FOREWORD

To be able to take life's problems as they come, and turn them to the ultimate advantage of society through one's own self is a quality of inestimable value, one which every teacher should consider as of prime importance in guiding those in his care.

This book, then, which pictures our Bloomsburg experiences might well follow such a plan, for its very name, "Obiter Dictum," (spoken by the way), implies taking each of life's problems as it appears, each of life's little events as they happen. So we have built the 1933 OBITER, with due consideration for artistry and balance, on the sequence of the events and activities carried out this year at Bloomsburg.

DEDICATION

*I*t is with feelings of deepest gratitude and admiration that we dedicate this seventeenth volume of the OBITER to Miss Ethel A. Ranson, who has served Bloomsburg so devotedly in the capacities of Training Teacher in Junior High School Mathematics, Assistant Dean of Women, Instructor in Mathematics, and Assistant Dean of Women in charge of Day Girls. She has taught us to accept the conditions in life's problems in the same way that we must accept the conditions in mathematics problems, and to use those facts as a basis for development and improvement.

FALL

A chill is on the morning air,
The night much longer seems,
And, oh, the pleasure of a hearth
And carefree youthful dreams!

The autumn wind is not unkind
When shadows softly play
Upon a heart whose flames reflect
A mellow yesterday.

*I*T is a great pleasure to extend congratulations on behalf of our Board of Trustees and of our Faculty to the Class of 1933. In the years to come as you look back on your college life at Bloomsburg I am sure you will increasingly recognize the meaning of this opportunity for making friends and for securing professional training. I can only remind you that it is a tradition at Bloomsburg that the latch string is always on the outside.

Francis B. Haas

DEAR CLASS OF 1933:

It has been my pleasant duty to watch the progress of this class through its years of training and to advise the ones back home of all the fine records set up by its members in both a scholastic and citizenship capacity.

You may think that you are about to be placed in a tough spot, but remember that you have at your command youth and a trained mind. While the business life about us may be changing "swifter than the shadow of a tree," remember that while youth is adaptable, you need not sacrifice high ideals of honor and integrity to fit into the present scheme of life. The world needs men and women who will meet it unafraid; ready to face its difficulties, solve its problems, and share its rewards. I believe you can do this. Come back and tell us all about it.

In the meantime—here's wishing each of you long life, happiness, and the best of luck!

W. B. SUTLIFF.

TO THE SENIORS:

Each year the College receives new members into its community life; each year it sends its graduates into the larger community outside. In the years between, the College strives to help individuals find themselves in the varied experiences of the campus and fit themselves for happy and successful living in the profession which they have chosen.

When you as Seniors graduate from the smaller community to commence life in the larger, the College will give you its congratulations and best wishes. As a class and as individuals you have made your mark upon the College. We hope and expect that you may be able also to leave your impress upon the larger community of which you will soon be a part.

MARGUERITE W. KUHR.

I am happy to have this opportunity to extend heartiest congratulations to the graduating class of 1933. They have made significant and marked contributions to the history, legends, and traditions of Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

It is my earnest wish that the members of the class of 1933 will receive and enjoy the marks of success they so richly deserve and, furthermore, I hope that they will frequently find it possible to return to the scenes of their undergraduate days as members of the Bloomsburg Alumni.

JOHN C. KOCH.

THE Community Government Association is an organization consisting of all the members of the faculty and student body. It was organized in 1927 to give the students a voice in the handling of their own affairs and training and experience in self-government.

The business of the association is carried on by the Student Council and the five major committees—Social, Student-Welfare, Dining Room, Hospitality and Fire.

As branches of the Association there are the four separate organizations—Waller Hall Student Government Association, North Hall Student Government Association, Day Girls' Association and Day Boys' Association. Each of these handles all problems peculiar to its own group.

Student Council

THE main business of the Community Government Association is administered by the Student Council, the members of which represent the various classes and organizations of day and boarding students.

It administers the affairs of the association, formulates its policies and acts upon cases involving violations of the Community Government regulations. It plans for Homecoming Day and directs the all-college dances.

This year it took over the problem of customs in order to make them more uniform and more necessary as an initiation into college life.

It also instituted a new system of awards and a new committee, which studies the problem of school spirit.

North Hall Officers

William Young (President), Lawrence Evangelista (Treasurer), Clarence Slater (Secretary), Leo Yozviak (Vice President).

Coach George C. Buchheit

GEORGE C. BUCHHEIT
Coach

BLOOMSBURG was indeed fortunate to secure, beginning with the 1932 season, the services of George C. Buchheit as Coach of Athletics, member of the Health Education Department, and Assistant Dean of Men in charge of Day Boys.

His coaching experiences have made him particularly valuable in his capacity as coach here. While at the University of Kentucky, 1919 to 1924, he coached the varsity basketball and track teams, and assisted in football. His basketball team won the southern basketball tournament in Atlanta in 1921, while his track team won the Kentucky track meet three times. While at Duke, 1924 to 1931, he served as head coach of basketball and track, and assistant football coach to Howard Jones during Jones' stay there. In 1928 he was appointed Assistant Athletic Director at Duke, and held that position until 1931, when he left Duke to take work at Columbia University which led to his M. A. Degree.

As mentor of sports during the past year Coach Buchheit has produced good teams at the College. He not only molded a fighting football eleven from a squad composed almost entirely of new men, but has imbued a spirit of true sportsmanship into the players and the College as a whole. His basketball team proved to be one of the strongest in the conference. By teaching clean sportsmanship and hard play Coach Buchheit has won the admiration and respect, not only of the players and students, but of the administration, the faculty, and the community. He has taught his proteges that there is more to an athletic contest than winning. Straight-forward, hard, sincere, and sympathetic, he has provided a long-needed impetus to Bloomsburg's athletics.

1932 Football Season

THE football season of 1932 came to a successful close after a hard fought and difficult schedule. The team, under the directorship of Coach George C. Buchheit, tasted both victory and defeat and has measured up to the standards of Bloomsburg in sportsmanship. This alone would be worth more than the satisfaction of an undefeated team.

In the first game of the season, on October 8, the team tied a heavy team from Millersville State Teachers College. The game was closely contested throughout, with most of the playing in Millersville's territory. Both teams were strong defensively, but failed to have the necessary power when they were in scoring position. Wozney and Moleski divided the punting and were responsible for keeping Millersville out of Maroon and Gold territory.

In the second game of the season the Mansfield State Teachers College eleven defeated the Maroon and Gold by a one-point margin. Mansfield resorted to the air in the second period and completed two passes for the score. Conversion added the extra point. After a steady march down the field late in the fourth period the Bloomsburg eleven crossed the Cherry and Black goal line. Bloomsburg failed to convert and the game ended before the goal line was again crossed. Captain Yozviak was the defensive stalwart in the opening games.

On November third, Bloomsburg bowed to Lock Haven State Teachers College by the score of seven to nothing. Lock Haven scored after Captain Yozviak was injured and taken out of the game in the second period. With the exception of a sixty-six-yard march down the field for the lone touchdown of the game, Lock Haven was forced to defend their goal line during the entire game and failed to advance the ball beyond the fifty-yard stripe during the second half. Bloomsburg was in scoring position several times, but the stubborn line of Lock Haven refused to let them cross the final marker.

Bloomsburg lived up to tradition on Homecoming Day and defeated the Shippensburg State Teachers College eleven, six to nothing. The game was full of thrills. Both teams gained ground in mid-field, but were unable to advance the ball into the danger zone. Bloomsburg's score came late in the game when Shippensburg had been forced back to their own goal line. Shippensburg tried to run the ball out of the danger zone, but fumbled and the oval bounded across the goal line where Harter fell on it for the only score of the game. The line play of Kitch was the outstanding feature of the game. He hurried the kicker and passer, and was among the first down under punts.

With new hopes for the season the Bloomsburg team traveled to East Stroudsburg for its worst defeat of the year. Stroudsburg surprised the Maroon and Gold eleven and sent them down to defeat by a combined aerial and end-run attack. Bloomsburg was unable to find its stride and the game ended with the score forty-five to nothing.

In the final game of the year the Maroon and Gold squad battled Oswego State Normal School, a new opponent, to a scoreless tie. The game was played on a muddy field and both teams were unable to score, due either to fumbles or lack of power. Both teams were within the ten-yard stripe, but were unable to cross the goal line.

It is with feelings of deepest appreciation that the school expresses its gratitude to Mr. Buchheit and Frank Kostos, his assistant, for their services as football coaches.

Cross Country

THE 1933 Cross Country season looked rather dark last fall with the loss of three varsity men from last year's team, and few candidates responding to the call. The daily workouts over the old course were started near the end of September, and an earnest attempt was made to get a team in condition for the first meet. More candidates joined the squad until the total reached sixteen, among them being "Eddie" Baum and "Joe" Larish, former harriers at the school. Several teams cancelled meets with Bloomsburg, but through the efforts of Coach Buchheit a meet was secured with Susquehanna.

In the daily workouts Larish and Karnes consistently led the squad to the finish, with Sell striding along with them to make it a trio at the end. In the meet with Susquehanna seven of the Bloomsburg men finished before Susquehanna's first man broke the tape. The final score was 58 to 15. "Joe" Larish was far out in the lead at the finish to set a new course record. Karnes, Sell, Baum, and Young, the other members of the team, all finished in better time than the former record.

FRANCIS SELL (Captain)

The final meet of the season was a quadrangular meet at West Chester. The schools competing were St. John, Ursinus, West Chester, and Bloomsburg. Two hours before the meet started the steady downpour of rain that had continued for twenty hours ceased, but the course was not in good condition. The outcome of the meet was as follows: West Chester first, St. John second, Bloomsburg third, and Ursinus fourth.

On Thanksgiving Day, Parr, Larish, and Karnes competed in the Berwick Nine-Mile

Marathon against stars from Canada, Finland and the United States. "Joe" Larish captured the local championship, formerly held by one of his teammates, Allen Parr. On December 31 the team entered the Bloomsburg Marathon and finished in first place to capture the trophy. Parr finished first, Larish third, Karnes fifth, Sell eleventh, Baum thirteenth, and Young fifteenth.

Larish and Parr have run their last cross country race as Bloomsburg Hill and Dale men. They will be missed by Bloomsburg, but will be remembered as patterns for future harriers to follow.

Maroon and Gold Band

THE Maroon and Gold Band made its first appearance at this College last year. Since then it has been growing in size and power until it has gained wide recognition.

A plan was carefully carried out last year whereby free instruction was given to men of the College who had not as yet mastered the technique of their instruments, and in cases where the students owned no instruments the plan provided for their purchase through the co-operation of the school.

The members of the band have been fortunate to have both Professors Howard Fenstermaker of our own faculty, and Russel Llewellyn of the Berwick High School faculty, to lead and instruct them in their musical enterprise.

In December of 1932, the band gave its first big concert, a huge success.

The spirit which this organization added to all of the athletic contests proves that it is taking its part in school life most creditably.

gymnasium on the last day of September. Here the Frosh were permitted to “act natural,” eating their lollypops and playing the games of childhood, until the children became so tired that Dr. Kehr had to send them home to bed.

The usual customs were endured until Christmas, for the frosh football team lost the annual battle with the upperclassmen, and so forfeited the right to remove customs after Thanksgiving.

Members of the Freshman Class have been active in sports, dramatics, music, and in other extra-curriculars, as well as in the pursuit of knowledge in classrooms.

WINTER

When the frost is on the window,
And the sky is crystal clear,
We find yesterday's tomorrow
Has brought another year.

In the past we may have buried
Much of joy and much of pain,
But Time with withered fingers
Writes his "finis" once again.

Extra Curricular Activities

THE increasing amount of leisure time which the growth of the machine age affords us places extra curricular activities in a position of ever growing importance.

Perhaps, if we allow our imaginations to play freely, we can see the extra curricular activities of today in the grown up role of the subject matter of tomorrow. Be that as it may, there remains the fact of their undoubted value in education for leisure time, and education in real life activities.

Those of us, then, who profited by the extra curriculars we took part in, have borne in mind their usefulness in profitably and enjoyably occupying, not only our own leisure, but the leisure of those whom we will serve--the Americans of the future.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA is the largest honorary dramatic fraternity in the United States, and as such it provides a bond of fellowship among those interested in educational dramatics and the college theatre.

Alpha Omicron Cast is composed of those members of the Bloomsburg Players who do outstanding work in dramatic productions, and who have mastered at least some points in stage technique.

For three years the fraternity has been publishing a news letter which provides a means of keeping alumni informed about present dramatic activities of the college and about each other.

On Homecoming Day the group holds an annual banquet, at which the alumni members meet with the active members. Last year, in addition to this, a rather impromptu alumni supper was held by the members on Alumni Day.

Seated, Left to Right Maryruth Rishe, Thomas Goursen (President), Mary Betterly (Vice-President), Harold O'Brien, Frances Evans.
Standing—Thomas Davis, Grace Foote, William Thompson, Alice Johnston (Director), Rostand Kelly, Harriet Sutliff.

The Fraternity sponsored "Hot Lemonade," a light comedy presented on "Rotary-Kiwanis" night. It also sponsored the third annual High School play tournament. Another very successful fraternity project was "The Fool," a play presented during the Christmas season. A particularly enjoyable occasion was the fraternity's entertainment of Miss Gay MacLaren, a dramatic reader, appearing in the College Artists' Course.

The members of Alpha Omicron Cast have worked faithfully to maintain the standards set by the national organization under the wise and competent guidance of their director, Miss Alice Johnston.

PHI SIGMA PI, a professional educational fraternity for men in teacher training institutions, has, under the leadership of Leo Yozviak, contributed much to the educational and social life of the school.

Educationally, Dr. Hemingway, their guest chapel speaker, provided an interesting as well as an instructive lecture on England and the English schools. The educational meetings, open to any who cared to attend, have been rich with informal discussions on outstanding problems current in education, led by Superintendent Evans, "Ted" Smith or Dr. Garwood. Other meetings have been favored by speakers such as Dr. Waller, Dr. Haas, and Dr. Garwood.

Socially, the movement for an Inter-Fraternity Ball, initiated by Iota Chapter members, has ended in the establishment of this event as outstanding among the social activities at the school. Smokers at various faculty homes, and the outstanding theatre party, were enjoyed to the full by all attending. The biggest event of the year, Founders' Day Banquet, was held at Kocher's Hotel and honored by the presence of a guest speaker of high educational merit.

Iota Chapter has lived up to its high ideals in providing fellowship and increase in educational knowledge, not only for its members, but for the school as a whole.

GAMMA BETA CHAPTER of Kappa Delta Pi, the most outstanding honorary society in the field of education, has initiated into the chapter 114 members, of which 46 are present active members.

The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to foster high professional and scholastic standards among teachers. It upholds the highest ideals, encourages fellowship and scholarship and inspires teachers to excel in educational work. Only colleges offering a high standard of educational work are permitted to establish a chapter. The fundamental requirement for membership in the society is that the students be above the upper quartile of the junior or senior class.

The national Laureate Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi is composed of prominent educators elected to membership by the society at its biennial national convocation. Among the members of this chapter are Jane Addams, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, John Dewey, William Kilpatrick, William Bagley, and Edward L. Thorndike.

A relatively new organization on the campus, Gamma Beta Chapter, is busy organizing and planning its activities for the future. One of the most outstanding annual events is Founders' Day. Two addresses are given by a well known educator, one to the student body in the auditorium and the other to the society at the banquet in the evening. The new officers are installed and new members initiated.

On Founders' Day, this year, J. E. Shambach was the speaker and was initiated as an honorary member. Other honorary members of Gamma Beta Chapter are Dr. Francis B. Haas, Dr. J. J. Waller, Jr., Dr. James N. Rule, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Dr. J. Herbert Kelley, Executive Secretary of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association; and W. B. Sutliff, our own Dean of Instruction.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON is a national professional Geographic Fraternity. The Delta Chapter was organized here on the Campus in October, 1932. The only other chapter in Pennsylvania is the one at Slippery Rock, established in December, 1932.

The purposes of the fraternity are: to further professional interest in Geography, to strengthen student and professional training, to advance the professional status of geogrpahy as a cultural and practical subject for study and investigation, and to create and administer a loan fund for furthering study in the field of geography.

The requirements for admission are that a student have a scholastic standing above the medium and that additional work in geography beyond that required of all students be done.

This year Gamma Theta Upsilon was glad to join the other fraternities in making the Inter-Fraternity Ball a success.

Although the youngest of the fraternities on the campus, it promises to become a leader under the capable guidance of Dr. Russell, the sponsor.

Basketball

OVERCOMING a series of reverses that would have daunted less courageous warriors, the 1932-33 basketball team showed an untiring spirit of sportsmanship during the season. Hampered by the loss of several veteran players due to injuries the Buchheit quintet seldom saw action with full strength. Through practice Coach Buchheit developed talented boys into a smooth working floor combination.

The first game of the season proved to be a victory over the Alumni. Most of the men saw action although no varsity was selected. The next two games against Slippery Rock and Indiana were lost due to the illness of some of our prominent players. The fourth game of the season against Shippensburg saw the team find its stride and emerge with a victory. After trailing the first half they came back to win in the closing seconds of the game by a one-point margin.

YARETSKI
Captain

The team completed the season at home with two wins and one loss. They were highly successful in breaking through any defense offered them, and their passing combinations were not broken up by substitutions. The weakness in the team lay in the fact that the men were small and many passes were over their heads.

Coach Buchheit and Manager Artman are to be congratulated for the part they played in making this team.

J. V. Basketball

THE Jayvees had a season of an equal number of wins and losses. The men of the Jayvees saw some use in the varsity games due to illness which seems to have stricken the first string men during the entire season.

They opened their home season with a victory over Bob Sutliff's Lake Township boys. This game gave the Bloom boys a chance to find themselves and also gave Coach Buchheit opportunity to see a number of combinations in action.

The boys of the Jayvees were by the end of the season a smooth functioning, accurate passing, and well rounded combination. Their season of an equal number of setbacks proved interesting to players and spectators. The men of the Jayvees were mostly underclassmen and many of them are promising material for the coming season. Frank Kostos coached the Jayvees.

THE Y. M. C. A. began the year with a welcome to the new men students in the form of a "weenie roast." With this excellent start, a spirit of fellowship began which grew as the year progressed. In this spirit of fellowship delegates were sent to the fall conference at Harrisburg, and the Spring Officers Training Conference at Kutztown.

In this same spirit of fellowship the "Y" contributed to the social activities of the school by co-operating with the Y. W. C. A. in sponsoring the Bicentennial Dance and a Valentine Party, by offering to the student body the first student sponsored sound movies with the new sound equipment installed in the auditorium, and by securing as speakers Reverend Clemens, of Kingston, and Dr. Rainey, of Bucknell University. In addition, the "Y" store contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the fellows in North Hall.

The "Y" also participated in the community life when it gave a Christmas party to forty of Bloomsburg's neediest children, and in taking charge of the Sunday evening services at the Reformed Church.

A new plan called "Faculty Firesides," leading to better understanding between students and faculty was initiated this year. A small group of fellows gathered at each of the homes of those male faculty members who co-operated, for an evening of informal chatter, getting to know their human side.

The fine leadership of Professor Shortess and Professor Koch was of great value in developing and executing this program.

DURING the past year the Y. W. C. A. has been built upon two purposes: To see the "Y" grow, and to afford an opportunity to help in carrying out that aim by creating friendship and co-operation among the girls. Owing to the fact that this year the Y. W. C. A. has the largest membership in its history this purpose was fulfilled.

The work started the first day of school when the Y. W. C. A. members assisted the Women's Student Government Association in welcoming new students. It continued to contribute to the social activities of the college by sponsoring, with the Y. M. C. A., the Bicentennial Dance in December; by presenting a Christmas program in chapel; and by numerous parties for "Y" members. The "Y" store also contributed a large share to the enjoyment of dormitory life.

At the weekly meetings, planned and conducted by the students, there were speakers from the faculty, and from outside the college. Several joint meetings were held with the Y. M. C. A.

Bloomsburg was represented at all the important conferences this year—at Camp Whelen, in New Jersey, and at the spring training conference at Shippensburg.

With the aid of the sponsors, Miss Mason and Miss Cathcart, the Y. W. C. A. was able to achieve greater advancement toward their goal—"To realize full creative life through a growing knowledge of God."

THE Athletic Association for girls on the campus, the Girls' "B" Club, has been in existence for five years. This organization fosters girls' athletics and promotes school spirit. True sportsmanship is the theme which underlies each activity of the "B" Club.

Members of the club are girls who have received a "B" in athletics. A girl owning a letter must have earned three hundred points in team sports such as basketball, volleyball, or baseball; two hundred points from participating in minor sports such as hiking, tennis, and swimming; and one hundred points in either major or minor sports. Aside from this she must have received an A in both sportsmanship and posture. Each additional three hundred points entitles a girl to a chevron.

During the football season the girls sponsored trips to Lock Haven and East Stroudsburg. At the home games the "B" Club was especially active in selling refreshments to the fans.

Plans are under way for the erection of a "B" Club cottage which will be the personal property of this splendid organization.

THE members of the Rural Life Club are students who are interested in the work of the rural community, although the topics discussed at their meetings are not limited to the problems of the rural community. Such problems as consolidation, recreation in the country as compared to that in the city, the changes in rural communities during the past few years, standards of living on the farm, education in a one-room school, and the recent changes in the cities were discussed.

These discussions were in charge of the various student members of the club, and were of great value to the participants in developing their ability to speak before a group informally, and on the spur of the moment. In addition the nature of the subjects discussed is bound to be of service in their future roles as teachers in the rural schools of Pennsylvania.

THE Day Boys' Association consists of all those men students who commute to and from the college. As their headquarters they use the Day Boys' Room in Carver Hall, which is excellently and comfortably furnished.

With true public spirit, the boys set up a code of rules for themselves early in the year, which were to govern the cleanliness of the room, the neatness of the steps and walk in front of Carver Hall, where the boys go to smoke, and the order and conduct of the boys themselves

One thing the Day Boys have set their hearts on, and should have: a smoking room of their own, for they are not allowed to smoke in the Day Boys' Room, necessitating their smoking on the steps in front of Carver Hall, or some other exposed and inconvenient place. It is to be hoped that the Administration will sense this need and provide suitable quarters for smoking.

The Day Boys' Organization has a real spirit of its own, in addition to an active school spirit.

THE Junior Chamber of Commerce, although a comparatively new organization, boasts of a larger membership than any other group on the campus.

The social functions of the club include a picnic for its members in the fall, one formal dance during the year, and a formal dinner in the spring at which medals are presented to the outstanding club members of the year.

The main event sponsored by the group is the commercial contest for high school students, held in the spring. Tests are given on various commercial subjects and medals are given to the students who have the highest scores in each subject. A silver loving cup is given to the winning high school.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce has been very successful in all of its undertakings, thanks to the hearty co-operation of the members with the committees, and promises to continue this success.

THE Geographic Society is one of the oldest extra-curricular activities on the campus, having flourished for the last seven years.

The object of this society is to promote interest in geographic enterprise by activities such as discussions of geography observed in local communities or in travel, illustrated talks on imaginary journeys, accounts of current events, interpreted from the geographic viewpoint, and reviews of current literature which deals with geography.

The Society meets each Thursday afternoon during the extra-curricular period, sometimes to have talks, sometimes to take trips. This year the club visited the Dillon Greenhouses and the old iron mine opening along Fishing Creek. It is the custom of the Society to take the longest and most interesting trip in May. Last year the club visited the mines and breakers of the Reading Coal Company in the vicinity of Mahanoy City. Since we have the Delta Chapter of the National Geographic Fraternity, Gamma Theta Upsilon, on our campus, the Geographic Society is, in addition to being a very worthwhile activity in itself, a stepping stone to the Fraternity.

IN the Fall of 1931 Bloomsburg received as freshmen the usual conglomerate group of green and bewildered humanity. They soon grew to know one another, and quickly organized so as to carry on the business of the group. Socially they indulged in a glorious Kid Party and the more grown up Freshman Hop.

Last year they came back, ready for a more successful year than before. The members widened their interests until they were represented in athletics, music, drama, and extra-curriculars of all kinds. They did not, however, neglect the more serious pursuit of knowledge, and many fine scholastic records were made.

Socially, the class was a great success in making the Sophomore Cotillion a most enjoyable Valentine Dance.

Intramural Basketball

INTRAMURAL basketball filled a very important place in the student life of the college. Over fifty-five men were active in the sport. A significant fact is that not one of the games was won by forfeit. Basketball has always been a spirited game in Bloomsburg and this was not lost in intramural competition. Great interest was aroused and many men of the college viewed the games. Officiating was taken care of by men of the college thereby giving them experience in a new line of activities. Officials of the league were Professor Booth, Gress, Yaretski, Malone, McHugh, Shakofski, Jaffin and Washeleski. Teams were selected and divided into two groups and the winners of each group were matched. Important figures in the league were Sacus, Stush, Chudzinski, Potter, Keefer, Heimbach. Through the medium of intramural sports it is possible that Bloomsburg will develop better intercollegiate teams. Interest in the school will be aroused and men will find healthful athletic diversion.

There was also a Senior Boys' Intramural Basketball League composed of six teams captained by: Team No. 1, Rokosz; No. 2, Joe Davis; No. 3, Jack Drennen; No. 4, John Stush; No. 5, Sam Sacus; No. 6, John Kelley. Members of the winning team were Joe Davis, John Krepich, Jack Early, Andrew Potson, Roman Koropchak, Edward Williams. Officials of the league were members of Senior Boys' Physical Education Class in which a course of officiating was given by Mr. Booth.

Intramural Volleyball

INTRAMURAL sports have developed in Bloomsburg State Teachers College within the last year. Of the three hundred men in the college over one hundred participated in the intramural league.

Intramural Volleyball, under the supervision of T. W. Booth, was one of the main events of the league. Sixty men participated in the sport. Games were played every Monday night starting at 9:30. Teams were selected and intra-school competition was developed. The league was composed of six teams captained by: Young, Thomas, Evans, Williams, Novak, J. Davis.

It is hoped that intramural activities will develop a better knowledge of sports and that those less adapted for strenuous physical activities will not miss the benefits to be derived from participation in group competition.

Senior Girls' Basketball

NEVER have the upperclass co-eds shown such sincerity and interest in basketball as they have this past season.

They were off to a fine start at the beginning of the new year, three weeks earlier than in former years. The tournament covered a period of ten weeks, with ten regular teams entered. Games were played every Monday and Friday afternoon from four to six o'clock. The teams, captained by some of the ablest of the upperclass girls, combined their skill and teamwork with good sportsmanship, thus making the tournament a success. The team, under Captain Hausch, not having lost a game during the entire season, won the championship.

The following, among many others, deserve credit for their outstanding playing and loyalty:

Blanche Kostenbauder	Adelaide Hausch
Althine Marshman	Tosca Borsi
Priscilla Acker	Alda Giannini
Longina Dutchak	Mary Katherine Moyer
Hazel Keefer	Adelaide Pfiefer
Eva Krauss	Sarah Lentz
Melba Beck	Mary Betterly
Anne Wagner

The "subs" deserve our praise also, because, as all the girls say, "We could not have played without you."

Girls' Volleyball

THE volleyball season opened September 30, not too soon for the scores of girls already on teams and "rarin'" to go. The nimble-footed co-eds had a full schedule ahead of them.

There were eight upperclass teams, captained by Welliver, Marshman, Benscoter, Acker, Evans, Ryan, Shipman, and Gass, respectively. Welliver's team came out of the fray with hardly a bruise, and with a score so high as to win for them the proverbial "Laurel Crown." Some of the outstanding players among the upperclass girls were: Melba Beck, Marion VanHorn, Sally Welliver, Mildred Ford, Eleanor Benscoter, Mary Furman, Edith Blair, and Euphemia Gilmore.

The Freshman girls had ten teams organized. These teams were divided into two groups of five teams each; the experienced and inexperienced, according to the players' previous training.

Some stars on the inexperienced teams were Jeanette Hill, Betty Chalfant, and Anne Edwards.

THE Bloomsburg Players is the oldest extra-curricular organization in the college, having been established in 1924.

The club meets each Tuesday night, and after a business meeting, a one-act play is presented. The members then give constructive criticisms of the play, stressing points of dramatic technique.

The organization is a workshop where features of play production are studied by the laboratory method. The plays are directed by a student under the supervision of the Club Director.

Many of these one-act plays presented on Tuesday nights are later taken downtown and presented for the entertainment of some organization.

There are two big projects of the Bloomsburg Players every year. The first is the annual tournament of plays, in which different casts, each with its own student director, compete against each other. The plays presented this year were: "Will O' the Wisp," (a Fantasy), "Copy," "Joint Owners in Spain," and "Ile."

The second big event sponsored by the club is the annual three-act play. This year "The White-Headed Boy," an unusually clever Irish play by Lennox Robinson, was presented.

Members of the club may join the National Dramatic Honor Fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, after meeting national and local requirements.

THIS is a play that made theatrical history. It was presented simultaneously by six companies in America and two in England. Bishop Shipman calls it, "The most deeply moving and highly inspiring play of our generation."

It deals with a young clergyman who resolves to try, "What would happen now-a-days to a man who lived like Christ?" Through a series of intensely dramatic incidents, he learns that such a man might lose the world, but would find happiness.

The members of the cast seemed to catch the spirit of the play, and lost every bit of their every-day selves in the portrayal of their characters.

THIS play is especially interesting in that it was running on Broadway this season, played by the Abbey Players, a well-known group of Irish actors.

It is a comedy of the spoiled child, Mrs. Geoghegan's "White-Headed Boy." The plot is clever and amusing, but the play is not memorable for this alone; it is the dramatist's triumph to have put upon the stage twelve varied types that seem to characterize present day Ireland. It is an altogether fascinating comedy of character contrast, into which the love stories of Dennis and Delia, Jane and Donough are woven as well as the rebellion of a family against Dennis, the mother's favorite.

High School Play Tournament

THE third annual high school play tournament, sponsored by the Alpha Psi Omega fraternity, set a new standard here for dramatic success in high school play tournaments.

Five high schools entered this year, four of which have competed here previously. Hughestown and Edwardsville presented their one-act plays in the afternoon, while North Scranton, Laketon, and Sunbury gave their presentations in the evening.

A loving cup was presented to the winning cast, that of Sunbury, who gave "Where the Cross Is Made," by Eugene O'Neill. Mr. R. S. A. Abbett is their competent director. North Scranton, winner of the 1932 Tournament, was accorded honorable mention. In addition to this award, the outstanding player in each cast was presented with a medal. The medal winners were: Miss Dorothy Budwesky, Hughestown; Miss Jayne Bryan, Edwardsville; Miss Patricia Murry, North Scranton, and Miss Hilda Allen, of Laketon.

Four of the directors are graduates of Bloomsburg and members of the sponsoring fraternity. They are, Miss Helen Jenkes, of Hughestown; Raymond Hodges, of North Scranton; Robert Sutliff, of Laketon, and Daniel Thomas, of Edwardsville.

The plays presented were "The Quality of Mercy," by Beatrice Mansfield, directed by Helen Jenkes, Hughestown High School; "The Minister's Wife," under the direction of Daniel Thomas, Edwardsville High School; "Dust of the Road," by Kenneth Sawyer Goodman, with Raymond Hodges, North Scranton Junior High, directing; "Spreading the News," by Lady Gregory, directed by Robert Sutliff, Laketon High School, and "Where the Cross Is Made," presented under the direction of Richard S. A. Abbett, of Sunbury High School.

Each year sees an added interest displayed in this high school play tournament. The Fraternity wishes to encourage worthwhile educational dramatics in high schools. It is hoped that next year there will be even more applicants for admission, especially from alumni of Bloomsburg.

Maroon and Gold Symphony Orchestra

THE Maroon and Gold Symphony Orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Howard Fenstermaker.

Throughout the year the orchestra furnishes music for such social events as Homecoming Day, the Athletic Dinner, dramatic productions, Commencement, takes part in the Rotary-Kiwanis All-College Night, and presents a chapel program. In the Spring the orchestra assists at the Girls' Glee Club Concert.

The Symphony Orchestra is the oldest of the present musical organizations on the campus.

SPRING

When April sheds her showers
For the birth of budding May,
We have promises of flowers
And lazy winds at play.

An eager youth is fleeting,
But stays a while to sing
In a joyous, jocund manner
Which is the mood of Spring.

Seventh Annual Play Tournament of Bloomsburg Players

THIS year, for the seventh time, the Bloomsburg Players invited their friends to an open meeting of the Club. The four plays presented were very similar to those given in the Club meetings each week. Each cast had its own student director and all were given an equal number of rehearsals by the Club director, Miss Johnston.

The play winning first place was "Ile," a tragedy by Eugene O'Neill. Portrayal of characters in this play was as follows:

Steward	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	BERNARD YOUNG
Ben	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	KENNETH MERRILL

IN September, 1930, a crowd of green freshmen, with the customary bewildered expression on their faces, began their life in this college. Within a short while acquaintances were made, officers elected, and social affairs planned. The most successful ones were the hilarious Kid Party, and the Freshman Hop.

First Row, Seated, Left to Right—D. Moss, F. Pieri, M. O'Hora (Secretary), S. Lentz, M. Francis, B. Curwood, P. Acker, E. Krumanoeker, A. Marshman, E. Kostenbauder, O. Laird, M. Berger, E. Klingerman.
 Second Row—T. Knauss (Treasurer), M. DeWald, A. Ryan, M. Eroh, M. Dunkelberger, T. Barba, J. Eyer, G. Morgis, L. Yeager, M. Edwards, N. Bayliff, F. Shuman, L. Henry, E. Dagnell, M. Hinkel, L. Smack.
 Third Row—P. Savage, E. Evans, H. Sotliff, R. Wolliver, G. Tannery, M. Taylor, H. Spotts, A. Metz, E. Blair, M. Quick, C. Singleman, D. Runyan, E. Veale, G. Matha.

First Row, Left to Right—A. Knorr, L. Evangelista, A. Roan, J. Gemaria, A. Vandling (Vice President), M. Peifer (President), F. Jaffin, R. Purse, J. Gribbin.
 Second Row—E. Valente, R. Keeler, E. Hartman, H. Kitchen, J. Shellenberger, C. Shellenamer, D. Ruckle, R. Harvey, K. Miller.
 Third Row—W. Aten, J. Partridge, W. Hiney, R. Garman, W. Thompson, G. DellaCroce, J. Krepiel, R. VanSickle, F. Chudzinski, W. Brewington, R. Hutton.

In September, 1931, the class returned as a divided body, some as two-year seniors, others as sophomores. The most outstanding affair of this year was the Sophomore Cotillion which was launched as a Valentine Dance.

As "haughty" Juniors the class functioned smoothly and was a body of students with well rounded activities, interested in all phases of college life. A number of the class members were elected to the various honor societies and fraternities on the campus, while others took their places on the athletic teams of the school, and in the various musical and dramatic organizations. The outstanding event on the social calendar was the Junior Prom, which was a St. Patrick's Dance, and a big success.

ONE of the most prominent musical organizations of the school is the Girls' Chorus. This organization is under the competent direction of Miss Jessie A. Patterson. The group consists of fifty-three girls who are selected with the aim of attaining well-blanced part harmony.

The club appeared in several social events during the year. Two of their outstanding events were: Christmas Party and Rotary and Kiwanis Night. They also gave a program in chapel.

As their spring concert they presented Ethelbert Nevin's "A Day in Venice" with the following collection of songs in it—Morning in St. Marks' Square, In the Gondola, A Love Song, and Farewell. This enjoyable program fascinatingly displayed the powers of the organization, and the capabilities of their director.

THE Men's Glee Club is considered one of the best men's choruses in this section of the country by those who know it through its presentations at the college or through its trips to nearby towns. Under the inspiring direction of Miss Harriet M. Moore it has been able to produce programs of exceptional quality.

Each year the Club gives two concerts. Their fall concert, presented December 9th, 1932, was a huge success. The soloists at this performance, Karl Getz, violinist; Frances Evans, pianist; and Miss Harriet M. Moore, vocalist, added a distinguished quality to the program.

The spring concert, in the form of a comedy farce, "Romeo and Juliet," was exceptionally fine. An unusual degree of talent was displayed in this concert, as well as in the Fall presentation.

1932 Track

THE Track Team, under Coach Edward T. Shedd, former Nebraska State track star, had a successful season; breaking one State record, and developing a fine spirit of sportsmanship. Coach Shedd's squad consisted of thirty men; a few veterans, and many new men from the cross country team. George Rinker, a four-year cross country star, captained this squad which spent a long strenuous training period for the first meet with Lock Haven Teachers College.

This took place in a steady downpour of rain. Our boys gave their best but emerged from the contest with a 58¹/₂ to 67¹/₂ score in favor of Lock Haven. Thomas, Miller, Keller, Sell, Keefer, Wozney, Howell, Rudowski, and Kafchinski represented Bloomsburg in the meet, capturing six first places and scoring in every other event.

Coach Shedd spent three more weeks in preparing his squad for the State meet to be held at West Chester. Bloomsburg emerged from this meet in fifth place, taking two first places. Rudowski made both of these, and established a new record for the shot put event.

Several good men represented the Maroon and Gold as athletes for the last time at this meet, and although their places will be hard to fill, the new material developed promises good teams in the future.

1932 Tennis

THE 1932 Tennis Team, captained by "Bob" Brown, a veteran of three years, played a season of interesting matches and exhibited a fine brand of court play.

At the beginning of the season it was evident that new material was needed. Three positions were left vacant due to graduation. Under the skilful coaching and guidance of Professor John C. Koch, who has turned out a number of powerful teams at the college, a sextet of the following men was chosen to represent Bloomsburg on the court. Captain Brown, Milton Krauss and Robert Parker, veterans of the undefeated championship team of 1931, filled the first three places. The other three positions were taken care of by Jerry Moore, Sam Krauss and James Gennaria.

The first match of the season, played against a fast Bucknell team on the local courts, was lost by a 6-1 score.

The next match, scheduled with St. Thomas College at Scranton, was rained out, but when the "Tommies" came to Bloomsburg they were turned back by a 4-3 score. Mansfield, always a menace to the Maroon and Gold players, was tied in one match 2-2 due to the weather, and defeated on the local courts by a 4-3 score. The Bloomsburg racquet wielders next faced the veteran East Stroudsburg team and went down to defeat, both here and at Stroudsburg, by scores of 6-1 and 8-1. The big match of the year with Bucknell at Lewisburg, resulted in a 6-1 defeat.

The final match of the year was played against Alumni from the undefeated team of 1931, and was lost by a 6-2 count.

Although the team suffered a number of defeats, true sportsmanship characterized their play during the entire season.

1932 Baseball

THE Baseball season of 1932 proved to be one of the most successful in a number of years. The team won five games and lost three. Under the directorship of Coach Booth the team played first-class ball until the end of the final game, while the sportsmanship was equal to that for which baseball teams of Bloomsburg are noted. Coach Booth began the year with but four varsity members from the preceding season and much new material, including many freshmen. The team progressed rapidly under his guidance until a smooth working, hard-hitting team took the field in the first game.

A strong Junior Varsity team, under the managerial guidance of Frank Greco, was also developed and played some hard-fought contests with nearby aggregations.

The playing was more for the sake of sport than for the sake of winning, so the games in which the Maroon and Gold came out on the short end of the score did not break the morale of the team.

Captain Rudowski and Kafchinski were the leading batsmen of the team while Carner Shelhamer was the pitching ace. The manager, Thomas Hartman, was responsible for the fine relationships that were developed between the players and those of other colleges. His untiring efforts to have everything in readiness did much to build up the fine spirit among the men, and to make the season the success it was.

Girls' Baseball

CR-RACK—and the ball sailed out into the field, while “She” made another home run.

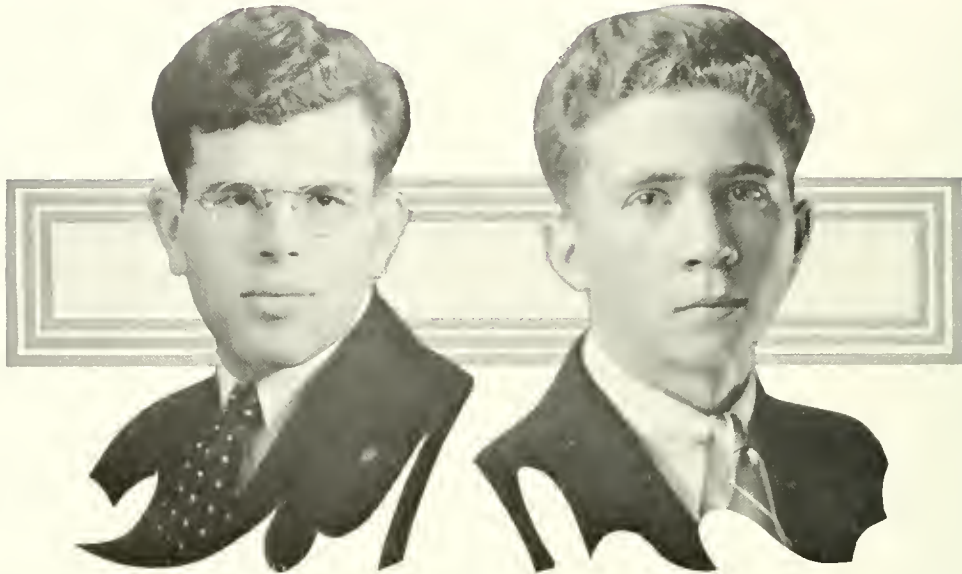

In the spring of 1932, such were the doings on Mount Olympus. New Babe Ruths and George Earnshaws were coming to the front. The upperclass girls were out to win, and did they show speed. Miss Lawson's team having conquered all other upperclass teams, then challenged the champion freshmen girls team. But Old Man Luck wasn't behind them that day and they lost their first game in three years. It was quite a disappointment to the girls who had behind them the traditions of two championships. On the other hand, it was an honor to the freshman team that could overcome a foe of such a reputation.

Recital—Department of Music

EACH Spring the College is afforded a musical treat in the form of the Recital by the Department of Music. Those participating are either students at the school, or pupils who live in town. A varied and well arranged program of music by the Masters is ably interpreted for the pleasure of the audience. It is only through the capable, artistic and warm-hearted work of Mrs. John K. Miller that these programs are made possible.

The Obiter

THE making of a year book is probably the most important job that has been completed at Bloomsburg for each of seventeen years. Each year has seen improvements over the books of previous years, for to make his book a little better than any that has gone before is one ideal common to every editor.

The book you now hold in your hands is the product of such ideals, tempered by actualities, and realized through the work of a competent and most energetic staff. You can judge for yourself whether it is worthy of the ideals that engendered it, of the minds that planned it, and of the labor that materialized it. We sincerely hope that you honestly can adjudge it worthy.

Maroon and Gold

"MAROON AND GOLD," the bi-weekly publication of student activities, written by the students with an inherent policy of guiding, formulating, and expressing student opinion, achieved laudable success during 1932-1933 with Alfred Vandling as editor-in-chief.

The outstanding characteristic of this year's publications was the forceful and thought-provoking editorials which were present in every issue of the paper.

The paper itself retained the same physical traits as the 1931-1932 edition, and it was supported by state appropriation without advertisements.

Membership on the staff of "Maroon and Gold" affords a great opportunity to those who desire or possess journalistic and literary ability to achieve or display that ability and to be of service to other publications when in teacher service.

The newspaper owes its success not only to the efforts of its staff, but also to the labor, guidance and co-operation of the Faculty Committee and Professor S. L. Wilson as its chairman and to the inspiring support of Dr. Francis B. Haas.

IN spite of the financial handicaps furnished by the depression the class of 1933 carried to a successful close all of the usual activities, and in many cases did them better than usual. The fine co-operation of the class, the officers, and the advisor, Mr. Nelson, made their excellent program possible, and established a high standard for following classes to attain.

Acknowledgment

WITHOUT the whole hearted help of a great many people not on the staff, the making of the 1933 OBITER would have been an impossibility. First of all we must express our thanks to one of the most deserving, Jack Hall, Editor of the 1932 OBITER. He gave us a fine start in point of time, and by reason of much sound advice freely given. To Herb Lyon we extend deep appreciation for his invaluable assistance in laying out the dummy, and for helpful, kindly advice, given during his friendly visits as GRIT's representative. We also deeply appreciate the skill and patience with which Horace Hand so excellently executed the art work for the book. It is a superb piece of artistry. For the kind correction and criticism of the write-ups our sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Wilson, while for sane and economical financial advice we thank Mr. Nelson.

Our sincere thanks go to those groups and organizations, both on and off campus, who helped make the book financially possible. We also wish to thank Mr. Hausknecht and Mrs. Knight for their courtesy in allowing the use of office equipment; Dean Sutliff for the use of his files; Miss Andrews for student lists she made available; Miss Mason for Library materials she kindly provided; and Mrs. Guinard for cheerful co-operation in supplying necessary data and mimeographed material.

We owe the fine photography to Ralph G. Phillips, while countless workmen and craftsmen, inventors and dreamers made possible the actual cuts and type, the machinery and materials which turned out the finished copies.

To Dr. Haas we extend sincere appreciation for the use of the OBITER office, and for helpful and considerate co-operation and advice.

- 18 Guess our Prof's, don't believe in the depression.
 - 19 Lewis sweeps the gym at a dance.
 - 20 Last day for exams.
 - 21 First semester ends. Campus deserted. Basketball at Strandburg.
 - 23 Second Semester begins. Everyone resolves to study.
 - 24 So far notebooks are up to date.
 - 25 More Frosh. Wagner and Gallagher.
 - 26 Where's Bill Trump?
 - 27 Basketball at Lock Haven. Colonial Sextette in Auditorium.
 - 28 Basketball at Mansfield. We won again.
 - 30 Chick has another woman.
 - 31 Softies, Peg and Bill, are starting to get mushy in the Lobby.
- (Next Page Please)

FEBRUARY

- 1 Date night. A good way to start a new month.
- 2 Editor of OBITER gets a girl.
- 3 Shepela moved from the Post Office since the light has been put in. Mid Year C. G. A. Dance.
- 4 Basketball game with Stroudsburg here.
- 5 Piano players are scarce in the gym.
- 7 Moore and Gribbin get together. Is there a reason?
- 8 Clear the Halls early.
- 9 Voice makes last public appearance at his birthday party in the Dining Room.
- 10 Dietitian eats down town.
- 11 Where did all the snow come from. Basketball—Indiana—here.
- 12 Members of the faculty go childish and romp in the snow.
- 13 Abe freed the slaves but forgot the students.
- 14 Valentine's Day. Hop Lee sends a few.
- 15 Bill can't go to see Edna—(The flashlight battery is burned out).
- 16 Let's fast on studying.
- 17 Day Boys make new resolutions.
- 18 Pays are four days late. Mansfield plays here.
- 19 The intelligencia of North Hall make out the calendar and have their picture taken—except Jones.
- 20 Yaretski needs a bathrobe and razor blades (Griff needs a shave).
- 21 Stier got results in Waller Hall Sunday night.
- 22 Day Boys still keeping new resolutions.
- 23 Looks as if Spring is here.
- 24 Cox is a softy. Lock Haven plays here.
- 25 Sophomore Cotillion.
- 27 Still some aching feet from the twenty-fifth.
- 28 And so ends another month.

MARCH

- 1 Basketball game at Shippensburg
- 2 Larry and Doc should shake hands—two softies. Yaretski is running a close third.
- 3 And some people go crazy over seafood.
- 4 Millersville plays basketball here.
- 5 The halls are getting more popular every Sunday.
- 6 Blue Monday—nobody feels good.
- 7 Brutus is working hard on her Nit Wit column.
- 8 Yozi's girl is going on a diet.
- 9 Who is going to be the lucky one Joe? Lenore or Emily.
- 10 Bring O'R jacket back Coursen.
- 11 And everybody went to the Junior Prom.
- 13 Coursen and Bert have another argument.
- 14 Potty Stummie is still kicking.
- 15 Why is Kitch so interested in Bucknell?
- 16 Spring weather and fever.
- 17 St. Patrick's Day comes and goes, but classes go on for ever. Dramatic Club Play Tournament.
- 18 High School Basketball Tournament.
- 20 Evans the Bucknell prodigy thought the Spanish Armada was a Spanish nobleman.
- 21 First day of spring.
- 22 Ho Hum lazy weather.
- 23 Still fasting strong.
- 24 Hot weather and fishy odors. High School Basketball Tournament.
- 25 Lots of visitors. High School Basketball Tournament.
- 27 Will Schrader ever grow up?
- 28 Grass cutters will be along soon.
- 29 Warm nights and good old fertilizer.
- 30 Too hot to think.
- 31 Koch tries to find his golf balls.

APRIL

- 1 Interfraternity Ball.
- 3 Won't be long until we see a few new "R" sweaters.
- 4 Griff takes his nightly hike.
- 5 Date night. Ho! Hum!
- 6 Just another "fast" day.
- 7 Men's Glee Club Concert. Can they yodel.
- 8 One more week before vacation.
- 10 Why does Evans go home every week-end?
- 11 Betty Hoop hoop hooped her way into Gribbin's arms and played the piano in the gym.
- 12 Won't be long now.
- 13 Easter recess begins. See you later.
- 24 Back to work again. Everyone looks great, and we had to have eggs for breakfast.
- 25 Mushmouth's trick knee is out again, but he'll probably get some consolation from Pat.
- 26 Drennan and Curwood, one's the tree and one's the sap. Draw your own conclusions.
- 27 The girls begin to think and look like men.
- 28 Girls He-She Party. Boy what brutes.
- 29 Evening gowns come out of mothballs, Tux jobs visit the tailor for the Freshman Hop.

MAY

- 1 We'll soon be on the road to success, either wise or otherwise.
- 2 Jig Saw puzzles are still quite the rage. Ask Larry he knows. He's had Bertie since the first of the year.
- 3 Potter's looking for a job in a hotel.
- 4 "Iron Man" Williams goes for another tete a tete with "Laundress" Lentz.
- 5 Five A. M. and Iron Man is still tete a teting.

- 6 You know it is nearly the end of the year.
- 7 P. Club Camp. Lots of noise, poise, and perfection. Commercial Club high school contest.
- 8 Hummel is running around singing "She Told Me She Loved Me." Thanks to Kelly.
- 9 Malone is learning the song "Farewell to Arms" so that he can sing it to Mike on the twenty-ninth.
- 10 I suppose that you have all heard Parker proposed and "Oh dear, I'll have to ask father."
- 11 Lots of visitors today.
- 12 Nothing doing. Except hauling out five bucks for a sheepskin.
- 13 Dorm's deserted.
- 15 Ten more days, and it's good-bye classwork.
- 16 Birds chirping, leaves on the trees, and May-poles on Mount Olympus.
- 17 May Day. Lots of visitors and a fine pageant.
- 18 Tennis balls are flying everywhere.
- 19 Last time for fish this year.
- 20 Athletic Banquet and C. G. A. Dance.
- 22 Boy! Oh Boy! Exams! Exams! More Exams!
- 23 Wonder what Heimbach is going to do next year without his June.
- 24 Fellows, girls, kisses. Sweet sad partings and An Revoues.
- 25 So long underclassmen, go home. Senior Ball and the last school dance for many.
- 26 Senior Day. Ivy Day—and the pranks of Class Night.
- 27 Alumni Day. Welcome back old grads, it's good to see you again.
- 28 Baccalaureate Sermon.
- 29 Commencement and auf Wiedersehen. "Tout vint a point a qui sait attendre"

*Faculty

WE have finished our course at Bloomsburg and take with us only in proportion to what we have given. Now, we go out as guides, leaders of Youth. What we are and what we will be depends on the way in which we solve life's problems as they come. In like manner, how much we do of good for the Youth placed in our care is concurrent with how much of that problem solving ability we develop in them.

May this book, then, ever remind us of this most sacred privilege, ours by virtue of America's confidence in us, a confidence great enough to have hung thereby the future of her citizens, and by that token that of her very self, her Democratic Government.
