SENIOR CLASS

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

"Greatness is not an element itself; it is but the composite result of many things extremely well done and well put together."

DEDICATION

TO DR. H. HARRISON RUSSELL

Whom we acknowledge to be a sound thinker, a friend to everyone and a real man in every way. By living an exemplary life he has taught us how to adapt ourselves to the natural environment of a school teacher. To him we most gratefully dedicate the 1936 OBITER.

FOREWORD

That we may never forget the familiar scenes of our Alma Mater and the friendships made by four college years of association and fellowship, the Obiter Staff of 1936 has attempted, through a photographic theme, to leave a permanent picture of what has transpired amid our surroundings – treasured memories made more sacred by the march of time.

THE STAFF

The Obiter Staff of 1936 takes this opportunity to thank all those who have had a part in making the publication of this book possible. The making of this book has required no little time upon the part of the members of the staff, but without the whole-hearted support of the entire student body and faculty it would have been an impossibility.

Especially is the staff indebted to the business men whose advertisements appear within this book; the administration for the frequent and necessary use of the reference files; Mr. Wilson, Dr. Haas, Mr. Hausknecht, and Mr. Andruss for their advice; and various students for many small contributions which, nevertheless, play an important role in editing any yearbook.

CAMPUS VIEWS

A thing of beauty is a joy forever.
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

—Keats

From Juliet's balcony there peered
No fairer face, nor sang a sweeter voice
Than those that come from Waller.

Carver, lifting its head above spidered paths
And the dark green coolness of the trees.

Ivy, shadowing your wind,
Calls you up to drop your books
And rest within Old North.

History is the knowledge that past generations give;
Science is the art of knowing how to live.

When the Husky settles down to any season,
Noetling, Waller, and the gym
Spread-eagle to protect him.

Shadow lace of vigilant oaks
Watching our comings and goings
And the coming of others after us.

A library behind the ivied walls
A host of memories recalls.

Board of Trustees

MRS. EDITH NOECKER	Schuylkill Haven

The Board of Trustees meets regularly four times a year. During the interim the affairs of the College are conducted by an Executive Committee which meets monthly.

To the Class of 1936:

I value very much this opportunity to express my best wishes for your success. The outstanding character of your Class is reflected, not only in your academic records, but through the selection and activities of your officers and through your advancement of the Extra-Curricular Life of the College.

Francis B. Haas

There comes a time in that never completed experience which we call man's education, when one must take himself in hand and say, "My success now depends upon my own ability to do". He must trust himself. He must take himself for better or worse. No one knows his power until he has tried. We call this self-reliance.

I wish to leave to the Class of 1936, a class which I have learned to respect greatly and whose ability I admire, this parting word—"Know your own worth". If you are genuine the world will find it out. If four years of study and association with other keen minds has sharpened your own to a greater appreciation of beauty, truth, and sincerity, you may safely rely upon your own power to fill a place in the world's activity. The world does not owe you a living, but you owe the world the best use of the abilities you have developed. Be ready to meet that obligation, and the rewards of work well done will be yours.

W. B. SUTLIFF,
Dean of Instruction

To the Class of 1936:

During the four years of your college life we have followed your progress with sympathetic interest. Now that you are leaving the college walls our interest will continue to follow you. We wish you happiness and true success. You may be assured that every day will be a Homecoming Day for you at Bloomsburg.

MARGUERITE W. KEHR,
Dean of Women

I want to take this opportunity to extend to the members of the graduating class of 1936 my sincere congratulations. I wish you success and hope that your continued interest in your Alma Mater will include frequent visits to her campus.

• The greatest of all joys, the joy of going on—development.

Faculty Advisors to the Class of 1936

Professor George Keller was selected as Freshman Class Advisor to help the infant prodigies to establish a stable footing for future class enterprises.

The Sophomore class elected Professor S. I. Shortess to succeed Professor Keller as class advisor and to help it in its second year of activity.

George Keller	Freshman Advisor
S. I. Shortess	Sophomore Advisor
Howard Fenstemaker	Junior Advisor
Samuel Wilson	Senior Advisor

To the members of the faculty who, at various time, have served as class advisors and who have given so freely and willingly of both their time and friendly advice which have helped make class projects successful, the Senior Class of 1936 gratefully acknowledges their services and takes this opportunity to express its appreciation.

It befell Professor Howard Fenstemaker to act as Junior class advisor at a time when class interest apparently seemed to wane. In an attempt to restore enthusiasm and class co-operation Mr. Fenstemaker showed remarkable ability. His efforts at reviving this interest are sincerely appreciated.

Especially is the Senior class indebted to Professor Samuel Wilson for everything he has done for it. Not only has he served as Senior Class advisor, but also as advisor to the two publications, thereby giving much constructive criticism and friendly advice to several Seniors on the respective staffs.

The Senior Class

OFFICERS

President	David Mayer
Vice-President	Howard Bevilacqua
Secretary	Mary Jane Fink
Treasurer	Mary Kuhn

Although one of the smallest of Senior classes in its actual enrollment, the Class of 1936 may claim distinct honors for itself. Those who have constituted this year's Senior Class have shown real executive ability in many instances and remarkable potentialities while participating in journalism, athletics, musical organizations, and student government. Purposeful activity has revealed the widespread versatility of many of the Seniors. Their talents have not been concentrated in one type of extra-curricular work only but in many.

Not everyone can be a leader, it is often truthfully spoken, but the Senior Class of this year has probably had a greater percentage of leaders than any other class in the history of Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Others have made worthwhile contributions as earnest and active participating members of organizations.

As Freshmen in the autumn of 1932, the members of the Class of 1936 were quick to adapt themselves to a new environment and they soon learned to become acquainted with each other. These acquaintances broadened out so as to include members of other classes and the faculty. Soon they developed into friendships which have been strengthened by four college years of association.

Before they were hardly aware their first year had passed away and they were Sophomores, and then, as if touched by a magic wand, they were converted into Juniors. Half the class who entered in the Autumn of 1932 had departed as two year Seniors to administer to the educational needs of the youth of our State. The remaining members were now forced to carry on as a smaller group.

Seniors? Yes, indeed! But were they not Frosh just last year? It scarcely seems possible that four years should seem to be drawing to an end so rapidly. At last they are confronted with new experiences in the form of student teaching, experiences which everyone had looked forward to with eagerness and enthusiasm.

Autumn and Winter have passed away. Spring is here—balmy weather, spring sports, final examinations, preparations for Class Night and Commencement, tearful farewells. Another class graduates from Bloomsburg State Teachers College with diplomas, B.S. degrees, and fond memories. But it is a class which has enriched the traditions and noble ideals of its Alma Mater by its generous contributions to its social and cultural life.

Two-Year Students Receiving State Limited Teaching Certificates

Cognizant of the fact that two-year students formerly classified as Two-Year Seniors have helped to contribute to the noble ideals and cherished traditions of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College, the Obiter Staff of 1936, in recognizing those contributions, deem it both fitting and proper that a section of the Obiter be dedicated to them.

In the fall of 1933, 173 prospective members came to the college community. These Frosh pranced around with heads suspended in the clouds until Upper Classmen brought them down with a bang when they imposed customs on these innocents. To celebrate the end of this period of humiliation the Frosh held a gay, hilarious Kid Party. From then on, Dr. E. H. Nelson, advisor, saw the Freshmen begin at the bottom and work up to recognition on the campus. The chapel program was a mock program of the college. The year closed with the sponsoring of the first big dance—Freshman Hop.

The Sophomore year opened with the entrance of Sophomores into extra-curriculars—athletics, dramatics, journalism, student government—all had their boy and girl representatives. The chapel program—Paul Revere's Ride—was held early in the year. Mr. George Keller was elected advisor and he and the class worked hard to make the Sophomore Cotillion a success.

Membership in the Junior class was cut in half as the two-year students graduated. The remaining half, however, are exceedingly active in college affairs and make their presence known in a dignified way. The chapel program and Junior Prom marked outstanding events in this year, and with Dr. Nell Maupin as advisor, the year has been a happy one.

The Fall of 1934 ushered in the proverbial green and inexperienced youngsters, two hundred and six strong. The usual jumps lay before them until their acceptance into the "gang" could be firmly established.

The "Kid Party" offered a last fling before they put aside "childish" things and adopted a more serious mien; their first attempt at putting their best foot forward resulted in the highly successful "Freshman Hop." The chapel program, in the form of a stage show starring "The Rattler," scored as an exceptional display of talent.

The "white hope" that was to liberate them from the humiliating customs proved a dismal failure, and the Frosh ignominiously went down to defeat at the hands of the Upper Classmen to the tune of 6-2. But this display was not indicative of the athletic ability that come to the fore in inter-collegiate and intramural competition. The class was noteworthy for its contributions to sports.

As Sophomores, their ranks depleted by fifteen, the army returned with the light of conquest in its eyes; revenge is sweet.

The "Sophomore Cotillion" surpassed the previous social venture in its originality and proved to the satisfaction of all that an inexperienced group had found itself.

The year 1935 saw history repeat itself when Freshmen were once more initiated into the realms of higher learning.

The Frosh were sentenced to one month of indignities known as customs. Cries of "Allah" and reverent salaaming made the front of Carver Hall resemble some Persian Moslem. One was called back to the good old days with the girls running around with pigtails and ribbons in their hair. "Come Prepared" seemed to have been the greenies' slogan, for they were seen going around with galoshes and rubbers hanging down their backs.

The first social event of the year, the Kid Party, permitted the Freshmen to just act natural, and a good time was had by all, even to the last realistic touch of lolly-pops and boy scout uniforms.

The Freshmen Reception was an informal dance held for the purpose of the underclassmen getting acquainted with the faculty and themselves.

Throughout the year the Freshmen have proved themselves to be a part of B. S. T. C. and many of them have already become well-known figures on the campus.

THE HUSKY MASCOT

Symbolic of the spirit and qualities engendered in the athletic teams of Bloomsburg State Teachers College, Garou stands here as the worthy successor of Roongo, former College mascot. He was named mascot when Roongo died from pneumonia in the early part of the year.

Although the death of Roongo is sadly mourned, the selection of Garou as successor may be acclaimed as a continuation of the ideals which a Husky represents, and an athletic team seeks. He stands for the grim determination to win, the persistence to carry on, aggressiveness in action, dependability to do his part, faithfulness to teammates, and the courage to never give up without an honest attempt. He represents the Bloomsburg athletes, and challenges them to live up to the traditions of the far North.

Hats off to the cheerleaders for putting pep into the student body! With Robert Savage as chairman of the pep committee, and a cheerleading combination composed of Miller, Leonard Manjone, John Slaven, Al Watts, and Joseph Zalewski, the cheers were louder and more prolonged than previously. No longer could one be heard to sneeze in the locker room or hiccough in the stands during the cheering.

Whenever the cheerleaders appeared on the field, basketball court, or stage, resplendent in their maroon sweaters and white trousers, they were assured of a hearty response from an enthusiastic crowd.

Slaven and Watts each receive a sweater for their meritorious contributions in helping to restore student spirit. The others will receive sweaters after serving 2 years.

COACH GEORGE C. BUCHHEIT

When a coach produces teams of high calibre possessing speed, accuracy, and the ability to win, he is worthy of the recognition and general acclaim of the entire student body. He has achieved his goal and is deserving of praise.

Such has been the accomplishments of George C. Buchheit, coach of athletics at Bloomsburg State Teachers College, who has successfully served in that capacity for the fourth consecutive year. His silent, calm, and friendly ways have done much to win the love, admiration, confidence and willingness to co-operate from his athletically-inclined charges and to assure him success as a coach.

Sharing in his success were his two colleagues, Coach Austin Tate, former coach of Lehigh University who joined the faculty in the Fall of 1935, and Raber Seely, former football star at Gettysburg. Both were able to contribute practical suggestions, and knowledge gained by experience.

During the football season of 1935, the Husky opponents failed to cross Bloomsburg's goal lines. Although not nearly so successful on the visitors' grid field, Husky ball carriers acquitted themselves creditably realizing that they had met superior teams. A record of four victories, three defeats, and one scoreless tie makes a fairly good season.

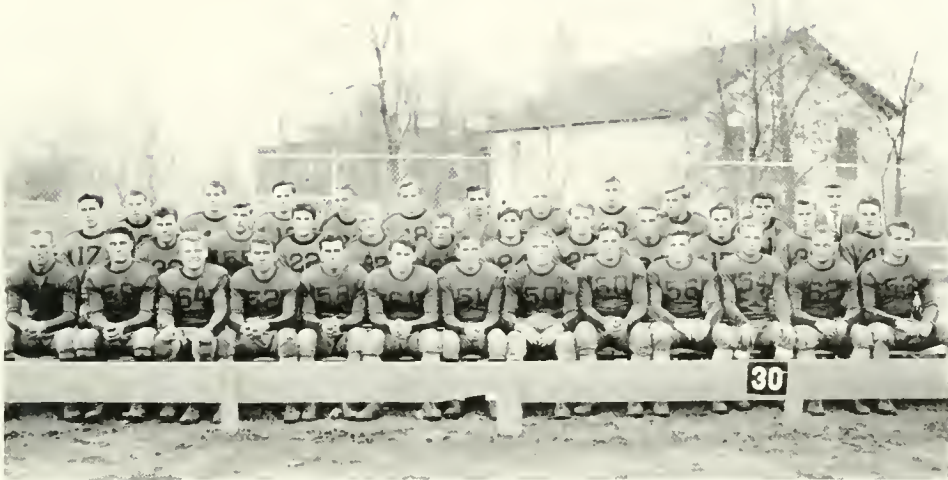

With the use of Frosh material and the development of a speedy, quick passing court combination, Coach Buchheit and Seeley gave to Bloomsburg State Teachers College one of the best ball quintets in years. After a prolonged winning streak, it seemed as though the Husky Five would make history by winning the mythical State Teachers College championship.

These hopes, however, were blasted when a road trip terminated in three consecutive losses. Even at that, the fast playing stellar combination concluded its season with two brilliant victories, outplaying its opponents in every respect, and bringing the final results of the season to nine victories and five losses. It is a record which any team may boast about.

Losing only four varsity letter winners by graduation, and with twenty frosh candidates boosting the number of grid aspirants to fifty, the husky football camp was a busy place early last September. The willingness to practice regularly, the co-operation between players and coaches, and the constant high spirits of the squad were reflected in the sterling brand of ball played during the season.

Most of the veterans reporting were members of the varsity squad during the fall of 1934. Captain "Whitey" Moleski signal caller and triple-threat man, headed the seasoned players, who were again ready to "rough it up." Other seniors eager to don the mole-skins were "Tiger-Man" Joe Dixon, a vicious tackle, "Rip" Mericle, a sturdy defensive and offensive lad of three years' varsity experience, "Woody" Litwhiler, a smashing end, Frank Rompalo, light but alert ball carrier, and Tommy Vershinski, a ball-snatching end.

Under classmen reporting for duty were "Johnny" Sircovics, captain-elect for 1936-37, "Hal" Border, Frank Camera, Al Finder, "Red" Dixon, John Supchinski, Vance Laubach, Frank Patrick, Ray Schrope, Luther Troutman, Alex Kupstas and Eugene Harney. An unusually large number of the once scholastic stars turned in very creditable service. First year men breaking into the line-up were, Chalmers Wenrich, Ray Erney, Sheldon Jones, Adam Link, Tony Shedlosky, Stanley Zelesky, Eldon Krashinsky, Robert Hopfer, Frank Dietrich, Alvin Lipfert, Frank VanDevender, and Mike Stenko.

From this group of varsity performers, the coaches chose an eleven for each game. During the entire season Coaches Buchheit, Tate, and Seely were assured of capable reserve material, something greatly appreciated during the more difficult games.

After a short period of nightly practices, the Huskies emerged from a sea of mud, a 19-0 winner of the initial game with Clarion.

With water overhead and underfoot, the game settled down to a punting duel, with Captain Moleski's toe booting the soggy ball to advantage. Gaining ground by laterals and aerials, two touchdown drives were made with Moleski and Finder carrying the ball over. A third six-points was converted when Border fell on a blocked kick in the enemy's end zone. The only extra-point was contributed by "Krash" Krashinski, who crashed his 171 pounds through the line after the second touchdown.

Following a week of scrimmage and drilling of plays, when weaknesses appearing in the Clarion game were patched up, the local eleven opened Millersville's schedule with a 6-0 victory. The score belied the real power of the locals, for Millersville attained but four first downs to ten for Bloomsburg.

No less than five scoring opportunities presented themselves after the ball had been worked deep into Millersville territory with a varied attack of running, passing, and punting. The Huskies failed to capitalize upon any of these, but while the third quarter was yet young, Al Finder, behind flawless blocking and interference, raced 51 yards to tap a goal standing up. Vershinski's placement kick went wide of the uprights.

Enheartened greatly with two victories under its belt, the squad dug in for a crucial contest with the highly touted Lock Havenites. Rated as the underdog in all localities except Bloomsburg, the team rose to new heights and battled the heavier and more experienced team to a standstill. Bloomsburg's defensive tightened about the reverses and spinners of the visitors and at one time held the ball on the one yard line for four successive downs. Along this wall of stone, Mericle, Dixon, and Sircovics were particularly resistant. More than once Moleski's long punts kept his team out of danger.

On October 19, a battered and bruised Husky squad trekked to Mansfield for the fourth game of the season. After outgaining, outpassing, outrunning, and outkicking the Teachers of Northern Pennsylvania, Mansfield took a Gamble, reserve back, and eked out a 3-0 win in the waning minutes of the tilt. After this score the Huskies regained their lost spirits, only to have the final whistle end the contest. As fate would have it, the score, not other factors, decides the winner of gridiron battles. The boys tried hard, but just didn't click. "Rip" Mericle played a "bang-up" game, recovering several fumbles and smashing offensive thrusts aimed at the center of the line.

With hearts set on blotting out of memory the 3-0 setback at the hands of Mansfield, and determined to uphold Homecoming Day traditions, the members of the squad downed the hitherto-potential State Teachers champions from Indiana, 6-0. Although statistics prove Bloomsburg the better all-around team, the tide surged back and forth with most of the play in mid-field. After three-quarters of mostly punt exchanges, sprinkled with a mixture of surprising spinners, shovel passes, and reverses, the fireworks began. The tempo of the game quickened and ball carriers flashed around ends, and passes scorched the atmosphere. Near the close of the game, Wenrich snatched a long Moleski pass and galloped for the only score of the game. Dixon, Mericle, and Sircovics deserve special praise for their smearing tactics, and Henry and Camera upheld the interference end of the game. All of the running backs proved of value, with Laubach doing the lion's share of the blocking.

Again the signs of a hard battle told upon the Huskies, who met a crushing 26-0 defeat at the hands of a powerful Shippensburg eleven. That the down state gridgers knew of Bloom's power is certain, for they wisely bottled up Mericle, Dixon, Sircovics, Moleski, and Krashinski. The Huskies battled the opposition on even terms, but cracked in the final quarter to allow three touchdowns to cross their goal line.

In the last home game of the season, November 16, the Huskies humbled East Stroudsburg, 12-0, a cherished revenge for the Homecoming defeat of 1934. Dominating in every phase of the game, the local team so far outplayed the Big Red visitors that a host of substitutes were used in the fourth quarter. Laubach, up to this time a fine blocking back, turned ball carrier and hammered the opposing line to shreds. Rompalo, directing the team in the absence of the injured Moleski did a first-rate job, while Frosh Krashinski, half back, ran wild for numerous and lengthy gains. Again the whole line proved its power, with Mericle, Camera, Dixon and Sircovics stopping most of the plays.

Playing on frozen turf and in weather below freezing, which greatly handicapped both teams, the Bloomsburg gridgers dropped the final game to a powerful Slippery Rock aggregation by the score of 21-6. Immediately after the first whistle of the game the westerners marched 90 yards to a touchdown. The locals seemed to be off form until late in the fourth canto, when Krashinski, who was about to be tackled, lateraled the ball to Shedloski. Dietrich and Mericle, waylaid two opposing players, and Shedlosky scored. Throughout the game the Huskies failed to fathom the deceptive plays of the strong Rockets.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With only three varsity men remaining from the 1934-35 court season, Coaches Buchheit and Seely were confronted with the task of molding a strong varsity squad to represent Bloomsburg on the "wooden way." Hopes were buoyed up when nearly thirty aspirants appeared for the initial practice, including Captain "Edge" Phillips, Ruckle, Blass, Gering, Slaven, D Litwhiler, and Withka; holdovers from last season. New faces represented were Banta, Smethers, Robison, Snyder, Rishe, Kahler, Harmony and Giermak.

After less than a week of practice, the college quintet began one of the most successful court seasons in recent years by downing the Alumni stars 51 to 29. Nine men, six of them "frosh", saw service in this tilt, with Capt. Phillips and "Junie" Ruckle capturing scoring honors. After this victory the Coaches' worries disappeared, for the new boys, steadied greatly by the three veterans, lived up to and beyond expectations.

In an exciting and hard-fought contest, the Huskies dropped the first inter-collegiate game to a veteran Ithaca College squad of lanky lads, 36-35. Against the towering five from New York State, the young team gained a moral victory. Gathering more field goals than the opposition, our players failed to take advantage of fifteen free throws. Although Ruckle proved the chief point-getter, the entire squad played heady ball and showed marked improvement.

Just before the Christmas vacation a speedy Susquehanna University squad trampled the locals 36-27, after a "nip and tuck" first half, which ended with the Crusaders one point to the good. With these two games bringing out the weak spots, the members of the squad went home for a two weeks' vacation, after which they came back to turn in a long string of victories.

With the holidays behind them, the Huskies claimed Mansfield as their first Teachers College victim.

In the lead almost from the opening whistle and excelling in all departments of the game, the basketeers coasted to a 39-27 triumph on Mansfield's court. Showing more added power, speed and accuracy than before, the Maroon and Gold five bowled over the Lock Havenites on the local court, 46-30. From the initial whistle the locals sprang into the lead, never to be overcome. By scoring 12 of 21 field goals under the basket, the team exhibited ability to "work the ball in." Captain "Edge" Phillips and Ruckle were the chief point contributors.

Functioning in splendid style, Buchheit's court machine displayed a fine defensive and offensive to overpower Mansfield, 39-18. Limiting their opponents to four field goals, Capt. Phillips and his running mates ran up sixteen two-pointers. Two full teams saw action, with scoring honors quite evenly divided.

Embarking upon a road trip with all the optimism in the world, the entire squad proved its worth by bringing back the scalps of Shippensburg and Millersville, two brilliant teams. After subduing the former opponent by the score of 34 to 27, the boys continued to Millersville where a last minute rally helped Bloomsburg to gain a 49 to 41 win.

The return Shippensburg contest, postponed because of excessive snow, was never played. Coming from behind in the second half of a close game, the Huskies triumphed over a strong East Stroud combination. With the lead changing several times in the final chukker, this game was the most exciting played on the home floor. Only after two "Frank Merriwell" shots by Ruckle during the closing minutes of the game did "Buchheit's basketeers" emerge a 41 to 36 victor.

Realizing that three difficult assignments confronted them the Huskies prepared for three consecutive "away" games with Lock Haven, Indiana, and East Stroudsburg. Unable to click against a smooth-working Lock Haven squad, the boys dropped that game by a 37 to 29 score. After a difficult trip over snowbound roads, the team lost a close one to Indiana, 39 to 35. Having the advantage in field goals, the players converted but 8 of 18 free chances. After but a day's rest, a squad of eight traveled by taxi to East Stroudsburg, where the Big Red quintet took our measure 44 to 34. With the opponent's forwards garnering numerous goals, "Capt." Phillips upheld the B. S. T. C. cause with 8 points.

Snapping a three-game losing streak, the local five crushed to submission a good Millersville team. In this 51 to 35 victory Capt "Edge" Phillips, with four years' varsity experience under his belt, made his last appearance on the home court. Winding up the season with a 37 to 22 decision over Susquehanna, the Huskies completed a highly successful basketball schedule.

Varsity letter winners were Captain Phillips, Captain-elect Ruckle, Robison, Banta, Withka, Smethers, Blass, and Senior Manager Kessler.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

After the freshmen Jay Vees trounced the upperclassmen in the preliminary to the alumni contest, the coaches had a difficult task in selecting the J. V. squad for the season. Starting with a bang, the Jay Vees began an undefeated season by conquering Susquehanna 32-28. The game was "fast and furious" from beginning to end.

In continuing a season well begun the Bloomsburg Pups literally "went to town." Through a brilliant display of real basketball playing matched with a determined aggressiveness they successfully defeated every team which came their way.

By playing a very good brand of ball during every game on the schedule, the Jay Vees proved themselves capable of filling varsity vacancies. Quite frequently J. V. players were used in varsity contests. Members of the team who worked diligently in games and during practice were: A. Giermak, J. Slaven, F. VanDevender, P. Snyder, C. Blackburn, H. Kahler, J. Gering, D. Rische, H. Lemon, and W. Harmon.

CROSS COUNTRY

Although nearly a dozen men—mostly frosh—reported for cross country, no varsity meets were held because of the inability to schedule meets with other schools. Tentative dates with Susquehanna, West Chester, Shippensburg, and Indiana failed to materialize because of schedule conflicts. Neither was the annual six-mile New Year's run held by the local fire companies.

Among those who practiced nearly two months in hope for competition were three lettermen, Captain "Ernie" Lau, Ex-Captain "Bernie" Young, and Tommy Davison. Other candidates were Harold Kahler, Austin Yeany, Donald Rische, Michael Gonshor, Robert Price, Lamar Blass, John Hartman, Andrew Grohal and John Robison.

Winning eight of ten matches, Coach Koch's racquet wielders completed one of the most successful seasons in years. Under the tutelage of a coach who was a varsity tennis player throughout his college days, the Maroon and Gold Club breezed to a glorious finish after early hair-breadth losses to Mansfield and Villanova.

Led by Captain Sam Krauss, a four-year veteran, Cornley, Shakofski, Zalonis, Burger, Yeager, and Cap't-Elect Cohen won consistently.

When a college nine completes a twelve-game schedule without a single defeat it deserves the title of Baseball Champions of Pennsylvania State Teachers' Colleges. That this achievement boosted the consecutive games won to an even twenty adds to the praise of such a team and its coach.

The completion of the 1933-34 season, marred only by the loss of the initial game, attracted many followers to the All-American sport of baseball. As a result the beginning of last spring's baseball practice found Coach Nelson flooded with eager prospects. With an abundance of material remaining from the previous season, very few newcomers could aspire to a first string berth.

Nevertheless, Al Finder of Shamokin, a finished fielder and a timely hitter, cavorted around third base most of the season. At times Bill Karshner, utility infielder, replaced him. "Dink" Riley, a flashy short-stop from Danville, proved a bulwark offensively and succeeded in smashing hits when sorely needed. One more recruit, Danny Litwhiler, established himself as a permanent fixture in right field because of his ability to clout extra-base hits and to convert hits of the opposing players into shoestring catches.

"Woody" Litwhiler, captain-elect for the 1935-36 season, and "Whitey" Moleski bore the brunt of the pitching. The strong arms of these huskies played an important part in mowing the way to the long string of victories. Both boys were also quite potent with the stick. At times these fellows were given a respite when Johnny Slaven, Cobb, and D. Litwhiler would twirl for a few innings.

These pitchers were capably handled by two alert catchers. Innings played were shared almost equally by Bennett Dry, veteran, and Joe Visotski, former infielder. Both of these lads glued themselves to foul tips and kept base stealing at a minimum.

"Cobby" Cobb, the iron man of the team, connected for extra-base hits more frequently than any other player. His polished fielding around the initial sack saved various teammates more than one error. "Cobby" was also responsible for keeping up the high morale of the team throughout the strenuous season.

Completing the roster were the fielders Charles Blackburn, "Tommy" Vershinski, Washeleski, and Captain Beck. Due to an early season injury Captain Beck saw only part service. Besides these fly-chasers, infielders Frank Rompalo and Bill Karshner stopped more than one fast grounder and drove out numerous helpful hits. Those lost to the team through graduation were Captain Beck, Cobb, Blackburn, Visotski, Dry, and Washleski.

A good team is usually composed of natural players, but even these need a strong director and advisor. As coach, Dr. Nelson filled this capacity capably, as evidenced by the records of the past two years. Without proper equipment the team would have been greatly handicapped, but the team members were always supplied with the necessities of baseball by the hustling managers, Butler, Turnow, and Peck.

Together with the picture of the baseball outfit, the past season's record will give you a resume of the Bloomsburg Championship Nine.

TRACK 1935

After the annual inter-class track meet, which gave Coach Buchheit opportunity to choose likely prospects, the Maroon and Gold trackmen eked out a close 64-62 win over a strong East Stroudsburg aggregation on Mt. Olympus. It was at this meet that six field records were shattered, three by the visitors and the others by the Huskies.

Luff, Stroud hurdling star, was supreme in the two timber-topping events, and he established records in both high and low hurdles. Weinzier, another visitor, put the shot 39 feet 1 inch, over a foot and a half better than the previous mark. Blass, virtually a one-man track team, chief point getter, and captain-elect for 1936, established a new mark of 24.1 records for the 220 yard dash. A few minutes later he leaped 5 feet 7 inches for a new high jumping record. Louis Bertoldi, star distance runner, showed his heels to the pack and traveled the mile in 4 minutes, 50.3 seconds, three seconds faster than Jim Karne's record of 1934. Captain Sell easily captured first position in his specialties, the 440 and 880.

Showing marked superiority in all events but the hurdles, the Huskies were impressive in a 80 1-3 to 35 2-3 win over Lock Haven. After the second meet it was evident that the greater part of Bloomsburg's points would be contributed by Blass, Sell, Bertoldi, and Vershinski. In this the Huskies swept three events on the program; the mile, discus, and broad jump.

Shippensburg, the first team to defeat the Huskies in two years, turned the trick by the score of 66 2-3 to 59 1-3 when Sorge's final fling of the javelin bettered the mark of Danny Litwhiler by 2 inches. Captain Sell completed his four years of dual competition undefeated in his favorite run, the half mile. In all dual meets this year he captured first place in both the 440 and 330.

In the annual State Teachers College track and field meet held at Harrisburg, Bloomsburg finished in a tie with Slippery Rock for third place, each team scoring 18 points. At this time Captain Sell finished a brilliant four-year collegiate career by establishing a new half mile record of 2:03:7 for a four curve course. Other point winners in the state meet were Blass, Vershinski, Bertoldi, and Line.

"B" CLUB

OFFICERS

President	Julia Schlegel
Vice-President	Eleanor Morris
Secretary	Sara Shuman
Treasurer	Alice Auch
Sponsor	Miss Lucy McCammon

The "B" Club, a well established organization upon the college campus, has entered the eighth year of its existence. Its members are active, athletically-interested girls who gain membership by successfully participating in activities sponsored by Miss McCammon. The club forms an outlet for the athletic energy of the girls who join it. Its purpose is to promote clean sports and healthful activity for all girls.

Entrance into the organization is based upon a point system. For each hour spent in individual or group sports, points are given varying according to the kind of activity. Each year new members are initiated at a week-end party.

Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month. One day every week is "B" Club day. Thursday is "B" day, and at this time girls wear their white sweaters and well earned letters.

The "B" club offers cageball, tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, hockey, swimming, and hiking on its program. "B" club members officiate at the girls' athletic events, and also take charge of the tournaments, organizing teams, and planning and refereeing games.

By selling candies, peanuts, tags and feathers the "B" Club has been able to raise enough money to begin work on a log cabin of its own. Plans are being devised for the cabin which the club hopes to complete in the near future.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Through the efforts of Miss McCammon a group of girls was asked to officiate at outdoor basketball games between various high school teams in the county. The games started in October and continued until the end of December. Two girls acted as referee and umpire of each game. Six of them were "B" Club girls and the other three were prospective members.

The following is a list of the girls who gained a great deal of experience from those games:

- | | |
|-----------------|----------------|
| Marie Davis | Muriel Stevens |
| Martha Dreese | Florence Snook |
| Anne Grosek | Mary Grosek |
| Beatrice Thomas | Julia Schlegel |
| | Anne Ebert |

In addition to these games last fall, Julia Schlegel refereed twelve varsity games for Scott Township High School during the winter. She was assisted by Florence Snook and Anne Ebert. After the varsity season was over she also refereed intramural games at the same high school.

Girls' Basketball

This year's basketball season was divided into two leagues. The first league ended January 25, and the second one March 6.

The teams in the first league were organized by the manager, whereas the teams in the second were organized by the girls themselves. Games were played every Monday and Friday. The following girls, composing Team V in the first league and Team I in the second league were the champions:

Forwards:

Roberta Lentz Sara Dersham
Dorothy Englehart

Guards:

Helen Seesholtz Jeanne Reifendifer
Donnabelle Smith

The following girls deserve mention for their ability and loyalty to their team:

Forwards:

Sara Dersham Martha Dreese
Roberta Lentz Martha Wright
Dorothy Englehart Betty Savage
Mary Boyle Helen Shank
Lucille Adams Marthy Greenly
Helen Mayan Amanda Walsh
Anne Ebert

Guards:

Julia Schlegel Anne Seesholtz
Eleanor Sharadin Donnabelle Smith
Jeanne Reifendifer Irene Bonin

Margaret Shubert Annabel Bailey
Dorothy DuBois Margaret Graham

Games for beginners were played each Thursday afternoon. Many of these beginners advanced to the experienced group for the second league. The following girls were outstanding in the beginners group.

Grace Killari Helen Derr
Julia Selecky Ruth Miller
Eva Reichley Lottie Shook
Helen Hart

Each game is officiated by a referee and an umpire who has passed the official test. These girls acted as officials:

Schlegel, Snook, Sharadin, Lentz, Dersham, and Ebert. Scorer — Orner; Timer — Ammerman, Reichley.

Points were earned by playing in these leagues by the girls in their efforts to secure admission to the "B" Club.

Besides planning for outings for the "B" Club girls, Miss McCammon director of all girls' athletics, provided an opportunity this year for "B" Club and non-"B" Club members to enjoy the out-of-doors by sponsoring steak fries and weiner roasts nearly every week until Thanksgiving.

Cage Ball

Due to the outdoor courts, Cage-ball was a great drawing card for girls in the 1935 season of activities. Both upperclass and freshmen girls played the game, but many of the upperclass girls were chosen to referee the games. The majority of those having the highest number of points were girls of the freshman class. These should receive special mention:

Lucille Adams	Roberta Lentz
Sarah Amerman	Dorothy Long
Irene Bonin	Ruth Miller
Lucinda Vought	Anna Orner
Claire Davis	Mary Palsgrove
Helen Derr	Eva Reichley
Sara Dersham	Mary Reis'er
Lois Farmer	Helen Selecky
Anne Fetterman	Cecile Sheets
Evelyn Freehafer	Donnabelle Smith
Betty Harter	Mary Smith
Grace Keller	Martha Steininger
Harriet Kocher	Jean Stifnagle

All of these girls had earned at least 100 points in all scheduled games. Besides these games some girls played every extra game and all of them played in the gym. These brought their total to 160 points.

The following are those who deserve special credit as officials of the games:

Margaret Creasy	Mary Grosek
Anne Ebert	Anna Orner
Margaret Graham	Gladys Rinard
Anne Grosek	Julia Schlegel
	Florence Snook

Volley Ball

The volley ball season opened March 9. Teams were organized according to classes with ten members to a team. Intramural competition added extra zest to the games. It proved so successful that the next sport baseball started in full swing. The girls were allowed to organize their own teams for this game.

INTRAMURALS

Intramurals are the medium of athletic activity which definitely aims to include everyone in the college community. In order for intramurals to be most beneficial in molding better relationships with each other, the faculty must surely be admitted to its activities. Although the faculty did not respond too readily, some of them co-operated with the student intramuralists.

The intramural program began even before the varsity sports. A fall tennis tournament which included sixty-four participants began on a sunny September day with practically every one interested in it. Some of the early matches were good entertainment; Chalmers Wenrich rushed down from the football field, picked up a racket (for the first time) and promptly became eliminated; Bevilacqua swung three times at the same ball before he hit it and Savage ran four to five pounds off of Kline's ample waist. The later matches were better tennis. Yeager in the lower bracket defeated Merrill after a brilliant three set match in which Yeager had considerable difficulty in proving his superiority, while Smethers, the leader in the upper bracket, won in straight sets.

Nature provided a day in October, clear as a woodland spring, calm as a baby's sleep, and warm as a Mediterranean summer for the final five set match which only needed three as Smethers, the Berwick entrant, emerged victorious after a splendid recoup in the third set when the score was 0-5 against him, taking 7 games straight.

The tennis tournament dwindled away into eternity as the beautifully colored leaves began to litter the tennis courts and the golden sun, becoming older with the year, began resting from its journey across the heavens on to the distant horizon at a much earlier hour, leaving the courts to the all-consoling night.

Tradition humbly bowed before precedent as the Upper Class-Frosh football rampage became a verbal argument echoing and re-echoing through North Hall and the new Day Mens' room.

Ping-pong made its debut with an enthusiasm that was unparalleled in B.S.T.C. A field of 64 paddlers began the eliminations on December 12, 1935. A great deal of interest characterized the tourney from beginning to end and strewn along the way were Merrill, Miller, Tomalis, Ziller, Coblentz, Cornely, Troutman and Miller. Houck, Mc-Kechnie, Kershner, Jones, Young, Lau, Thomas and Smethers advanced a few rounds but were soon eliminated. The finals found Prof. Koch matched against Cinquergrani. It was a spirited match in which Prof. Koch became the winner and first Ping-Pong champion of B.S.T.C. Some others who participated were Green, Cohen, Zeiss, Shutt, Saltzer, Clemens, Kantner, Watts, Savage, Kline, Martin, Slaven, Richie, Bianco, Wolfe, Falck, Revels and Thomas. The winner and runner-up of the tournament were invited to participate at Philadelphia.

The annual intramural basketball league began its activities almost the same time as the ping-pong tournaments. Over sixty-four people joined various teams and under colorful names and banners began their battles from 9:30 to 11:30 every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings in the college gymnasium.

The Parasites, composed of Hopper, Harmony, Simpson, Miller, and Strausser—all Bloomsburg boys—, came through as the victors. It took the college jay-vees to give them their first defeat. The Moccasins, composed of Camera, Moleski, Schrope, Supchinski, and Rompalo came in second.

Basketball cheers were still hovering among the rafters when wrestling entered the lists for recognition. Fourteen boys began an elimination contest to see which one of them could outgrapple the other. Mats were strewn on the floor in the old supply room where every night at four o'clock grunts and groans from Bill Tannery's proteges could be heard issuing from behind closed doors. The grunt-and-groan artists of the mat were Bader, Casari, Champi, Hcuch, Hunter, Woytovich, Laubach, Derr, Lewis, Falcone, Wanich, Trapane, Stenko, Zeleski.

Simultaneously on the basketball floor again, Lau was methodically chalking down the score of Prof. Koch as he sank fouls for a grand total of 76 out of a hundred possible fouls. McCutcheon, Cinquegrani, Bowers and Coblentz were just behind. Many other participated but were eliminated as they failed to meet the requirements.

The volleyball tournament began with a bang! Of the faculty Dr. Nelson, Prof. Koch, Coach Buchheit, Dr. Russell, Prof. Reams, Prof. Shortess and Prof. Fisher entered their banners among the seven others of the student teams. Approximately fifty participated in this delightful sport.

Intramurals are "up and coming" as can easily be seen. There is a definite schedule being worked out for next year and every male member of the college community can eventually take part in his favorite intramural activity. Once that happens the goal for intramural sports will be reached and everyone can then enjoy some sport.

COMMUNITY GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

OFFICERS

President	William Morgan
Vice-President	Frank Camera
Secretary	Sara Shuman
Treasurer, First Semester	Anna Jean Laubach
Treasurer, Second Semester	Howard Waite

The Community Government Association is an organization of which all the students and the faculty are members. It was organized in 1927 for the better co-operation and understanding between the faculty members, the administrative board, and students. Since that time the organization has become very efficient and evolved many new plans which have added considerably to the development of the college.

The organization is a member of the National Student Federation Association, and in order to learn of new trends and ideas, and consequently improvements in college life, a representative was sent to the national convention of this Organization held at Kansas City, Missouri.

Entering freshmen is one of the first duties of the organization. Two days before the College opens for the upper classmen, freshmen register and are guests of the Community Government Association. During this time the Organization helps the freshmen become acclimated to college life. A freshmen dinner, dance and several business meetings are held during those first few days.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The business of the Community Government Association is conducted by the Student Council which is the executive division. Problems are presented to the executive head through the representatives of the four subordinate student organizations, Waller Hall, Day Women's Association, North Hall, and Day Men's Association.

Every student and organization on the campus is represented on the Council either directly or indirectly. This allows for a better group life as all community problems are worked out in co-operation.

Committees appointed by the President carry out various duties necessary in the community life. The Social and Hospitality Committee entertain the guests of the College and assist in such annual events as Homecoming and Alumni Days. Other committees, such as the fire and dining room committees, take care of their respective routine duties. In addition to their representation on the Council, students have a chance to present ideas and opinions or problems of their own through the Student Welfare Committee.

Among the social events sponsored by the Community Government Association through committees appointed by the president this year were, first and second semester receptions, Leap Year Dance, Halloween Dance, and Kiwanis-Rotary Night.

North Hall! Music everywhere—vocal and otherwise—crooners on the third floor, a hill-billy orchestra on the second, the radio going full blast on the main floor. A bull session on the third floor, a wrestling match in the shower room, a three-point student on the first floor studying for a quizz—all these are characteristics of North Hall, the home of dormitory men.

With enjoyable smokers and interesting programs, North Hall men know how to pass their time. Then there is always an opportunity to play monopoly on the first floor or challenge a partner to a game of ping-pong in the basement.

Vice-President	Robert Savage
Secretary	Norman Henry
Treasurer	Sam Cohen
Advisor	Coach George Buchheit

The Day Men's Association is composed of all men students living off the campus.

During the present college year, the organization has continued to raise its standing among the college organizations on the campus. This year the quarters of the Day Men were transferred to the basement of North Hall, where the members of this organization could enjoy ping-pong, music, smoking, and last but not least, eating. A new radio helped to make the place homelike.

The Day Men co-operated with the men of North Hall in playing a ping-pong tournament, which was finally won by Prof. Koch.

The honorary dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, is the largest one of its kind in the United States, and has the oldest established chapter of any fraternity on the campus.

The various activities of the local chapter for this year included: sponsoring the annual high school play tournament to which many former fraternity members returned as directors of high school plays; presenting one-act plays for college and community projects; issuing the annual news letter to alumni members; and enjoying social activities such as the annual alumni banquet on Homecoming Day and the Christmas Tree Party.

Under the successful and competent guidance of Miss Johnston, the director, the members have maintained and tried to better the standards and ideals set up by the national organization.

Kappa Delta Pi grew out of a local society, the Illinois Educational Club, which was founded at the University of Illinois in 1909. The present national honorary society in education was incorporated on June 9, 1911 at the same university.

The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to encourage high intellectual and personal standards during the preparation for teaching and to recognize outstanding service in the field of education. The latter purpose makes possible the establishment of a Laureate Chapter, whose membership is composed of outstanding educators of the world. Among these are John Dewey, Edward Lee Thorndike and William Kilpatrick.

Gamma Beta Chapter of Bloomsburg State Teachers College was installed on February 21, 1931, by Dr. A. L. Hall-Quest. Membership consists of men and women chosen from the upper quartile of the Junior and Senior classes. Juniors must have completed six semester hours in education and Seniors twelve semester hours. These are national requirements.

The fraternity has a student membership of approximately fifty, a large alumni membership, a faculty membership of sixteen, and six honorary members, including Dr. Francis B. Haas, Dr. D. J. Waller, Dr. J. N. Rule, Dr. J. Herbert Kelly, W. B. Sutliff, and J. E. Shambach.

The outstanding activities of the year 1935-36 include pledge services, initiation services and regular meetings at which local faculty members spoke. The President was sent as a delegate to the biennial national convocation at St. Louis. The Chapter also co-operated in making the Inter-Fraternity Ball a success.

As a closing activity of the year, Gamma Beta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi held Founders Day on April 25. In commemoration of its establishment an educational and social program was sponsored. Dr. Joseph Nocnan of Mahanoy City spoke.

Phi Sigma Pi, a professional educational fraternity for men in teacher training institutions, has, under the leadership of Howard Waite, contributed much to the educational and social life of the college.

The educational meetings have been rich with informal discussions on important current problems.

Socially, smokers at various faculty homes, at which problems in education were discussed, were enjoyed by all attending.

On October 22, 1935, Phi Sigma Pi held an informal pledge service in the Riding Academy grove south of Bloomsburg. Prof. Koch gave a short informal talk on the value and significance of the fraternity.

On January 15, 1935, Dr. North entertained the fraternity at his home. A round table discussion concerning professional ethics with particular stress on conduct at school was led by Dr. North and was unusually informative.

The Annual Inter-Fraternity Ball was the crowning feature of Phi Sigma Pi's participation in social affairs.

Iota Chapter has certainly lived up to its ideals in providing fellowship and an increase in educational knowledge, not only for its members, but for the college as a whole.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON

Delta Chapter, Established October 16, 1931

Sponsor	Dr. H. Harrison Russell

Students who major in geography or who take more than the necessary core subjects in it and who have the requisite scholastic rating in both geography and other college work have an opportunity to join the Gamma Theta Upsilon, the only national honorary geography fraternity.

The fraternity's principal objectives are to promote fraternalism among those who have chosen geography as a major field in education, to advance the professional status of geography as a cultural and practical phase of education, and to create and administer a loan fund to aid alumni members in graduate study in the field of geography.

Delta Chapter may boast of many distinctions which can rightfully be accorded it. Probably the most outstanding one was the election of Richard Halliburton, famous traveler, lecturer and author, as an honorary member. In February, 1932, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd of Antarctica fame became an honorary member.

Local fraternity members point with pride to the fact that Dr. H. Harrison Russell is not only sponsor to the Bloomsburg Chapter, but national president of Gamma Theta Upsilon as well. This honor is most appropriate for one who has the abilities and geographical background of knowledge and experience which Dr. Russell has.

The unusually large membership this year shows the growing importance of geography as a course of study. Eighteen new members were initiated by Delta Chapter. Approximately one-fourth of the seniors of this year had majored in geography, and of those, practically all were members of Gamma Theta Upsilon.

Participation in the Annual Inter-Fraternity Ball and contribution of a news letter to national headquarters marked some of the most outstanding activities. This news letter, composed by Bernard Young, Daniel Jones, Jay Pursel, and Beatrice Thomas, will be compiled with letters from other chapters to make a national news letter.

Other highlights in the program for the year were a report by Dr. Russell on a convention of geographers which he had attended; an interesting illustrated talk by Miss Hazen on a Carribean trip which she had taken during the summer; various talks by students; and the annual Founders' Day banquet and installation of officers at the end of the year.

Pi Omega Pi is one of the newest and most active fraternities on the campus, having been established in May, 1935.

Membership consists of Juniors and Seniors who have a high scholastic standing in all commercial studies and at least a medium standing in all other college subjects.

Pi Omega Pi attempts to:

1. Encourage, promote, extend, and create interest and scholarship in commerce,

2. Aid in civic betterment in colleges,
3. Encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professional life,
4. And to teach the ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

Alpha Delta Chapter has a student membership of fifteen, a small alumni membership, and a faculty membership of five. Favorable factors in commercial work forecasts a brilliant future for Pi Omega Pi.

Alpha Phi Omega is a new organization on the campus at Bloomsburg this year. It is a national service fraternity with its ultimate objective the furthering of youth organizations in America.

It is the only organization on the campus whose members have had a mutual background, since the organization has as a prerequisite requirement that each member must have been affiliated, before entering college, with the Boy Scouts of America.

Alpha Phi Omega extends its services far beyond the campus limits. Several of its members are serving as leaders in "Scout Troops" throughout the community. Positions as camp councilors are open to its members this summer in a number of "Scout Camps". In this way, its members will have the opportunity of studying the child outside the classrooms, along with an enjoyable summer out-of-doors. Present members will be qualified to serve as scoutmasters in various towns.

The Young Men's Christian Association is a college organization designed to carry out the ideals of Y.M.C.A.s' throughout the world, emphasizing the development of body, mind, and spirit. It has tried to formulate its program this year upon those ideals.

Having had an appointed time in September to entertain the Freshmen, the first task of the members was to initiate them into the college community. The warm hand of friendship and fellowship was extended to them.

The membership this year was one of the largest in the history of the organization at Bloomsburg. The drive for new members began with a weiner roast for all men, in Dillon's Hollow, where a delightful evening was spent. It was here that the new students became acquainted with the genuine fellowship of the "Y".

One of the highlights of the season's activities was the Christmas party held for the under-privileged boys of Bloomsburg. The men co-operated in making this charity project a success and showed a true Christmas spirit by making less fortunate hearts happier.

A very enjoyable event was the mid-winter swimming party at Danville. The Board of Directors of the Danville Y.M.C.A. were hosts to the Bloomsburg students. Besides swimming, the party was able to bowl, play basketball, ping pong, and pocket billiards. The trip was made by bus after the heaviest snowfall of the winter.

The association took an active part in the work conducted by the State Student Council and sent delegations to the Student-Faculty Conference at Lebanon Valley College in December and the Spring Cabinet-Training Conference to Kutztown in April. The delegates in the fall reported a very interesting and worthwhile conference, where Dr. Robert J. Black, Mr. C. L. Wuertenberger, Dr. H. D. Hoover, Philo C. Dix and Dr. Clyde L. Lynch, President of Lebanon Valley College, were the main speakers, who emphasized the topic: "Christ in My Professional Life."

The theme of this year's program was the character, and personality of the teacher in the light of physical, mental, and spiritual development. Some of the purposes involved in our weekly meetings were to stimulate thought about present-day topics which were discussed by Prof. E. A. Reams, Dr. H. Harrison Russell, Prof. H. A. Andruss, Dr. W. L. Galbreath, and Prof. J. J. Fisher; to stimulate character development, discussed by Dr. E. H. Nelson, Prof. J. C. Koch, Mr. Harry Barton, Father Stuart Gast; and to hear interpretations of religion, discussed by Prof. W. W. Evans, and Dr. K. C. Kuster.

Discussions of world peace, racial differences and philosophies of life took place in student forums. The "Y" also co-operated in joint meetings with the Y.W.C.A. and helped sponsor a day of prayer vesper service in the auditorium. These meetings were of interest to all.

For many years the Young Women's Christian Association has been one of the largest and most active organizations on the campus.

It has been the custom of this organization for the past few years to welcome the freshmen at an afternoon tea. During the year the largest project undertaken was a Winter Festival and with the cooperation of each member it proved to be a very successful affair.

A few of the new events added to the calendar for this year were a "get-together" dinner which was held in the college dining room. Rev. Coyle of Milton was the guest speaker. Another new event was a week-end cabinet "retreat" at which plans for the entire year were discussed and arranged.

Perhaps the most highly appreciated service rendered during the year was the contribution of a Christmas purse to a worthy family in Bloomsburg.

The organization was represented at the Student Christian Movement Conference held at Eagles Mere during the summer. Representatives were also sent to the Spring Training Conference at West Chester and the Buck Hill Falls Intercollegiate Conference.

The regular weekly meetings which were planned by members of the organization under the direction of a devotional chairman proved to be very interesting.

As a result, another successful year has been recorded by the "Y" at Bloomsburg. This success was largely brought about by the splendid co-operation and guidance of Miss Pearl Mason, the faculty advisor.

The Rural Life Club consists of a group of prospective teachers organized to be enlightened on problems arising in life when living in a rural community.

Under the capable direction of Miss Edna J. Hazen the Club informally and freely discussed many rural problems which a teacher might meet and have to solve in her rural life and teaching.

Many topics concerning cleanliness, the rural school curriculum, and relation of rural teachers to community life were discussed freely in the regular club meetings.

Any student interested in geography may be a member of the Geographic Society.

Each member is responsible for the program of one meeting. These programs, although they always pertain to geography, are varied.

They include films, illustrated talks, geographic games, and summaries of personal experiences and trips.

The outstanding event of the society is a trip to Kitchen's Creek Falls during the Spring semester.

The Bloomsburg Players is the oldest extra curricular organization in the college, meeting each Tuesday night in the school year. After the business meeting a one-act play is presented by club members and constructive criticisms are then given.

The organization is a workshop where features of play productions are studied by the laboratory method. The plays are directed by a student under the supervision of the club director.

The club also presents many plays in public before various groups, such as clubs in Bloomsburg and nearby towns, the Student Government Party, Crippled Childrens' Christmas Party, and Kiwanis-Rotary All College Night.

There are two big projects sponsored by the Bloomsburg Players every year. The first is the annual tournament of one act plays, in which different casts, each with its own student director, compete against each other.

The second big event is the annual long play. This year "Twelfth Night" by William Shakespeare was presented.

Membership to the club is gained by try-outs before a committee composed of club members and director.

The club is a stepping-stone to two high honors: one, admission to Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, and the other, the Gold Pin Award. There are specific requirements for eligibility to the fraternity, all of which may be met by those participating in any of the club enterprises. The Gold Pin is a merit award given each year to six persons who have done outstanding work during their membership in the club. These awards are decided upon by a point system included in the by-laws of the club constitution. Points are earned in the various phases of dramatics.

Secretary	Mary Hamer
Treasurer	Philip Frankmore
Sponsor	H. A. Andruss

This organization of students in the Department of Commerce is the largest on the campus. The enthusiasm of its members has made it one of the most successful social-professional organizations.

Among the social events are: an all-school dance held the evening following the first football game; a Fall outing, generally held at Columbia Park; a formal dinner held each spring at which awards are made to outstanding members.

Regular meetings are held twice each month throughout the school year. Speakers of educational and business experience address the group on interesting topics. The newer business machines, such as typewriters, calculating machines, etc., are demonstrated. Each of the four classes is responsible for the presentation of one program which may be of either a musical or dramatic nature.

For the past five years a state-wide Commercial Contest has been sponsored for high school students. Last year more than thirty high schools participated. Competitive examinations in bookkeeping, Gregg shorthand, commercial law, type-writing and commercial arithmetic are given. Successful students are awarded gold, silver and bronze charms. The best team of high school students receives the Commercial Contest Cup. This cup was awarded to the Collingdale High School in 1935.

The Mixed Chorus was a new organization in the fall of 1936. The work of it began the last week in September with 107 people who had passed the vocal tests required for admission. The chorus numbered 152 the second semester.

From this group, thirty-six people were chosen as members of the A Cappella Choir, also a new organization. Their rehearsals started the first week in October.

These two groups appeared before the college community for the first time on December 20 when they presented a program of Christmas music. At this program the entire chorus and choir wore Academic gowns.

Their second appearance was at the Kiwanis-Rotary program, March 12, when they sang the Hallelujah Chorus by Handel.

The social event of the year was the Spring Concert and Dance on May 1.

MAROON AND GOLD SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Maroon and Gold Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Howard Fenstermaker, is organized each year for the purpose of providing an opportunity to study representative orchestral works for those people who are interested. The orchestra also serves at those college functions where a better type of music is desired.

This year the orchestra played at the Columbia County Teachers' Institute, Parent-Teachers Association Convention, Kiwanis-Rotary College Night, Homecoming Day, the spring concert of the Mixed Chorus and A Cappella Choir, Athletic Banquet, May Day, and Homecoming Day.

MAROON AND GOLD BAND

Every college needs a band to help arouse spirit, and Bloomsburg is more than proud of its band. The success of the Maroon and Gold Band is largely due to Mr. Fenstermaker, the director and Sam Green, drum major.

Brilliantly attired in maroon and gold uniforms and playing snappy marches the band has never failed to receive recognition. It played at all the home football games and accompanied the team to Shippensburg where it increased its popularity by marvelous drilling and musical abilities. It also played at various pep meetings and at Kiwanis-Rotary Night, and gave an interesting concert on Homecoming Day. It helped to bring the town of Bloomsburg in closer contact with the college by playing in town parades.

The Poetry Club, a recently formed organization, is composed of students interested in the writing and appreciation of poetry.

The purpose of this new organization is to sponsor the publication of a volume containing verse written by members of the faculty and student body, to study the works of modern authors, and to develop among students an appreciation of poetry.

Many worthwhile activities have been carried on, continuing the work which was begun last year by a group of students known as the poetry committee. One of the outstanding accomplishments of the club has been to encourage students to submit their own verse to the club for criticism and suggestions.

Several students have written some very beautiful poetry for the poetry volume.

The Bloomsburg Press Club, a new organization on the campus, grew out of a long-felt need for organization among those doing journalistic work to advance and progress into a deeper study of practical newspaper work. One of its chief objects is instruction and motivation in journalistic procedure, and the earlier meetings of the club were devoted almost entirely to a study of practical problems.

The first project undertaken by the club involved constructive criticism of neighboring high school publications. Most of the schools in the Bloomsburg service area received invitations to submit their publications for criticism, and several of the papers received in response have been marked and returned.

In March the club took over the publicity work of the college, operating as a news bureau. In this work each member was assigned certain stories to write concerning the activities at Bloomsburg, and these stories were then sent to town newspapers.

The making of the 1936 Obiter was a project which required the untiring efforts, time, and perseverance of every member of the staff. So many little details had to be considered as only those who have helped can fully realize. Pleasures had to be forfeited and studies often times neglected. It was a great task which required the complete and unselfish co-operation of every student and faculty member.

With the completion of this book a new and invaluable experience has been received, and a certain satisfaction attained. This was to be had only through the thoughts that we, the 1936 Obiter staff, have successfully attempted to give a written record of memories at Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

named for one of the following: typography, headlines, news stories, editorials, sports, features, and creative literary work. The same association awarded the Maroon and Gold a red ribbon for excellency in the second class of newspapers.

Earlier in the term the Maroon and Gold had joined two collegiate associations, the Associated Teachers College Press, and The Associated Collegiate Press. The benefits derived from membership in both associations did much to help make the Maroon and Gold the best in its history.

More time was spent on preparing the staff for journalistic work this year than in previous years, every reporter having been required to attend an instructional meeting once every week during the first semester and once every month during the second semester. The discussion for the most part was slanted towards preparation of advisors to high school publications.

The paper itself did not change in physical make-up or size, although in content it showed much expansion, especially in coverage. The editorial page took on a more inclusive form, having been made the section for editorials, features, jottings from other colleges, wit and humor, and syndicated material. The sports page stretched into more phases of athletics and became not only the bulletin board of sporting activity but a printed record of all sports contests.

The college paper probably made more advancement this year than any year since its establishment. It has at least marked a definite and rapid advancement towards a more representative college newspaper, and with the election of a capable editor for next year and the continued support of an ambitious reportorial and editorial staff, there is every reason to believe that in another two or three years the paper will be the best in its class.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY TOURNAMENT

North Scranton Junior High won the Class A, and Orangeville High won Class B, in the seventh annual play tournament sponsored by the national dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, in the College auditorium.

This year three high school casts competed in each class, the plays produced representing what most spectators claimed to be the best in the history of the tournament. Costuming, acting, and presentation were judged excellent for all six schools.

North Scranton's winning play was Anton Tchekoff's "A Marriage Proposal." Members of the cast and their characterizations were: William Leveeing, who played Stephen Tscheibukev; Barbara Burns, who play Natalie Stephanovna; Charles Kinsley, Ivan Lomov. Ralph Hodges, an alumnus of Bloomsburg and a member of Alpha Psi Omega, directed the winning play.

Orangeville, in winning in Class B competition, presented Marguerite Phillip's "Pink Geraniums." Members of the cast of this play, and the parts they played follow: Sheldon Hess, as John Barrows; Marie Parsell, Mrs. John Barrows; Berthat Rose Miller, Jessie Wells; Josephine Chamberland, Mrs. Carey; and Max Smith, as Jim Nelson. Mr. C. M. Davis directed the play.

Other schools represented include Hazleton Senior High, Berwick,

Coal Township, Orangeville, and Millville. Alumni members of the local chapter of Alpha Psi Omega who acted as judges were: Miss Karleen Hoffman, Miss Elizabeth Bowman, and Mr. Maynard Pennington.

Mr. Pennington presented loving cups to the winners. Each cup contains the Greek letters of the fraternity sponsoring the contest and the following inscription: "H. S. Play Tournament, B. S. T. C. 1936."

Judges selected the following individual students as outstanding in casts other than those from Scranton and Orangeville: Jane Zimmerman, Berwick; Robert Hand, Coal Township; Margaret Itler, Hazleton; Bernard Taylor, Millville.

Miss Alice Johnston, director of dramatics at the College, and faculty sponsor of the Alpha Psi Omega High School Play Tournament, claims that this year's tournament brought to Bloomsburg the best group of plays ever produced in the history of the contest. Two of the plays, "A Marriage Proposal," produced by Scranton, and "The Boor," produced by Hazleton, were written by Anton Tchekoff, one of the world's greatest dramatists. Others played in the auditorium this year were "Miss Molly," by Elizabeth Gale; "Grandpa Pulls the Strings," by Edith Delano; "Pink Geraniums"; "A Message from Khufu," a play by Stuart Cottman. The plays were well presented.

HIGH SCHOOL INVITATION COMMERCIAL CONTEST

For over a decade, commercial contests among the public high schools of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been sponsored by one of two State Teachers Colleges. At first the State Teachers College at Indiana, Pennsylvania, provided an opportunity for students of business subjects to meet each spring for contests in bookkeeping, shorthand, and typewriting. With the establishment of commercial teacher training work in the State Teachers College at Bloomsburg, the first contest was held May 15, 1931, at which time the following subjects were tested: Gregg Shorthand, bookkeeping, typewriting, business arithmetic, and business law.

High school commercial students, accompanied by their teachers, come from far and near to compete in the contest. They are greeted at the college by the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, who serves as hosts and endeavors to make the visitors' stay a pleasant one.

Gold, silver and bronze charms are given to the students who win first, second, and third places respectively in the various examinations, and a silver loving cup is awarded to the school which sends the most successful team to the contest.

To compete for the commercial cup, a school must enter five students in at least three events.

Detailed rules and regulations are sent out yearly to the different high schools by Harvey A. Andruss, Director of the Department of Commerce.

High school students come eager to take part in the contests, and go away, winners and losers alike, declaring that the day has been a memorable one and well-spent.

The successful high school teams in the past were:

Wyoming	1931
Northampton	1932
Berwick	1933
Latrobe	1934
Collingdale	1935

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

To the many individuals whose cooperation was so essential to the production of this book we, the 1936 Obitier Staff, gratefully acknowledge their support. Punctuality in appearing for individual or group sittings, a kindly word of criticism or advice, a seemingly trivial contribution in some way,—all these are things which only an editor can appreciate.

To the Poetry Club which contributed fragments of verse for campus views, to students who have given of their time and energy without any open recognition, to the administration for the use of various buildings for photography, we extend our appreciation.

We offer many thanks to Dr. Haas, Mr. Hausknecht, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Andruss for well-given advice on financial matters. We thank Mr. Sutliff for the use of his office records.

We owe much to the Community Government Association which has given us a liberal financial contribution that aided us greatly.

Especially do we feel indebted to the various business men and companies who, through their financial support, have greatly helped to make possible this publication. They have been real friends to the college and rightfully deserve its patronage.

Kutztown Publishing Company, Pontiac Engraving Company, Zamsky Studios, Jack Geistwhite Studio, and Reno Bush have all made major contributions for which the Obitier feels no limitations in its expressions of gratitude.

OUR BUSINESS LIFE, by LLOYD L. JONES. A junior business text that recognizes the part played by the individual in business or in economic community life. It deals with the effective and efficient use of the common business services. The foundation which it builds for business-like living also serves as a foundation for further study of business subjects and for work in the business world. Filled with worthwhile student activity, it generates enthusiasm for the course on the part of both the teacher and the student. Can be used with or without the correlated work book. Beautifully printed, profusely illustrated, and unusually readable.

SALESMANSHIP FOR EVERYBODY, by JOHN T. A. ELY, Washington, D. C. and DR. DANIEL STARCH, New York City. A salesmanship text that is well balanced and conforms to modern business situations. Written by a practical salesman and an international authority on advertising and salesmanship. Criticized by an outstanding salesmanship teacher, taught in mimeographed form by several secondary schools, and revised in the light of practical criticisms. References in the field of psychology have been checked by nationally known psychologists. The mechanical features of the book will satisfy the most exacting.

- 2 Salesmanship for Everybody
- 3 An Introduction to Transcription
- 4 Economics — Principles and Problems

AN INTRODUCTION TO TRANSCRIPTION, by ELIZABETH S. ADAMS, The Gregg Publishing Company; and ELEANOR SKIMIN, Northern High School, Detroit, Michigan. This book is a gratifying answer to a long-felt need for constructive material for building usable transcribing ability. For use at whatever point the teacher usually takes up transcription. Provides work each day to supplement the regular shorthand program over a period of about one semester. The short units of beautiful shorthand plates are preceded by clear instructions to the student. In the beginning, attention is called to English pitfalls, but gradually the student is thrown on his own resources in making the transcript. Spiral binding makes the book its own copy-holder.

ECONOMICS—PRINCIPLES AND PROBLEMS, by DR. RUDOLF K. MICHELS, Hunter College, New York City. A timely text which lays a foundation of fundamentals in a timely subject. Every phase of economics, a vitally important subject to our citizens today, is handled in a masterful way. The chapters on "Characteristics of Our Present Economic Society" and "Reform Proposals and the New Deal" bring a most important phase of our economic evolution right up to date. In no course is a late and authoritative text-book more desirable than in economics.

Planning a School Annual

Your school annual will be just as good as the thoughts you put into it and the care and time you take in watching all the details.

Our experience in producing over two hundred of the leading books in Eastern Pennsylvania during the past twenty years, tells us that the average staff does not take the time or have the experience to do this work well without assistance.

We have built up our reputation in this field on our service in helping in every detail to build the annual and to make each book we produce different.

We were glad to have had the privilege of being of some help in this annual and will be more than pleased to discuss plans with next year's staff.

FINIS

Before we have realized it, our college days have passed. The events which constituted Yesterday have become the memories of Tomorrow. Freshman customs, the Pajama Parade, college cheers, big games, social activities—all are but memories. May—Senior Ball—Senior Banquet—Ivy Day—Class Night—Commencement—all symbolize the closing of four memorable years. Grads and under-grads look forward to the time when Youth is king. Age pays tribute to that youth by recalling fond memories and returning to the Alma Mater.

If the 1936 Obitier has enabled you to turn back the pages of time and be transferred to the past and the pleasant scenes of your college days; if it is potent enough to elevate you to the realm of recall; if it can stir up within you that irresistible emotional feeling of things once cherished; then it has been successful in giving to the Bloomsburg students of 1936 an accurate detailed account of student life.

BLOOMSBURG UNIVERSITY

3 2404 00421788 7

An aerial black and white photograph of Bloomsburg University and the surrounding town. The university buildings are prominent in the middle ground, situated on a hillside. A winding road or path is visible in the foreground, leading up towards the campus. The town of Bloomsburg is visible in the background, with numerous houses and buildings. The overall scene is a panoramic view of the university campus and its location in the town.

Far above the river winding,
Midst the mountains grand
Stands our College, dear to students
Far throughout the land.
