the girls are attracted to him—"Clothes often make the man."

"Bob" has expectations of studying for a degree. We know that he will never be satisfied until he becomes a "Prof."

All kidding aside, this lad will be a success in this cruel, cold world.

MARY ALICE ROSS
 Sunbury High School
 Sunbury, Pa.
 "Tiny"

A quiet kind of girl,
 Of whom it may be said,
 Has something more than nonsense
 Lying underneath her head.

Do you know the light-haired twins?
 Well, "Tiny" is one of them. Her roommate is the other.

Quiet? Well, she is when you first meet her, but she is very jolly when you really know her. She has an adorable smile, and watching it is a source of enjoyment to all her friends. Oh!—and then the dim-ples, we mustn't forget them.

Her favorite sports are basketball, baseball and hockey. She was one of the members of the Junior Champion Hockey Team.

"Tiny" was an active member of the First Aid Club during her Senior year.
 During her Freshman year she was an active member of the Y. W. C. A., the Girls'
 Glee Club and the Dining Room Club.

Although "Tiny" was not with us in the "dorm" the first semester, she feels quite at home to be with us now.

We know that "Tiny" has all the qualities of a good teacher and we feel sure that she will teach for a long time to come.
 She is preparing herself to teach in the Primary grades. If her success in the future will be as successful as the past, we may be assured of the progress of the future generation.

LOUISE ROUSHEY

Kings-ton Township High School
 Truicksville, Pa.

She is quiet, she is kind,
 She has something on her mind.

Is it studies, well I guess,
 For she is in-dus-tri-ous.

She is pleasant, she is wise,
 Sees all things with open eyes.

She sure is a sportsman true,
 Always doing something new.

First in hockey, then in basketball,
 And she is true to one and all.

When to Berwick she did go,
 Oh! We all did miss her so.

She likes college we all know,
 For doesn't she always tell us so.

Love her, sure, we always will,
 We sure will promise to fulfill.

The class of '29 wish the very best success in your work.

CHARLES S. ROVENOLT

Turbotville High School
Turbotville, Pa.

Short and chubby, full of pep and ambition—that's "Rovenolt" all over. Big things come in small packages. Now "Charlie" may be small in stature but he's big in heart, big in mind; in fact, he's big in everything he does.

He is possessed of a great desire to lead a glee club or an orchestra, that is why he is a member of the Baton Club. Who knows—perhaps some day he will be leading a symphony orchestra.

"Rovenolt" has no desire to obtain "grid-iron glory," but would rather spend his time on his studies, or else drive his Ford. Somewhere this chap has somebody waiting for him, for every week-end he hot foots it home.

One pleasant character trait of "Rovenolt's" is his keen interest in the affairs of the school. He did good work as President of the Rural Club. Then there is the school orchestra, in which his cornet and he have rendered valuable assistance.

It matters not where this chap will roam—he'll make good in any port. Life holds great things in store for him.

MILDRED I. RUCK

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Mil"

"Mil" is another of those girls with whom it takes a long time to become acquainted; but when you do so—it is more than worth the trouble. "Mil's" just a different sort of a girl, the kind they make and then throw the pattern away. She has her own ideas about right and wrong, and does wrong often enough to make things interesting. She went out for hockey, baseball, volleyball and hiking, but as to tennis we wonder how "Mil" would look with a racket in her hand. Imagine two years at B. S. T. C. without a single visit to the tennis courts!

"Mil" is lucky that she doesn't have to reduce—we realize this when, after having searched high and low for her, we came upon her among a bunch of pillows, reading, and invariably—eating. And to the greatest envy of her friends she remains slim.

While the rest of us meekly hope for one letter a day, Mildred just naturally counts on three. And when someone hands her about four, she inquires, "Is this all?" But that soon passes as she notes the post-marks—one from Kingston, one from Berwick, and one, of course, from home. Any others are welcome as extras, but these three must be there.

No wonder "Mil" made such a success of practice teaching with such an inspiration as that to start the day. Here's hoping her future teaching will be just as successful.

HELEN RUCKLE
Orangeville High School
Orangeville, Pa.

Helen is a member of the "down town" aggregation. She is full of pep and fun, as one can readily see by glancing at her big black eyes.

Although very studious, still she does not neglect any of her social activities. Someone says that her chief ambition is to become a manager of—well, we would rather not say. Just the same we know what a good teacher Helen is going to make, that is, if blond sheiks go out of existence.

Helen is the type that looks very dignified, but you should hear her in the Girls' Locker Room. Her laugh is just as hearty as the rest. Helen sure was a help when it came to buying the new victrola for the Locker Room. Who knows? Perhaps anyone else would not have been so successful as she.

We will remember Helen as one of the Locker gang and wish you all the success in the world.

RUTH A. SCANLON
Weatherly High School
Weatherly, Pa.
"Scanlon"

"Scanlon" entered smiling through the portals of Bloomsburg with her coy airs so beguiling. We wondered at her fate. We should have known better than to wonder for we should have known that she would go through classes, dances and dates smiling.

When "Scanlon" first came to Bloomsburg she thought she liked theatres, but it was not long until she decided she would rather be a H. P. Q. I guess you know! Her popularity is proven by the frequent write-ups in the Bucknellian.

She is very efficient in running errands (that is, when she has any one to send). To make "Scanlon" still more beloved to her Alma Mater she contributed much to the success of the Senior class play, "Applesauce," by taking the leading role. Also "Scanlon" lends herself and her efforts to the Phi Gamma Tau's and the First Aid Club.

"Scanlon," we wish you all the success in the world and we hope that all your dreams and ambitions materialize in the future!

PEARL SCHELL

Foster Township High School
Nuremberg, Pa.
"Schelly" "Pearly"

Some might say that Pearl is one of the quiet girls of our class, to all appearances, but just get to know her and you soon change your mind. She is always ready for a good time but believes in keeping up with her work, too.

"Schelly" tries to tell us that she wants to grow tall; perhaps that is the reason she is never absent when there is anything good to eat around or when she gets some of that delicious home-made candy from home.

"Schelly" is very fond of every type of athletics. She proved this in her Freshman year playing for the championship in basketball. You see her on the hockey field, tennis courts, in basketball, in baseball and in volleyball. You can also find Pearl in the gymnasium every night after dinner, for she likes dancing.

Pearl has all the treats of a good friend; she is dependable, loyal and true. What more could one wish for a pal?

Whatever you do or wherever you go, Pearl, remember that our best wishes and love go with you.

HAZEL MARGARET SCHERER

Old Forge High School
Old Forge, Pa.
"Boots"

Here is another of our tiny girls whose appearance denotes modesty and quietness, but we find appearances deceiving, for Hazel is generally present when we have fun on third floor. Fun is a mild form of the work for I'm sure "high old times" would suit it better.

We missed "Boots" just lots the first eighteen weeks, for she decided to stay in Berwick for that length of time. Can it be possible there is some attraction up there?

Could we have done without her on our basketball team? I'll say not, for she sure could toss that ball.

She was quiet, but then "still water runs deep," as was proven by her receiving a letter from a certain person every day. She thinks that name "Al" is just "It," and we were sure there was a big reason back of it until she paid a visit to Ringtown and met a certain "Biney." What's up, "Boots," old dear?

Hazel is preparing to teach in the Intermediate grades and, although she says she will teach at least five years, we all have our doubts.

Here's wishing you, Hazel, the best of luck in the future.

PANSY CAROLINE SCHEUER
Scranton Central High School
Scranton, Pa.

Poor man! Small wonder that he was nervous, for wasn't it an honor to be allowed to interview as popular and well known a member of the class of '29 as Pansy? Then the sight of that charming person with her sweet smile and gorgeous red hair—more vivid and striking than any he had ever seen before. It made him forget everything that he intended to say. How true it is that "A woman's hair is her crown of glory." But Pansy, as usual, rose to the occasion and tactfully set him at his ease. That is a way of hers. After the interview, we were able to gather a few things from the man's ravings: That she loves to dance, has a horror of mice, believes in doing things efficiently, is clever along artistic lines, has a refreshing sense of humor (haven't you ever heard her giggle), is Vice President of the local Alpha Delta Zeta and Grand Secretary of the same sorority. And then, he started again, "That gorgeous red hair, I tell you, it actually forms a halo around her head."

DOROTHY SCHMIDT
Technical High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Dot"

The Technical High School at Scranton graduated her with honors and sent her to Bloomsburg with a standard to uphold; both loyally and faithfully "Dottie" has fulfilled her trust. She has very frankly made her work as a student to be the most important items of her college years therefore, both scholarship and a splendid satisfaction of work "well done" has been her reward.

However, she has by no means confined herself to studies alone. In athletics, she is all pep and enthusiasm—an opponent worthy of one's best effort, or a colleague of which to be proud. Hockey, baseball, basketball and hiking find her a ready votary.

The Girls' Chorus, Geographic Society and the Y. W. C. A. bear her name on the membership records, and she also acted as one of the stenographers for the Obiter. Because she is always willing to do even more than her share, it is no wonder we often hear, "Get 'Dot' Schmidt to do it, then we will be sure that it is done right."

S. HELEN SEELY
Passaic High School
New Jersey
"Hana"

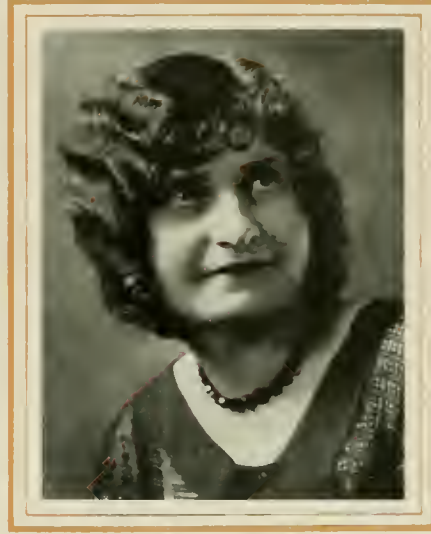

"A true sport in every sense."

Presto, change. Is it possible that this is the same girl who came here from New Jersey two years ago. Then short, and to confess, rather plump. Now tall and willowy. And how? Ask the athletes of the school. She's outstanding, and why? The only girl to receive her "B" in her Freshman year. An honored member of the Letterman's Club is our Helen. Tennis, hiking and dancing are "Hana's" hobbies, and in accordance to Pop Fisher they are opposite to her daily work, for she is an excellent student.

"Going to see such and such a show? Gee, I saw it in New York." Yes, that's Helen's reply, cause at vacation time she travels to New York and does the town. And here's a little secret I'm telling only to you—she loves art and has no little ability in that line. While in New York the Art Museum is one of "Hana's" stopping places.

In the Current Literature Club, Helen impressed them so well that they rushed her when she returned from Berwick, so that no other extra-curricular club would gain her presence.

We wonder what Helen will become. There's doubt in our minds, but a river with many streams surely finds the ultimate goal.

MAYME J. SELETSKI
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Mae"

A lifting strain of music through the halls and you know that "Mae's" around. Oh, how she can sing. She takes an interest in her school work and is an active participant in the Mixed Chorus, Clothing and Nanticoke Clubs. Her love for and ability in music is well known. Do you wonder why we love to have her play when we can trap her?

Every week-end "Mae" simply must go home or—well, we can't imagine what would happen. We know she sings those lovely solos at church, but then, what else draws her to Nanticoke so unfaithfully? That may not be so hard to guess. If you only knew our "Mae" with her grace pleasing manners and sweet voice. (He is only human after all).

"Mae" seriously maintains that she will be a school ma'am, but because of the interest shown in her group of friends, comprised of doctors, lawyers, dentists—we have our doubts.

To our quiet, aristocratic "Mae," best wishes for happiness and success in all her undertakings are extended to her from her class and numerous friends.

LENA A. SERAFINE
 Shickshinny High School
 Mocaqua, Pa.
 "Love" "Serafine"

One couldn't fail to recognize Lena with her blue eyes, rosy cheeks and a big smile. Lena is very good natured and always ready to help others, sometimes forgetting all about herself.

Lena's favorite pastime is playing the "uke," accordion and dancing. She gives dancing as a reason for going home every week-end, but we wonder if it really is. Maybe "C" is her attraction.

She is very small, but in that small amount of space, there are bushels of pep, humor, life and other qualities that make a personality which no one would want to miss.

"Little girls should be seen and not heard" does anything but apply in this situation, for whenever you go you hear Lena talking or whistling bits of the latest song hits.

In spite of the fact that our happy-go-lucky classmate always finds good times, she also devotes some of her time to studying.

We are told that Lena expects to teach, but as you know our expectations are not always realized. We will hope that success may be hers in her chosen profession whatever it may be.

GRACE ELEANOR SHADE
 Nescopeck High School
 Nescopeck, Pa.

Go in the library whenever you will and you will find Grace. You might think she is very studious, but at times we have caught her dreaming. Just say something about Ford & Co. or oranges and lemons. She will reply, "Oh, you" or "Don't," with a sigh.

Grace is very quiet when she wants to be and we have seen her study hard. She usually has much pep in the morning as she walks across the river bridge between Berwick and Nescopeck before coming to school.

She likes sports, especially when she is a spectator. Dancing and sewing are her favorite pastimes.

Grace cast her lot with the Primary group, as she wishes to keep young. Here's hoping she is successful.

Grace is a very sweet tempered girl and there is never a thing too much for her to do. If you want a true blue friend, get acquainted with Grace.

Y. W. C. A., First Aid Club, hockey, basketball, baseball, hiking.

RUTH E. SHANNON
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.

A good scholar, a good sport and a sincere friend—that's Ruth. Her agreeable manner and disposition have won her many friends at B. S. T. C. Of course, she comes in for her share of razzing in the locker room, but so do all of us. One of her latest and greatest achievements has been the growing of long locks. Perhaps this accounts for her spending a large part of her leisure time before the ever popular locker room mirror. We can't attribute it to vanity because her major interest is not in men. However, we can't speak for her minor interests. Her ambitious streaks are also notable. The onset of such a spell can be detected by an earnest look, coupled with "Let's go over to the Library. I can't work over here," or "I'm going to do TWO health problems."

Ruth rarely loses her temper, but when her face becomes rosy red we know something is out of time and tune. We are sure that Ruth will succeed for she possesses the qualities which insure success in any field.

MARY K. SHULTZ
Bloomsburg High School
Rupert, Pa.

Mary is an ambitious and studious Senior of the Rural Group. She has been an active member of the Sewing Club and also of the Rural Club.

To her friends she is the best pal ever and none will forget her willingness to lend a helping hand.

Mary can always be seen hurrying to class, and if classes are not for her, you can see her hurrying to the library. For some of our locker room girls the library means a pleasant place to pass the time away and work. For Mary, it means a place to work. Because of her love of nature she would rather spend her spare time out of doors.

All our classmates wish Mary the best of luck and success, as we know that she is deserving of both.

"To have a pal and a comrade
And a friend of tested worth,
Is more real joy and zest to life
Than anything on earth.
Dear pal o' mine, we're glad to say,
We're found a friend in you."

RICHARD T. SIBLEY
Old Forge High School
Benton, Pa.
"Dick"

A quiet, unassuming chap is "Dick." "Still water runs deep," and the thoughts this young man thinks are ponderous and weighty ones.

"Dick" never is seen wasting his time around young women, for he believes in keeping his mind on his work. He is industrious and a hard and willing worker. Ask the locker room boys.

"Dick" belongs to the Boys' Glee Club and his tenor voice is an asset to that Club. He likes nothing better than to harmonize in with the boys in singing, "Who's Sorry Now." Did you know that "Dick" was married?

Yes, "Dick" is married and he drives to and from school in his Ford sedan. Despite the weary road, "Dick" is plodding right along and it won't be long before "Dick" will be teaching a little country school.

"Dick" is continually playing "pranks" on the "Locker Room Gang." Still he gets away with them. The "Gang" will miss him when he finally settles down to teach. Sibley, old boy, don't become an old cranky prof like—some we've met.

Here's hoping this cruel, cold world will give you a break in anything you tackle.

RUTH SIDLER
Danville High School
Danville, Pa.
"Sidler"

Ruth is a girl who seems modest and shy. She'd never think of telling a lie. But when you see her alone somewhere—Well, I'm telling you, "Please take care."

Here is one of the best natured girls of our class. Sincerity, unselfishness and poise are a few of the qualities which Ruth possesses. Everyone has found her a real friend, willing to help whenever and wherever she is needed. Her motto seems to be "Work with a will," for that is what she is generally doing.

Everyone thinks Ruth is so bashful. Well, she is sometimes. But ask some of her locker room friends who know her quite well and they'll probably tell you some of the tricks she plays on the girls.

Ruth has taken up primary work and we know she will be a successful teacher, for she is certainly interested in her work. But Ruth also has another interest—an interest in Tamaqua. Well, Ruth, you may have your boy friends, but we feel sure that you will make him wait a long, long time before you will decide to give up teaching. Whatever the path you take we wish you the best of luck.

WALTER M. SIESKO
Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Walt"

"The Smith a mighty man is he,
With large and sinewy hands."

This serious, self-conscious lad brings memories of that poem, "The Village Blacksmith." Why "Walt" ever chose the teaching profession is a mystery to us—perhaps he loves "to serve others." Nevertheless, he is bound to make a capable teacher—we'll vouch for that.

This gentleman prefers his sax to either blondes or brunettes, but still he can always be seen attending the dances and it takes "two" to attend. "Walt" is an old member of the Maroon and Gold Orchestra, having playing two years.

"Walt" was a candidate for football, but injury in one of the games kept him out for the rest of the season. "Walt" also was our best half-miler; at West Chester he placed second.

However, "Walt" prefers best of all to delve into studies. He is a frequent visitor to the library, nor is it due to any lady friend. "Walt" is an ardent supporter of the Dramatic Club. He is a member of the Alpha Psi Omega and Omega Chi Fraternities.

GRAYCE LOUISE SIMMONS
Old Forge High School
Old Forge, Pa.
"Twinnie"

A good sport, a real friend, a wonderful pal and an altogether charming miss in our "Twinnie." If you should happen to see a little blonde lassie strutting through the halls singing, "I loved you then, as I love you now," You'll know it's "Twinnie," and we often wondered if there wasn't a real reason for it. She loves all kinds of sports. Her favorite sports are basketball and tennis. Should tennis come first, "Twinnie?"—because most of your spare moments were spent on the courts? Can she play? Well, I guess!

If you should happen to have a heavy problem to solve, go to this person, because she is sure to give you advice which will help you lots.

"Oh, I'm just dying for something good to eat," is always her favorite cry and she is usually able to discover something that will appease her appetite for a few minutes at the least. Can we ever forget the good feeds we had in rooms 370 and 351? I should say not!

"Twinnie" is just determined she will teach five years, but we are sure it will not be one day over that time.

Here's to you, old pal, hoping you get all the luck you deserve.

JESSIE SIMONOVICH

Larksville High School
Larksville, Pa.
"Jess"

When you see a jolly girl, with dark wavy hair, you can make up your mind it's Jessie. You may see her at any time dashing down the hall to the elevator a few seconds before the last bell rings for class. Although Jessie may be slow in getting to classes you can be sure that she is not so slow in making friends, for wherever she goes she is sure to make them.

One of her pet hobbies is visiting the mail boxes. If one day passes and "Jess" does not get at least one letter, there certainly must have been a railroad wreck.

She also enjoys music and as a result her abilities run along the musical line. With her soprano voice she makes music in the air. This is the reason why she joined the Girls' Chorus.

We all know "Jess" will make a success as an intermediate teacher, and we wish her the best of luck.

CATHERINE C. SINCONIS

Sugar Notch High School
Sugar Notch, Pa.
"Kitty"

"A maiden modest and self-possessed,
Yet beautiful and sweetly dressed."

If you ever see a tall, graceful form approaching, you'll know it's "Kitty." She has a cheery smile that would drive all your blues away. On first meeting her, one would think her to be very quiet and sedate, but wait until you know her! Those grey eyes of hers just twinkle with merriment and mischievousness when you get her started.

Catherine is a strong support of the "B" Club, where she heartily exercises her good will. She is one of the few who has gained the rank of membership of the first girl's "B" Club formed at this institution. She has a great liking for sports, especially hockey. She was one of the players of the "Senior Champion Team of 1928-1929." She does not only excel in sports, she was also a member of the "Girls' Glee Club" and the "B. B. A. Club."

"Do you know any new games for word drill?" is Catherine's most common way of announcing her presence. She is always interested in the welfare of her young pupils, and she just can't seem to do enough for them. No one can say that she isn't going to be an ideal school teacher.

SARA E. SPANGLER

James M. Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Sara

Sara! Who doesn't know a certain gracefully slim, brown-eyed lass, with charming smile and friendly "hello" for everyone? It has been said that that same smile is the sweetest in the college. And did you ever see such brown eyes. "No," comes an emphatic chorus from North Hall, "never!"

Sara has the disposition of the ideal college girl; thoughtful of others, jolly in a crowd, and last but not least, ever ready for the eats. Down town we hear her say, "Here is Bush's. Aren't we going in?" Full of fun? We should say, and as to work, no one could be more conscientious. She has a knack of doing each day's assignment as it comes, so that we often hear her say, "Let's go out. I haven't any work tonight."

Sara is always in a great hurry to get home at vacation times and over weekends. We wonder if the Junior class president of Mullenberg could tell us why. How about it, Ed? Is our psychology sound?

Best wishes for all happiness and success from the class of '29.

VERA STAUFFER

Shenandoah High School
Ringtown, Pa.

"Vearie"

If you should ever happen around sometime and hear someone say, "Well, I'm peeved," you know it is Vera. She is just full of fun, you bet. There is never a feed goes on in 351 or 456 but what Vera is right there. Does she like to eat? Well, I guess.

Besides liking to eat, Vera is a quiet, conscientious girl, who is bound to make a success in her profession. She professes the sterling quality of being dependable. Ever willing and gracious she lends a helping hand to her classmates in their school work.

Vera also displays capability in athletics. Her fondness for hockey and volleyball shows itself in her playing and also her interests in all games that have been played at B. S. T. C.

Vera is so earnest in all her work that we are sure that she will succeed in all her undertakings.

HAROLD STODDARD

Dalton High School
Dalton, Pa.
"Howdy"

"Howdy" came to us two years ago and has distinguished himself in many ways. He was not an athlete to any great extent, but when it came to the annual class football game, you could always find him there with bells on. Another thing that made him so popular was his inevitable "Line" with the women. He could be seen almost any week-end escorting a member around the town, and if not around here he seemed to have an attraction up the river.

There was another way in which he distinguished himself and that was at meal time. He could put away as much "grub" as two ordinary boxers.

"Howdy" was also distinguished as the Treasurer of the Y. M. C. A. He was also business manager for the Freshmen play of 1927, a member of the Glee Club and a member of the Dramatic Club, in which he so ably played the part of Deacon in the number of the Dramatic Club presentations.

Success be yours in every thing that you do.

MARY K. STOROSKO

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Mary Kay"

"Mary K"—what a world of meaning that name conveys. Merely to know Mary does not suffice. The better we know her, the more we love her, and, can we wonder why?

Personality, perseverance and popularity go hand in hand wherever she goes. Have they not won her way into the "B," the Dramatic, the First Aid Clubs, and also into the hearts of her "gang?"

The gym seems to lure our Mary quite often. We wonder whether it's her ability as a dancer, or—?

"Mary Kay's" industrious nature shines forth in her class work and practice teaching, and she claims she is quite serious in remaining in the teaching profession, but we wonder.

To "Mary Kay," a true friend, go the best wishes of the class of 1929 in her future work.

Old friends and new friends,
Tried friends and true friends;
Many or few friends
Are to be had, but
For a good every-day friend,
Go-all-the-way friend,
Ask-what-you-may friend,
Give us—just "Kay."

MILDRED STRYJAK

Nanticoke High School
Nanticoke, Pa.
"Micky"

Mildred came to our midst from Nanticoke. She is very studious, conscientious and appears to be very quiet. We soon changed our minds about "Micky" being quiet after we once knew her. She enjoys having fun as much as any of us. If you think she is quiet just get her started, and then you can see for yourself just how much fun she possesses.

Regardless of Mildred's study habits, she has good times, but work must come before pleasure. Her motto is "Work before pleasure." It would be better for more of us if we would adopt her policy. Mildred is fond of all sports, having participated in baseball and volleyball.

Mildred is a true and sincere friend, and when once her friendship is gained you have a friend that will stick by you.

Here's wishing Mildred the very best luck and success in all her future undertakings.

STELLA STUNGER

Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Star"

So gentle, mild and staid,
She surely seems a model maid.
But gentle readers, mark you well,
You cannot always tell.

You wonder who she is?—she is the dignified blonde of the Four Musketeers. The other three call her "Star," because she always seems out of reach. She has blonde hair and eyes—just the kind gentlemen prefer. We know she will make a perfect school teacher even though she had intentions of being a nurse. We have never discovered just what made "Star" change her mind. Look at her picture; wouldn't you like to be a pupil under her? If you ever talk to "Star" you'll hear her talk about getting a degree. We wonder what kind of a degree, a M.P.S. or P.H.D. And, too, "Star" intends to master the French language, but WE think it isn't the language—so it must be the teacher. Is it, "Star?" Not telling, but why is she getting so studious all of a sudden, I ask. We can't understand it, for we know the studying she does now will never make her thin.

Once upon a time "Star" was a country lass, but Oh—how she has changed. Of course, she has to change with the time, especially in this modern day and age.

CHARLES SURFIELD

Shenandoah High School
Shenandoah, Pa.

Four years ago Charles entered this institution and immediately settled down to four years of grim labor. He chose the science and social studies for his majors. He gave most of his time to education and not to athletics. "Charlie" has also attained the respect and admiration of the "Prof's." Those who know him, remember that he spent most of his first year on a certain dark haired lass—but she graduated and now he spends week-ends at home working—so he says.

"Charlie" enjoys a good bull session and whenever he hears of any he is right there to "throw the bull." Seldom is he late for class, for his "Big Ben" makes sure of that.

Pleasant, sensible and especially human, are the virtues of Charles. He will never forget his practice teaching with Miss D——. Did she make him, Boy! Ask him.

Through this world "Charlie" will go, taking the troubles of life with a smile and giving to the world his best. What more can one do?

ANNE JOSEPHINE TABY

Shamokin High School
Shamokin, Pa.
"Taby"

How dreary and lone this world would appear
If girls, like "Taby," were nowhere near.

Now we come to one of the most charming members of our class. "Taby" is a capable student with a keen sense of humor. One of the best combinations for success that any young lady could desire. One of her main characteristics is her boundless supply of good nature, which, along with her winning personality, has made her a favorite with everyone.

Anne never misses the southbound train for home on Saturdays, but not with the sole intent of seeing her parents.

In parting, we want to say to "Taby"—
"When you've roamed the highways and byways of life, and learned the care, the struggle and strife, lean back in your chair when age takes you in."

Then think of the time when we were classmates and friends.

MERIEL R. TAYLOR
 Edwardsville High School
 Edwardsville, Pa.
 "Taylor"

She is not fair to outward view,
 As many maidens be.
 Her loveliness I never knew
 Until she smiled on me.
 Oh! then I saw her eye was bright,
 A well of love, a spring of light.

Hey, kids! Got any eats? Gee, I'm starved. Yes, we know that "Taylor" does like to eat, but what we can't understand is how she manages to keep her girlish figure after eating so much.

"Taylor" was always noted for being a good sport in High School and she's living up to her reputation more than ever now. She may be small, but you should see her play basketball.

"Quiet, girls! Study hour is on." This is another side of Meriel. As a member of the Governing Board she has done her bit to keep the halls quiet for the girls to have peace in studying and sleeping.

Meriel is a willing worker in the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority and she also serves as treasurer of the Student Government. We hope that you will be as successful in after life as you have been while here at Bloomsburg.

LAURA THOMAS
 Bloomsburg High School
 Bloomsburg, Pa.

If you see a fair maiden hurrying to class with a half-dozen books 'neath her arm and a serious look upon her brow, you can assure yourself that it is Laura. This shy young maiden is very studious and has her work prepared always. Whenever a last minute cram before class occurs, everyone goes to Laura to find out the details of the assignment. She always lends a helping hand to those who need it.

Bashful? Yes and quiet, too. No, she is not afraid to laugh, but she believes in silent approval. Through this we feel she gets her full measure of life. Those of us who know Laura best believe that behind her quiet smile and serious eyes lies a character containing all the elements of greatness, before which men will someday bow.

The class of '29 extend their heartiest wishes for your future success, Laura.

LENORE A. THOMAS

Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Tommy"

Then there came a great loud rapping,
As of someone loudly tapping.
Tapping at the library door—
And in stalked Lenore.

Lenore's pet pastime is to have fun by doing something startling that no other person would think of, whether it is intentional or otherwise, we don't always know.

If you want to hear some interesting stories, ask Lenore to tell you about "the boy friends." Really, they are too numerous to mention. Among these friends there is one tall Adonis, who is the hero of most of these thrilling experiences. He is the great "Savidge" baseball player.

Of all Lenore's abilities and arts, singing will always be first; that is, if you put the worst one first. If you wish to have your sorrows drowned in mirth, ask Lenore to give you a few grand opera selections. She can always make us laugh when she begins to sing her special songs. She can entertain Mu Phi Sigma sisters whenever they feel that they need such entertainment.

We feel sure that Lenore will be a successful teacher, for she has the delightful personality, in addition to her scholastic abilities, which is always an asset in any profession.

MARGARET B. THOMAS

Exeter High School
Exeter, Pa.
"Betty" "Betz"

Brown eyes, brown hair,
Never a worry, never a care.
Her kind heart and willing hand,
Always place her in demand.
This is our "Betty."

"Betty" has never been known to have any worries. She is famous for her optimistic outlook on life and for the fact that she boasts no member of the opposite sex has ever touched her heart.

Have you ever been down to the "gym" or any place and failed to see her. No—she is always ready. Does she like to dance? There is no doubt about it.

In her Junior year, she was a member of the Girls' Glee Club, First Aid Club and the Sewing Club.

Did you ever see the first bleacher minus "Betty" at a football game. Never—.

She has an over amount of "pep" and enthusiasm, but there must be a reason for all this.

"Betty" has many interests, but her chief hobby is basketball, at which she stars as a guard.

"Betty's" motto is "Never worry" or "Don'tcha care."

"Everything will turn out alright, so why worry?"—that is "Betty's" favorite expression.

When her face is wearing a smile you know "Betty" is happy about something in particular, but behold, when it is down and sorrowful. Oh, poor "Betty."

MARGARET J. THOMAS

Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Mig"

Everyone knows this blue-eyed maiden. She is one of our college's most popular girls. On the surface, "Mig" appears to be quiet, but on the contrary, she is a very light-hearted and joyous person. She is always ready to laugh and join in any sport that may come along. She may seem hard to become acquainted with but when you know her she is a friend well worth having. One must know "Mig" to appreciate her pep, wit and humor.

"Mig's" cry of "Bring on the eats," can be heard at most any hour of the day. Boxes from home are her specialty.

Our "Mig" is never worried by such trifles as her lessons. Her motto is:

"Never worry,
Never fret,
Get what you can,
And 'ean' what you get."

She is a member of the Alpha Delta Zeta Sorority and the Electric City Club. She is always doing her bit at parties and all other social events.

With such fine qualities, personality and happy disposition, none other than success can be hers, and as a final tribute to "Mig" we can say:

"To know her is to love her,
And we know her well."

MILDRED THURSTON

Sunbury High School
Sunbury, Pa.

Mildred comes to us from that great town of Sunbury. Although she is small of stature she certainly possesses varied abilities which are of great asset to her in her chosen field.

"Smile and the world smiles with you, frown and you frown alone." The world is always smiling with Mildred, for she rarely frowns. She is a bright student and very fond of music. She is a member of the Orchestra and the Baton Club. Mildred sure can handle a cello.

Mildred is an ardent student and makes use of all her free periods. That accounts for her knowing her lessons every day. She is one of our good girls, not exactly quiet, for she enjoys a good time and is ready to laugh quite becomingly when the occasion arises.

As for Mildred's future, we wish you all the success and happiness that this world can give you.

RUTH E. TITMAN
 Bloomsburg High School
 Bloomsburg, Pa.
 "Ruth E."

Blue eyes, rosy cheeks, blonde hair and a winning smile, that's she. A cheery "hello," which is the first step in acquaintance, but that is not half. Ruth is a good sport; also, a good student.

Our Ruth is a girl of wide experience. She graduated from the Bloomsburg College Preparatory Course in 1921. "Ruth E." decided she would like "real college" life in a dormitory, and so she joined the "Goucher Gang." We were happy to have Ruth return to us again in 1927-28. She is here now, but let me whisper, "It is for a degree." Besides the experience in schools, Ruth had a trip around the world several years ago. The winter of 1928 she spent in Florida, Cuba and other places of interest. It is not at all unusual to hear Ruth say about Monday or Tuesday, "I am going to New York City or Philadelphia this week-end." In addition to being a globe trotter, Ruth has to her credit two years of successful teaching.

Since Ruth has blonde hair she has made up her mind that her life mate shall have blonde hair, too. Here's to your luck.

ANNA TROUTMAN
 Selingsgrove High School
 Selingsgrove, Pa.
 "Annie"

A good sport, a friend loyal and true, always willing to help others—that is our smiling dark-haired Anna, commonly known as "Annie."

Anna is not only a lover of nature, talented in dramatics, but she also displays capability in athletics. Her fondness for volleyball shows itself in her playing, and also in her interest in all games that have been played here at the college.

Even though Anna did not live in the dormitory, she found great pleasure working in private homes, thus earning her way through college. However, she will be greatly missed by her Junior locker-mates, for at every Senior gymnasium period a shrill voice was heard calling out, "Say, kids, what time is it?"

Anna is a real student and distributes her time properly in applying herself to her work. She is frequently seen in the library, busily engaged in selecting materials which she knows will be of use both to herself as a student teacher and the pupils under her supervision. Anyone with such an attitude is bound to be successful.

Of Anna it may be truthfully said:

"A willing heart, a helping hand, Always ready on demand."

MARGARET UNBEWUST
Benton Vocational High School
Benton, Pa.
"Peg"

Margaret comes to us from Benton. She is one of the reasons why the B. & S. train is able to continue running daily. Although she is often the last one to get on, she makes it, even if it is necessary to race to the next station.

One of Margaret's many charms is her quiet way and willingness to listen to her friend's troubles. A good listener is always appreciated.

Margaret is naturally quiet and at times she may be seen lost in day dreams. This is a warning to those who know her that a new poem is about to be produced.

Margaret is the President of the Current Literature Club, and she contributes poems to the Maroon and Gold.

If at any time you are over-worked, go to Margaret; she says, "There is time for everything."

Our best wishes follow you, "Peg," when we find new paths at the end of the school year.

VERNA E. VALENCE
Altoona Senior High School
Altoona, Pa.
"Val"

"She's sweet of disposition,
She's loving, wise and kind,
She's full of true affection,
She can not be defined."

Who is that vivacious girl with those fascinating eyes? It's none other than our own dear "Val"—the fourth musketeer.

To many people she may appear sophisticated, but if only they knew her as we do, what a world of difference it would make. She is a unique type, one that keeps you guessing.

"Val" is often caught day dreaming—after she gets her mail from Detroit. Never mind, you'll soon get your male from Detroit.

Interested in sports? Well, I guess. "Val" is the proud possessor of a "B," which she so rightly deserved since she persevered to the end to earn it.

As a student and student teacher, "Val" is a whiz. How envious we are of the little ones who can claim her as their teacher some day. Will she teach long? Well—we hope so. However, strange things do happen.

At any rate, no matter where you go, or what you undertake, "Val"—whether it be the teaching profession or—, you have the sincerest wishes of your gang and all who know you.

ALICE I. VEETY

Falls Overfield Vocational School
Clark's Summit, Pa.
"Allie"

At first glance one would think Alice is a very quiet girl. But take another look at those big brown eyes and you will see that they talk almost as much as Alice does herself. Alice is not only quite talkative but she is always sociable. She makes friends very easily, for she always wears a smile and is always willing to help others.

Alice is a conscientious worker in her studies. However, she feels that there is time for work and play. Just drop in on 370 and you will see what time she takes for fun.

We all wondered why Alice went home so much this year. Can it be that she wants to "PHIL" her eyes of him? We wonder???

We shall miss you very much, "Allie." You are a source of sunshine for a rainy day. We could hardly have done without you on our volley team. That, "Sock it, kid!" would serve as an inspiration for anyone.

May all luck be yours in your teaching career. Best wishes from your classmates of '29.

THEODORE VITAL

Newport High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Ted"

"Ted" came to us from Newport High just four years ago. His disposition, being that of a quiet, unassuming person, caused us to wonder just what he would mean to us. We did not wait long, however, for "Ted" soon won a place in our hearts.

"Ted" was not a bit shy of the ladies and finally acknowledged that he was doing his part in amusing them. All men like chicken in some way, but the thing "Ted" likes better than chicken is "more chicken." "Ted" is a lover of books—but books are not his only love. He has found his "soul mate."

He was one of the best student teachers Miss D— ever had. Probably it was because of the inspiration. We do not know what his plans are for the future but we wish you success in all you do. Good luck!

MARY G. WALSH
Larksville High School
Larksville, Pa.
Mary

If you can picture to yourself a jolly, rollicking, carefree, mirthful girl with a companionable disposition, you have Mary. Wasn't it she who entertained the class and was the center of all laughter?

Her interests were many and varied; when teaching she was always interested and ready to help the children, but when outside of class all her attention was turned to a certain young person from North Hall.

Good naturedness was one of her qualities. Didn't Mary go around for a week with a red nose as a result of not being able to refuse the two Pegs, her roommates, the privilege of practising on her nose?

Mary either sees or pretends to see only the bright side of this world. She has no trouble or, if she has, they are hidden by her sunny smile.

We all hope that Mary may continue to rush her way into the hearts of all those with whom she comes in contact.

Good luck, Mary, and may success be yours in your future life.

MELTHA WARMOUTH
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.

Straight black hair, snappy brown eyes and a winsome smile, that's Meltha. She's a true friend and a real good sport. She is always willing to do or go anywhere anyone suggests, and you will find her a helping hand at anytime.

The Delta Phi Sigma Sorority is fortunate in having her as one of their members.

Meltha spends her spare time wishing she were home, and every day that passes she certainly has it marked off on the calendar.

Meltha's voice can be heard at all hours of the day and her most noted cry is, "Is the mail in?"

We are glad Meltha chose the Primary Group, because her sunny disposition will surely bring her success.

Although her motto is "Never do today when you can do tomorrow," she gets there just the same.

Adieu, Meltha, and if in this wide world you ever meet trouble, remember "Smile," and the trouble will disappear.

ANNA MARY WASLEY

Shenandoah High School
Shenandoah, Pa.
"Anna Mary"

Just a little smile, a little happy word and "Anna Mary" is gone. But she leaves behind her an impression that amuses, brightens or cheers. "Anna Mary's" grin has often chased the blues away for gloom cannot withstand her dimples and beaming countenance.

We will always remember the delicious pies, cakes and fudge that she shared with her friends.

"Anna Mary" has ardently supported her Alma Mater in the way of student activities. As a member of the Girls' Chorus, she sang her way into our hearts.

The Mu Phi Sigma cherishes her friendship. Through whatever paths, Life may take you, may you always find happiness at every turn.

HELEN MERRILL WATTS

Eagles Mere High School
Eagles Mere, Pa.

Do you know Helen? If not, you really should become acquainted with her. She has just the color red hair that you like, big brown eyes and a winning smile. With such a description, plus a large quantity of personality added to it, who could help but appreciate her friendship?

Helen certainly does like sports, too. When in a baseball game, she gets up to bat you may be sure that the result will be a home-run. Not only in baseball does Helen portray her sportsmanship, but also in basketball. In fact, whatever she does, she does well.

Despite the fact that Helen is so interested in sports, she never has neglected her studies. She is a firm believer in that old adage, "Business before pleasure."

Since Helen has all of the characteristics which are necessary in a good teacher, we are sure she will achieve success in her chosen profession. We wish you, Helen, all the luck and happiness which it is possible to attain.

HELEN MAE WHEATON

Coughlin High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Blackie"

Who is the girl with the pretty smile? Oh, don't you know, that's "Blackie." Yes, it's "Blackie." Those eyes and dimples certainly draw attention.

"Blackie's" great at any kind of sport. We really don't know what the hockey team would have done without Helen to back them. Oh, boy, at basketball, she is a star. Baseball is one of her best sports, because she is great at batting, as well as running the bases.

We often wondered what the attraction was down at Beckley, but it was solved when Bob's letter arrived with the Harrisburg post mark on it.

Helen was elected Vice President of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority. She is a willing worker and always ready to work for the welfare of the Sorority.

Sweet, smart and active,
Clever and attractive;
That's our "Blackie."

MARGARET ELIZABETH WICKIZER

Falls Overfield Vocational High School
Lake Winola, Pa.
"Peggie"

In the fall of 1927 there came to B. S. T. C., from Lake Winola, a rather tall, blonde haired, blue eyed miss, known as "Peggie." Before she had been here many weeks we discovered in "Peggie" a real artistic ability.

By the end of the first semester many of the Waller Hall girls were surprised to find that "Peggie" was taking a great number of A's and B's from the marks of the Freshman class.

"Peggie" has a very quiet disposition and is very dependable in everything she does. "To know her is to love her."

Whenever there are any cats sent from home "Peggie" is always among those who are present for the feed, after nine-thirty.

We often wonder why "Peggie" was so glad to spend the whole eighteen weeks in Berwick. There must have been some other attraction besides the student teaching. How about it, "Peggie"? We still wonder if "Peggie" may be seen in the Chevrolet Coupe during week-ends and vacation at home.

"Peggie," we are sure that you will be successful in everything you undertake, and the very best wishes of the class of '29 go with you.

ALBERTA WILLIAMS

Hughestown High School
Pittston, Pa.

"Al"

Here's to a lassie that's fair as can be,
Fair and square as you can see.
At dancing—we all know "Al."
As a friend, she's a great little pal.

To know her is to love her. Who? "Al"
Williams, of course.

"Al" has won many a heart, both male and female, through her pleasant disposition. Her readiness for a good time, her attitude toward athletics, her interests in society and, as a whole, her ability as a student, has resulted in a wide circle of friends.

Everyone wondered why "Al" could be seen strolling down town every night at four-ten. We all could guess. Many of the girls would remark, "I don't see how she does it." This year we find among "Al's" letters a number of them stamped "Le-high." We wonder why?

"Al" is a member of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority. She received her numerals for participation in athletics during her first year. We could count on "Al" being on any team—hockey, basketball or baseball. She was often seen on the tennis court swinging a racket. "Al's" greatest hobby is dancing. Whenever any of "Al's" girl friends were not in the gym, "Al" never lacked a partner.

DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS

Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.

"Dottie" "Dot"

There's a certain girl in Waller Hall who causes one's eyes to glance the second time. That certain party in "Dottie." Black hair, blue eyes, winning smile are her outstanding characteristics. For personality—well no one can beat her.

There's a certain interest at Penn State which means a lot of, well you know what, for "Dot." If she didn't get her daily letter, I don't know what would happen. She certainly lives on love, besides what she eats.

At any sport, "Dot" is there, heart and soul. She supports her team and school with the best of spirit. At basketball she is a star. It's no use to say anything about hockey, as her team was champs. If you need anything mended just bring it up to room 363, as "Dottie" belongs to Sewing Club. She certainly can use a needle to its best advantages.

As Corresponding Secretary of the Delta Phi Sigma, "Dot" surely fulfills the office.

Let's give "Dot" a toast.

A girl for whom we all can boast.

So here's a wish for luck and happiness too.
What B. S. T. C. students wish to you.

ELIZABETH H. WILLIAMS
Scranton Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Libby"

"Wit and humor brighten the darkest corners."

It is comparatively easy to describe most girls by using sweet, lovable, clever, intelligent, adorable and such. For our "Libby" we need new words and different combinations of the old words, for "Libby" is decidedly "different." She has a combination of all these qualities with wit, humor and an indefinable quality of personality, which endears her to all she meets.

But "Lib" does more than make others happy through her radiant personality. She possesses a rare spirit of leadership and conscientiousness, which has been evidenced in her capable work for the Student Government Organization.

Yes, she is, as you would expect, very clever in her studies and contributes many original opinions in class discussion. She shows evidence of a decided literary flare and we all predict for her a brilliant literary career.

ELIZABETH LUCRETIA WILLIAMS
Edwardsville High School
Edwardsville, Pa.
"Liz"

Who is this tall, attractive looking girl coming down the hall? That is Elizabeth Williams. We thought every one knew her. She is a great girl, always happy and cheerful, making life happier for others. She is always there when she is asked to do her part. You will find her in the foremost activities of our school, especially active in Dramatic Club and "Mu Phi Sigma Sorority." She is also a great lover of sports. You know she was on the team which won the Senior hockey championship this year. She sure is a staunch backer of football and basketball teams. You can understand why basketball, as we have a few "tall" fellows on the team.

Elizabeth is a girl all for "Bloom," therefore we are all for her.

One bit of radiant sunshine,
Two bits of pep and good cheer,
Three bits of all that's nicest,
And you've the spirit of "Liz."

JANE WILLIAMS
Slatington High School
Slatington, Pa.
"Janie"

Everyone knows our "Janie." Jane, with the light hair and blue eyes. Jane can always be seen but very seldom heard, for she travels through the halls to and from classes as quietly as a mouse. When you do hear Jane she is always singing. She has a lovely voice and likes to help herself and her roommates over some rough stone with a song of cheer. Her pleasing voice won her a place in the Glee Club and could very often be heard entertaining the "Y" members at the Wednesday night meetings.

Jane is very much interested in sports and has played on the volleyball and hockey teams, but she would much rather give her time as President of the Mu Phi Sigma Sorority to guide them through a very successful year.

Although many other organizations have Jane as a member, the Y. W. C. A. claim and appreciate her as one of their best workers. What the "Y" would ever have done without her is hard to tell.

We are sure that Jane will be very successful as a Primary teacher, and as a word of farewell, we say:

"The years are like flowers—they bud, bloom and fade.

But they leave behind sweet fragrance, in the friendships we have made."

MYFANWY G. WILLIAMS
Blakely High School
Peckville, Pa.
"Wanie"

"Wanie," as she is known better by this name, because her first has caused many to twist their tongues trying to say it, is one of the best natured girls at school. A glance at her would leave the impression of a very quiet girl, but a visit to room 363 would soon change your opinion. It is not all foolishness, but real fun, if you come to room 363.

"Wanie" carried out her office as fire lieutenant very well. Her fine company is to be recommended on third floor in the "annex."

"Wanie's" hobby is athletics. In her Freshman year she was a member of the hockey team, basketball and won the girls' championship in tennis. I don't know what we would have done without her. At any sport, "Wanie" supports her school and team with the best of spirit.

She is a member of the Delta Phi Sigma Sorority and holds the office of Vice President. She is always ready to lend a helping hand when there is work to be done.

We wish "Wanie" success and luck when she leaves B. S. T. C.

OLIVER S. WILLIAMS
Nanticoke High School
Hanover Township
"Olie"

"Olie," as Oliver is called by his friends, came to us two weeks late from Nanticoke High School. In spite of the handicap of a late beginning he came through his Freshman year with flying colors.

Oliver took an active part in school activities, aside from his regular course of study. Among the list of his activities may be found the Mixed Chorus, to which he belonged the first semester. He was on the stage set committee for the Freshman play, "So This Is London." He also belonged to that group of students who always had their lessons prepared.

Oliver belonged to the Men's Glee Club. He was also a member of the Phi Lambda or Nature Study Club.

Oliver took a very active part on the staff of the Maroon and Gold. In addition to this he was an active member of the newly organized Y. M. C. A.

We wish Oliver all kinds of success in his chosen profession.

A real pal is he, whate'er the task may be; you need not worry, just ask "Olie."

KATHRYN WILSON
Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Katink"

Whenever the girls on third floor heard the cry, "Oh, kid, come on over till I tell you the joke I heard this week-end," they all knew that to be the signal for the "clan" to gather in room 320 to hear some of "Katink's" famous stories. They all liked to collect in her room anyway, for, if she had just returned from home on Sunday night, there always was a reason, even though reducing had become quite popular.

Proficiency in story-telling (?) and ability to make sandwiches, however, were only some of "Katink's" attractive qualities, for her generous disposition could hardly be surpassed. "Pete" knows.

Although often lured along the paths of idleness by the gang, "Katink" never failed to do her work. She proved to all in her Freshman music class her admirable ability to concentrate, when she rendered "A Sweet Little Robin" to the extreme delight of the audience.

Many people thought "Katink" a quiet little miss, but perhaps they never had heard her vocal reaction to the appearance of little Archibald in the wastebasket. Nevertheless, "Katink," the gang would be lost without you.

Kathryn's activities, however, were not confined to those in the dormitory for she was an active member of the Mixed Chorus, Scranton Club, and the Tau Kappa Phi Sorority.

ISABEL WITKOSKY
Central High School
Scranton, Pa.
"Izzy"

The name Isabel usually suggests a quiet, demur, sophisticated girl, with her thoughts always turned to her studies. Of course, we thought this always held true—but look at her picture. That flashing smile and those big brown eyes tell you the whole story.

"A nifty dancer full of pep,
I'll tell the world she sure can step.
She's got a Scrantonian sheik,
And she thinks he can not be beat."

Why do the boys stop and inquire: "Who is that girl?" Oh, that is "Izzy." Everyone knows her. Those who haven't seen her have certainly heard of her. "What is there in a name?" "Izzy" is a rather happy go lucky girl and expects to teach, but expectations do not always come true. One of "Izzy's" diversions is dancing. She loves to talk and dance and is usually ready to relate the news of the dance the night before. Nor does she take a back seat when it comes to the opposite sex. Let's not stop to count, for we probably would run out of numbers.

"Izzy" is especially fond of Notre Dame. We won't give away any personal secrets, "Izzy."

M. HELEN WOLFE
Turbotville High School
Espy, Pa.

It was in the summer school of 1927 that Helen made her first formal visit to B. S. T. C.'s class room. She had just graduated from Turbotville High School. She really liked B. S. T. C. so well that she desired to come back that fall for a two-year course. How time flies! Here is Helen expecting a Senior "write up," and about to graduate.

During our two years together we have learned to enjoy her pleasant smile and appreciate her friendship. She is one of those cheerful girls with merry eyes, and chestnut brown hair—a good combination. We also admire her studious disposition! But our advise is that she really should not spend so much time studying at night. For detailed information, ask Helen.

Sometimes Helen tries to make us believe that she will go in training for a nurse. We think her sister is the drawing card to that profession. Nevertheless, we wish her heaps of success in school teaching, nursing, or whatever she undertakes.

She was an ardent supporter of the Glee Club and Geographic Society.

ESTHER WRIGHT
Berwick High School
Berwick, Pa.
"Wrightie"

Esther is of medium height, has curl (less) light brown locks, and, although avoirdupois and Esther may be distantly related, you would never guess it.

Her chief delight is in startling the locker room with: "No gym today," or "Unexpected test in English Composition and it was dreadful!" When these statements have caused sufficient excitement to satisfy this apparently demure person, the mask drops off and a smile appears, telling us all that we have been the victims of another of Esther's jokes. She has escaped so far without being mobbed.

She has her scholarly moments, however, when she packs away a lot of knowledge—for Esther is a good student.

Always ready to help the other fellow and a good companion, especially if furnished with the cherished chocolate bar—any kind will do!

We hear occasional murmurings about a certain someone in the region of Hazleton and a nice dance now and then. Are we sure that these murmurings are authentic? Oh, no! we aren't, because our "Wrightie" doesn't wear her dates on her sleeve.

ESTHER WRUBLE
Kingston High School
Kingston, Pa.
"Es"

"In youth and beauty wisdom is but rare."

A rare mixture of seriousness and contagious mirth are the qualities that bind her friends to Esther. Esther has many acquaintances, for her winning smile with the dimples peeping out at both corners, makes her well known.

"Es" has intellect and this doesn't mean she stays in and studies. She has manager written all over her and a capable one she has proven herself to be. Her opinion is not only contributed in Current Literature Club, Supervisor's Board and Tau Phi Epsilon, but is solicited and highly valued.

A great lover of all types of good literature is "Es." Poetry is her "meat." Anything from G. Richmond to Socrates appeals to her. In future life we foresee a short time as a school marm for various reasons, but the foresight of humans is but to laugh in the sight of fate.

KENNETH E. YOCUM
 Bloomsburg High School
 Bloomsburg, Pa.
 "Ken" "Scrooge"

"Ken" entered Teachers' College in the fall of '25. He was considered a silent member of that class until he became known by his charming personality and his knowledge of all subjects, especially history and mathematics. We might consider him as the scholar of the class by Emerson's definition of "Man Thinking."

"Ken's" ability has been extended beyond his regular studies, for he has been an enthusiastic supporter of all music clubs, being a member of the Mixed Chorus, '27; Men's Glee Club, '28, '29; Orchestra, '29 and Music Appreciation Club, '26. His activity along other lines made him Secretary of the Teachers' Art Guild, '27, Associate Editor of the Maroon and Gold, '26 and '28 and a member of the Local History Club, '28.

He has very little time for the opposite sex, for it is he who brushes off the dust and cuts the pages of the old volumes in our library. He is much interested in genealogy and uses the library to satisfy this interest.

Some people are born great, but it is with confidence that the class of '29 predicts that "Ken" will achieve greatness.

MARION E. YOUNG
 Kingston Township High School
 Wyoming, Pa.

"Still water runs deep." This applies to Marion. She appears to be quiet, but when one becomes acquainted with her, one discovers that she is full of fun. She is a dependable sort of person, and with this she carried a pleasing personality. She is a real student and distributes her time in applying herself to her school work.

Marion always believes in looking at the bright side of life; never a cloud or a gloom comes her way. Her motto is, "Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you." She is a true and loyal friend and always greets one with a pleasant and happy smile. All of those bring about the sweet disposition that Marion possesses.

Talk about being industrious—well, she sure is that and even more. She never neglects her work on account of other affairs.

We feel sure that Marion will find joy and success in teaching and in any other undertaking in life.

"A helping hand, a willing heart,
 Always ready for any part.
 A wonderful girl, a friend so true.
 What more can one wish of you."

BEATRICE ZARR
Benton Vocation High School
Benton, Pa.
"Bee"

A good natured person is one who can get up at 5:30 A. M. and sing about it. "Bee" is that way. The early hours of morn never effect her cheery disposition.

Her letters often have on them the champion long distance postmark. Although her mind may wander, she stands high in her studies. Aside from that she is a valuable member of the College Symphony Orchestra, where she can display her ability on the violin. "Bee" doesn't confine her talent to the violin alone but plays the piano equally well.

She is a first-rate basketball and hockey player and an excellent dancer. Her specialty is solo dancing and she is always sure of an audience.

"Bee" is popular and has a host of friends, which she does not believe in confining to the feminine sex alone. Variety is the spice of life.

"Bee" intends to be a teacher and cannot help but make good, but what about all that musical ability, "Bee"?

Success and happiness to you, "Bee," in your future life.

STELLA EUGENIA ZATAVETSKI
Plymouth High School
Plymouth, Pa.
"Stell"

One of the chief interests of our friend Stella is athletics. Sometimes we feel that instead of the name Stella, Jim (Gym), would suit her better. She is a lover of all sports, particularly basketball. If you see a snappy game of basketball, you may well think that Stella is an active participant.

Although athletics play an important part in her school life, she, by no means, ignores her studies. Almost any night you can see "Stell" with notebook and text occupying a reserved seat in the upstairs lobby. Yes, indeed, she believes in the motto, "Work now and play after!"

"If you want a girl who's tried and true,
If you want a girl who's all true blue,
If you want a worker when there's work
to do,
If you want a jolly sport to chum with you,
If you want an all 'round college girl, too,
Then I'll say, 'Get Stell!'"

ANNA A. ZIEMBA
Fell High School
Simpson, Pa.
"Red" "Ann"

Tall of stature, fair of face,
Red hair and full of grace,
That's "Ann."

Does it take "Ann" long to get acquainted? Not much. Her jovial and sympathetic nature has won for her a wide circle of friends at B. S. T. C.

"Ann's" chief hobby is dancing and "Ann's" graceful form was missed in the gym the first nine weeks of this year. What was the reason? "Ann" was busily teaching the little cherubs at Berwick. However, rumor would have it that "Ann" didn't miss Bloomsburg one bit, for that "certain party" consumed much of "Ann's" time.

Dancing isn't the only accomplishment of this lively girl. Her scholastic standing has won the admiration of teachers and classmates alike. "Ann" is also interested in athletics. She won her numerals during her Freshman year. She sure did work hard to make the Obiter a success.

We all know that "Ann" will be a success in all her undertakings. Here's wishing you success and luck.

ELEANOR M. ZYDANOWICZ
Newport High School
Glen Lyon, Pa.
"Buddy"

One thing worth while having
Is a friend who's stood the test.
Such a one is our dear "Buddy,"
Who helps friendship at its best.

Where's "Buddy?" Then around the corner comes a sweet smiling face which immediately changes to undertake the serious mother role of her gang, ready to help the troubled one. Love her? Ask them once.

"Buddy" takes a great interest in all activities of the school, being a member of the Orchestra, First-Aid, Dramatic and "B" Clubs. She never misses a social event, yet her school work is not neglected for she ranks as one of the highest in scholastic standing.

Like her playing? Ask the gym crowd at the after-dinner dances! Ask the sororities! Yet when she seriously (?) talks of taking advanced work in music we doubt her—for look at her popularity with the brutal sex! But one can't help loving her, so do you wonder?

That she may be blessed with happiness and success in her future life is the sincere wish of her gang and all that knew her.

To Those Who Follow

The days pass and graduation has finally come. To some it brings sadness—the thought of leaving behind those friends who have come to mean so much; but to all of us it brings happiness as well—having attained the goal for which we have striven so long.

For some of us college has been one long, continuous uphill grind; for others the going has not been so hazardous but for all of us it has been a profitable adventure.

And now that we are leaving it is our wish that the spirit that has dominated our class will continue to be displayed; that those who follow will continue to “carry on” for the institution that they have learned to love.

CLASS OF '29.

JUNIORS

So organized, the Class of 1930 has met its problems as Juniors of B. S. T. C.

Any review of the activities of our class would be decidedly incomplete if we were to omit athletics. The "B" Club with our Dorothy Foote for President has promoted school spirit to the highest point it has reached in years. Ask Coach Booth how he could have carried on men's athletics without our fellows! Elfed Jones has ably assisted him in the coaching; Swinehart was Captain of the Football team in '26; Ruch on the Basketball Jr. Varsity in '27; Wilson on Basketball Jr. Varsity in '28; Kraynack, Captain of our Football team in '28; and Ruch Captain-elect of our Football team in '29. Back of the captains of all the teams have been the boys of our class, each one doing his best to bring victory and glory to our Alma Mater.

Sophomore History

The chief aim of the Sophomore class is for bigger and better Sophomores, both socially and scholastically. This is really our first opportunity to display our potentialities, being restricted in a certain sense, by a combination of two-year and four-year students in our Freshman year. Because of this fact, we have done very little this year except prepare ourselves for the next two years. The Sophomore Cotillion was one example of what we can do, that is, be tip-top and successful in all of our undertakings. Mr. Fenstemaker, our able class advisor, is helping us greatly to pave the way toward success in the future.

DAVID H. BAKER - - - - - Columbia, Pa.

"Dave" is that tall, dark Romeo around here. Romeo, is right, because all "Dave" does is roam the halls. But don't misunderstand us, he's looking for work. He's real energetic, that's why he's on the Community Governing Board, and a valuable member of the Junior Varsity Basketball Team.

ROY O. BEISHLINE - - - - - Benton, Pa.

This bashful suitor hails from another big city up the line. There's a deep mystery surrounding Roy, but anyway he expects to be in Grand Opera some day, if his voice doesn't fail him, because he does a lot of singing in the Glee Club.

BEATRICE BOWMAN - - - - - Orangeville, Pa.

What would the Sophomore class do without "Beatty" (and her flivver? She's always on the job, whether it's to Captain a Hockey team or a basketball team, or hand out home-made candy. The Student Council values "Beatty's" membership, too, as well as the Maroon and Gold.

ELIZABETH C. BOWMAN - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

"Betty" is known to all of us through her appearance in the Freshman play last year. "Betty's" excellent acting accounts for her membership in the Dramatic Club. We don't see how she ever gets to class on time because she's always watching the mailbox.

LEWIS L. CREVELING - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

"Bender Town Lou" never takes part in week-end activities, because he's too occupied learning how to teach up the Creek. "Lou" is the best baseball pitcher in the seventeen counties including Columbia, as well as a valued member of the Men's Glee Club.

JAMES B. DAVIS - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

All the girls like "Jimmy," he's so quiet and nice, and then, too, he has a peach of a tennis racket; just the kind one likes to borrow. "Jimmy" studies so hard we never see him except at Glee Club, Dramatic Club, and Baseball.

HELEN K. DEPPEN - - - - - Nescopeck, Pa.

Helen blows in from Nescopeck every day, and it sure takes a strong wind, too, not because Helen is big by any means, but she just hates to leave the city, because of friendly ties or "honds" or what have you? She's an energetic member of the Current Events Club, and the Phi Gamma Tau Sorority.

EDWARD T. DE VOE - - - - - Berwick, Pa.

"Ed" hails from the big city up the river. We never see much of "Ed" except in classes or in the library with other Berwickians, or, perhaps its another "Berwickian." "Ed" is President of the Sophomore Class, and also represents the Locker Room Gang in the Community Government. His motto is, "Work first and play afterward, and if you don't have the time play anyway."

JOHN W. DYER - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

John is rather a quiet fellow, and we often have to do much searching to see if he is around. But he's right there when it comes to class work or anything that requires work.

ELOUISE J. EVANS - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

Elouise is found anywhere from Science Hall to any room in the dormitory. She likes to have her fortune told, too, to see if she's going to "pass" everything. Elouise is a member of the Current Events Club.

FRANK V. FAUS - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

Frank just loves lecture courses, he can sleep all he wants to—he does anyway. And, when he isn't sleeping he's deeply interested in driving the school bus or talking to a certain blond. Frank is a member of the Dramatic Club.

HELEN B. GIBBONS - - - - - Benton, Pa.

Helen was late in entering Bloomsburg, last fall, but she's been early to everything since. Maybe that is because she's thinking in terms of State rather than Bloomsburg. Helen is an active member of the Dramatic Club this year.

REBECCA GILMORE - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

"Becky" is one of our many day students. She is noted for her frequent nightly visits to Waller Hall, along with the rest of the "Bloomsburg Gang." "Becky" was on the hockey team and her main issue is sports.

FRANK J. GOLDER - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

There are a few around here who do not know Frank, one of our star basketball players. And that all reminds us that Frank is the new Captain of Baseball for this year. You should see him play Basketball! He's a whiz! And the funny part is that he has all of his lessons done too.

CATHERINE F. HAYES - - - - - Berwick, Pa.

"Kate" is an old member of this school business, having graduated from the Philadelphia School of Industrial Art, and can she paint? "Kate" is also in the Geography Club this year.

ERMA M. HEFFERAN - - - - - Montrose, Pa.

Erma is a hard working girl—she is. If she isn't working on her lessons, she's eating. She's always working in the Maroon and Gold office, and maybe she isn't a shining star in athletics.

TOM L. HENRY - - - - - Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Tom is never around, but we needn't wonder where he is keeping himself, because he is building castles in the air. Tom is an active member of the College Orchestra.

CHESTER C. HESS - - - - - Trevorton, Pa.

"Chet" sees all, knows all, and is known by all. Who wouldn't he if he weren't Manager of a Football Team? "Chet" is also in the Nature Study Club, Student Government, and is the treasurer of the Sophomore Class. Who knows—he may be President some day; I mean of the class.

ILA IVEY - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

Did you ever see Ila when she wasn't laughing? Of course not. That's because she is in about every kind of athletics she can get in. One of her favorite sports is making candy for certain Waller Hall girls.

ELSIE V. KELLAR - - - - -

We know very little about Elsie except that she always manages to have her lessons. She is a new student in our class, not having been with us last year.

THOMAS J. KIRKER - - - - - Columbia, Pa.

"Tam" is that big athlete. He's the Napoleon we see galloping around. "Tam" sees all, hears all, knows all, not according to himself, but according to us he is one of the most valued Basketball, Baseball, and Football Stars we have. He can also run a "little," which accounts for his being on the Track Team.

DOROTHY B. KISNER - - - - - Muncy, Pa.

If you hear a "tap-tap," or a "quiet, girls," you can just bet it is "Dot" making her rounds. It is a hard job being a supervisor and being liked at the same time, but "Dot" manages both very well. She is also Secretary of the Sophomore Class.

FRANCES KNICKERBOCKER - - - - - Berwick, Pa.

Frances is famous for her numerous "invitations" to Chicken dinners up in Berwick. We don't see much of Frances, either, except at classes, and then she certainly makes herself heard. She is a member of the French Club.

ROBERT F. KNIEREM - - - - - Scranton, Pa.

"Bob" lives in Scranton, but we often wonder why he gets on the train at Kingston, but then they say "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." "Bob" belongs to the Geography Club.

ADA E. KOSMELA - - - - - Plymouth, Pa.

If you want to meet a good hockey player, shake hands with Ada, because she is right there. She doesn't say much, but she thinks lots, which, perhaps, accounts for her excellent mastery of languages. She is also in the Current Literature Club.

EUGENE KROLIKOWSKI

"Senator Beck" is noted for his speeches at North Hall, as well as his diligence as a student. We don't hear much of him around the campus, but around the fireplace, he is said to tell many a strange tale. He is on the Junior Varsity Basketball Team.

ARTHUR C. MCKENZIE - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

We really believe "Art" has the wiggles, because he never sits still. He likes to argue until everyone thinks he's right, so that is why he is Manager of the Baseball Team, a member of the Dramatic Club, as well as a member of the Alpha Psi Omega. He's some football player, "Art" is.

HELEN L. MAYNARD - - - - - Chinchilla, Pa.

Helen wouldn't be herself if she was not hugging a text book of some sort, and she is never seen until that lesson is mastered. Helen is one of our few "decidedly blond" blondes. She is an excellent basketball and hockey player.

MARION R. MEIXELL - - - - - Espy, Pa.

It is indeed a shame, that more people do not know Marion. She is very energetic in her studies and playful both in and out of classes. Just now she is occupied in the playful game of "keeping under a hundred and forty." Marion is a member of the Current Literature Club.

THEODORE MORRISSEY - - - - - Wanamie, Pa.

"Ted" is one of the Siamese Twins; they named the other one "Danny." He elected Elizabethan Drama, because he likes the poem, "Mary has a little lamb." Sh! Teddy thinks that the lamb is he. What would the Geography Club do without him?

ORVAL C. PALSGROVE - - - - - Frackville, Pa.

Orval's favorite hobby is to come to classes in time to see them dismissed. But we have the satisfaction of knowing that he comes anyway. Orval is on the Football Team.

MAYNARD J. PENNINGTON - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

Who around here isn't acquainted with "Stub." I bet that he is going to be a doctor some day because he just loves the hospitals. He is on the Football Squad as well as a member of the Dramatic Club and the Alpha Psi Omega.

FLORENCE M. REGAN - - - - - Kingston, Pa.

"Floss" is a member of the "fourth floor gang," but she's found on any floor at any time, preferably in the telephone booth. "Regan's" pet hobbies, other than the above mentioned are studying and sitting on the porch railing. "Floss" is a First Aider as well as a member of the Phi Gamma Tau.

DORIS S. SECHRIST - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

Doris is thinking of leaving us to attend college in Sunny California; but don't ask questions, she's merely going for an education. Besides being on the Maroon and Gold Staff, Doris is a member of the Dramatic Club and the Phi Gamma Tau.

MARTIN A. SEKULSKI - - - - - Glen Lyon, Pa.

"Ski" may be seen at any hour of the day winding himself around a pole to talk to some member of the fair sex. Anyway he can play Basketball and Tennis, and he actually likes to study.

ARTHUR F. SLUSSER - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

"Artie" is one of the town fellows, but he never misses a trick up here. And just because he lives down town doesn't mean he can come to classes ten minutes late, either, but I guess that "Artie" will never grow up. "Artie" is on the Junior Varsity Football Team and the Baseball Team also.

DOROTHY A. VOIGT - - - - - Hawley, Pa.

"Dot" is undoubtedly one of the most popular girls here. If you want her to do you a favor—well, ask her and she'll do it. Her versatility can be effectively depicted by the fact that she is President of the Delta Phi Sigma; Corresponding Secretary of the Governing Board; Maroon and Gold member, Dramatic Club member; and last, but by far the most important, Historian Extraordinary of the Sophomore Class.

WILLIAM H. WEAVER - - - - - Bloomsburg, Pa.

"Bill" lives in the suburbs of Bloomsburg (Light Street). And he rides forth in his chariot every morning at eight. He is very active in both Glee Club and the Orchestra.

CLARENCE R. WOLEVER - - - - - Nanticoke, Pa.

"The Face at the Window," will best describe Clarence. He can hand out more clean clothes and more cats than anyone else in the school. He is also Editor-in-Chief of the Maroon and Gold, and a member of the group that always know their lessons in class. He is also a member of the Omega Chi Fraternity.

JOSEPH J. YACABONIS - - - - - Mahanoy City, Pa.

"Yock" is the handsome football player who just "hates" the women. And can he play football? Just ask everyone in school and then you will have his history because he plays basketball and baseball as well. "Yock" is also on the Track Team and in the Dramatic Club.

ESTHER R. YEAGER - - - - - Philadelphia, Pa.

There isn't much one can tell Esther in the line of studies. She has every book and author down "pat." Esther entered in February, 1928, but it didn't take her long to catch up to us. The Maroon and Gold Staff values her membership as well as the Nature Study Club.

Freshman History

The year started out in a blaze of glory for the future leaders of the school. After the first few confusing weeks had been surmounted and the routine of college studies mastered things became comparatively easier. The memories of the eventful dip in the lagoon became less irksome and gradually faded into the aurora of pleasant memories. Customs came and went leaving us a bit more sober and disciplined.

The Bon-Fire conducted by the school at the opening of football season was the initial debut of our class to the rest of the school. The men of the class furnished the wood for the occasion and as a whole the affair was a success. The school as well as the merchants will never forget it.

The Kids' party next occupied our attention and under legalized supervision of the faculty the young bloods of the class sucked lolly-pops, twiddled thumbs, jumped rope, and indulged in many forms of suppressed whoopee.

Came King Winter and blew his frosty breath upon the campus. Through long winter nights young Frosh toiled and burned the midnight oil, while the dreary howling wind swept across the campus keeping nightly vigil. While over all hung the dreaded pall of deficiencies. But scholarship prevailed and the "meek" inherited the earth.

The class play furnished ample opportunities for the dramatists to display their talent.

Then as a final tribute to the year's activity came the "Prom," a fitting close to the year of years.

Thanks . . .

No book of this kind can be a success without the active support of the various organizations. This OBITER is greater than ever before due mainly to the greater number of organizations supporting it.

The OBITER staff takes this opportunity, in behalf of the Senior Class, in extending their thanks to the various organizations who have contributed to this OBITER.

The Governing Board

The Governing Board of the Women's Student Government Association is one of the most active organizations of the College. Its membership consists of representatives from each of the various classes. The representatives are nominated and elected by the students of Waller Hall at a stated time and hold their office for one year.

The Governing Board makes and enforces regulations pertaining to all conditions in the dormitory. In addition to its executive and judicial work the Governing Board functions through these committees:

1. Finance committee which collects and disburses the funds, and makes out and keeps the budget in a healthy financial condition.
2. A Fire-drill committee which regulates and supervises fire-drills in Waller Hall.
3. A House committee which reports on condition of halls, press-rooms and lavatories, and recommends repairs and improvements.
4. A Social committee which plans for dormitory parties and for suitable observance of holiday seasons in the dormitory.

The officers of the Board are:

OFFICERS

GILBERT GOULD	- - - - -	President
JOSEPH YACABONIS	- - - - -	Vice President
NICHOLAS JAFFIN	- - - - -	Treasurer
CLARENCE RUCH	- - - - -	Secretary

Founded on true educational principles and nurtured by an efficient administration, the North Hall Student Government Association has grown into a living, vibrant organization. We as an organization are grateful to the administration for the privileges extended to us as responsibilities, and do pledge ourselves to do everything within our power that we may prove deserving of this recognition.

The organization meets twice a month. At this time the members have opportunities to openly discuss any matter which they feel will benefit themselves individually, or the organization as a whole. This method of discipline has contributed much toward the development of the mental, moral, and physical wants of each member of the Association.

The organization also does much in a social way about the campus. The annual festivities sponsored by the members of the council and adhered to by the incoming Freshmen, much to their dislike, prove to be the events that create the enthusiasm in the hearts of the upperclassmen. Drifting to the more informal social events we naturally recall the "Smokers" where Politics assuming the form of "King Humor" ran high.

On behalf of the members who leave we say Adieu and may success follow you in your profession.

"Fellowship"

Y. W. C. A.

The great work of the Y. W. C. A. lies in creating a "four square life" upon our college campus. This has been attempted by rendering service wherever it has been needed, by contributing to the social life of the college, by sponsoring the Little Sister Movement, and by weekly meetings which have been arranged and conducted by "Y" members. Throughout the year we have had various seasonal programs and special speakers, including members of the faculty, the community, and other organizations. There have been several joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. meetings with lively debates and discussions led by the Y. M. C. A. members.

At the beginning of the year the Y. W. C. A., with the co-operation and help of the Y. M. C. A. and Faculty, gave a Welcome Reception to the students of the college. Each year the Y. W. C. A. eagerly plans and looks forward to this event. Early in November a formal dance was successfully managed through the earnest co-operation of the "Y" members.

In April of last year, we were represented by four Cabinet members at the annual Teachers' College Conference held at West Chester. Much credit for this conference is due to the leader, Maudrue O'Connell, one of our active Cabinet members, who represents the State Teachers' Colleges of Pennsylvania on the National Student Council. And last June we were again represented by four Cabinet members at the annual Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. Conference held at Eagles Mere. At this conference many ideas and suggestions were given which have helped us greatly in our work.

We, the present Seniors, feel that our successful "Y" year has been due to the steady guidance and untiring efforts of our faculty advisor, Miss Mason.

To the newly installed Cabinet who will have the privilege of carrying on and improving upon our work, we wish the utmost happiness and success.

Y. M. C. A.

The Student Y. M. C. A. is a voluntary religious activity on the College Campus. Thirty young men of the College, feeling the necessity of religious fellowship, organized the present Y. M. C. A. which is one of the foremost in the state.

The "Y" engaged in many festivities during the year. Everyone will remember, "The Mediterranean Cruise." The freshmen will never forget the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Reception, which was held shortly after their introduction to the college. The men of North Hall are still talking about that beer (root) and pretzel party sponsored by us. One of the most noteworthy achievements was the Chapel program presented during "Prayer Week."

The "Y" looks forward to a very successful season, next year. Practically all of the freshmen and upper-classmen of both cabinets will be with us again.

The Y. M. C. A. extends to its graduating members, the best wishes for future happiness and success in the career opening out before them.

Maroon and Gold

The Maroon and Gold is the college publication issued weekly by the students of the college. The paper contained weekly news of the student activities, sports, literary articles, and poems contributed by the students. At the opening of the college year in September, the administrative heads of the staff began to publish a paper that had far exceeded their original expectations. To make the Maroon and Gold a paper of, about, and for the students of the college was the chief aim of the staff at the beginning of the 1928-1929 term.

The first step was the establishing of a six-page paper instead of the heretofore four-page edition. The student body responded with support and co-operation to make the paper a success. Additional departments were added and each member of the staff was made responsible for certain work.

The staff met once a week in order to face and discuss different problems that came up concerning the paper. They worked hard and presented articles of campus importance, which reflected greatly their journalistic abilities.

The success of the paper in part may be attributed to Prof. S. L. Wilson, who directed the staff through many of the difficult situations that arose during the year.

The Current Literature Club

The Current Literature Club was organized last year under the sponsorship of Miss Shaw and Miss Russell. We realize that the teachers of today must have a good foundation in the field of literature which is the main purpose of the club.

We meet to discuss literature, including the various phases such as Poetry, Novels, Biographies, and Dramas.

It has been our custom this year to hold a not-too-frequent social meeting and there let down the barriers of reserve, to conduct discussions without reticences—but with contradictory view points.

The First Aid Club

The ability to give first aid in case of emergency has been one of the main problems people must meet in daily life. Realizing this a first aid club was formed under the capable direction of E. H. Nelson.

During the first semester forty members joined the club and received practical instruction in the art of first aid treatment. Valuable information was received from local Boy Scout troops who attended several of the meetings and gave demonstrations.

Since the first meetings the club has progressed rapidly in such work as bandaging, tying knots. Imaginary cases such as a broken limb or a severe cut are brought before the members to solve. The club is confident of accomplishing a great deal towards efficiency in rendering first aid.

Geographic Society

The Geographic Society is one of the extra-curricular activities organized primarily to promote interest in the study of geography through lectures, slides, moving pictures and geographic games. Since geography is fundamental to the understanding of history, of economics, of sociology, and of civics, it is necessary that we who are training to be teachers, understand the relationship of geography to those subjects. Realizing this fact, the Geographic Society has endeavored through its programs to foster a better knowledge of this relationship.

Lantern Club

The Lantern Club was organized at the opening of the extra-curricular season in September of 1928. The chief aim of the club is to throw light on those phases of literature of interest to the members. The Lantern Club, even though a literary club, is so called because, we, the members, use a lantern in illustrations to our talks on some writer, or book, or poem.

The lantern is one for opaque projection and so permits us to show on the screen, pictures on postcards, in books, and in magazines. This material we collect ourselves. Pedagogically speaking, the Lantern Club has pinned its faith to "visual education."

The Phi Lambda Fraternity of the Nature Study Club

In the autumn of twenty-five a small group of nature students met and formed the nature fraternity Phi Lambda. They chose as their motto: "Through Nature to God," and set up a program of activities. Through the years since that day we have had a varied career. Among the outstanding events are reviews of new books in our field, as "Microbe Hunters," "Arcturus Adventure," "Bambi." We have had many out-door trips and meals. Who can ever forget "The Quaking Earth," "The Cave of the Bats," "The Beaver-gnawed Tree," "The Twin Hills" or the sleighride to Millville?

We have had demonstrations of various types. Remember the time we ate fig bars and talked of the enchanting adventures of the Fig-Insect! Remember the course dinner we cooked and served for ourselves in the Y. W. rooms of Science Hall! Opportunity is given for working on hobbies. Some study birds, trees, flowers, moths, rocks, stars. Others work on Scout Leadership projects.

The Phi Lambda is the core of a large Nature Study Club. To be eligible for the fraternity, one must be a member of the Nature Study Club one semester and pass the requirements in scholarship and sportsmanship. The following are the present members:

How we love the country,
Place where all nature lives,
The pupils there are free
To take life as it is.

Rural Club will do its best
To interest those who come,
For country life we will test
Along with city fun.

As we think of service
That we may give today—
Where is there a better place
To accomplish work and play?

The members of the Rural Life Club are all very much interested in the welfare of the country people and they are striving to give the best that is in them.

The club meets each Thursday and the time is devoted to instruction in seat work for the different grades.

We wish to express our appreciation to Professor Robbins, who has been our guide and friend in all that we have undertaken.

Farewell Song

(Tune: Let the Rest of the World Go By)

We now say "Adieu," as we must leave you
To face life earnestly
We'll sustain and uphold with our Main and our might
The colors of blue and white.

Chorus:

Farewell, to our dear school
We're leaving today.
Farewell to all the friends
We met along the way.
We'll miss you and we'll need you all.
We'll long to come back again some day.
We'll take different roads
To seek new abodes
And hope will lead us on and on.
When we have left thy doors, old Bloom.
And begin a life so new,
We'll think of you—but now we say "Adieu."

Farewell, dear old school,
Farewell, dear classmates,
It grieves our hearts to part
But life has its duties to be done
Every day.
So let us now depart.

DRAMA AND MUSIC

Drama and Music

Leading educators such as Dewey, maintain that "We learn by doing." Modern schools realize that if the pupils are to appreciate their environment they must begin in school to do it. To fulfill this purpose schools have been increasing the opportunities for extra-curricular activity in the fields of Drama and Music. Our college is providing a variety of such opportunities so that future teachers will be better fitted to emphasize this to their pupils.

Dramatic work has become of increasing importance under the leadership of Miss Johnson. She started several years ago a dramatic club with only a few members. It is now the largest club in the school. Besides the annual dramatic club production each class presents a play.

Students not desiring to enroll in the Dramatic Club but interested in music have opportunities to express their musical talent under the direction of Mr. Fenstermaker, Miss Caldwell, Miss Patterson, Mrs. Miller or Dr. Clark.

In response to the demands of the men a Men's Glee Club was formed. For several years it led a spasmodic life but through the direction of Dr. Clark a glee club has been developed which is an asset to the college.

Opportunity for displaying talent with musical instruments is provided in the College Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Fenstermaker. The orchestra has proved a source of enjoyment not only to the members but to the whole student body.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"Apple Sauce"

By Barry Connors

The Senior class presented this delightful comedy in the College Auditorium on December 20, 1928. The play portrays the trials of a modern girl selecting a husband under the handicaps of repeated advice by her parents. Many amusing incidents arise through the flattery used by the future husband and the way their path is smoothed by "applesauce."

The action of the play takes place in the living room of the Robinsons and an upstairs apartment over a drug store. The play was a great success due to the co-operation of the entire class.

The play was directed by Miss Alice Johnston.

The cast of characters are as follows:

"As You Like It"

The Bloomsburg players successfully presented before a large audience, William Shakespeare's well known play, "As You Like it." The play, in four acts, was enacted on the Pergola, May 17, 1928.

The banished Duke went to the Forest of Arderi and Rosalind dressed as a boy, with Celia and the Court Fool, also go thither. Orlando reaches the forest and although he does not know her identity, courts her in the name of Rosalind. Oliver is rescued from a lion by Orlando. With many other complications and amusing incidents the plot finally ends with word being received that the Duke will regain his kingdom. Rosalind then appears in proper attire and Hymen, God of Marriage, with his followers, joins in the wedding dance.

Music for the play was furnished by the college orchestra, under the direction of Howard Fenstermaker.

The Bloomsburg Players

The Bloomsburg Players are now in the fifth year of their organization. Aside from their own work they have staged several public presentations, giving one long play each year as well as many one-act plays. Last year the long play was "As You Like It." It was beautifully staged, costumed and presented in the grove. The natural setting was very effective.

In nineteen twenty-seven the club established the custom of producing for the public a play tournament composed of three one-act plays. Last year the three plays presented were "Wedding Presents," by John Rogers; "Mis' Mercy," a Harvard workshop play; and "Speaking to Father," by George Ade. "Speaking to Father" was awarded first place. Honorable mention was given Elfed Jones and Dorothy Richards, who took part in "Wedding Presents" and "Mis' Mercy."

The great work of the club, however, lies not in the public productions but in the one-act plays produced at each weekly meeting before the club. Through these plays the members acquire training in acting, directing, and producing. In addition to the skill acquired an appreciation for good plays is stimulated. Our aim is not primarily to produce stars but to receive training so that we may train others.

Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, has granted the club the right to establish a chapter. On March 3, 1928, thirteen charter members were initiated into the Alpha Omicron Chapter of the Alpha Psi Omega Fraternity.

The officers of the club are elected each semester. The acting officers of the first semester were:

MAYNARD PENNINGTON	- - - - -	President
EDMUND JENKINS	- - - - -	Vice President
SARA WELLIVER	- - - - -	Secretary
CHARLES JOHNS	- - - - -	Treasurer

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega was nationally organized as an honorary dramatic fraternity, for the purpose of providing an honor society for colleges of recognized standing who are doing work of a high standard in dramatics. It also provides among the colleges of the United States and Canada, a wider fellowship for those interested in the college theatre.

The fraternity does not take the place of the regular Dramatic Club, but, as students qualify, they are rewarded by election to membership in this society. Last year the Bloomsburg players were accepted by the national committee as eligible and granted the right to install a chapter.

Since then the members of the Bloomsburg chapter have worked faithfully to uphold the principles and maintain the high standards of the national organization.

Several of the charter members have graduated, but new members have been initiated so that the present membership of the fraternity numbers eighteen.

The Maroon and Gold Orchestra

A meek, demure, "Frosh" in the Fall of '28 entered our institution. He brought with him his violin. Before we had hardly known him he had reorganized last year's orchestra. This "Frosh" was none other than Jack Taylor. Under his direction the orchestra developed into a classy and snappy little band.

Let us give you a brief review of the personnel of this band: the three saxophonists Davis, Siesko and Shoemaker are "merry makers" within themselves possessing that harmony and rhythm essential in a good band; then there is Hibbard who all but makes the piano talk; Brooke Yeager handles his drums with marked precision, the result of years of experience; and now we turn to the brass instruments, Litwhiler with his trumpet, Kurtz with his slide trombone; both men are masters of their instruments.

The men of this orchestra are to be commended for their efforts in producing a band thus satisfying the students' desires for "after dinner music." We hope that in the future this orchestra will be able to take the place of "outside marauding bands."

In September, 1928, the Women's Chorus was organized under the direction of Miss Caldwell. The women began their work enthusiastically and the results of the year show the success with which they finished the work. ## Men's Conservatory Glee Club

The Men's Conservatory Glee Club was first organized in the spring of 1928, under the direction of Prof. Robert E. Clark, sponsored by Prof. S. I. Shortess, and assisted by Prof. Howard Fenstemaker, pianist.

The club is now made up of twenty-two selected voices and compares favorably with similar clubs in other colleges.

The club has done much to contribute to the musical life of both the college and the community. Very creditable chorus work was done by the members in the production of the comic opera, "La Mascotte," which was put on by the Bloomsburg Civic Chorus.

The annual Glee Club concert, consisting of a number of chorus selections and the First Act of "La Mascotte," was received as one of the best programs ever given by a musical organization at the college.

Plans have been made to give the Glee Club programs in other towns.

The officers of the club are:

Nineteen hundred and twenty-eight will go down in history as one of the greatest football seasons in Bloomsburg's history. The team finished the season with four victories and four defeats. Handicapped by a small squad both in size and numbers, Coach Booth, ably assisted by Assistant Coach "Vid" Jones and Captain Kraynack, turned out a fighting team.

B. S. T. C. 12—KUTZTOWN 0

Bloomsburg journeyed to Kutztown for the opening game and defeated Kutztown 12 to 0. Although playing a little crude at times the team gave great promise. The all around playing of the entire team featured.

B. S. T. C. 0—WEST CHESTER 13

West Chester came here with an unusually large squad and one that would have done credit to any large college. They succeeded in winning the game 13 to 0. Much credit is due our boys for their ability in holding this heavy team to two touchdowns. West Chester did all of their scoring in the first half when several breaks went against Bloom.

B. S. T. C. 13—SHIPPENSBURG 6

Showing a wonderful fighting spirit and the ability to come from behind with the odds against them, Bloom nosed out a 13 to 6 victory over Shippensburg at Bloomsburg. Shippensburg scored early in the first half but Bloomsburg showing a "never say die" spirit came within inches of tying the score just as the half ended.

Coming back in the second half determined to win and with "Vid" Jones and Mowrer playing stellar roles, Bloomsburg battered their way down the field for two scores and an extra point.

B. S. T. C. 0—CALIFORNIA 6

Bloomsburg, although outplaying California, were unable to cross the westerner's goal line. Several times our team was within scoring distance but lacked the necessary punch to put the ball over. California scored early in the first half after a large penalty had been imposed on Bloomsburg. Great runs by Kirker and Mowrer featured while Ruch's work at center was sensational.

B. S. T. C. 12—LOCK HAVEN 0

Playing on a field covered with mud, Bloomsburg completely outclassed the Lock Haven eleven and defeated them 12 to 0.

Captain "Eckie" Kraynaek was responsible for our first score when he made a sensational catch of a forward pass thrown by Kirker and dodged his way over the line. Heck Mowrer, our own little rabbit, dodged and twisted his way 20 yards through the entire Lock Haven team for the second score. Due to the wet condition of the ball both attempts for the extra points failed. Frequent fumbles held down the score of our team. Lock Haven could do nothing against our impregnable defense and were forced to kick frequently.

B. S. T. C. 12—MANSFIELD 0

Mansfield came here with one of the greatest teams in the history of their school. They had not been scored upon until they encountered Bloomsburg. Using a smashing attack consisting of line bucks and off tackle plays with Kraynaek, Jones, and Kirker carrying the brunt of the attack, the ball was pushed to within several yards of Mansfield's goal. Kirker scored the first touchdown on an off tackle play and Jaffin ran wild around end to score the second touchdown.

Mansfield never threatened after the first quarter when they held the ball inside of Bloomsburg's 20 yard line.

B. S. T. C. 0—WYOMING SEMINARY 25

A great Bloomsburg eleven howed to a bigger and greater Wyoming team 25 to 0. Bloom put up a great fighting game and succeeded in holding Sem on an even basis in the first half. But handicapped by the loss of Captain Kraynaek, who was carried from the field with a badly wrenched knee, Bloom seemed to weaken and the heavier Sem team rode roughshod over them. Bloomsburg never gave up trying and many of the men were out on their feet but refused to leave the game. Seminary inserted fresh men often and wore down our fighting eleven, who were handicapped by having no substitutes to take their places.

Homecoming Day was celebrated and many old Grads were back to renew old acquaintances. The campus was a continual scene of old friends meeting. The game was witnessed by a large crowd from both schools.

B. S. T. C. 0—EAST STROUDSBURG 12

Bloomsburg journeyed to Stroudsburg where they were defeated by the eleven from that place 12 to 0. Stroudsburg scored all her points in the first half. Bloomsburg threatened only once and that was at the beginning of the second half when we advanced the ball to within 10 yards of the goal. The fight exhibited by Bloom was something to be marveled at. In the second half Bloom held Strouds for four downs on the one yard line. Jaffin and Mowrer played well for Bloomsburg.

Clarence "Rucky" Ruch, star center of the team, was elected captain for the season of 1929. With Rucky leading the squad Bloomsburg will be assured of a fighting eleven. The outlook for the new season appears very promising as few men of this year's squad will be lost by graduation. With a nucleus composed of men of this year's squad and promising candidates to come in with the new Freshman Class, Coach Booth has prospects of a very successful season.

Working night after night on the gym floor, taking the bumps of practice without glory or praise the Junior Varsity emerged with a wonderful record.

"Tax" Davis was elected captain and he filled his position capably, showing a fine sense of leadership and ability. To aid Tax we had "Bob" Davis and Baker from last year. Brown and Kanjorski were brought in the Freshman class and Ruch and Jones, two great guards, joined the team. Showing a willingness to work together and guided by the capable leadership of Coach Jones, the team played a brand of basketball that commanded the respect of the fans and the opposing teams.

Working together with clock-like co-ordination and playing a brand of basketball that held their opponents to low scores and still enabled them to score heavily. With a hard schedule facing them the boys worked hard and diligently and won all but two games played at home.

The team was second to none in the state and set an enviable record for other teams to shoot at. Co-operation rather than individual work was responsible for their success.

The following scores will give you some idea of the superiority of the Junior Varsity:

As soon as the basketball season ended, the gymnasium was taken over by the baseball candidates. The boys liked to the gymnasium every evening to limber up for the coming season.

A large number of candidates reported for duty, and among them were many veterans who had previously seen service with the Maroon and Gold. Bobby Wilson, one of the best infielders ever seen here, was elected captain of the team. Some of the other veterans to return were: Outfield, "Red" Garrity, Hidlay, Vital, and Kraynaek. Golder, a Freshman, gave promise of offering competition for an outfield berth. Among the infielders to return were: Slusser, Wilson, McGrath, Wadas, and Kraftchick. Heck Mowrer showed up well in practice and earned a position on the Varsity. With Fritz, a veteran pitcher, and Creveling and Morgans, Freshmen, as pitchers, and Zeveny and Yockabonis as catchers, the team gave promise of being a well balanced nine.

Playing a fine brand of ball the nine ably kept the name of Bloomsburg in the limelight.

Two of the outstanding games of the year were played against Mansfield and Wyoming Seminary here. Mansfield was defeated 6-5 in twelve innings, and Seminary 3-2 in ten innings. "Heinie" Morgans was the winning pitcher in the first contest, and Lew Creveling in the second.

With the approach of spring the attention of the college was turned to track and thoughts of another good season. Coach E. Jones issued a call for candidates and a large number of aspirants responded.

After a few weeks of practice try-outs were held to pick out a team to enter the Annual University of Pennsylvania Relay Carnival. The relay team selected was: Captain Ralph Davies, Keller, Jaffin, Parr. These four men along with Coach Jones made the trip to Philadelphia by train. Due to the fact that the track was soggy and muddy the team did not place but made a very creditable showing.

Not a bit discouraged over their failure to place in the relays the team returned home and went to work in earnest to prepare for future meets. The boys under the leadership of Captain Davies and the guidance of Coach Jones worked hard every evening with the idea of surpassing the records of any other track team that represented this college.

The team composed of six men journeyed to West Chester and entered the track meet held at that place. Although handicapped by the fact that there were only six entries Coach Jones' proteges finished in third place and set an enviable record for the other schools to aim at. Captain Davies placed first in the 220 yard low hurdles in the remarkable time of 26 seconds. Captain-elect Jaffin placed first in the 440 yard dash, while Siesko, Kirker, and Yockabonis succeeded in placing in their events. The relay team composed of Davies, Wolever, Keller and Jaffin finished third and Davies also finished third in the 220 yard dash.

At the close of the season Nick Jaffin was elected captain to fill the shoes of Ralph Davies, who captained the team two successive seasons. Much credit is due Coach Jones for the remarkable record he established with so small a squad.

BERNARD GALLAGHER	-----	Captain

HAVEN FORTNER	-----	Captain-elect

Although still in its infancy at this institution, tennis underwent a very successful season. The success of the team was due to the willingness on the part of the players and to the untiring efforts on the part of Coach J. C. Koch, who spent day after day on the courts training his small squad.

Tennis being a new sport and not fully developed did not draw many candidates. When Coach Koch put out his call for candidates, a very small number responded. He was seriously handicapped by numbers but with never a grumble he and the boys settled down and worked with a zeal that carried them through a successful season.

The team was made up of Captain Gallagher, C. Ruch, H. Fortner and W. Rholand. Although few in number these boys made their presence felt in all matches and always made the opposing team travel at top speed to defeat them.

The team journeyed to Mansfield along with our baseball squad but here they met defeat at the hands of Mansfield's court team. Later Mansfield came to Bloomsburg and again succeeded in defeating our boys in a close match.

The next two matches were with Wyoming Seminary and we broke even in these contests. In the first game our tennis team playing a superior brand of tennis easily defeated Wyoming but in the second contest although playing sensational tennis, the breaks went to Wyoming and they nosed out a victory.

A great deal of credit is due to Coach Koch and his small squad for the contribution they have made to tennis in this college. They have given tennis its start here and have built a foundation for the game. With this excellent start there is no reason why tennis should not grow at this school. The prospects for next year seem very bright for a highly successful season as Gallagher, Ruch, and Fortner of last year's team will return.

Thanks for the start you have made in tennis, team of '28, and best wishes for a successful season in '29.

Freshman Football

FRESHMAN VS. UPPERCLASSMEN

The Upperclassmen defeated the Freshman team by the score of 18-0. The uppers were led by "Bobby" Wilson and the Frosh by Joe Ichter. The Frosh were "stage struck" at the beginning of the fray but soon recovered and put up a battle that would do credit to many a good team.

The Frosh kicked off and soon the Uppers had the ball in dangerous territory. With the ball on the Frosh 10 yard line Wilson threw a forward pass to Slusser who carried the ball over for the first score. Wilson tried a dropkick but failed. The first half ended with the ball in Frosh territory in the Seniors' possession. The second half opened with the Uppers receiving, and after that talk that Coach Kraynaek gave the boys between halves they were ready to tear the Frosh to pieces. It was not long till Wilson scored another touchdown via the forward pass and took the "pep" out of the first year men. The try for extra point failed. The Frosh were determined to score at least one touchdown and it looked as if they would succeed when Ichter ran 30 yards around end. Their hopes were soon blasted when they were forced to kick. Wilson scored the final points when he carried the ball 25 yards through the Freshman line.

Women's Athletics

Women's athletics in this school have been taking a more important place each year. During the past few years they have become well organized, by Miss Loose and Miss McCammon, under a point system. Freshmen are encouraged to participate in the various sports and earn points for their numerals, "B" and Chevron. Good sportsmanship is encouraged in all activities.

Every girl has a chance to take part in hockey, volley ball, basketball, tennis, skating and hiking.

The major sports, hockey, volley ball, basketball and baseball, are staged in the form of tournaments. The winning Freshman team plays the Senior winners for school championship. A tennis tournament is also held for all who care to play.

Many good times are had on hikes. Every girl knows the way to the Rose Tea Room at Light Street and many have visited the Catawissa fire tower and other places of interest.

During the skating season many pleasant hours are spent on the ice. Some girls hike to the various places while others prefer riding on the bus. Espy bog and Arbutus Park seem to be the popular places for this sport.

Each year the interest in athletics is growing and we know that athletics in the future are going to hold an even bigger place in the school life of every girl for hours of fun are not soon forgotten.

Girls' Letter Club

The Girls' Letter Club is made up of girls who have won the "B" award in athletics. To secure a "B" a girl must have at least six hundred points, two hundred of which must be major and two hundred minor plus two hundred which may be either. In addition to the six hundred points each girl must have an "A" in posture and an "A" in sportsmanship to qualify for the award.

After securing the "B" girls may work for chevrons. For each additional three hundred points, one hundred of which must be major and one hundred minor, a chevron is given.

The officers of the Girls' Letter Club for the year 1928-29 are:

DOROTHY FOOTE	- - - - -	President
KATHRYN FLEMING	- - - - -	Vice President
MARTHA LAIRD	- - - - -	Secretary
MAUDRUE O'CONNELL	- - - - -	Treasurer

The sponsors are: Mrs. Sutliff, Miss McCammon, and Mr. Nelson.

The club was organized to promote more interest in athletics and a better school spirit. The club has assumed responsibility for the organizing and promoting of decorations for games, bonfires, pep meetings, trip to Lock Haven, etc. The Senior Girls' Basketball tournament was organized and conducted by the Girls' Letter Club, the members of the club acting as referees, umpires, and the like.

Freshmen Hockey

Field hockey was introduced as a sport several years ago, and has proven to be one of the most popular sports for women. The hockey teams play against each other in a series of contests.

These contests are played on the grounds between Science Hall and the Gymnasium. Each team consists of eleven players. The incoming freshmen are rather green in the game and of course the game offers thrills galore for the inexperienced player, and also provides fun for the onlookers.

A small but agile team led by Ruth Sonner proved too strong for the other freshmen teams who opposed them. The best game of the season was the one which included the two strongest teams. Although Sonner's team proved the victors, the work of Farrow's team was great.

Basketball Tournament

The girls' tournament of the upper classmen played this year at B. S. T. C. was enjoyed by members of the second and third year classes. In spite of the fact that the schedule was often interrupted by conferences and the like, we had a very successful season.

The girls were divided into ten teams, six girls playing on a team. These teams were arranged according to numbers.

We were ably coached by our physical director, Miss McCammon.

The tournament was won by teams number two and number seven. That is, at the close of the basketball season we find that these two teams have the highest standings.

The courage and clean fighting spirit combined with excellent team work stood out in each game. Not once in the tournament was any poor sportsmanship shown by any member of either team.

Freshmen Girls' Basketball

This season has been a very successful one for the girls' basketball teams of the Freshman Class. We are greatly indebted to our coach, Mrs. Kathryn Loose Sutliff, by whom we have been so ably trained. Although the teams were handicapped by lack of practice, due to their inability to secure the gym on many occasions, the results have been such that much praise is due both coach and players.

We must not forget our loyal student body whose enthusiasm and co-operation has had much influence in making this season successful. Nor must we forget the assistance that Mr. Nelson gave us from time to time as we needed it.

During the month of January a tournament was conducted in the gym which proved itself worthy of the support and interest given it. The teams were grouped according to ability in sections A and B. The B teams who ranked highest by not losing a single game were: B-7, B-14, B-2, and B-15. The A teams, however, carried their rivalry through to the end. A-25 won a close victory over A-23 in the final game. Up to that game neither team had met defeat.

Where, oh where, are the pea green Freshmen?

1927-28

The fall of 1927 marked a new epoch in the lives of 300 youthful men and women when perhaps for the first time they cast behind them the ties of their childhood days and set forth on a new venture.

We soon adapted ourselves to college life and all the customs that govern the first year man or woman on the campus. The class of '29 soon became an important unit of the college and in all its activities.

Archibald Reese was chosen president and under his leadership the year's activities were successfully carried out. The Kids' Party was held and with the aid of our advisor proved a success. The whole school came to our play, "So This Is London." The Junior prom was held and its success gave evidence of the spirit of the class behind it.

But the Junior year came to a close, finding the class of 1929 ready to take up the burdens and responsibilities that all Seniors must carry.

1928-1929

SEPTEMBER

- 11—Everybody back to welcome the newcomers.
- 12—Seniors—"Ah, I'm so glad to see you." Smack! Smack!
The Juniors look on in disgust. Classes began.
- 13—Much waiting on all balls. "I want to go home."
- 14—Much talk about customs.
- 15—Y. W. and Y. M. party for the new students.
- 16—W. S. G. A. tea for new girls.
- 17—Telephone booth most popular place in girls' dormitory.
- 18—Juniors all with smiles. They know the good place.
- 19—Y. W. meeting—good thing to begin early to keep straight.
- 20—Juniors attracting a lot attention—why?
- 21—Most of the Juniors know the Dean by this time—lucky for them—"forewarned is fore-armed."
- 22—Whoever said Saturday was a day of rest?
- 23—"Misery loves company." We see the Junior girls with some of the Senior gentlemen.
- 24—Blue—bluer—bluest Monday.
- 25—Looks as though spring fever were coming back—the campus is becoming very popular.
- 26—All you can see is the Frosh and green bands.
- 27—Class meetings, election of President, and other officers.
- 28—Strange how people take to the library!
- 30—Much church going. "We'll stroll to church together."

OCTOBER

- 1—Monday again—and a new month—time to start work—only eight more to go.
- 2—Football begins—lots of buzzing, get out the fur coats, derbies, and canes. We're "Kollege Boys" we are.
- 3—Days are growing shorter—let's settle down to business.
- 4—Everything is progressing except the menus.
- 5—Game tomorrow—pep meeting in Auditorium. "Lookout Kutztown."
- 6—Wonderful day—won from Kutztown, 12-0. Keep it up, boys.
- 7—Pretty empty college—most of us followed "The long, long trail that leads to our home."
- 8—We wonder if Mondays are all alike?
- 9—Nothing more exciting, the same cases still hold.
- 11—Same old Thursday—not even the soup left out.
- 12—It's great fun for a "few" to go to the gym and dance.
- 13—West Chester beat us. Never mind we're good losers.
- 14—Lots of company—just like old times with old friends around.
- 15—A day of rest—but we didn't get it.
- 17—Football team is working hard for Shippensburg game.
- 18—Wonderful dinner tonight—we heard the cook was sick. Maybe that accounts for it.
- 19—Everybody agrees that the faculty is made up of good sports. They're back of us every time.
- 20—Team on journey to Mt. Olympus. As far as we know they won. We know that you could do it.
- 21—Many new cases reported after Saturday night.
- 22—Work much harder. Cheer up we all know it.
- 23—A great deal of hiking. Good exercise for all.
- 24—No dancing tonight. Well, we'll at least get through the evening without being criticized by the onlookers.
- 26—Everyone out to see the parade.
- 27—Had a Hallowe'en party in the gym. Everybody had a good time, especially those who received the prizes.
- 28—You'd swear that we were living in a kennel, everyone is crying, "Oh, my dogs!"

- 29—Do we enjoy college parties? Foolish question, number 100.
 30—A great rush to the library, for various reasons.
 31—I see that we still have the armbands—it won't be long now.

NOVEMBER

- 1—Only seven more months to go. Brace up the first hundred years are the hardest.
 2—Dr. Raiguels lecture very interesting.
 3—Two busloads of students accompanied the team to Lock Haven. We won—and say! who said that Professor Koch wasn't a good sport?
 4—Good day for all.
 5—All planning for Thanksgiving vacation. Homesick!
 6—Cinnamon buns for breakfast. You should see them disappear like snow in July.
 7—The Boston Women's Orchestra entertained in the auditorium. Now we know why leaders are thin.
 8—First day the sun has come out. Many sons are around here but not any of them shine.
 9—Most popular discussion of today is "Lesson Plans?"
 10—No game, so the movies took in an unusual toll.
 11—Beat M. S. T. C. We were too good for them.
 12—Pudding for dinner.
 13—Some of the little "cases" have turned into "boxes."
 14—Joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M.
 15—Not many danced in the gym—most of them prefer to use their eyes.
 16—Everyone is thinking about a week Saturday and not much is being done.
 17—Next week at this time we won't be eating at the college.
 18—A day of simple life—no visitors.
 20—Very warm day—warm enough to get out our bathing suits.
 21—Every one is set for the big dance. New evening dresses have been created out of nothing—so to speak.
 22—All busy—studying—no, getting ready to go home.
 23—Big dance in the gym. Did we enjoy it? Foolish question—number 101.
 24—Vacation, at last! Ten days of "Home, Sweet Home."

DECEMBER

- 3—Back to the old place once more. Great to see all the faces.
 4—Rumors of a big dance Saturday night.
 5—Teachers looking for information concerning some members of their classes. "Better late than never."
 6—All girls looking for evening gowns! Will they get one?
 7—Cheer up! The dance isn't formal. All you need is a "buoy."
 8—Of all novelties, this was the best. Everyone enjoyed it very much—even those who got "shipwrecked" when they got too close to the corners.
 9—Long day for most of us. Nothing to do until tomorrow.
 10—Lot of talk about "Apple Sauce." Hope it is good.
 11—Everything progressing as well as usual.
 12—Very cold, it looks as though we are going to have snow.
 13—First basketball game this Saturday—we'll all be there.
 14—Only one more week and then home again for ten more days.
 15—We won from Kutztown. Keep it up, boys
 16—Girls and boys seen strolling down the street—where to—to church!
 17—Even though we get no chicken dinner this Christmas, cheer up, didn't we have eggs for breakfast?
 18—Much packing done by all the girls. Yes, we use suiteases even though we are going home for ten days.
 19—Good eats. Everything was appetizing. Even the ham.
 20—Senior class play, "Apple Sauce," given in the auditorium. It was a very good play for all from the dormitory were down to see it. Even the boys helped by singing Christmas carols at midnight which wasn't so bad.
 21—Home we go. "Good-bye." "Write, will you?" "Don't forget to come and see me."

JANUARY

- 2—Back once more. Glad to be back and do some good work. Begin the new year right.
- 3—Not much done in any class today, all you can hear is, "What did he give you?"
- 4—Great rush around the mail boxes. Why?
- 5—Lots of new clothes strutting around. Good Santa Claus.
- 6—In spite of the vacation, some of our members are missing—lost, strayed, or "flu" is what I'd say.
- 7—Only two more weeks and we begin all over again—something like turning over a new leaf.
- 8—Notebooks are being called for. More work for all.
- 9—A howling wind blowing today. Perhaps that is why the North Hall boys didn't come down to breakfast.
- 10—Everybody sniffing, coughing, and sneezing. Miss Kline pretty well rushed.
- 11—North Hall Orchestra played in the gym. A good future ahead for them.
- 12—Had oyster stew for lunch. It was very good and, if you happened to go home, you certainly missed a treat.
- 13—Musical in the auditorium. Enjoyed by all.
- 14—Exams will soon be here. Let's get to work.
- 15—Very fine day, much like spring. Girls can be seen going down town without their hats. Sure sign of spring.
- 16—Dr. Pike's lecture. Very good, indeed.
- 17—Very few down to breakfast. Grapefruit was the cause.
- 18—Tomorrow is the end of a perfect semester. Now is the time we generally begin to pray.
- 19—Almost deserted—rush home for the second semester fees—poor father will have to go without chewing gum for awhile.
- 20—Nobody here.
- 21—Lots of absentees. We know the reason why.
- 22—New set of people coming; new set of Seniors wailing about lesson plans.
- 23—Snow at last—and deep, lasting snow—"Well, Old Man Winter certainly was slow this year. I suppose we'll be wearing fur coats for Easter."
- 24—Rotary and Kiwanis Club banquet in college dining room. We certainly enjoyed the evening. We could hear the singing from our windows.
- 25—The night before the college party. Telephone booth is busy.
- 26—College party went over big. Here we can thank the decorating committee—the gym was absolutely transformed—"Thank you."
- 27—Lots of college kids sleigh riding on the campus—and the Dean was out taking pictures of them—gosh, she must be wonderful—no fooling, she is.
- 28—"The day after the day before." Too much coasting the day before.
- 29—Dancing down the gym as usual and a few new cases reported.
- 30—Great deal of rushing done by the sororities. It's alright to rush, but don't trip or fall. Final bids go out today.

FEBRUARY

- 1—"Frills and heart frobs." Dance tonite. We had a s-"well" time.
- 2—Some more frills. Phi Gamma Tau dance in the gym. We certainly started the month dressed up.
- 3—Day after the two nights before. We found a lot of "lying" around in the dorm today. It is Sunday.
- 4—Another Monday, and time to settle down to honest-to-goodness work.
- 5—Almost everybody sick in bed with colds—almost "flu" up.
- 6—Nothing new.
- 7—A beautiful day and most of the Collegiates contracted spring fever.
- 8—Splendid lecture by Dr. Raiguel. He's one man who can out-talk any woman.
- 9—Thrilling basketball with West Chester. Took us five minutes to best them, and we did by two points.
- 10—Not unlike the rest of the Sundays here. We had celery for dinner.
- 11—We are sure spring has come to stay.
- 12—W. S. G. A. party for girls. "Who said that we couldn't do without the men." We had the best time ever.

- 13—We were all wishing that there were no classes, such nice weather.
- 14—St. Valentine's Day. Many little love affairs being discovered, and the mails were heavy. Had a wonderful chicken dinner—three "cheers" for the chicken.
- 15—Basketball game with Mansfield—lost by one point, but we will back the boys to the minute.
- 16—Collegiate dance. The gym was the bear idea of the thing. We've concluded that North Hall is "Scotch."
- 17—Same old Sunday nite lunch, cheese and pickles. Heinz must be doing a good business with the college.
- 18—There is a saying, "After the rain comes the sunshine." We found it. "After the sunshine comes the rain."
- 19—Great blizzard. Good excuse for the absence of some week-end excursioners.
- 20—It snowed enough to last a month.
- 21—Eggs must be cheap food. We always get the "raw" deal.
- 22—Washington's Birthday—I wonder what the "Father of his Country" would say if he could see his family of today?
- 23—No one here—everyone went home for the week-end.
- 24—Blue Sunday. Maybe Monday will be a better day.
- 25—Rained all day. "Every cloud has a silver lining." Try and find it.
- 26—Hopes again revived—we saw the sun.
- 27—We begin to wonder if there will ever be a day of rest.
- 28—Cheer up. Tomorrow is Friday and the first of March.

MARCH

- 1—Time to get going. Only three more months and we'll stop.
- 2—Snow, rain, sleet—through it all some of us journeyed to Wyoming to see the basketball game. They won, but it took them an extra five minutes to do it.
- 3—Excellent musicale in the Auditorium. This proves that a long hall isn't the place for shining lights.
- 4—"The March wind doth blow and we shall have snow," that is old-fashioned March. Modern March is strutting around in sunshine.
- 5—I swear that Mr. Weather is a female—it is so changeable.
- 6—Y. W. C. A. installed their new cabinet. The usual ceremony of installation was impressive.
- 7—Dramatic Club staged their annual tournament which went over big. We're doing something around here after all.
- 8—Tau Kappa Phi Sorority dance at the Elks. We all took a ride that night.
- 9—The usual Saturday. Nothing new but the same old stew.
- 10—Gorgeous weather for hiking. The fact is we saw a lot of people walking, but we didn't ask why.
- 11—The winners of the Dramatic Club tournament had a party at the Rose Tea Room, Light Street. "Some chickens!"
- 12—Spring fever is around. I saw some girls swinging their rackets and heard some boys whistling, which means that we expect spring to stay.

MARCH

13. School buzzing over Corning Basketball Tournament—lots of old friends expected as visitors.
14. Mail heavy today—some "Ohs" and "Ahs" and "Gees," etc.—they express themselves.
15. Gorgeous day—and first day of tournament—"I hope so and so wins"—"I know him"—"He's from our town."
16. Saw a lot of College boys walking around all alone—the girls seem to fancy high school chaps—nothing like variety.
17. St. Patrick's Day—but the cook forgot the Irish Stew.
18. Just another day wasted away.
19. Dancing seems to be getting popular in the gym—others seem to have "standing invitations."
20. Installation of Y. W. C. A. Cabinet girls.
21. Some freshmen have been seen courting danger—I mean some other girl's boy friend.
22. Another beautiful day—hopes are raised for a beautiful Palm Sunday.
23. Saw some Easter togs already—some went home this week end to get them—others will sport them when they come back.
24. An unusually warm day—Many college girls and boys went to church—Fine day to start.
25. Everybody is packing to go home—Don't forget to leave room for the new clothes.
26. Who said work? with vacation so near.
27. Marks go home—that's a vinegared vacation for some folks.
28. Goodbye—Happy Easter—See you next month.

APRIL

8. Back again and only 7 more weeks to go. Get the bit in your teeth—it won't be long now.
9. Day students were guests of boarding students at dinner—a musical time was had by all—Interesting inter-collegiate debate between B. S. T. C. and M. S. T. C. in college and we won—we had two women on our team.
10. Just another Wednesday nite at B. S. T. C.—lots of special permissions were taken to-nite—bad weather, too.
11. A dreary, wet, cold day—sprint left us flat.
12. E. A. Southern recital in college and I know at least one clever man—besides Lindbergh.
13. Omega Chi Fraternity dance—The boys certainly can do things—with the help of the girls.
14. Sunday after a Saturday nite dance—but a great many went to church.
15. Blue Monday—Why?—weather is enough to drive anyone to the blues.
16. Everybody seems to be doing something—time we got busy.
17. Wednesday nite again—Y. W. of course.
18. Girls are planning for their party—hope we have as good a time as we had at the last one.
19. We did—maybe, better—who said girls were "cats"—I didn't see anything to prove it.
20. Mu Phi Sigma Dance—Busy month this month—Well if you don't keep going you get rusty.
21. Spring has returned—and our girls looked wonderful going to church in their new Easter togs.
22. Monday again—but we're happy—some of us are enjoying school to the fullest—we leave soon.
23. Alpha Delta Zeta dance soon—"Where will I get a dress?"—Don't worry—they always find one.
24. Weather like this brings out spring fever—it certainly is a catching disease.
25. Heard somebody sneeze—they must have been in a draft—it's hot enough to "hot dogs."
- 26.—Lots of walking on the campus—nothing extraordinary.
27. A. D. Z. dance—gorgeous affair—some girls certainly do things "upright."
28. Another church going day.
29. Dear me—I must be pressed—well I hope they give me a good crease and a finish.
30. Goodbye—don't cry—I'll see you later—but you won't recognize me.

THE ROOM-MATE PSALM

My room-mate is my Nemesis. I live in want.
He maketh me do his measurements.
He never restoreth my soap;
Yea, though I walk with my girl alone,
He sticketh closer than an enemy.
He is never without me;
His neckties and shirts they discomfort me.
He annointeth his hair with my oil.
And useth my razor—
Surely he will graduate this year
And leave me alone
Forever and forever.

The world's laziest man started to cut down some trees last week. A storm came along and saved him the trouble. Later lightning struck the brush pile and saved him the trouble of burning it. The rumor is that he is now waiting for an earthquake to shake the potatoes from the ground.

When one of the Sweeney boys gets into a fight the other one always jumps in.

Yes, they're two harps that beat as one.

Jack—"Well, Dad, now that I'm through college, what shall I do?"

Mr. Fortner—"You might marry the cook so she can't leave for a while."

E. Amos—"Why do they call those Indians 'braves'?"

M. Jones—"Haven't you ever seen their squaws?"

A. Williams—"Oh, she's not as old as all that!"

"Drummond—"Old! Why, that woman remembers the Big Dipper when it was just a drinking cup!"

Co-ed—"Mercy, I must have overtrained Jack! There he goes, tackling another player around the neck."

Gallagher (at the theater)—"This show makes me think."

Poole—"Yes, it's a most extraordinary show."
