BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA • 1963 OBITER • BLOOMSBURG STATE COLLEGE
VOLUME XLVII

FOREWORD

The foreword of any book is designed to give the reader an insight as to what the author is trying to accomplish; hence, the foreword gives the editor of the OBITER an opportunity to explain some of the reasons why the book is presented as it is.

The 1963 OBITER has in it the same basic coverage of student life, both academic and extracurricular, that has been in Bloomsburg annuals for almost fifty years. We, the staff, want this edition to be a constant reminder to you, the student body, of all aspects of your college life.

The color used in the introductory section and on all main dividers is Wedgewood Blue. Time increases the value of Wedgewood, and we hope Time will increase the value you place on the 1963 yearbook.

The classical oval, which you will find throughout the book, symbolizes the timelessness of your college years. It is your guide to the memories of your years at B.S.C.

Our aim has been to present to you a chronicle that is at once classical and modern, timeless and vital. We hope we have succeeded.

THE CAMPUS

Standing on Senior Walk, we look between the branches of the white pines on the front campus and see that familiar landmark of B.S.C., Science Hall. The paths of all students eventually lead to this architectural marvel. Science Hall is the only building on campus where one must go down in order to go up, or vice versa.

It is Spring 1963. A walk around our campus reveals interesting patterns of shadows on the familiar red brick buildings of B.S.C. the same red brick buildings that seemed so formidable when we were Freshmen.

This is a view of Waller Hall from the corner of Second and Penn Streets. To the left is the main entrance of Carver Hall, but if we walk up Second Street, we see Long Porch with its perennial bloom of green rockers.

When we walk up the 1912 Memorial Stairs, we notice that something is missing—Leo and Leona—the “all-knowing” lions. They kept close watch on us during our formative years.

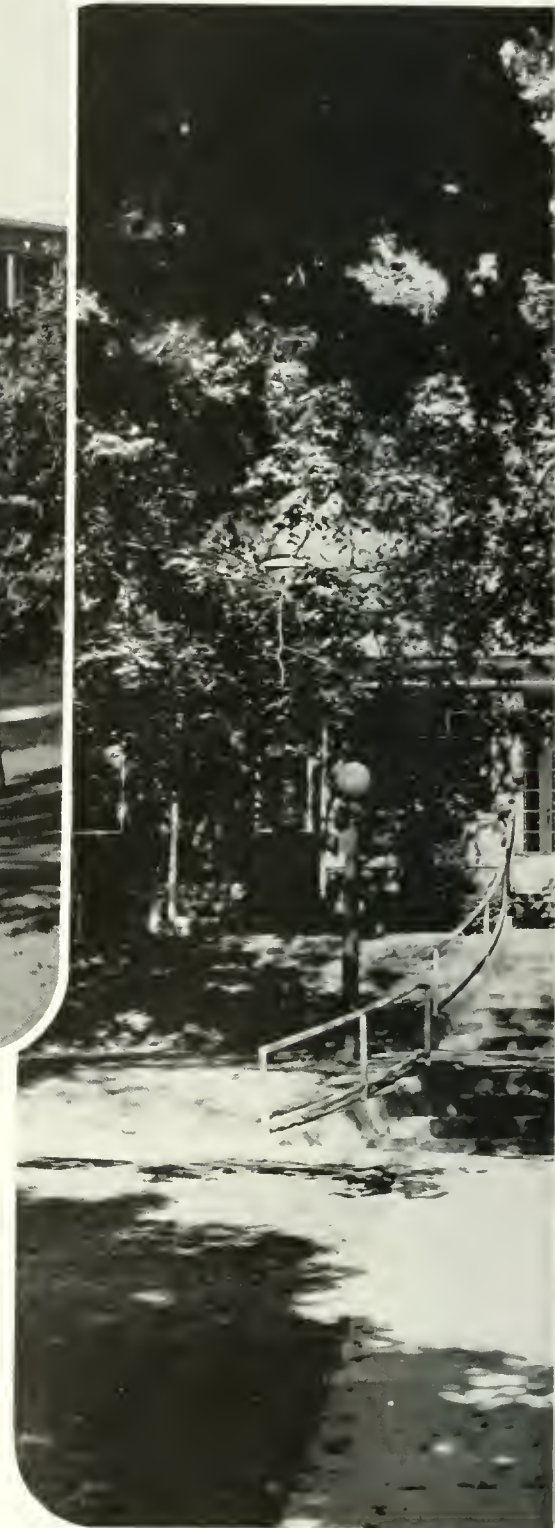

The walk fronting on Waller Hall is one of the busiest thoroughfares on campus. Traffic is slow today, so we can peer through the window of the corridor in Noetling Hall and look at this beautiful portico with its welcoming rockers.

After leaving Noetling Hall, we take the walk that leads from Husky Lounge to Old North Hall. Our class saw this building changed from a dormitory for men to office quarters for college professors. Old North Hall, another landmark, will probably be razed within the calendar year.

To our right is one of the many doors leading to Waller Hall, the women's dormitory. This walk is a familiar one to many resident women.

The Benjamin Franklin Laboratory School, long a model for the education of students in the elementary curriculum, is a familiar place to student teachers in this field.

Our class saw the transformation of the basement of Navy Hall into one of the most modern, most complete speech and hearing clinics in the state. In this building is also located the new language laboratory, as well as science and mathematics classrooms.

We have approached the front steps of Centennial Gymnasium for many reasons during our years at Bloomsburg—registration, basketball games, wrestling matches, big name entertainment, dances . . . and phys. ed., of course.

Our class was fortunate in having new Suttill Hall ready for use our Freshman year. The steps leading to the second floor are well worn by business majors, and the halls of the first floor have known many footsteps of science majors.

The College Commons, now looking so peaceful, is one of the busiest places on campus. In addition to providing meals for well over a thousand students daily, the Commons serves as a social center for the college community during the academic year.

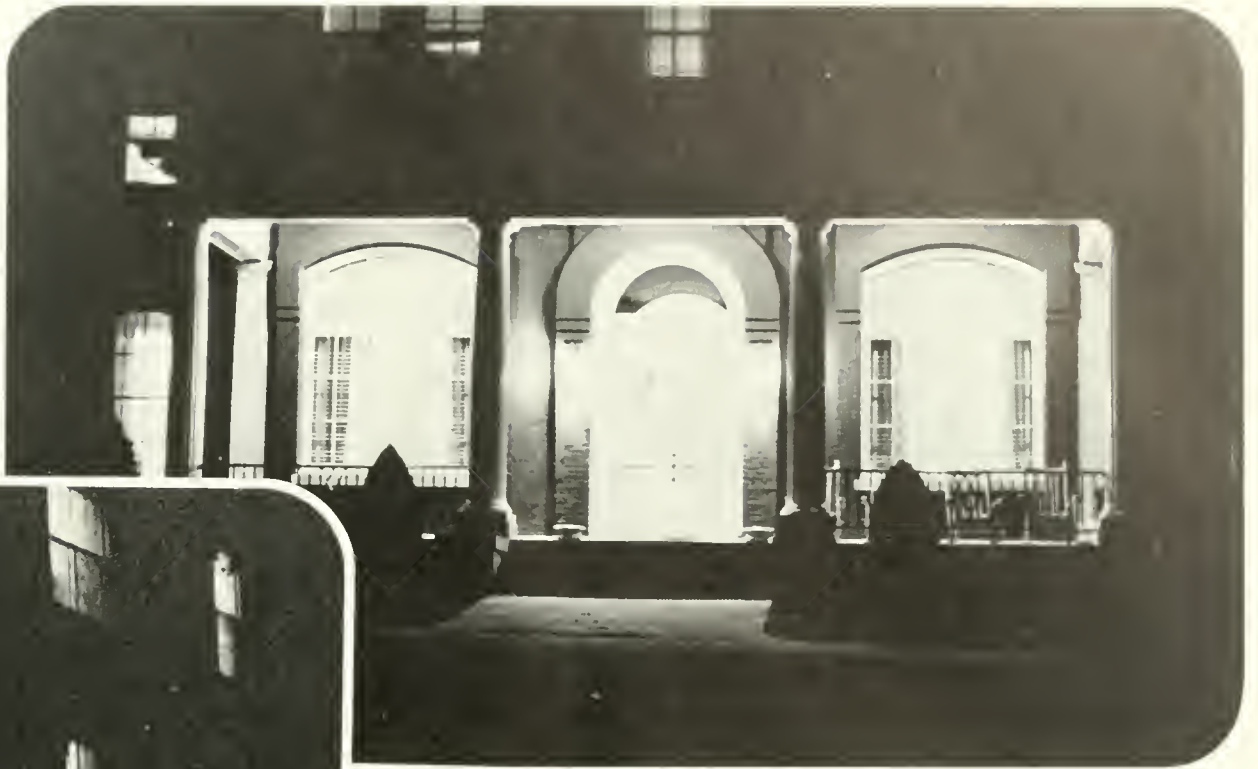

As you approach the campus at night you first see the tower of Carver Hall, bright, serene. You're home!

Now that it is Spring, the rockers on long porch are even more inviting and more relaxing. You should be studying, but instead you are talking with your friends, listening to the spring peepers and smelling the fresh Spring air—almost hypnotized by the sound of the water from the fountain.

Noetling Hall at night. These familiar portals welcome the college student into the busy round of college life. But we don't have a class now—Let's stop and talk awhile.

THE
TRATION

A Challenge for Graduates:

Our College seeks to educate students who will use their learning to improve the society in which they live. In this search, during the past century, your Alma Mater was organized as an Academy, and later became a Literary Institute, a State Normal School, a State Teachers College, and now as a State College will broaden its offerings to admit in September, 1965, students who will pursue courses leading to the Bachelor of Arts Degree.

We expect to build the superstructure of teacher education on the basis of service which will be needed to meet the challenges of the future.

As you go into the public schools, may you ever realize that service to society is the pleasure of the graduate and the College itself.

That you may provide the field of service to society in the public schools with vigor and effectiveness is the hope of

GRADUATE STUDIES

DR. ROBERT C. MILLER
Director of Graduate Studies

At the May graduation exercises, the faculty of Bloomsburg State College will present to the President of the College its first candidates for the Master of Education degree.

This degree, symbolizing a deep and abiding commitment to education, is conferred on these candidates as the culmination of a period of intensive study in their respective fields of preparation, and the outgrowth of some greater inner dedication.

It is a dedication to the world of education that demands of a scholar this added preparation, and we are proud to present this group of scholars as the recipients of the degree of Master of Education—the first so honored—the first in but another endeavor by Bloomsburg State College to better serve mankind.

IN PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE

The stately Roman arches opening into the main corridor of the college reflect the spirit of former generations of Bloomsburg graduates. In the immediate foreground is the Liberty Bell Memorial of the Class of 1876, commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The Tiffany stained glass windows framed by the arches were the gift of the alumni, under the leadership of Professor Oscar Hugh Bakeless. The graduating class represented in the 1963 annual are worthy heirs of this proud tradition.

Dr. Donald F. Maietta
Director of Special Education

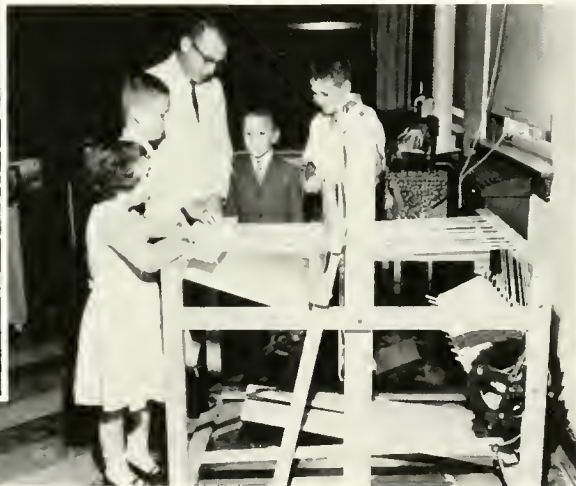

Dr. Maietta and Miss Norma Keener,
Secretary

In meeting its responsibility for providing graduates of high quality for the profession of education, the Division of Special Education has established a number of student teaching and practicum centers. These includes Columbia, Lycoming, and Schuylkill Counties, Geisinger Medical Center, Selinsgrove State School and Hospital, and the Benjamin Franklin Laboratory School.

▲ Adult trainees with speech and hearing difficulties learn about objective attitudes from Professor Shilling.

▼ Professor Mayer illustrates learning by doing to his special class pupils.

▼ Mr. Mease demonstrates to student clinician Nellie Ann Purnell the importance of mirror work in the improvement of some aspects of speech production.

▲ Evaluation of a child's intelligence by Dr. Satz. One-way vision mirror enables students and parents to follow child's progress.

SENIORS

THE CLASSES

Dear Fellow Graduates,

Our college days are drawing to a close, and there are but a few memorable moments left for us. Some of our bright-eyed ambitions of four years ago have been traded for keen practicality. Many of our fears and regrets have turned us toward a brighter, more certain future. Yes, no matter how we view the experience, Bloomsburg State College has changed our lives.

For many of us Bloomsburg has meant the end of a long search, a search for our identity, a search for our "self." Bloomsburg has spurred us on the road to true learning, a path necessary for a successful teacher and a responsible citizen. We have played various roles within the college community during our college life. Bloomsburg has tested us, and we have tested Bloomsburg. We have learned from text books, from experience, and from each other. We have developed self-confidence, a sense of responsibility toward ourselves and others, initiative, and intellectual maturity.

We have not been the only ones to change in these years from 1959 to 1963. Bloomsburg State College has changed, not only in its name, but in its physical, intellectual, and social aspects. We surely have contributed to its growth as it has to ours. The class of 1963 has made its contributions in the classroom and on the athletic fields. We have carried the name of Bloomsburg State College into our communities, our state, and our nation. Graduation does not mean the end of our chance to make contributions to our alma mater; as alumni we can witness and aid Bloomsburg's growth. May you think often of Bloomsburg State College and the Class of 1963.

At this time I want to extend our sincere appreciation to our parents, the president of our college, the Board of Trustees, the administration and faculty, and our advisers, Mr. Cope, Mr. Schrimgeour, Mr. Scarpino, and Mr. Hilgar. Thank you for your time, your guidance, your inspiration and your endless patience.

With graduation close at hand, I would now like to thank you for the privilege and honor of serving and representing you as your class president. I would like to take this opportunity to extend to each of you my sincere congratulations and best wishes for success in the years to come.

May God go with you.

Sincerely,

Paul R. Bingaman

JUNIORS

Ernest Shuba, President of the Junior Class.

To the Junior Class,

To begin, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the entire Junior Class for electing me class president, and for the fine support you have given me and the other class officers during the college year.

This has been an exceptionally busy year and I should like to commend those members of the class, in particular, who have contributed so much of their time and energy to the Homecoming Day celebration and to the Junior Prom, the crowning event of our Junior year at B.S.C. Without this support, these events could not have succeeded.

My expression of gratitude would not be complete if I failed to acknowledge the splendid support and cooperation of our class adviser, Mr. Otto Harris. Speaking for the class, I say "thank you" for your wise counseling and guidance.

I am proud of the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me class president, and I assure you that the Class of 1964 will continue the proud tradition established by our predecessors.

Sincerely yours,

Ernest R. Shuba

SOPHOMORES

To the Sophomore Class,

Participation is the key word that sums up the attitude of the Class of 1965. Guided by our capable adviser, Mr. Gerald Strauss, the Sophomore Class has been a functional part of the student life at Bloomsburg State College this year.

The highlight of our class activities was the Sophomore Cotillion, "Christmas by Candle Light," which was held in Centennial Gymnasium in December. The Sophomore Class also triumphed over classes, organizations, and fraternities by taking first prize in the Homecoming Day Parade. In addition, the Class of 1965 participated in the Coed-of-the-Year Contest, the Spring Fashion Show, numerous athletic activities and other campus events.

As your president I would like to commend Mr. Gerald Strauss, the class officers, and the members of the Sophomore Class for making this year a success.

Sincerely yours,

John M. Knoll

FRESHMEN

Dear Classmates,

In your behalf, it is my privilege to extend our thanks to the administration, faculty, and upperclassmen for their guidance, help and understanding during our freshman year.

My personal appreciation is also extended to you for your support and cooperation. We have recognized the fact that a good beginning is a valuable asset to our college career. We have met the challenges of the freshman year and are now looking forward to playing an increasingly important role as sophomores.

It has been a gratifying experience to serve as your president, and I wish all of you continued success during your remaining years at Bloomsburg.

Sincerely,

John M. Coulter

COED OF CON

Suellen Smith, Coed of the Year, is a Junior in the Special Education curriculum. Her home is in Bridgeville, a suburb of Pittsburgh.

Barbara Chyko

Barbara Chyko, a Junior in the Special Education curriculum, lives in Bloomsburg. Barbara is the Corresponding Secretary of CGA.

Lois Heston is a Senior in the Business Education curriculum. Lois resides in Wyoming.

THE YEAR TEST

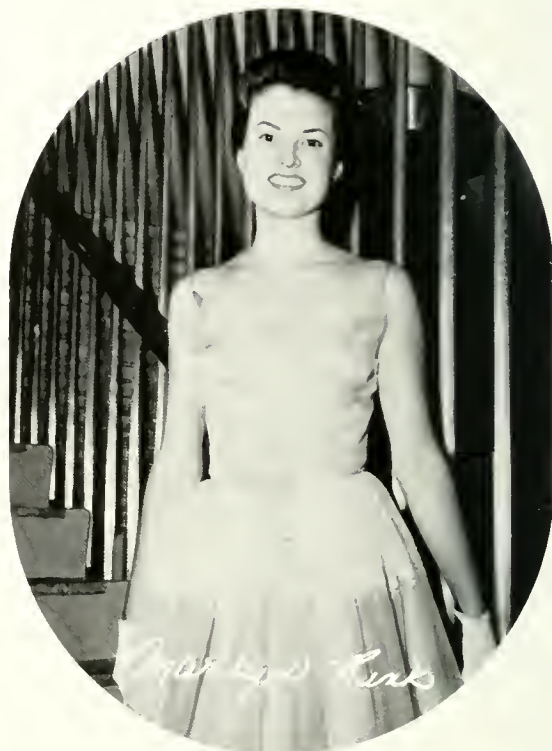

Mary Zevas, a Senior in the Elementary Education curriculum, lives in Bethlehem. Mary was the Laurel Princess candidate from B.S.C. in the spring of 1962.

Pamela Brown is a Sophomore in the Special Education curriculum. Pamela lives in North Wales, near Lansdale.

Marilyn Rink, a Sophomore, is in the Elementary Education curriculum. Her home is in Glenside, a suburb of Philadelphia. Marilyn has appeared in the Freshman Talent Show and in several dramatic productions.

The Coed-of-the-Year Contest is sponsored annually by the college yearbook for the purpose of selecting the most popular coed. The initial selections are first made by a nominating committee consisting of the presidents of the respective classes, with a co-ordinator appointed by the editor of the Obiter. Eight candidates are selected—two each from the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. The entire college community then selects the winner from these eight nominees in a general student election supervised by the Community Government Association. The impatiently-awaited announcement of the winner is made at the Freshman Dance in Centennial Gymnasium, which is usually held early in the spring.

We congratulate this year's winner, Miss Suellen Smith, of Bridgeville, Pa., a junior in the Special Education curriculum.

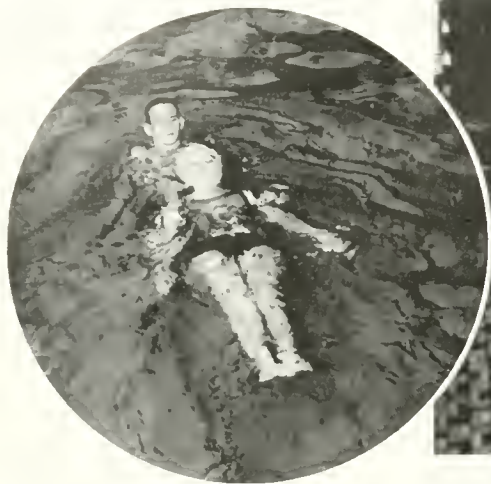

Diane Mushrush is a Freshman in the Elementary Education curriculum. Her home is in Catsaqua.

Joan Salus, a Freshman in Elementary Education curriculum, comes from Wyoming.

Fellow Students:

The Community Government Association of Bloomsburg State College is the governmental body of the school. Everyone who comes in contact with the college will eventually work through the Community Government Association. The functions of the Community Government Association are diverse. At times legislation is initiated by Council, and at other times we are the instrument to carry out the direct wishes of student, faculty, or administration.

The College Council is a grouping of peoples from all aspects of college life. In a true sense it is not a student government, but a council representative of all those who are a part of the college community. First of all we have the cabinet; president, vice-president, treasurer, recording secretary, and corresponding secretary, plus our adviser (Dean of Students). The president of each class and a male and female representative (are selected from each class to represent their group). The heads of the two resident organizations (male and female) and the two non-resident organizations (male and female) are members of council, too. The newspaper is represented by the editor. The faculty is represented by the Dean of Women, Dean of Men, Dean of Instruction, and Director of Public Relations. All these people constitute the governmental body of Bloomsburg State College.

As in the past, the success of council and the current administration can be evaluated by checking the effectiveness of the numerous Community Government Association Standing Committees. These 15 committees are responsible for all college activities. Their jobs range from managing social activities to solving student problems. This year the committees have been ambitious and are anxious to serve the interests of the college community. The vice-president is in charge of these committees, while the president of CGA selects the chairman. The vice-president takes the opportunity of reporting committee activities in council meetings.

College Council this year has been confronted with a wide range of activities. Our first objective was to terminate or continue the uncompleted activities of the previous council. To this end we have been kept busy. The budget this year is over a hundred thousand dollars. One of our first actions was the acceptance and approval of this budget. This money goes out to all parts of our college community. Major organizations are allotted a certain amount of money to finance their business. It is a function of the Community Government Association to prepare and pass the budget before any other college activities may function.

The recommendation to the President of the College approving all extracurricular organizations is one of the many responsibilities that College Council is charged with. The Harmonettes have been approved and Student Pennsylvania State Educational Association and the Athenaeum Club have submitted revised constitutions for approval. The International Programs Committee has been initiated as a committee to foster closer relations between foreign students.

Big-Name entertainment was continued this fall. We were not especially happy with the support this event received; but, it was surely a most enjoyable evening for the enthusiastic audience. These concerts are events that take a great deal of time and thanks should be extended to a multitude of people.

Council has also been busy with the increase in the Kehr-Ward Loan Fund, the purchase of a camera for processing student identification photos on campus, and other organizational matters.

We are currently working on a Community Government Association Scholarship that will be awarded in the Spring Awards Assembly. This money will come from the Parking Violations Fund. In other words, some of this Parking Violations Fund money may possibly return to "violators" in the form of grants in aid.

The college has been represented at a Red Cross Convention, the Pre-Conference Planning meeting at Kutztown, and will be represented at the Pennsylvania State Conference of Student Governments to be held at Mansfield State College.

The activities and duties of the Community Government Association change as new situations arise. The role of the council is to act when action is needed. Council must also see vividly the college scene and recognize the fact that the changes that are imperative. It is of course extremely important that the officers and other members of council look objectively into the future so that Bloomsburg State College will always be a leader in the field of education and also be prepared as we step over the threshold into liberal arts.

On behalf of council may I wish the graduation Seniors the best in the world, and may you find happiness in your bright futures.

Very truly yours,

James Case

Coach Zeigler readies Bob Letcavage for the Kutztown game

Bloomsburg's 1962 football team had a difficult season because of misfortune and injuries to some key individuals. Coach Walter Blair's Huskies made their best showing against Millersville, winning 33-14. The season was highlighted by a tremendous team effort against East Stroudsburg at the close of the season. As the gun sounded, the score was Bloomsburg 12—East Stroudsburg 19.

Enthusiasm, plus!

BSC 14

Lock Haven 34

The Huskies played a hard-fought game with Lock Haven, of the Western Division of the Conference, in a duel that did not count in the standings. The Huskies had a few misfortunes in the contest, key fumbles and an intercepted pass. The two clubs battled on even terms throughout the first half, which ended in a 14-14 tie. Bloomsburg stayed in the battle until the early part of the last period and just prior to that had two pass interceptions, thwarting bids for their third touchdown. The Bald Eagles scored one touchdown in the third quarter and added two more scores in the final quarter. Bloomsburg's scoring was done by Scott and Sprout.

BSC 34

Mansfield 26

This Saturday afternoon was a near disaster for the Huskies. Down 20-0 after twenty-five minutes, they rallied thrice in three minutes and forty-nine seconds and then went on to down the Mountaineers 34-26.

The Huskies' first score was a once-in-a-lifetime thrill for Guard John Sills. Sprout punted and Mansfield attempted to field the ball on its goal line. The ball was fumbled. Sills recovered, and the Huskies had their first touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Mansfield fumbled on the thirteen, and Boerner recovered. In four consecutive plays the Huskies had their second tally as Tinner caught a Rohrer pass in the end zone. Again a break for the Huskies—an interception by Scott. On the next play, Rohrer passed to Boerner, who buzzed to the goal line for the third score. The final two tallies came on an 84-yard pass play from Rohrer to Davala and a 51-yard jaunt by Scott. Scott also added four P.A.T.'s.

BSC 6

Kings 6

The Huskies came from behind to tie Kings 6-6 at Kings College Homecoming game, which was played on the new Kingston High School gridiron.

The Monarchs grabbed a six-point lead on the first play of the second period. They held the margin until late in the third stanza when Bloomsburg entered the scoring column. The Huskies' score was made on a sustained drive of sixty-seven yards, with Rohrer, Scott, Boerner, and Beiter playing key roles. On the second attempt from the 3, Rohrer crashed over. Scott's placement failed to provide the extra point.

Both teams threatened on other occasions, but were unable to come up with a scoring combination before stubborn goal-line stand.

BSC 0

West Chester 28

The Rams had too much for the Huskies and kept their jinx at Farrell Field intact. The first period was rather slow, with both teams failing to gain an advantage. Early in the second period, the Rams hit pay dirt on a 40-yard pass play. Later in the same period they again struck via the airways and left the field at half-time with a 14-point lead.

The Rams did equally as well in the second half, but got the points in a slightly different manner. Twelve came from two touchdowns—one on the ground, and the other on a 28-yard pass play. The other two points came on a safety which resulted from a sloppy pass from center.

The Homecoming crowd of around 3,000 saw Bloomsburg score twice in the first seven and a half minutes, battle desperately against an aroused Marauder team much of the balance of the initial half to hold 13-6 lead, and then move away once play resumed.

The two early scores came largely through the efforts of Bart Wilenski and Lou Ciocca, both of whom blocked Marauder punts. The first touchdown was scored by Scott and the second by Sprout after the rambling guard Ciocca carried the pigskin to the three.

Things weren't so tense in the second half. Bloomsburg had the ball much of the time and Millersville had only one defensive play that mattered.

With less than six minutes gone in the period, Boerner finished off a 67-yard drive for Husky TD No. 3. Before the period was out, each team had scored again. Bloomsburg moved 75 yards to score, with Rohrer making the last yard on a sneak.

The final score came on a 54-yard drive highlighted by some fine aerial work of Rohrer, Davala, and Cunningham. Boerner went through the middle with elbow room to spare for the final 15 yards.

Scoring first midway in the first period, the Huskies went on a 32-6 triumph over Cheyney on the latter club's field.

Sprout made the initial touchdown, going 12 yards as the climax of a 65-yard march. Before the period was over Boerner broke over his left side, cut out, and went down the sidelines for 54 yards and another score.

In the third period the Cheyney quarterback faded to the shadow of his goal on a pass play. He was separated from the ball when he was hit hard by charging Huskies and Mel Max, a tackle, fell on it in the end zone for a score.

The Huskies finished off with 2 in the last period. Kurzinsky directed play and threw two bombs. The first went to Davala and covered 30 yards, and the other to Doto on an 11-yard bullet in the end zone. Scott and Galie each added a P.A.T.

If you were fortunate enough to journey to Mt. Olympus this Saturday last fall, you must be a football fan! The field had a white blanket two inches thick at the finish.

We have some fine slashing backs that can move well on a dry field, but they could do nothing in the snow, and the passing game, curtailed by the weather, didn't help the Huskies when it was attempted.

Bloomsburg opened the scoring at 5:20 of the second period when Wilenski picked up the loose ball on the Husky 45. Bart isn't the fastest man in the world, but he was effective as he moved 25 yards before lateraling to Ken Robbins, who scooted the rest of the way.

Kutztown scored late in the first half to get its first touchdown and tie the score. The second Kutztown score came on a 55-yard advance that was started in the third period and terminated at 2:44 of the last quarter.

On this cold, rainy Saturday, the Huskies traveled to Warriorsville with high hopes of playing the role of spoiler. The conditions on the field were deplorable; it rained intermittently, the field was a mudhole, and the referees were certainly questionable.

It took an all-out effort to achieve the triumph, for the Huskies put up a spirited battle all the way, and caused the Warriors to keep their best operatives in action throughout the game.

The victors fashioned touchdowns early in both the first and third periods. In the second half, the Huskies gave as well as they received, and certainly put more drama in their scoring efforts.

After Stroudsburg scored early in the third period, the Huskies went to work. With Rohrer and Scott working superbly, the Huskies scored. The score came on a fine pass play. Rohrer to Scott.

Stroudsburg scored on an intercepted pass late in the third quarter. After the kickoff, the Blairmen went back to work. Through the fine aerial efforts of Sprout, Davala, Cunningham, Klembara, and Rohrer, the Huskies scored again. Mention should be made especially of the fine Husky line, for without their spirited play, this moral victory, so to speak, would have been impossible.

Husky Manager, Don Frankin, hands out equipment to Dale Greenly.

WRESTLING

This was a banner year for the Huskies. The record at the right speaks for itself. The season was highlighted by two very exciting matches, Southern Illinois and Lock Haven. The Huskies reached their peak against Lock Haven, and with this as momentum, they should come out on top in the States and the NAIA Tournament.

Nineteen sixty-three marks the fourth year of intercollegiate golf at B.S.C. Our record for our first three years of competition is fifteen wins, five losses, and one tie. Last year, 1962, constituted our best year, with seven wins and one loss. During that year the B.S.C. Golf Team was defeated in its first game of the season by East Stroudsburg, but came back to seven golf matches in a row.

This year, John Yurgel, Captain, will complete his fourth year as a regular. He is the only player who started out with the original team in 1960. Three other returning players are Joe Rado, starting his third year, and George Masich and Bob McCloskey, both starting their second year. The loss of George Gensemer will be sorely felt. Other players who look promising will battle for positions on the team, however, and the individual members will do their best to uphold the previous record.
