VOLUME XLIX
BLOOMSBURG STATE COLLEGE

BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

1965 . . . A GOOD YEAR FOR BLOOMSBURG . . . A GREAT YEAR FOR BSC

This year will mark the end of a century-and-a-quarter of growth for Bloomsburg State College. This institution has rapidly progressed, both physically and academically, until it now stands as a leader among the fourteen state colleges of Pennsylvania. The campus has expanded continuously from the time Carver Hall stood in lonely majesty, until the present when the college plant includes sixteen buildings, with three additional buildings to be constructed in the near future. Academically B.S.C. has slowly evolved from an Academy, to a State Normal School, to a State Teachers College, to its present status as a State College, offering a B.A. degree as well as the B.S. degree in education. In addition, the college now offers graduate work in several academic areas.

This issue of the OBITER will present to the students and faculty of Bloomsburg events of major importance throughout the academic year. Our staff has included photographs of Bloomsburg State College past and present. These photos have been supplied by the Public Relations office and through the untiring efforts of our staff photographers.

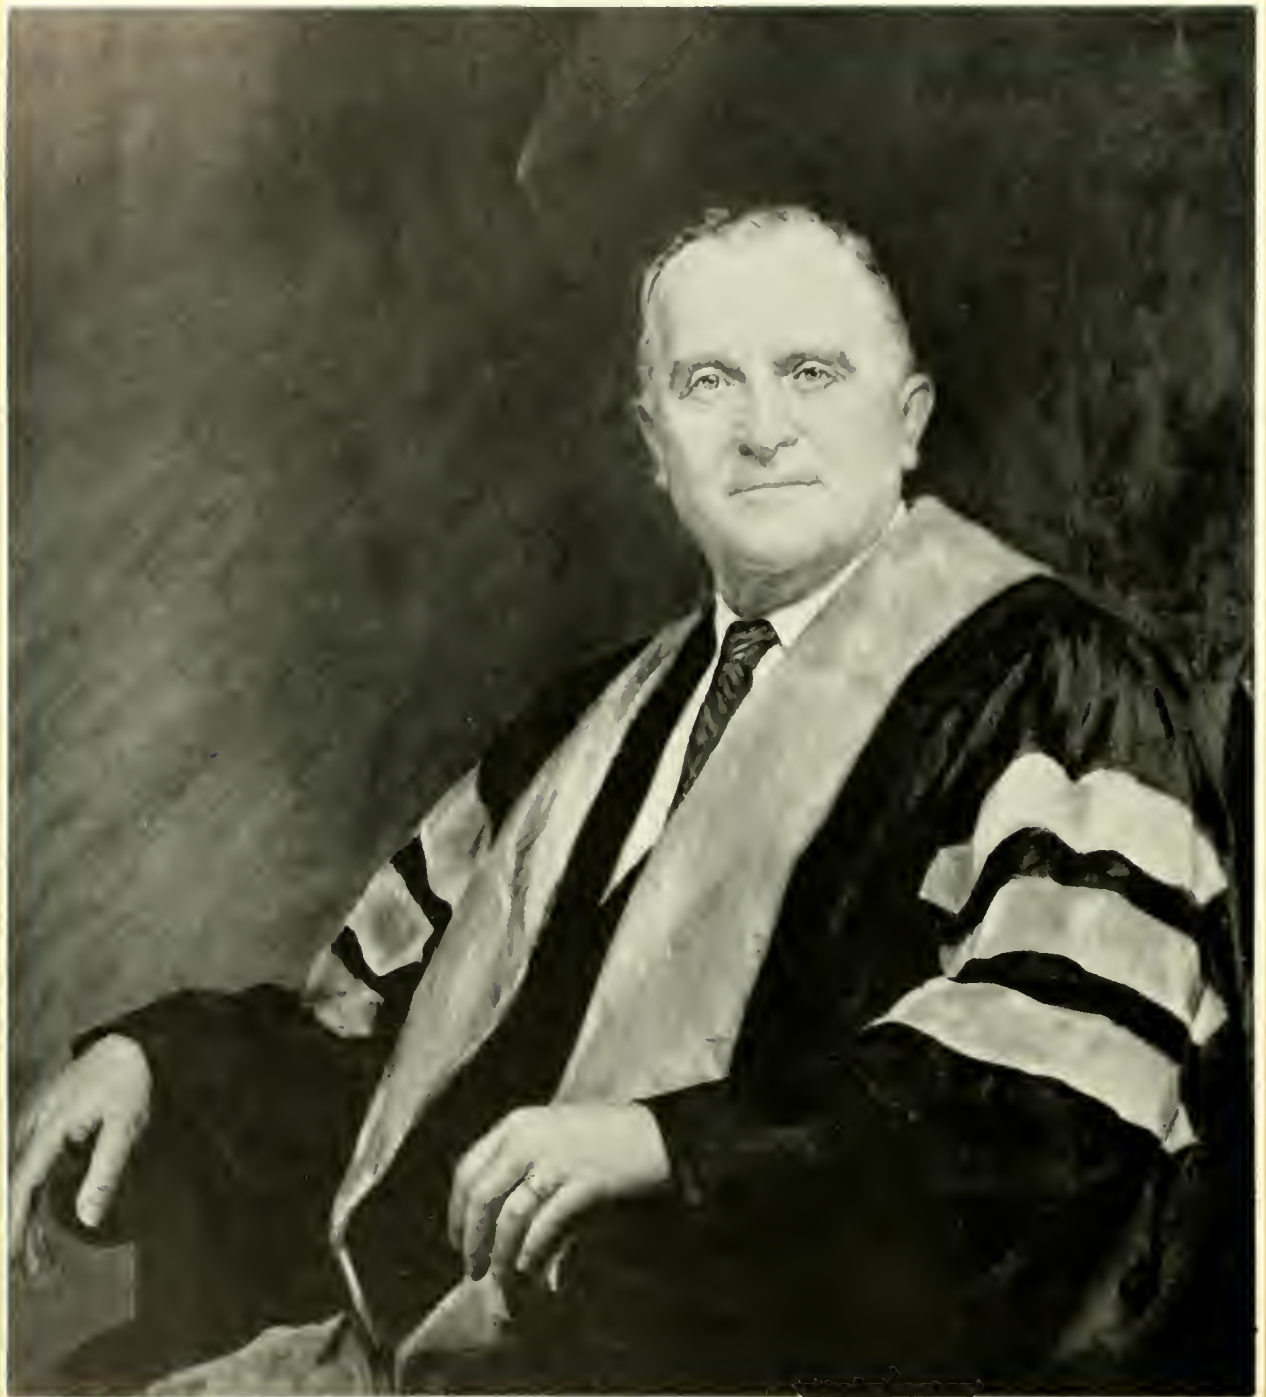

Last, we wish to extend our appreciation to the faculty, the administration, and the student body for their unstinting cooperation throughout the school year. As a result, the staff feels that the 1965 OBITER is more than a yearbook, since it is truly representative of the aspirations and hopes of Bloomsburg State College.

DEDICATION

DR. HARVEY ANDRUSS

*President, Bloomsburg State College
1939—1964*

The OBITER pauses to honor the man who has led Bloomsburg State College for the last twenty-five years. In his term as president, Dr. Andruss has won respect and admiration from other educators, political leaders, alumni, and students. With his high ideals, Dr. Andruss has continually improved the caliber of Bloomsburg graduates.

We at Bloomsburg have been indeed fortunate to have such an exemplar as Dr. Harvey A. Andruss.

GREETINGS:

Pennsylvanians are proud of Bloomsburg State College, one of our fine public institutions of higher education, which has served the people of our State well for 125 years.

The Obiter's theme, "A Century and a Quarter of Growth," was well chosen, for growth has always been evident in public education in Pennsylvania; it has been steady; and it continues. More and more of our citizens are being given the opportunity to achieve skills through higher education. We have expanded not only the facilities of State Colleges, but the curriculum as well.

During this Anniversary year it is inspiring to look to the past, because of the long way the College has come. It is equally inspiring to consider the future, because of the promises it holds for better education through increased public interest and participation and through better planning to coordinate higher education in Pennsylvania.

It is a pleasure to have this opportunity to commend the officials of Bloomsburg State College, and the faculty and students, past and present, who have given it character and quality.

All of you have my every good wish for continued growth and success in sending forth well-educated men and women to serve their communities and our Commonwealth.

Mr. Henry E. Fetterman
Editor-in-Chief, THE OBITER
Bloomsburg State College
Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Fetterman:

I congratulate Bloomsburg State College in this year of its 125th anniversary. When Bloomsburg State was founded, a high school education was considered a luxury.

Today, it has become quite apparent that higher education is no longer a luxury but a necessity; the demand for skilled and professional workers in a highly technological age has made higher learning a vital component of modern living. And we cannot meet these demands without institutions like this one.

For this reason I consider aid to higher education one of the foremost problems facing the Congress today. In this new Congressional session it will be vital that we act on such proposals as Federal assistance to states for the construction of public community colleges, income tax relief for students who are working their own way through college and tax relief for parents who are putting children through college.

These are but a few of the things remaining to be done in education. For unless we win in the field of education all the other problems facing our Nation today will have small meaning for this and future generations.

I congratulate Bloomsburg State on the conclusion of 125 years of effort devoted to education and wish you even more success in the next 125.

Sincerely,

Bloomsburg State College
Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Sir:

It is a pleasure to send my greetings to Bloomsburg State College on its 125th Anniversary. This is a long, proud history of achievement in which not only the College but the entire Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can rejoice.

No single factor today is more important to the full flowering of individual opportunity and the development of prosperity than education. With the increasing complexity of our economy, the accelerating emphasis on automation, the speed with which entire industries are born and change, education is the single constant answer to the challenges and problems that arise. Only our schools and colleges can provide the knowledge and techniques needed to keep pace with change.

Bloomsburg State College can look forward to a long, exciting future of equipping its students for the formidable but interesting tasks they face.

My warmest congratulations.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH S. CLARK

THE SUPERINTENDENT

Bloomsburg State College has achieved a century and a quarter of service to the teaching profession, the Bloomsburg community, and our Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Truly, this period was one of growth which has been reflected in the progress of our State.

The 125th Anniversary would appear to mark a long period in the annals of the college, but in terms of its future we are on only the historical threshold.

We have opened up new horizons for our State Colleges by the addition of liberal arts programs, graduate programs, and the improvement of teacher education.

Bloomsburg has stood with our other State Colleges in meeting the requirements of a State intent on educating its citizenry. The college has contributed many of the excellent teachers now at work in the classrooms of our public schools.

I wish to congratulate the college on its 125th Anniversary and hope that it continues to exhibit a flexibility which permits adaptation of a program and a curriculum to the requirements of a progressive Pennsylvania.

Sincerely yours,

Editor of the Obitier:

I wish to join with the citizens of Bloomsburg in extending best wishes to Bloomsburg State College on its one hundred and twenty-fifth birthday. We are proud of our fine relationship with the College that has continued down through the years.

We also extend congratulations to Dr. Harvey A. Andruss on his twenty-five successful years of association with the College.

Sincerely,

THE CAMPUS

BSC Morale was at an all time low when this dormitory building was destroyed by fire Sept. 5, 1875.

Presenting stately Carver Hall, the oldest building on campus.

Above is the entrance to Waller Hall. This building, for years a women's dormitory, now houses both men and women in separate wings. The college library is located on the first floor, along with various administrative offices and student lounges.

Featured here is Waller Hall undergoing construction in 1890.

Old North Hall has three phases: the past, the present and the future. In 1875, what was then Waller Dorm burned to the ground. Upon rebuilding, it was dubbed North Hall . . .

It was then a men's dorm, until the completion of the new men's dorm, New North Hall, in 1958 when it was made into an office building for department heads and faculty.

This year it is to be razed and replaced by this new structure.

Long Porch pictured here has been a familiar meeting place for students for many years.

It is one of the oldest, and best remembered landmarks by students, and alumni.

This unique building, Science Hall, is remembered by its architectural peculiarity which requires one to go up before one goes down.

Centinennial Gym is a haven for athletic events, and the large gym is well known for its Saturday night dances and other social affairs including big name entertainment features such as the Kingston Trio.

Navy Hall houses the Special Education Center.

Benjamin Franklin Laboratory Elementary School is a good training center for our graduates specializing in elementary education.

New North Hall, a men's dorm, will soon have its name changed to Old North Hall when the present Old North Hall is replaced by a new men's dorm, New North Hall.

The dining hall, the Commons, is located on Second Street east of Waller Hall.

Sutliff Hall, located on the upper end of the campus, contains science centers and the Business Education Department.

East Hall, shown here, and its counterpart, West Hall are the latest additions to the campus.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

This constituted the entire faculty of Bloomsburg State Normal School in 1887. An indication of the growth of an institution is the increase of its instructional staff. This year at B.S.C. one-hundred forty-six members are included on the instructional staff.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A Message to the Class of 1965:

The quest for certainty is as old as mankind. To make certain an uncertain future is the problem of every generation. Youth is always confused by the process of growing up and the changing of events in the world at large. Each generation feels that its problems are more serious than the previous one and to that extent every generation has a rendezvous with destiny.

Into such a world, we send you with the hope that you will be able to meet the problems of the future as well as you have met those of the last four years.

President.

James B. Creasy, a member of the faculty of Bloomsburg State College since September, 1960, has been appointed Assistant to the President, according to an announcement by Dr. Harvey A. Andrus. Mr. Creasy earned the Master of Science degree in Business Administration at Bucknell University. While completing the degree requirements at Bucknell, he served as an assistant in Economics and has continued his graduate studies at Pennsylvania State University. His professional affiliations include membership in the National Business Education Association, the Pennsylvania Business Educators Association, the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and the National Education Association. He has served as Pennsylvania State Chairman for the N.B.E.A., and has been a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Pi Omega Pi, honorary professional education associations.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Charles D. Steiner, Shamokin, Pennsylvania, served as a Trustee of Bloomsburg State Teachers College from 1915-1957, and was subsequently appointed a Trustee of Bloomsburg State College in 1961, and

WHEREAS, his long association and interest in the institution and its activities, and his counsel, advice and understanding of the problems following World War II, when the institution provided education for many Service Men who were more mature than the average student,

BE IT RESOLVED that his spirit of service and interest in our College should be recognized by the Board of Trustees in such a manner that the Alumni, Faculty, and Students be made aware of his passing and the loss we sustain, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution shall be spread upon the Minutes of the Board of Trustees, and shall also appear in College and Alumni publications, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies shall also be sent to the surviving wife and members of the family of Mr. Charles D. Steiner.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

BLOOMSBURG STATE COLLEGE
BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

ROBERT C. MILLER
Director

On June 9, 1960, the State Council of Education of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania authorized the Bloomsburg State College to inaugurate a program of graduate studies and to confer the Master of Education degree. Graduate courses for students desiring to secure the Master of Education degree in Business Education, Elementary Education, English, Speech Correction, and Special Education for the Mentally Retarded are now offered by the College. The program is operative within the framework of policies and curriculums developed and approved by the Graduate Council of the College.

Courses are offered during summer sessions and the academic year for both full and part-time students desiring to improve their professional competence. There are now over four hundred students enrolled in the program which began in the summer of 1961.

The dedication of the College to the success of this endeavor is but another step in the continuing effort to serve the academic community and to improve the status of the teaching profession.

The need for professional education for teachers extending beyond the undergraduate level has long been recognized by educational leaders throughout the United States. In recent years the Pennsylvania State Council of Education has taken positive action to improve instruction in public schools by upgrading certification requirements for teachers. This action indicates a clear recognition by the State Council of the need for training beyond the Bachelor's degree. Mandated salary schedules which provide salary differentials for holders of Master's degrees in the form of higher maximum salaries give additional recognition of the value of graduate study.

The program of graduate studies at Bloomsburg State College has as its primary purpose the increasing of the competency of teachers in Pennsylvania. To achieve this purpose, the following specific objectives, as they relate to the individual student, have been developed.

1. To provide opportunity for advanced study in a selected field of specialization.
2. To provide an opportunity for developing a better understanding of the culture of our society—a society in which the teacher is expected to assume an increasing important role.
3. To encourage independent thought and initiative and develop problem-solving ability.
4. To provide an incentive for continuing professional growth.
5. To develop a basic understanding of research methods and techniques so that reports of research in the field of education may be correctly interpreted and evaluated.
6. To develop a more comprehensive understanding of the teaching and learning processes.

BLOOMSBURG STATE COLLEGE
BLOOMSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

The Arts and Sciences program, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, has now been in operation at Bloomsburg State College for two years. There are about 200 students currently enrolled in this program, and approximately 125 more will be admitted next fall.

The Bachelor of Arts degree is the standard degree for students who do not directly intend to make a career of public school teaching. Hence the students pursuing this degree have a wide diversity of objectives: after graduation some are planning to enter careers in business, industry, research, etc.; some are planning to enter medical, law, or other professional schools; and some are planning to go on to graduate work (e. g., for degrees necessary for college or university teaching).

In the B.A. (or A.B.) curriculum at Bloomsburg, the student follows one of three different general areas of concentration: (1) the Natural Sciences, (2) the Social Sciences, or (3) the Humanities. Within each of these three areas many specific "majors" (30 to 40 or more credit hours) are currently available, while other "majors" are constantly being developed as new course offerings are instituted. All students in the Division of Arts and Sciences are required to take at least one year of Mathematics, at least one year of a Natural Science (Biology, Physics, Chemistry, or Geology), and a modern Foreign Language through sophomore level (Spanish 201-202, French 201-202, or German 201-202).

The establishment of the Arts and Sciences program in the Pennsylvania state colleges constitutes the particular development which warranted the name-change from "Bloomsburg State Teachers College" to "Bloomsburg State College" and represents a vital step forward in the educational advancement of this institution and in its service to the diverse academic needs of students in this area of the state.

▲ The role of the teacher is clearly demonstrated in the accompanying photographs. Above, Mr. Edward Beck, a student teacher in the fifth grade of the Salem Elementary School, conducts a question and answer period.

MR. C. STUART EDWARDS.
Director of Secondary Education. ▶

▶ Edward Conjura, a student teacher, assists a student with a math problem in Benjamin Franklin Junior High School in Bristol, Pa.

◀ Extensive use of the chalkboard is made by student teacher, Robert Griffiths, in his biology presentation at Woodrow Wilson Junior High in Bucks County.

▶ Gerald Fritz utilizes a bulletin board display to explain algebraic concepts while student teaching at Benjamin Franklin Junior High.

Alice Halawell, pauses during a lesson to give individual instruction on a difficult math problem.

Supervisor of student teachers in the Bucks County area, Mr. Martin Keller, confers with Mr. Frank Furgele, Principal of Woodrow Wilson Junior High School.

Student teacher Jean Burdick collects an assignment in a seventh grade English class.

Fred Halstead takes time to evaluate the progress of his students.

Fellow Graduates:

Finally, after four years of hard work and sacrifice, we each find ourselves facing the culmination of all this effort. This represents, I am sure, many different things to each of us, but I think we each find it both a time of sadness and of great joy.

It represents a time of sadness because we must now bid farewell to so many things for which we have a great deal of affection. Each one of us through these past four years has made many warm and close friendships. Now, we part with the realization that possibly we may never see our friends again. We leave "The Hill" and take with us the memories which will linger forever: athletic events, Husky Lounge at Christmas, autumn homecoming, studying for exams, those faculty members who have made a deep impression upon us. I'm sure individually we have many many more impressions which will always remain with us. Bloomsburg will not merely be a college for us: it will be our college as long as we have these memories.

But now, this moment also represents a time when each of us feels as if he will burst with pride. We stand on the threshold of the future, knowing that we have accomplished something of which we should indeed be proud. We've got everything in front of us. In a sense, it is only now that we will begin to live, because we will now begin to contribute. Those of us who will enter the Teaching Profession have the unique opportunity of contributing in a way which is both vital and basic to the very continuance of our great society—the education of our youth. In pursuing this objective, let us never become guilty of mental stagnation, for nothing could be more fatal to one's intellectual spirit than this. No one of us will ever be so good as to have no room for improvement, or so smart as to have no need for further study. Let us each continue to strive for perfection, for, although no one will ever achieve this goal, by striving for it we cannot help but better ourselves.

In closing, I would like to extend to each of you my personal congratulations and wishes for success in your every endeavor. Thank you for the honor of having served you this past year and for your help in having made it such an outstanding one.

Sincerely yours,

ANTHONY CERZA
Junior Class President

Fellow Classmates:

First of all, I would like to thank you for the privilege and honor of serving as your class president. It has been an experience I will cherish for years to come.

The activities of the Junior Class have been various. From our participation in Homecoming to the highlight of the year for our class, the Junior Prom, the year has been marked by success. But, without the help and support of those class members who devoted their time and effort our activities would have been far from successful. To those who served rather than be served, my success was really yours. If you keep on serving in your remaining days at BSC as you have done this year I am sure you will become a model for others to follow.

I wish to record a special "thank you" to Mr. Otto Harris for his helpful guidance and unselfish inspiration throughout the year. His dedication to the class of 1966 will always remain in our hearts.

I wish you all continued success in your remaining days at BSC.

Sincerely yours.

DANIEL GUYDISH
Sophomore Class President

Dear Classmates,

When this academic year closes, you will have added another chapter to the annals of B.S.C. history.

Even though we have fallen short of our high ideals, we have done much of which to be proud. Our class has actively participated in many of the activities on campus. Much time was spent by certain members of the class on our Sophomore Cotillion, "The Sophomore Jammie." We did a fine job on our Homecoming float and entered contestants in the Coed-of-the-year contest and the Glamour magazine contest. The Sophomore Class has also made its presence felt at campus athletic and social events and has shown great enthusiasm in joining the state wide call of the "100,000 Pennsylvanians."

I would like to extend personal thanks and appreciation to our class adviser, Mr. Tobias F. Scarpino, who was untiring in his efforts to aid the sophomore class. I would also like to commend the class officers for a job well done.

Serving as your president has been an enjoyable experience, and I would like to thank you, "Class of '67," for giving me that opportunity. May the future be as rewarding to you as this past year has been to me.

Sincerely yours,

NELSON RAMONT
Freshman Class President

Fellow Freshmen,

Upon entering Bloomsburg State College in September, 1961, we, as freshmen, were experiencing college life for the first time. As typical "frosh," we were eager to make new friends and to intermingle at the various social events. Orientation Week afforded us a chance to become acquainted and to unify ourselves to form the Class of '68.

Being the largest class in Bloomsburg's history, we made our presence felt by participating in the many activities on campus. The success of the Freshman athletic teams, the entry of our float in the Homecoming Parade, our dance, the "Freshman Snowball," and participating in the Coed-of-the-Year and "Glamour Magazine" contests are a few of the accomplishments made by the Class of '68, not to mention our participation in the various clubs and organizations on campus.

On behalf of the Freshman class, I would like to take this opportunity to thank our class adviser, Mr. James Devore, for his sympathetic understanding and valued assistance in helping to make our first year a success.

Serving as your class president has been a rewarding experience and I hope you achieve as much success in your future endeavors, Class of '68, as you have in the past year.

Sincerely,

Nelson F. Ramont

COED OF THE YEAR

Judy Neill is a Business Education major in her Sophomore year. She comes to B.S.C. from Willow Grove, Pa. The Obiter extends Congratulations and best wishes to Judy in her reign as Coed of the Year 1965.

The Coed-of-the-Year contest is sponsored annually by the college yearbook for the purpose of selecting the most popular coed in the student body. The initial selections are first made by a nominating committee consisting of the officers of the various classes, with a coordinator selected by the editor of the Obiter. This years coordinator was Bill Berger. Eight candidates are selected—two each from the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. The entire college community selects the winner from these eight nominees in a general election supervised by the Community Government Association. The winner is crowned at the Freshman Dance, which is held in Centennial Gymnasium. The dance this year was held on February 19.

NEW YORK'S CIRCLE IN THE SQUARE THEATRICAL COMPANY
PRESENTS
EUGENE O'NEILL'S
DESIRE UNDER THE ELM

Since its performance in 1921, "Desire Under the Elm" has become one of America's masterpieces of the theatre. In this play Eugene O'Neill first became involved in the elements of love, hatred, pride, lust, and greed which he later became so concerned with.

In making this appearance the Circle in the Square employs a cast of eleven. This performance is one of the thirty which the company will be giving under the Theatre's producer, Theodore Mann. This theatre is one of the first Off-Broadway theatres and today is the most important continuous producing organization in New York.

CHARLES DICKENS

Emlyn Williams is known as an actor, playwright, and director. In his thirty years in the English-speaking theater he has served in all three of these areas simultaneously. He comes to Bloomsburg giving a solo performance of scenes from the famous novels and stories of Charles Dickens. Beginning these one-man appearances a decade ago, Mr. Williams has become well known throughout the nation.

In his appearance he did scenes from such well known books as A Tale of Two Cities, Christmas Stories, and Our Mutual Friend.

Mr. Hanson is an author and editor of twelve books with his most recent being, The Great Arms Race. The topic of his lecture was, "Where Do We Go From Here?"

The Endowed Artist and Lecture Fund is a testimony to the generosity and vision of students, alumni, and administration of B.S.C. The purpose of the fund is to give students an opportunity to see and hear—on campus—lecturers, scholars, and artists of national and international repute and to have copies of their messages printed and sent to alumni and friends of the college.

COMMUNITY GOVERNMENT

Combined Student-Faculty Organization in charge of Student Activities

Dear Fellow Students:

During the academic year, 1927-1928, at Bloomsburg State Teachers College, Dr. Marguerite Kehr, Dean of Women, and various students instituted a movement to establish a student government association at the college. This organization was known as the Community Government Association, and Dr. Kehr became its first faculty adviser. On February 22, 1928, the formal constitution of this body was adopted.

As this governing body grew, standing committees were formed under the direction of the Student Council. Members of this Council included the officers of the Community Government Association, the presidents of the classes, two representatives, male and female from each class, the presidents of the Day Men, Day Women, Resident Men, and Resident Women's Associations; administrative heads were also included—the Dean of Students (as adviser), Dean of Instruction, Dean of Men, Dean of Women, and Director of Public Relations.

In 1938 the Student Council became the College Council, with its membership remaining the same except for one addition. The editor of the newspaper, the Maroon and Gold, was admitted as a non-voting member, making a total of 27 members. Following this transition, the Community Government Association and the College Council have continually grown in power and in service to the student body as stated in the Constitution: "The object of this organization shall be to co-operate with the responsible authorities in promoting personal and group responsibility in guiding and regulating the affairs and activities of all students under the jurisdiction of the College."

Upon entering college, all students and faculty members automatically become members of the Community Government Association. The meetings of the association are held during assembly periods upon call by the president. It is the duty of the entire association to elect those who shall legislate on all matters pertaining to student interests and life which are not inconsistent with the policy of the responsible authorities. It is the duty of the members of the association to elect members to College Council which is the legislative, executive, and judicial body of the association.

The College Council meets on the second and fourth Mondays of each month to carry out its responsibilities. The duties of the College Council are numerous. First and foremost is the duty which consists of representing the members of the Community Government Association. This is very adequately done since the College Council is a representative selection of individuals from all aspects of college life. A major duty is to recommend and approve plans for the general supervision of all student organizations. A student organization which was recommended to, and approved by, the Council this year was the Women's Service Society, which will undoubtedly contribute a great deal to the growth of this college and to the student life on campus.

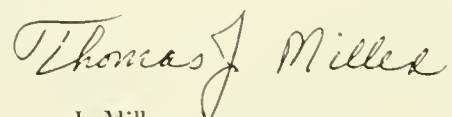

The Council acts as a legislative agent in formulating policies for the association, and if approved, these policies are administered by the Council which then acts as an executive body. The Council refers matters which affect the entire College Community to the association for consideration. Such matters include Big-Name Entertainment Programs, and the election of Community Government Association and College Council officers each spring.

The success of the Community Government Association and the College Council rests on the effectiveness of the fifteen C.G.A. Standing Committees. These committees are responsible for all college activities, ranging from orienting the new students to setting the standards to be followed by students eating in the dining room. This year the committees have been very ambitious and have served the interests of the college community effectively. This year, a new committee, the Publicity Committee, chaired by Jennifer Smith, was established to publicize the events sponsored by College Council and to bring to the attention of the college community all achievements of C G A and its standing committees.

This year College Council has been confronted with a wide range of activities and duties. These activities change continuously as new situations arise. The council, of which I have been president, as well as councils of the future, must evaluate the college scene and recognize the fact that changes are imperative in order that this institution will continue to be a leader in the field of teacher education.

It has been a great honor this past year to serve as the president of the Community Government Association. I doubt whether the experiences I have encountered will ever be equaled. To the faculty and students of Bloomsburg State College, I express my appreciation for the opportunity to serve you. The best of luck, happiness, and success in the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. Miller

RESIDENT WOMEN

The Association of Resident Women had its beginning in 1927. The women felt they wanted to uphold the ideal of student government, instead of being subject to the compulsory guidance of college officials. The organization was called the Women's Student Government Association. They felt the Association should be a vital part of dormitory life, with the original purpose being the creation of a spirit of cooperation, friendliness, and happiness among the women.

Membership consisted of all dorm women in Waller Hall. The executive, legislative, and judicial powers were handled by a Governing Board, composed of students in the capacities of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Representatives from each of the classes. Advisers to the Association were the Dean of Women and her assistants. Committees were formed for Freshman Advisers, Upperclass Advisers, Social, Recreation, House, Finance, and Fire. Committee chairmen were elected by Governing Board.

The first activities of the Association included a Welcome party for Freshmen and a Christmas party for crippled children. Near the end of the year a HE-SHE party was held for the entire college. At that time newly-elected officers of both Day and Dorm associations were announced.

In 1936 the name of the Association was changed to Waller Hall Student Government Association. It was later shortened to the Waller Hall Association. New activities emerged in the 1930's, such as Room Judging by faculty and students, Waller Hall "Pop-In" parties for the Day Women, and the HE-SHE dance was now made an event for Day and Dorm women only.

The 1940's saw the Waller Hall Association's framework stay essentially the same, but activities were increased. Organized floor parties and get-togethers became more frequent. In 1941 a successful Mothers' Weekend was initiated. In the decade of the 1950's, the rapid growth of the Association necessitated the addition of two officers to Governing Board—the Social Chairman in 1957 and an Assistant Social Chairman in 1960. The famous HE-SHE party was changed to a Dorm Party for resident women only. Today it is known as the Surprise Dessert.

In 1963, because women had begun living in many off-campus houses other than Waller Hall, the government was renamed as the Association of Resident Women. 1964 has spotlighted the women as privileged occupants of two new residence halls—East and West Halls—plus two units of "Co-Ed" Waller Hall. These residence halls, as living centers, provide an atmosphere which encourages high standards in social and academic life.

The Men Residents' Council has been in existence, in some form, since the days of the Normal School. The first semblance of an organization for college men dates back to 1915 when the Boys' Dormitory Club was organized. This club elected officers and met regularly to establish rules and improve living conditions in the dormitories.

The name was changed to North Hall Executive Council in the 1930's and members were elected by popular vote. This body of men help formulate rules, and had jurisdiction over disciplinary problems among the students. The objective of the association was to promote the welfare of dormitory men. Each year the association sponsored a Smoker, comprised of talent from the student body.

In 1940 the name was changed again—to the North Hall Association. Shortly after this, the men occupied both North Hall and Waller Hall; thus, the name became the Men's Dormitory Association. It then served both Waller Hall and North Hall as a governing body.

As the college grew, the present name, Men Residents' Council, was established. Now, not only were dormitory men included, but also the men who lived in the Town of Bloomsburg became automatic members.

Resident men now elect officers, who in turn, choose men to serve on the Men Residents' Council. The council members are chosen from Waller Hall, New North Hall, Al's Lounge, and from men living in private homes in Bloomsburg. These men meet with the officers once a month to promote the general welfare of resident men, as well as assume the responsibilities for formulating policies to improve the living conditions of resident men at Bloomsburg.

DAY MEN'S ASSOCIATION

Until about 30 years ago, the Day Men's Association was an informal group of commuting men. However, in the past 25 years it has grown into a strong organization, designed to promote the well-being of its members. Its headquarters has moved as the expansion to the college required from the basement of old North Hall, to Navy Hall, to Noetling Hall, and to its present location in the Social Rooms of Science Hall. The association meets as a group whenever necessary, to discuss and formulate plans for the benefit of its members and the college community. During the past two years, the Day Men's Association has awarded two $75 scholarships to a student who has met the qualifications prescribed by the Faculty Scholarship Committee. Dr. Ralph Herre is currently serving as adviser to the group.

DAY WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Day Women's Association was formed in 1930, and the members were known as the Locker Room Girls. The year 1933-34 brought the more sophisticated title that remains today, as well as the formation of the ten-member Governing Board.

The general purpose of the Association is to see to the welfare of its members, who include commuting women as well as the women students living in the Town of Bloomsburg.

Some former projects were designed to provide gifts at Christmas to needy families, and to establish a committee to assist Freshmen girls and acquaint them with each other and the college. Current projects include floats each year in the Homecoming Parade, a Big and Little Sister Tea, parties at Hallowe'en, Christmas, and Valentine's Day, and a banquet held in May to honor seniors and install the newly-elected Governing Board.

1965 OBITER

The 1965 Obiter represents the 49th year since the first college annual was published in 1915 by the Bloomsburg State Normal School. The title of the first edition of the college yearbook was Onward. The purpose of the first yearbook was to provide a pictorial record and a history of the class, according to Roy C. Kendig, of Harveysville, who assumed the dual role of editor-in-chief and business manager of the initial publication.

The first edition included portraits of members of the senior class, athletic contests and teams, the well-known literary societies, and dramatic presentations. In addition, there was a section titled "Current Campus Humor," giving "the editors" an opportunity to comment on the foibles of their classmates. Included in this edition is a statement of expenses for the college year:

For those intending to teach, who are at least seventeen years old, the board, room, and laundry for the whole year costs only $186, and the state will pay the tuition.

Also found in the first edition is the following quaint statement of interest to "females":

... a cultured lady devotes all her time as Preceptress to the welfare of girls.

Volume II, published the following year, was the first edition to use the title Obiter from the legal phrase, Obiter Dictum, a literal translation being, "An observation made while passing."

The Obiter continued as a senior publication under the sponsorship of several faculty members, notably Mr. Sammel L. Wilson, head of the English Department. In 1953, it was decided to make the yearbook an all-college publication under the direction of Dr. Edward T. DeVoe, the present adviser. As a result the Obiter expanded its coverage of all college events and was distributed free of charge to students and faculty alike. The purpose of the Obiter is to present an historical record of each graduating class, while giving adequate coverage to all phases of college life, including faculty and administration, college organizations, student activities, varsity athletics, and other aspects of college life.

The first news publication of the college appeared in 1923. This weekly publication, called the Bloom-in-Views, was a form of news bulletin, with Walter P. Benninger as editor. The faculty advisory committee was composed of Helen Babb, Edna Monroe, and Professor Samuel Wilson.

In 1924 the name was changed to Maroon & Gold. All faculty members and students subscribed to the paper so it could meet its fiscal responsibilities. To ensure even more financial aid, a vaudeville show was presented annually under the direction of the staff. In 1927 the editor was elected by the student body, and the editor then selected his own staff. The staff felt the need for a "bigger, better, more beneficial paper." In 1931 the method of choosing editors changed. The editor and business manager were elected by the Community Government Association. Also in that year the paper was put on the same basis as the athletic teams and the finances were handled by the college. About 1932 the paper became a semi-monthly issue, and most outstanding at this time was the publication of forceful, thought-provoking editorials. The first woman editor came to the Maroon & Gold in 1934. The paper continued its forceful editorials and also followed an "all news—less gossip" policy. During 1938 student opinion began to be expressed freely through editorials and letters to the editor.

Dr. DeVoe was the newspaper's adviser from 1946 to 1956. With the return to campus of the World War II veterans, the Maroon & Gold became more sophisticated and increased its coverage of student and faculty news. National advertising appeared in its columns, and photographic journalism was introduced. This was also the period of the personal column, and many students with literary ambitions found an outlet for their literary ambitions in columns of Maroon & Gold. During the period 1955-60 the college newspaper, with Dr. Seronsy as sponsor, continued its growth. Increased emphasis was placed on devoting the editorial page to student opinion. During these years the practice was established of putting the first edition out early enough for distribution at fall registration. In 1958 the old black-letter Gothic type name-plate was discontinued, and its place was taken by the simpler, more graceful lettering still in use. At the same time the little motto, "For Campus News & Views," was added.

In 1960 Mr. Savage took over as adviser. The paper continued to develop basically along the principles set by his predecessors. In 1963 the Maroon & Gold became a weekly publication to keep pace with the acceleration of the college. The increased amount of news now often necessitates a six or eight-page issue. The newspaper has also taken on the task of publishing certain routine items of information from the administrative offices, such as the list of interviews sponsored by Placement Office and final examination schedule.

The Maroon & Gold is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Ass. and has won a number of prizes for good journalism in CSPA's annual judging.

For more than fifteen years the Olympian has provided an outlet for the creative writing of BSC students. At first, the magazine was a large-format general periodical: as such, it published feature articles, cartoons, and jokes, as well as poetry and fiction. But during the past several years it has become more strictly a literary magazine, printing poems, stories, and essays. Not all the writing it prints is student work: each issue also includes a section of previously unpublished material by well-known guest writers. This feature helps the Olympian, which has been an annual since its inception, to achieve its primary goal: to stimulate interest in literature among the BSC student body.

PILOT

Called the history of The Pilot, the student handbook, extends back to the year 1929-30. The college authorities decided that Bloomsburg State Teachers College had expanded to the point that entering and advanced students needed a handy guide for their convenience in locating classrooms and faculty offices. As a result, a committee of faculty and students, headed by Dr. Marguerite Kehr, then Dean of Women, was appointed for the purpose of preparing a handbook. The First Editor was _____.

The publication was known officially as "The College Handbook" until 1919 when the title was changed to The Pilot. Since that time there have been a number of different advisers, but the management of the publication is now the responsibility of Dr. J. Alfred McCauslin, Dean of Students. The handbook contains information of value to new and old students alike, including the constitution of the Student Government Association, a list of the various campus organizations with officers and sponsors, a schedule of athletic events, a map of the campus, college cheers, and other information of interest to B.S.C. students.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

On October 26, 1963, Mr. Frank Reed Horton, the founder of Alpha Phi Omega, presented the Xi Lambda Chapter of Bloomsburg State College its charter. Alpha Phi Omega is the National Service Fraternity for college and university men, founded in 1925, and now active on more than 300 campuses in the United States.

The purpose of this fraternity is to develop leadership, promote friendship, and to provide service. Alpha Phi Omega renders service to the student body and faculty, to youth and community, to members of the fraternity, and to the nation as participating citizens.

The Alpha Omicron Cast of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary fraternity for dramatics, was established on this campus March 3, 1928. One of the first plays presented by the group in 1931 was The Copperhead. In those early years, the fraternity fostered the publication of a monthly paper, "Fraternity News Letter," for the benefit of alumni interested in dramatics.

The year 1931 saw the fraternity doing outside entertainment, such as one-act plays, presented at various town meetings and college-sponsored events. A three-act comedy, The Late Christopher Bean, as well as one-act plays, kept the Cast busy in 1935. In 1936 Alpha Psi was host to the Shakespearean Players who presented two productions on campus.

During the tenth anniversary of the founding, in 1938, the fraternity sponsored an afternoon discussion on the current theatre by Mr. George Beale, a prominent dramatic critic. In this year, the fraternity announced its plans to establish a Children's Theatre as an annual event on campus.

During November, 1941, the Hedgerow Players presented Shaw's Candida, for the college community. In 1944 Alpha Psi presented one-act plays in support and promotion of war bond sales; also Navy V-12 men who had been members of Alpha Psi at their former colleges were welcomed into the Cast.

The featured activity of 1948 was the broadcast of A Wedding over WCNR by the Fraternity. In recent years the Alpha Omicron Cast has been instrumental in sponsoring an all-college Variety Show. The local Cast also presents a series of mental health plays annually as a public service. The fraternity is active in hosting the professional entertainers who visit Bloomsburg each year.

Delta Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon, Professional Geographic Fraternity, was chartered October 16, 1931, a year after the founding of the national organization. Today, it is the second oldest continuously active chapter among 90 in the United States and Canada. The purpose of Gamma Theta Upsilon is to advance the professional study of geography both as a cultural discipline and as a practical subject for study and investigation.

Although earlier geographic clubs undoubtedly existed on campus, records of only one other exist. In October, 1926, The Geographic Society of Bloomsburg State Teachers College was organized with Dr. H. Harrison Russell as adviser. All students and interested faculty members were eligible. The group continued to function until the spring of 1940.

A greater measure of academic achievement was required for membership in Gamma Theta Upsilon. As a result, both geography organizations functioned with occasional joint activities for nine years. Dr. Russell advised both groups.

Persons who travelled in foreign countries presented programs. Student papers and trip reports were read, a variety of field trips were made, and an annual banquet culminated the activities each year. In earlier days banquet speeches were followed by dancing, bridge, pinocle, or "games that were enjoyed by all."

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd and Richard Halliburton, famous adventurers, spoke before the fraternity and were made honorary members. Their signatures in the rollbook are the chapter's prized possessions. Dr. Henry Warman, Professor of Geography, Clark University, a B.S.C. graduate, is another prominent member. A total of 350 students have been members of the local chapter over the past 33 years.

In November, 1951, Dr. William B. Sterling became chapter adviser for 10 years. He was succeeded by Dr. Bruce E. Adams from 1960-62 and by Dr. John Enman in 1962, the present adviser.

Gamma Beta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi was chartered at Bloomsburg State Teachers College on February 21, 1931, as an honorary educational fraternity. In 1932, the designation was officially changed to an honor society in education. The purpose of the organization is to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards, and to recognize outstanding contributions to education.

The foremost contributor to Gamma Beta Chapter was the late Dr. Nell Maupin. She was affiliated with the group as its adviser from its initiation in 1931 to her retirement in the early 1960's. The time, effort, and devotion which Dr. Maupin gave to Kappa Delta Pi are immeasurable. Mr. John Scrimgeour is the current adviser, and is carrying on Dr. Maupin's idealism in the field of teacher education.

*PHI SIGMA
PI*

The Iota Chapter of Phi Sigma Pi was founded on the campus of Bloomsburg State to fulfill a three-point function: Scholarship, Leadership, and Fellowship. In this national honorary fraternity for men who are preparing for the teaching profession, scholarship is emphasized because of its important role in forming a good teacher. Leadership is emphasized because of the need for this qualification in the teaching profession. Fellowship is a requisite, with this fraternity as with all others, because men are dependent upon each other. All activities are planned to further the three main purposes of the organization.

At the professional meetings, held throughout the year, a faculty member or a leader in the community speaks on a topic intended to enrich professional interest and understanding in education. Regular monthly meetings provide time for the transaction of routine business matters. The annual "Battle of the Classes" is a quiz program, sponsored by this fraternity, based on current news events. Outstanding scholars of the four classes compete against one another before the student body for awards and honors.

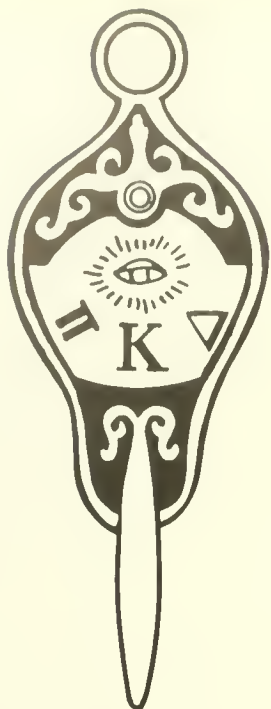

These things, along with participation in Homecoming events and the selection of the Homecoming Queen, dinners, dances, free tutoring service, outings, a book exchange, and a variety of other activities, are all intended to fulfill the objectives of the fraternity and to further the professional growth of the brothers and the student body.

A charter for the Pennsylvania Delta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, Forensic Honor Society, was granted to the debaters of Bloomsburg State College on March 19, 1963. The Bloomsburg Delta Chapter became the second Pennsylvania college, and the 230th chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, which is the largest of the nations collegiate, forensic societies.

The charter members of the chapter were Judith Applegate, Edward A'Zary, Robert Brann, Dean John Hoch, Dr. Melville

Hopkins, William Martin, William Mattern, Raymond Oman, Thomas Peiffer, and Lucy Zablocky. The first president of the fraternity was Raymond Oman.

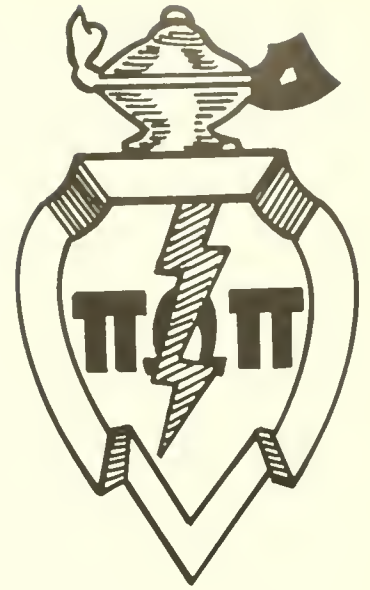

Eligibility for initiation into the Delta chapter include two years of active inter-collegiate debating, a 2.5 average, and demonstration of the qualities of leadership, loyalty, and forensic zeal. The current president is John Nattras, and the faculty adviser is Dr. Melville Hopkins.

SIGMA ALPHA ETA

The Iota Chapter of Sigma Alpha Eta, National Professional Society for Students in Speech and Hearing Rehabilitation, was chartered at Bloomsburg State College on April 8, 1949, by the National Executive Council of Sigma Alpha Eta.

This chapter was one of the first chartered. The society had just begun as a local organization at the Pennsylvania State University in 1947, and was made a national society on April 7 and 8, 1949, by a group of seven eastern colleges meeting in New York City.

Throughout the years the purpose has remained the same: (a) to create and stimulate an interest among college students in the field of clinical speech and hearing; (b) to encourage professional growth by providing learning experiences not offered in the formal course structure; (c) to foster a spirit of unity by coordinating the interests and efforts of persons with a common goal, by offering opportunities for social and professional fellowship, and by providing situations in which students and faculty may work together as a team to advance the profession as a whole; (d) to aid in building wholesome public relations with other college departments and with local organizations interested in knowing about the field of speech and hearing.

By reason of these objectives, it is a professional society, containing four levels of membership—affiliate, associate, key, and honor—so that all interested may benefit, and those outstanding members may be recognized. Sigma Alpha Eta is associated with the American Speech and Hearing Association through the subscription of its members to the Association's Code of Ethics and the joint annual conventions of the two organizations.

The chapter advisers since 1949 have been Dr. Cordeilla Brong, Mrs. Alice Johnston, Dr. Donald F. Maietta, Mr. Samuel Shilling, and Mr. John Eberhart, assistant adviser.

In November, 1961, the Women's Service Society was given official recognition and approval by the Community Government Association. The aim of WSS is "to assemble college women with common interests . . . for the purpose of engaging in a democratic activity."

The members of the newly-constituted Women's Service Society have performed numerous activities, such as serving as ushers, guides, and hostesses for the college community. Caroling and providing favors for trays of hospital guests were among this year's Christmas activities.

W.S.S. endeavors to serve Bloomsburg State College and the greater Bloomsburg community where the organization can inculcate the principles of kind actions and deeds. In this way, the Women's Service Society can best "promote the spirit of service to humanity."

The Radio Club is one of the newest clubs on campus. It was formed late in 1961 by a group of six radio amateurs. The membership climbed to about ten and has remained at about that figure since that time. In 1962 a two-way radio telegraph station was set up with the aid of the faculty adviser, Mr. Shortess. Contacts were made with other shortwave stations throughout Eastern and Central United States and Canada. Mr. Shortess was the only faculty member who had an amateur radio license; therefore, the station was taken off the air in the spring of 1963 when he left Bloomsburg.

Mr. Scarpino became the club adviser in the fall of 1963. Demonstrations and explanations of radio theory and operating practices are the club's main activities. At the present time, the club has no equipment for operation on the air.

The Athenaeum Club was organized and started at Bloomsburg State on December 14, 1915, to enable students to become appreciative of and acquainted with classical music. The programs of the first meetings consisted of biographies of various well-known composers and their works. Enrollment during the first year amounted to fifty students, which insured its continuance as an extra-curricular activity.

The original purpose of the club has since been enlarged to include all forms of contemporary music, and for this purpose membership has been divided into Classical and Popular music divisions.

Activities for this past year included a trip to New York City to attend a Broadway musical. This enlarged the activities of the recently formed popular division.

Commander Walk was the first production presented by the Bloomsburg Players. The organization was formed in 1921 with Miss Johnston as adviser. In 1927, and succeeding years, the players sponsored a Tournament for the public. The annual Children's Theater originated in 1937 and presented a play for the benefit of the town children and the Laboratory School children under the auspices of the PTA. At this time, the club's most significant work was the only one-act production presented for members only—chosen, directed, and acted by the members. In order to be eligible for Bloomsburg Players in earlier years, a prospective member had to meet certain requirements of education, poise, and interpretative ability. Today, a student need only be willing to participate in each production. Miss Johnston continued as the leader of the group until 1953. In 1954-1957, Mr. Boyd Buckingham, a former Player himself, served as adviser. In 1958, Miss Mary E. Homrighous took over, and currently Mr. Richey is the adviser.

"After 1600 points—a free blazer!"

The girls' "B" Club was founded on our campus in September, 1927, under the sponsorship and guidance of Miss Lucy McCammon, with the support of Miss Kathryn Loose and Mr. E. H. Nelson. Prior to 1930, however, the organization went under such names as "Athletic Leaders" and "Letter Girls," its aim being to promote athletics for girls and to promote school spirit at all athletic contests. In addition, the Club assumed responsibility for the organization and promotion of decorations for games, bonfires, pep meetings, trips to other colleges, hikes, fall and spring camp for alumnae, and Homecoming activities. In order to become a member of this association, one needed an accumulation of 600 points—obtained by participating in athletic sports—and an "A" in posture and sportsmanship. Awards ranged from class numerals to the letter "B"; girls then received chevrons for each additional 300 points after receiving a "B".

Today the club has a dual purpose. First, it fosters a spirit of cooperation and sportsmanship and creates a greater interest in athletics as a means toward physical development. Secondly, it provides an opportunity for all college women to participate in team and individual activities of a competitive nature and fosters activities which should contribute to a better use of leisure time, offering such sports as archery, tennis, badminton, golf, ping pong, modern dance, water ballet, field hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball. A $200 scholarship is awarded annually to a worthy recipient in honor of Miss Lucy McCammon.

The Business Education Club, originally known as the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was organized on September 15, 1930, by Dr. Harvey A. Andruss. Dr. Andruss also organized the Business Education Department at the college. All students in the Business Education Department are eligible to join the club. Membership has run as high as 160 active members.

In 1961 the Business Education Club established a Scholarship Award in honor of Professor Walter S. Rygiel, who has been the club sponsor for the past 25 years. The award is presented to the junior with the highest cumulative average who is an active member of the club, and who is in good social standing.

The aims of the club are to develop qualities of leadership, to promote interest in the organization of Business Clubs in high schools, to train teachers in the organization of such clubs, to encourage scholarship, to serve the needs of the Department of Business Education, to furnish means of gaining contact with other schools and associations, to become conversant with modern business methods and systems, and to develop promptness and the ability to accept responsibility.

The Bloomsburg State College Chess Club was initiated September, 1958, by Mr. Calvin Israel. Faculty Adviser, and eight B.S.C. students. The purpose of the club was to provide an opportunity for students to learn chess and to play the game for enjoyment. Competition at that time was only within the club.

In January 1959, William Kuhns, the first president and first team captain, invited Dr. Gilbert Selders to become Faculty Sponsor. There were 12 members at that time. The members participated in two dual matches with Bucknell and one dual match with the college faculty. Intra-club round-robin tournaments were also conducted.

Two years later the Club had grown to 42 members. From this group the best five players constituted the BSC Chess Team. Mr. Thomas Haup was Co-Faculty Adviser and Coach. The Eastern Pennsylvania College Chess League was formed with B.S.C., Lehigh, Muhlenberg, Lafayette, and Kutztown State in 1961. A double round-robin tournament was held in which B.S.C. won third place.

Mr. Mordeci Treblow, a national officer of the U.S. Chess Federation, came to the college in January, 1962, and became Co-Faculty Adviser with Dr. Selders. Since that time, the chess team has been one of the most active in Pennsylvania. The "Husky Rooks" belong to the Eastern Pennsylvania Chess League, along with Lafayette, Lehigh, Muhlenberg, and Franklin and Marshall. Gary Deets, president of the BSC Chess Club and captain of the Chess Team is Vice President of the League. The Team has participated in dual matches with Pennsylvania State University and has been entered in the Pennsylvania Individual Chess Championship, the Association of College Unions Regional Tournament, the Pennsylvania College Team Championship, and the Eastern Intercollegiate Chess Championship.

B.S.C. has pioneered in training team members as sponsors for school and community recreation programs. Kurt Koehler was awarded the first certificate in this capacity last year.

February 9, 1960, saw the first meeting of the Council for Exceptional Children. This organization was initiated by a group of 100 interested Special Education majors. Its purpose is to help students in the Special Education curriculum to gain a better understanding of all exceptionalities from the speech handicapped to the gifted. Dr. Maietta aided the group with their initial plans. He was the first adviser, with two other co-advisers.

Our CEC was the first student chapter in the State of Pennsylvania; therefore, it was named the Alpha Chapter. In the spring of 1960, Bloomsburg's Chapter was asked to install the officers of the newly formed Penn State Chapter. Since that time, the organization has grown. The organization is now planning more activities to help interested students.

A Halloween and Muscular Dystrophy drive was held this year. The main source of income comes from the annual rummage sale at the Winona Firehouse. Profits from this sale are used for programs for the handicapped, such as the spring picnic for the children of Selinsgrove. This year's program consisted of an informal mixer, a talk from the Devereux Foundation, a Christmas party for exceptional children, a movie on the blind, a regional weekend retreat, a panel discussion with several supervisors of Special Education, and numerous other events and field trips.

The Circle K Club of Bloomsburg State was organized in the fall of 1961, and it received its charter from the International Office in Chicago on December 29, 1961. The Charter Night Party was held on January 30, 1962, along with Kiwanis sponsors from Bloomsburg and Berwick.

Circle K is a service organization which serves the college and community. It is open to all college men in good standing with the college. The club has grown from its 15 charter members to its present membership of over 30. In its four years of existence, this club has had the honor of having four of its members hold state offices.

Circle K has many service projects, including ushering, collecting, and selling tickets for the Big-Name Entertainment Committee, presenting an assembly on the New World's Fair, assembly card distribution, holding car washes, and helping at the grandstand concession at the Bloomsburg Fair.

Here Randy and Jim are reading a letter sent to them by a young girl in Lebanon whom the club is supporting.

In its history on campus, the English Club has progressed into an organization that actively promotes the ideals centered around literature and the fine arts. In the past, an annual writing contest had been sponsored. Winners had their work published in the college literary magazine—the OLYMPIAN.

The English Club naturally takes a great interest in the Spring Arts Festival. In 1961 it was fortunate to have as a guest speaker, Dr. Arthur Mizener, noted biographer of F. Scott Fitzgerald. The club hopes to make such occasions annual affairs.

For 1961-1965 the programs centered on the instructional aspects of English. Part of the year was devoted to the newer aspects of our changing field, and part to instruction on the teaching of the poem, short story, and the composition. Supplementary programs featured speakers from the English department faculty. The English Club has remained up-to-date in all aspects of the field of English.

The Forensic Society was organized in 1960 to promote intercollegiate debate at B.S.C. The organization is affiliated with the Debating Association of Pennsylvania Colleges. Dr. Melville Hopkins, director of forensics, is currently serving as president of the state organization.

In the last two years the activities of the club have grown to include participation in 100 decision debates, sponsoring symposiums on the national debate topic, initiating and hosting the Pennsylvania State College Debate Tournament, winning the Edinboro State College Debate Tournament for two successive years, taking second place in the Pennsylvania State College Debate Tournament, and installing the Delta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta at B.S.C.

Membership in the society is open to all members of the college community, regardless of previous debating experience.

Die Deutsche Ecke, the German Club of B.S.C., was organized in 1962 by Dr. Hildegard Pestel and Mr. Howard Fenstemaker. These meetings, which were first located in the old Day Women's Lounge, were held to promote the conversational aspects of the German language.

The purpose of the club is to promote student interest in the German language and especially in the culture of the German people. Meetings are conducted informally in German with little English spoken. The programs include German films and slides, music, speakers on politics, schools, and life in general in both West and East Germany. Informal discussions are held on topics of interest to the members.

In 1963-1964, Dr. Carl Bauer became adviser of the club. One of the main events of this year was a trip to the World's Fair in New York. Mr. Donald Riechel is the present adviser. Die Deutsche Ecke has co-operated with the other foreign language clubs in presenting a foreign language assembly each semester.

Membership in Die Deutsche Ecke is open, not only to German majors, but also to any student interested in the German language and culture.

The International Relations Club of Bloomsburg State College began in 1962 when seven pairs of feet tripped up the stairs—across the street from the Commons—to ask Dr. Barbara Shockley if she would sponsor an “International Relations Club.” “Yes,” came the answer, and ever since the IRC has claim to being the largest extra-curricular activity on campus.

Since 1962, IRC has gathered lists of magazines in BSC and nearby libraries for the IRC “news hounds.” I.R.C. members have contributed Orbis magazine to the college library since 1962. Orbis is published by the Foreign Policy Research Institute of the University of Pennsylvania, and all of its articles are prepared for State Department use.

Each year the organization gives its support and assistance to the B.S.C. Foreign Student Program. It presents a program on United Nations Day and a program on Pan-American Day for assembly. Speakers brought to the campus come from nearly every country in the world. Language specialists often serve as interpreters for visitors to the B.S.C. campus.

Not all I.R.C. members are Social Studies majors or experts in the art and science of diplomacy, but the members aim at gaining an understanding of foreign nations, the U.S. Foreign Policy, and world problems in general.

Le Cercle Français is a revival of the French Club which flourished from 1926 to 1929, and a later Language Club of the 1940's, which disappeared during the lean foreign language years of World War II. Both clubs were under the sponsorship of Mr. Howard F. Fenstermaker, Head of the Department of Foreign Languages, until his retirement in 1963. Mr. Fenstermaker was the entire Foreign Language Department until just a few years prior to 1963. In 1961, under his guidance and Miss Margaret Eggar (a French-speaking Resident Adviser), Le Cercle Français was established in order to provide opportunities for conversation in French and to stimulate interest in the language.

Club activities have included the use of French films, film strips, records, guest speakers, exchange visits with similar groups on near-by campuses, and a French cuisine dinner. Along with the other two language clubs, Le Cercle Français has presented assembly programs, sponsored a trip to the New York World's Fair, and taken part in an International Dinner. This year the club has heard numerous reports from students and faculty who participated in the Bloomsburg Abroad Program in Dijon and Paris last summer. They have also been fortunate in having as a guest, Miss Ghislaine Launay, a young lady from Dijon, who came back with the group and who is living at the home of the club sponsor, Mrs. John, while studying at BSC.

The Spanish Club, or La Estimada Tiga Espanola, was organized only last year to improve the conversational Spanish of all interested students. It is becoming one of the more active organizations at BSC. A Spanish dinner was held during the Christmas season. Many programs of interest are planned for the year.

The primary objectives of the club are to promote and improve Spanish speech among members, and to enable them to learn more about the Spanish culture and customs. Members discuss the different techniques of teaching the language. The club is very highly recommended to all Spanish Education students.

The middle 1920's saw the formation of the Science Club here on the Bloomsburg campus. Professor D. S. Hartline, a former science faculty member, was the club's first sponsor. Upon the retirement of Professor Hartline in 1935, Dr. Kimber C. Kuster was appointed faculty sponsor. He continued as sponsor until his retirement in 1963. Dr. Kuster requested Dr. Harold H. Lanterman as a co-sponsor when he first came to the college in 1916. Dr. Lanterman took over sponsorship of the organization upon Dr. Kuster's retirement. At this time, Mr. Tobias Scarpino became co-sponsor.

The purpose of the club is to promote social fellowship and the cultural exchange of ideas of the members who are majors in the fields of Biological and Physical Science. The bi-monthly programs include addresses by noted speakers in the field of science, demonstrations, films, and excursions to various points of scientific interest.

A Young Women's Christian Association was organized on our campus in 1889. Some time later a Young Men's Christian Association was organized. The Student Christian Association was formed in 1910 by the merging of the YW and the YM. For a number of years, the SCA has sponsored a get-acquainted party for new students in September, and a variety of programs are presented with emphasis on student participation. Members of our SCA represent Bloomsburg at state, regional, and national YM and YW conferences. The Bloomsburg SCA continues its affiliation with the YM and YW and accepts their purpose, which is as follows: "Student Y's, part of a world-wide Christian movement, seek to study and work for rich and full human life and a free and just society. They seek to attract and unite in active fellowship and service persons of all Christian confessions, adherents of other faiths and those who affirm no religious belief. They are committed to encouraging individuals in their search for life purpose to confront the power and relevance of the Christian faith."

In 1948 the Student P.S.E.A. had its beginning under the title of Future Teachers of America, which had been established by the National Education Association. In naming the chapter, Professor Oscar Hugh Bakeless was honored by the organization by the use of his name. In 1960, the title of the organization changed to Student Education Association of Pennsylvania, and again in 1963 it changed the title to Student Pennsylvania State Education Association.

The Oscar Bakeless Chapter is organized to promote professional interests and activities, to foster professional educational standards, and to cement teacher-student relationships. This chapter sponsors various projects for the benefit of the general college community.

The Varsity Club was organized in the late 1940's by the late Mr. Robert B. Redman, who was varsity football coach from 1947 to 1951. Comprised of major award winners in intercollegiate athletics, the Varsity Club has as its primary purpose service to the college and its growing athletic program. In its early years, the Varsity Club sought to discourage students from wearing high school letters on campus.

Coach Harold S. Shelly, former varsity basketball mentor, served a number of years as sponsor of the group. He was succeeded by William F. Foster, now head basketball coach at Rutgers University, who turned over the sponsorship to the club's present adviser, Coach George Wilwohl, when he resigned.

The Veterans' Association of Bloomsburg State College was founded in 1959 with the following purpose in mind: "To further the spirit of fraternal brotherhood enjoyed by the veterans of the military services and to transfer this feeling to civilian life."

Of significance to the members is the fact that the local association is part of the national organization. This group has been an asset to the college and to the community, having participated in many college-sponsored events.

Around 1931 the Bloomsburg State Teachers College cheerleading squad was composed entirely of men. Eight or nine men led the student body in such cheers as "BL" and "Locomotive," and in songs such as "Color Song" and "Old Bloomsburg." The squad was attired in maroon sweaters with white trousers. This group was always assured of a hearty response from an enthusiastic crowd. By 1946, five women formed a cheerleading squad under the guidance of Mr. Walter S. Rygiel. They were dressed in navy skirts and white sweaters. The next year, two men were added to the squad. In 1952, six women were chosen for the squad and since then the squads have been composed entirely of women. In 1963 it was decided that seniors could be able to cheer the squad, so two members of the graduating class became eligible. At present, two members of each class are represented on the cheerleading squad under the able direction of Miss Joanne Comb of the Physical Education Department.

Twenty years ago, in November 1915, the Women's Chorus was formed. In spite of long hours and heavy schedules, the enrollment soon reached 75. The chorus presented a special Christmas program in assembly on December 20 under the capable direction of Miss Harriet Moore; also participating in the program were the Ben Franklin Lab School children. In the spring, a concert was given for the student body. In 1918 a program was organized for a radio concert. At this time the vocal group reached an enrollment high of 120.

Mr. Ralph Fisher directed the group from 1952 until 1951. Mrs. Dorothy Evans became the new director in 1954. At the 11th Annual Conference for Teachers and Administrators during 1958, Mrs. Evans directed a fine choral program. From 1958 until 1960, the Women's Chorus was a segment of the Choraleers. Then a separation in the Choraleers provided for a Men's Glee Club and a Women's Glee Club. Two years later, in 1962, the name was changed to Freshman Girls' Chorus until the group was expanded to include all classes in 1963. It was at this time that the present name of Harmonettes was chosen. On July 27, 1964, Mrs. Dorothy Evans, director for ten years, passed away.

This year enrollment includes eighty girls under the direction of Miss Sylvia Cronin. A Christmas program was presented in conjunction with the other musical groups on campus. The Harmonettes encourage the deeper appreciation of vocal music. The girls prepare for special assembly programs and annual concerts, and performances include musical variety from show tunes to the semi-classical.

The Studio Band had its start in the late 30's. In the early 40's it reached a low ebb and was finally disbanded. In 1962, with the ideas of providing musical entertainment for the college community and re-activating interest in the "BIG BAND SOUND", the Studio Band was refounded.

As the organization grew under the direction of Dr. Carlson, many worthwhile goals were attained. The band has made numerous public appearances: assembly programs for the college community, Wednesday night dances, musical programs presented in the area schools, and appearances on the television show "Varsity."

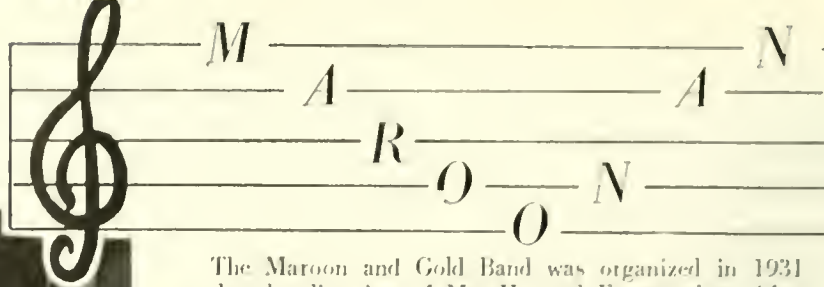

Membership for the Studio Band is based on ability and the desire to attain certain high standards of musical performance.

The Maroon and Gold Band was organized in 1931 under the direction of Mr. Howard Fenstermaker. After two rehearsals, the fifteen members made their first public appearance on the Rotary-Kiwanis program. Three years later the membership of the band increased to twenty-three. At this time the band was fully uniformed in maroon jackets, gold trousers, gold and maroon capes, and maroon hats. The band traveled to two "away" games and supported the football team at every home game. It soon was recognized as a stimulating organization on campus and as a result, it did much to increase school spirit.

In 1938 concerts were given at college events, on radio, and in programs off-campus. Two years later, a concert was given by the band in conjunction with the College Entertainment Course. At this time the band was comprised of 55 members. The following year a twirling unit and color-guard were added. This was the last year the band met formally until after the war. In 1917 the band was reorganized under the sponsorship of Mr. Charles H. Henrie and resumed its responsibility of promoting school spirit. This same year eight of the 35 members were sent to Inter-Collegiate band at Lock Haven.

Many changes and improvements were made as the band grew in size. One of these changes was the appointment of a drum majorette. In 1951, Mr. Nelson Miller assumed direction of the band. Six years later, Dr. Charles Carlson was selected as a co-director. Under the excellent direction of these musicians, the band has flourished. The band was honored to be the host of the Inter-Collegiate Band in 1963 and gave exchange concerts with Millersville in 1964. This year the band is under the direction of Dr. Carlson and has proved to be very talented. As a climax to its activities this year, the band appeared in concert at the Tiporilla Pavilion at the New York World's Fair.

COLLEGE CHORALEERS

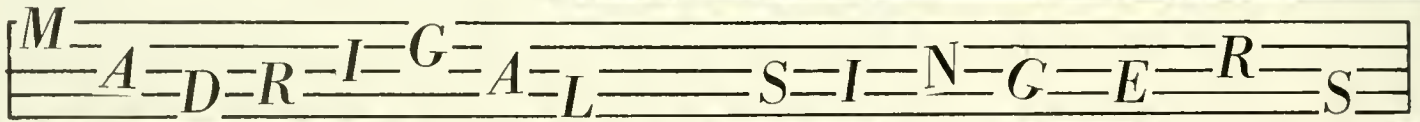

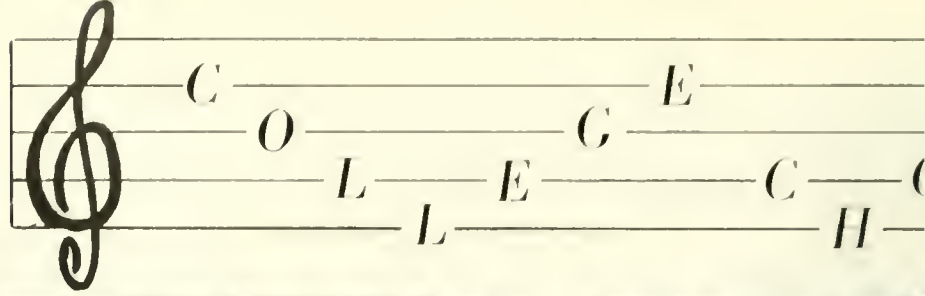

The College Choraleers began in the fall of 1936 under the name of Mixed Chorus. In that year 107 students passed the vocal test required for admission. Out of this group, 36 were chosen as members of an A Cappella choir, the first concert was given at Christmas. In its early years, the Mixed Chorus reached its highest membership of 150 members. They sang "The Heavens are Telling," from the Creation in 1937. In 1941 they performed the famous opera, Martha. In 1943, they sang the patriotic, Song of America. In 1951 the name of the organization was changed to the College Choir and in 1956 to the College Choraleers. Under the direction of Mr. William Decker, the College Choraleers is becoming a more active college organization. A tour to West Hazelton and Central High School, and two performances on campus comprised the Christmas concert season. The Creation was sung at this year's Spring Art's Festival.

MADRIGAL SINGERS

The Madrigal Singers, a fairly new organization, is also under the direction of Mr. William Decker. The group consists of 12 members selected from the Choraleers. Organized four years ago, the Madrigal Singers have performed at many campus activities. In 1961 the group traveled off campus to sing at several community affairs. High hopes exist for many future engagements which will keep the group busy preparing new and more difficult work.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Men's Glee Club was organized by Mr. William Decker in the spring of 1963. Although long ago there was a men's chorus on BSC's campus, it had long since disappeared. For several years there had been no group available exclusively to male singers. The Glee Club has rapidly established itself as a popular campus group. This year the organization has made several off-campus appearances and will continue to do so in the future.

LIBRARY

Miss Keefer, Senior Librarian, demonstrates the Recordak machine to student aides, Pat Horan and Priscilla Bangor.

Student aide, Pat Pizek, checks the circulation files while Sharon Avery and Alana Matter shelf reserve books.

The card catalogue is brought up-to-date by Karen Leffler, Deanna Woolcock, and Christine Teter.

Senior Library Staff Members, Miss Patricia Mosier and Mrs. Martha MacNeal place an order for new volumes.

This is the site for the new library.

CLASS OF 1965!

Slater School and College Services wishes to thank the members of the graduating class for their patronage—to say farewell, good luck, and good health.

Your school's administration realizes that classroom performance often depends on planned nutrition. Through ARA Slater, they have wisely invested in quality food, prepared and served in friendly style.

We hope you have enjoyed Slater meals and service—that mealtime provided a pleasant social break in the day's busy routine. From all of us, good luck and good health in the years ahead!
