Your Bloomsburg Career

... in Retrospect

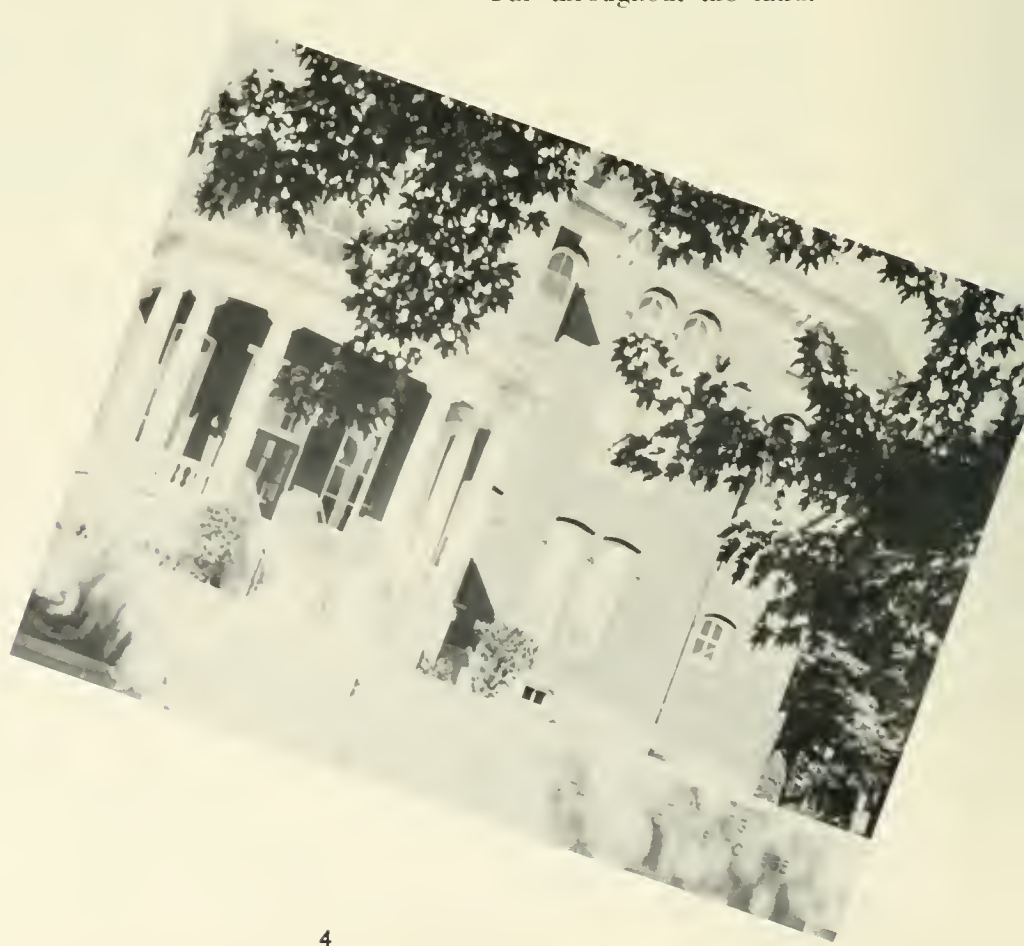

Alma Mater

Far above the river winding.

Midst the mountains grand.

Stands our College, dear to students

Far throughout the land.

Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg College,

Up on College Hill:

Years to come shall find us ever,

True to Bloomsburg still.

Far and wide though we may wander,
Still our hearts are true:
To our hilltop Alma Mater,
We our pledge renew.

Ever seaward Susquehanna.

Never resting flows—

Ever upward, striving, climbing:

Onward Bloomsburg goes.

Your Bloomsburg Career began with that first trip up College Hill . . .

. . . and your first glimpse of these words.

... there found a room
that was to be your home.

You moved into North or Waller Hall
and . . .

Registration opened your Bloomsburg career with endless lines . . .

. . . "patient" waiting . . .

that made you an official part of B.S.T.C.

... then that all-important
schedule card ...

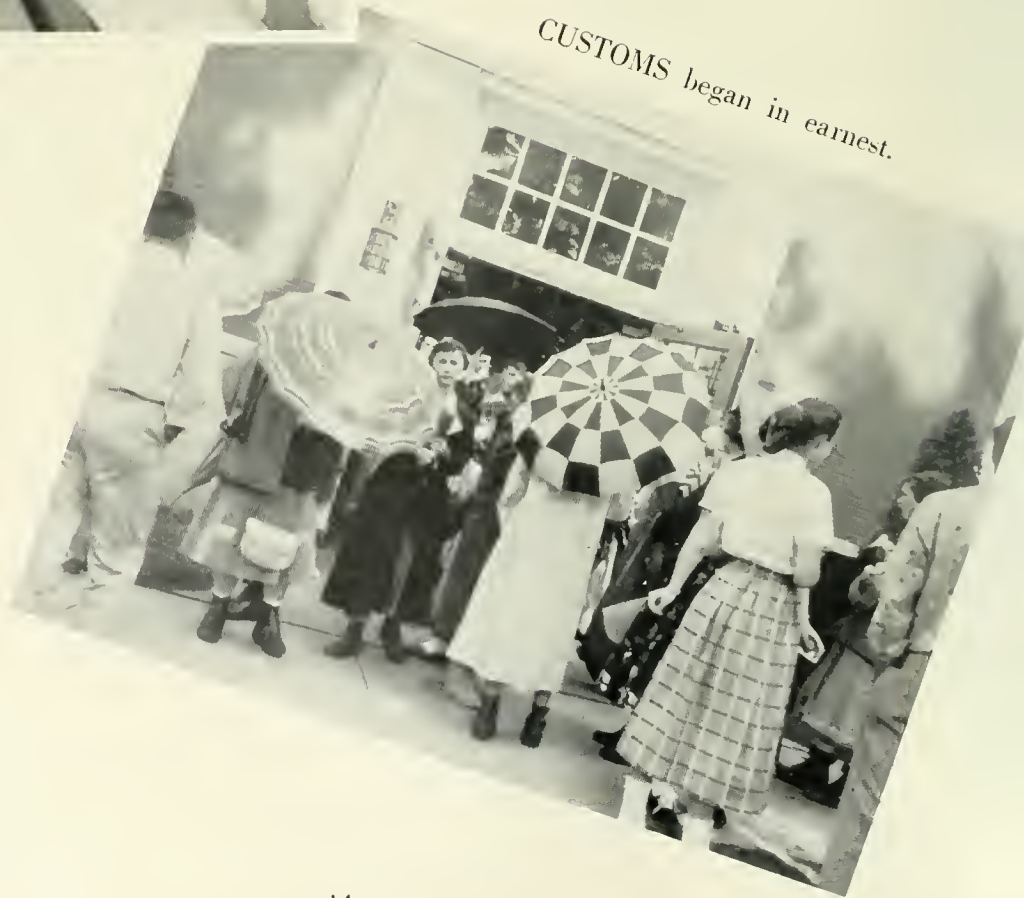

Just a few more forms ...

Following your Placement Tests . . .

CUSTOMS began in earnest.

The frosh prayed for rain . . .

. . . and had their prayers answered . . .

. . . followed by a coed serenade.

and then only your dinks were left as . . .

DR. HARVEY A. ANDRUSS
President of the College

To the Seniors of the Class of 1956:

The quest for certainty is as old as mankind. To make certain in an uncertain future is the problem of every generation.

Each generation feels that its problems are more serious than the previous one, and you will have a part in the education of the oncoming generations of America.

If you meet the problems of the future as well as you have met those during your four years at Bloomsburg, we feel that you will have lighted many candles, which in later years will shine back to cheer you, for no one deserves better of this Republic than its teachers.

ELIZABETH B. MILLER
B.S., M.Ed.
Dean of Women

To the 1956 Graduates:

Leadership and authority have been vested in you as college students. Confidence in you, in your character, personality, and ability, have justified that expression. It is my hope that your college experience will be evidenced in your becoming a "pivot" in the teaching profession, and that your work as an educator will be fruitful.

Elizabeth B Miller

Elizabeth B. Miller
Dean of Women

JACK W. YOHE
B.S., M.Ed.
Dean of Men

To the Seniors of 1956:

As commencement time draws near, there is a general feeling of happiness accompanied by some sadness and regret. We are happy in the fulfillment of your ambitions and dreams, happy in the anticipation of the future ahead of you. Yet we at Bloomsburg are sad, too, that your college life here with us will end. Together we will cherish those memories and hope that you will return often as alumni.

Jack W. Yohe

Jack W. Yohe
Dean of Men

To the members of the Class of 1956:

The importance of the teacher in a free society is coming into sharper focus as more and more citizens recognize that the success they have in governing themselves rests upon the quality of the program of public education. Your professional preparation is important, but a realization of your unique responsibility is even more essential to fulfilling your mission.

. . . these responsible leaders handle many college functions . . . assemblies, bulletin boards, service keys, furniture, pep meetings, and such social highlights as . . . THE HALLOWEEN DANCE.

Remember when you were marched down college hill . . .

. . . to kick the tradition tree?

You met the administration at the Freshman Reception . . .

. . . and your parents met them in Carver Hall.

Following all this excitement, you settled down to join . . .

Fellow Members of the Class of 1956:

Within a short time you will be graduated from college. This is, understandably, an important event in your lives. It should be remembered as one of the truly proud moments in lives of boundless potential. But it must also be remembered as a moment that has been made possible only through the unselfish sacrifices of you and your families. You are to be congratulated on this accomplishment, just as your families deserve congratulations for their part in this realization.

A happy memory is among the most valuable things you may possess. In this age of psychology, however, memory is often thought of as a hiding place for the hurts of children, a jungle in which psychologists probe for wolves of fear and snakes of anxiety. It is my sincere hope that the memories you take from Bloomsburg will be pleasant ones which will have lasting significance.

For the past four years, you have watched spring, with all its beauty and signs of new life, come to College Hill. Three times you watched your friends depart from the ivy-covered walls of the institution they held in esteem, and each time you realized that they took something of Bloomsburg with them. But you were also conscious of the fact that each had, in turn, enriched the college community by his presence.

Now it is your turn to parade in cap and gown to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and with it say farewell to your college days. This can be an important part of that memory you will take from College Hill, and with it goes the satisfaction of knowing that you, too, will always be a part of Bloomsburg. So also will Bloomsburg continue to be a part of your lives.

Serving you as your class president has been an outstanding honor and certainly one of the fondest memories I will take from college. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for this privilege.

It is my genuine hope that as you embark on the various paths that life has charted for you, your future will be filled with a great deal of happiness and success.

Sincerely,

William L. Bitner, III

What an advertisement for B.S.T.C.!

Getting ready for 7:30 dates, boys?

How'd you like to dance with that?

Simply out of this world.

This is the mambo?

... each one worthy of the Varsity crown.

The Robot and the Roman.

What do they talk about in those huddles?

Anyone for a swim on the moon?

Pride of the Thespians.

High-stepping Huskettes.

Christmas Carols, but no snow.

Lovely day for a hike. Frosh!

What's for lunch, Irene?

Is this allowed on a practice set?

The Freshmen claim, "It's A Women's World."

Our own fashion commentator.

Well-earned rewards for hard work.

Chow time in the Day Room.

That Bermuda shorts fad conquered everyone.

Don't they make a charming trio?

The 6:30 meeting place.

Talking it over between dances.

We certainly did "tip the scale."

The student teachers compare notes.

"The masked marvel"

Homecoming 1955.

The Dean at work.

Halloween emergency.

Chaperones for an evening.

The Department Head lends a hand.

That long trek from Science.

Roongo takes a rest.

A meeting of the "after dinner" club.
