OBITER

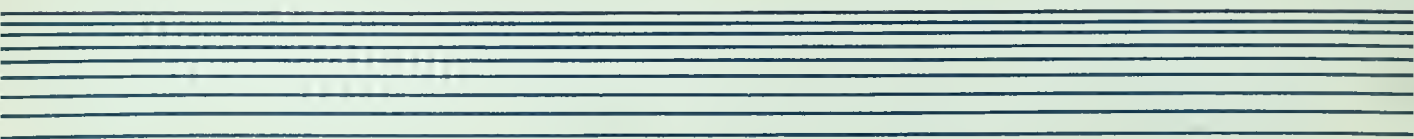

SENIOR ANNUAL
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

Aristotle (384-322 B.C.) in his ethics and in his politics, outlined an ideal state and a system of education for it.

W. Buggy

That instructor who can engender appreciation in the souls of his students is truly a teacher. Because of his great success as such a teacher, and because of his faithful service to the "College on the Hill", the staff deems it an honor to dedicate the nineteenth volume of the Obiter to Professor Daniel S. Hartline. He has taught us to appreciate nature—the universe, the world, our daily environment, life in all its forms. Now we know what is the love of a student for his teacher.

Foreword

IT IS with a feeling of pride that we are privileged to include among the members of our teaching profession such great men as Aristotle, Rousseau, Froebel, Pestalozzi, and Dewey.

A study of their lives reveals an intense desire to teach, to inspire learning. All of us cannot reach the degree of perfection attained by these men—but in our humble manner we can strive to continue the work so nobly begun by them, bearing in mind that the most humble attempt is a feat, in the greatest work of the world—teaching.

Academy, Literary Institute, Literary Institute and State Normal School, State Teachers College—such has been the metamorphosis of our present State Teachers College in Bloomsburg. It is difficult to believe that the history of our college dates back almost a century, but the fact is, that in 1839 a private academy was opened in the town of Bloomsburg. It was successfully conducted for two years by C. P. Waller, a graduate of Williams College. Later, public school teachers taught the academy during their summer vacations. Joel Bradley and D. A. Beckley were among the outstanding teachers during this period.

D. J. Waller, in 1856, drew up a charter providing that this school be known as the Bloomsburg Literary Institute for the promotion of education in the ordinary and the higher branches of English literature, ancient and modern languages, and the sciences. This charter was subscribed to by worthy citizens of Bloomsburg.

In 1866, the school was taught by Henry Carver, of Binghamton, New York. His was an unusual influence and personality, and he had much to do with molding the school's early policies. He saw the need for a new building, and insisted that it was essential to the future development of the Institute. Under his inspiration, the original charter was revived and the following officials elected: President, D. J. Waller; secretary, I. W. Hartman; trustees, John G. Freeze, R. F. Clark, and William Neal. Mr. Carver assured the trustees that $15,000 would build a suitable building. When people expressed their doubts that the type of building which he had planned could be built for that amount, he assumed, in addition to his regular duties as teacher, the offices of architect and contractor. His energy and enthusiasm seemed boundless.

That building, the present Carver Hall, was dedicated on April 4, 1867, with a gala observance by the townspeople. A parade, headed by the town band, marched from the old building, somewhere near the present Catholic church, to the new one. A fine bell for the tower was purchased with $1200 secured through popular subscription raised by three members of the first class at the new school—D. J. Waller, Jr., George E. Elwell, and Charles Unangst. The first faculty comprised Professor Carver, teacher of mathematics and the higher English branches; Reverend J. R. Dimm, teacher of Latin and Greek; and Miss Sarah Carver, teacher of the lower English branches.

In the autumn of 1867, James P. Wickersham, then State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was traveling through Bloomsburg on the train. He saw the new school on the hill "ablaze with lights," and thought the location of the Literary Institute would be ideal for a State Normal School. Negotiations were begun, and in 1868 at a meeting in which Mr. Wickersham addressed the citizens of Bloomsburg, it was decided that under the act of 1857 a normal school could be established. Consequently, a dormitory was built at a cost of $36,000. On February 19, 1869, the school was recognized as a State Normal School, combined with the Literary Institute. In September of that year, there were 150 students enrolled in the Normal Department and 80 in the Model School.

Principal Carver left in 1871. Charles G. Barkley, Esq., a former county superintendent of schools, acted as principal from December, 1871, to March, 1872. His successor was the Reverend Hewitt, rector of the Bloomsburg Episcopal Church. He served as principal until June, 1873. Dr. T. L. Griswold was then principal until 1877. Those early years were trying ones, full of disappointments and hardships. Subscriptions were hard to collect, and often the trustees met obligations on their personal responsibility. Another blow came in 1875, when the dormitory was completely destroyed by fire. However, the trustees and people who had faith and confidence in the school again furnished money, and in 1876 a larger and handsomer building, the original part of the present Waller Hall, was built. In spite of the adverse circumstances the school began paying expenses during Dr. Griswold's administration.

In the fall of 1877, Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., became principal. For thirteen years the school grew under his guidance. The Model School (Noetling Hall) and the east wing of the dormitory were built during his time as principal. When Dr. Waller resigned in 1890 to become State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the school was in a prosperous condition. Dr. Judson P. Welsh served as principal of the Bloomsburg Literary Institute and State Normal School from 1890 to 1906. During his administration the gymnasium and an addition to the four-story dormitory were built. Science Hall, built from plans made by Dr. D. S. Hartline, was completed in 1906, just after Dr. Welsh's resignation.

Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., responded a second time to the summons of the trustees, and returned as principal until 1920, when he retired from active duty. He was succeeded by Dr. Charles H. Fisher, who came to the school from the State Department of Public Instruction. His principalship extended from 1920 to 1923. It was in 1920 that the State purchased the school and changed the name to the Bloomsburg State Normal School, dropping the "Bloomsburg Literary Institute." During Dr. Fisher's administration extension courses were instituted and the Bloomsburg public schools were opened to the teacher training service of the Normal School. Dr. G. C. L. Riemer, also from the State Department of Public Instruction, followed Dr. Fisher and served until 1927.

The State Council of Education of June 4, 1926, authorized the State Normal School to confer the degree B. S. in Education to graduates of four-year courses in Elementary Education and in Junior High School Education. May 13, 1927, the Council changed the name to State Teachers College at Bloomsburg.

Dr. Francis B. Haas, also a former State Superintendent of Public Instruction, succeeded Dr. Riemer in July, 1927, and is now serving as president of the institution.

During the administration of Dr. Haas the curricula offered by the college were enriched by the establishment of a Commercial Department under the direction of Professor H. A. Andruss.

Today we can point with pride at the "College on the Hill," knowing that for nearly a hundred years it has played an active part in the most wonderful work of the world, education.

Greetings and Congratulations to the Class of 1935

It has been a great pleasure and a satisfaction to have observed the steady progress and the fine character of the Class of 1935. The College appreciates your many contributions to the development of our Community Activities Association. I congratulate you upon your success and hope that you will remember that at Bloomsburg the latch-string will always hang outside the door.

Sincerely,

Francis B. Haas

President.

Message from Dean Sutliff

THE CLASS OF 1935 has the distinction of being the first class to have each of its members receive the baccalaureate degree. You have had a large part in the progress and development of the ideals and attainments of this College. During your four years the Community Government has greatly enlarged its scope and its influence upon the life of the College. Your class has ably assisted in that development.

It has been my good fortune not only to have followed closely your scholastic progress, but to have been associated with many of you in a variety of college activities. We shall miss you, but we feel that you are ready to try your wings. Our best wishes for your success go with you.

W. B. SUTLIFF,
Dean of Instruction.

To the Members of the Graduating Class of 1935:

You have the distinction of being the first graduating class composed entirely of four-year students to graduate at Bloomsburg. This marks a very definite step in the development of the teaching profession. I congratulate you on the part you play in that progress.

I wish you success and happiness for the future and I hope you will visit the scenes of your undergraduate days frequently.

Sincerely,

JOHN C. KOCH,

Dean of Men.

To the Class of 1935:

We have watched your progress through the four years of college life at Bloomsburg. Now we give you our best wishes at your Commencement in the college of life. May you pass successfully from the greenness of freshmen to the wisdom of seniors in that larger and more difficult school. Come back and tell us about your adventures.

MARGUERITE W. KEHR,

Dean of Women.

Tribute to Cooperative and Training Teachers

Is there any one of us who will forget the day when, with hearts beating faster than usual and nerves more sensitive than customary, he reluctantly trod the way to his first assignment as a teacher in charge of a class?

The names of the cooperative and training teachers will awaken in us many memories of humorous incidents that occurred in our classes—or delicate situations that required tact, in which cases our training teachers so ably cooperated with us.

Although our college classes dealt in serious matters the greater part of the time, still the humorous side was not entirely lacking. All of us can appreciate the woe begone appearance of a person receiving a schedule full of eight o'clock classes. Every class had its philosophers who believed that time matters not at all and thus straggled into classes just late enough to annoy the professors. Study, discussions, and humor all combined to make classes the interesting role they play in college life.

Jean Jacques Rousseau (1712-1778) author of the famous "Emile", and advocate of return to nature—freedom of action rather than inhibition.

Through the splendid leadership of the President, Elmer McKechnie and the fine cooperation of the class, the advisor, and the administration, the group carried to a successful finish the usual activities—Chapel program, Class Night, Ivy Day, Senior Ball, and Alumni Banquet.

This class has also the distinction of being the first to make class jewelry a group project. This activity was one of the most noteworthy of the year.

The class of '35 is passing on. They leave behind them many pleasant memories. The four years which they have spent in Bloomsburg have been happy ones. They have tried earnestly to uphold the customs and traditions of their Alma Mater and to contribute something valuable and lasting to the institution.

Juniors--Class of 1936

ERNEST V. LAU*President*
 BERNARD J. YOUNG*Vice-President*
 BETTY HARTER*Secretary*
 MARY C. KUHN*Treasurer*

Almost three years ago this energetic class entered B. S. T. C., and immediately began to show its worth. One hundred and seventy-five were in the class at that time. They, as is the custom and right of all entering classes, became acquainted with each other and had a grand and glorious time at the "Kid Party." All was not fun, however—customs were still an important part of a Freshman's life in those days, and many were the penalties dealt out to them.

After electing officers of their organization, they set to work and put on the Frosh Hop, making it one of the outstanding events of that College year. However, they were not only active in social activities, but in scholastic and athletic fields as well. Seventeen members of the class were honor students, and many of the boys earned varsity letters in athletics.

The annual Frosh-Upperclassmen football classic was, as usual, won by the Upperclassmen, but by the closest score in years, 6-0.

The next year the number of students in the class was reduced by half. Undismayed, they reorganized and carried on their excellent work of the previous year. More students made the honor list, and many of the members were again athletes of varsity calibre. The Sophomore Cotillion was another huge success being put on in the form of a St. Valentine's Dance.

This year, as Juniors, the class was still smaller, but no less successful in its efforts than the preceding years. The chapel program, Junior Prom, and all other events conducted by the class will be well remembered.

After three years of college experience the Juniors appreciate the statement that, "He who knows and knows not that he knows is a junior—encourage him."

During its presence at B. S. T. C. the class has had capable leadership and co-operation in all its activities has been a marked characteristic. Watch them next year.

Sophomores--Class of 1937

- FRANK A. CAMERA*President*
- LAMAR K. BLASS*Vice-President*
- ANNA J. LAUBACH*Secretary*
- EDWARD L. WEBB*Treasurer*

The month of September in 1933 marked the introduction of a new class into B. S. T. C. At that time one hundred and seventy-three meek and mild Freshmen became the humble subjects of the upperclassmen.

As Freshmen, the newcomers weathered many a storm. Despite the humiliation occasioned by customs and the loss of a hard-fought football game with their superiors, the class of '33 came through with flying colors. The proverbial green did not vanish suddenly, but was carefully nurtured and preserved by the conscientious Frosh until the date of the "Kid Party" arrived. After this event, the class abandoned its former habits hastily.

The chapel program was a matter which required serious thought. In this particular instance, the Freshmen showed their originality and power of imitation by presenting a mock chapel program. The last trace of verdancy vanished with the Freshman Hop, and the baby class grew up.

The next year many of them returned and went to work with a "will." Plans were made for the Sophomore Cotillion and a beautiful affair was sponsored.

The Sophomores are well represented in every extra-curricular activity on the campus—dramatics, varsity basketball and football—all have Sophomore enthusiasts.

Cooperation of the members of the class and the skillful leadership of Mr. Keller, the advisor, aided the Sophomores in every enterprise undertaken, and they are about to complete a very successful year.

As a class, the Sophomores have taken advantage of the saying that:

"He who knows not, and knows that he knows not, is a Sophomore; teach him."

Freshmen--Class of 1938

- ROBERT PRICE*President*
- NEIL RICHIE*Vice-President*
- ALICE W. AUCH*Secretary*
- JACOB KOTSCH*Treasurer*

In September, 1934, there entered into our beloved college a group of innocent, unsuspecting creatures destined to be classed as Freshmen. After losing themselves in the corridors of Waller and Noetling Halls, they finally found the place of registration.

Amid the usual trials and tribulations of a Freshman, the traditional college customs were applied. Walking billboards, boys carrying bricks, girls carrying umbrellas, and men taught to say, "Yes, sir," adorned our campus. In spite of the humiliation, class officers were elected, and a very competent class advisor, Professor E. A. Reams, was given the honor of assisting the "intellectual prodigies."

The Kid Party offered an opportunity for the "kids" of the campus to have their fling. All enjoyed themselves and retired to dream of sugar plums, candy, and Charlie Chaplin.

The day of the annual football classic had arrived. There trudged out on the grid-iron a determined Freshman team which, after a hard battle, came out on the short end of a very uncomfortably close score. But they played not in vain for they became aware of their ability to do things.

After a year of college life we appreciate what is meant when one says,

"He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a Freshman; pity him."

And now, with confidence and determination, they look forward to the future, ever ready to support the integrity of their "Alma Mater."

"B" Club

Leaving Bloomsburg we will carry away with us many memories of exciting moments spent at athletic contests. Thirty seconds to go—and a field goal is miraculously executed; a dribble, a pivot, a pass—Bloomsburg triumphs once more. In years to come, strong will be the urge to visit the college and once more sing our beautiful! Alma Mater.

Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi (1748-1827) laid the basis for the modern elementary school and helped to reform elementary school practice.

The "Husky" Mascot

AL WATTS AND ROONGO

For a long time Bloomsburg athletic teams staged their contests on the court and Mt. Olympus without a mascot as a spectator. But in the fall of 1933 one of Mr. Keller's prize Eskimo dogs was selected to symbolize Bloomsburg athletic spirit.

Roongo stands for the ideals of manly sportsmanship, fair play, and the worthwhile benefits derived from playing the game squarely. The cheers of the students and the barks of Roongo as he runs up and down the sidelines of the field imbues our athletic gladiators with a spirit that does not submit to defeat.

His presence stands as a challenge to B.S.T.C. athletes. They, too, in their way must live up to the standards of determination, cooperation, and fight so peculiar to the "Huskies" of the far North.

A. Watts, J. Slavin, G. VanSickle, H. T. Nelson.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders went to town this year and put pep into the cheers.

Elected for the first time, the cheerleaders gave an excellent exhibition of synchronized action. Under the fine leadership of George VanSickle, chairman of the pep committee, the squad worked hard to attain their high state of efficiency.

On the field, on the basketball court, on the stage, the cheerleaders carried on with the same amount of vim and vigor.

Nelson and Watts receive a sweater this year for the completion of two years' of service.

THE MAROON AND GOLD

(Color Song)

In the days to come when others boast
 And College tales are told
 To the glad refrain add a joytul strain
 A cheer for Maroon and Gold
 And be not weak in praise nor slow to honor.

Refrain

Keep the colors proudly flying,
 Raise them high, Maroon and Gold
 Colors royal for the loyal
 And a cheer for the brave and bold.
 Fling a challenge to the honest foe,
 And the colors bravely hold
 Sound the noble cry with courage high
 Hurrah! Hurrah! Maroon and Gold!
 To the power of the old Maroon
 To the glory of the Gold
 As the team goes by lift the colors high
 A pledge to the faith of old.
 To the Men, to the Team, to the Spirit of Old Bloomsburg.

H. F. and F. H.

OLD BLOOMSBURG

There are colors to cheer,
 There are names to revere,
 There are stories of others told,
 But the colors we cheer,
 And the names we revere,
 Belong to Maroon and Gold.
 There's a glorious past,
 There are names that will last,
 There's a spirit what sends a call,
 Here's a team to defend,
 Here's our pledge to the end,
 To the colors that must not fall.
 All together now for Bloomsburg,
 Take the colors to the goal (Rah! Rah!)
 Another score for Alma Mater,
 Another victory on the scroll (Team! Team!)
 All together now for Bloomsburg,
 Maroon and Gold in every play (Rah! Rah!)
 It's the spirit of old Bloomsburg,
 It's the end of a perfect day. (Team! Team!)

Coach. GEORGE C. BUCHHEIT

Football 1934

Coach George C. Buchheit entered the Hall of Fame in so far as the Bloomsburg State Teachers College is concerned, during his term as head coach of athletics for the 1934 football season.

This stalwart, calm, friendly, grim figure placed a Huskie Eleven on Mt. Olympus that surpassed many of the fine teams of former years.

Mr. Buchheit has been a member of the faculty for but three years, but during this period he had produced some outstanding athletic teams. Our Sports Mentor has proved that if a man is given ample time to study his proteges, he can turn out championship material.

During his first year at Bloomsburg, the Maroon and Gold team made a fair showing and this was followed by an improved record in 1933. However, in 1934, the Buchheit-Men were not to be denied the fame that was due them. They went right to work and rolled up a record of four wins, three losses and one tie. Two of these reverses were hair-thrillers, being won by the opposing teams in the closing seconds of play.

Although power plays were used quite extensively, the Huskies, in practically every game, resorted to the air for tallies, and before the end of the season was at hand, they had become very efficient in scoring on aerial attacks.

The Bloomsburg line, outweighed from ten to twenty pounds per man by every opposing team, was rated as one of the best in the State Teachers College Circuit. What was lacking in build, certainly was supplied with a thorough knowledge of football, speed, courage and fight.

During the training season, Captain Harter led no less than forty-two candidates through practice periods. Border, Camera, J. Dixon, Kitch, Line, Litwhiler, Mericle, Moleski, Rompolo, Kelly and Schrope were the letter-men who were back in harness. Blass, L. Dixon, Dry, Kline, Kudgus, Kundra, Kupstas, Lichtel, Novak, Pietruzak, and Supchinsky composed the reserve material of last year. Sircovics, Finder, Henry, Patrick, Bell, Goodman, Klinger, Laubach, Reagan, Richie, Troutman, Vershinski, Zaleski, Ziller, Jances, Riley, Madden, and Kase were all new men.

After a short, but strenuous drilling period, the Huskies journeyed to the bowl of the Clarion State Teachers College. A wet and muddy field prevented the College-Grid-ders from flashing their true form. However, the strong and powerful Westerners were well-drilled, and forced the Bloomsburg Squad to resort to a defensive game. Long-distance punting by "Whitie" Moleski aided the Buchheit-Men in holding the Clarion Eleven to a scoreless tie.

Encouraged by their showing against a more experienced Clarion Team, the Huskies opened their home season with a 8-0 clean-cut victory over Millersville. It was the work of a powerful line that continually pushed a heavier Millersville wall within the shadow of its goal, and prevented them from registering a first down. Sircovics, a newcomer on the squad, played a great defensive game, and added to the score of the game by tallying a safety. Captain "Doc" Harter accounted for the lone touchdown of the game.

From a statistical point of view, a rugged, superior Lock Haven Fottball Machine completely outclassed the Mt. Olympus Warriors, but the former could not begin to match the Maroon and Gold Eleven in fight, aggressiveness, courage, pluck and that never give in spirit.

Each and every Bloomsburg Player took a physical beating during the fray, and it was that blood-smearred, stocky figure of "Bloody" Sircovics that called the Lock Haven plays, stationed the Huskies line and secondary that broke up an offensive drive that seemed uncheckable. Every man on the College Squad played his position, and it was this fine display of teamwork that enabled Captain Harter to once again resort to that "educated toe" to send the ball over the uprights, and win the game.

The College Passers made it three straight in their game with a powerful Mansfield Grid Team. The visitors threatened time and time again, but could gain no further ground when the Huskie Line proved to be a stone wall. Harter was on the scoring end of a touchdown and two placement kicks, while his running mate, "Whitie" Moleski, crossed the line for the second tally.

The Homecoming Day game with Shippensburg proved to be a history-making contest, and will long be remembered by those in attendance for many years to come.

A more powerful, well-balanced, and more experienced Red White Eleven was unable to break through the tight, stubborn, iron wall of the Huskies during the first three quarters, and the first half of the final period. "Whitie" Moleski again came to the rescue of his team by giving a remarkable exhibition of long and well-placed punts. "Doc" Harter not only directed his men through the contest, but was responsible for three field goals, which gave the Huskies a 9-0 lead.

A deceptive play that resulted in a long forward pass, caught the Bloomsburg Secondary off guard, and enabled the receiver to score for the visitors. A questionable decision by the referee in the final minute of play permitted the Red and White Warriors to retain possession of the ball, and placed them in a position that resulted in a second touchdown. The placement was good and the game ended with Shippensburg winning by the score of 13-9.

Fate seemed to follow the College Eleven once again during their game with the Stroudsburg Teachers. The Bloomsburg Passers crossed the white line in the early minutes of the first quarter, and held the Upstaters at bay until the third period, when a pass into the end zone was good for a score. A converted placement tied the score at 7-7. The Buchheit-Men were not to be denied, and again took the lead by virtue of Captain Harter's field goal.

In the final seconds of play, the home team opened up an aerial attack that greatly worried the Huskies. Pass after pass was knocked down by the Bloomsburg Secondary, and it was just a matter of good fortune when a Stroudsburg man eventually managed to complete a pass for a touchdown. The extra point was converted, and the Maroon and Gold Gridders had victory snatched from their jaws to the tune of 14-10.

Hurt and disheartened because of the losses to Shippensburg and Stroudsburg, the Huskies prepared for their final game with Slippery Rock, one of the outstanding Elevens in the Inter-Collegiate Circuit. Let it be remembered that this squad held a great Geneva team to a 14-14 tie, who in turn handed that great Rose Bowl representative of the East—the University of Pittsburgh its only defeat during the 1934 campaign.

Captain Harter, Kitch, Line, Lichtel, Kundra and Pietruzak, all members of the graduating class, were to wear a Maroon and Gold uniform for the last time. The team knew what it had to contend with, and although they had received two consecutive set-backs, they were determined to give their all in this last game.

They did just that thing, and completely outclassed a stronger, heavier and more experienced Green and White Grid Team. "Whitie" Moleski, triple-threat man, began shooting bulls eyes with his bullet-like passes. Tommy Vershinski, lanky end, was on the receiving end of three passes, two of which were good for touchdowns, and the other which placed the ball on the four yard mark. Moleski, on a line buck, accounted for the third tally. Slippery Rock managed to hang up two goals. The defensive and offensive attack checked the drives of the visitors, and enabled the Mt. Olympus Eleven to counter. Along with the fine defensive work of the line, one cannot help but point out the fine piece of work done by Joe Dixon. The Hazleton boy could not and would not be halted by the Green and White line and secondary, and it was largely through his continuous charging that the Slippery Rock offensive was halted.

And thus it was that the 1934 season of the Huskies was brought to a dramatic close. Some mention has been made of Coach George C. Buchheit and Assistant Coach Seely, but we cannot praise too highly the work done by these two men in turning out a football machine that equalled those of former days.

Although the Buchheit-Squad will be five less in number as the result of graduation, there is a host of reserve material available to form the makings of a still greater 1935 Grid Team.

Again our congratulations to the Coaching Staff, Members of the Team, and those connected with the Managerial Department.

Track 1934

Following his fine piece of work with the 1934 Basketball Squad, and through his untiring efforts, Coach George C. Buchheit placed an undefeated track and field team on Mt. Olympus.

Captain Shellhammer was of great assistance to the cinder mentor in getting the men into condition. "Dick" Menapace, two-year senior, and a newcomer on the squad, proved to be the season's find in this sport, for it was his fine showings in the short distance runs that spelled victory for the Huskies. Other members of the team consisted of Karnes, Jaffin, Roan, Bertoldi, Blass, Cohen, Elder, Howell, Karshner, Lau, Line, Litwhiler, Mericle, Parr, Schrope, Sell, Webb, Young, and Wilson.

Coach Buchheit made a wise move in having an inter-class meet—an annual affair. In this manner it was possible for him to look over his field and set about developing possibilities.

The Mt. Olympus Cinder-Men easily defeated Bucknell University in their first dual meet. Menapace took third in the 100 and 200 dashes, and first honors in the low hurdles. Sell came through in the 880, Karnes the one and two mile jaunts, Blass the high hurdles and broad jump and Litwhiler in the javelin throw.

In the Lock Haven meet, the Huskies again ran away with the honors. Menapace continued his fast pace by coming through with a first in the 220 and a third in the low hurdles. Jaffin showed his form in the 440, as did Karnes in the mile, and Bertoldi in the two. Blass scored in the broad jump class.

Probably the most outstanding of all their victories, was the Huskies' defeat of the Physical Education Squad from Stroudsburg. Menapace showed his true form by capturing first honors in the 100 and 220 sprints, and third in the low hurdles. Karnes shared honors with him by taking the mile and two mile events. Shelhamer scored in the javelin throw as did Blass in the shot put. Captain Shelhamer came through with a first in the discus, and Blass in the broad jump.

The final event on the calendar was with Shippensburg, and visitors could not begin to match the speed and power of the Buchheit-Track and Cindermen.

The big gun (in the person of Coble) of the Big Red and White was overpowered by "iron man" Bertoldi. Karnes wisely tired the Shippensburg star by setting the pace during the early laps, with the winner trailing until the time was ripe, when he stepped to the front by passing two opponents.

Cohen scored a second in the pole vault, while Blass took the shot put, and Shelhamer the javelin throw. Blass found his way to the top in the broad jump event. Menapace took a second in the 100 and 220 dashes and third in the low hurdles. Sell took first honors in the 880, Bertoldi the mile, and Karnes the two. Once again we find Blass in first position, this time in the high hurdles.

We owe much to our Head Coach for the fine manner in which he has brought sports to the fore at the Bloomsburg State Teachers College, and let it be stated by the writer, that if he is given the opportunity, he will, in time, produce such teams as have never before been seen in competition in Inter-Collegiate circles.

Low Score Wins

Cross Country

Faced with the problem of filling the gap left by the loss of "Jim" Karnes, Eddie Baum and Arden Roan, our able Captain Bernard Young, with the assistance of Coach Buchheit and Francis Sell, rounded up a squad that went through its season of scheduled meets without a defeat.

"Iron Man" Bertoldi, a seasoned runner, was without question the outstanding performer of the 1934 Husky Cross Country Team. However, one must not overlook the fine service ex-captain Sell and Captain Young have given our Alma Mater.

Bertoldi, Young, Marks, Sell and Lau were the veterans who composed the squad. Rowlands, Tamalis, Davison, Zalonis, and Foust were newcomers.

It was through the persistent driving of Young and the setting of the pace by Bertoldi that the hillmen were whipped into condition.

In their first meet with Indiana, the Maroon and Gold Dalemens were given little competition, Bertoldi and Sell joining hands as they crossed the tape.

Shippensburg was completely outclassed by a primed Husky Squad which turned in a perfect score. The first five men to cross the line were wearers of the Maroon and Gold colors. Bertoldi was man number one; Sell and Davison tied for second honors; Lau was fourth, and Captain Young was fifth.

In winning the meet, Bertoldi completed the hilly 4.8 mile course in the record breaking time of twenty-four minutes, twenty-two and one-half seconds. The time was eight seconds faster than the record established last year by Knabb of West Chester.

Dual meets with West Chester and Lock Haven were cancelled, as were the open meets at York and Bloomsburg.

Bertoldi captured the open meet held at Scranton in fine style, and was closely followed by Sell, Lau and Young who placed among the first ten runners to finish.

The Berwick Marathon, a true test for any harrier, proved to be too much of a strain on Bertoldi and Sell. Both men finished the run, but were not at their best after having completed a season of Inter-Collegiate competition.

Closing congratulations.

Basketball 1934-35

A crippled and somewhat weakened Huskie Quintet (deprived of the services of a key, pivot man) staged a bitter and stubborn fight during the contests of the 1934-35 court season, and emerged as the victor in six of the fifteen scheduled battles. Six of the nine frays lost were very close, and care must be taken so as not to underestimate the Maroon and Gold Dribblers.

Coach Buchheit was again faced with the problem of building a winning Five. The absence of Ernie Valente, ex-captain, from the Squad was very noticeable, but more so was that of Howard "Big Boy" Wilson, scoring ace and indispensable cog of that Great 1933-34 Court Team.

Our Sport's Mentor continued to shift his men in an effort to develop an offensive and defensive combination. He partly succeeded in his attempt, as is evidenced by the fine showing made by the College Passers, at the outset of the season.

However, as the Huskie Warriors ran up against keener and faster competition, they were unable to continue their winning pace. Temporarily, the morale of the Home Five dropped to its lowest ebb, and a losing streak followed.

Pete Kundra, junior varsity center and reserve, had shown great possibilities in scrimmage and in competition, and his work at this post earned for him a position on the varsity squad. Sam Krauss, also a junior varsity man, displayed his real ability and played fine basketball on the varsity five.

"Junie" Ruckle, the season's find and a fine example of a team player, played a fine brand of ball. On countless occasions, this lad would pass up a scoring chance even though he was a "dead-shot," come out from behind the black line, pass the ball, and start plays that would find his team-mates receiving for a two decker.

Captain Blackburn, completing his fourth season as a member of the Squad, must be credited for the cool and fine manner in which he handled his charges. "Blackie," always good for a score when the going is close, called the plays and managed to keep his team collected at the most critical moments. His smooth-handling of the sphere will long be remembered.

It is essential that Reed, Washeleski, and Phillips receive recognition for their work at the defensive posts. These three men have been rated as three of the outstanding guards in the Intercollegiate Circuit. This classification is substantiated by the result of the game with the Stroudsburg Teachers. The Huskie guards completely "bottled up" the greatest offensive machine ever produced at the Physical Educational School. Sam Krauss likewise played an important role in the Team's success, interchanging positions with Ruckle and Blackburn at the forward position.

A pre-season game with the Alumni afforded the Huskies an opportunity for displaying their skill with the inflated sphere. They took advantage of this game, and completely outclassed an Alumni Five composed of the stars of yester-year.

Inspired by their victory over the Graduate Passers, the Buchheit-Quintet journeyed to Mansfield and defeated the latter in a slow but decisive fray. The College Basketeers visited the Ithaca Teachers of New York, a faster and more experienced Five, and extended the up-staters to the limit, but were the losers by a margin of but one point.

The Maroon and Gold Courtmen opened their home stand with a thrilling victory over a taller, and veteran Kutztown Squad. This fete was duplicated in the game with the Lock Haven Teachers.

Millersville and Shippensburg were successful in gaining the upper hand over the Huskie Warriors, following the Lock Haven game. Determined to begin anew, the Bloomsburg Dribblers evened the score with the Shippensburg Five in their return encounter on the College Court. The victory was clean-cut and unquestionable, and stirred the morale of the Buchheit-Passers.

A championship Squad from E. Stroudsburg easily defeated the Maroon and Gold Quintet on the Bloomsburg Court. The Huskies were considerably shaken by the loss to the Physical Ed. Five, and dropped the next two contests to Lock Haven and Millersville.

At this point of the season, Kundra was given the varsity pivot post and he led his mates to a one-sided victory over a fast and aggressive Mansfield Quintet.

Immediately the Huskies came back to life and played their best game of the season against the veteran Stroudsburg Courtmen. The Buchheit-Five set the pace during the entire contest, and at times outplayed the Champions, and it was only a last minute rally that gave the Big Red and White a one-point-victory.

The Kutztown fray was very close and fast, and again a final period offensive flare-up gave the down-staters a victory over the Maroon and Gold Five by a three point margin. Still confident, the Huskies played their final fracas with the Indiana Passers. Bloomsburg held a decided advantage at the end of the first quarter and first half, but a revolving Indiana attack was not to be subdued. At the close of the third period, the Red and White had evened the score, and was successful in staging a whirlwind finish that spelled victory.

Captain Blackburn, Washeleski, Reed, Krauss, Shakofski, Kundra and Rowlands will be lost to the team through graduation, and their positions will be difficult to fill.

Junior Varsity

The Huskie Junior Varsity Squad enjoyed a successful season, winning five and losing two contests. Much credit is due Kundra, Rowlands (the Gold-dust twins), Krauss, Shakofski, Gering, Vershinski, Litwhiler, Slaven, and Witka for the success of the team.

Coach. JOHN C. KOCH

Tennis 1934

Coach (Prof) Koch brought tennis back to the Bloomsburg courts in a big way during the 1934 season. Great interest had been shown in this sport during the past years, but for some unknown reason, it gradually faded from the limelight.

"Prof" was solely responsible for the building up of a great team. The boys were under the leadership of Sam Krauss, an old timer with the racquet. Taylor, Gennaria, Krepich, Gehring, Cornely, and Chudzinski were members of the squad. Wolfson handled the managerial end.

The Huskies displayed their form in no less than seven contests, of which they won four and lost three. Team-work, consisting of well-placed shots, fast foot-work, and a thorough knowledge of the game, enabled the Maroon and Gold Courtmen to enjoy a successful season.

A big gap has been left in the Squad through the graduation of "Jack" Taylor, Gennaria, Krepich, and Chudzinski, but Coach Koch is quite confident that he has sufficient reserve material to reframe a new Net Team.

Games have been scheduled for the coming spring season.

Coach, E. H. NELSON

Baseball 1934

Under the watchful eye of Dr. E. H. Nelson, and the fine leadership of Bennett Dry, acting Captain, the 1934 Huskie Diamond Squad completed one of the most successful seasons that the Alma Mater has ever enjoyed.

This field of athletics was discontinued for a period of one year, because of the necessity of curtailing administration expenses. However, the fine showing made by the Maroon and Gold Sluggers will warrant its continuance as a major sport.

Much credit is due Coach Nelson for his handling of the Team. The presence of Shelhamer, Shakofski, Valente, Dry, Blackburn, Beck, Chesney, and Gribbon, all former varsity men was greatly responsible for the showing made by the College Nine.

Shakofski, Litwhiler and Moleski, all experienced twirlers, solved the problem of checking the bats of the visiting teams. Karshner, Visotski, Reagen, Rompalo, Vershinski, Rocosz, Kundra, Washeleski, and Parr were newcomers and proved their mettle by ousting varsity men from their former positions.

The Huskies recorded five wins as against but one defeat. This set-back was received in the opening game with Shippensburg. Things seemed very dark for the Nelson-Stars, but all were confident that they would go places just as soon as they got their bearings. Their beliefs became realities in that the Mt. Olympus Batters won their next five contests.

The second scheduled game with the Bridgewater, Mass. Nine could not be played because of wet grounds. In the second fracas, "Woody" Litwhiler gave a masterful exhibition of air-tight pitching when he turned down a powerful and threatening Lock Haven Squad. Shelhamer sent the ball sailing out of the reach of the fielders, and scored on his first round-tripper of the year. In the twelfth frame, after two men had singled, Litwhiler doubled, scoring the men ahead of him.

"Whitie" Moleski, speedball and hook artist from Coal Township, evened the score with the Shippensburg Teachers by holding them to but five hits, while his teammates gathered twice as many. The Huskies supported their Boxman with their fine fielding and work with the stick, in which Acting Captain Dry played a leading part.

Encouraged by two consecutive victories over Lock Haven and Shippensburg, the Nelson-Nine journeyed to Mansfield and made it three in a row under the fine piece of mound-work by Litwhiler. Although out-hit, the Huskies bunched their hits and scored at an opportune time. The play was very close, and it was the brand of heads-up-baseball exhibited by the Maroon and Gold Diamond Squad that overpowered the home team.

In the return game on the College Diamond, the Mansfield Squad were easily subdued by the five-hit pitching of "Whitie" Moleski. Bloomsburg took the lead in the early innings of the game, and was in no danger at any time thereafter.

"Tony" Shakofski, curve ball pitcher, hooked and dropped his way to an easy victory over a much improved Lock Haven Team. Although Tony had seen most of his service as a relief man, he was called upon to start this encounter and display his wares. His ease in the box and ability to study the batter, and mix up his throws was more than the Big Red and White could match.

Coach Nelson certainly displayed the fact that there is material to be developed at Bloomsburg, and with the loss of but three men, he should have a perfect 1935 season.

Moleski and Litwhiler were tied with two wins apiece, while Shakofski was credited with one. In addition to his fine work on the mound, "Woody" led his mates at the bat, followed closely by Carmen Shelhamer.

Intramurals

"Sports for All!" Such was the policy ensued by Coach Buchheit during the 1935 school year. Never before in the history of Bloomsburg has there been such an extensive development of the intramural branch of athletics. Practically every man coming under the Sport's Mentor's supervision was given the opportunity of participating in some form of recreation.

An intermural tennis meet was held at the beginning of the fall term, and although the first of its kind, proved to be very successful.

Sam Cohen, Zalonis, Yeager, and Shakofski emerged as the winners of the elimination tournament. Because of the inclement weather, it was impossible to stage a final play-off.

Others participating in the round were:

Mathews, VanSickle, Creasy, Henrie, Lau, Merrill, Line, Finder, Wolfe, Havalicka, Klinger, Phillips, McKechnie, and Bianco.

At the end of the varsity football season, the Fighting Upperclassmen were given the opportunity of tearing the Freshmen Weaklings apart. It was a great fracas with "bad boys" Rokocz, Visotski, and Vansickle living up to their reputation. The First-year-men offered some resistance, but not sufficient to overcome the opening drives of lineman Michaels.

The lineup:

Upperclassmen: Rokocz, Jones, Dressler, McCracken, Hess, Zeiss, Michaels, Bartish, Nelson, Marcinkavage, VanSickle, Champi, Visotski, Turnow.

Freshmen: Harman, Zalewski, Tannery, Kupris, Case, Snyder, Price, Frankmore, Davidson, Kotch, Slaven, Strahosky, North, McDade.

Little time was lost in changing from the gridiron to the court sport. Basketball has developed into a major game with the male population of Mt. Olympus, with no less than ninety candidates reporting, and consisting of fourteen teams. These groups were divided into two groups, which were called the Maroon and Gold Leagues.

The team, composed of Harmon, Zalonis, Purcell, O'Brien, and Mericle was the first-half champion, the result of their elimination of the runner-up squad, of which Line, Camera, Tannery, Kitch, and Reagan were members.

Slaven, Line, Troutman, Morgan, and Maczuga were the candidates of the victorious second-period-five, following a hectic game with the winners of the Maroon division, the latter team consisting of Kupstus, Harmon, Reagan, Schrope, and Supchinsky.

This round of basketball was by far the most interesting schedule of the past four years, and the growth of the inclination of the men towards the sport of the "wooden way" is evidenced by the large number who reported for the bi-weekly contests.

Those participating are as follows:

Kupstus, Harmon, Reagen, Schrope, Zubris, Tannery, North, Philo, Kase, Foust, Border, Howell, Camera, Kupris, Kolunkuski, Nelson, McGrew, Marcinkavicz, O'Brien, Wolfe, Litwhiler, Tamalis, Purcell, Davidson. Gara, Havalick, Mericle, Zalonis, Mathews, Welliver, Kotsch, Rokocz, Supchinski, Ritchie, Butler, Cohen, Lau, Kessler, DeFrank, Cornely Kitch, Pietrusiak, Champi, VanSickle, Yurgel, Saltzer, Shutt, Gehrig, Bartish. L. Dixon, Webb, Rompolo, Zaleweski, McDade, Visotski, Slaven, Line, Troutman, Morgan, Maczuga, Beaver, Michaels, Dixon, Falcone, Falck, Sallitt, Heimbach, W. Morgan, Yeager, Turnow.

Under the capable, and fine direction of Coach Horner of Shamokin, Pennsylvania, the College Grunters staged several interclass meets, and one intercollegiate meet, that has brought the sport back to Bloomsburg. Our boys showed up well, and the fact that the majority of the candidates are freshmen, gives us reason to believe that this form of exercise may find a place on the athletic program of the Maroon and Gold in the near future.

Following an elimination round among the members of the squad, the grapplers emerging victoriously were permitted to clash with the members of the Mansfield Matmen. The affair was thrilling, and exciting to watch, the score ending in a tie.

Casari, Harter, Zeiss, Pietruszak, Michael, Frouzman, Tannery, Mericle, Hunter, Philo, Laubach, McDade, Maczuga, Kolunkuski, Davidson, Falcone, Derr, Jones, Rowlands, Zalonis, and Litwhiler held berths on the team.

A foul-shooting contest, a new affair on the intramural program was held at the end of the basketball season. Each participant was permitted twenty-five throws from the black line within the circle. Ward Lichtel scored nineteen points in the number of throws allotted, and was declared the winner of the contest. He was closely followed by Kupris with an 18. Havalicka looped the sphere through the rim for a 17, while Patrick, Cornely, Rokocz, Lau, and Slaven shared fourth-place honors with 15 counts.

Credit and appreciation is due Mr. Buchheit for the splendid manner in which he has developed intramural sports here at Bloomsburg, and if just consideration is given this source of recreation, the time is not far distant when varsity athletics will not reign supreme. Such a program represents the greater percentage of the student body, and has been followed, and proved to be successful in a number of the leading colleges and universities over the United States.

It is the belief of the administration that those students who are not capable of placing on a varsity squad should have some arrangements whereby they can also participate in the sports which they like to observe. It is with this thought in mind that an extensive program of intramural athletics has been established. The intramural games are carried on as competitive sports within the college. The large enrollment in this form of activity and the eagerness with which students grasp opportunities to play show the need for having a definite program of intramural sports.

Cageball

In the fall of 1934 the girls played the game called cageball. This was the second season for the game at the college and its introduction in place of volley ball was enthusiastically received.

Cageball is played with any number of players on a team. The idea is to keep the large ball in the air. When it touches the ground, it constitutes one point for the opposite team.

The game was played every Monday and Friday night until the beginning of basketball season. If the girls played every game, they were entitled to one hundred points and two extra points for every game won.

The season was under the management of Veda Mericle.

The following girls deserve credit for their outstanding playing in the game:

A. Auch, A. Antonelli, A. Brainard, G. Gearhart, R. Gessner, M. Krick, M. Lorah, A. Powell, E. Phillips, H. Pesansky, A. Reed and D. Sidler.

Girls' Baseball

The baseball season opened with a bang, or should we say crack, at the first evidence of warm weather. At first, games had to be postponed because of the rain, but eventually they were played as scheduled and interest and competition ran high.

The Girls' "B" Club organized a league within the club, and competition was keen. The captains chosen for the four teams were Abbot, Schlegel, Stevens, and Thomas. These games were played Wednesday afternoons.

Thursday afternoons were set aside for those desiring instruction. Regular teams were selected from the experienced players, and games were scheduled on Friday nights for these teams.

Girls' Basketball--1935

Basketball for this year passed with little organization of teams. At the beginning of the season there were three groups:

Beginners
Middlers
Experienced

Teams were formed in each group and they played within their own level group.

Faithfulness and constancy of the Beginners enable them to play pretty fair basketball by the end of the season. The following girls were outstanding in the Beginners' group:

Bernice Bronson, Elizabeth Davies, Dorothy Krieger, Helen Pesansky, Edith Phillips, and Audrey Powell.

The beginning of second semester found attendance dwindling and as a result the Middlers and Experienced players were combined, new teams being formed for each game. Much skill and ability were displayed in this group. These girls deserve mention for their ability or loyalty to their positions:

Forwards	Centers	Guards
Kathryn Abbett	Alice Auch	Dorothy Chelosky
Joycelyn Andrews	Veda Mericle	Euphemia Gilmore
Rose Bott	Marian Rees	Mary Grosek
Anna Ebert	Dorothy Sidler	Martha Krick
Elfrieda Hartung		Fae Meixell
Eleanor Sharadin		Julia Schlegel
Beatrice Thomas		Irene Smith
		Florence Snook

Each game is officiated by a Referee and an Umpire chosen from this group:

Kathryn Abbett, Anna Ebert, Euphemia Gilmore, Veda Mericle, Julia Schlegel, Irene Smith, Muriel Stevens, Beatrice Thomas, and Kathryn Yale.

Girls' Hockey

In the early fall the girls "B" Club organized Hockey teams. There was a good turnout every Tuesdays and Thursdays. Madeline Fiorini was manager. No shins were broken and under the capable management of Madeline Fiorini the girls enjoyed a successful season.

“B” Club

The purpose of the “B” Club is to promote clean sports and healthful activity for all girls. This is the seventh year of its organization.

Some of the numerous sports the club offers on its program are: cageball, tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, hockey, swimming, and hiking. This year two-court basketball was also introduced.

Last year, for the first time, a “High School Play Day” was sponsored by the club. Several girls from each high school within a reasonable radius were invited. The program consisted of various games and contests. The “Play Day” was again held this year and promises to become a permanent affair.

In May, the club sponsored a week-end camping trip to which the Alumni members were also invited.

For several years it has been the custom for the girls to operate concession stands at all football and basketball games. This has been managed so efficiently that there has accumulated a reserve which will enable the club to make an initial payment on a cottage in the near future.

As in past years several delightful parties were held at the home of Miss McCammon, the club sponsor.

An especially creditable activity of the club this year was a chapel program depicting a "Toy Shop" at Xmas time. Many favorable comments were received from those who saw the remarkable performance.

The "B" Club is a growing organization and its activities form an outlet for the athletic energy of the girls who join it.

Organizations

The various organizations on the campus served as an outlet for our inclinations and talents. It is in organizations that we worked side by side sponsoring projects that demanded the highest type of cooperation. It is there that we discovered who is dependable, who is talented, and who is willing to work. And lastly, it is as members of the same organization that we formed some of our best friendships. College life was truly made richer and dearer by the organizations it offered us.

The Community Government Association

JOHN T. BECK	President
HAROLD BORDER	Vice-President
ANNE QUIGLEY	Secretary
BRUNO NOVAK	Treasurer

The Community Government Association consists of all the members of the student body. Its purpose is to promote individual and group responsibility and to foster a maximum of cooperation with the faculty and administration. This policy promotes initiative and progressiveness among the students and enables them to assume responsibility for their conduct.

The executive group of the association is the Student Council. All business of the association is acted upon by this group. Local problems are considered by four separate organizations which are branches of the Association—namely, Waller Hall Student Government Association, North Hall Student Government Association, Day Girls Association, and Day Boys Association.

Student Council

The Student Council is the most representative group on the campus, consisting of the four officers of the Community Government Association who hold similar offices for the Council, two representatives from each class, the President of each class, the President of the Organizations of the Day and Dormitory Students, the Dean of Women and Dean of Men, and the Director of the Training School. It is in this group that all legislation, suggestions, violations, and grievances of the Association are discussed and acted upon at the bi-monthly dinner meetings.

The power and responsibility of the Council has been greatly increased this year, particularly in the field of finances. The Council has acted wisely and efficiently and has made itself felt as an active body on the campus.

Women's Student Government Association

The Waller Hall Student Government Association is organized to take care of the welfare of the dormitory girls and to work with other college organizations. The Governing Board is the legislative, executive, and judicial body of the Association.

The following committees are responsible for their respective activities in the dormitory: Freshmen Advisers, Upperclass Advisers, Customs, Social, Recreation, House, Finance, Supervisors, Fire Commissioners.

A glance at this year's calendar will show some of the activities carried on:

- September 10—Freshman Day—Floor parties given by faculty.
- September 11—Freshman Day.
- September 14—Test for new upperclass girls and transfers.
- September 20—Stunt Day for Freshmen—pigtailed, umbrellas and laundry bags.
- September 25—Free tickets to the Fair.
- October 3—We learn football from Captain Harter.
- October 17-20—Our President, Adeline Pfeiffer, attended convention of Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government at Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.
- October 22—Miss Murphey talks about attractive rooms at House Meeting.
- November 8—Governing Board party for new Freshmen Representatives.
- November 12—Helen Reynolds gives an illustrated account of her trip to England and France.
- November 24-25—We act as hostesses to women delegates attending the conference of the Pennsylvania Association of College Students.
- December 15—Annual Christmas Party for Crippled Children's Clinic.
- January 11-12—Anne Quigley represents us at P.A.C.S. convention at Penn State.
- January 15—Our Vice President, Violet Brown, spoke about teacher's colleges at A.A.U.W. tea for Bloomsburg High School seniors.
- January 18—Governing Board entertains Waller Hall faculty.
- January 24—Party for new girls.
- February 4—Our alphabet groups stage a fiercely-contested Tournament.
- February 8—Open House for Bloomsburg High School seniors.
- February 8-28—Ping Pong Tournament of Alphabet groups.
- February 25—Assembly program.
- April 26—He-She Party for dormitory and day girls.
Officers for next year are introduced.
- May 28—Good luck, Seniors!

The Day Women's Association

The Day Women's Association is an organization composed of all women students living outside of the college dormitories.

The object of the organization is to promote the general welfare of the day students and to cooperate with the Waller Hall organization in matters affecting all girls of the college.

Many worthwhile activities have been carried on during the past year and the girls are justly proud of their fine organization. One very successful project was the welcoming of Freshmen during their classification and registration days. A committee of advisers was on hand to assist the Freshmen and to get them acquainted with each other, and with the college in general. This was accomplished through the medium of association with upper class girls, and by several social events held in the Day Women's rooms.

North Hall

In North Hall, the men's dormitory, men come to "live." Among other distant places, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Egypt are represented.

Music—vocal and otherwise, voices loud and harsh, colorful bathrobes moving through halls and up stairways, showers running full blast, a bull session in full swing, a student working at ease amid various distractions—this is North Hall.

North Hall can boast of a successful student organization, functioning for a long period of time, and sponsoring many beneficial activities.

Dormitory life has attractions and inhabitants of North Hall experienced these: The Hill Billy Quartet, Rompy, Woodie, Cobbie and Whitey; wise cracking Ficca—they're all from North Hall.

Day Men's Association

Crunch, crunch, crunch!
 The teeth of the Day Boys at lunch,
 Look at the crumbs,
 They all eat like bums—
 God! What a slovenly bunch!

This masterpiece, "Sandwich Symphony," was written by that eminent poet-laureate Robert W. Savage, Secretary of the Day Men's organization of B.S.T.C. Such a poem gives us a picture of the comradeship and good will to be found among the Day Men.

During the present college year the Day Men have raised their standing in comparison to other college organizations on the Campus. Among the many things they have accomplished are: the establishment of a Day men's constitution and the sponsoring of a chapel program.

A party was held in the social rooms at Science Hall, the first one the Day men have ever held.

The Y.M.C.A. has for its purpose the promotion of Christian fellowship and sociability among the men students. It holds weekly meetings every Wednesday evening in the Social Rooms of Science Hall.

This year the "Y," with an enrollment of approximately eighty-five men, had the largest membership that it has enjoyed for many years.

The "Y" began its activities for the year by welcoming all the men students and male faculty members to a big party at which time refreshments were served and an interesting program offered.

The Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. collaborated in many ways throughout the school year, especially in the inauguration of a series of joint programs and parties. One of the most interesting speakers secured for one of these joint meetings was Mr. Kirby Page, eminent lecturer, noted world traveler, and peace advocate. One of the most delightful of all joint social affairs was the Christmas party and dance held in the gymnasium.

Delegates represented the "Y" at various district and state conventions throughout the year. Perhaps the most inspirational convention was that held at Gettysburg College, December 7, 8, and 9. The various conventions gave the delegates valuable information which was applied to develop the activities and further the interests of the "Y."

Dr. Hemingway, of Bloomsburg, guest speaker of the Y.M.C.A. at their chapel program, addressed the student body on "The Passion Play of Oberammergau." Other speakers secured by the "Y" were Harry S. Barton, Reverend Harker, Professor John Fisher, Dr. H. Harrison Russell, Professor John Koch, Professor S. I. Shortess, Mr. Paul Peters, Mr. Freas Rhone, Mr. Dominick Delli quanti, Professor Edward A. Reams, Professor Earl N. Rhodes, and Dr. Nell Maupin.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association is one of the largest and most active organizations on the campus. As our college has grown, so the Y.W.C.A. has grown.

The Y.W.C.A. began the year's activity with a tea to welcome the freshmen and to help them get acquainted with their new associates. The largest project of the organization was the Japanese Bazaar, an outstanding event in our college life.

Perhaps the most highly appreciated service rendered during the year was the provision of a Christmas basket containing food, clothing, and toys for a needy family in Bloomsburg.

The cabinet members represented the "Y" at the Spring Conference held at Stroudsburg in April. The president and vice-president attended the summer conference at Eagles Mere. Representatives were also sent to the Student Christian Conference at Bucknell where they heard Dr. Koo give an excellent presentation of the Student Christian Movement.

Delegates from our organization also attended the Intercollegiate Christian Conference at Buck Hill Falls on March 1 to 3. As evidence of interest in this new Christian movement, plans are being made for cooperative work by the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. on our campus.

The regular devotional meetings are planned and conducted by the student members. These meetings have proved to be very interesting and beneficial.

Thus another successful year has passed for the "Y" at Bloomsburg. Much credit is due Miss Mason and Miss Cathcart, the club sponsors, for their faithful cooperation and instructive guidance.

Kappa Delta Pi grew out of a local society, the Illinois Education Club, founder at the University of Illinois in 1909. June 8, 1911, it was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois as the honorary educational fraternity, Kappa Delta Pi.

Membership consists of Juniors and Seniors, both men and women, chosen from the upper quartile of their classes and having completed at least six semester hours for Juniors, and 12 semester hours for Seniors in education.

It has the unique distinction of a laureate chapter composed of outstanding educators throughout the world. The intention is to make this organization in essence an academy of educators similar to the Academy of Science or the Academy of Fine Arts. There are twenty-three of these laureates in the society.

Kappa Delta Pi attempts to encourage in its members a higher degree of devotion to social service by (1) fostering high intellectual and personal standards during the period of preparation for teaching and (2) recognizing outstanding service in the field of education.

Gamma Beta Chapter has a student membership of approximately fifty-five, a large alumni membership, a faculty membership of sixteen, and six honorary members including Dr. Francis B. Haas, Dr. D. J. Waller, Dr. J. N. Rule, Dr. J. Herbert Kelly, W. B. Sutliff, and J. E. Shambach.

Mr. Harvey A. Andruss, national counsellor, is the local adviser.

The chapter has engaged actively in many affairs including teas for candidates, pledges and new members, regular meetings at which prominent men and women have spoken, and invitation of members. The chapter cooperated in making the Inter-Fraternity Ball a success and in presenting an original drama commemorating the anniversary of one hundred years of free public schools in Pennsylvania.

In May, Founder's Day was held. This celebration included among the many other interesting features an educational program, and a delightful dinner held in the College dining room.

Phi Sigma Pi, a professional educational fraternity for men in teacher training institutions, has, under the leadership of Stanley Heimbach, contributed much to the educational and social life of the College.

The educational meetings have been rich with discussions on "B.S.T.C.—Its Past, Present and Its Future."

The outstanding meeting on this topic was held at the home of Prof. Reams on November 6. At that time, Dr. Waller, an honorary member of Iota Chapter, spoke on

"B.S.T.C.—Its Past." Dr. Waller gave a very interesting speech on the founding and early life at Bloomsburg Normal School.

On December 11, at the home of Mr. William Evans, Superintendent of Columbia County Schools and an honorary member of Iota Chapter, a very interesting program was given on the subject, "B.S.T.C.—Its Present." Mr. Albert, a former teacher in B.S.N.S.; Mr. Hartline, present Biology teacher; and Mr. Sutliff, Dean of Instruction, spoke on incidents relative to "B.S.T.C.—Its Present."

On March 5, at the home of Prof. Andruss, a very interesting talk was given by Prof. Andruss on "Commercial Education at B.S.N.S. and B.S.T.C."

On April 9, Dr. Haas invited the members of Phi Sigma Pi to his home where he spoke on "B.S.T.C.—Its Future."

May 9, Prof. Rhodes addressed the members who gathered at his home on the topic "The Teachers of Tomorrow."

Phi Sigma Pi has also been very active socially.

On September 24, a weiner roast was held near Rupert. On October 16, at Prof. Gilmore's cottage, a general get-together meeting was held. Very interesting speeches on the value of a professional fraternity for men were given by Prof. Koch, Prof. Gilmore, Dr. North and Prof. Reams.

The Annual Theatre Party was held on February 26, after which a buffet luncheon was served at the home of Dr. North.

The Annual Inter-Fraternity Ball held on March 2, was the crowning feature of Phi Sigma Pi's participation in social affairs.

Iota Chapter has certainly lived up to its ideals in providing fellowship and increase in educational knowledge, not only for its members, but for the college as a whole.

Director	MISS ALICE JOHNSTON

Bloomsburg is honored in having a cast, The Alpha Amicron, of Alpha Psi Omega, the largest honorary dramatic fraternity in the United States. The Alpha Omicron Cast is composed of those members of the Bloomsburg Players who do outstanding work in dramatic production, either in acting or stage craft.

Annually the fraternity produces a long play and sponsors a High School Play Tournament. The play of this year was a three-act comedy "The Late Christopher Bean" by Sidney Howard. The tournament, the fifth one to be held, brings together various High Schools and promotes worth while dramatics in High School.

In addition to the prime importance of dramatic work, social activities also have their place. The Christmas Party, the Homecoming Day Banquet, and Alumni Day Supper are annual affairs.

For the past five years Alumni members have been informed of fraternity activities by a biennial publication of the "Fraternity News Letter."

The high ideals set by the national organization are upheld and cherished by the constant cooperation and faithful work of the Alpha Omicron Cast under their director Miss Alice Johnston.

Members of the fraternity are:

Gamma Theta Upsilon holds the unique distinction of being the only undergraduate geography fraternity of national scope and also the youngest professional honorary fraternity on our campus. In order to secure active membership in this fraternity candidates must show enough interest in the realm of geography to make it one of their special fields in college work or take considerable more credits in geography than are required by the college. Students must also have the requisite scholastic rating in both geography and all other college work.

The principal objectives of the fraternity are: (1) To promote fraternalism among those who have chosen geography as a field of endeavor in education, (2) To advance the professional status of geography as a cultural and practical phase of education, (3) To create and administer a loan fund to aid alumni members in graduate study in the field of geography.

The following new members were taken in during the year: Earl Kershner, La Rue Derr, John Supchinsky, Beatrice Thomas, Frank Wojcik, Jane Manhart, and Edwin Creasy.

Activities of the Year 1934-35

December 21—Harold R. Miller, B.S., "The Planetary Wind Belts."

January 18—La Rue Derr, "Wheat Growing in the Columbia Plateau."
Jane Manhart, "Tea Gardens in Assam."

February 15—John Supchinsky, "European Outpost: The Azores."
Earl Kershner, "Russian Industrialization."

March 15—Frank Wojcik, "The Chinese Farmers Learning to Cooperate with the Chinese Government."
Edwin Creasy, "Agricultural Regions of China."
Beatrice Thomas, "Beautiful Bridges in China."

The Rural Life and Education Club

The Rural Life and Education Club consists of a group of prospective teachers organized to enlighten them as regards current rural education problems.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Robbins, the club took the form of a technique of teaching class.

Many topics concerning discipline, consolidation and relation of rural teachers to community life were discussed freely in the regular club meetings.

Message from Dr. John Dewey

It is quite possible to give definitions of education that are verbally satisfactory and that, indeed, cover important points in education so far as the general nature of the latter is concerned. The actual contents of education, however, change from generation to generation. At times, the changes that need to be made, if the material and methods of study are to be truly educative, are rapid and extensive. In my judgment, the present is one of these periods. I regard it as highly important that every student, especially those who are themselves to be teachers in the future, should be continually asking himself: What are the educational needs of the future and what changes should be made in our present system in order that the youth who go out from our schools will be prepared to meet the new conditions?

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "John Dewey". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the main text of the message.

John Dewey (1859-) the foremost American interpreter in terms of the school, of the vast social and industrial changes which have marked the nineteenth century.

The Bloomsburg Players is the oldest extra-curricular organization in the college, having been established in 1924.

The club meets each Tuesday night, and after a business meeting, a one-act play is presented. The members then give constructive criticisms of the play, stressing points of dramatic technique.

The organization is a workshop where features of play production are studied by the laboratory method. The plays are directed by a student under the supervision of the Club Director.

Many of the one-act plays presented on Tuesday nights were later presented for the entertainment of various groups, including the Student Government Party, Women's Club of Catawissa, Bloomsburg High School, Rural Parent-Teachers' Association, Crippled Children's Christmas Party, and Rotary-Kiwanis College Party.

There are two big projects of the Bloomsburg Players every year. The first is the annual tournament of plays, in which different casts, each with its own student director, compete against each other. The plays presented this year were "Brains," "Wonder Hat," and "Lonesome-Like." These were given as a part of the Homecoming Day entertainment.

The second big event by the club is the annual three-act play. This year "The Late Christopher Bean," a very unique comedy by Sidney Howard, was presented.

Membership to the club is gained by try-outs before a committee composed of club members and the sponsor, Miss Alice Johnston.

The club is a stepping-stone to two high honors: one, admission to Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, and the other, the Gold Pin Award. There are specific requirements for eligibility to the fraternity, all of which are available for those participating in any of the club enterprises. The Gold Pin is a merit award given each year to six persons who have done outstanding work during their membership in the club.

The Geographic Society is composed of students interested in geography. It enables each member to make some contribution by either giving a geographic talk or sponsoring a trip to one of the industries of the town.

Some of the reports given this year were on "Agriculture of Australia," "New Zealand," "Hawaii," and "Alaska." A trip was taken to the brick plant.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, an organization consisting of Commercial students, is the only one of its kind on the campus. Demonstrations of the latest commercial equipment are given at the weekly meetings.

Social events of the Junior Chamber of Commerce are many and well planned. Last September, an afternoon was spent at Columbia park, and on October 6, a Victory Dance was held in the gymnasium. In the spring this organization held its annual formal dinner, at which occasion outstanding members received awards.

The most important event this club sponsors is the annual Commercial Contest for high school students. About thirty schools participate, representing many sections of Pennsylvania. They compete in business law, typing, and shorthand. The students who have first and second honors receive gold and silver medals. The high school receiving the greatest number of points wins a silver loving cup. In 1934 Latrobe High School was the winner and received this much coveted prize.

The Girls' Chorus composed of forty-five members is one of the oldest musical organizations of the college. For eight years it has been competently directed by Miss Jessie Patterson, a well loved leader. Under her skillful direction the chorus has learned to sing with pleasing quality of tone, good phrasing, diction, and correct musical interpretation. At the beginning of the second semester Miss Patterson left the college to study at New York University. The Club deeply regreted losing her as director of their chorus. However, Miss Harriet Moore, known for her outstanding musical leadership, kindly offered her services to the organization and assumed the directorship of the Club.

The Girls' Chorus under the direction of Miss Patterson sang at the Community Government Party, the Northumberland Teachers Conference, and the Christmas Program at which they presented so beautifully the Cantata "In Bethlehem" by Lavita and Kountz. Another interesting event at which the Chorus appeared was the Kiwanis-Rotary College Night.

The Men's Glee Club assisted the Girls' Chorus in the Spring Recital and the combined clubs presented two choruses at the conclusion of the program. This recital was unusually interesting, because it was the first time that a mixed chorus had been given as a program number at our college.

During this year, as in the past, The Glee Club has continued to be one of the most popular extra-curricular organizations on the campus. At the fall reorganization the size of the club was cut from thirty members to twenty-four members, six of these being new men.

Work was immediately begun in preparation for the Seventh Annual Concert on January Fourth, but the men took time out enough to appear for the student body and guests on three occasions before this time. The Concert was a real work of art, and the large audience was more than pleased with the following program:

THE GLEE CLUB

The second semester's work consisted of trips to Dallas, Washingtonville, Williamsport, Scranton, and other high schools, and a Spring concert on May 3. The men cooperated with the Girls' Chorus in this concert, and brought to the student body for the first time a very popular mixed concert followed by the Annual Music Week Dance in the gymnasium. This arrangement, which was merely an experiment proved so popular that the Men and Women will probably continue to have one mixed concert each year.

A fine trip to the Philadelphia Alumni meeting ended a very successful season for the ever-popular double quartet. They sang at the Berwick Hospital Benefit Dance, at the Scranton Alumni meeting, and three times for the local Rotary Club.

Too much credit cannot be given to director Miss Harriet M. Moore for her fine cooperation and leadership.

The underclassmen in the club wish lots of success and happiness to the following Seniors who have helped to make this organization a success: Albert Makowski, Stanley Heimbach, Edwin Creasy, William Reed, Elmer McKechnie, Anthony Conte, Harold O'Brien, Walter Hiney, and Howard DeMott.

The Maroon and Gold Orchestra

The Maroon and Gold Orchestra is a group organized primarily for the purpose of providing, for those interested in instrumental music, an opportunity to study representative orchestral works. It also provides experience that enables the members to direct instrumental organizations after they begin to teach.

The Orchestra is frequently called upon to provide music for functions that are held on the campus, and in the town. Some of the occasions at which the orchestra has appeared are as follows: Dramatic Club plays, Boy Scout Pageant, Kiwanis-Rotary College Night, Luzerne County Teachers' Institute, Northeast District Convention of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, Columbia County Alumni Banquet, the joint concert of the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, the Athletic Banquet, May Day, and Alumni Day.

Maroon and Gold Band

The band has, during the past year, become one of the outstanding organizations on the campus. This success has been due to the efforts of Mr. Fenstemaker, the director; Sam Green, drum major; and the able assistance of Reed Seely who has directed the marching and drilling of the band.

The band made personal appearances at all home football games and accompanied the football team to Lock Haven and Stroudsburg.

It has not only been active in campus work but has contributed toward building up a stronger bond of friendship between the College and the communities of this region by assisting in the Mummer's parade and parades in Bloomsburg and Benton

The 1935 Obiter

The publication of the Obiter is a project in extensive cooperation. Every student and faculty member of the college either directly or indirectly contributes his share to the success or failure of the publication. The staff of the 1935 Obiter is proud to say that it has not lacked the fullest cooperation.

True there were times when affairs did not take place as smoothly as possible, but those times made us realize that we had a job on our hands; it made the work more interesting—as we now look upon it.

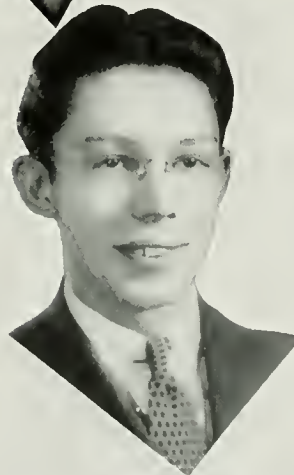

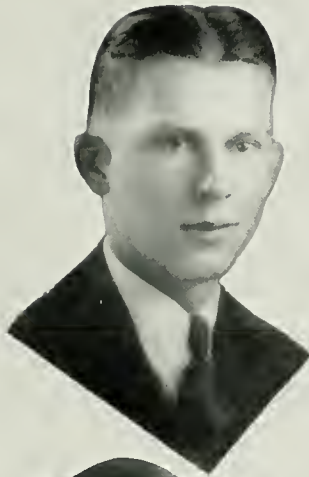

The senior class and the Obiter staff faced a serious financial problem this year in that two-year students were not classified as graduating seniors. We take this opportunity to thank the Community Government Association for its liberal subsidy, contributed in an attempt to make another edition of the same high type of yearbook as was published in the past.

We wish to thank everyone for his efforts great or small, and especially Dr. Russell, our class advisor, who so ably assisted us from "forward" to "finis."

As Editor and Business-Manager we here extend our thanks to the staff which so efficiently cooperated with us in publishing the 1935 Obiter. To the chieftains of the 1936 Obiter we extend wishes for a staff as thorough as ours.

The Joys of Being an Editor

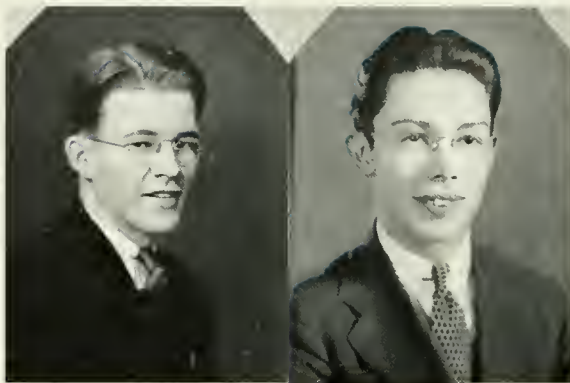

It seems miraculous to the newly elected editor, but as soon as the ballots are counted, he is already the recipient of innumerable telegrams—telegrams from photographers, engravers, and printers, all congratulating him, but also seeking interviews. The first interviews are interesting, very interesting, but later the editor becomes a little annoyed—and finally so annoyed that he signs contracts.

In keeping with his schedule he begins to have photographs taken—when half way through he realizes it is only the beginning. He soon discovers that there are two groups of people: those who "will" have their pictures taken and those who "won't" have their pictures taken—and the second group far outnumbers the first, incidentally.

From the day he is elected to the day the books are distributed he has no trouble in finding something to keep him occupied—even at the expense of his class work.

Then, of course, he can't forget the joy of people asking him when their proofs will be in, when the books will come out, when—Oh yes, an editor will be praised, but he doesn't get swell-headed. You can guess why.

But there is a joy that compensates for all disappointments and worries. There is a priceless feeling of satisfaction and self assurance that creeps over an editor when he opens the book whose construction he directed. It is a fair enough reward for all his efforts.

With the hope that its pages might reflect the life of the members of the school community and the many activities on the campus in a really journalistic manner, the Maroon and Gold—the bi-monthly student publication of B.S.T.C.—endeavored to achieve a true newspaper style.

In gaining this end an efficient staff, guided by an interested faculty committee headed by Professor S. L. Wilson, reduced personal tidbits to a decided minimum and printed news items in lieu of regular, specific column articles. During scheduled meetings the members of the staff constructively criticized preceding issues, gradually eliminating the "weak spots" and the errors.

This edition of the Maroon and Gold marked a forward step in journalism for our school. For the first time in its history B.S.T.C. published a newspaper under the editorship of a person elected by the popular vote of the student body. Under such a plan, an associate editor elected at the beginning of the second semester of the school year assumes the duties of editor the subsequent year.

Ninth Annual Play Tournament of Bloomsburg Players

As an added feature of entertainment for our Homecoming guests, the Bloomsburg Players presented the annual one-act play tournament on Friday evening, November 2, in the college auditorium. The play "Wonder Hat" was judged the winner of the tournament, but credit must be given to each cast for the splendid acting.

High School Play Tournament

The Fifth Annual High School Play Tournament, held in the College Auditorium on Friday, April 5, was an outstanding success. The plays this year were exceptionally well done; and the cooperation among the people in the casts was commended upon by judges.

It is the aim of the Alpha Psi Omega fraternity, sponsors of the Annual Tournament, to bring about a keener interest among High Schools in dramatics. The Tournament also gives an opportunity for a large number of high school pupils, and parents to become acquainted with the College campus.

The afternoon session was opened at 3:30 by "Something in Butlers," by Evelyn Diller, played by Orangeville High School, under the direction of Mary Hartman.

The second play was "Dead Men Can't Hurt You," by Jewell Bothwell, played by Millville High School, under the direction of Lois DeMott.

The third and last play for the afternoon was "The High Heart" by Adelaide Rowell, played by Berwick High School, under the direction of Mildred Moody.

Following this play, the fraternity gave a tea, in the Social Rooms of Science Hall, for members of the high school casts.

The evening performance was opened at 7:30 by the playing of "The Singapore Spider," by Edward Finnegan, played by Sunbury High School, under the direction of Richard Abbott.

The next play of the evening was "A Rich Young Lady" played by Coal Township High School, under the direction of Anna T. Ryan.

The third play was "The Valiant" by Beaumont High School under the direction of Paul Hettes and Raymond Hodges.

After the final play of the evening, it was the judges' decision that in Class A the first prize, an engraved silver loving cup, be given to Sunbury High School for their production of "The Singapore Spider."

In Class B a similar trophy was won by Beaumont High School for their production of "The Valiant."

The judges for the Tournament were: Sara Lentz, Florence Fest Johnstone, Jack Fortner.

Acknowledgment

An attempt to name and thank each individual who cooperated with us in the publication of the Obiter would be an endless undertaking, involving every person from the President of the College to each student who appeared before the camera when organizations of which he is a member were photographed.

However, in addition to individuals directly connected with the college, we wish to thank Mr. Charles H. Esser, of the Kutztown Publishing Company, for his very able assistance so willingly contributed in the solution of the many problems we encountered; Mr. Arthur Sharp, of the Pontiac Engraving Co., who did his utmost from the engraver's standpoint; Mr. Sheehan, Mr. Baliban, and Mr. Pinkerson, of the Merin-Baliban Studios, for their service in the photography; Mr. Reno Bush, of Bush's, for those little helps whose greatness only an editor can appreciate.

Name it and you can have it.

CALENDAR

Monday, Sept. 10—Freshmen take entrance examinations. Scared to death before they begin college careers.

Tuesday, Sept. 11—Registration and classification of Freshmen. Many open mouths, hanging jaws, and expressions of bewilderment.

Wednesday, Sept. 12—Enter upperclassmen. Registration and classification for them; also create crowded conditions.

Thursday, Sept. 13—Our sentences begin with the eight o'clock.

Friday, Sept. 14—Chapel already? Gosh, I should have cut.

Saturday, Sept. 15—Community Government Party. Not bad at all for so early in the year.

Sunday, Sept. 16—Upperclassmen in dorms tell Freshmen there is but a comparatively low mortality rate from Pajama Parades.

Monday, Sept. 17—Two more days and customs begin. Freshmen start to make paddles.

Tuesday, Sept. 18—Think about reading book, "Anthony Adverse"—but reconsider.

Wednesday, Sept. 19—Students asking for Maroon and Golds already.

Thursday, Sept. 20—Annual Fun Day for upperclassmen; Pajama Parade and Stunt Day for Frosh.

Friday, Sept. 21—Frosh sing under pressure in Men's Day Room.

Saturday, Sept. 22—Football practice, everybody.

Sunday, Sept. 23—Church.

Monday, Sept. 24—Everybody talking football. Team looks fairly good.

Tuesday, Sept. 25—Rain and snow together.

Wednesday, Sept. 26—(Gsst—I can see one thing now: I should have written the beginning of this calendar in the beginning of the year and not in the following Spring.)

Thursday, Sept. 27—Haven't said anything about food this year yet. According to calendar, lots of bacon last year. This year, more bacon.

Friday, Sept. 28—Football team went to Clarion. Hope they add to the supply of bacon here at Bloomsburg.

Saturday, Sept. 29—We lose to Clarion in water polo. Never saw so much mud on a football field.

Sunday, Sept. 30—Football players tell all about it in dorms. Good team in prospect on campus, according to quality of play shown at Clarion. Remember, Bloomsburg players aren't used to playing in a rice field.

Monday, Oct. 1—Really think Dr. North, in making out social calendar, should add more to the first two months program.

Tuesday, April 24—It won't be long until May 1.

Wednesday, May 1—Class elections.

Thursday, May 2—New class officers begin to look business-like. Senior class officers begin to wear expression of worry, getting practice for next year.

Friday, May 3—More worry for someone. Obit officers are elected.

Saturday, May 4—Commercial Department sponsors High School commercial contest. Invitation High School track meet on Mount. Gee what a busy day. Hardly any college students to be seen among all the scholastics.

Sunday, May 5—High school students gone now, and once more we are able to find students of the college—in bed!

Monday, May 6—Mina Kerr lectures in chapel. At least that's what those who attended said.

Tuesday, May 7—Senior class reminds one of a pack of ducklings; they follow McKeehie around from place to place but seem to get no place in particular.

Wednesday, May 8—Peeked into auditorium where Seniors were practicing for something or other. Looks good.

Thursday, May 9—Razors, hack saws, chisels, blow torches, etc., being put into shape. Whiskers must be removed. Junior Prom tomorrow night.

Friday, May 10—Junior Prom lived up to PROMISE; was delightful indeed.

Friday, May 24—Classwork ends. Senior Ball (big babies).

Saturday, May 25—Haw-haw! Did you see the alumni? Counted thirty new Chryslers, ten new Buicks, twelve new Pontiacs, twenty-one brand new Oldsmobiles, sixteen shiny Chevrolets, forty-eight 1935 model Fords, five Hudsons, one 1914 Ford, two taxicabs, and three rural-school buses. Who—yes who—says school teachers can't get along!

Sunday, May 26—Confession to make. I didn't see any of those cars around the campus. Guess it must have been at an auto show last month in New York. Baccalaureate Sermon this afternoon.

Monday, May 27—Busy day; Senior Day; Ivy Day; Class Night; all in twenty-four hours.

Tuesday, May 28—Take "Anthony Adverse" back without reading last 400 pages. Oh yes—Commencement in the A. M. A final confession to make; I didn't even see a copy of "Anthony Adverse." Wouldn't read it if I did. Wasn't even on the campus on Alumni Day, let alone counting the cars.

WHAT

Constitutes Success

HE has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty, or failed to express it; who has looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction.—*Mrs. A. If, besides holding up the window on a hot summer's night, the yearbook has aroused in you, some treasured experience of the past, has created in you a desire to come back on Homecoming Day—and any day you come back is homecoming day for you—then the 1935 Obiter is a success.

As we close the door of the Obiter office, leaving behind us an old worn-out typewriter and a desk, at last cleared of innumerable papers—we carry away with us memories of the most interesting work with which we were connected—college publications.
