DEDICATION

DOCTOR KIMBER KUSTER

We the Class of 1946 dedicate this, the Thirtieth Obiter and Second All College Year Book to:

DR. KIMBER KUSTER

Soldier, Scholar, Teacher, Friend

Because-his personal experiences in another war fitted him so well to guide us in these troubled years.

Because-his teaching and personality early challenged us with the dignity of college work.

And Because-of his deep and genuine interest in all we said and did.

FOREWORD

Edtucation is the hope for world peace. It is our privilege as teachers to guide the thinking of the generation, and thus insure this blessing to humanity.

This book, symbolic of our college days aspires to carry the message of the school into places where we are called to serve.

CARVER HALL

We come by a broad and shaded street to the Fountain. Beyond, the college looks down with the morning sun over the town from which it takes its name to a distant river and a dark rampart of hills.

W'e mount the steps to Carver Hall, oldest of college buildings that holds the memories of music, of drama and commencements.

WALLER HALL

Beyond the lions, across the broad and sloping lawn is Waller Hall, dormitory home of girls, the dining hall and the office "nerve center." of the school.

NOETLING HALL

To the left of the lawn before Waller Hall, we find Noetling Hall with its classrooms, the library and the haunt of day room girls.

SCIENCE HALL

Had we turned left at Carver Hall and passed through the Pinery we would have come across another broad lawn to Science Hall and back of that a grove of stately oaks that sereens the green house and service buildings.

NORTH HALL

We climb higher and cross the driveway beyond which are tennis courts and North Hall, dormitory home of men.

NAVY HALL AND BENJAMIN FRANKLIN TRAINING SCHOOL

Then on to Navy Hall, to Benjamin Franklin Training School, one of our professional centers.

CENTENNIAL GYMNASIUM

Then the hilltop with its broad playing field and the magnificent Centennial Gymnasium with its beautiful blue pool, its playing courts and classrooms.

The last bits of the setting sun rest lightly upon the hill while below the shadows gather under the trees and among the college buildings.

Facts On Campus

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Figures of eagles formerly stood in the place now occupied by the lions. The lions were in the space above, where the lights now stand. Several workmen complained that it did not seem proper that the English lion should stand above the American eagles. This raised quite a controversy, so the eagles and the lions changed places. In time, the broad wings of the eagles were broken off, and the eagles were replaced by the lights.

A fountain, given as a class memorial, once stood on the lawn of front campus. A lovely garden in front of the fountain, with flowers planted to form the letters B. S. N. S., was a distinctive feature of the campus.

The first athletic field is now the site of Science Hall. A portion of the second field can be seen by Navy Hall. Mt. Olympus is our third athletic field.

The first manual training room was situated in what we now call the dining room "wing."

That white building known as the isolation hospital was originally an ice house, in which ice cut from the river was stored. It was then enlarged, and called the "pest house", for treatment of persons having contagious diseases.

The queerly-shaped hump in the back of Nouth Hall was the first water reservior on the campus. During the days when B. S. T. C. was a Literary Institute, it served as storage space for water which flowed down from the hills. It was then used as a storage place for potatoes.

A fire in 1875 destroyed the dormitory building which was replaced by the present Waller Hall. There was also a serious fire in North Hall in 1904. The latter building at that time housed the college laundry, the music department, and the chemistry laboratory.

The Home Economics Department was located in the place now occupied by the Social Rooms and kitchen of Science Hall.

The fourth face of the Carver Hall clock is much higher than the others. It was placed at that height so that persons in the dormitory could see it.

Facts On Campus

The first training school was a small, one-story building and stood where the Memorial Pinery is now.

Following the Spanish-American War, many Cuban students enrolled at Bloomsburg. One of these persons, Dr. Jose Osuna, later became the head of the University of Puerto Rico.

A member of the first graduating class of this institution was head of it for twenty-seven years-Dr. Waller.

Mr. Noetling, who was head of the department of pedagogy, was a writer and the author of a book on education at a time when such works were rare.

A dean of women was once dismissed because of her ardent belief in spiritualism.

Eileen Falvey.

Alma Mater

If hurrying years have dim'd past Or busy life made you deplore The joyous days of youth, let's cast Amid the scenes which we shall greet, Let's live again with youth now here They play our games, our classes meet;
"Youth must be served," give them a cheer.
Once more I climbed the hill
To see those ivyed walls
That welcomed me, and still
Fond mem'ry to me calls
The forms, the voices of the past.
Here at "Old Bloomsburg," dear to all
Whose pleasant lot was cast
Amidst her friendly halls, recall
The days of youth, the happy past
And feel the thrill of present days
For here the friendly spirit stays.
William Boyd Sutliff.

HARVEY A. ANDROS
President

Greetings to Seniors of 1946:
Peace is here.
Pearl Harbor is a date in recent history.
Since war is made in the minds of men, it is there that the defenses of peace must be constructed. The teacher has a grave responsibility, since liberty is not only our heritage, but a conquest for each generation.

May the Spirit of Bloomsburg continue through you to construct defenses of peace in the minds of men.

President.

To the Membirs of the Ciass of $19+6$ :

In the past four years you have witnessed through the mechanical inventions of our men of science the greatest changes ever experienced in the history of mankind. Dynamic and terrifying forces have been released. Distance has been dwarfed. Unknown and far away places have become but a few hours apart. Yet with all these technological developments, men are still but babbling strangers, distrustful of each other and spiritually far apart. Thus we have a new frontier in the education and an exciting challenge for you of the Class of 1946.

As you go forth to work as teachers, we hope that what you have leaned here at Bloomsburg will be of immeasurable value to you in preparing the younger generations to utilize the new discoveries of science for the common good of man. The peoples of this dwarfed world must learn to dwell together in peace and comfort. This truly is a great challenge and worthy of your best efforts.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS P. NORTH
Dean of Instruction

MARGUERITE KEHR
Dean of W"umen

To thi Class of 1946:
You have had the unusual experience of going through college in time of war and now you are the first class to graduate into a post-war world. Your work as teachers in such a world will demand knowledge, human understanding and a strong, adventurous spirit. We hope and believe that you have what it will take. Best wishes for your success and happiness.

> Sincerely yours,

Marguerite Kehr,Dean of Women

THE DEANS

To the Membrrs of the Senior Class or 1946:

As our college campus returns to normalcy and as familiar faces rejoin their college classmates, it is extremely pleasant to have the opportunity of extending a warm word of greeting to you. To those who leave us this year, good luck and best wishes. Remember that those of us who remain at Bloomsburg will be glad to see you whenever you can find it possible to return to the scenes of your undergraduate days.

Education

Because education is the hope for world peace, college students need expanding cultural background and basic attitudes. To gain these, courses are offered in orientation, guidance, psychology, philosophy and teaching techniques. The education department has directed all practice teaching. They have presented actual school situations so that seniors might gain self-confidence and the ability to teach.

In order to help students leaving Bloomsburg there is a placement service administered by Mr. Joseph R. Bailer. It is through this service that graduates find their place in the profession.

Business Education

More than ever before, the business world needs trained leadership. Bloomsburg specializes in business training. A student who completes his work in business education has been trained in the following subjects:

| Bookkeeping and Accounting  Business English | Commercial and Economic  Geography |
| :--- | :--- |
| Commercial Law | Commercial Mathematics |
| Business Writing | Junior Business Training |
| Economics | Office Practice |
| Shorthand | Typewriting |

Salesmanship
The high schools of the surrounding communities, Berwick, Bloomsburg, Danville, and Williamsport have cooperated with the business education department to give the students a chance for practical application of their subject matter and theory courses. The Bloomsburg graduates have an enviable record in their profession.

Health Education

During the recent wartime years college students have become increasingly conscious of the importance of health. The Health Education Department gives students opportunity to train themselves so they might further the health of the community in which they teach.

During the war years the physical education directors trained Navy men. With reconversion to peace time activities intercollegiate sports are being stressed as well as a physical education program in the training school.

Working with the physical education directors is the resident nurse, Miss Beatrice Mettler. In addition to her duties as nurse Miss Mettler conducts classes in hygiene.

 Ntamding-Mr, Fellstemaker, Mr. Bailer, Mr. Wilsm.

Language

Language is one of the strongest tools of the teacher. The language department is under the direction of Samuel L. Wilson. In this department training is given in French and Spanish as well as the subjects offered in English. English courses offered are: English Composition, English and American Literature, Advanced Composition, Children's Literature, Journalism, Shakespeare, Short Story, Teaching of English and Handwriting and Library Science.

The speech work of this department is conducted by Miss Alice Johnston. Courses offered in speech work are: Fundamentals of Speech, Phonetics, Speech Correction and Speech Clinic, Voice and Diction, Play Production.

Misk Kamsm, Dr, Kinster, Mr. Wamer, Mr. Shartess

Science and Mathematics

College students are entering a new and more scientific era which requires alert and accurate minds. The science and mathematics departments have given excellent training and preparation for work in the future.

Courses offered in these two fields are: Physics, Chemistry, Algebra, Geometry, Trigometry, Calculus, Botany, Zoology, Physical Science, Entomology, and Biological Science.

These two departments trained Navy men for the war program. The Science Department conducted courses for student nurses in co-operation with the Bloomsburg Hospital.

The Science and Mathematics Departments have made vital contributions to the students preparing for the difficult days ahead.

Misw liach, Mr, Reams, Irr, Mayyin, Dr. Russtl.

Social Studies and Geography

These two subjects are so directly related that they go hand and hand to form almost the same field for specialization on the part of Secondary students.

They furnish a rich background of the world, its places and people together with the record of the past which makes us intelligent interpreters of the happenings of the present here or abroad.

Social Studies which usually includes Geography are required in all public schools therefore the Elementary, Business Education and Secondary Departments include the work of these broad fields.

Standing-Mrs, sout, Min: Barnes, Miss Major, Mrs. Batior.

Training School

The Benjamin Franklin School located on the campus is the vital laboratory of the Teachers College. Here are found special education classes, a kindergarten and the first six grades of public school all housed in a thoroughly modern building.

Elementary students do their practice teaching in this building under the direction of a strong staff of training teachers. Miss Edna J. Hazen is Director of Elementary Education. She is assisted by:

> Miss Elma Major, Special Class

Miss Grace Woolworth, Kindergarten
Mrs. Lucille Baker, Grade I
Miss Iva Mae Van Scoyoc, Grade II
Miss Harrict Moore, Grade III
Mrs. Anna Garrison Scott, Grades IV and V
Miss Edna J. Barnes, Grades V and VI

Mr. Vimorye .I. Killler

Art

Art is recognized as another means of expression and it must be understood and utilized if one is to teach well and effectively.

Students in both Elementary and Secondary curricula are required to take course in both art and art appreciation. In the Elementary field there are additional course in the fundamental principles of art as applied in everyday living.

Prof. George M. Keller includes in his courses challenging opportunities for students to work in drawing, lettering, poster making and creative art. All work has a sharp bent toward the utilization of art in the understanding of living, such as home planning and decoration.

Music

Music is the universal language. It is an excellent medium for understanding countries that seem far away and foreign.

Miss Harriet Moore has presented a course in Music Appreciation to every Elementary and Secondary student. This course acts as a basis for building further understandings in the field of music.

The Elementary people get additional training in teaching music, sight reading and conducting. In these courses music of other lands as well as American music is studied and discussed. As a result, music training becomes a practical as well as a cultural subject.

Library

The library is the crossroad and heart of the school. Here at some time or another come all students to the common source of materials and books.

Miss Dorothy E. Gilmore is acting librarian while Miss Pearl Mason is on leave of absence. Miss Gilmore has the responsibility and care of this important division of the school at the present time.

Business Manager and Superintendent of Grounds and Buildings

All financial transactions of the college pass through the efficiently operated business office where Mr. C. M. Hausknecht presides. He has handled these delicate and important matters over a period of years, and is well fitted to cope with them.

The beautiful campus and the wealth of buildings and equipment are the responsibility of Mr. N. T. Englehart. He supervises the eare and maintenance of the school property in such a way that the beauty and utility of the college is preserved. In addition, Mr. Englehart does many things for the student body directly, like cooperating in the planning of dances and other sehool social functions.

M1. (*. M H.thackuedll. Mr. N. T. Entrlehart.

Standing Miss Ifolter, Miss Wilson, Miss Fenstemaker, Mins Eyerly, Misw May, Misw (Iossen.

Office Personnel

Much of the efficiency of the college is due to the constant efforts of the office personnel. Students come in contact with them frequently during their college days and are grateful for the help they have received from these people.

The members of the office personnel of the college are:

Mrs. Anna M. KnightMrs. Getrume Andrews HorneMiss Paulina Vee Clossen

Why I Teach

Because I would be young in soul and mind Though years must pass and age my life constrain. And I have found no way to lag behind The fleeting years, save by the magic chain That binds me, youthful, to the youth I love,
I teach.
Because I would be wise and wisdom find From millions gone before whose torch I pass, Still burning bright to light the paths that wind So steep and rugged, for each lad and lass Slow-climbing to the untevealed above,
I teach.
Because in passing on the living flame That ever brighter burns the ages through, I have done a service that is worth the name Can I but say, "The flame of knowledge grew A little brighter in the hands I taught,"
I teach.
Because I know that when life's end I reach And thence pass through the gate so wride and deep To what I do not know, save that men TEACH, That the remembrance of me men will keep Is what I've done; and What I have is naught, I teach.

FACULTY ADVISERS

DR. KUSTER

DR. MAUPIN

MISS McCAMMON

The Class of 1946 is sincerely grateful for the help of six faculty members who have served as advisers throughout four years of college.
Mr. Bailer
Miss McCammon
Dr. Nelson
Dr. Kuster

It is unusual for a Class to have six faculty advisers, but this is an unusual class in that there are students graduating who began three years ago and some who began four years ago.

These six people have been a steadying influence during the turbulent time the Class of 1946 was in college.

We thank them for their inspiration and careful guidance.

MR. WALTER S. RYGIEL

Senior Commencement Week Adviser

Mr. Walter S. Rygiel, a member of the Business Education Department, has capably served as chairman of the Senior Commencement Week Activities for several years. He assists the faculty class adviser in the various senior class activities which take place during the year.

Some of the special activities which come under his guidance are: Senior Banquet and Ball, Ivy Day ceremonies, Baccalaureate and Commencement ceremony etiquette, procedures and other details.

The Class of 1946 takes this means of expressing its sincere appreciation to Mr. Rygiel for his untiring efforts in making the Commencement Week Activities, events which will long be remembered and cherished.

Senior Class

The Class of 1946 is quite a mixture. Some of the members are regular four-year students, but the majority were on the accelerated program, completing four years' work in three years' time. We also have among us a few returned veterans, whom we are proud to have. Although most of our college activities have been limited by wartime conditions, we have had at least a glimpse of peacetime college life during our last year.

The seniors have carried on the college canteen to finance the Obiter, and we express our gratitude to all the members of the college community who have helped us in so many ways.

Sophomore Class

OFFICERS

When we started our sophomore year in September, 1945, we discovered we had lost some of our old members and acquired some new ones.

Soon after the opening of the semester, officers and a class adviser were elected.

At the close of the first semester we again lost a few members, but with the return of the G. I.'s and some transfers, were able to keep the number about the same.

Now with our Sophomore year nearly over, we are looking forward with eagerness to the new and interesting experiences we shall have as Juniors.

The varied college activities are planned and executed by the Community Government Association. These include dances and other social events, elections, assembly programs, publicity, and use of the gymnasium and social rooms. Special committees, appointed by the vice president, have charge of these activities.

The Waller Hall Association includes all women students living in Waller Hall and has for many years been an association known for its friendliness and co-operative spirit.

The association has a Governing Board, consisting of the four officers and representatives from each of the classes. The Dean of Women acts as adviser to the Governing Board.

Throughout the year the girls have many so called floor parties at which they get together for an evening of fun.

Freshman Counsellors are appointed to advise and help the freshmen. The Customs Committee carries on the initiation of new students coming into Waller Hall.

The Day-Dorm He-She Party which is for girls only, is the main party of the year when all the girls of the college have a get-together.

Another important event of the year is the judging of attractive rooms.

House Committees and Fire Wardens are appointed to help take care of the safety of all Waller Hall residents.

North Hall started out last year with a mere twenty men. It was increased by the return of the veterans to its full capacity at the start of the second semester.

The hall took on its pre-war status with the return of so many servicemen. The halls once again ring with the familiar shouts of old friends.

Day Men's Association

After a dearth of members during the War years, the Day Men's Association suddenty became revitalized in the year of ' 46 principally through the return of the Serviceman. From the low of seven members in ' 45 , it increased to twenty-two in the first semester of ' 46 and to a grand total of sixty'-two in the last semester.

Facilities in the basement of North Hall had degenerated during the War, and the main efforts of the year were concerned with attempting to get things back into shape again. It was not possible to get the radio back from the repair shop until the end of the year due to lack of funds.

During the last semester, a vigorous drive was launched to get the Day Men's Room transferred to the social room in the basement of Noetling Hall where it would be more pleasant and conveniently located. The success of the campaign will depend on the ability of the Day Men to collect enough dues to insure indemnification of the furniture, and to a solution of the smoking hazard.

Most habitual habitu's of the Day room where the pinocle teams of Mark Wranich, Andrew Magill, John Magill, James Smith, and Clayton Patterson; and the ping-pong and pool teans of Harold Miller, Ralph McCracken, and Lawrence Reitmiller.

Student Christian Association

OFFICERS

The Student Christian Association has as its purpose the bringing of religion to the campus, the development of a mature Christian faith, and the giving to students experience as effective Christian citizens.

The S. C. A. has been among the active organizations on the campus. Some of the activities of the year were: the presentation of a Christmas cantata and candle light service in a local church; sponsoring the World Student Service Fund drive on the campus; and the presentation of a "College Talent Night" program. Leadership Training Classes in Old Testament and Young People's Work were also sponsored by the S. C. A. and were open to all students. Social activities have consisted of campfire meetings, song rallies, and picnics. The year will close with a picnic and a campfire.

During the past year the kind interest and able leadership of Miss Major has guided the Student Christian Association.

Alpha Psi Omega

OFFICERS

With the return of Miss Johnston to our campus, the Alpha Omicron Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, National Dramatic Fraternity, resumed its activities the second semester.

Elections and initiations of new members were held twice this past year. On the days of initiations, the group first gathered in the Carver Hall Auditorium, and from there adjourned to the Social Rooms of Science Hall for the remainder of the program.

In conjunction with the Dramatic Club, the fraternity sponsored a most successful public play-"The Man Who Came to Dinner," several plays for various clubs and organizations in the town of Bloomsburg, and the final chapel program for the college year on May 22.

On April 26, 1930, the Iota chapter of Phi Sigma Pi was installed on our campus. It is the only national professional educational fraternity for men, and since its installation it has been one of the most active bodies in our college community.

The three basic principles of Phi Sigma Pi are knowledge, training, and fellowship. Based on these three principles. Phi Sigma Pi requires outstanding qualities of leadership in its members, both in the professional and social life on the campus.

Since most of the members of Phi Sigma Pi were in the armed forces of our country, the fraternity failed to function for a period of one year. In January, 1946, the fraternity was reorganized by a small number of former members who returned to the campus.

A number of social meetings and discussions contributed to an enjoyable and profitable year.

The Business Education Club has completed another successful year, in which fine programs and new projects brought renewed interest in this specialized field to its members.

The meetings featured such items as: veterans' experiences; a talk by Attorney Reginal Hemingway on "Strengthening Our Nation"; student teachers' experiences; information by Mr. Rygiel on the formation of commercial clubs in high schools; and the Christmas Party. News on recent developments in the business field was a regular feature of all meetings.

This year the Club planned and produced its first Annual, which included reflections on the past year. It was dedicated to Mr. Walter S. Rygiel, sponsor and friend. The group also named Miss Gloria Belcastro as the Honorary Member from last year's club.

The Club concluded its activities with the banquet, at which installation of next year's officers took place.

Future Teachers of America

OFFICERS

The students of the Secondary, Elementary and Business Departments are indicating their awareness of the need for professional growth among American teachers. The students to promote such growth have become members of the Future Teachers of America, a national group established to:

1. Give teachers in training practical experience in working together in a democratic way on the problems of the profession and the community.
2. Interest the best young men and women in education as a lifelong career.

In naming their chapter, the local group is honored in commemorating Professor Oscar Hugh Bakeless, whose life on this campus, so well, exemplified the aims of the National Organization.

Bloomsburg Players

The Dramatic Club is one of the most popular extra-curricular activities on the campus. Our former director, Miss Alice Johnston, has just returned from a year's leave of absence and has once again resumed her work with the Dramatic Club.

This organization provides a workshop for those students wishing to learn to direct and produce plays, a knowledge which may prove helpful when they are teaching. At the same time, the members are gaining poise and ease for appearance before the public.

At the beginning of the first semester, the following officers were elected:

During this first semester, a number of plays, directed entirely by students, were presented. A large student-participation in these plays made them successful and entertaining.

We feel that we went through the last semester successfully, and we owe a great deal of this success to Miss Van Scoyac, who was our sponsor, during the absence of Miss Johnston.

We are now well into our second-semester's work, presenting a play for the secondsemester Annual Freshman Reception. Due to the absence of our director, we have had no long plays for the public up to this time; but we are now planning a long play that will be ready by the end of April.

Active participation in the Dramatic Club work makes it possible for a few members to become members of the Alpha Psi Omega National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity,

Athenaeum Club

OFFICERS

The Athenaeum Club was organized and started on December 14, 1945, to enable the students to become acquainted with and appreciative of Classical Music.

It was interesting to see the large number of students who were interested in Music Appreciation and the enrollment is approximately 50 members.

The programs consisted of biographies of various well-known composers, and their works. Many an enjoyable hour was spent listening to the recordings played at the club meetings.

Although the club was just established this year, its future success is evident.

Women's Chorus

OFFICERS

One of the outstanding clubs on the campus this year is Women's Chorus. The enrollment for this semester reached eighty-six-a considerable increase over last year.

The Women's Chorus, under the capable supervision of Miss Moore, presented its annual Christmas program on December 17. The selections of the program varied. The soloists, Ann Williams and June Hontz, and the trio, consisting of Isabel Gehmen, Midge and Madge Fuller, made the audience feel the real spirit of the Yuletide season.

The Women's Chorus rendered a few selections at the Freshman Reception held on February 15. A change in Miss Moore's schedule prevented her from continuing the chorus for the last semester.

The Women's Chorus should be comptimented on its fine work. Many thanks are extended to Miss Moore for her able leadership and Martha Hathaway for her outstanding piano accompaniment.

Science Club

OFFICERS

The Science Club is an organization which has been functioning on the campus for many years. The chief aim of the club is to arouse the students' interest in both the natural and physical sciences.

Each week many phases of chemical, biological, and physical sciences are discussed. The programs consist of outside speakers, discussions, movies, quizzes, and field trips to study the scientific aspects of the campus.

The highlight of the year is the all day field trip to a chosen destination.

Basketball

The college Huskies opened its season with one veteran, John Hmelnicky, and some very fine recruits.

Glen Loveland of Kingston township and Pat Flaherty of Bloomsburg were at the forward spots. Playing guards were Jay Scarcella of Hazleton and Don Blackburn of Wranamie, while Hmelnicky played at center.

No better tribute can be paid to a team than to say they did their best. The basketball team under the able coaching of George $C$. Buchheit is to be commended.

1946 Track

The return of Matt Kashuba to school for the second semester, and his participation and outstanding achievements in some of the largest indoor meets in the East was the bright spot of our 1946 Track Season.

Three days after he returned to school, Kashuba entered the Philadelphia Inquirer Invitation Meet at Convention Hall, Philadelphia, and won first place in the High and set a record in the meet as well as breaking his own school record.

Matt was invited to the Melrose Games at Madison Square Garden, where he tied for first in the High Jump with Paul Robson, Junior, of Cornell, and John Vislocky, of the New York Athletic Club, by jumping $6^{\prime} 4^{\prime \prime}$. The management of the Boston A. A. Meet invited Matt there on February 9 at which time he tied for first with John Vislocky of the New York A. C., and Dave Albritton, of the Dayton A. C., at the height of $6^{\prime} 2^{\prime \prime}$.

On February 23 he competed in the National A. A. U. Senior Indoor Meet at Madison Square Garden. This was the second time he had competed in the indoor A. A. U., as he had participated in this meet in 1942 before going into the service. John Vislocky of the New York A. C. was the meet's winner with a jump of $6^{\prime \prime} 6^{\prime \prime}$. Matt tied for fourth with three other competitors with a jump of $6^{\prime} 2^{\prime \prime}$.

An inter-class track meet was held by Conch George C. Buchheit before the Easter vacation and the following boys competed:

| Mario Berlanda | Matt Kashuba | Don Rabb |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Edward Bollinger | Stanley Krzywicki | Richard Rowlands |
| Robert Bunge | Glen Loveland | Thomas Smigel |
| Al Davis | John Magill | Thomas Vershinski |
| Pat Flaherty | William Miller | Kenneth Wire |

Vincent Husovsky

The final results of the meet were: The Freshmen, 56 points; Juniors, 31 points; Sophomores, 15 points; Seniors, 8 points.

On April 27, Matt competed in the Penn Relays and tied for second place with John Vislocky, U. S. Coast Guard, Brooklyn; James Gilchrist, Swarthmore; and John Murphy, Ohio State University, by jumping $6^{\prime} 3^{\prime \prime}$.

1945 Soccer

The College had a very limited schedule in soccer as the Nayy trainees were leaving November 1.

October 13, Kutztown S. T. C. at Kutztown. Score, Kutztown 4-Bloomsburg 0. A two-game schedule gave our boys interested in soccer a chance to practice and learn the fundamentals of the game. The boys played well the first game, but lost 4 to 0 .

October 17, Kutztown at home. Score, Kutztown 11-Bloomsburg 1. Kutztown had a smooth functioning team and defeated the home team 11 to 1 . Kutztown did not have football and stressed soccer during the fall season with good results. Bloomsburg had few experienced players and deserved a good deal of credit for their perseverance.

NAVY

The 1946 ObITER would not be complete without something "Navy." We have had Navy personnel on the Bloomsburg campus for most of our years in college. The Navy program made us feel that ours was a definite contribution toward the war effort, and few of us will forget the experience of going to college with Navy men.

They helped us have a better understanding of the problems our own Bloomsburg boys were facing because many of the Navy men saw action overseas.

These are some of the things we remember about the Navy-
Reveille at 6:00-shouts of "Rise and Shine" and "Hit the Deck."
"Trainee," the V-s dog, and the other assortment of dogs that followed the Navy.
Those ensign uniforms and that "Ensign" manner.
A white sea of Navy hats flowing into Noetling Hall.
Navy "salt talk" and Navy songs.
The obstacle course in our peace time grove.
Liberty night and "restrictions."
Precision drilling and the cadence.
Fred Waring reviewing the ensigns.
Field day with its-"I wonder if my bunk mate dusted the bureau."
Navy training planes circling our campus.
The change from "Blues" to "Whites."
Taps at 10:00 that hushed our campus.

These are a few of the things we won't forget about the Navy. They made us feel that Bloomsburg had done something toward bringing peace. They broadened our understanding, tempered our reactions toward wartime conditions, and left us with a sense of pride in "Our Navy."

Most of all, they gave us a closer feeling to the boys we sent to the armed forces from our own college group. It made us more understanding "civilians."

Let's Relax!

To the cry so often raised by Bloomsburg students for a relaxation center has finally come not one but several inviting answers: number one: The Social Room-upholstered comfort for card fiends, record enthusiasts and all around fellows; number two: The Canteen-filling station for that "ten minute break," with all kinds of dry goods and pop, "to whet the appetite"; number three: The Gym and Juke Box—rhythm room for jitterbugs and Arthur Murray addicts. Here, too, victims of the smoke weed gather to enjoy the innovation of the smoking privilege.

These relaxation centers did not just happen. They came as the result of many hours, days and even years of work, planning, organizing and debating. They are not the product of the present campus personnel, rather they are the realization of the ideas, dreams, and fond hopes of the evergrowing Alumni.

The canteen, for example, is the "Angel" of this very book. The idea for its establishment as a financial aid to the yearbook originated with Miss Arlene Superko and Dr. Maupin. It evolved under the management of Violet Weller, Marge Stover and Evelyn Whitman to our present canteen set-up.

So today we have those places students have long asked for. They are ours, to play, eat, dance, smoke, to make the most of, so-"LET'S RELAX."

The true value of a business education is found in its constant use. In the world of business your pupils discover the continual practice, practice, practice of school routine pays off in rhythmic speed - in accustoming them to a business-like routine - in an ever-increasing degree of responsibility and pay.

So too, with a typewriter. The greater the skill and accuracy in its manufacture - the faster, more smoothly, it operates - getting work done with less effort, leaving the typist fresher at day's end.

The first practical typewriter, made over 70 years ago, was a Remington. Ever since, Remington has been the leader in typewriter development. Today Remington Rand Typewriters are standard in large businesses everywhere - more Remingtons have been sold than any other make - a tribute to the scientific research and engineering skill that have gone into making them the finest products ever to bear the proudest name in typewriters . . .
