JF BLOOM SBURG STRITE TEACHERS COLEGE

Education must fulfill its objectives! We, in America, have set forth the seven cardinal principles as ours. This year, if never before, we must promote them within everyone. We must prepare the future generations to rise above wars and strive for peace and a feasible way of life. It is with this idea in mind that we have planned this 1942 OBITER.

By dividing the OBITER into four main books: Administration, Classes, Activities, and Athletics, we have separated the principles to fall and be developed into their proper order. Under the first book, Administration, we have developed citizenship and ethical character. In the second book, Classes, the two principles, fundamental processes and vocation have been developed. The third book, Activities, develops the two principles, home membership and leisure time. Athletics, the fourth book, represents the principle of health.

DEDICATION

То

MR. SAMUEL WILSON

To you the Class of 1942 extends a hearty thank you and a warm departing handclasp. The torch which you have lighted shall help us to find our way along the dark path of the uncertain future. We shall look upon each little disappointment and failure as a small stumbling block to be overcome by a higher jump and a broader smile. We shall lift our heads and reflect upon your kind guidance, and so, inspired again, we shall resume our struggle.

We have known you as adviser, teacher, gentleman, and friend.

It is only in this way, by dedicating the OBITER of 1942 to you, that we can seek to pay you our highest tribute and show our sincere appreciation of your impartiality, careful guidance, and staunch friendship.

A Message to the Class of 1942:

The quest for certainty is as old as mankind. To make certain an uncertain future is the problem of every generation. Youth is always confused by the process of growing up and the changing of events in the world at large. Each generation feels that its problems are more serious than the previous one and to that extent every generation has a rendezvous with destiny.

Into such a world, we send you with the hope that you will be able to meet the problems of the future as well as you have met those of the last four years.

The first line of defense now and later lies in the strength of the whole nation and Democracy will need to make as great an effort to defend itself AFTER as DURING this war period. Let us reconstruct as we resist and in so doing may you reflect credit upon your Alma Mater, carrying with you the thought that we shall ever be interested in your progress.

Yours for Victory at home and abroad.

Harvey a. andruss

President.

To the Members of the Class of 1942:

The past four eventful years have produced many changes in your lives. You have fortified your character by encountering and conquering what at the time seemed to be unsurmountable difficulties. You have established many friendships, which as the years go by will be counted among your most cherished possessions. Furthermore, and significantly, you have integrated many of your experiences into a pattern of living—a pattern that should make your life continuously useful.

Personally, I am thankful to have had at least a small part in lives so potentially rich. My sincere hope is that regardless of where duty takes you or how greatly you are beset by evils and adversities you will continue to have faith in yourself, faith in your fellowmen, and abiding faith in your God.

Sincerely yours,

Dean of Instruction.

To the Members of the Graduating Class of 1942:

A grave and serious responsibility awaits those of you who graduate as the first "War Class" of the Second World War. Your responsibilities will be directed in many channels, and perhaps your faith in many unquestioned ideals will be shaken. Those of us who remain at Bloomsburg have confidence in you and your ability to meet that challenge.

My best wishes for success go with you and it is my sincere hope that you will all find it possible to return frequently to your Alma Mater.

Cordially yours.

JOHN C. KOCH. Dean of Men.

To the Class of 1942:

Four years of college stretch ahead as a long time to the freshman. To the senior they seem all too short. Like the god of the Romans whose two faces could see in opposite directions, you are looking back over your college life but you are also looking forward to making a place for yourself in the larger world outside. We wish for you the best of everything there. Come back often. You will always find a welcome at Bloomsburg. Happy landings!

MARGUERITE KEHR,

Dean of Women.

The Business Education Curriculum offers training in business knowledge and skill as well as teaching theory and practice. This field not only certifies students to teach but also prepares them for other business voeations.

The department is under the direction of Mr. W. C. Forney and is well-equipped to train teachers and to do pioneer work in progressive education.

College certification may be secured in the following subjects: Bookkeeping and Accounting, Business Writing, English, Commercial and Economic Geography, Commercial Law, Commercial Mathematics, Economics, Junior Business Training, Office Practice, Salesmanship and Retail Selling, Typewriting, Business Arithmetic, and American Government.

Schools co-operating in teacher training are located in Berwick, Bloomsburg, Danville and Williamsport. These schools afford training in such business subjects as: Shorthand, Typewriting, Business English, Law, Arithmetic, Bookkeeping, Filing, Junior Business Training, and Economics.

Apprenticeship teaching means observation of regularly employed teachers, lessons, units of work, and participation of the student as a teacher while under the observation of the training teacher.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Left to Right-Walter Rygiel, Wilbur Ahel, Marguerite Murphy, William C. Forney, Margaret R. Hoke, Mabel Oxford, A. Park Orth This department has set up a system whereby the students gain a great deal of experience in actual teaching situations before regular teaching is begun.

A placement service is carried on by the Teacher Training Department which co-operates with the Placement Service of the Department of Public Instruction in securing places for graduates.

The courses in education which are offered are: an orientation course; psychology: guidance: the theory, history, and philosophy of education: and many teaching techniques.

Mr. William C. Forney and Dr. Thomas P. North have done much to guide students in their selection of courses.

Mr. John C. Koch has lent every effort to the fostering of education in the field of athletics.

Mr. John J. Fisher has been outstanding in the field of phychology. His courses include the principles underlying the valid, reliable objective tests to be given in the classroom; discussion of problems in the learning process; individualized instruction; and the psychological behavior of the human body in relation to social institutions and vocations.

SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS

Many students elect the science and mathematics for their major work. These fields are quite popular with the student body, judging from the large number selecting this combination of subjects.

The Physical Science Department is in charge of Mr. S. I. Shortess who teaches courses in Chemistry and Physical Science.

Dr. Kimber C. Kuster has charge of the Biological Science Department. He teaches courses in Botany, Zoology, Physiology, Genetics and related subjects. Dr. Kuster has won for himself considerable popularity among the elementary and secondary students.

The field of mathematics is in charge of Miss Ethel A. Ransom, Dean of the Day Women, who teaches courses in College Algebra, Mathematical Analysis and Mathematics in the Secondary Field. The Secondary students may choose Geography and Social Studies as two of their fields for certification.

Both fields contain courses which are in many respects closely related and serve the prospective teacher in giving a valuable background of information which may be used in understanding man's relation to his environment.

Instructors in the Social Studies Department are: Dr. Nell Maupin, teaching Modern European History. United States History, Sociology, Origin of Social Institutions, and American Government; and Mr. E. A. Reams, teaching Economics, Political Science, U. S. History, and History of Pennsylvania. MUSIC

The music department does not use formal and standardized teaching methods but rather attempts to bring out the individuality of the students.

Secondary and elementary students may take courses in the history and appreciation of music. An opportunity to continue the study of music under efficient instructors is offered to those who have studied music in its various phases. Private piano instruction may be had from Mr. Morgan while violin and vocal lessons are given by Miss Pauling.

A course has been organized to teach with the least detail the rudiments of rhythm, notereading and performance. The music department owes much to Miss Harriet Moore whose cheerful and willing efforts have gone far to increase the efficiency of this department.

LIBRARY

Miss Pearl Mason, Miss Dorothy E. Gilmore

The library is under the direction of Miss Pearl Mason and her capable assistant, Miss Dorothy E. Gilmore. One of their duties consists of keeping the students informed of the newest and latest in the literary world. In addition to that the librarians are always willing to help any student with his or her particular problem whether it be on some technical question or selection of a novel.

ART

The students of the secondary and elementary curriculums are offered courses in the history and appreciation of art. The elementary field also includes courses which embody the six fundamental principles of art as applied to everyday living.

The superiority of the art department may be directly attributed to Professor Keller's untiring guidance of his art classes. He has endeavored to give his students practice in drawing, lettering, poster making, creative designing, and the use of color.

Another art course is concerned with paper and cardboard construction, modeling, and carving. All of the courses aim to develop sound aesthetic judgment and appreciation of good design in clothes and home decorations.

The Class of 1942 sincerely express their appreciation to their class advisors here at B. S. T. C. The guidance they have given us throughout these four years has required time and patience, but all were very willing to help us.

Ralph Ziyimerman President

FRANK VALENTE Vice President

Four years ago, when the Class of 1942 started out on a new road, we had no idea that so many of our plans would be changed.

We, who are graduating this year, take off our hats to those young men who started out on the new road with us but were unable to go to the end. Some of them left school voluntarily at the first call, but others remained a little longer, hoping that conditions would change that they might finish their education and march proudly to their goal posts. Nevertheless, these men will be back a little later and be able to help the newcomers at B. S. T. C.

It has been through the guidance of our instructors that we have developed a greater interest in education. We extend our appreciation to them.

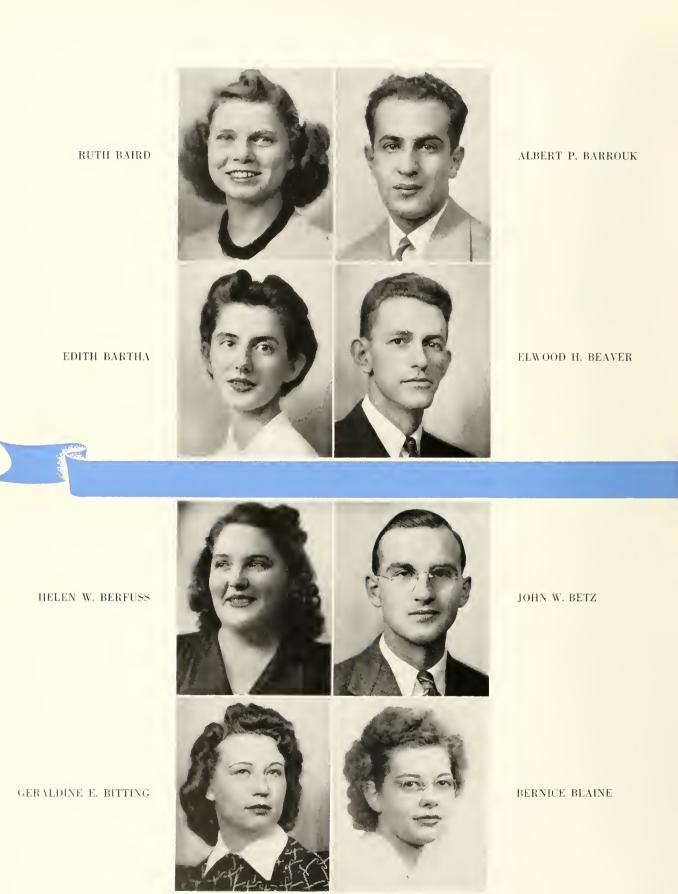

Under the leadership of our Class Presidents Edward Balchunas, Ralph McCracken, Frank Shope, and Ralph Zimmerman we have tried to live up to the standards of our "Alma Mater." Our class is proud to have been able to complete our work at Bloomsburg, and to the Seniors of Tomorrow we extend our best wishes!

The year 1939 saw an increase in the scholastic requirements to graduate from any State Teachers College in Pennsylvania. Prior to this date, students who had completed three years work were granted a limited license to teach. But with the increase of educational qualifications, all teachers were required by law to seek additional credit to be applied toward receiving their Bachelor's Degree. In order not to interfere with their teaching the so-called "teachers-in-service" have arranged with the college administration to have classes conducted on Saturday as well as during the summer.

By the foregoing arrangement a teacher may earn a semester's credit without discontinuing his teaching in any way. The teachersin-service and students completing their work in January have their graduation ceremonies along with the students who graduate in May.

As Juniors at Bloomsburg, we are beginning to realize how much of our college life has already passed and how little time remains to accomplish things. We cannot but feel the refining influence of our college training and sense the co-operative spirit of class and college.

Serving very capably in the various class offices were John Witkoski, president; John Hubiak, vice president; Jean Kuster, secretary; and Ruth Hope, treasurer. Reba Henry and Boyd Buckingham represented the class in the College Council.

When we returned to school this year it was as though things were not the same as they used to be. Some of our friends had already "felt the call." They were doing their part directly for Uncle Sam. We take our hats off to those boys. We take our hats off to those boys, too, who are with us yet doing their part, such as those who are taking the Civil Pilots Training Course. Some of our latest bird men are Boyd Bnckingham, Walter Maslowski, Andy McGill, Don Jenkins, John Hnbiak, and Raymond Algatt. Loren Collins is doing his share in a little different way. He is now a First Aid instruetor.

The responsibilities and contributions of the Junior Class extended well into other fields. More and more students were making a name for themselves. In athletics, the class made itself felt; in football by "Whitey" Maslowsky, George Menarick, and Joe Kozlowsky; in basketball, by Eddie Walinchus, "Whitey" Maslowsky, Bernie Pufnak, and Tony Valente; in soccer, by Elwood Wagner. Girls active in athletics were Catherine Hess, Hazel O'Brien, and Ruth Shonk.

The members of the class of 1944 returned to college in the fall of '41 with an air of confidence and hopefulness. They began their career as upperclassmen by entering enthusiastically into initiating the "green" Freshmen. The entire affair was one of fun and good sportsmanship, and the oppressed "Frosh" became the best of friends with the Sophomores.

The class launched forth under the leadership of Paul Rowlands, who filled the office of presidency. The other officers were Joseph Gillespie, vice president; Elaine Kreischer, secretary; and Edna Snyder, treasurer. Anne Shortess and John Thomas were represen-

At the first opportunity, the Sophomores revealed the hidden talents of various members of the class. This occasion presented itself in the form of a program presented in assembly on December 8. Betsy Smith was general chairman of the program which contained humor, music, and drama.

On February twenty-first came a momentous occasion for the Sophomores, the Sophomore Cotillion. The decorations, in charge of Frederick Dent, were unique and original in portraying the patriotic spirit that per-

The Sophomores were well represented in extra-curricular activities. In the realm of music there is Marjorie Sharrets, Louise Madl, and Marjorie Frey: in journalism, Helen Miller holds the position of Assistant Editor of the Maroon and Gold publication; noted in sports are Walter Kania, Vincent Washvilla, Joseph Chesney, Mario Conte, Carl Robbins; and leading dramatists are Reed Buckingham, Stella Williams, Kenneth Morse, John

This sophomore class has developed traits of sincerity and co-operativeness which are shown in all their activities. Members of the class started their college career together, but due to the introduction of the threeyear attendance plan, they will not all graduate at the same time. But the class spirit and loyalty will not be broken; nor will friendships be severed by this change.

With the fine showing they have made in their two years at the college, we may expect great things of the class of 1944.

On September 24, 1942, the performance, "Freshman Class—1945," had its grand opening at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Registration Day, revealed an interesting and energetic group of young men and women eager to start along the educational path to success.

As scene one slowly fades away into dramatic oblivion, the soft, sweet music of an orchestra, chattering of friendly voices, and the slow shuffling of dancers; feet can be heard in the distance. Then the curtain rolls back for the second time disclosing the freshman reception, which was sponsored by the faculty and the Community Government Association in the old gymnasium, October 4, 1941. The freshmen had an enjoyable eve-

As scene three comes into view, we find the upperclassmen allowing the freshmen to reveal their various talents by presenting a chapel program. Sam Mazzeo was appointed general chairman, and with the aid of all the freshmen, it was soon discovered that they had excellent talent within their group. The outstanding one of them was Louise Adams who demonstrated her ability at the piano.

Then the hot cauldron of "Custom Activities" cracked open with a mighty roar laying bare the many pranks

To everyone on our campus the name Community Government Association means an organization to which every student and every faculty member of this college belongs. The purpose of this organization is to create better co-operation among the students, faculty, and administration.

Four officers, three representatives from each of the four classes, the presidents from Waller Hall, Day Women's Association, North Hall, and Day Men's Association, and faculty representatives compose the College Council. The College Council carries out the executive duties of the Community Government Association.

One of the duties of the College Council is sponsoring the Freshman Reception. At this event the "Frosh" are introduced to the faculty and to the other members of the Association.

> The informal dance held on February 6 was a good example of work done by the social committee for C. G. A.

The Community Government Association can be proud of the fact that it was represented at two large conventions each year. Mr. Beaver, the president of C. G. A., attended the National Student Federation of America at Minneapolis in December.

The College Council attended the convention of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools which is held annually in New York City.

The Governing Board of the Association consists of a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and three representatives from each of the four classes. The various committee chairmen are appointed by the Governing Board. Dr. Kehr and Miss Rich act as advisors to the Governing Board.

The girls have several informal "get-togethers" during the year in the form of floor parties. Singing and eating comprise the "entertainment" of these parties.

The Farmerette Fall Fun Frolic on November 14 for both day girls and dormitory girls was the highlight of the Fall activities.

In December each girl in the dormitory was given the name of a boy or girl for whom she was to buy a gift. The names of these boys and girls were secured from the Bloomsburg chapter of the Red Cross. The gifts were wrapped and delivered by the girls at Christmas time. Although this was a new undertaking, it was a very successful one.

A plan for entertaining the mothers on a special week-end was initiated fast year. Last year's week-end was so successful that the week-end of April 18 and 19 was set aside for the second "Weekend for Mothers."

Last, but not least, on April 17 the dormitory girls and day girls held their annual He-She party. At this party the Governing Board members for 1942-1943 were introduced.

With conditions as they are, North Hall still has a large enrollment. Again North Hall has enjoyed another prosperous year. The war situation has not prevented the men from attending school, although a few men have been patriotic and have joined the armed forces of the United States. The men that joined were Harry Jenkins and Bud Herbert from the class of '42; these men are now second lieutenants in the Army Air Corps. Don Jenkins, a brother of Harry Jenkins, has enlisted in the Army Air Corps. John Maksimuik and Walter Reed are now obtaining their commissions. Danny Brennan is now a mechanic in Hawaii. John Lavelle has enlisted in the Navy. You can see by these patriotic enlistments that North Hall is made up of real men.

Though the Frosh class of '45 came in green it has turned out to be one of the best classes that have enrolled at Bloomsburg. The Frosh were very willing to participate in the various events that took place on the campus. They are dependable, co-operative, loyal, and sincere. All in all, they are a swell bunch of fellows.

This year North Hall had a special privilege of enjoying the companionship of Professor Reams, better known to North Hall men as "General Reams," He keeps North Hall men well informed with information on the present war.

The biggest social events of North Hall are the "smokers" which mark the end of the first semester and the end of the term. Entertainment is provided by the "talented men" of North Hall.

Here's hoping that North Hall will continue in these trying times.

DAY MEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Day Room in the basement of North Hall provides commuters with facilities for studying, smoking, eating, and socializing. Besides the racket from the radio, there is a constant click, click of a ping-pong ball hitting the table. Occasionally, one might find a group gathered about the round table in the southwest corner listening to the tall stories of the day.

Many of the members of the Day Men's Association have won renown in the athletic contests and social activities of the college. Elwood Beaver, president of the Community Government Association; George Menarick and Walter Maslowsky, co-captains of the varsity football team: Ralph Zimmerman, president of the Senior Class; Wilfred Conrad, Editor of the '42 OBITER, and Merrill Deitrich. Business Manager of the '42 OBITER, are members of the association.

Coach George C. Buchheit was the acting adviser during the year.

The Day Women's Association, one of the largest organizations in the college, is composed of the women students living off campus. It was organized in 1930.

The governing body of the association is the Official Board, consisting of ten members, the president, vice president, and two representatives who are members of each of the classes. The representatives hold the positions of secretary, treasurer, and chairmen of the various committees.

The social committee held their annual tea for new freshmen members at the begining of the school term. The first social event for all girls of the college, the Farmer's Fall Fun Frolic, commonly known as the 4-F Party, was held in October. At the annual Christmas party Santa Claus presented each member with a gift. At Christmas time, the members of the association packed Christmas baskets to be distributed to needy families. The organization also made its contribution to National Defense during the Red Cross drive.

At the beginning of the second semester, the Freshmen elected two representatives to the Official Board. The members of the board for the following year were elected in the spring, the results being announced at the annual He-She party held in April by the Day Women's Association and the Waller Hall Association.

The Day Women's Organization has grown during the last twelve years and today has a well-equipped day room and an association which promotes the interests of all women day students. The members are proud of their day room which is spacious and comfortable. Here the girls can find relaxation and social interests. The magazines and radio in the day room afford the girls both diversion and amusement.

The Dramatic Club is one of the oldest and most popular of college activities. This organization provides for student-directed plays to be presented each meeting, followed by the constructive criticisms of the members and director of the club. In this way the students gain poise and ease in appearing before the public. They learn to direct and produce amateur plays. They also gain experience in handling props and stage sets. In order to become eligible for membership in this club, a student must compete successfully in tryouts held by a committee for that purpose under the direction of Miss Alice Johnston.

The club members furnish plays for college affairs and for organizations in the surrounding towns and communities. This year the play. "George Washington Slept Here." was presented to the public. This play with its variety of stage sets and characterizations was a good sample of the kind of work done by the club members. For their spring play the club presented "Pride and Prejudice" on May 8 in the college auditorium. This production caused much comment. for it was the first costume play produced in quite some time.

Each spring service pins are awarded to members who have done outstanding club work during the year. From the dramatic club, members are chosen for Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity. These two awards are considered to be well-earned and worthwhile honors.

A variety of interesting and educational programs earmarked another successful year of the Business Education Club. During the first semester, Mr. Barton, of Bloomsburg, offered colorful slides of "Historic Columbia County." Another outstanding event was a play presented by the Play Production Class under the direction of Miss Johnston. The students returning from Williamsport offered many suggestions and answered pertinent questions regarding their student teaching in Williamsport.

The college social season was opened by the Business Education Club with a colorful "Thanksgiving Dance." Under the direction of Peter Podwika, general chairman, the Old Gymnasium was converted into a woodland splendor complete with wild life and corn stalks.

The annual Christmas party was again especially enjoyable. Miss Sirrocco was general chairman for this event. A number of interesting sound films helped to round out the events of the year.

During the second semester the club became the "entertainers" instead of the "entertained," and successfully conducted the annual Commercial Contests for schools in Pennsylvania—one of the biggest events of the college year. Although the contest is sponsored by the Business Education Club, it is only through the co-operation of the entire Business Education Department that the success of such an undertaking is possible.

After the commercial contests the Club relaxed at their annual picnic. This marked the end of another successful year.

CIVILIAN PILOT TRAINING PROGRAM

B. S. T. C. resumed its interest in flying last fall when twenty of its students enrolled in courses during the first semester under the Civilian Pilot Training Program sponsored by the Civil Aeronautics Authority. The purpose of this program is to train young men in the primary rudiments of flying. Because of the existing world situation, no girls were included in this year's classes. About seventy pilots, including three girls, have been trained under this program and about thirty-three of these pilots are in the Army, Navy, or Marine Air Corps.

During the second semester the program in Bloomsburg was enlarged to include all five of the Civilian Pilot Training courses. This extensive program made it possible for students to complete their courses here in Bloomsburg. There were twenty students enrolled in the elementary course and ten in the secondary course during the second semester.

To make possible the extension of the program, new planes were brought to the local airport. Among these were an army trainer, an instructor trainer, and a five-passenger cabin ship with complete radio and instrument equipment to use in cross-country flying.

With the addition of new courses in the Civilian Pilot Training Program, the college students were given the opportunity of taking advantage of training in one of the very few entirely complete programs offered by colleges in the United States.

Mr. Samuel Bigony, operator of the Bloomsburg Airport, has charge of the flight instruction. Learning to fly holds many thrills, the biggest of which according to students, is the pilot's first solo flight. The location of the college with relation to the Bloomsburg Airport creates a favorable situation for the C. P. T. Program. The Airport, which is within walking distance of the college, is one of the finest of its size in the eastern part of Pennsylvania.

Those students interested in the fields of mathematics, science and geography find in aviation a field for the application of theories already learned.

A goodly number of camera fiends running loose on campus were brought together through the efforts of Stewart Yorks to form what is known as the Photography Club early in November of the present school year. At the first meeting there were thirteen members present and their initial job was to formulate a constitution.

Robert Warrington, program chairman, arranged some interesting programs on various phases of photography. The first of these was a talk by Mr. Dobyns on the elementary factors in photography. The secretary's notes of the lectures were documented and are available to any club member for study or reference.

The club sponsor, Mr. Keller, talked at the third meeting on the "Essential Elements of a Good Picture." There are four essentials: composition or arrangement of the objects in the rectangle, photographic excellence, originality or angle from which the picture is made, and subject.

The two leading photographic supply companies. Agfa and Eastman, offer excellent aids to photography clubs. The Agfa Company has sent the club a group of pamphlets on almost every phase of photography. This material has been placed in the library to be used by anyone who may be interested in the subject. The Eastman Company on one occasion sent an illustrated lecture, "Sceing Things for Keeps."

Photography can be learned only by doing. It is not theory alone, but practice which develops the knowledge of what happens when a picture is snapped or when prints are developed. The club members learn by participating in these activities. One meeting was devoted to developing contact prints. Another consisted of a trip to the Dobyn's Photography Shop to see how the commercial photographer works and how the field of commercial photography operates. The Handbook is a yearly edition reflecting the co-operative efforts of the members of the Community Government Association. Every year this organization sponsors a Handbook Committee whose purpose is to edit a condensed volume of facts about B. S. T. C. This committee works during the spring and summer, collecting and organizing data which depicts the ideals of living at Bloomsburg. This year's committee was headed by Earl J. Harris, who, acting for the Community Government Association, assumed full editorial responsibility for the 1941-42 issue of the Students Handbook. He is responsible for the appearance of this edition and for its editorial policy.

This little volume, appropriately termed the "Freshman's Bible," is a means of assisting the orientation of new students to the customs and routine of college life. Through this handbook, a calendar of events, sports records, constitutions of various campus organizations, and many other bits of useful information are made available to the faculty and students. It is a reference for all members of the college community and depicts their ideals of living and learning.

As the 1941-42 college term draws to a close we find behind us one of the most exciting years in the history of our student publication. Never since the Maroon and Gold was established 18 years ago has it had such an eventful year that affected the life of our College as a whole.

Conscription, war declaration, and college defense preparations dominated the headlines throughout the term giving us a taste of the grim reality and sacrifice that is war.

The staff, under the direction of Mr. S. L. Wilson, Miss Pearl Mason and Miss Ethel Shaw, Faculty Advisers, attempted to bring accurate and interesting accounts of the student reaction toward the many governmental emergency measures, always keeping in mind the motto of the College paper, "The Reflection of Student Opinion."

In addition to the regular work of reporting school events, the Maroon and Gold inaugurated a new branch, the Men in Service Department. It was the duty of this department to keep in touch with our B. S. T. C. students now in the service of their country. Their letters were published and a copy of each issue sent to them.

This closing year finds the student body and school newspaper unified. We have heard the call to action and have not been found wanting.

The Poetry Club presents an opportunity for the student to lorget his every-day cares and really relax in an atmosphere of inspiring and cheerful poetry.

This organization meets once each week at an informal meeting and discusses poems of both the past and present. During the year the members devote at least one program to each of the various types of poetry.

The playing of the record, "The White Cliffs of Dover," proved to be one of the most outstanding programs of the year. Other poems of interest have dealt with the Chinese-their way of living and working.

The aim of the Poetry Chub is to encourage the appreciation of poetry by giving the students the opportunity to listen to it. The motto of the club is "To have great poets, we must have great audiences."

MAROON AND GOLD BAND

The Maroon and Gold Band, organized in 1931, has completed over a decade of service to the Bloomsburg State Teachers College. It is a voluntary organization, and renders service to the College by playing for athletic events and public programs. It also provides an opportunity for students to continue the band work which most of them had begun in the high school.

This year, the band is much reduced in number, as many former members are either in the armed forces of the United States or engaged in other kinds of defense work. In spite of this fact, the Band made a very good showing on the home field during the football season, and accompanied the football team to Shippensburg.

For many years the Maroon and Gold Orchestra has played its part in the life at Bloomsburg, providing music whenever it is called upon to do so. This record includes playing for dramatic performances, banquets in the dining-room, May Day, and appearances at community events in Bloomsburg. It has played several times at the banquet of the Philadelphia Alumni, held every year at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia.

This year the orchestra has been less active than usual, because of the decrease in membership. However, rehearsals have been held regularly, and the orchestra was able to respond when called upon to make its contribution. By providing one more outlet for those who are interested in music, it has filled its small part in maintaining the morale of the nation in difficult times.

MAROON AND GOLD ORCHESTRA

A new organization, the Women's Chorus, was formed in September with a membership of one hundred twenty under the direction of Miss Harriet M. Moore. Following a few rehearsals of art songs. the Chorus began the study of the Christmas cantata, "In Bethlehem," by Kountz. The cantata was presented at the Christmas service in assembly on December 19 with Joyce Lohr as the contralto soloist.

Following the Christmas holidays, the Women's Chorus joined with the Men's Glee Chib in the study of the concert version of the opera "Faust" by Gounod. The opera was presented in the college auditorium on the evening of March 20 with professional soloists.

In the weeks following the concert the Women's Chorus spent their rehearsals in the study of a cappella music.

Folk songs, art songs, college songs, and negro spirituals were studied by the group.

An assembly program consisting of the songs studied was presented December 15, 1941, under the direction of Miss Moore. Miss Louise Adams and Mr. Ralph McCracken were the piano soloists on the program. Miss Jeanne L. Noll and Miss Idajane Shipe were the accompanists.

Following the Christmas vacation, the Men's Glee Club joined with the Women's Chorus in the study of the concert version of the opera "Faust" by Charles Gounod. The opera was presented on the evening of March 20, 1912, with five professional soloists.

OBITER

Wilfred Conrad Editor

We of the Editorial Staff hope that in future years you will open this book, turn the pages, and remember B. S. T. C. as it is today.

May happy memories come to you of some Boh, Joe. Mary. or Betty whom you haven't seen for years but with whom you had such a lot of fun in '42!

If even for a moment you become young again by your memories we shall feel that our efforts were not in vain in trying to make our OBITER a pictorial diary of what went on before the Class of '12 bowed out.

MERRILL DEITRICH Business Manager

Most people say that money makes the world go round, but we found that money made the OBITER of '42 go to press.

Our job was to see that financial support was given in order to thus make our yearbook editorially successful. Everyone on the Business Staff did his part to help willingly and faithfully, as did the seniors, campus organizations, subscribers, and advertisers. We wish to thank all of them.

We hope that you enjoy our book and that in years to come you find it a source of pleasant memories of what went on while the Class of '12 held sway.

Since our entry into the war with the Axis Powers, countless questions have arisen as to just how our nation would face wartime inflation and post-war depression. Controversial discussions on such topies are apt to take place, and so the Public Affairs Forum meets for the purpose of creating a better understanding of important news events.

The forum had during the year an extensive program of weekly meetings designed to bring to its members, through informal discussion and debate, a clearer interpretation of our daily headlines and current events.

With Miss Moore, the elub conducted programs in assembly during the year similar to the Town Hall Meetings of the Air. The purpose of these meetings was to bring about greater unity and to strengthen the morale of our people.

Activities of this nature have been found to be beneficial to the entire student body as well as to the individual.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club was organized in order to promote a general interest in all fields of knowledge as well as to create a better understanding of science. This is accomplished under the sponsorship of Dr. Kimber Kuster.

During the year the club had varied programs that were very interesting. Several films were shown including "The Living Cell" and "Termites." A number of field trips were taken on the campus and in the surrounding community.

Members of the club gave many interesting reports. Dr. Knster led the discussions. At one meeting Dr. Russell gave a very interesting report on rubber and its relation to the present world condition. At the last meeting of the first semester Fred Dent gave an exhibition of hypnotism.

The club resolved to plant at least one tree on the campus during the school year in co-operation with the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.

The Social Usage Club was organized in response to a need for a cultural organization on our campus. In 1940, there were twenty members; today it has an active membership of one hundred and thirty.

That this club is preparing students for the future is an established fact on our campus. It gives them an opportunity to obtain the "polish" which is so essential to those entering the teaching profession.

The members are not only learning points of etiquette, good manners, types of serving, proper dancing, and fellowship, but they are having a good time doing it. The motto, "Enjoy as you learn," is very appropriate.

To aid in the making of social adjustments:

To enrich experience and understanding;

To aid in social service work:

To give pre-service, cultural training to teachers:

To aid in proper evaluations in planning a balance of work and leisure essential to well-balanced living, in college and out;

- To include some type of food service at all meetings, in the course of a year acquiring familiarity with all types of service formal and informal. for serving breakfasts, luncheons, dinners, receptions, teas, buffet suppers, party refreshments;
- To facilitate menu reading, choice of foods and what not;
- To familiarize ourselves with all types of host and hostess work;
- To aid in speech work, judicious thinking, self expression in panel discussions, debate, etc.;
- To sponsor social gatherings of all kinds on the campus;
- To encourage use of library for leisure time reading;
- To offer guidance wherever possible along vocational, educational, health and social lines;
- To promote theater parties, card parties and dancing parties for improvement of the game or the dance.

The object of this organization is, therefore, to provide a new avenue to culture for its members through discussion and practical experience.

As the present college term draws to a close, we find the Student Christian Association of Bloomsburg completing another successful year. This term, more than ever before, found the members united in the desire to realize social and spiritual values in fellowship and wholesome recreational activities through a growing knowledge of God. The year opened with its traditional service in the college chapel to welcome all freshmen. Reverend Wolf, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Bloomsburg, was the speaker. Following his inspiring service, tea was served in the lobby. The Student Christian Association did its best to make the newcomers feel a part of the college community.

As representatives Dora Taylor, Harold Miller and Stella Wilhiams attended the Eagles Mere Middle Atlantic Conference during the week of June 8-15, 1941. These members brought back many new ideas which helped to make the year successful.

The Student Christian Association celebrated the yuletide season with a caroling party which afforded much pleasure to all participating.

The association did its part in welfare work. They gave a generous contribution to the Red Cross. Singing has been an outstanding feature of this year's program. Each Sunday following dinner, the Student Christian Association conducted a song service in the lobby for the benefit of the college student body.

The interest and co-operation shown during the year proved the merging of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. was a success. This club has its place in the memories of all its members. It seeks to attain spiritual values through Christian fellowship and social activities in college life. The new policy started last year of enjoying a social evening once a month has proved an effective means of promoting fellowship among the Student Christian Association.

This organization was started three years ago and has expanded steadily. Its social activities have gone far to promote its popularity among the students. The sending of individual club members to student conferences has given the club some interesting slants on other school group activities. This year's officers have shown splendid co-operation and have fulfilled their executive positions willingly and efficiently.

The Social Service Club is organized for the purpose of serving others.

Each member works on her honor and gives as much time and service as she feels she can afford. The club meets once a month, and it is at that time that each member reports the number of hours she has worked, which, in most cases, far exceeds the number required for extra-curricular credit.

During the first semester of the present year, the club rendered fifteen hours of service to the Bloomsburg Hospital reading to children and eighteen hours of service to the Girl Scouts in office work. Thirty infants' garments and three sweaters were made for the Red Cross. Six scrap books were also completed and given to the local hospital for entertaining children and other patients. The group co-operated with the Bundles for Blue Jackets Committee in sponsoring a concert and collecting clothes to be sent wherever they are most needed.

However, the largest project was the planning, purchasing, packing, and distributing of thirtyfour Christmas baskets to needy families in the community. This project was financed by the Elks Club of Bloomsburg and the Salvation Army.

The work for the semester ended with a campaign to save electricity on the college campus.

Through this organization, the girls make interesting contacts with local social service agencies as well as with people of the community.

The club has an executive council, consisting of the sponsor, the president, the secretary, and three members of the organization, which acts on a project before it is presented to the group.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council was organized in 1937 to create a harmonious relationship among the five professional fraternitics on the campus. The Council also serves to promote educational and social activities on an inter-fraternity basis.

The Council is composed of the counselor, the president, and two representatives of each fraternity. Each officer of the Council represents a different fraternity, and these offices rotate from one fraternity to the other from year to year.

This year, the Council sponsored the annual inter-fraternity social evening on March 7. This event, for the past three years, has taken the place of the inter-fraternity ball of previous years in an effort to provide a more enjoyable affair for every fraternity member. Each member was allowed to bring one guest. The program featured dancing, games, and refreshments.

The Alpha Delta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi, the National Professional Commercial Educational Fraternity, was installed at State Teachers College. Bloomsburg. on May 28, 1935. Business Education students with superior scholastic rating are eligible for membership in the fraternity.

Its aims are to encourage, promote, extend, and create interest and scholarship in business education; to encourage and foster high ethical standards; and to teach the ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

The fraternity each year, co-operating with the Business Education Club, sponsors the Pennsylvania Commercial contest. The winners of this contest receive their prizes from the fraternity at the annual spring banquet. The group has also published the Pop magazine. However this year, in view of the world conditions and rising costs, the members have voted to eliminate the magazine from its list of projects.

The program committee, led by Elwood Beaver, worked hard to place the programs on a high educational plane. Dora Taylor, Irving Gottlieb, and Mr. Rygiel worked with him.

The main topic discussed throughout the year was the status of education, particularly business education, in the post-war period in which the students of today will be teaching. More stress was laid on the fraternity's aims.

Nine members were initiated this year, five of whom were voted in as sophomores last spring. The total membership of Alpha Delta Chapter at the end of this school year is approximately one hundred fifty.

Officers for 1941-42 are as follows: President, Roberta Hastie; Vice President. William Smith: Secretary, Aleta Stiles; Treasurer, Burnis Fellman; Historian, Erma Wolfgang. Miss Murphy and Mr. Forney are co-sponsors.

In addition to those working on the program committee the following members have charge of fraternity activities: Membership Committee—Claire Sirrocco, Chairman, Hazel Chappell and Frank Taylor; Nominating Committee—Ruth Snyder, Chairman, Joanna Fice, and John Hubiak: Social Committee—James Davies, Chairman, Harriet Love, Jack Mertz. The Gamma Beta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi has been one of the most active organizations of its kind on the campus of Bloomsburg since its installation on February 21, 1931. A National Honor Society in Education, the fraternity is immediately concerned with establishing and promoting high intellectual, scholastic, and social standards. It maintains a high degree of professional fellowship among its members, honors achievement in educational work; it has accelerated professional growth.

Membership in the fraternity is extended to those junior and senior men and women who rank in the upper quartile of their classes, and who, at the same time, display commendable personal qualities and worthy educational ideals.

During the first semester, the fraternity activities consisted chiefly of amending our constitution, with special reference to the National Council. On February 23, 24, and 25, our counselor, Dr. Maupin, represented our chapter at the National Convention of Kappa Delta Pi, held in San Francisco, California.

Miss Rachel Turner, a former Bloomsburg faculty member, and charter member of Gamma Beta. this year presented the fraternity with the complete history of the national organization, a most valuable contribution to our fast-growing library. Along with this, Dr. Maupin presented the fraternity with a scrap book to be used for the collection of photographs and letters of outstanding educators, particularly those who are members of the Laureate Chapter.

Those members of the fraternity who will be graduated this year, extend sincere good wishes to the undergraduate members who will carry on actively for Gamma Beta.

The purpose of the fraternity is to increase professional interest in geography, to strengthen student and professional training, to advance the professional status of geography as a cultural and practical subject for study, and to administer a loan fund for fraternity members who wish to study further in the field of geography. At the present time, there are more than fifteen hundred members in the national organization.

This year three members were initiated into the fraternity: Loren Collins, Andrew Magill, and Lawrence Doster. Dr. H. R. Russell. the faculty adviser, has the distinction of being National President of Gamma Theta Upsilon.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON

The first major activity of the school year took place in November when Gamma Theta Upsilon members presented a series of discussions before the International Relations Group of the American Association of University Women of Bloomsburg on the geographic basis of the present conflict.

In January, alumni members from the surrounding communities were present at the monthly meeting when the formal initiation was given to the new members. Gamma Theta Upsilon, co-operating with the other fraternities on the campus, made the annual Inter-Fraternity Social Evening a success.

The last meeting of the year was held in the form of a banquet to which all active and alumni members of Delta Chapter were invited.

Alpha Psi Omega, the honorary dramatic fraternity, is the largest one of its kind in the United States. The local chapter, Alpha Omicron, is the oldest established chapter of any fraternity on the campus.

The school year, 1941-1912, proved to be a very busy and interesting one for the fraternity. The first event of the season was a reception and tea for the Carolina Players. Several members of the faculty and the Dramatic Club aided the fraternity in making this reception a success. This dramatic group, the Carolina Players, gave an excellent performance in presenting "The House of Connelly" for the college students and the townspeople during October.

The fraternity initiated new members, conducted regular meetings, and held several parties at the "Frat House"—the name given to Miss Johnston's apartment. One of the customs of the fraternity is to hold a Christmas Party in the "Frat House." This year, as always, it was one of the high-lights of the season's activities.

The play, "George Washington Slept Here," was sponsored by the fraternity and was presented with the aid of the Dramatic Club on the evening of January 30. A large audience of townspeople and college students enjoyed the play.

Several high schools asked questions concerning the Play Tournament and stated that they would like the fraternity to continue this event. Because of the fact that the tournament has always been a success, the members of the fraternity decided to continue to sponsor the annual Play Tournament, which is usually held in the Spring. At the annual meeting of the chapters of the Alpha Psi Omega, Alpha Omicron received a cup for having present the largest cast traveling the greatest distance.

Alpha Omicron was represented by its director. Miss Alice Johnston, at the meeting of the National Cast of Alpha Psi Omega. This meeting is held every five years to discuss the work and the policies of the fraternity.

With its growing activities Alpha Psi Omega is playing an increasingly important role in the College.

Phi Sigma Pi, the only All-Men's Fraternity on the campus, was organized at Bloomsburg State Teachers College on the 26th of April, 1930. Since that time, the fraternity has won for itself a high place among under-graduate professional education organizations on the campus.

The basic principles of Phi Sigma Pi are three. The first of these is Knowledge. Others may get along on a small fund of knowledge, but the teacher must accumulate a vast amount, not only for his pupils' sake, but for his own as well. Knowledge is the first great essential of success. The second principle is Training. Members of Phi Sigma Pi have acquired the power and the knowledge to teach their fellow men the finest and best things which the race has achieved in all the experiences of the past centuries. The third principle is that of Fellowship. It is an end in education, as well as one of the virtues of our fraternity, for education is narrow and unethical unless it includes that fellowship through which self-improvement goes out to others. Based on these three principles, Phi Sigma Pi requires outstanding qualities of leadership in its members, both in the professional and social life on the campus.

At the first regular meeting of the year, in October, the fraternity was given an interesting address by Mr. Wilbur J. Abell, the most recent addition to our faculty. In November, the following were initiated as new members of the fraternity: James Davies, Francis Thomas, Winton Laubach, Raymond Algatt, Joseph Gillespie, George Smith, and Paul Rowlands. In January, following the close of the first semester, Mrs. North again proved that she makes the best oyster stew and hot rolls in the region, when the group was entertained at the home of Dr. North. As an extra treat that night Mr. Joseph R. Bailer gave an interesting address on his experiences in Turkey. In March, the Phi Sigs held their annual theater party, to which the "Auxilliary" was invited. Always ready to co-operate, Phi Sigma Pi was very much on hand at the annual Inter-Fraternity Dance which was held in March.

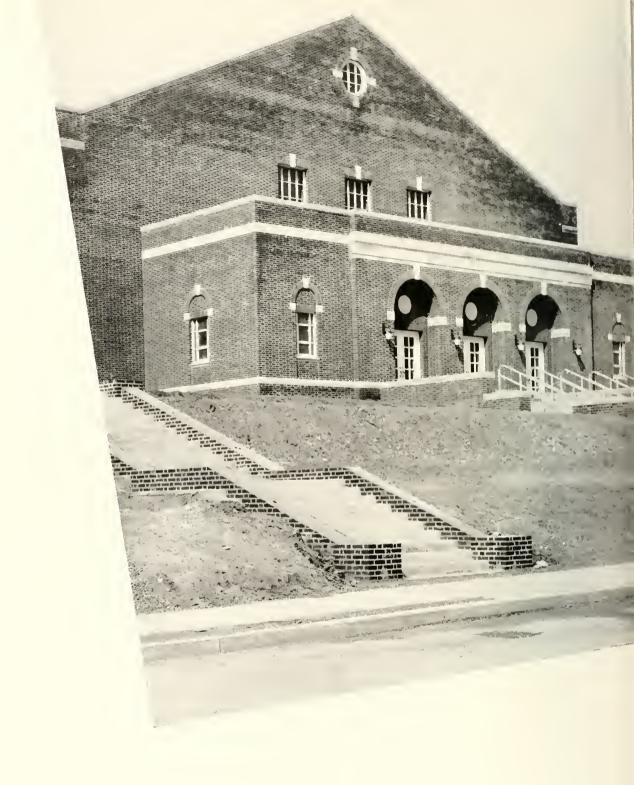

Always the high-light of our social activities, the Annual Founder's Day Banquet was held in May. Following a delicious dinner, the boys were all ready to look back with fond memories on a happy, successful year and forward to a new and better one.

ATHLETICS

Because the first two contests were cancelled by the late start of the college year, the Bloomsburg State Teachers College gridiron eleven played an abbreviated five-game schedule winning over Kutztown and dropping the remaining four.

Head Coach George Buchheit and his aides, Assistant Coach Frank Kostos and Student Coach Bob Martin, fielded an eleven that packed plenty of weight but lacked experience. Several promising freshmen, possessing a record of past high school experience, gained first-string berths on the Husky unit. Three senior members of the small twenty-one man squad. John Shlanta, Len Herr, and Stan Schuyler, received offers from several National Professional League clubs for tryouts.

Inaugurating their 1941 season the Huskies were pinned via a 26-0 verdict by Mansfield. In the first night football game in the history of the college, the B. S. T. C. gridsters lost a 27-0 decision to the powerful Lock Haven club on the Bloomsburg Athletic Field. Leaving for Shippensburg the following week, the Maroon and Gold footballers were soundly trounced by a formidable outfit, 42-0.

Despite the inclement weather, many hundreds of alumni returned on Homecoming Day, November 1, to watch the Huskies chalk up their first

George Menarick, junior tackle, was elected honorary captain at the conclusion of the season. Although the 1941 Husky soccer edition failed to meet the record of last year's elub, another successful season was turned in by "Pete" Wisher's boys in winning two and losing four. Two of the defeats were by one-goal margins.

In his three years as coach of the soccer team, Wisher has done a splendid job. Many of the boys on the three clubs had never previously played soccer, but under the direction of Wisher the inexperienced lads learned fast. Next season the college will be without him, and to find a mentor as good as "Pete" will be no easy task. Wisher has joined the United States Navy.

Because of the two weeks delay in the beginning of school, the Huskies entered the West Chester game with less than a week of practice. Piling up a big early lead the Purple and Gold clad team won the game, 4-2. Down 4-0 in the last period, the Huskies showed plenty of fight by scoring twice with Hartman, a newcomer to the varsity, and Niles, a cross country runner, doing the booting. West Chester played a strong schedule last year including games with Penn. Duke, and Ursinus.

The East Stroudsburg fracas was the worst of the year so far as the Huskies were concerned. The big rugged Red team from the Poconos, which also played a strong schedule, opened fast with three goals in the first period and the same number at the finish with a score sandwiched in between to win, 7-0.

SOCCER

Leading until the last few minutes of play, the booters were robbed of their first victory when Lock Haven's Bald Eagles came through with a 3-2 win. The first half resulted in a scoreless kicking duel with both teams taking the offense at various times. Wagner and Hendricks booted goals for the Huskies to open the third period, and Kosteman kicked one for the Bald Eagles. Then the Havenites added two in the last period to clinch the verdict.

At Elizabethtown the Huskies came through with their first victory by scoring a grand slam 4-2 decision. Patterson and Wagner switched their center halfback and center positions and apparently the change paid dividends. Patterson kicked two goals in the first period, one a penalty kick. Collins Wanich, a freshman. and Patterson added goals in the last quarter.

Apparently used to the winning ways, Wisher's boys opened the homecoming season by downing Ithaca College, 3-1. Patterson again led the seoring parade, kicking goals in the first and second quarter.

The final game at Lock Haven was another one-goal loss for the Maroon and Gold soccermen. Taking the field only three hours after leaving Bloomsburg, the Huskies took the lead on Wagner's long boot in the first quarter. The Bald Eagles eame back and tied it up, took the lead in the second period, and kept it to win, 2-1. Although not included as an official contest, the scrimmage at State College was one of the highlights of the season, the Lions winning, 2-1. Penn State had gone sixtyfive games without a loss until the defeat by Army late last fall. Patterson scored for the Huskies.

Patterson led the team in scoring by booting five goals over the six-game schedule. Hartman and Wagner were tied for second, each having counted twice. C. Wanich, Hendricks, and Niles each scored once. Yeany headed the assist column.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach George C. Buchheit's Huskies flashed through another bang-up season. When the smoke cleared away at the end of a hard-fought campaign Bloom's courtmen came out fourth in the race for the mythical basketball championship among the state teachers colleges. Because many of the western teams do not play the eastern colleges, the standings can only be figured upon a percentage basis, and it is for this reason that a crown won by any teachers college is purely mythical.

Lanky Joe Chesney, who is rapidly developing into a high scoring center, led the 1942 edition of the Husky basketeers in scoring. He tallied forty-five field goals and nineteen one-pointers for a mark of one hundred nine. Runner-up in the point total was Slim Herr, veteran senior forward. During the season, Herr swished the net forty-six times from the field and bagged thirteen fouls for a total of one hundred five points. Not too far behind him comes his roomie, Wally Walinchus, who whipped the cords for forty field goals and nineteen fouls for ninety-nine points. A great deal of credit is due to the other varsity men, "Whitey" Maslowsky, Bernie Pufnak, Tony Valente, and Frank Valente, who helped keep the Huskies in the running.

There will be quite a marked change in the personnel of next year's team. Two seniors, "Slim" Herr and Frank Valente, will be lost through graduation. The other sharp-shooting forward. Wally Walinchns, will probably be playing basketball for Uncle Sam next year. Besides being a top-notch player Wally was also a good team man and he took over Bill Kerehusky's job of holding the team together when the going got tough.

When Coach Buchheit issued the 1942 "call" twenty-two stalwarts including nine members of last year's squad reported as candidates. Four of the "first five" on last year's squad returned, Bill Kerchnsky being the only one whose college basketball had ended because of graduation.

In their opener against the Alumni, the Iluskies got off to a good start and swamped the grads to the tune of 50-20, Walinchus headed the scoring parade with fourteen points. In their first official game the Husky floormen downed the Bald Eagles of Lock Haven, 35-33. Bloomsburg then put in a bid for state recognition in subduing a highly touted Millersville band 52-48. The next victim of the Husky attack were the Cumberland Valley boys from Shippensburg who tasted defeat by a 44-32 score. The Huskies then enrolled their fourth straight conference success of the season against the Mansfield teachers by a 58-46 score. The Cumberland Valley boys from Shippensburg were again the victims of the sharpshooting Huskies who took them over the hurdles by a 45-32 score. Then the B. S. T. C. winning streak of five conference games came to a halt as they were overshadowed by Millersville, 63-59. In the next game against Lock Haven the Huskies again found themselves and turned in their sixth mythical teachers college triumph, 41-37. In the best game that has ever been played in the local gym the B. S. T. C. courtmen lost a heartbreaker to the East Stroud quintet that featured the mighty "Pistol Pete" Pasko. The result of the game was not certain until the final bell which found Strondsburg on top by a 48-47 score. The next day after the hard fought Stroud game the Huskies traveled to the northern part of the state and were defeated 51-43 by a much improved Mansfield quintet. The next week the B. S. T. C. cagers traveled to East Stroud and got their worst trimming in three years by a 55-30 score. In the final game the Huskies played their first game in the new gym and defeated West Chester 44-40 to the delight of a crowd of more than 1,000 who turned out for the opening of the new $300,000 gym.

J. V. BASKETBALL

Coach Buchheit can feel sure of some good nuclear material for next year's basketball squad. Although the Husky Pups did not go undefeated this season as they did in the 1940 and 1941 seasons they, nevertheless, had a successful year. Carlisle, Solack, Washvilla, Bomboy, and Shearer were the big five who bore the brunt of the attack. Ed Solack, the acting captain, was the only senior on the team, and he did a mighty good job for his first year of competitive basketball. Much credit is also due to Bill Swinesburg, Harry Reitz, Phil Yeany, Jim Lavelle, Elwood Wagner, Francis Brennan, Jim Zweizig, Ed Deleski, Mario Conte, and Lester Conner, a group of boys who put a lot of time and energy in practice.

BASEBALL

Dr. Nelson's B. S. T. C. baseball nine, usually the possessor of one of the seasons best won-lost records, fell far below par this season when Maroon and Gold diamondmen were victorious in only three games while being beaten in seven.

The Bloomsburg tossers got off to a bad start as they lost to a superior Stroudsburg club 16-1 in the season's opener. The Huskies following this setback were the victims of four other beatings before they rallied to win their first one of the year in subduing Kutztown 7-2. A win over Mansfield brought the winning streak to two straight but it was short-lived, for the Huskies were beaten by the Danville Hospital and Millersville before they again entered the win column with Lock Haven the victim.

Walter Maslowsky, southpaw Hingh Niles, and Bill Wanick did the majority of the work on the mound for the B. S. T. C. nine all season.

The jayvee baseball unit split a two game series with the Bucknell Junior College aggregation, losing the first 14-4 but taking the last game 4-0.

The 1942 schedule promises to be one of the toughest in many years and with a goodly number of the men back the Huskies should return to their usual winning ways.

Unbeaten for the past six years in twenty-two consecutive dual meets, the Bloomsburg State Teachers College track unit kept their perfect slate intact, humbling East Stroudsburg, Shippensburg, and Bucknell by impressive scores. The scheduled meet with Lock Haven was cancelled by the Bald Eagles during the season.

In all three engagements, the Huskies were outstanding in the distance runs, sprints, weights, hurdles, and javelin events. The most sweeping B. S. T. C. success was the routing of Shippensburg by the Huskies 89-37. Under the capable direction of Coach Buchheit the Huskies turned out some of the best men to ever don the Maroon and Gold einder attire.

Besides their accomplishments in dual meets, the Huskies blazed their way to further laurels and glory by winning noteworthy places in the annual Penn Relays, which each year draw the finest collection of track stars in the country. George Spontak entered the 400-meter hurdles and after qualifying, came in for a fifth place. Don Jenkins was also an entrant in this event and he placed fourth in the trial, but did not qualify for the final round.

Dan Bonham, outstanding Husky weight-man, competed against the best of large colleges and universities and he gained a fifth in the discus and came up with a rousing third spot in the javelin event. Additionally, the crack senior performer during the summer months entered the National A. A. U. Championships at Philadelphia. Bonham, competing in the all-star field, won a third place in the discus in the Junior A. A. U. meet and following this he gained more glory by copping a fifth position in the Senior circuit of the Championships. This is a remarkable accomplishment and the first time any B. S. T. C. trackman has gone so far in the sport.

After winning the state teachers track title for four straight years, the Huskies lost the crown to West Chester in the annual meet. The West Chester champs compiled $761\frac{1}{2}$ points while the Huskies followed a close second with $591\frac{1}{2}$ markers.

Varsity lettermen were: Dan Bonham, honorary captain; Doster, Egroff, Hubiak, Jenkins, Kania, Niles, Reed, Spontak, Washvilla, and Jack Shortess, senior manager. Jayvee awards: Conner, Conte, Houseknecht, Hendricks, Housousky, Rabb, Tomlinson, Turini, Wagner, and Wearne.

State Teachers Meet:

West Chester 76¹2, Bloomsburg 59¹2, Cheyney 27, East Stroudsburg 21¹2, Shippensburg 21¹2, Millersville 3, Lock Haven 1.

A record of three won and two lost was posted by Deau Koch's racquet wielders for the season of 1941. Although the Huskies did not win as many as in 1940, they displayed a good brand of tennis. A one-point loss to Millersville kept the campaign from being an excellent one, so far as the won and lost record is concerned.

The schedule was somewhat curtailed because of rain. By an odd coincidence, the sextet did not see action against Mansfield. Both here and at the northern tier institution the matches were postponed because of inclement weather.

At East Stroudsburg the Huskies won an easy victory, 7-2, taking four out of six of the singles and all of the doubles. After Fellman and Gillespie had won their doubles match, the Big Red forfeited the next two. The pairs of Witkowski and Walinchus, and Sharretts and Miller were each leading in the initial sets when the Pocono boys gave up.

TENNIS

The Huskies made it two straight by copping a close match from Shippensburg, 5-4. In the singles, Witkowski and Walinchus led off with victories, and Fellman lost. Gillespie came back to win two straight sets, but Sharretts and Miller each lost to tie up the match at 3-3. Witkowski and Walinchus won their doubles match, but Fellman and Gillespie dropped theirs to knot the count again. Then Sharretts and Miller teamed up to take two out of three sets from their opponents, making the final count read 5-4.

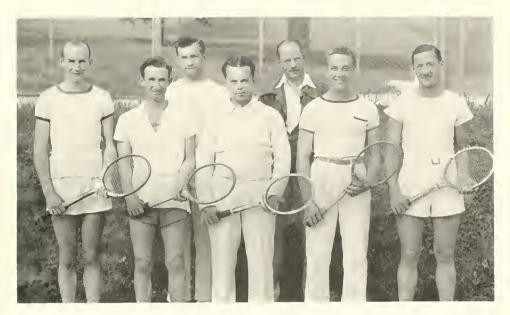

Losing by a score of 8-1 at West Chester, "Prof." Koch's boys played their worst contest of the season. The only match won was in the singles division.

The second game of the road trip saw the sextet come back with a bang to hang up a 7-2 win over Kutztown. Getting off to a fast start, Walinchus, Witkowski, Fellman, Gillespie, and Sharretts each won his match in two sets and the Iluskies led. 5-0. Miller then lost by a close score. In the doubles division, Witkowski and Walinchus and Fellman and Gillespie won while Sharretts and Miller lost.

Millersville took a scant 5-4 decision by winning three of the singles and two of the doubles. Fellman, Miller, and Sharretts won for the Huskies in the singles division, and Fellman and Sharretts copped a victory in the doubles.

Not included in the won and lost column of this summary was an easy triumph over the Alumni.

Excluding the West Chester affair. Joe Gillespie led the team in the singles division with three wins and no losses. Walinehus. Fellman, and

Sharretts each had a three and one record. In the doubles section, Walinchus and Witkowski teamed up to post three victories and one defeat. The pairing of Fellman and Gillespie netted two wins and one defeat to rate second.

Varsity awards went to John Witkowski, Eddie Walinchus, Burnish Fellman, Joe Gillespie, Ed Sharretts, and George Miller.

Junior varsity awards were given to William Boothe, Angelo Melito, and William Horvath.

"B" CLUB

When a girl walks down the hall proudly displaying a maroon and gold B on a white sweater, she is announcing to the world that she is a member of the "B" Club. Most of the people in this school don't know what the "B" Club is, or what it does. For their information—the "B" Club is the college girls' athletic association. To be entitled to membership, a girl must earn at least one thousand points in individual activities, such as tennis, hiking, and skating, in team activities, such as basketball, baseball, soccer, volleyball, and in official events.

As for importance—the "B" Club both helps to publicize the school, and tries to improve the health of the co-eds through exercise. This year the club sponsored hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball seasons, and ran shuffleboard and tennis tournaments. The girls took up archery with renewed enthusiasm after having a lesson from an archery expert in chapel. New equipment and a range has been provided for the archery enthusiasts.

For the club meetings the girls try to plan active programs. One meeting was a sleighing party, one a swimming party and another a weiner roast. In March the "B" Club entertained the freshman girls at a party. The evening was spent in playing volleyball, pingpong, relays and dancing. "B" Club members and past members also demonstrated their love of camping at two week-end trips to Eagles Mere.

The club handles all concessions at all the football games, basketball games and at May Day.

The largest single project of the year is Play Day, sponsored by "B" Club girls for visiting high school girls. On that day the "B" Club members organize the high school girls into squads which compete against one another in both individual and team activities. The girls have a choice of individual sports, such as tennis, pingpong, shuffleboard, horse shoe pitching, darts, and broadjumping. In the afternoon squads compete against one another in relays, volleyball, and baseball. At the end of the play day program the squad scores are announced and the members of the winning squad are rewarded with lollipops. In this way "B" Club tries to introduce potential college students to the college and to its athletic facilities.
